PECAN MEN HAVE GREAT CONVENTION.

The Fourth Annual Convention of the Texas Pecan Growers' Association convened at Fredricksburg June 9th, 10th and 11th Mr. H. G. Lucas, president, presiding, with over two hundred members and a large number of visitors being present.

Enthusiasm for the future of the association; for the good work already accomplished by the growers coming together and talking over their problems, and for the progress already attained in fighting insect pests, was in evidence by the tone of every speaker. Peace and harmony prevailed throughout the meeting, each member respecting his fellow member's views, observations and opinions.

Some of the strongest pecan men, practical and scientific experts in their line, contributed papers, lectures or talks on their knowledge of pecan culture. Old timers exchanged ideas and views on the various phases of this important industry. They believe in progress. And men progress by hearing and seeing what other men are doing and have done. They support a paid secretary-treasurer, Mr. O. S. Gray of Waxahachie, Texas, to look after the affairs of the association.

Those contributing largely to the success of the meeting were: Mr. H. G. Lucas, grower, president, Brownwood; Mr. J. H. Burkett, Nut Specialist, State Department of Agriculture, whose subject was, "Some Promising New Varieties;" Senator T. H. Ridgeway, San Antonio, on "Cost of Developing and Maturing a Native Pecan Grove;" Mr. Frank Willmann, Mason, on "Behavior of Varieties in My Section;" Dr. B. Youngblood, Director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations, on "Securing Pecan Experiment Stations;" Mr. A. I. Fabis, of Brownwood, Pecan Insect Laboratory, had a display of Pecan Insects; Prof. E. J. Kyle, Dean of the School of Agriculture, A. and M. College, had as his topic, "What the A. and M. College is Doing Toward Training the Student in Pecan Culture."

Numerous pecan budding demonstrations were given by various ones present.

In such a section as we have in Kimble County, where nature has so abundantly lavished her provision for us with her native pecan trees along the running streams, it seems a pity that no extensive pecan orchards have been developed. Kimble County needs a vision in the pecan industry. Her source of revenue from this single industry is already large in favorable years, but, with the large paper shell varieties worked onto the native trees bearing irregularly small nuts of low value, the quantity and the quality could be materially improved, so that within a short period of ten or fifteen years, this industry could be made to yield four times the present revenue.

Will we do it? Excuses bear no revenue. Do it now!

Those who do not know how to bud the improved pecan onto the native trees, may have the service of the Vocational Agriculture teacher to give you a demonstration and start you off.

The association meets at Mason next year. At least 100 men in Kimble County should become members. Membership fee $2.00, which gives you all the proceedings of the meeting printed in bulletin form, and insures you of the best pecan information obtainable.

APPOINTMENTS MADE IN LOCAL SCHOOL FACULTY

The trustees of the Junction Public School have contracted with teachers for the High School and Grades, except principal, for the coming year.

The faculty, as shown below, is an exceptionally strong one, doubtless the best ever employed for the Junction school, and with the fine new building which will be ready for the next term, there is no reason why Junction will not have the best school year in its history.

The principal, who will also have a degree, will probably be elected within the next few days. The faculty, with that exception, is as follows:

Superintendent, W. Z. Miller, Degree A. and M. and Texas University, Vocational Agriculture and Science.

English, Miss Effie Roy Blackburn, A. B. Degree, S. W. University.

History and Spanish, Miss Cecilia Merchant, A. B. Degree, Texas University.

Sixth Grade, Miss Emma Mae Hodges, A. B. Degree, Baylor University.

Fifth Grade, Miss Mary Anderson, S. W. T. C., San Marcos. Fourth Grade, Miss Mary Willis, S. W. T. C., San Marcos.

Third Grade, Miss Modelle Jones, T. C. U., Fort Worth.

Second Grade and Home Economics, Miss Cora Fisher, grad-

REPUBLICAN STANDARD BEARERS. COOLIDGE AND DAWES

President Coolidge was nominated by the recent Republican Convention at Cleveland by an almost unanimous vote, and accepted the nomination immediately, although he did not attend the convention.

Frank O. Lowden, former Governor of Illinois, Herbert Hoover and Senator Borah were each in turn offered the Vice-Presidential nomination, but all refused to accept it.

Chas. G. Dawes, a Chicago banker, a Brigadier General during the late war, was then nominated and has accepted the nomination. Dawes is said to be very acceptable to the administration. He has recently gained prominence as chairman of the committee sent to Germany to work out a plan whereby that country could pay its war debts.

HEYMAN'S DRUG STORE BURGLARIZED FRIDAY.

While Mr. Heyman and Rowland Martin were in the front packing the ice cream packers and arranging to close the store about 10 o'clock last Friday night, one or more parties entered the store through the rear door and took about $114.00 in cash and checks from the cash drawer in the safe. Both the inside and outside doors of the safe were closed, but neither were locked, and as it is difficult to open the doors without making some noise, it is evident that the thief was very familiar with the safe and the arrangements of the rear part of the store. So far no clue has been found that would lead to the arrest of those responsible for the theft.

Misses Austin M. Durst, Luise and Grenade Farmer and K. G. Durst and wife, were visitors in Kerrville last week.

GRASSHOPPERS SCARCE WHERE TURKEYS GROW.

There is still some evidence of the grasshopper in different sections of the county, while very few of the farmers contemplate any serious damage.

Commissioner Wiley Fisher, in talking with The Eagle reporter last week, stated that since the hoppers had become the object of so much speculation recently and had gained such a prominent place in the newspapers of this section of the State, where in many places they are doing serious damage to crops, he has been making some observations in his part of the county. He has found that on those farms where the owners raised a large number of turkeys last year, the hoppers can hardly be found, but on farms where few or no turkeys were allowed to feed, there are a good many grasshoppers.

With the grasshopper situation growing more serious in this part of the State each year and also considering the fact that turkeys are ordinarily very profitable to those who raise them, it seems to be in line to encourage the raising of more turkeys in this county. Past experience shows that turkeys can be successfully and profitably grown here and a good many people will have a fine bunch to place on the market this fall and the revenue will be an important item, too.

MAN ARRESTED FOR STEALING TOOL KIT.

Thursday night a young man came into the Fritz Hotel and registered under the name of J. A. Thurston of Houston. He paid for his accommodations in advance and stated that he was leaving early the next morning for Sonora.

C. M. Doyle, the piano man from Kerrville, was also at the hotel that night and had left his piano tools in a traveling bag in the lobby of the hotel. When he came down the next morning, his tool kit was missing and the sheriff's department was notified and the young man who had left early, was suspected of the theft. Deputy L. M. Stewart made a search for the man, who was driving a new Ford touring car, without a top. Shortly after the search began, the man was seen driving thru town, and was arrested and held here until Sheriff Gibbs came from London. After being questioned, Mr. Gibbs said the man admitted he had taken the tools and had hid them on the road near the Dug Nance place. They drove to the spot, but did not find the traveling bag, but later found that the Menard mail driver had picked up the bag in the road and had carried it on to Menard. The man first gave the name of F. H. Thurman, but later claimed that his name was F. H. Neil and that he lived in Houston.

The sheriff telegraphed the Davis Motor Co., who sold the car and found that the car had been stolen in Houston last Saturday a week ago, and when stolen had a top and a spare casing, and belonged to a man by the name of Charles Powell, of Houston, who came up last Sunday to get his car.

The traveling bag contained tools worth about $75, according to Mr. Doyle.

The man is still in jail here, but Houston authorities will likely come here to return him to Houston for trial. It is stated that the man expressed a desire to plead guilty to the theft of the car and tools.

After trial at Houston it will be possible to bring him here for trial also.

HIGHWAY BULLETIN TO BROADCAST ROAD REPORT.

As additional evidence that the State Highway Department is striving to serve the people to the fullest extent is the announcement that beginning with Monday, June 16th, the Texas Highway Bulletin, the official organ of the department, will conduct a road condition report bureau, in order to inform those who use the State highways, of the exact condition of the roads over the State.

This service will be rendered in two separate forms. First, the report on the highways will be broadcasted every day from the Broadcasting Station of the Texas Highway Bulletin at Austin; second, inquiries by mail will be answered.

The report will be broadcasted each day. In the morning the report will be sent out in code; in the afternoon, between the hours of six and seven, it will be given by voice. The report will be relayed to all sections of the State by amateur radio stations in different cities within the range of the Bulletin broadcasting station at Austin. In answering inquiries by mail the best routes and the condition of the highway to and from various places over the State will be given. NOTABLES TO ATTEND TEXAS LEGION MEETING

The following is from the Temple Telegram:

Gen. John J. Pershing, Secretary of Labor, Davis, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Roosevelt, Judge K. M. Landis and other prominent persons, have been invited to attend the convention of the Texas department, American Legion, which will meet in Brownwood August 18, 19 and 20. It was announced yesterday by the program committee of the state department, which met here to make final arrangements for the convention.

Judge K. M. Landis already has accepted the invitation to the convention and it is expected that General Pershing, other noted army officers and high officials from Washington will be present.

Among those invited to the convention, the state program committee announced, are General Pershing, Secretary of Labor, Davis, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Roosevelt, General Walter T. Hines, Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau; John R. Quinn, national commander of the Legion; Alvin Owsley, former national commander; Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, of judicial and baseball fame; General Henry T. Allen, commander of the 90th division during the war and later commander of the American forces in Germany; General William T. Smith, commander of the 36th division; General Jas. A. Darwin, Washington; Major General Paul B. Malone, Fort Sam Houston; George Berry, international president of the printers' and pressmen's union; Mme. Schumann-Heink and Governor Pat M. Neff.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, it was announced, will sing several pieces for the legionnaires at the convention.

It was said by the committee that if General Pershing accepted the invitation to the convention the president of one of the large railroads traversing Texas would put his private car at the general's disposal and would bring him and other Washington officials to Brownwood.

The legion convention will formally dedicate Brownwood's new $150,000 memorial hall to the soldiers and sailors who lost their lives in the war. The hall is a magnificent structure, seats over 4,000 persons, has an excellent dance floor—which will be put to good use during the convention—and would do credit, it is said, to a town several times the size of Brownwood.

State Commander Sherwood of Temple expressed himself as delighted yesterday with the enthusiasm to which various posts over the state are looking forward to the convention. Many of the posts are putting on membership drives and are taking a renewed interest in legion activities.

LYNCH DAVIDSON IS STILL RUNNING STRONG

Dallas, June 12.—Lynch Davidson, candidate for Governor, went through Dallas Wednesday in his flivver, bound for the Panhandle section of Texas, stopping long enough to say: "Being the leading candidate and assured of my entrance by a wide margin into the second primary, I have about decided to spend the remainder of the campaign defending the name of Lynch Davidson from being branded with Non-partisan Leagueism and Socialism."

Of the present campaign situation Lynch Davidson declared: "I find the Democrats of Texas amazed at the encroaching forces of socialism now beating into their ranks, led by T. W. Davidson and the Non-partisan League. In fact, there is almost a general feeling of dismay at the effrontery with which the subtle schemes of the Non-partisan League are being foisted upon us."

Mentioning the fact that T. W. Davidson, as he put it, sought to eliminate the 35 cent tax limit and "turn the legislature loose on our property for taxation purposes, plunge the State into the insurance business, lend its billion-dollar credit for building rural and urban homes, shift taxes from improved property onto undeveloped lands, and wipe out the $7,000,000 tax arrears debt of tax slackers," the candidate added:

"I view the campaign with regret from the standpoint of the only business man who has ever offered for the governorship in Texas for this reason. I presumed when I entered the race that it was to be one of construction. I had hoped each candidate might vie with the others in offering something perspective of the present bankrupt condition of our State's affairs, and the remedy. Now instead of witnessing a constructive campaign, Texas is looking upon a fight of Conservatism, led by myself, against Socialism, led by T. W. Davidson and his Nonpartisan League-Klan combination. We stop to ask the question of ourselves: what are we coming to? Must we postpone our constructive effort to build a great empire in Texas, to drive out the socialists? When are we to be given an opportunity of strengthening our internal affair? When is Democracy not to be endangered by inroads of blocs, groups, cliques and factions? In France the 'left wing' prevails; in England the House of Commons debates seriously on permitting a renter to remain indefinitely in his landlord's house on affidavit of incompetency to pay. The Brookharts, LaFolletts and Mangus Johnsons are disrupting our republican form of government. The Nonpartisan League wrecked North Dakota, slunk into Oklahoma under the cloak of Jack Walton, and now, led by T. W. Davidson, has reared its ugly head in Texas. It is not surprising, then, that we must look with alarm at the encroaching forces of evil."

Lynch Davidson added that he also regretted political horse-swapping had become so much in style in striving for gubernatorial office.

"Take T. W. Davidson for instance," he said. "He has traded so much in the vain effort of election that he even now has the brand of the Ku Klux Klan. What wouldn't I give to meet opponents in this race who traded nothing but constructive statesmanship for the votes of the Democrats of Texas? Yet, it becomes the political style to juggle your lieutenant governorship with the State University presidency that you may eventually become governor by accession."

"Politically, it means nothing over which I should worry. My success in the race is assured, but it would have meant so much to Texas if this campaign could have been a contest of principles, rather than one of barter, trades and socialism. Nothing pleases me more than to have the typical Texas Democrat grasp me by the hand wherever I go and exclaim, 'Lynch Davidson—anti-bloc, anti-clique, anti-Klan; you are just a plain Democrat.' That is what means something."

Misses Lola Cottle and Mary

Anderson were terribly frightened and the former badly bitten Monday evening by a dog owned by N. J. Davis. Miss Cottle, accompanied by Miss Anderson, had gone to the Davis home on business when the dog attacked them, catching Miss Cottle who tore loose from him, whereupon he turned on Miss Anderson, catching her dress as the girls ran in the house closing the door. Vicious dogs should be tied, or sent to the dog's happy hunting ground—Fredericksburg Standard.

Bill Oliver and W. Z. Miller attended the Pecan Growers Convention at Fredericksburg last week and through the courtesy of Mr. Miller, we are able to give the report of the meeting on another page.

The goal for new members was set at 500 and The Eagle takes this opportunity to call attention of the pecan growers of this section of the State to this drive for membership in the Association and hopes that a large number of these new members will be from this county. We ought to have at least one hundred members from Kimble County, and we ought to bring the convention here in 1925 or 1926.

No industry can amount to much unless it has the advantages of a good organization.
Every pecan grower should become a member. The fee is small, only $2., and the subscription price of the official magazine is only $1. It will be well worth this small amount to any grower. The conventions are held, usually, in this section of the State and the benefits that can be derived from attending these conventions will be more than the small annual fees.

The pecan industry in Kimble County, while at present is one of our important industries, is only in its infancy. Budding and grafting will appeal to more and more growers each year and the next few years will bring about a wonderful change in the quality of pecan which will be produced here.

Superintendent Miller advises The Eagle that during vacation time he will be very glad to assist any of the pecan growers of this county in their budding work, free of charge. This is an opportunity that should not be overlooked. He is an experienced pecan man and can teach you the best methods of budding in a short while and you can improve your pecan orchards materially with only a very little expense.

There is always a bigger demand for fancy pecans than for commons, and the price received well justifies the small expense and effort to improve the quality of the pecans you want to market.

COMMUNITY EFFORT.

Much community effort is almost entire lost for the same reason that individual effort fails. Chambers of Commerce, in small towns especially, drift into a state of general donothingness when the members begin to get careless about attending meetings. Clubs, like the Rotary, Kiwanis and the Lions, find that they cannot do anything worth while unless the meet regularly, and so they meet lunch or dinner, and fine their members or drop them for non-attendance. They strive about as hard to maintain a high attendance record as for anything else, for they know that poor attendance means poor interest. They keep their members constantly on the job or put them out of the organization. Town building and community development cannot be done by "fits and jerks."

Like individual effort, community effort is often largely wasted because there is no definite plan of work. Every organization working for city or community good should outline the work for some definite period ahead and then stick to that outline as closely as possible. If this is not done there is sure to be much going off after inconsequential things that results in wasted effort. The places that put things over that are worth while are those that know what they want to do and then stay right on the job until it is done.
That is about the only secret there is to why some places do thing worth while unless they flutter around and accomplish little or nothing.—Mason County News.

RUNGE ANNOUNCES AS LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE

Attorney Roscoe Runge aspires to the office of representative to the Texas Legislature from the 86th district.

This esteemed gentleman of high principles and ideals needs no introduction to the voters of Mason County, but for the other nine counties in this district, we would desire only that he would be known as we know him. He is admired for his honest business dealings. He presents no big platform containing many different planks like platforms of many candidates and which often give way after election.

Mr. Runge states he is for the Best Interests of the People of this district, and as the Editor of the News has had the privilege of knowing him for many years, we can assure the people of the 86th Legislative District that if Roscoe Runge is elected to the Texas Legislature, they will be well represented, as he is a man who well understands the conditions of this section of the State. He will never hesitate to take the initiative.—Mason County News.

Roscoe Runge was born and reared in Mason County, Texas; educated in the public free

FORMER RANGER SHOT. WELL KNOWN HERE.

Austin, June 16.—Joe A. Taylor, shot and killed by a Mexican on the Rio Grande border near San Benito Saturday, served for several years as a Texas Ranger, and there never was a braver or more faithful officer, according to Capt. J. W. Aldrich, quartermaster of the State Ranger forces.

During the days when Mexican bandits swarmed along the border, Capt. Aldrich said that Taylor did a large share of the work in driving the desperadoes out of Texas.

"I always thought Taylor bore a charmed life," said Capt. Aldrich. "On several occasions he had his horse shot from under him, and on one occasion a rain of bullets from an ambuscade tore holes in his saddle, but not one of the leaden missiles struck Taylor. All thru his long service as a Ranger, I don't think Taylor ever received as much as a scratch, and he was shot at scores of times."

The subject of the foregoing article is a son of Lee Taylor, and a cousin of W. W. Taylor, and was raised in this county. He was well known and had many friends in this section.

A very pretty home wedding of the past week was that of Miss Sallie Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ray of Dallas, and Irvin Jarvis, which took place Sunday at 2:30.

The home was attractively decorated with flowers and ferns. Rev. R. E. Parker, who read the ring ceremony, was the first to enter. The bride entered with her father and was met at the altar by the groom.

The bride was charming in a white georgette gown with wide bands of lace and ribbon. Her bouquet was of snapdragon.

STORY OF TWO BOYS RAISED ON FARMS.

"I left my dad his farm his plow Because my calf became his cow I left my dad—'twas wrong of course,

Because my colt became his horse;

I left my dad to sow and reap Because my lamb became his sheep.

I dropped my hoe and stuck my fork.

Because my pig became his pork
The garden truck I had to grow Was his to sell and mine to hoe."

Why the Other Boy Didn't.
"With dad and me it's half and half,

The cow I own was once his calf No town for mine, I will not bolt Because my horse was once his colt;

I'm going to stick right where I am

Because my sheep was once his lamb;

I'll stay with dad, he gets my vote

Because my hog was once his shoat;

It's fifty-fifty with dad and me, A profit-sharing company."

The foregoing story of two boys on the farm is literally filled with food for thought.

Every father of a boy, whether he is a farmer or engaged in some other interesting, delightful profitable vocation, can learn a lesson of unmeasured benefit to himself and his boy from this story. And the adjectives are not misapplied. Farm life can be and is being made interesting, delightful and profitable on thousands of farms in Texas, and multiplied thousands thriving out the land. The fifty-fifty basis with sons is having its legitimate effect in every line of useful endeavor and in no place or calling are the results more fruitful than on the farm, where character is being formed by those who are at the same time feeding the world.

While the growing of crops is a state and national necessity, the development of boys and girls into a splendid citizenship of men and women is of no less importance, and throughout the ages the farm has been the nursery of both great men and great women. The boy reared in the country has been saving the city since the Nazarene came to Jerusalem. In physical, mental and moral strength, the farm-reared have always supplied the outstanding individuals and groups in world leadership. It is the closer kinship with nature which comes of intimate association with the soil that marks the farm-grown products in its matured manhood and womanhood, leaders in world thought and action; the salvation of the state, the hope of the nation.

Give the boy a chance; let him have, at as early age as may be, a fifty-fifty opportunity for development along the lines that make for individual responsibility and a worthy citizenship.—Southland Life Bulletin.

WORK OF FLOOD CONTROL.

MAP WORK COMPLETED.

Austin, June 7.—Major Chas.
A. Cooke has closed his offices with the water engineers here and gone to Washington. He has been in charge of the topographic work in Texas for the United States Geological Survey and his departure terminates the joint mapping with the water board for the present season. As yet the water board has not renewed its co-operative contract with the United States Geological Survey for the ensue-year, but expects to do so in the near future. When that is done, Major Cooke will return to Texas or some other topographical engineer will come here. The engineer, however, will not be here before next fall.

A large number of areas have been mapped and are ready for reclamation and conservation work, but many more are to be mapped under the major plan and the surveys will be resumed next fall, as only half of the

THE SOO CANALS

The Saint Mary's river connects Lake Superior with Lake Huron.
Nature studded this river with rock and possessed it with a rapids which falls twenty feet in three-quarters of a mile. This made the movement of the cargoes of furs and merchandise, which came down through the lakes in the early days, well nigh impossible.

Accordingly, in 1853, the work of building that which is said to have been the first ship canal within the borders of these United States was begun. This canal was 5,674 feet long and its locks permitted the passage of vessels drawing twelve feet of water.
As this nation developed more and greater cargoes resulted, and the canal and locks had to be enlarged.

The commerce of the Great Lakes continued to grow by leaps and bounds. The present series of canals and locks, completed in 1914, cost several millions of dollars. Now vessels drawing some 24 feet of water can be accommodated. The largest lock is 1,350 feet long. Five ships can be handled at one locking. As many as 125 vessels have passed through in a single day. Although the bulk of the traffic moves through the canals on the American side, there is also a large canal on the Canadian side.

The season of navigation varies according to the weather. Generally speaking, the canals open in April and close in December. The tremendous volume of traffic which passes through in a single season is astounding.

The report of the United States canal office at Sault Ste. Marie for 1922 shows that an average of 66 vessels per day or 17,883 passed through the canals during that period.
These vessels carried 57,048 passengers and 20,007,258 tons of freight, the value of which was estimated to be almost one billion dollars.

The east-bound traffic included, in round numbers, 210,000,000 feet of lumber; 4,660,000 barrels of flour; 245,000,000 bushels of wheat; 108,000, 000 bushels of other grain; 37,000 tons of copper; 42,000,000 tons of iron ore and 252,000 tons of general merchandise. The chief items which made up the west-bound traffic included, using round numbers again, 8,700,000 tons of soft and 688,000 tons of hard coal; 26,000 tons of manufactured iron and steel products; 65,000 tons of salt; 156,000 tons of oil; 620,000 tons of stone, sand and gravel, and 312,000 tons of general merchandise.

Texas appropriation has been used. The Federal Government matches state fund in this work

A variety of work has been made possible under the surveys; in some places irrigation, in others conservation of flood waters, and still others levee building to guard against overflows. The geology has been done at the dam sites and the reservoir areas surveyed to show amount of water impounded and available for irrigation.

John A. Norris, chairman of the water board, has gone to Cotulla with other engineers to make an inspection of that area where a four-mile dam is to be constructed under surveys just completed, and 80,000 acres irrigated.

FIGHTING FLIES OF BROWN

COUNTY KILLS HOPPERS.

It is reported on good authority that a species of fly has made its appearance in Brown County by the millions and that this fly is paying no attention to anything except the grasshoppers that are attacking the crops of the county.

One farmer reported recently that the ground on his farm was literally covered with millions of grasshoppers that have been stung to death by this new fly.

The fly attacks the grasshopper by lighting on the insect and depositing an egg in the joint that connects the head and body of the insect. The insect is stupefied and the egg soon hatches a larva which proceeds to devour the comatose grasshopper.

It is said that the flies are present by the billions, and are not pretending to do anything but sting grasshoppers.—Dublin Progress.

SHALL ANGORA REGISTRY BE CONSOLIDATED?

Merging of the two Angora record bodies is recommended by the committees named to discuss plans. Meeting at Uvalde, Texas, May 8th, the seven members were lined up as follows: Representing the A. A. G. B. A., only—Bob Davis, J. A. Ward.

Members of both associations—F. O. Landrum, Fred T. Earwood, B. M. Halbert.

Representing N. A. R. A. only—Jack Turner, J. B. Randolph.

After discussion, it was decided to submit the plan for adoption or rejection, by the breeders of the United States, in the following form:

Report of Merger Committee.

We, the undersigned, your committee, appointed by the American Angora Goat Breeders Association and the National Angora Record Association, recommend consolidation of the two associations under the following conditions:

That the N. A. R. A. merge into and become a part of the A. A. G. B. A., and that the two associations become one, and carry the name of the American Angora Goat Breeders Association.

The records of registry on inspected Angora goats shall be kept separate from the records of the A. A. G. B. A. until the third increase, when they shall take their place in the records of the A. A. G. B. A. the same as those now registered in the A. A. G. B. A. Certificates shall begin with No. 1 and be numbered consecutively upward until the registered animals take their place in the A. A. G. B. A. Records.

All certificates of registry on such inspected Angora goats shall be stamped "Registered by Inspection." The certificates of the first increase from them shall be stamped "Sire and Dam Registered by Inspection," with exception that if either the sire or dam is an animal registered in the A. A. G. B. A., then the register certificate need not be stamped for such sire or dam. Certificates of the second increase shall be stamped "Grand-sire and Granddam Registered by Inspection," with exceptions as noted above. The third increase from Angora registered as above shall take their place on the records now being kept by the A. A. G. B. A. and be numbered accordingly.

That all members in good standing in the N. A. R. A. on January 1, 1922, be eligible to membership, and have all goats that are at present registered in the N. A. R. A. registered in the A. A. G. B. A., and that said members of the N. A. R. A. and their registered goats shall be accepted by the A. A. G. B. A. free of cost to said members.

That all members in the N. A. R. A. admitted into the A. A. G. B. A. shall have full authority and privileges with the members of the A. A. G. B. A. with annual dues. That in the expenses of the consolidation each association shall go fifty-fifty on the financial condition of said associations, and each association shall pay its own debts up to date of consolidation.

All members not in good standing January 1, 1922, will not be accepted into the A. A. G. B. A.

Bob Davis, J. A. Ward, F. O. Landrum, A. A. G. B. Association Committee.

Fred T. Earwood, B. M. Halbert, Jack Turner, J. B. Randolph, N. A. R. Association Committee.

When the subject is presented to the individual growers, members of each association will have privilege to vote to ratify or reject the acts of the respective committees. Whatever the opinion of individual growers, it is unquestioned that more can be accomplished in a single effective, smooth-working registry than on a divided basis. That these men could come to an agreement proves that there is a basis of settlement for this perplexing problem. Such action would give one big strong registry association, and would add new impulse to mohair growing in America.—Angora Journal.

The ballots have already been mailed to the members of the A. A. G. B. Association and the date for voting is past, but information as to the results will not likely be made public until the votes of the members of the N. A. R. Association have been returned to the Junction office and counted.

Secretary Jack Turner is mailing out the ballots to the National Association members this week and the results will be known shortly after July 20th, which is the last day on which ballots can be returned to the secretary.

SHEEP AND GOAT RAISERS' CONVENTION NEXT WEEK.

(San Angelo Standard.)

Claude B. Hudspeth of El Paso, Congressman from the Sixteenth Texas District, will be one of the speakers at the 8th annual convention of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association of Texas in San Angelo June 24th, 25th, and 26th. He has accepted the invitation to speak Wednesday morning, June 25th, on "The Progress of Legislation Affecting the Sheep and Goat Industry," it was announced Wednesday morning at the Board of City Development. Congressman Hudspeth, a ranchman himself, is one of the most popular figures in the Southwest among producers, due to his efforts in their behalf, and his presence at the convention will be a drawing card.

Box seats for the automobile races at the fair grounds on Wednesday afternoon, June 25, will go on sale next week at the Board of City Development. The convention finance committee of which R. H. Compton is chairman, will within a few days begin soliciting to raise a fund of $2,500 to defray the expenses of entertainment.

A big crowd at the convention is indicated by daily communications being received by Claude A. Broome, chairman of the general committee here, from members of the association executive committee, advising that all most of their entire communities expect to come to San Angelo. Two thousand personal invitations to producers to attend the convention have been mailed out by the B. C. Sick Headache

"I have used Black-Draught when needed for the past 25 years," says Mrs. Emma Grimes, of Forbes, Mo. "I began taking it for a bad case of constipation. I would get constipated and feel just miserable—sluggish, tired, a bad taste in my mouth, . . . and soon my head would begin hurting and I would have a severe sick headache. I don't know just who started me to taking but it did the work. It just seemed to cleanse the liver. Very soon I felt like new. When I found Black-Draught so easy to take and easy-acting, I began to use it in time and would not have sick headaches."

Thedford's

Constipation causes the system to re-absorb poisons that may cause great pain and much danger to your health. Take Thedford's Black-Draught. It will stimulate the liver and help to drive out the poisons.

MISSSES STONE HONORED.

On last Friday Mrs. Carl M. Wolf very delightfully entertained the Ladies' Afternoon Club with a one o'clock luncheon having as honorees Misses Dorothy and Ruby Stone.

Bridge formed the diversion of the morning. Seven tables of players participated in the games.

The color scheme, yellow and white, was carried out in the bridge accessories and refreshments. Mrs. Lee J. Corkill was presented with an attractive salad set, the guest prize; and Mrs. W. P. Riley was the recipient of a pretty bracelet as club prize. Each of the honorees was presented with a beautiful fan.

The two-course luncheon consisted of chicken salad, potato chips, hot rolls, pickles and iced tea, orange ice, angel food and yellow cake. The plate favors being shasta daisies and fern corsages.

MUDGES GIVE BARBECUE.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Mudge graciously entertained for Misses Dorothy and Ruby Stone who will sail for England the 26th inst.

The guests were met in a beautiful grove of trees by the host and hostess and honorees and asked to stop there for a swim and barbecue supper which had been so nicely prepared. After a very delightful swim a most appetizing lunch, consisting of salads, pickles, barbecue, cakes and tea were served.

Those who were asked to participate in this lovely affair were told to bring letters for the girls to be read on board the steamer. The girls were directed in a novel way among the trees and cars in a search for the letters. Upon finding them their surprise was much outranked by their thanks for such thoughtfulness.

Several games were enjoyed before the hour of adieu.

About seventy-five participated in this lovely affair, wishing for the girls a wonderful voyage.

SWIMMING PARTY.

Mrs. Howell Wright entertained with a swimming party and picnic lunch at Price's Camp Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. French Murphy of Nacogdoches, Texas.
