Anti-Evolution Bill In House

Legislators Confronted by $3,000,000 Appropriation Cut

MOODY WILL USE VETO KNIFE

Rural Aid Money Bill Largest in State's History

AUSTIN, June 25.—(UP)—A total of $3,000,000 must be clipped from the $52,000,000 in appropriations tentatively made by the present session or else a third session will be called, according to a forecast made here today. This is in effect the ultimatum given the individual members of the legislature who conferred with Gov. Dan Moody.

Moody Will Veto
The estimated income of $49,000,000 lacks $3,000,000 of being able to cover the proposed expenditures sought through the legislature. Legislators have quoted Governor Moody as saying that he will veto the appropriations if they do not begin to use the axe.

Cotton Limit Fails
An attempt to limit the percentage of a farmer's land that he may plant in cotton was practically defeated in the house today when it was definitely postponed by a vote of 71 to 41.

Supporters of the bill advocated that the legislation would be valuable in combating the cotton root rot by requiring crop rotation.

The house passed the senate bill placing the building and loan companies under the supervision of the state banking department.

The house went into a committee as a whole this morning at 11 o'clock to hear the charges against Robison.

RURAL AID BILL

AUSTIN, Tex., June 25.—(P)—The greatest rural aid appropriation in the state's history loomed today thru acceptance by the senate of the free conference committee's report setting the amount at $5,500,000.

Action on the compromise amount is expected today.

The senate also began consideration of the parish bill limiting the salaries of state officials to $10,000 yearly.

AUSTIN, June 25.—(P)—Thurman Evans of Corsicana will represent Texas in the nation-wide contest to select an aide for Thomas A. Edison. He survived the scientific tests given 50 boys last night.

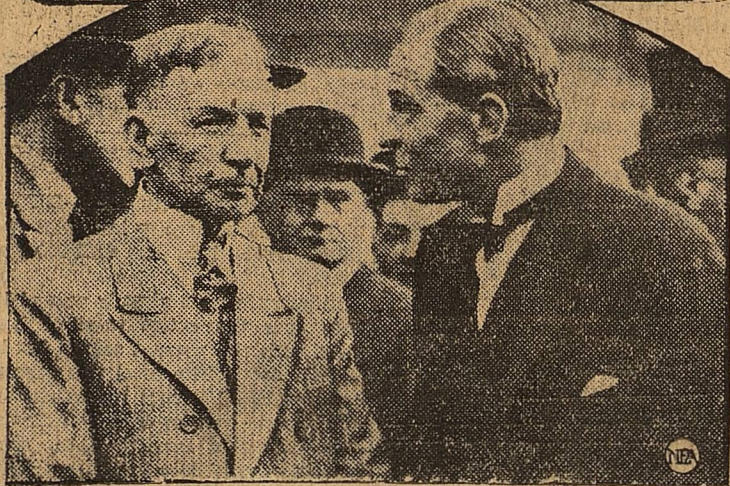

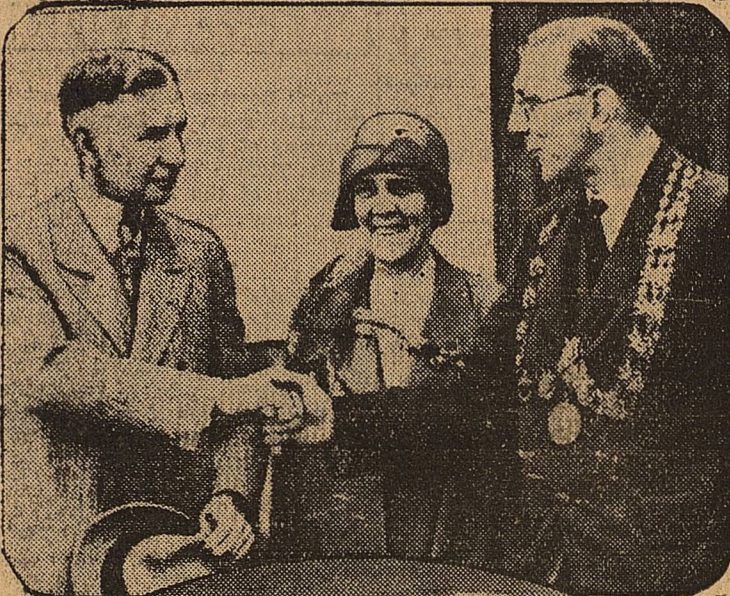

The four-year technical scholarship offered by Edison will be Evans' goal in the national contest.

Follow the Tour Of Major Hoople On Your Vacation

Egad, folks, Major Hoople is vacationing, too! Just a slight jaunt to Europe. And what a time he is having. Of course, you don't want to miss out on the interesting experiences of the Major while you're on vacation, so take this hint: Telephone the circulation department, and the paper—with Major Hoople, all the home town news, and other features, will be sent to you at your vacation address.

Scotch and Soda for Dawes

"I have never served alcoholic beverages in my home in this country—there any reason for my breaking tradition by serving them in my new office?" Ambassador Dawes of Hell and Maria fame said in answer to reporters questioning him about reports of his intention to serve liquors in his London home. The mayor of Southampton is shown greeting the ambassador at the top, while below Vansittart, secretary to Ramsey MacDonald, passes the time of day with him.

KELLY TO BE IN PORT DEDICATION MORNING OF 4TH

Jim Kelly, noted co-pilot of the Fort Worth, endurance ship which lowered all existing marks for sustained flying, will speak to Midland people at 2 o'clock rather than at 11, on July 4, it was announced through the chamber of commerce office this morning.

Kelly, who is to be here as a representative of TAT, will represent that flying organization at the opening of Vernon's new airport on the morning of the date he is to be here and will have to fly cross country to Midland after the dedication.

Speaking will be done from the courthouse lawn.

AMBASSADOR TO ROME RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(P)—The resignation of Henry I. Fletcher, ambassador to Rome, has been accepted by President Herbert Hoover.

Fletcher retires on his own motion after 27 years of service in the diplomatic corps.

WELLS ELECTROCUTION MAY BE A GREAT MISTAKE SAYS BROTHER LIVING HERE

The electrocution of O. C. Wells may become in the future another of those "regrettable" errors destined by the law of averages to be laid occasionally at the door stoop of justice, says J. N. Wells, Midland brother of the man who went to his death last week in expiation of a crime of which he maintained himself innocent.

"The governor told me there was nothing but a waste of money which could result in my traveling over the state getting an array of evidence showing that my brother was not guilty," Wells said.

"You can mark my words: when a few years have passed someone is going to confess to the murder of the man my brother was accused of killing. And when that time comes people will heave a negligent sigh and murmur something about the whole thing being 'too bad.'"

ROBISON TAKES STAND TODAY IN OWN BEHALF

AUSTIN, June 25 (P)—J. T. Robison, commissioner general of the land office, was to testify this afternoon on his own behalf on impeachment charges proposed in the house of representatives. He took the oath before the noon recess.

Robison's attorneys announced that they would conclude their case with his testimony.

Hawks Will Attempt To Set East-West Record from Gotham

EAST ST. LOUIS, June 25.—(P)—Capt. Frank Hawks took off from here today for New York City where he expects to start in a few days on a one-stop round-trip flight to Los Angeles and set a speed record. The flyer spent the night here after his flight yesterday from Los Angeles.

PINEBLUFF, Ark., June 25.—(P)—Authorities announced today that Otho Hankins, 14-year-old farmer boy, confessed to the killing of his father, Wes Hankins, 60, at their home yesterday.

Howard Well Hits Showing To Be Drilled

Big Spring, Texas, June 25.—The Howard county oil corporation No. 2 Kioh, Rumsey and Abrams 330 feet from the north and west lines of section 5, block 32, 2 south, T. & P. railway survey, topped second pay at 2304 feet and took spongy core to 2318 feet. Six inch casing was set at 2210 feet where first showing was found. The well will be drilled in within the next two days. This well is a south offset to Pure Oil company No. 1 Scribner, and in turn this well has been offset to the east by location announced Saturday by Plymouth Oil Company, for their No. 4, Kioh-Rumsey and Abrams on same section.

PLANES LAND AT PORT
Some craft drop on Sloan Field just for a visit. Field-Manager Becherer said today, while others casually announce when they taxi up to the pump that they are on their way through Midland to such and such a coast for a few days' swimming. Two of these classes of air tourists have been at the port since late yesterday. Pilot B. G. Griffith landed five passengers in his Travelair monoplane, bound from Colorado Springs to Fort Stockton, where the passengers will spend several days on a "duke ranch." Tom Parks of the Southwest Airlines, from Los Angeles to Washington, landed his Lockheed Vega, and three passengers had breakfast. A Stinson-Detroiter monoplane from San Angelo came over "just for a visit." Pilot Foster said.

Mexico Aggie Is Here In Interest Of His School

Mr. D. B. Jett, of the Department of Civil Engineering, of New Mexico A. & M. College at State College, New Mexico, was in Midland today in the interest of the cooperative course in Civil Engineering now being organized at the A. & M. College. The purpose of Mr. Jett's trip through this part of the state is twofold; he is calling on engineers who may become employers of students and on prospective students who are interested in civil engineering.

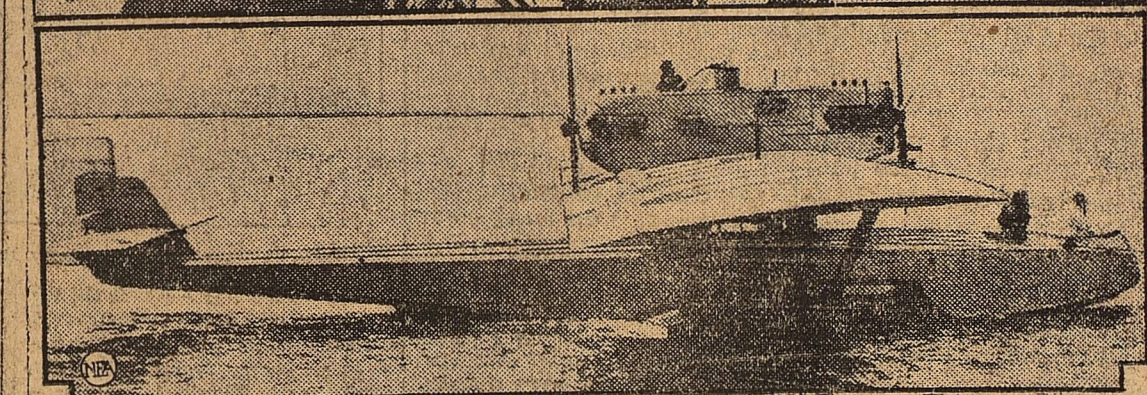

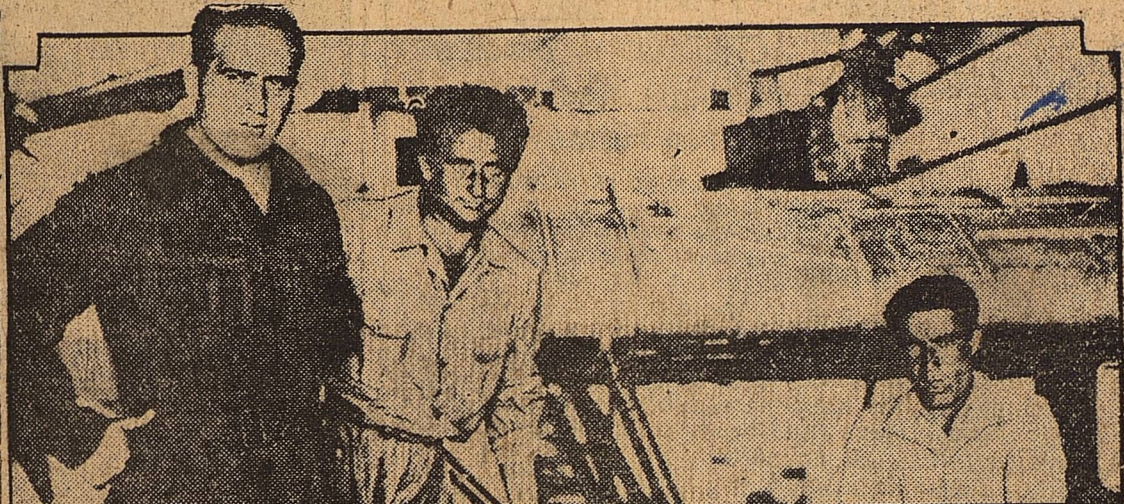

The cooperative plan as it is being organized is similar to the plan in several of the Eastern colleges. The student attends school for six months and then works for six months in the field in which he is studying. This enables the student to obtain practical experience along with theory and also to earn enough money to pay the greater part of his expenses while in school.

While this plan is being organized at present in the Department of Civil Engineering only, it is hoped that the plan may be put in operation in the other departments of the engineering school in the near future. The State Highway department of New Mexico, the Middle Rio Grande Conservancy District, and other engineering organizations have signified their willingness to work with the A. & M. College in this plan.

Where Are These Spanish Airmen?

Several nations were engaged this morning in perfecting plans for the search for the Spanish aviators shown above. The men are down in the sea somewhere near Azores, some think. Others say wreckage of the sea-plane indicates a landing in Davy Jones Locker. The airmen were blazing an air trail from Spain to Washington. The hero, Captain Ramon Franco of the Spanish flight to South America in 1926, is shown in the center. The seaplane is shown below, a Dornier-Wahl. It has two 600-horsepower motors.

HOOVER SIGNS BOULDER BILL

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(P)—President Hoover today signed the proclamation making operative the Boulder Canyon Dam bill. The presidential proclamation places in full force all the provisions of the act, and now steps can be taken to form an agreement among the six states in the Colorado basin. Arizona is the only dissenting state.

Will Landmark Of Old West Grow A Crop Next Year?

The old fair grounds, once the gathering place for settlers for miles around, will be sold Saturday. Once more has an old landmark taken a bow to progress.

Many people here hate to see the grounds be transformed into something other than the amusement center which it formerly was dubbed.

Three directors were delegated as a committee to see that disposal of the place is made.

A secret hope is held by many of the old-timers that someone interested in preserving the grounds in their original usage will bid for the place.

A rumor about town this morning seems to insure this bid. A prominent cattleman is mentioned.

Midland will wait and see.

Circular Sets Forth Entertainment Here Over 4th Festivities

A circular issued by the July 4 committee of the chamber of commerce sets forth in brief style the advantages of spending the holiday here rather than journeying to a distance.

The July 3 committee has a different program which will be published later. The July 4 program reads:

Speakers of the Day are:
Congressman Claude Hudspeth, Mayor R. E. Thomason of El Paso, and Jim Kelly, world renowned flyer.

Free Attractions:
Band Concerts.
Street Dance.

Day Fireworks, featuring Aerial pieces and bombs—the greatest night fireworks display ever shown in West Texas.

Admission to Ritz and Grande motion picture theatres free to all visiting ladies, and children under 12 years of age. Secure tickets at the chamber of commerce office.

Attorney Pollard Anticipates His Visit, Lee Says

Attorney General Claude Pollard is planning to get much enjoyment out of his stay in Midland when he comes here as one of the principal speakers at the July 4 opening of the petroleum building, according to W. Edward Lee who interviewed the official for The Reporter-Telegram yesterday.

Lee is in Austin on business and undertook the work of securing audience with the attorney general through request of a staff writer on The Reporter-Telegram.

Pollard is particularly interested in building of this section, and believes that he will be able on his visit to observe present building as an index of that destined for the future here.

Get Your Stickers And Programs At Chamber Commerce

Hundreds of July 3-4 program folders and windshield stickers are at the chamber of commerce for members of the organization and those who wish to mail out to their friends what the city is planning for the celebration.

These are supplied free of cost to anyone who wants them, chamber officials said today.

Many vacationists, especially, are taking the windshield stickers and plastering their cars with them. Travelers on all roads leading away from Midland report that they see many cars with Midland stickers on them.

The folder program of the celebration held in honor of the opening of Midland's 12-story Petroleum building have a front page picture of the big office structure.

SCARBOROUGH WILL PREACH IN CAVE WHEN HE GOES TO CARLSBAD SUNDAY

Dr. Lee R. Scarborough, president of the Southwestern Theological Seminary of Fort Worth and for the past two weeks here in the revival of the First Baptist church, finds that his desire to carry the gospel to the ends of the earth has not extended to the ultimate in his own country.

Dr. Scarborough will speak Sunday in the reverberating fastness of the Carlsbad cavern.

The minister has spoken on three continents. He has had as his audience the colorful races of the south, the soft spoken Saracen, the

TEMPLE MAN SLAIN BY WIFE'S FATHER

TEMPLE, June 25.—(P)—Charles Hill, 65, is at liberty today under $1,000 bond after the shooting yesterday in which his son-in-law, John Vickers, 45, was killed.

Vickers forced the family to leave the hall of his home with a gun, and was shot as he sought to follow his wife and children.

Powder Men Here Compliment City McCormick's Sales

C. C. Garvin, and F. C. Jones of the Hercules Powder company were in Midland this morning visiting George D. McCormick, who deals in products of the company here.

The men said that McCormick has handled more than 20 carloads of dynamite and other explosives here this year. He serves a territory that extends a great distance in each direction from Midland.

Genesis Account of Creation Asked In Bill

AUSTIN, June 25.—(UP)—A resolution calling upon the state textbook board not to adopt a textbook teaching that man developed from a lower animal or that the Genesis account of the creation of the world and mankind is untrue, may be offered in the house today.

The resolution will also call upon the boards of regents of state educational institutions to "take proper steps to prevent the doctrine from being taught."

The resolution will also call upon representative Harper, a clergyman of Mount Pleasant, and others. This is a resolution to take the place of the anti-evolution bill, which failed to get before the house.

FORMER BANDIT MARRIES AFTER 40-YEAR LEAVE

ALBUQUERQUE, June 25.—(UP)—After a 40-year separation, the romance of an Oklahoma girl and a former leader of one of the nation's most notorious outlaw bands was brought to a climax here today.

Cattle Annie, who brought aid to Jack Dalton and his gang while Oklahoma and Kansas possess pressed search for the outlaws, arrived here today to become the bride of the former bandit chieftain.

After Dalton had served a penitentiary sentence, he became a reformer and lecturer. Cattle Annie then went out of his life.

Two years ago Dalton heard of the woman. Today they met before the altar.

THE ORDINARY MAN AND THE GREAT ADVENTURE

By Bruce Catton

An Ohio State University professor, respected and honored, is suddenly dropped from the university faculty when he is called in for questioning in connection with the murder of a young girl student. For some time, it develops, he and the girl maintained a "love nest," as headlines call it, in a Columbus rooming house.

Regardless of how the man fares in the police investigation into the murder, it is obvious that his plight will provide material for gossip in university circles for some time to come. We are always fascinated when getting an unexpected peek into the private affairs of an acquaintance, we find them scandalous. Usually it is quite a while before we will stop talking about it.

Part of this is due to our natural love of gossip. But there is more to it than that. Generally speaking, we get excited over the unsuspected peccadilloes of such a man because they reveal unlooked-for openings in his character. We set a man down as thoroughly commonplace and uninteresting—and lo! we find, abruptly, that he has had a secret life of his own, in which he moved far afield and struck off into unknown paths.

That discovery always surprises us. And yet it needn't. No man is what he appears to be on the surface. In every human story there are chapters that do not, ordinarily, get read.

And it is encouraging to realize that these unknown chapters are not always scandalous. The scandalous ones are the ones we notice; but they are usually an insignificant part of the whole.

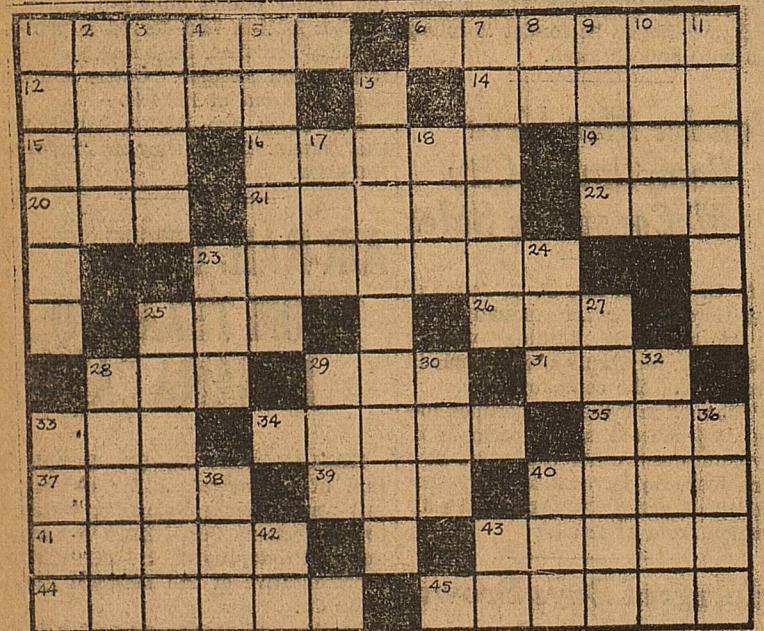

We are forced into the commonplace by our jobs. The necessity of earning a living puts most of us into a rut and keeps us there. But people have their adventures, nevertheless—adventures about which their fellows never know, but which give meaning and richness to their lives just the same.

The most ordinary-looking man you rub elbows with in the street is not ordinary at all, to himself. He is unique, heaven-born, progressing from mystery to mystery. You do not know what strange dreams or lofty visions sustain him; what sacrifices have given significance to his life, what hidden ambitions lie buried in his heart. You can never know—any more than he can know the same things about you.

Yet those things are there, just the same. All of us have them. We get glimpses of magic sights in the sunset sky, hear distant trumpets beyond the horizon, and know that we shall some day arise from the grip of the commonplace and come into our heritage.

This is every man's secret—every man's private adventure. No one is "ordinary," or uninteresting, if his whole life be known.

But we do not realize this until some scandal jars our attention to a focus.

Next, to the eyes, the mouth is the most outstanding feature of the face. Being, generally, rouged into brilliance, it is often the focus of our companions' gaze, especially when we talk.

"There is more to making up a mouth than merely running a lipstick over the lips," Mary Brian explains. "Because of the vivid shades of most lip rouges, one must be careful to blend the color skillfully to avoid a harsh outline.

"Before beginning to make up the mouth, be sure the lips are soft and smooth. Nothing is uglier than rough, chapped lips. A white lipstick is soothing to chapped lips and, if used consistently, will not only cure but prevent chapping.

Make Up the Lips Last of All.

"An oily, moist rouge is preferable to dry. It is prettier on the lips and also is more easily applied. Spreading a dry lipstick on the lips will cause them to wrinkle. Never make up the lips until the rest of the face is made up.

"I prefer to use a cream rouge, to be applied to the lips with a finger, rather than a lipstick. Which ever is used, begin on the inside of the lip, blending the color to the edges, all over the lips. Put an lots at first, then wipe off the surplus. Keep blending until it is smooth and lovely. Powder over the mouth and wet the lips again with the tongue to remove the powder. This will give a natural expression and remove any harshly-drawn lines."

BIG TOMATO REVENUE
TROUP, Texas, June 25.—(UP)—Tomatoes sold here in less than two weeks have brought $355,000 to growers.

Shipments have already gained 15 cars over the entire total of last year, with the present season hardly half over. The total this season has reached 170 cars by freight in addition to smaller lots by express.

Packing and loading into cars continues until late in the evenings at the sheds here. About 360 people are employed at the packing sheds, receiving from two dollars to five dollars a day.

Prices continue to hold up, an average of 5 1-2 cents a pound being paid. The average in past seasons has at times gone down to three cents. Most of the shipments go to St. Louis, a division point and are shipped from there to other centers.

MANY TREES PLANTED
LEONARDO, Texas, June 25.—(UP)—To provide plenty of home-grown fruits so that Fannin county farm families may come up to the standards of the average diet, Miss Minnie Eldridge, home demonstration agent, started an orchard and small fruiting program last year that has resulted in the planting of 20,527 trees by 500 women.

COLTS STOP WINNING STREAK OF COLEMAN IN A 5-2 WIN BATTING AVERAGE OF TEAM PUTS MIDLAND NEAR PINNACLE

BLAKE COMES TO LYNUM'S AID- IS STINGY

Coleman found a winning streak of seven games nipped in the bud yesterday when the Midland Colts, on a winning rampage and batting perilously near the .400 mark, got on that club like a mustard plaster and won the game, 5-2.

Lynum was knocked out of the box right away, but Coleman could do nothing with Blake. He gave only 3 hits in eight innings.

Press Convention To Be A Hot One, Committeemen Say

SWEETWATER, Texas, June 25.—West Texas Newspapermen who convene in this city on July 12th and 13th for their annual convention are going to prove that Einstein theory of time is certainly correct by having at least one week program jammed in the two days session which will include shop talks, oratory, luncheons, banquet, flying, fun, golf, trap shooting, business sessions and probably several other modes of business and social affairs.

To begin with, the Program Committee, consisting of Jimmy Smith, Snyder, Luther Watson, Nolan County News, Herschal, Colbert, Sweetwater Daily Reporter and Monte E. Owen, Secretary, Board of City Development, Sweetwater, George Winters and Eddie Warren, Post, have mapped out a program of business and entertainment that should make it worth while for every newspaperman in the State, much less West Texas, to be present. And even now the program is still undergoing changes that will strengthen it and make it more interesting and helpful to the visiting pressmen.

But here is a condensed resume of what will take place. Headquarters will be at the Blue Bonnet Hotel, with the opening meeting at the Municipal Auditorium in charge of Luther M. Watson, Sweetwater, Mayor G. W. Bryant will make the welcoming address that will be responded to by J. J. Hutchinson of Abilene Reporter News. This will be followed by Bowen Pope, Hamlin, President, address.

At the noon day luncheon at the Blue Bonnet Hotel the entertainment will be a musical pageant, "Texas Under Six Flags" presented by a local theatrical group.

The afternoon session will be held in the Blue Bonnet Hotel and will consist of talks by Judge R. C. Crane, Sweetwater, President, West Texas Historical Society, H. H. Jackson, Democrat Voice, Coleman, George Hill, Enterprise, Winters, and round table discussions of any subject that might be asked for. This meeting will be followed by a golf tournament held at the Sweetwater Country Club, under the direction of Bill Parker of the Olin-

Water Well Turns Into Flaming Gas Torch In Howard

BIG SPRING, Texas, June 25.—A gas vein was struck at 41 feet while digging a water well by hand at Elbow eight miles southwest of Big Spring. McKinnon Bros. digging well to furnish garage with water was forced to abandon work on water well caused from gas fumes. After coming out of the well a lighted newspaper was thrown to the bottom of the hole and the gas flames came over the top. The water well is located three miles from the oil well being drilled by Merriweather Oil Company for oil.

At the same hour the visiting ladies of the newspapermen will be given a tea at the Country Club.

A banquet will be given by the Sweetwater Club and Board of City Development to the visiting newspapermen at the Blue Bonnet Hotel at 7 p. m. Paul T. Vickers, Midland, will be toastmaster and what is termed as an opening three round bout between State Press Joe Taylor and Jim Lowry, Honey Grove Signal, on the question, "Relative Merits of Buttermilk and Pot-Likker." President Harry F. Schwenker of Brady will bring greetings from the Texas Press Association. William C. Edwards, Public Service News, of Dallas, Homer Wade, West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Max P. Bentley, Abilene Reporter News, President-Manager, Andy Bourland, West Texas Chamber of Commerce and Hon. R. H. McCarty, Albany, will make talks at this occasion. Entertainment will be given by the Sweetwater Musical Gypsies. Invitations have been sent out and it is likely that Reg Robbins and Jim Kelley will also be guests at this banquet. Gene Howe, Editor, Amarillo News Globe, has just wired that he will likely be here but will not talk of Mary Garden nor stockless women. However, Jimmy Smith states that you can't tell what might happen.

The banquet will be followed by a dance on the Blue Bonnet Roof Garden, given by the Sweetwater Club and the Board of City Development.

On Saturday, T. Paul Barron, editor of The Reporter-Telegram and Silliman Evans, vice president of TAT, are scheduled to make addresses. Barron will be unable to speak, however, as his vacation comes at that time.

Among the new men with the Midland baseball club is Blake, a hurler who comes from Waco, who picked him out of promising array of men from the Blue Ridge league, where the young fellow won 17 games last season and lost five. Bert Glaizer is a pitcher from San Antonio. He was with Tulsa part of the year. He joined the club yesterday at Coleman. He is expected to be a powerful complement to the Colt mound staff.

Mack Eagan, rookie right hand hurler, has been sent to join the Colts by the Fort Worth Panthers. The rookie came to Fort Worth from Fort Smith of the Western Association. He is a sandlot product of New Orleans and was picked up by Jackie Atz, Fort Worth manager. Eagan left Fort Worth Sunday to join the Colts.

So, folks, it looks like the trouble experienced until just lately is about to be dissipated—the need for hurlers. Midland, just a game out of first place in the league running, may be the dark horse in this race instead of a weaned Colt.

PETS PUT TO DEATH

LONDON, (UP).—The founder of the London Institution for Lost and Starving Oats in her will left instruction that on her death her three dogs, two love birds and two canaries should be chloroformed. Mrs. Zoe de Longueville Rutledge founded the institution and died at the age of 76. It was found in her will that she wished her pets to die with her, and her wish was carried out.

LACKS ONE HIT OF A .400 BATTING AVERAGE

When baseball fans consider that the Midland Colts have edged themselves up the league ladder to within one game of first place and one-half game from second position, they possibly wonder by what process this acrobatic climb has been made.

The secret is out; Midland lacks only one hit of establishing a .400 team batting average over the last six days. Added to this, Midland has a team of bat wielders who make offerings of opposing pitchers look like grapes for the gathering. And the former weakness, that of hurlers, has been remedied.

A complete table, showing the batting average of the Colts, follows. This was compiled by Midland's official scorer.

New Coach At Big Spring Is Athlete Of A. C. C. Note

BIG SPRING, Texas, June 25.—George Brown, A. C. C. Athlete, has been employed by the Big Spring school board as Assistant Coach for the ensuing year. Bill Stevens will remain as head coach. The Big Spring football squad will compete for its first time against Class A competition having been added to the Oil Belt district along with Mineral Wells and Sweetwater in the Spring. Burma Barley has been selected as captain of the Big Spring Steers for the coming season.

VICTORIA, Tex., June 24.—(AP).—

A farm club composed entirely of tenant farmers has been organized at Bloomington in this county. Nineteen tenants make up the Bloomington farmers' club, and their wives are honorary members.

All of the club work is done under the management of Arthur Rutledge on the large Levi farm near Bloomington. Each tenant is allowed enough land for a garden and for raising the necessary feed to carry out his ideas. Money prizes are offered by the landlords for the best kept yards.

Strain Upon Truth

The strain upon truth in advertising becomes too great when the public is told that other cigarettes enjoy the toasting process. It takes three years to produce Lucky Strike's flavor. This unrivaled cigarette is a blend of finest tobaccos from each of three consecutive growths—the cream of the crop. Then comes the secret toasting process which in the opinion of 20,679* physicians makes Lucky Strike less irritating than other cigarettes. This exclusive heat treatment also purifies the tobacco and adds a touch of nut-sweet flavor—appetizing, delicious, different—the earmark of one of the world's most popular products.
