"We'll Fight To The Bitter End!" Declare Strikers

LABOR PEACE PROGRAM DRAFTED

Bitter Fights Are Promised On Plan To Penalize Labor

Unions Plan To Meet Challenge; Battles In Congress And At Parley Are Shaping

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Bitter fights were shaping up in both Congress and the labor-management conference today over proposals to penalize labor unions for violation of contracts.

Industry delegates brought the issue before the conference. They proposed that both parties to union-management contracts be required to post bonds to guarantee complete compliance with povisions against strikes, lockouts or boycotts.

The proposal caught labor representatives by surprise but one union leader said that "labor will meet the challenge."

It appeared doubtful that the executive committee could avert an open clash on the conference floor at plenary sessions tentatively scheduled for next week.

In Congress, House Democratic Whip Robert Ramspeck, (D., Ga.), denouneed a section of a pending bill which would suspend a union's bargaining rights for one year if it engaged in a work stoppage in violation of a no-strike contract provision.

Plan Said Unworkable

"Such a law would be unworkable," he said. "It would merely mean that labor unions would no longer put no strike clauses in their contracts."

The house moved closer to acting upon the bill when the rules committee approved it yesterday by a vote of six-to-two. The bill would also:

1. Permit an employer to sue a labor-union for damages if its members violated "no strike" contracts.
2. Repeal the Smith-Connally anti-strike act.
3. Forbid a union to spend money to further the campaign of any primary condidate for federal office.

The bill is sponsored by Reps. Howard W. Smith, (D., Va.,) and Leslie C. Arends, (R., Ill.)

To Oppose Penalty

Ramspeck said he did not know if he would oppose the whole bill "but I will most certainly be against that penalty provision."

Opponents of the bill were hope-

Auto Workers Say Factories At Standstill

Federal Mediator To Union Chiefs Arrives To Talk

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Nov. 22.—The CIO Auto Workers union dug in today for a long battle against General Motors Corp. and simultaneously sought to tighten its already nearly complete strike-hold on the company's nation-wide factory network.

"We will travel the strike road to the bitter end," said Walter P. Reuther, union vice president who has led the fight for a 30 per cent wage increase for General Motors' employes.

Two Main Factors

How far off that "bitter end" may be apparently hinged largely on two factors:

1. The nature of the corporation's reply to a union proposal for arbitration of the wage dispute, promised by Friday.
2. The success of government mediation efforts.

John W. Gibson, special assistant to Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach, arrived in Detroit last night. Gibson, who was president of the Michigan CIO council when he took the government post, said he would confer with Reuther and other union heads Friday.

System At Standstill

Within three hours after the walkouts began at 10 a. m. (CST) yesterday, General Motors' vast production system came to a near standstill. Only the Meriden, Conn., ball bearing unit of the 75 GM plants under contract with the UAW remained in operation, company and union agreed.

A company spokesman announced at 1 p. m. (CST) that the corporation's entire production force of 162,000 workers was idle. Another 100,000 on the company payroll are either salaried workers or members of other unions, the spokesman said, adding there was no way of determining how many of these were affected by the strike.

George Romney, general manager of the Automobile Manufacturers association, had predicted a shutdown of all but one other car producer (presumably Ford) within a week after the start of a General Motors strike.

Struggle To Continue

In a statement late yesterday Romney said the other companies would "struggle to continue production" despite their reliance on General Motors for essential parts.

R. J. Thomas, UAW-CIO president, said the union had a $4,000,000 strike fund. Additional support from the national CIO has

Violence Flares In Far East

Chinese Drive Against Reds To Seize Port

Trouble In East Indies Is Said Breaking Anew

(By The Associated Press)

Chinese government troops drove to within eight miles of the Communist-held Manchurian seaport of Hulutao today as another Far East trouble spot, the Netherlands East Indies, stirred with ominous portents of further violence.

The Chinese Nationalists reportedly captured Hingcheng on the Peiping-Mukden railroad 60 miles northeast of the great wall gateway of Shanhaikwan and are near Lienshan, rail town 15 miles beyond.

Control Of Port

Capture of Hulutao, less than eight miles to the east, would give Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's forces control of a strategic port for debarkation of troops needed in the drive toward Changchun, Manchurian capital 325 miles farther northeast.

Contradictory reports continued on Chinese-Russian negotiations for the transport of Nationalists into Manchuria; some claimed the conferences had broken down altogether while others said the parleys are being renewed by the Chinese.

To Refuse Mediation

Indonesian leaders announced they would refuse to meet with Netherlands East Indies officials "so long as the Dutch keep their present attitude." This apparently quashed hopes for a conference of Nationalist leaders and Dutch officials with Lt. Gen. Sir Philip Christison, British commander.

The Indonesians said they would negotiate only with the British, until "the Dutch give an order for the cessation of shooting, and the burning of our villages and murdering of our people is stopped."

The native spokesman viewed gravely fighting in the capital city of Batavia, where at least a score of natives were killed within the last 24 hours.

The British reported a "serious outbreak of "unrest" at Bandoeng, while Semarang was reported quiet.

Arbitration In All Industrial Strife Urged

Conference Will Consider Plans After Recess

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 — A five-point program designed to achieve industrial peace through voluntary arbitration, fact-finding procedures and a strengthened federal conciliation service has been placed before the labor-management conference.

A four-day Thanksgiving recess, however, will delay its consideration until Monday.

Report Was Withheld

The program was submitted by the conference's public hearings committee headed by Dr. Frank Graham, president of the University of North Carolina. Graham's group has heard reports from a number of labor, business and civic groups not represented in the conference.

The executive committee withheld Graham's report from publication, but a copy was made available to a reporter by a delegate who said he felt it should be made public.

Genuine Bargaining

The recommendations:

"1. Genuine collective bargaining without adamant positions in matters customarily negotiable but with a give and take spirit in good faith on both sides.

"2. Provision in contracts for final arbitration or for the decisions of an impartial umpire as the conclusion of the grievance procedures for the settlement of disputes over the interpretation and application of the terms of the contracts.

"3. Provisions for the structure and machinery of voluntary arbitration according to specified criteria and within specified areas of conflict.

More Adequate Budget

"4. The strengthening of the true values of the conciliation service by a more adequate budget for higher salaries and a larger staff selected by the director with the advice of a committee representing labor and management.

"5. Public provision for the procedures of fact-finding regarding the issues in dispute."

Delegates and conference officials alike were pessimistic over prospects for the creation of voluntary arbitration machinery, as recommended in the report.

Senator Asks Why No Patrols Were In Air At Pearl Harbor

Information Asked On The Number Of Planes Available

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Senator Lucas (D-Ill) called today for Army and Navy testimony on how many planes were available at Pearl Harbor in 1941 and why no long range patrols were being flown when the Japanese struck.

A member of the Senate-House committee investigating the disaster, Lucas told reporters he wants to know why, if it was possible to fly a 300-mile patrol in 1940, similar daily reconnaissance could not have been in effect a year later.

Patrol Called Off

Adm. J. O. Richardson testified earlier that he instituted the air patrol June 18, 1940 when the Army ordered an alert in Hawaii but called it off in December of that year. Previous Army and Navy inquiries have shown that no regular patrol was flown after Adm. Husband E. Kimmel took over command of the fleet from Richardson on Feb. 1, 1941.

The committee's hearings were in recess today for Thanksgiving. But Lucas asked William D. Mitchell, committee counsel, to obtain information on the number of planes attached to the fleet under Richardson's command and the number under Kimmel's command. He asked also for a listing of the long-range planes available at the time of the Japanese attack. The Illinois senator said he also wants informaiton on an Army night patrol.

Hull To Be Heard

The committee may delay its inquiry into this subject, however, because Mitchell announced that

Romance Gets New Setting; Trolley Scene For Shower

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22 (AP) Doris Waller was riding peacefully along on her usual morning interurban trip, possibly dreaming of Roger Christensen, the ex-Marine she will marry in Seattle next month.

Suddenly her dreams were disturbed when a group of girl friend commuters tendered her a shower in the middle of the trolley trip.

Conductor Steven Irvin and other passengers were invited to the festivities as Miss Waller unwrapped the gifts.

Dallas Police Stage Roundup

DALLAS, Nov. 22. (U.P.)—Detectives today arrested a young man in Army uniform suspected of being the leader of a gang responsible for a brief, but violent wave of robberies which included the killing of an elderly druggist.

About 22 years old, of medium height and build, he was wearing the uniform of a U. S. enlisted man, but the sergeant's stripes on his sleeve were not of a type issued by the Army. Police speculated that they were Canadian sergeant's stripes.

Others Picked Up

Meanwhile, city and county officers, who had picked up four men for investigation other than the chief suspect, conducted a thorough, block by block search in the southern part of the city for two other men, one a youth of about 16 years, and a girl, described by witnesses as being participants in four hijackings last night of Dallas liquor stores.

There was no shooting in the latest robberies, netting $974, but on the previous night, Druggist Edward F. Williams, 64, was shot to death in his store where he stood with hands raised while his cash register was robbed of $60.

Former Jap Leaders Held To Face Charge

TOKYO, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Baron General Sadao Araki, former Japanese war minister, and Yoshimisa Kuzuu, head of the Black Dragon society, were arrested on war crimes charges today, General MacArthur's headquarters announced.

Their arrests raised to 123 the total of suspected war criminals of all nationalities arrested so far.

Negro Confesses To Slaying Of Woman

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 22. (AP) —District Atty. Bert Clancy announced at 4:30 a. m. (CST) today that Louis Young, 44-year-old negro convict from Houston, Texas, had signed a full written confession to the murder of 23-year-old Mrs. Eloise Kennedy, socially prominent wife of a Santa Fe banker.

A charge of murder in the first degree will be filed today against Young, an "outside trusty" at the New Mexico state penitentiary, Clancy said.

Mrs. Kennedy, pretty wife of Leon G. Kennedy, jr., and mother of a five-week-old daughter, was stabbed to death Monday in the bathroom of he rapartment and, state police said, apparently criminally attacked.

Gasoline Plant To Be Built At Holliday

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 22. (AP) — A natural gasoline plant with a daily capacity of 70,000 gallons will be constructed immediately three miles south of Holliday, in Archer county, L. A. Boyd, Warren Petroleum company engineer, announced.

Construction costs would run between $500,000 and $700,000, Boyd said.

Cotton Valued At $25,000 Destroyed

SPUR, Nov. 22. (AP)—A blaze at the Williams Miller gin in Girard, destroyed 250 bales of cotton, valued at $25,000. The Spur fire department fought the fire all Wednesday night.

Truman Orders Strike Broken

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Federal seizure of the capital's strike-bound transit system provided bus and street car service today for holidaying Washingtonians.

President Truman stepped into the second transportation tie-up in as many weeks with a seizure order and a statement terming the walkout "a blow at the sancity of labor agreements."

The Office of Defense Transportation took over the idle facilities of the Capital Transit system in mid-afternoon yesterday.

Meeting In Confusion

A mass meeting of the AFL Amalgamated Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes broke up in confusion a short while later over whether to go back to work for the ODT. But a company official reported ten per cent of normal service restored within an hour, and 50 per cent by midnight.

The union is demanding a 30-cent hourly wage increase. The company offered to increase the present 95-cent hourly rate to $1.02 with a stipulation for a 48-hour week.

The president said the union's contract called for arbitration of differences, and that local and international afficers had ordered the strikers to agree to a government conciliation service proposal to arbitrate.

Saying the walkout strikes "at the very roots of orderly government," he added:

"The action of this union brings

Killing Frost Hits North Texas Areas

(By The United Press)

A killing frost was reported over most of North Texas today by the U. S. weather service and freezing temperatures in the early morning hours extended southward into the state as far as San Antonio.

The forecast was for continued cold.

Only the Corpus Christi and Rio Grande valley area escaped freezing weather or temperatures in the 30's, while the Panhandle shivered in definitely sub-freezing cold, with Dalhart reporting a low of 14 degrees.

The blanket of cold air moved over Texas under clear skies, except in the lower Rio Grande valley, and winds were only moderate.

Representative minimum temperatures included: Pampa 19, Amarillo 20, Wink 22, Salt Flat 22, Clarendon 23, Big Spring 25, Gainesville 25, Abilene 26, Wichita Falls 26, Midland 29, Waco 30, San Antonio 30, Fort Worth 31, Dallas 32, Austin 32, Navasota 32, Palacios 33, Beaumont 35, Houston 36, Corpus Christi 40, Alice 41, and Brownsville 54.

VERNON MAN KILLED

DENISON, Nov. 22. (AP) — Boyd McClendon, 78, of Vernon was killed in an automobile collision on the highway three miles north of here last night.

Jap Branded As Humanitarian Who Was Betrayed By Officers

MANILA, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—General Tomoyuki Yamashita was betrayed by subordinate officers who failed to obey his humanitarian orders, Lt. Gen. Akiro Muto, Yamashita's chief of staff, claimed today.

Muto said he was "amazed" that Yamashita was being tried as a war criminal.

Said Orders Disobeyed

The defense witness, testifying for the second day, said under cross examiriation that Yamashita had ordered the end of street fighting in Manila but was disobeyed.

Capt. Jack Pace of New York City, prosecuting, asked: "What did Yamasita do about his orders being disobeyed?"

"Yamashita issued an urgent order telling the troops to withdraw," Muto replied. "However, they were cut off in Manila and could not. Yamasita believed the withdrawal had been accomplished. Radio facilities were not good and he could not know exactly what was happening."

Another Is Blamed

The chief of staff likewise sought to free Yamasita of responsibility for starvation and mistreatment of prisoners of war. He said the responsibility lay with

Jew-Baiter Julius Streicher Ruled Sane; Intimate Diaries Of Nazis To Appear In Trial

(By The Associated Press)

NUERNBERG, Nov. 22 — A mounting pile of documents, ranging from intimate diaries of leading Nazis to carefully worded secret plans of the German high command, was placed before the international tribunal today as the Allied prosecution moved to convict 20 of Hitler's highest aides as war criminals.

MENU FOR NAZIS

NUERNBERG, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Here is the Thanksgiving menu of the war crimes defendants:

Beans, stew, bread and coffee.

The meal was served to them on trays in the prisoners' dock of the courtroom.

As the third day's session opened the four-power court ruled that Jew-baiter Julius Streicher was sane and must stand trial and denied a defense motion which asked postponement of the trial of Martin Bormann, Hitler's missing deputy, who is being tried in Absentia.

Report Is Accepted

The tribunal accepted a medical board report finding Streicher sane and Lord Justice Geoffrey Lawrence, presiding, ruled that his trial will proceed.

For the first time since the trial opened two days ago, the accused German leaders appeared in high spirits. Smiling all the time, Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering chatted animatedly with defense counsel. Rudolf Hess, who has had only a vacant stare for most of the court proceedings, laughed for the first time as he talked with former Foreign Min-

Eisenhower Hopes To Pay Visit To Texas

DENISON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower hopes to visit this city of his borth soon.

He wants to see the Denison dam and Lake Texoma and visit Miss Jennie Jackson, school teacher here for 50 years who bounced the general on her knee when he was an infant.

Miss Jackson and the general's parents were neighbors before the Eisenhowers moved to Kansas.

The general said he hoped to accompany Speaker Sam Rayburn to Texas at the first opportunity.

General Urges Aid To Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (U.P.)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today this country must meet its heavy responsibility to help Europe through its present economic disorganization to avoid a disastrous postscript to the war.

The new acting Army chief of staff testified before the House foreign affairs committee which is holding hearings on a bill to provide a new appropriation of $1,350,000,000 for the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration.

Suggestions Rejected

He emphasized that UNRRA was the agency through which this nation should channel its aid to Europe, rejecting suggestions that the United States should set up a separate relief organization.

Eisenhower said the great concentration of industrial power in Germany during the war had complicated the problem of rebuilding Europe's shattered economy.

Keynote For Day Is Set At Union Church Service

Lubbock refrained from its normal activities today to join the nation in solemn, simple observance of a Thanksgiving day that is truly all the phrase implies.

Keynote for the day was set Wednesday night when citizens of all churches gathered at the First Christian church for union Thanksgiving. They heard Rev. John A. Winslow, rector of St. Paul's-on-the-Plains, remind that a responsibility exists for each thing for which thanks can be offered.

Turkey In Starring Role

In Lubbock, the principal "entertainment" was to be found at the noon table, where the traditional turkey had the starring role. The only public event scheduled for the day was a negro football game between Dunbar High school of Lubbock and the Abilene Colored High school. The tilt will be played at Tech stadium commencing at 2:30 o'clock.

A large segment of the population, perhaps 2,000 or 3,000 persons, took off for Amarillo early this morning to witness the clash this afternoon between the Lubbock Westerners and the Amarillo Sandies. Nine chartered buses rolled northward carrying local high school students and the Westerner band.

Other Games Slated

There is plenty of grid fireworks scheduled out in the Lubbock area. No less than eight games will be played. They are

First Peacetime Thanksgiving In Four Years Observed In U. S.

(By The United Press)

The nation celebrated its first peacetime Thanksgiving in four years today with family gatherings around the traditional turkey, worship at churches, parties and parades.

Every city, town and hamlet offered prayers of thanks for victory.

Travel Is Heavy

The end of gasoline rationing brought a big increase in holiday motoring. Railroads were taxed with heavy travel.

Returning servicemen were entertained at their homes and at parties given by the Red Cross, Salavation Army, religious and service clubs.

Most of the nation had clear, sunny weather but temperatures dropped as low as 10 degrees below zero in Minnesota and North Dakota. New York started the day with rain and a temperature of 50 degrees.

Hotels Are Jammed

Hotels in most big cities were booked solid through the weekend.

For the first time since 1941, New York's parade of giant rubber toys was scheduled, regardless of weather, by the R. H.

Calcutta Riots Are Reported

CALCUTTA, Nov. 22. (U.P.)—Police fired on mobs of street demonstrators late today for the third time within 24 hours, and tension was mounting rapidly.

Calcutta was declared out of bounds for American Army personnel at 4 p. m.

Demonstrations were increasing in size and violence and there were an undetermined number of casualties.

Led By Students

The demonstrators, led by students, are protesting the trial at New Delhi of Indians who joined the pro-Japanese Army of the late nationalist Subhas Chandra Bose.

Crowds streamed into the Calcutta streets, stopping streetcars, buses and automobiles and forcing passengers to get out.

They hurled bricks and stones at police who sought to break up the demonstration.

CHINESE AND KOREAN LABORERS IN RIOT

TOKYO, Nov. 22. (U.P.)—Dispatches from Akahia Amachi, a coal mining town on Hokkaido, said today that American military authorities and Japanese police broke up a riot between 800 Chinese and 1,500 Korean "slave laborers," imported during the war by the Japanese.

The Jiji news service said scores of persons were injured and one Chinese was killed in the rioting. The fighting was reported to have broken out last night when Chinese attacked a group of Koreans at a theatrical performance.

Memorial To FDR Is Planned In Georgia

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 22 (AP)—Citizens of this community where the "Little White House" is located broke ground today for a memorial shaft to mark the spot where Franklin D. Roosevelt decided to re-enter politics 17 years ago after being stricken with infantile paralysis.

The shaft will be a huge projectile donated by the War department. It will be placed on a base of pink marble. Inscribed on the four sides of the pedestal will be: "Peace," "Love," "Thanksgiving, 1945," and "and a little child shall lead them."

Labor-Management Parley May Yet Accomplish Lasting Good

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 — The labor-management conference may achieve some lasting good.

It's three weeks old, still plodding along, and some critics already have scratched it off the books as a flop.

It's too soon to do that, although the conference may wind up next week.

A Forward Step

It may recommend creation of a fact-finding body to step in when collective bargaining fails. This, at least, would be a forward step.

There seems no chance the conference will go one step further and recommend voluntary arbitration.

Thus fact-finding would be a bridge between collective bargaining and voluntary arbitration. The two groups, labor and management, do not appear ready to cross the bridge from bargaining to arbitration.

Collective bargaining has been regarded, and still is, as the ideal way of settling wage disputes.

Mess If It Fails

It's fine when it works. It's a mess when it fails.

That's when labor and management test their strength, labor by striking, management by a lockout or waiting. Both sides lose plenty of money.

When collective bargaining fails, the only thing the government can do is send in agents of its U. S. conciliation service to try to get both sides around a table to start talking again.

The conciliation service can't compel them to do that. The government lacks power to force a solution or give orders.

A fact-finding body, growing out of this conference, wouldn't be able to give orders either. When collective bargaining and conciliation failed, that fact-finding body could dig into the case.

Then it would report, but make no recommendations, on what it found out about the case of labor and the case of management.

The only benefit from such a report, if published, would be to throw the weight of public opinion against the side which had least justice on its side.

Powerful Instrument

If the labor-management conference recommended creation of a voluntary arbitration board, it would be setting up an instrument far more powerful than a mere fact-finding body.

Voluntary arbitration would work like this:

First collective bargaining. If that failed, then conciliation. If that failed, then perhaps fact-finding.

If all failed, then some kind of board, probably made up of men representing labor, management and the public would consider the case — if both sides agreed voluntarily to submit its case to that board. This would be the arbitration method.

Home By Christmas Promise To Texans

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP) — Sen. Tom Connally (D-Texas) announced that the 36th (Texas) division, would be demobilized in New York and not in Texas.

The Texas senator said he had conferred yesterday with Lt. Gen. J. E. Hull of the Army general staff, and was informed that the veterans can be discharged and sent home by Christmas if demobilized in New York.

The idea was turned down in the interests of the veterans themselves, General Hull told Connally, since it would probably prevent most of them from getting to their homes for Christmas. The division is not expected in New York before the middle of December.

Hull also told Connally that both General Marshall and General Eisenhower had considered the proposal of Brownwood, Texas, citizens that the division be returned there for inactivation. The 36th was mobilized in Brownwood in 1940.

In a single week recently, La Guardia Field handled such diverse cargo items as monkeys from the South Pacific, emergency serum, a pet pelican, and a macaw, spinal fluid for the Army medical school, rare butterflies, stamp collections, and fur coats.

In 1944 the railroads in the United States handled a record 738,000,000,000 revenue ton-miles and 96,000,000,000 revenue passenger-miles.

Nearly 120,000,000 tons of wood were used in building and repairing the U. S. war machine, as compared with only 100,000,000 tons of steel.

The Right Name At The Right Place—Nylons For The Ladies

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—If I weren't a coward, afraid of Congressional threats against my life, I could tell you where to get all the nylons you want. I know, but I'm scared to tell.

The House Commerce committee was holding a meeting on the OPA's order reducing the price of nylons. I was doing my job as a reporter and first thing I knew I was taking notes on where the nylons are, who to see, and how to tell 'em Mr. Montgomery sent you. Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio interrupted.

"Harumph,' he said, looking my way, "If one word of this appears in print, Mr. Othman wont appear at all."

What Price Honesty

Three female journalists squealed their bloodthirsty assent and I don't know whether Congressman Brown has murder in his heart, or a little job of kidnaping. He's bigger than I am. You can talk all you want about freedom of the press; I'm intimidated.

The proceedings started slowly with Reps. Brown and Lyle H. Boren of Oklahoma on the dais, the Misses Marble, Williams, and Fischer at the press table (next to Othman) and no witnesses. So the Congressmen examined the ladies, whose legs looked okay to me. Miss Marble said her rayons were baggy. Miss Fischer said she'd stand in line for nylons. Miss Williams said the beauty about nylons is that they dry in 20 minutes.

Rep. Brown was in the midst of explaining how ladies have made tests, wearing nylon on one leg and rayon on the other (he didn't actually see this, himself) when a witness walked in. The committee pounded on him and he identified himself as Thomas W. Montgomery, the sober-faced salesmanager of the Granite Hosiery Mills of Souderton, Pa.

He said that his company had survived the dirty thirties (a new phrase to me) and that he guessed it would survive the OPA, but that if the rules got any more complicated he'd recommend that ladies wear leggins.

The trouble is, he said, that there isn't enough nylon yarn to go around, what with screen door manufacturers, tire makers, and drapery weavers demanding it, too. He said women were batty about nylons and would buy 'em even if they had rayon tops and, or, cotton feet. He said they probably would get cheated, unless they bought standard brands.

He finished his testimony on a note of despair and Rep. Brown remarked:

"If you have any trouble disposing of your hosiery, Mr. Montgomery, the three young ladies at the press table probably will give you some orders."

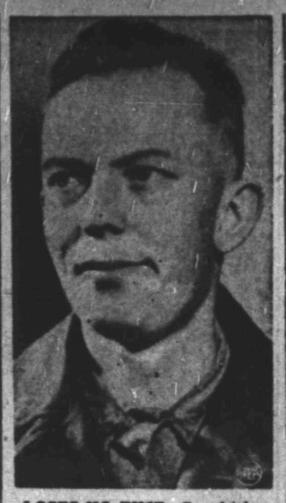

What's In A Name

The ladies beamed. Montgomery took this seriously and he said, "yes, indeed."

"If the young ladies really want nylons," he added, "I suggest that they drop in on Miss Cleary at such-and-such a department store (he named one of the biggest in the capital) and tell her that Mr. Montgomery wants them to have some nylons. Miss Cleary will have her stock in before December first and I am sure she will be delighted to oblige the young ladies."

As I was saying, I was sticking to business, jotting down the facts, when Rep. Brown made his threat against my life. The Misses Marble, Williams and Fischer bared their claws, too, and demanded that I tear up my notes.

I hope they all get runners. I also hope Mrs. Brown takes care of the gentleman from Ohio. Mrs. B., he can get you nylons, if he wants.

BIRTH RATE BOOSTED

MOSCOW, Nov. 22 (AP)—Soviet Russia's birth rate, which before the war was one of the highest in the world, has increased more than one-third as a result of 1944 decree giving cash awards to mothers of three children and more, it was announced today.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Louann Hardy Is Winner

DENTON, Nov. 22. (Special)—Winner of one of three Savino scholarships in music to North Texas State college was Miss Louann Hardy of Lubbock, according to Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, head of the School of Music, and Domenico Savino, New York composer and music corporation representative, who is on the campus.

Miss Hardy was awarded the violin scholarship; Miss Mary Lou Colvin of Tulsa, Okla., was awarded the piano scholarship; and Miss Margaret Bromert of Amarillo who was winner of the voice scholarship. Another Savino scholarship was presented in September to Miss Genevieve Boles, soprano, of Fort Worth.

The scholarships given by Mr. Savino are for one year and include general tuition and fees and applied music fees. The selections were made following auditions of a number of outstanding music students from Texas and Oklahoma high schools.

Mona Hughes Is Married To Lt. (jg) Sherwood

Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Mona Hughes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Hughes of Spur, and Lt. (j.g.) Charles Sherwood, son of Mrs. W. D. McLean of Hanover, Ind., which took place Wednesday, Nov. 7, in the First Christian church in Charleston, S. C., with Dr. Charles C. Thompson, pastor, reading a single ring ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of the journalism department at the University of Texas, has been on editorial staff of the Texas Spur.

Lt. Sherwood is a former student at Texas Technological college and received his degree, with major in petroleum engineering, from the University of Oklahoma. He served 14 months on the USS Rall, and saw action at Okinawa, Iwo Jima and the Carolines.

The couple is at home in Charleston.

SHE'S HEP TO CHARM. It's a cinch to be pretty and it's worth the effort teen-agers find. A clear skin, bright shining eyes and healthy hair are what makes 'em date-bait. All that is needed to be what the boys call "dream dust" is some common sense.

Teen-Agers Are Going For That Well-Scrubbed Look

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

Teen-agers have become shiny-face fans and as noted recently by returning GI's, French girls are now emulating the American well-scrubbed look.

But while many adolescents have adopted the soap and water habit, doctors estimate there are more than four million boys and girls in the United States suffering from embarrassing skin faults.

Most adolescents can help overcome skin difficulties, say skin specialists, by embarking on a program of healthy living. It doesn't mean you've got to shelve your jive and cokes. But along with your indoor recreation, try to plan to get sunshine and outdoor exercise.

Establish proper habits of elimination, eat lots of fresh fruit and vegetables and drink at least a quart of milk a day. Too many sweets, pastries and rich fried foods are bad for beauty.

Strict cleanliness of the skin is important in thwarting blackheads and excessively oily skin. To cleanse your face properly you need hot, not lukewarm water. Using a clean, rough face cloth and a soft complexion soap, massage soap lather into your face.

You may irritate your skin if your soap contains excessive alkali. But you should be able to find a mildly medicated soap that is fragrant and without medicinal odor.

After your soap massage, rinse your face several times in cool water. If you have accumulated blackheads or skin blemishes you may need a medicated emollient ointment.

You can use it at bedtime and leave it on all night. If used in the morning, leave it on at least for a few minutes before removing with cleansing tissue.

Ointments such as those used by hospitals, containing oxyquinoline and sulphurated petroleum, are often advised by skin specialists for young skins.

However, if your skin does not respond to simple common-sense care within a few weeks, put yourself in the hands of a doctor.

Doctors say that though they get only the most stubborn cases, they are able to effect a cure in more than 80 per cent of these.

Pla-Mor Club Planning For Husbands' Party

City Federation, P-TA, Club Groups Have Programs Here

Wednesday afternoon club and Parent-Teacher association meetings were devoted to book reviews and panel discussions. Guests were speakers.

For the last meeting of the year, a panel discussion on child welfare, led by County Attorney Syrian E. Marbut, was given for the City Federation of Women's clubs at Hotel Lubbock. The meeting was open to the public.

On the panel were A. C. Hamilton, city recreation director, who spoke on the physical welfare of the child; Rev. Jimmy Bell of Clovis, N. M., who discussed spiritual welfare; Miss Grace Padley of Senior High school who discussed mental welfare; and Mrs. Bennie Sanford, field representative for the Tuberculosis association, who spoke on the child'e health.

Preceding the program Mrs. A. W. Young, Federation president, precided at an executive meeting.

The Federation's next meeting will be the third Wednesday of January.

For P.-T. A.

Following a panel, "When and How to Say No." given by Richard Kelisky, leader, Janice Lindsey, Barbara Yates, Dorothy Barnett, Rosemary Hairston and Jean McNeill, high school students, for the Senior High P.-T. A. Wednesday, a skit was given by seven members.

In the skit, the highlights of the state P.-T. A. convention held in San Antonio Nov. 14 and 15 were presented to the local unit. Giving the skit were Mesdames John G. Perry, C. C. Files, Roy Hall, Russell Hardin, H. C. Burton, Ralph Bedford and Alvin White, who attended the convention.

Greek Regent Is To Resign

ATHENS, Nov. 22 (AP) — Archbishop Damaskinos announced today he definitely would resign as regent of Greece.

He made the announcement to a press conference shortly after the 85-year-old liberal leader, Themistokles Sophoulis, was sworn in as premier, heading a new cabinet. Damaskinos said he would make a statement to the Greek people later in the day.

Sophoulis said in a press conference that Damaskinos was forced by the British to hold up his resignation last night and swear in the new government. He said British Envoy Hector MacNeil called upon Damaskinos and told him that unless he helped set up the new government, he (MacNeil) would leave at once for London as a mark of protest.

Had No Power

Earlier it had been announced that Damaskinos had withdrawn his resignation so that he could swear in the new government because the outgoing cabinet of Panayotis Kanellopoulis had no constitutional power to do so.

The announcement of a new cabinet resolved a sustained crisis.

The solution to the crisis came after a day and night of discussions, amid rising political tension, during which British commander Sir Ronald Scobie was reported to have banned all public gatherings and to have confined British troops in Athens to their barracks.

Hamlin Funeral To Be Held On Friday

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (AP) —Funeral services will be held here Friday for Mrs. Ruth Phelps Hamlin, 53, widow of Fred E. Hamlin, sr., Salt Lake City publicity and advertising man.

Mrs. Hamlin, member of a prominent newspaper publishing family of New Orleans, La., died at a hospital here Monday of a cerebral hemorrhage. She had been living here for the past three months with a son, Fred E. Hamlin, jr., recently discharged USA chief yeoman in the Navy and now connected with the Office of Inter-American Affairs here.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Phelps of New Orleans. Her father and mother's families are associated with the publishers of newspapers in New Orleans, Shreveport and Baton Rouge.

In addition to the son here, she is survived by the following children:

Calvin Hamlin, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Alfred T. Adams of Providence, R. I., Lt. William C. Hamlin, Army Air Forces, Sequin, Tex.; and Lt. Alfred E. Hamlin, Army occupation forces in Japan. She was a sister of Mrs. Walter Coquille, Calvin and Alfred Phelps of New Orleans.

Mrs. Hamlin's ashes were to be taken to New Orleans following cremation here.

Directors Named For Hale County Hospital

HALE CENTER, Nov. 22.—Hale County Co-Operative hospital held its first membership meeting here Tuesday afternoon and adopted by-laws and elected a permanent board of directors. More than 250 families were represented in the meeting, during which talks were heard from Parr Merriman, Lubbock; Lucien Morehead, Plainview; R. E. Wilson, Petersburg; F. W. Struve, Abernathy; J. L. Monroe, jr., and R. A. Jefferies, Hale Center.

The permanent board named will be composed of Walter Struve, Hale Center merchant, member from the county at large, succeeding A. B. Tarwater; John Hughes, Petersburg banker, succeeding R. E. Wilson in precinct 2; L. M. Anderson, Hale Center merchant, succeeding Alfred Ebeling in precinct 3; Orval Boyd, re-elected in precinct 3 and Clayton Eiring, re-elected in precinct 1.

The hospital membership is now near 600 families.

Kimes Hinted In Texas City

TEXAS CITY, Nov. 22. (U.P.)—Matt Kimes, notorious Oklahoma gunman, was reported seen in a Texas City beer hall Tuesday night, Police Chief W. L. Ladish said today.

Ladish said Kimes, object of the greatest search in two decades, was seen by a man who had known him about 20 years ago in Oklahoma. The police head expressed some doubt that the man was correct in his identification as he had not seen the fugitive bank robber since he went to prison in the 20's.

Kimes Leaves Quickly

The man told the police Kimes walked into a beer hall at 10:30 Tuesday night with two women, a blonde about 27 years old and a brunette.

Kimes apparently recognized him, the man said, because he turned immediately and left the tavern. Another man, already in the tavern, departed at the same time but it was not certain that he was a companion of Kimes, the man added.

Kimes was driving a 1937 model Ford sedan, the man said.

The chief of police declined to identify the man making the report but said he had known the Kimes gang in the old days.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation had not investigated the reports.

Houston Has Critical Shortage Of Housing

HOUSTON, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — A nation-wide survey indicated Houston is experiencing the most critical housing shortage of any city in the nation, William G. Farrington, president of the Houston Home Builders association, said today.

He explained the housing situation has been caused by the return of servicemen.

"The people of Houston are going to have to open their homes to discharged veterans and their families," he said. "People with space in their homes should immediately offer it for rent."

Fire Destroys Cotton Seed At Norton Gin

NORTON, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—"Volunteer firemen, robbed of their water supply, had to watch 190 tons of cotton seed and 75 bales of cotton burn in a blaze which destroyed the Morrison gin with an estimated loss of $40,000.

The fire destroyed the water pump as it started. An electric wire was believed to have been the cause of the blaze.

Veterans Warned Of Buying Farm Lands

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—Veterans who want to find a place in agriculture were warned this week to get some experience first, rent a place instead of buying at present inflated values, and keep in touch with their own county agents.

Advice to ex-servicemen with farming ideas came from Dr. Ide P. Trotter, director of the Texas A. & M. college extension service.

The National Planning association, Trotter said, estimated that more than a million veterans want to own or operate full-time farms, while half that number want part-time farms. In addition, 300,000 veterans who went from farms to factories to war, now want to return to farming.

Wainwright To Aid Texas Victory Loan

(By The United Press)

Texas' Victory Loan drive will be aided next month by Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, whose first assignment as an officer after leaving West Point was at a Texas army post—Fort Clark.

Gen. Wainwright will be a guest of Fort Worth, Dec. 17, Tarrant County bond officers said. Plans for the rally for the hero of Corregidor will be announced later.

Nathan Adams of Dallas, chairman of the state's drive, urged all Texans to buy a bond for Thanksgiving. There could be no better way to observe the date, he said, "than by buying a Victory bond in Thanksgiving to the servicemen who made victory possible."

FLAG ERROR

BATON ROUGE, La. (U.P.) — Early-morning pedestrians recently were puzzled to see an American flag flying upside down atop the YMCA here. One, L. P. Landry, a discharged Army sergeant, informed the Y officials, who promptly corrected the error. It was blamed on the porter.

Staff Members Named For State Hospitals

AUSTIN, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—Staff appointments for four Texas institutions have been announced by State Board of Control Chairman Weaver Baker.

At Rusk State hospital, Dr. James S. Scarborough has been named assistant superintendent. Before entering the Army in October, 1940, Dr. Scarborough was a staff psychiatrist at Rusk.

Maj. Tiller E. Carter of Luling was named educational director at the Austin State school. At the Gainesville State school, Franklin L. King of Commerce will be the new educational director.

Miss Reba M. Henry, formerly of Houston, was appointed junior sociologist and placement worker at Terrell State hospital.

BAGGAGE SAILS ALONE

FORT WARREN, Wyo. (U.P.) — The baggage of a certain company of soldiers at Fort Warren is in Japan, but the GIs are happy about the whole thing. The group was all set to sail from port for Japan when their orders were changed. Their baggage already was stowed aboard ship, and went on to Japan, however.

Houston Bus Riders To Get Cut In Fares

HOUSTON, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — It's going to be cheaper to ride cross town now.

On either Dec. 1 or Dec. 15 Houston busses will grant a half-cent reduction in fares. Tokens now sell four for 30 cents or seven and a half cents each. With the reduced price they will sell five for 35 cents or exactly seven cents each.

Single fares will remain at 10 cents each.

GET DU PONT ANTI-FREEZE NOW

Chances are it will be hard to replace a radiator that freezes up this winter. Engine parts are scarce! That's why the wise car-owner gets his anti-freeze long before winter arrives.

$1.40 a gal. War Emergency "Zerone"* gives thorough protection against rust and corrosion as well as freezing. Until regular "Zerone" returns (this season's production went to war), there's no better buy at the price. Remember, it's made by Du Pont.

$2.65 a gal. A limited supply of "Zerex,"* Du Pont's non-evaporating anti-freeze, is now available. "Zerex" won't boil out. One filling lasts all winter. Gives complete protection against rust and corrosion—won't form sludge or clog radiators.

Hike In Crude Prices Okayed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Increases of from two to 35 cents a barrel have been granted in producers' ceiling prices for 21 crude oilpools, the OPA announced today.

Effective as of November 1, the increase will not be passed on to consumers because the government reimburses the first purchasers of oil by the exact amount of the increase.

Pools Are Listed

The 21 pools, with the amount of each increase in cents per barrel, are:

Oklahoma: Atlantic, 20 cents; Barker, 35 cents; Empire, 35 cents; Kendrick, 17 cents; Lovell, 25 cents; March North, 20 cents; Norfolk West, 25 cents; Seminole East, 25 cents; Signal Hill, 20 cents; St. Louis district, 20 cents; St. Louis North, 35 cents, and Tuskegee East, 20 cents.

Texas: Hendrick, 25 cents; Iatan-East Howard, two cents; Lubbock, 35 cents; Remo (Osborne area), 25 cents, and Teci (Osborne area), 25 cents.

California: Mountain View, two cents.

Colorado: Fort Collins, 24 cents.

Kansas: Catherine, 25 cents.

Louisiana: Lake Mongoulois, 24 cents.

GIANT FOOTSTEPS—Miles Clark of Elizabeth City, N. C., built this unusual footpath leading from his home to his boat landing on the Pasquotank River.

British Leader Will Visit San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—San Antonio civic and military leaders will be hosts Sunday and Monday to Sir Arthur Tedder, marshal of the Royal Air Force and General Eisenhower's wartime deputy Allied commander.

Sir Arthur and his party, which includes Lady Tedder, will be honored Sunday night with an informal dinner, and Monday with a formal military review at Randolph field. Brig. Gen. Victor H. Strahm, commanding general of the AAF Western Flying Training command, will be host at a dinner at the Officers' club following the review.

The party is touring the United States as guests of the War department. Included are Squadron Leader M. P. Fellowes, Tedder's RAF aide; Wing Commander A. Brennard, RAF; Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Thatcher of U. S. AAF headquarters, and Lt. A. G. Hutchins, AAF.

After visiting San Antonio, the party will go to Orlando, Fla.

German Police Not Saluting Americans

BERLIN, Nov. 22. (AP) — German police in the American occupation zone of Berlin have been ordered not to salute United States officers.

They will continue to salute Russian, British and French officers.

Part of the 13,000 German police in Berlin are guarding some U. S. installations because of the redeployment of American troops.

More than half of the 16,549,312 acres of forest burned in 1944 occurred on land for which no regular protection had been provided.

Women Must Work To Preserve Peace

HOUSTON, Nov. 22 (AP)—American women, who shouldered new responsibilities in the winning of the war, must work at the same level to maintain the peace, Col. Oveta Culp Hobby told the United Daughters of the Confederacy at a convention luncheon here.

"To win the war, to bring about a cessation of firing, it was necessary to mobilize women. To arrive at and maintain the peace, it will be necessary for women to work for a place in perpetuity," Col. Hobby, former chief of the W.A.C., said.

In discussing the work of the organization she formerly headed, Col. Hobby pointed out that the W.A.C. filled jobs previously done only by men, and distinguished itself in assuming those new responsibilities.

"I now find myself turning from the work of women in war to the work of women in peace," Col. Hobby concluded, "and I tell you that we must face and accept our responsibilities as a majority."

Eviction Trial Is Sought By Tenant

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP) — One of three tenants remaining in a 14-unit apartment building purchased by Sen. O'Daniel (D-Tex) demanded today a jury trial of eviction proceedings filed against him by the Texas senator.

The tenant, W. W. Brauer, contended through his attorney, Maurice Guervitz, that O'Daniel had not brought the eviction suit in good faith and actually wanted to rent the premises to friends.

O'Daniel purchased the building last August, saying he intended to reconvert it into a home.

Municipal Court Judge Armond W. Scott said trial would be set in the near future.

Gretna Green Of Eastern Seaboard Gets Back To Normal; Marriages On Increase

ELKTON, Md., Nov. 22. (AP)—The Gretna Green of the eastern seaboard is getting back to normal, which means that once again anyone who has been in Elkton half an hour can spot those beaming couples who flock here by the hundreds to be married.

The end of the war has meant a considerable increase in the number of marriage licenses, which clerks in the Cecil county building attribute to returning veterans who are marrying the girls they left behind.

Wait 48 Hours

They still come into Elkton two-by-two, on trains, in buses and by automobile, to enter matrimony. They still must wait 48 hours for the license, and many of them stay in Elkton until it is issued—all of which means more business for the town.

In 1944, a total of 7,820 marriage licenses were issued. So far this year—up to Nov. 1—there have been 6,724, and if only as many are granted in the last two months as were last year the 1944 mark will be exceeded.

Ever since June, the number of licenses to wed have shown consistent increases over the 1944 months and the county clerk's office expects this trend to continue.

Won't Reach Peak

However, it won't be anything like the peak war year of 1942, when 14,101 couples received the certificates, or 1941, when 14,905 couples came into Elkton to marry.

But the marriage "runners"—who abandoned their business to a great extent during the war to do more pressing hauling of passengers and goods—are back at their old stands once more, complete with their $100-a-year licenses from the town of Elkton.

And once more the familiar greeting is heard at the railroad station, the bus stop and on the streets:

"Going to get married, mister? I can show you the ropes."

WRONG DISCHARGE

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 22. (AP) — When the staggering pedestrian pleaded with Patrolman R. L. Frazier for consideration as a "discharged man," the policeman was inclined to listen.

Not for long, however — the man's papers read "discharged from the state penitentiary Nov. 10."

General Patch Death Victim

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, who led the Americans to victory at Guadalcanal and later was commander of the 7th Army in Europe, died last night of pneumonia. He would have been 56 tomorrow.

Patch died at Brooke General hospital to which he had been admitted on Nov. 14, with what doctors said was "a severe type of pneumonia."

Family At Bedside

At his bedside when he died were Mrs. Julia L. Patch, his wife; Mrs. Charles M. Drummond, his daughter; Maj. Gen. Joseph D. Patch, his brother, and Mrs. Alexander M. Patch 3d, his daughter-in-law. His son had been killed in action in France in October, 1944, while leading an infantry company of the 79th division.

Patch gained fame in the invasion of southern France August, 1944 and the 600-mile drive northward of the 7th Army to join the final assault which crushed Germany.

Since his return to this country last July Patch had command of the 4th Army.

Complications Seen In Farm Economy

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22. (AP)—"The thing that complicates our agricultural economy," Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson said today, "is that in every move we make we must consider the economy of all other countries—in fact the whole world."

In a speech at a Rotary club luncheon, Anderson said Great Britain has three billion pounds of surplus wool "and they are making a strong bid to sell it here."

He offered assurance however that the U. S. is "going to get into that business, and we're going to manage so we won't lose much."

The former president of Rotary International, who at one time served in Congress, said that even if wool is sold at the best possible prices, the transaction will probably entail a $25,000,000 loss.

The sudden termination of the war, he explained, left this country with a stockpile which was purchased for $150,000,000 or $70,000,000 above the world price.

Anderson said he is appointing a special cotton advisory committee to solve the question of what to do with the country's $450,000,000 worth of surplus cotton, mostly of the cheap grade.

Two Fliers Killed In Texas Accident

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Capt. Paul M. Wipperfurth of Skokie, Ill., and Maj. John M. Horgan of Meridian, Miss., were killed in the crash of an AT-6 plane near Castroville, Tex., Monday, the Air Forces Personnel Distribution command announced today.

Wreckage of the plane was discovered yesterday by a search mission. The two victims, both pursuit pilots, were overseas veterans here for reassignment at the personnel distribution command.

GI Has The Right Answer To This

FORT LEWIS, Wash., Nov. 22 (AP) — A WAC interviewer at the Fort Lewis separation center was trying to convince a GI about to be discharged of the value of investing in Victory bonds.

"You don't want to end up selling apples, do you?" she warned.

"You bet I do," the soldier replied with sudden interest.

"I own an apple orchard in Wenatchee."

International "Oscar" Is Being Planned By Movieland; Good Will Is Requirement

HEADS SPEEDWAY—Wilbur Shaw, above, is new president and general manager of the Indianapolis Speedway where he won the annual automobile racing classic three times. He was appointed after Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker sold the property to Anton Hulman, jr., Terre Haute, Ind., financier and sportsman.

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 22 — An international "Oscar" is being planned by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, President Jean Hersholt announced today.

"This award," Hersholt said, "will be given for the film that contributes most toward international friendship and good will." The award will not be based on photographic skill, so nations whose motion pictures are not highly advanced technically will have an equal opportunity to compete.

A committee, including Charles Boyer, Walt Disney and foreign representatives of the major studios, has been appointed to draw up plans for the international award.

The Danish actor also announced the Academy awards for 1945 will be made March 7 at Grauman's Chinese theater. This indicates that the industry will not return to the pre-war custom of a long (and usually dull) dinner on award night.

JUST PLAIN PEOPLE

Except for their salaries, the people of Hollywood are much like the people in any other town.

Barbara Stanwyck will be cooking the wild duck that Robert Taylor shot last weekend. It's his first Thanksgiving at home in three years . . . Bob Hope is home for the first time in five years. But he's playing the Hollywood canteen in the afternoon . . . As usual, Esther Williams will eat with 28 members of her immediate family in Inglewood.

Turhan Bey and Donald O'Connor were hoping for passes from Santa Ana Army base so they could be with their respective families . . . Eddie Bracken will eat in a restaurant and spend the rest of the day at the hospital with his wife, who presented him with a boy . . . Maria Montez will have a festive dinner for husband Jean Pierre Aumont and her three sisters . . . Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Tufts are tossing an open house with turkey and goose on the table.

FILL IN FOR SINATRA

While Frank Sinatra is ill, Perry Como is filling in for him at the New York Paramount and Danny Kaye is subbing at the Wedgewood room . . . Bob Benchley's death is gravely felt in Hollywood. His last picture was "Blue Skies" with Crosby and Astaire.

"Buy A Victory Bond TODAY."

With Mr. Truman In The Trolley Business, Othman Offers Some Suggestions For Him

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—Now that President Truman has gone into the trolley business, it becomes my duty as one of his best customers to make some suggestions.

The Capital Transit lines, of which Mr. Truman became chief conductor in order to end a strike of motormen for higher wages, operates the only street cars in America with special windows near the roof for the benefit of strap-hangers. When I stand up morning and night on the friendship heights line, Mr. President, I'm not interested in the scenery. Just in my feet. You can paint out those windows.

Pink Cat Blocked Traffic

And another thing, Mr. President. Your trolley company blocked traffic on F street the other day with an exhibit of the street cars of tomorrow. One of these was painted pink.

It had green and white striped window shades, like Miami Beach umbrellas, neon lighting and a special electric sign in front, Mr. Truman, saying: "Full up; take next car."

This I resent. I don't need any sign to tell me a car is full. That sign is misleading, anyhow. The next car's full, too.

Fire Poetic Motorman

You have a motorman, Mr. President, I wish you'd fire. When I go to the Mayflower hotel to cover labor conferences, I take your Mt. Pleasant line. I nearly always get the car with the poetic operator. "Back in the car, if you want to go far," he cries "Seventeenth and K; hop out of the hay."

You either get rid of that guy, Mr. President, or I bash his noggin with his own fare box.

On your 16th street bus line, sir, you will be interested to know that you have a vehicle with slanting seats, sort of, designed to pack in more passengers by giving them a half-standing-half-sitting ride. I suggest you junk this one promptly; the human body was not designed for such punishment.

I believe, Mr. President, that you would do well to take a ride on your 14th street trolley, choosing a car in charge of a motorwoman. A gent can't insult one of these, or she says he's no gent. Then she gets a little hysterical and you, Mr. President, get taken two blocks beyond your stop. What do you do then? That's what I want to know.

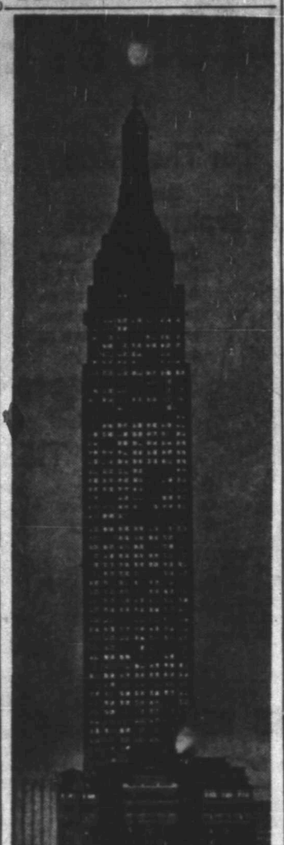

I understand, Mr. Truman, that you have appointed your Mr. Steamboat Johnson of the ODT as your streetcar operating deputy. He knows how to bump people off airplanes and how to keep 'em from sleeping on trains. Steamboat is a priority expert.

Priority System Suggested

He should be able to produce a priority system for street cars unless, of course, he can't produce more cars. Those with sore feet ought to get red tickets calling for seats; those whose wives phoned saying dinner is in the stove certainly deserve blue cards allowing them to fight their way inside.

The ones with plain white tickets, I should say, could continue to have their legs caught in the automatic doors, because we've got to let the motormen have their fun. The other details I think we can leave safely to Steamboat.

I'll be glad to consult with him any time, Mr. President, and between us I think we can build up a first rate trolley company. All we need is more seats and less clang-clang.

Try Hot Water Plus After Meals For Acid Indigestion

If the thousands of unfortunate people, people who suffer from so-called dyspepsia, acid indigestion, food fermentation, sour stomach, flatulence, gas or other stomach distress brought on by excess acid would just try drinking slowly after each upsetting meal half a glass of real hot water containing one spoonful of Neutracid they can usually get amazingly quick relief in a very few minutes. Neutracid is not a laxative — it is soothing and comforting to the mucous membranes and very agreeable to take. Neutracid — a physician's formula can now be obtained at Mark Halsey Drug Co.; O'Donnell Aztec Corner Drug Store or any first class drug store. Adv.

Thousands Of Jobs Unfilled

AUSTIN, Nov. 22. (U.P.) —There are 40,000 unfilled jobs listed by the U. S. Employment Service as of Nov. 1, and some 85,000 job seekers in Texas, according to C. E. Belk, state USES director.

The reasons for the large number of unfilled jobs can be attributed, Belk said, to wages, shortages of qualified workers, and a central tightening of employers' demands in skill and experience.

Best Ones Filled Quickly

When qualified workers are available, Belk continued, desirable jobs are filled rapidly. However, of 40,000 unfilled jobs, more than 50 per cent pay between 50 and 75 cents an hour, and five per cent pay under 50 cents. The chief problem in filling the remaining 45 per cent is finding qualified workers to suit employers.

In Dallas, Belk said, 42.6 per cent of the jobs paying over 75 cents are in building trades and automobile and electrical appliance repair. Thousands of workers face a total lack of demand for their skills. They include former war plant workers who developed special skills now not needed since the defense and war work stoppages.

Total layoffs in Texas by war plants since V-J day totaled 61,888, Belk reported. Of these 26,000 were in Dallas.

Job listings dropped to 40,000, for the week ending Oct. 31, compared to 65,000 the week following V-J day.

Prisoner Claims He Is Kin Of Governor

AMARILLO, Nov. 22. (AP) — A man who Denver, Colo., officers said claimed to be a kinsman of Colorado's Gov. Vivian is being held in Amarillo on a charge of passing worthless checks.

Homer Vivian, jr., alias A. E. Johnson, is wanted in Denver, where he allegedly passed more worthless checks. He is also wanted there for having deserted his bride of two weeks.

CATTLE SPRAYING PAYS

LARAMIE, Wyo. (U.P.) — Tony Fellhauer, livestock improvement specialist of the extension service at the University of Wyoming, estimates the state was saved $400,000 as the result of an intensive cattle spraying campaign this year. The cattle are sprayed to kill grubs, which do considerable damage to livestock.

Veterans Reenlist In Large Numbers

DALLAS, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Eighth Service command reported today that more than 2,000 former noncommissioned officers, discharged since May 12, jammed southwestern recruiting stations until midnight Tuesday, the last day they could re-enlist and keep their old ranks.

Since Sept. 13 more than 30,000 men have enlisted in the Eighth Service command.

Col. Robert L. Bacon, director of military personnel procurement, said that many high school lads were enlisting for three years so that they would be guaranteed four years of college under the GI Bill of Rights at the expiration of their enlistment term.

WAR-YEAR BUILDING

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Home-building in Chicago during the war years was more than two-thirds that of a similar period immediately prior to Pearl Harbor, according to the Bureau of Industrial Service, Inc. Homes totaling $52,000,000 were constructed from 1942 through 1944 as compared with $70,000,000 from 1939 through 1941. Federal Housing projects totaling $13,000,000 were included during the war years' toll.

THANKSGIVING

Today sees our armed forces victorious everywhere. Our enemies in the Pacific, driven from the lands they had enslaved, surrendered in their own homeland. The European war had already ended. The promise for tomorrow is a happy one.

All of us, a united and victorious America, on this Thanksgiving Day, 1945, humbly raise our thanks to God for the strength and courage given to combat our enemies. May we continue in the faith, courage and self-sacrifice which sustained us in war, as we build a better world in Peace.

Penicillin Is Said Plentiful

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP) — A Civilian Production administration official said today "a little confusion in the distribution of penicillin" has resulted in complaints recently from a few hospitals that they were short of supplies. He added, however, that any institution in actual need is being supplied immediately.

"There's plenty of penicillin, it's just a matter of distribution," this official, who asked not to be quoted by name, told a reporter. He added that the distribution problem should be cleared up "in three or four weeks."

He ascribed the difficulties to the recent dropping of government controls and said they were a "normal result" of this action.

Slight Production Loss

It's a case of who will be distributor for whom," he said, explaining that some hospitals buy direct from producers, some from wholesale houses and others from retailers.

The official asserted that a "very slight loss of production" occurred in October due to a brief strike of some workers in a plant where penicillin was being produced. He said the strikers were not actually producing the drug but that the walkout affected the operations.

On another occasion, he said, a firm manufacturing amyl acetate, one of the raw materials in penicillin production, was affected by a strike in a nearby alkali manufacturing plant. But he said there were sufficient stocks of amyl acetate on hand so that production of the drug was not affected.

Tech Continuing Milo Feeding Test

Texas Tech college's department of animal husbandry is continuing a comparison of feeding value of Martin milo and Plainsman milo, according to Ray C. Mowery, professor in the department.

The experiment was begun two years ago at Tech, with approval of th ecollege research committee, in cooperation with the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station, College Station.

Experimental feeding with 100 lambs, bred by Louis Acker of Abilene, was begun Nov. 14 and will continue 112 days. At the end of the feeding periods the lambs, which weighed an average of 62 pounds each, will be shipped to market for slaughter.

Two Lots of Lambs

Forty lambs were placed in two dry lots, 20 lambs to each lot. Lambs in one of the lots are being fed Martin Milo and those in another lot are being fed Plainsman Milo. The roughage is alfalfa hay.

The remaining 60 lambs, divided in two lots of 30 head to each lot, are given access to a field of immature hegari with practically no grain. Those in one of the lots are being fed 3-4 pound alfalfa and those in the other lot are being fed 1-4 pound cotton seed meal.

Due to lateness of crops this year, the number of lambs being fed is less than usual, Prof. Mowery said. Feeding reports on lambs are compiled every 28 days.

A turkey dinner complete with all the trimmings Wednesday night lodge hall was the first formal lodbe hall was the first formal meeting of Sea Scout Ship Lubbock, sponsored by lodge 486.

A movie on senior scouting was shown at part of the program. G. M. Unger, South Plains council executive, led the songs.

Members of the Sea Scout committee, P. L. Adams, chairman; T. O. Moore, J. B. Patterson, H. W. Hodges and C. H. Tisdel, and their wives; and parents of the scouts were guests.

The ship has been without adult leadership for a year and a half, and is due to receive its charter next months. W. L. Jones is Skipper and J. L. Garrett, mate.

The winter of 1886-87 was one of the worst in Wyoming history. More than 80 per cent of the range cattle were wiped out.

People In Hills Of Mississippi Already Have Their Own Health Insurance Plan

DECATUR, Miss., Nov. 22 (AP)— President Truman's health insurance proposal satisfies a lot of people in these red clay hills of east Mississippi—they figure the president finally heard about their own pay-the-doctor-in-advance plan.

This year more than half of Newton county's 17,000 residents are pooling their funds to pay medical expenses. The plan has been in operation three years.

On Voluntary Basis

The chief difference between Newton county's plan and the president's proposal is that his would be compulsory, whereas the local version is on a voluntary basis.

Each family pays 6 per cent of its net income to the Newton County Rural Health Service association, which was formed under the guidance of the state extension service, the state health department and the Farm Security administration.

The FSA makes a sufficient allocation to bring the funds up to $46 per family per year. The kitty is divided into separate budgets for general practice, surgery and specialist work, hospitalization, dentistry, and administrative expense.

Choose Our Doctors

Lester Tuck, manager of the association, said members are free to choose their own doctors, and the doctors are free to accept or reject any patient.

If the available cash fails to equal the total of doctors' bills for a month, the medicos are paid a proportionate percentage. The balance is made up as surplus funds become available. Tuck said the association had paid 88 per cent of the $350,000 bills made.

Owls To Face New Climax

Fort Worth Game Top Headliner

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Rice Owls reach another climax in their football championship hopes Saturday when they go to Fort Worth to battle Texas Christian in the headliner of the Southwest conference for the week.

There can be no slip-up now for the embattled Owls who have two games ahead of them with the certainty of a tie for the title if they win them both. They could take the championship undisputed should Texas—the only other team with just one loss—stumble before Texas A. and M. at College Station Nov. 29.

They'll Watch Game

Texas rests this week preparing for the Aggies, who also are idle, but they will be watching the Fort Worth game with much more than casual interest.

While the Owls and Horned Frogs play, Southern Methodist will be in Waco battling their arch-rivals, the Baylor Bears. S. M. U. still has an outside chance of sharing the title should Rice and Texas be upset. Baylor is out of the race.

At Tulsa today, the Arkansas Razorbacks meet the Tulsa university Golden Hurricane in the final intersectional game of the year for a Southwest conference team.

Having hit four for four last week and not knowing when to quit on a good thing, we submit with bravado these selections for this week:

Today—Arkansas vs Tulsa at Tulsa: The Golden Hurricane will sweep the Razorbacks clear back to Fayetteville; Tulsa by four touchdowns.

Saturday—Rice vs Texas Christian at Fort Worth: A great game. No surprise should T. C. U. win but we're taking the Owls by another narrow squeak. Southern Methodist vs Baylor at Waco: Ought to be a lot of scoring in this one with the Methodists getting more points than the Baptists.

Golf Stars Tee Off For Tourney Today

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 22. (AP) — Weather conditions permitting, a star-studded field of professional and amateur golfers was to tee off today in Montgomery's $10,000 Victory bond invitational tournament.

Nearly 150 of the nation's top-notch shotmakers and would-be big shots were entered for the fifth meet on the P.G.A. winter circuit. Presence of most of the big money winners of the year promised keen competition.

A 24-hour rain which continued last night and showed signs of clearing up kept pre-tournament practice to a minimum. Locker room gossip at the Beauvoir Country club was divided when favorites were discussed.

In the event of continued rains it was announced the tournament would be shoved up into a three-day affair, beginning Friday.

Most observers installed Sam Byrd, former major league outfielder; Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., and Dutch Harrison of Little Rock as most likely to win the pots of gold in the form of Victory bonds.

MIKE IS THANKFUL

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—Boxing Promoter Mike Jacobs has something to be thankful about today. In 37 shows at Madison Square garden so far this year he has drawn 488,999 fans and a record gross of $2,050,281.

Lufkin Panthers Set Merry Pace As High Scorers

(By The Associated Press)

Lufkin's Panthers set a merry scoring pace along the Texas schoolboy football trail.

The boys from the piney woods have rolled up 329 points in nine games—an average of 36.4.

The second high scoring team in class AA football is Brownsville with 321 points in nine games, while Austin is third with 285. Paris fourth with 273 and Brackenridge (San Antonio) fifth with 257.

Defensively the top teams are Pampa and Highland Park (Dallas). Each in eight games has allowed only 19 points by the opposition.

Edge For Army By 26 Points

BY OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 — First downs and fumbles on the sports scene:

The early line for the Army-Navy football game rates the Cadets as 26½ point favorites over the Middies. If the line holds true, it would mean the second greatest Army victory in the long series.

Army's greatest win was by 40 to 5 in 1903, with a 22-point margin of victory in 1935. Navy's most one-sided win was 24-0 in 1890. In the series, Army has won 23, Navy 19, with three ties. That 26½ doesn't look large enough here.

Need Doubles Combine

Walter Pate, captain of America's Davis cup forces, thinks that to regain the silver mug the U. S. must develop a fine doubles combine. He believes that permanent partnerships should be made now to develop the combine.

"Close contact and association are necessary to succeed in doubles", Pate explained. "Pairs that have made a record are those that have become close friends, playing together constantly to become accustomed to each other's ways." . . . Paging Damon and Pythias.

Lists Passing Champions

Curley Lambeau, coach of the Green Bay Packers, lists his all-time passing champions in this order, which may be something of a surprise: 1, Cecil Isbell; 2, Sid Luckman; 3, Sammy Baugh . . . and you can get an argument on that one anytime at all . . .

Lou Little, the Columbia coach, thinks that Army and Navy should be included in the proposed official Ivy league.

"Then we would have 10 colleges somewhat comparable to the Big Ten and our best would match their best, or the best anywhere," Lou of the Lions roars in his well-known whisper.

Matter Of Opinion

It is of course a matter of opinion, particularly in the midwest. They'd undoubtedly point out that Lou should be glad he used the words "somwhat comparable." . . .

Balloting is on for the Heisman trophy, voted last year to Ohio State's Les Norvath. There's a lot of talk for Oklahoma A. & M.'s Bob Fenimore and Alabama's Harry Gilmer but the "experts feel that one handle should be given to Army's Doc Blanchard and the other to the Cadets' Glenn Davis.

Which reminds us of the description of a football "expert." . . . He's just a baseball writer with his vest on!

Although Tulare lake in interior California has been fertile farmland for years, it is still listed on most maps as a lake.

Eleven Games Slated Today

Fans Can Sit Back And Take A Rest

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP) — Most college football fans can sit back and relax at home today. There are hardly any games for them to attend. Only a sparse Thanksgiving day program of 11 games is on tap.

Perhaps the two outstanding games are the Denver-Colorado clash at Denver with the Big Seven title at stake and the Tulsa-Arkansas battle at Tulsa with the twice-beaten Golden Hurricane still hopeful of a fifth consecutive bowl bid by virtue of a decisive victory over the Southwest conference eleven.

Virginia Military and Virginia Tech tangle at Roanoke in what has been termed the "military classic of the South." A crowd of 24,000 is expected.

Charity Game Set

There are no games listed for the Pacific coast or in the southwest and only one in the east. This pits the New London sub base against the Tuskegee Warhawks in a charity game at the Polo grounds in New York.

Wake Forest, which defeated North Carolina last Saturday, and South Carolina meet at Charlotte while William and Mary takes the field against Richmond at Richmond.

In the midwest Detroit and Wayne play their annual game at Detroit, and Cincinnati and Miami (Ohio) battle in their traditional fray at Cincinnati.

The three remaining games send Marquette against St. Louis university at St. Louis; Drake against Wichita at Wichita; and Utah against Utah State at Salt Lake City.

Primo Carnera Fails In Ring Comeback

MILAN, Italy, Nov. 22 (AP) — Primo Carnera, the "Ambling Alp" who once held the world heavyweight championship, was knocked last night in his first attempt at a ring comeback.

The nulking, aging 39-year-old former champion who survived the rigors of the Nazi occupation, lasted only seven rounds against Luigi Musina, a smaller and younger Italian and claimant to the European heavyweight title.

Although he weighed 264 pounds to Musina's 184½, Carnera was floored three times before the referee stopped it in the seventh. The big Italian was standing dazed and helpless as Musina pummelled him at will. It was scored as a T.K.O.

His 39 years told on his strength and his slow punches did not match those of his more agile, sharp-punching opponent.

Carnera won the heavyweight title in June, 1933, when he knocked out Jack Sharkey. He lost it a year later when Max Baer stiffened him in 11 rounds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22—The Amateur Athletic union has just given permission for college basketball players to appear in the Chicago all-star game against a pro outfit, provided that Howie Schultz (Hamline and Brooklyn Dodgers) isn't a member of the college team . . . Wonder if that eligibility argument will be revived again this season? . . . In case you hadn't noticed, Hamline, which tried long to win national recognition, is out of the Ned-Rish (New York-Philadelphia-Buffalo) league this winter but will appear in the Boston garden and Chicago stadium . . . The University of Maine's only expenditure for athletic equipment during the war was for 12 dozen pairs of socks. And the first post-war purchase was a pair of size 12 football shoes . . . At that rate, Maine should qualify for the new "Ivy league."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Will Connolly, San Francisco Chronicle: "Santa Anita's decision to buy Arrowhead Springs, a swank spa in the San Bernardino mountains, where luncheon with mutton broth costs $2.50 a plate, causes us to wonder whether the track will reserve a wing for convalescent mutuel players, broken in spirit and purse."

SPORTSPOURRI

A memorial trophy to the late E. C. "Billy" Hayes, famous Indiana track coach, will go to the winning team at Saturday's national collegiate cross country run. Appropriately, it will be a "traveling" award . . . It costs real dough to be a bench-warmer at today's Denver-Colorado U. football game . . . Ten seats on each bench were set aside for purchasers of $1,000 war bonds . . . Norfolk's high-powered Grandy High school football team is looking for an opponent for a war bond game some time in December . . . The Virginians would consider any class "A" team east of the Mississippi.

Six Districts To Get Champs

Schoolboy Race In State Narrowing

(By The Associated Press)

Six district championships are in the balance today in Texas schoolboy football. Five definitely will be determined; one may have to await a game tomorrow.

Definitely on the line are these titles:

District 2—Vernon at Wichita Falls.

District 4—El Paso High vs Austin (El Paso).

District 7—Psachal (Fort Worth) vs North Side (Fort Worth).

District 9—Breckenridge at Mineral Wells.

District 11—Marshall at Tyler.

More On The Block

In district 15 Jefferson and Brackenridge, San Antonio teams, clash with the championship going to the former if it wins. If Jefferson is tied or loses, Austin will win the championship should it beat Kerrville tomorrow.

More titles will be on the block tomorrow.

Two championships already have been determined—Paris in district 5 and Milby (Houston) in district 13.

Two games were played last night but neither meant anything in a district race. Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) turned back Poly (Fort Worth) 12-0 and Lamar (Houston) defeated Austin (Houston) 24-0.

Wanted: Top Team For Cotton Bowl

DALLAS, Nov. 22. (U.P) — When you have a lot of seats, say 46,000, and you're sure of selling all of them for an event like the annual New Year's day Cotton bowl football game, you would naturally think an organization like the Cotton Bowl Athletic association would be tickled pink, wouldn't you?

Well, the officials are tickled about the ticket sales which boomed from the moment they went on the block Monday. But there's anxiety, too. They would like to know who is going to play before a sellout crowd come Jan. 1.

What About Competition

They knew today — they knew it this time last year, etc. — that the Southwest conference champion or co-champion would be one team. That part is all right. Either Rice or Texas is going to represent the Southwest loop. But what about competition from outside?

Unless red tape is slashed, the association is going to have to wait until Dec. 1 when Rice closes its season against Baylor, unless Texas tops Texas A. & M. Saturday while Rice is losing to T.C.U., in which event Texas would be the nominee. After the conference representative is determined, the association can formally extend its invitation. But if it is necessary to wait that long, there may not be any suitable opponents left. Since the host team has the say-so in inviting its opponent under the current agreement between conference and association officials, there's nothing to do but wait.

Although no official of the Cotton Bowl association would comment on the teams favored as opponents of the Southwest entry, unofficial but reliable speculation mentioned these teams:

Oklahoma A. & M., Duke, Tennessee, Georgia, Virginia, Alabama, or Mississippi State.

Fans who saw the rootin,' tootin' Aggies from Oklahoma kick T.C.U. around for a 34-to-0 decision last New Year's day might like to see the Cowpokes come back.

This will be the 10th annual Cotton bowl game. The show started back in 1937 when T.C.U. worked out a 16-6 edge over Marquette. Except for the 1938-39 games, Southwest conference teams have played in the game each year. In those years, St. Mary's topped Texas Tech, 20-13, and Clemson came west to beat Boston college, who came even farther, 6-3.

The only tie was in 1944 when Texas university broke even with Randolph field, 7-to-7.

Losing Captain To Give Up His Shoes

PRATT, Kan., Nov. 22 (U.P) — Somebody is going to get an extra pair of spiked shoes this afternoon.

The Pratt High school football team plays host to Dodge City in the championship game of their league. The losing captain traditionally removes his shoes and hands them to the captain of the winning team after the ball game.

NEWS NOTE: The Rev. Dr. J. Frank Norris, of Fort Worth and Detroit, writes us that he soon will make a tour of the world. Doctor Norris has just returned to Fort Worth from Washington where he made arrangements for the tour and had long conferences concerning it with Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and Lord Halifax, the British ambassador.

"Everybody in Washington," said Doctor Norris, "is scared to death of Russia — and well they may be."

The militant Baptist preacher also reported that the atomic bomb is the most discussed subject in Washington official circles and all highly-placed statesmen agree "it is now possible, as the Bible sets forth, that all the cities of the world could be destroyed in an hour's time.

"They're talking religion up there, too," he concluded.

Sen. Tom Connally, of Texas, the chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations committee, gets more mail than any other member of the Congress — for that matter, probably more than any other public official. Communications pour in to him at the rate of from 1,000 to 5,000 per day — depending upon how "hot" things are in world affairs, or in Texas.

In order to care for this great flood of correspondence, Senator Connally's office uses a mail-opening machine. It's a great time-saver.

* * *

SPEAKING of senators and congressmen, and such, reminds us that it's fine for the people to write their representatives in both houses of the national legislature. But those who write should exercise a little judgment.

For instance, Sen. Dick Russell, of Georgia, heard from one of his constituents the other day, as follows:

Dear Senator: Please stop the civil war in China. I have a son over there!"

Just a minor detail, of course, just a minor detail!

When big, handsome and personable Bascom Giles, state land commissioner, was here the other day in his capacity as Grand Master of Blue lodge Masonry in Texas, he had a good story, as usual.

Bascom says he was walking down Congress avenue in Austin, where he was born and reared, the other day and met an old colored mammy who had known him since childhood. He stopped to chat with her and the conversation finally got around to the atomic bomb.

"Dey needs to do sumpin' 'bout dat 'tomic bomb, Mistah Bascomb," said the old mammy, "Dey sho'ly do. Why, dere's dynamite in dat bomb —dere's dynamite!"

Could be, could be!

THE Plainsman was over at Spur the other day, gleefully boring the Rotarians with some third-rate oratory, and discovered that one of our favorite hostelries now is in the hands of former Lubbockites. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Killian have purchased the picturesque Spur Inn and Mrs. Killian is operating it, her husband remaining in Lubbock for the time being.

Mrs. Killian says the hotel business in Spur is just like it is everywhere — overflowing most of the time. She is particularly busy right now with demands for space on November 30 and December 1, what with quail season opening then and there being quite a few of the birds in that area.

One gent, getting an early start, made reservations for 20 persons, and rumor has it that a federal judge — together with other legal luminaries — will be in the party.

Mrs. Killian says she has stopped worrying about rooms, per se —now is worrying only about whether the inn will have enough "stack-in" space.

Incidentally, Mr. and Mrs. Killian are planning to build a modern auto court on the spacious grounds of Spur Inn, so the future will find them better able to care for demands of the public. The dining room, one of the better eating places in West Texas but closed due to food and manpower shortages during the war, soon will be reopened.

* * *

Never having been in the hotel business. The Plainsman naturally feels like he knows a lot about the subject. All of us are that way about the other fellows' field — especially hotels, baseball and football, radio stations and newspapers.

Never-the-less, for a score of years we've had an idea that Spur Inn could work itself up quite a week-end business among its neighbors who may be looking for some quiet, relaxation.

In the first place, the rambling inn is colorful and is tied in with so much of the history of that portion of the West Texas cow country lying in the brakes.

In the second place, spring always comes a little earlier off the "cap" than on and winters seem, at least, to be a shade milder. There's more natural vegetation and suggestion of hills in Spur than on the Plains and the Dickens county capital manages to cling to the atmosphere of the Old West — of the West of Indian fights and open range.

In years past, when we had more time, we have personally tried a little loafing over at Spur Inn and found it quite satisfying.

If we were Mr. and Mrs. Killian, we'd consider the possibilities for the future, when transient demands may not be so great.

* * *

H. J. McCabe, dean of boys at Lubbock Senior High, read with interest some remarks here last week anent fat, baldheaded old guys appreciating notice on the part of younger people.

Mr. McCabe agrees with us that old guys do appreciate that sort of thing; believes, as we do, that young people should be complimented whenever they are friendly to their elders.

But the high school dean says there are two sides to the question —that young people, too, appreciate being noticed by oldsters. Too many oldsters, says Mr. McCabe, are like too many youngsters, in that they don't seem to have time to pay much attention to, or show much interest in, their neighbors of other age brackets.

Mr. McCabe didn't say so — but we had an idea that he was hinting it — that if we paid more attention to more youngsters, more youngsters would pay more attention to us.

By golly, maybe Mr. McCabe has got something there! (And maybe The Plainsman isn't the only oldster that should contemplate the situation!)

Feminine Viewpoint

"MARRIAGE is more dangerous than nitro-glycerine,' says a 90-year-old bachelor explosives expert.

MILLETT

The world lost a potentially fine husband in that gentleman who chose to live alone for 90 years because he figured women were more dangerous than TNT.

If he had just taken that keen bit of perception into matrimony—he would have gotten along just dandy. All he would have needed to do to have a happy marriage was to handle the little woman with as much respectful caution as he uses in handling high explosives.

The trouble with most husbands is they know that women take careful handling. And so their own carelessness is forever getting them into trouble.

You can handle high explosives if you know their nature—and never take any chances with them.

* * *

JUST USE COMMON SENSE

AND a man could live peacefully with almost any woman for a lifetime if he put his mind to understanding her—and never permitted himself to become careless enough to do the things common sense would tell him he couldn't get by with doing.

No, the man who realizes that women are dangerous if not handled cautiously isn't the man who should avoid matrimony.

The man who would be happier a bachelor is the man who thinks that women can be treated any old way—once the days of courtship are over—and lives to discover how wrong he is.

Today's Journal Editorial

THANKSGIVING—AFTER VICTORY

Thanksgiving is, by tradition, a holiday of family feasting and family reunion. As such it is the happiest of any we have known for the last four years. Soldiers and sailors by the hundreds of thousands have come home since the last Thanksgiving, men who were fighting then in Germany and the Philippines and the danger-infested skies and oceans, and wondering when and if there would be another Thanksgiving at home.

Today the reunion is a reality for them. And so in countless homes a deep, personal gratitude is added to the day's good food and good spirits. There are new, intangible trimmings for the turkey that will make this a memorable as well as a happy holiday.

Thanksgiving is also a day traditionally marked by a national counting of blessings. This year we count victory and the total is nearly complete, nor any less impressive because it is so quickly computed.

Beyond victory this day does not offer too many reasons for rejoicing. There is scant joy in many parts of the world. And here at home the peace and plenty so painfully won, the well-being so earnestly desired, are surrounded by hostile forces. There is unrest and anger and confusion, and above them all hovers the invisible threat of the new and deadly atomic force which the world must live with.

So the rejoicing is solemn at best. But perhaps that is in the true spirit of Thanksgiving. The Pilgrims who first celebrated this day 324 years ago had little material cause for celebration. They, too, were surrounded by hostile forces. But the worst was behind them. They had freedom, and they had survived.

Their descendants, and the millions who have come to join those descendants in the land so bitterly won, have also managed to preserve freedom and survive. Today our problems are greater, but we are stronger in number to cope with them. The difference is in magnitude and not kind.

The essential qualities which have brought this country thus far are the same ones which brought the Plymouth colonists through their first winter. They are the qualities which are still needed today and which, we may hope, offer our best chance of continued survival and progress.

Snyder Opposes Minimum Wage Bill

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON. — The situation inside the office of fumbling War Reconverter John Snyder is so bad it can't go on much longer. It got so confused the other day that Lt. Gen. Levin H. Campbell, jr., chief of ordnance, and one of the ablest executives in the War department, walked out of Snyder's office. Campbell had been loaned to Snyder to help with the reconversion job, but the mess was too much for him.

Another climax came last week when Snyder informed Truman secretly that he would not testify for the administration-supported bill to raise minimum wages to 65 cents an hour. Snyder was to have been one of the key witnesses. The bill is considered one of the most important pieces of legislation on the Truman calendar, and aims to keep buying power at a high level to prevent depression.

PEARSON

Snyder, after backing and filling, finally wrote his boss in the White House a confidential memo saying that he did not believe in the 65-cent-minimum-wage law, that some employers couldn't afford to pay it, and that he could not testify.

How long Truman will go along with his old Missouri national guard friend remains to be seen. He has been very patient so far.

Note—Many capital observers believe Truman's most serious mistake was firing Henry Morgenthau as secretary of the treasury. When Morgenthau departed, Fred Vinson was yanked out of the war reconverter's job to replace him. Vinson is one of the few men in government who have the know-how to cut red tape and get things done. Skilled men of his type are few and far between. And Snyder, a relatively green banker from St. Louis, was put in Vinson's large and difficult shoes.

HERE is what's been happening behind the closed doors of the labor-management conference during the last few days. Delegates have witnessed an astute campaign by John L. Lewis to become the leader of the AFL as well as the United Mine Workers; also a frantic fight by Lewis and Bill Green not to be backed into a corner by CIO Chief Phil Murray regarding wage increases.

Here is some of the backstage byplay. When Bill Green virtually let Lewis become the AFL spokesman, it immediately leaked to labor ranks. Also, it backfired. Green got a barrage of complaints from the AFL that he was letting Lewis steal the show. Also AFL members didn't like the Lewis idea of price increases as well as wage increases—which, in the end, meant no gain for labor.

Meanwhile, Phil Murray kept hammering home his resolution for "immediate substantial wage increases." Finally, at a secret session of the executive committee last week, Green nervously announced that he had something to say.

"I want to make the A. F. of L.'s position clear," declared Green. "The A. F. of L. should not be misunderstood. We are not opposing wage increases for our people. If only the A. F. of L. had not misunderstood Mr. Murray's resolution, the problem would never have arisen."

* * *

LEWIS SQUIRMS

LEWIS twisted and squirmed as Green spoke, realizing he was losing some of his grip on the A. F. of L., whose members also want immediate wage increases.

"In that case," replied Phil Murray, "I propose that his conference record itself in favor of my resolution which says that parties in collective bargaining agree to substantial wage increases."

This again brought Green to his feet. He made a half-hour speech saying that his organization, which bargains craft by craft, could not support a resolution asking for "substantial wage increases." Green was followed by George Harrison of the A. F. of L. brotherhood of railway clerks.

"It is obvious," Harrison interjected, "that neither side is going to get its resolution approved. We should avoid being compelled to vote for or against either resolution."

Harrison was referring to a substitute management resolution favoring collective bargaining but making no mention of wage increases. Harrison suggested that management withdraw its resolution and that Murray eliminate the last paragraph of his proposal, namely his statement that wage increases are imperative. Management delegates promptly agreed with Harrison's suggestion. But Murray was on his feet storming.

"I want a vote on my resolution" he bellowed. "If I am going to win, then fine. And, if I am going to lose, well then, that's all right too. I am entitled to a recorded vote. I want everybody on record as to where they stand on this issue."

John L. Lewis then rose and offered an innocuous substitute resolution calling for neither higher nor lower wages but only for harmony. But the Lewis proposal got no support from any side.

* * *

MANAGEMENT PARRIES

H. W. PRENTISS, jr., of the Armstrong Cork Co., Lancaster, Pa., then proposed a six-man committee to iron out the differences in the various resolutions. He suggested that the committee be composed of Green, Murray, Lewis, and three other management members. This delighted Green, who immediately moved acceptance of the Prentiss suggestion. Green knew this would put Murray on the spot and result in a 5-1 vote against the CIO.

But Murray was on his feet again.

"Management has had one full week to study the CIO proposal," stormed the CIO chief. "It has submitted its own proposal. Their answer to our call for immediate wage increases is no. I want a vote on my resolution."

Murray was bypassed, and the committee voted 13-3 to support Prentiss. At this point Murray calmly announced that he would not serve on the compromise drafting committee.

Meanwhile, the AFL and Lewis are racking their collective brains trying to figure out a way to avoid a vote. Murray has put them on the spot. Neither can afford to vote against wage increases. At the same time, management cannot fly in the face of President Truman's statement that immediate wage increases are essential, by opposing the Murray resolution either. That's what the deadlock is all about.

"Try And Stop Me"

ADMIRERS of Ed Wynn, "the Perfect Fool," believe that he reached his greatest height in a show called Manhattan Mary.

Wynn was a waiter in one scene. "I don't like all the flies in here," complained one patron. "Show me the ones you don't like," suggested Wynn, "and I'll throw 'em out." When the patron said, "I'm so hungry I could eat a horse," Wynn led a live nag on to the stage. Then he sold it to the customer. "This horse has only one peculiarity," he told the befuddled buyer. "He loves to sit on potatoes. Remember that!"

The man made off with his horse, but was back a moment later. "You fraud," he screamed "I no sooner got that horse to the bridge down the road, when he bolted out of my control, and jumped over the bridge into the river." "Oh, I forgot to tell you," said the contrite Wynn. "That horse loves to sit on fish, too."

In another scene, Wynn was busy painting a ship. A dowager entered and asserted, "Mr. Wynn, I have decided to commission you to paint my ancestors." "Oh, I couldn't," he protested. "I'm just a ship painter." The dowager insisted, beating down all of his arguments. "All right," Wynn sighed at last. "I'll paint your darn ancestors. But I warn you: they're going to look like ships!"

THE First Nighter: Spencer Tracy returned to take his place with the theater's royalty via "The Rugged Path." Despite dramaturgic flaws, several reviewers agreed Bob Sherwood's script contains pertinent ideas which should be absorbed by the mind and memorized by the conscience. "Spencer Tracy's performance is indeed fine," reported critic L. Nichols . . . "Are You with It?" had hit written all over its notices. Sparked with flash and zing the show rockets into the musical heavens. Aisle-tenant R. Coleman recorded: "You'll have a wonderful time" . . . The wow of the week was provided by "State of the Union." The play's lightning dialogue and the thunder of its timely theme generate high-voltage theatrical electricity. Here is something worth seeing, hearing and thinking about . . . Eisenhower Testifies So Navy To Counter With Nimitz

Battle Of The Brass Hats Has Comic Aspects

By MARQUIS CHILDS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Now that General Eisenhower has testified in favor of unification of the armed services, the Navy is preparing to produce Admiral Nimitz to testify against it. And so the battle goes on, with the big guns firing from each side.

It has its comic aspects, especially the skirmish between the joint chiefs of staff and Assistant Secretary of the Navy H. Struve Hensel, to be one of the most resourceful champions of the Navy's case against lumping all the military services in one department under one civilian head.

CHILDS

The story of that skirmish has never been completely told. It involves the issue of whether or not a civilian board should be created to survey military administration and determine whether a combine would be beneficial.

General George C. Marshall and General H. H. Arnold say they never agreed to such a board. Hensel, testifying before a Senate committee, said they did. And promptly Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson declared that Hensel was "mistaken."

* * *

What Actually Happened

This is what actually happened. On September 15, the Joint chiefs of staff, made up of Marshall, Arnold, Admiral Ernest J. King and Admiral William Leahy, did recommend a civilian board. The board was to consider the future of the new weapons that have revolunitionized warfare —atomic energy, guided radio missiles, and so on.

The document in which this recommendation is made is, incidentally, extremely interesting. It is a frank admission that what has come into being is so big that it has shattered all the concepts of warfare, necessitating an approach above and beyond anything within the scope of the professional military.

The recommendation was unanimously agreed to. Secretary of Navy James Forrestal, after it was submitted to him, turned it over to Assistant Secretary Hensel for consideration.

* * *

HENSEL wrote a reply to the joint chiefs of staff in which he said that the Navy department approved the idea of a board. But he went on to say it was the Navy's view that the board, to be dominated by civilians or perhaps to be entirely composed of civilians with military consultants, should take in much more scope.

It should consider, Hensel suggested, the problem of administration of the armed forces. While he did not use the wicked word "unification," that was what, in effect he was talking about. Within a few days a reply came back from the joint chiefs of staff which said:

Reply Comes Back

"The joint chiefs of staff are of the opinion that the recommendation, as set forth in the draft letter (originally proposing the board on atomic energy, etc.) is directed toward a particular phase of the overall problem of national security, which, due to its unprecedented character and vast possibilities, requires immediate, specific and exhaustive examination. They recognize the importance of the other phases of the problem suggested by the assistant secretary of the Navy. However, they feel that these can best be determined later in the light of the board's report rendered under the joint chiefs of staffs recommendation. It would therefore appear unwise to increase the scope and complexity of the board's task at the outset and thereby risk seriously delaying consideration of the most pressing phase of the problem."

* * *

ALLOWING for the howevers and whereases of government gobbledy-gook, this said that the board should take up first the new techniques of mass death, and then later should proceed to the other questions raised in Hensel's letter. At least that is the way Hensel read it, and it is why he testified that the chiefs of staff had unanimously recommended a civilian board that would cover unification.

Several faces were red in the War department when the correspondence with Hensel was examined in the light of his testimony. Apparently, no one had read his letter carefully. So the idea of a civilian board got a boost from a source opposed to any such plan, and the unification controversy boiled more furiously.

WANDERLUST

CAMP GRANT, Ill. (AP)—John Mandeville, who enlisted in the Army in 1940 as a private and advanced to major, recently was discharged with 103 points after 34 months overseas.

Now the 33-year-old Rockford, Ill., soldier has joined the Army again — this time as a master sergeant.

His explanation: "I like to travel."

HUGE CAKE VANISHES

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) —A 550-pound fruit cake disappeared like magic when 3,000 patients and personnel piled into it last night in observance of the second anniversary of the Cushing General hospital's mess department.

The cake, bearing two candles, contained 90 pounds of sugar, 40 pounds of shortening, 55 dozen eggs, 10 quarts of milk, 80 pounds of flour, 60 pounds of powdered sugar and 80 pounds of prepared fruits.

PREMONITION

GRANTS PASS, Ore., (AP)— A faint crackling noise caused agile, 85-year-old H. D. Tatman to leap from his chair.

Seconds later a tree 18 inches in diameter crashed through the roof of his house.

Documents Are Selected

Several hundred Reich documents selected from the file of more than 2,500 amassed by U. S. investigators will outline in the Germans' own words the scheming and aggression by which Hitler and his henchmen led the world into World War II, declared Col. Robert Storey of Dallas, Tex., an assistant U. S. prosecutor.

Storey credited Maj. William S. Coogan with most of the responsibility for screening and analyzing the tons of such material which were sifted for evidence against the Germans on trial.

Drunk Driving Case, Burglary Reported

Police this morning were investigating possibilities of filing a drunk driving complaint against a 33-year-old man of 1900-block Twenty-fourth, and said one residential burglary had been reported.

Mrs. Winston Smith of 2013 Seventh said a $50 wrist watch and $1.50 in money had been taken from a garage apartment at that address. Entrance, she said, was through an unlocked door.

Mrs. S. J. Redwine of 1805 Tenth reported theft of a tire, tube and wheel.

Winston Reeves, photo-engraver who lives on the Levelland road, reported recovery of his automobile, stolen briefly Wednesday night from his 1719 Broadway studio. It had been abandoned inside Lubbock.

Another firecracker incident was basis for complaint. Boys tossed crackers into West hall, a boys dormitory at Texas Tech. A matron reported "several windows broken and halls filled with smoke."

The drunk driving charge, if filed, will not be placed on record until Friday, it was expected, since most court officials were observing today as a holiday.

The town of Douglas, Wyo., was known by four other names before that of Douglas was selected.

the diplomatic side of the story will be brought under investigation with testimony tomorrow from former Secretary of State Hull.

Hull, in ill health, can appear for only 45 minutes at a time, the counsel said. He added that Sumner Welles, former undersecretary; Maxwell Hamilton, former head of the Far Eastern division; and Joseph C. Grew, ambassador to Japan in 1941, will be on hand to fill in a full picture.

Yesterday the committee heard Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy testify that he had guessed late in 1941 that the Japanese might attack the Philippines but that he did not foresee an assault on Pearl Harbor.

Jascha Heifetz And Wife Living Apart

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 22 (AP) — Mrs. Jascha Heifetz, the former Florence Vidor of the films, said today that she and her husband, the noted violinist, are living apart.

She told a reporter that Heifetz is living at the Beverly Hills hotel while she is residing at Balboa, nearby beach resort. "I would prefer that anything that is said be-yond this come from Mr. Heifetz," she added.

Heifetz could not be reached for comment.

Navy Cuts Discharge Score For Personnel

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (U.P.)—The Navy is again cutting its discharge point score for enlisted men in order to meet its demobilization goal of 1,200,000 personnel by Jan. 1.

Effective Dec. 1, the critical score for most male enlisted personnel will be reduced from 39 to 38; on Dec. 15, it will go down to 37 and on Jan. 1, to 36.

No change was made in the list of those who are not affected by critical scores normally.

Truman To Observe Quiet Thanksgiving

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (U.P.)—President Truman spends a quiet Thanksgiving in the White House today.

He planned tentatively to go to church with his family this morning, then return to the executive mansion for a traditional turkey dinner.

In the evening the president's daughter, Margaret, will entertain a group of young friends at the opera which opens here tonight.

HUNGER STRIKE STARTS

Turkey On Menu For GIs Around World

(By The Associated Press)

Tokyo Rose and the warlords were only memories in the studios of radio Tokyo today. American Protestant, Catholic and Jewish chaplains were on the air, thanking God once more for the peace that marked their first steps on enemy soil.

Throughout Japan, the Philippines and the American-occupied Orient, troops bowed their heads in equally sincere gratitude—then snapped to grinning attention before messhall tables loaded with more than a million pounds of American turkey.

Thousands ate in replacement depots where they were awaiting transportation home. Thousands more hope to be home in time for Christmas with their families; yet all realized what the chaplains had stressed: If Japan had not yielded, they'd be dining in foxholes this Thanksgiving day.

With the exception of drug stores and cafes and a few various other businesses, all downtown Lubbock was closed up tighter than a wet shoe. Lubbock schools were out until Monday but Texas Technological college continued classes with plans for observing the "last Thursday," Thanksgiving.

No Mail Delivery

There was to be no mail delivery in the city and on the rural routes.

Special Thanksgiving menus were planned at local Army establishments.

At last night's union services, those on the program besides Mr. Winslow were Rev. Cecil R. Mathews, director of the Wesley foundation; Dr. C. E. Hereford, pastor of the First Baptist church; Dr. C. A. Bickley, pastor of Asbury Methodist church. Rev. H. G. Gantz, pastor of the First Christian church, presided. Songs were offered by the A Capella choir of Lubbock Senior High school.

ful of keeping it off the House floor until the labor-management conference is over. Chairman Andrew J. May, (D., Ky.), of the House military affairs committee will try to call it up next week, but House leaders indicated there was little likelihood of it being considered until next month.

Rep. Andrew J. Biemiller, (D., Wis.), who made a violent plea against the measure before the rules commitee, said it would mean the end of collective bargaining in this country.

"Some unscrupulous employers would goad its employes to strike—even against the advice of their union leaders," he said. "As a former union organizer, I can testify that I know of such employers. Under this bill, the union would be put out of commission for one year because of a strike its leaders did not call. That's not fair."

He promised to carry his battle to the House floor.

Reuther said, however, that "we will not be able to pay the strikers any compensation."

"We will fight to prevent evictions," he declared. "We will pay rent where it is necessary. We will pay doctor bills."

Asked whether the union could withstand a year-long strike, Reuther replied only that "we will not call off this strike until we get our wage demands."

Governor Harry F. Kelly of Michigan offered state police help in maintaining order but said he did not "assume there will be disorder." Precautions are necessary, he said, because of the strike's "magnitude."

graphical and industrial nation even in peace, greatly increased her industrial dominance during the war, he said, with the result that the European economy almost completely distintegrated when she collapsed.

His Third Appearance

Eisenhower's appearance was his first at the capitol since his appointment as chief of staff and his third since his return to this country from Europe. He previously testified in favor of compulsory universal training and merger of the armed services.

He will return briefly to his headquarters at Frankfurt, Germany, to wind up his military affairs there before coming back to succeed Gen. George C. Marshall who is retiring as chief of staff.

Grave Transition Period

Eisenhower said Europe is making every effort to rebuild its own economy.

He added, however, that no matter how vigorously these efforts are pursued "there will inevitably be a grave transition period through which these countries will have to pass when they will have to receive outside assistance."

"I am fully confident that the people of Europe can recover from the grievous blows they have suffered if they can be helped through this period," he said. "However, if this bitter situation is not to become so disastrous as to make men wonder if it was worthwhile to have taken up arms against the Nazis, we in the United States . . . must be prepared to discharge a very heavy responsibility.

"We must, now, make our proportionate contribution to the relief of Europe in order to ensure the permanence of our military victory."

Gen. Koa, who was in charge of prisoners.

Food conditions were as bad for Japanese soldiers in the Philippines as for the prisoners, Muto said, and many of Yamashita's troops were forced to eat grass.

"It is my belief that more Japanese than prisoners were dying of starvation," he testified.

Denial In Record

Defense Counsel Harry F. Clarke of Altoona, Pa., got into the record a denial by Muto that Yamashita had even told him of issuing an order for the massacre of Filipinos.

When Pace rose to cross-examine, he asked Muto, "you speak English?" Before the interpreter had time to put the question into Japanese, Muto replied, "no."

Muto said the Manila battle was a combined Japanese Army and Navy operation under command of Admiral Iwabuchi, who had command of the street fighting.

The Owen sub-machine gun was invented by a 27-year-old Australian private.

Holiday For Texas Quiet

(By The Associated Press)

With the exception of Austin, Texas main streets took on scenes of tranquility today, as the Lone Star state joined the nation in the observance of Thanksgiving day.

The Texas seat of government decided to wait until next Thursday to declare a day of composure, giving Austin citizens a chance to witness the traditional turkey day football game between Texas university and Texas A. and M. college.

Happies In Years

It was the happiest Thanksgiving day in four years for thousands of Texans. Returning soldiers, sailors and marines dug deep fox-holes into turkey, stuffed with dressing, for the first time in many months.

And there was solemnity also. Houston, Denison, Hillsboro, San Antonio, Amarillo, Abilene, Galveston and Beaumont, were among many Texas cities which planned religious services.

Football In Usual Role

Football played its usual colorful role, with games scheduled at Denison, Abilene and San Antonio, as well as other cities.

Servicemen's centers planned to stage special events and meals for personnel who could not be at home for the occasion.

School students were granted a four-day reprieve from studies by the holiday, as classes will not be resumed until Monday.

Dallas Woman Has Watermelon Today

DALLAS, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Mrs. Beulah Morgan, 65, who wields an effective garden hoe, believes her Thanksgiving table today will offer as unusual a delicacy as is to be found in Dallas this time of year.

Yesterday afternoon, a few hours before last night's killing frost, she picked a 25 pound watermelon from her backyard vine.

"I've been around a long time, but this is my first experience with watermelon at Thanksgiving," Mrs. Morgan said.

Foreign News Editor Finds Old Home In Tokyo Destroyed; Japan's Rebirth Seen

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

ABOARD ARMY TRANSPORT SPINDLE EYE, Shanghai—It was a rainy, nasty day and the jeep moved slowly through the bombed-out area in Tokyo.

"Here," said the man in the front seat of the jeep, and the driver halted the vehicle.

The man climbed out and looked uncertainly at the ruined house where his son had been born. He was a stocky, middle-aged man with thinning hair, red cheeks and an expression like Mr. Pickwick's. All that remained of his former home was the foundation and a scarred fireplace.

Recognizes The Walk

"Well, I can still recognize the gravel walk," he said, shaking his head a little sadly.

That was the "home-coming" of Glenn Babb, Associated Press foreign news editor who now is re-visiting the Orient where he was a top correspondent for more than twenty years.

Babb, who now is an authority on Far Eastern affairs, served his apprenticeship on the old Japan advertiser, which trained many famous correspondents.

"It was a great paper, God rest its soul," said Babb, "and it should have a place in the history of American journalism. It was run by a great newspaperman, too — Benjamin W. Fleisher, who now lives in Washington, D. C."

Scored Immediately

After free-lancing in Japan and China, Babb joined the Associated Press in 1923 and scored immediately with what is still probably the longest and most expensive cable ever filed about eggs. It was a report on the discovery of dinosaur eggs in the Gobi desert by Roy Chapman Andrews, and Babb filed 1,000 words.

He has seen Tokyo twice destroyed — by the 1923 earthquake and by firebombs. He notes a difference in the temper of the Japanese people after the two disasters.

"The physical destruction was about the same in each case," he said; "but after the earthquake the people had more get up and go. They went to work more quickly, rebuilding the city."

Babb feels that the Japanese will come out of their present stunned inertia, however, and perhaps refinance their growth back to normal by building a tourist industry such as that which flourished in Switzerland.

He believes, along with highly-placed Army authorities with whom he has talked, that Japan can attain democracy under American occupation and control, and that the people want democracy.

Racing Season Is On In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22 (AP)—Horsemen were hopeful that the golden avalanche which has engulfed the nation's race tracks this year would spill over into the fair grounds during a 75-day meeting opening today.

With betting and attendance records set throughout the east, mid-west and far west, Julius G. Reeder, racing secretary, and other officials could see no reason why the fair grounds should be an exception.

"Given a break in the weather we should have the best season we've ever had," Reeder said. "We have lots of horses, and more of the better caliber of stake performers have been assured for the Louisiana and New Orleans handicaps and the Louisiana derby."

Reeder pronounced the track in excellent condition.

The second and fourth races on the opening program were split into two divisions each because of the unprecedented number of entries, Reeder said. Ten horses will run in each division.

The $2,000-added, 5½ furlong Thanksgiving handicap for all ages attracted 16 horses with Chipamink, the Silver Stock farm's campaigner, top-weighted with 122 pounds.

RELATIONS RESUMED

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22 (AP)—Villanova has renewed football relations with Holy Cross and will play the Crusaders in 1946 and 1947 at Worcester, Mass.

The series between the two schools began in 1922, Holy Cross winning every one of the 14 games played.

Texans Tell Of Big Game Hunting Trips

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—Two Texans who returned to New York today aboard the Gen. Callan from the China-India-Burma theater, told of big game hunting experiences.

They were Master Sgt. Ivy R. Conant of Pharr, Tex., and Master Sgt. Charles G. Mattair of San Antonio. The Callan arrived from Karachi, India.

The Texans said their most enjoyable experience overseas was hunting big game in Assam province and that otherwise service in the CBI theater was "pretty grim."

Conant, veteran of 17 months in the theater, showed a photograph of a 400-pound deer he shot in the jungle. He said other soldiers shot leopards and tigers and that one, using an Army rifle, brought down a rogue elephant.

Both Conant and Mattair have been in the Army more than five years and said they had seen enough of the Orient to last them a lifetime. They were eager, they said, to return to civilian life.

Discipline For Girls Studied

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 22. (AP) — Disciplinary action may be taken today by County Judge Charles W. Anderson as county juvenile judge in the case of nine delinquent girls who mauled a substitute matron at the Bexar county training school for girls and destroyed property in the institution.

An inspection of the damage and further investigation of the case will be made by Judge Anderson and Chief Deputy Probation Officer Dora Davenport. Deputy Sheriff Robert Osborne said a book case was smashed and furniture was damaged when the girls ran amuck.

Dissatisfied over the food being served in the detention home, one of the girls is said to have been let out of a ward on a pretense and assaulted Mrs. E. Bass. After the assault, the girl locked Mrs. Bass in a room and let the other eight girls out, deputy sheriffs said.

Woman Resigns

Mrs. Bass turned in her resignation and declined to return to the school, according to information reaching Judge Anderson.

The only disciplinary action possible, Judge Anderson said, would be immediate release of three of the girls who already were sentenced to Gainesville state school to begin their sentences and sending the other six who had been committed to the county school also to Gainesville.

The girls were held in the detention home, which is separate from the dormitory.

Story Of Goldilocks Leaves Him Cold

HURLEY, Wis., Nov. 22. (AP)—Frank J. Ryan, Moose Lake resort owner, would have you know the story of Goldilocks and the three bears leaves him cold.

In the last few weeks, said Ryan, an adult bear and two cubs have cuffed and terrorized his housekeeper, smashed four windows in his cabin, raided the food supply, shredded his garments, battered furniture and ripped out electric wiring. Ryan filed a claim with the state for $556 damages. It won't, he said, repay him for loss of sleep.

"I've been here 14 years," said Ryan, "but now I'm getting out. I can't take any more. It's driving be bughouse."

Germans Weep When They Leave The U. S.

FT. NIAGARA, N. Y., Nov. 22 (AP)—Approximately 4,000 German war prisoners, sullen and arrogant when they first arrived in western New York in 1944, weep openly during processing for return to Germany.

"It is a picture study in contrast," Col. John M. McDowell, commanding officer of the fourth district, second service command, said today. He added:

"I think it proves the common man the world over, regardless of race or creed or previous training, responds to and is appreciative of fair and honest treatment and will become a good citizen under such a code."

Maj. Gen. Allen Is Leaving The Army

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif., Nov. 22. (U.P.) — Maj. Gen. Terry Allen is enroute to his home in El Paso, today.

Allen has retired from the Army, after commanding the 1st infantry division in North Africa and later the 104th (Timberwolves).

In North Africa, Allen led American troops to victories at Oran, El Guettar and Tunis. His 1st division spearheaded the Allied landing at Cela, Sicily.

When Allen later assumed command of the Timberwolves, he called the 104th "one of the outstanding American assault divisions." In six and a half months, the unit participated in five major offensives in Holland and Germany.

The 104th is expected to be deactivated in a few weeks. It is now commanded by Brig. Gen. William Woodward.

ADDS GLAMOUR

CHICAGO. (U.P.)—Pretty Peggy McGann, 23, brunette switchboard operator at the Chicago Natural History Museum, has been the answer to many newspaper photographers' prayers. Stymied for interesting pictures of museum objects which have little glamour, 69 photographers have included Peggy in their pictures since she started working there in October 1942.
