JESUS: THE DISCOVERER OF WOMANHOOD

From every point of view the New Testament is an amazing document; but, considered in relation to its attitude towards women, it is amazing in a truly superlative degree. In what other manuscript of the period could you find stories like the story of Mary the Mother of Jesus, the story of the sisters at Bethany, the story of the woman who was a sinner, the story of the woman who touched the hem of his garment, the story of the woman of Syro-Phoenicia, and all the others? At this point the New Testament is absolutely unique: it is like a lily in the midst of thorns. Those who have read Madam Claire, by Susan Ertz, will remember that Madam was a lovable little old lady who used to pray to the God who understood women. There is such a deity. How do I know? He was manifest in the flesh. In his Ecce Homo Sir John Seeley declares that "the female sex, in which antiquity saw nothing but inferiority, which Plato considered intended to do the same things as the male only not so well, was understood for the first time by Christ. His treatment brought out its characteristics, its superiorities, its peculiar power of gratitude and self-devotion." Jesus was the discoverer of womanhood. He revealed its dignity and elicited its charm: and the history of all subsequent religious activities is the history of the way in which the women of the ages, responding to his divine discernment and generous appreciation, have washed his feet with their tears and wiped them with the hairs of their heads.—F. W. Boreham.

Wife: "You seem disappointed with your parcel."

Husband: "Yes, I answered an advertisement for device to keep down gas bills, and the firm sent me a paperweight."

WHEN I GROW OLD

When I grow old
God grant that every child
Will feel the youthful texture of my soul,
And will not turn away from me
As from a shade or shrunken vine,
When I grow old.
When I grow old
God grant that I may have some task
Which must be done or some one fare the worse
That in some corner of the earth
Some one will need my hand
When I grow old. —Selected.

20th ANNUAL MEETING

Mrs. M. S. Osborne, Medina River Association, said they were one Association 100% on the budget. During the March week of prayer 200 women attended the services.

Mrs. O. L. Smith, Gonzales Association, said their women went home from the District Meeting a year ago and began collecting eggs for Buckner Orphan Home, sending 24 crates, and expect to make this an annual affair. $200.00 was their Lottie Moon offering. Special work is being done among the Mexicans and negroes. Mrs. Hayden asked that we stand for a moment of silent prayer in memory of Mrs. J. C. Dilworth, who was with us a year ago in our meeting.

Mrs. W. O. Holland, Gambrell Association, reported their Association meets monthly in connection with the Worker's Conference, and receives much inspiration from same. The work among the young people is especially active.

Del Rio-Uvalde was the only association not making a report.

Mrs. J. A. Dupree, Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. H. C. Lawson, Treasurer, read their reports, which were adopted. (Reports will be published later).

Reports were read from every standing committee, a fact we are proud of, and in each report splendid work was indicated.

Mrs. Hayden in taking up items of miscellaneous business, stated that the Board meeting which follows the Southern Baptist Convention, had not been set but reminding us of the fact that we had voted to hold an all day meeting, with Committee Conferences, and asked that we begin planning for this right away. Each Associational President was asked to have a dollar sent in, that our District may send in our $7.00 on the Missionary Library Fund. Also to think it over and write Mrs. Hayden what part of the $800 which is our apportionment on the fund asked by Baylor College, their Association would assume.

The Obituary Committee report was read, while we stood with bowed heads. Mrs. Lawson led in prayer for those whose loved ones had gone on to the Heavenly Home this year.

Report of the Nominating Committee was read, and on motion, duly carried, report was accepted, nominating all the old officers for another year. Motion was made that Mrs. Mitchell be instructed to cast the ballot of the District for these officers. Mrs. O. L. Smith, presided during the election. Motion carried, and the old officers were declared elected. Mrs. J. E. Williamson gave a fitting tribute to our President, Mrs. Hayden, her tireless labors for the District and pledged her support the coming year. A rising vote of appreciation was given Mrs. Hayden.

Meeting adjourned with prayer by Mrs. Luther Barnard.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. J. Y. Williamson,
Recording Secretary.

CHRIST'S INDICTMENT OF MANY CHURCH MEMBERS

Ye call me Master and obey me not,
Ye call me Light and see me not,
Ye call me Way and walk not,
Ye call me Life and desire me not,
Ye call me fair and love me not,
Ye call me rich and ask me not,
Ye call me eternal and seek me not,
Ye call me gracious and trust me not,
Ye call me wise and follow me not,
Ye call me noble and serve me not,
Ye call me mighty and honor me not,
Ye call me just and fear me not,
If I condemn you, blame me not.

—Missionary Voice.

A writer in the Sunshine Magazine gives the following: "When you talk about there being a better country than the United States, says a Western farmer every potato winks its eye, every cabbage shakes its head, every beet turns red in the face, every onion gets stronger, every oat field is shocked, rye strokes its beard, corn sticks up its ears, and every foot of ground kicks."

Green: "At table I always try to follow the motto, 'eat and leave off hungry.'"

Gourmand: "Humph! To my mind that is about as sensible as to wash and leave off dirty."

THE ONLY WAY

By H. B. Yelvington

They speak of conquering armies,
Of fleets, destroyers and planes,
They talk of a day that's coming
When the world will war again.
Some think that England will whip

us,
Others say that surely Japan must win,

But none seem fully to realize
That our deadliest enemy is sin.
You can't whip sin with cannon,
You can't storm hell with fleets,
You may build a powerful armada,
But still there's an enemy to meet.
O you foolish men of all nations
Who plan battles to beat your foes,
Don't you know it is love only
Which will cure the world of its woes.

W. M. U. NOTES

There will be a very important all-day meeting of the W. M. U. at the church Monday. At this time a new president will be elected. All ladies are urged to attend. Lunch will be served at the church.

CHOIR NOTES

The choir will have its regular rehearsal Thursday at 8:00, p. m. All members and substitutes are urged to attend each rehearsal as it is very important that each person master the music for the following Sunday. The choir is doing splendid work—let's keep it up.

B. Y. P. U. NOTES

All the officers of our various unions were officially installed last Sunday so our new term really begins Sunday. Let's have every new officer in place for a good "start." We are aiming to reach 250 in attendance during the summer months. It would be well for each union to take a goal for their own in order to reach this number. Its up to us, lets go "over the top."

BAPTIST TEMPLE MALE CHORUS

Our male chorus is doing fine work in rendering a real service. Monday of last week the chorus went to La Vernia and put on a sacred musical program after which our missionary Julius King preached. On last Sunday afternoon the chorus assisted in the dedication service at Edgewood. On Friday night of this week we go to Sutherland Springs to have a part in the revival meeting being conducted there.

If you are a man or young man and can sing or like to try, meet with us at 8 p. m. Sunday for rehearsal and have a part in the work we are trying to do for the Master.
