AND SNYDER SIGNAL

VOLUME XXXIX

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1925

Number 11

THE TIMES-SIGNAL SIGNALS

Out in the country life is what you make it, and in the city life is what you make.

There may be a few darning needles left in the world, but we can find girls right around Snyder who do not know it.

A Philadelphia man fainted three times while being married. Wonder what he'll do when the first month's bills come in?

Henry Ford can build a flivver in 18 minutes. And a fool driver and a tree can take one apart in 18 seconds.

Our idea of a good sport is the Snyder man who stops at the butcher shop on his way home from a day's hunt and buys enough meat for supper.

We read where an Iowa man drove 500 miles in a day. He must have been hunting for a parking place.

Our idea of an "efficiency expert" is one of those fellows who is still living off his wife's parents.

One Snyder man's definition of relatives, he told us the other day, are people who come to visit you when the weather gets too hot for them to cook.

A government report says foreign nations owe this country about $12,000,440,921. And we suppose we can count ourselves lucky if we get the $9921.

As we heard it explained by a well-known Snyder man yesterday, the difference between a rent and a tear is that if you go on a tear you won't have enough money left to pay the rent.

A Detroit girl was powdering her nose when she walked into a hole in the street 14 feet deep. Pride goeth before a fall.

The old village blacksmith who used to work under a spreading chestnut tree now tinkers under a tin roof with a pair of plyers and a battery tester.

If the average Snyder woman ever got a chance to marry again she'd pick a husband who made so much money she'd never have to hear the word "economize" again.

Maybe you've noticed that most of the big jobs in this world are done by fellows who don't even care whether there's a grease spot on their necktie or not.

Most vacationists tell you that a summer resort is a place where the mosquitoes start in just where the flies left off.

It is always a good idea for Snyder families to remember that when theirs fall out others fall in.

ROAD ELECTION CALLED OFF.

For several reasons the commissioners' court thought it best to call off the road bond election which was to have been held in Scurry County, Saturday, August 15. Among the numerous reasons for postponing the election was, Fisher and Borden Counties had not yet held their elections, and it was thought best to wait and hold the three elections simultaneously. Another reason was, the matter of building the roads in event the election should carry, would come at a season when farmers and other residents of the county would not be able to assist in the work, since it was the intention of those at the head of the road construction to use Scurry County labor as far as practicable.

A. B. CAMPBELL BUYS INTEREST IN H. L. DAVIS STORE.

Mr. A. B. Campbell, who has been connected with the Bryant-Link store here, has purchased an interest in the H. L. Davis Company of this city. Mr. Campbell is a fine fellow and as a dry goods man has but few equals. He is a man of broad experience in the dry goods line, which, with his genial nature, and his application of the old principle, "Honesty is the best policy" in all his dealings, he will prove a valuable asset to this already popular firm.

Mr. H. L. Davis, senior member of the firm, left Wednesday for eastern markets to buy heavily for the fall and winter trade, and will no doubt have an interesting message for his customers in the Times-Signal in next week's issue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McMinn and baby are here this week visiting Mr. McMinn's brother. Mr. McMinn recently sold his filling station at Roscoe and will probably return to Snyder to reside.

Judge W. W. Beall and Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Dabney of Sweetwater visited with relatives here Sunday.

THE WEATHER.

Seasonable

The Times-Signal Weather-cock declares that he can still find moist earth and that it will continue seasonable through the remainder of the month.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

The marriage of Mr. James W. Templeton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Templeton, and Miss Leona Strayhorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strayhorn, was solemnized at high noon Tuesday, August 18, at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. J. H. Tate of Fluvanna officiated.

The home was artistically decorated in pink roses, ferns, smilax and tulle.

On entering the porch guests registered in a beautiful bride's book, presided over by Misses Lena Ruth Smith, Mary Lynn Nation and Dorothy Strayhorn.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Alma Cowan, accompanied by Miss Lucile Strayhorn, sang "At Dawning," and Miss Cowan played the bridal march from "Lohengrin."

The wedding party formed a semi-circle around an improvised altar of ferns, roses and orange blossoms over which was suspended a beautiful white wedding bell.

Rev. Tate, a life time friend of both families, approached the altar, followed by the groom attended by his brother, Becton Templeton. The bride's maids, Misses Ruth Bradley, Neoma Strayhorn, Zona McMullen, and Cecil Strayhorn entered preceding Master LeRoy Strayhorn bearing the ring on a white satin pillow.

Little Joanna and Weldon Strayhorn carried dainty baskets filled with rose petals which they scattered in the path of the bride, who unattended, met the groom at the altar.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette with real lace trimmings, and a bridal veil with orange blossoms. She carried a bride's show-er bouquet.

Miss Neoma Strayhorn, a twin sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a frock of pink georgette beaded, and a corsage of pink rose buds.

Misses Zona McMullen and Cecil Strayhorn were bridesmaids. They both wore dresses of lace over orchid rose buds.

Miss Ruth Bradley was also a bridesmaid. She wore a gown of green georgette with yellow rose buds and a corsage of pink rose buds.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held, and a lovely two-course plate luncheon was served.

The bride's cake, decorated with hand-made pink rose buds, was cut. Dorothy Strayhorn received the ring, Jay Slaughter the good luck piece, Miss Alma Cowan the wishbone, Mrs. Joe Stinson the button, and Miss Cecil Strayhorn the dime.

Punch was served from a bowl encased in a block of ice in which roses and ferns were frozen.

Many beautiful wedding gifts were on display in the sun parlor. Upon leaving the bride threw her bouquet and Miss Georgia Bolin caught it.

The bride wore a traveling costume of purple satin backed crepe with hat and accessories to match.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Templeton left on a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Houston.

The guest list included, Mrs. A. E. Grantham, Mrs. S. T. Elza, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Templeton, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Strayhorn, Mrs. H. G. Towle, Wayne Boren, Becton Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stinson, Misses Zona McMullen, Georgia Bolin, Lucile Strayhorn, Mary Lynn Nation and Lena Ruth Smith. Out-of-town guests were: Rev. and Mrs. Tate, Fluvanna; Mr. and Mrs. Rob Strayhorn, Rotan; Mrs. Pauline Tyson Warren, Post; Mrs. Lee Duckworth, Post; Mrs. J. S. Richards, Hillsboro; J. B. Slaughter, Jr., Post; Mrs. Pearl Shannon, Colorado; Misses Ruth Bradley, Post; Mildred Boren, Post; and Alma Cowan, Italy.

Mrs. Oliver McClinton and son, Bedford are spending the week at Mineral Wells.

Mrs. Willis Brazzell and two daughters of Newport are visiting Mrs. Brazzell's brothers, T. B. and W. A. Faver, this week.

The Scurry County F. & L. U. executive committee will meet at the courthouse in Snyder at 4 o'clock Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Green left Sunday evening for Globe, Arizona, where she will spend the winter.

WHY HAVE A SIMULTANEOUS EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN?

We have six churches entering such program. Each church working at the same time as the others are. For these churches to put on a single effort it would require ninety days if each organization took fifteen days apiece. In this case we would have a season of three months of revival meeting. Ere the summer is over many of the faithful few would be worn out physically. And the spiritual results accrued would be less for each church than by co-operating with the other five churches.

An evangelistic corps of workers sufficient to put on a union meeting would cost more than our simultaneous meeting. Their money would be spent out of town, too—they take it out with them. And often the good spirit of a union effort assuages as the evangelists take their departure. But not necessarily, so.

The seating capacity of our tabernacle is one thousand. The seating capacity of the six churches in the Simultaneous Campaign is twenty-five hundred—just two and a half times greater. We will have these places filled no doubt.

We depend upon the professional evangelist to put on the program too much. (We might call it 'Putting on the show.') But where each church feels its own responsibility, the members of the respective churches put on the program with the leadership of their own pastor. Thus they give of themselves to an active part in the campaign.

In a centralized or union meeting we could count on fifty per cent less personal workers than what we would be able to enlist in our Simultaneous Campaign. It is the increase of proficient workers that we are concerned about as well as new converts. Then shall we not make this the greatest of all our efforts to prove that God's people can and will work together for His glory?

The last reason that we might assign in favor of the co-operative effort is, the business men can afford to close their places of business one hour each day for a fifteen days' meeting. We would not expect, neither would it be fair to expect them to close for three months, one hour each day. It is not fair to the business man nor to the customers of these various houses. Then shall not the church leaders adopt economic and religious principles during our summer revival campaigns? "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity?"

A. L. Martin and family and Mrs. Dora Wilson returned Monday from a vacation trip to Denver, Colorado Springs and El Paso. Mr. Martin says that while up on Pike's Peak they were caught in a heavy snow storm and that he almost froze to death. He says that Colorado is the best place he ever saw to go to get cooled off.

Dr. and Mrs. R. D. English are in Mineral Wells this week on business. Mrs. Susie Hines and son, Merit, of Midland are visiting Mrs. Hines' brother, E. B. Baugh, and her sister, Mrs. I. W. Wasson.

Mrs. J. L. Martin and daughters, Misses Ila and Myrtle, and son, J. L. Jr., were called home from Roys City Monday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Martin's father, who lives in Missouri. Mrs. Martin left Thursday morning for Hale, Mo., to be with her father, whose death may occur at any moment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cavness and daughter, Clarice Joy Carnes, of San Marcos, Texas, are expected to arrive today for a brief visit with relatives and friends. The Cavness family are former residents of Snyder and their many friends will be glad to see them here again.

Rev. and Mrs. M. W. Clark of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark and little son of Dallas, who have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pruett, returned to their homes Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Graham and daughters, Miss Violet, of Waco, who have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stinson, returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter King and children returned Tuesday afternoon from San Angelo, accompanied home by their mother, Mrs. Jim King, who has been visiting relatives in that city.

LARGE CROWD VISITS SCOUTS.

All four counties in this district had representatives at the Boy Scouts' camp near Maryneal last Sunday, a large delegation going from Snyder. On the previous Thursday, the Lions of Snyder by special invitation visited the camp. After supper had been served the boys entertained the Lions with boxing and wrestling contests, making the evening a most pleasant one for the visitors.

Sunday following, there was a large crowd present, parents and friends of the boys were present from each of the four counties in the district. Theodore Yoder preached a most excellent sermon, dealing for the greater part with scoutcraft and the part it plays in making real Americans out of the boys of the country.

The Scouts are said to be having the time of their lives, but they are not enjoying it any more than the men who have them in charge.

TEMPLETON-STRAYHORN ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. Edward Warren, Misses Zona McMullen and Skeeter Cowan were hostesses at a pretty party given Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Roy Strayhorn, announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Leona Strayhorn to J. W. Templeton, Jr.

Eight tables were attractively arranged for playing "42."

At the conclusion of the games Miss Skeeter Cowan, to the accompaniment of a Victrola, gave an aesthetic dance centering around Miss Leona Strayhorn, and throwing cards from her basket during the dance, which announced the engagement of Miss Strayhorn and Mr. Jim Templeton.

Fruit drops were served during the games. A two-course luncheon in color scheme of pink and green, was served. A silver ladle was presented to the honoree.

POPE BAZE BUYS WESTBROOK PLACE.

Mr. Pope Baze of San Marcos has purchased the Little Westbrook place, two miles east of Snyder and he and his family will remove to their new home just as soon as he can dispose of his property at San Marcos. A little over a year ago, Mr. Baze removed from Stanton, but since that time there has not fallen in San Marcos enough rain to sprout a radish seed, and Mr. Baze is returning to God's country, and to which place he and his family are thrice welcome.

PARTY GIVEN FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Leona Strayhorn, bride-elect, was entertained Monday morning with a miscellaneous shower at the home of her cousin, Miss Lucile Strayhorn.

Nine tables were arranged for progressive games of forty-two. Master Leroy Strayhorn, attired in a white satin suit, entered drawing in express wagon which bore the sign, "Texaco Oil Co.," and containing many pretty gifts for the honoree.

The color scheme of yellow and white was featured in a lovely two-course plate luncheon.

Out-of-town guests were: Misses Tex Smith, Abilene; Mildred Boren, Post; Bradley, Post; Skeeter Cowan, Italy, and Violet Graham, Waco.

Rev. and Mrs. Cowan and daughter, Miss "Skeeter" of Italy, Texas, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strayhorn.

W. E. Doak and family visited relatives in Dallas and Shelby Counties last week.

Kin Blackard started for the Lower Rio Grande Valley a few days ago, but the weather was so hot he stopped at Corpus Christi, stayed there for a brief spell and returned to God's country.

Tom Elza and family visited in Abilene and Anson this week.

Mrs. John Spears and two small children spent Thursday in Lubbock where Mrs. Spears is having her eyes treated by a specialist.

Miss Laura Belle Rotan, the home demonstration agent, returned Sunday afternoon from Wharton where she spent the week visiting her mother.

CUTTING WALK TO GRADE.

The high bank at the corner of the H. L. Davis & Company store is being cut down to the regular grade. This is a good move, as it was not only inconvenient but dangerous the way it was left after paving the square and North Church Street. Step by step Snyder is moving cityward. Please don't stand in her way, but take off your hat, politely bow and join the procession.

WEBB MOTOR COMPANY OVERHAULING BUILDING.

The Webb Motor Company, dealers in Buicks and Chevrolets, are having their building on South Clairemont Street, completely overhauled. The entire front of the building is being rebuilt, and will have large plate glass windows and salesrooms. A large Chevrolet electric sign will help to adorn the front of the building. The Webb Motor Company is selling Chevrolets almost as fast as Henry Ford can turn out tin Lizzies.

BIG MEETING AT CHINA GROVE.

Rev. Will Green and Rev. Stallcup closed a very successful meeting at China Grove Sunday night. Ten were baptized and taken into the Baptist church. There were a number of other confessions, who will unite with other denominations.

The firm of Baugh & Webb was organized in 1920 consisting of R. W. Webb and Bert Baugh, both Snyder boys. They started on the East Side of the Square but their fair dealing and honest merchandise soon built their business to such a size that they had to seek larger quarters. This they did by having a building erected for them located just north of the Snyder National Bank, on what is destined to be one of the leading business streets of Snyder, CLAIRMONT STREET. They carry one of the largest stocks of Men's Wear to be found in any Man's store west of Fort Worth. They make a specialty of handling only the very highest grade merchandise—no shoddy goods in this store—and the thousands of customers of this store have come to know that when they buy any article of merchandise from them that they are getting the very best to be had. They make a leader of the famous Society Brand Clothes, Florsheim Shoes for Men and J. & K. Shoes for the ladies. With these they carry one of the largest stocks of Stetson Hats in West Texas. ## The Little Glory Nook

By MARGUERITE CAMERON

(©, 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

TO LOOK at Betty Joe one would say that there was nothing unusual about her.

Harry had said many times, "Betty Joe, I'll never know you."

And she as many times, "And you never will, pet, as long as the house keys hang at my belt." There were keys, with which Betty Joe had a bad habit of locking things up—for instance, there was that room one flight up in the new bungalow.

Ten years had passed since Betty Joe and Harry Leland had graduated from college. Harry was now an assistant professor. But it had seemed so different until Ray and Alberta Hal-mouth, classmates of the same year, had come back to spend the college commencement in their home.

But the matter which caused Alberta the gravest concern was the great change in Betty Joe.

"Don't look, when I open the closet door, Alberta," Betty Joe had frequently joked.

"What will you do when you keep house?" the girls had taunted her.

"Here's hoping the dear man won't be dreadfully particular. But, if he is, there'll be a glory nook, girls, a glory nook."

Now ten years had passed. Something truly momentous must have caused this change in Betty Joe. Such miracles are not wrought by chance.

One afternoon Alberta and Betty Joe sat among the field daisies.

"You see, I had fallen in love with the most particular man in the world," Betty Joe explained.

"But such a change," Alberta protested.

"It's only on the outside, dear. You see, I had to marry Harry, and after I had married him, I had to keep it from him that I was slovenly by nature."

The day before Ray and Alberta left Harry took it into his head to escort his guests through their bungalow from attic to cellar.

Harry looked annoyed, as he tried the fatal door on the second floor. "What would you do, Ray," he asked. "If your wife kept one room in your house always locked?"

They laughed and passed by the locked door.

A year later Ray and Alberta were suddenly appalled to hear that Betty Joe Leland had been drowned while away on an early summer outing. Another year, and Harry sent an urgent request that the Halmouths spend the last week in June with him.

"I must get away," Harry was telling them. "The university has given me a year's leave of absence and I've sold the house. I want to dispose of lots of personal things. I knew you would help me, Alberta."

"Perhaps you know to which door this belongs," Alberta placed a small key in Harry's hand. "I found it in one of the drawers."

"Yes," he turned the key over. "Do you know, that little key puzzles me. It belongs to the door Betty Joe always kept locked."

"I remember."

"That door is still locked. No one has been in. Do you remember she always had a way of saying that I should never go in as long as the house keys hung at her belt?"

"Yes, she did."

"It seems now that she is gone, that I have no more right to go in than I had before. I have an awful feeling that I'd be taking a mean advantage. Betty Joe always kept me guessing. It was as if she had a locked door in herself. I was never sure I knew her. I liked it that way. Now I don't want to look in that door. If I do, I can't guess, any longer. I'll know I think it was all some foolish little whim of hers, but she was all whims to me, and bless her heart, I wouldn't rob her of one."

At first, when we couldn't find things, the maid pestered me to look in—that Betty Joe might have used it as a storeroom," Harry smiled indulgently.

"Betty Joe kept things—well, I don't know, but they always seemed to be right at the end of her fingers. But, Alberta, the house is sold. The owner moves in next week. I can't sell him a locked room, nor do I want to."

"Of course not."

"Alberta, I think it would be best for you to open that door."

"If I did, Harry, I would want Ray and no one else to go through anything, know my secrets, if any."

"Yes—"

"That door is Betty Joe's secret."

"I know. I've thought that, too. If you really think I ought—" He took the key and climbed the stairs.

Alberta sat down, tried to read, but she was thinking of Betty Joe, her sweet voice in the garden, "Harry must never know—never, never" Know what? Somewhere a key was rattling in a lock. It flashed upon her. That was Betty Joe's glory nook and the wildest imaginings of Harry's immaculate soul could never understand any glory nook. Poor, helpless, little Betty Joe. The keys no longer hung at her belt.

"Harry, Harry," Alberta flew to the stairway.

There he stood, ashen, weary. He was holding the little key gingerly between two fingers. "Alberta—" his voice was low and strained.

Was she too late? Had he been in? He read the question in her violet eyes. "I couldn't," he said humbly.

"Alberta, do the best you can. But whatever you find, don't tell me about it."

TIMES HAVE CHANGED.

The west has harvested her wheat crop and for the first time in years she hasn't had to send out a nationwide appeal for harvest hands. This doesn't mean that her crop was very much smaller, nor that there is a greater amount of idle labor than in previous years. It simply means that those who are willing to work in the grain fields of the West during the harvest season can now get there without difficulty, and at less expense than when they had to depend on the railroad instead of the flivver. This condition is good for the grower and good for the man who really wants employment. He can go a longer distance to secure this kind of work than he could have hoped to go a few years ago, and he doesn't have to spend all he earns in the harvest field for a ticket back home. We will probably never again hear the old-time cry for help from States that furnish the world with its bread. The flivver seems to have solved still another problem for the "bounding west."

New Measure of Value

Chevrolet represents the highest type of quality car selling at a low price. Public acknowledgment of this fact has been evidenced by a greatly increased demand for Chevrolet cars. This increased demand has resulted in increased production making possible decreased prices on closed models and improved quality on all the models. Now Chevrolet provides "Quality at Low Cost" to greater degree than ever before. Now Chevrolet presents to automobile buyers everywhere a new measure of value.

We are now making a special showing of these new cars and would be glad to have you call and see them.

FLUVANNA NEWS

Matters Religious

Our fine union meeting closed last Thursday. So far as we have heard every body is delighted with the results. The Baptists, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches held services last Sunday at their respective places of worship for the purpose of receiving members and attending to other matters pertaining to their own work. The Baptist Church received 16 members, the Methodist 12 and the Presbyterian 8, these, in each case including those reclaimed transfers and etc.

Rev. Robinson of Ft. Worth will begin a meeting for the Christian Church on Wednesday night, Aug. 19th. In connection with this big meeting there will be dinner on the ground next Sunday, the 23rd. Bring your basket—or a full box—and attend the services.

The B. M. A. Baptist church will begin a meeting on Friday night, August 28th, Rev. J. F. McClung is to do the preaching.

Business and Crops

Our business men are not very much rushed these days, but the farmers are quite busy running planters and cultivators. Surely this is both industrious and wise. Rains have been superabundant just south of Fluvanna, fairly good close around town but rather short yet just north of us. Where the good rains have fallen the vegetation is growing fine.

W. B. Dane recently sold his farm and ranch, comprising of 1100 acres three miles N. E. of Fluvanna, to a Ft. Worth lady; who, as we understand, will erect a new residence and occupy same in the near future.

W. B. Dane is shipping a car of cattle to the Fort Worth market this week.

Visiting

Clarence Bley and family, of Olton, Texas, spent the week-end here visiting Clarence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bley and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ross of Roscoe were here Sunday visiting Mrs. Ross's people.

Raymond Daugherty and family and J. L. Daugherty and family recently went to Killen for a visit with relatives for several days.

Mrs. A. C. Elkins of Kent County spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Squyres. Ernest Griggs of Sedan, New Mexico, a nephew to Mrs. Squyres, Tom Squyres of Snyder, and family, and Edwin Boles and family of Post, were all visitors at the J. W. Squyres home last Sunday.

Mrs. Oliver Willis and Daughter, Saluda, recently returned from an extended visit with relatives in Bell County.

C. E. Tarter and family recently returned from an extended visit to Hannin County.

Jon Truss and family and Will Weaver and family are back from a short visit to Christoval. They report a good time.

Personals

Jim Higgins and H. D. Sneed and families returned Sunday from Floyd county, where they attended the Primitive Baptist Association. They report some fine crops in that section.

sympathize with Mr. R. L. Lightfoot who, on last Thursday, received word of the death of his mother at Gainesville, Texas. Mr. Lightfoot went at once to attend the funeral.

Uncle Johnnie Gleghorn (previously mentioned in these articles) is still lingering in the borderland, with no hope for his recovery.

writer and Mrs. Tate enjoyed a rare treat of attending the beautiful wedding in the spacious Joe Ayhorn residence, when Mr. James Templeton and Miss Leona Strayhorn were united in marriage, on Sunday the 18th. Brevity cannot the occasion justice, hence we stop.

F. Dowdy reports that on last day he journeyed as far northwest as Leffield and Levelland; and on Monday he visited Rotan, Hamlin, Erment, Girard and Clairemont. In few places the crop was found to be good; in many places it was bad and bad.

FREE TIMES BETTER THAN PLAIN CALOMEL

is a new combination of known drugs that regulate, aid digestion, stimulate kidneys and acts as an intestinal antiseptic. Actual tests prove that calomel, in connection with pepsin, makes a day-in and day-out laxative that can be taken at any and all times. Whenever you need a good laxative, whether for toxemia, torpidity, biliousness, headaches, constipation, indigestion or colds, go to your store and get a package of "free times calomel" and you'll find it fine and fresh next morning by

STINSON DRUG CO.

Strange Things.

It so happens that J. A. Jones and Tom Evans reside north of Fluvanna, in that section of our community which has received very little rain this year. Dr. Browning thinks that calamity may have come about on account of the fact that both those gentlemen keep packs of hounds. Whether this surmise is correct or not the village preacher is not undertaking to say. The Book says that the Father "sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust." It is understood that these dogs are kept for the purpose of chasing wolves and other beasts that might invade their section of the forest; but whether a whole pack, or even two packs, of hounds can hold a rain cloud at bay may be a debatable question. At any rate the dogs are in a dry spot. Why?—Jas. H. Tate, Cor.

PATRONS OF HERMLEIGH SCHOOL.

We, the board and superintendent of your schools find the finances of the district in such shape that the term of school to which the children of the district, your children and ours, are entitled cannot be maintained.

We wish to lay the matter before you, submit a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the district and have your suggestions and help in finding a way out of the difficulty.

To that end we request every patron and taxpayer, man and woman, in the district to meet us at the schoolhouse Wednesday night, Aug. 26, at 8 o'clock at which time we will make a complete statement of the financial status of the district and as the willing servants of the community, striving in the best way we know to give the children the very best school possible. We want you to help us find a solution to the problems confronting us.

We are counting on you. If you fail us we must fail the children, and if the school fails the community must inevitably suffer much loss in more ways than one.

Remember, it's not for us, but for all our children. A school cannot be built in a day. We have lost too much time already. Let's go! Get in the harness and pull with the leaders, if not that put your shoulder to the wheel and push like the devil. Let's make Hermleigh and her schools what it should be—the pride of the community and the envy of our neighbors.

Now, don't stay away because you are afraid you will get your leg pulled. It is not the purpose of the board to ask for any donations.

Your for Hermleigh, her school, her children, her business life, the welfare of her whole people.

The Y. W. M. A. of the Methodist church met with Mrs. John Green, August 17. Mrs. Snyder presided over the meeting, and after several business matters were discussed and disposed of a very interesting missionary voice program was carried out. Mrs. Williams led the lesson very efficiently, and those assisting her were Mmes. Towle, Dodson and Randalls.

Our meetings are filled with enthusiasm, and we are working together in order to be an asset to this town in a religious way. Those not attending the meetings are missing something worth while, both spiritually and socially.

The hostess served delicious brick cream and angel food cake to following members: Mmes. Towle, Carmichael, Ivan Dodson, Wellington, Taylor Bradford, Harless, Green, J. D. Jones, Randalls, Hicks, Williams, Elkins and Snyder.

We were glad to welcome as guests Mmes. J. B. Curry and Clinton Ware. The next meeting will be Sept. 7, at the home of Mrs. Elkins.

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

"I've often wondered," says J. W. McCoach, "Why some men imagine that they can reform the weather by cussing the thermometer."

Those who find that revenge is sweet usually suffer later from moral indigestion.

R. H. Curnutte declares that in his opinion the laziest man on earth is the one who stretches out right after the evening meal and sleeps until it's time to get up and undress and go to bed.

After all, the people who show good judgment are those who have the good sense to attend to their own business while the other fellow is attending to his.

"It has about gotten so," declares J. W. Hill, "that a fellow will do more fussing and fuming over picking a cantaloupe than he does in picking a wife." And J. W. ought to know, he has been picking both.

After he has been married a few months and the bills commence to come in a man realizes that his arms were made for something else besides hugging.

"The only thing worse than putting your nose to the grindstone," asserts Gay McGlaun, "is putting it in somebody else's business."

"I know a man who is so stingy," says Dr. W. R. Johnson, "that he eats bananas all the time to keep from wearing out the gold in his teeth."

Miss Ina Davis has returned from a visit at Slaton with her sister, Mrs. Albert Smith.

PLEASANT HILL.

Still needing rain in some parts of the community, other parts have had plenty.

Singing was well attended Sunday; had lots of visitors, and invite them all back.

Mr. Summers will begin a singing school at this place next Monday, the 24th. Everyone is invited to come and be with us and help us make the best class in Scurry County.

Miss Lorine Galloway was carried to Brownwood last week for an operation for appendicitis. We are glad to say she is doing nicely.

Mrs. Bertie Willis of Brownwood is visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl Shepherd. Her daughter, Miss Juanita, who has been here for some time will return home with her.

Miss Opal Callis of Union spent last week with Goldie Edwards, and attended the meeting which closed Friday night.

T. L. Shepherd and family attended church at China Grove Sunday.

Miss Goldie Edwards spent Sunday with Mrs. Bud Logan.

Gordon Smith of Colorado, Texas, visited Jim Shepherd last Thursday night and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Berry entertained with a singing Sunday night which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rhoades of Bell, visited at J. M. Edwards Sunday.

Bro. Sparks of Snyder will preach here next Sunday evening. Everybody is invited out to hear him.

CHINA GROVE.

Well, after a long time absent, guess we had better hear from China again.

The China people have had a good revival meeting. Rev. Green of Big Spring helped Bro. Stallcup. There was a large attendance and several additions to the church.

Rev. Green left Monday morning for home.

Mrs. DeWitt Marshall of this community has been real sick from taking poison, but is reported better at present.

Mr. Bullock and wife of Snyder spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bullock.

Albert Guerin and family spent part of the week visiting near Westbrook.

D. F. Sellers of near here is spending the week with his brother of near Snyder.

China's new school room is nearly completed. Will be 3 rooms for the building this winter.

Quite a bunch of Snyder young people were melon hunting Sunday evening in this community.

W. T. Mize and family spent Monday at Mr. Deans.

Anton White and family attended church at Loraine Tuesday.—Happy.

Anthem Wade visited Edgar Galyean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shultz, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shultz and Mr. and Mrs. Halley Shuler visited at Marvin West's Sunday.

"I used Theodor's Black-Draught first for constipation," said Mrs. C. E. Buntin, of R. F. D. 5, Starkville, Miss. "I would feel dull, stupid, and have severe headaches, even feverish. I had an uneasy, tight feeling in my stomach. I read quite a bit about

I began using it and soon my bowels acted regularly and I was greatly relieved. I used it every once in a while for about 18 years.

"About two years ago I found I was having indigestion, a tight smothering in my chest, then severe pain, especially after eating sweets. I commenced taking just a pinch of Black-Draught after meals, and by doing this I could eat anything."

"I gave Black-Draught to my children for colds and headaches. I can certainly recommend it."

Black-Draught is used, with satisfaction, by millions. Get Theodor's.

Our Sunday School was unusually well attended. A large crowd was present for church.

At the opening of the church hour Brother and Sister Moores, accompanied by their instruments, sang "Unsearchable Riches of Christ."

After devotional service Brother Moores took for his text, "Peter Lovest Thou Me More Than These?"

While the choir sang Bro. Moores asked for those to come forward who wished to unite with the Methodist church. The following united with the church on profession of faith: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sullinger, Mrs. Eva Fry and daughter, Willie Mae; Jim, Jack, Louis and F. J. Moore; Pallie Haynes and Juanita Landrum. The following babies were baptized: Nancy Lou Moores, Minnie Sue Landrum, Alice Ivarne Glover, Leota and Lura Mae Hale.—Church Reporter.

State Fair "Crop" Superintendent

J. A. MOORE

J. A. Moore of Grand Prairie, Tex., is superintendent of the agricultural department at the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 10-25, and expects the most comprehensive agricultural display ever seen in Texas. A practical farmer himself, and for many years in the farm demonstration service, Mr. Moore is peculiarly fitted for the position he holds. Fully seventy-five county exhibits are expected at the 1925 State Fair.

NEW AUDITORIUM TO BE DEDICATED AT 1925 STATE FAIR

Magnificent $500,000 Building Added to Permanent Structures—Big Broadway Show the Attraction

At the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 10-25 this year, the magnificent new $500,000 Fair Park auditorium is to be dedicated and added to the many handsome permanent structures within the great Fair park.

Each year some big improvement of this character has been added to State Fair equipment within the last decade, but the new auditorium is perhaps the most pretentious of all the structures of the State Fair plant.

For its dedication there will be first, an organ recital on the $50,000 instrument installed within the auditorium. This will be given by Clarence Eddy, acknowledged as one of the world's famous organ performers. His recital will be given in the afternoon of Saturday, Oct. 10, opening day of the 1925 State Fair.

Each night throughout the State Fair, with several matinees per week, "Sky High," a great musical comedy production direct from Broadway, will be offered. "Sky High" is a big Shubert production, and the Shuberts are recognized in New York, at the great producers of the age. As one New York critic has said, that name connected with an offering is a guarantee of its goodness.

The State Fair management has contracted for "Sky High" in its entirety, just as it has been offered in New York at the Winter Garden since last February, and as it is still running. It will cost $100,000 to bring it to Texas by special train, including Willie Howard, the famous comedian-star, and the entire company of 108, with all the scenery, the big orchestra, etc.

The auditorium is a building more than 200 feet each way in outside dimensions, and will seat 5,000 people. It is provided with an up-to-date heating and ventilating system and is fire-proof. It will prove one of the big sights at the 1925 State Fair, outside of the entertainment offered in it.

DAIRY ANIMAL BREEDERS TO MEET AT STATE FAIR

Meetings of both Jersey and Holstein breeders have been scheduled for the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 10-25 this year. Positive dates for the sessions have not as yet been announced, but all members of both the Texas Jersey Cattle Club and of the Holstein Breeders' Association, have been notified that the gatherings will take place, and a big attendance is expected at each session. The Texas Jersey Cattle Club is offering a special premium at this year's State Fair, on county herds. Each herd must be made up of eight animals, owned by at least five different owners, and be representative of the county from which it is entered. Secretary, D. T. Simons of the club, expects at least twenty such entries.

TO PASS UPON MERITS OF STATE FAIR FOWLS

Keen interest is already manifest in the poultry show to be held at the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 10-25, according to Walter Burton of Arlington, superintendent of the poultry department. Judges of the State Fair poultry show will be Newton Cosh, Vineland, N. J.; D. E. (Ted) Hale, Chicago, and E. C. Branch, Lee's Summit, Mo.

POULTRY

PLACING INCUBATOR EGGS ON THE MARKET

(By T. E. QUISENBERRY)
Some farmers and poultry raisers make a practice of putting eggs on the market which they have had in an incubator for a few days and found the eggs to be infertile. This is a bad practice and should never be done by any honest farmer or poultry raiser. You may make good use of such eggs by consuming them at home. They will do to fry, for baking and for certain kinds of cooking, but they are absolutely unfit for the market. Such eggs, while good for home consumption are absolutely unfit for shipping. The yolks will break, the eggs will rot before they can reach the consumer, and it is a dishonest practice to offer such eggs for sale as fresh-laid eggs, and you lower the price on all eggs by so doing. Consume such eggs at home.

We have seen severe market losses due to a habit of sending infertile incubator eggs into commerce. This has been especially noticeable in the large houses making a specialty of breaking out eggs where they found it absolutely necessary to candle even in March and early April because farmers and poultry raisers were marketing infertile incubator eggs with their fresh eggs, and the incubator eggs came in in such bad condition and were so numerous that they had to be culled out before it was safe for the breakers to handle the eggs. At that time of the year there is no other reason for candling. You can see what a loss this means to any dealer, and instead of reducing the army of candlers which are now required this practice makes a demand for even a greater number.

Another very serious evil due to the marketing of infertile eggs from an incubator or from underneath a hen is their admixture with storage stock. These incubator eggs usually go on the market at the season when eggs are being stored without being candled. We know it to be a fact that infertile incubator eggs break down during transportation and handling and easily become "white rots."

Infertile incubator eggs can be used for bakers' purposes in the home, but under no circumstances should they ever be offered for sale or for shipment.

Another important reason why such eggs should not be marketed as fresh eggs is the fact that they are liable to be seized by food inspectors as being misbranded. Such eggs play havoc with the storage stock, and we are in hopes that no farmer or poultry raiser will be guilty of such a dishonest practice.

Trap Nest Is Accurate

Test of Hen's Ability

The trap nest is the most accurate test of a hen's ability to lay eggs, but it is not practicable for those who live on farms, with all the other work they must do. Therefore, poultry specialists have been studying the general characteristics of laying hens, so that we might have a set of almost exact rules for telling the layers from the loafers. It has been proven over and over that these rules work correctly and no farm woman need longer feed hens that will not pay for their feed bill and give a profit. We must also remember that these lazy hens, which have been loafing all summer, fall and winter, will be laying their few eggs next spring at hatching time, and if their eggs are set, we will have another flock of loafers.

The hens that begin to molt in July should be sent to market. There is one exception to this, the hen that has hatched and brooded a flock of chicks, for she will usually go through a partial molt before she begins laying again. August 15 and September 15 is the best time to cull, but it will pay to go over your flock from time to time through the summer and cull out. Sell those that have stopped laying.

A chartered Training School is conducted by Miss Anne D. Logan, R. N., Superintendent. Bright, healthy young women who desire to enter may address Miss Logan.

There are usually a number of hens in every flock whose general appearance indicates they have low vitality, little vigor and will never be profitable egg producers. A great percentage of these low vitality birds are late hatched pullets of the previous season.

Poultry Hints

Carrots, cabbage and sprouted oats help make strong chicks.

Good hatches are obtained only when the laying stock has been selected for vigor and made to exercise.

Fresh eggs are the best for hatching purposes. If it is regarded necessary to keep hatching eggs they should be stored in a temperature of 60 degrees or lower.

AUTO PRICES TUMBLING.

We've never boasted of our powers as a prophet, and neither do we lay any claim to be able to peer farther into the future than the average citizen of Snyder. But when a few months ago we ventured the assertion that the auto manufacturers of this country would slash their prices before the fall season rolled around—well, it looks like we made a mighty good guess. They are coming down in price now, and have been for several weeks. Not all cutting at once—that would look too much like a frame-up. But gradually they are falling in line each giving his own individual reason for the reduction. But the public knows a lot more about the business of auto-making now than it did a half-dozen years ago, and one thing it has learned above all others is that, without a single exception, they are all too costly. You can buy a lot of steel and leather and nickel-plating and labor for a thousand dollars. And when plants that can turn out hundreds and thousands of cars daily can mould and bend and cut and assemble that material several thousand times more cheaply than if it turned out but a car or two a day, they can take a profit of a few dollars on each car and still make money. The public knows, too, that while auto production has been as high this year as last, more of this year's machines have been shipped abroad than ever before.

The American car buyer has grown particular. He is placing more value on his dollar now than he once did. As a result he is driving down the prices of autos, and without causing any of the makers to starve to death, either.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS.

The official board of the church on August 9 elected to retain our pastor, I. J. Sparks, M. D., for another year. The church was asked to artify their act which was done unanimously by every member of the church. Brother Sparks has had wonderful success and has done many things towards strengthening the church and the Lord's work since he has been pastor of the church. He has tried to get the membership much along that line. He has always been an ardent supporter of everything that tends to build up the spiritual and moral side of the people, the town and the county. It is the earnest desire of the pastor that every member work through him. Any time you think something should be done do not go and tell Tom, Dick or Harry about it but go to your pastor and tell him your thought as a brother and a friend. He is glad to advise and counsel with you any time. This church is going to enter the simultaneous campaign that begins Sunday, August 30. Remember that this is your church and your pastor asks that you co-operate with him to the utmost that this meeting may be a great success. Let's not lag but let it be said that we put the work over in the name of the Lord in a way that every lover of the Lord in this town can and will say, "you did well." Let our motto be, "Go, Grow and Serve."
