Over 100 Entrants To Vie For Junior Rodeo Prizes

Over 100 Southwestern boys and girls will begin roping, riding, heeling and racing Friday night to open Colorado City's second annual Junior Rodeo.

The two-day show will be at the roping arena on Highway 80 in west Colorado City. Performances will begin at 8 p. m.

Dolores Smith, of the Western Riding Club, sponsor of the rodeo, said Thursday that about 105 entrants from New Mexico, Oklahoma, and many towns in Texas—Gatesville, Marfa, Waco, and Mitchell County communities, will perform at the events, and vie for prizes.

The overall top cowboy, and cowgirl, will receive hand-made breast harnesses. The harnesses, locally made, will have tool-worked inscriptions. Other prizes will be gold and silver Western-style belt buckles, donated by various Colorado City merchants.

Miss Smith said there will be about 10 Mitchell County entrants—the rest being from out of state or from other Texas counties.

She said this year's rodeo should surpass last year's, with more entries, prizes, special events, and two "rodeo dances."

A rodeo clown, Bill Shaw, of San Angelo, will appear at all performances, she said.

A special Wild Steer Saddle event will be open to boys up to 15 years old.

Another special event will be matched roping by Hunter Mann, J. Barrett Smith, Joe Hall, Jr., and Bobby Davidson.

Regular events will be flag racing, pole bending, ribbon roping, barrel racing, break-away roping, tie-down roping.

CURBING LAID ON 14TH ST.

Residential Paving Began Wednesday

Curbs were laid on 14th St. Wednesday, beginning the long-awaited residential paving program here.

Laying of curbing, and elevation of other curbing, will take about 8-10 days, according to City Manager Earl Keaton.

Curbing along 17th St., near Waco St., is to be elevated to improve drainage conditions on the northeast watershed in Colorado City.

To elevate the curbing, old curbs must be torn down, the drainage system leveled, and new curbing built.

Keaton said after this is accomplished, paving will be laid.

RE-OPENING SET FRIDAY

Kelly Sells Store To Cowen's Of Sweetwater

Two major developments for the shoe department of Thornton's and Cobb Department Store in Abilene and Bragg Dry Goods in Merkel.

He comes here from Abilene where he and Mrs. Martin and a daughter, Janie Lee, 19, have resided. Mrs. Martin is a sister of Mrs. L. B. Elliott of Colorado City.

The sale concludes 13 years of business in Colorado City for Mr. and Mrs. Kelly. The couple came here from San Angelo in June 1949 and bought Richardson's Shoe Store July 1, 1949, from J. C. (Jake) Richardson.

Before moving here, Kelly was manager and buyer of men's, women's and children's shoes and handbag coordinator for first floor shoe department of Hemphill Wells Company in San Angelo.

This entry into ownership of his own store came with investment of funds saved over the years. In fact, he paid cash for the store and is proud of the fact that he never borrowed a dollar while in business while taking advantage of all invoice discounts for early payment.

The Kellys have two daughters who were reared in Colorado City—Miss Barbara Kelly, employed by Shell Oil Company in Midland, and Mrs. Johnny Bullock, who lives in Sherman.

'ENDANGER TEXANS' FREEDOMS'—COUNCIL

City Council Opposes Constitution Amendment

The City Council decided Monday that they are opposed to a proposed amendment to the state constitution.

The council said, in a resolution adopted at their regular meeting, the amendment they oppose is House Joint Resolution 32.

The House resolution provides the power to make laws which would make it possible for Texans to appeal to the courts from the decisions of municipal governments, or the administrative or executive departments of the state or its divisions.

The proposed amendment would be tacked on to Article II of the state constitution. That article provides for the separation of powers between the executive, legislative, and judicial departments.

The proposed amendment would remove the power of the courts of the state to refuse or deny the appeal.

Article II states that none of those three departments may use the power of the others.

The council said it feels the amendment would destroy the "balance of powers" presently provided by Article II.

The council contends that "the exercise of executive, legislative and judicial power by separate and independent organs of government is a fundamental principle of American constitutional jurisprudence."

Since Article II of the Texas constitution provides for separate governmental departments—legislative, executive, and judicial, and further provides that no department shall exercise any power attached to either of the other departments, the proposed amendment "would destroy the delicate balance of powers between the departments."

The council said the amendment "would endanger the basic freedoms of all of the citizens of Texas."

"It would curtail many and delay other essential services now performed at all levels of government," and "would render ineffective established, proven, and necessary administrative functions and procedures of government, and would cast an onerous burden on effective, efficient, and economical governmental operations by the State, its municipalities, and other political subdivisions."

The council resolved that they are opposed to the adoption of the proposal, and encouraged civic organizations of Colorado City to "adopt resolutions expressing opposition to such proposed amendment and to cause the publication and dissemination of such resolutions through all local news media."

They also said "citizens of Colorado City" should "study this amendment in its entirety with view to the detrimental effect it will have on local self-government, not only city, . . . but the county and school district as well."

The proposed amendment will be No. 14 of the many on the ballot in the November General Election. The proposed amendments appear in this issue of the Record in brief and in their entirety.

The painting is Ratliff's conception of the old St. James' Hotel, a city landmark torn down some years ago. The painting is one of more than 60 paintings of art club members that will be exhibited Sunday in the Baker Hotel.

J. W. Strain To Head Legion Post

John W. (Jack) Strain was elected as Commander of the Colorado City American Legion Post last Thursday evening.

Strain, a 32-year-old veteran of the Korean conflict, is the first veteran of that war elected as commander here.

He is a farmer in the Fairview Community. A graduate of Colorado High School, Strain also attended Arlington State College.

He replaced Tom J. Goss II as commander. Goss will automatically revert to executive committee.

Other officers elected in the August 12 meeting are Jay Craddock, 1st vice-commander; Sam C. Thompson, 2nd vice.

Local Artists Show Paintings Sunday

The Brush and Palette art club of Colorado City will have an exhibit Sunday in the Baker Hotel.

The show will be from 1 to 5 o'clock p. m. Over 60 paintings—oils, pastels, charcoals, watercolors ranging from classic portraits and pastoral scenes to modern abstractions, will be shown on the hotel's ground floor—Terrace Room and lobby.

All paintings are works of local art club members. The show will be for exhibition purposes only. There will be no competition, or prizes.

Each painting will be identified by the artist's name, title, and the medium—oil, pastel, charcoal—in which it was painted.

Seven Injured In July In Rural Areas

Seven persons were injured in traffic accidents in rural areas of Mitchell County in July, according to Texas Highway Patrolman Sergeant B. J. Butler.

He said 10 rural traffic accidents caused property damage of $7,980.00, as compared to $6,315.00 during the same month last year.

Statutory Rape Charged Against Elderly City Man

A charge of statutory rape was filed today against Charles A. Love, who gave his age as 72, of Colorado City.

Peace Justice T. E. Arnold set bond at $5,000. Love remained in Mitchell County Jail here Thursday.

The charge was filed after a Colorado City woman signed a complaint against Love alleging that he had assaulted her 12-year-old daughter Wednesday evening.

Police reported Wednesday that the alleged crime took place near the Lone Wolf Creek bridge on Austin St. in east Colorado City.

County Attorney Frank Ginzel said Thursday that he and District Attorney Weldon Kirk had talked to both the girl and her mother Wednesday night before filing the charge.

Colorado City chapter of the American Red Cross received $1,700 from the National Red Cross for relief of the Lorraine tornado-caused disaster earlier this summer.

Council Accepts Annual Auditing

City Council accepted the 1962 audit of Colorado City records in their regular meeting Monday evening.

Hoyt Smith, representative of Darrel Knight Co., an Abilene accounting firm, detailed the audit with the councilmen. Attached to the audit was a letter from Knight which said the "balance sheet and related statements of revenue, expenditures, and surplus present fairly" the financial position of the city, "in accordance with accepted accounting principles."

W. H. Boney, W. J. Cox, and Ernest Smith appeared at the meeting. They asked the councilmen what procedure was necessary to have a block (south of 17th St. and north of 16th St. on Waco) paved.

They said two other residents on the block had not expressed a desire to have the street paved.

The council suggested that as a first step they attempt to get their neighbors to approve paving. Waco St. is scheduled to be paved, councilmen noted.

The council discussed with Frank Derogibus a proposed lease to him of portions of the new airstrip. No immediate action on the lease was taken at the meeting.

An ordinance was passed concerning speed limits. The ordinance set a 30 mile

4-YEAR PROBATION GIVEN

Man Sentenced For Check Forgery

Ishmael A. Mejia, 35, of Colorado City, was given a sentence of 4 years in prison Monday in District Court. District Judge Eldon Mahon probated the sentence, however, on condition of good behavior.

Mejia pleaded guilty to two counts. The first was for forgery of a check, with intent to defraud. The second was for passing the forged check.

Mejia said he made the check, for $32 payable to him over the forged signature of C. B. Jordan, of Colorado City. Mejia said he traced the signature from a receipt given him by Jordan, from whom he has rented.

E. M. Majors, of the J. P. Majors Jewelry Co., said Mejia had cashed the check with him on July 12. The bank returned the check.

Jordan said he had rented Mejia a place on his property or some three months. Mejia

AT RECEPTION HERE TUESDAY

Cox Says Governorship Is Not On Auction Block

Jack Cox, Texas Republican gubernatorial candidate, stopped in Colorado City Tuesday morning for a reception—and some remarks—at the Baker Hotel.

He was here for about 30 minutes, from 10:40 to 11:10 then left for Snyder, another of his 10 scheduled stops in his Tuesday West Texas pre-election visit.

Mayor H. I. Berman welcomed Cox to Colorado City. "I would like to welcome Mr. Cox," Berman said "and thank everyone here for coming to the reception."

"I feel it is the duty of every citizen, even those of opposing viewpoints, to meet the various political candidates when they can, and compare viewpoints," Berman added.

Cox, after the usual opening anecdotes, about calluses from handshaking, said he will have met more people than any other Texas gubernatorial candidate in his 10 days.

He referred to a speech he made in Duval County, at

FIRST IN 10 YEARS

Feed Grain Stocks Have Rare Decline

July 1 stocks of feed grains and wheat were significantly below 1961 — the first decline for feed grains for July since 1952, according to Orion J. Linam, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. Linam said this report on grain stocks is in "market contrast" to last year's which showed wheat and feed grain stocks hitting new highs. "This year, however," Linam said, "the July 1 grain stocks report clearly reflects the results of the diversion programs — particularly for feed grains, which got under way in the spring of 1961. "It apparently marks a turning point in the drift toward chaos in the feed grain and livestock sectors of the economy through the ever-increasing buildup of feed grain and wheat stocks." Several declines, plus a 15 percent decrease in oats, gave an accumulated decrease of 10 percent in total feed grain tonnage.

AT FRIDAY EXHIBITION

Little Leaguers Watch Dads Play

Usually, the dads and managers of little leaguers sit and watch for stand and cheer while their offspring, or charges, play baseball.

But not Friday night. The situation will be reversed.

The Colorado City Jaycees will play the Little League "Dads and Managers" — and coaches — in an exhibition game at the Little League Park (near Ruddick Park) at 6 o'clock Friday night.

The "short" field was picked so the fans might get their fill of home runs — long ball play in general.

The game will be the regular 7-inning little league at fair.

Reason for the game is to raise funds to pay outstanding debts of the little league. The game was scheduled earlier this summer, but was postponed.

Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free. Others will be charged for their tickets, which, incidentally, will be on sale only at the gate.

Concession stand will be open.

LEARNED NEW 'YELLS'

Cheerleaders Back From Dallas School

High school football supporters will not lack stimulus this year.

The Colorado High School cheerleaders returned this week from a cheerleading school in Dallas, Southern Methodist University.

The girls, Cecilia Lee, Sue Ann Walter, Lanette Spivey, and Lana Shurtlett, attended the school from August 5 through the 10th.

Lessons included learning new yells, and competition between the 2,000 cheerleaders attending the school. The local cheerleaders won one first place, and 4 second place

The school was not "fun and games." It was "up 4, 5, and to work at 8." The girls got off at 9 p. m. Off-hours were from 12 noon to 2 p. m. and from 4 to 6 p. m. for meals.

The local girls stayed at McIlvaney Dormitory while attending the classes. Cheerleaders from Texas high schools and from out-of-state schools filled 5-SMU dorms.

Earlier this year, the local cheerleaders attended a 3-day clinic at Snyder, with other area cheerleaders. The C-City girls won all first places in competition.

Revival services will be held Aug. 31 through Sept. 2 at 7:30 p. m. Speaker will be Gerry Craft, youth director for the Travis Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth.

Each morning at 7, a morning watch will be conducted. This is a short devotion time before work or school.

In preparation for this youth week, on Monday and Tuesday evening, August 20 and 21, Ty Morris, the church music director, will conduct a music clinic for all those interested in song leading.

The young people will choose a youth pastor, youth deacons and youth secretaries to work with the adults to learn more about church administration.

Family Tours Deep South

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers and children, Richard, Brenda and Randy, have returned from a tour of southern states.

They traveled to key points in Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina and Arkansas.

Highlights of their trip included a National League baseball game between Houston Colts and St. Louis Cardinals in Houston and a visit to the Smokey Mountains National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Haggerton and children attended the revival at the Baptist Church at Blackwell Tuesday night.

How-To-Do-It, Indian Style

Paul Hahn, anthropology professor at the University of Mississippi, demonstrates for high school students Alexis Cowan of Colorado City, Texas, and Chet Richards of Oxford, Miss., how Indians used native river cane to make blow guns and darts. Miss Cowan and Richards were participants in a summer science program in anthropology at Ole Miss, sponsored by the National Science Foundation. The camp is the first of its kind in the nation. Subjects covered included archaeology, genetics, cultural and physical anthropology.

Californian Is Honoree for Farewell Fete

Mrs. Bill Dickerson, the former Inez Rogers, has returned to her home in Anaheim, Calif., after visiting with friends and relatives here.

Her visit in the Colorado City area followed a two-week vacation trip to Alabama, where she visited other relatives.

One of the series of events complimenting Mrs. Dickerson here was a dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bas-singer. Mrs. Dickerson, a cousin of the Bassingers, was a house guest in the couple's home.

Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Will R. Mize, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mize, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Harris and son, Tommy; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bassinger, Mrs. Roxie Rogers, Charles G. Rogers and Mrs. Mildred Truan.

Also feted Mrs. Dickerson during her visit here was a coffee in the home of Mrs. Roxie Rogers, an aunt of the honoree.

Guests were Mrs. Thelma Kitchin and son, Charles G. Rogers of Hebronville, Jack Rogers, Mrs. Howard Moore and son, Wesley Howard.

Mrs. Seygar Feted

Mrs. Robert Seygar was honored here Wednesday with a going-away tea, given in the home of Mrs. E. G. Brooks. Mrs. Seygar is moving to Breakley, Ark. Her husband, Robert, who is in the Air Force, will be stationed in Greenland for 11 months.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served to neighbors of Mrs. Seygar at the afternoon tea.

Baptist G. A.'s Hosted in Davis Home

The home of Mrs. Bob Davis was the scene for the book study last Thursday evening for Dale Moore Girls' Auxiliary of Oak Street Baptist Church.

Study meeting was from 6 p. m. until 9 p. m. Mrs. Davis, the hostess, is director for the girls' auxiliary.

Susan Sanderson opened the program and Leada Sanderson led the invocation. Presenting the prayer calendar was Vickie, advised by Mrs. Davis. The study lesson from the G. A.'s manual was conducted by Mrs. Thomas, Deane, Padden. The hostess served watermelon to Vickie Davis, Susan Harris, Annabel Brooks, Deb- Leadia Sanderson, Glenda Parham, Mrs. Sanderson and a guest, Nancy Dembarak.

Farm Sales Up, But Income Down

Farmers, like other businessmen, in recent years have increased their gross sales but have received less net income.

The nation's farmers have increased gross sales since 1945 by 46 per cent but their net income has declined more than 9 per cent. Gross income in 1945 was $25.7 billion and production expenses were $12.9 billion. Net income equaled $12.8 billion. By 1960, gross income was up to $37.9 billion but expenses had jumped to $26.3 billion, leaving a net of only $11.6 billion.

Farmers have sought to improve their situation by shifting the inputs or "mix" of production resources. They have substituted machinery for labor. In 1940, U. S. farmers spent $1.75 on machinery and buildings for each dollar spent on hired help. By 1960, they were spending $2.77 on these items for each dollar spent for hired labor.

Another effort to boost efficiency is reflected in the amounts spent for fertilizer and lime. By 1960, U. S. farmers were spending 4.8 times more for these items than was spent in 1940. This means a great increase in quantity since prices for fertilizer and lime have increased only 50 per cent.

Although comparable figures are not available on former expenditures for pesticides and herbicides, the trend has been sharply upward, says the specialist. These inputs have tended to keep down the cost of food to consumers.

The question is often raised, why do farm units continue to increase in size? A major factor behind the pressure for larger units is the use of machinery and the narrower margin received on products marketed, explains the specialist. Today's farmer must invest three to four times as much capital in fixed assets as was needed in 1940 to obtain net returns on a comparable level and the price-cost squeeze is continuing.

Soviet Oil And Soviet Might

The Soviet Union is building her economic might through the sale of oil.

Back of this lies a story of increasing concern to the oilmen of this country. The volume of Soviet sales has steadily increased in Germany, Italy, France, and elsewhere.

What troubles them, as an oil company publication phrases it, "is not the mere fact of Soviet competition, for that is a normal business risk. Their real concern is the system of state-controlled pricing and barter that Russia uses to penetrate free world oil markets."

The point is that in the Soviet system the word "cost" is likely to mean something entirely different from what it does outside the communist empire. The state determines all prices, just as it determines all wages. Thus, costs are whatever the state says they are—even though the figure may be totally unrealistic by Western standards.

The importance of this oil offensive can hardly be exaggerated. Russia is buying huge quantities of industrial equipment—including complete factories and processing plants of the most advanced, automated type—from the West. And oil is the one commodity in general demand which she can export, and use for barter and exchange, without unduly affecting her ambitious domestic development program.

These exports of Russian oil to the free world have reached 500,000 barrels a day and are expected to swiftly increase.

There is no simple solution to the problem. American oilmen, and their equivalents elsewhere in the West, are dealing with it with all the wealth of imagination and resources which they command.

Meanwhile, to say the obvious, our government should pursue wise policies—in taxation and other matters—which will not hamper the oil industry's ability to meet the Soviet offensive.

Economy

The cost per mile of building the Interstate Highway System in Texas is running some 40 per cent below the national average.

Figures compiled by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads show that Texas will complete its portion of the Interstate System at an estimated $610,000 per mile—as compared with the national average of approximately $1 million per mile.

Comparison of the Texas cost with that of some of the other large states revealed these figures: California, $1.7 million per mile; Illinois, $1.3 million per mile; New York, $1.7 million per mile; Ohio, $1.7 million per mile; and Pennsylvania, $1.5 million per mile.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

Governor Praises Guard For Emergency Service

BY VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
Members of the 49th Armored Division of the Texas National Guard received a personal "Welcome home" from Gov. Price Daniel. He greeted them in front of the State Capitol.

Afterwards the Guardsmen paraded down Congress Avenue, then dismissed for their homes and civilian jobs. Governor Daniel told a crowd of about 500 spectators:

"When the President moved to augment the active army in the face of the Berlin crisis last year, the Texas National Guard was ready for this obligation, just as it always has faced up to its responsibilities since the first conflicts by Texas civilian-soldiers at Anahuac and Gonzales in 1835."

Meanwhile, the returning soldiers were a father and son team, C. H. and Ronald H. Cheshire, both highway patrolmen with the Texas Department of Public Safety.

C. H. Cheshire, a chief warrant officer with the 49th, organized 42 other department employees including his son, Ronald — into the "Texas DPS 49ers" during their stay at Fort Polk, Louisiana.

All have returned back to their civilian boss, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS director. But the department still is 100 men short.

WE'LL STUDY — Governor Daniel has approved the release of $105,000 from Texas Railroad Commission funds to finance additional equipment, personnel and other expenses connected with the investigation of slantwell drilling and oil production operations and pollution of public waters.

He also authorized Atty. Gen. Will Wilson to adjust his present appropriations to cover slantwell and anti-trust investigation expenses. Meanwhile, the Railroad Commission called a temporary halt to oil well testing in East Texas and Hawkins fields, in order to rearrange personnel.

TWO TERM LIMIT? — Another effort may be made to limit the term of office of the governor.

Similar resolution was unsuccessfully sponsored in the 57th Legislature. New proposal would set the governor's term at four years. It provides that he could not succeed himself in office.

Many legislators feel that such a system actually stretches a political life rather than limiting it.

PRESSURE HAZARD — When Brad Smith, the governor's traffic safety assistant, learned that a fatal automobile crash occurred every other hour and a car wreck every hour, for three consecutive days, he decided it might be due to the weather.

Study revealed that the barometric pressure had dropped to a low point the day previous and stayed low through the three day period. Smith, a former newsmen, said that reporters always look for unusual happenings when the barometer falls and remains low for a few days.

"I am now convinced that oppressive weather has a decided effect on some personalities," he said. Scientists call the effect of weather on people "bio-climatology."

DIVORCE STUDY — House Interim Committee on Divorce held its first meeting.

Committee, headed by Rep. Renal B. Rosson of Snyder, was created by the 57th Legislature to study divorce laws, with special attention to: Rights of children; methods of promoting and protecting family life; and possible ways to encourage reconciliations.

Texas now has the fifth highest divorce rate in the nation. More than 28,000 divorces were granted here in 1961.

LOCAL BUSINESS

Vigor Can Beat Store Prestige

BY MADGE BELL
Record Staff Writer
The Yankee trader was once considered the scourge of the business world.

He arrived at far-flung market centers first and did the best job of selling. Competition was a challenge, which simply tested his ingenuity.

The combination of production efficiency and selling activity was the direct cause of the high standard of living which developed in the United States. However, there is some evidence that in recent years the American business man has been "coasting" on the accomplishments of his forebears.

American business firms frequently appear to be timid, expecting a modest profit on investment to come automatically. Selling of goods and services too often becomes a passive effort.

Meanwhile, in the world markets, the Japanese, the Germans and other nations have adopted the old American techniques of vigorous selling. They are getting a larger part of the former American business because they are working harder for it.

The trend, however, is not limited to competition in world markets. On the local level, in nearly any city, established retail firms begin to rest while vigorous new merchants fill the void which usually begins with a weakened advertising program.

The rising new retailers are simply following an old principle — that investment, age, and prestige can never be substituted for sales effort. On the retail level, this means day by day, mass selling of individual items through local newspapers.

HEALTH & SAFETY TIPS

August Sun Can't Whip All Diseases

(Prepared for the Record by the American Medical Association.)

Winter is commonly the time for colds and flu and sneezes, but there are some diseases and accidents that do their worst in hot weather.

Some of these are obvious. Sun strokes and heat strokes are more likely to occur in August than in January. Too much exposure and too much exercise in the hot sun may produce sun stroke. Prolonged excessive heat, either in or out of doors, can cause heat stroke. The symptoms are the same and in either case it is important to keep the victim cool and call a physician at once.

Sunburn has hospitalized many a vacationer. Everyone should know that gradual exposure to the sun, beginning with a few minutes a day, is the recommended course. But many of us forget to take precautions in the excitement of the first day at camp or seashore.

Poliomyelitis occurs most often in the summer. Vaccine can prevent paralysis. If you and your family haven't had your polio boosters this summer, by all means get vaccinated now.

arrhea multiply much faster in lukewarm foods and it's important to keep cold foods in refrigeration and to keep hot foods hot.

Swimming is fine exercise and also is good for cooling off on a hot day. Those with sinus or ear troubles should be careful about swimming. Swimmers should make certain that the water is safe from pollution. A clear mountain stream may look attractive. It also may be loaded with germs. And there still are cases each summer of typhoid and dysentery from drinking untreated water. Campers can disinfect water by boiling or by commercial disinfectant tablets.

If there are horses or cows around, there are likely to be tetanus germs. Tetanus can be very serious. It can be prevented by injections of tetanus toxoid. If your family hasn't had tetanus boosters recently, get your shots before going to the country.

Flies, roaches, mosquitoes and ticks are troublesome in the hot months. Insecticides and screens usually can keep them under control. In tick country it is essential to make a close examination after disrobing to remove all ticks.

Ruth Coffey's CONVERSATION CORNER

DALLAS—Dear Pat Barry—

KNOW WHAT? The man who wrote those sad lines about Texas passenger trains fading away just hasn't visited Union Terminal depot in Big D. lately.

Friday night, dashed down there to greet the daughter, who rode the Burlington Rock Island from Houston. That Union Terminal station looked like a one-cent bargain sale with door prizes—or a political rally with free barbecue on the grounds. Such confusion was a sudden reminder of travel during World War II.

RED CAPS are becoming extinct. Like the whooping crane. Everybody just loads luggage and little ones in double-decked carts, going and coming. Scooting from ticket counter, down the inclined and lengthy ramps to track doors, sometimes creates a traffic hazard for wanderers from the wide open spaces. Sometimes you feel every "Little C. C." while watching "Big D" charge around in such an everlasting hurry.

HAD WONDERFUL orchestra tickets for "Gypsy," Saturday night, when the four of us—Mother, Mary, Doris, Ann and your correspondent—sat front and center in a novel Indian file arrangement occupying aisle seats in rows F, G, H, and I. That was because we were lucky enough to swap three Sunday matinee tickets in a row, and buy one extra when the daughter called to say she was coming to Dallas to join the party.

THINK YOU would have loved Kaye Ballard in "Gypsy." Pat. You would have loved, no doubt, the scene featuring three darlingly comic and exaggerated burlesque dances. Our bet for the evening was the blond wearing exactly three blue chiffon scarfs and three magical flashlight bulbs which lighted up each time she did a "grind" in the "You Gotta Have a Gimmick" number. "Grind" is just an earlier term for the burlesque version contortions. This here 'eta calls "the twist." Only these were even twistier.)

THIS WEEK, lovely Patrice Munsel is here starring in "The Merry Widow," circa 1905, and even more "period piece." Co-starring is Robert Wright, Kent, cigarette man of TV commercials. We're saving that one for tonight.

Meantime, found the Palace theater movie musical "The Music Man" with Shirley Jones and Robert Preston the best movieland musical offering of this generation.

Meantime, too, there has been those search-for-shoes expeditions. (As a confirmed shopper-at-home, let's hasten to add that the Big D shoe safari is not due to feminine "want-itis." It's arthritis. Well, anyhow, our friends Dr. Os Rhode and Gus Eckhardt, M. D. of San Angelo, called the problem osteo-arthritis, which is a very hi-falutin' name for the toe ache, you gotta admit, Pat. But no matter. If ever a woman needs an excuse to try on shoes for hours 'n hours, osteo-arthritis in an injured great-toe joint is as snazzy a reason as any, for now.)

LAST WEEK, when we left the house on Chesnut St. for this short visit in Dallas, Mrs. Chester Hart of Elm St. traveled as far as Abilene. Wonder if anybody ever bothered to tell her what an attractive "figga" she keeps, considering two grown sons and two grandchildren?

Mrs. Hart was enroute to Corpus Christi to be with son Bill (Myrl) who had just undergone surgery. His mother was pleased to have learned that other Corpus Christi orthodontists had stepped in to take over all scheduled practice for Bill while he recovers from the emergency. Orthodontist Bill Hart, '45 CCHS grad, owns and flies his own plane. His wife has her private license, too. James Hart, older son of the Chester Harts, is a practicing veterinarian in Lubbock.

OUR TRAVELING COMPANION (Mrs. Hart) was saying several things you may not know: Maple Avery, Baptist preacher who has held some popular revival meetings in C. City when he was a Big Spring pastor, has enrolled in medical school of Texas University at Galveston and will study to become a doctor, come September. Maple recently resigned his pastorate at Abilene to answer what he terms "a distinct and never quiet call into the field of medicine."

And Louise Hart, daughter of the Bruce Harts of Andrews, and remembered as a kindergarten grad, is the wife of Paul Crenshaw of Odessa. He was in C. City, not long ago you know, as instructor for that Dowell special training school at the Baker. Louise and Paul have three children. And expect a fourth, soon.

BEEN DISCOVERING, once again since here, how All Dallas is Made Up of Three Parts: natives who remember when street cars ran up and down Elm St. and it was fun to drive downtown at night; East Texans who made money in oil; and West Texans who have yet to recover from their natural habitat manners of open friendliness.

Head of the shoe salon at Titcher's for instance, is a personable young man who hailed from Pecos, our sister city to the West. Sure you know that Pecos pride has its citizenry pretty mad, right now. Guess you read how some Pecos gentlemen, including the mayor, are suing Look Magazine over an unflattering published word picture of them and their town. (That should be fun for people engaged in things like practicing law and newspaper reporting.)

WENT CALLING, professionally speaking, on a nice young chirpologist who used to live in Midland, where he still visits frequently. . . . Chatted with one taxi driver who moved here from Lubbock. . . . Another who grew up in Plainview. . . . And a third who arrived 17 days ago from Des Moines, Iowa. (He was the only man we ever saw who welcomed having three back seat drivers telling him the shortest route from State Fair Music Hall to Oak Lawn area. But then, he's a rank newcomer who works as a plumber by day, a cab driver by night, and he's a stranger here himself.)

DR. T. A. (TOM) PATTERSON who used to pastor First Baptists at C. City, filled the pulpit at First Baptist in Dallas, preaching to one of the largest congregations in the world, recently, while Dr. W.A. Criswell, that church's pastor, preached at the famous Cowboy Camp Meeting, somewhere in the Alpine area. While Dr. Patterson lived in our town he commuted to Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Ft. Worth to complete work for and receive his Doctor of Theology degree. He's now executive secretary of all Texas Baptist convention work and lives in Dallas.

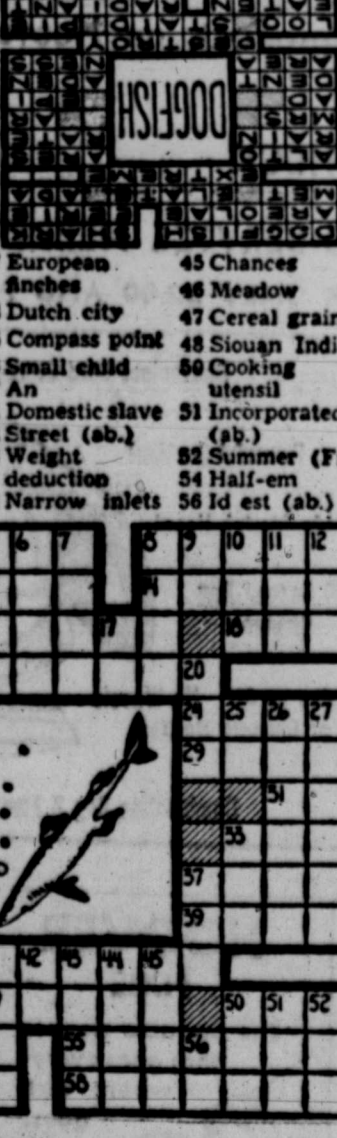

SAY "HI" to the Record force—Peggy, Doris, "Jonesy," Orbie Ray, Howard, Herman, Joe, Joe and Joe. If that sounds like the broken record, just make it read Joe Bell, Joe Landeros and our newest face, Joe Wallis. See y'all soon, Friday, Maybe, Saturday for sure. REGARDS, E. C. C.

which he said more than 2,500 persons attended.
 "Mr. George Parr," former sheriff of the county) he said, "had advised me, though the newspapers could take refuge in a telephone booth, in case of rain - but there were more than 2,500 people there."

As to political philosophy, he said "I am a conservative, but that doesn't mean I'm an 'obstructionist.'" He also said he made no appeals to any particular groups, such as labor unions, and that he offers a "positive program" to Texans.

He did not elaborate on the "positive program," however. The 40-year-old oilman said "we cannot hope to match, in money, the opposition." He said he doesn't know where the opposition gets it, but mentioned "political power" that he said is perhaps necessary for "such large amounts."

Cox's opponent is John Connally, Democrat.

"I have news for my opponent and his advisor on the Potomac. The governor's office of this state is not for sale, at any price," he added.

"I offer nothing but honest elections," he said, "in which people can vote, and be assured that their vote will count, which has not been the case in Duval County, and other areas in South Texas."

He told the audience he was confident that he would be chosen in the November general elections.

Cox was speaker last year at the annual Jaycee banquet here.

Oilman's Father Dies In Oklahoma

Glenn O. Robinson, 66, died Saturday morning at Baptist hospital in Miami, Oklahoma. He had been a patient since a heart attack in July.

He was the father of Glenn E. (Bob) Robinson, Colorado City oilman.

Mr. Robinson and his son were members of the Robinson Drilling Co. here. The company has drilled wells in Mitchell, Scurry and Garza counties.

A World War I veteran, Robinson graduated from the University of Missouri. He was a native of Colorado, but moved to Oklahoma in 1907.

He was a deacon in the Baptist church, a 32nd degree Mason, and a charter member of the Miami American Legion post.

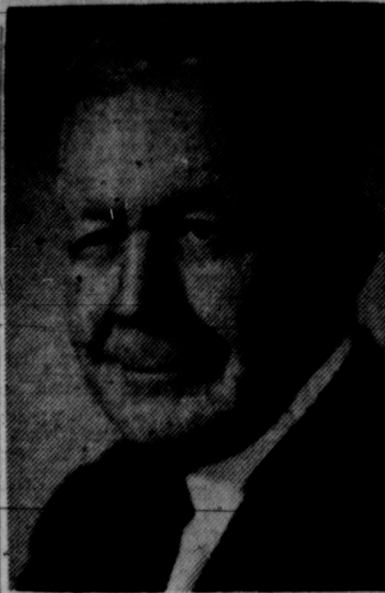

Funeral service was in Miami Baptist Church at 10:30 Tuesday morning. Dr. Weldon E. Marcum, minister, was in charge. Burial was in GAR Cemetery under direction of Cooper Funeral home.

Nephews of Robinson were pallbearers. Deacons of the church were honorary pallbearers.

Mr. Robinson is survived by his wife, of Miami, two sons, Glenn R. (Bob) of Colorado City, and Dr. Jack Robinson, stationed with the Navy in San Diego, Calif. Five grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Robinson entered the drilling business in the zinc and lead field during the 1920's. He later conducted drilling in major Oklahoma oil fields. He drilled the discovery well of the Sharon Ridge in Scurry County, and was among the founders of the Dobson-Robinson Oil Co. in Miami, Okla.

He founded the Robinson Drilling Co. in 1946. He had since conducted extensive exploratory oil operations in West Texas. He engaged actively in ranching, was on the board of directors of the Miami First National Bank, and had several real estate holdings in Oklahoma.

What is Your Question?

QUESTION: "Comment on Bible fools"

There is the fool who says in his heart, "There is no God" (Psalm 14:1). What should we think of a man who has been taken through an aircraft plant where a giant plane was being assembled, having followed the process of its production from the craftsman's table to the take-off at the aerodrome, if after having seen with his own eyes all the marvels of mechanical skill, the evidences of design and fitness for purpose—what should we think of a man who claimed at the end of his tour that there was no designer, no maker, no inventor, that the thing just happened? What shall we say of the man who is surrounded with ten thousand times more evidence in sun, moon, stars, in fish, fowl, and flowers; evidence in his own body and mind of design, purpose and plan; evidence of infinite wisdom and almighty power—what shall we call this man who can still say, "There is no God"? The Bible plainly and simply and conclusively labels him a "fool".

There is the fool who makes a "mock of sin" (Proverbs 14:9). This folly is deadly! It strikes at the heart of society, of country, of honor, of right, and of God! It makes light of death and the grave for death came by sin. He who mocks at sin mocks at the sacrifice for sin. He joins the crowd who mocked the dying Savior as He gave His life a ransom for many. Surely to mock at sin is foolish beyond all parallel. Yet such mockers may be met in every walk of life.

The third kind of fool is the fool whose God is his bank balance. This man's idea of life is the accumulation of "things". He says "I will . . . build greater, "soul . . . take time case, eat, drink and be merry". To such, God has a word to say: "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou has provided?" (Luke 12:18-20). What folly is shown by men who have stood by the open grave, knowing that their own days are numbered and that whether their possessions be great or small they will leave all behind when their hour arrives—yet approach that hour without hope, spending their remaining strength in accumulating things that perish.

Here then are three outstanding fools. The one who denies his Maker; the one who mocks at sin; the third gains the whole world but loses his own soul. God looks sadly at these three classes and calls them all fools.

There is one further kind of fool—the kind the world calls a fool, but God calls wise. Paul (1 Corinthians 4:10) speaks of Christians as being "fools for Christ's sake". To the world it looked foolish that man like Paul, a man of culture, of learning, of ability, of family pride, that such a man had, for Christ's sake, flung aside all position and honor to become a persecuted, hated, homeless outcast. To the world Paul was indeed a fool for Christ's sake. Yet this seemingly foolish Paul had exchanged a guilty conscience for the joy of sins forgiven, the position of condemnation for one of justification, he had traded bondage for liberty.

Will you allow these four Bible "fools" once more to pass before your mind? Will you give an honest answer to the question: Which of these four fools am I?

1962 Wolves to Begin Practice Minus 21 Graduating Lettermen

BY PAT BARRY

Record Sports Editor
The 1962 version of the Colorado City Wolf football team will begin workouts Monday August 20, according to head coach Sam Christy.

He said the practice sessions will begin at 7 o'clock — in the morning.

days to get ready for their first game, which will be with Winters.

Christy said Monday that 21 lettermen will not return to the team this year — due to graduation. Among the best of the lost lettermen are Darrell Davis, guard, Jim Womack, back, Ken Northcutt, back, and Jerry Whitaker, tackle.

Returning lettermen from the 1961 season are:

Bill Boren, back, a 175-pound Junior with one letter; Dickie Summers, back, a 150-pound Senior with one letter; Joe Dean, guard, a 170-pound Senior — one year letterman; Dale Walker, back, a 165-pound Junior with one letter; Don Free, guard, a 170-pound Senior with one letter; Don Hairston, end, a 170-pound Senior, also a one year letterman.

Also Larry Hamper, tackle, a 180-pound Senior, with one letter; Charles Houston, back, a 180-pound Senior with one letter; David Lewis, quarterback, a 140-pound Senior one year letterman; Bill McGuire, guard, a 190-pound Senior one year letterman; Melvin Morgan, tackle, a 195-pound Junior one year letterman; Stanley Post, tackle, a 205-pound Senior, with two letters; finally, Lee Shafer, guard, a 170-pound Senior one year letter man. Houston and Lewis were co-captains last year.

Christy, who has been head coach here for 2 years, said Monday that running would probably be the Wolves' strong point this year. He listed depth, or the lack of it, as the probable weak spot.

Charles Houston, who was team co-captain last year, should prove to be the top back.

Stanley Post should be one of the better linemen this year. Post is a two-year letterman.

The head coach said the team's basic offense, a "winged T," would remain the same as last year, as would the "5 up, 4 back" defense setup.

Last year's Wolves would tip the season on the bottom of the 3-AAA district ladder with 1 win (Shydef, 25-14) against 3 losses in district play. The 1961 team was replete with injuries during most of the season, and lack of team depth was not much help, either.

By the end of the 1961 season, when the Wolves lost to Lamesa, 34-6, even the top quarterback was out of action along with about half of the front wall, before the game started.

But all was not sad, even then. There were two other teams crowding the last place rung with the Wolves — Sweetwater and Snyder.

These same three teams, oddly enough, were tied for the district title at the end of the 1960 season.

Even though the Wolves had a poor record in district games last year, they managed to salvage the season somewhat with a fairly respectable 4-6 season record, whipping such teams as Post, Ballinger, Littlefield, and Snyder, while being whipped by Monahans, Stamford, Winters, Lakeview, Sweetwater, and Lamesa.

Two Seniors and 17 Juniors are some of the better of the 1962 newcomers to the "varsity squad." They are:

Danny Kennemer, end, a 160-pound Junior; Raymon Kincaid, back, a 165-pound Junior; Leon Sweatt, center, a 210-pound Junior; Richard Smith, quarterback, a 150-pound Junior; Denzil Pendergrass, back, a 150-pound Junior; Jimmy Magill, tackle, a 170-pound Senior; Larry Johnson, tackle, a 200-pound Senior; T. J. Davis, guard, a 170-pound Junior; and Pat Barber, guard, a 170-pound Junior.

All these newcomers were "B" team lettermen last year. Although the Wolves are not listed by most people as district favorites, they should not be counted out. Football predictions — all sports predictions, in fact — are just that: guesses; especially before the teams have begun to practice. The best bet is to sit and wait — then there won't be any second-guessing or "I-told-you-so's".

At any rate, here is a district favorite prediction which most fans are not likely to argue with: Sweetwater. Other favorites are Brownfield, Lakeview, Snyder, and Lamesa, in that order.

BUSY SCHEDULE . . .

Always amusing to me are those persons from large towns who make remarks about nothing to do in a small town. Their tongues would be hanging out soon . . . if they participated in all the worthwhile activities of our community.

For instance, the Lions celebrate their 40th anniversary tonight . . . the Junior Rodeo this weekend . . . Art Club Show Sunday . . . followed quickly by Gun & Coin Show, Mitchell County Fair and West Texas Art display. And that's just naming a few.

All of which is our way of saying our friends take a back seat to nobody in providing delightful programs for every age, every taste.

Finals Friday In Annual Table Games

Finals in the annual ping-pong and pocket billiards tournament at City Community Center will be Friday, according to Mrs. Gwen Wistrand, recreation director.

The tourney, which began Monday, has 36 entrants vying in the billiards competition, and 32 in ping-pong.

Local Lions Club sponsors the event, and provides trophies. There will be trophies for first place in each of 6 divisions — 3 divisions in each sport, Mrs. Wistrand said.

Play has been from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. The finals will follow the same schedule.

Farm Income Up But Below Urban

Income of farmers and farm people rose by $118 per capita in 1961, but income was still only 58.6 percent of per capita personal income of non-farm population, according to Allen W. Worley, office manager of the Mitchell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation unit.

However, he said, the 58.6 percent figure was the highest of any year (except 1951 and 1948) since the tabulations were begun in 1934.

"These statistics," Worley continued, "are based on a revised series of per capita income for the period 1934-1961, which takes into account the sharp downward adjustment in farm population estimates resulting from the change in definition of farm population used in the last census."

The figures are published in the July issue of the Department of Agriculture's Farm Income Situation, Worley said.

Personal income of farm population, from all sources, was $1,373 per capita in 1961, as compared to $2,345 for non-farm persons, of the farm income, only $889 was included from farm sources, but $474 was included from "nonfarm sources" for the $1,373 figure.

The $889 was due to a $940 million increase in personal income and a decline of $32,000 in the number of farm persons, in the period from 1960 to 1961, Worley said.

Something you should think about if you're about to buy a truck:

If all trucks were built the same way, cost the same to keep up, were worth the same at trade-in . . . then probably the price tag would be your only concern. It can't be, of course, because some trucks have more quality than others. And marks of quality are the real keys to low cost.

Chevrolet trucks, for example, have double-wall construction, which gives bodies and cabs more strength. Cabs are insulated against heat, cold and noise. A big part of road shock, which shortens truck life, is damped out by Chevrolet's suspension system; it also makes riding in the truck a pleasure. Pickup bodies and cabs are separated to eliminate stress between them.

Value such as this has induced more people to invest in Chevrolet trucks every year since 1937.

This can be a good time to buy a modern new Chevrolet truck

Late summer traditionally is the season for all-around savings on a new Chevrolet truck . . . selection is still good . . . deliveries are prompt . . . and Chevrolet dealers are doubly anxious to put you into a new vehicle in order to make way for next year's models. Coupled with the efficient performance a new Chevrolet truck will give you, it seems evident that you couldn't buy at a better time.

Come in and take full advantage of it!
