

New Orleans Hassle Still No Closer To A Solution

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The new Orleans school integration hassle seemed no closer to solution today, despite U. S. Supreme Court action in smashing the state's legal barriers to integration.

The state legislature in Baton Rouge placed ahead in its fourth attempt to remove the Orleans Parish School Board for accepting federal court orders for token school integration.

Legislators called the high court ruling assinine and ridiculous.

The white boycott held firm at Frantz and McDonough No. 19, the two schools integrated Nov. 14. School officials said they doubted if more than eight pupils would attend Frantz in the near future.

One Negro girl is in the first grade at Frantz. Three Negro girls in the first grade remain the only pupils attending McDonough.

Although the boycott continued to work at the two schools, external evidences of it continued to decline. Only a handful of women huddled in a yard across from the school to watch U. S. deputy marshals escort the eight white and one Negro students to Frantz.

"This was the same number that attended Friday but was considerably below the 23 who went last Tuesday before segregationists stepped up their behind-the-scenes pressure campaign.

Supt. James F. Redmond said he did not expect an attendance increase at Frantz in the near future.

"There are about as many white students in William Frantz School as we're going to see in there for a while," he said.

The embattled five-man school board elected Louis G. Riecke Sr. as president for the next year. Riecke pledged to follow the moderate policies of his predecessor, Lloyd J. Rittiner.

In Washington, the nine Supreme Court justices ruled unanimously against Louisiana's appeal for a stay of a three-court federal court decision Nov. 30 that struck down the state's anti-integration legal arsenal and refused to suspend integration.

Although the court ruling was not directly on the three-judge court's actions, it in effect affirmed them.

Specifically, the judges blasted interposition, a theory under which the state claimed to place itself between the federal court and the people of Louisiana to prevent school integration.

In a four-paragraph unsigned opinion, the judges agreed with the lower court that interposition is unconstitutional and "if taken seriously, it is an illegal defiance of constitutional authority."

The school board said it would ask a court hearing on the three-judge ruling itself.

Gov. Jimmie H. Davis and House Speaker Tom Jewell refused to comment on the ruling. But Rep. Jasper Smith of Caddo Parish in strongly segregationist northern Louisiana said the decision was "ridiculous, stupid and assinine as usual."

A key administration leader, Frank Voelker Jr., chairman of the State Sovereignty Commission, said of the ruling: "Our interposition was not addressed to the Supreme Court, and it was even presumptuous for the court to pass on it."

"I am under instructions from the committee," James said, "not to divulge any testimony that would jeopardize our inquiry."

"I cannot think of any testimony I could give before the Jefferson County district attorney that would not jeopardize our investigation. Therefore I will ask the jury foreman to excuse the district attorney while I am testifying."

The committee voted Friday to conduct a full scale investigation into "a breakdown of law enforcement in Jefferson County" which includes Beaumont and Port Arthur.

At that time, James took a slap at Griffin from Austin where the committee met.

"This is an effort appearing before the grand jury of the district attorney to sweep this entire matter under the rug of grand jury secrecy. This is an old bush-league trick. And I don't think the grand jury will cooperate with those public officials in that effort."

Meanwhile, committee general counsel David Witts of Dallas was going over last-minute plans for James' appearance.

"I've talked to cab drivers, newsboys, and just about everybody," Witts said, "and they all without variance said that gambling, open saloons and prostitution had been going on in Beaumont ever since they could remember. And one of the cab drivers was 35 years old."

Witts declined to say as to exactly how the investigation was carried on because a "possible leak about the investigation into high powered crime, which Beaumont has is lethal."

He did say that three to five undercover men from the intelligence division of the Texas Department of Public Safety handled the work.

Except for going under cover for about five or six days, Witts said he lets the TDPDS handle the investigation, since "they know what they're doing. I left the details solely to their judgment."

Solon Won't Talk Before Jefferson DA

DALLAS (AP)—Rep. Tom James said here Monday that when he goes before the Jefferson County Grand Jury today he will ask that the county district attorney be excused from hearing his testimony about vice and a breakdown of law enforcement in Beaumont.

The state legislator from Dallas, who heads the House Investigating Committee and will appear on its behalf, told newsmen that if Dist. Atty. Hamie Griffin is not asked to resign, he will withhold some of his testimony.

"I am under instructions from the committee," James said, "not to divulge any testimony that would jeopardize our inquiry."

Republicans Lose Two Ballot Tests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Republicans have lost court tests in their attempts to overturn President-elect John F. Kennedy's winning margins in Illinois and Texas. At the same time official returns from all but three states cut still further Kennedy's popular vote edge over Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

New York's official canvass Monday showed 20,869 votes from the Kennedy total, completed an officially right after the Nov. 3 election that gave Kennedy a nationwide popular vote margin over Nixon of 114,839, out of more than 68 million votes cast. The margin has not been that low since early in the vote counting on election night.

Only Illinois, Massachusetts and Rhode Island have not yet reported official vote counts. As they stand now, the popular vote totals are Kennedy 34,220,864 and Nixon 34,035,365. Kennedy still is credited with 300 electoral votes, however, 31 more than the 269 minimum needed to win.

In another development, unpledged electors from Mississippi and Alabama met in Jackson, Miss., and said they would vote for Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., for president if they were given Southern states to join their cause, hoping to throw the election into the House of Representatives. It is considered very unlikely that this will happen.

There was no immediate comment from Byrd, who supported neither presidential candidate in the campaign.

The eight unpledged electors from Mississippi and the six from Alabama have not been counted either way in determining Kennedy's electoral vote total of 300.

In Texas, which has 24 electoral votes, U. S. Dist. Court Judge Ben C. Connally ruled that his court had no jurisdiction to rule on the Republican challenge of the election result. He also said there was no proof that anyone's rights had been violated when thousands of

Hodges In Visit With Sec. Mueller

WASHINGTON (AP)—Carrying a handbook on the vast Commerce Department and warning his usual white carnation, Gov. Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina visited Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller today for an intensive briefing session.

Hodges will take over the department from Mueller next month. President-elect John F. Kennedy chose him to be secretary.

The handbook he carried was prepared on Mueller's orders, so the governor could familiarize himself with the department's offices, bureaus, and administrations. Separate handbooks on each bureau were ready for him, too.

More Outbursts Feared In Algiers

By ADREW BOROWICZ

ALGIERS (AP)—Moslems in this riot-torn city began burying their dead today, raising threats of new emotional outbursts after four days of bloody violence.

School officials said 30 persons had died and hundreds were injured.

French troops familiar with Arab emotionalism were tense and ready. Riot police ringed the Moslem quarter, the storied Casbah.

To the east, French President Charles de Gaulle prepared to wind up a visit to Algeria that got off rioting by Europeans who are savagely opposed to his policy of self-determination for the country's nine million Moslems.

The cue his trip short by one day, giving no reason, and is due to return to Paris early this evening. There were reports that he would make a radio address, but no confirmation could be obtained.

Of the 90 dead here and in Oran 84 were Moslems, and officials feared their funerals might touch off new violence as the city lashed back toward normalcy.

More bodies might be found in the cashab and crowded suburbs where 25,000 French troops with tanks and armored cars stood ready to smash any violence.

A government spokesman said many of the Moslems who died were killed by rifle fire from troops.

At least 18 were stabbed to death, he said, and 7 died of slashed throats. Investigation did show 25 died of bullet wounds, he said.

This supports the French contention, he said, that many of the Moslems died fighting other Moslems. Some of the dead, the government said, were pro-French.

Buses were running this morning, stores opened, and all was quiet in Algiers' European section.

tion. In Oran, Algeria's second largest city where six persons were killed, calm also prevailed.

The overrunning part of the bloodbath took place in Algiers, nerve center of fanatical Moslem nationalism and of desperate, uncompromising European agitation to keep Algeria French.

Says Crewmen Were Absent

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—The breach operator of the eight-inch bowitzer which killed 17 U. S. soldiers at Grafenwoehr training area Sept. 2 testified today several men were absent from the normal 20-man gun crew at the time of the accident.

Pfc. Larry Wallace said "several men weren't there to take their jobs."

He testified at the second day of the general court-martial of 2nd Lt. Mark F. Kempf, 24, of San Antonio, Tex., on charges of negligent homicide. Kempf was safety officer at the gun that fired the round.

Other witnesses testified that two types of charges are used with bowitzers, known as white bag and green bag charges.

The green bag contains five charges, the white has five to seven charges.

The prosecution contends that somebody failed to remove two extra charges from the white bag, resulting in a fatal overshoot which hit a tent camp killing 17 and injuring 26.

One powder man, Pfc. Raymond R. Riggs, 20, of New Iberia, La., and 1st Lt. George L. O'Grady, 26, of Arlington, Va., battery executive officer, will be tried on negligent homicide charges, following the Kempf hearings.

Rusk Takes Cut In Pay

NEW YORK (AP)—Dean Rusk apparently will take a cut in salary when he takes over as secretary of state in the Kennedy administration.

"It's tough on him but good for the country," one of Rusk's fellow officers at the Rockefeller Foundation said Monday night.

Rusk, as president of the foundation, received a reported salary of $50,000 to $75,000 a year. Foundation officials said the salary is confidential.

His salary as secretary of state pays only $25,000 a year. The State Department, however, pays for the secretary's official entertaining.

No consideration has been given yet to the selection of Rusk's successor at the philanthropic foundation.

Rig Fire Reported In Monahans Field

MONAHANS, Texas (AP)—A fire broke out today at the B. L. McFarland Co. rig in the Love-Monahans oil field, eight miles northeast of here. The cause was not immediately known.

Special fire fighting equipment was summoned from Odessa, but icy roads delayed its arrival.

2 Sentenced To Prison

Two men were sentenced to the state penitentiary in 132nd District Court on pleas of guilty before District Judge Sterling Williams.

The case was brought by one of the attorneys representing the state, Gordon William Chandler, who gave his home as Canada, was given 3-year sentences in each of 9 counts of forgery with the terms to run concurrently.

Manuel Brito of Lubbock was sentenced to 3 years in the penitentiary after he pleaded guilty to burglarizing a service station in Hemeleigh. Judge Williams appointed Dickie as attorney for Brito.

Verdict Returned In Civil Suit Here

A 132nd District Court jury, composed of 3 women and 9 men, found Monday afternoon that W. W. Henson, claiming permanent disability compensation against the Bituminous Casualty Corp., had suffered total disability for 26 weeks and partial disability for 26 more weeks.

Permanent disability would have been 401 weeks at $35 per week.

Henson had been injured while working for a well-servicing firm near Ira. He was represented by J. B. Cotton, Jr. of Odessa.

Attorneys for the defendant company were James Rosser of Snyder and Walter Pope Jr. and Les Cochran of the firm of Smith and Pope of Abilene.

Members of the jury were G. W. Hicks, Cullen Tombs, Nolan von Roeder, Mrs. Dillard Pope, Leiland Herod, Nathan Wade, Jess Everett, Mrs. Paul Kotton, Cecil Jordan, Louise McCarty, Howard Hogue, and Kenneth Cole.

SALAD SUPPER—After a meal of every kind of delicious salads imaginable these ladies of AAUW and Delta Gamma and their guests settled back for an unusual program on Christmas in other lands. Programs were in book form with gayly decorated covers in holiday design.

Delta Kappa Gamma Chapter And AAUW Hold Joint Meet

The Delta Kappa Gamma and American Association for University Women held a joint salad supper and Christmas program Monday evening in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church. Theme of the program was "Christmas in Many Lands."

Tables were decorated to depict various lands with each table having a speaker who told of the different laurals on Christmas from the country in which she represented. They included: Mrs. Prentiss Glass, England; Patsy Hale, Germany; Mary Lou Devenport, Holland; Leota Burris, Russia; Annie Belle Heush, China; Olivia Bohannon, Palestine; Delia McPherson, Mexico; and the breaking of the pingat; and Lida Rhoades who told of "Sant Is Coming To Town" in the United States.

Group singing of various Christmas songs followed each speaker. Invocation was given by Mrs. Olivia Bohannon. Due to weather conditions, Lorraine and Colorado members were unable to attend.

Hostesses for the evening were: Mrs. Alene Stephens, Mrs. Margene McCollum, Mrs. Lillian Jones, Miss Zaida Brown, Mrs. Laura Holladay and Miss Vela Bell.

Beta Epsilon members present were: Mrs. Ruby Anderson, Miss Vela Bell, Mrs. Maurysse Blacklock, Miss Zaida Brown, Miss Maydelle Burns, Mrs. Leota Burris, Mrs. Rita Carter, Miss Mary Lou Devenport, Mrs. Mary Devenport, Miss Virginia Grove, Mrs. Hazel Hanback, Miss Annie Belle Henschel, Mrs. Laura Holladay, Mrs. Lillian Jones, Mrs. Agnes Kunkel, Mrs. Margene McCollum, Mrs. Delia McPherson, Miss Vestal Maner, Mrs. Sallie O'Rear, Mrs. Lida Rhoades, and Mrs. Alene Stephens.

AAUW members included Mrs. J. M. Glass, Miss Vela Bell, Mrs. Irene Winter, Mrs. Glen Holladay, Mrs. Forrest Beavers, Miss Patsy Hale, Mrs. Joe Bohannon, Mrs. Travis Rhoades and Miss Patsy Aaron.

Guests were Mrs. Ted Zeck, Mrs. Jim Wadleigh, Mrs. Eupha Shield, Mrs. Hazel Buswell, Mrs. Wraymond Sims, and Mrs. Dillard Pope.

The promise is in the form of a flashlight not much bigger than a lipstick.

Other uses for the petite purse-light include reading programs or deciphering scribbled addresses in the darkness.

The diminutive light was designed to be carried in a lady's handbag with her other toiletry items.

The only catch is once she has it in there, she will need another flashlight to find it again.

James Hoffa, Bridges Unite In New Blast

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Two powerful independent labor leaders—James Hoffa of the Teamsters and Harry Bridges of the West Coast Longshoremen—declared war Monday night on what they called government attempts to plague organized labor. They trained their verbal guns on the Landrum-Griffin labor law and the U. S. Senate Labor-Management Committee at a joint meeting of their unions' membership in Civic Auditorium. "Hoffa and I are committed to unity and action," Bridges declared. "We can't worry about the McClellans, Kennedys, politicians and employers, we've got to fight."

Farm Bureau Hits Labor Practices

By OVID A. MARTIN DENVER, Colo. (AP) — The American Farm Bureau Federation convention struck today at what it called "monopolistic practices of organized labor and criticized moves of some unions to organize farmers. Several members of the Resolutions Committee predicted the day will come—and perhaps soon—when organized agriculture's "biggest battle" will be to head off unionization efforts in the farm field. "The methods and procedures authorized for labor unions are unworkable when applied to the marketing and pricing of farm products," the resolutions said. As to farm policy, the resolutions stuck pretty closely to those adopted a year ago. They call for a minimum of government intervention in agriculture—or a continuation of farm programs advanced by President-elect John F. Kennedy. The Kennedy program—which Shuman predicted Congress will reject—would impose rigid production and supply controls on farm products and raise price supports as major devices for eliminating troublesome farm surpluses and raising farm income, he said.

Farmers Voting On Quotas Today

By RICHARD P. POWERS WASHINGTON (AP) — Cotton and rice farmers vote in referendum today to determine whether they favor continuation of marketing quotas and higher price supports for the 1961 crop. Agriculture Department experts say there is every indication the farmers will vote by more than the required two-thirds majority for continuation of the program. Upland cotton farmers in 19 states who have cotton acreage allotments are eligible to vote. In recent years, the allotment program has been supported by more than 90 per cent of those voting. The cotton program for 1961 goes back to the old system and will not continue the elective program in effect in 1959 and 1960. During these two years cotton farmers could elect an "A" or "B" program. Under the first, farmers stayed within their acreage allotments but received a higher price support. Under the "B" program, they could increase their acreage by 40 per cent, but receive a lower level of price supports.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has not yet set the support price to be in effect for 1961 if the program is approved. However, if voted down, the price supports would drop to 50 per cent of parity. Even this level of supports would be available only to those cotton farmers who stay within their allotments. The cotton price props for 1960 are about 75 per cent of parity. The cotton situation has improved during the last few years, primarily because of heavy exports. The domestic consumption has held to a good level. The cotton carryover on July 1 was about 7.5 million bales. This was in contrast to the carryover of about 14.5 million bales some four or five years ago. Farmers growing extra long staple cotton, primarily on irrigated lands, also vote today on whether to continue the support program on that crop. Rice farmers are concentrated primarily in South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, California and Arkansas. They have an acreage allotment for 1961 of about 1,600,000 acres, which will be in effect also for 1961. Rice farmers received support of about 75 per cent of parity for the 1960 crop. Benson has not yet announced the support for 1961 but it is expected to be near the same level.

Extensions Are Used Up

AUSTIN (AP) — Agriculture Commissioner John White says farmers in 48 counties can count on no further general extensions of the cotton plow-up deadline. The deadline in the pink boll worm control program is midnight Thursday. Individuals can arrange extensions by contacting the Texas Department of Agriculture or any of its inspectors and supervisors. The affected counties are Bastrop, Caldwell, Comal, Guadalupe, Hays, Lee, Travis, Williamson, Austin, Brazoria, Chambers, Colorado, Fayette, Fort Bend, Galveston, Gonzales, Harris, Jefferson, Lavaca, Liberty, Matagorda, Orange, Waller, Washington, Wharton, Hood, Johnson, Ellis, Somerville, Bosque, Hill, Navarro, Hamilton, Lampasas, Coryell, McLennan, Limestone, Froststone, Henderson, Anderson, Smith, Cherokee, Rusk, Nacogdoches, Panola, Shelby, Sabine and San Augustine.

Mrs. Kennedy Settled To Recuperate

By FRANCES LEWINE PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy settled down to a secluded recuperation-vacation with her two children today, with time to think about her forthcoming role as first lady. Her husband, President-elect John F. Kennedy, was back at work in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Kennedy, enjoying her first days out of the hospital since the birth of her son, stayed out of the spotlight of her husband's activities here. So far she has not left the grounds of the Kennedy family home on the ocean front. Her new son, John Jr., is progressing well. Her daughter, Caroline, 3, enjoyed a swim in the surf with her father Monday morning. An announcement was made Monday that Mrs. Kennedy has chosen her gowns for the inaugural festivities. Famous American designer Oleg Cassini of New York is designing the gown she will wear Jan. 19 to the inaugural gala, an evening of entertainment preceding the inauguration of her husband. For the inaugural ball, Mrs. Kennedy will wear a gown created for her by Bergdorf Goodman, New York specialty shop. No details of any of the gowns were given out here. But Cassini, reached in his New York offices, said he had "an okay for five evening dresses for the new first lady. He was surprised and delighted she was going to wear one of the gowns he will make for Mrs. Kennedy include a new straw lace and gros de Londres in pink and white, a brocaded organza in mandarin orange, a white satin—"almost a sheath dress"—and a black velvet. Designing for Mrs. Kennedy is an opportunity "to design for the critical eye of the world, (and) is the greatest thing that happened in my career," commented Cassini.

Slippery Escapee In Second Success

PIEDMONT, Calif. (AP) — "Have your escapee George Collins, 50, in jail here. Come get him," Police Chief William Pflaum wired Chino Prison officials Thursday. But Monday morning the chief discovered that Collins Sunday night had fashioned a pick from a jail bed spring, unlocked his cell door, unlocked the cell next door but the two sleepers in it never awoke, placed the lock pick in a captain's office, and walked out. "Don't come for Collins," the chief wired Chino. "He's gone."

JFK Avoiding Controversy In Cabinet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy has gone about picking a Cabinet like a man determined to avoid a brawl before he has a chance to start his presidency.

One of his first Cabinet appointments so far is a controversial figure. None therefore is likely to get much opposition or criticism from liberals or conservatives in the new Congress next year—at least in the beginning.

Kennedy filled the spot which could have caused the biggest rumpus with an adroit but non-spectacular figure—Dean Rusk, head of the Rockefeller Foundation, as secretary of State.

Rusk in the past held several government jobs—the highest as assistant secretary of State for Far Eastern affairs under President Truman—but handled himself unobtrusively. To the public he was generally unknown.

He had to be adroit to be on that Far Eastern desk in 1950 and come through unscathed when Sen. Joseph McCarthy was belaboring the State Department for its handling of Far Eastern affairs, particularly in China.

Rusk is esteemed for brains by people who know him. Since he's a quiet operator, he and Kennedy will have the advantage of starting out in foreign affairs with at least a period of peace and quiet.

He'll get his share of brickbats later, which is par for the course for secretaries of State.

The story would have been different if Kennedy had given the No. 1 foreign policy job to Adlai E. Stevenson, who is a hero to some.

The slot Kennedy picked for Stevenson—ambassador to the United Nations—can hardly cause a fire in Congress or elsewhere. In the United Nations Stevenson will not be making American foreign policy. He'll just be expressing it.

Kennedy reportedly had considered several men for the job he finally gave Rusk: Stevenson, Chester Bowles and Sen. William Fulbright, Arkansas Democrat, among others.

Apparently he did his greatest soul-searching in the case of Bowles. Monday, he gave Bowles the State Department's No. 1 job as undersecretary, which puts him at Rusk's right hand.

Bowles, a liberal, a Connecticut congressman and former governor, had a fine record as ambassador to India under Truman and as administrator of the Office of Price Administration during the war.

He was Kennedy's foreign policy advisor during the presidential campaign. But his part in shaping the liberal Democratic platform far from endeared him to some of the conservative members of his party.

There might have been some sharpshooters at him right from the start if Kennedy had named him secretary instead of the non-controversial Rusk. As undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Stewart L. Udall, Democratic congressman from Arizona as secretary of the Interior; and North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges as secretary of Commerce.

All three of them, like Bowles, were active Kennedy supporters during the campaign. Still Kennedy can't be accused of picking his key men to pay off political debts.

Kennedy said Monday he had never met Rusk until last week and David Elliott Bell, a Harvard economist whom Kennedy named budget director, didn't take an active part in the campaign and hardly knew the president-elect.

retary Bowles will be in a position to move up if Rusk ever leaves.

None of Kennedy's other three Cabinet appointees has been in any broad public dispute and has no backing of ill will to carry into his new job with him.

Those three are Connecticut Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; Stewart L. Udall, Democratic congressman from Arizona as secretary of the Interior; and North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges as secretary of Commerce.

Jail Break Tries Fail

FORT WORTH (AP) — Three men and three women failed in separate jail breaks here Monday night, injuring a guard and a man.

J. D. Crane, county jail guard, was slugged in a fifth floor cell when he investigated a fake fight.

The Snyder (Texas) Daily News, Tues., Dec. 13, 1960

Prisoners Bobbie Ray McDonald, W. P. Damsis and a third man obtained a saw and tried to cut through a window. Another guard rescued Crane and summoned officers who quelled the break.

Near midnight five hours later three women tried to break from their third story cell. They stabbed matron Lilly Hillard with an ice pick and slashed her face with a butcher knife.

One of the women was Shirley Mae McDonald, 22, wife of the captive who failed in the earlier break. The others were listed as Sharon Schreck, 21, and Mary Brown, 28.

The women ran to the fifth floor where guard C. W. Flowers subdued and captured them.

Mrs. Hillard was reported in a fair condition.

Suspect In Drownings Pleads Guilty

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Floyd A. Holzapfel, 36, an ex-convict, has pleaded guilty to the drowning of Circuit Judge Curtis E. Chillingworth and his wife, Marjorie, five years ago.

Judge Russell O. Morrow took the unusual action of hearing Holzapfel's case Monday without a jury and said he will hear additional testimony in Circuit Court on Feb. 20.

The judge warned the former college debater that he could be sentenced to death in the electric chair.

"I'm willing to stand up here and plead guilty and take my medicine," he replied.

Holzapfel confessed last month that he and a Negro, George Lincoln, kidnaped the veteran judge Chillingworth, 56, and his wife from their home and drowned them on the night of June 14, 1955.

The former Oklahoma City man, who has a record of arrests for bookmaking, armed robbery and attempted rape, said he and Lincoln were paid $2,000 for the killings by Joseph A. Peel Jr., 36, who feared Chillingworth would have him disbarred.

Peel, a former city judge, was charged as an accessory before the killings and pleaded innocent. Peel will have a hearing Thursday.

Bodies of the Chillingworths were never recovered.

Tigers To Host Bobcats Tonight

Tilt Set For 8 O'Clock In Tiger Gym

Snyder's Tigers, hungry for competition following cancellation of two early season games, will be afforded a goodly portion of same here in Tiger Gym tonight as they take on the highly respected San Angelo Bobcats in an 8 o'clock cage clash.

It represents the first home game of the year for the Bengal five of Coach J. P. Ward, who stand 1-1 after an opening loss to Brownfield and a rebound win over Big Spring. Preceding the varsity "go" will be a "B" game matching the two schools at 6:15. The Tiger "B" is winless in its two early outings against Brownfield and Big Spring.

In San Angelo the Bengals will face one of the stronger area delegations. The 2-4A powerhouse is currently 8-3 for the year, and what is even more important is that they're coddling a four-game winning streak at present and are fresh from winning their own invitational tournament the past weekend. Last year saw the Bad Cats handing Snyder two of its more humiliating losses of the season by scores of 84-34 and 82-47.

Coach Ward has indicated that he plans to start Charlie Gladson and Jimmy Don Robinson at the double post positions, Travis Hatter at forward, and Bubba Fleming and Weldon Ware at the guards.

Ware is the team's leading scorer with 27 points total in the two games to date.

Snyder will be hurting in the height department when it faces the Cats, with Gladson at 6-3 being the only "tall" starter taking the floor for the team.

On the other hand, Angelo coach Bill Humphrey will have a wealth of skyscraper talent from which to choose, with "the Boys" being 6-6 Frank Drones and 6-7 Carroll Kellers. Other potential starters include Bud Ewing (6-7), Dave Dorris (6-3 1/2), William Sines (6-1), and Roy Franklin (6-0).

Franklin is back in the saddle following a bout with the flu and is one of the leading scorers of the team with a 14.5 point average per game. Ewing is the leading scorer of the Bobcats with 159 points, followed by Drones with a total of 149.

Dorris, Sines and Ewing each were honored by being named to the all-tournament team named from the past week's Angelo Invitational.

The Angelenos whipped the surprise team of the tournament, Big Spring, by 75-57 in the finals of the meet after romping past Del Rio, 86-36, and Odessa Ector, 65-45.

The Tigers utilized a highly productive first half to down the same Big Spring club by 59-43 in play of the past Tuesday.

Tiger "B" Coach V. V. Shearburn will field a starting five composed of James Sellers at the post, Tommy Cooper and Larry McNear at forwards, and Gilbert Hinojos and Tim Marcum at guards.

The Angelo Bees, led by 6-2 Minton White, who has tallied 128 points for the year, are undefeated for the season with a record of 8-0.

YOUNG YELLERS—Spurring the Snyder Tigers on in their quest for a home opening win tonight against San Angelo is this quartet of pretties. Starting at the top and reading like unto a clock are cheerleaders Chere Phillips, Jan Vestal, Fran Martin, Janell Free, and Mary Clare Peebles. (Photo by Jackson)

BRIBES, PAYOFFS, SHENANIGANS...

Former Champ Submits Testimony In Hearings

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators call Frank (Blinky) Palermo and Sonny Liston, top contender for the heavyweight championship, for quizzing today in hearings on mobster influence on boxing.

Palermo, a Philadelphia racketeer figure, gets a chance to answer testimony by former lightweight champion Ike Williams that Palermo had relayed bribe offers totaling more than $100,000 to throw fights. Palermo was his manager at the time.

The Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee, conducting the inquiry, has heard testimony that mobsters grab off a 10 percent share of Liston's earnings. The subcommittee indicated in advance its members want to find out whether Liston knows anything about this.

Liston's manager, Joseph P.

(Pepi) Barone of Allentown, Pa., is reported to be ill in an Allentown hospital to testify. The investigators have heard St. Louis police testimony that 52 per cent of Liston's ring earnings go to New York gangster Frankie Carbo, 12 per cent to Fifth Amendment pleading St. Louis hoodlum John J. Vitale, and 12 per cent to Palermo.

Liston launched his ring career after receiving a parole from prison, where he was serving a term for armed robbery.

Williams, now 20 pounds heavier than when he ruled the 135-pound division from 1945-51, testified Palermo had reported that someone—he did not identify the other party—had offered big money to throw fights with Jimmy Carter, Kid Gavilan, Freddie Dawson and Juste Fontaine.

Subcommittee Chairman Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., suggested that on looking back, Williams could feel better because he resisted temptation.

"I do not, senator," Williams persisted. "I do not."

Since then, Williams tentatively recalled, a lot of friends had not wanted to disappoint had run out on him.

Now taking home $92.97 every other week from his job as a warehouseman for the State of New Jersey, Williams estimated that in the ring, "give or take a few thousand, I made a million dollars."

The former champ, now 37, whose identity had been concealed before he testified, said he never saw a penny of $65,000 in purses for two title matches in 1948. Palermo carried it before he could get his hands on it, Williams said.

In bitter words, Bernie Glickman of Chicago, who managed former welterweight champion Virgil Atkins, testified his rise to prominence followed the start of a long association with Carbo.

He denied vigorously, however, that he ever was controlled by Carbo, as alleged by a previous witness, Truman Gibson, former president of James D. Norris' International Boxing Club.

"He is a plain, simple liar," Glickman snapped when asked about Gibson's testimony.

Glickman said he had entered the boxing business "as a hobby, but it wound up destroying me."

"Everyone thinks I'm a hoodlum and a crook," he lamented at another point.

Glickman said he had attempted to use Carbo's influence because he believed Carbo "had a pipeline" to Norris. He said more than 40 of his boxers were featured on Norris-promoted fights but that looking back now he is sure "I took the wrong way."

Rigney Moves In To Head Up LA Club

LOS ANGELES (AP) — San Francisco didn't want him, but Los Angeles has signed volatile Bill Rigney to manage its American League baseball team in 1961.

Rigney, deposed by the Giants midway in the 1960 season, signed a one-year contract with the Angels Monday. He and Gen. Mgr. Fred Haney flew today to the American League draft meeting in Boston to get a few bloopers.

Haney said nobody had signed. But veteran catcher Del Rice, who played with the St. Louis Cardinals and with Haney in Milwaukee, said in Centralia, Ill., that Haney had asked him to serve as catcher-coach.

Haney said he had made a contingent offer to Rice "before I was appointed general manager of the Angels," but he left no doubt that he wanted Rice.

"I also have talked to Red Schoendienst," said Haney. Milwaukee released Schoendienst, and St. Louis offered him a contract, but Haney indicated he hopes to land the ex-Cardinal second baseman.

Steve Bilko, a prodigious hitter with Los Angeles in the Pacific Coast League, may be approached by the Angel management after the draft meeting. Haney declined comment, saying Bilko is the property of Denver.

Another ex-Los Angeles player, Carl Furillo, released last season by the Dodgers, may be offered a tryout by the Angels. Furillo, 39, was forced out of action last year by an injury. It is problematical whether he could effect comeback.

Rhode Island has 50 free farms, covering 7,821 acres.

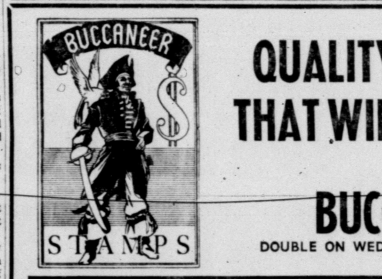

Suriname, formerly Dutch Guiana, South America, is entirely free from hay fever.

Lincoln Taking Trek

On the road tonight for a pair of games in Slaton are the Lincoln High Trojans and Trojanettes.

Both the Trojans of Coach Calvin Edwards and Mrs. Elizabeth Grandison's Trojanettes are winless in two outings for the year, with Lubbock Dunbar and Sweetwater turning the trick in a pair of early cage doubleheaders.

The girls game has a tipoff time of 7:30, and the boys encounter will get underway immediately following that battle.

'Bama Scant One Point Favorite

By CHARLES H. GREEN

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The University of Alabama is a one-point favorite to beat the University of Texas in the second Bluebonnet Bowl football game here Saturday.

The bowls, which oddsmakers have established as the closest of the post season matches, starts at 1 p.m. (CST) and will be televised nationally. Officials expect a sellout in Rice's 70,000 seat stadium.

The meeting of Darrell Royal of Texas and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama—old coaching chums—figures to be a defensive battle between strong defenses and could easily be decided by a kicker's toe.

Royal's Longhorns lost two games this season on field goals and Alabama closed out its regular season with a 3-0 win over Auburn. The score in Texas's final Southwest Conference game was more like baseball: Texas 3, Texas Christian 2.

Both teams have backs who can pick up long, quick yardage, but mostly Bama and Texas are defensive teams.

Only once in the past 15 years has a Texas team held the opposition to less yardage than this year. This season Longhorn fans made 2,144 yards. In 1949 the "Horns held" the other teams to 2,060 yards.

This edition of the Longhorns lost three games by a total of nine points. In 1949, Texas lost four games by 10 points.

Bryant has always liked the defense, and his Alabama team will start Saturday's game with an edge in total offense and defense.

While building an 8-1 record this season, the Tide made 2,814 yards and gave up only 1,576. Texas earned 2,520 yards.

Only 75 points were scored against the Longhorns this season, the lowest Texas point yield since 1948. The Steers allowed 74 points in 11 games that year—67 in regular season play and seven in the Sugar Bowl game, where Texas beat Alabama, 27-7.

'Holub Day' Proclaimed

LUBBOCK, Dec. 12—"E. J. Holub Day" will be observed by the City of Lubbock Monday, Dec. 19, Mayor David C. Casey announced today.

Holub, Texas Tech's first major All-America First team selection for his play at center, will be especially honored at halftime of the Vanderbilt-Texas Tech basketball game here that night. Certificates symbolic of the more than a dozen first team honors he won this fall will be presented there.

Junior High Fives Drop 4; Take Pair

Another rough evening was had by Snyder junior high cage teams last night, as they failed to crawl over the 500 mark for the second playing night running.

Travis 9th helped to salvage a bit of prestige against Big Spring Goliad, as that team leaped out to commanding first quarter and half-time leads of 15-4 and 21-6, then coasted home to the win as reserves took over and held the visitors in check through the second half to post a 47-31 victory.

Roy Rice was the big gun in the Blue Devil barrage, hitting for 16 points and grabbing off 14 rebounds to lead in both departments. Bunched behind him in the scoring column were the other four starters—Jolie Stewart with 8, Billy Stewart with 7, Rex Akin with 6, and Ygnacio Benitez with 4—while first-liners Robert Thomas and Jerry Rose each contributed two to the cause to cap off a 23-25 win over the local five.

Trailing by 11-14 at halftime, the Blue Devils came back to go ahead during second half play only to lose out in the fading moments of the contest.

Sprinkle-like M. A. v. i. n. Mayfield scooted to high point honors for the game with a dozen, although pressed by teammate Larry Duran, who had 10. Little Mack Gaylean had one free throw for the other Travis point of the game.

Simon Terrazas dropped in a total of 8 to top the Goliad effort. Travis managed to keep close at the free throw line, where the team had a composite of 7 successful loftings in 16 attempts for a 44 per cent average.

Other Lamar point production included that of Sterling Kessler and Edward Schulz with 6 each and Bennie Minor and Gale Potter with 4 apiece.

Lamar 7th was whopped by 44-18 in other action of the night, as a district height disadvantage proved to be too much to successfully combat.

Juare of Rummels paced the scoring for the game with 12 points. Deadlocked with five each for the Texans were Kenneth Deike and Roy and Ray Kizer. Bill Blum had 2 and David Holt 1 to complete the point output for the losers.

A GRID LEGEND?

Gravitt Myth Multiplying

DENVER CITY, Tex. (AP)—In this bustling little town out in the West Texas plains country is a snowman dressed in football uniform with the number 77 on the back.

Everybody who sees the snowman knows who it represents. Why, it's Bert Gravitt, already a football legend.

That number has been flashing over Texas gridirons in a touchdown avalanche as the 190-pound Gravitt led Denver City High School into the state finals, undefeated and untied in 14 games.

The college scouts are camping on the Gravitt doorstep, Oklahoma reportedly claims it has the inside track. Gravitt took occasion to say, the other day, that it didn't although he and his twin brother, Bill, an all-state tackle, are natives of Oklahoma and have been living here only 10 years.

Army also is in the picture—the brothers may get appointments. Texas Tech is waging a strong fight for the Gravitts. Just about every college that has a football team is after them.

No wonder. Bert has scored 321 points. He has carried the ball for 2,297 yards and passed for 436 and eight touchdowns. His team has scored 693 points, which is slightly more than twice as many points as Gravitt has raked in alone.

Bert is 17 years old, will be eighteen Christmas Eve. He is a senior but must have a track season before completing his high school eligibility. Brother Bill is 6-2, weighs 205 pounds, does the kicking for the team with a 40-yard average and plays a terrific game on defense.

It was because Bill made all-state last year that Bert became such a great football player. There is a lot of friendly rivalry between the two and Bert said "If Bill can do it I can, too."

So Bert really began to play football this season. He's quite confident about it. Last week he led Denver City to a 40-0 victory over Olney with touchdown runs of 11, 46, 7 and 8 yards and threw an 11-yard scoring pass. After the game an Olney fan observed: "That kid's just as good as he thinks he is."

Bert is the idol of the plains country. He's the best known citizen around here.

It was after Bert's night against Olney that a small boy pushed his way into the Denver City dressing room. "I want to shake hands with Bert Gravitt," he announced. They found Bert and he shook hands with the boy. "Thanks," said the youngster as he left the dressing room. "All I ever wanted to do was shake hands with Bert Gravitt."

TEXANS WIN ONE

In three games in Big Spring against Rummels the Lamar Texans found the going comparably rough, dropping two of three games played.

Lamar 8th was the sole Snyder victor, coming through to post a 18-15 triumph behind Jerry Vestal, who accounted for 10.

Completing the Texan scoring were Tom Kincaid with 7 and Jay Williamson with one.

Big Spring's Bain was high for his five with 4.

Lamar jumped out to an early lead and stayed there in taking the win after holding quarterly bulges of 6-2, 8-6, and 12-10.

The Texan 9th got itself bombtured by Al Dorow of New York who had the finest game of the season last week. He hit 29 of 48 attempts, gave up no interceptions and gained 375 yards.

Kemp is still leading with an efficiency point total of 46 1/2 to 45 1/2 for Tripucka and 42 1/2 for Dorow.

Although he may not win the title, Tripucka could become pro football's first passer to gain 3,000 yards in one season. He has 2,905 with one game to go.

British Financial Comeback Should Be A Lesson To U.S.

BY INEZ ROBB
Let me take one more whack at this gold - and - dollar crisis - and then I promise to pipe down - for a while, at least.

It is almost impossible for any American to believe that the well can even threaten to run dry. Since World War II most of us have spent our substance as if the printing press were personal and in the basement. Small wonder it is difficult to make Americans in an affluent, tail - fin society with wall - to - wall music believe that Daddy Warbucks is dead, or temporarily mislaid.

We have been living it up in a manner that reduces the prodigal son to the status of piker and penny - pincher.

Both military and civilian have been pampered beyond belief. But the morning after is here and now, and the bill is about to be presented.

The government has already aroused the fury of the Pentagon and the military by a long - overdue order to bring home military dependents. That is an obvious and necessary move to stop the drain on Fort Knox. But the order should surely have been accompanied by one that would put an equal share of the burden on civilians, too.

It is a secret that I believe the government should sharply and drastically reduce the present magnanimous customs exemptions allowed. There is nothing shameful in a "buy American" program. The British, when their financial back was to the wall, conducted a huge "buy British" campaign.

and the world respected them for it. The British, after World War II, when broke, did not hesitate to inaugurate another program that we could and should examine with care at this time.

The British government, determined to put its house in order, even as we must do, drastically limited the amount of money a citizen could spend in travel abroad. Immediately after the war, the British tourist was limited to the equivalent of $40, whether he travelled to Paris or the U.S.A.

A few years later, the allowance was upped to the equivalent of $70. Not until 1958 was the British traveler permitted to take 100 pounds, or $280, with him when he went overseas. In 1960, all restrictions were dropped, except that the traveler who plans to spend more than 250 pounds must register.

Success No Handicap To Bob Hope

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) - Nothing makes some men more cynical than success.

It hasn't worked out that way with Bob Hope. After three decades of stardom, he still has the boyish enthusiasm for performing - and living - you find only in the best of the rest.

He has found some kind of secret springboard of the spirit that keeps him young.

But if you compliment the ageless comedian on his youthful effervescence, he grins wryly and says: "I don't know whether I ought to take a bow - or give my taxidermist credit."

"When I see some of my old movies on television now, I feel like I have a son I've never met."

Doctors told Bob some time ago he should slow down. He says he has - but it is hard to tell where.

He still carries on a busy TV schedule. He has just finished another film, "The Facts of Life," co-starring Lucille Ball and he still shuttles across the continent to give benefit shows.

Hope also has a personal business empire which includes investments in a baseball team, a dairy farm, a summer camp, a movie company, two meat packing firms, and oil properties.

Nixon Feels JFK Stealing GOP Thunder

By JACK BELL
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon fears President-elect John F. Kennedy is robbing Republicans of some of their thunder by veering to the middle of the political road.
 Nixon bases this view on appointments to the Cabinet and other posts his successful presidential rival already has announced and some that still are in the speculative stage.
 It is no secret that Nixon feels Kennedy names Douglas Dillon, now undersecretary of state, as secretary of the Treasury and Dillon accepts, the action will make it more difficult to build Republican opposition to the new Democratic administration.
 This would put a Republican of moderate views at the helm of a department concerned with management of the nation's fiscal affairs. Dillon would be in a position to put a brake on the kind of big spending Nixon fears will be the hallmark of a Kennedy administration.
 Republican political philosophy has always been geared to claims of fiscal responsibility. If Kennedy makes this a keynote of his administration—as he has pledged to do—the Republicans are going to have to look elsewhere for ammunition to use against him in 1964.
 Nixon and Dillon talked by telephone before the latter went off to Paris to sign the charter of the new 20-nation Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development. While Nixon avoided advising Dillon, other Republicans have made it clear to the undersecretary they don't think he ought to become the first GOP member of the Kennedy Cabinet.
 There is admiration in the Republican camp for the political finesse Kennedy has displayed in other appointments.
 His choice of Dean Rusk as secretary of state has given the Republicans little to complain about. At the same time, Kennedy moved out of the direct line of their fire three favorite GOP political targets.
 He did this by naming Adlai E.

Europeans Like Rusk

LONDON (AP) — Western Europe today welcomed the choice of Dean Rusk as the new Kennedy administration's secretary of state.
 In Britain, some observers viewed his appointment as indicating President-elect John F. Kennedy intends to bring U. S. foreign policy more directly under the president's personal control.
 Rusk, together with his two principal aides—Adlai E. Stevenson and Chester Bowles — were hailed as State Department team that could be counted on to pursue Western aims with dignity and resolution.
 The French newspaper Combat applauded Kennedy's choice of Rusk, Bowles and Stevenson as "heralding a new leadership in American foreign policy."
 A front-page editorial in the conservative London Daily Mail said the appointments "show that the most important man is going to be President Kennedy."

Fire Extinguished In House Monday

The Snyder Fire Department was called out Monday afternoon to extinguish a fire in a one room house occupied by Clem Smoots in Northwest Snyder.
 The fire, believed to have originated from a faulty connection in a garden hose used for a line from a butane tank to the house, was extinguished before it could do more than scorch the inside of the structure.

Note Decline In Radiation

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Air Force scientists said Monday that Discoverer XVII satellite's nose cone was subjected to far less radiation than was that of Discoverer XVII during a similar flight through space.
 The earlier satellite flew through much heavier radiation than last week's vehicle because a solar flare of near-record size occurred seven hours before the November firing, said Dr. George Crawford, a nuclear physicist at the School of Aviation Medicine here.
 The gold-plate capsule from Discoverer XVIII, which was opened yesterday, did not receive enough radiation on its 48 trips around the world to register on the detectors called needle dosimeters, he said.
 Detailed reports on the exact amount of radiation and its effect on seven types of human tissue, bread mold, bacterial spores, algae and other specimens in the capsule, are expected within two weeks.
 The capsule was flown here from California after being recovered by an Air Force C119 over the Pacific.

Estimates On Demand Drop

AUSTIN (AP)—A 22,974-barrel cut in oil refining companies' estimates of demand for Texas crude in January has been reported by the Texas Railroad Commission.

The commission said Monday total nominations for January are 2,593,971 barrels a day, compared with 2,616,945 this month. Decreases were reported for all but two of the 10 producing districts.

Increases were registered for Dist. 8 (676 barrels a day) and Dist. 9 (1,277).

Nominations were down 784 barrels in Dist. 1, 2,050 in Dist. 2; 5,598 in Dist. 3; 3,448 in Dist. 4; 500 in Dist. 5; 6,049 in Dist. 6 (outside); 3,541 in Dist. 6; 1,881 in Dist. 7-B; 202 in Dist. 7-C; and 964 in Dist. 10.

The commission will consider the nominations when it meets Thursday to set the state allowance for January.

Daily Crude Flow Rises

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Daily average production of crude oil and condensate increased 144,900 barrels to 7,123,300 barrels, highest level in eight months, during the week ended Dec. 10, the Oil and Gas Journal's survey showed today.

Texas accounted for much of what the Journal called a seasonal jump. It advanced 90,725 barrels to 2,590,000 barrels. The state is on a 9-day December production schedule after seven months on an 8-day basis.

Oklahoma rose 41,500 barrels to 822,900.

The Journal estimated 1960 production at 2,421,513,700 barrels compared to 2,423,332,200 a year ago.

Other increases included New Mexico, up 2,850 to 310,500; and Louisiana, 375 to 1,103,450.

Grand Prairie Man Charged In Death

DALLAS (AP)—Murder charges were filed Monday against O. J. Boyd, Grand Prairie filling station operator, in the shooting death of Joe E. Oates, also of Grand Prairie.

Boyd was arrested at Henderson Sunday when police there discovered Oates' body in the back seat of Boyd's automobile. They said Oates had been dead about 12 hours.

Officers quoted Boyd as saying he accidentally shot Oates during an argument over a card game.

A Lively Celebration

MEXICO CITY (AP)—More than 1,000 were injured, 358 arrested, two women gave birth in the middle of the street and four were raped during the midnight celebrations here yesterday.

There was also a homicide provoked by a drunk's street brawl and many other smaller incidents as a crowd estimated at almost three million persons converged over the weekend at the famous church to commemorate the 425th anniversary of the apparitions of the Virgin Mary on the Tepeyac hills.

It was a trying day for the special police brigades, which were later reinforced by additional squads, as the crime wave increased in intensity.

Inside the church the archbishop of Mexico, Msgr. Miguel Darío Miranda held the main mass of the day, addressing a sermon to more than 30,000 pilgrims who listened, both within the church and at the huge plaza surrounding it under a scorching sun.

The archbishop said the world is going through dangerous times, and called upon everybody to fight against the "alien doctrines" which seek only to weaken peace, understanding and faith.

Masses were held throughout the day, with thousands receiving communion. After the main mass by Msgr. Miranda, the traditional roses of Juan Diego, the poor Indian peasant to whom the virgin appeared in 1531, was blessed.

Rusk Is Expected To Resist Rush Into Summit Session

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The new secretary of State for the Kennedy administration, Dean Rusk, is expected to oppose the rush to a summit conference advocated by Soviet Premier Khrushchev and favored by British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Rusk was named by President-elect John F. Kennedy Monday to take over the State Department and the day-to-day direction of U. S. foreign policy in the administration starting Jan. 20.

Organization set up to promote research and development in the sciences and humanities. Rusk made his big impression at official Washington as the assistant secretary of State directly in charge of U. S. political policies at the time of the Korean War outbreak in 1950 and in the months following.

Three Women Are Robbed

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Three women were robbed, one of them was shot and another beaten, here Monday when they entered the powder room at a restaurant while attending a Christmas party.

An hour later a motel across town on Midland's west side was robbed by a dark-complexioned lone gunman. He took about $800, the value of cash and jewelry taken from the three women earlier.

Police for a time thought the same man pulled both holdups. But descriptions of victims failed to tally. Late Monday night, a warrant was issued for the arrest of one suspect.

Mrs. Anna Marie Vogler was shot once in the upper leg, and Mrs. Tom Cowan was badly beaten in the restaurant powder room robbery when they tried to grab the robber's gun. Their wounds were not believed serious. The third woman was not hurt.

Police said last night the woman succeeded in getting the robber's gun, a snub-nosed .38 caliber revolver.

Fanatic Is Blamed For Atlanta Blast

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A fanatic was blamed today for an explosion which blasted the side of a large Negro elementary school and damaged a dozen homes in Atlanta's northwest section.

"It was the work of a fanatic, of that we are sure," said Police Capt. R. E. Little, head of a special subversive section in the Detective Bureau.

All available men in the Police Department were taking part in the intensive investigation. FBI agents and a demolition team from the 3rd Army entered the case on a cooperative basis.

Investigators were still trying to learn the type of explosive used. Particles picked up at the scene were being tested in FBI laboratories and at the 3rd Army's nearby Ft. McPherson.

The blast damaged the school auditorium and two classrooms and showered neighboring Negro homes and parked cars with flying stone and debris. Dr. John Letson, city school superintendent, estimated it would cost between $1,000 and $1,500 to repair the school.

The school explosion took place the day after massive Negro prayer meetings and a downtown march protesting segregated lunch counters in the downtown area.

Adm. W. M. Angus Is Dead At 68

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Vice Adm. William Mack Angus, retired, 68, commander of Seabee operations for the 7th Fleet in World War II, died Monday. He had been serving as chairman of the Princeton University Department of Civil Engineering.

Suit Seeks Royalties

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Nathan C. Price, who claims he invented the aircraft jet engine, has sued Lockheed Aircraft Corp. for royalties.

The engineer contended in his complaint, filed in Superior Court Monday, that Lockheed instituted a plan under which its employees receive a share in royalties accruing from the inventions of the firm's engineers.

His suit said that, under the plan, he is entitled to 30 per cent of the first $100,000 in royalties, 10 per cent of the next $400,000 and 5 per cent of any sums in excess of $500,000.

New Zealand is roughly the size of Colorado and is divided into two main islands called North and South.

Even Dakkochan Looks Like Santa

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
TOKYO (AP)—Even Dakkochan looks like Santa Claus. That's one sign that Tokyo, too, is getting ready for a big Christmas.

Dakko-chan, the clinging, winking doll that Japan gave to the world, now shows up in the sidewalk stalls wearing a red jacket and hat and sporting a white beard.

Recorded renditions of "Jingle Bells" and Japanese language versions of "Silent Night" fill the air.

Archers bearing real looking stained glass images of a mother and child extend over the sidewalks of the Ginza, Tokyo's famed tourist, shopping, restaurant, night club, cabaret area.

On one of the busiest intersections a cardboard choir of blond youngsters rear three stories, the feet planted on giant letters saying "Xmas sale."

One of the big department stores boasts a mammoth sprawling evergreen laden with artificial snow. Smaller trees in the expensive jewelry shops are decked with pearls and other baubles.

Many big stores have window decorations that might give New York's Fifth Avenue a brief run for the money.

That is more than a figure of speech, since the Japanese effort is aimed directly at the commercial aspect of the Christmas holiday. Except for a scattering of Japanese Christians and a few Western residents, Japan does not observe Christmas as a day of religious significance. But it is the time of the traditional year-end bonus for most Japanese workers and alert merchant is bidding for the money.

This year the escalators, elevators and stairways of the big stores are jammed with shoppers. Counters, cases and racks are overflowing with goods. Wrapping for packages bear holiday greetings and trimmings.

Railway stations in the heart of the city have Christmas trees. The "pachinko" or pinball parlors have added to their garish decorations signs saying "Merry Xmas" in English and Japanese.

Tea and coffee houses have scattered tinsel, wreaths, stars and bells with a lavish hand.

Pette girls in the confectionery shop wear Santa type jackets and hats of red and white.

Jesse James Loses Lion

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—While Jesse James was opening a can of peaches for his supper, an Indian and two white men stole a lion cub from his trading post.

The operator of the Stage Coach Trading Post at Pioneer and Belt Line roads, Jesse C. James, told Dallas police that the trio entered his store Sunday night, saying they were looking for a Christmas tree.

James went ahead with his supper. After the Indian and the two white men left, James discovered someone had reached into the lion cage and lifted out a female lion cub, right under the nose of her mother and four other lion cubs.

Pete Lucas, owner of the animals, has offered $500 reward for return of the cub.

Lino Cencig, 37, was convicted Monday of murder. A friend, Pietro Macorig, 45, was found guilty of complicity in murder and sentenced to 24 years in prison.

Cencig said he did not know why he tied the woman to the tree. Macorig said he was too drunk that night to remember anything.

Jury Being Picked For Rahm Trial

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—Nine jurors remained to be picked today in the murder trial of Dr. Charles C. Rahm, charged with slaying Thurman Jackson during a school board meeting fight at Brownsboro.

During Monday's opening session three jurors were selected. They were Fred E. Force, tax assessor-collector of the Orange Independent School District; Mrs. S. O. Harris, wife of an Orange construction man; and A. F. Huff, a machinist.

Attorneys for the state announced Monday they would not seek the death penalty for Dr. Rahm, a Brownsboro osteopath who was secretary of the school board at the time of the shooting.

Dr. Rahm, dressed in a neat, dark, pin-striped suit, appeared calm in court except for a nervous twining and untwining of his fingers. Mrs. Rahm, who appeared with him in court, seemed more nervous. She was dressed in black.

Attorneys expressed hope that the jury could be completed today and testimony be started Wednesday.

Jackson, 42-year-old lumber company operator, was killed by two bullets June 18 when about 30 of the 150 persons attending the school board meeting engaged in a fight.

The fight climaxed a long feud between supporters and foes of the school superintendent, Dr. Homer Bass.

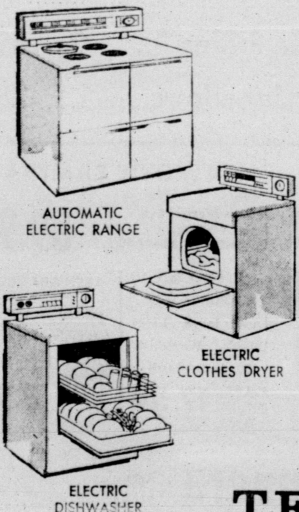

Bass, who had been superintendent 23 years, had been fired by the school board shortly before the June 16 fight.
