Gifford-Hill Western Schedules Formal Open House At Mfg. Plant

Company dignitaries and local plant personnel of Gifford-Hill Western, Mfg. Company cordially invite the general public to their official open-house party to be staged at the Spearman Plant Saturday September 17 from 8 to 5 p.m.

The half-million dollar plant which manufactures irrigation pipe officially launched the beginning of operations at the plant January 11 of this year when county residents visited the plant. However, the official open-house for area residents of the Northern Panhandle could not be scheduled until the plant had passed through the "busiest season" which is always in fall and winter when farmers are not irrigating.

The formal opening Saturday September 17 calls for a bang-up party lasting all day long. Free refreshments and gifts for all. Door prizes every half hour will be of the household variety such as coffee makers, electrical appliances, etc. Some lucky farmer will receive free, a $1,000 lock-seal irrigation pipeline, which includes installation. Everyone is invited to come by and register.

Guests throughout the Golden Spread from Amarillo South, to Garden City Kansas North, will be present to view the entire lay-out of what the plant does; from the minute the pipe comes off the production line to the time it's actually laid in the ground. Personnel will go through the entire operation. This is the first opportunity the public has had to really see what is done in Gifford-Hill's Northern plant.

A guided tour of the offices, shops and plant area will be conducted by Engineers from Herford, Garden City and Plainview along with local employees.

Company dignitaries on hand to greet visitors will include the President of the Company, J.W. Porter Jr. of Dallas; Chairman of the Board of Gifford-Hill Pipe Company, Pete Gifford of Dallas; Executive Vice President, Bruce Spenser of Lubbock; Vice President in charge of Sales, Harold Banks of Lubbock; Vice President in charge of production, Malcolm Hammons of Plainview; Company Controller, George Davis of Lubbock, and Regional Manager, Jim Terrell of Garden City.

There is a City ordinance against shooting B-B guns. Pellet guns, etc. inside the city limits and anyone caught breaking this ordinance will be in danger of being fined accordingly.

New Library, Another Doctor Among Pleas From Citizens

Nearly 70 persons called at the Chamber of Commerce office Tuesday to participate in the "Can Do-Come See" phase of planning a blueprint for the betterment of Spearman and Hansford County.

Friday's Rain Measured 1.74

Beneficial rainfall amounts, all amounting to an inch and over were recorded in the Spearman area from a storm which moved through Friday evening, Sept. 2.

Wheat farmers have been working from can-to-can't planting the already wet fields, and Friday's rain caught some of them, wandering if much of the planting would have to be done over. The rain came in the form of hard, down-pour gusts, the kind that packs the ground.

However most farmers were of the opinion that they would not have to replant, and much of the green wheat is already showing.

Rains were the heaviest around the Spearman area, out to about 8 miles when amounts became smaller. The week's weather chart follows:

date	hi	low	prec
Aug. 29	86	65
Aug. 30	85	62
Aug. 31	89	65
Sept. 1	88	64
Sept. 2	93	64	1.74
Sept. 3	85	61
Sept. 4	80	57
Total for year			15.05

Visiting for three days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Reed were Mrs. Darlene Watkins, Mark, Bob, Beth, David, Matthew and Scott from Los Angeles, California.

Evans, and Manager Red Smith stated that this was the best public participation on a program of this sort to ever be held in Spearman.

Teachers, Pastors, Agriculture people, business men and women's club representatives were among those calling at the office to suggest what they thought was most needed in our city and community.

Among these suggestions were: new library building, clean up of city lots and eye-sores; more participation in Agra-Industry. Most everyone though since Agriculture is the biggest and best industry in this area, more concentration should be placed on working to push industries in this field.

An expanded Medical field was another suggestion: to try and secure an Ear-Eye-Nose-Throat Physician for our area. Many more ideas and suggestions were submitted.

Chamber President Kenneth Evans will appoint committees to set up short term projects of one year, and others to work on longer term projects of 5 years. These committees will sort out recommendations and many groups will begin work on these projects before the first of the year.

Married Men To Make Up Draft Quota

Selective Service Board 99 has been instructed to send 14 men to fill the October draft quota for these four counties served by the board.

Thirteen notices have been sent so far and the other notice will be mailed soon according to authorities at the office.

Out of the 14 who will report for induction October 3, only three are single men, the rest are married. The single men include some college boys who either failed to make 70 or above on the college tests, or who were not in the top one-half of their class grade-wise. Also, if the boys were not in school full-time during their re-classification, they were subject to call.

The local board secretary stated that there are no single men available as of the present. However, they do have names of a very few single men who have not been examined as yet. When they are examined (and if they pass) their names will go to the top of the list to be called for induction and any time the quota cannot be filled with single men, the board will dip into the "married."

Area men due to report on October 3 for induction October 4 include: Gerald Mitts, Maxwell Crowell, Darrell Forbau, Jimmy Beeson, Larry Poston, James Wright, Richard Beene, David Cudd, Joseph Newman, Roy McBride, Frederick Borst, Richard Welker and Eddie G. Martin. The 14th notice had not been mailed as of Sept. 7.

Crazy Day, instituted last year in this City, will be held September 17.

Any visitors which happen in to Spearman that date, might think the entire town has gone nuts! But residents remembering last year's Crazy-Day party will not be surprised at the outrageous costumes and get-ups merchants and sales people will be wearing.

The idea for the whole thing is to get people inside Spearman business establishments. Merchants will be staging real sales bargains on their merchandise, and even if you don't go in to buy, go in to look! It will be worth your time to see the various "Crazy" ways in which stores are decorated. The store personnel will probably be unrecognizable.

The city is planning a big day of fun Saturday, Sept. 17, so watch this paper next week for sale ads and the schedule of events for that K-I-A-Z-Y day.

School Begins Monday For 7 Future LVN's

The school to train Vocational Nurses begins at Hansford Hospital September 12 with seven students enrolled for the course.

The first 5 months of the year's training will be the pre-clinical period. Then students will be doing more class-room work than patient care. At the end of the five months, students will receive their caps. They then will begin their clinical period when they will be doing more patient care than class room work.

At the end of this year of training the students will be eligible to go to Austin to take the State Board exam and obtain their Vocational Nurses License.

Mrs. Wilson (Joan) McClellan will be instructor for the school. Mrs. McClellan stated that the Hospital plans to continue this school until enough LVN's have been graduated to meet compliance with the Medicare program for Hansford Hospital. For the Hospital to meet Medicare requirements, a Registered Nurse and a Vocational Nurse must be on duty around the clock. There are plenty of RNs in Spearman, but only 3 LVNs available. So it is very important that the school graduates enough LVNs to meet both the Hospital and Pioneer Manor Nursing Home needs in the future, which means that the nursing school will probably be conducted for the next several years.

Women meeting all requirements and passing tests to be eligible to enroll in the school included: Dorothy Standerfer, Ima Unphress, Donna Anderson, Virginia Sell, Ada Ruth Diggs, Loffte Booth, and Nita Henry. They begin class room studies Monday.

The shutters, draperies, carpeting and the antiquing and upholstering of several pieces of furniture was done by Charlene Eulis, Decorator. Members of the Methodist church cordially invite the public to come by next Sunday to view this new parsonage during open-house hours from 2 to 5 p.m.

WHY BE A GRIME FIGHTER?

WITH A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC RANGE

You'll spend less time at tiresome kitchen clean-up chores when you cook electrically. Because electric heat is flameless, there's no fuel grime. Pots and pans stay shiny with less scouring. And since the electric oven requires no oxygen to support combustion, there's no flow of air into and out of it, carrying greasy cooking vapors into your kitchen. Walls, woodwork and curtains stay fresh and new-looking with a minimum of care. So why be a grime fighter? See your dealer soon about a clean cooking flameless electric range.

HOMEMAKING NOTES

By Linda Webb

Are you one of those persons who has ordered from menu and wondered what would show up on the plate?

Foreign terms on today's menus are many people, for example, you wanted ordinary green beans, but the menu said "green beans julienne." Most often on menus are here. Look it over so that next time you eat out this menu, you'll know what you are ordered before the waitress is in front of you.

A la (ah lah) — A French term which means to be with, as apple pie a la mode means serve with ice cream.

A la carte (a lah CART) — means that each dish is purchased separately; the dish is not part of the complete meal.

A la king (ah lah KING) — served in a rich sauce which may contain green pepper mushrooms.

A la creme (a lah CREEM) — serve with cream.

Amalinee (AH-mah-deen) — served with almonds.

Aus (o ZHUS) — Served in natural juice or gravy. Meat often served this way.

En lait (oh LAY) — Either made served with milk.

Au gratin (oh GRAT-in) — fish topped with crumbs, grated cheese or cheese sauce.

Canape (CAN-a-pay) — An appetizer, usually some type of meat which has been spread with highly seasoned food.

Consomme (KON-su-mey) — clear soup or broth.

Crepes (Krayp) a thin pancake.

Croton (KROO-TON) — Bread cubes either toasted or fried.

Demitasse (DUH-me-tass) — for dinner coffee served in a small cup.

Fricassee (FRIK-a-see) — chicken and vegetables in a small amount of liquid.

Hors d'oeuvre (or DUH-vr) — small portions of food served as appetizers, usually prior to or at the beginning of a meal.

Entree (AHN-tray) A main dish.

Julienne (Zhoo-JI-ANN) — vegetables cut into thin strips.

Pot au feu (PUH-oh-foe) — small cakes with icing.

Purée (pew RAY) Foods that have been strained or put through sieve.

Saute (saw-TAY) Cooked in small amount of fat.

How often do you read labels on the foods you buy?

The label on a food package is the window through which you "see" inside the package.

You may find a full list of ingredients or there may be no list of ingredients if the manufacturer uses a standard recipe. Manufacturers may include only a partial ingredient list if the standard recipe is used with the addition of some ingredients.

For example, there is no listing of ingredients for enriched white bread if it is made according to federal standards. The law requires a label to state if sodium propionate is added, however. Although made according to federal standards, manufacturers using choice ingredients may wish to name them.

Consumers should read the list of ingredients when it is available. Remember that the ingredients are listed in the order of their predominance, from the most to the least.

It's a good idea to check the ingredients.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir: I would like for the people in your town and community to know about this. Will you please print this article in your newspaper. This article is from The Shamrock Texan, and has been printed in The Amarillo News-Globe. Anyone wanting to know the name of this bank and car lot dealer may write me at this address. I understand this car lot dealer is still selling cars here in Amarillo. (article follows) I would like to warn people of the importance of demanding the title when giving a check for a car. My husband and I bought a car, which was less than a year old, from a dealer who had been in business here in Amarillo for many years. We were assured that the title would be sent to Austin by the dealer to be transferred to our names and that we would receive it in the mail in a few weeks. After 6 weeks we had not received it and began checking up to find out why. We learned that the car lot which was being financed by an Amarillo bank, had been closed by the bank and that the bank was holding our title along with about 12 others on cars which had also been sold to people from the same lot.

The bank was holding the titles as collateral, and said that it had not received the money for them; therefore, they would not release the titles, we did not know at the time we bought our car that the titles were being held by the bank. Our car was taken from us and put in storage by the bank for over a year before we finally received the title. After waiting all that time to go to court, the car dealer agreed to repay a certain amount to the bank and the bank agreed to release the titles if we would settle for the cars and not try to sue for any damages. We were advised by our lawyers to agree to this after a year of worry and expense, and we had to pay a very costly lawyer fee besides. The dealer claimed that the bank received the money for the cars when they took over the assets of the lot. The bank claimed that it did not receive payment for the cars. If it did, it was more than likely used against something else that the dealer owed the bank. Anyway, it was a very costly lesson for all of us. From now on, if we ever buy another car for cash, we will be certain to demand the title and send it to be transferred ourselves. I think this is something worth sharing with others so that they will be aware of the dangers. Dennis Pasley

Smith-Martin Vows Exchanged

Miss Janice Louise Smith became the bride of Dr. Ernest Sanford Martin in a double-ring ceremony read by Rev. Harry Boydston of Stillwater, Oklahoma on September 2 in the First Baptist Church in Spearman. Nuptial vows were exchanged at 7 p.m.

The wedding united the families of Mr. & Mrs. W. Wellman Smith of Spearman, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Martin of Trenton, North Dakota.

Mrs. Marvin Jones, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Jerry Ralls who sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Crystal vases and tall white tapers lighted the elevated garden setting for the impressive ceremony. Triple spiral candelabra were flanked with sun-burst arrangements of white gladioli and linked by white satin roping to frame the altar area. The couple exchanged vows between tall Grecian columns entwined with ivy. Further enhancing the setting were cathedral candelabra and greenery arrangements.

Matron of Honor, Mrs. Clifford Nunn, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids Miss Wanda Martin and Miss Janice Martin, sisters of the groom, were dressed alike in floor length gowns fashioned from royal blue brocade satin. They wore matching shoes and carried sheath cascade bouquets of white daisy poms. Their head pieces were circlet crowns designed from these same flowers.

Best Man was Wayne Boland. Bill Hornbuckle and Clifford Nunn served as ushers. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a formal wedding gown of candle light satin. The bodice was fashioned with a scooped neckline and long sleeves which tapered to points over the hands. Chantilly lace flowers, re-embroidered with bugle beads and sequins, were applied from the top of the bodice to mid-way on the bell shaped skirt which extended to a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was held in place by beaded-traced petals. She carried a classic and elegant crescent bouquet styled of gladioli.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith chose a blue knit suit dress and bone accessories. Mrs. Martin was attired in a suit dress of blue and green, summer print, with a matching hat and accessories. Both ladies wore cymbidium orchid corsages.

The reception which followed was held in the fellowship hall at the Church. Mrs. Stanley Garrett and Mrs. John Brinkley were hostesses. The bride's table was covered in blue over-laid with white cut work linen. Tall blue tapers in crystal holders flanked the white three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride couple. Wanda Schubert and Carla Cudd presided at the serving table and Miss Mary Ellen Bailey registered guests.

The bride left on her wedding trip wearing a grey and beige

double-knit suit with black accessories. The couple will be at home September 15 at 224 N. West. Apt. 18, Stillwater, Oklahoma where they will be attending college.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Spearman High School. She graduated from Hardin Simmons University in 1965 with a BA degree and will attend Oklahoma State University where she will complete her Masters.

The bridegroom graduated in 1960 from Williston, North Dakota high school. In 1966 he graduated from Oklahoma State University with a BS and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. He is working on his Masters at Oklahoma State U. where he has received a National Institute of Health post-doctoral Fellowship in physiology research.

Recent Bride Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Melvin Burks, nee Linda Batson, was honored with a bridal shower September 3 in the Hospitality Room of First State Bank.

The chosen colors of pink, blue and white were used as a color scheme.

Mrs. Burks was presented with a corsage of a pink gladioli. Her mother, Mrs. Jack Batson and her grandmother, Mrs. Johnnie Close were presented white carnation corsages.

A pink linen cloth was used on the serving table which was centered with an arrangement of pink, blue and white flowers in a low milk glass bowl. Pink candles were in pressed glass holders and pink punch was served from a pressed glass bowl. The white cake squares were decorated with blue roses and pink leaves.

Hostesses presided at the serving table and Miss Frances Whitson registered the guests. Mrs. Batson assisted her daughter with the gifts.

Hostesses were Mesdames Joe Entekins, Cecil Crawford, Archie Morse, Jack Whitson, Pete Vernon, O. L. Enkhardt, Ira Tindell, W. R. Grever, Willis Randall, W. E. Sparks and James Sparks.

McComas-Latham Wedding Vows Read August 25

Miss Sandra McComas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Grote of St. Louis, Missouri, became the bride of Jerry D. Latham, son of Mrs. Wilma Stidham of Spearman in an afternoon ceremony on August 25, 1966 at the First Baptist Church of Spearman, Texas. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Luther Berry. Mr. Latham is the grandson of Mrs. C. F. Bennett. The couple now make their home in Dumas, Texas. Those attending were: Mrs. Wilma Stidham, Mrs. C. F. Bennett, Patsy Latham, Peggy Stidham; all of Spearman, Texas. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mahaffey and family of Dumas, and Mr. and Mrs. James Latham of Gruver.
