Television Takes Interest of Many Local Citizens; Sale of Sets Brisk

All Lynn county has been excited the past week over the new entertainment field opened by the advent of television.

Lubbock's first station, KDUB-TV, opened Thursday night of last week on a temporary basis. Hundreds of local citizens that night saw television in local stores and private homes for the first time.

Since, nearly a dozen local dealers, have been busy installing TV sets in homes. In most cases the reception has been good, even from the temporary set-up.

Two Lubbock stations expect to have their plants completed by early next spring, and a third will likely follow. It is now predicted that the co-axial cable will be into Lubbock some time next year to permit live nation-wide up-to-the-minute programs.

Though many people have rushed to get TV sets installed, others are waiting to decide what they want in a set or for the full-fledged broadcasting set-up that is sure to come.

With opening of the Lubbock station, manufacturers are rushing the major proportion of their production to this area, and dealers are now able to get almost any set a customer may desire. However, as new television stations are opened as a result of the recent relaxing of the "freeze", dealers say they are fearful the supply of sets will not remain plentiful too long.

John Heck Is Rotary Speaker

John Heck of Wilson, president of Lyntegar Rural Electric Co-operative since its inception, was the speaker at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

He told of the difficulties in getting the cooperative started at a time when practically none of the farmers had electrical service back in 1938 and of its remarkable growth and success. Lyntegar was originally planned to serve parts of Lynn, Terry, and Garza counties, but its lines today serve 6,700 members in 11 South Plains counties.

Lyntegar has one of the best records in the nation, and has paid off loans originally made by the Government as much as 21 years in advance.

The cooperative was recently granted a loan of $1,800,000 with which to improve the service by building new sub-stations and new high-lines, etc.

Tom Garrard, attorney for Lyntegar, introduced the speaker. O. D. Howard is a new member of the club, and the name of Dee Green was also presented for membership.

Negro Youth Is Gunshot Victim

A Negro boy, Edward T. Thompson, age 11, died in Tahoka Hospital at 6:30 p. m. Monday from an accidental gunshot wound received Sunday near Tahoka.

The body was taken by Stanley-Jones Funeral Home to Hearne Tuesday morning for burial.

Shortly after noon Sunday, three Negro youths were playing in a cotton picker cabin at the Vaughn place a mile and a half southwest of Tahoka, according to statements made to officers.

One boy, Ira Malone Jr., age 15, had a nine-shot .22 pistol. The boys had been playing "cow-boy". They thought the gun was empty, and had been snapping it. Malone had the gun, pointed it at Thompson and pulled the trigger. A bullet hit Thompson in the eye, passed through the head to the opposite ear. He was taken to Tahoka Hospital, where everything possible was done to save his life.

The little boy was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Meron Thompson, who came here about six weeks ago from Gause, Milam county, to pull bolls.

School Holidays For Thanksgiving

Tahoka Schools will be closed Thursday and Friday of next week for the annual Thanksgiving holidays.

Many of the students and teachers expect to attend the bi-district football game in Stamford on Thursday.

Most of the Tahoka business firms will be closed Thanksgiving Day also.

P. K. Fleming Is Buried Sunday

P. K. Fleming, 62, a resident of Lynn county for 34 years, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound at his Muleshoe farm home at about 7:30 a. m. Thursday of last week.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church of Tahoka, of which he was a member, at 2:30 p. m. Sunday with Rev. J. H. Sharp, pastor, and Rev. Elmer Crabtree of Slaton officiating. Burial followed in Grassland Cemetery under direction of Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

Mr. Fleming was born in Arkansas August 17, 1890. He was married in Knox county April 13, 1913, and moved to eastern Lynn county in 1916, where he engaged in farming for many years. Five or six years ago, he bought a home in Tahoka and operated a shoe shop here for about four years. Less than two years ago he moved to an irrigated farm he had bought northeast of Muleshoe.

Mr. Fleming was a top rate citizen, interested in the affairs of his community and devoted to his family.

Funeral services were delayed in hopes that a son Dwayne, who has been in Germany 16 months could be present. The son is en route home, through efforts of the local Red Cross officers, but will not arrive before the end of the week, possibly.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Fleming; three sons, Alton of Tahoka, J. E. of Muleshoe, and Dwayne; five daughters, Mrs. John Meeks of Shallowater, Mrs. LeRoy Baker of Snyder, Mrs. James Baker and Mrs. L. J. Walker of Lubbock, and Mrs. Lewis Jackson of Duncan, Okla.; and 10 grandchildren.

Three Indicted By Grand Jury

Indictments were returned against three by the Lynn county grand jury in session here Monday.

Gracie Coleman, Negro, was charged with murder. She is alleged to have fatally shot the man with whom she was living, Harry Williams, 27, on a farm near New Home Tuesday night of last week.

Peggy O'Brien of Gary, Indiana, member of a magazine subscription crew operating in Lynn county recently, was charged with passing a forged check. She appeared before District Judge Louis B. Reed the same day, pled guilty, and was given a three-year probation sentence.

Frank Mims, local Negro, was indicted on a charge of passing a forged check.

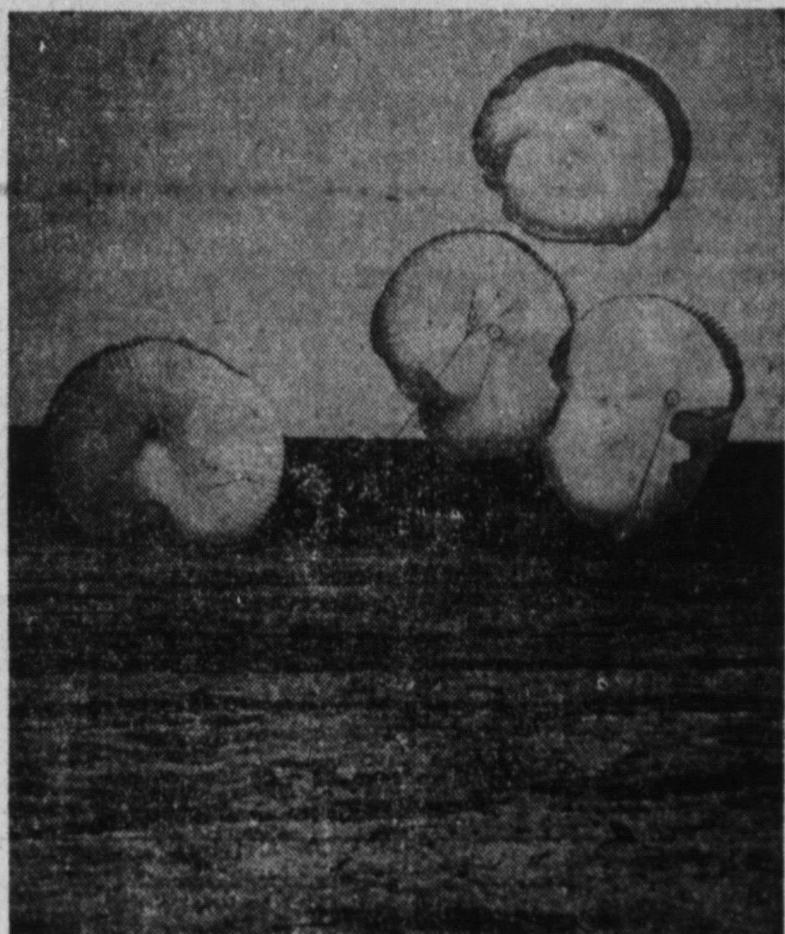

Coaches Honored By Football Boys

Members of the Tahoka Bulldogs' football squad last week made up a "pot" for their coaches, Bill Haralson and Bill Sharpley.

At the pep rally Friday before the game, the two coaches were presented, each, a certificate of $50.00 on a new suit of clothes at Ayer Way Cleaners.

The presentation was made for the team by Joe Brooks, center and co-captain.

Thanksgiving Service Is Set For Wednesday At Methodist Church

The annual Union Thanksgiving Service will be held at the First Methodist Church here Wednesday evening, November 26, at 7:30 o'clock.

Music will be furnished by the combined choirs of the First Methodist and First Baptist Churches of Tahoka under the direction of Winfred W. Walker, assistant pastor at First Baptist Church, and accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Sam Reid and at the piano by Mrs. E. W. Patterson. The choir will sing the anthem "Thanks Be To God" by Dickson and lead the congregation in singing the traditional Thanksgiving hymns.

The message will be delivered by Rev. Lee Ramsour, pastor of First Baptist Church. The public is cordially invited to worship in this service.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young, route 1, Meadow, on the birth of twin boys in Tahoka Hospital early Thursday morning. The first boy was born at 12:12 a. m. and weighed 6 pounds, 14 ounces; the second at 12:20 a. m. and weighed 4 pounds 14 ounces. They had not been named at Thursday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodora Roda, Levelland, on the birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds, 12 ounces in Tahoka Hospital at 6:26 a. m. Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt V. Thompson (Colored) of two miles southeast of Tahoka on the birth of a daughter weighing 4 pounds 13 ounces at about 4:00 a. m. Thursday. Thompson had started to Tahoka Hospital with his wife, accompanied by another Negro man. On the way, the car ran out of gas, and Thompson walked in for a Stanley-Jones ambulance. The baby was born in the car just as Jenio Jones arrived with the ambulance, and the woman and babe were brought on to Tahoka Hospital, where both are doing fine.

J. S. Hutcheson, 95, entered Tahoka Hospital Monday, and been critically ill since that day. He has been a resident of Tahoka since 1946, coming here from Shreveport, La. His wife died here in the fall of 1946, four months after moving to this town. Mr. Hutcheson is the father of W. P. (Pat) Hutcheson and Mrs. K. R. Durham.

Fines Assessed In Local Courts

Two cases were disposed of in County court Monday, according to County Attorney Mitchell Williams; and, four cases were heard in City Court, according to Police Chief L. N. Bartley.

Rudolfa Rondon, Mexican, was fined $25.00 and given 30 days in jail on an aggravated assault charge. Rondon is alleged to have threatened D. S. (Jack) Waldrup, local theatre manager, with a knife Sunday when Mr. Waldrup requested that a group of Mexicans not enter a theatre. One or two of the Mexicans were drinking, and Mr. Waldrup did not desire them in the theatre for that reason.

Albert Balez was fined $50.00 and costs on an aggravated assault charge. He is said to have beaten his wife Sunday.

J. O. Riden, Negro, was also charged with aggravated assault.

Also, in connection with the disturbance at the Wallace Theatre, Santiago Perez was fined $75 in City Court on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. Joe Perez and David Zamora were fined $25 each on charges of disturbing the peace.

Frances D. Garcia was fined $25 in City Court on a charge of attempting to obtain money under false pretence. Bartley said the woman went to the Wallace, claiming her boy had polio. Investigation revealed she had no children at all, that her husband had been arrested Nov. 8 on a charge of driving while intoxicated, and that she was attempting to raise money to pay his fine.

The Sheriff's office reports several arrests were made over the weekend for drunkenness.

and Lynn County
Since 1903!

Tahoka meets Stamford there Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 27, for the bi-district Class AA football championship. Stamford is champion of District 5-AA, Tahoka of District 6-AA. The winner will advance to the quarter-finals of the Interscholastic League AA playoffs.

Fifteen hundred reserved seat tickets for the game go on sale today or Saturday at the Tahoka Schools' business office. They are $1.50 for adults, $1.00 for students.

Highway mileage from Tahoka to Stamford is 131 miles by way of Aspermont, 136 miles by way of Rotan and Hamlin.

The game site was determined by the flip of a coin at a meeting Tuesday night of officials of the two schools in Snyder. Tahoka lost the call, but will receive a nice guarantee.

Attending the meeting from Tahoka were Supt. Otis Spears and Coaches Bill Haralson and Bill Sharpley and from Stamford, High School Principal John Dyer, Coach Gordon Wood, the president of the Quarterback Club, and a newspaperman.

Each district will furnish two officials.

Stamford's stadium seats 4,000 people, and all of these will be reserved seats. General admission tickets will likely be sold at the gate for standing room only.

Like Tahoka, Stamford's team is also called the "Bulldogs" and the school colors are the same, blue and white.

Stamford has had an outstanding record of no defeats this year, and is rated one of the top AA teams in Texas—in fact it is rated No. 2 behind Huntsville by the Williams high school grid rating system.

The Jones county team has defeated, in succession, Haskell 20 to 0, Ranger 19 to 7, Albany 54 to 13, Ballinger 42 to 13, Seymour 48 to 0, Rotan 41 to 0, Merkel 38 to 7, Anson 41 to 0, and Hamlin 49 to 0.

They boast a well-rounded team. Starters are fast, tall, and (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Negro Is Killed In Auto Accident

A Negro man died Sunday in a Lubbock hospital and another is in a critical condition there of injuries received in a wreck on U. S. Highway 87 six miles north of Tahoka at about 9:15 p. m. Saturday.

Robert Lee Suiters, about 35, of Waco, died at 2:45 a. m. Sunday in Lubbock Memorial Hospital. The other, Robert Lee Degrate, 28, underwent amputation of a leg Sunday, and at last reports was still in a serious condition. Both were brought to Tahoka Hospital following the wreck, but were sent on to Lubbock.

Investigating officers said the two men were caught between a parked car and pickup truck, when a large truck and trailer collided with the rear end of one of the vehicles. Legs of the two victims were practically severed by the impact.

Degate, driver of the pickup, had been towing a car driven by Frank McGowan, 49, another Waco Negro. The pickup had stalled, and the two men were between the two machines unhitching them, when the truck driven by Weldon Earl Romine, 24, of Tahoka, rammed the rear end of the car.

McGowan was given a ticket for no operator's license and illegally parking a motor vehicle.

New 1953 Plymouth On Display At Two Tahoka Automobile Dealers

The 1953 Plymouth went on display over the nation yesterday and may now be seen in Tahoka at Gagnat Motor Co., Dodge-Plymouth dealers, and Plains Motor Co., Chrysler-Plymouth dealers.

The 1953 Plymouth is the most completely new Plymouth to be presented to the public in the quarter-century since the original model rolled off the assembly line.

Plymouth Motor Corporation executives predict motorists will be delighted with the new, streamlined exterior, the luxuriously tailored harmonizing interiors, the increased horsepower and the scores of engineering innovations in the 1953 line which goes on display in dealers' showrooms November 20.

"This year Plymouth is introducing a new concept of automobile design in the low priced field," President John P. Mansfield declared in describing the 1953 models. "Superb styling is co-ordinated with radical engineering developments to produce the truly balanced car for easier, safer and more comfortable driving."

Height of the new Plymouth has been reduced for improved appearance. Yet engineers have designed even more room into the car's interior and luggage compartment. The 1953 model has more headroom, greater legroom and more hip and shoulder space than ever before.

The lively and dependable Plymouth engine has been given even greater power. For 1953 the horsepower has been increased to 100 and the compression ratio stepped up to 7.1 to 1.

"This car is a tribute to the engineers," Mansfield said. "They have succeeded in controlling to an unprecedented degree the three movements which have plagued designers since the first automobile was built—roll, pitch and bounce." Virtually gyroscopic stability with consequent easier handling of the car on turns has been achieved.

Easier riding, two-inch wide angle mounted rear springs absorb small road shocks and in combination with time-tested Oriflow shock absorbers complete the car's truly balanced suspension system.

There is sweep and grace in the styling of the new bodies. The 1953 Plymouth is lower and completely streamlined. Chrome trim is integrated as part of the design to further enhance the long, low, wide appearance of the car.

Horizontal character lines are incorporated into the sheet metal of front and rear fenders. Chrome trim strips are available as special equipment at slight extra cost. "Control Tower" visibility is provided through a one-piece, more uniformly-curved windshield and a new, larger, one-piece rear window which extends into each rear quarter panel. Total glass area has been increased almost 16 per cent for virtually 360-degree vision range with minimum distortion.

Interior styling of the 1953 Plymouth is entirely new. Box type seat trim gives both front and rear seat backs a smart appearance. Cushions are divided into thirds. The triple division adds a new style note with its more pleasing proportions.

Upholstery, interior molding and trim are available in a wide variety of harmonizing hues to blend with the buyer's choice of exterior body colors. Sparkling chrome hardware and bright plastic accessories set off the luxurious tailoring.

A clever innovation on all two-door models is the front seat which is divided, not in the traditional manner at the center, but at one-third of its width to permit easier entrance and exit for rear seat passengers from the curb side. Two can sit comfortably on the wider portion of the front seat while the remainder is tilted forward for easy back seat access.

Beauty and utility combine in the instrument grouping which occupies a long, horizontal island set into the instrument panel itself. A thoughtful touch is the center-mounted glove compartment, convenient to both driver and passenger. Pleasing and restful color co-ordination is achieved with blending tones in the instrument panel and steering wheel, designed to harmonize with the over-all color theme.

Nine different body styles are offered in the two Plymouth lines for 1953. In the Cambridge line are the Four-Door Sedan, Two-Door Sedan, Business Coupe and the exciting and popular Suburban. The Cranbrook line this year includes the Savoy, a Four-Door Sedan, Club Coupe, Convertible Coupe and the dashing Belvedere Hardtop.

The smartly-styled Business Coupe is available with a removable rear seat. Without this seat the car provides a spacious, unobstructed area for sample cases or luggage. With the seat installed—a matter of only minutes for one person—the car becomes a Six-Passenger Club Coupe.

Ruggedness is added to the body structure by rear fenders that are integral this year with the quarter panels. Further rigidity results from the use of a sill below the deck lid opening, linking the rear fender structure from side to side. The new, wider deck lid, extending outward to the fenders, provides strong, horizontal lines that add materially to the wider, lower look of the rear end.

Internal hinges of the deck lid are mounted at the extreme outward edges, resulting in easier access and more usable space. The 33.1-cubic foot trunk is almost 30 per cent larger than previous models.

Rear fender appearance is improved through relocation of the gasoline filler pipe at the left corner of the rear sill, which also provides for easier fueling.

For increased driving comfort and economy, Plymouth Automatic Overdrive may be added to the famous Synchro Silent Transmission at moderate extra cost. The overdrive increases fuel and oil economy, lengthens engine life, and as a highway cruising "fourth speed" gear, adds measurably to driving and riding comfort.

The overdrive unit reduces gasoline consumption by cutting down engine speed by 30 per cent while the car's road speed is undiminished. As a highway cruising gear, engineers estimate it saves up to ten per cent on gasoline. An additional gear ratio in each of the other two forward speeds is also provided by the unit. Overdrive is especially useful for traffic driving in second gear.

Plymouth's prime objective for 1953 was a car that was easier to park, easier to handle and easier to ride in. A trial ride quickly proves that this objective was attained.

Moving the engine forward more than two inches gave more body room. Relocation of wheel housing gave more hip room.

The axle was moved closer to the front end of the rear spring, almost eliminating rear wheel hop when accelerating on uneven roads or in sand.

All of these features combine to give the 1953 Plymouth owner an automobile that is unequalled in its price class for riding and driving enjoyment, performance, beauty and economy.

Personally, we have never been able to figure out the philosophy of some people, except on the jungle theory.

Wesley Chapel Colored Methodist Church will have a special service Sunday, Nov. 23, at 3:00 p. m., with three local White churches as guests. These are the First Baptist, First Methodist, and Sweet Street Baptist churches.

We issue a hearty welcome to our White friends of the different churches to this program at 3:00 p. m.

Wesley Chapel will open the devotional. Prayer will be by Rev. Scantling of Sweet Street Chapel. The Lone Star Gospel Quartet will give a number. Scripture lesson will be by Rev. Sharp, pastor of the Methodist Church, and the quartet will sing another number. Rev. Lee Ramsour, pastor of First Baptist Church, will preach the sermon.

We invite all our White friends to be with us. You will enjoy this very fine service. The Lone Star Gospel Quartet will also be with us at the 8:00 p. m. service.

You can realize the fact that our eight or ten members and pastor need all the support that can be given to keep our church going. It is quite a big job, but God is able to help us through our good White ministers and brothers and sisters.

We do hate to worry you, but we just need you. I will be looking for you on the Fourth Sunday at 3:00 p. m.—Rev. W. D. Atkins, pastor of Wesley Chapel Methodist Church.

FACULTIES OF FOUR SCHOOLS PARTICIPATE IN READING WORKSHOP

Faculties from four Lynn county schools gathered at the Wilson school Tuesday for a reading workshop.

Approximately forty-five teachers, principals, superintendents, parents, children and the Lynn County Supervisor, met with a reading specialist at the Wilson school cafeteria for the county wide reading conference and clinic.

This work-conference and reading clinic is the outgrowth of the new educational supervisory program operating in Lynn County for the first time this year.

Miss Evelyn Miller, educational consultant; from Houston, worked directly in the classrooms with the teachers and children at the O'Donnell schools in the morning, and in the classrooms at Wilson in the afternoon. A coffee was served in the Wilson school cafeteria at 3:30 and the county-wide work conference got under way, with every one a participant.

Mothers and fathers were present. Mr. C. P. Martin, Elementary Principal from New Home brought his teachers with him, and served as one of the consultants during a lively roundtable discussion.

Miss Evelyn Miller, reading consultant, gave an over-all view of a sound reading program for all grade levels. She discussed in detail, reading skills and techniques; word analysis; reading readiness; new word attacks; phonetics; the value and use of the dictionary; the slow reader; the superior reader; the Latin American child; groupings of children; reading levels; word games; and was able to work out solutions to many individual problems which teachers asked about.

Miss Miller stressed the importance of carefully following the teacher's edition or plan book, regardless of the series to be used. Also she emphasized the value of proceeding slowly and always on the child's reading level. She agreed with the supervisor that teachers should "make haste slowly" when working with children in the classroom. Miss Miller pointed out that "it is better to teach a small amount of material well, as to present a great amount, and fail".

The steering committee for the conference includes, County Superintendent, Lenore M. Tunnell; Superintendent Dave Hewlett of Wilson; Superintendent John Morris of O'Donnell; Principals from O'Donnell, Mrs. Paul Gooch; and Bill Gravitt; Principal from Wilson, Mr. L. G. Fuller and Mr. W. E. Jones; Mrs. Ruth Reisdorff, educational supervisor of Lynn County. This is only one of many such educational services which the Lynn County Supervisory program will bring to the county of Lynn this year.

Mrs. Jess Cummings of Grand Prairie, near Dallas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. O. Hyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pollis and children at New Home. Mrs. Pollis is her niece.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING

About a dozen or 15 ladies were guests of the Brotherhood at its regular meeting here Monday night. Some 35 or 40 men were present. The principal speaker of the evening was Lyman Wren, a Snyder business man. He was accompanied to Tahoka by three other Snyder citizens, Jack Inman, a brother of Johnny Inman of Tahoka, and Messrs. Taylor and Sellers who are engaged in some phases of the oil industry.

Dr. K. R. Durham welcomed the women guests, paying them a glowing tribute, and Mrs. Dub Kenley happily responded. Rev. Winfred Walker led in a brief song service.

Mr. Wren, who is a popular Brotherhood speaker and is constantly filling engagements all the way from Tahoka to Abilene, discussed interestingly the meaning and purpose of life. His homely phrases and illustrations, his intense earnestness and devotion, together with his well-known Christian life make him the popular speaker that he is.

Dub Fulford, president of the Brotherhood, presided, and Johnny Inman introduced the Snyder guests as well as the speaker of the evening.

A sumptuous meal, of which venison was the chief viand, was served. The deer was the gift of the pastor, Rev. Lee Ramsour, who killed the animal on a recent

TWO DYER GIRLS ARE VISITORS IN TAHOKA

Mrs. Sadie Sanders of San Angelo and Mrs. Mozelle Guinn of Knickerbocker, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dyer, Lynn county pioneers, were here Monday visiting old friends. They especially expected to visit the George Smalls, but found them out of town.

The two ladies had been to the funeral of Burl G. Guinn, 51, brother of Mrs. Mozelle Guinn's late husband, who died of a heart attack at Slaton Friday. The services were held at Slaton Monday. Mr. Guinn was a prominent Slaton citizen who came to that town in 1912 and who was one of the first high school graduates there.

JoAnn Fenton Is Crowned Queen

Colorful pre-game and halftime ceremonies featured the Tahoka-Spur game entertainment Friday night.

It was Homecoming at Tahoka High, and JoAnn Fenton was crowned football sweetheart in the pre-game ceremonies by co-Captain Joe Brooks.

The ceremony occurred in the center of the field, the queen and her attendants coming on the field in a convertible while the band played "Sweet Sue". JoAnn's escorts were Patsy Smith and Doris Gage, and their escorts were Co-Captains John Curry and John Foster. Crownbearer was Mike Curry and flower girl was Suzie Curry.

Spur and Tahoka bands also went through intricate formations and played music at the half-time spectacle.

Mrs. Frank Hyles is president of the Bulldog Mothers this year. The organization lends encouragement to the high school athletes, and after each home football game a dinner is served by its members in the school cafeteria.

rangy. None of the boys are exceedingly heavy, and the team is no heavier than several Tahoka has met this year. But they are all experienced, rugged, and move fast.

Stamford's likely starters are: Backs: Larry Simmons, 146; Kenneth Lowe, 175; Max Kelley, 185; and Wayne Wash, 169. Ends: Howard Vest, 176, and Keith Miles, 186.

Tackles: Curtis Johnson, 177, and James Thompson, 168. Guards: Woody Crider, 162, and Charlie Davis, 175.

Center: Dan Smith, 170. The starting line-up average is 172 pounds; backfield, 168; line, 174.

Tahoka's offensive starters average 162 pounds; the line average is 173, but the backfield is light, 143 pounds.

All the Stamford backs are hard runners. Three men are potential passers—Simmons, Lowe and Wash. End Keith Miles is on the receiving end of most passes. Stamford scores frequently on long runs, featuring deadly blocking, and also on both long and short passes.

Against Hamlin last week, Stamford scored on runs of 70, 4, and 2 yards, a 95-yard run from pass interception, a 70-yard punt return, and pass plays of 81 and 50 yards. But Hamlin tied them in first downs 13-13.

The aggressive line is led by 175-pound Guard Charlie Davis, a great high school player.

Coach Bill Haralson and Coach Bill Sharpley have brought the Tahoka squad along in fine shape this year. The Bulldogs did not look so good in early season, but when they reached the conference schedule they went to work to win. Last week they played, a great game to defeat Spur 14 to 7.

If they play every down against Stamford as they did against Spur they have a chance to win, but it will take heads-up football to upset this powerful team. Stamford will have just 11 men on the field at a time—the same as Tahoka—and the Tahoka Bulldogs could spring an upset on the Stamford Bulldogs.

Native Of Tahoka Dies In Wreck

Earl B. Shattuck, 28, of Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Shattuck of Plainview but citizens of Lynn county about 25 years ago, was killed in a car accident south of Hale Center at about 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

Also killed was his niece, Miss Pauline Fisher, 21, of Plainview, a student nurse at West Texas Hospital. Injured were Shattuck's wife and two baby sons and Mrs. Shattuck's brother, R. J. Ray of Lawsonville, N. C. Mrs. Shattuck was critically injured.

The accident was a two-car collision in which Orval Latta, of Trinidad, Colo., driver of the other car, was also critically injured.

Shattuck was born in Tahoka in 1925, but moved to Olton with his parents three years later. He graduated from high school there, served in the Air Force during the war, married Miss Ruth Ray in 1945, and moved to Lubbock.

He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. C. H. Loving and Mrs. Ethel Campbell, both of Lubbock, and Mrs. Marvin D. Fisher of Plainview, mother of the dead girl.

Double funeral services for the two were held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at Olton Methodist Church, and burial was in Olton Cemetery.

MENEELY VISITS HOME

Pfc. and Mrs. Leslie McNeely left Wednesday for Camp Beale Airbase, Calif., north of San Francisco, after visiting here a couple of days while en route from Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Mrs. Bill McNeely, his mother, and Mrs. W. H. Fulkerson accompanied them to California and will visit Richard McNeely, who is stationed at Camp Pendleton, near San Diego.

Wilson Closes Season Today

Wilson's Homecoming was marred Friday night, when Coach A. J. Sales' injury-plagued Mustangs went down in defeat before the Whiteface Antelopes 26 to 7.

Wilson scored in the third quarter when Halfback John Lester Mason, ran for a touchdown. Thomas Autry ran the ball for the extra point.

Eileen Maeker was crowned Homecoming queen at halftime by Wilson Co-captains Autry and Gilbert Steinhauser.

The Mustangs will close out their season tonight at Wilson with Wellman, a game which Wilson has a good chance of winning. Wilson has won only one game, against Lorenzo, while Wellman has won only two in the 11-team District 4-B play. Idalou has won nine and lost none and meets fourth place Ropesville in the final.

Tahoka Bulldogs Defeat Spur 14-7 For District 6-AA Championship

Tahoka Bulldogs repeated as the District 6-AA football champions by defeating Spur Bulldogs 14 to 7 before a Homecoming crowd of 2,500 fans on Kelley Field here Friday night.

The local Bulldogs had previously defeated Post 33 to 0 and Slaton 20 to 6, to finish the regular season undefeated in conference play and to win the right to meet the Stamford Bulldogs, District 5-AA champions and rated one of the most powerful AA teams in Texas. Tahoka has a season record of six won and four lost.

Friday night's game here with Spur must go down in the record books as one of the great games of all time for Tahoka. Even the Lubbock Avalanche, whose sports writers are usually prone to depreciate Tahoka teams for some reason, played the game up as a great one.

Both teams put up game battles, the boys—and fans—were keyed to the top, mistakes were at a minimum, both played smart football, and the blocking and tackling was something to see. Tahoka's Bulldogs were not to be denied this one. They went out to win, and when the odds turned against them they went to work like mad to regain the advantage.

Coaches Bill Haralson and Bill Sharpley and all the boys down to the waterboy and Earl Bartley, who has helped the coaches all season, deserve a lot of credit. After a shaky start, the team has been brought along in great shape to its late-season championship calibre. There may have been greater teams in the past on their all-season record, but there have been none greater than the Bulldogs were Friday night.

Spur Bulldogs had been crippled all season, and this was the first game, according to fans from that town, that the team had been in tip-top shape. Their tackling and blocking was equally fine, and the sportsmanship of the boys was great. In fact, Spur had possibly the "cleanest" team Tahoka has played this season, and that is no reflection on the others. Coach Sam Hawks and his boys deserve a lot of credit for the type of play exhibited here.

Picking the stars for Tahoka is impossible, as all who played were stars. The team worked as a unit. For the ball-carriers, the running account below speaks for itself.

But, John Foster deserves special credit for a great game at guard. So does John Curry and Billy Stice. Duane McMillan, Roswell Bartley, all in the middle of the line. Joe Brooks would have been hard to beat at center and as a linebacker. At ends, Richard Havens, also playing defensive halfback, Milfred Ratliff, and Steve Slover worked almost to exhaustion. Garland Huddleston was great as a linebacker, as were others on defense including Billy Tong, I. V. J. Melton and Kenneth Earley and possibly others also gave a good account of themselves.

First Quarter Scoreless
Neither team could move consistently in the first quarter, but Spur appeared slightly stronger.

Richard Havens took the opening kickoff on the 30. Charley Schulz lost 1 yard, Fullback J. B. Ables made 3 and Schulz 3, then Havens kicked 36 yards to the Spur 29. Wingback Tom Hightower made 3, Tailback Curtis Blair lost 1, Fullback Dean King made 2, and Quarterback George McAtter punted 25 yards to the Tahoka 42.

Ables made 3, and then Quarterback Gordon Smith passed complete to Charles Hyles on the Spur 47, but in attempting to get running room Hyles was downed on the Tahoka 46, for a 1-yard gain. A pass to Steve Slover was incomplete, and Havens got off a short punt to the Spur 35.

Hightower got away for 13 at right end for the first first down of the ball game. But Spur bogged down in the Tahoka 45 and kicked out of bounds on the 13. Ables made 6 on two plays and Schulz 4 for a first on the 23, then Hyles went for 1, Schulz 1, and Hyles for 5 to the 30, where Havens punted 35 yards to the Spur 35.

Lindsey for Spur brought the kick all the way back to the Tahoka 43, Blair lost 3, and McAtter passed to Wingback Gabriel for 30 yards and a first down on Tahoka's 15. But Hightower made only 1, Blair none, McAtter lost 7, and a fourth down pass was incomplete, ending Spur's first scoring threat.

In three plays, Ables moved only to the 27, and Havens kicked 24 yards to the Spur 49, Blair returning the ball to the Tahoka 40.

Tahoka Scores First
Opening the second quarter, McAtter made 3, King none, and McAtter lost 8, then kicked to Schulz on the 12, and he brought out to the 15. On the first play Hyles broke through left guard and sprinted 45 yards before being tackled on the Spur 40. Ables' long pass to Havens was complete, Smith completed one to Schulz for no gain, and Ables hit the line for two, then Havens kicked one over the goal.

Hightower ran the ball out 17 yards to the 37, King made one at the line, and on the next play Havens covered a Spur fumble on the Spur 40 for a break which Tahoka turned into a score.

Smith then threw a pass to Hyles which ended on the Spur 2 for a 38-yard gain. Ables hit the line three times before going over for Tahoka's first TD, then kicked a perfect placement. Score Tahoka 7, Spur 0.

Spur Threatens

Tahoka's on-side kick went to the Spur 41. Hightower made 4, then caught a 9-yard pass from McAtter to the Tahoka 46, Tahoka held for three downs, and McAtter kicked to the Tahoka 25, where Havens took the ball but fumbled and Spur recovered to give the visitors a break.

Hightower made 4 and King 8 to the Tahoka 13. Spur appeared marching for a touchdown, but fumbled and Havens redeemed himself by covering. Smith made 2, Hyles 1, and the half ended.

Visitors Tie Score

Opening the second half, Spur marched for its only score. Tahoka kicked another on-side kick to the 41, then drew two offside penalties to give Spur a first on Tahoka's 49. Hightower made 5, Blair 2, and 1, McAtter 5 to the Tahoka 36. Gabriel made 3, then the visitors completed a pass but were penalized back to the 47 for offensive holding. With third down and 22 to go, McAtter made 17, then on fourth Blair moved 12 yards to the Tahoka 18. Hightower made 9, the next two plays lost a yard, and on fourth down Blair went 7 yards to the Tahoka 3. The Tahoka line held tight three downs, but on the fourth Blair went over right guard 1 yard to score. McAtter ran over the extra point. Score, Tahoka 7, Spur 7.

Tahoka Bounces Back

Schulz brought the kick-off from the 20 to the 32. Smith lost 5, but Schulz made 2 and then Hyles ran 13 yards to the 42 for a first down. A pass was incomplete, then Ables broke away for 13 yards to the Spur 45. Another pass was incomplete, Ables hit the line for 4, then Smith passed to Havens on the Spur 25 for a 16-yard gain. Smith made 5, Ables 4 and 2, Smith 9 to the Spur 5. Here, Spur received an offside penalty to the 1. On the next play, Ables went over for a touchdown, then kicked the extra point. Score, Tahoka 14, Spur 7.

Tahoka Holds On

Spur took the on-side kick on the Tahoka 44, then moved to the Tahoka 39 on an offside penalty. Hightower made 1, then Spur fumbled and always alert Billy Tong covered on the Tahoka 39.

In seven plays Tahoka moved to the Spur 23. Hyles made 8, then 6, and Ables went for 16 to the 30. Hyles lost 2. Smith passed 7 yards to Hyles on the 25. Ables failed to gain and Hyles made 2, the ball going over on the Spur 23.

Gabriel made 3, Blair 1, a pass was incomplete, and McAtter kicked to Tahoka 35, where Havens took the ball and on one of the most beautiful runs of the game, with the aid of some perfect blocks, went all the way down the west sideline to the Spur 3, where he stepped out of bounds. But Tahoka was offside on the play, and the ball was brought back and given Spur on its 32. Blair then barely made it a first on a fourth down running play to the 36.

Spur then started a desperation drive to get back in the game. Hightower carried 9 and McAtter 9 to the Tahoka 46. Gabriel went 6 to the 40. McAtter took a 6-yard pass to the 34, and Blair skirted left end for 7. But, the drive ended when McAtter lost 2, and two passes were incomplete.

Smith made 7 to the 36, Spur drew a 5-yard delay of the game penalty, Ables made 3, Smith 10, Hyles 3, Ables 2 and 3, and the game ended with the Tahoka boys taking all the time possible in the huddle to insure victory.

ODDS AND ENDS

(BY E. I. THE ELDER)

Listen, folks, I know that it is ill-mannered and seems vain for a fellow to be talking a lot about himself, but I am going to do that very thing this week.

For some time now I have been raising questions as to where people came from—Cain's wife, the people who had built cities while Adam and Eve were still living and going strong, the Hotentots and Bushmen of South Africa, the Toltecs and Aztecs and Maya Indians of Mexico and Yucatan, the Incas of Peru, the cannibals and head-hunters of the thousands of South Sea Islands, the Eskimos of the Arctic regions of Alaska and Canada, the countless tribes of Indians that inhabited North America from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Labrador to the Rio Grande, and South America from Panama to Tierra Del Fuego.

Where did they come from? I have been asking.

Then I thought I heard somebody ask, Well, where did you come from?

In answer to that I will say that I must have come from Pocahontas.

All of my kinkfoks ever since I was four or five years old have been telling me that I am one of that lady's offspring.

The maiden name of one of my great grandmothers was Susanna Randolph of Virginia. Nearly all, if not all, of those Virginia Randolphs were descendants of John Rolfe and Pocahontas. My great-grandmother was one of them, according to the family tradition that was well-fixed in the minds of herself and husband and all their descendants when I made my quiet appearance upon the scene something less than a hundred years ago. This venerated great-grandmother of mine died in Bell county, Texas, at the age of about 89 when I was a little kid some five or six years old. I can remember seeing her once, sitting in a big chair in the home of her oldest son, smoking a clay or corn-cob pipe, and wearing a kind of hood on her head. She was a typical, somewhat distinguished-looking grandmother of her day and generation. Her remains were buried in a grave, not alongside but near the grave of her deceased husband, Rev. Silas Witt, in the cemetery at the long-since defunct town of Old Perry situated two miles north of the present town of Moody in McLennan county near the Bell county line. Two years ago, with a little granddaughter in my arms, I stood at the head of my great-grandfather Witt's grave and near that of his life-long companion, Susanna Randolph Witt, while a relative took a kodak picture of us. Six generations, representing the living and the dead, span the 142 years intervening between the birth of the oldest person and of the youngest person involved in that picture.

possibly twelve years of age, begged so persuasively for the Captains' life that the Big Chief relented and let him go. That is the story told by Smith in 1608 which the historians doubt; and they are probably right, but they all do agree that from 1607 soon after Pocahontas first saw Smith until 1609, when he left for London to get treated for severe burns which he had suffered in a gun-powder explosion, the Indian maiden did visit Jamestown frequently, fascinated no doubt by the tall tales that the Captain delighted to tell about his own experiences. He had been engaged in some of the wars in Europe waged by Protestant Christians against the Saracens and wore a coat of arms embellished by three Turks' heads. He had won that coat of arms, he would doubtless boast to the maiden, by personally killing three Giant Turks. And it was possibly true. Anyway, such tales would charm an Indian maiden whose men folks delighted to carry the scalps of enemies at their belts, whether the enemies were red men or white. At any rate, when Smith left, the visits ceased also, and we are told that the maiden became the bride of one of Powhatan's aides, some time after that, whether a real or a mere nominal bride I do not know, but I have found no mention of her having become a mother until she became the bride of John Rolfe. That event had far reaching effects, one of which was the healing of Old Chief Powhatan's wrath against John Smith and the English. Besides being the first recorded romance involving an English gentleman and an Indian maid, it constitutes a most interesting story in itself, and so we will tell it again.

Whether the story of her saving the life of Captain Smith was true or fictitious, Pocahontas evidently was a very intelligent and charming young maiden. She must have been at least 12 and possibly 14 years old, when Captain Smith returned to England in 1609. She was taken captive by the Whites in 1612 and held as a hostage by Deputy-governor Argall. She was converted to Christianity and was baptized in the English Episcopal Church in Jamestown in 1613 and was married to John Rolfe in April, 1614.

Who was John Rolfe? He was a native of England, born in 1585. He set sail for Virginia in company with Sir George Somers in 1609, two years after Jamestown was founded but he was shipwrecked in the Bermuda Islands and did not arrive in Virginia until 1610.

I do not know what vocation he had followed in England but soon after arrival in America he seems to have become interested in the culture of tobacco, for it is authoritatively stated that he is the first white man that ever raised a crop of Tobacco in this country. Of course the Indians raised little patches of it for home consumption, but Rolfe proved its feasibility as a money crop. Rolfe started something when he planted that tobacco crop. Just look what it has grown into.

It is not recorded just when he first met Pocahontas but whenever that was she was being held by Deputy-Governor Argall as a hostage, a virtual slave, for the purpose of extorting all the favors possible out of her distinguished father, Sachem Powhatan. Rolfe's soul not only burnt with indignation at the outrage but he fell in love with the captive maid herself, and as stated above, he married her in April 1614. The wedding was no secret affair either, for he staged it in the presence of an Indian Uncle of Pocahontas, presumably Powhatan's brother, and two brothers of her own. I imagine that some English friends were present too. Old Chief Powhatan was delighted.

Well, in due course of time, the couple became the parents of a son, whom they named Thomas, and in 1616 Rolfe set sail with his Indian wife and half-Indian son for England to introduce them to his friends on the other side of the Big Pond. He must have been a pretty good publicity hound, for before leaving Virginia he advised his friends in England and especially the Royalty and Nobility that his wife was a princess, the daughter of a powerful Indian King, Chief Powhatan, who had been crowned Emperor of the Indies, a great Indian confederacy.

Of course he and his Virginia friends had sent some such messages on before them, for when they arrived in London they were royally received, wine and dined by the Nobility and the socially Elite. Pocahontas literally had entered into a new world, but I have never heard or read anywhere at any time that the honors accorded her turned her head in the least. They spent nearly a year there, and then started back to their beloved Virginia, when, Alas! a tragic event occurred. The popular young princess sickened and died scarcely outside the city limits of London. They said it was smallpox she had contracted. She was buried in the Gravesend Church near London, and it is said that her tomb and a record of her death may be seen there (Continued)

Now the car of the year — the deal of the year!

And we're ready to back up that headline with appetizing facts and generous figures. For example, "the car of the year" is more than a glib phrase, it's a title that Mercury has earned by doing—by making news.

Mercury is the one car in its class that came up with something really new for 1952—styling so new it left other cars far behind. And, if that weren't enough, Mercury (with optional overdrive) again proved that pound for pound it could beat all comers for economy in the Mobilgas Economy Run.

But, we know, you're equally interested in "how much" for your present car. We can give you some idea if you just pick up the phone and call us. But we can do even better if you give us a chance to appraise it firsthand—so we can allow for extras and care you've given it.

Odds & Ends

In due time the bereft husband John Rolfe came back to Jamestown alone, where two years later, 1619, he became a member of the House of Burgesses, the first legislative assembly of white men that ever met in America.

When Rolfe came back to Virginia after the death of his Princess wife, he left little Thomas behind, presumably in the care of his parents or other close relatives, but Thomas too came back to Virginia after he had grown to manhood, evidently an almost utter stranger, for Papa John Rolfe had died in 1622, while little Thomas was still a mere boy of six; and Grandpa Powhatan had died in 1618, the next year after Pocahontas had died.

Unfortunately, I have practically no information as to how long Thomas Rolfe lived or what positions he held, or whom he married, but he became the father of a line of Randolphs that have been prominent in Virginia's political and social life during much of the time since his day. One of these was the famous John Randolph of Roanoke, who was born in Virginia in 1773, just before the outbreak of the Revolutionary War. He was first elected to Congress at the age of 26 during the Presidency of John Adams. He soon became a leader in the House and supported President Thomas Jefferson in his purchase of the great Louisiana territory, but in 1812 he broke with Jefferson and Madison in opposing war with England. As a result of which he lost his seat in Congress in 1813. He regained it, however, in 1815, opposed the Missouri Compromise of 1820, was elected to the United States Senate in 1825, and in March, 1826, he bitterly assailed President John Quincy Adams' appointment of Henry Clay as secretary of state as "the coalition of Biff and Black George—by the combination unheard of till then, of the Puritan with the blackleg." That was pronounced by jurists and literary men who were familiar with the allusions as one of the most cutting phrases in one of the most stinging invectives ever delivered by any statesman in the American Congress. And Randolph was regarded as one of the most brilliant, though erratic, meteors that ever swept across the political skies of America. That speech brought from Clay a challenge to fight a duel, and the fight was pulled off soon thereafter without either combatant being hurt. Randolph died a natural death in 1833 at the age of 60, 216 years after the death of his renowned Indian progenitor, Princess Pocahontas; but he seemed just as proud of his Indian blood as she ever was of hers.

My own great-grandmother Susanna Randolph Witt was a woman of about 36 years of age when her alleged distant relative John Randolph of Roanoke died. She and her husband migrated from Virginia to Franklin county Tennessee some time before the Civil War, where they lived for years, and then moved down into Alabama. From Alabama they came to Texas after the War, where both died in the early eighties. Long before their deaths they had become the progenitors of almost countless families of Witts, most of whom lived in Central Texas after the War. Their descendants are to be found now in almost all parts of Southern, Central, and Western United States.

I told you I was going to be personal, folks, and this is it; but it is not quite all.

I have a sister now living in Waco who, early in life, became interested in the family tradition that we and all the Witts in our neck of the woods were descended from Pocahontas. After her college days she served for several years as assistant librarian of the West Texas State College in Canyon and later as assistant librarian of the Sul Ross College in Alpine. This long contact with books and records, especially of a historical nature, whetted her interest in the genealogy of folks and especially in that of our own family, so she began some investigations on her own hook. She has corresponded and conversed with many of our aged kinfolks, she has been in correspondence with several professional genealogists in different parts of our country, and she has consulted every book she has been able to find that might give light on this matter. All this information has tended strongly to confirm the claim of our great-grandmother Susanna

Randolph that she was a direct lineal descendant of Pocahontas. There is just one missing link away back there in the early days of Virginia. If my sister does succeed in finding that link, then I will know that I am an Indian, folks, I am an Indian. Pocahontas will forever bear the added distinction of being my great-great-great-great (great about fifteen times) grandmother. And that old savage Powhatan will fall in line as one of my gram-paws.

And that's just as personal as I am going to get, folks, this time.

But I am going to give you just a little more "dope" on Gram-paw Powhatan, and his kin-folks. As a matter of fact, Powhatan was a powerful ruler. He and the tribes that inhabited much of the territory now included in Virginia, the Carolinas, and parts of Georgia and Tennessee, belonged to the great Algonquian family of Indians, whose sway extended from New England almost to Florida, possibly the most numerous and most powerful confederacy of Indians in America. Powhatan himself did not hold sway over all that vast area, but he was the sachem, or chief ruler, of all the territory lying along and south of the James River in Virginia and vast undefined territories far to the south and west. It is claimed that he held sway over thirty tribes. Furthermore, he was undoubtedly a very shrewd man, a natural-born leader, stern and even cruel in enforcing obedience on the part of his Indian subjects and in his dealings with the white man. He was one of the great chiefs of his day and generation. He and other Indian warriors of that day were held in leash by the Whites only by the fact that they possessed only the crudest weapons of warfare. But, even with inadequate fighting equipment they made life miserable for the Whites for several generations. Miserable? Blood-curdling was the yell of the Indian warriors making a sudden attack. But we must admit that it was our mistreatment of the Indian first in many cases that provoked him to seek bloody vengeance. We have little reason to be proud of our treatment of either the Indian or the Negro throughout most of our history.

THE LYNN COUNTY NEWS,

Friday, November 21, 1932
