Officeholders Subpoenaed In Insurance Case

BULLETIN

AUSTIN (AP)—John VanCronkhite, publicity man and former aide to Gov. Allan Shivers, today charged gubernatorial candidate Ralph Yarborough with "political conspiracy" in the Lloyd's of North America insurance case.

AUSTIN (AP) — Public relations man John VanCronkhite and several state officeholders have been called to appear in court when the state tries Monday to close down a Beaumont insurance company.

It was a counter-move by the firm, whose attorney asked that the subpoenaes be issued. He blames the firm's discharge of VanCronkhite, a former aide and intimate of Gov. Allan Shivers, for the state move.

"It was clear the company did not get the boom dropped on it until after VanCronkhite's separation," said Herman Jones, Austin attorney for the company, Lloyd's of North America.

Also subpoenaed yesterday at Jones' request were Maurice Acers, executive assistant to Shivers; Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd, State Insurance Board Chairman Garland Smith, and L. W. Blanchard, the state's chief insurance examiner.

STATE SEEKS INJUNCTION

The state's suit for a permanent injunction against operations of North America is to be heard in 98th District Court.

Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts predicted a month ago the state's insurance troubles might "blow the dome" off the Capitol. Associate Justice R. G. Hughes of the 3rd Court of Civil Appeals, in a written opinion on another insurance case, asserted there had been "gross if not criminal laxness" in enforcement of insurance laws.

Since then a 98th District Court grand jury has indicted four persons connected with now-bankrupt insurance firms at El Paso, Beaumont and Ennis. Various officeholders and candidates have urged tightening of insurance laws.

HIRED VAN CRONKHITE

Ralph W. Hammons, organizer and attorney-in-fact for Lloyd's of North America, has said he hired VanCronkhite on Acers' recommendation to "get cordial relations with the Insurance Department."

He said it was strange the company's legal difficulties began shortly after VanCronkhite said his salary would have to be raised to $2,000 a month or 20 per cent of the firm's profits, "or else."

Scurry Field Well Plugged, Abandoned

R. W. Baxter of Midland No. 1 Jap Beck, Hermleigh-Strawn field tester about 10 miles east of Snyder, was to be plugged for abandonment today.

The project was drilled to total depth of 6,683 feet in the lower Strawn shale. Logs were run yesterday. No shows for production were reported.

Scientists Hit Board Verdict

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federation of American Scientists says the ruling against physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer stems from a security system "now motivated more by the risks of politics than the risks of disclosure of information."

Describing as "unfair" a special inquiry board's 2-1 finding that Oppenheimer is a security risk, the federation said in a statement last night that the Atomic Energy Commission should conduct a review as Oppenheimer has asked.

"But beyond that," it said, "we urge strongly that the entire machinery of security must itself come under review.

"The American people are seeing samples of the mixing of politics and security in such highly publicized proceedings as the Army-McCarthy hearings.

"It is to be hoped that these hearings will attract attention to the underlying problem—the exploitation of legitimate concern for national security for political ends."

The federation is a national organization of scientists formed in 1946 to act on public issues in its field.

AT $30,000 HOLLYWOOD PARTY

As champagne flows in a steady stream from an iced fountain, Mr. and Mrs. George Ray Gilliland, oil millionaires who married two months ago, pour a drink for themselves and Eva Gabor, left, at a fabulous wedding reception the Gillilands staged in their honor at the Mocambo night club in Hollywood. Hollywood partygoers said it was the town's most lavish affair of the year, with estimates of the cost ranging from $30,000 up. Several hundred celebraties of the screen and society attended.

Ely Named To Dual Post In Indochina

PARIS (AP)—France ordered Gen. Paul Ely, armed forces chief of staff, to the double-barreled job of military and political chief in Indochina today. By putting a new man in the combined command, Premier Joseph Laniel's Cabinet sought to bolster the sagging defenses of the revolt-torn country.

Ely, 56, replaces Gen. Henri Navarre as military commander in chief and Maurice Dejean as commissioner general of Indochina. Navarre particularly has been a major target of criticism since the fall of Dien Bien Phu.

Ely recently returned from a survey mission to the Far Eastern battleground. His report has been made the basis of government plans fro all-out defense against new Vietminh rebel threats to the vital Red River delta around Hanoi.

The appointment came shortly after Laniel's shaky regime gave further evidence of its determination to fight on in Indochina. The Cabinet yesterday named Edouard Frederic-Dupont minister for the Associated States of Indochina and raised the post to full Cabinet rank. Frederic-Dupont's predecessor, Marc Jacquet, held the junior ministerial rank of secretary of state.

In combining the top Indochinese military and political commands the government returned to the set-up followed when the late Marshal Jean de Lattre de Tassigny hurled the Communist-led Vietminh back from the delta in 1951.

De Lattre had been given both posts after a try at dividing them to minimize military influence on the developing Viet Nam government, had not proved entirely successful. By again concentrating power in one man's hands, the government obviously hoped Ely would be able to repeat De Lattre's successful offensive.

There was no immediate announcement of new assignments for Navarre and Djean. Both men had assumed their duties in Indochina only last year.

Ely's successor also was not announced immediately.

The new Indochina chief is a thrice-wounded veteran of both world wars. A grauate of St. Cyr military academy, France's West Point, he became chief of staff last August.

Sentell Out Of Jail About 2 Hours Early

C. F. (Frank) Sentell, state representative compelled to serve a jail sentence for contempt of court, was released from the county jail at 11 o'clock last night, two hours and $100 to the good.

Sentell said this morning he was released at 11 o'clock last night rather than 1 o'clock this morning because his jail time began at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning rather than at 10 o'clock, the time he was actually booked into the jail.

"I had been given to the custody of the sheriff before I actually went to jail," he said, "and I was given time to pack."

Asked about the $100 fine assessed in the contempt-finding, Sentell said, "If it ever comes up, I guess I'll have to pay it. I don't know what is to be done about that."

At the time Sentell was found in contempt, he was ordered to pay the fine into the registry of the court by 1 o'clock that afternoon, last Oct. 26.

Sentell was released from jail last October on a temporary writ of habeas corpus by the state supreme court after serving 33 hours of the 72-hour sentence. The court ruled twice against making the writ permanent and remanded him to serve the remainder of the sentence which was meted as "three full 24-hour days."

Sentell was privileged to be host at a steak dinner at the jail last night, attended by his wife, his brother, and two other persons. The dinner was prepared by a jail trusty.

Lane told Republican candidates for office that June 14 is the deadline for payment of statewide filing fees.

He listed the following GOP candidates in Texas:

Senator: Carlos G. Watson of Brownsville and Willard T. Holland of Houston.

Congressman at large: Thomas R. Nolan, San Antonio.

Commissioner of Agriculture: Harry W. Linderman, Houston.

Lane said the committee also will decide the place of the Sept. 14 state convention of the party and transact other business.

McCarthy To Allow Use Of His Telephone Calls

Agreement Brings Debate To Climax

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy today agreed to permit use in the McCarthy-Army hearings of his monitored telephone calls with Army officials.

McCarthy and Army Counsel Joseph N. Welch agreed that all monitored telephone calls between Pentagon officials and senators, including McCarthy, should go into the public record.

Welch and McCarthy further agreed that efforts should be abandoned to make public calls involving other key figures in the dispute—calls between administration officials only, and calls involving Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, aides to McCarthy.

McCarthy and Welch had a conference outside the hearing room and returned to announce their understanding.

Welch said the hearings subcommittee should recognize the "inescapable fact" that disclosure of calls within the administration is barred by President Eisenhower's directive forbidding testimony on conferences between administration officials.

He said it also should recognize McCarthy has taken the consistent stand that if these calls are not introduced, all the others should not be.

McCarthy said he agreed with Welch but if the other senators were going to put their calls into the record, he would agree to put in his.

The upshot of the McCarthy-Welch agreement — unless overturned by the subcommittee itself or later developments—would be that calls involving senators, including McCarthy, would be made public—but no others would be.

The Welch-McCarthy understanding climaxed an hour's debate in the hearing room on the issue of the monitored calls.

In one uproarious moment, Sen. Symington (D-Mo) shook a consent agreement for release of monitored calls at McCarthy and called on him to sign it.

Chairman Mundt (R-SD) banged his gavel and called for order.

"Now, Mr. Chairman, let's don't try to get anybody off the hook here," Symington told Mundt.

Earlier Symington had asked the subcommittee to order McCarthy to give the FBI any names he has of suspected Communists in defense plants.

His motion called also for the same orders to other members and the staff of the McCarthy Investigations subcommittee.

A vote on the motion was deferred because of the absence of Sens. Dworshak (R-Idaho) and Dirksen (R-Ill). Chairman Mundt (R-SD) said they were attending important Appropriations Committee meetings.

At special issue are the names of 133 alleged Communists McCarthy has contended he knows are working in defense plants, and a running dispute between his side and the Pentagon on the terms under which he would agree to send the names to Secretary of Defense Wilson.

Dulles Enters His Plea For Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles opens the administration plea in the Senate for a 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid authorization today, with questioning likely to focus on Communist-menaced Indochina.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) asked Dulles to appear before a public session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The secretary has appeared previously before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which has reached no decisions.

These policy committees are considering only an authorization. Actual funds must be voted later in a separate appropriation bill.

Members of the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees got a secret briefing on the situation in the Far East yesterday from James A. Van Fleet, retired Army general. Van Fleet is just back from a mission to Japan, Korea and Formosa for President Eisenhower.

Wiley quoted Van Fleet as saying that no formal decisions had been reached on what the administration would do about the expanding Indochina Communist crisis. The President made a similar statement at his news conference Wednesday.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) told the Senate yesterday he understands a policy has been determined, but that administration leaders apparently feared to tell Congress and the public what it is for fear of losing control of Congress in the coming elections.

"Anything as serious as war has no business in politics," Kefauver said. "The decisions before this country are far too grave for them to wait on elections."

He demanded that Congress and the public be told just what is planned about intervention in Indochina.

Military representatives of five powers — the United States, Great Britain, France, Australia and New Zealand — opened secret talks here yesterday on measures which may be taken to combat communism in Southeast Asia. No results were announced.

Foreign Aid Director Harold E. Stassen told a news conference yesterday the President should have authority to use $1,133,000,000 requested for Indochina in the new foreign aid budget in other adjoining areas if the Communists should overrun Indochina.

Vietminh Reds Score Heavily On Hanoi Delta

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — Communist-led Vietminh rebels scored two bloody successes in the Hanoi delta yesterday. One posed a new threat to the vital French lifeline between Haiphong and Hanoi. The other turned a Roman Catholic seminary into a battleground where hundreds died in hand-to-hand combat.

Wave after wave of Vietminh troops crushed the stubborn defense of the 60 Vietnamese manning the garrison at Cho Moi, 24 miles southeast of Hanoi and only 9 miles south of the Haiphong-Hanoi road. Over this road are convoyed supplies and equipment landed at Haiphong harbor.

Cut off by the Vietminh for nearly three weeks and under almost constant rebel assault during the past seven nights, the defenders smashed five assaults last night before the Vietminh tide overwhelmed them. How many Vietnamese escaped death or capture was not known, a French high command spokesman said in recounting the battle.

Seventy-five miles southeast of Hanoi, 3,000 Vietminh smashed their way through the village of Ouanphungha against 1,000 Vietnamese and a handful of volunteer Catholic militiamen who made a seven-hour stand in the seminary.

It was "truly a battle between Communists and Catholics—religious war, a French army spokesman said.

The dead and dying fell or were thrown from windows and balcony ledges in a hand-to-hand combat that raged on the staircases and in the corridors, a French army spokesman reported. Bursting grenades pocked the seminary walls.

Conference Tries To Break Deadlock

GENEVA (AP) — The Indochina peace conference made another effort today to break its deadlock on the issue of how a proposed supervised.

The nine-party parley went into its 16th secret session, the last one planned before a long weekend recess, to be followed by a public debate next Tuesday.

High level military representatives of the two Indochina commands also met in secret this afternoon on the problem of defining assembly zones for the regrouping of the rival armies after a ceasefire.

Cotton Farmers Are Cautioned By White

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White today warned cotton producers and processors against relaxing under the blessing of recent rains.

In a speech to the American Cotton Congress, White urged that "we never return to that historic pattern of mining our soil and wasting our water once we get adequate rains."

That disastrous practice in the past has brought the nation's cotton growing states to a point where "we are a bare six inches from a total cotton crop failure," White said.

"More than that," he continued, "We are a bare six inches from starvation."

That situation represents the loss of about one-third of the original average of nine inches of topsoil that once covered the land, White said. The rest has washed or blown away.

The six-inch margin is being slowly eaten away year after year due to poor farm practices, White reiterated.

"Every time it rains we relax just as though there was never going to be another drought," he scolded. "We allow our attention to be diverted by the more immediate problems of taxes, high cost of living and public scandals.

"Yet, there is no greater scandal than the costly waste of our natural resources. Let us preserve our present enthusiasm for maintaining good conservation program and never let it be ditched for the more sensational problems. . . .

"Soil and water are still our number one concern today. Without them, there will be no cotton crop tomorrow."

Shell Moving Offices From Colorado City To Midland By Sept. 1

COLORADO CITY, Tex. (AP)—The Shell Pipe Line Corp. has announced that it will transfer its West Texas area offices from Colorado City to Midland.

The move will affect approximately 45 employes, who will begin moving their families to Midland in August.

The move became necessary, D. F. Sears, vice president of the company, said, because of the growth of Permian Basin production. Sears said oil shippers in the area are located chiefly in Midland and Odessa.

Texas To Get Cool Weather

By The Associated Press

One of the coolest June days in the history of the U.S. Weather Bureau was in prospect Friday for Texas, observers said.

Temperatures just before dawn ranged from 50 at Amarillo to 78 at Laredo and were expected to drop a few degrees lower.

Laredo was one of three points reporting cloudy skies. The others, the Weather Bureau reported, were Cotulla and Del Rio. The rest of Texas was clear.

Only the extreme western and southwestern portions of the state had normally warm weather. Temperatures were near record cool levels elsewhere. Some of the thermometer readings included:

Dalhart 52, Lubbock and Dallas 54; Abilene, Mineral Wells, and Fort Worth 55, Waco 58, Lufkin 59, Midland 61, Beaumont 63, El Paso and Houston 66, Austin 65, San Antonio 69, Brownsville 73, Corpus Christi 76, Del Rio 74 and Galveston 70.

For the first time in a week there was no rain or thundershowers in the forecast.

Pot Calling Kettle Black, Parr Asserts

ALICE, Tex. (AP)—George B. Parr, South Texas political leader under fire by a probing Duval County grand jury, says it's all a case of the pot calling the kettle black.

Parr, in a radio interview here yesterday over station KBKI, said a recent appeals court decision allowed the "summary discharge of the Duval County grand jury" and gave opponents the kind of hand-picked grand jury he was accused of having.

The new grand jury began its work Tuesday. It was convened after the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin held that acting Dist. Judge A. S. Broadfoot had the power to dismiss the old grand jury.

The grand jury continued today its investigation of Duval County funds and the financial affairs of Duval County school districts.

Parr said in his interview that it seemed to him that the new Duval County grand jury "is composed entirely from Freedom Party members and appears stacked."

The Freedom Party was organized with the expressed purpose of opposing Parr policies in the 79th Judicial District over which the Parr family has had considerable control for two generations.

J. L. McDonald, candidate for Duval County sheriff, an office now held by Archer Parr, nephew of George, was a grand jury witness yesterday in San Diego. He carried files into the jur. room which he said represented two year's work. He was before the jury two hours. Wednesday he talked to the jurors for 40 minutes.

President's Housing Bill Is Ready For Joint Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's housing program, fresh from overwhelming victory in the Senate, was ready today for a Senate-House conference in which public housing was the chief point in dispute.

The senators late yesterday shouted approval of the over-all housing legislation providing liberalized government-insured credit for home buyers, a stepped-up slum clearance program and new safeguards aimed at preventing any future abuses in government-aided housing.

By a 66-16 count—the only roll call vote on the complex measure—they also endorsed Eisenhower's controversial request for authority to build 35,000 new public housing units a year over the next four years.

The House version contains no such provision, public housing having been rejected there by a vote of 211-176.

Chairman Capehart (R-Ind) of the Senate Banking Committee, announcing a Senate-House conference committee to work out a compromise bill would start a week from today, predicted in an interview that the joint group would okay at least some public housing and that the House would accept it.

Yesterday's Senate roll call followed an unusual behind-the-scenes maneuver in which Republican and Democratic leaders joined hands so that (A) GOP chiefs could get smashing approval for an administration request and (B) Southern Democrats could go on record without the segregation issue.

It happened this way:

Sen. Maybank of South Carolina, Senior Banking Committee Democrat and long a staunch advocate of public housing, had succeeded in winning committee approval of a 600,000-unit program, much bigger than Eisenhower asked. Then the Supreme Court turned down an appeal from a lower court ruling which banned segregation in a San Francisco public housing project. Maybank interpreted this as a ban on segregation in all public housing. He said he would try to knock out, on the Senate floor, the provision he had sponsored in the committee.

Leaders of both parties, it was reported, then agreed to handle Maybank's motion without a roll call vote. The motion went down by voice, and Maybank himself made no effort to place his colleagues on record. Majority Leader Knowland of California immediately offered Eisenhower's proposal.

Other major provisions in the Senate measure are:

1. Lower down payments and longer repayment periods for home mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

Down payments would drop on an $8,000 new home from the present $650 to $400 and on a $16,000 home from $3,200 to $2,200. Repayment periods would go to 30 years across the board on all new homes.

2. No change in the maximum FHA-insured $2,500 home repair loan program, repayable in three years. Lenders would take 20 per cent of the risk on each of these FHA-insured loans.

3. A program for more effective slum clearance, with federal grants to comunities to clear blighted areas.

But the Senate refused to take Eisenhower's program for no-down-payment, 40-year FHA-insured mortgages for low-cost homes in slum-cleared areas. It voted to require a 5 per cent down payment with a maximum 30-year term.

4. An increase in the amount of government money available for direct loans to veterans who can't get private credit to buy homes unler the GI Bill. The Senate voted to allow a total of 200 millions, double the present authorization.

5. Tight new restrictions on apartment projects built with FHA-insured mortgages so that builders cannot make "windfall" profits, as they allegedly have in the past.

6. A smog-clearance program providing FHA-mortgage insurance to cover new equipment installed by private firms and a five-million-dollar research fund.

7. Extension of the farm housing program and a new section to give farmers a chance to get government-insured mortgages without putting up their whole farm as security for the loan.

8. Continuation of the Federal National Mortgage Assn. as is, and rejection of Eisenhower's request to turn this secondary mortgage market over to private capital by easy stages.

9. A new program of FHA insurance for home-trailer mortgages.

The Senate refused to give the President these things he asked:

Flexibility in mortgage interest rates, with rates pegged to the yields of long-term government bonds; flexibility in repayment periods and down payments in the big sales housing program, so that they could be changed to fit economic conditions; equal mortgage terms for old and new houses.

Testimony Launched In Trial Of Puerto Rican Gun Wielders

WASHINGTON (AP) — The doorkeeper who admitted them and a congressman who says he helped capture them were summoned as witnesses today in the trial of the four Puerto Ricans who sprayed pistol shots into the House of Representatives March 1.

The four, self-styled fighters for Puerto Rican independence, sat stonily through the trial's opening yesterday before U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Holtzoff.

A jury of seven men and five women, put together in about an hour, watched four government witnesses take the stand. Among these was Rep. Kenneth A. Roberts (D-Ala), one of the five congressmen wounded in the March 1 demonstration.

Mrs. Lolita Lebron, 34, who calls herself the ringleader, made one attempt to address the court. But, shushed by her attorneys, she sat down with apologies and kept quiet thereafter.

She and her three younger male colleagues—Rafael Cancel Miranda, Andres Figueroa Cordero and Irving Flores Rodriguez—face possible maximum sentences of 75 years in prison apiece.

Jailed in default of $100,000 bond apiece, they are charged on five counts each of assault with intent to kill and five counts each of assault with a deadly weapon. Pleas of innocent have been entered by the court for them.

Called among today's witnesses was the doorkeeper of House Visitors Gallery II, W. Swem Elgin, and Rep. James Van Zandt (R-Pa), who repotted he rushed up from the House floor to the gallery, from which the shots were fired, in time to aid in the capture.

Also summoned was Frank B. Wise of nearby Takoma Park, Md. He has said he managed to be the first to grab Figueroa and then helped subdue Cancel.

Mrs. Lebron showed no emotion during yesterday's session except once. When Mrs. Catherine Schull, the prosecution's first witness, described her as having "no expression" on March 1, Mrs. Lebron grimaced.

Mrs. Schull told in a low voice how she helped serve lunch to the four island Nationalists as a waitress at the Union Station Coffee Shop. The four had traveled by train from their New York homes.

Roberts testified his chief recollection after he heard the sound of the shooting was a burning sensation in his left leg near the knee. He said arteries and veins were smashed by the bullet's impact and he must wear a brace, hobble about on crutches and navigate the Capitol in an electric runabout.

Rep. Usher L. Burdick (R-ND) told the court he heard two volleys of shots, thought it was all over and sat down to light up a cigar.

"I hadn't got it quite lighted up when another firing started," he testified. "I said to myself, 'This is no place to smoke a cigar.'"

Burdick, like Rep. Paul W. Shaefer (R-Mich), testified there were about 25 shots. They pointed out the four defendants as the persons they saw doing the shooting.

Jail Sentences Are Assessed Six Youths

Six county jail sentences were meted against three Snyder youths yesterday afternoon when they pleaded guilty to charges of misdemeanor theft, and two of them and another youth were charged with burglary.

One of the youths charged with burglary did not appear before county court yesterday to answer three charges of theft, similar to those against the others. He was not brought before the court because he is serving a sentence in the county jail at Sweetwater on a charge of swindling by worthless check. He is Joe Dell Matthews, 17.

John Roy Yates, 19, was sentenced to six months in each of three cases to which he pleaded guilty. Levi Wallum, Jr., 24, was sentenced to six months in each of two cases, and Charles Petty, about 21, was sentenced to three months in one case. All misdemeanor sentences were to run concurrently.

Petty was not charged with burglary. The other three were chrged with the May 20 burglary of an office at Caperton Bros., a new and used car dealer, hip. A safe taken from the office was found 14 miles northeast of here this week. It contained about $75 when stolen.

Offenses the youths were accused of included three separate thefts from one contractor, one theft from another, and three burglaries, although charges have been filed in connection with only one burglary.

Automobile Theft Is Reported Here

Theft of a 1952 Chevrolet here last night was reported to police this morning, Walter Suttle, chief, said.

Suttle said the car was taken some time between 11 o'clock last night and 7 o'clock this morning.

Owner of the car is Dale D. Privitt, 2311 Avenue M. The car was parked at Privitt's house when stolen.

It had not been recovered at noon today.

Funeral Today For Wife Of Ex-Snyderite

Funeral services for Mrs. Vernon Shaw, 56, wife of a former pastor of the First Baptist Church here, were to be held in Lubbock at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Shaw died Thursday afternoon in a Lubbock hospital, after a brief illness. Services were conducted by the Rev. Aaron Shaw, the Rev. J. F. Nix and Dr. Earl Allen. Burial was at Wilson.

Survivors include the husband; a step-son, Kenneth, with the U. S. Army at Fort Belvoir, Va.; a sister, Mrs. B. W. Baker of Lubbock; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. May of Lubbock.

The Rev. Vernon Shaw was pastor of the First Baptist Church here in 1941-42. He is now a field representative for the Texas Baptist Children's home.

A number of Snyder residents were to attend the funeral.

Court Upholds Verdict Here

An opinion upholding the trial court conviction of a Snyder bootlegger was received here this morning from the court of criminal appeals at Austin, and officials are awaiting the high court's mandate ordering her to pay a fine of $100 plus court cost in excess of $30.

The opinion was on the Jan. 16 county court conviction of Helen Zamora Clay, Latin-American ex-common-law wife of a Snyder Negro bootlegger. She was convicted by jury of selling whisky Nov. 22 to Jack Wallace, who had been requested by the sheriff's department to purchase it for purpose of law enforcement.

The court at Austin said that in its opinion she sold the whisky to Wallace, whom she at first refused to sell to until after he had obtained recommendation from Morris Faver, a white man who at that time was a service station operator.

The appeal by her lawyer, Pat Beene, was on grounds that the charge alleged her home to be at Thirty-fourth Street and Avenue I in the Nunn Addition; whereas the address is in the Nunn Second Addition. The high court said, "We are of the opinion that the offense took place at Avenue I and Thirty-fourth Street. The remaining description thereof could be taken as surplusage. We think the trial court was correct in its ruling and the judgment will be affirmed."

Crowell To Leave For Convention

Bob Crowell, Chamber of Commerce manager here, was to leave this afternoon for Galveston, where he will attend the convention of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Association.

Marvin Hurley, general manager of the Houston Chamber of Commerce, will give the keynote address at the convention. Other speakers will include representatives of the Texas League of Municipalities, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and various chamber organizations.

Included in the convention program will be various speeches, study panels, and business sessions. The convention will start Sunday and last through Tuesday.

Lemons Rites Set Sunday

The body is expected to arrive in Snyder at 8:50 o'clock tomorrow night from Seattle, where Lemons was killed in a street accident, according to Edward Bolger of Bolger Funeral Home.

Lemons was born March 27, 1933, and died Monday, May 31. He is survived by his parents.

Brittle Girl Is Graduated From School

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Betty Shaffer met her classmates last night for the first time when she received her high school diploma.

Betty's appearance at the nearby Stowe Township High School commencement program was the first time the 22-year-old girl had even been inside a school.

She is afflicted with a rare disease that has made her almost as brittle as a china doll.

Her family says doctors have a name for it, but the simple explanation is that her bones are unable to store sufficient calcium.

Careful as she and her family have been, she's suffered more than 100 bone fractures. Her worst mishap several years ago came when she was dropped while being carried to a taxi. That time, she suffered multiple fractures of her thigh and, since then, has had to be in a wheel chair.

Her grandmother taught her at home for the first four years of her schooling. Then the township school board arranged to have a teacher visit her twice a week.

She has learned to operate a typewriter and now hopes to do secretarial work at home.

Fireman Are Called To Electrical Blaze

Firemen were called to an electrical fire at the Bud Miller Service Station on the Lamesa highway about 11 o'clock last night, Ivan Gatlin, fire marshal, said.

Gatlin said that a short circuit in a power transformer caused the fire, but firemen were unable to fight the fire.

The fire was put out when electric company servicemen turned the current off, and no damage was done.

Pistol Stolen From Abandoned Car Here

A car was stolen and abandoned one block from where it was stolen here last night, but a pistol was taken from the car, Walter Suttle, police chief, said.

The car is owned by Buck Mitchell, 2302 Avenue T. It is a 1951 Studebaker convertible.

The pistol taken from the car is a .41 caliber Colt.

Suttle said investigation of the theft is underway.

Trucks Pretty Handy During Emergencies

LAKE DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—When his car, garage and house caught on fire Monday, Dub Brown of this lake-edge community pulled the car out of the garage by attaching a tow chain to a truck and backing up. He then extinguished the house and garage fire. Using the truck again, he pushed the burning car into a pond.

He's pretty sure the fire is out because the car is still six feet under water.

Mrs. Doyle Conley shows the Conley's daughter, 15-months-old Jeanette, where a swarm of bees enter and leave their house. The family of bees decided to make a wall of the Conley's house their home. (Lee Watson photograph)

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Mr. and Mrs. DOYLE CONLEY, who live in the Humble Camp on Thirty-seventh Street in Southwest Snyder, have a problem that not many Snyderites have experienced.

Their house has been bee-sieged.

Sunday morning a swarm of bees decided to make a wall of the Conley residence their hive for the summer.

Mrs. Conley said apparently the bees have taken up permenant residence in the wall of the Humble Oil Co. house.

She quoted her husband as saying that there were "2,000 bees in the swarm if there was a bee."

"Personally, I didn't get close enough to count them," she added.

Mrs. Conley has urged her husband to get rid of the bees, but without much success so far.

"We will probably wait until someone wants them and comes here and takes them away," she said.

At present the bees are not much of a problem. They are in the honey - making season, and there is a constant stream of the bees going to and from the wall of the house. They enter the wall around an electric wire inlet.

The Conley's daughter, Jeanette, 15 months old, is curious about the buzzing insects, but for the duration of the visitors' stay she is restricted to the inside of the house.

New Surge Of Religion Seen In Hollywood

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Some of Hollywood's top stars are devoted churchgoers, eager to help the cause of religion, says the Rev. S. Franklin Mack, executive director of the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches.

Back from the film capital after supervising production of the National Council's latest film, "City Story," Dr. Mack is impressed by the wave of religion which he says is sweeping Hollywood, and by the gratitude of famous stars at being asked to participate in church films. He says:

"Hollywood churches are jammed with actors and actresses leading normal, Christian lives. Only these are the things you never hear about. The stories that make headlines are the scandals of the film colony, which involve only a small minority of the people who make our movies, but which have given the world a wrong impression.

"We have found that most of the stars we have approached to work in religious films are tickled to death to help. They are delighted that their special talents can be of use to the cause of the churches."

Jane Russell, for instance, is a Sunday school teacher. Jimmy Stewart has offered to do church films. Glenn Ford, James Dunn, Ruth Warwick, Warner Anderson and Arthur Shields, brother of Barry Fitzgerald, are among those who have appeared in movies sponsored by the National Council of Churches.

"When we went out to Hollywood to do this latest film," Dr. Mack says, "we called the churches in Los Angeles and Hollywood and got names of actors who were members of their congregations, in order to give them a chance to take part, if they wished. The response was overwhelming. most of the actors we talk to seemed almost pathetically grateful to be asked.

TV Series Puts Jon Hall In Big Money Brackets

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —How would you like to earn more money by loafing than working?

That enviable position is enjoyed by Jon Hall, the star of the amazingly popular TV series "Ramar of the Jungle."

"During the past five months, I haven't worked a bit," he tells us. "Yet I've made more money than I could have by working steadily for two years in the movies."

This happy prosperity is afforded by the economics of syndicated TV films. A star can work like a demon for a period, then relax and allow the films to go out and bring in the loot. In the case of "Ramar" the system has been successful beyond the backers' fondest dreams. The jungle show is on 120 stations in the United States. In many places, it draws bigger audience ratings than the top network shows.

Hall has earned his leisure. Since the handsome gent drew his first attention in "The Hurricane" in 1937, he has been working almost steadily in films, largely of the action-adventure type. But about two years ago, he struck a crossroads in his career.

"I was still working—I had a contract for three pictures a year at Columbia," he recalled. "But I wasn't getting anywhere. It's no fun if you don't think you are progressing in your career.

"Rudy Flothow, who was a producer at Columbia, came to me with the idea of doing a TV series together. At first I was reluctant to leave the security of a studio. But the idea sounded exciting, so I took a chance."

Hall's backers took a chance too. They decided they wouldn't merely make the pilot film which is used to sell TV series hopefuls. They figured prospective sponsors would say, "The first film is okay, but what happens then'?"

So they scraped together $252,000 and knocked out 13 films about Ramar. Hall finished his chore and left in September 1952 to entertain troops in Korea. In the two months he was gone, he kept wondering if the show would sell.

Unknown to him, the show was sold to the first station, KTTV in Los Angeles. When he returned to the States, kids at the airport shouted, "Hey, there's Ramar!"

"When I heard that, I knew we were in," he said.

The show began selling all over the country. Hall went to work turning out a total of 52 chapters at a cost of a million dollars. By now it was a safe investment. The outlay of a million was already covered by the returns before the 52 films were finished. Now the receipts are pure gravy.

This fall Ramar has to go back to work and make another 39 films. Hall doesn't mind a bit. It's not only because he is thinking of the money he's making (he figures the present series will be money makers for another 15 to 20 years). He also likes the action pictures.

Fresh fruits make the prettiest salads, and they deserve the best dressings to bring out their full flavor. Here is an orange-marshmallow dressing good enough for the best salad plate.

1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon all-purpose flour
1 egg, well beaten
2/3 cup orange juice
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
¼ pound marshmallows (about 16)
2 tablespoons light cream or top milk

In the top of a double boiler combine the sugar, flour, egg, orange juice and orange rind. Mix well and place over hot water. Cook until thickened and smooth, stirring constantly. Cool.

In the top of another double boiler, combine the marshmallows and cream. Place over boiling water and cook until the marshmallows are melted, stirring occasionally. Remove from the heat and cool slightly. Fold into the chilled orange mixture and chill.

Spring and summer months bring out the best in all salads, as a matter of fact. For a salad you can serve for any meal, here's a tuna-macaroni combination.

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ounces elbow macaroni (2 cups)
2 small fresh pineapples
1 7-ounce can tuna, drained
1 large green pepper, coarsely chopped
⅓ cup mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
Maraschino cherries

Cook the macaroni in the salted water and drain in a colander. Rinse with cold water and drain again, then chill.

Cut the pineapples in half lengthwise. Scoop out the pineapple meat, leaving shells one-quarter to one-half-inch thick. Dice the pineapple meat. Break the tuna into pieces with a fork and combine the tuna, pineapple, macaroni, pepper, mayonnaise, salt and pepper to taste. Mix well and fill the pineapple shells with the mixture. Chill, garnish with cherries and serve.

Here's another use for a fresh garden product — tomatoes. Serve them with spinach with crumbled bacon, bread and butter and a tall, cooling beverage.

4 medium-sized tomatoes
1 3-ounce can chopped, broiled mushrooms
1/3 cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
1⅓ tablespoons quick-cooking rice cereal
1 cup (4 ounces) grated process cheese
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons fine, dry buttered bread crumbs.

Cut off the stem end and hollow out the tomatoes. Mix the broth from a can of mushrooms, milk and salt in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Sprinkle in the cereal so that the boiling does not stop. Cook and stir constantly until thickened. Lower the heat and cook, covered, for five minutes. Add the drained mushrooms and cheese to the beaten egg. Add the cereal to the cheese mixture and mix thoroughly. Drop a fourth of this stuffing into each of the hollowed-out tomatoes. Sprinkle the tops with bread crumbs. Bake in shallow individual custard cups in a modreate oven until the stuffing has set and is golden brown, about 20 minutes. Makes four servings.

Dogs Find One-Way Streets Are Handy

CLEVELAND (AP) — Stray dogs, "getting smart all at once to one-way streets," are getting the laugh on dog catchers, Dog Warden Al Rhoden says.

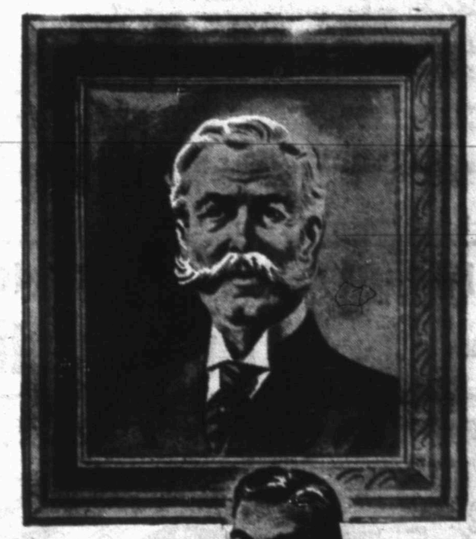

The pooches decoy a catcher's truck up a one-way street and then double back on him. The catcher can't wheel his truck around to continue the chase and Rhoden says the dogs seem to know it.

"They usually stop running then," he explained, "and just sit down and grin at us."

INSIDE BASEBALL for Little Leaguers

By MICKEY McCONNELL
Director of the Brooklyn Dodgers Baseball School

The first thing a first-baseman should learn is how to catch thrown balls. When a ball is hit toward another infielder, you run to first base, place your foot against the inside of the bag (your left foot if you're a lefty—your right foot if you're a righty) and turn to face the player who is fielding the ball.

Once you have determined the flight of the ball, you step toward it with the foot corresponding to your gloved hand and stretch your glove out to meet the ball. Naturally the sooner you catch the ball the better chance you have to put out the runner, so you should make your stretch as long as possible.

If the fielder makes a wild throw which prevents you from making the catch and still keeping in contact with the base, you leave the bag to catch the ball and then try to beat the batter back to the bag or to tag him before he reaches the bag.

Close Games Last Night For Ponies

Two of the closest games in this year's Pony League were played on the league diamond last night when the Von Roeder Red Sox edged the Courthouse Tigers 5-3 and the Lions Club Phillies finally yielded to the Scurry Butane Dodgers 6-5.

A seventh inning home run by Roe Lashaway saved the game for the Dodgers, who moved from third place to a tie for second in last night's win. The Dodgers and Phillies were tied up 5-5, and the Phillies already got two Dodgers out when Lashaway homered the winning run.

The Phillies, who have not yet won a game, took the lead in the first inning when Maxey Carey singled in a run. The Dodgers tied it up in the second with a run driven in by Dwayne Overman's single. The Phillies edged ahead again in the third with two runs to the Dodgers' one. In the fourth, the Dodgers reversed that order and tied up the game 4-4.

The Phillies came back again in the fifth with a run, but the Dodgers managed to tie the game in the sixth. The Phillies got one hit but went scoreless in the top of the seventh, then the Dodgers went to bat and Lashaway hit his homer. Overman got one double in the game, and Johnny Griggs got a triple for the Dodgers.

The Red Sox took over at the first of their game, as they normally do in league play. They scored two runs in the first and held a 2-0 lead until the third, when Roger Hensley hit a home run with one on to tie the game. In the next frame, the Sox came back when A. L. Minica tripled to bring in one run and later crossed the plate himself. The Sox made it 5-2 in the fifth with Earl Burleson singled and Billy Phillips tripled him in. The Tigers managed one more run in the sixth but could not muster enough to take over the lead again.

John Ward was staring hurler for the Phillies. He went four innings, giving up three hits, striking out eight, and walking two. His relief was Jackie Tucker, who allowed one hit, struck out five, and walked none. Johnny Griggs started for the Dodgers and went four innings. During his time on the mound, there was one hit, eight strikeouts, and one walk. Relieving Griggs was Ronnie Baker, who gave up one hit, struck out five, and walked none.

Losing hurler for the Tigers was James Patterson, who went the whole game. He gave up three hits, struck out six, and walked two. Winner was Dick Hayes, who also went all seven innings. The Tigers got off Hayes three hits and six walks, while Hayes fanned nine.

Yankees Stay Undefeated In Little Loop Competition Here

The American Legion Yankees the Litte League when they took the Quarterback Club Giants 5-1.

Strengthening their third place in standings and threatening second were the Holder Construction Indians, who beat out the Rotary Club Cardinals last night 12-6.

League play will continue tonight when the Yankees take on another challenger, the Lions Club Cubs, who are now holding next-to-last place. In tonight's second game, the Giants will again try to move out of the cellar by meeting the Kiwanis Club Braves, who are now holding second in the league. Tonight's play begins at 7 o'clock.

The Yankees and Giants played a close game until the fifth inning. The Yanks had pushed across one run in the second. In the fifth, both teams began to score. Doug Brunson homered for the Giants with no runners on base, but Yank scoring outweighed the home run. The Yanks got four runs that inning. Sam Samuelson brought in two with a double.

Winning hurler was Richard Mahan, who pitched the whole game for the Yanks. He struck out 10, walked only one, and gave up only two hits. Barry Walker, losing pitcher, went four and two-thirds innings. He fanned four, walked four, and allowed four hits. His relief, Brunson, gave up two hits, struck out one, and walked none.

The Indians took over scoring early in their game and were leading 9-0 by the end of the third inning. In the fourth, Ronnie Jones homered for the Indians with one on base to make it 11-0. Foy Dennis came back with a homer in the bottom of that inning for one run, then his team really began a comeback in the next frame when John Billy Koonsman hit a grand slam for four runs. The Cards brought in one more run that inning, but the Indians had already outscored them. Jerry Minica and Charles Gladson both hit doubles for the Indians in the game.

Jones was winner. He pitched all six innings, fanning nine, walking only two, and allowing only three hits. Dennis started for the Cards who relieved Dennis, struck out and went three innings. Three struck out, one walked, and six got hits off Dennis. Mike Moffett, three, walked none, and gave up five hits.

DeMolays And Hermleigh In Battle Tonight

Trying to get away from the bottom of city league standings, the DeMolays will take on Hermleigh at 8 o'clock tonight.

The Hermleigh team is now holding a tie for third place in the league. The team tied with Hermleigh, Sun, will try to cut down Tri-Service, one of the league leaders, in tomorrow night's game.

Chances appear small for the DeMolay team to move out of the cellar tonight. Both that team and Hermleigh have lost to Tri-Service and Magnolia. Hermleigh lost to Magnolia 14-3, 11 runs, while the DeMolays lost to the league leaders 15-6, nine runs. The DeMolays fell to Tri-Service 20-1, but Hermleigh made a showing against that team, playing it three extra innings and losing 4-2. Hermleigh has won a game over Sun 7-2. The DeMolays were shut out by Sunray 5-0.

Hermleigh has a .250 batting average. Top batter is Grady Gafford with .375. Gafford is also the team's top hurler with a 1-1 record. Bill Houston has lost one game on the mound, and Charlie White has pitched one inning for the team. Top batter for the DeMolays is Jack Bryant, whose average is .666. The team average is .125. Bill Tillman, Alan Snead, and Joe Cargile have each lost a game on the mound.

The Tri-Service team, which has a .281 batting average, is led at the plate by Donald Huddleston with a .545 average. Mutt Thompson leads pitchers with a 2-0 record, while the mark of M. L. Galloway is 1-0. Sun has a roster of five pitchers used so far. D. Ballard has won one game, while Don McLaughlin and R. E. Sparks have lost one each. J. V. Smith and Bobby Hicks are the other hurlers. At bat, the Sun nine has a .197 average. Sam Parrish leads batters with .500.

Argentine Boxer Is Favored In Match

NEW YORK (AP)—Eduardo (KO) Lausse, Argentina's wild swinging Kayo artist, is a 1-4 favorite to rack up his 17th straight victory against balding Joey Rindone of Boston in a middleweight 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

A powerful left hooker who guns for a knockout from the opening bell, Lausse has stowed away 14 of his last 16 opponents. He won the other two by decision.

Rindone shouldn't give him too much trouble. The beetle-browed, ring-scarred 28-year-old hasn't had much luck this year.

Joey's record is 33-12-4, with 14 knockouts. He has been stopped six times.

Ring time is 8 p.m., CST. The bout will be broadcast and telecast coast to coast.

Losses In Locker Room

TYLER (AP)—Tyler's Tigers won on the playing field last night, but lost in the locker room.

After beating the Waco Pirates 1 to 0 to take over the first place in the Big State League, the Tigers came back to the locker room to find that a thief had taken $621 from the lockers.

DeMolays To Gather Here For Tourney

DeMolays from nine cities will be at Towle Memorial Park tomorrow morning to begin area competition in various athletic events.

The area meet is an elimination tourney in baseball, track, swimming, diving, tennis, and golf. All those activities except golf will be held in the park. Golf will be at the Country Club.

Mal Andress, head of a committee heading up work in the meet here, said about 100 boys are expected to participate. They are to come here from Lubbock, Sweetwater, Lamesa, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Kermit, and Brownfield. Boys from Snyder will also be entered, he said.

Registration will get underway at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning at the stock barn in the park. Entries in the various events will be made at that time. Teams entering baseball competition will draw for places in the tournament. Tennis will include both singles and doubles. In track will be only 50 and 100-yard dashes.

Included in adults aiding with arrangements are J. B. Davidson, John Boren, Homer Whisnand, and E. W. Green.

Andress said those visiting here may secure $2 tickets for two meals when they register here. After the athletic events, the DeMolays will go to the Masonic Hall here for an oratory contest. Those entered will speak on the subject, "What DeMolay Means To Me." Tomorrow night the boys will go back to the hall for competition in degree work.

AUSTIN (AP)—State High School Baseball Tournament chart:

Semi-final Thursday results: Travis (Austin) 5, Adamson (Dallas) 1; Highland Park (Dallas) 3, Longview 2.

Darkhorses In State Baseball Finals Tonight

AUSTIN (AP)—Two teams that weren't expected to even win their first games—Highland Park of Dallas and Travis of Austin—clash tonight for the Texas Schoolboy Baseball Championship.

Highland Park nosed Longview 3-2 and Travis took out the tournament favorite, Adamson of Dallas 5-1, in the semi-finals last night as 1,200 fans looked on.

And the hero of the Highland Park victory, Ironman Don Presley, will go to the mound tonight—his third night in a row—to try to put the Scots over. Highland Park was in the finals in 1951.

Presley hurled a one-hitter Wednesday night in beating Austin (El Paso) 4-1; then he came in last night as Longview threatened and pitched two brilliant innings to throttle the Lobos. So tonight, he will return to the hill for an all-out fight for Highland Park's first baseball championship.

Actually, the key play in Presley's gallant battle to keep his team ahead was a pickoff. There were two on base and none out in the seventh—final inning of the game. Presley fired to Rea Hendrix, Scot shortstop, to trap Hubert Ash at second base. That put out the flame that had flared in the Lobos' hearts with what appeared to be an impending rally. Presley had no trouble getting the next two Lobos out, fanning David Ash to end the game.

Travis splashed four runs across the plate in the second inning to whip Adamson.

Charles Plans Simple Attack On Marciano

MONTICELLO, N.Y. (AP)—Ezzard Charles has drawn a simple battle plan for use against heavyweight champ Rocky Marciano June 17. It boils down to three little words—"Keep him busy."

The ex-champion, now 32, learned his lesson by watching the two Marciano-Jersey Joe Walcott fights, the first on theater TV and the second from ringside.

"As long as Walcott could keep him busy he was doing all right," said Charles today in his dressing room at this Catskill Mountain resort. "But once he stopped pressing, he was finished.

"I learned you can't let any fighter get set. You've got to make him defend himself. Keep him busy."

Charles admits now he used to be a little too cautious.

"I was always looking for a one punch finish," he said.

After he failed to win back the title from Walcott two years ago, Ezzard changed his ways.

"My managers gave me a good talking to," he said. "They told me I had to rip in, instead of laying back looking to land that one perfect punch.

"I used to try to set a man up for that one big punch. Now I know that if you barrage, he'll be there."

The "new" Charles, tiger model, was the man who knocked out Coley Wallace and Bob Satterfield in his last two starts, leaving himself open while he gambled with his own punches.

Nobody expects Charles to gamble, matching Marciano punch for punch. They hope, however, he won't revert to the old cautious Ezzy who thought too much and punched too little.

Western Open Is Marred By Showers, Wind

CINCINNATI (AP) — Even though only one round has been played it begins to look as if it will take a good rain-and-wind man to win the $15,000 Western Open Golf Tournament.

Such a person yesterday was Dave Douglas of Grossinger, N.Y., who clipped three strokes off par with a 35-33—68 to take a one-stroke lead in the first round of the 1954 tournament.

The high wind whipped over and around the hills of the Kenwood Country Club's 6,766-yard course. The rain came in gusty showers. And the forecasts was for more of the same today.

Despite those unfavorable conditions, 11 players bettered the course' par of 35-36—71. Another half-dozen players equaled par. All of which seemed to be an indication that even lower scores may be in order if the weatherman ever decides to turn off the wind and the rain.

Jackie Burke Jr. of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., with a 69, tied with Pete Fleming of St. Andrews, Ill., and Bob Duden of Portland, Ore., as runner-ups to Douglas.

Allen Joslin of Cincinnati, the first day's top amateur, had a 33 on the front nine and then used 37 coming home for a 70. Walter Burkemo of Detroit, the 1953 PGA champion, did the same thing.

Board Finding On One Point Of Oppenheimer Case Cloudy

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — You could suit yourself about associating with a long-time Communist friend if you worked in a department store. There's no law against it. The boss might fire you if he found out. But you'd still be free to take that chance.

Suppose, though, you were one of the great atomic scientists, working for the government, and carrying around in your head secrets involving national security. Would you then be free to associate with that long-time Communist friend?

That's one of the points in the decision which found Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer loyal but a security risk. Oppenheimer, director of the wartime atom bomb development and a government consultant afterwards on atomic problems, was told last December he could no longer have secret information.

Oppenheimer asked for a hearing to clear his name. The five-man Atomic Energy Commission appointed a special, three-man board to consider his case. It did, for weeks. It heard 40 witnesses and read 6,000 pages of testimony and evidence. This week it gave its verdict.

It not only found him to be loyal but said he had a high degree of discretion and a great ability to keep secrets. Nevertheless, the board ruled 2-1 he should no longer be entrusted with government secrets. In short, it called him a security risk. Oppenheimer has asked the full AEC to review his case and reverse this finding.

Oppenheimer became director of the bomb project in 1942. Before then he had associated with Communists for years, attended Communist meetings, married a Communist and had a brother and sister-in-law who were Communists. His wife, brother and sister-in-law said they quit the party before 1941.

Oppenheimer denied he was a member of the Communist party. The board called him a fellow traveler in the years before 1942. Then it told this story:

Haakon Chevalier, friend of Oppenheimer, and identified years ago as a Communist by a California state investigating committee, in 1943 tried to get atomic information out of Oppenheimer for the Russians. Oppenheimer turned him down cold.

Oppenheimer didn't tell government security officers about this until months later; twice lied to them, finally told the full story. In 1950 Chevalier visited Oppenheimer two days and in 1953 was visited by Oppenheimer and his wife in Paris. The scientist calls Chevalier a friend.

The board said this "is not the kind of thing that our security permits on the part of one who customarily has access to information of the highest classification."

The board made this explanation: the government has a security system. The only way in which it can work, and in which the country can be safe, is if everyone like Oppenheimer, with his head full of secrets, abides by the rules. No individual can suit himself on how he observes the rules.

There were some other points on which the board questioned Oppenheimer's reliability as a security risk but it summed up this way:

"Beginning with the Chevalier incident, he has repeatedly exercised an arrogance of his own judgment with respect to the loyalty and reliability of other citizens to an extent which has frustrated and at times impeded the workings of the system."

Another ground on which the board considered him a security risk seems far less clear: Oppenheimer, who favored a well-balanced atomic program, joined with others in opposing an all-out effort to make the hydrogen bomb and argued against it in 1949. The board blamed him for not being "enthusiastic" about it after former President Truman made the decision early in 1950 to go ahead with the H-bomb.

This raises a basic question affecting the country's future: How can any scientist be expected ever to give an honest judgment on anything if, as in the case of Oppenheimer, he may find his judgement used against him?

Direct Action On Security Risks Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said today that as "a direct result" of the McCarthy-Army hearings he has drafted a bill designed to force decisive action on government employes tabbed by the FBI as security risks.

Mundt, presiding over the televised hearings of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, said in an interview it didn't take the McCarthy-Army probe to convince him that "the FBI is a terrific outfit . . . doing a magnificent job as a result of which, too often, nothing happens."

He said his bill would create in the Justice Department "a division of personnel security" to which the FBI would report findings adverse to government employes. Such reports now go to the suspected worker's bosses.

"The new division," Mundt explained, "would do what the FBI will not and should not do — evaluate the information the FBI develops."

He said specialists in the division would give the information expert and fair appraisal, and then proceed to force some decisive action on the findings.

"They would hand down findings that 'in our opinion you should removed Mr. X.' for instance," Mundt said, adding that the filing of such a decision with the employing agency would automatically bring into operation all of the steps now provided by law and regulation for protection of both the government and the individual through appeal and review.

Mundt said he has mentioned the idea to Atty. Gen. Brownell and that Brownell termed it "interesting."

Union Protest Being Dropped

NEW YORK (AP)—The new AFL dock union reportedly has dropped plans to protest the recent waterfront bargaining representation election and is reducing its local headquarters to a skeleton staff.

Published reports to that effect last night followed an announcement by the rival International Longshoremen's Assn. that nearly 2,000 Jersey City and Hoboken, N.J., dockers who joined the new union want to return to the old ILA.

The bargaining representation election of May 26 gave the old ILA an edge of 319 votes, but 1,797 ballots were challenged. The final result is in the hands of the National Labor Relations Board, which was scheduled to start considering the challenged votes today.

The AFL-ILA said Wednesday it had "startling evidence" that would upset the election results, but it apparently has decided not to represent some 25,000 longshore workers on the New York-New Jersey waterfront.

But AFL sources said last night that top officials of AFL-ILA would meet today in Washington with AFL President George Meany and discuss the dock situation.

5,000 YEARS OLD

Tomb Of Ancient Pharaoh In Egypt Is Found Intact

CAIRO (AP)—An Egyptian archeologist says he has discovered what is apparently the oldest intact royal tomb ever found in Egypt. It is believed to be that of Pharaoh Sankhet, who ruled the Nile kingdom about 5,000 years ago.

The find was announced last night by Zakaria Goneim, chief inspector of the Egyptian Antiquities Department. He said the rock tomb containing a sarcophagus of red dish alabaster was found under the ruins of a step pyramid at Sakkara, about 15 miles south of Cairo.

Goneim expects to find the golden coffin of Sankhet, a pharaoh of ancient Egypt's Third Dynasty, inside the sarcophagus. Sankhet ruled Egypt around 3,000 B.C.

The Sakkara pyramid is located only about 20 miles from the site near the great pyramid at Giza where antiquarians are uncovering two solar boats, presumably built by the later Fourth Dynasty Pharaoh Cheops to carry his soul through the heavens after death.

Goneim said his find is "undoubtedly the most important since the discovery of King Tutankhamen's tomb in 1922." It may be even more important, he added, because Sankhet preceded King Tut by about 1,200 years.

Of the many ancient royal burial places located in Egypt, only those of King Tut, one of the rulers of the 18th Dynasty, and some of the 22nd Dynasty kings, have been uncovered intact. The rest had all been plundered by ancient grave robbers who stripped them of their gold and jewels.

"It was only by lucky chance that this tomb escaped being looted," Goneim said. The archeologist has been digging at Sakkara since 1951. He unearthed the ruins of the unfinished pyramid there last December.

He said the sarcophagus is about six feet long and slightly over two feet wide. The top is of solid alabaster and the mummy was placed inside through an aperture in the end. This opening was closed by a sliding alabaster panel.

"We can expect to find inside the alabaster sarcophagus a coffin of solid gold, or possibly of wood covered with thick sheets of gold," he said.

Johnson Not Pleased With Board Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) says "I want to find out why" Texas is no longer being considered for the Air Force Academy.

A site selection board has narrowed the choice for the proposed "West Point of the air" to Colorado Springs, Colo., Lake Geneva, Wis., and Alton, Ill.

The Senate Democratic leader said yesterday in a statement:

"The recently appointed selections board is composed of fine men. They inspected a number of sites before narrowing the choice down to three in Colorado, Wisconsin and Illinois.

"A previous air academy selection board looked with favor on Texas sites. I am sorry the new board did not agree with the old. I want to find out why."

The board which included aviation hero Charles Lindbergh inspected several proposed Texas sites earlier this year. They included Randolph Air Force Base, San Antonio; a Grapevine Lake site near Dallas and Fort Worth and a Lake Texoma site near Sherman and Denison.

Final selection was postponed yesterday because of the board's failure to agree. Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbott, in making the announcement, said he thinks "We will come up with an answer fairly soon, certainly within a month."

Talbott said he and his staff planned to make personal inspections of the three sites recommended by the board.

Birds Cause Crash On On Massachusetts Road

BOYLSTON, Mass. (AP) — A pair of pheasants ambling across a highway yesterday caused a two-car crash.

As Mrs. Muriel Haynes of Weston halted her car to let the pheasants past, an auto driven by George A. Crombie of Somerset bumped into her car.

The car rolled over an embankment and overturned, but Mrs. Haynes climbed out unhurt.

The birds sauntered into the woods.

Energy From Sun Is Stored By Air Force

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Air Force announced today development of a solar generator which when refined could convert sunlight into enough energy to run a home.

The Air Research and Development Command said the new generator evolved through research conducted by Donald C. Reynolds and Lt. Col. Gerard M. Leies at the Wright Air Development Center near Dayton, Ohio.

Last April 25, Bell Telephone Co. unveiled a solar battery which converts sunlight into electricity through silicon transistors. Light striking razor-thin strips of silicon creates a flow of electric current in atoms in the strips.

Both the Bell device and the Air Force generator are capable of storing up the energy taken from the sun.

The Air Force generator uses cadmium sulfide, a yellow powder employed as a pigment in the manufacture of paint.

The powder is processed into crystal form. The Air Force said a "wafer-thin slab" of the crystal, four feet by fifteen feet, would supply enough current to take care of a house.

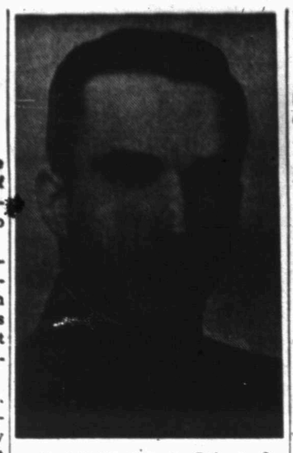

Col. Leies and Reynolds said previously used substances failed to provide enough current to be practical.

The pilot model supplies a charge of one quarter of a volt and can operate an electric clock.

The slab capable of supplying the power needs of a house could either rest on the roof or be built into it, the ARDC announcement said.

The crystal in the first model is about the size of a sugar cube.

"Attached to opposite sides of the crystal are electrodes, or terminals. A wire running from the positive electrode to a motor or battery and back to the negative electrode forms the circuit. That simple device is the solar generator," the Air Force said.

Cadet Lieutenant Robert C. Preuitt, the son of Mrs. A. C. Preuitt, 3104 Avenue U, is among the First Classmen at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N.Y., who will be graduated Tuesday. He will receive a bachelor of science degree and be commissioned a second lieutenant in the infantry.

Employes To Be Fired If They Give Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said yesterday that any employe of the Foreign Operations Administration, which he heads, "would of course be discharged" if he passed secret information to an unauthorized person.

Stassen had been asked, at a news conference, about a White House statement of a week ago saying the executive branch of the government has exclusive responsibility for enforcing laws and presidential orders.

That statement was issued in reply to a call by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) for federal employes to turn over to him any information about such things as graft or communism in the government. McCarthy said he would not be bound by any secrecy order from the White House.

CHEVROLET PLANS CHANGES FOR 1955

The next Chevvy is here compared with the current one. Note the different styling on the windshield, front grille, headlamps. Invisible is a new V-8 engine. The drawing of the 1955 model was prepared by The Wall Street Journal dirctly from a blueprint supplied by a responsible industry source. It assertedly came from General Motors' own drafting boards. The only difference between original blueprint and this drawing is that the back window has been altered to conform with design changes reportedly made since the print was made. General Motors officials were given an opportunity to examine this print and to comment, but they declined to do so. (Reproduced from The Wall Street Journal)

CHRYSLER PLANNING NEW WINDSHIELDS

Chrysler Corp.'s intentions are sampled in this view of the next Dodge, shown above the current model. The windshield is a big wrap-around, just as GM has planned for the Chevrolet, but this is accomplished in quite different styie. The drawing of the 1955 Dodge was prepared for publication simply by inking more heavily the lines on a blueprint which was nearly four feet long, and then having this photographically reduced in size. This blueprint was supplied to The Wall Street Journal by an authoritative industry source. Chrysler executives were asked to examine it for accuracy, and they did so. But they declined comment. (Reproduced from The Wall Street Journal)

FORD TO GET FRONT END CHANGE

The 1955 Ford will have a thoroughly redesigned front end—hood, grille, bumpers, headlights—as can be seen by this comparison with the current model. The drawing is the work of a Wall Street Journal staff artist, based on information and sketches from several informed industry sources. Ford executives were asked to inspect it for accuracy; they declined to do so. (Reproduced from The Wall Street Journal)

INSECT, DOG PROBLEMS HANDLED BY FEED FIRM

Insect and pest control here this year is a bigger problem than it has been in several years, Lindy Clark, owner of Clark Feed & Seed, 1607 Twenty-fifth Street, said.

Clark said that practically all the hedges, lawns, and flowers in Snyder have been attacked by insects that are harmful, and sometimes deadly, to the plants.

He also said that the insects, largely aphids and red spiders, are plant-juice-sucking insects that bore holes into the leaves and stems of the plants through which they can suck the plant juices.

"After the insect leaves the hole, juice from the plant flows out the hole and attracts flies," Clark said.

His firm is dealer for a complete line of Purina insect killers and pest control compounds.

One of the most effective preparations for eradicating shrub pests is the Purina Malathion introduced this year by Purina, Clark said.

He said that small quantities of the Malathion can be mixed with large quantities of water, yet will do an effective job of pest eradication.

For most uses from four teaspoons of Malathion to a gallon of water, up to about four tablespoons of Malathion to a gallon of water does an effective job of killing the aphids and red spiders, as well as eliminating the flies and mosquitoes which are attracted to the plants by the other insects.

Probably one of the most popular items in the large stock of all kinds of pest control at Clark's, however, may be a dog repellant called Scram.

Made from animal bone, Scram is dusted on poarches, hedges, trees, and the yards the dogs are to be kept from, and dogs steer clear of the places where Scram was used, Clark said.

He said that a large package of Scram sells for 50 cents, a pretty inexpensive answer to the dog problem.

The "Black House" at Guilford, Conn., was painted black by a French refugee when he learned of the execution of Louis XVI.

Film Bags For Vacationers Available Here

Bags in which roll films can be mailed from any point in the world to Wolfe Studio & Camera Shop for immediate development are being distributed free of charge to customers of the studio.

Charlie Wolfe, owner, said that use of the bags by vacationers last year was very popular because the vacationers could have their pictures as soon as they returned from their vacations.

"One of the biggest advantages in use of the bags, however, is that they eliminate carrying exposed films in a hot car for several days," he said.

He said that heat often fogs films and ruins the pictures.

He pointed out that the inside of cars, especially if left parked in the sun, easily get hot enough to fog films in just a few minutes.

Wolfe Studio & Camera Shop has a complete supply of all photographic equipment needed for a complete picture history of any vacation including films for all types cameras, movie cameras in a variety of prices and styles, and a complete stock of still cameras.

Communists Purging

HONG KONG (AP) — Communist Chinese authorities in Hunan Province have sentenced 12 persons to death in the roundup of an anti-Red organization, a pro-nationalist Chinese newspaper here reported today. It said 11 others were sent to prison for life.

The Kung Sheung Daily News, quoting a dispatch from a Hunan paper, said 169 persons were arrested in the roundup last April of the group, called the China New Socialist party.

Southern Presbyterians Vote To End Segregation

MONTREAT, N. C., May 31 (AP)—The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church voted Saturday to abolish racial segregation.

An anti-segregation report of a special committee was adopted, 236-169, as the General Assembly continued its 94th session here. More than 450 commissioners delegates from 16 Southern states are attending.

The action of the General Assembly is not mandatory, but presbyteries usually follow its recommendations.

Dr. Donald Miller, president of Union Seminary at Richmond, Va., speaking in favor of the resolution, said:

"There is only one basis on which this question may be decided—Holy Scripture. The only division Scripture knows is saints and sinners, believers and non-believers."

French Party Backs Europe Army Treaty

PARIS (AP)—Supporters of the European Army Treaty cheered today a Socialist party decision that its members in the French National Assembly must vote for the pact or face party discipline. The move may give the government enough backing to ensure ratification of the hotly disputed treaty.

The decision was taken last night at a party conference. The discipline could take the form of expulsion from the party of all members who failed to vote for the treaty.

The main opposition to the pact—which would create a six-nation European Army including German troops—has come from the De Gaullists, Communists and some Socialists. It is generally agreed the government needs about 75 of the 105 socialist votes in the Assembly to insure ratification.

The Party's decision was a challenge to 58 Socialist deputies who previously signed an agreement to oppose the pact. Observers estimated that about 15 to 30 still might defy the order.

The treaty already has been ratified by West Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg. Only France and Italy have yet to act. No date has yet been set for final French Assembly debate.

Nun Commits Suicide Over Lie Years Ago

BADDESLEY CLINTON, England (AP)—Sister Antony, a nun of the barefoot Order of Poor Clare, once lied about her age. As penance she soaked her sackcloth robes in kerosene and burned herself to death.

A group of sisters found the aged woman's body last Monday in an outbuilding of the secluded Roman Catholic convent here. Yesterday a coroner's court moved inside the convent walls to investigate Sister Antony's death.

Brown-clad nuns sat weeping in the improvised courtroom as their chaplin, the Rev. John Dale, told the dead sister's story.

"Two days before her death," he said, "Sister Antony came to me and said she felt very guilty. I asked what was wrong and she told me that many years ago she had given the date of her birth on an insurance form as 1894, whereas she knew it was 1891.

"I told her it was ridiculous to worry, but she seemed to think it was a heinous crime. She told me her whole 27 years here had been one huge lie or worse."

The coroner commented: "To those who live in the outside world, this discrepancy would have been of little significance. To her in the high religious standard of her life in the convent, it was great trouble."

The verdict—suicide while of unsound mind.

WHY BE BAPTIZED?

Ted Norton

BAPTISM IS NOT A CHURCH ORDINANCE. It is a command of the Lord (Matt.28:18-20). A church ordinance is something ordained by the church. Christ, the Head of the church (Eph. 1:22,23), commanded baptism. No church can, with the sanction of the Lord, ordain baptism or change its form or purpose. The church can but obey what the Lord has commanded.

BAPTISM IS FOR REMISSION OF SINS (Acts 2:38). Frequently men dispute about the meaning of the word "for". Some say that "for" in the above passage means 'because of," e. g. "He was hanged for stealing cattle." Consequently it is claimed that one is baptized "because" his sins are already remitted. If this be the meaning of "for", then a person repents "because" his sins are already remitted! This cannot be for repentance always precedes baptism. One repents for (in order to) the remission of sins, as is stated in Acts 2:38. Whatever repentance is "for", baptism is "for." Both repentance and baptism are 'for" the remission of sins.

DOES BAPTISM HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH A PERSON'S SALVATION? In every instance in the Bible where baptism and salvation are mentioned together, salvation always follows baptism—it is predicated upon baptism. E.g. Mark 16:15,16; Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1Pet.3:21. There is no instance in the Bible of a person's being baptized because he was already saved! Where is the passage?

WHO SHOULD BE BAPTIZED? Those taught (Matt.28:19,20), who believe (Mk.16:16), who repent (Acts 2:38), and who confess Christ to be the Son of God (Matt.10:32,33; Acts 8:36,37). An infant has not sinned—sin is the transgression of the law of God (1John 3:4). Neither God nor man holds an infant responsible. On the contrary, Jesus said, "'of such is the kingdom of heaven." (Matt.19:13-15). Infants are "safe" (innocent); they need no baptism.

WHAT IS BAPTISM? Since baptism orginated with God, why not let God's word define it? See Romans 6:3,4 and Colossians 2:12. An example of baptism; Acts 8:35-39.

IS IT NOT STRANGE THAT: People teach baptism but do not teach what God says about it? It is a command of God (Mk.16:16); people believe in baptism but do not believe what God says about it? It is for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38); people practice baptism but do not practice what God says about it? It is burial and a resurrection (Rom. 6:3,4; Col.2:12).

NINETEEN HUNDRED YEARS AGO THE CHURCH OF CHRIST WAS ESTABLISHED. Today, she has the same name, worship, organization, doctrine and life. The best place to learn about churches of Christ is to read and study the New Testament.

IT TAKES PRACTICE

What a dilemma! Johnny should sit here and practice his piano lesson for the next hour. But there are so many things he would prefer doing . . . . Of course he'd like to be able to play well. Who wouldn't?

So many of us are like Johnny. We'd like to be able to accomplish something, but we aren't willing to spend the necessary time and effort.

The same holds true in the practice of our Christian religion. How can we hope to understand the will of God without reading His Word or without supporting His Church?

In order to live the richest life, we must devote our time and talent to God's work. We will learn to direct our efforts where they will accomplish most if we will study His Word and worship in His House.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
