SPEAKERS TELL CIVIC LUNCHEON

Brotherhood Is Vital Challenge

Three Air Force officers, and a civilian, spoke at a luncheon on the theme of brotherhood, which was the vital challenge of American people today, the speakers declared.

They spoke at a combined luncheon of Lions, Kiwanis and Jaycees with ministers of Negro and Latin-American churches as special guests.

"We think about Communism," said Lt. Col. B. F. Meacham, wing chaplain, "and we'll fight it with our backs to the wall."

"But we military can only hold the line until we defeat it all with brotherhood."

Capt. A. J. Grill, chief of fleet training, declared that "racial segregation is an insult to God and all human rights."

"We don't tolerate people," added Major Robert L. Rader, chief of base operations at Webb, "we either accept them or reject them."

The speakers were introduced by Rev. Ruth Barnett, pastor of First Christian Church and Kiwanian, who coordinated the program for Mayor H. J. Beaman, who annually has chairmaned National Brotherhood Week observance here.

The joint civic club luncheon in Civic House was the major 1964 observance here for National Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Council of Christians and Jews.

Col. Meacham, declaring that the brotherhood is the vital battle of America, emphasized that there must be brotherhood among the races of men.

"The real job is in the hearts of men," he stated. "We in the military can only hold the line until we win the battle in our hearts."

Meacham said there is no use in talking about world brotherhood, however, until we learn brotherhood at home.

"And if we can't live with others here at home," the chaplain pointed out, "we can't teach the world."

Meacham said he was born in North Carolina with south of the Mason-Dixon line prejudices.

"But prejudices must go if brotherhood is to prevail," he

WINK HIGH'S NIX NAMED C-CITY COACH

Truman Nix, 38-year-old Lorraine native who has coached Wink into a perennial West Texas football power, is the new head coach for Colorado High School.

He was named to the top coaching job and athletic directorship at a special meeting of the Colorado City school board Saturday afternoon.

In seven seasons at Wink, his teams have won 60 victories against only 21 defeats and 1 tie.

His victory path included three regional Class B (1960), Class A state semi-finalist (1961), second in district both in 1962 and 1963.

Nix, a graduate of Lorraine High and McMurry College, has served two years on board of directors, Texas High School Coaches Association. Twice he was nominated to coach the Texas High School all-star team, served 3 times on the association's all-star selection board as chairman, and headed the association's presidential nomination committee one year.

He's Former Principal, Trustee

Curtis Latimer, stock farmer with a background in school administration, will be a candidate for trustee on Colorado Independent School District board.

He filed for a place on the ballot Friday and became the second candidate in the April election that will decide two places on the board.

Previously announced as a candidate is R. Y. Hammond, who will be seeking reelection to his second term.

John K. Grubbs, Texas Highway Department employee, withdrew his candidacy Thursday because of the conflict of interest a school board member may have with a state policy governing political activities of Texas employees.

Latimer, a college graduate with a permanent certificate in school administration, served two terms on the school board from 1951 to 1955.

His candidacy for election in April is based on his continuing interest in public school education and in the belief that his interest and experience can be of assistance to the school board and school system.

"I believe the school board and superintendent have accomplished a good job — upgrading our school system in an economical manner," Latimer stated.

"But there is not a stopping place in education. We must keep moving forward, always improving in all areas of education."

"And that is my aim — to conscientiously help to improve our school system year-by-year in an all-around, balanced program without putting one segment against another."

Latimer, in addition to serving previously on the board, twice has been principal of Colorado Junior High from 1946 to 1947 and again from 1957 to 1959. Immediately after graduation from Sam Houston State College and before entering World War II military service, he was principal of elementary school and junior high at Avery.

In addition, he served for eight years as a teacher and coordinator of Veterans Agriculture School here in Mitchell County after World War II.

Latimer attended Paris Junior College and Texas A&M before obtaining a bachelor of science degree in agriculture at Sam Houston State.

During the war he was commissioned as a bombardier in the Air Corps, serving as an instructor until leaving service in 1936 as a captain.

Latimer is chairman of Mitchell County Agriculture Stabilization & Conservation Committee, president of Christian Men's Fellowship at First Christian Church, former deacon at his church, former board member of Buford Co-op Gin.

He and Mrs. Latimer, who headed the homemaking department at Colorado Junior High for eight years in two separate spans, are parents of three sons — Dan, a Texas Christian University sophomore; Don, junior at Colorado High; and John Baxter, 3.

BEGINNING HERE MONDAY

Special Events Mark Public School Week

Colorado City public schools will observe Texas 14th Annual Public Schools Week with two special open house events.

The Hutchinson and Wallace open house events are scheduled Tuesday evening at the two schools.

Emphasis will be not for extra events, but for providing an opportunity for parents and other adults to see the schools in actual day-to-day operation.

Public Schools Week begins Monday and will continue through Friday as designated in official proclamation by Governor John Connally.

"The public is always invited to visit our schools at any time during the school year," Supt. Frank Wilson said, "but this invitation and welcome is particularly emphasized during Public Schools Week."

And the school staffs sincerely hope that citizens will visit our schools at their own convenience and see first hand how our educational program is conducted and administered.

However, certain events on the school calendar in addition to open house programs at Hutchinson Elementary and Wallace schools may be of special interest to the public.

The Hutchinson and Wallace open house events are scheduled Tuesday evening at the two schools.

Hutchinson program will begin at 7 p. m. and will include a concert by Hutchinson Band, visitation with teachers and inspection of rooms.

A film, "A Desk," a story by Billy Davis, will be shown also at the Hutchinson open house.

Wallace School's open house program will begin at 7:30 p. m. and will emphasize visitation of rooms and other facilities.

On the calendar Monday, opening day of Public Schools Week will be a Junior High girls' volleyball game between Colorado City and Snyder's 9th grade teams. It will be in Colorado High gym in the afternoon following school.

Concluding their final meeting of the year will be the Colorado Independent School District's official textbook selection committee, with Supt. Wilson as chairman and T. D. Wiman Jr., vice chairman.

Wednesday in High School, according to Rev. K. Quessenberry, pastor.

Rev. Quessenberry said the public of the entire area is invited to attend the dedicatory services.

Morning worship services will begin at 9 a. m. March 15, according to Rev. K. Quessenberry.

FOX, HILLHOUSE NAMED TO DISTRICT SQUAD

Two Colorado High players have been named to the District 3-AAA basketball team.

They are Freddy Fox, the big senior center for the Wolves, and Ronald Hillhouse, talented junior guard.

Five schools were represented on the all-district first team: Snyder, Sweetwater, Lamesa, Lake View and Brownfield.

Both the first and second teams were selected by District 3-AAA coaches and announced Saturday. In reality, the district teams are all-opponent teams because coaches could not vote for their own players.

Here's the line-up for the first team: Jimmy Wilson of Snyder, Benny Pace of Sweetwater, Wayne Robinson of Lamesa, Joe Hartman of Lake View and Gary Munn of Brownfield.

Named to the second team were: Drew Bullard of Snyder, Jim Anderson of Lamesa, Fox of Colorado City, Charles Applin of Lamesa, Leslie Brown of Snyder, Hillhouse of Colorado City, Sam Kell of Lake View and Jesse Blann of Lake View.

Self Culture Club Hears Of Brazil

Brazil was the study subject of the Self Culture Club in the home political institutions, and in the bright future which they

Mrs. A. J. Jackson, leader for the day, spoke on "The Great Country and Its People." Mrs. Carl Knieff's subject was "Religion, Art, and Government."

In speaking of the country and people of Brazil, Mrs. Jackson said, "Carnival is in a way symbolic of Brazilian form of government, with a people. They are warm, gay, talkative and hospitable. They that of the United States, she are proud people. They take pride in their vast and beautiful country, promises.

Mrs. Knieff told club members that the major religion of Brazil is Catholicism, with 95 out of 100 Brazilians being Roman Catholics. The major Protestant religion is Lutheran.

Brazil has a democratic form of government, with a constitution modeled after that of the United States, she said. The president and vice president are elected by popular vote for five-year terms and may not serve more than one term. Members of the Senate are elected for terms of eight years with three senators for each state. The lower house of the legislative branch is called the Chamber of Deputies with members elected on a population basis for each state for terms of four years.

Judicial branch, the Supreme Federal Tribunal, has eleven justices appointed for life by the president with approval by the Senate. Any citizen over eighteen years of age and able to read and write is eligible to vote, Mrs. Knieff said.

Fine arts flourish in Brazil with architecture a vivid testimony. A Brazilian architect was one of ten architects who designed the United Nations building in New York City.

FOR MARANATHA STUDY CLUB

Mrs. P. H. Pace Reviews Life of Simon, The Rock

Simon, The Rock was the subject of the talk given to the Maranatha Study Club recently by Mrs. P. H. Pace. "Of all the disciples Simon Peter is probably the most well known. The human traits of this man are time after time illustrated in the four gospels, revealing his impulsive actions, his steadfast loyalty, and his denial of Christ. In every list of the twelve, it is Peter who is named first," Mrs. Pace said in her opening remarks.

"Mark's gospel is nothing other than the preaching material of Peter. It must always stand to the honor of Peter that he kept nothing back. He tells of his own mistakes, of the rebukes he sometime received from his Master, of his own disloyalty. Peter concealed nothing, for he wished to show the length to which the forgiving love and re-creating grace of Christ had gone for him," she told her audience.

She told that Peter was a fisherman and that it was from the boats and nets that Jesus called him on the shore of Galilee, saying "Follow me and I will make you a fisher of men." Mrs. Pace told that in the gospel records Peter stands out as the spokesman for the twelve, and was the first to express a conviction of the Messiahship of Jesus.

"In the latter part of Jesus' ministry he called the disciples to him in Caesarea, Phillipi, where He asked them, do you say that I am? It was Peter who answered, 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God.' Commending Peter for his insight, Christ said, 'Blessed are you Simon Bar-Jona!'

revealed this to you, but my Father which is in heaven, and I say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, the speaker said.

Mrs. Pace said that it was Peter who was spokesman of the church on the day of Pentecost and who preached the first Christian sermon. She said it was through Peter's action in the case of Cornelius that church experienced the great realization that "God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life."

"Peter's challenge is one that men of all ages have to face. He had the same weaknesses and some of the strengths we possess today. In daring, self-confidence, he cried, 'Lord, I am ready to go with Thee, both into prison and death,' and later denied that he knew Christ. He afterward wept in bitter repentance," she said.

"When Peter preached on the day of Pentecost and the Jewish officials scoffed, the disciples to stop preaching in the name of Christ, Peter refused. We ought to obey God rather than men. He was indeed, Peter, a rock," Mrs. Pace concluded.

Mrs. Sam Thibault spoke on the importance of a healthy home life. Her talk related the lack of security and discipline in home life to the resulting warped personality of an individual, which may cause him to become a threat to his family and to society. Mrs. Thibault said that Christians must stand as a bulwark against the collapse of family life in America.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Helen Bagwell. Mrs. W. N. Miller spoke the opening prayer. Mrs. Charles Stevens was accepted into the membership of the club.

1949 STUDY CLUB

Mrs. Henderson Names Committees

Committees for the new study club season of the 1949 Club which begins in September were appointed, at a recent meeting, by president Mrs. Tharon Henderson. Standing committees for 1964 include Yearbook—Mrs. Sparks, Mrs. Dwight Tomb;

H. Jene Steakley, Mrs. Abene Morris, Mrs. Tom Neff Press, book—Mrs. Gwan Strange; Mrs. Dick Gregory; Courtesy—Mrs. Joe Weaver; Telephone—Mrs. Bill Carter, Mrs. Art Dible; Membership—Mrs. Ben Sparks, Mrs. Dwight Tomb;

Finance—Mrs. Jerry Konecny; Mrs. Jack Jordan, Jr.; Mrs. Robert Barman; Entertainment—Mrs. Bill Holbert, Mrs. Ben Sparks; Publicity—Mrs. Paul Gilbert. Federation divisions are Home Life—Mrs. Jordan, Public Affairs—Mrs. Sparks; Conservation—Mrs. Dible; Education—Mrs. Steakley; Pipe Art—Mrs. Neff; International Clubs—Mrs. Tomb; Texas Heritage—Mrs. Barman; International Affairs—Mrs. Holbert.

In other business, club members selected a cover design for the cook book they are compiling. The cook book will be ready in April and may be ordered from any member of the club. Recipes in the book are favorites of various residents of Colorado City.

Mrs. Gerald Gordon, guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. Barman, program leader. She reviewed the book, "Upon This Rock" by Dr. Frank C. Slaughter. Mrs. Gordon told her audience that this was the thirty-ninth best seller by Dr. Slaughter, and his seventh religious book. Fifteen years in the writing, this novel closely describes Simon Peter, Prince of the Apostles, the one Jesus loved most, Mrs. Gordon said.

"His human frailties are dealt with lovingly as Dr. Slaughter shows the power of the man so strong that Christ chose him as the rock upon which his indestructible church would be built," she concluded.

Meeting was hosted by Mrs. Arlene Morris at the Villa Inn Restaurant. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Gordon, Hanson Clark, Glenn Nolte, Fred Marberry, Bob Chalker, Trevlyn Kelly, guests of club members. Members attending were Mrs. Carter, Gilbert, Weaver, Konecny, Tomb, Henderson, Steakley, Jordan, Neff, Smith, Barman, Gregory, Sparks, Morris, Dible.

Houston Residents

Mrs. Bob Cornelius and daughter, Misti Lynn, have returned to their home in Houston after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Jack Johnston, here.

One of the recommendations of the Youth Study Group of the Nolan County Program Building Committee was for community 4-H Clubs to be organized in all communities in Nolan County.

Community 4-H Clubs are often referred to as "the hub" of 4-H Club work or "little democracies in action," with their elected officers, local adult leaders, junior leaders, and subject matter leaders.

Divide 4-H Club

The Divide Community 4-H Club was organized October 10, 1963. The club now includes thirty boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 21. Parents and other interested adults also attend the meeting.

The members plan their club meetings a year in advance, based on the interests of the 4-H members. They were assisted in making their plans by Extension Agents, Sue Hawthorn and M. B. Templeton and the organization leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Meigs.

It has been found that the community clubs which meet at night are stronger and more progressive because the boys and girls are a more interested group.

Programs

The program at the club meetings consists of four parts: Inspiration, about 10 minutes; Business, about 15 minutes; Program, about 15 to 20 minutes; and Recreation, 30 to 45 minutes.

Each member of the community club also has an active demonstration in a subject relating to agriculture or home economics. Subject matter leaders work with these members in developing a result demonstration by helping them select materials for the demonstration. They meet regularly with the members to teach them about the particular subject. They also assist them in developing method demonstration to present 4-H club meetings, school assemblies, civic clubs, TV programs and other community affairs.

Blackwell

There is a community 4-H Club at Blackwell. Mr. and Mrs. Terry Barrett are the organization leaders. Plans are underway to organize a community 4-H Club in Roscoe in the near future.

In closing Miss Boyd reminded members that "if a man does not make new friendship as he advances through life he will soon find himself alone. A man should keep his friendship in constant repair."

We the Women

By Ruth Millett

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A reader who claims she has a "wonderful mother-in-law" describes her in terms that ought to give a lot of women a hint as to what makes a mother-in-law a jewel in her daughter-in-law's eyes.

"She brags about me to my husband — calling his attention to how clever I was to make professional-looking curtains for the living room, what a good cook I am, how much she likes the way I've fixed up our house, etc."

"She admires the clothes I buy and the things I select for the house without asking me what they cost, or implying that I am being extravagant with her son's money."

"She gives me her opinion when I ask for it. She does not volunteer advice or try to convince me that I am making a mistake to do this or that."

"She asks, 'Is there anything I can do to help you?' when there is illness in the family or the work piles up, but she doesn't act hurt if I assure her that I have everything under control."

"She loves her grandchildren, but never tries to tell me how to raise them or subtly criticize me for the way I handle them."

"I can tell her anything I like, knowing she won't discuss my personal business with her friends."

"She is good company, being able to talk with a variety of outgoing sort of person who laughs easily — even at her."

"But, most important of all, she treats me like a daughter, rather than like a daughter-in-law. That sums up everything else I have said about her."

Any mother-in-law ought to get some good ideas out of that letter.

Chevelle balanced performance is best!

Passing, cornering, threading through traffic, sudden stops—Chevelle excels all around! Chevrolet's new surprise package has what it takes to meet any driving challenge: Six or V8 engines, hefty brakes, Full Coil suspension—and a trim size that makes the most of them!

Chevelle means performance aplenty—standard 120-hp Six or 195-hp V8—and optional at extra cost, a 155-hp Six, a 220-hp V8, a new 327-cu.-in. V8! But Chevelle's performance means more, Chevelle's a foot shorter than the big cars. And the space Chevelle saves in size comes off the ends, not the middle. So it rides like you want a car to ride.

Chevelle lets you choose Powerglide*, 4-speed manual* or 3-speed manual transmission. Knowing how people like the custom touch, we wrote out a long list of extra-cost options. Knowing all this, what's keeping you from a test drive? Certainly not your Chevrolet dealer! *Optional at extra cost.

NEW YORK (NEA)—Does it ever seem to you that the future keeps getting further away? That thought may occur if you cruise through time in General Motors' Futurama at the '39 World's Fair.

The '39 Futurama was perhaps the single exhibit which attracted most attention. It created what designer Norman Bel Geddes imagined the world would be like in 1960—then 20 years in the future.

Geddes made some fine guesses (the double-decked George Washington Bridge was forecast accurately), but he missed badly, too. He predicted that there would be 36 million cars in the United States in 1960; there were actually 61 million.

And many of the fanciful features of his 1960 world still seem remote in the future.

Directly ahead is a modern experimental farm and dairy, narrator Edgar Barrier spoke in '39. "Note the terraced fields and strip planting. The fruit trees bear abundantly under individual glass housings. Strange? Fantastic? Unbelievable? Remember, this is the world of 1960."

Glass housings for fruit trees are still strange, fantastic and unbelievable in the world of 1964.

The General Motors dreamers have whizzed on to the surface of the future. The Futurama for the current World's Fair—they are projecting a world of 25 years hence, or 1989—now have their fruit trees roughing it outside.

This Futurama is again an imaginative show. You will ride along in a moving chair, with a loud speaker built in at ear level, and watch a panorama of exciting notions of the future. You'll start in space, as ex-

Hints For Management Of Dairies

COLLEGE STATION — The term management doesn't always mean the same to different dairymen. To some dairymen, observes Shannon E. Carpenter, area dairy specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, management means the methods used to achieve a goal while others say it is the doing of many small things well.

Carpenter sees the efficient dairy manager as one who can skillfully blend into an overall program such items as breeding, feeding, sanitation and labor to produce a quality product at the lowest possible cost.

A good manager, he adds, will spend some time away from the farm searching for new and better methods for doing the job. He will study improved equipment as it becomes available and new barn designs for leads to improve efficiency and management practices. Also, he must plan to advance the breeding program to be followed and study the inherent capabilities of animals to be used in the herd.

Mr. Carpenter points out, the good manager will give serious study to environmental problems for he knows that only under favorable conditions can cows reach their inherent potential.

The specialist says it is difficult to standardize the environment for dairy cows and next to impossible to provide management recommendations on a formula or recipe basis. Dairy management, he adds, is a continuing, tedious and continuous job that does give satisfaction to the manager who takes pride in his work.

Carpenter lists these qualities as basic for a good dairy manager: honesty, intelligence, loyalty, a hard worker who is tolerant and possesses common sense and is ikaoig and at the same time can give orders. It will also help, he adds, if he has business experience and a good knowledge of veterinary medicine and is a dairyman. If you as a dairyman have these qualifications or you have a manager who does, the definition of management doesn't make much difference, concludes Carpenter, because you are in a favorable position.

A physician treating the ailing war veteran said York suffered a "slight relapse" in his latest battle against age and illness Friday.

Dr. Guy Pinckley said he had "resumed intravenous feeding" for the 76-year-old Medal of Honor winner, admitted last weekend for treatment of dehydration.

A Swedish Delight: Prunes-Pork

By Gaynor Maddox
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
You need not be Swedish to enjoy this prune-studded roast loin of pork. All you need is a good appetite, and a willingness to try dishes that have a European appeal.

The recipe for Pineapple Pepper Steak has a South Pacific slant. Try it for kicks.

SWEDISH LOIN OF PORK WITH PRUNE GRAVY

(44 servings)

3-4 pound pork loin
15-20 prunes
1½ teaspoons salt
1½ teaspoons ginger
Dash pepper
¾ cup chopped prunes for each cup of gravy

Trim excess fat from meat. Rinse prunes; cut in half and remove pits. Cut pockets in meat and insert prunes. This should be done at regular intervals, so a design will be formed when meat is sliced. Rub surface of meat with salt, ginger and pepper. Tie chops together if necessary with piece of string. Place in roasting pan. Roast uncovered in a slow oven (325 degrees) for 2 to 2½ hours. Remove roast and make gravy of pan drippings. To each cup of gravy add ¾ cup chopped prunes.

PINEAPPLE PEPPER STEAK

(6 servings)

Bright green pepper and pineapple tidbits accent the richly browned flank steak.

2 pounds flank steak

1 cup pineapple tidbits

2 tablespoons fat for browning

3 tablespoons soy sauce

1 medium-sized green pepper

1 (8-ounce) can pineapple tidbits

Score flank steak on both sides and slash around edges to prevent curling. Season with salt, pepper and pinch of mustard. Brown in hot fat about 2 minutes on each side. Sprinkle with soy sauce. Slice green pepper in thin rings and spread over meat. Pour undrained pineapple tidbits over.

Carpenter lists these qualities as basic for a good dairy manager: honesty, intelligence, loyalty, a hard worker who is tolerant and possesses common sense and is ikaoig and at the same time can give orders. It will also help, he adds, if he has business experience and a good knowledge of veterinary medicine and is a dairyman. If you as a dairyman have these qualifications or you have a manager who does, the definition of management doesn't make much difference, concludes Carpenter, because you are in a favorable position.

A joint communique said the two nations agreed to the resumption of "natural brotherly relations" and to the exchange of relations. The break last year came when the U.A.R. sided with Algeria in its border dispute with Morocco.

Color Of Street Line Becomes Major Issue

NEW YORK (UPI)—A racial line innocently designed to keep the south-bound automobiles from the north-bound, and vice versa. But last year the line became the epicenter of a storm involving the Irish, the Italians, and Spaniards and assorted other nationalities.

This is a town where the politicians eat bagels in Brooklyn, pizza on the Lower East Side, and drink German beer in Yorkville, even if they happen to be Anglo-Saxon Protestants.

So, over the years, the politicians have bowed to pressure and allowed the line down Fifth Avenue to be repainted green for St. Patrick's Day every March 17.

Last year, as the Italian faction girded for their annual Columbus Day celebration, their leaders thought: why not have the line along Fifth Avenue painted purple for the occasion? After all, the Irish have it repainted every year.

Enter Henry A. Barnes, traffic commissioner, a stern and efficient man newly arrived from Baltimore, with small patience for all this sentimental ity. He told the Italians no. Up in arms when all groups, and under pressure from city hall Barnes agreed to the purple line — on the condition that the line never would be repainted again.

Begins Campaign
Today, in a surprising burst of cordiality, John N. Lacorte of the Italian Historical Society, began a campaign to have the line painted green once again for the rapidly approaching St. Patrick's Day festivities.

In a letter he implored Mayor Robert F. Wagner to "give the Irish a green line without any fear of further requests for a purple line from us."

La Corte said the Italians never would have made their request of last year "if we knew it would result in taking away the green line. I have the same affection for it the Irish have and I wouldn't want it on my conscience for us not to have it this year."

Queried about the matter, Barnes' office disclosed that the Ancient Order of Hibernians, organizers of the St. Patrick's Day parade, had disclosed in a letter that they didn't want a green line any more.

Mayor Wagner, a gent of German extraction, had no comment.

PHARR (UPI)—The University of Houston signed two members of the Class AAA state finalists Pharr-San Juan-Alamo football team Friday.

Coach Bill Yeoman announced he had received the applications of tackle Ernest Nagy and fullback Jody Powers.

Harry won the trick with the jack and while he still made his ace of trumps he had no way to get his partner in the lead to give him that club ruff.

Cliff had been lucky in that he found the jack of diamonds in Harry's hand but he had given the cards a chance.

Cliff paused to consider what was going on and came to the conclusion that Harry held the ace and one spade and was setting up a club ruff.

He also saw that he must keep Harry from putting his partner in the lead with a heart.

Cliff saw a way that might foil Harry's plan. He cashed dummy's king of diamonds; overlook dummy's queen with his ace; led his ten of diamonds and discarded dummy's last heart.

Harry won the trick with the jack and while he still made his ace of trumps he had no way to get his partner in the lead to give him that club ruff.

Cliff had been lucky in that he found the jack of diamonds in Harry's hand but he had given the cards a chance.

Plans to initiate two new members at a called meeting on Saturday morning, March 7, were made by members of Chapter BH, P.E.O., when they met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Rob Prentiss, 1309 East 14th.

The called meeting will be a coffee at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Tom M. Marsh, 1010 Silas.

Mrs. Willis Davis gave the Cotley College program, relating information about the college in the form of a soliloquy by a Sweetwater girl bound for Cotley on a bus.

Founded in 1884, Cotley College in Nevada, Mo., has been owned and sponsored by the P.E.O. Sisterhood since 1927.

The college, because it is endowed and because it receives help yearly from P.E.O.'s of the nation, can offer a liberal arts course including music for about half the cost in comparable colleges and universities elsewhere.

It is a fully accredited junior college, and offers for its graduates a scholarship loan fund to continue college attendance.

Since 1950 the college has had more than 100 International Peace Scholarship students from 40 countries.

A guest from the program and the social hour was Mrs. Harry Carmichael, Mrs. Prentiss served a dessert course and coffee to Mmes. Carmichael, Foster, McHenry, Charles H. Byrd, Charles Bledsoe, Willis Davis, Prentiss, Glenn Russell, A. E. McClain, and J. K. Richardson.

Mrs. Simmons Presents HD Club Program

The Center Home Demonstration Club of Roby met Tuesday in the R.E.A. Building with the president, Mrs. Fred Waddell, presiding.

Mrs. Horace Mitchell read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report. Roll call was answered with "my skin problems."

Mrs. James Cave was elected nominee for T.H.D.A. chairman. A cosmetic demonstration was given by Mrs. Alice Simmons.

She discussed the kind of creams that different type skins require. She illustrated her talk by giving a facial showing how creams should be applied to the face, how to massage and how astringents should be used.

She advised members how to buy the right kind of foundation creams and powder. Cookies, spaced tea, and coffee were served by the hostess, Mrs. H. C. Bettis, to Mmes. Mancel Randolph, Melvill Jarrogin, James Cave, O. O. Hallaugh, Waddell, Joe Morris, Thurman Terry, Nina Cave, Z. H. Anderson, Will Moore, three new members—Mmes. Freddy Mac Stuart, Tracy King, and Lenora Bullock.

Mrs. Thurman will be hostess for the next meeting on March 13, with the program on "yeast breads."

"I Shall Keep This Lent"

"LENT" means springtime. It is an old Latin word which means a forty day fasting period next before Easter. It begins with Ash Wednesday and continues till Easter, exclusive of Sundays. It is a time for the conditioning of our soil... a time for our souls to become penitent. It simply means that it is spading up time, the season for planting seeds and for setting blooming trees.

In the realm of the spirit it is a call to get ready for the season of beauty and goodness. Who amongst us is satisfied with what he is or what he has been? Then let us qualify for the Lenten Season. Let us clear away the rubbish of last year's crop, cut under the old stalks. May we learn from our Lord to give ourselves to good conditioning during Lent. The miracle of Lent is genuine repentance which leads to Newness of Life. A Sainly Keeper of Lent said it well when he spoke the words, "I shall keep this Lent, and hope to refresh my soul." Amen
