WILL TRY FATTY FOR MURDER

WICHITA DELEGATION IN AUTOMOBILES VISITS THE FAIR AT SEYMOUR

Staff Special to the Times.

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—Forty carloads of dusty but enthusiastic Wichita Falls excursionists arrived here at 10:30 o'clock this morning, having completed the first half of the Seymour trade trip in just two hours. L. L. Dixon set a fast pace for his train of autos and brought the party through without delay. A few punctures and tire blowouts constituted the only trouble of the drive, and these were promptly repaired by the "trouble shooter," a truck filled with materials and manned by a crew of mechanics provided for such emergencies.

The visitors were met at the edge of town by a committee of Baylor county citizens and escorted to the court house, where a short band concert and welcoming address by Judge Jo Dickson were given. Mayor Cline of Wichita Falls responded on behalf of the guests and expressed their appreciation of the reception tendered.

Lunch was procured in Seymour, after which the visiting delegation was taken to the Baylor county fair grounds. The afternoon was to be spent there and the return trip started about 4:30 o'clock.

PRIZES ARE AWARDED AT THE BAYLOR COUNTY FAIR

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—While even a larger crowd than was present on the opening day watched with eagerness and interest, the cowboys set in this morning to break some of the enviable records made during the first day's exhibition of fun and frolic.

Seymour thrived with an added population of several thousand people Thursday, but indications early this morning bade fair that the town would bubble over before the close of the day. A stream of automobiles decorated the roads to the ground as early as 8 o'clock.

Blue and red ribbons floated from each of the various booths in the farm products building. The judges late Thursday night completed this much of the tedious task of selecting from a long lot of entries those exhibits which in their mind ranked first, second and third.

A mere glance at these exhibitions gave proof of the fertility of the soil of Baylor county, and second, gave positive evidence of the thriftiness of and the scientific methods used by the tillers of the soil of the county.

Fifty Wichitans who made the trip from Wichita Falls in automobiles arrived in the city near the noon hour and were greeted by the officers of the fair association and of the chamber of commerce. Shortly afterward they were accompanied to the fair grounds where Mayor W. D. Cline was to give an address at 3:30 o'clock.

Municipal Dance.

Saturday evening an entire block of the newly laid pavement will be roped off and a grand municipal dance will be held out under the moonlight. Two large orchestras have been employed to furnish the music for the occasion. The original plans of the Baylor County Fair association were to have a dance of this nature each evening during the three days, but due to the delay in the paving of the streets this plan had to be abandoned.

The fair association officers have received letters from not less than a dozen cities in west Texas, stating that delegations from each place would be in attendance on Saturday, which promises to be the biggest of the three big days in Seymour.

Saturday not only promises to be the banner day with reference to attendance, but also in interest as this will be the last and final day for the ninety-one cowboys to compete for the final prizes which are very attractive.

Although several bronco riders and steer riders were thrown there were no injuries suffered to mar the day Thursday, with the exception of one. A. P. Pugh of Ranger, Texas, was bitten by a snorting bucking bronco early in the day. The physician who dressed the wound on the man's hand stated that the injury as in no way serious, and that no bones were broken, although the wound was an ugly one. Mr. Pugh said he didn't mind the injury, but it hurt him because it would result in his being unable to compete with the other boys throughout the meet.

E. A. Stevens and Elbert Elliott of Baylor county, Frank Rhoades and John Davis of Throckmorton county, and S. B. Wilson of Knox county, all pioneer cattlemen, cated as judges in all of the rodeo events. They declared the following winners in each of the events:

Inners Announced.

Bronco riding: First, Bob Donnell of Throckmorton; second, C. C. DeGraffenreid of Breckenridge; third, Fred Alvord of Baird, and fourth, J. D. Tuck of Throckmorton.

Riding steers: First, M. D. Kelly of Ranger; second, Joe Tick of Seymour; third, Fred Alvord of Baird, and fourth, O. H. Parrott of Throckmorton.

Calf roping: First, George Daniels of Toyah, Texas, in 31 seconds; second, C. C. DeGraffenreil of Breckenridge, in 33½ seconds; third, Salem Curtis of Las Vegas, N. M., in 33½ seconds, and fourth, O. White of Bynum, in 36½ seconds.

Steer roping: First, Lem Colthorp of Munday, in six seconds; second, Lon Deaton of Seymour, in 7½ seconds; third, Glen Burnett of Vera, in 8½ seconds, and fourth, Roy Cockrell of Seymour and Doc Ellis of Throckmorton, in nine seconds.

Goat roping: First, C. C. DeGraffenreid of Breckenridge, in 16½ seconds; second, Allen Holder of Garden City, in 17½ seconds; third, Louis James of Christov l, in 19½ seconds, and fourth, Aubrey Harrel of Garden City and George Daniels of Toyah, in 21½ seconds.

The prizes in each of the above events, with the exception of steer riding, are $50, $30, $20 and $10 for first, second, third and fourth, respectively. In the steer riding contest the prizes are $15, $10, $5 and $2.50. The final prizes are $100.

Hamp Fancher, one of the best known residents of Baylor county and a pioneer cattleman of this community, was the oldest contestant in the rodeo. Mr. Fancher didn't get any prizes the first day, but there were a score of others that didn't, either. Mr. Fancher says he has passed his sixty-sixth milestone in life.

Ball Game Called Off.

IRISH QUESTION IS BACK TO THE STAGE BEFORE CONFERENCE

RECENT NOTES UNDO WORK OF NEGOTIATIONS OF TWO MONTHS

BOTH SIDES ARE FIRM IN THE POSITION TAKEN

No Indication, However, That Truce Arranged Will Be Cancelled As Result

By Associated Press.

BELFAST, Sept. 16.—Minor encounters between opposing factions in interior Ulster were reported here this afternoon.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Eamonn de Valera telegraphed Premier Lloyd George at Gairloch, Scotland, tonight, expressing surprise that the premier did not see that Ireland's cause would be irreparably prejudiced if she entered the proposed conference without making her position quite clear.

Mr. de Valera's telegram said:

"I received your telegram last night and am surprised that you do not see that if we on our side accepted a conference on the basis of your letter of September 7 without making our position quite clear, Ireland's representatives would enter the conference with their position misunderstood and the cause of Ireland's right irreparably prejudiced. Throughout the correspondence that has taken place you have defined your government's position. We have defined ours.

"If the positions were not so definitely opposed, there would indeed be no problem to be discussed. It should be obvious that in a case like ours if there is to be any result, the negotiators must meet without prejudice and untrammelled by any conditions whatever except these implied by the facts as they know them."

LLOYD GEORGE CONTEMPLATES EARLY RETURN TO LONDON

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Prime Minister Lloyd George, from whom the next move in the Irish negotiations looked for, was still ailing in his vacation-time home at Girloch this morning. He is reported to be better, however, and is contemplating an early return to London to consult his colleagues on Eamonn de Valera's statement that only as representing a sovereign state did the dail eireann feel it had power to act.

Public opinion in England, so far as it had found expression, is virtually solid in support of the premier in his contention that all the advances possible toward peace have been made by Great Britain. There was hope that de Valera would ask his people a new mandate.

It is pointed out that Mr. Lloyd ge's reply to Mr. de Valera left an ing for the continuation of the sions after the cabinet had de- what should be done, but the derance of opinion here is that n be no further concessions by

THREE AVIATORS ARE INSTANTLY KILLED IN ACCIDENT AT DALLAS

DALLAS, Sept. 16.—Lieutenant Jas. F. Armstrong and two enlisted men, Sergeants Gibson and White, from Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla., were instantly killed at Love Field, Dallas, this afternoon when a big army De Haviland observation plane in which they were flying, went into a spin at an altitude of only about 150 feet and crashed to earth. The machine burst into flames just as it struck the ground and the bodies of the three men were badly burned.

Home addresses of the victims were not available early this afternoon.

The flyers had just taken off at Love Field preparatory to a return flight to Post Field, when the big machine shuddered, started to spin and fell. Love Field officers said the cause of the accident had not been determined.

Another airplane, piloted by Lieutenant J. T. Lansell and Lieutenant Robertson, had taken the air for Fort Sill a few moments before the De Haviland fell. They quickly alighted and hurried to the aid of Lieutenant Armstrong and his companions, but found them dead.

Style Show Surpasses Any Previous Attempt; Is Large Attendance

Thursday night's presentation of the Wichita Falls style show, witnessed by a packed house at the Palace Theater, scored a success which a city thrice the size might envy.

The audience was delighted from the beginning, and if there were any who came merely "consenting to be bored" for a while, they straightened to attention before the finish of the first scene. Things went off with a snap from the first, the only perceptable pause being while the directors waited five or six minutes longer than they expected for a detained participant. This, too, in spite of the fact that some fifty or sixty children participated in several of the numbers, in costume.

The style display was a credit to Wichita Falls, and comment was general and enthusiastic on the handsome fall outfits shown. One beautiful garment after another, perfect in cut, colour and display, drew applause and exclamations of pleasure from the audience. The new things for this fall, from the hundred or more dresses and suits shown Thursday night, will be among the most beautifully designed and artistically executed—real art that is simple and true and satisfying, that is—that have ever been offered before.

The special numbers on the program were up to the standard of the style display, and one or two of them were a revelation to the audience. Two local young artists—Miss Leslie Davis and her little niece, Glory Davis—gave solo dance numbers which won the audience en masse, and might have been the envy of many a circuit professional. The other special numbers were most attractive, and the stage settings finished in every detail. They included a balloon dance by six little girls and a particularly well planned chorus, "I Can't Do This Sum" with Miss Elvia Allman, soloist.

Every seat in the Palace was filled by the time the performance began—at 8:15—and groups sat on the stairs of the east exit to the theater. Orchestral music accompanied the numbers and furnished a pleasant diversion between scenes, which were shifted without a drag.

The Costumes.

The creme of the local selection in suits, street and traveling dresses, and evening clothes was represented on the stage in the display, and outfits from the various merchants indicated by the unobstrusive shifting of posters at the side stage. The stage itself was beautifully decorated with roses and lilies from the Buchanan Floral Co., and different well arranged backgrounds were used for the different display numbers.

The winter coats, in cloth and fur, came first, and were displayed to most attractive advantage on their good-looking models. Generally speaking, the chief difference in this year's cut from those of 1920 was in the diaphanousness of the whole garment—sleeves and body—which has undergone a considerable diminishment. Collars were large and handsome in many instances, but the lines generally were closer, some exceptionally handsome bloused waistline effects were shown, both in the fur and cloth. The colours were markedly beautiful, with a leaning toward warmth of tone. This was particularly evidenced in the browns and tans. The hats worn with the models were trim and beautiful. Coats were displayed by most of the merchants in the style show group.

The juvenile school togs were introduced ingeniously with the Schooldays chorus. The curtain rose on a long, laughing, sighing group of school kiddies perched on a high, covered wall. These children sang the chorus to the "Can't Do This Sum" selection with Miss Allman as soloist, and various groups of school children, outfitted by the different merchants, came on to the stage and joined in the pretty scene.

The school clothes for the little girls showed a most admirable simplicity of cut and ornamentation; little bits of smocking, embroidery, or self trimming seemed to be the entire order of the day, with attractiveness of cut the main object. Pretty middy and sailor suits in blue serge retained their former pop larity and were showed to advantage on several of the small models. It is fai to make special mention of the youngsters who took part in the juvenile display, as without a noticeable exception they were dandy little models, showing off their toggery with a charming unaffectedness.

FINANCIAL DISTRICT IS GUARDED ON ANNIVERSARY OF WALL STREET TRAGEDY

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Extraordinary vigilance was maintained by police on duty in the financial district today—the anniversary of the Wall street explosion of 1920, which cost 40 lives and resulted in injury to more than 100 persons, and property loss of thousands of dollars. The steps taken were purely precautionary, it was explained. The cause of the disaster still remains a mystery.

PRESIDENTIAL YACHT IS OFF THE DELAWARE CAPES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The presidential yacht Mayflower with President Harding and his vacation party aboard was reported off the Delaware capes at 8 o'clock this morning in wireless messages to the navy department.

The yacht, which left New York last night after several days spent in that vicinity, was reported as steaming southward, and if the speed maintained during the night were continued she should arrive in Hampton Roads early tonight. Plans of the president as given out before leaving New York contemplated a stop at Norfolk for a game of golf.

CROWN PRINCE GEORGE OF GREECE HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM CAPTURE

BRUSA, ASIA MINOR, Sept. 16.—Crown Prince George of Greece narrowly escaped capture by a band of mounted Turkish irregulars while en route to this city from the battle front early this week. The motor car in which the crown prince, General Stratigos and other officers were coming toward Eski-Shehr, was attacked by a band of Turbs, who opened fire from a hill side. The bullets came close to the prince, but the driver speeded up the car and the party escaped.

HEADL OF ORGANIZATION OPPOSING KLAN THREATENED

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Former Gov. Edward F. Dunne, chairman of the newly organized National Unity council, which is opposed to the Ku Klux Klan, announced today he had received a threatening note yesterday.

"Don't forget that the klan will attend to you and yours," the note read, he said. No signature was attached and Mr. Dunne said he did not take the matter seriously. It was stated that the National Unity council expects to organize branches throughout the state within the next few weeks and may later become a national organization.

PROHIBITS MEETING OF LOUISVILLE KLAN

Warning Has Been Issued By Board of Public Safety of That City

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 16.—The board of public safety today served "notice on all citizens to remain away" from a proposed meeting of the Ku Klux Klan Sunday night, and warned owners of public halls not to rent their places to the organization.

"Should any attempt be made to hold this meeting in defiance of this order," the board's announcement says, "any person who attempts to attend it will be regarded as an unpatriotic citizen and a law violator and will be dealt with accordingly."

Detailed methods to be employed in stopping the meeting were not disclosed.

Published statements several days ago attributed to an unnamed member said the klan had six thousand pledged members in Louisville.

GOV. SMALL WANTS A CHANGE OF VENUE

Petitions Making the Request for Himself and Vernon Curtis Are Filed In Court

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Sept. 16.—Petitions for a change of venue from Sangamon county and affidavits alleging Judge E. S. Smith is prejudiced and could not give them a fair trial, were filed with the court today by Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, Grant Park banker, both under indictment charged with embezzlement and operating a confidence game.

Three formal affidavits of prejudice, one in each of the three cases against the two men, were filed, each affidavit being accompanied by about 100 affidavits by Sangamon county residents in support of the charge.

Lee Forge told the court that the defense was anxious to push the case to an early hearing, but did not object to the ten days' time asked by the state to file an answer to the petition for a change of venue.

Neither Governor Small nor Mr. Curtis came to court.

TWO NEW MEMBERS OF COMMISSIONS OF APPEALS

AUSTIN, Sept. 16.—When the two commissions of appeals reconvenes from the summer vacation on the first Monday in October, two new members will be present. The members were appointed by Governor Neff today. The two new members are H. C. Randolph of Plainview, section A, and R. H. Hamilton of Port Lavaca, section B.

REACH DECISION TO PROSECUTE ON THE MOST SERIOUS CHARGE; PRELIMINARY TRIAL THURSDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—District Attorney Brady announced in the police court of Judge Sylvain Lazarus today that "the people are ready to proceed on the murder charge" against Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, who is held responsible by the authorities for the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, a motion picture actress.

The announcement came after a conference between Brady and police officials called for the purpose of deciding on which of the four charges against Arbuckle would be tried. There are two murder and two manslaughter charges preferred against Arbuckle. Judge Lazarus continued the case until next Thursday at 1 p. m.

Arbuckle came in and surrounded by his attorneys, stood up at the counsel table during the brief session. A crowd of men tried to rush the court room door just before the hearing started but were headed off by the police.

Frank E. Dominguez, chief counsel for Arbuckle, asked for a ten days' continuance following Brady's statement. The district attorney objected, saying five days should be sufficient.

"At the request into Miss Rappe's death you demanded a speedy hearing," Brady said, addressing the defense. "You also demanded a speedy trial, so why ask for such a long continuance." Why don't you put the defendant on the stand and let him tell his side of the case?"

Dominguez explained that the defense found it necessary to obtain considerable expert evidence before going ahead with even the police court examination.

"If the defendant is willing to stay in jail until his counsel prepares his case th people of the state of California should not mind," Dominguez said.

Prosecution on the murder charge automatically denies the defendant his liberty on bail, court officials explained.

Counsel for both sides conferred between themselves and Dominguez then announced that they would set Thursday by stipulation for the preliminary hearing on the charge.

After the court session Brady announced that a representative of the district attorney's office is to wait on the finance committee of the couny board of supervisors today and ask that every financial demand on the county for the prosecution of the Arbuckle case be met promptly.

District Attorney Brady today instructed Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson to detail "all the men necessary" to search for Dr. Beardslee, one of the physicians who attended Miss Rappe and bring him back to the city at once. He is believed to be on a hunting trip.

Brady issued the following statement after the court session: "The district attorney's office from the time that the facts became known, has always been firmly of the opinion that the correct charge involved in the Arbuckle case was murder.

"Under such circumstances it is his imperative legal duty to proceed with the charge alleging murder, now on file against the defendant, Mr. Arbuckle."

"It is the sole province of the trial jury to determine, after the evidence has been taken, and in the event that it should find the defendant guilty, whether the verdict should be one of murder, manslaughter or any other crime comprehended in the charge, and also to fix the degree thereof."

ORDERS RESERVATIONS ON TRAIN FOR LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16.—Roscle (Fatty) Arbuckle, in jail at San Francisco, charged with murder, in an interview published here today declared he had ordered a reservation on a train to Los Angeles tonight and that he was going back to his home.

Arbuckle, according to the article, said he intended to go back into pictures and that the case would clear up as soon as the public knew about it.

WILL MAKE EFFORT TO OBTAIN RELEASE OF MRS. OBENCHAIN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—A motion to admit Mrs. Madelynne Obenchain to bail, pending her trial for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, broker, for which she was jointly indicted with Arthur C. Burch, was scheduled for argument here today before Judge Sidney N. Reeve of the Los Angeles county superior court.

Warren Williams, counsel for Mrs. Obenchain, stated the defense would "demand" the release on bail of his client to prevent her health from being permanently impaired. He said the "demand" would be supported by an affidavit from Dr. Rossmore, Mrs. Obenchain's physician, that already has been brought before the court.

Mr. Williams said any attempt of the state to introduce a copyrighted story, recently published in the Los Angeles Examiner, relating to an alleged confession by Burch, would be fought on the ground that even if genuine, it could not be admitted against Mrs. Obenchain because it was alleged to have been made by a co-defendant.

Asa Keyes, deputy district attorney, stated it was his opinion that it would be unnecessary today to consider more than the physician's affidavit and that the prosecution would contend the grand jury indictment presumably was based upon sufficient evidence to try Mrs. Obenchain for murder, an unbailable crime.

Mrs. Obenchain was to be present during the argument Burch's attorneys said neither they nor their client would attend the proceedings.

FINED $5 AND SENTENCED TO 30 MINUTES IN JAIL

L. E. Gray, a grocery keeper, who has entered a damage suit against Sheriff Fred K. Gray was charged with petty theft.

RUSH THREE YOUTHS TO THE DALLAS JAIL

Two Other Prisoners Also Removed To That City To Prevent Mob Violence

DALLAS, Sept. 16.—Three youths charged with murder in connection with the killing two weeks ago near Aledo of James McNeal, Fort Worth service car driver, have been brought to the Dallas county jail for safe keeping. R. Jensen 18 and Wayne Todd 19. Feeling is said to be intense in Parker county against the prisoners.

The Dallas county jail also became temporary refuge today for Elzy Stepp, 55, and his nephew, Arley Stepp, 28, of McKinney. They were rushed here by officers because, it was said, public feeling was running high against the men following the finding of the body of Hardy Mills in a well six miles from McKinney.

CAN'T BE TREATED AS COGS IN MACHINERY

Such Is Statement of British Labor Leader in Discussing Modern Industry

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Arthur Henderson, labor member of the British house of commons, in discussing human needs in modern industry before the world's Methodist conference this morning, declared that the problem of just distribution of wealth remains unchanged. If this was to be accomplished, he said, the churches must see that Christian principles were applied in industry.

"The time has gone when men and women can be treated as cogs in machinery of wealth production," Mr. Henderson asserted. "The churches must assert the fact that the worker is first a man with a human claim to a full life. * * * This is the path to industrial peace."

Mr. Henderson's speech was greeted with cheers and other speakers reiterated his advice, urging the eight-hour day and profit sharing.

The conference adopted a resolution urging Methodists everywhere to wage relentless warfare on liquor, working first for a law affording local option so that the power of control could be placed directly in the hands of the people.

DAUGHERTY IS NOT TO RESIGN POSITION IN HARDING CABINET

RECENT WASHINGTON RUMOR IS ANOTHER OF THOSE WITHOUT FOUNDATION

ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS LAUGH ON POLITICIANS

Washington Has Come to Regard Him As Pillar of Strength to Harding Regime

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and the Wichita Daily Times

Copyright, 1921, by the New York Evening Post.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16.—The cabinet resignation rumor has lit on Attorney General Daugherty, but there is nothing to it. About the only good reason Mr. Daugherty would have for resigning would be the same reason Abe Martin had for giving favorable consideration to the idea of dying; namely, interest in what folks would say on that occasion. Mr. Daugherty has the laugh on a good many persons in Washington, and he is of the temperament whose inferes in life is rather heightened by having the laugh on other folks, especially on his opponents and critics.

A large part of Washington anticipated that as attorney general Mr. Daugherty would be a good deal of a politician. A few told this anticipation with fear, but more held it with hope. Both groups have been disappointed, and view Mr. Daugherty's record with different sorts of emotion. Those senators and representatives and others who expected it would be very easy to "slip over" political appointments on the new attorney general have the feeling of grievance that arises out of agreeable expectations unfulfilled and turned to ashes. There is more than one senatorial patronage seeker who will testify with some emotion that Mr. Daugherty, in his appointments, is about the least "political man" in the cabinet.

The office of attorney general, because it is charged with selecting or recommending judges, district attorneys and the like ought to give less weight to political considerations than any other department of the government and the serious fact is that Mr. Daugherty has shown a good lawyer's pride in the most exacting standards of his office. Saving the federal judgeships from persons who want them for political reasons is a never ending business. One case is not disposed of until another is up, and there is a striking situation on the Pacific coast just now. The virtue of Mr. Daugherty as a politician is that he manages it with the humorous good nature of a man who is sure of himself and of his power. Mr. Daugherty is successful in his office and a pillar of strength to Mr. Harding. Any reporter who is diligent enough can find convincing evidence of the likelihood that he will continue in his office.

The explanation of the current rumor is too long to tell here, and lies in the fact that it was probably invented for a purpose having a bearing on the more recondite complexities of Ohio politics, where a senatorial election is to be held next year.

Mr. Daugherty is the fifth subject of the cabinet resignation rumor. Previously, at one time or another, it has lit on Hughes, Fall, Hoover and Mellon. In none of the cases was there any more foundation than in the present instance. No man appreciative of the honor that goes with a cabinet post is likely to resign it until he finds it unbearably uncomfortable. The precisely opposite fact is that Mr. Harding's cabinet gives a strong impression of being comfortable and happy, both individually and as a family.

There had been unimportant incidents of men with headlong intentness on their jobs getting inadvertently on the territory of other men; and other cases of men, unaccustomed to public life, making mistakes unavoidable in the process of learning the rules of a new role. These are things that big men understand and don't take too seriously. There has been nothing even faintly approaching an occasion serious enough for a resignation. The regular twice-a-week meetings of President Harding's cabinet are probably the ablest human conferences being held currently on the surface of the earth. Nobody will be likely to withdraw from them except for a grave reason, and there is nothing of the kind in sight.

BARBERS REQUIRED UNDER NEW LAW TO REGISTER AT AUSTIN

Dr. A. H. Douglass, head of the city sanitary department, has announced that all local barber shop proprietors who have not registered at Austin and have not otherwise complied with the new regulations which apply to the operation of barber shops and which went into effect September 1, must make these registrations at once. A state law, recently enacted, requires that all shops and beauty parlors be listed with the state board of health.

Several proprietors have called at the local health department office and attempted to register there, but this is not authorized by the state board. Other new provisions pertaining to barber shops and beauty parlors became effective the first of the month, but the registration clause was the most important.

DEWEY DUPREE OUT ON BOND AND ROBY JAIL IS EMPTY

ROBY, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—Dewey Dupree, who has been confined in jail here for the last eight or nine months, charged with robbing the station agent at Rotan last fall, was released on bond today. This releases the last prisoner of the county jail, and empties it for the first time since last fall, with the exception of a few days when three prisoners made their getaway last spring by picking through the ceiling and cutting through the metal roof.

District court recessed Monday until Thursday and will convene Monday, Sept. 19, to try the Forrester murder case.

Cotton is opening a great deal more rapidly than farmers expected and there is a great demand for pickers in this county at present. More than 100 pickers could be used within three miles of Roby this week.

STYLE SHOW BEST EVER ATTEMPTED

ticular success of the bit of strategy in style-comparison, and was applauded again and again. The curtain rose on the single figure—a graceful, dignified young woman of the Civil war period or a little later, in a gown as handsome, of its period, as the handsomest costume ever shown for the girl of '21. The dress was in a dark, beautiful shade of wine, with a small, close-fitting plumed hat matching exquisitely. The model marched "with stately tread" backward and forward across the stage, showing the bustle silhouette, with the beautiful old-style skirt drapery, hem to the floor, long, almost wasp-waist, puffed sleeves and the various other details, absolutely true to type, of the "dress up" costume of half a century ago.

Completing the scene, the girl of the '70's took the back center stage and watched the girls of '21 come in. It is a matter of note that on one or two occasions she turned her back completely, once when the first tightest, shortest skirt flaunted in with very youthful grace and confidence; again when a string of beads across the shoulders seemed expected to do duty for the major portion of a bodice.

The new gowns were all beautiful, with a marked preference for the slightly or muchly bloused over-straight waist. One evening dress in salmon brocaded stuff with a sash of blue was perfect in color and line, and attracted much attention. Others were as handsome, with black a favorite, too. Strange shades of red and orange seemed rather to predominate, with beautiful contrasting colors. The hems, almost without exception, were uneven and in most cases the unevenness included both the skirt and overskirt. Application of marked ornament on the body of a dress—tufts of monkey fur all over a skirt, or large bead dangle ornaments, or similarly large self-trimming ornaments, was noticeable in many of the dresses. Others were absolutely and beautifully plain, relying only on the handsome materials and their soft, straight drapery for effectiveness.

The going-away and street toggery display left nothing to be desired in the way of simple and practical outfitting. The coat suits were handsome and less adorned than last year's, with only echoes of the splurge of embroidery and beading of the preceding fall. Browns and blues seemed first in the designer's favor, and all of the color tones were unusually pretty. Collars fastened up, and were of cloth of fur, with the preference fairly free on coat linings. The street clothes were very happily displayed in the street scene, where the first of the young men's toggery was displayed. The young men, however, must be disposed of as frankly as the society editor disposes of the groom—they were simply "among those present." They were appropriately dressed in—er, various things, and somebody had made them up for the footlights, which there weren't any. In all fairness, however, their toggery must have been the correct thing, for they were very enthusiastically greeted by the young women passers-by.

The going away and street dresses were adorned with dignified designs of beading and embroidery—handsome things, without the extra flourishes which characterized the abandon of last year's adornment. They were all built along straight lines; in fact, the very close, natural waistline had not more than half a dozen representatives in the whole display, and while these were all good-looking, the straighter, slimmer lines of the drooping and over-bloused waist seemed to get the main approval of the "ultimate consumers."

Evening Dresses, Too.

The evening dresses displayed the same trend as the wool dresses. They were characterized particularly by beauty of color and contrast, gracefulness of line and informality of hem—both as to length and horizontal consistency. There might be said to have been considerable less extremity in the decolletage than in several former years. Most of the gowns had perfectly modest and beautiful backs—in cloth—and the one or two which found the extreme in cut made up the deficiency with close bead drapery. Two or three of the favorite ruffle dresses were shown with little puffed bits on the shoulder or caught up for a sleeve, but the really handsomest and most graceful were the more simply designed. One particularly beautiful dress was of gray velvet, straight at the waistline, and with a drapery that seemed to have created itself. The sole ornamentation was of self-material. There was less of tulle and mist-cloth than formerly; most of the things were of satin, velvet or the heavier, more elegant materials. Silk net and tulle were use to some extent in overdrapery and to introduce the fetching unevenness of hem line—or lack of line.

There wasn't a dull moment throughout the whole display, in fact. The styles were shown through different vehicles of setting and idea, and reflected a credit on the style show managers and merchants which was a frank and delightful surprise to many who had come without more than ordinary expectations. There was continuous applause throughout the program, which lasted about an hour and a half.

The Program Specials.

The program specials, as has been stated, were exceptionally entertaining. Wichita Falls is fortunate in the matter of young artistic dancers, and these furnished the major part of the program. The first number, however, was of the tiny tots in the "Baby Bunting" chorus, with Master Robert Collier Jr. as the hunter. The babies were done up in white rabbit style and brought down the house when they hopped into the scene.

In the school days chorus Miss Allman scored a success with her song and chorus. She wore a garden costume of blue taffeta with a pale pink-crowned hat.

Little Miss Davis gave a lovely interpretation in the "Twilight Symphony," posing before six other dancers against a beautiful, softly lighted background of flowers. She danced with a freedom which confined itself with a gossamer thread to the music, and which presented such perfection of childlike grace that she was forced to repeat the whole dance.

Miss Leslie Davis, who trained all the dance numbers, gave a toe dance in the ball scene which was a thing of loveliness. She wore a ballet costume of pale yellow, and presented a number artistically perfect. It was a real treat; probably the prettiest amateur dancing that has ever been presented in the city.

The little girls in the balloon chorus made a most attractive number, with their airy, pretty colored playthings. Some charming child-talent of the city helped make the little dance a success.

Second Presentation Tonight.

Thursday night's exceptional success is already insuring its audience for Friday night's style show program. Tickets were being sold Friday morning and general comment downtown on the excellency of the entertainment was reaping its crop in interest. Everybody who saw the show was delighted.

WICHITA DELEGATION VISITS SEYMOUR FAIR

saw so many goats their own goat even got away with them. Somebody else had it. It took so long to give each one of the participants a chance at a goat that the baseball game that had been scheduled for the afternoon had to be called off.

Immediately after the goat roping contest, however, Ed Libertti, the daredevil performer on an aeroplane, gave the first of his daily exhibitions. His death defying stunts sent thousands of hearts to beating about 180 per. One of the most hazardous stunts that Libertti exhibited was standing erect on top of the plane while looping the loop. Manager Neil of the Wichita Aerial Service company flew over to Seymour late Thursday afternoon and assisted in preparing the airplane for the flight.

Thousands and thousands of people visited all the various departments during the day with their endless amount of exhibits. Keen interest among the agricultural people of the county, augmented through the efforts of County Agent G. C. McGowan and Home Demonstration Agent Miss Melia Balsey, was responsible largely for the large number of exhibits.

Cows, horses, mules, pigs, wild ducks, rabbits, chickens, pigeons, banta chickens, ducks, turkeys, colts and guineas are some of the livestock and fowls on exhibition.

The judges who award the ribbons and prizes are County Agents P. D. Chaney of Crowell, Guy Jones of Wilbarger county, and G. C. McGowen of Baylor county for the livestock and all other exhibits, with the exception of poultry, food preservation, textile and needle work and canned products, which will be judged by Home Demonstration Agents Melia Basley of Baylor county, Bess Edwards, district agent of home demonstration work, and Miss E. Goodfellow of Wilbarger county.

Prizes Are Awarded.

The judges began their tedious and difficult work of selecting winners lat. Thursday afternoon, and Friday morning made the following awards anl announcements:

Cooked: Mrs. B. J. Boyles.

Among the exhibits in the canned products department, the exhibit of Mrs. Tom A. Cox attracted the greatest attention. Mrs. Cox bids fair to excel even the famous and nation-wide known 57 varieties. Mrs. Cox had on exhibition 119 different varieties and every can looked so delicious that it tempted one to violate one of the Ten Commandments.

Mrs. Cox exercised the greatest care and patience at the time the products were canned. Not one of the cans on exhibition gave any evidence of haste and gave positive conclusions that each one of them required her closest attention. The contents of the cans were all piled in the can in order.

Even some of the cans had artistic designs made from packing the product in various kinds of positions and layers. Among the 119 varieties was a can of cooked chicken.

Although no prizes had been set aside for exhibits of art and painting, one of Knox county's daughters, Miss Sarah Myrick of Goree, placed on exhibition some of her paintings. The paintings, she stated, had been passed upon by a Chicago art critic and were valued at 98 per cent perfect. Among the paintings were those of "The Madonna," "The Old Mill" and "The Cowboy and Cowgirl."

Late Thursday evening Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, manager of the West Texas chamber of commerce; B. M. Whitaker of Haskell, exhibit manager, and Judge Tom Bledsoe of Abilene, field representative of the West Texas Fair association, arrived in the city and planned to remain in Seymour throughout the next two days of the annual county fair and rodeo.

Y. W. Board Finds Much Business to Attend to Friday

The executive board of the Young Women's Christian association held its first meeting Friday morning, and found much business to attend to.

The resignation of Mrs. C. J. Coyne, popular and successful director of the Y. W. cafeteria, was accepted with much regret, and the board began consideration of a new director. Mrs. Coyne leaves Oct. 1 for Seattle, Wash., to make her home.

The resignation of Mrs. J. W. Culbertson from the board on account of ill health was accepted in a modified form, and Mrs. Culbertson, who is chairman of the membership committee, was retained as an inactive member until her health permits her to resume the responsibility. Mrs. Everett Jones resigned as chairman of the finance committee, and Mrs. M. H. Adickes consented to serve until the October meeting in that capacity. Mrs. E. T. Duff was elected to membership on the board, and Miss Era Dawson, a local young business woman, was elected and asked to take the chairmanship of the Young Women's council. The council, which is to be formed within the board, will comprise a representative member of each of the employed and business girls' groups in the city, who will thus gain direct representation on the Y. W. board.

On request of the national field, the board voted to send the general-secretary of the local association and two other delegates to the field conference in Dallas the first week in November. Reports were read from the Travelers' Aid, Business and Employment and Service departments and approved.

A feature of the meeting was Miss Du Bose's detailed report of the Estes Park conference, which she attended during its two weeks' continuance. The board decided to request publication in the local papers of the full report.

Mrs. Hartsook presided at the Friday morning meeting in the absence of Mrs. W. W. Silk, president, and Mrs. E. M. Evans acted as secretary in the absence of Miss Pauline Richolt.

• • • •

Miss Margaret Du Bose came in Thursday noon from New York, where she spent the past month. She is at home at the William-Mary and took up her work as general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Thursday afternoon.

Miss Twenty will find herself charmingly outfitted for luncheon or tea at a formal restaurant, or informal dinner, in a crepe de chine frock, from whose girdle flutter casually slender panels of georgette. And if she be gay-eyed and dark, her coloring will be richer in its romantic Hindu red, a lighter relative of well-known henna.

The graceful sleeve should not be overlooked, nor the soft treatment given the neckline, both of which are finished with self-material.

This is also a lovely model for soft blue or gray, more becoming to lighter types, or for a combination of colors, such as a shimmery blue and green effect, and black with French blue or gold, more appropriate for the young matron.

Very wide sleeves in bright colors of georgette, plain or richly embroidered, are shown with black satin or crepe dresses in a number of the French designs. One particularly fascinating model of this type was a slip-in frock, with sleeves of oriental blue delicately embroidered in gold, with only a girdle of black jet cabochons.

PATTERN No. 260.

A pattern for the above model (No. 260) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36 or 38 by sending to Lenore, 8 West Fortieth street, New York City, your name, address and 50 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time.—The Editor.

NIGHT MILLINERY CLASSES START AT Y. W. SEPT. 26TH

The night millinery class for all business girls and women will open at the Young Women's Christian association rooms Monday evening, September 26, and those who expect to enroll are asked to make their registration with Miss Mann, business secretary at the "Y," next week.

The class will be in charge of Mrs. Mary Gross, who is giving her services to the association for the six weeks' term of the course. Mrs. Gross will supply material and shapes for work in the classes at a reduction to the business girls and women, and will have some on display at the Tuesday night opening meeting of the club next week.

The millinery class will meet Monday and Thursday nights.

It Doesn't Often Happen Though; the Kindergarteners Are Taught Pretty Manners Along with Paper Basket Making

Probably fewer kindergarten kiddies have to be sent home in such disgrace than regular primary children, because nice manners is one of the things the kindergarten teacher has in her bag of tricks—to be learned.

"What's the good of kindergarten?" somebody grumbles occasionally. (The grumbly sex, of course. Mother knows the good.) "I can't see that he's learning anything. Don't even know his letters."

Mainly, of course, because his letters isn't part of what the kindergarten teacher needs to teach, or Bobby to know. If she did teach 'em, Miss Blankety-Blank of the low first grade would be sending out a few pointed protests when Bobby reached her class next year, or at Christmas.

But what he does learn in kindergarten is just as fine and essential as letters; as readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic. He learns to live peaceably with other little folks; to be courteous to grown folks and little children; to be unselfish at play; to concentrate the wriggling of his baby hands on appointed tasks, or at appointed play; to work and play in harmony with other children, and to pick up and put away his play or work when he is through with them.

Clay modeling, working with colored tissue paper, sand bed modeling and building, working with blocks, spheres, beads and various other attractive and entertaining objects, is part of the kindergartener's morning, but the main sense of his stay with other children and a competent director is to learn as much of self-control, both mental and physical, as could reasonably be expected of his young years. Regular school teachers in the primary departments can pick the kindergarten-trained child out of a bunch every time, and when one primary teacher is handling from forty to seventy-six (actual figures for Wichita Falls) primary kiddies in one room, you may imagine with what thankfulness she recognizes the little ones who have learned to be a little bit quieter, more tractable, more respectful, more thoughtful, and more unselfish.

Wichita Falls has half a dozen too few kindergartens, and the ones it has are usually pretty well crowded by October. This year Miss Anne Belle Farquahar, who has taught for several sessions in the Floral Heights Baptist church, and whose phone number is 5153, has opened school; Miss Durham at 1105 Ninth, whose phone number is 2770, has opened school, and Mrs. B. B. Ross of Fifth street, whose phone number is 6366, has opened school.

YOUNG STYLE SHOW PERFORMERS

Master Robert Collier, Jr., snapped his deadly weapon a dozen or two times at the bunny-babies Thursday night, in a pretty scene at the opening of the style show. Little Miss Glory Davis did a solo dance which was one of the hits of the evening. Six girls formed a changing tableau background which was unusually pretty.

MAJORITY OF COMMISSION SUSTAINS THE MARSHAL

AUSTIN, Sept. 16.—Differences that have prevailed in the first state fire insurance commission between George W. Tilley, member, acting as fire marshal, and T. M. Scott, member in charge of rating, have reached a climax as a majority of the commission sustaining the attitude taken by Mr. Tilley in his efforts to have several new employes brought into the department, it was announced today.

The deciding vote was cast by Ed Hall, commissioner of insurance and banking, ex-officio chairman of the commission. The controversy between these two members has continued almost from the time that Mr. Tilley assumed his duties last January. Messrs. Hall and Tilley were appointed by Governor Neff, while Mr. Scott's term expires next February.

CONFESSION.

"I stumbled," Betty said to me, her round eyes sunny-sweet;
"I stumbled right down to the droun'; two, free folks laughed at me!"
And then she slipped a wriggly hand in mine, and danced ahead,
A bare knee dusty from the fall; a ruffle flying free.

"I stumbled"; Honey child, you did! And I have stumbled too,—
In judgment and in service; blundered past the golden doors
And tripped. But I would give a world if, when I saw the stone,
My lips could frame "I stumbled," fair and unashamed as yours.

TWO-DAY CELEBRATION MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE IS IN PROGRESS HERE

A two-day celebration of Mexican independence was started by several hundred local Mexicans in an open-air auditorium near the ball park Thursday night, appropriate speeches and several hours of dancing being the medium whereby the descendants of Aztec commemorated their liberation from Spanish rule.

Mexico was declared a free and independent country at 11 o'clock on the evening of Sept. 15, 1810, and at one hour before midnight the festivities of Thursday began. Patriotic speeches by Senorita Rebecca Navarro of this city, Senorita Anita Gutierra of San Angelo and C. L. Lemon of Wichita Falls were given, after which a stringed orchestra was tuned up and dancing enjoyed until 4 o'clock Friday morning.

Further speeches and songs by a chorus of Mexican girls is on the program for Saturday, followed by another dancing session scheduled to last until the early hours of Sunday.

GIRLS! WHITEN SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightfully lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—adv.

LOWER BRAZOS FLOOD NOT SO SERIOUS AS AT FIRST INDICATED

WACO, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—The body of Bailey Turner, prominent citizen of Rockdale, Texas, was found yesterday afternoon in the San Gabriel river near his farm. The bodies of two Mexicans were also found at the same place.

HOUSTON, Sept. 16.—As later reports from the lower Brazos river came in it becomes more evident that the flood in this section will not be as serious as earlier reports indicated. At Hempstead, where the flood waters had reached their crest Friday, 40.2 feet of water was reported, a rise of .2 foot during the last 24 hours.

At Rosenberg the river had risen 2.2 feet while Navasota reported that the water was falling, measuring 2.5 feet lower today than on Thursday.

The extremely dry bottoms along the lowlands are taking up a large quantity of the water as it moves toward the gulf and it is now thought that the damage will not be nearly so great as during the floods of 1915. At no point along the Brazos have the measurements been as high as in 1915. Ample warning of the approaching flood has enabled farmers to minimize the damage done.

HALF MILLION DOLLARS DAMAGE TO THE ROADS

AUSTIN, Sept. 16.—Approximately $500,000 damage was done to Williamson county roads and bridges as a result of the recent flood, according to estimates made by Leo Ehlinger, division engineer of the state highway commission. He reported, after a personal inspection, seventeen bridges and many small culverts were destroyed in Williamson county.

Engineer Ehlinger reported many bridges and culverts destroyed in Travis county, as well as numerous washouts. The improved highways, he said, were not seriously damaged, due to the hard surface and improved drainage. The unimproved roads suffered the greatest damage.

The resignation of Motorcycle Officer N. Davis was handed to Police Commissioner J. F. Fitts Thursday evening. Daves is returning to work at the Ball Brothers Glass factory. A number of applicants for the position vacated by Daves have been received, but no appointments made as yet.

HOHENZOLLERN FAMILY IS LEAVING GERMANY

Conditions In That Country Such As To Cause Them To Seek Shelter At Doorn

DOORN, Sept. 16.—The strong feeling against the ultra-conservatives in Germany which has manifested itself since the recent murder of Mathias Erzberger is believed here to be the cause of several members of the Hohenzollern family leaving Germany and coming to Doorn, where they are expected to remain with former Emperor William until they consider that conditions in Germany are favorable for their return. The ex-emperor's daughter, formerly Princess Victoria Louise, now the Duchess of Brunswick, accompanied by the duke and their children, arrived here yesterday. With them also was former Prince Adalbert, third son of the ex-emperor. Former Princes Eitel Fiedrich and Oscar are expected here shortly, it is understood.

New York Judge Closes the Season On the Straw Lid

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The open season on straw hats was closed abruptly today by Magistrate McQuaide. If his warnings have effect, New Yorkers may wear them even until Christmas, immune from destruction. He announced that hereafter any smashers of straw headgear would be given the extreme penalty for felonious assault or larceny and sent to the workhouse. As a warning one young man who kicked a hat around was fined $5.

APPROVE THE CHOICE OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—The assembly and council of the league of nations today approved the choice by the joint conference committee of the two bodies of Judge F. V. N. Beichmann of Norway as the fourth deputy judge of the permanent international court of justice.

The resolution recently proposed by Lord Robert Cecil, asking the council to give greater publicity to its proceedings was adopted by the assembly.

HARVEY W. CHURCH PLAYED LONE HAND IN DOUBLE MURDER

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—That Harvey W. Church played a lone hand in the murders of Bernard J. Daugherty, automobile salesman, and Carl A. Ausmus, demonstrator, was the assertion today of Edgar A. Jones, assistant state's attorney.

Church at first confessed he killed the two men and disposed of their bodies, but later implicated Leon Parks, Clarence Wilder and others. Parks later made a confession. Investigators for the state's attorney now believe Parks' confession was a fake and that Wilder is not involved.

Other officials were inclined to the view that Church, Parks and an unknown "third man" were involved in the murders. A search was being made today by those inclined to this theory for the "third man."

The police announced today that a search was being made for Gust Bernario, proprietor of a garage where Church was formerly employed, to learn what he knows of the case. Bernario, it was said, is missing.

RICE CROP ESTIMATED AT 32,700,000 BUSHELS

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Sept. 16.—The condition of rice for the United States on September 1 was 83.8 per cent of normal and the probable yield will be 37.8 bushels an acre, a production of approximately 32,700,000 bushels, according to a report today by the division of crop estimates bureau of markets and crop estimates here.

CONDITION OF SENATOR WILLIAMS NOT SERIOUS

NASHVILLE, TENN., Sept. 16.—Reports from Monteagle indicate that Senator John Sharp Williams, who last night cancelled an engagement to speak here, today was suffering from temporary indisposition and his condition was not causing alarm to his friends there.

SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS MADE IN DEVELOPMENT OF THE NATIONAL GUARD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Substantial progress is being made by the army general staff, acting in co-operation with the state's executives, in developing the national guard along lines of the new organic law designed by congress to make that body the first reinforcement of the regular army in time of war. The department, up to September 1, has reorganized and given federal recognition to national guard units aggregating 124,000 men, an increase of 46,000, approximately, since January 1.

The national guard divisional units, or their substitute unit which participated in the war, has been reconstituted and three additional divisions have been organized.

The basic plan for reorganizing the guard, adopted by the general staff, provides for the creation of 18 divisions and a small proportion of corps and army troops so that when combined with the regular army both will be able to furnish on mobilization essential combat elements of three field armies.

The organization of these 18 divisions was reported recently as averaging 66 per cent of completion. The old 27th was nearest the top with 92 per cent and the 36th was the most backward in reorganizing its units with 23 per cent.

While the procuring of national guard officers is left largely in the hands of the states in peace times, the war department keeps a check on commissioned personnel. In the last six months 1,566 officers have been given federal recognition, bringing the total to 6,128.

JEWS ARE TO ENCOURAGE LIMITATION OF ARMAMENT

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 16.—American rabbis are called upon in a letter made public today to Dr E. N. Calisch, president of the central conference of American rabbis, to arrange a special service on or about November 11, Armistice day, at which the attention of American Jewry shall be directed to the armament conference.

Rabbis also are requested to preach on the subject of limitation of armament on one of the holy days, preferably Atonement day.

THE TRANSFORMATION SINCE HENRY GRADY'S TIME.

Henry Grady was one of the South's greatest patriots. He was one of the nation's greatest journalists. Not long after the war between the states he wrote a few lines about the burial of a Confederate soldier which have been quoted thousands of times. His lines were intended to show how the South was neglecting its opportunity of developing its natural resources. Describing the funeral of a veteran he said:

"They buried him in the midst of a marble quarry—they cut through solid marble to make his grave, and yet a little tombstone they put over him was from Vermont. They buried him in the heart of a pine forest, and yet the pine coffin was imported from Cincinnati. They buried him in touch of an iron mine, and yet the nails in his coffin and the iron in the shovel were imported from Pittsburgh. They buried him by the side of the best sheep grazing country on earth, and yet the wool in the coffin bands themselves were brought from the north. The South didn't furnish a thing on earth for that funeral but the corpse and the hole in the ground. There they put him away and the clods rattled down on his coffin, and they buried him in a New York coat and a Boston pair of shoes, and a pair of breeches from Chicago, and a shirt from Cincinnati, leaving him nothing to carry into the next world with him to remind him of the country in which he lived, and for which he fought for four years, but the chill of blood in his veins and the marrow in his bones."

But there has been a wonderful change since Henry Grady's day. A few days ago another southern journalist, George F. Milton, editor of the Chattanooga News, in addressing the Kiwanis and Civitan clubs of that city, told some of the changes that had come since Henry Grady's time.

"If Henry Grady's old hero had lived until today," he said, "he would be buried in a Chattanooga coffin, covered with Chattanooga woolen cloth, in a Chattanooga concrete vault, and over his grave would be erected a monument of Tennessee marble. He would be buried in Chattanooga clothes and underclothes, and with shoes on his feet whose leather was tanned in a Chattanooga tannery. There has been a complete transformation in the south. Chattanooga now takes rank as first among American cities in the manufacture of well-drilling machinery, second in the manufacture of hosiery and the mercerizing of cotton yarns, second in the manufacture of boilers, second in plows, third in oil refining, fourth in sugar mill machinery, first in the south in the manufacture of enameled ware and sawmill machinery, and a leader in soil pipe, cas iron pipe, iron castings, plumbing supplies, ferro silicon, iron and steel products, coke and its by-products, furniture and iron beds, refrigerators, chairs, paper and wooden boxes, cement, paint, building material, wheelbarrows, roofing, tanned leather, saddles and harness, packing house products, candies, flour, meal, woolen goods, glass bottling, soft drinks, proprietary medicines, bleaching, armatures and electric appliances and other industries and interests too numerous to mention."

Chattanooga, perhaps, can show a larger list of manufactured products than most other southern cities but everywhere throughout the south men are developing the natural resources of their communities and manufacturing is becoming an important industry. We wish that Henry Grady could have lived to have seen it and that his Confederate might even in death have been surrounded by habiliments that could be associated with his beloved Southland.

OLDEST MAN.

I am 183 years old, says Uncle John Shell, celebrating his birthday in a log cabin on Greasy Creek, Ky.

The census-taker in 1860 recorded Uncle John's age as 37. That would make him 98 years old now instead of "the oldest man in the world."

But Joh insists there was an error in that early enumeration. He says he was born in 1788.

A similar case was Noah Raby, who died in a New Jersey poorhouse several years ago. Raby claimed to be 137 yars old. Afer his death, the census bureau investigated an' found that he was less than 100.

Your comment probably is, "I guess these stories about men living much beyond a century are hokum."

Not always!

Henry Jenkins of Yorkshire, England, lived to 169 years. The king had his age investigated, became convinced that Henry was telling the truth, and had the old man come and live at the palace. The change killed him.

Thomas Parr of Shropshire, England, married first when he was 88, had two children, and died when he was 152. His grandson lived to 122, his great-grandson to 142.

Ireland in 1612 buried Countess of Desmond, aged 145.

Hungarian history records Peter Torton, peasant, who was 185 years old when he died in 1724. John Rovin, another Hungarian peasant, lived to be 172, his wife 164.

The oldest man in all history, whose age has been authenticated with reasonable conviction, was Numas de Cugna, native of Bengal, India, who died in 1556 at the age of 370. He was famous, all through the Orient. Arabs considered him the eighth wonder of the world.

How can you live to be more than 100?

In the Berkshires, near the Connecticut line, there's a wood-chopper named Joseph Gillette. He is in his 100th year, chops wood 10 hours a day, six days a week—and says hard work is what made him live so long.

Most exceptionally old men have the same notion.

But the real reason for their unusual age probably is that mysterious nature gives them an excess of the powerful current that drives the motors of the body.

Work, however, does prolong the average life. Many retired business men die before their time, from the rust of inaction.

More than 200 years ago, Arnauld, the great Frenchman, was urged to retire by his friend Nicolle.

"What for?" asked Arnauld.

"You are old. It is time to rest."

"Rest!" snorted Arnauld. "I have all eternity to rest in."

Afghans rarely see their brides before the wedding; Americans see them rarely afterwards.

The poet who called these days "melancholy" was thinking of the September income tax.

To the straw lid: "So long, old top. See you next year."

WICHITA FALLS SAYS HOWDY TO SEYMOUR.

A delegation of Wichita Falls people have gone to Seymour today to carry to the people of Seymour and of Baylor county a message of friendship and good will and to enjoy the attractions of the Baylor county fair. Wichita Falls wants the friendship of every community within a radium of many miles. Trips like that today to the Baylor county fair will help the two communities to become better acquainted and we hope the Baylorites will like the Wichitans as well as the Wichitans are certain to like the Baylorites. And maybe the Wichitans can bring home some ideas about a fair that will be useful when Wichita Falls gets up enough interest to have a fair of its own.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

DR. JOHNSTON MYERS.

In Chicago there is a church at Michigan avenue and 23rd street that is one of the most remarkable institutions in America.

Many years ago it stood in the midst of a most fashionable residence district. Today business concerns hug it on all sides. Other churches near it have long ago been torn down to give way to the march of money. But not this one.

Why?

Because this one had a job to do—one too big to finish quickly. But more especially because Dr. Johnston Myers, the minister presiding over it, is a man of far-reaching vision—a man whose first concern has always been for human beings and their happiness in the world. Thousands of men and women now scattered over the earth owe to this man the inspiration back of their success and their faith.

Had Dr. Johnston Myers chose to enter business he would have been one of the business giants of today. As it is he is one of the great men of this age for what he has done to make religion a practical affair as well as a beautiful thing to live by and die in.

His church is never closed during the day. There is a free library and rest room for any who may wish to come to it. There is a free employment office for both men and women. There is a doctor and nurses for the sick. And daily the hungry may come for food—and it is free. Simple and plain, but it has stood many a one until the job could be secured.

But the big and impressive thing about the whole institution is the man behind it—Dr. Myers himself.

He is the embodiment of sympathy, common sense, and rare understanding of human nature. He is frank and direct. And so simple and eloquent is his message from week to week that his church is always filled with those who come to listen and who go away with renewed faith. As was once said of Henry Ward Beecher, "he preaches Christ." No wonder that after a quarter of a century in this same church he stands stronger than ever as a moral force in his city and the world.

When the writer of this talk went to the big city of Chicago, 20 years ago, it was this preacher who gave him the first encouragement. "This is what he said: "George, we believe in you!"

That is it, he believes in people.

And so large multitudes listen to him gladly, believe what he tells them of God, of the Now and the Hereafter—and leave his presence to live better and more useful lives.

JUST FOLKS —By— Edgar A. Guest

THE REASON.

His collar is immaculate, his clothes are neatly pressed,
His tailor keeps the wrinkle smoothed forever from his vest;
Upon his trousers little feet have never left a track,
And it is plain no little boy has ridden on his back.

He never has been sprawled upon or climbed upon for fun,
He's never rolled upon the floor as I so oft have done;
His raiment's always spick and span, so very straight he stands,
He keeps his linen out of reach of dirty little hands.

"Behold," the women say to me, "how fine he always looks!
He's like the picture of the men you see in fashion books;
Why can't you be more orderly, and keep yourself in trim?"
But he, he has no little child to sprawl all over him.

No little hands demand his watch and snatch it from its place,
Upon his clothing little feet have never left a trace;
My garb is always disarrayed, while his is fair to see
But he has neither boy nor girl to clamber on his knee.

CURRENT COMMENT

Charlie, World Benefactor, Gets His Due.

(Kansas City Star.)

Charlie Chaplin has been received in England with demonstrations of popular interest, good will and affection probably exceeding anything ever witnessed in connection with a private individual. Charlie is not exactly a private individual, either, but then he is not royalty, he is not a general or field marshal hung with crosses, he is not a statesman commanding the applause of listening senates and worlds.

Yet ever since Charli started on his trip to England he has been the object of unbounded interest in that island. Wireless messages flashed his doings from shipboard to a waiting populace, and when he reached London throngs blocked the streets to welcome him. The police reserves had to be called out to escort him to his hotel, where he was carried on the shoulders of his admirers. Charlie was overcome by his emotions and wept, real tears this time.

Here we may be sure was a genuine demonstration of popular feeling, something we cannot always be certain of when the crowd speaks. Popular heroes of the ordinary run are as a rule but the heroes of a faction. Their own partisans cheer and laud them, but the other side holds aloof. It will sometimes look on, but refuses to commit itself. But Charlie carries all before him. No counter demonstration mars his triumph. Even the critics who say he isn't funny do not feel called upon to start any anti-Chaplin movements. They admit he goes over big with the vast majority of humans, children and grownups, and only an embittered nature would raise a voice of dissent in the hour of his glory.

Humor is the great human bond that binds the race. Charlie has dedicated his life and talents to making his fellow creatures laugh. They ought to love him, and do. Those who don't laugh at him, and at nothing, ought to be glad the rest of the world does, for without laughter it would be a risky world to live in, especially for those who have the best things in it. We wonder if that isn't one thing that it the matter with Russia—there is too little laughter there. Charlie, we hear, is going to visit that country while he is abroad. An excellent idea. If he can make the Russians laugh again at something more humorous than the sight of people being shot there is hope for that grim people. England needs to laugh, too. Life has been dangerously serious there of late. There is depression and strife and bitterness, class feeling and social resentments. We don't know when we have heard of crowds gathering in London full of fun. They have been gathering to hoot, to threaten and even to destroy. Not long ago the authorities barricaded Downing street and stationed soldiers to keep the crowds away from the premier's residence when the ministers were meeting. These are bad signs. But look at the instant change when Charlie appeared. The crowds that gathered then were harmless, for they laughed and were full of jokes and banter. They cried, "Hullo Charlie," and made humorous references to pies. They wanted to know where his cane and funny hat were. No danger to state and society in crowds like those.

Witnessing these things everybody ought to be for Charlie. He's helping world reconstruction along. He's making us forget the unpleasant things that the war loosed on us. That's more than some of the statesmen have done who are not the least bit funny. You don't see them getting receptions like Charlie's do you?

THE HISTORY OF YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN

BOWYER.

Variations—Boyer, Bower, Bowerman.
Racial Origin—English.
Source—An occupation, also a location.

In the family names of Bowyer and Boyer we have another relic of an industry or occupation now obsolete, but one of the most important in England. In some cases the name of Bower is from the same source, and in others it is not.

The industry or trade referred to is that of making bows. The bow was the all-powerful weapon of mediaeval England's yeomanry, and was responsible for many a victory of the English arms over the standards of France in the wars which marked the late middle ages.

The archers of old England, with their six-foot bows and their three-foot arrows, have been rivaled in the skill, distance and dealiness of their aim by only one race, the American Indians. The cross-bows of the French, the Italians and other European races were, perhaps, more destructive at close range, but the iron bolts they shot did not carry so far as the light, keen, truly feathered arrow of the English.

In the old English records we find entries of such names as "Adam le Boghiere," "William le Boghyere," "John le Bower," "Roger le Bowyer" and "George le Boyer."

When the names of Bower and Bowerman do not come from the bower's craft, they are traced to the earlier form of "de la Bore" or "atte Bore" ("of the bower" and "at the bower") respectively. This word originally meant a rustic dwelling place. Two of our modern words coming from it denote the very opposite characteristics of the country side. A "bower" to us has the meaning of a beautiful rustic spot or pavilion, while we heap contempt into the word "boor" as applied to a person of lowly and uncouth manners.

Some like to go up and down suddin
And some like to go gentle as a rose, and quick
But watever your likes and dislikes are,
You haff to go like the elevator goes.

4
All you haff to do is push the bell
And stand down there by the gate,
And if it comes rite down you step rite in
And if it dont you jest stay there and wate.

The elevator man has a uniform
Wile plane passengers have none,
Thus everybody can tell he's the elevator man
And not somebody jest riding for fun.

6
O Id like to be a elevator man
Getting free rides for nuthing all day,
If I dident think it mite get monotoniss
Doing it so continuous that way.

YOU AND I

See Six Million Hunters as Proof Killing Instinct Will Die Hard.

Hunting is on the increase as an outdoor sport. More than 6,000,000 Americans seek prey with a gun, yearly, says the department of agriculture.

The department attributes the hunting craze to "the growing congestion of population and the unrest which such massing produces." It adds that the hunters "develop their resourcefulness and maintain a physical and mental health which is of the utmost value in relation to their civic usefulness."

That's open to argument.

That 6,000,000 Americans use shotgun and rifle, shows that man has a long way to go before he gets the killing instinct out of his blood. Disarmament is not going to be easy to attain.

MEOUW!

Three thousand homeless cats, left in Atlantic City by cottagers, are driving the town wild. The trouble may be multiplied ere 1922.

What kind of a human brute is it, that will cuddle a cat and google over it all summer, then abandon it to starve?

To find out, go to a theater, see a spectator weep as a stage newsboy shivers amid paper snow, then walk out on the street and give never a glance at a ragged kiddie in need of a pair of shoes.

JOBS.

A Chicago mass meeting takes steps to use $100,000,000 of state and municipal bonds to provide work for unemployed.

The resurrected War Finance corporation is on the eve of releasing $1,000,000,000 for agricultural and livestock credits, mostly to finance exports.

No trouble finding money for railroads or European buyers.

It's high time the unemployed had an inning at this financing game. Country needs billions of dollars worth of roads, canals, buildings, etc. That'd provide jobs. Start the financing.

COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL

NEEDLESS SICKNESS

By DR. WM. E. BARTON.

There is an enormous loss to the community on account of sickness. Some of that sickness is inevitable. Some of it is incurable. All of us who do not die violent deaths will sometim be incurably sick.

But a vase amount of sickness which men and women suffer is needless. The more we know about the structure of the human body, he more do we realize that nature is on the side of health. She loads the dice heavily in favor of normality. But we give her a hard run for her money, and sometimes we leave her bankrupt.

I am not a physician, neither am I an advocate of any of the popular forms of mental healing. But I know that multitudes of people who mope and drag through life might pick up their feet and march to music if they had just music in their minds and resolution in their wills.

Courage and hope are health producers. Love and joy are worth tons of medicine. Grief and fear destroy what we have learned to call morale.

Try it at the next meal you eat. Keep up a cheerful conversation. Be genuinely interested in those who sit with you. Do not talk shop. Be companionable. You will rise from your dinner with good digestion.

Then just once try being glum or angry. Do not try it more than once. I have been told, and I am inclined to believe it, that anger or fear produces in the gastric juice a poison which is chemically akin to the venom of snakes.

Ev unrighteous emotion or purpose is bad for the health. Every courageous act or heroic resolution is good for the health. There is therapeutic value in a smile. There is power in the affirmative will. You can be as well as you feel.

IRISH QUESTION IS FURTHER DELAYED

valued at high in the millions. Warfare is the last thing either side desires and no effort apparently will be spared to prevent any overt act that will place on either the responsibility for resuming hostilities.

Just what the sinn fein would do was seemingly a difficult question today. Two points made by Mr. de Valera in his note to Lloyd George were examined by those trying to determine what plan the republicans had in mind. The first was the statement:

"Our nation has formally declared its independence and recognizes itself a sovereign state, and it is only as representative of that state and its chosen guardians that we have authority and powers to act in behalf of our people."

It was suggested that the dail eireann might intend to go to the Irish people with the question and seek to determine by a plebiscite what the desires of the people are. The result of a plebiscite would, it was pointed out, either confirm the stand made by the republican leaders or would give them a mandate to waive the demand for separation and enter a conference with the British government. There has been a strong party in Ireland that has been urging an election to determine the steps taken, there being a number of men in the councils of the sinn fein who have believed it would provide a means for accepting the British government's offer of dominion status.

The other sentence which attracted attention was the one referring apparently to the separation of Ulster and southern Ireland and it was considered possible that new efforts would be made to approach the Ulster government with a view to reaching a working agreement and then approaching the British government once more.

The Belfast correspondent of the Press association says the Irish News of that city prints a message from a well-informed Dublin source to the effect that the government contemplates an early reassembly of the British parliament. Steps would be taken, it is said, to declare a general election so a new government might be formed which would be invested with the right to formulate domestic policies and appoint delegates to the conference on limitation of armaments to be held in Washington.

"In this event," the correspondent adds, "the masses of the Irish people may get an opportunity of giving a considered verdict on issues most vitally affecting their own country."

PHYSICIAN IS CALLED TO ATTEND LLOYD GEORGE

INVERNESS, SCOTLAND, Sept. 16.—Lord Dawson, physician extraordinary to King George, has been asked to attend Lloyd George, the prime minister, who is suffering from a chill and neuralgia at Gairloch, it was learned this forenoon. A dentist has also been summoned.

It was announced at the premier's official residence in Downing street Thursday night that he was suffering from a chill and that it would be necessary for him to remain indoors for a few days.

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE IS BLAMED FOR CANCELLATION

DUBLIN, Sept. 16.—Premier Lloyd George is blamed by the Freeman's Journal for the cancellation of the proposed Inverness conference.

"Mr. Lloyd George," the newspaper declares, "made an extravagant misconstruction in cancelling the conference on the ground to confer on Mr. de Valera's note would be to recognize Ireland as an independent republic free to disassociate herself from the empire. It should be remembered that Ireland, many years ago, was a sovereign state within the empire, and reclaiming that sovereignty, does not necessarily imply disassociation and severance.

"The British and Irish people will refuse to accept this as the end of the efforts toward peace. Letter writing has continued too long. The negotiators long ago should have met at the conference table and got busy framing the peace terms instead of discussing theoretical objections to such a meeting. It is not yet too late for the adoption of such a course."

CALLS F "BREAK DOWN" IN IRISH NEGOTIATIONS

LONDON, Sept. 16.—In an editorial discussing the Irish situation, the Manchester Guardian says the important thing to recognize is that a "break down" and not a break off has occurred in the Irish negotiations. The newspaper expressed regret that Prime Minister Lloyd George adopted a "venerable formula" and did not put "the most favorable construction" on Mr. de Valera's words.

"The sinn fein position was stated without its acceptance being asked," the newspaper asserts, "but that need not have been taken as a bar to the conference. It is impossible for the moment to admit a claim which would compel the treatment of Irishmen as aliens, but the conference would be for a much more practical purpose—to discover whether we can reconcile the fullest demands of practical liberty for Ireland with the status of a British dominion, closely examined and clearly defined. It would be lamentable if on a point of form and not of substance, the opportunity for an agreement should be lost."

DOES NOT BELIEVE NOTE WILL END NEGOTIATIONS

CORK, IRELAND, Sept. 16.—In commenting on the latest exchange of notes between Prime Minister Lloyd George and sinn fein leaders, the Cork Examiner emphatically refuses to believe the deadlock is the last phase of the negotiations, which every sane person in both countries hoped would end in agreement.

"The masses of both countries," the newspaper adds, "want peace, and the only practical means of reaching a satisfactory understanding is by direct conference. There has been enough of notes and of counter-notes. Let plenipotentiaries of England and Ireland meet with absolutely open minds and wihout any conditions whatsover. This is probably what will eventually happen. Neither would be prejudiced in such a conference and with good will a settlement should be reached."

SIX NORTHERN COUNTIES ARE NOT AFFECTED SAYS CRAIG

BELFAST, Sept. 16. — Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, commenting on the hitch in the Irish peace negotiations, declared today his belief that the question at issue did not affect the six northern counties, but were matters for adjustment between the government and the representatives of southern Ireland.

Of the other political leaders here, a number pointed to the latest turn in events as confirming the Ulster contention that the republican leaders would prove implacable.

Of the newspapers, the Northern Whig, in its comment, took a similar view.

"Prime Minister Lloyd George," the newspaper says, "at least is alive to th futility of endeavoring to conciliate the sinn fein leaders, and the only course open to the government, if it is sincere in its expressed desire to maintain the essential unity of the realm, is immediately to take adequate measures to break the treasonable tyranny which has three-fourths of Ireland in its grip. The conciliating and temporizing policy of the past two years, for which a heavy price has been paid, must end."

The Belfast News-Letter says:

"Mr. de Valera's reply was more than a refusal of the government's conditions. It was an ultimatum and Mr. Lloyd George treated it as such. The only way out of the deadlock is to surrender the claim of independence for Ireland. The sinn fein is now at the parting of the ways, for good or evil to Ireland. The only hope for good lies in abandonment of the impossible."

WILL TRY FATTY ON CHARGE OF MURDER

He said there were a number of people at the party whose names had not been mentioned, some from Los Angeles of considerable prominence. He said he would like to tell all about it and give the full details of the party and all the names at the trial.

This was the first statement made by Arbuckle for publication since his arrest. He said he could not understand why the newspapers printed so much about the case and anxiously inquired what public sentiment was. Explaining the ordered reservation, he said his attorneys were arranging his release.

Lowell Sherman, motion picture actor, guest at the Arbuckle hotel party in San Francisco Labor Day, was released from a contract with a large motion picture production company here, it was announced today.

PLAN FOR TRIAL OF CASE IN NEXT THREE WEEKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle will go on trial on a charge in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe within the next three weeks, District Attorney Matthew Brady announced last night.

"I am going ahead with the prosecution of this case with all the speed possible," he said. "I expect to be ready for trial in about three weeks and I believe the defense will be too."

He declared he had several reasons for making no decision at a conference with his deputies and police officials today as to whether to try the film star on a charge of murder or manslaughter. "We think we have sufficient evidence to convict Arbuckle of murder," he said, "but that is up to the committing magistrate."

Arbuckle was to be arraigned before Police Judge Sylvain Lazarus today for preliminary examination on a charge of murder preferred by Mrs. M. B. Delmont.

Attorneys for the film star yesterday deposited $5,000 cash bail to cover the manslaughter charge and should District Attorney Brady announce his decision to prosecute on that charg alone and dismiss the murder charge, Arbuckle would be eligible for bail.

Should decision be made to prosecute for murder, Arbuckle would be forced to remain in jail unless his counsel could arrange for bail on this charge. Under California law first degree murder is not a bailable offense.

Federal investigation into the source of the liquor alleged to have been consumed at the Arbuckle party in a hotel suite here, at which Miss Rappe is said to have suffered injuries which led to her death, has been carried to Los Angeles.

Robert Camarillo, assistant United States district attorney, declared in Los Angeles that several persons had made statements to him which would show that Arbuckle transported 20 quarts of whiskey in his automobile when he motored to San Francisco to stage his party. It was also learned, Camarillo said, that a case of gin and other liquor was delivered to the Arbuckle rooms at the San Francisco hotel.

The automobile in which Arbuckle is said to have carried the liquor from Los Angeles to San Francisco is declared to be worth $25,000. Officials point out that should it be proved Arbuckle transported liquor in the machine, it could be confiscated by federal authorities under the terms of the Volstead act.

The body of Miss Virginia Rappe, according to announcement, will be sent to Hollywood, Calif., probably late today.

Witnesses in the Arbuckle case are being watched and guarded by police to prevent their possible intimidation. Police officials stated this step was taken in some cases at the request of witnesses themselves.

Arbuckle yesterday received 26 telegrams and 101 letters sent to him in care of the city jail. Arbuckle spends his time in his cell reading his mail, telegrams and magazines, according to prison attendants. He avoids reading newspapers, they said.

TWO HOUSTON POLICEMEN ARE INJURED IN ACCIDENT

GALVESTON, Sept. 16.—Two members of the Houston police force were slightly injured this afternoon when the automobile in which they were driving was overturned after having struck the cart of a vegetable peddler. The accident occurred on Twenty-Fifth street just south of Broadway. The officers are N. G. Dunlap and G. A. Daniels.

The Houston officers were in Galveston to participate in a celebration being staged today by the Galveston department as a result of the establishment of the eight-hour working day.

CHARGE FILIPINO SAILOR WITH MURDER OF THREE

GALVESTON, Sept. 16.—The third death resulting from a knife fight which occurred Tuesday night on board the Japanese steamer Orzan Maru as it arrived in port occurred today. Chigchi Shozugki was the third victim of the fight and died in a local hospital. A Filipino sailor is charged with murder in all three cases.

PUBLIC IS URGED TO HEED NATURE'S WARNING

Thousands of People Suffer Permanent Loss of Health Because of Neglect—Nature Has Set the Danger Signals for Us and We Cannot Afford to Pass Unnoticed the Warning That She Gives Us.

Good digestion means good health; bad digestion means bad health.

A sound stomach is worth a hundred times its weight in gold. Probably eighty per cent of all diseases originate in the digestive organs. Dyspepsia, or what is more commonly known as indigestion is not only one of the most prevalent, but it is one of the most difficult to treat of all present day diseases, and has for years baffled the skill of the leading specialists everywhere.

Stomach trouble is almost always followed by a complication of diseases. One of the first being an overworked liver, with all the symptoms of biliousness, followed in turn with headaches, coated tongue, nausea, dizzy spells, pain in the back, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms. Sooner or later the kidneys will become involved and that is just why these danger signals should be heeded in time. A wise man puts out the fire before there is too much destruction; the same theory should apply to stomach trouble

Gas in the stomach means fermentation instead of digestion; decay, instead of nutrition for fermentation produces poisons which are absorbed by the blood, and which frequently bring on the condition known as autointoxication or self-poisoning. This is also why we develop acidosis, which brings on so many complications such as rheumatism, hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and other conditions, which may mean permanent loss of health. Acidosis is one of the main forerunners of Bright's disease and diabetes, hence it is evident that if we have stomach trouble, however slight, we are foolish indeed if we do not take prompt steps to correct it

If we are not fit as a fiddle in the morning; if we don't feel better than when we went to bed; if our breath is offensive; and we have that bad taste in the mouth; nature has set the danger signals for us and we cannot afford to neglect the warning that she gives us. That is just why the demand for Tanlac, the great Stomachic, Systemic and Reconstructive tonic has broken all World's records. The American people have learned that it probably provides the surest, safest, and quickest remedy for all such troubles, and millions upon millions have taken it with the most astonishing and gratifying results.

Tens of thousands of men and women of all ages and in all walks of life afflicted with stomach, liver and kidney disorders, some of them of long standing, as well as thousands of weak, thin, nervous men and women apparently on the verge of collapse have testified publicly that they have been fully restored to their normal health, strength and weight by its use. Still others who seemed fairly well, yet who suffered with indigestion, headaches, shortness of breath, coated tongues, foulness of breath, constipation, bad complexion, loss of appetite, sleeplessness at night and terribly dejected, depressed feelings state that they have been entirely relieved of these distressing symptoms and restored to health and happiness by Tanlac.

NOTE: Tanlac Vegetable Pills are an essential and vitally important part of the Tanlac treatment wherever constipation is present.

You cannot hope to get satisfactory results from the Tanlac Treatment without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. It stands to reason that no treatment can do the greatest amount of good when you are suffering from constipation or biliousness, or when your system is clogged up with waste products and poisons.

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store, in Electra by Tarleton Drug Store, West End Drug Co., Burkburnett, and by all leading druggists. (Adv.)

Cats Hand Spudders Farewell Contest of Season by 5-4 Count

By PAUL W. LARKIN.

Those champion Cats proved conclusively yesterday that they like our fair city and want to be sure of a warm welcome when they return in 1922. They kept the fans uneasy for nine frames and then handed the Spudders a perfectly good game by the count of 5 to 4. Yes, they handed it to them, and handed it in more ways than one. In the first place, Topper Rigney uncorked a clubhouse heave with a couple of men on the sacks in the final chapter and allowed the tying run to come over. In the next place, Jakey Atz, either with malice aforethought or through a pure skull, allowed the winning run to cross.

The circumstances were as follows: Frank Kitchens was perched on second base by virtue of his pinch hit and a single by "Smiley" Bischoff, the latter naturally holding down a berth on the first corner. One man was away and George Knadler was at the plate. He cracked a bounder to Topper and the latter threw it beyond Kraft's reach (which is a feat in itself). According to ground rules, the runners were permitted to take two bases on the wild toss. That would put Kitch over the dish with "Smiley" on third and George on second. But "Smiley" kept his head up and never stopped until he reached the plate while the Panthers, thinking the contest had ended, lit out for the bench. That's all there was to it. They thought the game was over, but it wasn't. However, it made no difference as long as they didn't protest it. The umpires knew it, but the Cats didn't and it was not the arbiters' place to call their attention to it. Yea, bo, the fans had to wait until the last game of the season to see the prize bone of the season pulled.

Presentation to Bescher.

Just before Umpire Paul Sentell sent the teams away on their nine-inning journey, Representative B. F. Johnson appeared at home with Dave Paul's silver bat and ball which he presented to Bob Bescher as being the choice of the fans as the most valuable Spudder. He made a very appropriate and brief address in which he gave just praise to each and every Salmite and incidentally told the Panthers that the local fans were with them to a man in the Dixie series. Bob was given quite an ovation as he took the gift, but refused to make a speech.

Tiny Goodbred was the choice of Atz and it seemed that the big comedian-hurler would be able to get away with the assignment when his comrades game him a three-run working margin by the middle of the sixth, but he got into a peck of trouble before the matinee was over and one of those comrades of his finally kicked it away for him.

Rabbit Darrough was Skipper Salm's first nomination, but he gave way to Knadler at the opening of the seventh. The diminutive Spudder hurled a most acceptable game while on the hill, but his mates didn't accord him the best support possible and Walter evidently figured that a change would result favorably. The Cats subsided after Knadler went to work and, though his mates would have kicked the game away behind him, he wouldn't let them.

Homers by Clark and Coombs.

Cecil Coombs dented the atmosphere once again with a round-trip ticket over the left field barrier and Danny Clark kicked in with a like blow in the same spot. Coombs' blow might pass with bare mention, but Danny's is worthy of note in that it was the first one that he has parked over the dead left field fence this year. It's mere pastime for Danny to clout one over the right field wall, but it's a feat for him to sock one out via left field. Incidentally, it was his 21st of the current season.

The Panthers moved into action without waste of time. They scored once before the fans were comfortably settled in their seats. Coombs had fanned before Sears bounced a double off the left field fence. Stellbauer popped to McDonald. Kraft hit one to left center that Griggs made a noble effort to snare, but he barely got his hands on it and Clarence received credit for a double, Sears scoring. Hoffman popped to Tanner for the last out.

The home boys evened it up in their portion of the frame, and with a pinch hit or two would have passed the invaders. Josefson poked a hit between Haley and Rigney for a starter. Tanner forced him at second, but soon went to third when McDonald cracked a one-base blow over second base. Clark continued the parade by clouting safely to right that scored Buddy and put Tex on third, but the scoring stopped there as McElwee lofted to Stellbauer and Griggs was thrown out by Hoffman.

Both clubs got a man on in the second, but neither got beyond first. In the third, however, the Cats added one more. Coombs' out-of-bounds smash turned the trick.

Both Score in Sixth.

The game was very ordinary from this point until the sixth, when both sides made some more. The Panthers counted twice and the Spudders once. Kraft pried the lid off the canto by watching a perfect third strike out the platter. With the big noise out of the way, the fans thought the side was as good as retired, but it was not to be. Hoffman hit past Works and Clark made a pretty stop, but foolishly threw to first. The peg went wide of the mark and "Dutch" scooted to second. Haley cracked a hot one that Tanner was lucky to get in front of and Hoffman pulled up at third. Rigney hit to Darrough and the Rabbit lost his head pro tempore. Instead of throwing to second for an easy double play, he elected to get Hoffman coming home. His play went through O. K., but not until Haley had romped to third and Rigney to second. Haworth promptly relieved this congestion on the paths by poling a long double over Griggs' head in center. Goodbred followed with a slow roller to Tanner which was booted and Coombs drew a pass, filling the sacks. By this time, however, Darrough had come to the conclusion that the visitors had gone far enough and he forced Sears to loft to McElwee.

Clark's safety to center followed immediately afterwards by McElwee's double to left which took a bad hop past Stellbauer gave the Spudders their counter.

The seventh was uneventful as far as scoring was concerned, but Danny Clark's four-ply wallop kept the Salmites in the running in the eighth.

The ninth and what it brought to the Spudders has already been narrated and, as far as we know now, we have written our last baseball story for the season of 1921.

QUANAH COMPRESS BEGINS OPERATION FOR THE SEASON

QUANAH, Sept. 16.—The Quanah compress started up for the season yesterday with a run of about 175 bales. The plant is in fine working order, and construction of the saw-tooth sheds is progressing nicely. The compress will be better prepared to handle business this season than ever before. Concrete platforms have minimized the risk of fire. This compress had only recently been finished, having been destroyed by fire a few months ago.

Ships have been righted by piling gravel on one side of the upturned hull.

Here's One-Man Infield

JOHNNY KELLEHER.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—There's a one-man ball team in Chicago. It's Johnny Kelleher of the Cubs.

First baseman, second baseman, third baseman and shortstop.

Not since the days when Artie Hofman used to lope over the lot has there been such an all-round ballplayer as Kelleher.

Johnny can pull up the easy chair to any bag on the infield and feel at home.

He came to the Cubs as a shortstop, but being unable to find an empty room, hung around.

Deal was injured and they put him at third.

Then Hollocher went out and that put Kelleher back at short.

Later his chance for second came and he held that as gracefully as short and third.

It was when Grimes got in the way of a pitched ball that Johnny completed the route, holding down the initial sack, convincing the Cubs that they had one of the best all-round players in the leagues today. And he's clouting .349.

'Chick' Evans Will Find Plenty of Opposition in Defending Amateur Title

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—Chick Evans will defend his title as national amateur golf champion this year against the most closely selected field and in the most grilling contest in the history of the event at the tournament opening Saturday at the St. Louis Country club. Among the contenders is Willie I. Hunter, British amateur champion.

Entries filed with the United States Golf association break all records for the low handicap rating of the players allowed to compete and the struggle has been expanded so that only an accident can bar the best of the field from reaching the match rounds or let any but the best into the circle of 32 players who contest the title in five 36-hole matches. To add to the difficulty the course over which the play will take place is so individualistic as to compel the maximum variety of shots to bring success.

All the entrants, including a score or more of newcomers who have displayed remarkable golf during the summer, will play an 18-hole elimination round tomorrow preceding the full week of play usually held. This will spell finis for all but the 64 golfers who turn in the low scores for that round. This list of 64 should contain all those capable of working their way towards the final rounds to any appreciable distance.

But the ability to get a score among the best 64 will admit no further than the outskirts of the championship arena, for these 64 must on Monday play not only one more 18-hole round of play, but two circuits of the course to determine the 32 men who may enter the match rounds. This arrangement precludes the accidental squeezing out of any possible champion who might slip a stroke or two in 18 holes.

Four English Golfers Entered.

With the 32 best amateur golfers in America, minus places in the charmed circle that may be won by the four British challengers, Hunter, Raymond Smith, Thomas Armour and William R. McKay, the first round of match play will be staged Tuesday forenoon, and the 16 survivors at the end of the second round of that day will play eight 36-hole matches on Wednesday. This will leave four 36-hole contests for Thursday with the semi-finals on Friday and the ultimate struggle on Saturday, September 24.

Willie Hunter, the British amateur golf champion, has been for some time familiarizing himself with the St. Louis course after preliminary play in the east. His practice rounds indicate that he will not suffer the fate of the unacclimated Cyril Tolley, last year's British titleholder, who failed to qualify at the Engineers' club, where Evans regained his title after a lapse of a year.

Son of a professional golfer, Hunter had not figured prominently in championships until he won the title this summer, although he drives a long, true ball and has a crispness to his irons that produces the exact "zupp" sound so familiar to golfing ears when the blade of the iron meets the gutta percha of the ball and the grassed turf. He is said to outdistance the American champion from the tee, but thus far no one has contended that he is more exact than Evans with either wood or iron.

Careful Play Necessary.

Exactness will count more than distance over the hazardous links of the St. Louis Country club, where placement of the drive is almost as important as precision in approach. A wooden shot that comes to rest at a certain point on almost any of the fairways means a vast difference to the player's chances of getting well home or even home at all in two shots, for the same length of drive landing possibly only 10 feet to the right or left of that point may mean an extra stroke to reach the green.

Even the length of the drive may be controlled to advantage on certain holes, so that it is possible to get home in two better from a 225-yard drives than from one of 300 yards. This paradox is due to the gullies that cut some of the fairways at an angle, giving hanging lies, and to the side slope, inviting a disastrous run on others. Evans is noted for keeping well within control all his wooden shots as to distance, direction and altitude.

Naturally, the British invalers have an uneven chance to win, as there are only four to wade through an American galaxy in the elimination round with a 4 to 61 chance to survive the qualification contest over 36 holes if all four are within the 61 survivors on Saturday.

Golfing history shows that only once has a Briton won the American title, Harold Hilton having turned the trick in 1911 at Apawamis club in New York by defeating Fred Herreshoff in 37 holes and then by such a lucky kick of the ball that he concluded fortune, rather than skill, had favored him. By the same token, American golfers have done no better than England, Walter J. Travis with his wonderful putting taking the British title in 1904. Likewise, only once has an outsider been runner-up, George S. Lyons of Toronto, Canada, reaching the finals in 1906 at Englewood, N. J., but losing to E. M. Byers of Pittsburgh. The only American runner-up in outremer championships was Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, who lost the British finals last year to Tolly on the 37th green.

Egan and Travis Entered.

Among the entrants are two former champions who have not appeared in the event for some time, H. Chandler Egan of Portland, Ore., who won the title in 1904 and 1905 and was runner-up in 1909, and Jerome D. Travers of New York, premier golfer in 1907, 1908, 1912 and 1913 as well as runner-up in 1914.

Competing with these veterans who hard back to the days of solid rubber balls when a 200-yard drive was excellent and a course needed to be only 5,000 yards long for a par of 70, are a number of promising youngsters. Among these striplings are:

Harrison R. Johnston, St. Paul, and R. E. Knepper of Sioux City, Iowa, who tied for medal score at the Western amateur in July; Ira Couch and Burton Mudge of Chicago, who survived two or three rounds in the same event; F. A. Godchaux of New Orleans, H. R. Wenzler of Memphis and George Von Elm of Salt Lake City, who won the Trans-Mississippi title at Denver by spectacular play. Knepper in the Western finished runner-up to Evans, who won the title for the sixth time.

Evans has won the national title twice, in 1916 and 1920, and held it for four years as there was no meet in 1917 or 1918 on account of the war, but he lost in 1919 when Davidson Herron of Pittsburgh reached the pinnacle of golf, with Bobby Jones as runner-up. Evans was also runner-up to Travers in 1912 and he won the open title at Minneapolis in 1916 with a record score of 286 strokes for 72 holes.

Philadelphia ... 000 000 000—	0	4	2

Batteries: Caldwell and O'Neil; Rommell and Perkins.

Yankees 10-13, Browns 6-5

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—"Babe" Ruth created a new major league home run record Thursday and the Yankees downed St. Louis in a double header, 10 to 6 and 13 to 5. The winning of the twin bill by the Yanks was a mere detail to Ruth's record breaking homer—his 55th of the year.

Twenty-five thousand fans who were on hand for Thursday's game became frantic with excitement when Ruth sent one of Bayne's offerings into the upper right field stands in the fifth inning of the first game.

The Yankees "murderers' row" was in fine form and their heavy slugging enabled the Yanks to win both contests. In addition to Ruth's four-base clout, Meusel hit a homer in the first game, his 23rd of the year, and Miller and Pipp got one apiece. Williams was the batting star for the Browns, smashing out two homers, one in each game.

The American league penant race remained unchanged as Cleveland won two games from the Athletics. The Yankees are leading the league by half a game.

First game:

Giants 9, Reds 6

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—The Giants beat the Reds Thursday for the third time in as many days by the score of 9 to 6.

Eight straight and two and a half games ahead of the Pirates, who lost today to the Boston Braves.

Rube Marquard was the first of the Red pitchers to face the Giants. The Giants ground out a total of 16 hits, while Jess Barnes, pitching for the Giants, leisurely cruised along on a six-run lead, which his teammates acquired in the fifth inning.

New York .... 002 061 000—	9	16	1
Cincinnati ..... 001 002 200—	6	12	3

Batteries: Barnes and Snyder; Marquard and Wingo.

Cards 2, Dodgers 1

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—The Cardinals made it two out of three from Brooklyn Thursday when they lost the last game of the year between the two teams by 2 to 1. St. Louis won 14 of its 20 games from Brooklyn.

Score by innings—	R	H	E
Brooklyn ..... 000 000 100—	1	4	1
St. Louis ..... 002 000 00x—	2	6	1

Batteries: Grimes and Miller; Haines and Clemons.

Braves 8, Pirates 3

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 15.—The Boston Braves defeated the Pirates Thursday by a score of 6 to 3, the visitors outplaying the home team in every department of the game. Cooper was forced out of the box in the six inning, when two errors and three hits gave Boston four runs.

Boston 000 104 010	6	12	0
Pittsburgh ..... 010 000 002—	3	7	4

Batteries: Scott and Gibson; Cooper and Schmidt.

Phillies 6, Cubs 3

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Chicago fans watched their Cubs go down to defeat 6 to 3 in the last game of the series with the Phillies here Thursday. It was the last chance the local followers had this season to witness the tail-enders in action here. Winters was in fine form, holding the locals to six well-scattered hits.

Philadelphia ..... 500 000 100—	6	11	1
Chicago ..... 000 200 010—	3	6	0

Batteries: Winters and Peters; Stenland and Killifer.

SPORT SHOTS by Paul W. Larkin

The bird who first said "time flies," spoke volumes. We waited for almost seven months for the season to open, and it seemed like seven years while waiting. But the local season has come and gone and it seems as if the opening game was played only yesterday.

We heard many fans say that they were glad it was all over and that they had had enough baseball for a while. Mebbe so, but we'll gamble that they'll be wishing there was another series carded for Athletic park in a couple of weeks.

The Cats sure kicked one in the ninth yesterday when they let the Spudders get away with that second run. They might say, or they would like to, anyway that they knew it, but didn't care. Horses! We watched them all after Bischoff had crossed the plate and the only one who was hep was Cecil Coombs. It took him so long to get in from center field, however, that half the club was already waiting outside the park. That's one on Jakey.

There are many fans and people around town who would like to blame Dave Paul's silver bat and ball for causing the Spudders to skid, but such is far from the case. Dave wanted to do something for the boys and went about it in the way which he thought was best. The players took it in that spirit and it did not affect their playing one whit. In fact, the majority of them never gave it a thought. There was absolutely no jealousy created.

However, with all due credit to Bob Bescher, we do not believe that he has been the most valuable Spudder. Bob is a great player and we doubt very much if he has a superior in the Texas league when it comes to all-around ability. We'll stack him up against any of them. But when it comes to downright value to the Spudders for the seaso of 1921, we, personally, cannot figure Bob. Had Bob been with the club the entire season our opinion might be changed. But he joined late, and was of absolutely no value when needed most. It wasn't his fault that he couldn't get in there, as he would have been fighting every day had there been a possible chance. But the fact remains that there wasn't a chance and that he wasn't in there the greater part of the season.

In our opinion, the choice lies between Frank Kitchens and Danny Clark. Every man did his best, did it to the best of his ability and did it well. Of that there can be no doubt. But it seems to us as if these two had a slight edge on the others. Danny is the only man who has not missed a game this season, and the number of games that he has broken up with his club far outnumber those of any other man. He has erred in the field, but not as often as the other infielders who have had the sort of chances to handle that have come his way. As for "Kitch," he's in a class by himself this year in the backstopping department. He had no peer in the Texas league. All-star clubs have been picked by fans and writers all over the circuit, but Frank's name is seldom, if ever, among the missing. He has worked in more games than any other catcher, has hit around the .300 mark all season, and has garnered his hits when most needed. There is no question about his being the brainiest receiver in the circut, and with all these qualifications, it's hard to see how he can be overlooked as a "most valuable" man. With all due credit to all the others, "Kitch" would be our selection, with Danny Clark a mighty close second, popular opinion to the contrary.

That the Spudders did come out on the desirable end yesterday was no fault of theirs. Here's a few plays that we couldn't quite see: Why didn't Rabbit Darrough throw to second in the sixth and start an easy double instead of catch the man at the plate? Two runs followed when the side should have been retired. In the same inning why did he pitch to Haworth with men on second and third and two down, with Goodbred following? In the last chapter why did "Caddy" Works try to hit with a man on first, none down and a run needed to tie? Why was Knadler allowed to bat with a couple of good pinch hitters adorning the bench? Plays like those cost the Spudders the pennant.

Those Yankees and Giants ought to start winning pretty soon.

The Pirates were supposed to pass the Giants because they were at home while the McGrawmen were on the road. S'pose you noticed yesterday's results.

VERNON HI PREPARES FOR WICHITA CONTEST

School Elevens Will Line Up Against Each Other Here Sept. 24.

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—Vernon high school football candidates are hard at work preparing for their first game with Wichita Falls in that city September 24. The new coach, J. A. Morrow, is putting the boys through strenuous practice. This has consisted in the main of passing, kicking and sprinting as well as drill in the fundamentals of the game.

Vernon has lost the services this season of some of the best men it possessed last year, but every effort will be made to supply the vacancies with new material on hand.

Vernon has been put into the Panhandle district this year and will have to play at least the first five games with towns west of here. No definite schedule has been arranged yet. It is likely that some of the games will be with Amarillo, Clarendon, Childress and Quanah. All these towns were well represented last year.

AND ON THE OTHER HAND.
By GROVE.

Bunny Brief of the Kansas City A. A. team has shattered association homerun records. He has piled up a total of 33 circuit smashes.

Out in the Coast league, too, they're smashing them as well as in Homerun Headquarters at the Polo Grounds and at all way stations in between big enough to support a ball club.

Maybe, it's the lively ball. More likely it's because they are envious of Babe Ruth's limelight.

Fifty-two American leaguers batting over .300. Coupla Philadelphians, too. But keep that dark.

New entry to Hall of Fame: Pitcher Rommel of Athletics, first pitcher in Johnson league to lose 20 games.

The dog stood on the burning deck,
The flames were flapping 'round his neck,
HOT DOG!

And yet you can't say that Johnny Wilson was completely walloped. Maybe he didn't beat Downey, but he beat the public.

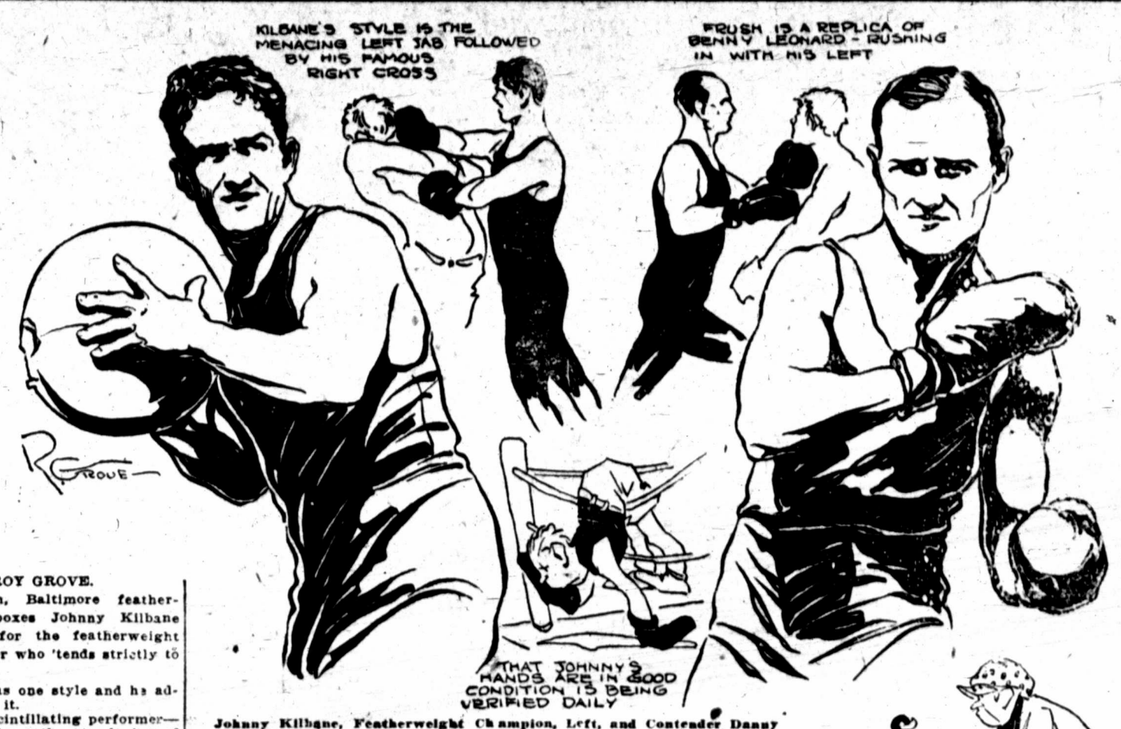
This Mr. John Dempsey must be figuring on a wild swing. He said he'd referee the Kilbane-Frush argument for $2,500.

BABE FAILED TO GET HOMER WITH CUSHIONS LOADED

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—In establishing his world's record for home runs—fifty-five—George Herman (Babe) Ruth of the New York Americans hit them with none on bases, "one on" and "two on," but did not turn the trick with the bases filled. In making his fifty-fifth yesterday off Pitcher Bayne of St. Louis he drove one runner ahead of him.

Nineteen of his homers came when there were no runners on bases, twenty-six with one on base and ten with two runners on the sacks.

YOUTH VS. EXPERIENCE IN BATTLE SATURDAY



Johnny Kilbane, Featherweight Champion, Left, and Contender Danny Frush, Right.

By ROY GROVE.

Danny Frush, Baltimore featherweight, who boxes Johnny Kilbane September 17 for the featherweight title, is a fighter who 'tends strictly to his knitting.

That is, he has one style and he adheres rigidly to it.

He is not a scintillating performer—not a master, from the standpoint of trickery—but he has two good hands, two good, fast legs, and two good, sharp eyes, all of which he uses to full advantage.

Once a fight starts, Frush is on the job until the last gong, attacking continually and rarely giving ground.

Frush Is "Crowder."

He is of the crowding type of fighter. Crowding in, he makes the other fellow punch, even if he doesn't punch himself, and the result is constant and continuous action.

Frush's style is almost an exact replica of Benny Leonard's. There is nothing fancy about him, but what he does he does well and thoroughly.

Frush is a good hitter. He isn't a Ketchel or a Leonard, but a snappy, cutting puncher who can drop an opponent with one blow.

He has the knack of timing his blows perfectly and this makes them most effective. He has scored 18 knockouts in five years, while Kilbane's record is 22 in 15 years.

Kilbane will try to beat Frush with a left hand, using straight jabs and hooks to both the head and body.

If Johnny can dizzy the contender, or place him in a position through his left leads for the famous Kilbane right cross to go shooting in, he thinks that'll be about enough. For the champ counts on that to make the valiant aspirants who have tried and failed.

Kilbane is much the better boxer of the two in that he has more of the "real stuff."

He is more versatile on both attack and defense; he can shift quickly and hit at the very completion of a shift.

He is a better feinter than Frush, and a snappier hitter. He has the better head; in fact, he's credited with being the quickest thinker of the ring.

Up to Johnny.

Who will win?

The answer depends entirely on Kilbane's internal condition.

If his spark plugs are fouled, he may have trouble staying the limit.

It ought to be a comparatively short fight if Kilbane is the man he used to be, for the champion will be in splendid condition upon entering the ring.

If Kilbane has lost his stamina, the bout will last longer and the further it goes the better are Frush's chances.

Frush is said to be planning to get Kilbane after the sixth round when the champion begins to tire.

Kilbane, on the other hand, declares he will wade right in while the echo of the first bell is yet to be heard, and make short work of the Limehouse Knight.

It'll be youth versus experience. But whether youth will be served when the old master still retains his cunning remains to be seen.

To Weigh Same.

Frush will be called upon to weigh 126 at ringside. Kilbane doesn't have to make the weight, but he won't weigh any more than Frush.

Johnny's hands are in good shape, as a recent X-ray proved. He is not worrying about them now and consequently is slamming them hard in training.

He will take every chance with his dukes on the 17th, because he has $60,000 at stake and if he wins the fight he can get goodly purses for boxing Andy Chaney, Sammy Sieger, Charley Beecher and Billy DeFoe.

SPORT BRIEFS

Kilbane and Frush Confident.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.—The day before the 12-round bout for the featherweight championship of the world between Johnny Kilbane, title holder, and Danny Frush of Baltimore, challenger, found an air of confidence at both training camps over the outcome.

Gibbons vs. Ortega.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., Sept. 16.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul and Battling Ortega of San Francisco meet tonight in a 12-round decision bout here. They were to weigh in at 158 pounds.

WINCHESTER, VA., Sept. 16.—Sir Barton, before his retirement, one of the best known horses on American tracks, has been brought to Audley farm, the old home of Nellie Parke Curtis, which B. B. Jones, Oklahoma oil magnate, has announced will be converted into one of the largest farms for breeding race horses in the country.

Sir Barton will head the studs to be maintained at the farm.

Cleveland Swamped With Requests.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.—Although the American league pennant race is as yet undecided, more applications have been received by the Cleveland baseball club for the world's series tickets than the club can allot if the Indians win the flag, according to E. S. Barnard, business manager.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16. — The semi-final matches of the lawn tennis singles tournament for the championship of the United States today brought together William T. Tilden Jr., world's champion, and William E. Davis, of San Francisco, in one contest, and Wallace F. Johnson, Philadelphia, and J. O. Anderson, Australia, in the other.

Straw Hat Shower.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The keeper of the Polo Grounds could wear a different hat every day in the year for more than ten years if he saved all the straws that were sacrificed yesterday when Babe Ruth broke the world's home run record with his fifty-fifth circuit drive.

Several hundred New England jewelers have joined in establishing a watchmakers' school at Medford, Mass.

SENTELL WILL BE ONE UMPIRE IN DIXIE SERIES

SHREVEPORT, Sept. 16.—President Doak Roberts of the Texas league yesterday announced that Paul Sentell will be one of the umpires in the Memphis-Fort Worth southern championship series. Hauk Eibel, Shreveport first baseman, who led the league in home runs, with 35, was presented with a gold watch and chain yesterday by the fans.

Police Squelch Lottery.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—A lottery on the attendance of the forthcoming world's series of baseball was frustrated late yesterday when police arrested three men and confiscated 10,000 tickets.

OMAHA FIRST SACKER EQUALS WORLD'S RECORD

OMAHA, Sept. 16.—Jack Lelivelt, first baseman for the Omaha Western league club, yesterday equalled the world's record of 257 hits in one season made by George Sisler of the St. Louis American league team last year. Lelivelt had 254 hits up to yesterday, when he got three more in a game at Sioux City. As the league season does not close until September 27, he hopes to break Sisler's record.

Lelivelt is leading batsman of the league.

CALIFORNIA WINTER LEAGUE TO HAVE MAJOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—The California winter league will look like the major leagues this year. Ty Cobb, before leaving this city last night, said he would manage the San Francisco club.

George Sisler is to be manager of the Vernon club, it is understood. Roger Hornsby will be director of the Los Angeles team, and Harry Heilmann will be manager at Oakland.

The season of the league will be ten weeks, beginning about the middle of October.

MILTON McCONNELL TO GO INTO BUSINESS AT DALLAS

GRAHAM, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—Milton H. McConnell has tendered his resignation as secretary of the Graham chamber of commerce and will leave this week for Dallas. It is understood Mr. McConnell will go into business in Dallas. The Graham chamber of commerce is a strong organization and it is with regret that he is leaving.

Prohibition Aids The Grape Growers' Value $75,000,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16. — The grape-growing industry of California is prosperous, largely because of prohibition, declared Edward Sheehan, president of the California Grape Growers Exchange, in an address here yesterday before the California Development association. He declared the profits of the growers trebled with prohibition; said where three years ago the average price for grapes was $10 to $20 per ton, it is now around $75 and $100 per ton.

Mr. Sheehan estimated the California grape crop this year to be valued at $75,000,000.

GIANTS SUBSCRIBE $3,000 FOR MATHEWSON FUND

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The National league has subscribed $3,000 for the testimonial game to Christy Mathewson, purchasing three boxes for the contest between the Giants and the Braves at the Polo Grounds September 20.

Smith Defeats Collins.

PITTSBURGH, KAN., Sept. 16.—"Knockout" Smith of Neodosha won a victory over Bob Collins of Picher, Okla., in their bout at Franklin last night. Collins threw up the sponge in the seventh round, displaying a broken finger. The bout had been a hot one, both fighters delivering heavy blows.

MAKING ELABORATE PREPARATIONS FOR SHRINERS' BANQUET

The Kemp hotel management is making elaborate preparations to serve the Shriners' Mystic banquet at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, September 22, the day the temple is to be constituted by Imperial Potentate Ernest A. Cutts of Savannah, Ga.

The banqet is to be for Shriners only and tickets and reservations may be secured at the recorder's office in the Masonic temple building. The price will be $2.50 per plate.

Mr. Forrester has arranged to use both dining rooms for this occasion and will be able to accommodate at least 400 nobles.

A picked orchestra from the Shrine band will furnish music during the banquet, after which a suitable program will be rendered by members of the temple.

Several distinguished Shriners will be in attendance.

Following the banquet, a dance will be given in the auditorium at Call Field for Shriners and their ladies.

2 ALLEGED KNIGHTS OF THE INVISIBLE EMPIRE HELD HERE

Jack Frost and W. P. Trop are being held in the county jail charged with whitecapping. It is alleged that they represented themselves as Knights of the Invisible Empire and threatened to get a man at Burkburnett if he didn't quit his job and beat it across Red river.

Deputy Sheriff Weaver made the arrests at Burkburnett Thursday evening.

According to the story told, a man employed by the Tidal Western Oil company received a notice signed by "Knights of the Invisible Empire," advising him to leave at once.

WANT THE PRESIDENT TO URGE LEGISLATION AGAINST THE KU KLUX

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—President Harding was asked to send a special message to congress recommending a law prohibiting any secret organization "whose principles are contrary to the principle and the spirit of law and of the constitution," in a telegram from the National Equal Rights league, a negro organization, today. The league concluded a week's session by condemning the Ku Klux Klan.

It was also announced the league would call upon the department of justice to investigate the ksan to determine if any federal laws had been violated.

Officers elected for the coming year included the Rev. M. A. N. Shaw, Boston, president; J. T. Moppins, St. Louis, vice-president; J. L. Neill, Washington, recording secretary; M. W. Spencer, Washington, treasurer, and William M Trotter, Boston, corresponding secretary.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Directors of the Southern Pacific railroad company of Mexico today elected H. B. Titcome president, succeeding the late Colonel Epes Randolph.

MARMON AUTOMOBILE AND 206 QUARTS OF WIHSKEY ARE SEIZED

Prohibition enforcement agents assisted by county officers seized a Marmon car, 206 quarts of Canadian club and 15 gallons of corn whiskey Thursday. N. (Curley) Trent was placed under arrest and his bond was set at $1,000 after he waived examining trial before United States Commissioner Lantz.

The Marmon car was picked up on the county roads by peace officers, but made its getaway. A motorcycle officer was also shaken. Later a clue was found which led the officers to the home occupied by Trent. The Marmon car was found in the garage and the whiskey in the house.

The Marmon car is held and an attorney appeared before the United States commissioner Friday asking that the car be released. The commissioner advised the attorney that some definite action would be taken with reference to the car provided the owner would appear before him. At a late hour no one had appeared representing himself to be the owner of the automobile.

CRUISER DAUNTLESS SAILS WITH BODIES OF AIRSHIP VICTIMS

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The British cruiser Dauntless, bringing home the bodies of the 16 officers and men of the American navy, who lost their lives in the ZR-2 disaster, arrived off Sandy Hook today escorted by American craft. She was expected to wait outside the harbor until afternoon and then at high tide to come to the navy yard.

In the yard the cruiser will find awaiting it a special guard of honor made up of marines and bluejackets, recruited mainly from the new dreadnaught Maryland, sent here for the memorial services of the navy's dead. Officers from the French light cruiser Ville D'Ys and the Brazilian battleship Minas Geraes, now in port, will be present.

As soon as the Dauntless makes fast the bodies will be removed to a temporary chapel, where they will rest until tomorrow when full honors will be given the dead airmen.

A memorial service in which high officials of the federal, state and municipay governments will have a part has been arranged—the services to be shared by as many citizens as can be accommodated in the yard's enclosure.

At a near date one of the bodies, that of Lieut. Com. Emery W. Coil, will again be taken to sea, this time on an American warship, and somewhere off the coast will be consigned to the deep in accordance with his wishes.

The bodies brought home today include all but one of the Americans who were on the dirigible when she was destroyed. The exception is Rigger N. Walker, who escaped with his life but now is in a British hospital.

The others include:

A. S. Pettitt, rigger, Dickens City, Texas.

Albert L. Loftin, machinist, Lake Charles, La.

FARM LOAN BONDS TO BE OFFERED THE PUBLIC

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—An offering of federal farm loan bonds will be made about October 1, Secretary Mellon said today.

The issue, which will be in accordance with the general plan of financing the federal land banks, will bear 5 per cent interest. It is expected the issue will amount to $40,000,000.

AGED MINISTER IS HELD WITH ANOTHER PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH MURDER

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., Sept 16.—With Raymond Cole and the Rev. Hardin Hughes, aged minister, in custody here, police believe the mystery surronding the fatal shooting last May of Mrs. Anna McKennon, recluse, will be cleared up shortly.

Cole, arrested in Pratt, Kan., recently was returned to Mount Ida, but was brought here for safe keeping. He denies the Rev. Mr. Hughes' assertion that he was implicated in the crime. The Rev. Mr. Hughes was arrested shortly after the crime was committed.

New Pontoon Bridge.

LAREDO, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—A new pontoon bridge over the Rio Grande replacing the one washed away in last week's flood was completed last night and opened for traffic between Laredo and Nuevo Laredo today. Engineers said completion of the structure in six days was a remarkable piece of work.

To Fight Prohibition.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—Petition for a charter for the "National Association of United Americans" was filed in circuit court here today. The petition says the object of the organization is to fight prohibition and restrictive Sunday laws.

Removed to Hospital.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy, who has been critically ill at his home in Campobella, N. B., arrived today on a private car and was taken to a hospital.

Carlstrom Is Elected.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 16.—Oscar E. Carlstrom of the department of Illinois was elected national commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War Veterans on the ninth ballot taken early today. The balloting began last night.

Parliament Delayed.

MADRID, Sept. 16.—The probability of a further delay in the opening of the Spanish parliament is hinted at today by several of the newspapers, which say the middle of October is the most likely date. The Moroccan problem and campaign finances will form virtually the sole business of the legislators.

Window Is Smashed.

MEAUX, FRANCE, Sept. 16.—Burglars who secured less than a dollar's worth of booty for their vandalism smashed one of the priceless stained glass windows in the 800-year-old cathedral of St. Etienne here last night to gain entrance to the office.

Weather Is Insured.

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 16.—An insurance policy for $500 against unfavorable weather on his wedding day was recently issued to a Boston man, a local insurance company stated today. The bridegroom had declared he wished to avoid extra expense should rain alter the carrying out of arrangements. The company found the risk a good one as the sun shone on the bridal couple and the stars twinkled as they left on their honeymoon.

Magnificent Monument.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The union medical college, erected at Peking by the China medical board of the Rockefeller foundation, will stand as a "magnificent monument of American liberality," the Chinese minister here today cabled John D. Rockefeller Jr., who is in Peking to attend the dedication of the college September 19.

Will Fight Reduction.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The United Textile Workers of America, at their annual convention today, took cognizance of reports that wages of some textile operators in New England would be reduced 22 per cent on December 1, and gave notice that if the manufacturers were contemplating any reductions the workers would fight.

CUT THIS OUT

Old English Recipe For Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises.

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength). Take this home and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmint used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.—(adv.)

TOUSSAINT AGAIN MOVED BACK FROM THE "DEATH" CELL

Sheriff Fred Smith late Thursday night ordered the jailer, Cass Tarver to move Henry J. Toussaint out of the death cell and return him to the monkey cage, where he had been held a prisoner until the episode of last week when he was transferred.

Officers would give no reasons for moving the condemned man other than that they expected to keep up the records of not losing a single prisoner.

The same tint of mystery that surrounded the cause of Toussaint's removal from the cell on the third floor of the courthouse to the death cell hovers about the last move.

The only information that could be gleaned and this was not official was to the effect that there is an effort being put forth to "assist" Toussaint.

MINERS STRIKE ON AN ORDER OF HOWAT

Declares No Consideration Will Be Given the Kansas Industrial Court

PITTSBURGH, KAN., Sept. 16.—A strike of three hundred coal miners, employed by the Spencer-Newlands Coal company at two mines, ordered by President Alexander Howat and the district board of the Kansas miners' union, went into effect today.

A dispute over the pay of a blacksmith is the cause of the strike order, it was announced at the union headquarters. The order was issued and put into effect on the eve of the departure of Howat and the Kansas delegation to the international convention of the United Mine Workers, which is to begin at Indianapolis Tuesday.

"The Kansas industrial court will receive no consideration in this matter at all," President Howat said today, when asked whether he expected the court to take action.

EASTERN TEAM WINS THE INTER-SECTIONAL CONTEST AT ST. LOUIS COUNTRY CLUB

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—The eastern team of eight today won the inter-sectional team contest played as a preliminary to the national amateur golf championship at the St. Louis Country club with a score of 631. The mid-western team was second with 635, while the southern team scored 654, and the octet from the Pacific northwest 664.

The best individual score was 35-35-70, returned by "Bobby" Jones of Atlanta, while Jesse Guilford, Boston, had the second best score of 34-39-73.

Jones' 70 was one under par and constituted a record for the reconstructed course, which measures more than 6,400 yards. A heavy rain storm fell on the late finishers and forced many scores above the 80 mark.

CENT A MILE RATE TO THE LEGION CONVENTION

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—Word has been received here by A. E. Hutchings, general executive chairman of the American Legion national convention committee that a one-cent rate has been granted by members of the trunk line association of railroads. The rate is one cent a mile to veterans and members of their families coming here to attend the convention, and, according to Mr. Hutchings, the action of the trunk line association means that a one-cent rate will be available to veterans from all parts of the United States to Kansas City during the national convention of the American Legion. The reduced rate is effective for persons traveling in Pullman cars as well as in coaches.

Medicated Smoke Drives Out Catarrh

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes Give Out a Healing and Soothing Smoke-Vapor that Clears the Head, Nose and Throat.

Dr. Blosser is the originator of a certain combination of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries to be smoked in a pipe or ready prepared cigarette which is meeting with unusual success in catarrhal troubles. As the disease is carried into the head, nose and throat with the air you breathe, so the antiseptic healing vapor of this remedy is carried with the breath directly to the affected parts.

This simple, practical method applies the medicine where sprays, douches, ointments, etc., cannot possibly go. Its effect is soothing and healing and is entirely harmless, containing no cubebs, tobacco or habit forming drugs. It is pleasant to use, and not sickening to those who have never smoked and may be used by women and children as well as men.

If you suffer from catarrh, asthma, catrrhal deafness, or if subject to frequent colds, you should try this remedy. Satisfactory results guaranteed. Any well stocked drug store can supply Dr. Blosser's Remedy.

A trial package will be mailed to any sufferer for ten cents (coin or stamps) by The Blosser Co., 28 DL, Atlanta, Ga., to prove its beneficial and pleasant effect.

TRAFFIC MARKERS PLACED AT REMAINING CORNERS IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

All street intersections in the business section were adorned Friday with the new traffic guide posts recently ordered by the Wichita Falls Automotive Dealers' association. The three posts placed at the Scott avenue intersections of Eighth, Ninth and Tenth streets about three weeks ago were deemed such successes by the auto men and the city police department that the dealers were forced to make good on their threat of equipping all corners in such fashion.

Only a few of the posts installed Friday were painted, but Police Commissioner Fitts promised that they would be dressed up in proper fashion Friday night.

With the installation of these the commissioner has promised that cutting corners will be an unpardonable sin and that all offenders caught after the first of October will be dealt with in drastic fashion.

"If the people want to cut corners they had better do it between now and the first of next month," Mr. Fitts said Friday afternoon, "for when the new traffic laws become effective we will make it hard on the violators."

BOY IS INJURED WHEN HIS BICYCLE COLLIDES WITH AUTOMOBILE FRIDAY

Bob Thornton, aged about 14 years, suffered a broken leg and bruises about the body when he was knocked from his bicycle in a collision with an automobile at the corner of Eighth and Indiana at noon Friday. The machine was driven by Charles D. Hughes, a plumber, living at 1409 Austin.

Young Thornton was unable to steer clear of the automobile, according to eyewitnesses of the accident, and was hurled to the pavement with great force. He is said to have attempted to dodge another car.

The injured boy was taken by Mr. Hughes to the Wichita General hospital and his injuries attended to. The right leg was fractured, both arms skinned and painful bruises sustained about the body, but none of the injuries will prove serious, it is thought.

Thornton's wheel was slightly damaged.

The theft of 40 cement sacks from the American refinery was reported to the police Friday night. No other losses were recorded during the evening.

Judge J. P. Jones has recovered from his recent attack of illness and visited his office at the court house for an hour Friday morning.

CALOMEL DYING FAST IN SOUTH

"Dodson's Liver Tone" is Taking the Place of Dangerous, Sickening Drug.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's Dodson's guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate so let them eat anything afterwards.—ady.

NEW YORK GIANTS SECURE EARLY LEAD OVER THE PIRATES

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—New York took an early lead in the first game of the most important series of the National league opening here today. Five runs were scored in the third inning on a series of six hits for a total of 10 bases. Hamilton, who began the pitching for Pittsburgh, was replaced by Glasner after four of the runs had been scored.

Toney, pitching for New York, contributed one of the singles after Rawlings had singled, and Snyder doubled. Bancroft then made a triple, Frisch a double and Kelly a single.

Late in the game the fans protested a decision at second base by Umpire McCormick. They threw many pop bottles from the stands, one striking the umpire on the head. He was not seriously hurt. A detail of twenty-five policemen escorted him from the field when the game was over.

The outbreak came when McCormick declared Grimm, who had singled, out at second. Schmidt hit the ball to second and the Giants' second baseman fumbled. Schmidt reached first on the play but Grimm was forced to slide. The play was close and when McCormick waved the runner out, a shower of bottles greeted the decision.

GLADYS AVINGER PLEADS GUILTY TO VAGRANCY CHARGE

Gladys Avinger, also known as Gladys Hall pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy before Judge Guy Rogers of the county court at law Friday. She was fined $25 and costs. The case had been appealed from the city court.

The jury in the case of the state against Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hurd, charged with operating a bawdy house had not reported at a late hour this afternoon. This was the second trial of the case, the first trial resulting in a hung jury.

A jury Friday afternoon was hearing evidence in the case against A. E. Griffin of Burkburnett, charged with vagrancy.

GASOLINE WAR AT FORT WORTH ENDS

FORT WORTH, Sept. 16.—Gasoline filling stations, with one exception, here today raised their price from 14 cents to 18 cents a gallon, thus ending the "gasoline war" which began several months ago. One station is maintaining the 14 cent price.

Pimples Denote Waste Products In The Blood

So Do Blackheads, Boils and Similar Skin Disorders

The human system is forever striving to get rid of the waste products. It is a life-work which goes on forever. When waste products get in the blood, they cause a lowered vitality. As a result, we become subject to many painful and embarrassing ailments.

When these symptoms appear, Nature is warning us. To throw off the waste products, the blood must be purified. Don't clog your blood. Just clean it out. Nature will do the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease.

S.S.S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S.S.S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years S.S.S. has proved to be of unusual merit. Begin taking S.S.S. today and write for 56-page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Personal medical advice, without charge, may also be had by sending a complete description of your case. Address Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 741 S.S.S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. All drug stores sell S.S.S.

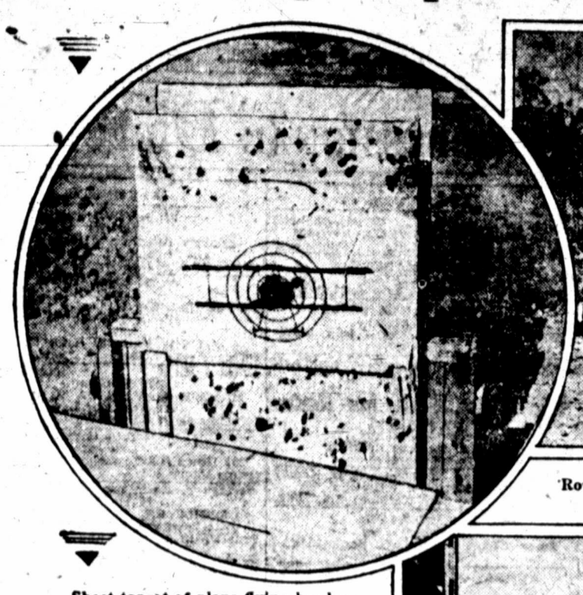
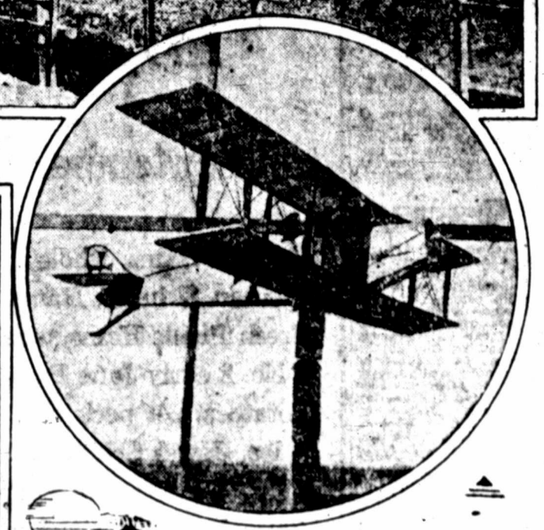
Shooting Airplanes With Machine Gun Cameras



Sheet target of plane flying head on

Row of silhouette airplane targets



The targets closely resemble real planes

Behind the butts showing the mechanism for changing the angle of the targets

Target airplane as it appears to the marksman

TRAINING in marksmanship is naturally regarded as a very important feature of the work of our military Air Service, and no little ingenuity has been exercised in developing methods of target practice.

Newest in this line is the photographic machine-gun.

Some of the targets used are miniature flying machines, which look exactly like real airplanes save that they are only four feet long.

It costs money to make them, and to shoot them to pieces with machine rifles would never do. Accordingly, a machine gun has been developed for the purpose which is just like any other such gun except that, in place of a magazine of cartridges, it carries a coil of photographic film.

This photographic gun is fired in exactly the same way as an ordinary machine gun. It is fastened to a dummy fusilage on the ground, in which the marksman sits, and every shot makes a picture. When the film is developed the accuracy of his shooting is shown.

Targets of the kind described are upheld at a considerable height in the air. Usually there is a row of them, separated by distances of a few feet, and men stationed behind butts manipulate them in such fashion as to cause them to present themselves at varying angles to the view of the marksmen. In this way shooting conditions that imitate those of air-fighting are produced.

For practice work with real machine guns, silhouette targets are used—sheets of pasteboard bearing pictures of airplanes, or sometimes paper sheets with similar pictures that are tacked upon boards. These are cheap, and when one has been shot to pieces it is replaced with a fresh one.

Houses Built on Water

WHO were the lake-dwellers of Switzerland and what became of them? Facts newly brought to light are most interesting. For one thing, it seems to be proved that the lake-dwellers were the veritable ancestors of the ancient Romans. It has long been thought that the early Romans migrated to Italy from somewhere in the North. Now it appears to be definitely established that they came from Central Europe, and that in their original habitat they were a lake-dwelling people, their villages being built on piles over the water.

The first Swiss lake village to be discovered—its remains, that is to say—was found near Zurich in 1854. That set the archeologists to looking for others, several of which were located. Apparently they were inhabited about 15,000 years ago. Within recent years, however, similar villages have been found over wide areas all the way from Switzerland to Hungary. Recognizable remains of such villages have been discovered in Italian lakes. Evidently this was a very common method of living at a pre-historic period in Europe. It was a method adopted primarily for security against enemies, the only approach to the village (unless by boats) being over a narrow causeway erected on piles. Defense was thereby rendered easy.

The lake-dwellers enjoyed a fair degree of civilization. They knew the arts of spinning and weaving, as proved by the tools they left behind. Their boats were hollowed tree-trunks. They had no agriculture, but subsisted by hunting and fishing.

Herodotus describes such a village which he saw with his own eyes at a much later period in Lake Tachynos. He writes: "Platforms stand in the middle of the lake, which are approached from the land by a single narrow bridge. Each head of family has his own hut, with a trapdoor opening upon the lake beneath: and their wont is to tie their young children by the foot, to prevent them from rolling into the water. They feed their beasts on fish, which abound in the lake."

The lake-dwellers of Central Europe date back to about the end of the Stone Age. But they acquired a knowledge of bronze, and it was by them that the use of bronze was first brought to Italy. When they ceased to dwell in lakes, in Italy or elsewhere, they continued the habit of erecting their houses on platforms supported by piles and disposed of all refuse by throwing it down through the trapdoor. This was a good way to get rid of waste under the old domiciliary system, but on dry land it did not work so well. The refuse accumulated under the house until there was no room for more and then the occupants set fire to the family home, moving into a new-built dwelling.

Carbonated Candy

A NEW method of making candy is the idea of a Chicago man, Wilfred P. Heath. The product might be called carbonated candy.

The candy mixture, in a liquid or semi-liquid state, is put into an air-tight metal container. Then carbonic acid gas—the same gas that gives the fizz to soda water—is forced into the container, the mixture being simultaneously violently agitated.

The gas thus injected forces the air out of the container and is at the same time incorporated with the candy mixture, rendering the latter light and porous and imparting a flavor, described as peculiarly delicious by those who have eaten it.

Music Roll Pictures

A NOVEL attraction for player-pianos is to be a pictured series of grotesque animal and human heads, which appear to open their mouths when the keys of the instrument are depressed. The heads form a panel along one face of a patented box containing a music roll. When the box is laid along the white keys the funny faces are flush with the front edges of the latter, and, inasmuch as the lower jaws are omitted, the animals and queer people seem to be opening and shutting their mouths with the fall and rise of the keys. Just nonsense business, of course, but amusing. The box, it should be said, is made just wide enough to fit in front of the black keys and lie flat on the white ones.

Many Modern Inventions Antedate Christianity

WHY is the flying machine so new?

It was long overdue. Inventors had been trying to solve the problem for thousands of years, but its solution had to wait for an engine that could make it go fast.

That is really all there was to it. Glenn Curtiss says that he could almost fly a cellar door if provided with a proper engine.

Dr. Herbert W. Horwill, an English scientist, in discussing the matter of delayed inventions calls attention to the fact that as long ago as 130 B. C. a description of a simple steam engine was published by Hero, of Alexandria. It was a hollow, spherical vessel, made to turn on its axis by escaping jets of steam.

Some kinds of trick apparatus used in ancient Roman temples for producing "miracles" were undoubtedly operated by steam. There was one such in the temple of Minerva, at Sais, by which, when fire was kindled on the altar, concealed machinery was set in motion, causing Diana and Bacchus to pour milk and wine while a dragon hissed.

Not, however, until the seventeenth century were the experiments begun, which in 1769 culminated in the famous invention of Watts.

The road locomotives of Oliver Evans in America and Trevithick in Wales were forerunners of our motorcars of today. The automobile was even then in sight, but nobody saw it.

And how about the taxicab? Vitruvius describes a practical taximeter which the ancient Romans attached to their chariots.

Why was steam navigation so long in coming? The paddlewheel of a steamboat is only the familiar waterwheel used in another fashion, and the screw propeller is copied from the windmill.

Though the world had to wait until the fifteenth century for the invention of printing, some of the most important elements of the art were familiar long before. The Chinese printed from wooden blocks in the tenth century of our era, and they even separated characters into movable types 400 years before Gutenberg set up his press at Mainz.

The typewriter ought surely to have come long before it did. In 1714 a patent was taken out in England by Henry Mill for a "machine for impressing letters singly and progressively, as in writing, whereby all writings may be engrossed on paper, so exact as not to be distinguished from print."

The card catalogue seems first to have suggested itself to a French priest and scholar, about 150 years ago, who wrote the titles of the books in his library on playing cards and arranged them endwise in alphabetical order. But the idea remained dormant until taken up and utilized by an American librarian in the fifties of the last century.

Photography seems to have narrowly missed discovery long before the dawning of the art. A camera obscura was exhibited in the sixteenth century by Battista Porta. There was much talk in the following century about the possibility of "making reflections permanent." At the beginning of the nineteenth century Thomas Wedgwood succeeded in making profiles by the action of light upon silver, but many years were destined to elapse before portraits could be produced.

Eighty years ago there was serious economic trouble in Southern Australia because sufficient labor could not be obtained to reap the harvests of great areas planted with wheat. In this emergency a miller named Ridley devised a machine called a "stripper," which, drawn by a pair of horses, pulled the heads off the straw and threshed them. It reduced the cost of harvesting to one-seventh and made the growing and export of grain a flourishing industry.

The odd thing was that Ridley derived his idea from an article in an old encyclopedia about a reaping machine worked by oxen on the plains of ancient Gaul.

Growing Insect Powder

THE bug powder market in Japan is said by news dispatches to be "depressed." This should be cause of elation to the bugs.

During the war there was an enormously increased demand for bug powder—known in the trade as pyrethrum, or "Persian insect powder"—great quantities of it being used in the trenches. The price went sky-high.

Japan exports the stuff by millions of pounds annually. But since the end of the war the demand has fallen off and the price has dropped to one-fourth what it was.

Fortunately, we in this country are independent of foreign supplies of this kind of bug powder. In California it is produced on a big scale, a single farm near Stockton having 300 acres devoted to the plant that yields pyrethrum.

It used to be a mystery. Nobody knew where it came from or what it was made of. For centuries it was familiarly known in Asiatic countries before Europe was acquainted with it. Although the secret was carefully kept, discovery was eventually made that the "Persian powder" was simply the ground-up flower heads of a plant closely resembling our common field daisy. Its efficacy as a bug killer is due to a volatile oil which suffocates insects.

In Europe the plant was first grown extensively in Dalmatia, where at the present time it is cultivated on a vast scale. Our Department of Agriculture, wishing to introduce it into this country, imported the seeds again and again, but they refused to sprout—the reason, as eventually ascertained, being that they had been previously baked by the canny Dalmatian planters.

At length, however, we secured some live ones. Insect powder in bulk may now be bought for twenty cents a pound. Time was when it cost $16 a pound.

Chopped Dollars

A "CHOP," in China, is a trademark. It represents incidentally a guarantee of value, which may be greater or less in proportion to the commercial standing of the firm whose chop it is. The silver dollar in that country is chopped by each firm or money-shop through whose hands it passes. A clean, unchopped dollar is looked upon askance. The chop affixed may be merely an ink stamp, or it may be put on with a sharp die, defacing the coin. Thus a silver dollar, after being in circulation for a while, becomes unrecognizable. A properly guaranteed coin assumes a cup shape, and not infrequently with a hole through the middle. The Chinese silversmith exacts a percentage from the dollars that pass through his hands by scooping out some of the silver.

How Codfish Are Tagged

THE United States Fisheries Bureau is catching codfish and releasing them with numbered aluminum tags attached to their tails, the object in view being to gain some definite knowledge about their migrations and the rate at which they grow. When a tagged codfish is caught again anywhere the fisherman will be expected to send the tag to Washington or to one of the bureau's stations with a memorandum stating the locality, etc. Then the number can be looked up and it will be known how far and in what direction the fish has meanwhile traveled. Also how much it has gained in size and weight during the interval.

The North Atlantic Ocean is after all only a large pond. In places there are shallows called "banks"—as, for instance, off the coast of Newfoundland—where, because the water is not very deep, the bottom is rich in molluscan, crustacean and other forms of marine life. Fishes flock to these banks to feed and there the fishermen gather great harvests. But the fishing may be overdone. On this account the halibut have almost disappeared from certain banks and fears are entertained for the maintenance of the codfish supply. Hence it is that during the last few years the Fisheries Bureau has been hatching codfish eggs by the hundreds of millions and planting the young "fry."

How much good this has done nobody knows. But it is manifest that in trying to help the preservation of any species of fish every bit of information that can be gained regarding its life history is of value. Whence the usefulness of tagging the codfish.

Plague of Muskrats

DONALD L. BREED, Trade Commissioner, representing our Department of Commerce at Prague, reports that muskrats are overrunning Czecho-Slovakia and have become a frightful plague.

Sixteen years ago a sporting nobleman of Bohemia, the Prince of Colleredo Mannsfield, while on a shooting trip in Canada became so interested in muskrats as fur-bearing animals that he took four pairs of them back home with him. Knowing no method of breeding them in captivity, he set them at liberty.

To the business of propagation they proceeded to attend with extraordinary celerity. Whereas in America the female muskrat rarely produces more than one litter a year, of about six offspring, in Bohemia she gives birth to three or four litters of eight or nine young.

Consequently, the species over there has the muskrats are doing enormous damage. They honeycomb the banks of canals, raid vegetable patches and fruit orchards, and where maize is grown they cut down the stalks and carry away the ears bodily.

In Czecho-Slovakia the raising of carp and other fishes in fresh-water inclosures is of great importance. Likewise the growing of crayfish for market. Both of these industries have been largely ruined by the muskrats, which eat the fish eggs and gobble up the crayfish.

The muskrat is native exclusively to America. Transplanted to Europe, it seems to have changed its habits altogether, becoming a marauding animal.

One might imagine that its value as a fur-bearing animal would to some extent offset the damage it does; but, sad to say, in Czecho-Slovakia its fur has become less thick, much coarser and of small market

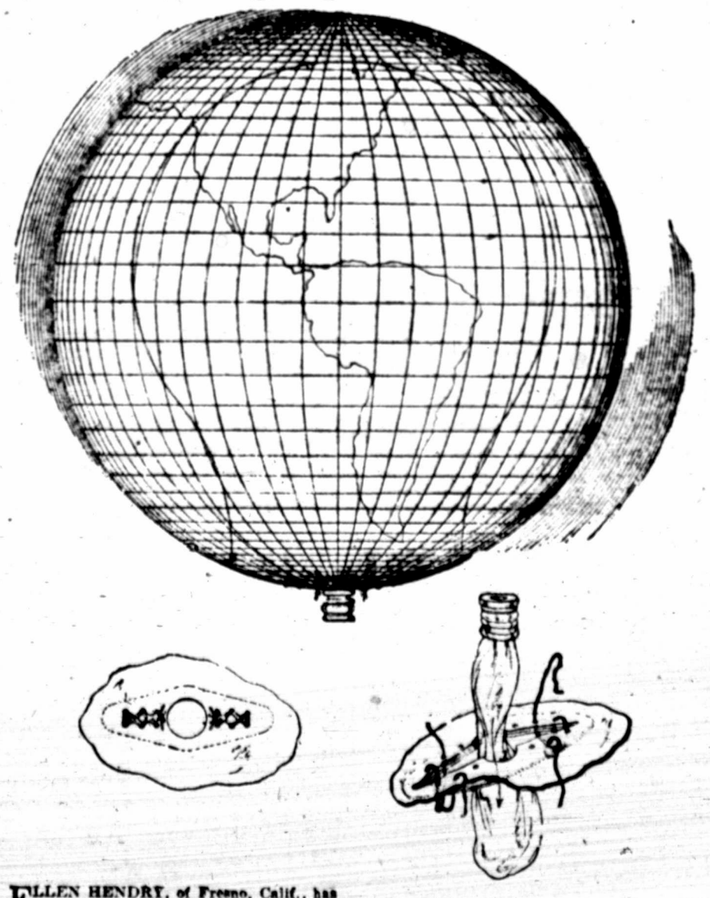
Shark Skin Found Good for Shoes

RECENT tests of sharkskin uppers for shoes by the United States Bureau of Standards were made in a way both ingenious and practical. Pairs were made to order, with one upper of kid and the other upper of shark leather, and these were worn by employes of the bureau.

It was found that the shark leather wore better and longer than the kid. It has the special advantage of being waterproof.

It is officially announced that shark hides yield leather of high quality, suitable for many purposes and attractive for traveling bags, brief cases, desk sets and the like. When the value of the livers for "cod-liver" oil and the availability of the flesh as a meal for feeding animals are taken into consideration, it seems obvious that there is an important future ahead of the shark fishery.

A Geographic Balloon



ELLEN HENDRY, of Fresno, Calif., has newly patented what she calls an "inflatable globe," for instruction in geography.

It is a small balloon, of rubber, contained in an outer envelope of linen or other suitable fabric, the latter being made of two pieces resembling in form those of a baseball cover and stitched together.

The deflated balloon is inserted into this envelope through a slit in the latter, and is then blown up with the breath, the air a button, which, in connection with a second button surrounding the balloon-neck, serves the purpose of a valve.

The air pressure inside the balloon holds the two buttons together, thus, with the help of the twist, making the balloon perfectly air-tight. The above-mentioned slit is laced up, and the result is a sphere suitable for geographical study, inasmuch as a map of the world is printed on the envel-

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—While moderately active, the cotton market was quiet as compared to its recent extreme activity, with prices showing a tendency to work lower during today's early trading. The earlier cables from Liverpool were better than due, but prices there sagged off just before the local opening and the market here started steady at a decline of 10 to 30 points. There was some southern and Liverpool selling as well as scattered realizing, but the offerings were pretty well taken right after the call by trade buying. Some rebuying by traders who had taken profits on long contracts earlier in the week was also reported and the early fluctuations were irregular, with December working up from 19.15 to 19.35 while January fluctuated between 19.10 and 19.30 compared with 19.45 at the close yesterday. The weather map was considered favorable but bullish spot advices from the southwest helped to sustain the early market.

There were rallies of 15 to 20 points during the early afternoon, but trading continued quiet and the market showed continued nervousness, with December ruling around 19.10, shortly after 2 o'clock, or about 42 points net lower.

Rallies on bullish spot advices and rumors of low condition figures failed to attract any important buying and prices weakened later under increased liquidation and local pressure. A good deal of the selling was in small lots, probably representing commission house accounts, but there was not much support and the break carried December off to 19.04, while January sold at 18.87, or 48 to 58 points net lower.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16.—Extensive liquidating operations on the long side were against values in the early trading in cotton today. Liverpool was not up to expectations and the weather over the belt was considered highly favorable for picking the crop, being warm and dry in practically all sections. During the first hour of business, prices lost 20 to 41 points. October trading off to 18.77 a pound.

Liquidation continued for a considerable period, forcing prices 49 to 56 points under the close of yesterday and October to 18.66. A private bureau report on condition of 38.5, indicating a crop of 6,400,000 bales gave the market more steadiness and around 11 o'clock prices were 28 to 30 points up from the lowest.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Bears had an advantage in the wheat market today owing to sterling exchange depression. Complete ending of the Argentine drouth tended also to weaken the market. Initial quotations, which varied from ¼ to 1¼c lower, with December $1.27¾ to $1.28 and May $1.31 to $1.32¼, were followed by a decided further setback, and then something of a rally.

Subsequently, the market scored an advance owing largely to an upturn in foreign exchange and to reports of damage by rains in northwest. The close was unsettled, at the same as yesterday finish to ¾c higher with December at $1.29 to $1.29¼ and May $1.33 to $1.33¼.

Corn opened unchanged to ¼c lower, December 53¾c to 53¾ and then sagged.

In the later dealings corn hardened in response to the wheat rally. Corn closed unsettled, at the same as yesterday's finish to ¼c lower, with December at 53¼ to 53¾.

Talk of better export call in prospect tended somewhat to steady oats. After starting unchanged to ¼c lower, the market declined a little more and then recovered in full.

Higher hogs firmed provisions.

LIVESTOCK

Fort Worth Livestock.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 16.—Cattle sold to a fair inquiry today at prices that were in line with the mid-week decline, but the calf market was again lower and the trade dragged badly. Receipts were estimated at 2,000 head of cattle and 2,500 calves.

Two or three cars of fairly desirable hogs were here, but nothing was toppy enough to bring out the full strength of the market. An outside buyer paid $8.10 for one car, and a load or two went to packers at $8. Bulk sales ranged from $7.50 to $8. The market was called steady, but prices averaged 10c to 15c better than on Wednesday—the low day of the week. Pigs sold about steady, a few fat butcher pigs clearing at $6.65. Hog receipts amounted to 800 head.

Nothing appeared in the sheep house. Some holdover lambs went at $7.50 and $5.25.

Quotations:

Cattle—Beeves $3.00@6.00, stockers $3.00@4.75, cows $2.20@4.50, canners $1.25@2.25, heifers $3.00@6.25, yearlings $3.00@6.50, bulls $1.50@2.75, calves 2.00@6.00.

Hogs—Light $8.00@8.25, medium $7.75@8.00, mixed $7.00@7.75, common $6.00@7.00, heavy $7.50@7.75, rough heavy $6.25@6.50, pigs $6.00@6.50.

Sheep—Lambs $550@7.50, yearlings $4.50@5.00, wethers $4.25@4.50, ewes $3.00@3.25, culls $1.00@2.00, goats $1.25@2.25, stockers $2.00@3.00.

Kansas City Livestock

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—Hogs, receipts 1,200 head; mostly strong to 10c higher; best mediums to packers and shippers $8.30; bulk $7.50@8.25; packing sows and stock pigs steady.

Cattle, receipts 1,300 head; beef steers strong to 15c higher; fresh grassers $5.15 to 6.80; canners, strong; bulk around $2.25; calves steady to weak; top vealers $10; common to good heavies $3.50@6.50; cows $3.00@4.75; common grass heifers $4.00@4.25; feeder steers $5.10@6.10; stockers $3.50@5.00.

Sheep, receipts 1,500 head; sheep and yearlings around 25c higher; feed shorn yearling wethers $6.00; best native ewes $5.00; common to medium natives strong; best $8.50.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The uncertain trend of prices at the active opening of today's stock market indicated further divergence of speculative sentiment. Baldwin, Studebaker and Reading made one point gains, but Baldwin promptly reacted under pressure. Fractional gains in Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt, Crucible Steel, General Electric and American International were offset by heaviness of Royal Dutch, Northerrn Pacific, St. Paul preferred, Texas-Pacific and specialties and comprising the rubber, chemical and copper divisions.

Call money's decline to 4½ per cent at noon coincided with the broad demand for steels, equipments, motors, shippings and specialties. Crucible, Republic and U. S. Steels advanced 1½ to 2½ and American Locomotive, Studebaker, Mercantile Marine preferred and Atlantic 1 to 2 points. Oils and sugars also hardened.

Confusing rallies and reactions marked the later dealings. United States Steel extended its gain to two points, but Baldwin, Mexican Petroleum and minor specialties were easier. The close was steady. Sales approximated 550,000 shares.

It is ordered: That service of such subpoena be made by publishing this order, together with the subpoena, in the Wichita Daily Times, a newspaper published at Wichita Falls, Wichita county, Texas, in said district, once a week for two consecutive weeks, the last of such publications to be not the 15th day of September A. D. 1921, and by mailing a copy of this order and said petition and subpoena to the last known place of abode of the said A. S. Murray and W. C. Chapman, in said district, on or before the day of the first publication.

Witness the Honorable James C. Wilson, jude of the said court, and the seal thereof, at the city of Wichita Falls in said district, on the 7th day of September A. D. 1921. Louis C. Maynard, Clerk. By B. Lantz, Deputy. (Seal.)

SUBPOENA IN BANKRUPTCY.

United States of America, Northern District of Texas.

To Murray & Chapman, a co-partnership composed of A. S. Murray and W. C. Chapman, and A. S. Murray and W. C. Chapman, individually, of Wichita Falls, in Wichita county, state of Texas, in said district—Greeting:

For certain causes offered before the district court of the United States of America within and for the northern district of Texas, as a court of bankruptcy, we command and strictly enjoin you, laying all other matters aside and notwithstanding any excuse, that you personally appear before our district court to be holden at Wichita Falls, Texas, in said district, on the 26th day of September A. D. 1921 at 10 o'clock a. m., to answer a petition filed by Harbison Manfacturing Company, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the state of Missouri, with its principal place of business in Kansas City, Jackson county, state of Missouri; Charles Hill, doing business under the name of Hill Auto Supply Company, of Wichita Falls, Wichita county, Texas, and C. C. Randle, doing business under the name of Randle Auto Supply, of Wichita Falls, Wichita county, state of Texas, in our said court, praying that you may be adjudged a bankrupt; and to do further and receive that which our said district court shall consider in this behalf. And this you are in no wise to omit, under the pains and penalties what may befall thereon.

Witness the Honorable Edward R. Meek, judge of said court, and the seal thereof, at Wichita Falls, Texas, this 7th day of September A. D. 1921. Louis C. Maynard, Clerk. By B. Lantz, Deputy. (Seal.) Sept. 8, 15

SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas, County of Wichita. By virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued out of the honorable District court of Wichita county, on the 30th day of August, 1921, by A. F. Kerr, district clerk, against J. W. Clements for the sum of Fifteen Hundred and no Hundredths ($1,500) Dollars and costs of suit in cause No. 8428-B in said court, styled Rosenberger & Eckles versus J. W. Clements and placed in my hands for service, I, Fred Smith as sheriff of Wichita county, Texas, did on the 8th day of September, 1921, levy on certain real estate situated in Wichita county, described as follows, to-wit: The north 20 acres and the south 20 acres of the west one-half of the east two-thirds of Block No. 22, J. A. Kemp's Wichita Valley land in Wichita county, Texas, and levied upon as the property of said Order of Sale, and on Tuesday, the 4th day of October, 1921, at the courthouse door of Wichita county, in the city of Wichita Falls, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. I will sell said real estate at public vendue for cash to the highest bidder as the property of said J. W. Clements by virtue of said levy and said order of sale. And in compliance with law I give this notice by publication in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale in the Wichita Daily Times, a newspaper published in Wichita county. Witness my hand this the 8th day of September, 1921, Fred K. Smith, Sheriff Wichita County, Texas. By H. C. Dakan, Deputy. Sept. 9, 16, 23

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

The State of Texas, County of Wichita. To those indebted or holding claims against the estate of A. J. Viets, deceased: The undersigned having been appointed as administrator of the estate of A. J. Viets, deceased, late of Wichita county, Texas, by Honorable J. P. Jones, judge of the county court of said county, on the 15th day of June A. D. 1921 during a regular term thereof, hereby notifies all persons indebted to said estate to come forward and make settlement; and those having claims against said estate to present them to him within the time prescribed by law at his office, 229 First National Bank-bldg., Wichita Falls, Wichita county, Texas, where he receives his mail, this 30th day of August A. CITATION BY PUBLICATION

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County, Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon James Scull by making publication of this citation once each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the 89th District court of Wichita County, to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Wichita Falls, on the first Monday in October, A. D. 1921, the same being the third day of October, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the eighth day of September, A. D., 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 11537-C, wherein Rosie Scull is plaintiff and James Scull is defendant and said petition alleging, that plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married to each other on or about Dec. 8, 1917, and that they continuously lived together as husband and wife until about Aug. 1, 1920, at which time they separated from each other and have not since then lived or cohabited together. That defendant was cruel to plaintiff and was guilty of such excesses and cruel treatment toward plaintiff of such a nature as to render their further living together insupportable and plaintiff brings suit for a divorce on account of said cruel treatment and asks for the disolution of the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant. Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 8th day of September, A. D., 1921. A. F. Kerr, Clerk, District Court, Wichita County, Texas. By Eunice Jackson, Deputy. Sept. 9, 16, 23, 30.

EVANGELIST SPEAKS ON PERSISTENT INVITATION MAN MUST LIVE RIGHT

Taking the story of the wedding feast, as described in Matthew, as the theme of the evening, Evangelist Ireland preached to a fair sized audience Thursday night upon the subject of "Why some folks are not Christians."

He declared that, after all the trouble to which the host had gone to prepare this feast, the people invited did not appreciate the invitation, and likewise, men go through life making money and gaining worldly possessions and do not appreciate the many calls and invitations that God gives them to prepare for eternity.

"Some men pass through revival after revival and never give God a thought, with all the invitations that have been given them since the day of Pentecost. They are substituting other things for Christianity, just as the moral man came to the feast without the robes of Christ's power. Thy works will not save thee, you cannot enter the kingdom of God because of the support you have given the Red Cross and other philanthropic organizations, and you cannot use the excuse that there are too many hypocrites in the church, for not preparing for eternity. There are hypocrites in the lodge, in the home, counterfeiters in the banking business, and other hypocrites too numerous to mention. We cannot say that we are as good as some others now in the church, as that is not a fair comparison, and is no excuse for our not being better and accepting Jesus Christ as our personal Saviour.

"The only way we can be saved is by the blood of Jesus Christ and not because our good qualities outweigh bad ones. Some people say there is plenty of time, but now is the accepted time; tomorrow may be too late. Some people refuse to become Christians until they can gain power enough to go all the way, and some backsliders refuse to get right with God again because they have failed once. Should an engineer get up steam enough in his engine to last the entire trip he would blow it to pieces, and we do not hesitate to plant crops just because we made a failure last year, or to try in business because we made one failure. Christ is able and willing to forgive and save, no matter what we have done, just as He did the thief on the cross, and drunken Jerry MacCaully. Christ saved us so we could talk for Him, and God is calling for men and women who are able and willing to confess Him before men. It is better for us to live for a few years with the hypocrites in the church than to have to spend eternity with every hypocrite, of every kind, class and condition that the world has produced, for all the hypocrites will spend eternity in hell because they are not allowed in heaven.

"The sad thing in the church today is not the hypocrisy nor immortality that is rampant everywhere, but is the deaf ears and indifference to the souls that are dying. If we wait till we get strength to endure the whole of the Christian life we shall never start. If we have strength to endure today we should trust to Christ for strength for the morrow. The worldliness and sin that we hold in secret and refuse to give up keep us out of the church, but the only way to get to Christ is through the door of eternity, and we should settle this matter before the door of eternity closes upon us and it is too late."

BLOCK OF HOUSES ON ROCKAWAY BEACH BURN

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A block of hotels, bath houses and amusement places on the boardwalk of Rockaway Beach, on Long Island, and vies with its neighbor, Coney Island, as a city summer resort, was destroyed by fire, some estimates placing the loss at $150,000.

Two men were missing from one of the hotels after the flames were under control.

EMBARK IN YACHT FOR CRUISE AROUND WORLD

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Arthur Curtiss James, former commodore of the New York Yacht club, embarked with a small party today in his 218-foot yacht, Aloha, for a 33,000-mile cruise around the world. The trip will last until next May.

The first leg of the voyage will take them through the Panama canal and to Honolulu.
