GO-FOR-INDUSTRY

17 More 'Go' Fund Investors

Colorado City's Go-For-Industry fund moved up to the $28,672 mark Saturday.

Seventeen new investors joined the growing list of businesses, industries and individuals who have put their cash into the community-wide campaign.

The new group of investors added $2,672 since the mid-week report from Colorado City Industrial Team Inc. and Chamber of Commerce.

At mid-week the total amount invested was $26,002.

Goal is a minimum of $50,000 in cash - money which will provide a fund with which Colorado City can compete successfully with other communities for a new industry.

The $28,672 reported at 3 p. m. Friday represents more than 57 per cent of the minimum goal.

Leaders in the campaign, urged in a public meeting after it was announced that two garment manufacturing firms were looking at Colorado City for possible location of new plants, are hopeful, Go-For-Industry will raise more than the minimum $50,000.

Here are the latest investors in the fund:

Tom Glover $10, Woodrow Crabtree $25, Mildred's Beauty

Shop $10, Judy's Beauty Shop $10, Fle's Beauty Shop $30, Lilly's Beauty Shop $30, Jackie's Beauty Shop $30, Ben Franklin Store $900, Kiker & Son $100, Kirschbaum's $200, Safeway Food Stores Inc. $1,000, J. Woman Hurt In Accident

Mrs. Eual (Bea) Henderson, 620 Elm St., was painfully injured in a fall on a downtown sidewalk Thursday morning and underwent surgery for a fractured left hip Saturday morning at 9 a. m. in Root Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Henderson, longtime employee in the Fair Department store, was crossing the street with an empty cola bottle when she and Wayne Graig, also a pedestrian, collided.

Impact of the unusual accident knocked Mrs. Henderson to the sidewalk. She was rushed to the hospital by Kiker ambulance where she was treated for cuts on her hand and where x-rays showed the broken hip.

Robert D. Hunter Banquet Soloist

Special entertainment for the Thursday, Jan. 16, Chamber of Commerce banquet in the Civic House will feature Robert (Bob) D. Hunter, talented soloist.

Hunter, assistant to the president of Abilene Christian College, will present a group of songs with commentary in poetry and prose.

Subject for his entertainment feature is to be "Heritage and Home." Accompanist will be Mrs. Jane Duncan, senior music major at ACC.

The singing guest has been at ACC since 1956 and has been assistant to the president for public relations and development since 1961.

He holds his BEA from ACC and was attending University of Texas Law School when commissioned a Naval Reserve officer at Newport, R. I. As a naval officer he served during the Korean conflict as aide for two different admirals.

He and his wife, the former Shirley Long of Austin, were married in 1953 in the Presbyterian International Church in Bangkok, Thailand, by a Baptist missionary from Baylor University.

Hunter's two previous appearances before Colorado City audiences were warmly received and drew praise for their originality, poetic continuity, and selective repertoire.

Congress Approves Grant

$13,220 Okayed For City Plan

Colorado City was notified Friday that its application for Urban Planning Assistance has been approved by Congress.

The long-awaited approval makes $13,220 available by federal grant for Urban Planning Assistance here.

Telegrams from Congressman Omar Burleson to the Colorado City Record and to Mayor John H. Chinn read, "Pleased to announce approval $13,220 Urban Planning Assistance grant for comprehensive planning for growth and development of Colorado City. Will cover 2/3 total cost planning, supplemented by $6,610 local funds. Grant will finance planning activities for 16 months."

Later Friday morning the Austin, Texas, office of Senator Ralph Yarborough called the Record to report the approval of the Colorado City application.

Originally submitted by Colorado City Council in September 1967, the application was prepared by Parkhill, Smith &

Cooper, the city's consulting engineering firm and by Nathan L. Kiser, consulting planner of Austin.

Mayor Chinn and the city manager, J. A. Sadler, Jr., expect, they said Friday afternoon, the contract to be consummated in about 30 days and the Urban Planning study to start at that time.

Federal grant for the project will be disbursed by the Texas State Department when HUD (Housing Urban Development) notifies the department of approval by Congress.

The 18-page application outlines fully a master plan for Urban Development here.

Base mapping of the planning area will show roads, lots and block lines, streets, drainage ways, corporate limits, and where possible property lines of larger tracts. Mapping is the first step to be done by Kiser who visited Colorado City in March 1968.

Second step will be basic studies of the history of the community in terms of events, population growth, economic development and governmental activities. Basic studies will include environmental factors that tend to influence development; the general terrain; soil and geological features; climatic conditions.

Land use studies will be the third step. The entire Colorado City area will be surveyed in terms of residential area, commercial, industrial and related area, institutional and public areas, open land, and government properties.

Coupled with the land use studies will be a neighborhood analysis to determine standards of development and extent of blight and a survey of all dwellings not adequately served by public utilities. The survey will include ethnic makeup, income, size of families, and special characteristics. Program for eliminating sub-standard living conditions will be made to serve as guide to the city administration.

Fourth step in the master plan will be circulation - a study of transportation and of the central business district. Study of thoroughfares, including state and county highways and roads will be made to determine the location, size and quality of arterial roads and streets needed in the planning area.

An overall master plan of the central business district will be made with priorities for stage development.

Utilities - water, sewer, and drainage will be step five. Future extension and expansion on a stage basis will be outlined and mapped.

Next step will be a study of public facilities. School facilities for present and future requirements will be studied. Standards for future development of a school plan will be prepared and a school plan developed in cooperation with school authorities.

Park and recreational facilities will determine the adequacy of existing park and recreational facilities and standards for future development in those areas suggested.

Public buildings and facilities will be surveyed to determine their adequacy, standards recommended, and a public building plan prepared.

Planning and administrative ordinances will be fully explored and the consultant will supply technical material necessary for any change in existing zoning ordinance.

Capital improvements possible will be analyzed in an itemized forecast to 1992. Municipal revenues, operating and maintenance costs, financial policies and practices will be examined and the city debt structure analyzed.

Comprehensive plan report (master plan) is expected to require 12 months to complete, said Sadler, the city manager.

City officials, Sadler said, had first hoped for approval of the federal fund grant last June. They then set approval target date for September.

Total cost of the comprehensive plan studies, surveys, and report is $18,600.

Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance is presenting the book, "Halford Lucecock Treasury," to the Mitchell County Public Library.

The gift book honors the Rev. L. B. Edwards, pastor of Westbrook Baptist Church since 1965 who is moving to Caverna Baptist Church in Carlsbad, N. M.

Rev. Edwards has been serving as president of the Ministerial Alliance here.

City Accidents Cost $52,570

Traffic accidents within the city limits of Colorado City totaled 135 in 1968 according to figures in Police Department records, compiled by Jesse Browning, chief of police here.

Estimated property damages were $52,570 - more than $1,000 each week by average, the figures show.

City's traffic accidents for the previous year, 1967, totaled 102 - or 33 fewer in-city accidents, Chief Browning noted.

One pedestrian death was attributed to a traffic accident, in the year just past.

Causes for accidents within city limits were topped by failure to yield right of way, 40.

Failure to control speed to prevent an accident was cited in 28 accidents.

Improper start of vehicle from parked position caused 19 accidents.

Passing violations were credited with 15 accidents, improper turn with 8 accidents, and DWI (driving while intoxicated) with 8 in-city wrecks.

Failure to set brakes accounted for 6 accidents investigated by local police. Following too close was blamed for 7 accidents.

One accident was listed on police records as "unavoidable," and cause of one crash was cited as caused "willfully."

Soil District To Pick Outstanding

Board members of Mitchell County Soil and Water Conservation District in a meeting Monday appointed Curtis E. Latimer, Rex T. McKenney, and Bobby Lemons as a committee to choose the county's outstanding farmer-conservationist for 1968.

Farmer chosen will be entered by the Mitchell District in the annual outstanding conservationist contest annually sponsored by the Ft. Worth daily newspaper.

Members of the board, with Travis Turner as chairman, also approved a proposal that the local district dispose of certain farm equipment owned by district membership.

To be sold at public auction will be shredders, seeders, and other farm equipment now out on loan on various farms scattered over the county.

"We hope to gather it all up and set the auction date," said Turner. Farmers who have the equipment are asked by the board to bring that equipment to town and leave it either on the Tandy Currie lot or with the custodian.

Serving with Turner on the board are Warren Anderson, vice-chairman; Jimmy Harrison, secretary; Cecil Erwin and Morgan Wright, members.

Carol Little Is Bride of William C. (Chip) Cochran

Miss Carol Little of Midland and William C. (Chip) Cochran of Odessa were married Saturday in an afternoon ceremony in First Baptist Church of Loraine.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Little Sr. of Loraine.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cochran of Newnan, Ga.

Rev. Clarence Minton, church pastor, read wedding vows at 4 p. m.

Church altar was set with four cathedral candelabra holding pale pink tapers and accented by pale pink bows and garlands of English boxwood.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a floor length gown of re-embroidered Alencon lace in floral design over white peau de soie. Bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long slim sleeves which tapered to petal points over her hands. Her Watteau train extended from the shoulders.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace tiara of seed pearls.

She carried a crescent bouquet of white stephanotis, centered with a white orchid, atop a white Bible. White streamers and love knots fell from the arrangement.

Mrs. David Little of Midland, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Shirley Hale of Midland was maid of honor.

They wore floor-length gowns of happiness rose chiffon over peau de soie styled with three-quarter length sleeves and trains which extended to their hemlines.

Attendants carried colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds, tied with pink streamers. Their headpieces were fashioned from pink rosebuds.

Flower girls were Pamela Little of Midland, niece of the bride, and Jana Britton of Loraine. They wore dresses of happiness rose.

Candies were lighted by David Little of Midland, the bride's brother, and Gary Parnell of Post, her cousin.

Ron Morgan of Pecos was best man. Jett Green of Odessa served as groomsman.

Fellowship Hall of the church was setting for a reception honoring the bridal couple.

Bride's table was covered with white lace over a pink skirt and set with a four-tiered cake decorated with pink wedding bells and white roses.

Crystal candelabras with pink tapers completed table decor.

Serving in the houseparty were Miss Carol Bufkin, Miss Donna Phillips and Mrs. Larry Rankin, all of Midland.

For their honeymoon trip to Ruidosa, N.M., the bride wore a pink wool suit.

James Paces Win

Final Tune-up For District

They started counting 'em early Friday night for Coach
Cady Mathews Colorado High Wolves.

Hitting an impressive 75 per cent of their field shots, they added up a 46-29 lead at the half for an advantage Sweetwater Mustangs could never over come.

When it was all over, the Wolves had an 85-65 success to send 'em toward their 3-AAA debut Tuesday.

Big Lyncal James, who was all-state last year in AA competition, led the Wolves with 38 points - 15 field goals and 8 free throws.

Randy Parker connected for 12 while Willie Hopkins and Robert Bender, the playmakers, each counted 10.

The Wolves were never behind. Bender opened with a looping success from the corner, Parker hit with a left-hander and James eased in a layup for a 6-2 lead.

Walker verbally voiced his disapproval of the officiating and the aroused Mustang bench caused one technical foul against his team in the second half.

In one protest on the court, he heatedly spoke to an official
"I ask is that you be fair to my boys."

How warm was James, who does heavy duty under the baskets for the Wolves? He missed only two field goal attempts - swishing the baskets for 15 of 17, an amazing 88 per cent.

His 38 points came from all areas before he was substituted with almost 3 minutes remaining in the final quarter.
He was especially valuable on rebounds, rebounding his teammates' near misses for two-points.

James' free throw average was cooler, successful 8 of 13 chances.

The Wolves, who outscored the Ponies 21-16 and 25-13 in the first two periods while missing only 6 of 24 goal attempts, cooled off in the second half. But their deliberate style of play still kept 'em safely ahead.

In those two final quarters - and subs were in and out of the lineup especially in the late stages - they fell off to a 39 per cent, sinking 12 of 31 field goal tries.

Coach Jess Walker's Sweetwater crew were 13 of 26 in the first half for 50 per cent, 13 of 32 in the final two quarters for 43 per cent.

First, District 3-AAA encounter for the Wolves will be here in Colorado City Tuesday night against Lake View.
B-Team contest will start at 6:30 p. m. with the varsity taking the floor immediately following.

In their clash with Sweetwater here Friday night, the C-City
B dropped a 47-60 decision.

Next, the Wolves will lead the Sweetwater B with 7 field goals and one gratis shot for 15. Nearby were his teammates, Farris Monroe with 11 and Terry Gill with 10.

Carl Devorce, the big sophomore, again was top scorer for Coach Dell Riley's C-City B with 15 points.

Sweetwater was out front 7-6 at end of the first quarter and increased the advantage as the game sped on. At the half it was 25 to 18.

The C-City crew were 41 per cent on free throws, 11 of 27 while Sweetwater was almost 50 per cent, 10 of 21.

Club Speaker Suggests Bird Study as Rewarding Hobby

"Bird study is a most rewarding hobby," Mrs. J. E. Coles of Loraine told members of Colorado City Garden Club and their guests Wednesday afternoon in Community Center.

Mrs. Coles, guest speaker for the afternoon study, "Birds: Winged Beauty, Nature's Pest Control" explained that birds have a charm and personality all their own.

"Birds call on us during drab winter days with their bright colors and happy chirping."

"All birds are happy. They were put here for a purpose so let's protect them," Mrs. Coles cautioned.

She emphasized the good that birds do saying, "The bird has a particular job to fulfill and nothing in nature can take its place. This job is to preserve the balance of nature's forces."

Texas leads in the number of different species of birds with 540.

"If we did not have birds to eat insects," she continued, "all food would be gone in nine years. Birds eat the insects that we have been taught that severe cold weather would destroy."

The speaker described the finch family - grosbeak, goldfinch and bunting - as particularly valuable in the amount of weed seeds they eat.

"The only thing that seriously endangers the survival of the winged species is man," the group was told.

In concluding Mrs. Coles said, "How beautifully the Bible's Song of Solomon expresses the feeling of joy and new life that spring time and the glimpse of the first robin bring."

Mrs. Coles was introduced by Mrs. L. J. Taylor, a co-hostess for the afternoon. Also hostess for the program was Mrs. Roy Davis Coles.

Mrs. L. L. Comer and Mrs. Taylor presided at the refreshment table.

ANTIQUE JEWELRY

The beginning of the New Year is always a good time for inventory. I know that we jewelers must do it with great care, naturally, for it is an important part of our post-Christmas business. Following the inventory, then it is time to start scouting the market for beautiful and new jewelry creations to please you and other customers, and to suit those important gift-giving occasions.

There is one type of jewelry that seems to maintain its fashion standing throughout the years. That is the beautiful Victorian antique jewelry that was made prior to the twentieth century. Since there is not too much of this available today for new customers, some of our finer jewelry manufacturers are making modern pieces with the same antique look and quality of design. These pieces use interesting colored gems plus cultured pearls in rich gold settings, many diamond-sparked. In some cases, the faithful reproductions of antique jewels are of better construction according to today's standards and improved methods.

However, there is a certain feeling in having authentic pieces that were perhaps once worn by loved family members. These heirloom pieces often need only a little refurbishing to become a special delight again. Since antique jewelry is in the fashion forefront, you might make an inventory of your own jewel case to see what you have. We can replace lost stone, re-cut and polish damaged ones, strengthen metal work and make minor modifications in design. We will be happy to advise you on your antique jewelry. Stop in soon.
