Battle of the Greens

Tommy Knight, San Angelo golfer who is an Odessa College student, at left, took the Colorado City Country Club 15th Annual Golf Tournament championship here Sunday when he defeated Bill Craig 1-up in the final match. Craig is holder of three championships won at the local club. He defeated Bobby Lockett, 1962 champion, in Sunday morning semi-finals to get within putting distance of this year's victory.

Knight Is Champ Craig Goes Down

Local favorite Bill Craig went down to Tommy Knight, of San Angelo and Odessa College, Sunday in the final round of the 15th Annual Colorado City Country Club golf tournament.

Craig, Colorado City golf ace and holder of three previous championship trophies from the club here, defeated defending champ Bobby Lockett of San Angelo 2 and 1 earlier in the day at the Sunday morning semi-finals.

Knight, medalist of the tourney with his qualifying score is a 19-year-old Odessa College sophomore. The young golfer rallied to take the match after losing the first 12 holes Sunday afternoon.

Knight won 3 of the last 6 holes but cinched his victory, 1 up, only on the 18th when Craig missed a four foot putt. The match drew a gallery of fans all the way.

Knight, member of Odessa's National Junior College championship golf team, came in with a one under par 34 for the back nine. Craig, who drew 34 for the first nine slid down to 37, two over par, for the home stretch.

Knight defeated Tommy Wilkerson, Big Spring golfer, 2 and 1 in the Sunday morning semi-finals to gain the final — and championship — game with Craig.

Craig's putting on the last six was his downfall when it came to the climax. Putting began to bug him when he three-putted no. 13 from a distance of 40 feet. Knight took the hole with a par four.

A birdie for Knight on No. 15 evened the match. Craig, putting for a birdie on No. 15, missed his six foot putt by overshooting the distance by a foot.

On No. 17 both players wound up with par scores after Craig missed a four-foot putt for a No. 17 birdie and Knight did a brilliant chip to the green to halve the hole.

Both hit iron tee shots to right of the green on par 3 18th hole. Both chipped to within three feet of the pin, with Craig out by a little.

Craig again missed his putt, this time putting on the down hill. Knight safely putted, then, for his last minute win, 1 up.

It was an anti-climax for Craig, veteran star of the local course. Craig had burned up the front nine with birdie putts of 7 to 10 feet to stand 2-up after the first nine.

Jim Newsom of Big Spring took the first flight final over his rival Gene Knight of Snyder, 1-up. Newsom beat Gra-

Cookin' Corner Features Recipes For Chilled Pies

Pies — chilly and perfect for summer eating — are on the agenda for this week's Cookin' Corner.

Two recipes are for tangy fruit pies and the third, for variety, is a smooth custard pie that is delicious but not overly-rich. Don't let the crust for the cherry pie upset you — the recipe is correct and you'll find it turns out surprisingly good.

* * *

Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, 841 Cherry, says that this is one of her best pie recipes. She regularly enters them in the annual Garden Club Tasting Tea.

Blueberry Cream Cheese Pie

Combine, cook until thick and cool:

1 can blueberries
¼ c. sugar
2 Tbs. flour
1 Tbs. lemon juice
¼ tsp. cinnamon

Whip ½ pint whipping cream stiff but not too dry. Blend one 3 oz. package cream cheese, ½ c. sifted powdered sugar, and one tsp. vanilla together until creamy. Blend mixture with whipped cream pour into 9" graham cracker pie shell. When blueberries are cooled, spoon on top of cream mixture. Chill at least two hours.

* * *

This recipe, which came from Mrs. Roy Porter, 140 E. 9, is also a product of the Tasting Tea.

Chilled Cherry Pie

Crust:

3 egg whites, beaten stiffly
1 c. sugar
12 crushed saltine crackers
1 tsp. vinegar
1 tsp. vanilla
½ c. chopped pecans
1 tsp. baking powder

Fold in sugar in egg whites add remaining ingredients. Bake 20 minutes in a 9"x9" pan at 325 degrees. Cool.

Filling:

Cream together one 3 oz. package creamed cheese, ½ c. sifted powdered sugar, and one tsp. vanilla. Add one cup whipped cream (not whipped too stiffly) and pour whole mixture onto crust. Top with one can cherry pie filling. Chill in refrigeration for 5 hours.

* * *

"This is my specialty," said Mrs. Will Berry, Fairview Community, of her egg-nog pie. "But the name is misleading," she said. The recipe calls for no "spirits."

"Egg-nog" Pie

1 c. milk
½ c. sugar
1 tsp. Knox's gelatin
1 tsp. water
1 tsp. vanilla
1 c. whipping cream
3 egg yolks
2 tsp. flower
2 tsp. butter
¼ tsp. salt

Soak gelatin in teaspoon of water. Scald milk. Combine sugar, flour, and salt and add to milk on stove, stirring constantly. Cook until mixture thickens somewhat, then add beaten egg yolks. (Mrs. Berry noted that when she added a little milk to the yolks first, the custard lost its tendency to curdle as it cooked). Stirring continually, cook several minutes longer, until thick and smooth. Add the gelatin and water (it is probably coagulated by now but will quickly melt) and butter. Set custard aside to cool. When cooled, whip the cream and fold into custard. Add vanilla, pour into baked pie shell. Sprinkle with nutmeg and chill in refrigerator.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of the Colorado City Record, and to All Donors of the "Mothers Fund:"

"Others, Lord, yes others, let this my motto be," is a beautiful song and long a favorite of mine.

The past two weeks Colorado City citizens have lived those words. Many times when we think our little town has "gone to the dogs" and there is no hope for any of us — we go to see those who are less fortunate than we are, come home more content, more determined to help others.

Never, when an emergency call has gone out by the Colorado City Record (or via radio) have we been disappointed. Always comes the utmost in cooperation. The "Mother's Fund" testifies to our little town's concern for others.

Thanks for everything small or large. May each of us keep on remembering there are "others" who sometimes need us.

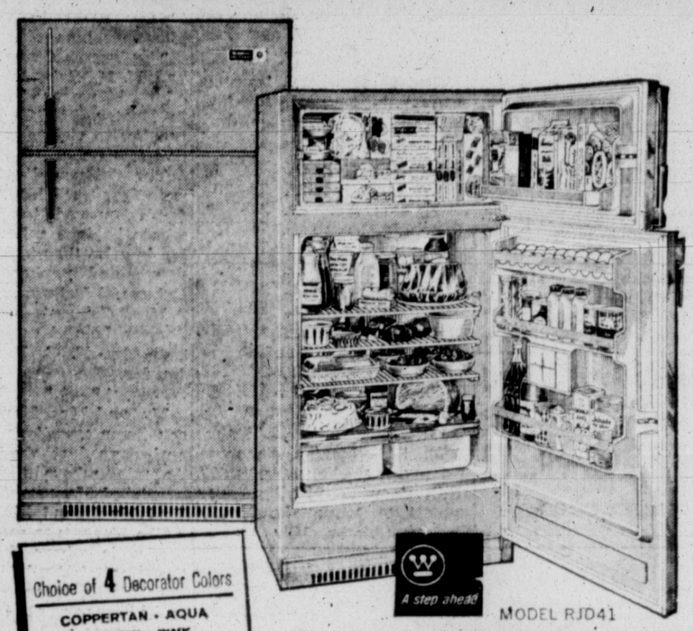

If anybody would like to visit the little mother and her brood, the name and address is now available upon request.

Thank you, again.

Sincerely yours,
(NAME WITHHELD ON REQUEST

There is a difference in buttermilk

...a difference you can taste!

People who know how buttermilk should taste drink Borden's. Its fresh-churned country flavor makes the difference.

Borden's Buttermilk is smooth, cooling and just tart enough. Each fresh-tasting sip is as bracing as a polar breeze. Borden's Buttermilk helps renew your pep and energy, yet it's low in heat producing calories. Cool off often with the fresh-churned country flavor of Borden's Buttermilk. Have a glass at bedtime and sleep better.

CONVERSATION CORNER

LOVERS of words written or spoken are usually lovers of mental images, too.

Word-lovers hoard favorite words, save them for the exactness of expression, use them on special occasions only, like some people hoard money or the family heirloom lace for the wedding veil.

Lovers of words collect them—as a child collects sea shells, not for their usefulness, but for their beauty. For their various sizes and shapes and colorings. For their sound.

• • •

WORD-lovers all have their favorites. They choose them for musical sound—like "amethyst . . . glorious . . . twilight . . . dawning . . . tender . . . majestic . . . devotion . . . tolerance."

They choose other favorite words for meaning and for the mental image those words inspire—like "river . . . sunset . . . violins . . . memory . . . family . . . summer."

• • •

SAY the first word that comes into your mind when you hear or say the word "summer!"

It might surprise you, but your quickest synonym for summer could indicate your state of mind, your approximate age, and whether or not your air-conditioner needs adjusting.

"Summer." What does it say to you? Let's play "Pass Word" with it.

• • •

HERE'S how it works. If you are under twenty, the word summer means swimming. Over twenty, it may mean travel or vacation or company. More than all else summer should mean fun, then.

If, when you hear the word summer you think, without preambie, just "hot, hotter, hottest," then you are nearer Jack Benney's famous age of 39.

• • •

SAY the word "picnic." What comes to mind?

Do you leap with joy and say another word like lake r park or pool r WHEN? If you do, you are most likely under 10 years of age and are visiting your grandma.

If you say flies and ants and ice cubes, you are in all probability fast reaching the age of accounta-because-ability. You'd rather skip it than do it accounta-because you know by now that a good shade is rather to be chosen than great sandwiches.

• • •

PICNICS have changed some, since grandma was a girl, no doubt.

First picnic we remember was a walk-down-to-the creek excursion, complete with deviled him sandwiches, deviled eggs, and digging up of wild fern and verbena plants for Mother's porch boxes.

Then came the even more "devilish" rides to the "tank" and all-day wading with the Junior B. Y. P. U. delegation.

• • •

AFTER that, came the hayrides via flat-bed truck (minus hay) and singing in the moonlight of a tune which went "My Little Margie."

Those were the days, too, of weiner roasts on the old cedar-trimmed hill, and even one unforgettable 'possum hunt.

Picnics, we have decided, must come and go like life cycles.

The younger you are the less trouble they are—to you, anyhow and the more fun they are.

• • •

SINCE the days when we took delight in sitting on the ice cream freezer while somebody else turned the crank, picnics have progressed a lot.

They've now reached the stage when it takes you longer to get ready for one than it used to take your own parents to decide whether your new bathing suit was "proper" enough for what—longer ago than we care to remember—was still referred to in some shocked circles as "mixed bathing."

• • •

Bring back those bonnie, sunny, funny
Days of summer with grapevine swings and a feast
In the shade—Bring back those easing, pleasing, teasing
Days of summer with grownups spreading the food
While you wade.

• • •

CROWN BOWL
Tips

By Cecil Caddel

There are two ways to bowl: They are the pin method and spot method. Whichever system gets you the most strikes is best for you.

When using the pin method, assume a starting stance so that your right shoulder is in line with the path you figure your ball will follow. Keep eyes on the 1-3 pocket and hold them there.

The ball is hurled along a line which leads directly to the pocket. If you throw a consistent ball, it should follow this line each time.

More Study For Feeding Industry

Texas, long known for the production of both feeder cattle and feed grains, may soon begin combining the two into a new industry for the state.

There are many areas of the state that have for some time produced a surplus of feed grain. Texas Agricultural Experiment Station points out that some of these areas are now becoming centers of feeding operations.

The station report, an analysis of production and consumption conditions existing in local areas, should serve as a basis for evaluating feeding potentials in these areas. It explains, however, that a large amount of grain is not the only factor that determines if cattle feeding will be profitable.

Evidence is disclosed that grain is shipped out of some areas during the harvest season and other feed grain shipped back in when feed demands arise. The unnecessary transportation costs thus created add to the expenses of the buyer and the seller of the feed, it says.

In addition to transportation costs and feed quantities, factors that affect profitable feeding operations are the competitive location to meat processing plants and meat markets, and the managers' capabilities.

The station analyzes the state feed grain situation by districts and indicates that some districts are deficit producers of grain while others produce a surplus. The study covered the years 1949, 1954 and 1959.

Summer Is Good Time For Books

Summer is a good time to deal with the problem of students who duck books so successfully that by the time they reach high school they are completely out of reading practice and have difficulty getting the most out of regular school work.

An educator has advised the following procedure for parents:

"Take the child to the public library regularly; drop into a bookstore with him for the fun of browsing, and introduce him to the hundreds of good exciting paperbacks sold in drugstores and supermarkets. The reason many students don't read is simply that they rarely come in touch with interesting books."

The best way to help youngsters make a choice is to guide them towards books that coincide with their main interests—the biography of a baseball hero, the story of a horse, a guide to coin collecting, and so on, the educator continues.

But most important, according to the advise, is to boost the prestige of books within the family. "Nearly half the houses in the country don't have any bookshelves at all. Many parents pressure their children to read but never open a book themselves."

Today's Needs—For Today

A philosopher once remarked, "Life has to be lived forward, but it can only be understood backward."

Yesterday's problems are simple today. We seem to be blessed with 20/20 hindsight. But the philosopher's statement only sums up our problem. It doesn't help much in providing us with the answers to our needs today.

Time doesn't wait until we fully comprehend before it moves on. Often we don't understand the events that happen in the world around us. We have trouble understanding other people — and even greater difficulty in making ourselves understood.

Our information is inadequate, our knowledge is limited, and our experience circumscribed. But even though we understand and are understood only in part, we are forced to get on with the matter of living.

So, we have to live a great deal of our lives on faith. Faith in ourselves, our fellow men and in our God and the things He created. To deepen and sustain that faith, nothing can be more helpful—as the Religion in American Life program reminds us—than regular worship in the church of our choice.

Improvements

More improvements add to the economic welfare of our town.

The newly remodeled and improved Palace Theater has its grand opening tonight with new outdoor front, completely remodeled lobby and snack bar, new refrigerated air-conditioning, carpets and new seating.

And Sunday the Villa Inn Motel and Restaurant will host the public to special open house for its splendid facilities on Interstate 20 bypass in the city's northern area.

The motel—with modern facilities, including swimming pool—on par with the finest in West Texas and the theater are more examples of the kind of progress that builds our town bigger and better for all of us.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

Motorist Must Dig Deeper To Pay Insurance Premium

BY VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

A growing toll of accidents on city streets and freeways, heavier damage claims and an act of the Legislature — all have combined to cause insured motorists in Texas a double-dip premium increase during the next five months.

First boost for most drivers will come on policies renewed after August 1, when new auto insurance rates set by the State Board of Insurance go into effect.

Many others face a second increase in liability insurance premiums after January 1. This is effective date of a new law requiring financial responsibility of $10,000 per person and $20,000 per accident.

Present law requires $5,000-$10,000. So those now carrying minimum insurance will pay an average of $4 more after January 1.

Increasing accident losses, mainly in urban areas, forced the Insurance Board to hike liability and collision rates in most sections of the state.

Average premium boosts after August 1 will be 5.2% for bodily injury, 9.7% for property damage and 8.4% for collision. This will cost policyholders a total of $12,000,000. Drivers in some rural areas, however, escaped the rate increase.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has been asked to come to the aid of hard-pressed physical education departments in the 20 state-supported universities and colleges.

Commission on Higher Education asked Carr for an opinion on the legality of the "rider" in the new appropriation bill, which goes into effect on September 1. Rider declares that state funds for physical education can be used only for mass calisthenics unless the students are majoring in PE. Net effect would be special fees charged by the schools if they wanted to give instruction in games.

Some schools have protested that the rider would seriously curtail physical education programs.

JOBS ASSIGNED—Speaker Byron Tunnell has more than 80 appointments to make on interim study committees. He is making them at the rate of one or two a week.

Reps. George Cook, Odessa; J. Collier Adams, Lubbock; Maurice Doke, Wichita Falls; George Hinson, Mineola; and Ben Jarvis, Tyler, will study the oil and gas industry. Their assignment is no small chore — how to restore prosperity to the Texas oil industry.

Reps. Ben Atwell, Dallas; Dick Cory, Victoria; and David Crews, Conroe, will take up membership on the Committee on State and local Tax Policy. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith has named Senators George Parkhouse, Dallas; W. T. Moore, Bryan; and Jack Strong, Longview. Balance of the committee will be composed of three citizens to be named by Governor Connally.

Reps. W. H. Miller, Houston; Myra Banfield, Raleigh Brown, Abilene; Charles Scoggins, Corpus Christi; and John Traeger, Seguin, will investigate public school testing.

BOOST OUR ECONOMY

Farmer, Rancher Heavy Spenders

Texas farmers and ranchmen are continuing to contribute mightily to the general economic welfare of their locale, state and nation.

They are big spenders on main street, points out John McHaney, extension economist, despite the fact the numbers are decreasing.

Their purchases of production and consumer items continue to increase and are a determining factor in many counties for business conditions.

On an annual basis, Texas farmers and ranchmen spend about $1,848,000,000 in their operations.

Included is 449 million dollars for hired labor and machine hire; 398 million for seed, feed, plants, fertilizer and lime; 310 million for crop expenses and 147 millio livestock bought and live for other expenses including interest and insurance.

Emphasizing the importance of agricultural spending, McHaney points out that three-fourths of all the manufacturing in Texas is confined to about six percent of the counties. Also, that in 208 counties more workers are hired on farms and ranches than in manufacturing and in 215 counties the value of agricultural production exceeds that of manufacturing.

Many businesses in our towns and cities are existing wholly or in part on agribusiness and their employees spend their money for various consumer items which give a multiplying effect on main street.

Farmers and ranchmen, McHaney explains, because of the cost-price squeeze and the need for more ffficient production, have used machines to replace high cost labor whenever possible.

Tractors, trucks, combines, cotton picking machines and strippers, corn pickers, pick-up hay balers, home freezers, teephones, electrical equipmnt of many kinds, milking machines and much other machinery have become standard have kept main street spending on the increase. McHaney says: don't take agriculture for granted for it means too much to the total economy of Texas.

Wes-Tex Talk

A Look At West Texas Through Editorial Page Excerpts From It's Leading Weekly & Semi-Weekly Newspapers

The City of Post needs an airport. Few people will argue the point.

For many years now, a private airport here has served local flyers. That airport is about to be closed because of financing and maintenance problems.

Steps to close the private landing strip, Morrow Field, located on the Ralls highway north of Post, will be taken soon now that Spencer Kuykendall has moved from Post.

City councilmen recognize the municipal airport need but want a better location if the city gets into the business. A committee of three councilmen has been named to check locations.

Suitable land is hard to find at any price. It won't be a quick or easy problem to solve.

The city might do well to continue operation of Morrow Field and put it in better condition through the cooperation of the county with its road equipment — until such time as a true municipal airport becomes reality.

But in the meantime we hate to see Post taken off every flyer's air map.

—POST DISPATCH

Under a San Francisco dateline, the UPI last week reported that the amount of anti-Semitic mail flowing through the nation's post offices is at an all-time high, that the volume of hate mail is growing even though the number of overtly anti-Jewish organizations is low.

And the story cited Amarillo, Texas, as typical.

According to the story, a large volume of hate literature from Amarillo recently was sent to northern California motel operators. The motel owners were told that since American wars were fought by white Christians, all Jewish males should be recruited and forcibly sent to the Middle East to fight the Arabs in event of an Israeli-UAR war.

This hate literature cannot be controlled by postal authorities because there are no laws against group libel.

Quite logically, Amarillo is a mecca for Genera Walker, Billy Hargis, Robert Wech, and their ilk . . . and perhaps the center of Goldwater for President activity.

Isn't is strange that these people who so freely charge the administration with the destruction of freedom, usurping the rights of people, and other high crimes against "freedom", would forcibly recruit one segment of our citizens and shuttle them off to fight a war in much the same manner that Hitler and Stalin perated during World War II?

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Handshake Belies Farmers Index

Editor's note: The Shinnery Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek seems a little miffed this week, but he'll get over it.

* * *

While it never has bothered me, some farmers, I've been reading about are worried over the public image they present to the rest of the country.

As I understand it, some city people think farmers are getting rich because the price of food at the grocery store is so high, and some farmers think they ught to hire a public relations outfit to correct this and tell the true story.

Well, I've never had much trouble along this line myself, don't ever recall having a city man come out here to this Johnson grass farm asking for a loan, not even a newspaper man, but there is one image of the farmer some people have that ought to be corrected.

According to an article I ran across in a newspaper last night, Interior Secretary Udall toured a farm area a while back and reported later he was shocked by the flabby handshakes of farmers.

This is what I'm talking about. Us farmers are still considered by some to be horny-handed sons of toil who're getting soft if we don't shake hands like a grizzly bear, whereas actually of course we're scientists producing food so fast that if the space scientists were up on our level the missile gap between Russia and the U. S. would be reversed.

In fact, if our space scientists were as far advanced ahead of Russia as us agricultural scientists, we'd have already been to the moon twice and raised our debt ceiling four times to pay for it.

How a farmer shakes hands ain't no index to the complicated farm planning going on inside his head. And a farmer sitting on his front porch in deep thought can be as constructive as an Einstein doing the same thing.

This is the image the public ought to have of us farmers — dedicated, underpaid scientists, and I have pioneered in trying to bring it about. I've done my part. I've been sitting on my front porch for years.

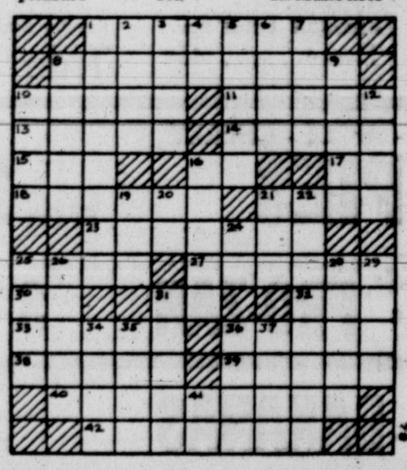

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

TREAT SUN'S RAYS WITH RESPECT

A reader writes: "Each summer, there are 'new and better' sun tan lotions. What kind is best? I've even heard tea is good."

No lotion can cause a fast tan, but the best contain a chemical to screen out most of the sun's burning rays. Read the label. The screening agents may be difficult to pronounce but worth the trouble. Some are: paraminobenzoic acids and its esters, the salicylates, and digalloyl trioleate compound.

I'd advise you to forget about tea, homemade potions, baby oil, or combinations of oil and vinegar — unless you want to smell like a baby or a salad. If you don't, you may get a bad burn.

I'm interested in this subject of "rays" because as a radiologist I use certain kinds of rays to detect, and record on film, physical abnormalities. Physicians who specialize in the medical use of x-rays also use other rays — for instance, from radium and other active substances — in the treatment of disease. There are mostly "gamma" rays. Extreme care is always taken.

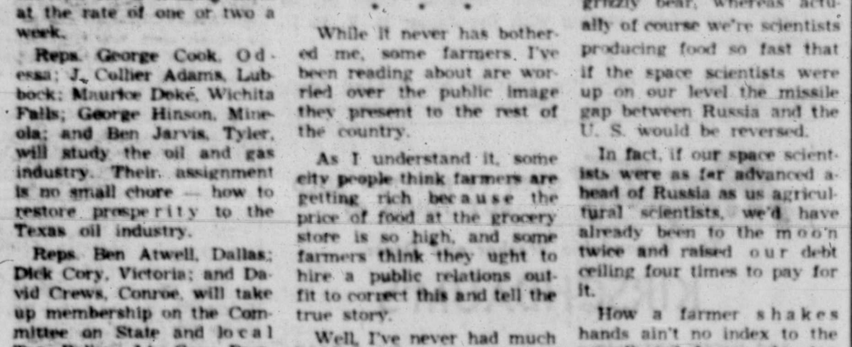

However, the kind of rays that give you trouble during those first few exuberant days of vacation are the sun's invisible ultraviolet rays. Even on an overcast day these rays, reflected from water, sand and moisture in the air, can give you a serious burn.

Ultraviolet rays first darken the pigmentation which already exists in the skin. Continued overexposure penetrates this outer layer, or epidermis, to damage the dermis, or middle layer, and prouces redness and pain.

Exposure day after day, year after year can cause permanent changes in skin texture. It dries out, becomes papery and wrinkles result — mostly on the face and

IN FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Betty Lou Lloyd Becomes Bride of Bill Igo Saturday

A double ring ceremony, performed before the altar of the First Baptist Church Saturday at 8:00 p. m., united Miss Betty Lou Loyd and Bill Ed Igo in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lloyd, 1128 Oak St., are the parents of the bride and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Igo of Morton.

Vows were read by Rev. H. W. Bartlett in a church auditorium setting of yellow and white, the bride's chosen colors. Mr. and Mrs. John Layle of Weatherford, relatives of the bride, designed church decorations emphasizing her favorite flower, the yellow rose.

An arch garlanded with smilax and yellow roses formed the background for a tall candle tree bearing amber votive lights and spiraled with yellow roses. Smaller candle trees of jade and leather leaf framed large fanned arrangements of yellow roses. Foreground was of emerald foliage and the prayer bench, holding white candelabrum was accented by narrow leaf jade trees. Amber votives, amid yellow roses and smilax, decorated the choir gate and stained glass windows in the auditorium. Isle markers made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bill Cook, were tulle fans centered with pearlized ivy leaves, a single yellow rose, and trailing satin streamers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white peau de soie gown which belonged to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bob Lloyd of Brownwood. Pearl and sequin appliques over Alencon lace accented the full-length bell skirt. A bustle caught the chapel train in back. Her fingertip veil was held by a pearl tiara. Long fitted sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. She carried atop her pearl studded Bible a bouquet of seven white Cattleya orchids, stephanotis, and pearl leaves. A single strand of pearls was her only jewelry.

Matron of honor Mrs. Bob Lloyd wore a yellow brocaded satin dress and matching hat. Accessories were short white gloves and a strand of pearls. Her bouquet was of two dozen yellow roses and pearlized ivy leaves.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. George Cooper and Miss Rita Gunnels, of Morton, sister and niece of the groom and Miss Mary Louise Cox. Junior bridesmaid was Emma Lynn Rice, cousin of the bride. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor.

Mrs. Lloyd chose for her daughter's wedding a yellow brocaded nylon dress, yellow accessories, and a yellow orchid corsage. Mother of the groom, Mrs. Igo, wore a pink linen dress and pink orchid corsage.

Mrs. Curtis Baker presented the wedding music on the organ and accompanied Joan Wallace, cousin of the bride, as she sang "I Love You Truly" and Curtis Baker, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Best man was David Mitchell of Lubbock. Groomsmen, who also served as ushers, were Jerry Gentry of Lubbock, Bob Lloyd, twin brother of the bride, Kerry Kendrick, and Joe Igo, brother of the groom.

Ronney Roberts, the groom's nephew, was ring bearer and Kelley Roach was flower girl.

Candle lighters were Martha Rice, the bride's cousin, and Deanna Igo, her husband's niece.

At the reception following the ceremony, guests were registered by Mrs. Ronald Wallace cousin of the bride, at a yellow tulle covered table. A trail of hothouse smilax and gardenias extended from the table corner to a tall cherub candeabrum holding yellow candles and clusters of gardenias.

Bridal table, appointed in silver and milk glass and laid with white lace, featured yellow roses, smilax and gardenia garlands, and cherub candelabrum.

Houseparty consisted of Peggy Patterson of Morton, Mrs. Gene Roberts of Lubbock Mrs. Bill Cook, JoAnn Wallace, Mrs. Rip Wallace, Miss Martha Rice, and Deanna Igo.

Out-of-town guests were from Littlefield, Lubbock, Midland, Morton, Sterling City, Dallas, Weatherford, Brownwood, Big Spring, and Monrovia Calif.

For her honeymoon trip, Mrs. Igo wore a bige silk suit, matching hat, petina shoes and bag, and white gloves.

Mr. and Mrs. Igo are residing in Lubbock, where he will continue his studies at Texas Technological College. She has attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood and Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos.

Decline amounted to 8.7% which is more than the national decrease of 9.0%. Reduction, made in compliance with the federal control program, would mean a cut of about 475,000 bales in the state's cotton production if yield-per-acre is the same as last year.

Instead of baking one pie, make two or more while you are at it, and freeze the extra ones for future use. And when you prepare a dish like stew, chili, meatballs or meat pie, double or triple your recipe and freeze the surplus. You'll soon accumulate tasty complete meals that need only warming to serve. An Electric Refrigerator-Freezer saves shopping trips, too, and stretches your food budget by letting you take advantage of food specials. See your appliance dealer soon.
