Saigon Pact Is Debated

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) said today he may propose an on-the-spot inquiry to get all the facts in a controversy over the foreign aid program in Viet Nam.

Mansfield is chairman of a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee which recalled American aid officials for further questioning today about administration of the program.

He asked the officials to return with a full answer to charges of irregularities in the award of a steel contract in that Southeast Asian republic.

The charges were made by Scripps-Howard writer Albert M. Colegrove, whose series of articles written from Saigon touched off the hearings.

Mansfield said he may suggest to the full Foreign Relations Committee that it send an investigator of its own to Saigon, or ask its foreign policy study group to contract for a special nongovernmental study.

Colegrove told the committee Thursday that Frank Gonder, an American business man representing Bethlehem Steel, claimed he lost out in the bidding for a steel bridge contract with Viet Nam although his bid per ton was below that of the winner. The award went to the Eurasia Corp., a firm with Belgian supply sources, Colegrove said.

"Gonder is prepared to testify under oath that a confidentail informant told him two weeks before the sealed bids were opened Colegroce testified.

"He is further prepared to testify that at formal bid openings at which some 58 bids were examined, there was no bid from the Eurasia Corp., opened or announced."

The chairman asked the State Department for "a full and complete statement either admitting or denying" the Gonder charges.

Foreign aid officials entered a general denial of Colegrove's charges Thursday.

Leonard J. Saccio, deputy director of the International Cooperation Administration called Colegrove's stories reckless, sweeping and written in a conspicuously sensational vein.

Arthur Z. Gardiner, head of the foreign aid mission in Saigon, said some of Colegrove's charges "make my blood boil."

Ambassador Elbridge Durborw and Lt. Gen. Samuel T. Williams, head of the Military Assistance Advisody Group, backed up his testimony.

Colegrove had written that Americans in Viet Nam were instructed from Washington "not to rock the boat" and if they did not like the way things were done to "shut up and quit."

Nixon Promises To Answer Red Hecklers

By JOHN SCALI

MOSCOW (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon returned today from a flying Siberian-Ural trip and promised to answer Soviet hecklers in a televised speech to the Russian people Saturday night.

Nixon also is expected to give a nationwide television report to the American people after he stops off in Poland for a three-day visit.

He called off all appointments at the American Embassy tonight as well as most of Saturday. At Moscow Airport, Nixon in effect urged the Russians to hear and see his address.

Talking into a microphone, he said:

"When I speak tomorrow night at 8 o'clock I will discuss and answer some of the questions I got during the trip. I will also give my impressions of the Soviet economy, the managers, workers and people."

Nixon called his fast-moving, five day trip outside Moscow "very interesting." The Russian people, he said, are very friendly to Americans even as the people of the United States are toward the people of the U.S.S.R.

"I found a common interest in finding ways to peace," he said. "I heard on every side the word mir druzhba—peace and friendship."

Nixon, accompanied by his wife and his 30-member official party, flew into the Soviet capital aboard a Russian TU104 jet. It whisked him in 2 hours from the Ural industrial city of Sverdlovsk, 850 miles away.

During the flight, he dictated part of his address to a secretary. He arranged to spend six hours drafting it further tonight.

Nixon seemed tired after his 5,000 mile tour in the Soviet Union.

In ending his stay in the Soviet hinterland, Nixon appealed for world leaders to settle their political disputes so that Soviet and American scientists could devote their full time to peaceful atomic work instead of atomic bombs.

Nixon made his plea after traveling deep into a Siberian birch forest to inspect the site of a Soviet atomic power plant. He found a swarm of some 3,000 men and women workers, but the plant was only half as big as expected.

Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, father of the U.S. atomic submarine, accompanied Nixon and seconded his words with an invitation to the Soviet engineers at the plant to tour American atomic installations.

Nixon, looking out over the maze of semi-finished brick and concrete buildings, told the workmen: "This is the most hopeful use of the atom. We look forward to the time when we can devote all our efforts to opening up great new vistas for both our people rather than production of atomic weapons."

Soviet engineers applauded Nixon's views.

Alexei Semenkin, 46 - year - old construction chief, replied as Soviet Foreign Office officials nodded in agreement: "Your words give me assurance that we almost have arrived at that stage. We are doing everything to develop ways and means for peaceful uses. If there is a will, a person can do it.

"We are convinced in our minds that your people do want this cooperation. And we are assured that new discoveries by our scientists will lead the way to new conquests in peaceful progress."

Nixon reached the plant site after traveling in a motorcade over rough gravel and dirt roads, churning huge clouds of dust for the 12 miles of the trip from the eastern Ural center of Sverdlovsk.

Guilty Pleas Are Entered By Pair Here

Pleas of guilty were received in 132nd District Court here yesterday to a total of 10 indictments by Clarence C. Price, Jr., of Snyder and five indictments against Eddie McCorkle of Littlefield.

Most of the indictments had been returned by the grand jury Monday against the two.

Price's pleas of guilty were to nine cases of burglary and one of theft. Judge Sterling Williams gave Price a five-year penitentiary sentence in each case, to run concurrently but to be "stacked" onto the seven-year sentence he received at Del Rio recently for burglary.

Also "stacked" onto the time is the two years which Judge Williams had probated several months ago on a previous burglary case, revoked yesterday, giving Price a total of 14 years.

McCorkle was given a two-year sentence in each of his cases to run concurrently. They included two indictments for burglary, two for accomplice to burglary and one for theft.

Price is 18, McCorkle 17. They were represented in court by Robert R. Patterson, who was court appointed. Wayland G. Holt, district attorney, was prosecutor.

McCorkle still has a case pending at Del Rio, where he has been charged but not indicted. The grand jury there is to consider the case in August.

Red Regime Forced Out

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru's government today forced the Communist government of Kerala State out of office on the ground it was unable to rule peacefully under the Indian Constitution.

This placed the steaming South Indian state under the rule of the central government in New Delhi. The action followed more than a month of violence by anti-Communist groups in Kerala.

The Communists won a two-vote majority in the State Assembly in elections in 1957. Their popular vote was less than half of the total, but divisions among the opposition gave them the victory.

Union Wants More Federal Activity

NEW YORK (AP)—The head of the steel union has indicated it would welcome increased federal participation in efforts to settle the nationwide steel industry strike.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, says: "In view of the size and complexity of the steel industry, I don't see how the government can help but become involved in something as important as a steel strike."

McDonald's remark, made at a news conference Thursday, was interpreted in some quarters as an expression of hope that the government would intervene directly in the 17-day-old strike.

Federal activity so far has been limited mostly to two things:

1. The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, headed by Joseph F. Finnegan, has been working daily in efforts to bring about a settlement.

2. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell has been serving as a fact-finder for President Eisenhower and keeping him apprised of developments in the strike and its effects.

Finnegan and aides said they would meet with union negotiators today and would keep in touch with the industry group by telephone.

Finnegan also said he had reported on the course of the discussions to Mitchell today and would continue to do so over the weekend.

The mediator said industry representatives informed him they were returning to Pittsburgh for the weekend.

As the steel deadlock continued, further progress was made in averting scattered strikes in some segments of the aluminum industry.

Negotiations continue today in efforts to prevent a strike at midnight by the Aluminum Workers International Union against the Reynolds Metals Co. The talks went on until Thursday midnight with federal mediators sitting in.

Matt Davis, an international vice president of the union, said the main issue in dispute is working conditions at Reynolds plants in Virginia, Alabama and Kentucky.

Negro Faces Two Counts

Indictments were returned by the Scurry County grand jury here yesterday against John Winston Prince.

Prince was indicted on one charge of burglary of a private residence with intent to rape and one of assault with intent to rape.

The indictments against the 29-year-old Negro man were in connection with an incident on south Avenue M involving a Negro housewife July 19.

Wayland G. Holt, district attorney, said Prince was indicted as a habitual offender. The indictments alleged two prior felony convictions, one for attempted rape in Midland County in 1951 and one for car theft in McClannan County in 1957.

District Judge Sterling Williams this morning appointed Robert R. Patterson as Prince's attorney, but by noon Prince had not entered a plea.

Sharp Rise In Paralytic Polio Cases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Paralytic polio cases reported by the states increased to 177 last week, highest weekly total of the year.

The increase of 11 cases over the week ended July 18 was far lower, however, than the increase of 56 cases between July 11 and 18, Public Health Service statistics showed today.

The 177 paralytic cases last week compared with 73 in the corresponding 1958 week.

Through July 25 this year there have been 1,133 paralytic cases, compared with 510 in the similar 1958 period. In 1955, the year Salk vaccine was introduced, over 2,131 cases had been reported by late July.

Altogether, the states reported 278 polio cases—both paralytic and nonparalytic — for the week ended July 25, compared with 257 in the week ended July 18 and 178 in the July 11 week.

More than half the new paralytic cases listed last week were in seven states: Alabama 20, Texas 15, Missouri 14, Tennessee 11, California 11, Arkansas 10 and Louisiana 10.

Florida and Oregon each reported two deaths due to polio.

West Germany Urges Firm Stand In Berlin

By JOHN H. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—West Germany today urged the United States to stand firm against any pressure to make concessions to the Russians in the final days of the Big Four foreign ministers conference, reliable informants said.

The plea was made directly to U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter by Heinrich von Brentano, West German foreign minister, at an hour's conference, these sources added.

West Germany fears a diplomatic trap may be sprung by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko before the conference ends or recesses Wednesday. The Germans believe Gromyko may offer a concession in Soviet demands that the Western garrisons get out of Berlin, then use this to pry concessions from the West.

Associates said Von Brentano told Herter his government believes any Berlin solution based on the latest Soviet proposals would weaken the Western position in Berlin. One aspect of the Soviet plan that alarmed the Germans was the proposal for curtailing propaganda and subversive activities in Berlin.

Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, sat in on the talks between Von Brentano and Herter.

The West Germans met with Herter shortly before he went into another secret session with Gromyko, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville at Gromyko's villa.

Meanwhile, high-level experts from East and West failed to reach agreement in a session devoted to an effort to find common language in the rival Soviet and Western proposals for a Berlin settlement.

Qualified Informants said the experts then decided to inform the Big Four ministers of their failure and leave to the ministers a decision on whether they would meet again.

Sidney A. Johnson Killed In Mishap

Sidney A. Johnson, about 68, longtime Scurry County rancher, was killed last night when struck by an automobile at San Antonio.

Mr. Johnson and his wife had the last several years maintained residences both in San Antonio and at thier ranch in the Ennis Creek community northeast of here.

Friends of the family here were told that Mr. Johnson was struck by an automobile at about 10 o'clock last night and that he died about 1:30 a.m. today in Robert B. Green Hospital there.

Reared in Scurry County, Mr. Johnson had been a cattle rancher for many years on a large ranch near Ennis Creek.

The son of the Late Billy Johnson, pioneer Scurry County rancher and banker, he attended school in Snyder and a military school at Roswell, N. M., before returning here to become a fulltime rancher. His father had been president of the old First National Bank, which was located in the building, now occupied by Drs. Blum & Nesbitt.

A funeral service will be held at 1:30 tomorrow at the Porter-Loring Funeral Chapel in San Antonio, with the Rev. Grover I. Chapman, pastor of the Travis Park Methodist Church there, officiating.

A second service has been tentatively set for 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Bell Funeral Home Chapel here. Burial will be in the Snyder Cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Clara Mae Johnson, and one son, Weldon Johnson, also a Scurry County rancher.

Reducing Pill Sales Halted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers announced the government today obtained a court order to halt interstate sales of a reducing tablet called "RX-120" because of alleged false and misleading claims for the product.

The action in District Court at New York City was taken at the request of the Food and Drug Administration. The temporary restraining order was directed against the distributor of the tablets, Wilson-Williams Co., Inc., of Tuckahoe, N. Y., and its president, Jack Elliott.

The Justice Department complaint charged the tablets were promoted by extravagant claims, including a representation that the product "fights hunger contractions and telegraphs a 'stop' signal' to the brain when one is tempted to over-eat or indulge in between-meal snacks."

AP Staffer Commended

AUSTIN (AP) — The Austin chapter of Sigma Delta Chi Thursday night commended The Associated Press and AP staffer Frank Manitzas for "breaking through the conference committee screen" of the 56th Legislature.

The professional journalism chapter approved a resolution following a series of exclusive articles by Manitzas on the state spending budget which had been tentatively approved in closely guarded secret sessions.

The resolution commended The AP and Manitzas "for their contributions to freedom of information and the right of people to know what is happening to their state government."

Daughter Is Charged In Man's Death

SAN ANGELO (AP)—Authorities today charged shapely, 22-year-old Bobbie Juanita Osborne with slaying her father. She said she shot him, "Oh, Just for the hell of it."

Calm and unruffled, she refused to tell detectives much about the slaying of Robert A. Osborne, 58, an engineer with General Telephone Co. of the Southwest.

"If he's dead, that's too bad," the brown-haired attractive young woman declared, Detectives said. "I didn't intend to kill him. I just shot."

Osborne died in his home about midnight from a bullet above his heart.

Miss Osborne said the shooting climaxed a tour of bars with her father.

A newsman asked her occupation.

"I'm just a bum," she said. "I don't do nothing."

She served for 15 months with the Air Force, she said.

The two were alone in the house. Her mother and two sisters were visiting in Dallas.

Miss Osborne indicated that she and her father argued during the beer drinking tour.

She said she ordered the tiny black, pearl handled .22 pistol by mail and her father knew she had it in the house.

Farm Family Is Stricken

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Doctors gathered more than one million units of serum today for five members of an east Idaho farm family fighting botulism food poisoning. A sixth member has died.

Three survivors are in iron lungs. They are Kenneth Nelson, 45, his wife, Naomi, 41, and their daughter, Wanda, 15. Another daughter, Martha, 4, and Nelson's mother, Mrs. Aaron Gruwell, are in less serious condition.

Mrs. Gruwell's husband, a 74-year-old farmer, died early Thursday. A doctor said death apparently resulted from botulism poisoning — a toxin found in some preserved foods. The family ate some home-canned beets Tuesday.

Frantic Father Saves Lives Of 5 Children

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A frantic father saved the lives of his five small children today by throwing them to safety from the second floor of his burning home.

Firemen and neighbors waiting below caught the children.

The father, Bernard Finucan, 33-year-old welder, then helped his wife, Bertha 31, to a ladder firemen had managed to get to a window. Finally, with everyone else safely out, Finucan climbed down the ladder himself.

Tax Measure Passed After 194 Days

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — After 194 days of trying the 56th Legislature passed a tax bill.

By an 85-54 vote the House approved late Thursday the 185-million dollar tax measure that passed the Senate 29-2 on Wednesday. The House later raised its approving vote to 115-25 to put the bill in effect Sept. 1, the beginning of the state's fiscal year.

Both Houses then quit until Monday when they hope to begin final work on their second big job of the session — an appropriations bill to cover 1960-1961 spending.

The Senate meets at 10:30 a.m. Monday and the House at 2 P.M.

There were more smiles on capitol hill Thursday afternoon than there have been in months. Bitter political enemies pumped each other's hand and headed arm - in - arm for the nearest refreshment center — milk bar or beer joint.

You obviously have accomplished quite a feat today," said Speaker Waggoner Carr, who fought Gov. Price Daniel's demands for a new type tax on natural gas then at the end voted to put the new levy into immediate effect.

"You have one more feat to accomplish — the appropriations bill," Carr told the House. "The speaker has urged the appropriations committee to go to work at once and bring out a bill, probably Monday."

Rep. Bill Heatly, Paducah, head of the House Appropriations Committee, promised that his 21-man group would not stop work "until the spending bill is in accordance with the tax bill."

Legislative leaders estimate the 185-million dollar tax bill raises from 10 to 20 million dollars more than the 1960-1961 spending plans tentatively approved at the end of the second special session. That also includes the current 34 million deficit.

"The comptroller will cut the bill down now that we've got it passed," Rep. B. H. Dewey, Bryan, a member of the appropriations committee predicted Thursday night. "I'm going to work to put every dime we've got into that appropriations bill."

The House decision Thursday and the Senate's the day before ended an unequalled brawl between legislators who want more sales taxes and those who want more natural gas taxes. Both won and both lost.

The most controversial item of the present bill is a 1½ per cent levy on the first purchaser of natural gas or a severance beneficiary tax. However, 72 per cent of the bill is sales taxes, compared to 28 per cent on industry.

"We could have bought this bill last May," Rep. Dean Johnston, Houston, argued in an unsuccessful attempt to sidetrack the measure to another compromise committee. "This rotten sales tax the Senate sent us will be all right, some people say, because we've got that puny tax on big natural gas that will bring in only 7½ million dollars a year."

Rep. Robert Hughes, Dallas, joined Johnston in his efforts. He said the bill is poorly written " and we need to send it to conference committee to get the bugs out."

"Im afraid a conference committee will put more bugs in it than there are now," said Rep. Bob Eckhardt, Houston, influential House leader in sponsoring the severance beneficiary tax.

Daniel said earlier the natural gas tax is generally acceptable as written. Legislators seemed certain he would sign the bill and not veto it, despite continued pessimism by some members that the gas pipeline tax is illegal.

In addition to the $15,600,000 the gas tax will bring during the next biennium, the other major money raisers include:

Motor vehicle sales tax increase from 1.1 to 1.5 per cent, $15,500,000; cigarette tax increase of 3 cents a pack, $64,458,000; new and increased taxes on cigars and other tobacco products, snuff exempted, $14,500,000; special fuels, better enforcement; $300,000; utilities gross receipts, telephone and telegraph exempted, increased 20 per cent, $3,100,000; corporation franchise tax increase, 75 cents for one year and 50 cents for both years, both temporary, $32,500,000;

Boats and motors, 1.5 per cent of retail, $2,800,000; air conditioners, 3 per cent of retail, $7,[illegible]; radios, TV sets, phonograph sets and parts, 3 per cent of retail, $8,200,000; jewelry and furs, 3 per cent of retail for items $25 and over, $5,000,000; hotel and motel rooms, 3 per cent of occupancy rate, $6,600,000; liquor tax increase from $1.408 to $1.68 and wine tax increased 20 per cent, $6,334,800; comptroller's improved administration and collection, $4,000,000.

The bill reduces current income by $90,000 with recodification of theater admission taxes and by $604,000 with the repeal of a number of minor outdated taxes.

Request Continued Summer Program

A request will be made by the recreation committee of the Chamber of Commerce that the girls summer recreation program, which began here this year, be included in the county's budget for the coming year.

The county, which is now in the process of preparing its 1960 budget, this year spent $3,000 on the girls' recreation program, while the Snyder schools also contributed to the program. Daily recreation programs for girls of Scurry County by fulltime directors is provided in the plan.

The recreation committee, in a meeting yesterday afternoon, also made plans for a fish derby, made an official bid from Snyder for the State Girls Basketball Coaches Association Clinic here next year, planned a city-wide tennis tournament and discussed the State Little League Tournament, which will be held here next month.

Dates have not yet been set for the fishing derby, but it is expected to be held throughout September. The derby will provide prizes of $150 to $200 in merchandise from Snyder merchants for different types and sizes of fish caught in Lake J. B. Thomas. The program is designed to promote Snyder as a fishing headquarters. Nolan von Roeder was appointed sub-committee chairman in charge of the fish derby.

The State Girls Basketball Coaches' Association clinic may be held in Snyder next July. It will include a state all-star basketball game. The bid was being made to directors of the association, which reportedly favored having the clinic in Snyder if Snyder wanted it.

The city-wide tennis tourney will be held in the near future. James Wesson will be tournament director, and the tournament will be sponsored by Von Roeder Seed Farms.

The state Little League tournament will be held in Snyder Aug. 14-15. The committee will work with local and state Little League officials to help make arrangements for the tourney.

The committee discussed proposed water ski club but decided to turn over organization of such a club to those who have expressed interest.

Dr. John Hamblen heads the chamber committee.

Clothes Drier Catches Fire

Fire in a drying machine at Lieb's Drive In Cleaners on the Big Spring Highway destroyed the clothing inside the machine, but did no other damage at noon today.

Firemen were called to the fire at about 12 o'clock today, at noon.

Operators of the cleaners said that only a few items of clothing in the drying machine were damaged or destroyed, and that other garments and the rest of the plant was not damaged.

Solons Plan Quiz Of TV Quiz Shows

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is ready to do some quizzing of its own to see if television quiz programs have been rigged.

Both House and Senate investigators say they're curious about findings of a recent New York grand jury investigation into whether contestants on some of the shows were coached in advance.

The grand jury findings have not been made public.

Several of the TV quiz shows that had been offering big cash rewards went off the air last year ago after charges were made that contestants on some of the shows were fed the answers before show time.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash) said Thursday he had asked New York officials for the grand jury findings. Magnuson is chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee which has jurisdiction over communication matters. His group has been making a general study of TV operations.

Within a few hours, Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) said his House Legislative Oversight subcommittee plans to go to New York Monday to try to get permission to insnect the grand jury findings.

The Harris subcommittee was established to check on activities of regulatory agencies, including the Federal Communications Commission.

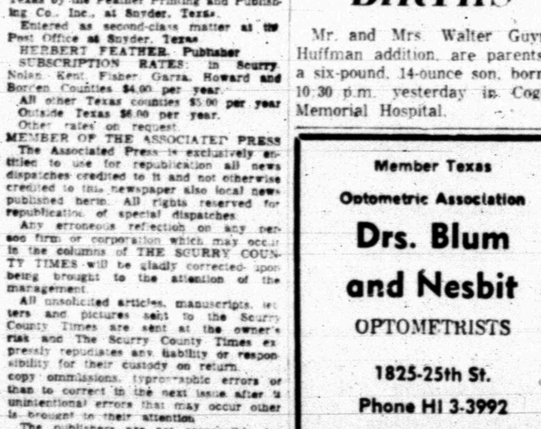

Harris stressed his group was not making accusations of fraud in the quiz show situation. "We are merely investigating, with care and thoroughness, information which has come to our attention," he said.

"The subcommittee will exercise extreme care so that innocent persons will not be exposed to public ridicule or castigation."

Space Flight Study Aided

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The Atlas intercontinental missile, which will boost the first American into orbit around the earth, also is helping pave the way for manned space flight.

The 12-foot Atlas nose cone recovered from the Atlantic last week contained a small scientific laboratory to study effects of space radiation.

The laboratory was disclosed Thursday when the recovered cone was unveiled for reporters. The cone, fired July 21, is the largest ever brought back from space by this country. The 12,000-degree heat it encountered on reentry turned it charcoal black. The cone was recovered off Ascension Island, 5,500 miles down the Atlantic missile range.

Thunderstorm Hits Mojave Desert Area

LANCASTER, Calif. (AP) — A wind, rain and thunder storm struck the Mojave Desert Thursday night with such fierceness that it toppled 51 telephone poles in a row.

Lightning which accompanied the storm touched off four brush fires.

Fallen poles, trees and wires snarled Lancaster's Avenue I for 20 blocks. Many power lines also fell, blacking out wide areas. Telephone service was disrupted across miles of desert country.

Second Nuclear Carrier Provided

WASHINGTON (AP) — Funds for the start of a second big nuclear aircraft carrier have been included in a bill providing just under 40 billion dollars for U.S. armed forces this fiscal year.

The compromise bill worked out Thursday by Senate-House conferees still needs final House and Senate approval. It adds up to about the total President Eisenhower asked—39½ billion dollars in new funds plus transfer authority of more than 400 million previously voted by Congress.

The measure carries an extra 45 million dollars to increase the Marine Corps to 200,000 men. The administration proposed a 175,000-man ceiling. An additional 170 million was provided to hold Army Reserves at 300,000 men and the Army National Guard at 400,000—10 per cent above the total asked by the Pentagon.

The Senate had voted 380 million dollars for the full cost of the nuclear carrier. The House provided no funds for it. The conferees agreed on 35 million to start the vessel, which will take about four years to build.

While the defense compromise was being worked out the Senate Appropriations Committee restored $466,347,263, which the House had cut from a supplemental appropriation bill.

As sent to the Senate, the catch-all bill for the current fiscal year would appropriate $1,076,191,108. This is $141,879,447 under the amount asked by Eisenhower for the numerous agencies and departments involved. The House had voted $609,843,845.

Among provisions would be $2,700,000 for an underground shelter at Denton, Tex., for possible use of the President and his Cabinet in case of an enemy attack.

In a third financial action, Congress sent to Eisenhower a $4,016,101,981 Labor-Welfare department bill carrying $259,253,000 more than he asked. Most of the increases were for health items.

Scattered Rains Endure

By The Associated Press

Lightning knocked out power at San Antonio Thursday night as scattered thunderstorms continued to dot Texas.

Much of the city and nearby Randolph Air Force Base was without power for three hours after a bolt hit the main power transformer at a San Antonio substation.

Generally the showers were light. Kerrville had .53 inches, and lesser amounts fell at Tyler, Palacios, Beaumont, Victoria and other points.

Maximum temperatures Thursday afternoon ranged from 99 degrees at Presidio downward to 89 recorded at Alpine, Corpus Christi, Galveston, Harlingen, San Angelo and Van Horn.

Early Friday skies were clear over the state with the exception of Galveston, Palacios, and Houston which had partly cloudy weather. Early morning temperatures ranged from 63 degrees at Guadalupe Pass to 80 at Corpus Christi.

The forecasts called for partly cloudy skies and widely scattered afternoon and evening thunderstorms through Saturday.

Crippled Plane In Safe Landing

NEW YORK (AP) — A Pan American Airways plane en route from Boston to Bermuda made a safe landing at Idlewild Airport after developing engine trouble.

The plane carried 19 passengers and a crew of 7, including the pilot, Capt. Edward W. Kinsley Jr. of Pound Ridge, N. Y.

An airline spokesman said low oil pressure developed in one of the engines. The passengers departed from Idlewild aboard a substitute plane.

Most U. S. Homes Are Underlighted

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

IT IS THE opinion of illuminating engineers (that's what they call themselves) that most homes in the United States are seriously underlighted.

While there have been some increases in the lighting levels in newer homes in recent years, the levels recommended by the expert are not always achieved. In the building boom after World War II, a minimum of 3 per cent of any moderate home building budget should have been appropriated for lighting. But in a majority of homes, this allowance was often cut by 50 per cent or more.

In 1952, there were signs of a public awakening to the lighting facts of life. By 1958 many architects and builders had gradually inched up to the levels recommended in 1952. And some householders began to make demands for improved illumination, if only because they were becoming aware of the attractiveness of better lighting.

During this six year period, however, a team of vision experts had conducted extensive studies at the University of Michigan to measure the human eye's difficulty in seeing. In practical terms, these experts sought a basis for computing how much light the eye needs to perform working-and-living tasks efficiently and with a minimum of stress. They discovered the most seeing tasks actually required up to 150 per cent more light than the 1952 recommendations. Thus, the 1952 levels already are obsolete.

Tests have continued since the 1958 report was issued. One of the most recent reports was delivered to the International Commission on Illumination at its quadrenniel convention in Brussels. Committees under the direction of president George J. Taylor of the Illuminating Engineering Society have turned in a number of reports. The American Home Lighting Institute has issued minimum light-for-living standards.

In all these reports, the scientific premise is the same: in most homes, there is not enough light, even though it might have been considered sufficient six or seven years ago. For instance, lighting engineers have known for years that desk study requires a higher lighting level than casual newspaper or magazine reading. The I. E. S.'s 1952 recommendation for desk study was 40 footcandles which could be achieved by using a portable table lamp equipped with three 100-watt incandescent bulbs. But new measurements of eye difficulties of desk study show that we must almost double that recommendation to 70 footcandles. For this level of lighting, we must use two shaded wall lamps, each with a 150-watt incandescent bulb. And to achieve maximum benefit, these lamps should be mounted about 30 inches apart, 15 inches above the desk top and about 12 inches back from the desk front.

Sounds kind of complicated. But the lesson is clear. Have enough light in your home. In addition to mere wattage, that means that all light sources should be shielded with cornices, valances, lamp shades or with plastic or frosted glass panels. Too little light, glare and heavy shadows can be a strain on the nerves as well as the eyes—not to mention the safety factor.

Kraut And Franks

INGREDIENTS: 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 small onion (peeled and quartered and sliced thin), 1 can (14 ounces) sauerkraut (thoroughly drained), 1 buffet-size can (8 ounces) stewed tomatoes, 2 tablespoons light brown sugar, salt, pepper, 6 jumbo-size all-beef frankfurters.
METHOD: Melt butter in 10-inch skillet over low heat; add onion; cook, stirring occasionally, until lightly browned—about 5 minutes. Add drained sauerkraut and tomatoes (including liquid with tomatoes), sugar and salt and pepper to taste; mix well with a fork; simmer 10 minutes. Bury frankfurters in kraut; cover; simmer until franks are hot through—about 10 minutes more. Makes 3 servings.

Cool Of Morning Is Time To Clean

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A cool Summer morning is a wonderful time to clean house. You can do many tasks that are real chores in the damp spring or cold winter.

It's the ideal time to clean upholstery, rugs, slipcovers, because you can do it outside for easier drying or indoors, drying it more quickly than in other seasons. It's a good time to wash blankets and bedspreads, too.

Clean upholstered furniture by vacuuming it thoroughly, then apply your favorite cleansing agent. Washable fabrics may require nothing more than a light soap sudsing. More thorough cleaning may need more drastic action, such as the old fashioned dry cleaning fluids that work better than a lot of the cleaners highly touted for that purpose.

Move smaller pieces such as chairs and ottomans to a screened-in porch or other airy shady spot. Open windows and air the larger pieces thoroughly after you have cleaned them. Avoid inhaling cleaning fluids, especially, those containing carboc tetrachloride.

Rugs are easily cleaned on warm dry mornings also, because those that are too big to be taken up can be shampooed right on the floor and dried while you take the youngsters shopping or go to the beach. If your rug shampooer is a vacuum cleaner attachment, use an extension cord to shampoo it outdoors or plug it in the porch light or other nearby outlet.

Be patient in cleaning a large rug, and you'll get professional results. Do a small area at a time. Don't get it too wet, and follow directions on your shampooer. Be sure to vacuum the rug thoroughly before washing it.

I had a particularly fine experience cleaning a white cotton rug recently. It had a number of fruit stains on it, and a good deal of dirt where it had taken heavy traffic. The results were very pleasing as the rug emerged bright white from its shampoo. I cleaned it on an outdoor deck and let it dry in the sunshine.

Summer is a good time to do outside windows, also. Use a long-handled sponge mop on windows you can reach. Use the hose on windows that connot be cleaned from indoors.

Another reason summer household tasks seem lighter is because you can work in your shorts and flat shoes, always a relief to women who enjoy comfort when they must work indoors.

Guacamole

INGREDIENTS: 1 medium-sized avocado, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice), 1 drained pimiento (diced).
METHOD: Make sure avocado is ripe and soft. Cut into lengthwise halves; twist halves in opposite directions to pull apart; remove seed. Scoop out avocado flesh from skin with teaspoon leaving a little around the side of one of the shells so it will keep its shape. Mash avocado pulp fine; there should be about ¾ cup; mix in lemon juice, salt, onion and pimiento. Spoon back into the shell that has kept its shape. Surround with packaged corn chips for dunking into the avocado mixture; serve at once.

Globbler Soup

INGREDIENTS: 1 turkey carcass and bones (left from roast turkey), 2 quarts water, 1 whole large carrot (pared), 1 rib celery, 1 medium-sized onion (sliced), 3 parsley sprigs, 1 small bay leaf, salt, 3 peppercorns, 1 can (about 8 ounces) creamstyle corn, white pepper, minced dill.
METHOD: Break up carcass; place in soup kettle with bones, water, carrot, celery, onion, parsley, bay leaf, about 2 teaspoons salt and peppercorns. Bring to a boil; cover and allow to bubble very gently for 2 hours. Strain. Return broth to kettle; dice carrot and add with corn; more salt if necessary, pepper to taste and enough dill to give real flavor. If desired, skim off any fat. Serve at once or chill and reheat when fat will be easy to remove. Makes 6 servings.

Eggs Salad Hollandaise

INGREDIENTS: 6 hard-cooked eggs, 4 tablespoons leftover cold Hollandaise Sauce, salt, white pepper, lemon juice, dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon minced chives or scallion, 3 tablespoons minced green pepper, lemon juice, paprika.
METHOD: Peel and slice eggs in half lengthwise. Mash yolks fine with Hollandaise Sauce; mix in salt and pepper and lemon juice to taste and a pinch of dry mustard. Add chives and green pepper. Pile into egg white cavities; ruffle with a fork; dust with paprika. Makes 4 servings, 1½ eggs for each portion.

OUR VIEW

Medical Service By Wire

"In recent months, doctors have become the primary target for the badly aimed editorial shots of crusading journalists, who, apparently, are trying to prove that most physicians are concerned more with 'wealth than with health.'"

That is the introduction to an article by John O'Hayre of the Denver Catholic Register, which was reprinted in the current issue of the AMA News, the American Medical Assn. newspaper.

In the same issue, the AMA News reproduced an editorial from the Chattanooga News-Free Press dealing with the dangers of socialized medicine, which said in part, "It is difficult to see how anyone would want to swap free enterprise medicine for a multi-billion-dollar 'sick call' not unlike the practice in the military services during World War II."

Still another article in the same issue of the AMA News called attention to the fact that some physicians are experimenting with charging patients a dollar for each telephone call. The latter story made the general press service wires Thursday.

The AMA News was something less than enthusiastic about the "experiment," and it proceeded to enumerate some possible pitfalls which might be encountered in such practice. Probably the most impressive from the professional standpoint was an observation that the telephone is in no way a substitute for personal observation.

To the layman the "experiment" might even lead to a softer attitude toward socialized medicine, and those who hold with the "wealth before health" idea might regard it as positive confirmation of their suspicions.

Ike Disappointed Over One Failure

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Why did President Eisenhower decide to seek the presidency in 1952? One main reason was to beat President Truman whose re-election, he felt, would be bad for the country. As it turned out, Truman didn't run.

This piece of American history and all that follows—except for background material in parentheses—can be stated on high authority as an accurate presentation of some of Eisenhower's views.

Besides his feelings about Truman's administration, Eisenhower had been persuaded to run because he had certain ideas with respect to the relationship between the federal government and the states. He is still not happy about that relationship.

Two of Eisenhower's chief political advisers—while he was still commander of the NATO forces in Europe—were New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge (R-Mass).

They told him Truman would try for a second full term and that only he, Eisenhower, could beat him. And he had become persuaded that re-election of Truman would not be good.

But by the time it became apparent Truman would not run again, Eisenhower felt his own political career was well launched and there was no way to withdraw.

(Eisenhower seemed pretty well up to his neck in politics at the beginning of the 1952 presidential year.

(On Jan. 7, while Truman was still undecided about running, Eisenhower not only disclosed he was a Republican but indicated he would try for the presidency if he received a "clearcut call to political duty." This meant if the Republican convention the following summer chose him.

In that same month, while he was still at NATO, he said: "Under no circumstances will I ask relief from this assignment in order to seek nomination."

(But Lodge had entered him in the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary, which he won March 18, beating Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio). In the same state's Democratic primary Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) beat Truman.

(Eleven days after being beaten in New Hampshire, Truman announced he would not run again. Four days after that, on April 2, Eisenhower asked to be relieved of his NATO command by June 1. He came back then and campaigned for the nomination.)

What about Eisenhower's reasons for seeking a second term in 1956?

He felt there were certain objectives related to his philosophy of government — the relationship between government and the individual—which he wanted to see carried out.

He was fearful the Democrats would nominate and elect a candidate who represented an opposite philosophy and he had been told that only he could be assured of winning in 1956.

Looking back on his decision to run for a second term, it can be said he is glad none of several other people got the presidency. (this writer does not know what people he has in mind.)

But Eisenhower feels deeply disappointed by the difficulty and failure to work out any significant redress of balance of federal and state functions which he tried to initiate at a conference of governors.

He found that the governors talked loudly of wanting to recapture states' rights but were reluctant to do anything about it because they were unwilling to take on the burden of higher state taxes that might be involved.

Big-City Grandpa Goes Big Time

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Whatever happened to the old-fashioned grandfather?

As a child I felt vaguely cheated by life because I had never had a grandpa.

One of my grandfathers was dead. The other dwelt all alone in faraway Ireland. Once he sent a photo of himself. It showed a misty-faced white-whiskered old man smoking a pipe as he sat on the doorstep of his small farm home.

Ever since then I have thought of him as Father Time. As a small boy, after being punished, I used to lie awake for hours at night wishing he were near so I could tell him my troubles.

In my mind's eye he was like the grandfather pictured sometimes on the cheap colored calendars the neighborhood grocer gave away free in good years.

Grandpa was quite a sentimental figure on those calendars, and I suppose there were still millions like him in real life.

It was Grandpa who stood as a kindly shield between a little boy and the rest of the adult world. It was Grandpa who took the boy fishing or gave him his first real knife.

Best of all, Grandpa never seemed so eternally busy with his own problems. That made him different from all other grownups. He always had time to pause to listen to a small boy's woes and answer his wondering questions, and tell strange and fascinating tales of how the world had been when he had been a small boy, too, ages and ages ago.

Whatever happened to that old-fashioned grandpa? If he still survives, he must be hiding in the small towns. You sure don't see him very often in the big city.

The big-city grandpa has gone big time.

Grandpa wears a sport shirt instead of a cane. You don't find him hanging around a park playing checkers with old cronies. His game is gin rummy.

Grandpa cares more for an afternoon nip than an afternoon nap. He is less interested in a tip on how to cure rheumatism than he is in a tip on the stock market or what horse looks good in the third race at Jamaica.

Does Grandpa love to baby-sit his grandchildren? Are you kidding? By day he is too busy taking hormone shots at the doctor's or chip shots on the golf course. At night he and Grandma are too busy doing the cha-cha.

Who keeps the night clubs going? It's foxy old Grandpa. Look at the dance floor of any good night club. For every teen-age lad you'll see five sprightly grandpas. Only Grandpa can foot the tariff.

I used to envy the kids who had an old-fashioned grandpa. Not any more. I've got a new ambition. Now I want to become a modern-type grandpa myself — and really start living.

Three Youths Killed In Racing Crackup

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Three youths died early today when two automobiles crashed here in what police said was an 80-mile-an hour race.

Officers said the cars were racing side by side when both drivers lost control. One vehicle crashed into the concrete base of a utility pole. The other struck a bridge railing.

Killed were Amador Plata, 18, and Hector Martinez. Carlos Gomez, 23, pinned in the wreckage until the metal could be cut away, died several hours later.

Two other youths were injured.

Town Evacuates For Rocket Shots

By RALPH DIGHTON

SURF, Calif. (AP) — Evacuate!

The cry sweeps through this tiny beach town and everything stops.

Navy buses roll down the dusty streets and 35 to 40 men, women and children climb aboard.

At T minus 45 minutes, the buses roar away—and everyone in the countryside knows a big rocket is about to be fired.

Surf, Calif., is a stop on the Southern Pacific Railroad, which runs along the coast through the West's new missile launching area.

North of Surf is the 64,000-acre Vandenberg Air Force Base. To the south is Pt. Arguello, the Navy's 19,000-acre missile launching facility.

Discoverer satellite rockets are southward from Vandenberg toward an orbit around the earth's poles. If one of them should explode or have to be destroyed, the debris might fall on Surf and Pt. Arguello.

The day before a Discoverer firing the people at Surf are alerted to get ready for evacuation. A few grumble but most of them, families of track maintenance workers, welcome this interruption of their quiet existence among the sand dunes.

Mrs. Nick Juarez, mother of three says "It's like a picnic, except that you have to go whether you want to or not. The kids think it's wonderful."

Station master Bob Wolfe is the only one who doesn't leave. Just before shot time he ducks into a crude bomb shelter made of an old fuel tank and covered with sandbags.

The civilians evacuated from Surf go shopping in nearby Lompoc, see movies at Vandenberg, or visit friends. After the launching they are hauled back home.

The government foots the bill and reimburses the railroad for the time its workmen are off the job. This is a fairly inexpensive operation.

But everything also stops at the Pt. Arguello facility, where missile and space vehicle launch sites are under construction. Twenty four hours before a Discoverer firing, all workmen are notified to take the next day off.

A contractor source estimates this cost currently at $25,000 a day.

Discoverer V, originally scheduled to be fired Tuesday, was postponed to Wednesday, then Thursday because of weather and technical problems. Late Thursday the shot was postponed again, for at least 48 hours. Each day the people at Surf were evacuated and the work at Pt. Arguello shut down.

U. S. Display Biggest Hit In Moscow

By A. I. GOLDBERG

MOSCOW, (AP) — The American exhibition is the biggest hit in town, and it looks like every knock is a boost.

Sharp criticism of the fair in Moscow newspapers has only sharpened Soviet curiosity about the exhibit. When Soviet citizens stream under the wonder dome and around the displays filling the glass pavilion, they give every evidence of a sincere interest in what is being shown.

The young American guides say almost all the questioners are friendly. They deny they have felt any personal animosity such as implied by the Soviet press.

The Communist detractors of the fair are probably learning the publicity man's first lesson—say anything you want as long as you spell the name right and you've got it made.

The crowd Thursday—the sixth day of the fair — looked bigger than ever, and there was a festive air throughout the fair grounds.

Sharpshooting in the Moscow papers let up a bit, possibly because so much space was devoted to the foreign affairs speech by Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the Ukraine.

But the army newspaper Red Star had a fling at Ramac the electronic question-and-answer machine.

Citing The Associated Press story that Ramac was closed down to avoid dust damage to its delicate machinery, Red Star jibed: "Our opinion is that it is not because the mechanical guide has swallowed a certain amount of dust. The machine is tired of lying. It is on strike."

The army newspaper criticized the electric brain for refusing to answer questions dealing with U.S. military bases abroad and what the paper called disastrous conditions of life in America.

The concrete dust which blanked exhibits and fair personnel appeared licked in the dome showroom by a quick overnight asphalt flooring job. Most of the floor of the glass pavilion was also given a new covering. Now it's a pleasure to walk through the area without clouds of dust rising up.

So far the fair has been blessed with clear weather, although Moscow is sweltering in a tropical heat wave. The fashion models' dressing rooms are so hot that the popular style show has cut performances from three to two a day.

The fair director, Harold McClellan, is still sitting on the 100 or so books removed from the fair's book exhibit before it opened. McClellan pulled most of them out because he thought the Soviets would object. Soviet officials demanded that the others be removed from view.

McClellan won't say what books were removed and obviously hopes the flap about them will subside. His office says he has not reached a decision yet on his next step. McClellan himself said he didn't intend to let one facet of the fair upset the Soviets and thus endanger the success of the whole exhibition.

Souvenir booklets and lapel pins bearing the symbol of the fair are the favorite handouts.

One 8-year-old youngster walked proudly through the fair grounds sporting a button evidently given him by an American tourist. It proclaimed "I like Ike."

Florist Shop Opening Set Tomorrow

Opening is scheduled here tomorrow for the new Hinshaw's House of Flowers at Avenue S and Thirtieth Street.

The new florist's shop, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Hinshaw, will be operated by Mrs. Hinshaw.

The shop is located in a new building completed recently and leased to the firm by Zelmer Glover. The Hinshaws will live in the adacent house at 1900 Thirtieth Street.

Hinshaw, who will work part-time in the shop with his wife, will continue as assistant manager at Bolger Funeral Home. The Hinshaws first came to Snyder in 1952. Hinshaw, an embalmer, was with Bolger's until moving to Comanche in 1957 to become associated with another funeral home. They returned here last February when Hinshaw returned to Bolger's.

In the new florist's shop, Hinshaw's will have a complete line of all kinds of flowers, including pot flowers, cut flowers, corsages, wreaths and other flower needs for weddings, banquets, funerals parties, hospitals and others. The store will also have complete equipment for flower arrangements and lines of ceramics and all kinds of containers and artificial flowers. It will open with a large shipment of ivy, totem poles and pot plants.

Hinshaw said the shop will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. six days a week and will have calling hours nights, holidays and Sundays. It will provide wire service for flowers to any destination.

Working with Mrs. Hinshaw in the shop will be Helen Askins, who has had 11 years of experience in the flower business. Mrs. Doug Horn, Mrs. Ernest Sears and Mrs. W. G. Breedlove, all experienced in the field.

Hinshaw is a member of the Jaycees here, and Mrs. Hinshaw is a member of the Jaycee-ettes. The are members of the First Baptist Church.

Letter Tells How Lincoln Got 'Honest'

CHICAGO (AP) — A rare letter released today demonstrates again why Americans refer to Abraham Lincoln as "Honest Abe."

An unidentified clerk, anxious that the newly inaugurated President should receive his first month's pay in full, wrote in April 1861 to Salmon P. Chase, then secretary of the treasury:

"Dear Sir:

"On to-day and on the first of each month, please to send me a warrant for the amount of my salary as President of the United States."

When the letter was referred to Lincoln for signature, the Civil War President firmly crossed out "first" and made it read "fifth" of each month. Lincoln was inaugurated March 4, 1861.

A Lincoln scholar described that pen scratch as "irrefutable proof of the integrity and honesty of Mr. Lincoln." By so doing, the scholar said, he saved the taxpayers $273.97—based on his $25,000 annual salary — to which he was not entitled during the first days of March.

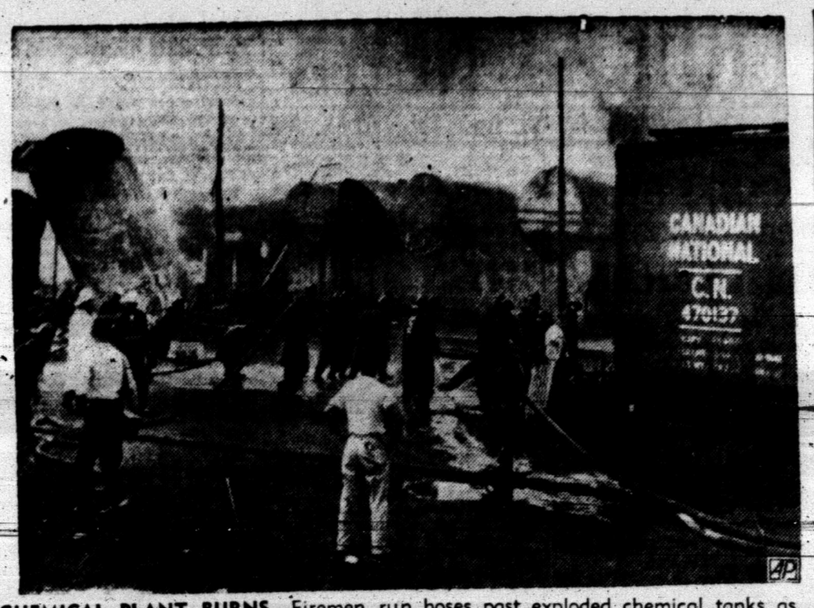

The same day the letter was written, Lincoln opened an account at the Riggs and Co. Bank in Washington, where he deposited the March warrant for $2,083.33.

The previously unpublished letter will be placed on display Sunday in Freedom Hall, a new museum in suburban Oak Park. The document was acquired by Philip D. Sang of Chicago, co-founder of the museum.

Fire Delivered To Colorado Station

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. (AP) — A fire was delivered to a fire house in this Denver suburb.

When Harvey Davis, a commercial trash hauler, noticed a blaze had broken out in the back of his truck he hustled to the nearest fire station where firemen turned a hose on the truck.

Eight Convicted In Gambling Case

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — Twelve weary jurors Thursday night convicted eight alleged gamblers of conspiracy, excise tax evasion and failure to register as a gambling syndicate.

Maximum penalties would be 21 years in prison sentences and $50,000 in fines for each man. U.S. Dist. Judge Cale J. Holder ordered a pre-sentence investigation and set sentencing for Sept. 10.

The defendants retained their composure as they heard the verdicts. Their attorneys did not indicate whether the convictions would be appealed, although one said "that's a very good possibility."

The eight are Leo Shaffer, 59, and Jules Horwick, 55, both of Chicago; Philip Share, 55, and Irwin Gordon, 42, both of Las Vegas, Nev.; James Tamer, 47, Miami; Joseph Jacobs, 64, and Charles L. (Buck) Sumner, 72, both of Indianapolis, and Edgar M. Wyatt, 61, Terre Haute.

They remained free under $10,000 bond each. Don Tabbert, U.S. district attorney, asked that bonds be increased to $25,000 for Share, Gordon, Shaffer, Horwick and Tamer "because of their past criminal convictions" Judge Holder denied the request.

The jury convicted the defendants on all five counts against them. They were charged with conspiring to attempt to evade the 10 per cent tax on receipts as a wagering syndicate, with attempted evasion in each of three months, and of failure to register with the Internal Revenue Service as a gambling syndicate.

The jurors deliberated only 3½ hours. The courtroom was nearly empty when they sent word that they were ready to report.

The 12 jurors and four alternates, all married men, had been under strict guard since June 24. Their only contact with their families was a nightly telephone call.

They heard four solid weeks of testimony, seven hours of closing arguments and 5½ hours of instructions, the latter extended by a final defense objection.

The government called 133 witnesses, of whom 53 told of placing bets totaling $581,000. Nine alleged bettors took the Fifth Amendment.

The defendants did not take the stand, and the defense called no witnesses.

The charges were based on 10 weeks of operation in a downtown office here in the fall of 1957. Internal Revenue Service agents raided the headquarters Nov. 29, 1957.

Wildcatter Dies At 90

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Michael Late Benedum, fabulous oil wildcatter who earned about 100 million dollars in his 90 years, died Thursday at his Pittsburgh home.

The colorful king of the oil prospectors had an unmatchable career that extended back almost to the start of the oil business in the United States. The 100th anniversary of the industry will be marked Aug. 17 in Tutusville, Pa.

He celebrated his 90th birthday July 16. At that time the balding, bespectacled Benedum said: "I am not afraid of death because I have not been afraid of life."

Mike Benedum probably discovered more oil than any other man in history. Starting with almost nothing he made and lost several fortunes before he was 50, then went on to amass an oil empire that embraced almost a score of companies.

Benedum's principal business, the Benedum-Trees Oil Co., was the parent firm of a number of other companies, including Plymouth Oil Co., Mel-Ben Oil Co., Hiawatha Oil & Gas Co., Penn-Ohio and Bentex.

Prisoner Ends Hunger Strike

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Neale E. Hills, 23, quit his hunger strike by going for a plate of scrambled eggs and string beans in jail Thursday night.

Hills had gone without food for eight days while defying a court order to catch up on $1,007 in support payments to his estranged wife, Donna Jean, 22, and their two children.

He'll stay in jail, however. He is under a six-month sentence for ignoring the order. He says the law is unfair.

Engineer To Serve Term

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A Pasadena electronics engineer must serve a year in jail on a charge of trying to hire someone to kill his rival for a women's affections.

Judge H. Burton Noble, in passing the sentence on Arthur Reeser Smith, 50, characterized it as a "slap on the wrist, but I don't believe you were this much implicated."

A Los Angeles auto salesman, Charles H. Johnston, claimed he was offered $2,000 to arrange an "accident" that would bring death to Joseph D. Reed of Santa Fe, N.M. Reed married the former Mrs. Elaine Worthington, 40, a schoolteacher and the woman in the triangle, last May.

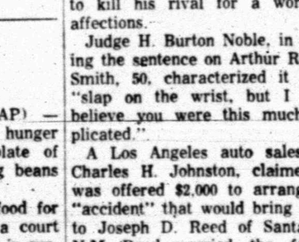

Johnston said Smith answered his advertisement that said he was willing to accept or perform any dangerous mission.

A PRICELESS RECIPE

In a health emergency, the little slip of paper on which your physician writes his prescription is priceless. You wouldn't part with it under any circumstances.

However, once the emergency has passed, human nature being what it is, you are apt to forget how valuable the prescription really was. Maybe you even grumble a little at its out-of-pocket cost, failing to remember the doctor's professional skill, the countless hours of pharmaceutical research and many other factors that made the "recipe" possible in a health crisis.

Permit our prescription department to fill your next "recipe for health."

47 Are Hurt In Train Wreck

MENOMONIE, Wis., (AP) — Forty-seven persons suffered injuries that required hospital treatment and 60 others were less seriously hurt Thursday when the last seven cars of a Chicago and North Western Railway passenger train whipped from the rails on a northwestern Wisconsin hillside.

Many of the 209 passengers on the 11-car train escaped death when the cars rolled 20 feet down a steep bluff overlooking heavily traveled U.S. Highway 12.

The train was the "Twin Cities 400" and was southbound to Chicago from Minneapolis and St. Paul. It was rounding a bend at an estimated 50 miles an hour when the cars went off the tracks about 50 miles east of St. Paul, Minn.

Railroad officials said they did not know what caused the wreck.

Engineer B. D. Herou of Minneapolis said he felt something "click" just before the derailment.

"It is lucky that it was a slow curve," he aid. "It just felt like a rough spot as we went around. On the second bump I applied the brakes and there was a terrific jolt."

Alfred Servos of Chicago, who was in a derailed car, said "the car began shaking and I grabbed the seat in front of me, but I was thrown backward into a somersault."

"Then I was shoved forward and I landed in a seat three ahead of the one where I had been sitting. I have a heart condition and I couldn't move.

"A woman in the seat ahead of me was praying. She was holding a baby on her lap and her older boy was hollering "Get me out of here'."

Servos was carried out a window on a stretcher.

About 50 passengers were in the dining car when the 11-car train derailed.

William H. Patterson, Minneapolis, a waiter, said "people, dishes and everything else but the fastened tables went flying" when the car bounced along the right-of-way, coming to rest at a 45-degree angle.

All available deputies and state traffic patrolmen from three counties were rushed to the scene. Ambulances came from as far away as Stillwater, Minn., and took the injured passengers to the Memorial Hospital here and to the nearby Baldwin Clinic. About 50 persons were treated for minor injuries at the scene.

Controversial Books Back In Circulation

SHREVEPORT (AP) — The chief librarian of Shreveport Memorial Library plans to put two controversial childrens' books back in general circulation.

Miss Inez Boone told The Associated Press she would put "Black And White" and "The First Book of Fishing" on the open shelf, despite oppositon of the Shreveport Journal.

The Journal labeled the books "insidious racial propaganda."

"Black And White" describes a marriage of a "black man" and "a white lady." The other book contains illustrations of white and Negro children picknicking together.

The program is scheduled by the radio committee of the Snyder Ministerial Alliance.

Dog And Children Swallow Poison

READING, Pa. (AP) — Four children were recovering today from arsenic poisoning, but their pet dog was critically ill.

Hospital tests indicated the children had swalloed almost enough arsenic to be fatal.

Authorities said a piece of poisoned bacon rind, apparently intended for the dog, was found in the back yard of the cocker spaniel's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oswald.

The children somehow absorbed the poison while playing with the dog Wednesday and became ill.

The youngsters are the Oswald's children, Antoinette, 3, and Robert, 1½, and a neighbor's children, Cindy Lou, 4, and Lou-Ann Vitalo, 2.

Police are trying to find the person who placed the bacon rind in the yard.

The island of American Samoa came into the possession of the United States in 1900 under a treaty with the Samoan government, and with the consent of Great Britiain and Germany.

SEEMS RIGHT

(Question) "Should we cause people to doubt their religion?".

(Answer) If we believe that the religion they hold is not ordered by the New Testament, then yes. If I believe a person to be lost, though he seems perfectly satisfied with his religion, I must still try to point out to him the error of his ways. God's ways are higher than ours and his thoughts than our thoughts. A way may seem right unto a man but the end lead to death. (Prov.14:12) Naaman thought that Elisha would make a great display in curing him of leprosy, but this was not the man of God's method of bringing about the cure. Naaman almost missed his salvation because he thought that his own plan should be accepted. (2 Kings 5) Cain thought the fruit of the ground would be acceptable for a sacrifice but it was rejected. (Gen. 4) Jonah thought he could escape his responsibility, that he could hide forever from God who commissioned him to preach. (Jonah 1) A sever tragedy was narrowly averted. When Peter saw the Lord transfigured before him, with Moses and Elijah talking with him, he immediately thought that three tabernacles should be erected in honor of each. God however, thought differently. A voice from heaven spoke and said "This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased, hear ye him." (Matt. 17) Paul thought he should persecute the church and waste it into oblivion. (Acts 25:9) He later learned that his actions was causing the Lord to be persecuted. Many have come to believe that our Lord is so tolerant that he will permit any type worship, organization, baptism or name to be worn, that men choose to accept. True faith comes from GOD'S word. Rom. 10:17; 1 Pet. 4:11) Let us speak and act as one who shall be judged by it. (John 12:48).

Clergyman Sees Taxes On Churches

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A leading American churchman today predicted eventual revolutionary repercussions if present tax exemptions are continued for religious institutions.

The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, of Philadelphia, said tax-free churches could "control the whole economy of the nation within the predictable future."

He added, in an article in the publication, Christianity Today:

"I suggest that 100 years from now the present pattern of religious tax exemption by federal, state and municipal authorities, if continued, may present the state with problems of such magnitude that their only solution will be revolutionary expropriation of church property."

He said there already are signs of resentment.

Dr. Blake, chief administrative officer of the United Presbyterian Church and a leader in national and world interdenominational organizations, urged churches to restudy their position regarding tax policy.

Some other church authorities have raised similar questions in recent years, as church endowments grow, and increasing taxes and government programs absorb a spiraling proportion of private income.

Dr. Blake said churches pay no inheritance or real estate taxes, and may own and operate businesses free of the 52 per cent corporate income tax.

With such advantages, he said, churches could eventually dominate the nation's wealth.

Northside Makes Plans For Revival

Plans have been made by the Northside Baptist Church for a youth revival to begin Aug. 9.

The Rev. Jackie Holt, pastor of the Olive Street Baptist Church of Pine Bluff, Ark., and a graduate of the Missionary Baptist Seminary of Little Rock, will be evangelist.

Music will be directed by T. O. Miller, coming here for his fourth revival in the Northside church.

Oklahoma was admitted to the union in 1907.

Steel Strike Begins To Pinch Taxpayers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The 17-day-old steel strike is beginning to pinch the taxpayer.

It has taken several forms: relief money, unemployment compensation and surplus food.

The cost to the federal government alone is expected to reach 45 million dollars a week if the strike continues much longer.

In many states there has been a gradual increase in the number of persons applying for relief money and unemployment compensation as the strike has idled about 85,000 workers in allied industries.

Also on the upswing are applications for free government foods, such as flour, corn meal, powdered milk and rice.

Some idled employes have taken part-time jobs, which tends to hold down the amount of unemployment compensation doled out by the states.

Tall Thief Caught By Short Grocer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The tall thief took long strides but the little grocer caught him.

Shin Sakamoto, who is less than 5 feet tall, said 6-foot-6 Willy Butler reached into Sakamoto's cash register and grabbed some bills.

Police found $27 hidden in a nearby men's room where Sakamoto cornered Butler. Butler, 30, was booked on suspicion of robbery.

The speedy Sakamoto is 80 years old.

Completion Rate Drops

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Oklahoma oil pool completions declined last week, a survey by research oil reports released today shows.

There were 106 completions compared with 126 previously. Oilers at 49 were off 29, while dry holes at 40 showed an increase of 8.

There were 16 gas wells added against 15 last week and one service well, same as in the preceding period. New work showed 131 locations compared with 109.

Sinclair Oil and Gas has perforated Morrow sand at No. 1 Rohrer, in C SW NE of 6-28N-22W, in the North Buffalo Field of Harper County, that usually produced oil from Lansing, Kansas City and Arbuckle limes.

Morrow was exposed at 9,602-44 feet to flow 4,352,000 cubic feet of gas daily through ¾ inch choke, and showed 6 barrels of condensate in 12 hours. Oil has been indicated from Lansing at 4,585-95.

Hawaiians Set New Record In Election

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaiians cast a record 170,119 votes in their first state election Tuesday.

The old mark was 154,329, set last November.

The Tuesday figure was 93 per cent of Hawaii's 182,987 registrants, the official tabulation showed Thursday.

Backyard Study Courses Continue

Summer backyard study workshops of the First Baptist Church are underway and will continue next week.

Young people of the church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Ferrell, 3012 Thirty-seventh Street, to study "Tomorrow You Marry," with a panel discussion on "How To Go About It," with Mrs. R. Virgil Mott as moderator. It will be held Monday evening.

Baptists throughout Snyder have been invited to attend the second panel discussion on the subject, "Objectives in Teaching the Beginner Child," ages 4 and 5, at the home of Virgil Mott, 2302 Sunset Avenue, on Tuesday evening.

GRACE

...that is greater. Grace that comes from God. Grace that has survived both victory and defeat. Grace that comes through long years of gentle conduct and tender devotion and utter dependance in each other. That's what these life-long partners have been able to garner. God united them and they have depended on Him to keep them. They gave over the control room of their lives to God. Devotion to His cause has sweetened the influences they exert. It hasn't been hard for them to keep up their church attendance record, nor administer to the sick, nor give to the poor. It made a difference when they placed their lives in the hands of God. It will make a difference with you too, for Blessed is the man that walketh in the path of righteousness.

Snyder Team In Finals

Merkel Bows Out; Abilene Coming Here

For the fourth straight playoff game in Little League tournament play the Snyder National Little League all-stars will be playing on home ground tomorrow night.

The local team will meet the Abilene Lone Star all-stars in the championship game of the District 5 Little League tournament at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow on the Little Leagues diamond in Towle Memorial Park.

The Snyder National last night crushed the Merkel Little League all-stars 12-2 while the Abilene Lone Star downed the Abilene Dixie league 6-3 in the other first round district tourney game.

In tomorrow night's game the teams will be trying for the right to represent the district in the sectional tournament to be held Aug. 6-8 at Brownfield. The sectional tourney will name a winner to be sent to the state tournament in Snyder, as will other sectional meets.

Larry Jones, who was .404 hitter in regular Little League play here, showed that same type hitting, with a little extra, as he blasted two home runs, one a grand slam, which accounted for half the Snyder team's runs in the game. The bases-loaded homer came in the first inning as Jones swatted the ball far over the right center field fence, which is 181 feet out. There was one on base in the fifth when he hit his next homer, that one barely a fair ball down the first base line.

Jones was also winning hurler in the game, giving up four hits and seven walks while striking out eight. He went the route for the Nationals, who got a total of 11 hits in the game, two off starting mounder C. B. Rust and the remainder off reliefer Phillip Biera.

Rust had been pulled from the game after pitching to the fifth Snyder batter in the first inning, who was Jones. Drew Bullard, first up in the game, got a single on the first pitch, followed by one Snyder batter getting on by a base on balls and two by fielder's choice prior to Jones homer with no one out. The first strike pitched by Rust was to the fourth batter, John Flynn, and that was a foul ball. It turned out to be Rust's only strike in the game, since Jones' big hit came on the first pitch.

Snyder sluggers soon found how to hit Biera after he took over on the mound, and there wasn't a hitless inning for the Nationals. Bullard led the field with three hits on four times to the plate, while Tom Kincaid had two for three and Jones two for four. Four other Nationals got hits in the game.

The boxes.

The Coast Guard Academy football team, victor in but two of its seven games in 1958, will be under Coach Otto Graham this season.

Charley Ruffing, former standout American League pitcher, is a scout for the Chicago White Sox.

LEADS TO VICTORY—Larry Jones, left, gave up only four hits and two runs in pitching the Snyder National Little League All-Stars to a 12-2 victory last night over the Merkel All-Stars in the first round of district LL playoffs here. His performance with the bat was just as outstanding—he came through with two homeruns, the first a first inning grandslam for four runs, and the second in the fifth inning with one man aboard. With Jones above are John Flynn, center, and Jerry Owens. (Lee Watson photograph)

Sox Have Trouble Shaking Cleveland

CHICAGO (AP) — Can the first-place Chicago White Sox shake off the Cleveland Indians in the American League pennant scramble?

The surging Pale Hose have won 7 of their last 8 decisions, including a 3-1 triumph Thursday over the New York Yankees, but they head the Indians by only one game.

Sox manager Al Lopez conceded today that his club must somehow stamp out the Cleveland menace, but he is comforted by a Sox gain in the loss column.

"Before we started this spurt," said Lopez, "we were two games behind in the loss column to Cleveland. Now we have lost two fewer games than Cleveland."

The White Sox, entertaining the reeling Washington Senators tonight, hold the top rung with 58 victories, 40 losses and a .592 percentage. Cleveland is second with 58 victories 42 losses .580.

The Yankees now are a whopping 10½ games out of first place, small comfort to manager Casey Stengel, who was presented a 100-pound cake by the White Sox before they ruined his 69th birthday.

"We're getting pitching," said Lopez. "I think it is significant that Early Wynn who had an 0-6 record against the Yankees last year now is 3-0 against them. He was fast and tough against them yesterday."

Wynn, the spirited 39-year-old right-hander scattered six Yankee hits, striking out nine, as he notched his 263rd victory of his major league career. Wynn now is the winningest American League hurler with 14 triumphs against 6 defeats.

"What we need is hitting under pressure," continued Lopez. "For that reason, I think we will continue to call on Billy Goodman at third base and Earl Torgeson at first base."

It was Goodman's sizzling single after Sherman Lollar's pop double which produced the Sox clincher against the Yankees in the seventh.

Wynn, one of baseball's toughest competitors, said he was happy about quelling the Yankees.

He hung the collar on Mickey Mantle, who struck out twice and twice rolled out to first. Did Wynn think the Yankee star was pressing too hard? "I don't know about him, but I was pressing real hard myself," grinned Wynn.

GPL Stars Bow In Extra Innings

McCamey (Spl.) — The Graduate Pony League all-stars from Snyder started off in a big way in the first game of a series to decide the district championship here, but Crane-McCamey came back later in the game to win in two extra innings.

Two runs by Crane-McCamey in the ninth to Snyder's one gave the home team the 9-8 win. The game lasted almost three and one-half hours, finally ending at 11:15 p.m.

Second game of the series will be at 8 o'clock tonight. Winner of the two-out-of-three series will go to the regional tournament at Lufkin Aug. 11-15. If a third game is necessary in the series here, it will be played at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Three hits and four walks in the first innings piled up six runs for Snyder in the game here last night.

Griffin, the starting hurler for Crane-McCamey, gave up four bases on balls, walking in one run, while the rest came home off the bats of Larry Patterson, Tommy Minton, who doubled, and Bubba Fleming.

Crane-McCamey began to get into the game in the third, however, and by the end of the sixth inning it was 8-4 for Snyder.

The game would have been over in the seventh, but in the bottom of that inning Crane-McCamey's Finley doubled wth the bases loaded to drive in three runs and knot the score. There were two away when that occured.

Going into extra innings, the game was scoreless in the eighth. Snyder had moved ahead with a run in the top of the ninth, but the home team again pushed ahead to win in the bottom of the inning with two men out. A hit and an error got the two runs needed by Crane-McCamey across the plate.

Freddie Miller, who started on the mound for the Snyder team, was relieved in the seventh by Charles Gladson, who was charged with the loss. Miller gave up eight hits in the game. Gladson four.

Griffin pitched a part of the first inning for Crane-McCamey, and the score was 6-0 when he left the game. He was relieved by Finley, who held the Snyder team to two runs while he pitched seven innings, which was his limit. Harlow, who finished the game, allowed four hits in two innings.

Snyder was expected to pitch John Weaver, who had a 6-2 record during the regular season, in tonight's game.

Giants Take Lead Again

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco is back in the National League lead, but it took a whale of a parlay to do it—five unearned runs, a 4-for-4 debut by rookie Willie McCovey and Pittsburgh's first victory in 10 games.

The Giants cut their own slump at four and moved into first place by a half-game as McCovey, a .377 hitter at Phoenix some 12 hours earlier, smacked a pair of triples, scored three runs and drove in two for a 7-2 decision Thursday over the Philadelphia Phillies, who chipped in four errors.

Pittsburgh cleared the way for the Giants by beating Los Angeles 8-4 in 12 innings, skidding the Dodgers to third. Milwaukee took over second place with a 6-2 decision over the Chicago Cubs, hammering four home runs as Warren Spahn gained his 260th victory.

St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 1-0 with Bob Gibson blanking the Reds on eight hits in his first major league start.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox retained a one-game lead over Cleveland by beating New York, 3-1 as Early Wynn (14-6) became the AL's top winner. The Indians defeated Boston 4-3 on Minnie Minoso's four RBI. Kansas City rolled into third place, 8½ games back, with a 4-1 victory over Washington, the A's 11th in a row. Detroit whipped Baltimore 11-2.

McCovey, 21, a lean 6-4 first baseman, also singled twice in his first major league games after Manager Bill Rigney shook up the Giants' line-up, switching Orlando Cepeda from first to third base and benching Jim Davenport.

With McCovey showing them how, the Giants collected 10 hits and rolled up their biggest run total in more than two weeks. Mike McCormick (10-8) beat the Phils for the fourth time this season.

Robin Roberts (9-10) lost it, with the Giants' first five runs unearned. They broke a 2-2 tie in a three-run fifth on an error, sacrifice, singles by Willie Mays, McCovey and Cepeda and a wild pitch.

A one-out single by Ray Mejias, following a single by Dick Groat and Bill Virdon's double, won it for the Pirates, who blew 3-0 and 4-3 leads. Benny Daniels (6-6) was the winner in relief, but needed a dandy assist by lefty Don Gross—who got Wally Moon on an infield out and then fanned Duke Snider with the tying run on third.

Mejias also homered for the Bucs, against Dodger starter Johnny Podres. Stan Williams (4-4) was the loser.

The Braves moved .003 percentage points ahead of the Dodgers and within .003 of the Giants by handing left-hander Art Ceccarelli his first defeat in five decisions. Consecutive homers by Felix Mantilla and Hank Aaron clinched it in the third.

Spahn (14-10) beat the Cubs a third time this year. He allowed five hits, one Bobby Thomson's ninth home run.

FINAL OUT—Merkel Little League All-Stars went down swinging, but not effectively enough last night, as Snyder's National LL All-Stars advanced to the finals in district playoffs with a 12-2 victory over Merkel. Tom Kincaid, Snyder catcher, and Kenneth Hogan, Merkel's last batter, wait for the ball above. Hogan hit the ball back to Snyder pitcher, Larry Jones, for an easy game-ending out. The Snyder team will meet the Abilene Lone Star Little League All-Stars here tomorrow night to decide district championship. (Lee Watson photograph)

"Item B — Precinct No. 3 (Amount)";
"Items A and B — Precincts 2 and 3 (Total Amount)".

The time of commencement and completion of the paving of the above-mentioned two segments of roadway being of the essence, no bid proposal shall be entitled as a matter of right to consideration unless it shall be accompanied by a negotiable cashier's or certified check or a bank or postal money order in the amount of 10 per cent of the bid price contained in the proposal tendered or by a bid bond in form and with surety satisfactory to the Commissioners Court and in the amount of 10 per per cent of the bid price contained in the proposal, the sole and unqualified condition of the said County's right to retain such funds or to enforce such bond for 10 per cent of the bid price contained in the proposal as liquidated damages (together with 50 per cent of such damages as stipulated attorney's fees if suit should be filed) being the failure of the successful bidder within ten (10) days after notice of the acceptance of the successful bid to deliver to the undersigned County Judge at his office in the Courthouse in Snyder and secure from his signed receipt therefore a satisfactory performance bond in the amount of 100 per cent of the bid price in the accepted proposal with a corporate surety duly licensed and qualified in the State of Texas to make and execute such 100 per cent performance bond. All securities accompanying bids will be returned to the respective bidders within ten (10) days after bids are opened except those the County elects to hold until the successful bidder has consummated a written contract with the County and given a satisfactory performance bond as above specified. All bid proposals submitted shall become and remain the property of, and shall continue to be subject to acceptance by, the County until a successful bidder has executed a written contract with the County and guaranteed performance thereof by the above-required 100 per cent performance bond.

Scurry County reserves, through its Commissioners Court, the right to reject any or all of the bid proposals tendered and to waive any or all technicalities.

Nine In Deadlock For Lead In PGA

By JIM KLOBUCHAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A first place crush without parallel in a major postwar golf tournament, nine men tied for the opening round, turned the PGA championship today into an unpredictable mass charge.

There was room enough at the top for such gilded names of golf as National Open champ Bill Casper, Mike Souchak and Gene Littler, and for such obscurities as Dick Hart and Chuck Klein.

There was a nod to age and battle-earned experience in the presence among the leaders of 43-year-old Jerry Barber, and a bow to youth in the presence of Hart, 23.

It took a 1-under-par 69 and a stubborn Minneapolis Golf Club course to get a piece of the lead. The shareholders were Casper Souchak, Little, Klein, Hart, Barber, former PGA champ Walt Burkemo, Mike Krak of Morgantown, W. Va., and Jackson Bradley of Houston, Tex.

Seventeen others were within two strokes of the lead. They included such money players as Ken Venturi, Jack Burke, Billy Maxwell and Art Wall at 70, and Sam Snead, Bob Rosburg, Lionel Hebert, Doug Ford and defending champ Dow Finsterwald at 71.

The PGA moved into the second round with three dozen players still in contention for the title.

Pinkston Is Still Leading Hitter

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Al Pinkston of the Mexico City Red Devils continues to lead the Mexican League in batting. He tops the circuit with a .377 average.

Pinkston is 11 points better than runner-up Manuel Senties of the Mexico City Tigers.

Aldo Salvent of Poza Rica leads in home runs with 24 an also is the runs batted in leader with 90.

Athletics Set Sights On 'Two-Club' First Division

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Where do the Kansas City A's go from here? They've pulled off an incredible jump from the cellar to third place with an 11-game streak, longest in the American League in five years, but can they crack the exclusive, two-club "first division?"

The A's, making their run in just 11 days, moved past Baltimore into third by whipping Washington 4-1 Thursday night. But they still trail Chicago's first-place White Sox by 8½ games and second-place Cleveland by 7½, after making up 3½ games on the leaders.

The White Sox kept their tough pace with a 3-1 victory over New York, plunking the world champion Yankees 10½ games behind as Early Wynn (14-6) became the AL's top winner. It was the Sox' 15th victory in 20 games since the All-Star break, when they were second, two games behind Cleveland.

The Indians stayed close by beating Boston 4-3 with Minnie Minoso driving in all their runs. Detroit tied New York for fifth by rapping Baltimore 11-2.

In the National League, San Francisco regained a half-game lead, beating Philadelphia 7-2 with five unearned runs and a 4-for-4 debut by rookie Willie McCovey. Los Angeles skidded from first to third, losing 5-4 in 12 innings as Pittsburgh ended its losing string at nine. Milwaukee took second place, hammering four home runs for a 6-2 decision over the Chicago Cubs that gave Warren Spahn his 260th victory.

St. Louis beat Cincinnati 1-0 as Bob Gibson pitched an eight-hit shutout in his first major league start.

Southpaw Bud Daley, after missing his regular turn because of a leg injury, blanked the Nats on six hits for six innings, then needed Tom Sturdivant's neat relief for a 12-6 record. That ties the Kansas City record for most victories in one season set by Art Ditmar in 1955 and tied by Ned Garver last year.

Sturdivant came on in the seventh with one run in, the bases loaded and one out. The big right-hander struck out Roy Sievers and then ended the inning by retiring Jim Lemon, another of the Senators' sluggers, on a fly. Sturdivant finished with a hitless 2 2-3-inning job.

The A's, hanging a 12th straight loss on the last-place Senators, beat Hal Griggs (2-8) with two runs in the second, counting the clincher on Bill Tuttle's single. That gave them the longest streak in the AL since the Yankees won 13 straight in 1954.

Wynn put away his 263rd victory, tops among active major leaguers, with a six-hitter. He walked only one, struck out nine and lost a shutout on an unearned run in the fourth inning. Al Smith drove in the tying run for the White Sox and added another in the eighth after Sherm Lollar's double and a single by Billy Goodman beat rookie Eli Grba (1-2) in the seventh.

Cleveland ended its slump at two games when Minoso's third single cracked a 3-3 tie in the ninth against losing reliever Mike Fornieles (1-2). Minnie had given starter Mudcat Grant a 3-0 lead with two singles, but Frank Malzone's 14th home run tied it in the sixth and left the victory for reliever Larry Locke (2-1).

Ted Lepcio and Coot Veal each drove in three runs for the Tigers and Al Kaline hit his 17th homer. Frank Lary (13-7) won it with a seven-hitter. Billy O'Dell (6-8) was the loser.

Miller Fans Are Worried

By The Associated Press

Fans of the Minneapolis Millers, falling farther behind in the American Assn. title race, are starting to worry about the loss of players sold or traded by the parent Boston Red Sox.

The manpower deficit was evident Thursday night as Louisville swept a three-game series with Minneapolis by beating the Millers 1-0. That put the Colonels a game and a half ahead of Minneapolis in the Eastern Division.

During the last three weeks Minneapolis has won only 12 games while losing 19. Two of its key players called up by Boston were pitcher Earl Wilson and hard-hitting Pumpsie Green.

A pinchhitter for Fort Worth, Joe Miller, gave the cats the boost they needed to go for a 6-2 victory over Omaha in another game Thursday night.

The Dallas Rangers nipped Houston 1-0 and Indianapolis defeated St. Paul 8-3 in other games. Denver at Charleston was postponed because of wet grounds.

Dallas Schools Given More Time To Clear Way For Integration

By ROBERT E. FORD

DALLAS (AP) — A federal judge Thursday refused to order integration of Dallas public schools this fall but he told the school board to "put your house in order" for integration which he said will surely come.

"You are going to integrate your schools. The question is when," 82-year-old Judge T. Whitfield Davidson said.

The hearing was held on a petition filed by attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asking for immediate integration. During yesterday's testimony, however, they indicated they would be willing to wait until 1960.

Dallas school leaders have been in court 10 times over the school integration issue since the U. S. Supreme Court handed down its decision on school segregation more than five years ago.

The NAACP attorneys charged that while the school board president, Dr. Edwin Rippy, was quoted as saying the board would abide by the Supreme Court ruling, the board has announced no plans for integration.

At Thursday's hearing, Dr. Rippy said the school board will follow all court directives. But he told the court that state and federal laws conflict. He said the 147-school district could lose more than 2½ million dollars in state aid money a year under a law passed by the state legislature two years ago. This law calls for the loss of state aid for schools which integrate without an election. The election is held only if 20 per cent of the voters petition for it.

In turning down the NAACP request for immediate integration, Judge Davidson said:

"A year from now may be sufficient time to integrate . . . we will not name any date or issue any order.

"The school board should further study this question and perhaps take further action, maybe an election."

Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel for the NAACP, threw his pencil on the table. A strong look of disappointment crossed his face.

Marshall and W. J. Durham, Dallas lawyer for the NAACP, declined after the hearing to discuss possible further moves.

"We'll have to see the (court) order before we can legally comment," Durham said.

One NAACP spokesman told a reporter "We'll not wait until next spring to reopen this thing. This will take a long conference before we know just what legal action we can take."

Judge Davidson, who opened the Day - long hearing by stating his love for Southern traditions but promising a fair hearing, ended the court session with what sounded like a lecture to Negro spectators.

"As long as he (the Negro) begins imitating his white brother he is not at his best," the aged jurist said. "If you want to rise in life, there is a way . . . that is to excel."

During the hearing, Dr. Rippy testified that if integration comes "we favor a plan of starting with the first grade."

Later he said the school board expects to continue its long-range policy of clarifying state and federal laws before disclosing any further plans of setting a date for integration.

Of the estimated 122,000 pupils in the district, about 22,000 are Negroes.

More than 100 school districts in Texas, embracing approximately one - quarter of the state's estimated two million scholastics, voluntarily integrated their schools. Although the state law halted plans for integration in several cities, several smaller districts have integrated their schools after holding the required elections.

Court Order Quells Row Within Union

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—There is court-ordered peace today within troubled Local 100 of the Teamsters Union.

The local is one which has been racked with strife between factions opposing and favoring James R. Hoffa, Teamsters International president.

Officers of the local, elected last winter on an anti-Hoffa platform, Thursday obtained a temporary restraining order to prevent 15 members of the other group from interfering with operations of the local or even entering the union headquarters.

That came after an outbreak of fighting at the union hall Wednesday night which resulted in the arrest of 12 members of the pro-Hoffa "rank and file" committee. All were charged with trespassing and disorderly conduct.

Cases of seven of the men were continued in Police Court until Aug. 6. Four others asked for jury trials, to be held later, and the 12th man was to be given a hearing today.

The 12 men, plus three others, were named in the restraining order granted by Common Pleas Court Judge Charles E. Weber at the request of attorneys for officers of Local 100.

Among the latter three were George P. Starling, who was defeated last winter for re-election as president of the local; Charles H. Govan, defeated for business representative, and Edward Hartman Jr.

The injunction petition charged them with unlawfully seeking to gain control of the union offices.

Judge Weber said he will conduct a hearing later on whether to make the restraining order permanent.

Japan Hopes To Launch Satellite

TOKYO (AP)—Japan hopes to launch its first earth satellite in 1963.

The Japanese Astronautic Development Committee said the satellite launching will be part of a five-year program including firing of rockets for studies of typhoons, space health and space communications.

DOCTOR'S GIRL FRIEND FINGERPRINTED—Red-headed Carole Treggoff, 22-year-old divorcee and girl friend of Dr. Bernard Finch, holds an ink-stained hand behind her back as she is fingerprinted by Sgt. Bill Handrahan at West Covina, Calif., police headquarters. Finch is charged with murdering his wife, Barbara, 33. Carole was arrested as she stepped from the witness stand during the preliminary hearing for Finch where she admitted love and intimacies with the 41-year-old surgeon. She too was charged with murder and accused of helping Finch slay his wife. (AP Wirephoto)

Jewel Thief Is Captured

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP) — A widely known jewel thief was arrested Thursday after he was discovered in the home of financier Alexander Guterma.

Police said Hamilton Channell, 70, was captured after 100-mile-an-hour chase.

Guterma's wife returned to her estate home here and found Channell in her kitchen. Thinking quickly, she asked if he were a real estate man. He said yes. They chatted a while, then he left.

As the man drove away, Mrs. Guterma called Greenwich police. They chased Channell down the Merritt Parkway, over the New York state line. New York police pursued him along the Hutchinson River Parkway.

In West Harrison, N.Y., a policeman spotted Channel, driving slowly. When he was arrested, police said, he had $1,800 in cash and diamond jewelry. He tried to throw some of the gems away.

Six-Pound Dog Is Heroine Of Town

HAYS, Kan. (AP)—Tina, a 6-pound toy Manchester, is the heroine of Hays.

The dog leaped in front of a child Wednesday and took the strike of a rattlesnake. Tina has a badly swollen head, but she'll recover.

Tina and Paula Jean Ott, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ott, were walking on the Ott farm near here when they heard the rattle of the coiled snake. Tina immediately jumped at the poisonous rattler.

Youth Festival Curbs Set

By HANS E. BENEDICT

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Officials of the seventh Communist World Youth Festival took new precautions today to prevent any mass defection of Iron Curtain delegates to the West.

Reliable sources inside the festival said there will be a sharp reduction in East-West meetings, political discussions and even such social events as dancing parties and sightseeing tours.

"All this stuff about democracy, freedom and rock 'n' roll just gives our people a lot of wrong ideas and is bound to cause trouble," an East European Communist party official was quoted.

Three delegates from Communist Hungary, Czechoslovakia and East Germany—asked Austria for political asylum. Communist organizers of the festival to promote "peace and friendship" fear their fete might backfire embarrassingly before the closing Tuesday.

Guards and controls have been tightened in the wire-fenced festival compounds and around the Danube River boats housing delegations from Romania, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria.

Leaders of the Hungarian delegation reportedly issued orders forbidding members from taking part in any political discussions or making any kind of political statement.

One third of the program is being eliminated, reducing the festival to mostly speech-making and slogan-shouting, with hardly any social fun.

The Red organizers appeared caught by surprise by the vigor of the non-Communist delegates from the West and Asia since the festival opened Sunday. Some of the Americans have been among the loudest in demanding to meet young Russians, Poles and Czechs to explain western democracy.

There are some 350 Americans attending the festival. They are split, with the anti-communist faction in the majority.

U.S. informants said about 170 American youths have signed up for a tour of the U.S.S.R. as guests of the Soviet government after the festival ends.
