Thousands to Be Here 4-5

PREPARING FOR BIGGEST RACE MEET IN HISTORY

Everything is getting set and primed for the fivethousand visitors her for the annual two-day race meet and rodeo July 4th and 5th. Manager Barnes of the Sonora Park Association expects one of the largest crowds here on those days that have ever witnessed a celebration of this kind in West Texas. The race track is in splendid condition, and some fast races are anticipated. There are several race horses in the stables at the fair grounds and are coming from far and wide to compete for the big purses to be given. As a feature of the race will be a wild horse race on both days. This affords much entertainment with the visitors and has heretofore met with applause. The Park Association has twenty bad horses to be ridden, and no doubt several riders will land in the dirt. Such horses as Swivel, Domino, and others will be hard to "set." Three baseball games are slated, one on the evening of the 3rd and one each on the mornings of the 4th and 5th. The Sonora Bronchos have one of the fastest amateur baseball teams in West Texas, having won six and lost three games. The local nine will clash with the Miles Giants, rated as one of the strongest aggregations in this part of the country. Bud Smith and Clyde McCurdy, ace hurlers for the locals will both see mound duty and Ridley will also be in harness. An armless ball player will be at the ball park and will give exhibitions before the grand stand. A free barbecue dinner will be served each day, according to Manager Barnes. Several tons of meat will be barbecued in old fashioned way and served with bread and pickles to the thousands who will be

SONORA LIONS ATTEND OZONA CHARTER NIGHT

On Friday night of last week the following Sonora Lions attended the Charter night at Ozona, at which time the Ozona Lions were granted their charter:

Mayor C. G. Dunklin, J. D. Lowrey, W. C. Gilmore, Alfred Schweining and Dr. Fred Crowder. They report an enjoyable time, and were entertained by Ozona local talent, consisting of readings, duets, quartets, a handsaw wizard, lectures and comedies. A four-course dinner was served. The meeting was climaxed by the Roar of the Lions.

Much enthusiasm was manifested, according to those from here who attended. Texas, according to all indications, will lead in Lionism at the International Convention to be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. Ira Shurley was called to Big Spring the first of the week where his mother, Mrs. J. M. Choate, was very ill. She is convalescing and is now here with her daughter, Mrs. Shurley where she will spend the summer. Mrs. Shurley's brother, George Choate, and sister, Miss Myrial Grace, are here for a visit.

Dan Cauthorn prominent young ranchman, was here Thursday from the ranch, attending business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons were in from the ranch Wednesday on business and greeting friends.

Tom Sandherr, prominent ranchman who ranches south of here, was in Sonora Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Shurley and little son, Billie, left the first of the week for Houston to visit relatives. While there they may attend the International Convention which assembles here Wednesday.

J. A. Ward, Jr. Weds Sweetwater Girl

John Allen Ward Jr. and Miss Lucy Cutbirth of Sweetwater became man and wife in Midland, Texas, June 10. From Midland the young couple spent several days in San Antonio and are now attending the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Annual Show and Sale.

They will be at home here until Mr. Ward takes charge of the Ward ranch near Kerrville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ward, prominent ranch people of this place. He is a young man and possesses a fine character of sterling quality.

Miss Cutbirth, of whom the writer has known since she was a small child, is the charming and talented daughter of Mrs. Lige Cutbirth of Sweetwater. She is well educated and a very talented musician.

The News, together with their many friends, wish this young couple all the joys of life.

Mesdames Stuart Hostesses at Bridge

Mrs. Arthur Stuart and Mrs. Louie Stuart were joint hostesses at a very pretty bridge party Wednesday evening at the Sonora Woman's Club building.

The spacious library was a profusion of pink blossoms with greenery. Pink cake and green mint ice carried out the pink and green color scheme in the refreshments.

Carl Morrow won second, a nest of ash trays. Miss Mary Dan Wilson won high for the ladies. She received a brass gong. Mrs. Sterling Baker won second and was presented with a tea set.

There were about seventy guests.

ROY R. PRIEST IN RACE FOR DIST. ATTORNEY

Roy R. Priest, present incumbent of the office of District Attorney of the 83rd Judicial District, authorized the News to announce him as a candidate for that office, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

Mr. Priest is a native Texan, born in Caldwell County and was educated in the public schools at Austin. He has a A. B. degree from the University of Texas, graduated from the George Washington University at Washington where he received his law degree. He served eighteen months in the World War and is a member of the American Legion. He is a 32nd degree Mason. He now holds a captain's commission in the Reserve Corps.

The aspirant has a wife and one child. For several months he was associated with Judge J. A. Thomas, one of the leading lawyers of San Angelo and later moved to Rankin after which he was appointed by Governor Moody to serve the unexpired term made vacant by the resignation of Brian Montague.

The main plank in his platform is the vigorous prosecution of all law violators, he said, and a square deal to everyone.

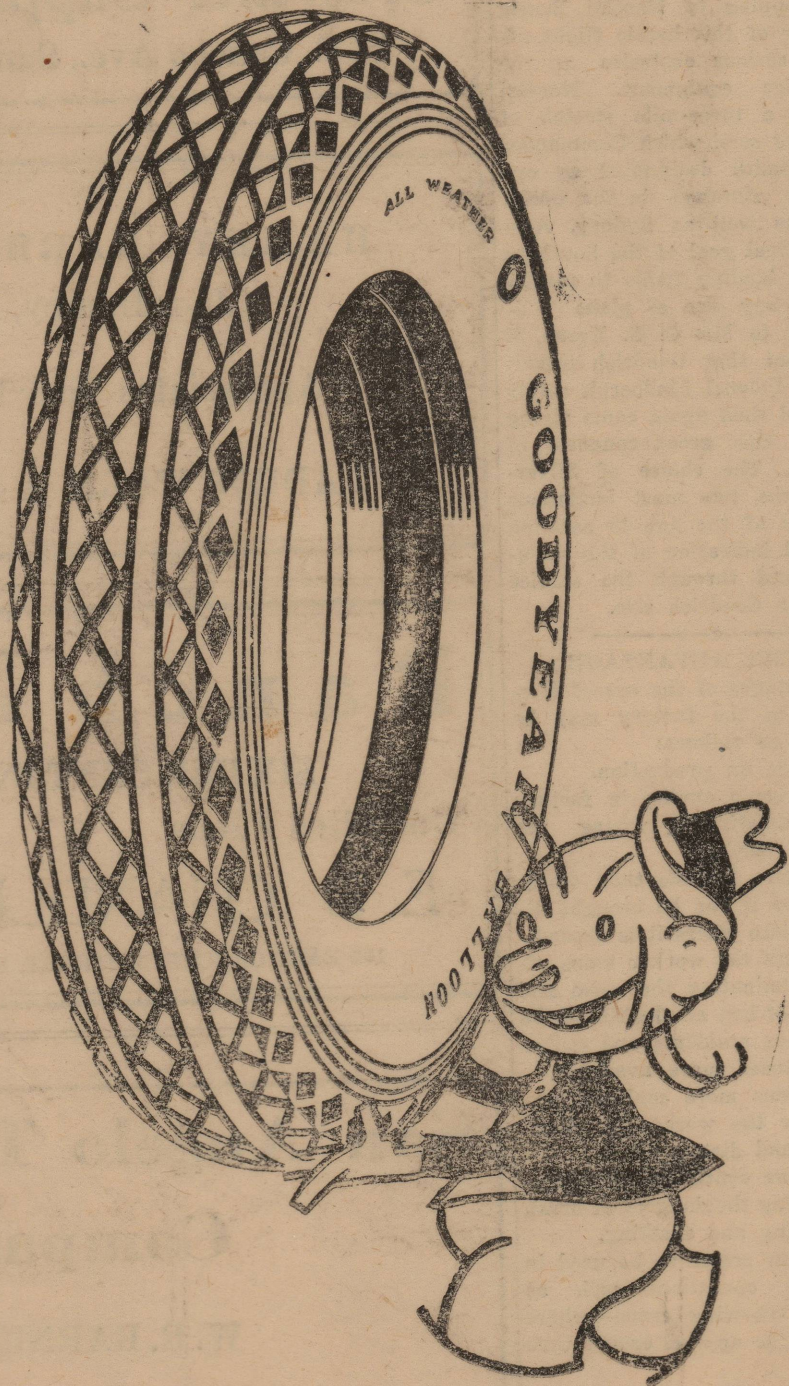

Attorney Priest was here in company with R. W. Weatherby, from Big Lake, who is now sheriff and tax collector of Reagan County.

Mesdames M. E. Campbell and Grey Childers of San Antonio were the guests of Mrs. E. F. Vander Stucken this week. They were accompanied to San Angelo by Mrs. Vander Stucken and Mrs. Wilkinson where they left for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Merber Shurley were visitors from Lee Ranch Thursday morning.

New Year Books Are Now Off Press

Dear Mr. Wilson:

It has given me pleasure to mail
you a copy of the 1927 Yearbook of the Department of Agriculture, just off the press. This issue, as was that of 1926, is of peculiar interest to the farmer and was prepared primarily with the needs in view.

I quote you a brief excerpt from Secretary Jardine's Foreword to the book:
'Many readers will doubtless want more detailed information about various subjects than is obtainable in the Yearbook, and I hope they will write to the specialists whose names are signed to the respective articles.
Every member of the Department of Agriculture wants the information that it possesses to become of the greatest usefulness possible.'

I have an allotment of the Yearbooks for free distribution and should be glad to send them to my constituents as long as they last,
mailing the copies in the order requests are received. If you will give notice of this in your valuable paper,
I shall personally appreciate the courtesy, and it will be the means of getting into the hands of our people a very interesting, informative and useful publication.

With all good wishes, I am,
Very Sincerely yours,
C. B. Hudspeeth.

Virgil Powell, prominent rancher of Menard, and wife were here Tuesday visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Powell was formerly Miss Johnnie Dell White, one of So-nora's most popular young ladies.
Mr. Powell hails from Big Lake where his father has extensive ranching and oil interests.

Southern Cross Fliers Land on Goodrichs

After successfully completing one of the greatest achievements in aviation history, it is interesting to learn more of the important task of preparation for this remarkable flight and the functioning of the equipment chosen.

Utmost consideration is always given to tires. The take-off and the landing include many elements of risk, and tire equipment is very carefully selected in order to minimize this danger.

A bulletin just received from the Goodrich factories, at Akron Ohio,
by Mr. C. S. Keene, local Goodrich Silvertown dealer, clearly brings out the part played by tires in the epichal trans-Pacific flight of the Southern Cross.

Early in the winter when the Southern Cross made its first test flight, Commander C. Kingsford-Smith had the plane equipped with 44x10 Goodrich Silvertowns. The plane has a 75-foot wing spread and the loaded weight is very close to 16,000 pounds. A great tax is placed upon the tires in carrying this immense weight along rough runways
to the take-off, as well as in landing the plane. These huge Silver-towns withstood the strain throughout all of the test flying, and Mr. King-ford-Smith gave his unqualified endorsement to their use upon the pioneering trip to Australia.

In leaving the Oakland Airport, just outside of San Francisco, the Southern Cross, loaded down with the weight of four men and twelve hundred gallons of petrol, bumped along the ground for 4,700 feet taking the air. But the tires proved equal to the great strain and the huge plane roared out over the Golden Gate on the start of the now famous flight.

After completing the 2,400 mile hop to Hawaii and landing at Wheeler Field, near Honolulu, a still greater tire test awaited the Southern Cross. More gasoline was required for the 3,100 mile trip to the Fiji Islands and more weight was thereby given to the plane. To add to the strain the take-off was necessarily made from Barking Field,
on the Island of Kauai. This runway, by nature is very poorly adapted to use by heavy planes, due to the sand under weight.

But the huge 44x10's never faltered, carrying the heavy plane rapidly along the ground and giving it sufficient momentum to make the take-off after only a 2,500 foot run.

Arriving at Suva, in Fiji Islands, after the longest all-water flight in history, other difficulties were encountered by these sturdy Silvertown tires. Trees were felled to make room for the landing and the Southern Cross was again brought to safety, this time upon an improvised field.

After hopping to Naselai Beach,
the last leg of this heroic flight offered no serious obstacles to the plane's tire equipment. Naselai Beach has a three-mile stretch of smooth, hard sand which Commander Kingsford-Smith designated as one of the best runways in the world.
Brisbane, as well as Sydney, Australia, the final goal of the Southern Cross, have landing fields to readily accommodate any size of plane.

According to Mr. C. S. Keene, it is significant that Goodrich Silver-towns took Colonel Lindbergh safely to Paris and then again came flying through on this great conquest of the Pacific. The choice of Silver-towns for the two most hazardous undertakings of the age in aviation is a marked indication of the popularity attained through the service
given by the Goodrich tire.

ELECTRIC ADVANTAGE

The advantages of the use of electric power in the factory may be summed up as follows:

1. It speeds up production.
2. It creates a saving in factory space by substituting wiring for shafting and belting.
3. It is more flexible than steam power because it can be brought direct to the place where it is needed.
4. It renders the worker more efficient by eliminating the noise and disturbances of belt and shafting drive.
5. It reduces accidents and makes safety appliances more available.
6. It provides more sanitary surroundings for the worker by eliminating dust and dirt.
7. It assures continuity of operation by reducing the dangers of break down in belting and shafting.
8. It permits power to be used in many factory operations—such as that of the traveling crane—where power cannot be applied except thru electricity.
9. It permits the rapid expansion of plant facilities without requiring additional capital investment in the factory power plant.
10. It effects economy in the use of power since only enough power will be used as is necessary for each operation.

Lightning Bolt Hits Near for 4th Time

A bolt of lightning struck on the hill south of town early Monday morning, according to O. G. Babcock who saw the streak of electricity as it came in contact with the earth.
Mrs. G. G. Stephenson also saw the bolt strike. Immediately after it hit

there was a loud report heard all over town, and awakened many from their early slumbers.

This is the fourth time that lightning has struck near here, Mr. Babcock said. He is of the opinion that a large mineral deposit exists somewhere in the vicinity of the school house as the four bolts have hit in the neighborhood of that place.
Neither of the four bolts did any damage.

CHICKEN SELECTS AXLE OF
MOVING AUTO FOR ROOST

A chicken that must have heard of Pullman cars enjoyed a lengthy slumber Wednesday night while taking a tour of San Angelo roosting on the front axle of a Ford car.

The chicken climbed on the front axle of the car, which belonged to Fred Smith, 01 South Jackson, when the car was parked at St. John's Sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were in the hospital some time visiting Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Dorothy Taylor of Sonora, who is ill there. It was just dusk when they came out of the hospital. They had previously noticed chickens around the car but did not see the one that wanted to travel go to roost on the car.

They drove to town and parked their car and passers-by noticed the chicken sleeping peacefully. It awoke but stayed on its perch and the Smiths drove about the city until 10 o'clock.

West Craig Place.

Tayloe was born at Sonora. He came to San Antonio with his parents while a child. Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lois Mae Ragland and Mrs. Corinne T. Richardson, both of San Antonio.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon, Rev. L. B. Richards, pastor of Christ Episcopal Church officiating. Active pallbearers will be: Thomas Hart, Phillip Walker, George Johnson, Albert Deutch, Kennedy Smith and Louis Bertrand.

Honorary pallbearers will be: Sylvan Berlinger, Harris Davenport, Erwin Lange, Arthur Uhl, Volney Dibrell, Jack Mathews, Julian Blair, John H. Weymouth and Harry Jersig.—San Antonio Express.

The Tayloes were well known here, having resided in Sonora for several years. Judge Tayloe was given the bar examination by S. H. Stokes of this place, and was later admitted to the bar.

They then drove back to the hospital.

"Certainly, that's one of our chickens," said one of the nurses at the hospital. She took the chicken and put it with the others of the flock at the hospital that had been content to go peacefully to roost at home.—San Angelo Morning Times.

If you don't play the game fair the game will play out. Baseball and hunting resemble. In hunting, the foul ball is one that is fired at protected game in the closed season—that's a foul ball. There is this difference: In baseball the foul ball does not count for the team but in hunting every hit counts. The hunter usually fires the foul ball with the idea that one wouldn't count much. No man who disregards the law feels that the little game he kills will affect the grand total; but if every man should feel and act that way the destruction of game would become complete. In voting for candidates mighty majorities are made up of individual votes and it takes a lot of them to get a man into office. The candidate is careful to get every possible vote. It does him no good for you to say, Mr. Doe, I like you personally and I believe in all you stand for, but I am your opponent. It is fine to believe in the game laws and in conservation, but if game is to win out you've got to vote for it. A running candidate needs your vote, but can live without it, but a game candidate cannot because it is running for its life. Now, a majority will elect a candidate to office, but a majority observing the game laws will not elect game or make it plentiful. A small minority can make it scarce and rob the majority of law observers of the right to a successful hunt. A majority of hunters do obey the law. Are you voting and acting with that majority, or do you bolt the game ticket?

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

That advertising is the one item which if judiciously used costs the merchant nothing. Who pays for advertising is a much mooted question among those who have not used it successfully. The successful user of advertising knows that advertising pays its own way.

Successful advertising means increased sales or volume business. Volume sales make possible quantity production and quantity production makes possible lower selling price. The fact that the consumer invariably pays more for the product not advertised than he does for the advertised product is proof positive that advertising not only cost the consumer nothing but in fact lowers the cost of the necessities of life.

It has been aptly stated that the merchant or manufacturer who does not advertise pays through loss of sales for the advertising of the merchant or manufacturer who uses printer ink.

THE BIBLE

(By J. G. Lloyd, Christian Minister.)

Is the Bible divine? This is a question every man and woman must answer, and that answer must be recorded in eternity. Before you read this article, ask yourself the question, and as you read, weigh this bit of evidence.

Men of intelligence have started out to prove that the Bible is a myth and have returned with the same questions before them. After searching the very height of the intellectual realm of man's wisdom. The Bible stands untouched through the storm and the answer comes in tones that echo to man's most remote bounds. It is divine.

As we begin to study the thing untouched, let us first consider the divinity of Jesus Christ, for upon his divinity hinges our hope beyond the grave; and upon His resurrection from the dead depends the evidence of His divinity. If He is divine, we have a hope beyond the grave, and there is a heaven and hell.

First they laid Him in the tomb and sealed it with the King's seal, and placed the Roman guards there. Then came an earthquake. The Angel of the Lord came and rolled the stone away from the door and sat upon it, for fear that the keepers did shake and become as dead men.

Let us examine the evidence of these keepers. "His disciples came and stole him while we slept. Such evidence would not be received in any court in our land. A man who is asleep is not qualified to give testimony. If he is not dead, who delivered Him from that sealed tomb? The Angel of God rolled the stone away. Let us turn to Acts 1:3. "He showed himself alive to witness by proofs, not only proofs, but many proofs.

Let us turn to Cor. 15. "Who were the witnesses?" There were 500 of them. "In the mouth of those two or three witnesses shall every word be established." God did not only raise Him from the dead, but has seated Him at his right hand. All of the eye witnesses testified to this fact until the Angel of Death called them to their reward, testifying the same thing.

If had been an imposter, God would not have raised from the dead and planned an imposition upon the people.

If God did not raise Him, by what power was he raised from the dead? Was it Darwin or his theory? All power was not given Him until he arose from the dead, his record in the New Testament is true, and the Old Testament is also true. The word of God is surely divine origin, therefore is divine. If it is divine, then it is our guide.

Listen, sinner, when you study the theories of men, weigh them by this divine standard, for it is the standard of religious accuracy—by it we stand or fall.

Submitted in love,
—J. G. Lloyd, Minister.

J. D. Eaton Gets Chevrolet on Birthday

J. D. Eaton, venerable father of a large family, and who has piloted the Sonora Water and Power Company to success for many years, passed another milestone this week when time marked his sixty-eight year. His son, Frank Eaton, of El Dorado, who has inherited his father's characteristics, presented him with a brand new Chevrolet sedan as a birthday present.

Although sixty-eight years of age Mr. Eaton is about the busiest and most laborious man in Sonora. Despite his age, he is still a young man in actions.

Warfare With Indians on Upper Nueces

That part of Southwest Texas through which flows the headwaters of the Nueces and Frio rivers, was the home of several warlike tribes back in the sixties and seventies. It was a hunter's paradise. Native streams were beautiful, and teemed with fish, while the hills and valleys afforded wild game life of every description. Naturally the Indian tribes, who had had this happy hunting ground for so many years, resented the intrusion of the whites, and armed conflicts continually took place between the two races.

J. E. Watkins, a pioneer of Southwest Texas, is well acquainted with many of the old Indian fighters of that part of the State. Mr. Watkins repeats some of the stories as told him by these old Indian fighters, in the Devil's River News Monthly Section, which will be issued July 6.

ONE OF MAN'S BEST FRIENDS

The bat, that for centuries has been spoken of as one of the most despised creatures, has now come forward as man's best friend, because it so relentlessly destroys the malarial mosquito, the greatest enemy of mankind. The mosquito is the bat's principal food.

San Antonio has now built three bat roosts, or "homes" for bats, in order to reduce the ravages of malarial fever in certain districts.

The usefulness of the bat, its habits and characteristics, will be told in the Monthly Magazine Section of the Devil's River News of July 6th.

RACING RULES ADOPTED BY THE WEST TEXAS RACING ASSOCIATION W. R. Barnes, Sonora, President

55. The horse shall be started by the jockey, but with the sanction of the starter it may be led to its position, and must be free from all hands other than those of the jockey before the starter releases the barrier. The jockey must not dismount, except to remedy insecure equipment.

56. If an accident happens to any rider or his equipment, the starter may grant a delay not exceeding fifteen minutes, which, in extreme cases, may be extended by the local committee. During such delay the jockeys may dismount and the horses given up to their attendants.

57. No person other than the rider and starter or the assistant starter shall be permitted to strike a horse or attempt by shouting or otherwise assist it in getting a start. Nor shall any person stand in the track to point out a path for the rider, under the penalty of exclusion from the course for either offense.

58. The leading horse is entitled to any part of the track, but if it swerve or is ridden to either side so as to interfere with or impede another horse, it is a foul and such horse shall be disqualified, whether the foul was wilful or the result of careless riding, and if the local committee believes it was intentional, they shall fine or suspend the guilty jockey.

59. No complaint shall be received from any person except the jockey, trainer or owner of the horse interfered with, at any time.

60. When a horse is disqualified under this rule, any other horse in the race belonging wholly or in part to the same owner is also disqualified.

61. An objection to a horse upon the ground of its not having run the proper course, or of any other matter occurring in the race (except as otherwise provided) must be made before the official numbers of the horses placed in the race are put up.

62. The local committee shall have the power at any time either upon or without objection being made, to order an examination of such persons as they think fit, as to the age of any horse entered for a race, or which has been run for a race, and shall withhold any money the horse or his owner may have won until such examination is made, and if the horse be declared of wrong age, the expense of such an examination shall be paid by the owner; otherwise it will be paid by the person (if any) at whose request the examination is ordered or by the local association, as the local committee directs.

63. If the local committee is satisfied that a race was ridden corruptly, or that the jockey was induced to so ride, all persons guilty of complicity in the offense shall be ruled off the course.

64. No one interested in the result of a race, either because of ownership of any horse entered, or of its sire or dam, or because of bets or otherwise, shall act as judge, starter, or official therein; for any violation of this rule, the guilty person or persons may be suspended or ruled off, according to the decision of the local committee.

65. The local committee shall determine all questions arising in reference to racing at the meeting. It shall take cognizance of all infractions of the rules and may fine offenders not exceeding $125, suspend or rule off.

66. The local committee shall determine all questions arising in reference to racing at the meeting. In their discretion, where fraud is suspected, the local committee shall have the right to put upon a horse a rider selected by them, and to place the horse in charge of a trainer they may select. Any owner or trainer who refuses to permit a rider or trainer to be changed as herein provided, and any trainer or rider who refuses to take charge of or ride a horse on the order of the local committee shall be ruled off.

67. The local committee shall have the power at any time to order an examination, by such person or persons as they see fit, of any horse entered in a race or which has run in a race.

68. During the running of a race, one member of the local committee shall station himself on some part of the course where he may observe the running of the race, or other matters relating thereto, and immediately thereafter report to other members of the committee any wrongful or suspicious conduct coming to his notice. Members of the committee may alternate in performing this duty.

69. The local committee shall, not later than seven days after the end of each meeting, make report in writing to the secretary of the association all infractions of the rules and of all rulings of the local committee upon matters coming before them during such meeting. Copies thereof shall be mailed to each member town of the association.

70. The judge or judges shall decide which horse wins, and assign their respective places in the race to as many horses as they think proper. When the judges differ, if there be more than one, the majority shall govern.

71. The starter shall give such orders and take all such measures, not in conflict with the rules of racing, as are necessary to secure a fair start.

72. The horses shall be started by a flag and there shall be no start until, and no recall after, the starter has dropped the flag.

73. With the sanction of the local committee, the starter may appoint his assistants; but neither he or his assistants shall strike or use abusive language toward a jockey, and for each violation of this rule, the local committee shall impose a fine of not less than $5 upon the starter.

74. The starter shall have authority to fine not exceeding $25 or suspend a jockey for disobedience of his orders, or for attempting to take any unfair advantage. Said suspension, however, shall not extend beyond five racing days, without approval of the local committee.

Preferred Stock Sales Passes Original Issue

Sales of the $96.00 Cumulative Preferred Sales of the West Texas Utilities Company passed the original issue of 3000 shares when the report for the month was closed May 31. Sales to that date amounted to 3,001 shares.

District B stood far ahead of all other districts in sales May 31, having disposed of 841 shares. District A was second with 692 shares and District C third with 370. Standing of other groups was: K, 130; G, 124; E, 113; J, 94; H, 92; F, 69; D, 39, and the General Office, 17.

Sales Exceed Expectations
The sale of the original issue of 3,000 shares of preferred stock far exceeded expectations of its success. No concerted advertising campaign was conducted, the sale being left largely to employees.

The stock was placed on sale late in April and was disposed of in little more than one month. It has no par value, being offered to customers and friends of the company at $96 per share, a dividend of $6 a share is to be paid each year.

It is expected that an additional 1,000 shares of stock will be allotted for sale to its customers and is known, about Swellhead—E. A. Tunncliffe, veterinarian Ranch Experiment Station.

2:00 a. m.—Barbecue on grounds of Ranch Experiment Station.

1:30 p. m.—Demonstration in judging fine Wool Sheep—J. V. Drisdale, Juno, Texas.

2:30 p. m.—Demonstration in Judging Angora Goats—O. L. Carpenter, Herdsman, Ranch Experiment Station.

Station Round-Up—

The Ranch Experiment Station is located in Sutton and Edwards counties on the Sonora-Rocksprings road midway between the two places.

The Ranch Station property comprises 3461 acres, all used for grazing purposes except 60 acres of cultivated land utilized for growing feed crops. The grazing land is divided into five main pastures with several additional experimental traps.

The buildings are constructed of concrete made from crushed rock obtained on the grounds.

The Ranch Station serves immediately the Edwards Plateau region and Southwest Texas generally and is located in the heart of the most intensive range sheep and goat producing region in the United States.

The purpose of the Ranch Station is to study the livestock problems of the ranchman in relation to efficiency in the operation of range livestock production. Among the important projects of the Station are: swellhead of sheep and goats; sore mouth; carrying capacity of the ranges; range vegetation; grazing habits of cattle and sheep; poisonous plants investigations; shearing sheep and goats; shearing sheep once versus twice a year; shrinkage studies of individual fleeces of wool and mohair; goat lice experiments (in cooperation with the U. S. Bureau of Entomology); stomach worms of sheep and goats; seasonal changes in cattle weights; cost and method of livestock production; and inheritance studies of the improvement of cattle, sheep, and goats.

To reach the Ranch Station at Sonora take Rocksprings road to sign on Station gate 28 miles; thence through pasture to headquarters 2 miles west. At Rocksprings take Sonora road to Station gate 33 miles. At Del Rio, take Sonora road about 70 miles to sign at Holman's ranch, thence to sign 6 miles over ranch road to Station.

A TALE OF TWO CITIES

How two cities with only a 30 foot width street separating them get along so well, will be told in the Monthly Magazine Section of the Devils River News, to be issued July 6th.

These two cities are Texarkana, Texas, and Texarkana, Arkansas. One street only separates the two cities, with a combined population of over 30,000. The set a good example of cooperation and unusual friendliness to one another which other cities, though miles apart, could well afford to follow.

SONORA

Located in the center of "The Stockman's Paradise" welcomes you. Sonora and Sutton County have an elevation of 2,000 to 2,500 feet, and has a very agreeable climate.

Livestock raising is the principal industry of the county; however there is some very desirable land that could be cultivated. Sutton County is noted for its high grade sheep and goats and fine cattle. Sutton County is rated as among the best in West Texas for livestock.

Sonora is incorporated; and has a white population of 1,200; Sonora is the county seat of Sutton County and has one of the best high and grammar schools in this part of Texas; has four churches and several civic organizations.

W. Van Sickle Seeks Office of Dist. Att'y

Our announcement column now carries the name of W. Van Sickle of Alpine, Texas, as a candidate for the office of District Attorney of this district, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in July.

Judge Van Sickle hardly needs any introduction on the part of the Sentinel, as he has been a prominent attorney of Alpine for many years, and has therefore practiced throughout this district where he is personally acquainted with almost every person who has resided in the district for any length of time, but, for the benefit of those who do not know him personally, Judge Van Sickle is held in high esteem by the entire bar of Southwest Texas. No citizen of his home town is more loved or is regarded more highly than is Judge Van Sickle.

He has not only always proven himself to be a splendid lawyer, but, a gentleman and citizen of the highest type as well.

Judge Van Sickle purposes to make a thorough campaign of the district before the primary and to meet, in so far as possible every voter in person and present his claims for the office. He promises if elected to give you real and efficient service as your district attorney, and the Sentinel commends him to your careful consideration. —Alpine Sentinel.

Joe Norris Reduces Price of Bread

Joe C. Norris, the new proprietor of the Sonora Bakery, has announced the reductions of bread to take effect July 1st. He has lowered the price of short loaves from fifteen cents to ten cents and on long loaves or pullman loaves from twenty to fifteen cents. Mr. Norris's bread can be purchased at all grocery stores here at the above prices.

Mr. Norris's many friends predict for him much success. He is a live wire and a hard worker and will give the people a square deal and this coupled with good service will result in his success.
