There really is nothing like American politics, and Tuesday's general election in many respects was sufficient to restore a person's faith if he had been lulled into the opinion that the balloting process in this country was gradually embedding itself in a rut.

In other elections of recent years the lay public had marveled at the convincing "calls" of the television commentators as they confidently told the world how the vote was going in various states with as little as one per cent of the ballots counted — and often with their projected leader lagging behind in the early going.

It was a different and somewhat refreshing story Tuesday night. Caution was the word, even to the point that some commentators hesitated to name winners in states where the actual count was virtually completed and the returns showed a clear-cut leader.

Texas figured in this caution more than any other state. The Texas Election Bureau which was displaying uncanny accuracy in "calling" early shots in the days before television appeared on the horizon, declared Hubert H. Humphrey the winner in Texas in the presidential race before midnight. The Associated Press and United Press International had "called" Texas for Humphrey before 11 p.m. But at mid-morning Wednesday, one of the best known television commentators said Texas was "still too close to call."

Many television watchers perhaps were disappointed because they undoubtedly, based on past performances, expected the marvelous computers to identify the next president by bed time.

The difficulty apparently stemmed from the independence of millions of voters. The actual count did not always follow the trends established in the "sample precincts" which had been earmarked to serve as a basis for early declaration of winners.

Meanwhile, the returns were making the pollsters look like journeyman prophets. All had "closed the gap" to practically nothing in their last-minute reports, and over-all there was indeed virtually no gap at all.

It was, in the words of those commentators, a cliffhanger. And so Richard Nixon, regardless of the slender margin of his victory, undoubtedly feels that he earned it, even in the 16 to 18 hours when the scales refused to tip conclusively in either direction. And Hubert Humphrey undoubtedly feels that he earned an A for effort, despite the fact that he got nosed out like a football team that was defeated by an extra point.

As for the voters, it is nice to know that they still have to count our ballots to know for certain who won. — WACIL McNAIR.

Nixon's Goal: 'Bring Americans Together'

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, his narrow presidential triumph cemented by late election returns, chose the privacy of a Florida retreat today to start forming the new Republican administration he hopes will "bring the American people together."

Faced with the most pressing tasks of determining his immediate role in Vietnam peace efforts and picking the men who will guide the nation's destiny for the next four years, Nixon flew from New York to Key Biscayne, Fla., for what was billed as a few days rest.

On the way he stopped off for a sentimental visit in Washington with his hospitalized former chief, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

As the tide for more than 70 million votes continued to flow in from outlying precincts, mainly in the West, Nixon actually trailed by 29,730,272 to 29,726,409 vote behind Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey in the 70-million-plus popular vote.

But his electoral vote total, securely past the needed total of 270 after cliff-hanger victories in Illinois, Ohio and California, appeared headed for 302 when late returns gave him the lead in Missouri where more than 100,000 absente ballots will be decisive.

Absentee votes were also expected to decide Maryland where Humphrey was leading.

Prsident Johnson returned to the capital from Texas for the 75-day homestretch of his presidency, pledging to Nixon "everything in my power to make your burdens lighter" during the transition period.

Earlier in San Antonio, the Texas White House said that, at Nixon's request, a government aircraft had been made available to him. He already has Secret Service protection.

Johnson also offered Nixon government office space in Washington, but the winner said he would continue to work out of his New York offices in the weeks ahead.

Selection of a Cabinet, a White House staff and such other top aides as a budget director are among Nixon's first chores.

Detroit radio station WJR said Gov. George Romney of Michigan, who made a brief bid last winter for the GOP presidential nomination, probably will be Nixon's secretary of commerce.

The station also forecast that Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger of Los Angeles County "will become the next attorney general," and that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York would be named "either as secretary of state or secretary of defense most likely the latter."

HAPPY LANDING — John Thomas (right) flew to Quanah this morning to bring L. E. Ross (center), district director of the American Cancer Society, to Snyder. Ross will appear on a program sponsored by the Scurry Chapter. The public is invited to hear him speak at 5:30 p.m. today in the Community Room of the Snyder National Bank Building. Also present at Winston Field this morning was John Thomas' father, William F. Thomas.

Merchants Make Plans

Several members of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchants Committee initiated plans for the Christmas holiday season at a meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Special attention was called to the final holidays of the year, as recommended for observance by a majority of the committee. Thanksgiving and Christmas are traditionally on the list for observance. Others observed here during the year by part of the business community include New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day.

Christmas shopping season plans are moving along and these will move into high gear immediately after Thanksgiving. A Santa Claus and sleigh attraction for youngster is being planned again this year to formally launch the Christmas season.

Cancer Society Director Visits

Snyder has a busy visitor in town today. He arrived at Winston Field this morning from his home in Quanah as passenger aboard John Thomas' airplane.

The guest is L. E. Ross, district director of the American Cancer Society. He spoke this morning to health classes at Travis Junior High Shool and Lamar Junior High School and was to appear in general assembly at the high school.

In addition, Ross was on the noon luncheon program of the Snyder Rotary Club of which Thomas is president. Ross also was to speak at 5:30 p.m. today in the community room of the Snyder National Bank building. The public was invited to hear the speech. The Scurry County Chapter of the American Cancer Society is sponsoring Ross' appearance here.

Nine years ago, Ross had an operation on his larynx as a result of cancer. He had to learn how to speak again, and now he teaches speech therapy to cancer patients. His story is one of faith, courage and determination, according to local sponsors.

President of the Scurry Chapter, American Cancer Society, is Mrs. A. D. Dodson. Vice president is E. T. (Pat) Patterson. He also is a state director. The Scurry Chapter conducted a successful drive for funds here last spring. Officials of the Chapter expressed their appreciation to the public for "their fine support" and urged continued support in the future. Continued public support of cancer research is necessary in finding a cure for the disease, it was pointed out.

Saigon Continues To Stymie Talks

PARIS (AP) — The United States and North Vietnam disputed ground rules for the expanded Vietnam peace talks Wednesday. The talks were indefinitely suspended because of South Vietnam's refusal to participate.

At issue are differing interpretations about whether the bombing halt should include a cessation of U.S. aerial reconnaissance of North Vietnam and how the warring Vietnamese factions will sit at the table to talk peace.

Also hanging over the talks was speculation about what role, if any, President-elect Richard M. Nixon would take in the peacemaking process before his inauguration.

Hanoi's interpretation that the bombing halt should include suspension of reconnaissance flights was raised at a news conference at which Nguyen Thanh Le, North Vietnam's press spokesman in Paris, charged the U.S. flights violated the agreement that brought about the bombing halt.

North Vietnamese spokesmen and spokesmen for the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong, also said the United States had agreed both the NLF and the Saigon government would send independent teams to the bargaining table.

Both interpretations were immediately challenged by sources with the U.S. delegation.

They pointed out that President Johnson had made no mention of reconnaissance flights when he announced the end of "all air, naval and artillery bombardment." They said the United States had let it be understood that it would abstain only from the use of force against North Vietnamese territory.

They noted that North Vietnam's chief negotiator in Paris, Xuan Thuy, used the same language—"all acts involving the use of fore"—in his acknowledgement Nov. 1 of the bombing halt and his agreement to enlarge the talks.

They said the United States also told North Vietnam before the bombing halt that the reconnaissance flights would continue. A member of the North Vietnamese delegation has confirmed this in a talk with a newsman.

Le also raised the issue of how many parties would sit down at the peace table when he accused the United States of reneging on a pledge to hold a "four-party conference Wednesday to find a peaceful settlement of the Vietnam problem."

Jackie, Onassis On Cruise Of Islands

ATHENS (AP) — Artistotle Onassis and the former Jacqueline Kennedy sailed from their private island off Greece's Ionian coast today for a two-week cruise of the Greek islands.

The shipping magnate and his bride sailed aboard his palatial yacht Christina, on which they have been living since their marriage Oct. 20. Their next port of call was not immediately known.

Thieu Invites Nixon To Viet

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu today invited President-elect Richard M. Nixon to visit South Vietnam "to make an on-the-spot assessment of the war and the situation" in this country.

"The Vietnamese government, the Vietnamese people and our soldiers fighting in the front lines against Communist aggression will be most happy to receive on Vietnamese soil a staunch defender of freedom, which you have been for many long years," Thieu said.

(At Key Biscayne, Fla., Nixon's vacation retreat off Miami, the president-elect's traveling secretary, Ron Ziegler, said there would be no immediate comment on the invitation).

The invitation was contained in a lengthy cablegram of congratulations from the South Vietnamese leader to Nixon for his narrow victory in Tuesday's election.

Thieu's message did not refer directly to the present strain in U.S.-South Vietnamese relations over Saigon's boycott of the U.S. proposal for expanded peace talks in Paris.

But Thieu told Nixon he was confident that "with you at the helm of the United States, the very close bonds of friendship and solidarity which for many years have united our two countries will be even further strengthened . . ."

While the cablegram did not specify a time, it appeared that Thieu was interested in having the Republican president-elect make a visit to Vietnam before he takes office in January.

Pro-Reds, Liberals Clash In Prague

By FRANK CREPEAU
Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE (AP) — A crowd of pro-Soviet Czechoslovaks shook their fists in the faces of Communist party leader Alexander Dubcek and Premier Oldrich Cernik today and shouted, "Long live to Soviet Union!"

The hard-line Communists grabbed at the coats of the two reformist leaders after a ceremony at Olsany Cemetery, shouting, "We're with the Soviet Union!" Since the ceremony was part of the observation of the anniversary of the Soviet Union's Bolshevik Revolution there appeared to be few Dubcek supporters around.

But later several hundred backers of the reform leadership surged into the streets of Prague and forced the removal of three large red banners from the Ministry of Foreign Trade, put up as part of the anniversary observation.

The demonstrators gathered in a side street a block from Wenceslas Square chanting "tear it down, tear it down," and whistling at a huge red banner without the yellow hammer and sickle that hung at one side of the building.

The chants continued until workmen climbed out on a ledge on the building's second story and removed the flag. A great cheer went up.

Bus loads of police arrived to clear the street and loudspeakers broadcast appeals for the crowd to disperse. But the people moved to the front of the building and chanted "tear it down" until two more of the 30-foot red banners were removed.

Most Czechoslovaks resent the Soviet occupation, launched Aug. 20-21 to put a check on Dubek's liberalization program, but the hard-liners had their day at the cemetery.

Draft Call Increased

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon announced today a January draft call of 26,800 men to serve in the Army. This is the biggest monthly quota since May when the total reached 45,900.

The Defense Department said the January quota "will assure a timely flow of replacements for men completing their terms of service."

The announcement explained that recent draft call fluctuations have been due mainly to shifting changes in Army replacement needs.

The January quota is 9,300 more men than December's 17,500 call and 16,800 more than the 10,000-man call for this month, lowest so far this year.

Peace Drive Is Nixon's First Priority

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON AP)— Richard M. Nixon's first priority in the days until his Jan. 20 inauguration likely will be to work out an agreement with President Johnson on his role in the current Vietnam peace drive.

There are no immediate sign that Nixon has decided he wants to make a personal pilgrimage, although he said in the late stages of his presidential campaign that he is willing to travel to either Saigon or Paris to get the stalled peace talks moving.

The possibility remained, however, that Johnson might decide to ask the president-elect to help convince South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu to send a delegation to the Paris meetings with North Vietnam.

Thieu's refusal to join in negotiations that include the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong, has stalled the Paris negotiations.

Nixon suggested in a campaign TV speech last Sunday that "President Johnson and President-elect Nixon could knock out the idea that Hanoi is going to gain from the negotiating table what they cannot gain from the battlefield"—an obvious fear of the Saigon government.

There has been speculation that Saigon may be more willing to listen to Nixon or his representative at this point than to Johnson.

Besides the concern over the war, Nixon said that the "great objective" of his administration would be "to bring the American people together."

Considering that less than half of the Americans who voted in Tuesday's record turnout picked him for president, this looks at the beginning like a difficult undertaking.

Nixon promised in his victory statement "an open door administration—open to new ideas." But faced with a Democratic controlled Congress there is some doubt about how far any "new ideas" will get.

Nixon has promised to maintain close relations with Johnson, who has pledged full cooperation. But it remained to be seen how cordial these would be with a Democratic president who has constantly attacked Nixon.

Also the budget Johnson submits to Congress before he retires could fence Nixon in on the all-important matter of expenditures.

While he will have the opportunity to make changes in Johnson's recommendations, the new president would probably find it impossible to make a top to bottom revision.

Nixon's prospects in getting his way in Congress are cloudy. Minimal changes in the House lineup left him subject to mollifying Southern Democrats to get the kind of legislation he may suggest.

Farm Bureau Expects New Cooperation In White House

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials of the American Farm Bureau Federation, which complained constantly that Democrats overmanaged agriculture, say they're looking forward to working with president-elect Richard M. Nixon.

Since the Democrats took over in 1961 and instituted far reaching production control and price support programs for farmers, the Farm Bureau has been mostly on the outside looking in.

But with the election of Richard M. Nixon, the organization expects to be closer to the White House than it has since the Eisenhower era and the programs administered by Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson.

"We hope to cooperate with the new President and the Congress in any way we can," said Roger W. Fleming, a Farm Bureau officer and director of its Washington office.

"And there is likely to be more cooperation because the new President is less likely to be twisting arms in support of unsound farm proposals."

However, Fleming said, the Farm Bureau traditionally looks to Congress for much of its support and this is expected to continue.

Fleming said Midwestern farmers helped re-elect President Truman in 1948 but that they didn't respond this time in favor of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey.

"There has been a lot of comparison between this year and 1948 when Truman won in the Midwest farm states," Fleming said. "But the farm vote went to Nixon rather than Humphrey—and that made a big difference."

The National Farmers Union, which has disagreed basically with Farm Bureau officials on government farm programming, had no official comment here, but its Washington office said a statement may be issued later.

A Farmers Union spokesman said, however, that the organization's officials seemed to feel that much depends on Nixon's choice as secretary of agriculture.

Among those mentioned as Nixon's agriculture secretary is Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., who, the Farmers Union spokesman said, "would be several cuts above Benson."

"Of the possibilities seen right now," he said, "Quie would be acceptable to us and would be a constructive friend of the farmer."

Herschel D. Newsom, who soon will retire as master of the National Grange—the third major general farm organization—said he has found over many years that it is "always possible to put an election behind you" and work with a new Administration.

"Mr. Nixon probably will be receptive to ideas and is bound to be looking for any to help correct the terribly dangerous position agriculture is in right now," Newsom said.

The Farmers Union, in particular, has viewed the Democratic farm programs administered by Secretary Orville L. Freeman as "generally in the right direction," but the Farm Bureau has been a consistent critic of Freeman and what it sees as the over-management of agriculture by the federal government.

Next month the Farm Bureau will hold its annual convention in Kansas City, Mo., during which the group's policy for 1969 will be developed.

Fleming said the convention will discuss alternatives available to agriculture, adding, "It would be premature to be specific about them at this time."

Texas' First Snow Dusts Panhandle

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow—the first of the season—dusted parts of the Texas Panhandle lightly today and a chill spread throughout the state.

There was enough snow to leave occasional patches of white on the ground around Dalhart. The flakes were mixed with a little rain farther south toward Amarillo and the snowfall apparently was confined to the west side of the Panhandle.

Temperatures dipped to the 30s deep in West Texas but a general cloud cover kept the early morning marks above freezing at most points.

Light showers also moved eastward through North Central and Northeast Texas during the night, sticking close to the Red River Valley.

Forecasts called for clouds to disappear across the northern half of the state and freeze warnings went up for the northwest and north central sections. Readings as low as 24 degrees were promised the Panhandle early Friday, and temperatures ranging down to the 30s were expected in most other areas.

Top marks Wednesday ran as high as 84 at Presidio in the Big Bend country while the mercury climbed only to 41 at Dalhart.

Before dawn today it was 32 at Perryton, 33 at Dalhart, 36 at Amarillo and Lubbock, and 37 at Midland and Plainview. Thermometers hovered in the 40s to 50s at most other points except the southern tip of the state, where Brownsville still basked in 74-degree warmth.

Stradivarius Violin Sells For $52,800

LONDON (AP) — An amateur musician today paid $52,800 for a Stradivarius violin at Sotheby's. The auctioneers said the price was a world record.

The violin was bought by British businessman Jack Morrison who will play it himself.

The previous record price for a violin was paid for another Italian instrument on July 4, 1966. That was a Guarnieri and it fetched $31,200.

The instrument sold today once belonged to the famous Italian violinist and composer Giovanni Battista Viotti (1754-1824).

The International Bridge, Tunnel and Turnpike Assn. Inc. says the increase of traffic on the Benicia-Martinez Bridge in California is the highest of any toll facility in the world. The second quarter of 1968 shows 1,880,727 crossings compared with 1,303,272 for the same period of 1967, a 44.3 per cent increase in use. Second highest traffic growth rate was on the San Mateo - Hayward Bridge in California with 25.9 per cent, just ahead of Portugal's Salazar Bridge with 25.3 per cent.

Brothers Held In Star's Death

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Two brothers from Chicago — one of them a teenager — were arrested Wednesday and booked on suspicion of murdering former silent screen star Ramon Novarro, whose nude body was found in his posh Hollywood home Oct. 31, police said.

Officers said Paul Robert Ferguson, 22, and Thomas Scott Ferguson, 17 were being held at the North Hollywood police station.

Police Lt. G. W. Lauretzen said the brothers were arrested without a struggle in Bell Gardens — Paul at a restaurant and Thomas at the home of a friend, where he was staying.

The officer said Paul Ferguson had come to Los Angeles from Chicago about five months ago and that his brother arrived about three weeks ago.

Lauretzen said the probe into the 69-year old Novarro's bludgeon death turned up the brothers' names "and we centered our investigation on them. After checking out the physical evidence we decided we had enough of a case to ask for indictments."

The body of Novarro was found by his male secretary in the former screen idol's $150,000 Laurel Canyon home. Officers said Novarro's head and upper body were badly beaten and that there were signs of a fierce struggle at the house.

Witnesses Going To Convention

Meetings of Jehovah's witnesses regularly held at Kingdom Hall have been cancelled this week in preparation for a 3-day convention to be held in Levelland beginning Friday.

Theme for the program is titled, "Take Your Stand . . . Solid in the Faith," with 33 planning to share from Snyder in the Bible training sessions.

Main speaker for the convention is Mr. L. M. Dugan, district supervisor from the world headquarters of the Witnesses in New York. He represents the Watchtower Society who sponsor a convention a year of Jehovah's witnesses. He will direct the assembly program.

"God's Way is Love" will be the main subject to be discussed by Dugan. Additionally, he will oversee the ordination ceremony of newly dedicated Witnesses at which time he will deliver a discourse entitled "Dedication and Baptism." Water immersion of the new ministers will follow when they are dipped under water in symbol of their dedication.

"Another convention highlight centers on the house to house visitation on residents in the convention city," Roy Chamberlain said. "Jehovah's witnesses adopt the methods Jesus Christ used to preach the good news, for he knew what was effective, so we'll be seen in that community on the door steps and in public places offering Bible literature and telling about God's Kingdom."

More than 500 are expected to attend with the opening sessions scheduled for Friday, November 8th at 6:45 p.m. Family groups made their final preparations last Sunday to attend, according to Chamberlain with several car pools planned.

Agnew Asks Rededication

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew plans to spend the rest of the week clearing his desk of the paper work that has been accumulating since his campaign began, then take some time off in the Virgin Islands.

The Maryland governor told a mall group of party faithful Wednesday afternoon when results of the 1968 election finally crystallized that "today is a time or celebration and rededication.

"Let all Americans share in this moment of rededication by rejecting partisanship and repudiating extremism," he said.

"The goal is not to destroy, but to create a better America.

"Now the time of competition is past and the time for cooperation begins. I welcome this moment when we begin the very real task of reuniting America with fresh vision under new leadership," he said.

Servicemen Defect To Soviet Union

TOKYO (AP) — Twelve U.S. servicemen, aided by two Japanese antiwar groups, fled to the Soviet Union between April and August, police said today.

Police learned this while investigating the case of a U.S. sailor detained Tuesday night and later turned over to U.S. military authorities for being absent without leave since Sept. 14 from the U.S. Navy base at Yokosuka.

American spokesmen identified the sailor as Seaman Recruit Geral L. Meiers. They said he and two Japanese were in a car stopped for speeding in Kushiro, on Japan's northernmost main island, Hokkaido.

Police said the Japan Committee to Aid Antiwar Deserters—the Japan Committee for Peace in Vietnam—arranged for the Russians to take deserters from the Hokkaido port of Nemuro.

Officers said police plan to watch the two organizations although Japan has no laws providing for punishment of Japanese who help U.S. deserters to escape from Japan.

Court Martial Reset For Two Soldiers

FORT HOOD, Tex. (AP) — Courts-martial for Army Spec. 4 Findia Fanks, 22, and Pvt. Howard O. Harris, 19, have been rescheduled for Dec. 17.

A military spokesman said Wednesday that the pair were among 43 Negro soldiers who refused an order to disperse while staging a demonstration at the central Texas post on the eve of the National Democratic Convention.

Fanks a resident of Boryton, Ga., and Harris a resident of Texarkana, Ark., were scheduled to be tried Wednesday. Attorney Curtis McClane of New York City and Weldon H. Berry of Houston, requested the postponement due to prior commitments.

Six of the original 43 remain to be tried.

Detective Charged In Shooting Death

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A Beaumont police detective has been charged with murder with malice in the shooting death of a fellow detective.

Jefferson County authorities charged that Henry Chumley, 34, shot Billy Widner, 36, several times with a .38-caliber weapon Wednesday just outside the Beaumont City limits. Chumley has been on the police force here for nine years and Widner for 10 years.

Chumley was arraigned before Judge Horace Blades and released on $5,000 bond.

Gardener's Corner

The tree is aptly described as a pump.

The thousands of cells of the hair roots imbibe moisture and by osmosis raise it to the tree crown. The addition of food chemicals enriches the sap that travels through the root system.

Similarly, you can inject into the soil insect controls that feeder roots will send coursing through the tree to protect its health.

Trees may pump out as much as 200 gallons of water daily. During drought, this water is cut off and the osmosis process reverses. Leaves wilt, the first sign of trouble that may last for years.

Hot, windy summer days are dangerous days for trees. Give them water, food and insect protection in summer.

We use our root feeder to good advantage to send food all the way to the leaves. A healthy, well-fed tree is more resistant to borers, root-rot and cankers. Lush foliage helps develop new growth.

We spray our fruit trees. We feed them through the roots via cartridges that we slip into the hose-connected feeder tool.

The tree's feeder roots are in an area extending from the outside drip branches half the distance inward to the trunk. The root feeder is loaded with the food cartridge, inserted into the ground to full depth and the hose turned on until the cartridge has dissolved. This is repeated at six-foot intervals around the tree under outside drip branches. For big trees, repeat this process in a ring half the distance to the truck.

To aerate hard-packed soil, open the valve full force for the first few minutes as you feed and water.

The built-in protection given by insecticide cartridges is a weapon against sucking and mining insects that attack trees and shrubs. The dose generally is good for six weeks. This type of insecticide cannot harm birds and bees and cannot be washed away by rain.

Handling is simple. There is no mixing of chemicals, dust or drift that may damage other plantings. There is no discoloring of leaves or flowers, nor odor. It should not be used, however, on edible crops.

The systemic insect control may be used to control aphids, spider mites, birch leaf miners, thrips, pine tip moths, leafhoppers, white flies, lace bugs holly leaf miners and other suckers.

The systemic insect control cartridge is handled in the same way as the systemic food cartridge in the same locations.

For roses and smaller shrubs place the root feeder into the root zone, usually 12 to 14 inches deep, but never less than 6 inches.

Texas College Board Sells Bonds

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas College Coordinating Board sold $12 million in bonds Wednesday to help send youths to college and delayed a look at a proposal for a joint junior college election in Comal and Guadalupe counties.

Dr. Bevington Reed, state commissioner of higher education, said the junior college proposal was not completed in time for the board's staff to check it before it went to the board.

The junior college petition proposed a $2.5 million bond issue and a property tax not to exceed 50 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Harris trust and savings bank of Chicago was the low bidder for the student loan bonds, with 3.8673 per cent interest to be paid by the state. Joint managers will be Chase Manhatten Bank of New York and First National Bank of Dallas.

Board chairman John Gray of Beaumont said 29,480 students already have used loans under the three-year-old program to help pay their college costs. Each student has averaged receiving $739 under the program, he said, as a total of $21,789,229 has been paid out.

The board also approved fine arts programs at nine schools and approved administrative reorganization of fine arts programs at the University of Texas at Arlington and West Texas State University.

Gray announced that following next Monday's hearing on future plans for higher education in North Texas and locations for new dental and medical schools the board would meet Dec. 3 to hand down its decisions.

New academic programs approved included:

—Bachelor of fine arts in art at Sam Houston State College.

—Bachelor's degree in education with a major in drama at Southwest Texas State College.

—Bachelor of fine arts degree in art at Stephen F. Austin State College.

—Bachelor of music education degree at Tarleton State College.

—Bachelor of fine arts degree with a major in art at Texas Tech.

—Bachelor of arts in speech and drama, a bachelor of fine arts in art and a bchelor of music degree at UT - Arlington.

—Bachelor of music degree at West Texas State.

—Master of fine arts with a major in art and a master of music degree at Tech.

—Major in art under master of arts degree at West Texas State.

The administrative reorganizations approved will permit UT-Arlington to establish a department of music out of the department of fine arts; department of art out of the department of fine arts; department of speech and drama out of the department of English, and will permit West Texas State to set up a school of fine arts.

The board approved construction of a $1.5 million physical education complex at Angelo State College, which will include a field house and swimming pool, and a $200,000 maintentance building.

The board also opened up the state plan for higher education facilities so Texas schools can get up to 50 per cent federal financing on construction projects and adopted a list of priorities for federal funds under the community services program of 1965.

First on the list of 39 priorities was $28,325 for Texas A&M's extension for model cities agencies and second was $37,114 for Tech's television series of urban local government affairs.

Viet Casualties Increase

SAIGON (AP) — Combat casualties in Vietnam increased last week, the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported today, but they still were at a lower level than in the weeks of heavier fighting earlier in the year.

The U.S. Command said 150 Americans were killed in action last week, compared with 109 the previous week and 100 the week before.

There were 1,214 Americans wounded last week, with 429 requiring hospitalization, the U.S. Command said. The number of wounded during the previous week totaled 717.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 129 government soldiers killed last week, 684 wounded and 16 missing in action, compared with 103 killed, 578 wounded and two missing the week before.

The allied commands said 1,393 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were reported killed last week and increased the previous week's enemy toll from 1,289 to 1,995.

Bengals Invade Lobo Den

Snyder's Tigers will find themselves in the unfamiliar role of favorites when they travel to Levelland Friday for a 7:30 p.m. District 3-AAA football clash with Levelland's Lobos.

Coach Wayne Tyrone of the Tigers however, cautions against over - optimism. He pointed out Friday's affray may be the last good chance the Lobos will have for getting their second victory of the campaign. Consequently, the hosts could be downright rude to the visiting Bengals and put forth their best effort of the season. If so, the tussle could be close.

Snyder owns one more victory than the Lobos, having defeated Lake View 48-0 and Littlefield 27-21. Comparative scores involving these teams seem to favor the Tigers. Littlefield topped Levelland 31-6 while the Lobos had to struggle to get a 20-12 decision over Lake View. Moreover, Levelland lost to Colorado City 0-32 while Snyder held the Wolves to a 31-13 decision. And Estacado thumped the Lobos 69-0 while the Matadors' 54-0 triumph over the Tigers was actually closer than the score indicated.

On the other hand, the only other basis for comparison would seem to give Levelland an edge. They held Sweetwater to a 31-7 victory, although the Ponies whacked Snyder 48-0.

Snyder also holds the upper hand in scoring, having tallied 126 points to the opposition's 208 while Levelland has scored only 60 points against 257.

Also favorable for Tiger boosters is the fact that the team may be in overall sound shape physically. A few minor ailments continue to dog the squad, but everyone is expected to be ready for action Friday. Bengal hopes were bolstered by the return of Ken Keller, 178 - pound sophomore tackle, who has been out since early in the season. Kenneth has participated in drills this week and could see action, although the absence surely didn't help him any.

In their latest contest with powerful Estacado the Tigers demonstrated they are willing to keep hitting. They moved the ball fairly well with their prototype offense. David McGinnis, senior fullback, almost got away on a long pass from Lee McNair. The Matadors just had too much speed and muscle up front for the Tigers to contend with. Snyder coaches were happy this week with the recent improvement shown by Willis Harrison, junior back. Snyder has been able to move the ball well all year with McGinnis and Randy Levens providing a good 1-2 punch. The defense, comprised mostly of lads who will be back next year, have begun to jell into a tough unit.

Levelland will pin its hopes on Terry Billingsley, quarterback a 155 - pounder, who can hurt you with the run - pass option. Tailback Justin Lane, a 165 - pounder, has sufficent speed to break away if the Lobos can clear him past the line. He likes to follow the fullback on slants.

Defensively, the Lobos employ an off-set five alignment which is difficult to run up the middle against. With overall team speed on a par with Snyder, the Lobos may be able to land 0. Asked to elaborate, she contain the wide stuff. In which said, "No comment."

Flu Bug Strikes Dallas Cowboys

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — While Dallas Cowboy coach Tom Landry ponders the problems of his passing game, he's added a new worry—the flu bug.

The flu hasn't reached the runaway stage, but it has slowed linebacker Lee Roy Jordan, offensive tackle Ralph Neely, reserve quarterback Craig Morton and receiver Dennis Homan.

"It's supposed to be the 24 hour variety—but I haven't seen Homan this week," Landry said. "I certainly hope it will stop quick."

Landry is worried about his offense. He figures the breakdowns are coming in the lack of protection from the passer, poor timing, dropped passes, and mediocore passing.

"It's sort of a mid-season lull that is bothering all the teams," Landry said. "A lot of quarterbacks are getting injuries and are not as sharp as they could be. Even with all the trouble (quarterback) Don Meredith is having he's still the No. 1 passer in the league."

Dallas meets New York Sunday in a nationally telvised game before a near-sellout of 72,000 fans in the Cotton Bowl. It's a Capitol Division game in the National Football League and a victory for the Cowboys would mean a three game spread over the second-place Giants.

Landry said that while Dallas' intricate multiple offense could use some smoothing out he was pleased with the play of the defense.

"I think we are more confident ...we are working together now," said Landry, who plans to continue the use of speedy Mel Renfro at cornerback.

He said New York and its scrambling quarterback Fran Tarkenton presented special problems for the Cowboy defense Sunday.

"New York always plays well against us...we've just got to keep Tarkenton in the pocket," Landry said. "He bothers us a lot, but I still think a scrambling team doesn't make too many points. If our defense plays the way it did last Sunday (against New Orleans) we shouldn't have any trouble."

Don Smith, publicity man for the Giants, said "We need a big effort from Tarkenton every week to win. With our defense, we need four touchdowns. We haven't reached the stage yet where we can have an off day offensively and still win like the Cowboys can."

Landry said Meredith was having his physical problems with a broken nose and a sore arm.

"He's had a sore arm every week for eight years—and the long strain of the season may be taking its toll on him," Landry said.

Chris Shines For 'Horns

By JACK KEEVER

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas' Chris Gilbert burst through a strong Southern California line and was sent spinning with a solid tackle. He checked his fall by pushing off the ground with his hand and sped 15 more yards before being whacked out of bounds.

The Southern Cal game of Sept. 17, 1966, was the debut of Gilbert, a 180-pounder whose this-way, that-way running style has made him the greatest ground gainer in Southwest Conference history.

In his senior year, with three regular season games to go, Gilbert has a chance be among the leaders in the list of all-time NCAA rushing leaders.

He's 16th now with 2,874 yards, 507 behind the all-time national leader, Art Luppino, who played at Arizona in 1953-56.

"Watching Chris run is like a film strip with several frames missing," said hs coach, Darrell Royal. "You see him hit a hole here and all of a sudden he's way over there and you don't see him get over there."

"I'm his No. 1 fan other than this week," Texas Tech Coach J.T. King said just prior to the Texas-Texas Tech game. "I think he's one of the all-time greats to play in this conference."

North Dakota Cuts Into Aztec Lead

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The lower end of The Associated Press Top Ten in small college football underwent some shuffling today, but up front the tune was the same as the first 4½ places remained firm.

The half came up in the No. 5 position in which Tampa broke a deadlock with Weber State with a 22-19 victory last Saturday over Northern Michigan while Weber was dropping to 11th after a 50-42 loss to Idaho.

San Diego, North Dakota State, Chattanooga and New Mexico Highlands held their 1-2-3-4 spots with easy victories, although San Diego had its first place lead cut.

The Aztecs drew 10 of the 16 first-place votes and 266 points, down four top votes and 46 points from last week, despite a 42-12 rout over Fresno State. North Dakota State, with one first-place vote, had 232 points, a drop of 37 but a pick up of nine on San Diego.

Chattanooga, with one first place vote, had 191 points after a 20-6 decision over Tennessee Tech, and New Mexico Highlands had one top vote and 131 points after a 70-7 barrage of Western Colorado.

Eastern Kentucky moved up from seventh to sixth with a 21-20 squeaker over Murray State, and Indiana, Pa., moved from eighth to seventh after bombing California, Pa., 41-0. Western Kentucky rose from 10th to ninth by beating Morehead 24-21.

Texas A&I and Arkansas State joined the Top Ten, A&I jumping from 11th to eighth with a 43-0 victory over Sul Ross, and Arkansas moved from 13th to 10th by blasting Lamar Tech 48-17.

Dropping out with Weber was Morgan State, which had a 31-game winning streak ended with a 7-6 loss to North Carolina A&T and fell from ninth to 14th.

Lenoir Rhyne moved from 18th to 12th and Appalachian from 19th to 13th for the biggest improvement. Kings Point and Emory & Henry joined the first 20 at 17th and 18th respectively, while Central Michigan and East Texas State dropped out from 16th and 17th, although East Texas won last Saturday.

Points are awarded for the first 15 picks by a panel of sports writers and sportscasters throughout the country on the basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-8-6-5-4-3-2-1.

Bullets Surprise Hawks 140-119

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If an election were held today for the most surprising team in the National Basketball Association, the Baltimore Bullets would win hands down.

After five years of finishing in the depths of the Eastern Division, the Bullets have suddenly become a contender, and they scored a rousing 140-119 victory Wednesday night over the Atlanta Hawks.

The triumph was the fifth in a row for the Bullets, and their ninth in 12 outings.

Only Cincinnati's 133-122 decision over the Chicago Bulls kept the Bullets from jumping into first place as they stand only 28 percentage points behind the 7-2 Royals and remained tied with the 6-2 Boston Celtics.

In other action Detroit broke away from Seattle 127-118, Los Angeles bounced Milwaukee 128-115 and San Francisco nipped New York 94-93.

In the American Basketball Association, New Orleans defeated Miami 123-109, Denver defeated Indiana 109-107 in overtime, Kentucky crushed Minnesota 131-112, and Los Angeles overhauled Dallas 123-117.

The addition of rookie center Wes Unseld to complement Earl Monroe has made the difference in Baltimore. They scored 22 and 29 points, respectively, along with 24 by Kevin Loughery against the Hawks. But it was Leroy Ellis and Ray Scott who led a 49-point fourth quarter surge that moved them from a 12-point deficit in the third period to a 109-90 lead.

Ellis hit all his 15 points and Scott 10 of his 14 in the final half.

Don Ohl's 27 points led the Hawks, playing without Zelmo Beaty, who damaged the cartilage in his right knee in pregame warmups.

Jerry Lucas and Tom Van Arsdale shot Cincinnati into a 69-42 lead in the first half and Oscar Robertson added 31 points as the Royals breezed.

Detroit won for the fifth time in six starts as it exploded from a 111-111 tie in the final period behind Dave Bing, who finished with 37.

Seattle Coach Al Banchi drew three straight technical fouls and was ejected along with center Bob Rule.

Elgin Baylor's 33 points as Los Angeles broke open a tight game in the final period. Wayne Embry had 30 points for the Buks.

Jeff Mullins' 10-foot jump shot with three seconds to play capped San Francisco's comeback over New York. The Knicks had gone ahead 93-92 with seven seconds left on a basket by Dick Barnett.

The Warriors, who overcame a 13-point deficit in the third quarter, were sparked by Rudy LaRusso's 24 points, including 10 in the final period. Cazzie Russell led the Knicks with 18.

Indians Go On Warpath

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) —It was all Arkansas State in this week's Southland Conference back and lineman poll.

Tailback Frank McGuigan of the Indians was chosen the offensive player of the week. He picked up 124 yards in 25 carries in a 48-17 victory over Lamar Tech.

Linebacker Bill Bergey received the defensive player of the week award. He made 17 tackles and deflected three passes in the Arkansas State victory.

Five Juco 11's Have Title Shot

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five teams have a chance for the Texas Junior College Football Federation title in the closing two weeks of the campaign.

Henderson County and Kilgore are tied for the lead with 4-1 records. Tyler, Blinn and Navarro are close behind with 3-2 marks.

The Cardinals broke the race open with a 7-6 victory over Kilgore last Saturday. Tyler stayed alive by downing Wharton 37-16. Blinn romped past Cisco 42-12, and Navarro survived 8-7 over Ranger.

The schedule this weekend shows Kilgore at Wharton, Henderson County at Tyler; Blinn at Ranger; and Navarro at Cisco.

Stewart Sidelined

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) —Texas Tech will be without rugged fullback Jackie Stewart when it battles Texas Christian Saturday in a Southwest Conference game at Lubbock.

Coach J. T. King said Tony Butler will man Stewart's post. Stewart has a knee injury.

Big Joe Is Mean Greenie

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Joe Greene is 6-foot-4 and 274 pounds, and he's given credit for putting the mean in North Texas State's alternate nickname of the Mean Green.

For three years, Greene has been intimidating North Texas opponents, and winning the praise of his coaches and those of the foes.

"He's a great football player and gave us fits all night," said Arkansas' Frank Broyles after Greene led a defensive charge which scared the Razorbacks before they subdued North Texas 17-15 two weeks ago.

"He's the best lineman we've faced the last three years, and an outstanding All-American prospect," said Coach Frank Camp of Louisville.

And, Greene's own coach, Rod Rust, had this to say: "There are two factors behind Joe's success. First, he has the ability to make the big defensive play and turn the tempo of the game around.

"Second, he has the speed to be an excellent pursuit player. He's stronger than most, but Joe's main forte is his pursuit."

Sam Houston Stars Shine

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Sam Houston quarterback David Kubiak and tackle George Wright have been named back and lineman of the week respectively for their play Saturday in a 30-28 Lone Star Conference victory over Stephen F. Austin.

Kubiak, who played at CyFair High in Houston, completed 13 of 25 pases for 165 yards and two touchdowns.

Wright, from Houston King High, was responsible for destroying the Lumberjack running game.

Darel, Colonels Rout Minnesota

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

As far as the Minnesota Pipers are concerned, Darel Carrier sure picked a lousy time to go on a 48-point scoring binge.

Carrier's career-tying outburst Wednesday night guided the Kentucky Colonels to a 131-112 rout of the Pipers—their first setback in five American Basketball Association games this season.

In other ABA activity, Denver nipped Indiana 109-107 in overtime, Miami whipped New Orleans 123-109 and Los Angeles defeated Dallas 123-117.

Over in the National Basketball Association, Cincinnati topped Chicago 133-122, Detroit pounded Seattle 127-118, Los Angeles breezed past Milwaukee 128-115, Baltimore routed Atlanta 140-119 and San Francisco edged New York94-93.

Carrier, who scored 48 points in a game with New Orleans last season, drilled in seven three-point shots from beyond the 25-foot range in powering Kentucky from a five-point halftime deficit to a 92-84 command at the end of three quarters.

Darel's showing oversha dowed performances by Minnesota's three gunners—Connie Hawkins, Charles Vaughn and Charlie Williams. Hawkins had 32 points while Vaughn, who hit six straight three-point attempts, and Williams each had 26.

Denver's Wayne Hightower connected on a hook shot with 16 seconds left to send the game into overtime, and Larry Jones tallied on a driving layup and later hit a crucial free throw in the extra session, enabling the Rockets to win their first game in five starts.

Lonnie Wright led Denver with 26 points, while Indiana's Mel Daniels had 29.

Miami trailed by as much as 16 points in the third quarter before launching a rally that made the Floridians' home debut a success.

Les Hunter scored 33 points and grabbed 15 rebounds, including vital ones when Miami outscored the Bucs 23-2 at the end of the third period and start of the final session. Austin Robbins and James Jones each scored 23 for New Orleans.

Los Angeles overcame an early 21-5 deficit in handing winless Dallas its third straight setback. Steve Chubin triggered the Stars' comeback.

Chubin's basket with 37 seconds left in the third quarter put Los Angeles ahead 91-90. Ron Boone gave the Chaps the lead again but Chubin's three-point goal on a 40-footer enabled the Stars to go in front at the end of the period.

Ben Warley topped Los Angeles with 40 points and Chubin contributed 27. Charley Beasley was high for the Chaparrals with 35.

Will The Lack Of Service Be An American Failure?

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — In an economy becoming more oriented toward the sale of services, the sad fact is that many Americans feel they are not getting what they pay for.

Not only is this an important key to understanding consumer discontent, it seems also to provide an area for the new administration in Washington to make great advances in the quality of American life.

You name it, Americans are complaining about it: drugs, cars, toys, food prices, stocks, supermarkets, mutual funds, advertising, tires, housing insurance health care. This amidst material plenty.

To correct the problem will offer the newly elected officials a challenge and an opportunity.

In the opinion of some students, the fault lies as much with the service as with the product, with the repairman and the salesman and the billing department.

Merchants and others readily admit that a breakdown has developed in communications between buyer and seller, adviser and client, user and producer, and that complaints often fill the gap. Transactions today often are impersonal.

In times not long past the buyer placed his hand upon the very product he wished to buy, spoke about it to an interested salesman, handed over cash and walked out of the store with product in hand.

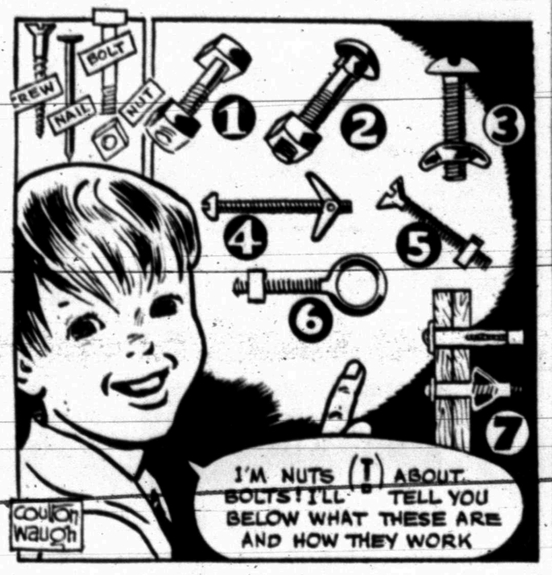

Today he may purchase without ever contacting a salesman or seeing the goods. He may order by telephone, by the serial number, and find the product delivered by a third party, with the bill arriving later by mail.

Self-service is in vogue, both as a means of beating the labor shortage and lower costs and sometimes prices. But even where salesmen are involved, suggests Jack I. Straus, chairman of the executive committee of R. H. Macy & Co., problems are common.

Straus was quoted in the Wall Street Journal as saying: "What is there about the act of serving others that today seems demeaning to so many people. . . .? Why does a clerk in a store (yes, even in Macy's) seem uninterested in waiting on a customer who's willing and anxious to make a purchase. . . .?"

He commented: "In fact, the lack of salesmanship is threatening to become the significant failure of American enterprise. . . ."

Junior Editors Quiz on BOLTS

QUESTION: What are the different kinds of bolts?

* * * *

ANSWER: We'll let Billy explain. "Screws and nails," he says, "are okay, but I like bolts because when something is bolted together, you just can't tear it apart. Number (1) is the machine bolt; great for metal, you use a wrench to tighten or loosen the square or six-sided heads and nuts. Carriage bolts (2) have tricky heads, both rounded and square, which makes them cool to use in wood. (3) is a stove bolt — you can set it up by turning the thumbscrew and then really tighten it with a screwdriver. (4), the toggle bolt, can be put through with toggles flat; they spring up on the other side. (5), another kind of stove bolt, uses both screwhead and nut. (6) is an eyebolt, to tie things to. (7) is my favorite, the screw anchor. Drill a hole, slip the anchor through and use the screwdriver. The anchor expands on the other side. You can get all these bolts in different sizes and there are other kinds. How about making a collection of all you can find? It's fun — so happy bolting!"

Many Prefer To Relive The Past

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — We are always being admonished to prepare for the future.

But most of us, being the contrary creatures that we are, prefer to relive the past, over and over and over.

One doesn't have to look very hard to find the reason. The future is a gamble, an unknown full of potential dread and new dragons. The past is a more comfortable place. We have survived its perils, slain its dragons, and turned it into a memory garden which is pleasant indeed to revisit.

There are a lot of blooms in your own memory garden if you can look back and remember when—

The only people who played golf were those who could really afford to.

Hatcheck girls looked grateful if you put a dime on the counter to retrieve your bonnet.

Most workers carried their sandwiches in tin lunch buckets instead of imitation leather briefcases.

One of the hated chores of childhood was having to put blacking on the big pot-bellied coal stove in the living room.

It cost as much to buy the sack of popcorn as it did to go into the movie.

Every housewife had the dull conviction that sometime during her matrimonial career she'd have to deal with the problem of bedbugs.

A college rebel was any male student who objected to joining the ROTC.

No one had heard of the dangers of a population explosion, and motherhood was the one thing on earth that stood above criticism.

If you looked at a painting in an art gallery, you could tell at a glance what it was—and whether it was hung right side up.

The quality of a saloon was judged by the variety of its free lunch and whether its brass cuspidors were brightly polished.

It was easier to detect a dyed blonde than it was to spot a counterfeit $5 bill.

A poor person was one who bought day-old bread at the bakery because the price was lower.

Every small town had at least one haunted house that children were afraid to pass by alone after dark.

As a Gypsy caravan approached, children fled to the safety of their front porches, mortally certain that, if they didn't, they'd be kidnaped and never see home again.

A juvenile delinquent was a sneaky kid who put rocks in the snowballs he threw at adult passers-by.

Girls wore dresses so long that if they had chapped knees nobody knew it but them.

Five Killed In Crash

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — Five motorists died and three suffered injuries in a highway crash involving two cars and a heavy truck about 11:30 p.m. Wednesday.

State patrolman Bob Gray said a southbound car clipped the rear wheels of the truck and collided head-on with the second automobile 16 miles north of the Anna community, 20 miles south of here in North Texas.

It was raining at the time.

Gray listed these dead: Wendell A. Rich, 51, of Denison; George Holmes, 24, and Mildred Fowler, 20, both of McKinney; Kenneth R. Samuels, 20, of Dallas, and an unidentified woman, about 20 believed from Beaumont.

The officer said a car driven by Leonard F. Tell about 20, glanced off the truck's rear wheels and collided with the vehicle driven by Billy Don Rich, 25, of Denison, son of one of the dead.

Injuries also were suffered by Mary E. Rich, 51, mother of Billy Don.

Except for the Rich family, all the dead and injured were in the car operated by Tell. It took rescuers 45 minutes to free four of them from the wreckage of that automobile.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a husband who spends more than he earns? Sam is very extravagant, and says as long as he's the one who makes the money in the family he can spend it as he sees fit. (He doesn't save a dime.)

We're behind on our payments for things he's bought on time, and since Sam has insisted on handling the checkbook we are always overdrawn.

My husband's occupation? An accountant.

FED UP

DEAR FED UP: So what is new? The shoemaker's kids go barefoot, doctors neglect their own health, and lawyers get into legal jams. So why can't an accountant mishandle his own money? My advice to you it to take your books out of your husband's office before you wind up in the poor house.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13-year-old boy and I hate school. How do I get kicked out?

SICK OF SCHOOL

DEAR SICK: School - haters need advice on how to STAY IN school, not how to get kicked out. Stay with it. You'll recover, and I promise you, you'll never regret it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for "HEARTSICK," the young wife who found some beads in the front seat of her husband's car.

Several years ago, I left my husband in a restaurant to curl up in the front seat of the car as it was very late and I was exhausted. It was pitch dark in the parking area.

I kicked off my shoes and curled up in the front seat of what turned out to be the same make and model car as ours. The next thing I knew, a strange man was shaking me awake, asking me what I was doing in his car? I was so frightened and mortified that I ran off without my shoes.

I am still "heartsick" for that poor man who no doubt had to explain the presence of a pair of ladies' shoes in his car. Your advice — to give the husband a break even in the face of all that incriminating evidence — was excellent.

"CONFIDENTIAL TO 'HUNGRY FOR LOVE' ON FRANKLN AVENUE": You give me not a clew as to why you are "love-starved," but if you are like most women with the same complaint, may I give you a few?

What kind of reception does YOUR man get when he comes home?

Most men drag their weary bodies home after a hard day of wrestling with bosses, customers, and competitive co-workers. No sooner do they get a foot in the door when the little woman hits them with junior's report card, or the news that Penelope needs a new dress for the prom.

During dinner, the old arguments are aired about Susie's make-up and David's hair. Also, the wash machine man was there today and said that to fix the machine would cost nearly as much as a new one, so how about it?

Then evening falls, and the bedroom is supposed to be transformed into the honeymoon suite at the Waldorf. Ha! He is tired, and she is tired of being told he's tired.

So, improve your timing, Lady. Greet your man at the door with a smile and a kiss. Shove the bills in the drawer, table those complaints, and tell the kids to keep quiet or you'll put a muzzle on 'em. If you want to be loved, set the emotional climate in your home.

DETERMINED CONTENDER FOR PRESIDENCY

Nixon's Feat Without Precedent

NEW YORK (AP) - Sitting in his New York apartment a few months ago, relaxed and waiting, Richard M. Nixon seemed slightly bemused to find himself once again in the race for the Presidency.

He put his feet on a coffee table and said to a visitor: You know, nobody would have dreamed a year ago that you and I would be sitting here on March 12 with the situation as it is today. Who would have predicted that in 1964? Who would have predicted it, as a matter of fact, in 1960?"

March 12 was the date of the New Hampshire presidential primary. By nightfall, Nixon knew he had won an impressive victory. And although a long and dangerous road lay ahead, he also knew he had taken his first step in his second try for the presidency.

If his political expertise gave him certain advantages, he was carrying serious political liabilities as well.

There was the "loser" label, pinned on him after his defeats in 1960 and 1962.

There was the period of comparative obscurity.

And finally, having moved from his native California to New York he was operating without a power base, without a strong and well-heeled state organization to support him.

In a word, Nixon was attempting a feat without precedent in American political history.

When he started his drive, Nixon had just passed his 55th birthday. He was practicing law in New York, earning substantial sums of money, enjoying life with his family, his wife Pat and their daughters, Julie and Tricia.

Nixon has been in politics, or on the fringes, since 1946.

As the off-year elections approached at that time, Republican leaders in the 12th Congressional District of California began looking for a candidate for Congress.

They approached Dr. Walter Dexter, erstwhile president of Whittier College. He advised them to consider one of his former students, Richard Milhous Nixon, honor student, lawyer, civic leader, now a lieutenant commander in the Navy.

The GOP chiefs quietly looked into Nixon's record. This is what they found:

He was born Feb. 9, 1913, in Yorba Linda, a tiny community not far from Whittier. His father was a small businessman. As a schoolboy, Nixon worked as a ranch hand, picking beans. He held jobs as a janitor in a school, a sweeper in a packing house and an attendant in a gasoline station.

He liked sports and he tried, persistently but without success, for a place on the Whittier College football team. "Dick had two left feet," a classmate recalled, "but he never stopped trying."

When he graduated from college, the Harvard Club of California awarded him its prize as the outstanding student of his class.

He then applied for a scholarship at the Duke University Law School. Dr. Dexter, supporting the application, wrote that he expected Nixon to become "one of America's important leaders."

During the three years at Duke, Nixon was elected president of the university's bar association and was taken into a national scholastic fraternity for honor students at law.

He then returned to Whittier and entered a law firm.

Along with his practice, Nixon engaged in numerous civic activities and it was one of these interests that led him to attend tryouts for a Little Theater play.

There he met a pretty blonde named Thelma Ryan. She told him her father, a miner, had nicknamed her "Pat," that she came from Ely, Nev., and had been teaching school in Whittier for several months.

A little more than a year later, June 21, 1940, they were married.

When the Pacific war broke out, Nixon joined the Navy as a lieutenant. He served in the South Pacific Air Transport Command.

The California Republicans offered him the nomination for Congress in 1946.

Nixon's first fight looked none too hopeful in the beginning.

The 12th District was mainly Republican. But for years it had been sending to Congress a Democrat, Jerry Voorhis. Obviously he was popular with both Republicans and Democrats.

One of the ironies of Nixon's career is that the political debate helped him win in 1946, whereas in 1960 it was a major factor in his defeat. He debated Voorhis five times, and he said later, "Once the first debate was over, I was on my way to eventual victory."

He won by a vote of 65,586 to 49,994.

Voorhis later described him as "quite a ruthless opponent." Nixon retorted, "Our campaign was a very honest debate on the issues."

He was nominated by both parties for a second term in 1948. At the end of it, he decided to run for the Senate. He defeated the former actress, Helen Gahagan Douglas, by 680,000 votes, 59.2 per cent of the total. Again, he was accused of unfair campaign tactics.

Nixon quickly became a controversial figure in Washington.

He played a leading part in the investigation of Alger Hiss, a former State Department officer, by the House Un-American Activities Committee in 1948. Hiss was convicted of perjury and served a term in prison.

Nixon helped draft the Taft-Hartley law which President Truman opposed. The law was passed over Truman's veto.

Next, Nixon plunged into the controversy that erupted when Truman stripped Gen. Douglas MacArthur of his Far Eastern commands in 1951. Nixon sponsored a resolution of confidence in MacArthur.

He had been in Washington only six years when he was suddenly catapulted into national politics. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became the GOP nominee for President in 1952. He asked the delegates to the national convention to nominate Nixon for vice president by acclamation. They did.

Nixon, at 39, became the second youngest vice president in history. John C. Breckenridge was 35 when he was elected as James Buchanan's vice president.

But before the election, Nixon found himself making unwelcome headlines when the so-called "Nixon Fund" was disclosed. A group of California businessmen contributed $18,000 to the fund. Nixon was to use it as he pleased. In the furor, some GOP leaders urged that Nixon be dropped from the ticket.

Defending himself, Nixon delivered on television what is still known as his "Checkers Speech" because of a reference to his cocker spaniel. He reported the findings of an audit and said, "Not one penny of the $18,000 or any other money of that type ever went for my personal use."

The speech kept Nixon on the ticket.

Eisenhower made greater use of his vice president than any other previous chief executive. He sent Nixon as his emissary to 56 countries. In Caracas, Venezuela, a mob smashed the windows of his car, endangering his life. In Moscow, he took on Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in the famous "Kitchen Debate," arguing ideology in a model of an American kitchen at an exhibit in 1959.

But nothing so enhanced Nixon's prestige as the way he handled himself after Eisenhower was stricken by a heart attack on Sept. 25, 1955. Nixon said later:

"What I thought of ... was not the awesome problems I would have if I should become president, but how I could best handle my immediate responsibility as vice president."

Then came 1960.

Few Americans will ever forget that campaign, Nixon's TV debates with John F. Kennedy, the neck-and-neck race down to the last hour, and the final result—Kennedy winning by one tenth of one per cent, the closest national election in 76 years.

Nixon returned to California and in 1962 he ran for governor. The incumbent, Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, defeated him by 297,758 votes.

Exhausted by the hard campaign and shocked by the defeat, Nixon appeared before about 100 reporters and the TV cameras after the election and said, bitterly, "You won't have Nixon to kick around any longer because, gentlemen, this is my last press conference."

This appeared to end, irrevocably, Nixon's career. Numerous commentators wrote his political obituary.

But five years later, Nixon was very much in the presidential picture again. Two Associated Press surveys in 1967 showed he was a runaway choice of GOP leaders to be the nominee in 1968. There was no mystery as to how he reached that position.

He had earned a tremendous amount of gratitude between 1964 and 1966 by campaigning tirelessly for Republican candidates for the House, the Senate and for governorships.

Butchers End Strike

HOUSTON (AP) — Union butchers return to many Houston area supermarkets today following a five-day strike and lockout.

Members of Butchers Union Local 408 accepted a new contract Wednesday from the Gulf Coast Retail Grocers Association.

The new contract gave journeymen and head meat cutters a wage increase totaling $22 per week over a 24 month period. The old wage was $135 per week for head meat cutters and $124 a week for journeymen.

About 300 union members struck Weingarten's Food Markets last Friday. Other chains, members of the grocers association, locked out their butchers saying a strike against one member was a strike against all members.

Starch, a carbohydrate, is found in great amounts in almost every living plant and serves as a reserve food supplement while the plant is dormant.
