Border Town Days

There is always a time when the typewriter is an inadequate tool. For us, such a time is now. We are announcing the resignation of our good friend and invaluable news editor, Chris Moss.

Chris has served as the Tribune's principal writer of local news for the past nine years, and has won the admiration of not only her fellow journalists but of the people she has served. A person can always be replaced but it is a rare person indeed who will always be remembered with love and affection. In the continuing history of the Twin Cities, Chris Moss is such a person.

We hope to be able to soon announce a permanent replacement for Mrs. Moss, but in the meantime, please bear with our efforts; and keep those calls coming in!

This week we are knee-deep in the fourth annual AJRA Rodeo sponsored by the Farwell Roping Association. From information gathered by talking to people over a wide area of these High Plains, this is one of the outstanding rodeo attractions in this part of the country. Certainly it is the product of many hours of time and effort by dedicated members of this local club.

As a by-product of the rodeo we also have the Border Town Days celebration which gets the attention and interest of folks from over a large area. The parade on Thursday afternoon is far above average for communities of this size. We think that the large crowds of spectators attest to this fact.

Again this year the community is fortunate to have the Saturday afternoon Bar-B-Que meat prepared by Adolph and Henry Haseloff. These men enjoy a well-earned reputation in the Southwest for their culinary ability in this field. There ain't nobody nowhere better than these men at this business!

One of the brightest stars in the Texas educational crown is about to glow with lasting brilliance. We refer to the Texas State Technical Institute that is about to begin its fall term in Amarillo. The present plans call for all classes to be conducted in a 65,000 sq. ft. brick air-conditioned building. Students will live in dormitories a short distance from the classrooms, and a cafeteria and student union building are also nearby.

The school will offer courses in airframe mechanics, technical communications, commercial arts and advertising, building construction craftsmanship and technology, graphics design and technology, farm and ranch operations, and farm industrial equipment mechanics.

Certainly a good start in turning out the valuable tradesmen that our society needs. We believe that not all young people need or should go to college, but do believe that all young people are entitled to the education that will assure them a good living in today's complex world. We agree with many folks that much of today's "education" is irrelevant, but we think that we could not agree on just what courses are irrelevant.

Hurray for the Texas American Legion -- they have come up with a very sensible program to better the lot of our American servicemen who are prisoners of the unconscionable North Vietnamese. The basis of this Legion program is to demand that our so-called allies and friends get off their duffs and actively help us. Secondly, it calls for the powers that originally signed the treaty ending the French Indo-China war to live up to their signatures; and finally it calls upon the UN to rouse itself and enforce its own charter provisions.

The penalty for any of these forms of help not being promptly rendered would be for Uncle Sam to forthwith cut off his aid and funds. Could you imagine the consternation in may world Capitols and in the UN if they had to go it alone without our freely given tax monies?

This is a very reasonable approach, but it's an odds on bet that the congressional doves will bury this idea in a sea of semantics. Most common sense is thus lost in "foggybottom."

Plans for the annual Border Town Days celebration were completed early this week at meetings of the Roping Arena Association and the Farwell Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, co-sponsors of the annual celebration.

The celebration will be kicked off with a gigantic rodeo in downtown Texico-Farwell at 4:30 this afternoon (Thursday). Rodeo performances will be conducted each evening during the celebration at the Farwell Roping Arena. Herbert Williams, formerly of Farwell who now lives in Lubbock, will be announcer for the rodeo performances.

Fred Chandler is again serving as parade marshal. Chandler announces that floats will be judged by Mrs. Mabel Reynolds, B. V. Hughes and Hugh Preston. Cash awards of $25, $15, and $10 will be presented for the floats, which are judged to be best Announcement of the winners will be made at the first rodeo performance on Thursday evening.

Several riding clubs are expected to be on hand for the parade. The clubs will be judged by a panel of impartial judges, and trophies will be presented to the first and second place clubs. All local business firms and individuals are invited to participate in the parade.

The Chamber of Commerce is issuing an invitation to all area residents to meet at the J. T. Ford home Friday, July 31, at 1 p.m. to assist in loading wood for the barbecue Saturday.

The barbecue will be cooked by Henry and Adolph Haseloff, who have been cooks for the annual feed since the first Border Town Days celebration. Mrs. Velma McDorman will prepare vegetables for the meal and the Lions Club and Rotary Club will assist in serving the meal. Dutch Quicquel, speaking for the Lions Club, said, "We accept the challenge of the Rotarians and will match them man for man with the work if we don't have to play ball." The barbecue will be served at the city park beginning at 5 p.m. Saturday afternoon. Price of the meal is $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children. Potatoes for the meal have been donated by Buck Gregory.

Riding in the parade on Thursday and also participating in the grand entry each evening at the rodeo performances will be Miss AJRA 1970, Miss Becky Bland of Trent, Tex. All of the queen contestants will also ride in the parade and in the grand entry each evening. They will be introduced on Thursday and Friday evenings and announcement will be made of the new Border Town Days Queen on Saturday evening, prior to the rodeo performance. Celia Trimble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Trimble and the 1969-70 Border Town Days queen, will reign over the festivities and will also participate in the grand entry and the parade.

Saddles to be presented to the best all-around cowboy and best all-around cowgirl have been donated by Farwell Equipment-John Dempster, manager, and Worley Grain, Herb Potts, manager. In addition, trophy buckles will be given to the high point boy and girl in each age group. Buckles have been donated by Karl's Auto Clinic, Lee's Electric, Farwell Hardware, Rip's Western Wear, Texico Feed Yards and Watts Oil Company.

All rodeo officials and judges are the same as those used last year, according to Delbert Garner, president of the Roping Arena Association.

Early this week, a total of 175 boys and girls had sent in entry forms stating their intention of being on hand to participate in the rodeo performance.

Each evening at the rodeo, a pair of boots will be given to the holder of the lucky program. The Farwell senior class will be in charge of the concession stand at each of the rodeo performances.

MRS. CRYSTAL (CHRIS) MOSS

News Editor Resigns

Mrs. Crystal (Chris) Moss, who has been an employee of the State Line Tribune for the past nine years serving as news editor for most of that time, has tendered her resignation effective with this issue of the paper. She has accepted an assignment in Levelland at South Plains College as a director of one of the girl's dormitories.

Mrs. Moss will be leaving Texico-Farwell on August 15 to assume her new duties. Prior to that time she will be entertaining her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Glendon Moss of Kaneohe, Hawaii, who will be visiting in this area.

In accepting the resignation of Mrs. Moss, Publisher John Getz said, "Chris will be hard to replace and will be missed greatly in her capacity as news editor; however, I wish her well in her new assignment." Getz added, "Not only will we at the Tribune office miss her, but she will be missed greatly by the entire community!"

In the past few years the Tribune has received several awards on its publications in the fields of general excellence, feature writing, news pictures, women's page features and columns, editorials, and column writing.

In leaving the news editor's desk, Mrs. Moss said, "I feel that the years spent in newspaper work have been richly rewarding and the work has been most satisfying, however, I am looking forward to the challenge of working with college age young people."

"The cooperation of everyone in the Texico-Farwell area in calling me when they had news items to report has made the editor's job much easier and I wish to extend my sincere thanks to each of you for your cooperation during the past and ask your continued cooperation for my successor," stated Mrs. Moss.

At this time a news editor has not been hired to replace Mrs. Moss and since the paper will be operating without the services of a full-time editor, Mrs. Moss is asking the cooperation of the entire community in getting news items to the office by calling 481-3681 or Mr. and Mrs. John Getz at their home, 481-9123.

Opening Date Of School Set

Both of the local schools are slated to begin on August 24, according to information released by the school superintendents last week. Students in the Farwell school system will pre-register on Thursday, Aug. 20, and Friday, Aug. 21. However, Texico students will register, as usual on Monday, Aug. 24, the opening day of school.

In Texico, the faculty for the school is completed, while in Farwell a science teacher and assistant coach is needed.

BEST ALL-AROUND TROPHY SADDLES -- Saddles to be given to the best all-around cowboy and best all-around cowgirl participating in the Fourth Annual AJRA Rodeo during the weekend have been donated by Farwell Equipment-John Dempster, manager; and Worley Grain-Herb Potts, manager. Dempster and Potts take the opportunity to look over the workmanship on the saddles early in the week.

Four Parmer County 4-H'ers Compete --

Qualifies For State Horse Show

Four Parmer County 4-H members attended the District I 4-H Horse Show in Amarillo on July 24. The youngsters were Penny Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hughes, Johnna and Garvin Thorn, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thorn and Laura Doshier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doshier, Jr.

Garvin participated in the western pleasure and reining divisions. His registered mare placed sixth out of approximately 30 horses in the aged mare class. Johnna and Penny were both in western pleasure, with Johnna also running the barrels. Her gelding placed fifth in the grade gelding 14-3 and under class.

Highlight of the day was when Laura Doshier won the pole bending contest, out of 70 horses in the timed event, Laura won first with a time of 22.38 seconds. This automatically won her the right to attend the state show. But, not being satisfied with taking it easy, Laura came back in the barrel racing division and won fifth out of 75 entries with a time of 17.41 seconds, thus adding more points to her total score. She will show in the State 4-H Horse Show, which will be held in Amarillo August 6-8.

DISTRICT WINNER -- Laura Doshier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doshier, Jr., astride her champion horse Salty Red Star, displays her first place trophy won at the district contest last week in the pole bending category. She will be competing in state competition at the Bill Cody Arena in Amarillo August 6-8. Laura competed on the state level in barrel racing last year.

55 Out For Team --

Steers Have 10-Game Schedule

Approximately 55 boys are expected to be candidates for the Steer football squad this fall, according to information released by Coach Toby Booth late last week. According to Coach Booth practice sessions are slated to begin on August 17.

Uniforms will be issued to team members on the first day of practice sessions.

The increase in team candidates is brought about by the large number of boys who are entering high school in the freshman class, and also by the fact that several boys (upper classmen) who have not participated in football prior to this year are coming out for places on the team, according to Booth.

Members of the coaching staff will attend a coaching school early in August. However, they have not decided at this time which school they will attend since several are available. Members of the coaching staff are Coaches Toby Booth, Vernon Scott and Jerry Dee Owen. A replacement is being sought for Larry Taylor who is leaving the staff to return to college.

First game of the season will be with Friona on Sept. 11. A ten-game schedule is planned this year with Happy and Hart included on the district roster in addition to Bovina, Kress, Sudan, Springlake-Earth, and Vega. Three Class AA teams, Friona, Dimmitt and Morton, are also included in the scheduled games for the fall.

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Chris Moss

"I have never written a book, sung in an opera or done many of the things which the world calls great," said Mrs. Roy H. (Tommie) Snodgrass, "but my life as a mother and homemaker is a completely satisfying one."

Tommie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Meical of Santa Rosa. She is a native of Clovis and attended elementary school and high school in Clovis. Following graduation she worked at Clovis National Bank for a year and then moved to Denver where she lived for a two-year period before returning to Clovis. While living in Denver she attended the University of Colorado and also worked as a bookkeeper. After returning to Clovis she was employed for three years as a bookkeeper.

After her marriage to Roy Snodgrass she moved to Texico and since that time has been active in the family business, Rip's Western Wear. She is the mother of four children; Vicki, Mike, Susan and Karen.

She serves as superintendent of the Elementary Division at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church Sunday School and also sings in the church choir. She is an active member of Texico Woman's Club and has served in all of the Woman's Club offices on the local level. She is presently serving as first vice-president of the district in the Federated Woman's Club and is past second vice-president of the group. In 1968 she was nominated for the honor of "Outstanding Young Woman of America" from New Mexico by her club and had her name listed in this category in its annual publication.

Tommie also works with the 4-H Club, an organization in which three of her children are active. She is a member of the Roping Arena Ladies Association, the Ladies Gold Association of Farwell Country Club and the Texico Parent-Teacher's Association.

Although an active and busy person with all of her various assignments, Tommie always finds time for her neighbors, especially those who are shut in. She can usually be found visiting some of the senior citizens or working with a children's group. In addition to the four children in the Snodgrass family, there are various cats, dogs, rabbits and horses which the children have collected for pets.

Her chief hobby is "kids" but cooking runs a close second. The family can be found most any summer evening enjoying a cookout in their own backyard.

Tommie is sharing three of the family's favorite recipes with our readers this week. The three combined with corn baked on the outdoor grill make a delightful meal for family or when guests are present.

SHISH-KABOBS
3 bottles soy sauce
1/2 lb brown sugar
1 large can pineapple chunks
4 small cans whole mushrooms
1 tablespoon garlic salt
salt and pepper to taste
3 lb. sirloin steak pieces cut in 1-inch cubes
3 large bell peppers (cut up)
3 large sweet onions (cut up)
3 large firm tomatoes (cut up)
1 stick butter or oleo
Mix soy sauce, liquid from mushrooms, juice from pineapple, garlic salt, salt, pepper, sugar, and melted butter. Add meat, green peppers, and onions to sauce and marinate for six hours. Remove from marinating liquid and place meat and vegetables alternately on skewer. Place aluminum foil on grill over charcoal and lay shish-kabobs on foil. Cook until tender, basting occasionally with sauce. Makes enough for 12 people

CABBAGE SLAW
1 large head cabbage
1 large sweet onion
1 medium bell pepper
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1/2 cup sugar
salt and pepper to taste
1 pint sour cream
Dice cabbage, onion, and pepper; mix with other ingredients. If the dressing seems a little stiff, add a little mayonnaise.

PINEAPPLE SHEET CAKE
2 cups flour
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
2 teaspoons soda
1/2 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1 #2 can crushed pineapple (drained)
1 cup chopped pecans
Mix soda, flour, granulated sugar, and salt to drained pineapple and beaten eggs, mix well. Pour into greased and floured glass baking dish and sprinkle top with the brown sugar and pecan mixture. Bake 30-40 minutes in a 400 degree oven.

Make a topping of 1/2 cup sugar, 2 sticks oleo or 1 1/2 sticks butter, 1 small flat can of crushed pineapple. Bring to a boil and boil for three minutes. When the cake is removed from oven, pour topping over cake while it is still hot. A delicious ending for any meal.

Mrs. Tommie Snodgrass, who takes great delight in having a friend stop in for a visit and a cup of coffee, prepares to serve a piece of the family's favorite dessert, pineapple sheet cake, to a guest. Although Tommie usually does the baking for the family, she confesses that daughter Susan made this cake which was "um-um, ever so delicious!"

Report From The Sheriff's Office

Sheriff Charlie Lovelace arrested Edward Eafon, 48, early Sunday morning at his home east of Farwell, on a warrant issued by the Curry County sheriff's office. Eafon is charged with the murder of William Rose in Clovis early Sunday morning. He waived extradition and has been returned to New Mexico to face the charges. Eafon is a farm hand on the W. D. Gable farm.

In other news from the sheriff's office, Jack Whittin has been arrested on a felony charge for the Potter County sheriff's department. He has been returned to Amarillo to face the charge.

On July 21 approximately $100 of fuses were taken from the meter boxes near Clay's Corner. At the same time several highway signs were taken or destroyed.

Two Bovina youths, Bruno Garcia Gutierrez, 19, and a juvenile were arrested Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Henry Minter in Bovina after a shooting incident in Clovis. The two youths waived extradition and have been returned to Curry County to face charges of aggravated battery. Gutierrez is being held in the Curry County jail in lieu of $2,000 bond and the juvenile is being held for juvenile authorities.

"NECKNAME"
The term "leatherneck" comes from the black leather stocks that marines once wore to protect their throats against sabers.

ROBERT ARMSTRONG
It was the first day of school and the teacher was explaining to the kindergarten class that if anyone had to go to the restroom he should hold up two fingers.
After a moment's thought, a little girl near the back of the room inquired, "How's that gonna help?"

Ice Cream Menagerie

Here's a great idea to perk up those heat weary children's appetites — a merry menagerie of ice cream animals and funny faces — sure to be devoured instantly . . . with a lick and a crunch.

Just the thing for that summer birthday party — or any occasion — or non-occasion that arises.

A new twist for two old favorites — ice cream and pretzels. Use hard frozen ice cream, scoop and decorate quickly and serve at once. Ice cream may be scooped ahead of time and frozen until ready to serve. Decorate with pretzels at the last minute.

CAT: Place 1 scoop ice cream on a small plate using pretzel sticks for whiskers, eyes, nose and ears.

TURTLE: Place 1 scoop ice cream on a small plate. Use pretzel nuggets for feet and face; use pretzel sticks for tail.

PORCUPINE: Place 1 scoop ice cream on a small plate. Stud all over with pretzel sticks using a pretzel nugget for nose.

FUNNY FACE CONES: Use pretzel sticks or small pretzel-ettes for hair. Press into scoop of ice cream placed into a flat bottom ice cream cone. Use pretzel rings for ears and raisins for eyes and pretzel stick pieces for the mouth.

Pretzels with ice cream have been a favorite with the Pennsylvania Dutch for years. Why not try this combination and see how quickly it will become your favorite, too!

NO INJURIES resulted when this car and one directly behind it (not visible) were struck by a steel frame which was knocked from atop a truck-trailer Saturday by a freight train at the Santa Fe railroad crossing in Texico-Farwell. Occupants of the two vehicles were Mrs. Claude White and her daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Parker of Roswell, (front car) and Mrs. Rhonda Ketchersides and her young daughter (back car). Mrs. White and Mrs. Parker were taken to a Clovis hospital for examination and released. Investigating officer is on vacation this week and it is not known if any charges were filed in the incident.

FREAK ACCIDENT -- Cars owned by Mrs. Claude White and Mrs. Rhonda Ketchersides, both of Farwell, received severe damage in a freak accident at the Santa Fe Railroad crossing in Texico-Farwell at 1:15 p.m., Saturday. Both vehicles were stopped at the crossing waiting for an oncoming train to pass when they were struck by a steel frame used for transporting well pipe which was knocked from its moorings atop a truck-trailer by a train coming from the opposite direction. Driver of the truck-trailer was Leonard Goad of Hobbs. The truck belonged to W. M. (Billy) Walker of Hobbs.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (HJR:30)
General Election Nov. 3, 1970

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Subsections (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), and (13), Section 1-a, Article V, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:
“(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.
“(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature.
“B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.
“(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.
“(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.
“(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.”
“(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.
“(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.
“(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of, the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution.”

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1970, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: “The constitutional amendment relating to the removal, retirement, or censure of Justices, Judges, and Justices of Peace under prescribed circumstances.”

To Attend Minister's Week

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Perry of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church plan to attend the Minister's Week at Sacramento Methodist Assembly near Cloudercroft, N.M., August 3-7. This year, ministers and their families from 150 churches in New Mexico and parts of West Texas will be in attendance at the conference, which is an annual event in the New Mexico Conference.

Leadership of the week includes Dr. Clark Ellzey, professor of Family Life at Texas Tech; Dr. Jameson Jones, president of Iliff School of Theology, Denver; and Bishop Alsie Carlton, resident bishop of the Northwest Texas-New Mexico area of the United Methodist churches.

Special resource persons have been secured for direction of activities of the children and youth during the week. The ministers' wives will hold their annual meetings and officer election during the week.

Laymen from the New Mexico Conference of the United Methodist Church, as well as from parts of West Texas, will gather at Sacramento Methodist Assembly near Cloudercroft, Friday - Sunday, July 31 - August 2, for the Annual Laymen's Retreat.

For nearly 25 years, laymen of the Church have gathered for this spiritual fellowship Retreat.

Principal speakers this year will be Bishop Alsie Carleton, resident bishop of the Northwest Texas-New Mexico Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church, and Tank Harrison, chief of police, Memphis, Tenn., Police Department, a prominent layman of the United Methodist Church in Memphis.

A new idea in cultivation of future leadership in the work of the laity of the United Methodist Church is being used this year, in that boys from 15-18 are invited to attend, under sponsorship of one adult for each boy attending.

Registration for the Retreat begins on Friday afternoon and closes with the Sunday luncheon.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By R. MACK HEALD
County Agent

WATER MANAGEMENT KEY TO TOP GRAIN CROP

"A big challenge during the peak summer irrigation period is to manage available water to obtain maximum profit," says Leon New, area irrigation specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Decisions that put available irrigation water where it will count the most are not always evident when the pressure is on to get water to spanning acres of thirsty crops."

New cites a study conducted in 1969 in discussing summer irrigation procedures. Jimmy Mabry, who farms in the Hub Community in Parmer County, and Ronny McNutt, former county agricultural agent for the county, investigated the effectiveness of three irrigation management procedures on grain sorghum. In the study, a full season hybrid grown on Olton loam soil was irrigated three, four and five times. Each of the five irrigations were in alternate furrows.

"The pleasant surprise in the test was that the highest yield of 8,460 pounds per acre was harvested where five alternate furrow applications were made," explains New. "Of particular interest was whether or not the rows farthest from the water furrow on the double-rowed sorghum would receive adequate water. Apparently they did."

Mabry irrigated in alternate furrows at 9 to 12-day intervals beginning 34 days after planting. Less water, about two inches, was applied during the single irrigation, making the need for additional water slightly more frequent than where every row was irrigated. The irrigating rate was one and one-half to one and two-thirds times faster using alternate furrow irrigation, thus making it possible to water more acres when the crop needed moisture the most.

With three well-timed irrigations, the full season hybrid produced 8,350 pounds per acre. These irrigations in each furrow were on 21 and 26-day intervals that also began 34 days following planting on May 29. These irrigations were less frequent than normal practice. However, they supplied additional moisture for crop during high water requirement growth stages and ideally supplemented early July and late August rainfall.

"This shows that timely irrigations can be combined with rainfall to get lots of mileage from irrigation water even during drier-than-normal summers," adds the specialist.

Four irrigations in the study, again in each furrow, produced 8,290 pounds of grain per acre. The first irrigation was applied 27 days following planting, six days earlier than on the other two plots. There were fewer days between applications than with three irrigations. However, the crop did not utilize both July rainfall and irrigation water in grain production as well as that receiving three irrigations, points out New. The 60-pound yield difference indicates a lack of yield response from the greater quantity of water.

"Yield differences are more clearly compared by the irrigation water use efficiency of the three application procedures," New contends. "With three irrigations, water use efficiency was 994 pounds per acre-inch; with five alternate row irrigations, it was 890 pounds and with four, 829 pounds. All of these are high but also point out differences that can be handy water management tools. Pounds of grain produced per inch of irrigation water gives a good evaluation of the effectiveness of irrigation procedures and is a value worth knowing."

NUTRITION NOTES

We've heard a lot about vitamin A and its importance in the development, maintenance, and growth of body tissue. Lots of our favorite foods are rich in this vitamin, including whole and evaporated milk, cream and butter, liver and kidney, egg yolk, spinach and kale.

How do you adults measure up on good food habits? If you are over 30, then you should be eating two or more servings of dairy foods like cottage cheese, yellow cheese, ice cream, and milk every day.

Well-chosen snacks can add important nutrients to your child's diet. Some of the many nutritious snack foods on the market today are cold cereals, dried raisins, enriched breads and crackers, milk, fruits, and fruit juices.

Some people hold strange ideas about what a particular food does for the body. For example, they believe beets make blood. It's probably because beets are red in color like blood. The truth is that foods containing protein and iron make blood -- foods like liver, egg yolk, red meat, chicken, fish, dried beans, dried peas, and leafy green vegetables.

Be sure the white loaf bread you purchase is "enriched." This means important vitamins and a mineral have been added.

The deeper the color of green (or yellow) of the vegetable, the greater its food value.

★ Operation Friendship Continues ★

Operation Friendship, which was begun in 1960 by Roddy Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Reynolds of Putnam, Tex., and which has been continued by his younger brother, Roger, is continuing to grow, according to the following report.

Texico - Farwell residents first heard of the Americanism program instigated by Roddy in 1968 when R. W. Reynolds and his son, Roger, stopped for a visit in Texico-Farwell and brought with them some of the world-famous stick horses through which the boys, Roddy and Roger, have been spreading the message of good will and Americanism. At that time an article about the travels of the stick horses was carried in the local newspaper along with a picture of Senor Amistad (Sir Friendship) and Roger.

The following article should bring our readers up to date on the happenings at the Gold Dust Goodwill Stables at Putnam, Tex.

It all began back in 1960, the 100th anniversary of the Pony

Express. Roddy Reynolds of Putnam, Tex., who was then a lad of 12 years, left a little stick horse which had been made especially for the purpose, at a roadside park to "hitch" a rider. The little pony, named Gold Dust, bore this notice: "My name is Gold Dust. On this 100th anniversary of the Pony Express I am out to celebrate same. Ride me as far as you go and pass me on to another who will do likewise. Help me set a record."

Well, it worked so well that he rode to hundreds of places on five continents and back in seven months. He had been accorded nearly every kind of honor imaginable and had been so popular and generated so much good will that Roddy sent out other ponies riding under the banner, "My business is to make friends."

These little emissaries, too, were well received on seven continents. One pony, Senor Amigo, had a parade in his honor at Anchorage and spent an entire month visiting in the schools in Alaska.

When Roddy graduated from high school and went off to college, he turned the "reins" of the project over to his little brother, Roger, who with the help of his dad has been managing it ever since.

Latest pony to hit the trail from the "Goodwill Stables" is Compadre. His motto is, "Trying for a million miles and a million friends . . . watch out for him."

Since this is the 10th anniversary of Gold Dust and the project has come to be known as "Operation Friendship," it was thought fitting that he be recognized in some way; thus a Texas-size wooden nickel was made. It is anticipated that the nickels will eventually be produced by machine and featured in a museum-souvenir shop where there will be an exhibit of Gold Dust, along with mementoes, newspaper stories, citations, etc.

Due to the popular demand from some of the collectors who have obtained this nickel, the Goodwill Stables are now issuing two more pieces . . . one for Compadre and one for Senor Amigo. The Compadre piece is available for a nominal fee to collectors everywhere; however, the Senor Amigo piece has only been available to Alaskans.

"We sincerely believe that these tokens will become valuable collector's items. Each one bears a serial number and they cannot be duplicated because they bear the 'Gold Dust' brand which is registered at the U. S. Patent Office. They will always be legal tender here at Goodwill Stables."

"As this goes to press, consideration is being given to a new piece honoring Roddy and Elaine Isenhower who were married on June 20. We welcome suggestions for a simple design for such token."

Roger Reynolds, Mgr.
Gold Dust Goodwill Stables
Box 1058
Putnam, Tex. 96469

EVEN NICKELS ARE BIGGER IN TEXAS -- This Texas-size "wooden nickel" commemorating the 10th anniversary of Operation Friendship is examined closely by Jarilyn Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Henson. Since Operation Friendship has created so much good will and Americanism abroad as well as in America through the travels of several stick horses from the Goodwill Gold Dust Stables at Putnam, Tex., the owners of the horses, Roger and R. W. Reynolds, thought it only fitting that the occasion of the 10th anniversary be commemorated in this way.

Childhood PLEASURES

"Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right."

A mother only has to glance at her child to know if his play is pure, or if it is leading to mischief. Our Father in heaven can as easily look on our hearts and judge our ways. "A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things."

Seek the Lord in his house, so that your heart will be right with God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere -- the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Local Artists Instruct At Gold-Leafing Seminar

BY CHRIS MOSS

Two local artists, Mrs. Beulah Williams and Mrs. JoAnn Liethen, were recently honored when they were invited to attend and participate in a seminar at Brownwood as instructors in the art of "gold-leafing."

Both of the artists have been gold-leafing for several years. However, when they first began the art it was a process which took most of seven days in completion. The local artists have now simplified the gold-leafing process until an article can be finished in a 24-hour period. It was for this reason that they were invited to the seminar to assist other decorators from 18 states in learning more about the gold-leafing process.

Represented at the seminar were dealers in the picture framing business, antique restoration dealers, frame colorists, interior decorators and wholesalers from other areas of furniture and decorating businesses. Some 800 business men and women were in attendance. Not only have Mrs. Williams and her daughter, Mrs. Liethen, simplified the gold-leafing process but when the time element is considered the monetary value saved is tremendous.

At the seminar a display of 1,000 European oils were on hand according to the local artists. They were amazed to note that the European oils were done on a cotton batting canvas sprayed with varnish to provide a seal. Such materials are not available in United States markets.

The local artists also took a display of many of their gold-leafing articles and a small booklet "The Art of Gold-Leafing" (A Shorter Method) which they have recently completed writing. They sold many copies of the booklet which now has a patent pending. All of the secrets of the simplified method of gold-leafing are contained in the booklet, which may be obtained from either Mrs. Williams or Mrs. Liethen for a nominal fee.

Mrs. Williams explained that gold-leafing can be done on most materials including glass, wood, metals of various kinds, and even cardboard. Included in the works of Mrs. Liethen and Mrs. Williams are pictures, plaques of various kinds and sizes, ash trays, glass birds, egg cups, antique skill-lets, bookends, books made into plaques and touched with gold-leafing, candle holders and even an oatmeal box and a cold cream jar have been made into works of art. The cold cream jar has been antiqued and touched with gold leafing and made into a container for use in the bathroom. Oatmeal boxes have been made into hanging baskets for flowers.

Among the most popular gold-leaf articles are old discarded post office boxes from the Farwell post office which have been made into wall plaques, and also an old style mail box (like those used on porches in bygone days made into a container for flowers.

Included in the articles which were exhibited in Brownwood were some of the hanging baskets, a wooden board with a burlap back with a built-up handpainted mushroom, papier mache daisy which had been gold leafed, a plastic head, plastic candleholders, houdins (French children), and many other articles. One of the most outstanding articles is an acrylic sign of the Pink Berets, which has been made into a picture advertising the Art 'N Such shop of which Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Liethen are co-owners with Mrs. Dickie Magness and Mrs. Louetta Kitten.

Although the seminar in Brownwood, sponsored by TWT Moberly, is the first such seminar in which the local artists have participated, they are looking forward to work in several others in the future. They took about six weeks in preparing their exhibit for the seminar in Brownwood. However, since they had received the invitation to participate some three months before that time they were ready when the moment for departure arrived. Both Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Liethen highly recommend gold-leafing as a hobby for any artist or would-be artist, or for anyone who is simply interested in beautifying their home since gold-leaf articles look equally well with any style furniture.

AN EXCELLENT HOBBY -- Mrs. JoAnn Liethen finds gold-leafing an excellent hobby and also a way to express her creative talent since gold-leaf designs may be done on most type of material. Here she displays some of her articles which have recently been exhibited in Brownwood at a seminar.

PRIDE AND JOY -- Mrs. Beulah Williams displays a few of the many articles she has gold-leafed in recent weeks. Her pride and joy is the large wall hanging which has been made from an open book and has been gold-leafed. Also included in her works are oriental heads, glass birds, fruits, flowers and many other articles, including a cold cream jar which has been made into a bathroom accessory.

Troop 200 Plans Alaskan Trip

For a long time, Texico-Farwell Boy Scout Troop 200 talked about going to Alaska. A few months ago the boys and leaders started doing something about it -- actually formulating plans and starting savings for the expedition, scheduled for June of 1972.

During the recent troop candy sale, boys earned a dime commission on each box sold. This was applied either to camp fees for this year, or deposited into a special savings account for the Alaskan adventure. Each boy going with the troop will have a personal fee of $50, in addition to personal spending money. Eleven boys already have sizeable amounts deposited, all of which are drawing interest for the troop.

Proposed routes, already planned by AAA, will take the Scout caravan from Texico-Farwell northward through Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming, Glacier National Park on the Canadian border, Alberta, British Columbia, and Yukon provinces; then to Fairbanks, Alaska. A side trip will take the boys to Mt. McKinley National Park. A different route for the return home will take the troop through Washington, Oregon and California to several attractions there; eastward through Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon, and then back home.

Aside from seeing a great deal of new country, Troop 200 plans to visit with as many Scout troops along the way as possible. This will provide a chance to talk Scouting with boys from many different states and Canada, also to exchange neckerchiefs and other souvenirs with them.

Civic organizations in various towns are being contacted through the Scoutmaster's amateur radio station here in Farwell. For instance, a ham radio operator in Grande Prairie, Alberta, located near the beginning of the Alaska Highway, has approved of the idea and volunteered the services of his Rotary Club. Members of the club will provide overnight facilities and treat the Texico-Farwell boys to a barbecue.

"We are sure to receive additional offers such as this," says Scoutmaster Gene Bitner, "and we think our visit to these areas will possibly mean as much to our hosts as to us -- just like our guests from New Jersey a few years ago who were stranded in Farwell for bus repairs."

The troop claims its 1,700 mile round-trip to Galveston and back this summer was "good practice" for the journey to Alaska -- "America's Last Frontier." The Alaskan Expedition is expected to add around 8,000 miles to the troop bus odometer. Bill Craft, troop committeeman and local mechanic, also plans to make the trip. "Considering that we already have 62,112 miles on our bus," said Bitner, "having Bill along will be a very good advantage."

Attendance At Social Good

Rev. W. T. Perry, pastor of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church, reports that a good crowd, approximately 60 people, was on hand for the fellowship hour and ice cream social held at the church on Sunday evening.

Games were participated in by the children, and the adults enjoyed an evening of informal visiting.

ALASKAN FLAG -- Texico-Farwell Boy Scouts have added eight yellow stars on a field of blue to their flag collection. The flag of our 49th state serves as a constant reminder of Troop 200's Expedition to Alaska, which is scheduled for June of 1972. Displaying the flag are, left to right, Chip Craft, Mike McCully, Lynn Kittrell, and Tim Bradshaw.

Wheat Referendum Postponed

Secretary of Agriculture, Clifford M. Hardin, has announced postponement of the national wheat referendum previously scheduled for July 27-31, according to Louis Welch, chairman of the Farmer County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. The action was authorized by Congress.

The postponement permits the USDA to delay holding the referendum not later than October 15, 1970, or 30 days after Congress adjourns, whichever date is earlier.

Accordingly, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's ASCS, which administers the wheat, feed grain, and similar programs, has instructed its state and county offices across the nation to withhold ballots and other referendum materials, Welch says.

The chairman explains that basic farm legislation requires a referendum for wheat marketing quotas. However, the Agricultural Act of 1965 suspended this referendum requirement from 1965 through the 1970 crop year. Unless new farm legislation, now pending, is enacted by the Congress, basic legislation will again go into effect, and a referendum will then be required in 1970 for the 1971 crop years.
