

Homecoming Plans Begun

Halls of Hart High School and Junior High are a-buzz with activity and feverish plans for a gala homecoming week which gets underway with decorating Monday evening Oct. 25 and is climaxed by the Longhorns-Wolverines game Friday night, Oct. 29.

Theme of the week will be Maroon and White and halls will be decorated Sunday afternoon and Monday evening. Tuesday will be "Spook 'Em Day" and big events are planned for the evening. The giant bonfire is slated for 9:30 p.m. with the coronation of the Bonfire King. Following ceremonies there, a Longhorn Locomotive will weave its way from school to downtown Hart. All fans are invited to join in the vehicle-pedestrian "train" of Longhorn boosters.

Thursday is Maroon and White Day and Friday is Dress Up Day and Spirit Day. Football players will be honored with a pinning ceremony at 10:51 a.m. Sponsored by the Pep Squad, the girls will crown their King at this time.

A giant pep rally will be held at 3:30 p.m. with all Longhorn fans invited. Booster Club members will begin serving chili at 5 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Booster Club members extend a supper invitation to everyone. Serving hours are 5 to 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Cost is $1.50 for adults; $1 for students.

The 1976 Homecoming Queen will be crowned at ceremonies preceding the 7:30 football game. Immediately following the game, a Hart High School fellowship hour is slated. Admission is 50 cents and the event will be held in elementary gym. Tape and record music will provide background; refreshments will be served.

All supporters are asked to help with a bonfire wood gathering Saturday, Oct. 23.

Tucker Wins Week's Contest, Howell Holds Season Lead

Upsets continue to plague "favorites" of the football games featured in the Hart Beat's guessing game but most contestants fared pretty well.

Lanny Tucker was the lone contestant to miss as few as three games and easily claims first place money for the week. Other winners fought it out via the tie-breaker.

Nine contestants missed four games each. Mary Lou Rountree of Dimmitt came nearest to the actual score of the Baltimore Colts 28-14 victory over Miami. She missed by eight points with a 20-14 prediction and wins second place.

Third place money, $2, will be divided equally by Weldon Jones and Harmon R. Bishop of Lubbock who were each off 10 points. Their respective predictions were 24-20 and 28-24.

Others who missed four games and their predictions were Winston Rountree, 11, 21-10; Benny McClain, 12, 34-20; Ethel Averitt, 12, 20-18; Ted Averitt, 21, 35-28 and Harold Smith, 28, 46-24.

Lonnie Joe Howell holds a one-point edge for the season over Billy Hackleman and Everette Heller. Howell has 66 correct predictions for the six weeks of competition. Contestants with 56 or more correct guesses are listed elsewhere in this issue.

Continuing to sound like a broken record, we repeat, NO CONTESTANT SHOULD GIVE UP. Discouragement from trailing by a number of points should not cause any one to stop competing for the top prize because standings could change each week.

Any contestant, too, can be a winner for the week. Bishop, who tied for third place this week, was a first time competitor. It costs nothing to enter and you could win cash prizes while proving your ability to predict the outcome of a number of grid games.

It costs nothing to enter. Pick a winner for each of the games appearing in the ads of sponsoring merchants, circle the corresponding number on the entry blank, predict a tie-breaker score and fill in the entry blank with name and address.

Band Films Shown Lions At Monday Club Meeting

Band Director Jerry Jansa showed sound color films of the Longhorn Band's performances in the 1975 and 1974 marching contests to Hart Lions at their regular luncheon meeting Monday.

Jansa explained that specific maneuvers are required at marching contests. He also noted that bands are penalized one rating for failure to complete performances in the allotted time. Bands must be on the field at least five minutes, he said, and no longer than eight.

Lion Boss Weldon Jones reminded Lions that October is membership month and encouraged each member to get a new member by the club's next meeting, Oct. 25.

Committeemen announced by Jones included Bob Bowden, crippled children's camp; Gene Huntsinger, district convention; Elra Phillips, Girlstown; Kim Williamson, membership; Ted Averitt, public relations; Bob Reed, sight conservation; and Bill Rich, water resources environment.

One guest, Keith Calhoun, attended.

Friday Deadline For Orders

Friday, Oct. 15 is the final day for placing orders for shelled pecans from members of Hart Longhorn Band. The superior quality pecans sell for $3 per pound and will be delivered in time for Thanksgiving and Christmas baking.

Contact any member of the band to place orders.

School Board Discusses Insurance, Adult Classes

School board members, meeting Monday evening, heard a report on the adult education classes in bookkeeping, conversational Spanish and learning to speak English. The classes are held each Tuesday night from 7 to 10 p.m. in the elementary building.

Charles Black of Hi-Plains Insurance met with the board to explain the premiums and coverages of insurance on the school buildings, houses and motor vehicles.

McMorries and Company was approved to work with the Hart ISD Equalization Board on real and personal values for the 1977 year.

An enrollment report of 661 was given with 396 in kindergarten through sixth grade and 265 in seventh through twelfth.

Adult Education Classes Held Each Tuesday Night

Adult education classes are being held each Tuesday evening in Hart Elementary building with sessions running from 7 to 10 p.m.

HOMECOMING PLANS REVEALED

By Cindy Brooks

The Student Council at Hart High School has been discussing Homecoming plans for '76. Homecoming will be Oct. 29. Everyone is invited to participate in the activities.

Homecoming Week will be observed October 25-29 with each day having a different theme. A bonfire has been scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 27 at 9:30 p.m.

A social gathering will be held for Hart High School students in the elementary gym after the football game. Sandwiches, Cokes, dips and chips will be served. Fifty cents admission will be charged. Tapes and records will provide music.

ELECTIONS ARE RUN

By Laurey Franks

The fury of the national elections has spread to the fifth and sixth grade Social Studies class at Hart Elementary School. The students have exhibited more excitement over the present political "storm" than most adults.

Mr. Fanning, social studies teacher, is attempting to illustrate the process of national politics to his students.

This study unit consists of primaries, elections, the electoral college, and various other aspects of politics. The classes are divided into political parties and each run candidates for president, vice-president, senator, and congressman. Some parties have already split into third parties. "Just like national parties."

According to straw polls Jimmy Carter is leading at a ratio of 15 to 1.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

By Lisa Nelson

Arcelia Garza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albino Garza, is more commonly known as "RC" around Hart High School. Arcelia attends American History, English IV and I.C.T. and works at B&K in the afternoons. She attends all of Harts football games where she actively participates in Pep Squad. In her spare time, Arcelia enjoys riding horses, reading and sewing.

Jo Bass Complimented With Farewell Party

Jo Bass of Lubbock was feted recently with a farewell party in the home of Mrs. DeWayne Brown.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Theron Morrison.

Laid with a hand decorated cloth of harvest colors, the party table was centered with two glowing pumpkins and candles. Appointments were brass. Refreshments were served by Mmes. Joe Percy Hart and Albert Key.

Attending were Mmes. Weaver McClure, Vernon Bostick and Warren Lemons, all of Plainview; Mrs. James Burnam of Dimmitt; Anell Billingsley of Lubbock and Mmes. Max Marble, W.T. King, Bill Brantley, Preston Upshaw,

VISITS BROTHERS

The Rev. Elra Phillips visited last week with two brothers who are seriously ill in hospitals; Tom Phillips, a patient in a Big Spring hospital, and Johnny Phillips, in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

NIECE VISITS

Visiting Monday with Mrs. Lester Lancaster was a niece, Jaquetta Freeman of Hereford.

VISIT SON

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lancaster visited Thursday until Monday in Roswell, N.M. with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tomy Lancaster, Shane and Shad. Enroute home, they visited in Portales with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lancaster.
