Mules And Indians Will Meet Friday

A traditional battle that in years past concluded regular season play for the Muleshoe Mules, come up early in the season, this Friday night.

And, when the Black and White Muleshoe Mules travel to Morton to take on the wily Indians, don't expect it to be an easy or one-sided battle.

Past history has proven that regardless how bad a season Morton is playing, they always save the big guns for the Mules.

In the first game of the season, the Mules blasted AAA New Mexico state champion Portales out of the saddle with 19-0. At the same time, the Indians were losing a squeaker, 22-21 to Canadian.

This year, the Morton Indians dropped back to AA, while the Mules advanced with Littlefield, Friona, Dimmitt and Olton to AAA. But, once again, don't let that fool you, either.

Morton will be geared up and ready for the Mules when they arrive in Morton for the 8 p.m. game.

Lee Pool said his sister, Mrs. Dee Davis of Kingsland, called his home late Monday night with an update on the flood along the Llano River.

Mrs. Davis said above 10 inches of rain had fallen at that time and from the Llano Bridge, the Davis' watched boat docks floating downstream on the high-crested river. One dock had five boats tied to it and another hit the boat dock of a former Muleshoe resident, Jess Osborn, taking out that dock and the adjacent dock.

Pool said his sister told him water had backed up the Colorado River to the Pool's boat dock, with water to the roof of the boat shed.

Young Farmer Produces First '80 Cotton Bale

Although it appears to be somewhat early, in fact, just about a month early, the first bale of cotton for 1980 has been ginned in Bailey County.

John Gunter III took 1,600 pounds of seed cotton to the Muleshoe Co-op Gin Saturday and it was ginned shortly after 8 a.m. on Monday.

Gin manager, Charles Moraw, said the 1,600 pounds produced 480 pounds of lint and 800 pounds of seed.

Gunter said he prewatered, then planted the cotton one half mile north of Progress on April 28. After the cotton was planted, it was watered two times.

The handpicked cotton is Paymaster Dwarf cotton. Gunter said he and John Villalobos picked the cotton in baskets to accumulate enough to take in to the cotton gin.

Light Rain Aids Cotton Other Crops

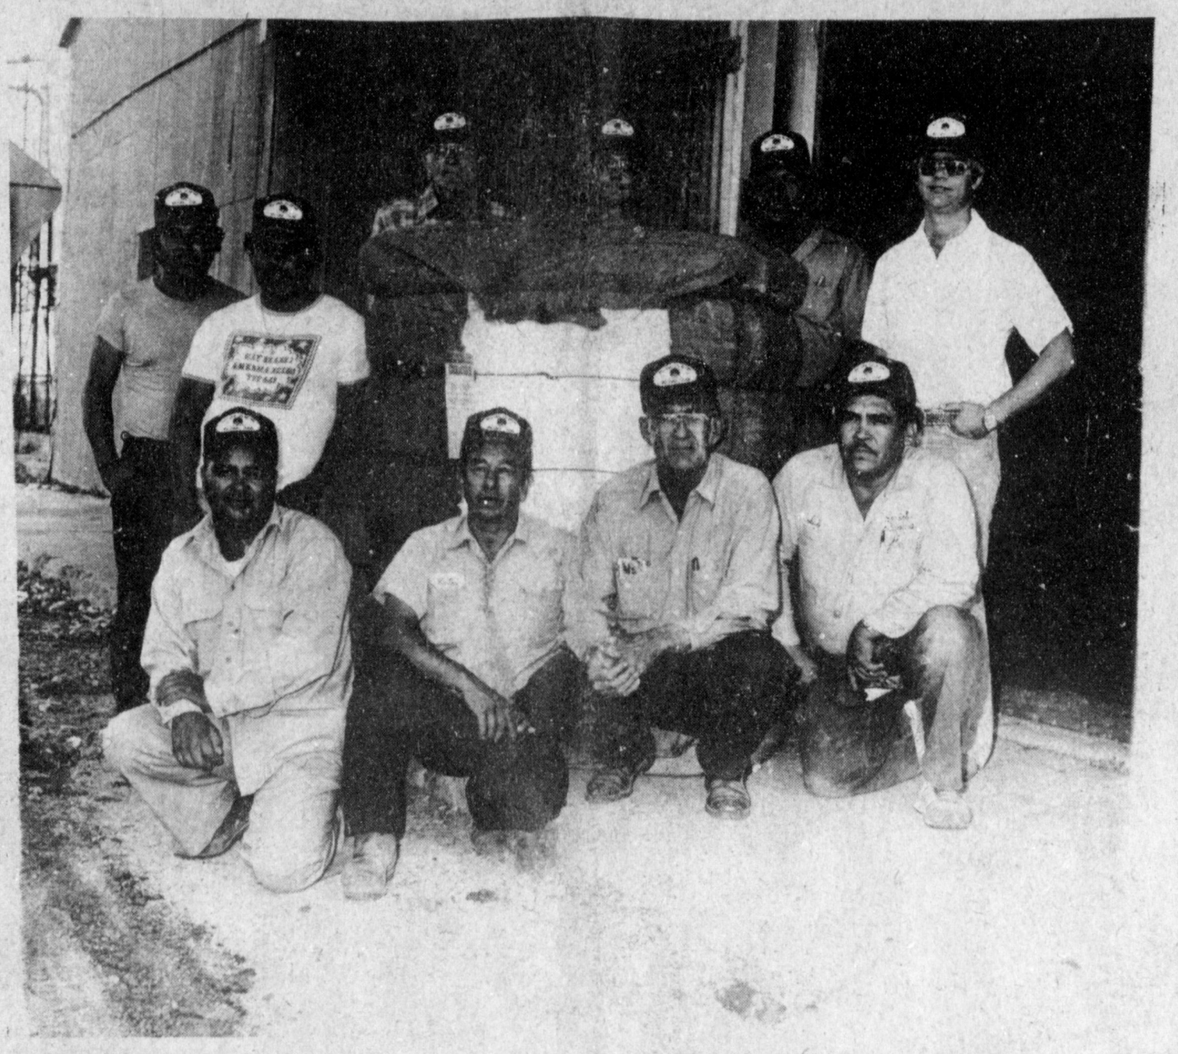

Tuesday afternoon, light rain started falling in the area, continuing throughout the region to provide the first general measurable precipitation in the county and surrounding area in several months.

By presstime Wednesday, .27 had been recorded and the rain continued to fall, changing from a steady drizzle Wednesday morning to light rain.

National Weather Service said the remnants of Tropical Storm Danielle triggered the rain in Texas and New Mexico.

Portions of the South Plains and all of Eastern New Mexico was under a flash flood watch for Wednesday.

NWS predicted the light rain would continue through Wednesday and into Thursday.

3-Day Mexican Festival Begins Here This Sunday

A little of the heritage of other nations will be spotlighted in Muleshoe this weekend with the annual Diez y Seis Septiembre celebration.

Beginning on Sunday afternoon, at 1 p.m., the three day celebration will be held at the Catholic Center at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

The Jaimaca (festival) will begin with booths set up at the Catholic Center, and will be featuring the dunking booth, with local beauties, a greased pig race and small tractor rides for the kids. All kinds of Mexican foods and Mexican drinks will be featured with the booths.

Providing entertainment will be the Tiberones, a mariachi group from Chihuahua, Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gonzales from Houston will be singing with the mariachi band.

Also on hand to greet the guests at the festival will be Sandra Martinez, Muleshoe and Belia Cruz, Sudan, who are contestants for queen this year.

For many months, the Comitte Patrotico has been working to make the festival the best ever to celebrate Mexican Independence Day. They said they would like to express sincere appreciation to the many merchants, businesses and individuals in Muleshoe and the surrounding area who have made it possible to conduct the celebration.

Elva Anzaldua is the overall chairman of the festival, and she released the following information from U.S. Representative Kent Hance from Lubbock.

"Best wishes to everyone attending this year's Fiestas Patrias," said Rep. Hance. "A special thanks to the Fiesta Comitte for their contribution and assistance in making the Fiestas '80 a success."

Hance is U.S. Representative for the 19th Congressional District.

Officers of the Comitte Patrotico are Eluterio Cortez, president; Alsonso Posadas, vice president; Jesus Anzaldua, secretary; Antonio Montez, treasurer and Roy Anzaldua, repor-

This week, in the first football contest for 1980, the tiebreaker scores were used to determine the first and second place winners. 4-H Youth Favorable Says Survey

A nationwide Gallup survey shows that people across the United States look favorably on 4-H, the youth program of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Purpose of the survey was to determine public awareness and attitudes toward 16 major youth organizations in the U.S., points out Jim Irwin, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

The survey showed that 77 percent of the respondents are aware of 4-H while 93 percent have favorable attitudes toward the youth organization.

Among the 16 organizations involved in the survey, 4-H came in fourth as far as awareness was concerned, notes Irwin.

People who have been associated with 4-H as members, leaders or financial contributors are most likely to have favorable attitudes toward the youth

Nearly Fifty Years Since Last Fair

Nearly fifty years ago, Bailey County had a fair. In fact, back in the early 1930's, county fairs were rather common in this area, but around 1934, the last Bailey County fair was held in this county ---- until now.

Several months ago, the Bailey County Extension office began preliminary plans to have another fair. This was scheduled for September 11-13 at the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum.

Persons eligible to participate in the fair are residents of Bailey, Lamb and Parmer Counties. They can exhibit their agricultural products, home canned items, crafts, sewing, crops, and other items during the showings on Friday evening and all day on Saturday.

An added highlight will be the Greater Southwest Shows, a carnival, which will be sponsored by the Muleshoe Rotary Club, and set up to the west side of the Coliseum.

Exhibits are being set up in age categories, including adults and youth divisions.

Exhibits may be taken to the coliseum at any time between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. on Thursday, and the Coliseum will be closed during the day on Friday for judging, with the exhibits being opened to the public at 5 p.m. on Friday.

Saturday, the fair hours will be 9 a.m.-6 p.m. Exhibits cannot be removed until immediately following the conclusion of the fair on Saturday.

Also, all ribbons awarded must remain with the exhibit until the conclusion of the fair, according to Bailey County Agent Spencer Tanksley.

Field crops will include four classes for cotton, three categories of corn and two for grain sorghum.

Twenty classes are open for grains and seeds, including wheat, oats, peanuts, field peas, alfafla, soybeans, sunflowers, black-eye peas and other grains.

Forage bundles may include alfalfa, soybeans, sweet sorghum, peanuts, millet and other types.

Eight classes are open for hay exhibits.

In horticulture, 33 classes of vegetables are listed and eight classes of fruit.

A special division would cover ornamental gourds, the largest or most unusual crop and sunflowers.

Culinary will include 11 classes of breads; 15 classes of cakes; 12 classes of candy; six classes for cookies; eight classes for pies and five classes for pro-

Visitor Asks Donors For Lions' Eye Bank

When you have been blind for 30 years and then regain your eyesight, you may be filled with a tremendous sense of responsibility and gratitude. This is what happened to a visitor in Muleshoe, Bob Price, a native of Hollywood, California and a former stuntman.

Price and his old yellow bus are in Muleshoe this week as he continues his pilgrimage seeking eye donors for the Lions Club International Eye Bank.

According to Price's story, he was a stuntman in Hollywood around 33 years ago when a blast robbed him of his eyesight. His career was ended and he resigned himself to a life of blindness.

Then, around 3 years ago, through the Lions Club Eye Bank, he received a corneal transplant from an unidentified 18 year-old girl. The transplant has been sucessful, and the tall, lanky former stuntman regained his eyesight.

Since that time, Price, who seeks nothing for himself, has transversed the country seeking persons to sign eye donor cards, such as the card that was signed by the 18 year-old whose eyes were used to restore Price's sight.

At this time, Price said he has signed up more than 7,500 persons who will donate their eyes at the time of their deaths. To date, most of the pledge cards have been signed in Texas, New Mexico and Mississippi.

According to Price, he spends his entire life traveling over the country asking for help for the

Rotary Club Will Sponsor Blood Drive

Sherry Parker of South Plains Blood Service of Lubbock was special speaker for the Muleshoe Rotary Club Tuesday at noon.

She spoke about the shortage of blood for patients due to expanded medical facilities in Lubbock. According to the speaker, the supply is some 10 percent behind the current demand.

The Muleshoe Rotary Club and the Muleshoe Jaycees are jointly sponsoring a blood drive Friday at 8 a.m.-11 a.m. at the community room of the Muleshoe State Bank.

Persons who may donate blood are healthy, between the ages of 17 and 66.

Disqualifying conditions include a history of hepatitis at any age, pregnancy within the past six weeks, major surgery within the last six months, weight loss last six months, weight less than 110 pounds, and a history of unarrested clinical tuberculosis.

Also speaking briefly was Bob Price, in Muleshoe for the Lions Club International Eye Bank. He spoke about the donor cards for eyes.

Special guests at the meeting included Willard Pittman of California and Robert Ruiz, Sr.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—Under our present laws it is impossible for the state to appeal in criminal cases from rulings of the trial court; this right is now available only to the defense. When we go to the polls in November we will be given a chance to change this law. Constitutional Amendment 2 would give the prosecution in criminal cases certain limited appeal rights: (1) the right to make a temporary or provisional appeal from a trial judge's ruling on the constitutionality of a statute, (2) a motion to dismiss or set aside an indictment, (3) or a motion to supress evidence.

This rights of appeal would be made by the state before the conclusion of the trial. In addition, this legislation would allow the defendant to make an appeal before the conclusion of the trial. Under current law the defendant can make an appeal only after the trial has been concluded.

Those who support this amendment maintain that giving the state the right of appeal is the only effective way of testing the constitutionality of certain statutes and the legality of certain pretial practices.

Some even argue that this legislation will lessen the tendency of a few judges to rule in favor of the defense to avoid appellate review of their rulings.

Those in opposition to Amendment 2 maintain that the state having appeal rights will lengthen the duration of a criminal trial and increase the caseload of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Frivolous appeals might be filed by the defendant as a stalling device.

As in many decisions relating to judicial procedure, we must aim at a fair balance of authority and rights between the prosecution and the defense. The state, like the defendant, should be afforded a fair trial free of error; it is our responsibility to decide if this proposed amendment is needed to assure a fair trial for both the state and the defendant.

Accent On Health

Texas Department of Health
Robert Bernstein, M.D., Commissioner

Bicycles have a place in our society, but as more Texans bicycle for exercise and to get to work and school, accidents are keeping pace with this increase.

Many people are injured because the bicycles they ride don't fit them properly, they don't know how to bicycle properly, or they are careless, according to the Texas Department of Health.

"More than 460,000 people in the country are seriously injured each year in bicycle-related accidents," said Harold R. Ray, director of the Department's Product Safety Division. "In addition, more than a thousand die yearly in bicycle-related accidents," said Ray.

In Texas last year, 69 persons were killed and another 2,603 were reported hurt in bicycle accidents, according to the Department of Public Safety. In addition, 350 motorcyclists were killed and 9,432 injured, many for the same reasons involving bicycle accidents. Of the motorcyclists killed, only 100 were wearing safety helmets and 250 weren't.

Ray said there are five major accident patterns associated with bicycles. These are loss of control, mechanical and structural problems, entanglement, foot slippage from the pedal, and collision with a car or another bicycle.

Ray offers several safety tips.

"If your bike has sharp edges, file these down and then cover them with a heavy, protective tape. Since even a hairline crack can cause metal to break under a sudden jolt, look for improperly welded joints or fractures that can weaken a frame."

Chain guards are so important that there are federal regulations requiring them on bicycles having single front and rear sprockets. "Shoe laces and loose clothing can catch between the chain and sprocket and cause a serious accident," Ray warned.

The bicycle should be visible from every angle at night. It should have a front reflector, rear reflector, and pedal and spoke reflectors. Other good ideas include using a headlight and taillight, and sewing reflectorized tape on your clothes.

When buying a bicycle, check for two types of clearances. There should be at least three and a half inches of clearance between the pedal and front fender or tire. This is important to prevent a toe from getting caught between the frame and the front wheel or impeding turning.

In addition, pedals should not touch the ground when the bike is tilted at least 25 degrees on a turn. This is to prevent the pedal from striking the ground and causing a spill.

"You should always road test a bike before buying it," Ray warned. "Be sure the brakes give you quick, smooth, easy stops. If the bike has handbrakes, be sure the levers move easily. If the handbrakes have extensions, be sure they brake the bike before the levers touch the handlebars."

Ray cautions against buying a bicycle that cannot be adjusted to fit or one that the rider "will grow into" later. This is extremely important for youngsters in avoiding accidents, he said. "The rider should be able to straddle the bike with both feet flat on the ground, leaving no less than one inch between the rider's crotch and the frame's top tube," he said.

The convention, which organizers say may be the most important meeting thus far, will be held September 13-14 at the Quality Inn in Amarillo.

'If agriculture is to survive the 1980s, there must be a revival of gras roots involvement in agriculture legislation, W.I.F.E. promotrers said.

Anyone interested in agriculture is urged to attend the Saturday sessions with speakers on various commodities. There will be no charge for these sessions.

At 10:45 a.m., Dr. James Supak, Texas Agricultural Extension Service area agronomist, will talk about cotton. Bill Nelson of the Texas Wheat Producers Association will address the group at 11:30 a.m. followed by a speech by Elbert Harp of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

At 2:30 p.m., the group will hear a speaker on beef with Carl King of Dimmitt, president of Texas Corn Growers Association.

U.S. Representative Charles Stenholm of Stamford will be the keynote speaker at the 7 p.m. banquet Saturday. Guest tickets for the banquet will be $7 at the door.

On Sunday the group will elect state officers, attend a luncheon and hear a speech from National W.I.F.E. President Nita Gibson of Seminole.

W.I.F.E. is a non-partisan, non-sectarian and non-commercial organization. The group has proposed to promote economic prosperity in agriculture, to adjust inequities in the cost of production of agricultural commodities, to develop bodies and to develop understanding of the economic conditions of agriculture and its importance to the nation.

Doctor Talk

By Dr. Harold B. Ligon

Gastritis occurs as a result of irritations of the stomach lining, after ingestion of certain foods, or drinks, or the accidental ingestion of other agents which have a caustic or damaging effect on the lining of the stomach.

An acute gastritis can be anything from moderate to severe, depending on the amount of insult to the stomach and the amount of the stomach involved. It's not an uncommon disorder today and can affect all age groups.

Treatment of gastritis usually consists of a bland diet, easily digested, an antacid and specified periods of rest. The amount of treatment normally corresponds to the degree of illness.

Occasionally, gastritis can be very severe, some cases being hemorrhagic in nature. This means bleeding into the GI tract and this must be controlled. In very severe cases, patients have to be hospitalized and given transfusions.

Thus gastritis, in such cases, can be a serious and disabling disorder, causing a loss of work by the patient for a number of weeks.

Class Of '55 Reunion

Sixty-one people attended the 25th reunion of the Muleshoe High School Class of 1955 Sunday, August 31 at the Meeting Room of Tri-County Savings and Loan Association. This included 25 members of the class plus members of their families.

The come-and-go reception was billed for 1-5 p.m. on Sunday. It started at 1 p.m. as acheduled, but at about 8:30 that evening, some of the class members were still visiting and talking about old times.

In addition to visiting, class members and their families had a session of picture taking, and then each one was interviewed on video tape by class member Bill Ellis, now of Friona.

Those attending also enjoyed displays of pictures of the class members including some of their school activities. There were displays which included school yearbooks for the four year period the classmates were in school here, copies of the "Hee-Haw" school newspaper from their senior year, and other sorts of memoriabilia.

During a business meeting presided over by Gordon Wilson, it was decided to schedule another reunion and hold one such meeting every five years. A suggestion was made to hold the next reunion in conjunction with the 1954 graduating class' 30th reunion, which is scheduled for 1984. Details are to be worked out in this regard.

Class members came as far as from Virginia for the reunion, which was the first one held for the 1955 class since it graduated.

Awards presented during the business session included: class member coming the farthest, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore of Langley AFB, Virginia.

Paula Provence Clements of Lubbock was honored as the one with the most children (5 sons) and Elmer Davis, Muleshoe, who also has five children, received the award for the most grandchildren, six.

Marlene Black Martin and Earnest Martin of Muleshoe, both members of the graduating class, were given an award for being married the longest, 26 years.

Other awards presented were to the class members who had changed the most: Jack Jones of Austin, Ingle Gatewood of Belton, and Clinton Dillard of Plano; and the members who had changed the least: Carol Buhrman Boen of Hurst, and John Stevens of Muleshoe.

Other members of the class who attended, along with their spouses and some family members included Jerry Inman of El Paso, Barbara Douglass White of Beaumont, Darlene Black Henry of Muleshoe, Roger Pool of Seminole and Elaine Miller Coburn of Muleshoe.

Also Pat Wright Alford of Amarillo, Carl R. Adair of Bergstrom AFB, Austin, Karolene Towns Inman of Farwell, Randall Craig of Dimmitt, Rosemary Pool of Muleshoe and Wanda Cherry Harmon of Muleshoe.

Also, Dale Wood of Monahans, and Roger Gorrell of Bastrop. Wood attended school with the class through his sophomore year before moving from Muleshoe. Gorrell was also a member of the class several years but graduated with the 1954 class.

Also attending were Sam and Lola (Roark) Donaldson of Los Alamos, New Mexico, members of the 1954 class at MHS.

Other MHS graduates attending the reunion were Kenneth Henry, Travis Clements, Don Harmon, Marlon Inman, Dolores Lowe Wood, and Marilyn Mitchell Wilson, who married members of the 1955 class.

Miss Laura Ellis of Arlington, daughter of class member Bill Ellis and reigning Miss Tri-County, also attended the reunion.

1955 CLASS....The Muleshoe High School Class of 1955 held its 25th anniversary reunion recently, with 25 members of the class attending. RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

Meat loaf is a good budget extender and can be served once a week.

Meat Loaf

1½ lbs. ground beef
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 T minced onion
salt
1/8 t pepper
1 10½-oz. can condensed Cheddar-cheese soup
3 T milk
2 c fresh bread crumbs
⅓ c chopped celery
¼ c chopped dill pickle

About 1½ hours before serving: In medium bowl, combine meat, egg, onion, ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper. Dilute soup with milk; and ⅓ cup of this to meat mixture. Mix well. On large piece of waxed paper, lightly pat meat mixture into rectangle about 14 inches by 9 inches.

In bowl, mix bread crumbs, celery, pickle and ½ teaspoon salt; sprinkle over meat, leaving 1-inch border.

Starting at narrow end of meat, roll it up, jelly-roll fashion; gently press ends of roll to seal; place seam-side down, on 10 inch by 6 inch by 2 inch baking dish. Bake 50 minutes at 375 degrees. Pour remaining cheese soup over loaf; continue baking until sauce is hot. Serves 6.

QUICK BEAUTY TIPS from the Revlon Beauty School

How To Apply Blush

Your face shape should determine where you place blush for its prettiest effect.

When you learn these how's and where's, you can watch your blush turn you on a whole new way:

- If your face is round, apply blush in a sideways "v" on the cheekbone no closer than the outer corner of the eye. Blend it out from the cheekbone up toward the temple. Apply just a touch of color to your chin.

APPLYING BLUSH according to the shape of your face can determine the overall effect of your makeup.

- If your face shape is a triangle, apply blush in a sideways "v" and blend it from the cheekbone upward toward the temple—then over the eyebrow toward the center of the forehead.
- On a square shape face, apply a blush like Revlon's Super Lustrous Cream-On Blush in Soft Brick on the cheekbone on the side beyond the center of the eye. Blend toward the temple.
- If your face is a rectangle, apply blush on the cheekbone below the outer corner of the eye and blend up to the temple. Avoid placing it lower than the tip of your nose.
- If your face is an oval, find the most prominent part of your cheekbone, using your fingertips as a guide. Apply blush at that point and blend up toward the temple.

In Muleshoe, Price is approaching people on the street and will be set up at the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum during the two day fair this weekend.

He emphasized that he seeks nothing for himself, and will accept no money. Donations of cash may be made through local Lions Clubs, he said. All Price is asking, is that persons sign donor cards and turn in old glasses to him.

"I just want to spend the rest of my life helping to make it possible that others may see," he commented. "I know what it means to have perfect vision one second and in the next second be totally blind."

At one time, he worked on radio programs with such persons as Fannie Brice, Fibber McGee and Molly, Bing Crosby, Jack Benny and John Wayne.

He invites persons to come by his bus and visit and while there, sign a pledge card.

"Let your eyes live through someone else," he concluded.

Quarterback Monty Hysinger and his crew will really have their work cut out for them to come home with a victory.

Wary coaches do not predict the outcome of the game, especially due to past performance of the Indians. When they see the Mules, they really go on the warpath.

The Mules are showing some quickness early in the season, a quickness that appears early on to be necessary because of the small size of the Muleshoe team.

Although the Mules are small in stature, they are already proving they are 'big' in heart and in desire to win. Amazing concentration is being exhibited on the football field as the defensive players hold back the opposing teams, allowing the offensive team to rack up the score.

Remember to wear your black and white tomorrow, Friday, and join the full-fledged Mule Mania.

A PROCLAMATION

Hispanic peoples have played a distinguished role in the history of our Nation. They founded settlements in Florida and Georgia half a century before the Pilgrims landed in Massachusettes, and were homesteading in New Mexico more than 150 years before the War of Independence. The names of scores of American cities and towns - such as Los Angeles, Albequerque, San Antonio and Saint Augustine - remind us that many of the explorers and settlers who opened our frontiers were of Hispanic origin.

The Hispanic community has given us generals, admirals, philosophers, statesmen, musicians, athletes, and Nobel Prize-winning scientists. Hispanic Americans have contributed gallantly to the defense of our Nation, and many have received the highest decoration our country can bestow - the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Outstanding Hispanic men and women add daily to our Nation's accomplishments in science, technology, the arts and politics. And, Hispanic citizens contribute daily to the quality of our lives. Hispanics exhibit an eminent pride in our American heritage, a passionate love of family, a profound devotion to religion, and an energetic committment to hard work.

As we enter the 1980's, it is fitting that we pause to recognize and celebrate our Hispanic Heritage.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIMMY CARTER, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning September 14, 1980 as National Hispanic Heritage Week. I call upon Federal, State, and local officials to observe this week with appropriate activities and to search our innovative ways for government to work in partnership with the Hispanic community. Hispanic immigrants were among the earliest and are now among the most recent to arrive in this haven of liberty and human rights, and I urge all Americans to reflect on the invaluable contribution they have made to the greatness, the diversity, and the strength of this Nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this thirty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fifth.

Jimmy Carter
President of the United States of America

At 9 p.m., the dance will be getting underway with the music of Mariachi Tapatio of Juarez, Mexico, a mariachi group.

Promptly at 11 p.m., the dance will be stopped, and Fernando Ramos will give a short freedom speech, followed by the entrance of the queen and her court. She will be escorted by young ladies from Muleshoe, Earth, Bovina, Texico, N.M., Lariat, Sudan, and Clovis, N.M.

Hal Anderson, president of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, will crown the queen. Following the coronation ceremonies, the dance will continue until 1 a.m.

On Tuesday, September 16, the festivities begin at 8 p.m. again, with the presentation of the national anthems of both the United States and Mexico, followed by the entrance of the queen and her court.

Providing mariachi music for the Tuesday dance will be the Folklorico Dancers from Lubbock.

Members of the Guadalupanas Society of Immaculate Conception Church will present the statue of the Lady of Guadalupe and a surprise guest is planeed for the evening.

Also, a special treat is in store for Tuesday night when the dance stops at 11 p.m. for the Tribuna Libre for the public. At that time, anyone who wants to take the stage can sing, dance, read or recite a poem or do whatever they want to do. This will be followed by short narrations of the Fiesta, and how it started, and what the Fiesta means to the Mexican people.

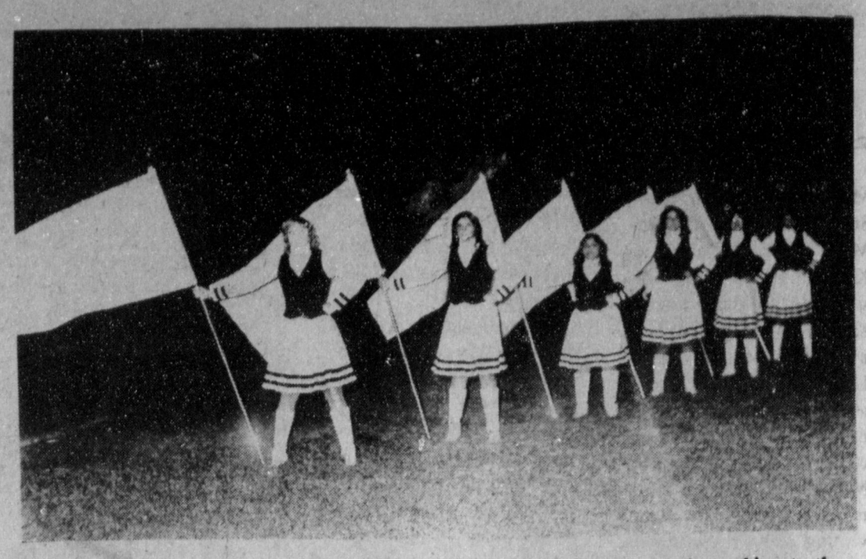

Guests of honor asked to attend the fiesta include Bailey County Judge Glen Williams; Bailey County Sheriff Dee Clements; Muleshoe City Police Chief Johnny Richards and Muleshoe Mayor Charles Bratcher.

During the three days, many persons will be dressed in their native attire, to show the colorful costumes from Mexico.

Mrs. Anzaldua said local law enforcement officers would be at the Catholic Center for all three days of celebration to assure the safety of each and every person attending the festival.

"Comitte Patrotico and Father Pat Maher, as well as the parish members, would like to give thanks and appreciation to all the people who have made this possible, especially the parents of the girls and their sponsors."

"Also, we would like to invite everyone of not only Muleshoe, but the surrounding area to attend any or all of the Fiesta. We proudly present our heritage for everyone. We would like to issue a special invitation to our Anglo friends to learn more about the Mexican heritage by attending the celebration."

*FLAG CORP PERFORMS.....*Friday night, in the season opener with portales, taking to the field for the first time were the colorful and all new Mighty 'M' Flag Corp. The twelve members wore black and white uniforms and carried white flags as they performed their intricate routine. With the all-new flag corp, the band is enhanced while on the field.

organization, according to the survey.

The survey also shows that the more people know about 4-H, the better they like it. In addition to liking 4-H better, these people who know a great deal about the program have a more accurate image of what is taught in 4-H, points out Irwin.

People who are aware of 4-H but have limited knowledge of its teachings see the main good as helping youth develop agricultural and homemaking skills. However, people with a great deal of knowledge about 4-H tend to view it as an organization that helps youth develop. They use terms such as "making better citizens" and "developing character", according to the survey.

Of those aware of 4-H, 19 percent of the survey respondents feel its activities are essential to the welfare of American youth and an additional 58 percent feel its activities are worthwhile.

Many people still associate 4-H only with rural agriculture, says Irwin. While 4-H did have a rural beginning and continues to serve rural youth, a significant part of the present day 4-H program is for youth who reside in urban areas.

Gas substitutes could mean easier auto maintenance

COLLEGE STATION — Use of ethanol or methanol as a substitute for gasoline may result in cheaper car maintenance, believe Texas A&M University engineers.

Neither produces carbon in significant amounts when burned in an engine, and alcohol fuel offers the possibility of much less engine wear, they say.

Development of gasohol — 90 percent gasoline and 10 percent alcohol fuel — could be the opening that leads to increased use of ethanol and methanol, said researchers.

NEW TB APPEARS

ATLANTA -- Drug-resistant tuberculosis has shown up throughout the United States, but the number of cases does not appear to be increasing, the national Center for Disease Control reported. The study found resistance to nine antituberculosis drugs in widely scattered sections of the nation.

Houston Cougars Will Beat Arizona

In last January's Cotton Bowl, the Houston Cougars did much to advance the cause of the Southwest Conference as the toughest conference in the nation in 1979. Houston co-champion of the league, upset Nebraska of the Big Eight 17-14. No less than five members of the conference finished in our top final twenty enabling the Southwest to jump from third place in 1978 to the top spot. The Cougars' opener for '80 will be against a tough host, Arizona State from the runner up Pacific Ten Conference. It should be a Houston win...by 12 points.

The city of Pittsburg isn't satisfied with being the home of the Super Bowl pro champion Steelers and the World Series champion Pirates. Now they're looking for a national championship in college football. The Panthers finished 11th in our pre - post season ratings. However, beating Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl while five of the six teams rated above it lost in bowl games, Pitt finished 7th. This week -- Boston College --and the Panthers take the first step...they'll win by 21.

In post-season play, the Big Eight batted .500. While the Cornhuskers were being upset by Houston, Oklahoma whomped Florida State in the Orange Bowl 24-7. And naturally the Sooners and Nebraska are favorites for the league title again this fall. Saturday, Oklahoma will beat Kentucky by twenty points, and the C-Huskers will blitz Utah by 29.

No team, whether it be Alabama, a Pittsburg, or even a Slippery Rock, will win the national championship without a few over-the-shoulder looks at Southern California. Runner-up to champion Alabama last fall the Trojans are once again Pac-10 title favorites.....national titles always seem to hang in balance. In game #1, Southern Cal travels to Knoxville, Tennessee to battle the Volunteers, Bluebonnet Bowl losers to Purdue last fall. The winner, Southern California by 19 points.

Car cooling systems need special mixture for hot weather care

COLLEGE STATION — An automobile can withstand hot summer temperatures if the owner provides common sense care, says a research engineer for the Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M University.

"The single biggest neglect is the cooling system and Sun Belt drivers are the worst offenders," said Rick Tonda. "Water is not the only coolant. The recommended mixture is glycol and water."

He said the mixture matters most when temperatures are very cold or very hot.

"In the latter instance, the right proportion of glycol to water raises the boiling point of the water, on the average to 230 degrees in a pressurized system. That adds 20 to 30 degrees to the operating range," the engineer said. "The owner's manual gives the best proportion for the car."

New energy source found in desert plants

COLLEGE STATION — The search for alternate energy sources has led Texas A&M University and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station researchers to the desert.

Scraggly shrubs like guayule, jojoba and euphorbia contain a rubber-like latex which scientists hope to convert into such commodities as rubber, lubricant and ethanol.

Such plants, which require little water and are among nature's most efficient solar collectors, are a key to any renewable resource money, say Texas A&M scientists.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—A new tax revolt may be brewing in Texas.

At the grassroots level, taxpayers are upset with local tax increases—and their complaints are communicated to the State Capitol along with the question: what happened to the promised tax relief?

In 1978 voters approved the Tax Relief Amendment which authorized the Legislature to follow up in 1979 with tax relief legislation. Taxpayers were expecting to benefit from new tax breaks this year, but they are enraged to find their property valuations are going up, in most places.

Find the Scapegoat

For the average taxpayer, no explanation is readily available, which adds to the frustration.

As a general rule, when the taxpayer inquires at the local tax office, he is told the blame lies with the Texas Legislature, a charge which many legislators are quietly preparing to throw back into the faces of local officials.

Another scapegoat is the newly-enacted property tax reform law, also known as the Peveto Bill, after its author, Rep. Wayne Peveto of Orange.

The Peveto Bill was already somewhat of a legend on the day of its passage last season. Peveto had worked on the property tax code reform for six years, researching and polishing after each defeat until it was finally approved by two House votes and one Senate vote last year.

Clements Endorsement

The bill was hailed as both a blessing and a curse at the same time. Governor Clements listed it as his foremost legislative achievement of the session, and it had the backing of several labor groups as well. Other legislators felt the reform might cause confusion which would inevitably lead to higher taxes, not lower taxes.

The Peveto Bill definitely contains some advantages for taxpayers, notably a provision for a local referendum to roll-back taxes and provisions for truth-in-taxation.

The controversial part is the creation of a central property appraisal district for each county. Each county is required to create one by 1982, and many counties are already setting up such offices.

The central appraisal board will valuate local property for all local taxing entities, such as school boards, city councils, county commissioners' courts, etc.

These central appraisal boards must also evaluate all property at 100 percent by 1982, but may choose the option of valuing at 100 percent this year.

Evaluations Up

Many new boards opted to go to 100 percent evaluation this year, and the results are startling. When taxpayers open their notices, they are shocked, in many cases, to find the value of their property has been driven up considerably. Their first reaction is to wonder how much higher their property taxes will be this year . . . and they begin to seek the answer.

The answer is this: the amount of tax will depend on the tax rate set by local officials. Although the property valuation is hiked, actual taxes can be kept at last year's dollar figure if local officials opt to drop the tax rate low enough.

Here's the rub: in this period of inflation, local governments are as hard-pressed to meet rising costs as local homeowners. To acquire extra revenue, local governments cannot go out and moonlight . . . they must raise taxes, and that is not a popular action these days.

Blame Anyone Else

Hence, the tendency by some local officials, not all, to place the blame on the Legislature.

Unfortunately, legislators are up for re-election in two months, and they do not like being saddled with what they feel is an undeserved stigma.

They have, up to now, avoided throwing the charge back on local officials, much out of sympathy for fellow elected officeholders. However, activity in Capitol offices indicates several legislators are preparing to fight back.

As one solon put it, the legislature did its best to cut taxes in 1979. Now it's the time for local officials to tighten the belt and hold down spending.

And it may happen that spending will be held down. It's easier for a taxpayer to attend a city council or school trustee meeting than to wait four months and travel to Austin to argue with the Texas Legislature.

A&M archaeologists identify British ship

COLLEGE STATION — Texas A&M nautical archaeologists have discovered that a jumbled mass of scorched timber and metal was a British flagship from the Revolutionary War Battle of Yorktown.

Archaeologist Richard Steffy, who is ship reconstructor for the Institute of Nautical Archaeology headquartered at Texas A&M, led nine graduate students in a project which confirmed a shipwreck in Virginia's York River was HMS Charon, flagship of Lord Charles Cornwallis.

Researchers from INA and Texas A&M became involved because the institute is the world leader in training underwater archaeologists and landlocked Texas A&M is the only American university offering a master's degree in anthropology with a speciality in nautical archaeology.

Keeping the Home Fires From Burning

Most home fires start in the kitchen (three million annually, according to Government figures), but relatively few kitchens have fire extinguishers. And of those that do, not all the extinguishers are capable of combatting all three basic types of blazes—common combustibles, such as curtains, paper, cupboards; flammable fluids, such as grease; and electrical appliances, such as toasters and mixers. A new extinguisher—the UL listed Bernzomatic All-Purpose Family Fire Extinguisher — uses an all-purpose extinguishing agent that is effective against all types of fires.

This unit is effective anywhere there is a fire, including vertical areas such as wood cabinets, walls and even ceilings. With the All-Purpose, the homeowner is assured that the right extinguisher is at hand, no matter what type of fire is burning. (Many home-sized extinguishers are not designed to put out fabric, paper or wall fires. The wrong unit can actually spread the fire.)

The All-Purpose works instantly at the press of a button. A visible signal tells whether it is at proper working pressure.

In addition to use in the kitchen, the Bernzomatic All-Purpose is recommended for workshops, garages, cars, trailers, boats—wherever a fire may occur. Suggested retail price, below $11. Available through hardware, home center, discount and department stores.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

GENERAL ELECTION

NOVEMBER 4, 1980

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to permit banks to establish and operate unmanned teller machines within the county or city where the banks are located and to share the use of teller machines on a basis consistent with antitrust laws, if it finds such operation will serve the convenience of the public. The Legislature has already passed enabling legislation (H.B. 1510) for this proposed amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to authorize banks to use unmanned teller machines within the county or the city of their domicile on a shared basis to serve the public convenience."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 97 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the State and the accused the right to an interlocutory appeal from the following trial court rulings in criminal cases: pretrial rulings on the constitutionality of a statute; on a motion to quash, dismiss, or set aside an indictment; and on a motion to suppress evidence.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing appeal of certain pretrial rulings of a trial court in a criminal case by either the state or the accused."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 98 proposes a constitutional amendment that would require a single appraisal of all property subject to ad valorem taxation and would provide for a single board of equalization within each county. The constitutional requirement that the county commissioners court sit as a board of equalization would be eliminated, and elected officials of the county or governing body of the taxing unit would be prohibited from serving as members of the board of equalization.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment requiring a single appraisal and a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the conduct of bingo games by certain specified groups for charitable purposes, subject to the limitations that operation of the games must be approved in local option elections and that all proceeds must be spent in Texas.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize bingo games on a local option election basis if the games are conducted by a church, synagogue, religious society, volunteer fire department, nonprofit veterans organization, fraternal organization, or nonprofit organization supporting medical research or treatment programs and if the proceeds are to be spent in Texas for charitable purposes of the organizations."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the Governor to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of certain appropriated funds, subject to any conditions and limitations provided by law and subject to the approval of a budget execution committee that would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to grant the governor power to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of appropriated funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Governor who appointed a previously confirmed official to remove that official from office subject to the advice and consent of the Senate; and if the Legislature is not in session, to call a special session of the Senate which may last no longer than 2 days for consideration of the removal.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the governor to remove appointed officers with the advice and consent of the senate."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 121 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize counties with a population of 5000 or less to construct and maintain private roads if they impose a reasonable charge for the work. The Legislature by general law may limit this authority. Revenue received from private road work may be used only for the construction, including right-of-way acquisition, or maintenance of public roads.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing counties with a population of 5000 or less to perform private road work."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 36 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the jurisdiction and authority of the State's appellate courts. The amendment would change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals to Courts of Appeal and provide that these courts have intermediate appellate jurisdiction over both criminal and civil cases. The amendment would change titles for the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to Justices and would require members of the Supreme Court to be attorneys licensed in this state while holding office.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals and the names and qualifications of the justices of the Supreme Court and to prescribe the jurisdiction and authority of the appellate courts."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment which defines separate property owned by either spouse as all property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent. Persons about to marry and spouses, without the intent to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property. Spouses may exchange a community interest in property owned or to be acquired for a community interest in other community property. The amendment would allow spouses to agree in writing that income or property arising from any separate property is to be separate property rather than as community property as it would be in the absence of an agreement. The amendment proposes that a gift from one spouse to another is presumed to include all income or property deriving from such gift.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment allowing spouses to agree that income or property arising from separate property is to be separate property."

Card of Thanks

In times like this we know how many friends we really have. Although Homer has left us, we know he is at home in heaven. We want to thank each and everyone for every act of kindness and love shown to our family, Dr. Allgood and the hospital staff who worked so diligently to save Homer. Then for the prayers, flowers, memorials, cards, kind words of love, and the food prepared and served. To Rev. Don Knight, Rev. David Evetts and the Trinity Baptist Church for the beautiful message. To each and everyone, may God bless and keep you.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek has a test for Presidential candidates, he thinks.

Dear editor:

Some of the big cities, like Chicago, New York and numerous others, plus medium sized and even smaller ones, are up in arms because they claim the census figures are inaccurate, that they have a lot more people than the preliminary count shows. Chicago, which shows a drop of nearly 600,000, is especially hopping mad.

I don't understand this. I don't understand why big cities want to get bigger when they can't take care of all the people they've got now. Can't even afford enough police to go around, not to mention fill up the pot holes in the streets or re-place the broken windows in the school buildings.

You don't understand, I was told. The more people a city can show, the more Federal money it gets and the more Congressmen it's entitled to. I can understand wanting to get more Federal money but not more Congressmen. That's like filling up pot holes in one street with pavement dug up from a street down the block.

However, if the country can hold on that long, most of our problems are going to be solved as soon as the election is over and the next President, whoever he is, is sworn in. All three candidates have promised to. Mostly they'll do it by re-industrialization.

I'm not sure how re-industrialization is done but I'm in favor of it. In fact, will offer this farm out here as a test plot. You see, I've got this 33 year-old tractor, bought it brand new in 1947. It'll start if you can get somebody to pull you off and runs fine if you can stand the noise, but I suspect Japan is working on something more efficient. If any one of the three candidates can re-industrialize that tractor, it'll be safe to turn the country over to him.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.
