

Bloodmobile Comes on March 31

Eighty units of blood is the goal when the Red Cross Bloodmobile visits Wellington Thursday, March 31, but to get this, at least 100 volunteers will be needed, said Mrs. Lynn Wright, president of Collingsworth General Hospital Auxiliary which sponsors the bloodmobile visits.

The bloodmobile, which comes from the Red River Red Cross Blood Center in Wichita Falls, will be here during new hours, 2:30 to 6 p.m. The later closing hour will give those donors who work more opportunity to give blood.

There will be a 9-bed capacity, meaning shorter waiting time for those who come to the blood center.

Securing the 80 units is made more difficult because of the great number of flu cases and other illnesses within the last month.

"Because of this we sincerely urge every person who is able to respond to the blood need at this time," Mrs. Wright urged.

To those who question the quick return of the bloodmobile, Mrs. Wright reminds that the January visit was a make-up from a 1982 visit postponed because of weather.

The bloodmobile will arrive at 1:30 p.m. to begin setting up equipment, and men who will unload and load the equipment should be at the community building by that time.

"Bloodmobile volunteers who will help with the donor operations should be at the community center by 2 p.m.

Volunteers, typists, canteen workers and others should be at the community center by 2 p.m.

The Retired Teachers Association will furnish cookies and Business and Professional Women's Club will operate the canteen.

Mrs. Wright again pointed out that Collingsworth General Hospital depends on the Red River Red Cross Regional Blood Center in Wichita Falls for its entire supply of blood and blood derivatives for its patient needs.

Red Cross Blood Centers, along with 80% of the blood centers in the country, do not assign credits for blood donations or require blood replacements from those who receive blood.

Red Cross believes that blood should be available to all who need it regardless of race, economic status, availability to donate, place or residence or membership in specific group or organization. For this system to work, we depend on a sufficient number of volunteer donors to give their blood regularly.

Red Cross believes it is a community responsibility to meet patient blood needs.

"If you use blood in any of the 43 hospitals served by the Red River Regional Red Cross Blood Service, you will be charged our standard processing fee of $43.50 without obligation to replace the blood used and without the threat of being charged

School Board Hires Teachers

Wellington School Board hired teachers for the '83-'84 school year at regular meeting Tuesday, March 22.

Aides and teachers whose salaries are funded by Chapter I (the old Title I program), State Compensatory Education program and Special Education were all hired subject to federal and state funding of those programs, although Supt. Kenneth McKay said that at this point he thinks the school will be able to operate next year without any further reduction in personnel.

Teachers given contracts in elementary school are Opal Camp, Frankie Campbell, Evelyn Carter, Duane Dodson, Alcie Estes, Shirley Henard, Beverly Hudson, Janet Lindley, Rita Lowrie, Lennie Morgan, LoRhae Morgan, Patricia Pruitt, Katherine Reeves, Shelly Sanders, Virginia Tarver and Phoebe Tramel.

Elementary aides given contracts are Martha Green,

Dorothy McKay, Margaret Pendleton, Linda Powell, Jackie Wilkerson and Ruby Williams.

Junior high teachers given contracts are Linda Argo, Beth Lennon, Barbara Williams, Barbara Bartlett, Wanda Cardwell, Vela Yielding and Kay Mead.

Junior high aides given contracts are Delores Birkey, Gwen Barber, Vickie Parker and Vonnie Taylor.

High school teachers given contracts and the subjects they taught this year are John Birkey, auto mechanics, Linda Brewer, Math, business, free enter-

One Act Play Wins 2-AA

The Wellington High School one act play, "The Arkansas Bear," along with the play from Quanah, won the District 2-AA UIL competition in Clarendon Tuesday, March 22.

They will advance to the Area UIL contest which will be held at Wayland College, Plainview, on April 5. The time at which the Wellington play will be presented has not been set. Clarendon High School's play was named as the alternate.

Three WHS students were named to the all-star cast, Rodney Nash, Vanda Wood and Todd Roberson. Two others, Camille Smith and Scott Shepard, received

Volleyball Tournery Helps Satellite Center Pay Bills

Wellington Satellite Center has 13 area teams entered in its benefit volleyball tournament, which will be played Friday and Saturday, March 25 and 26 in the high school gymnasium. Eight are women's teams, 5 are in the men's division.

Play will start at 6 p.m.

Friday and continue until 10:30. Saturday play will be from 5:30 to 9 p.m. says Susan Murphree, Satellite center director.

Trophies will be awarded to first, second and consolation winners in each division.

Women's teams are Wellington Smashers,

Brenda Hembree of McLean said these women's teams will participate: Britt Dozier, Cowboys Drive In, American Legion II.

Men's teams are Odds and Ends, McLean, Ricky Littlefield coach and the Salty Dogs of McLean; Tony's team, Wellington, Tony Cox coach; Samnorwood Warriors, Doug Coleman, Jr., coach; Childress Nit Wits, Clyde Harper coach.

The Nit Wits are a unique team in that it is mixed men and women and will be playing in the men's division, as it has in several other tournaments this season.

Mrs. Murphree called for volunteers who could serve as line judges. They can be either high school students or adults and should contact Mrs. Murphree or Toni Wright at the Satellite Center 447-5436.

Admission will be $1 per person for adults and 50 cents for students. Concessions will be available.

County Asks for Meals on Wheels

Action that will make possible a Meals on Wheels program for Collingsworth came when the Commissioners Court passed an order authorizing County Judge Zook Thomas to make application for the program.

He was due to meet with representatives of the Panhandle Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council in Amarillo Wednesday, March 23.

After the council reviews the application, it will be placed on the agenda of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission board of directors for consideration Thursday, March 24, according to M.K. McQueen, director of the Area Agency on Aging.

Action by the commissioners at their March 14 meeting followed several meetings held here by a group, headed by Judge Thomas, that wants a Meals on Wheels program established in the county to serve those who are not able to prepare their own meals or who do not want to.

In other action, the commissioners gave approval for the Sheriff's Department to use a four-wheel drive ambulance belonging to the Volunteer Ambulance Service. The Sheriff's department will keep the vehicle in good repair.

F.E. Coan, Amarillo, was hired to audit the county's books for the 1983-84 fiscal year.

Collingsworth joined a group of other counties in approving proposed intervention by the Texas Association of Counties in litigation challenging county jails in Texas.

Plaintiffs in the suit, Bush vs. Viterna, are challenging the Texas Commission on Jail Standards by asking for more stringent restrictions on construction and operation of county jails.

They further claim that variances to counties by the Texas Commission on Jail Standards are unlawfully given, and that the authority given by the Commission to county officials in operating the jails should be curtailed.

"All these issues potentially impact Texas counties," said Giles Dalby, president of the Texas Association of Counties.

The Association is seeking from $30,000 to $50,000 from 40 to 60 counties. If these are not met, an intervention will not be filed.

The cost to counties the size of Collingsworth is $250, Judge Thomas explained.

The commissioners passed another order prohibiting soliciting in the court house. "We have all kinds of people from groups we never heard of coming through trying to sell something or collect money," said the judge.

Reeves Part of AC Women's 5th Place

Wellington's Kathleen Reeves contributed some of the best playing of her career that helped the Lady Badgers of Amarillo College finish 5th in the national women's junior college basketball tournament at Senatobia, Miss.

It was AC's best-ever effort.

It also marked the climax to a career that began in Wellington junior high school for the willowy blond who has thrilled so many Collingsworth crowds with her playing.

Present for all four games in which the Lady Badgers participated were Kathleen's parents, Don and Katherine Reeves, and her brother, Bill. They saw "a lot of basketball" and remained to watch the championship game, which was won by Northwestern Mississippi College, which had defeated the Lady Badgers in their second game.

AC won their first game over Tyler Junior College in overtime play. After losing to NW Mississippi, the Lady Badgers beat DeKalb College of Atlanta, Ga., and in the fourth game won a 60-54 victory over Gadsden (Ala.) State Junior College for 5th place.

AC was not even supposed to win regional honors. Coach Kelly Chadwick's Lady Badgers were down after their loss to NW Mississippi, but they came back the next day to beat DeKalb 80-50 and then go on into the finals.

Coach Chadwick called it "defense and discipline." The girls, after their 100 percent team effort called it "discipline and defense."

Kenneth W. Tidmore, Amarillo Globe-News assistant sports editor who has made the Panhandle conscious of AC girls basketball this year wrote Sunday that "the Lady Badgers showed the discipline and patience which keyed their best-ever finish in the national women's junior college basketball tournament."

Tidmore continued:

"The winning edge (in the finals) developed for AC with the score deadlocked at 50. The Lady Badgers then rattled off 7 unanswered points to open up the game's largest lead, 57-50, with 1:06 left to play.

"Wellington sophomore Kathleen Reeves opened that scoring streak with a pair of free throws. Then Miss (Maria) Linggi hit from 18 feet after a Gadsden State turnover."

"Our discipline was the difference," said Miss

Reeves, who had 6 points and 6 rebounds, "and we didn't choke on our free throws at the end (six of AC's final points came at the line).

"I think we wanted it more than they did. We've worked so hard since the middle of August. We wanted it and we deserved it."

Gadsden State, the team that the Lady Badgers defeated to take 5th place honors, had come into the tournament rated No. 1 in the nation.

Northwest Mississippi was rated No. 3 and Tyler Junior College 4th going

SUPERIOR FACILITY

Tommy Thomas and Pat Thomas Barnett hold a certificate from the Texas Department of Health that designates Thomas Nursing Center as a Superior Facility. Only about 35% of nursing homes in the state receive the designation. In order to be licensed, a nursing facility must meet minimum standards. The superior rating is for nursing homes that excel in several of the following areas: building and grounds sanitation, follow-through on doctors' orders, activities for patients, patient care, and Fire and Life Safety Code specifications.

Meeting Slated for Cattle Producers

A beef cattle meeting of interest to all Collingsworth area raisers will be held Tuesday, March 29, in the club room of Bura Handley Community Center. Starting time is 7:30 p.m., according to Don Reeves, extension agent.

The speaker will be Dr. John McNeil, area beef cattle specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

His discussion will cover topics such as beef cattle nutrition, management, animal health along with some information on marketing.

All beef cattle producers are encouraged to attend, Reeves said. He stressed that the meeting is open to anyone interested.

"It seems like beef cattle are on the upswing now and there is considerably more interest in beef cattle production than a year ago," Reeves pointed out.

"There is more interest in turning to beef cattle locally than a year ago, and cattle number are up in this area."

Dr. McNeil who grew up at Happy, received bachelor's and Master's degrees from Texas A&M University and his Ph.D. degree from the University of Kentucky. He was head of the animal science studies at West Texas State University, Canyon, for a number of years before he went to work for the Extension Service.

A livestock judge of national renowned, Dr. McNeil judged the Houston

Livestock, which is the largest livestock show in the world.

During his studies at A&M, Dr. McNeil's major field was in nutrition.

Dr. McNeil received his

Supt. Kenneth McKay said that because of funding cuts and smaller enrollment, one of the two units of vocational agriculture was being dropped from the curriculum for next year, so only one ag teacher was rehired.

Coaches whose contracts were extended are Ronny Williams, Dale Morris, Allen Sanders, Gano Wilson and Tom Johnson. Frank Aue's contract as band director was also extended.

In other action, the board voted to have one of the school's busses rebuilt by the Texas State Department of Corrections at Huntsville. The cost is expected to be less than half of the cost of a new bus. Under the program, inmates at the prison rebuild the body, chassis and drive train of public school busses for more or less the cost of the parts.

Additionally, he has a West Texas farm and ranch background.

"He has a well rounded background in beef cattle production," Reeves added.

First round Friday games in the men's division:

7 p.m. - Salty Dogs and Nit Wits

8 p.m. - Odds and Ends and Tony's Team.

The Warriors drew a bye. Semi finals in the women's division will be played Saturday at 5:30 and 6 p.m., and in the losers bracket, at 9 and 10 p.m.

Women's championship finals will be at 8 p.m. Saturday and consolation finals at 7 p.m.

In the men's division semi finals in the consolation bracket will be at 7:30 and in the winners bracket, the Warriors will meet the winner of the Odds and Ends-Tony's Team game at 9:30 Friday. Finals in the men's division will be at 8:30 Saturday.

All proceeds from this tournament will go to the Satellite center to pay expenses which must be borne locally said Mrs. Murphree.

This includes utility bills for the center, gas to operate the van which transports clients in the community as well as to various appointments at Amarillo. These include medical examinations, speech and hearing clinics, physical therapy appointments and in-service training for Mrs. Murphree and Mrs. Wright. The latter is a therapist technician.

The clients will participate in the Special Olympics coming up at Canyon in April.

Assembly of God Women Set Food Sale

Women of the Assembly of God will hold a bake and rummage sale Friday, March 25, at the church annex, 8th and Dalhart Streets. The hours will be 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The women are resuming the sale of fried pies, and also in the food sale will be cakes and other types of pies.

There will be crocheted work, dishes, pots and pans, pictures and lots of men's clothing and odds and ends, said Mrs. Troy Stallings, one of those helping.

Proceeds from this sale will go into the fund being collected to lower the ceiling and install ceiling fans in the church sanctuary.

President of the women's group is Mrs. Barbara Hicks, Mrs. Delma Jesse is vice-president and Mrs. Stallings is secretary.

honorable mention.

Best actress honors went to a former Wellington girl, Melody Moreman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moreman of Clarendon.

Wellington had the best representation of any of the District 2-AA towns which came to support its young actors. It is also known that some who planned to attend were kept away by weather conditions.

"There were a lot of adults as well as high school students, and a lot of college kids," said Mrs. Bob McAlister, play director. "Five members of the 1981 one-act play--the play that went to state--were present.

Under Mrs. McAlister's direction, this is the 7th consecutive year that the Wellington High School one-act play has won. They have lost only once since 1974, and that was in 1976. "This is a new district with Quanah and Panhandle added. Both are strong in this competition," said Mrs. McAlister.

an additional non-replacement or penalty fee if you do not replace the blood," said Mrs. Wright.

"The processing fee covers the cost of actually processing the blood used. Over 90% of insurance plans will pay for the blood processing fee.

"Approximately 20% of the blood centers in the country still believe it is the individual responsibility of the patients who use blood to pre-place or replace the blood used.

"If you use blood in a hospital served by one of these blood centers, you will receive the blood you need and will be charged a processing fee plus an additional non-replacement or penalty fee if you or your family or friends have not donated to replace the blood used.

"If a resident of our blood service region uses blood in an individual responsibility blood service region, where additional non-replacement fees or penalty fees are charged if blood is not replaced, give the Wichita Falls blood center a call at 817-322-8686. We will contact the blood supplier and attempt to have any additional non-replacement or penalty fees eliminated from the hospital bill."

Co-op Leaders at Meeting

CORPUS CHRISTI-Local cooperative leaders Dan Henard, Jerol Morris, Terry Canada, Carl and Rosetta Wischkaemper, and James and Phyllis Shepard, representing the Farmers Cooperative Gin were among more than 300 agricultural cooperative managers, directors, and wives from across Texas that recently attended the 32nd Annual Cooperative Manager-Director Conference in Corpus Christi. The conference was held at the Holiday Inn Emerald Beach Hotel, March 14 through 16.

The conference theme "Cooperatives -- Survival During Stressful Times" emphasized the importance and the purposes of the conference: (1) to broaden skills in managerial decision-making for managers and directors; and (2) to keep abreast of changes and challenges facing agricultural cooperatives.

Speakers at the conference included Dr. Randall Torgerson of the Agricultural Cooperative Service, USDA, Washington, D.C.; Dr. Bill Black and Dr. Ron Knutson, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station; Owen Hallberg of American Institute of Cooperation, Washington, D.C.; Don Nettles of Texas Bank for Cooperatives, Austin; Mike Fletcher, Omaha Band for Cooperatives; and C.W.

Buster Hughs, Longtime Hardware Owner, Retires

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, March 24, 1983

"I think everyone should do as much for their community as long as they can," declares Buster Hughs.

Now that he has retired from business and closed Ace Hardware, he has every intention of putting this to everyday practice.

Hughs has no intention of retiring from Wellington Volunteer Fire Department, in which he is the senior member. His church's present building program is complete but there is still money to be raised. There are veterans affairs to be active in. Hughs needs a little time for golf. This says nothing about 6 grandchildren. They're already his No. 1 priority.

Hughs first job in Wellington was in City Bakery on the south side of the square, which his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.F. Hughs had bought from Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones.

His business career began when he went to work for Harold Drummond's body shop not long after he returned from World War II.

Later he established his own business, Buster's Glass and Trim Shop.

In 1955, this was enlarged to be operated as White's Auto Store 14 years. He then joined the Ace Hardware, a dealer-owned corporation in which each member business owns stock. Ace is the second largest hardware dealership of the kind in the U.S.

Of the immediate future he says:

"Frances and I want to travel. We want to see a lot of relatives." He can visit his two brothers, Lee in California and Emmett in Oregon and his sister, Verna Schultz in Salt Lake City and see a large part of the Western U.S.

His sister's suggestions that Buster and Frances Hughs come to visit are growing stronger.

"I did not see a car with a Texas license sitting in front of my house last summer. I want to see one there this summer," she tells him firmly.

It was just a year after he moved to Wellington that Buster Hughs began a commitment to community service by joining Wellington Volunteer Fire Department. He has served as chief and as president of the Panhandle Firemen's Association.

It is in training sessions sponsored by the latter that firemen from throughout the Panhandle have learned much of their skill at handling fires ranging from those started by a skillet of grease on a kitchen stove to blazes fueled by leaking butane and petroleum products.

Many of his friends are certain that Hughs biggest contribution to Wellington has been his firefighting.

Hughs has had his close calls in firefighting, but he downplays these. "Everyone has them," he comments.

His worst possible memory is of the house fire in which four small children died. He remembers this with sadness and the details are vivid in his memory.

He fought all of Wellington's major business blazes: Pioneer Hardware, City Grocery (twice), the John Deere Farm Machinery store and others.

The old LaFrance fire truck, now approaching 60 years old is of special significance to Hughs. It was the only one the department had when he joined. He was pleased when the City of Wellington created a special room that will have large windows in its new fire station.

"We were also still using the old fire truck that Bura Handley had built out of scraps and parts of vehicles a good many years earlier. Ever so often he would have to rebuild it and Bura would go out and find some parts to fix it up," Hughs recalls.

There are now 6 firefighting vehicles, equipment to insure the safety of firemen and a city funded retirement program. "We're well equipped for our size town," he says.

For more than 20 years, he has served on the official board of First United Methodist Church, a period spanning its entire building program. He is also a church trustee.

Home from World War II, Hughs was one of the men who helped to organize Glynn Moore Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Besides being a charter member, he is a past commander and life member.

He served in the 36th Division, joining that unit as it was preparing to invade southern France. He was fighting in the Brenner Pass between Italy and France when the war ended. He remained in the Army of Occupation.

He is active in the 36th Division Association.

"I enjoy this and the association with the men in my unit. Now that I have more time, I want to locate some more of them,"

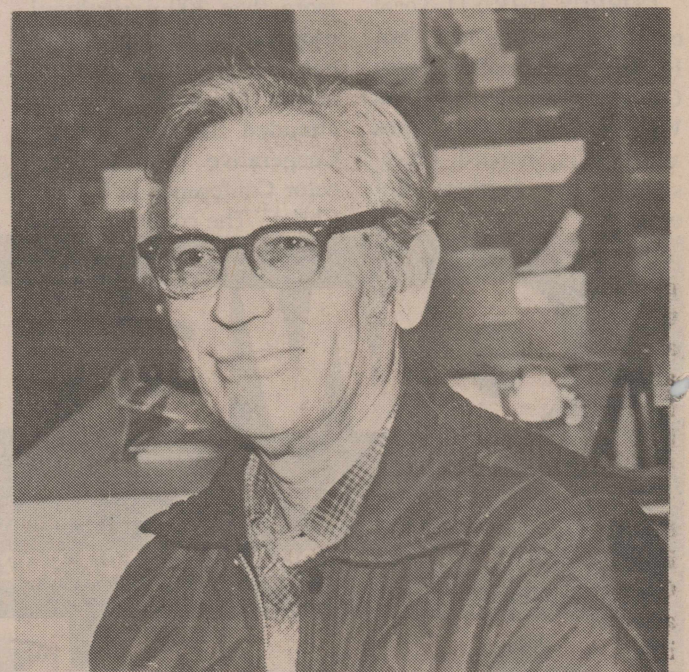

One of the first men to join Wellington's National Guard Unit, Hughs served as 1st sergeant until the Korean War.

Like his father, he has been active in the Odd Fellows Lodge having served as Noble Grand (and all offices leading to this post), a district deputy and captain in the encampments.

Buster and Frances Hughs are members of Wellington Country Club.

It surprises many that Hughs was born a short distance east of Dodson, although he grew up in Childress, Memphis, Paducah and Quanah.

He married Frances Parker of Mangum in 1939. She's the granddaughter of the late Dr. Gray, a long-time Wellington doctor. They have three children, Mike Hughs of DeSoto, Mrs. Lewis Holiman (Patti) of Dallas and Mrs. Elmer Earl Feemster (Connie) of Wellington. There are 6 grandchildren.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Fund Raising Events

The Auxiliary of Collingsworth General Hospital met Tuesday, March 15, in the Heritage room.

Mrs. Lynn Wright, Auxiliary president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Doris Knoll, in giving the treasurer's report, stated that $75 has been received in memorials and the Doppler for the hospital is being purchased. Members were reminded that the Bloodmobile will be here Thursday, March 31.

This time it will be operating with 9 beds instead of the usual 6 and in the ballroom of the community building instead of the club room.

The hours have been changed from 2:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., giving working people more time to donate blood.

It was also explained that due to bad weather, the bloodmobile had to come here in January instead of December of 1982. This is the reason for the closeness of the two collections.

Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson will be in charge of the workers and the retired teachers will be in charge of the cookies.

B&PW Club furnish the pop, juice and cups and Lewis Grocery donates the ice.

Any other organization or individual volunteers will be welcome. Fund raisers were discussed and suggested by the group. It was decided that the major fund raiser will be the sale of a half beef between the March and April meetings.

The drawing will be at the April 19 meeting.

A possible garage sale will be held some time in June as another fund raiser.

The proceeds of these events will go toward more things the Auxiliary wants to do for Collingsworth General Hospital.

Some of the leading projects are chairs for the hospital administrator's office, window coverings (drapes or blinds) in patient rooms, possible utensils for the kitchen, and nursery equipment.

The slate of officers to start serving in April were presented and elected.

Mrs. Wright was re-elected president; vice president, Ruth Phipps; secretary, Bertha Mae Keller; treasurer, Doris Knoll.

The members were reminded that dues will be collected at this time.

Also to remind townspeople of the Hospital Auxiliary memorial donations, which can be mailed to Mrs. Doris Knoll, Route 3, Shamrock, Texas 79079 or Mrs. Loretta Wright, 1606 Haskell St., Wellington, Texas 79095.

Memorial cards are also available at both funeral homes.

1958 Quail Class Reunion

The Quail Class of 1958 will hold its reunion in the American Legion Building Saturday, April 2 from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

All the class members have been contacted except Billie Duckworth. Anyone knowing his address should contact Mrs. C.D. Messer or Gano Wilson who are taking care of local arrangements.

Troy Harrison of Amarillo is in charge of over-all arrangements.

There were 16 graduates, two girls and 14 boys.

Mrs. Messer said that anyone who was ever a member of this class--and there have been a large number through the years--is invited to come. We do not know where most of these are living, but we do want them to know they are welcome," she said.

Class members and present addresses are: Ronald Cummings, McLean; James Colson, Lubbock; Dee Blasingame, Ingleside; Loyd Ray Langford, Lubbock; Evon Gollighugh, Amarillo; Donald McGill, Rockford, Ill.; Marvin Newman, Mesquite; Jerry DeBord, Brady; Dale Ratliff, Enid, Okla.; Joel Young, Amarillo; Troy Harrison, Amarillo; Raymond Minatrea, Houston; Carolyn Wright Moseley, Wellington; Edith Messer Hill, Pampa; and Marion Tidwell, deceased and Gano Wilson, Wellington.

Spring Turkey Hunt Slated

Collingsworth is one of the 119 counties in Texas in which a spring turkey season will be held.

The season will open Saturday, April 16, and close Sunday, May 1. The season limit is one gobbler per hunter statewide.

Excellent wild turkey populations across the state are raising expectations for a good spring turkey hunting season in April.

Don Wilson, upland game program leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, said hunters harvested an estimated 54,600 turkeys during the fall hunting seasons, the highest total ever reported.

"This occurred because of the abundance of turkeys, and we expect the good success rates to carry over into the spring season as well," Wilson said.

Wilson said the current high populations of turkeys is somewhat unusual, since hen-poult counts completed last summer indicated low production. "It appears that the percentage of hens producing poults was fairly low in most areas," Wilson said, "but the difference is that there were so many mature hens available for production."

The spring gobbler hunting season is held after most breeding activity has occurred, Wilson said.

"Since there always are more gobblers available than are actually needed for breeding, a portion of the surplus gobblers can be taken without harming the populations," he explained.

"Spring turkey hunting is an entirely different situation from fall hunting," Wilson continued. "Most turkeys harvested during the fall are taken incidentally to deer hunting, and most from deer stands. In the spring, it's almost essential to be able to use a call to bring the gobblers within range."

And that, Wilson believes, is the challenge which has made spring turkey hunting one of the fastest-growing hunting activities in Texas.

Apple pie is the most popular dessert in American restaurants.

SEMINAR OFFERS FAMILY HELP FOR FUTURE

Tips on housing, financial planning and family relations will highlight the annual Family Living Seminar of the Panhandle Economic Program to be held in Amarillo Tuesday, March 29.

The evening workshop this year will look at "Your Future: A Sleeper, A Creeper or a Leaper." It will address concerns of special interest to families in the Texas Panhandle and offer ideas which can help make difficult decisions a little easier.

The Seminar will be held at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Blvd., West, in Amarillo. It will begin at 7 p.m. with a welcome by Mrs. G.C. Davis of Pampa, chairman of the PEP Family Living and Youth task force. It will conclude at 9:30 p.m.

A look at financial futures by Dr. Jim Owens, a professor of finance at West Texas State University, will open the seminar. He will focus on futuristic thinking and new trends in banking.

Trends in housing and new family structures will be examined by Greg Glenn, broker and owner of Ada Realtors. Carolyn Allison with Financial Management, Inc., will discuss financial planning. She will cover such topics as income fluctuations, joblessness, child care options, financial counseling and planning for medical costs.

Ways to get more work from your dollars will be explained by Dayle Tipton, vice president of Amarillo National Bank. He will discuss individual retirement accounts (IRAs), Social Security, tax management and other options.

The part your attitude plays in your future will be examined by Dick Merceer, minister of Central Church of Christ in Amarillo. He will look at family strengths, time stresses, skills in coping and support systems.

The program will conclude with a period in which the audience can address questions to the speakers.

PEP is a regional organization sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to promote economic growth and development and improved family living in the Panhandle.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

SAFETY PROBLEM IN PREPARING CARAMEL CUSTARD

Preparing caramel custard by placing the can of sweetened condensed milk in a pan of boiling water is dangerous.

This risky cooking method may cause the can to overheat and explode.

Several popular cookbooks recently published by clubs and organizations in Texas contains recipes that recommend heating condensed milk in the can.

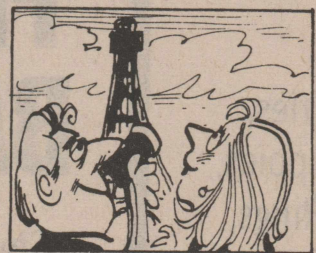

Numerous inquiries and reported problems have prompted Extension Service home economist to warn against the use of this method.

To avoid burns as well as shattered stoves and sticky clothes prepare the caramel custard from condensed milk as follows:

Preheat oven to 425 F. and pour one can of sweetened condensed milk into an 8 inch glass pie plate. Cover with aluminum foil, place in a shallow pan of hot water and bake for one hour until the milk becomes thick and lightly caramel colored. Remove the foil, cool and use as the recipe recommends.

Downes-Van Pelt Vows Repeated in Vernon

Miss Sandala Van Pelt and James Michael Downes were married in Calvary Baptist Church, Vernon, on the afternoon of Saturday, March 5. The Reverend Ron Fox, pastor, was the officiant at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Newell Van Pelt of 2613 Sunset Drive, Vernon. She is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Ava Van Pelt of Wellington and the late Grady Van Pelt, and of Mrs. Clara Boyd of Dodson and the late Fred Boyd.

Wedding tapers in cathedral candelabras lighted the altar area and fonds of jade foliage and potted tiered chrysanthemums completed the setting.

The organist was Jo Huff and Kim Kinsey was the vocalist.

Dr. Van Pelt gave his daughter in marriage.

She wore a white chiffon gown with fitted bodice and long waist. Dainty clusters of seed pearls accented the bodice and long sheer full sleeves with pointed cuffs, which were trimmed with Schiffler and Venice laces. Venice lace also trimmed the full skirt and cathedral-length train as well as her tiered illusion veil which was held by a bandeau cap.

She carried a cascade bouquet of frenched carnations, red roses and gypsophila. The bride's pearl earrings were a gift from her mother. She carried an ivory lace handkerchief more than 120 years old belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Boyd, and a small white Bible which Mrs. Boyd carried at her wedding.

Suzi Van Pelt of Vernon, sister of the bride was the maid of honor and Valerie Van Pelt of Wellington, her cousin, was the bridesmaid.

Their identical burgundy dresses featured fitted bodices and spaghetti straps with a high-neck chiffon overlays. Floor-length skirts were pleated and they wore burgundy picture hats. Both carried nosegays of roses and white pompoms with matching streamers.

MRS. JAMES MICHAEL DOWNES

Kim Kinsey of Vernon was the bridegroom's best man and the bride's brother, Joel Van Pelt of Vernon was groomsman.

Mrs. Van Pelt wore a light mauve crepe floor-length dress with a cummerbund and straight skirt. Mrs. Downes mauve floor-length skirt had a pleated skirt and bodice and jacket of matching lace. Each wore an orchid corsage.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Van Pelt were hosts at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with an heirloom cloth with intricate cutwork design from Peru, which has been handed down in her family. It held a silver candelabra with an arrangement of roses, white stock, pompoms and gypsophila. The tiered Victorian-style wedding cake was accented with clusters of maroon roses, silver leaves, string-work and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a cutwork cloth from Spain belonging to his family. It held the traditional groom's chocolate cake. Coffee was poured from an ornate silver service.

Guests were served by girls from Northside School, where the bride teaches and included Janine Burnett, Debbie Brooks, Kim Eversole, Tammy Thomas, Angie Chavez, Dawn Fortner, Tammy Luedtke and Sundena Williams.

Cody Downes, brother of the bridegroom registered the guests.

Afterward, the couple left on their wedding trip to Wichita Falls. They will live in the Fargo Community.

A graduate of Sierra Grande High School in Fort Garland, Colorado, the bride attended Vernon Regional Junior College and is a 1982 graduate of West Texas State University with a bachelor of business education degree. She teaches in Northside school.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Vernon High School, attends Vernon Regional Junior College and will continue his education at Midwestern State University, Wichita Falls, working toward a degree in math education. He is warehouse manager at Gibson's.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Downes, at Raney's Steak House in Vernon on Friday evening, March 4. Tables were decorated with red cloths and centered with brass candelabras surrounded by silk flowers. Crystal vases and silk roses decorated the length of the tables.

Gifts were given by the bride and groom to members of the wedding

Arlington Birthday Parties Honor Mauri Ford

Mauri Hayden Ford, daughter of Dwayne and Millynn Ford of Arlington, celebrated her first birthday with two parties at her home the week of March 14.

A Mickey Mouse theme was carried out with balloons, party hats, banners and streamers.

Two Mickey Mouse cakes were made for the parties, one by the honoree's father, the other by her aunt, Ramona Hightower of Dodson.

Mauri opened her gifts after cake and ice cream were served.

Those attending the party on Monday, March 14 were

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Teal of Irving, her maternal grandparents; Tom Teal, Irving and Carol, Willie and Nicole Mahan of Grand Prairie.

Attending the weekend party were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ford of Wellington, paternal grandparents; Ramona Hightower of Dodson and the honoree and her parents.

Other friends who observed Mauri's birthday were Karen, Lisa and Scott Vosdoganes, Tia and Tawana Peasner, Lacey and Debbie Dyson, Belinda Baldree and Shirlee, Bob and Ryan Scacci.

Good Neighbors Club Hears Program on the Bald Eagle

The Good Neighbor Club met with Mrs. Earl Alexander as hostess Friday, March 18.

Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, president, opened the meeting by reading a poem, "Quicksand."

Mrs. M.L. James gave a prayer, then Mrs. R.H. Ball read the minutes and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Ray Clubb.

Members answered roll call by naming their favorite flowers.

Mrs. Alexander was also in charge of the program telling of the American Bald Eagles, the national symbol, which is now on the endangered list and under federal protection.

She said that two centuries ago, on June 20, 1782, America's Continental Congress adopted the great bird as the national symbol. Its image now appears on the Great Seal of the United States, on dollar bills, uniforms, flag staffs, stamps and many other things.

Mrs. Alexander also conducted a question and answer period on unusual and little known facts.

The next meeting of the club will be in Mrs. Barjenbruch's home April 15.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Charles Cason, Mrs. Barjenbruch, Mrs. James, Mrs. Clubb, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Violet Potter, and Mrs. Frank Fourmentin.

Cut macaroni dunked in assorted food colors make colorful beads. Drain and dry completely. Put beads into paper cups and let children make their own necklaces.

Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Don Judd of Olathe, Kansas are the parents of a son, born March 15. They have named him Austin. The baby's weight was nine pounds and two ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Judd are the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hall of Elk City are the parents of a son born March 12. His name is Eddie LeWayne Jr. and his weight was eight pounds thirteen ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Elliott of Hammon, Oklahoma. Maternal great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and the great great grandmother is Mrs. Nell Poteet all of Wellington.

OTHER EVENTS.
A rice bag party was given at the home of the bride's parents on February 26. Chips, dips and chili were served at lunch.

A bridal shower honoring the bride and groom will be given at the home of Mrs. Helen Prather on Saturday, March 26.

PERSONAL

Visiting Mrs. Lettie Hanna last week were her granddaughter and great granddaughter, Mrs. Perry Hanna and Camille from Mansfield.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tingle Wednesday night and Thursday were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Musser and their grandchildren, Tony Sain and Angela Sain, of Canyon.

Cavin Wyatt, Debra Moore Wed in February Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged by Debra Lynn Moore and Cavin Wyatt of Childress on Thursday, February 24, in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore, 1901 El Paso Street.

The Reverend Harold Wayne Moore, the bride's father, who is pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at Wheeler, performed the ceremony at six o'clock in the evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Moore are the parents of the bride, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wyatt of Tell.

The setting for the wedding was a brass candelabra arch and the unity candle in a brass holder. Tall crystal candlesticks with orchid tapers belonged to the bride's great-great-great-aunt. An arrangement of orchid and deep purple flowers completed the setting.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Dick Moore of Yukon, Oklahoma.

She wore a deep purple crepe dress, designed with a rounded neck, full elbow length sleeves and a slim line skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet in shades of orchid, light and dark purple.

David Moore of Bethany, Oklahoma, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

After the ceremony was performed, a reception honored the couple in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore.

White lace with an orchid underlay covered the bride's table. Crystal and silver appointments were used. A crystal candelabra with orchid tapers, and flowers of the same shade formed the centerpiece.

Wedding cake was served by Miss Aimie Wyatt of Tell, sister of the bridegroom, while Mrs. Dick Moore of Yukon, Oklahoma, sister-in-law of the bride, poured. Presiding at the buffet table were Miss Janet Word of Childress and Miss Dione Moore, sister of the bride.

Miss Connie Wyatt of Tell, sister of the bridegroom, was at the guest register.

MR. AND MRS. CAVIN WYATT

Since returning from their wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the couple is at home south of Childress.

A graduate of Wellington High School, the bride received her bachelor's degree from Bethany Nazarene College and is teaching in Childress Public Schools. The bridegroom graduated from Childress High School and is farming south of Childress.

Ruby Riley Chosen Retired Teacher of the Month for March by RTA

Mrs. Ruby Riley, 1803 Corsicana St., is the March Retired Teacher of the Month having been selected by the Collingsworth County Unit of the National Retired Teacher's Association.

The three-teacher school in the Salt Fork Community, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Johnson, farmed was the beginning of Mrs. Riley's education. There was one school term when she attended the Lillie school while her father operated the Lillie Store. After completing all grades offered at Salt Fork, she came to Wellington and stayed with the R.H. Templeton family and finished her high school work, graduating with the 1930 class.

The following year Mrs. Riley enrolled in West Texas State College, Canyon, and after only one year of college, she was hired as the primary teacher at Salt Fork. The school term was only 7½ months (students were dismissed in the fall to pick cotton) and the salary was $75.00 a month. Since she could live at home, Ruby was able to save enough money to attend West Texas State six weeks in the summer and in the fall and by this method completed some work on her degree.

After teaching four years at Salt Fork, this school was consolidated with other rural schools and became a part of the Quail Rural Consolidated School, which was at that time the largest rural school district in the nation. Mrs. Riley was transferred to Quail where she continued teaching the primary grades for two more years.

A severe case of pneumonia forced her to resign her position at Quail and after recuperating at home for a year, she returned to West Texas and completed her studies and earned her B.A. degree in 1940.

Degree in hand she accepted a teaching position at Hopkins where she taught for four years before joining the Pampa Schools where she spent twenty-seven additional years teaching primary children. It was while she was teaching in Pampa that Mrs. Riley returned to West Texas State College. There she took summer courses and during the school term she enrolled in extension classes and in night classes in Amarillo. Following this course, she obtained the Master of Education degree in 1950.

After having spent thirty-seven years in a classroom teaching the little ones, she took early retirement since her husband had retired and they wanted to have some time to travel. Several years after retirement, there appeared in the Pampa News this quote:

Three Pampans Monday were extolling the greatness of a Pampa elementary school teacher.

"She took extra time to teach my son to read well," one said. "She cared about her students." The first day the boy read a whole paragraph in class without stumbling, the class applauded and the teacher called the lad's parents. She was tearful with happiness about the little boy, his mother reported. The others agreed that the teacher was a special brand.

"That kind of teacher deserves three times what she is making," another Pampa mother said.

The teacher has now retired. She is Ruby Riley.

Mrs. Riley recalls that she was privileged to teach her brother, R.B.; a nephew, Burlin Wilson; and a niece, Margie Wilson Barnhart.

Basketball was a favorite sport and she was a guard on the basketball teams all through high school. While teaching at Salt Fork, she coached track, both boys and girls basketball and girls volleyball. During World War II, Mrs. Riley worked in the summers for Dr. E.W. Jones and Dr. Charlie Jones. She also worked two summers for Dr. Calvin Jones and Dr. R.M. Bellamy in Pampa. This was a learning experience for her since she considered the doctors great teachers.

Ruby was married to L.S. Riley, January 19, 1951. Mr. Riley had one son, Richard, who is blind. She considers it a great privilege to have helped educate Richard, who received a B.A. degree from North Texas in Denton and a Masters degree in Psychology from Texas Tech, Lubbock. He works for the State Commission for the blind in Harlingen and has been a counselor for the state twenty-one years.

Mrs. Riley finds inspiration in a Chinese Proverb: "If you are planning for a lifetime, educate a person."

As an educator her dream was to inspire her students to work hard, set goals for themselves and be an asset to their community. She has seen many of these students reach those goals and has received great joy and satisfaction to have been a part of their lives.

VFW-Auxiliary Celebrates "Wearing O' the Green"

"Wearing o' the green" became a reality as members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post and its Auxiliary gathered Tuesday, March 15 for their social meeting that celebrated St. Patrick's Day.

Most were wearing green clothing, but others who came unprepared compensated by placing several "greenbacks" in shirt pockets.

Room decorations followed a St. Patrick's theme and arrangements of shamrocks and jonquils were on the tables.

Irish stew and corn bread were served.

Members voted that A.J. Fires, wearing green pants, shirt and coat, was the best Irishman, Louise Henard, with a fuzzy green wig, took honors for the women.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Sam McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. John Rainey.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sikes, Mrs. Treva Stallings, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jeffrey, Mrs. Hubert Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Doulen of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Fires, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Swift, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Henard, Jr., M.W. Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wooldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanford and their granddaughter, Meredith Marks of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Adams.

In 1947 Al Moen designed a faucet that could mix hot and cold water with one handle control.

Mrs. Edna Benton, 411 El Paso Street, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Tresa Karal, to Ronald Gene Alston of Quail.

The bride is also the daughter of the late Clyde Thomas Benton.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jessie Alston of Quail and Wes Alston of San Antonio. The couple will be married on Wednesday, May 18, in Fundamental Baptist Church.

Miss Benton will graduate from Wellington High School on Friday, May 20.

Her fiancé graduated from Hedley High School in 1980.

Dodson Club Has Meeting

Dodson Civic Club members met at Nellie's Dining Room Thursday night, March 10, when Mrs. Murray Dodson and Mrs. Louis Patterson were hostesses.

Mrs. Clarence Black presented the program on plants and their care.

Mrs. Fred Boyd presided and Mrs. Thurman Crownover led the pledge of Allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

Mrs. Clarence Black then read the "American's Creed," Mrs. Dodson gave the secretary's report and members voted to send a box of items to VAVS in Amarillo.

Mrs. B.B. Martin was elected to attend the Top of Texas District annual meeting at Dalhart March 25 and 26.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. J.C. Howell, Mrs. Clyde Alexander, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. T.E. Lennon, Mrs. Garland Hightower, Mrs. Crownover, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Dodson.

Garden Club Members Attend District Meeting

District 1, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., held their spring convention, hosted by Hereford Garden Club and Bud and Blossom Garden Club at Hereford Community Center March 14-15.

District 1 covers the High Plains (Northern Zone); the South Plains (Central Zone) and the Permian Basin (Southern Zone). The Northern Zone has 18 clubs; the Central Zone, 19 clubs; and the Southern Zone has 34 clubs, for a total of 61 garden clubs in the District 1 boundaries.

Mrs. H.L. Jenkins, Mrs. Russell Hill and Mrs. Joe Terry attended from the Wellington Garden Club. Awards received by the Wellington Garden Club were: President's Report; Wellington Garden Club, host for Northern Zone meeting; Mrs. Jenkins' program on "Wildflowers of Collingsworth County";

Mrs. Woodrow Wood, program on "Mrs. Stout's Garden"; Mrs. Janice Duncan, program on "Mrs. Stout's Garden" and Mrs. Jean Burchett for delightful review of her book "Daze of Our Lives".

The District Judge's flower show was Monday, March 14 followed by a western buffet at the community center honoring Mrs. Robert McCoy of Goldwithe, the State President of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc; Mrs. Charles Ice, Jr. of Odessa, District 1 Director; Mrs. John Jacobsen, Jr. of Hereford, incoming District 1 Director.

A tour of The National Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center was made by the convention. This center praises the strength, spirit, stamina, and courage of the Western Woman.

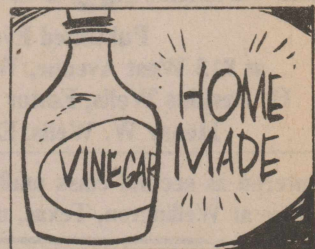

The four main purposes of the center are to honor women who have distinguished themselves; to honor women who represent the pioneering spirit of dedication and sacrifice that helped develop the American western way of life; to maintain and acquire a collection of art that expresses the excitement and importance of the events that make up the American story of the West; and to collect a library of Western Americana.

A country breakfast was served on Tuesday, March 15 with Northern Zone Chairman, Mrs. Elsie Laceyfield presiding. Mrs. O.G. Hill, Sr., Hereford presented the program, "The Quiet Crisis."

Incoming District officers and Zone Chairman were honored at the luncheon Tuesday. Mrs. Lee Coil installed the officers, Mrs. Bayard Sadler, Tulsa, incoming Northern Zone chairman, introduced the afternoon program. Mrs. Donald R. Wood of Albuquerque, N.M. was presented.

Mrs. Wood has been honored by the New Mexico Garden Clubs, Inc., as "Flower Arranger of the

NOW'S THE TIME TO CALL YOUR AIR CONDITIONING SERVICEMAN

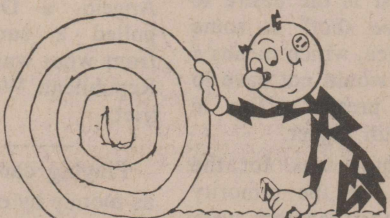

(Get a checkup before the heat's on.)

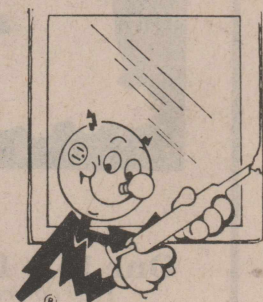

Right now your air conditioning serviceman can easily work your call into his schedule and get your unit ready to deliver dependable cooling through the summer ahead. We know that many people wait until the heat's on to install electric air conditioning or have their units serviced. Later on, your dealer or serviceman may have a waiting list.

PROPER INSULATION... Keeps in the Cool Air You've Paid For Insulation comes in rolls, loose-fill or batts. Insulation is labeled with a R value showing its ability to resist heat. The better its insulating value, the higher the number. R values up to R 30 in the ceiling and R 18 in the walls are recommended for this area.

Check Caulking and Weatherstripping!

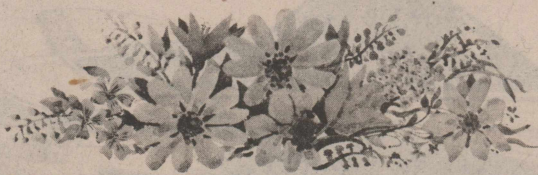

Check all windows and doors, install weatherstripping and caulking where needed. It will save on both heating and cooling costs. An almost invisible ¼" gap at the base of a standard 36" outside door is equal to a nine-square-inch hole in the side of your house. There are a number of easy-to-install felt and foam rubber products on the market to draft-proof doorways.

Teacher Pay Raises

When Governor Mark White was promising teachers pay raises during the campaign last fall, many of us who supported him assumed that he was intending for the state to pay for the raises from the general revenues.

The Governor's education funding proposal, as it now stands, would increase the amount of money that the state pays to teachers. But it also would force the local school districts to come up with a large increase in teacher pay from local revenues.

Hard-pressed districts such as Wellington ISD have raised taxes in the past few years to pay for building maintenance, utilities, equipment and extra-curricular activities. The school board is faced with the prospect of raising taxes this year just to maintain the status quo.

If the Governor's proposal is passed by the Legislature, then local taxes will have to go up even more in order to comply with the state salary schedules.

Teachers need a pay raise. But the State of Texas should provide it from a taxing source other than local property taxes.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Within the length of a few minutes last week, the fates and ambitions of several Texas senators were made or unmade when the lawmakers drew lots for staggered election terms.

The Constitution requires that following each redistricting, senators will draw lots and 15 members will run in two years and 16 will run in four years.

In its own small way, the draw determines for many who will move up in the political world and who will not, depending upon the advantage gained or lost. Some senators, like Craig Washington of Houston, preferred to run in '84, a presidential election year, but most wanted to wait until '86, the next gubernatorial election year.

Foremost is the desire to get a "free shot" at some higher office, which means a lawmaker would not have to leave his present office in order to run higher.

Washington was, for the most part, in the minority because most senators were happy just to get two extra years of breathing time before hitting the campaign trail again. He was planning on trading to obtain a two-year term, which would free him up for a shot at a judgeship, but the Parliamentarian ruled trading was not allowed by the Constitution.

By the time the alphabetical draw reached his name, all the two-year terms had already been taken, to his political dismay.

All For Naught

Senators who probably won a reprieve by the draw included Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio, who drew four years and postponed the challenging plans of former San Antonio Rep. Tommy Adkisson; John Traeger of Seguin, whose district is being redrawn to enhance the chances of an Hispanic candidate; and Bill Sims of San Angelo, a Democrat who pulled a surprise victory from what was considered a Republican West Texas district.

Playing cards were used as money by early Canadian colonists. The back of each card was signed by the French colonial governor.

Our Sincere Thanks

To each of you who in so many ways gave us comfort at the death of our loved one, Ben F. Farmer, we are deeply grateful.

To each of you who gave memorials, sent food, flowers and cards, who offered prayers in our behalf, were so faithful in your visits, who sat with us or offered to sit with us at the last, we are appreciative.

Our special thanks go to Rev. Hankins and to Guy and Juanita Owens who were so helpful at the last.

May God bless each of you.

Easter Season Service Plans Completed

Plans are complete for the annual Easter season community service to be held on Palm Sunday at 7 p.m. in First United Methodist Church. The ministerial alliance is the sponsor.

The preacher for the service will be the Rev. Stanley Hughes, pastor of First Baptist Church.

A free will offering will be taken and the funds will be used by the Ministerial Alliance to provide gasoline, food or other transportation necessities to needy transients.

The Rev. Don Bland, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, is the alliance president; Joe Mack, minister of 1st Christian Church is secretary-treasurer.

Two weeks ago the Houston and Galveston Chambers of Commerce and the business and civic leaders of that area hosted a weekend trip for the Legislators and their wives. Lois and I were among those attending. Hundreds of millions of our tax dollars are collected in this vast metropolitan area. Likewise, millions of our tax dollars are spent there as well. One of the highlights was our visit to Baylor Medical Research Center. This is funded by millions of dollars from private foundations and other sources, but the State of Texas appropriates from $40 to $50 million annually for research. It has no legal ties to the Baylor University of Waco. One group of legislators got to see a team of doctors do an open-heart surgery while it was in progress. The world famous Dr. DeBakey was there and explained the minute details of the operation. Another group went to a different area where they explained that we are on the threshold of new discoveries in other fields of medicine.

In Galveston, we inspected a newly-completed hospital to house patients of the Texas Department of Correction. About $45 million of tax money is being spent on this hospital. Other events included an inspection of the Police Academy in Houston.

We also saw a very boring rodeo at the Astrodome where you were so far away from the action you need a powerful set of binoculars to see what was happening.

All Samnorwood Faculty Rehired

Samnorwood School Board offered contracts to all members of the faculty during their meeting Monday, March 14.

The contract of Supt. Garland Cavitt was extended to three years at an earlier meeting.

Those receiving contracts for the 1983-84 term were Kenneth Martindale, principal; high school: Mike Smith, coach and history; Ralph Decker, coach and business; Jimmy Brown, vocational agriculture; Judy Barber, vocational home economics; Jane Sheer, high school English; Zeldon Jenkins, high school science; and Paul Schaub, high school mathematics, also Peggy Hendrix, 5th and 6th grades; Jean Cavitt, reading in grades three through 8; Bonita Myers, grades three and four; Jane Thomas, first and second grades; Delta Henard, kindergarten and first grade; and Juanita Hernandez, special education.

The trustees also heard a report from Supt. Cavitt on the official school accreditation

The Houston delegation did an excellent job of presenting their problems.

This Legislative session has been most depressing to many of the legislators. Every Day you will have as many as 15-20 groups asking for increases in state budgets in millions of dollars. Each have a host of good reasons why their request is justified. We will soon start our mark-up sessions on the Appropriations Committee where we make decisions on the exact dollars that are designated to these agencies.

Now, let me suggest that the Chambers of Commerce of Lubbock, Amarillo and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce immediately start planning a similar trip to West Texas so legislators from the Eastern part of the state will have a better understanding of our problems. We might even get their ear on the West Texas water problem. We could cap it off by taking them to the musical drama "Texas" so they would know West Texans have an appreciation for the arts even though most of them are opposed to using state tax dollars for entertainment events in the form of grants to those on the top end of the social and economic ladder. Please let me have your response on this idea. Use my WATT NUMBER which terminates in Pampa: 1-800-692-1389. THOSE PERSONS RESIDING IN PAMPA, PLEASE USE OUR REGULAR NUMBER: 665-3552.

tion visit that day by Claude Harcrow of the Texas Education Agency, Austin.

"We do not have the official report, but from the short report made to us, all seems to be doing well," said Cavitt.

The superintendent announced that two young men, Dwayne Myers and Russell Schaub have been hired to finish the tennis courts.

Compton Goes To Assembly of God at Mexia

The Rev. R.A. Compton has resigned as pastor of the Assembly of God and preached his farewell sermon to the congregation Sunday, March 20.

He has accepted the pastorate of Bethel Assembly of God at Mexia, and he, Mrs. Compton and their son Ronny Compton have moved there.

During the final service, 9 new members, all adults, were received into the church.

On Sunday night, the Rev. Neil Unwin, presbyter for the Plains Section of the Assemblies of God, was the guest preacher at the Wellington church.

An out of town speaker is due to preach on Sunday at the Sunday morning service, March 27, and the congregation will join with those from other churches for the Community Easter Service that evening.

Southland Story To WHS Library

A copy of "Oh Thank Heaven! The Story of the Southland Corporation" has been donated to the Certified Texas Heritage Resource Center in the Wellington High School Library by John Thompson, Chairman and CEO of the Southland Corporation.

The history of 7-11 from 1927 to 1977 chronicles the story of the first convenience store chain in the state, a true Texas business success story. The Southland Corporation now has stores worldwide.

"Oh Thank Heaven!" tells of the business pioneers behind a successful firm and provides a positive example of individual enterprise. Books about Free Enterprisers are important in providing supplementary information for Texas History and Free Enterprise classes in schools, and to help promote understanding of Texas' prosperous business heritage.

Texas Heritage Resource Centers are set up to insure that every Texan has a place to learn about or renew faith in The Texas Story and are an activity of the Texas Heritage Project of the Texas Historical Foundation.

WHS Tennis Teams Wins at Quanah

Wellington High School tennis team won its second tournament trophy at Quanah Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19.

Although WHS failed to produce more than one first place, the boys doubles team of Jamie McKay and Wade Williams seeded No. 2. Those teams that went to the quarter finals and semi-finals gave enough points to assure Wellington of the tournament victory.

"We didn't get as many people in the finals as I hoped we would but they all played pretty good. I was real impressed with the way Jamie and Wade played," said coach Ronny Williams.

In the boys singles, Scott Cochran opened the tournament by defeating Ingram of Quanah 6-1, 6-1, but in the quarter finals he lost to Gilhausen of Haskell, again 6-1, 6-1.

Lynn Bartlett beat Jalomo of Quanah, 6-0, 6-0 in the first round, then lost in the semi finals to Ward of Electra 3-6, 6-4, 3-6.

The doubles team of Scott Shepard and Todd Roberson lost their first round to Griffin and Clark of Paducah 6-3, 4-7, 4-6.

McKay and Williams, defeated Davis and Dowell of Electra 6-1, 6-0, in the first round, then won over Hise and Margin of Haskell 9-6, 6-2, 6-1. In the finals, they won over Pap and Foster of Quanah 6-2, 6-4.

Lisa Powell was WHS representative to play in the girls singles, defeating Chambers of Quanah 6-4, 6-0 in the first round. She went on to win over Burk of Seymour 6-2, 6-0, 6-3, before losing to Wheeler of Electra 6-3, 7-6, in the semi finals.

The Wellington girls double team of Belinda Crelia and Lori Lacy lost their first round to Mejia and Chamberlin of Memphis 6-2, 6-3.

The second WHS girls doubles team of Vanda Wood and Cathy Crelia won over Fenoglio and Martinez

Reunion of '60s Slated at Dodson

A Reunion of the 60s, including all who graduated from Dodson High School from 1960 through 1969 will meet for a joint class reunion Saturday, April 2. This is in conjunction with the annual Dodson Ex-Students Reunion, which will be held in the evening.

Those attending the Reunion of the 60s will begin gathering at 2 p.m. in the American Legion building on Dodson's main street for an afternoon of visiting.

"Come and bring your family and friends," invited Edith Lemons Brown, one of those planning the get-together.

Anyone who was ever a member of these classes, is invited. Spouses, children, class parents, sponsors, other teachers and administrators are included also.

The gathering will be informal.

Mrs. Brown, who lives at Samnorwood, said that contact has been lost with many of the students of this decade, and those who graduated with these classes, or those who ever were in school with them, are to consider the announcement as an invitation to attend.

Refreshments will be served.

'73 Quail Class Plans Reunion

The Quail graduation class of 1973 will hold its 10-year reunion Saturday, April 2, at the home of Sandra Sullivan Motesbocker, 1310 Ft. Worth Street.

This will be a covered dish luncheon with those attending asked to bring a dish.

Serving will begin about noon, and those attending can visit as long as they wish, up to the time of the Quail Ex-Student banquet to be held Saturday evening.

Sherri Canada Barton and her husband, Jerry Barton have invited the 1973 class,

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT

by DON REEVES

FARMERS SHOULD BEWARE OF SOIL INSECTS

Farmers in Collingsworth County have been battling increasing numbers of soil insect pests in recent years due to the loss of some effective seed protectants and a general increase in pest populations.

Soil insects generally attack plants at, or slightly below, the soil surface. They feed on germinating seed, tender shoots and on roots of developing plants. Some tunnel into the crown of young plants. Heavy infestations can reduce stands and make replanting necessary.

Common soil insects include several species of cutworms, such as the variegated cutworm, black cutworm and climbing cutworms; wireworms and false wireworms; soil maggots; root worms; and white grubs.

Wireworms and false wireworms often cause severe problems for grain sorghum and corn producers.

Soil maggots, including the seedcorn maggot and onion maggot, often cause seedling losses, especially in cool, wet soils.

Corn rootworms are severe pests of corn and grain sorghum. They reduce stands on thousands of acres each year and are probably the most serious soil pests in Texas.

White grubs attack corn, sorghum, small grains, vegetables and other crops. One white grub per foot of row will cause a stand loss in grain sorghum.

If damaging soil pest populations are detected, apply an approved pesticide according to label directions.

Treated seed are effective against light infestations of wireworms and corn rootworms while broadcast or row-band applications are required for heavy infestations. Broadcast applications are usually necessary to obtain effective control of white grubs.

A list of approved insecticides to control soil insects in field crops is available at the County Extension Office.

Tiny Tot Revue Slated on March 29

Tiny boys and girls will show their Easter finery in the high school auditorium Tuesday, March 29, as the 1954 Study Club holds its annual Tiny Tot Revue.

A baby animal will share the stage with the children, said Mrs. A.J. Fires, Tiny Tot coordinator.

Enrollment will be at 4 p.m. Monday, March 28 in the high school foyer. A child must be enrolled to participate. Parents should not bring the children before 4 p.m., as their arrival earlier will interfere with high school, it was stressed.

There is a registration fee of $1 for the first child entered from each family, and a fee of 50 cents for each additional child of the family.

A youngster does not have to live in the county to participate.

There will be 6 divisions: the Angels who are babies under one year; one year olds, two years, three years, four years and the combined 5-6 year olds.

Bill Hatch will return as master of ceremonies and give each child a small gift. The winning boy and girl of each age group will receive a toy. Out of town judges will pick the winners.

The admission price will be $2 for adults and children over 12 years, and $1 for children under 12 years.

This is the only fund-raising event of the club year, Mrs. Fires pointed out. Proceeds go to a number of club projects including Collingsworth County Historical Museum, Collingsworth Hospital Auxiliary, elementary school reading program, Boys Ranch, Girls Town, and the M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute research.

Anderson Studio of Childress will make pictures of only those children participating in the revue. This will be in the junior high building before and during the Tiny Tot Revue, and mothers will receive brochures and packet prices during the enrollment Monday.

This is not part of the revue, but is made available as a courtesy, said Mrs. Fires. It is a private transaction between the parents and the photographer.

Anyone wanting more information can call Mrs. Fires at 447-5474.

County Spelling Bee To Be Held March 28

The 1983 Collingsworth County Spelling Bee will be held Monday, March 28, at 9 a.m. in the county court room.

Spellers from Wellington and Samnorwood schools will compete in both the senior and junior divisions.

This spelling bee is part of a nation-wide event and is sponsored in Collingsworth County by the Retired Teachers Association. Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson is chairman.

The regional spelling bee is sponsored by the Amarillo Globe News Publishing Co. and West Texas State University.

Winner of the senior division will represent the county at the regional bee at Amarillo in late April. Winner of the junior bee will be invited to attend as a guest. Both will be present at the annual luncheon.

County winners will be awarded plaques and other prizes. Winner of the regional event will receive an expense paid trip to compete in the national spelling bee in Washington, D.C.

A pronouncer and the judges will be selected from the membership of the Retired Teachers.

Collingsworth County has had one national participant, Alta Jackson Wheeler, now an electrical engineer in Massachusetts.

By midnight, 4 out of 5 Americans are asleep.

USAA Honor to Sandy Henard

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Sandy Henard has been named a 1983 United States National Award winner in both English and in history and government.

This award is a prestigious honor only a few students can ever hope to attain, as the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Sandy attends Samnorwood High School and was nominated for this national award by Jane Sheer, her English teacher, and Mike Smith, history instructor.

Sandy will appear in the United States Achievement

Academy official yearbook, published nationally.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Henard. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patrick of Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Rogers of Wheeler.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the standards of selection set forth by the academy.

The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Slave Sale By Norwood FFA-FHA Thurs.

Future Farmers and Future Homemakers at Samnorwood will hold a slave sale Tuesday, March 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The slaves will work on Wednesday, March 30. Arrangements will need to be made on rides to and from their destination of work.

The public is urged to attend and participate in this fund-raising event.

Jana Pruitt Is House Sergeant

Nine-year-old Jana Pruitt was selected by State Representative Foster Whaley to serve as a sergeant on the floor of the Texas House of Representatives Tuesday, March 15.

She, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Pruitt, and her brothers, John David and Tyler, were in Austin and had visited Rep. Whaley in his office.

Jana was seated on the house floor, just outside the rail. Her duties to accept and deliver messages from and to House members.

At one point, a deliveryman arrived with loaves of bread which had been sent to House members and Jana assisted in distributing these.

Jana met House speaker Gib Wright and had her picture taken with him.

Mrs. Pruitt remained for discussion and debate of some of the bills before the House. A teacher, Mrs.

Pruitt was concerned with the bill relating to school curriculum, and another on career education. Funding of the latter would have come out of foundation money that is held by the Texas Education Agency for teacher pay raises. This bill failed to pass.

Pruitt was in Austin attending to business relating to Greenbelt Electric Co-operative, Inc.

Shanks Attend Florist Seminar

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shanks of Wellington Florist attended Spring Design Time in Lubbock Sunday, March 20.

Designers for the show were Pat Rosser of Canton, Ohio and Tommy Camp of Abilene. The commentator was Donald Hoppe of Carrollton.
