Our Heritage Of Freedom

This symbol of American independence, her Liberty Bell, was cast in London and was rung for the first time upon the occasion of the first reading of the Declaration of Independence. Inscribed prophetically on the huge iron bell are these words:

"Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

Kim's Korner

DARN BOOB TUBE: Where do children spend most of their non-classroom hours? Right in front of the television set. Today's school kids are joining their parents in becoming television addicts. The average elementary school student watches television for 25 to 30 hours per week while the average pre-schooler watches for 23 hours per week. A United States Department of Education study shows that eighth graders watch, on the average, 21 hours of TV per week while spending only five hours a week on homework. Back in my day that was not a problem, watching television. I'm 49 years old, so back in 1954, when I was 12, Dad purchased the first family television. A Philco, programming was in it's infancy - I do remember the 'Howdy Doody Show with Buffalo Bob'; Clarabell The Clown; The Friday Night Fights; Ed Sullivan Show on Sunday nights, etc. My Mom didn't permit non-stop television watching. Evening shows were planned and picked and the television was turned on in time for that specific show. It was not a 'baby-sitter', Mom controlled the TV, the TV did not control Mom. Some of the trash on television now, causes me to wonder if Mom's of today don't need to take back control of the television. The violence, bloodshed, nudity, profanity viewed by kids are taking a toll on society.

Children who are heavy TV viewers (four or more hours a day) according to reports become isolated from others, play less well with friends, have fewer hobbies, are in poorer physical condition due to lack of exercise, have poorer reading skills, and tend to make lower grades in school. Heavy TV viewing can lead to the development of inappropriate behavior and values espoused on some shows.

CONGRATULATIONS: To Steve Merrill, Rotan's newest teacher/coach. Merrill is attending Sul Ross at Alpine this summer taking some extra courses to better prepare him for the Rotan Junior High classroom work in the fall. He is a graduate of Baylor, has his Master's degree from Tarleton State and has his Mid Management Degree as well. Congratulations to Steve Merrill. We hope you pan out to be as good a teacher in Rotan, as everyone anticipates that you will be. If that happens, we hope you'll stay in Rotan as long (10 years) as you stayed at your last school.

CONGRATULATIONS: To Vahid Morris on getting his degree at East Texas State University and being accepted to The South Texas College of Law in Houston.

A MOTHER'S TOUCH: Borrowed the following from Rev. Larry Crumpton's First United Methodist Church, Roby, Texas Newsletter.

"A Mother's Touch Is Forever"

A mother's touch begins when she first tickles the soles of little feet....and continues until she tempers souls with her love.

A mother's touch is as constant as her love.....finding its way through clouds of rain or showers of happiness.

A mother's touch fills hearts with hope and homes with love.

A mother's touch is enabling, giving her children the courage and confidence to reach out and touch someone, too.

A mother's touch is forever.

LOST WATER: Remember the 5 million gallons of water that the City of Rotan lost a few weeks ago? Whistle Britches figured that if every Rotan resident (assuming that there would always be 2,000 residents in Rotan) drank a quart of water a day, every day, that it would take 27 years and a few months for the 2,000 Rotan residents to drink 5 million gallons of water. I didn't check his math, but the Ol' Codger felt confident his computation was correct.

State Capitol Highlights

By Lyndell Williams
Texas Press Association

How could everything not be all hunky-dory at the Texas Capitol, now that state auditors have shown Texas legislators how to:

* Trim over $5 billion from the state budget, erasing a projected $4 billion-plus deficit,

* Sidestep a dreaded new state income tax, and

* Look forward to '92 elections with a new-born reputation for seeking and destroying waste in state government.

Last week, Comptroller John Sharp outlined a 975-point package of fee increases, budget cuts and savings which he said lawmakers could approve this month to trim $5.2 billion off a projected budget with a $5 billion-plus deficit.

What a turn-around! Instead of a big deficit, state officials would have a small surplus to show voters. Sharp brought real hope for lawmakers worried about forcing a new state income tax on voters.

New Political Life

Gov. Ann Richards pronounced the state income tax issue dead for awhile and took off for Matagorda Island to closet herself with Sharp and the Texas political world's budget leadership.

How could things not be hunky dory? Sharp, if his figures prove out, has given all legislators a new lease on political life.

Recent polls, and a mind you warning from Gov. Richards herself, indicate that Texas voters - tired after a decade of tax and fee hikes - perceive the Legislature to lack ethics and state agencies to be fat and unresponsive.

Standoff: Liberals Blink

Sharp has provided all lawmakers with an honorable exit from the cellar of public opinion, but especially his fellow Democrats.

The truth is that until last week, Democrats and Texas taxpayers were facing each other in a Mexican standoff over a new state income tax....and the Democrats blinked first.

Now, leaders hope to lay out a budget for lawmakers to pass quickly in special session, but they fear lawmakers will unravel it by squabbling over personal sacred cows.

Nightmare Scenario

Their nightmare scenario has a balked Legislature producing only a one-year budget, prompting a second-year budget session - with an income tax no less- before the '92 primary elections.

Their fears are real; rank-and-file unrest is evident.

Politically speaking, to balk now is dangerous for Democrats because Texas Republicans are already labeling Sharp's plan an admission of guilt by wasters and spenders.

Past Images

That label is hard to refute when images of the last ten years roll past:

* The $4 billion tax hike for the no pass-no play reforms of Gov. Mark White's education Camelot.

* Senate Democrats holding Republican Gov. Bill Clements' feet to the fire, forcing him to sign their tax bill as time ran out on the fiscal year

* The periodic news flashes, like the one last month, that the state welfare agency needs another multi-million dollar cash infusion.

Still, Gov. Richards, Sharp and the state auditors have done a remarkable thing: they have forced lawmakers to choose between their political survival and the trimming of their spoils system, grown fat since the liberal sweep of '82.

Squabbling and all, it's not hard to imagine the leadership getting its way on this one.

Other Highlights

* Director of the prison system James Lynaugh told lawmakers last week that a new law allowing prison capacity exceeding 95 percent probably will be found in contempt of federal court.

* House Speaker Gib Lewis predicted 90 percent of Sharp's plan will be passed by the House.

* Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock called the plan "the finest piece of work I have ever seen during my entire time (over 40 years) in office.

* Sharp said political reality kept him from touching such sacred cows such as the Permanent University Fund or the dedicated highway fund.

* Land Office staffers said vandals created a "major" oil spill by breaking open valves on storage tanks, leaking the liquid into the San Jacinto River near Baytown.

* Speaker Lewis said he merely snubbed a Fort Worth columnist who insisted the speaker made an implied threat against him at a chance meeting in a nightclub bathroom.

Columnist Bud Kennedy said Lewis put a finger in his face, called him a dead man, and added "And you don't know how."

Lewis said he merely refused Kennedy's offer to shake hands by saying, "As far as I'm concerned, you're a dead man. You don't exist."

FINALLY: Ol' Whistle Britches from his Shinnery Ridge Ranch at Rough Creek thinks Texas Ranger Manager Bobby Valentine should be in the nut house before the season is over. The other night Valentine, with a 4-2 lead late in the game called on his ace closer Jeff Russell to end the game and all he did was allow 3 runs to score and lose the bloomin' game. That will make you wish you were selling shoes.

On Wings of Freedom

July 4, 1776. . . a fledgling nation breaks ties with her mother country, Great Britain, ready to spread her wings on her flight to freedom.

In a period of more than one hundred years, the American colonies had grown to thirteen in number, maturing into a nation possessing religious and political views differing from those of Great Britain, culminating in our War for Independence. The colonists would tolerate oppression and injustice no longer. They would govern their own, retaining their rights, including that of religious freedom, for which they had struggled so long, and settle for nothing less than their claims to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Thus, the Declaration of Independence was conceived, forming a new nation. . . "the Thirteen United States of America." She would soar on eagle wings, an enduring panorama of freedom and democracy spread out before her.

This Fourth of July, as resounding rainbows of fire reach out into the night, may we pray that the candles of freedom shall ever burn bright.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AMERICA!

Texas Cowboy Reunion To Be Held In Stamford On July 3-6

Sixty one years ago, 1930, the Texas Cowboy Reunion held in the West Texas town of Stamford (45 miles north of Abilene on Hwy. 277) came into being as a community project designed to preserve the traditions of the western cattle ranching country and to honor the men and women who laid the foundations many years ago.

Held annually during the July 4th weekend, the Reunion still remains a tradition of tribute on top of hosting four days full of fun, and exciting events for the entire family. Known far and wide as the world's largest amateur rodeo, this year's Texas Cowboy Reunion will begin on Wednesday, July 3 and conclude on Saturday, July 6.

Festivities will kick off at 9 a.m. in the main arena with the popular event of Team Roping. At 4 p.m., downtown Stamford will be the place to be as the Grand Parade will roll through town. Following the parade, as well as each evening at 6 p.m., Joe Allen of Abilene will serve up his mouthwatering barbe-cue to visitors.

Then it is off to the rodeo each evening at 8 p.m., with Texas Governor Ann Richards who will be a special guest at the Wednesday performance.

Each performances includes all of the favorites: Calf Roping, Barrel Racing, Bull Riding and Bronc Riding. Additional unique events such as Wild Cow Milking, Ranch Bronc Riding and the Wild Mare Race are always exciting to watch.

Following the rodeo each night at 9:30 will be a dance at the Pavilion. Performing this year will be Robert Joe Vandygriff and the S.O.C. Band on Wednesday and Thursday night and Jody Nix and the Texas Cowboy Band on Friday and Saturday night.

It will be a July 4 to remember as the Chuckwagon teams from all over the state have rounded up their top hands to exhibit their cooking skills as well as show a little authenticity in the Chuckwagon Cookoff Competition.

Beginning on the 4th, the Oldtimers Association will have coffee and a fellowship in the old bunkhouse to reminisce about the good-ole days. They also have a barbecue each day at noon which is open to the public.

Beginning Friday morning at 8:30 a.m. will be the Bit, Spur and Western Collectible Show held in the Tri-Area Barns across from the Reunion grounds. This will continue on into Saturday and will be an interesting display of "Cowboy Memorabilia."

The final day and the busiest day, Saturday will include many special activities.

Always a favorite, The Oldtimers will hold its annual Fiddler's Contest at the Roundup Hall at 9:30 a.m.

At 10 a.m. in the main arena, cowgirl Sponsors from all over the area will compete in the slack portion of the Sponsors Barrel Race.

At 1 p.m. some of the famous Cowboy Poets will recite their impression of life in the "old west" at a Cowboy Poetry Gathering in the Pavilion.

Also open during the entirety of the Reunion, will be the Western Art Show and Sale at the John Selmon Memorial Pavilion Building.

The remainder of the day will go just as the previous one, with a rodeo performance and the dance each evening being a little different than the last one. So, it might be a good idea to attend each day of the Texas Cowboy Reunion.

If experiencing the "Old West" is for you, then travel to Stamford for the 1991 version of the Texas Cowboy Reunion. If you do, you will be promised a wonderful and memorable time. For more information, please contact the Stamford Chamber of Commerce at (915) 773-2411.

Hustling Around Hobbs

by Joy Walker

As you have probably seen by the announcement in last week's paper, Melody and Mark's little daughter was born Monday night, 24th of June at 11:15. They named her Kassie Nicole, and on Saturday, Wilber, Carol and I all went to Austin to see the little new baby. Carol and Wilber went to Barton Creek Lake where Wilber attended a Ciba Geigy meeting at Barton Creek Country Club and I stayed with Mark and Melody and my new grandbaby. I will tell you next week how adorable she is. Typical grandmother. The weather has sure been hot and the little cotton seems to be growing but some folks could do with a shower, especially where they didn't get very much those last two or three rains. All the farmers are very busy, and are in the fields from daylight to dark.

As usual the first day of the Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Championship was rained out. I am not a bit surprised as it usually rains when the Tennis starts. There were not very many days we didn't get rained on when we used to go, which was usually several days each year

Rush Callan was buried in Rotan on Tuesday, and our sincere sympathy to all of his family. He was a real pioneer of this part of the country.

Wednesday I attended the Salad Luncheon which was held at the Rotan Lion's Club building. It was sponsored by the Fisher County 4-H exchange group and proceeds went to expenses of the 4-H exchange trip to North Carolina. Again, just as at Roby, the salads were all delicious.

Thursday at noon I was back in Rotan again. This time for the Fisher County 4-H Fashion Show and luncheon which was held at the Community Center. If you have never seen the beautiful clothes the kids are making, you have really missed something. We have some very talented girls and boys in Fisher County. 26 of our 4-H'ers participated.

Happy birthday to June Anderson whose birthday was Sunday, the 30th of June. Also to J.D. Kincaid whose birthday was Tuesday, July 2nd.

The J.W. Etheredges have a whole houseful of company as Todd and his family are here from Colorado, so next week I will have lots of news from them. Know they will all have a wonderful time.

Mrs. Howard (Barbara Alice) Looney from Longview has been her for several days visiting with her dad, J.C. Cave, so know he has been enjoying seeing her.

I am not going to try and get all the news this week, as am typing this on Saturday morning before we leave for Austin. Next week though, I will try to get all the latest news.

Don't forget the American Cancer Society is having the big barbecue on the 4th of July, so be sure and make plans to attend. It's at the Community Center in Rotan and starts at 7 p.m.

Have a safe and happy 4th. See you next week.

Dr. Callan Gives OK To Print Old Pictures In Book

The Fisher County Historical Commission announced this week that the Dr. C.M. Callan collection of early day photographs will be included in the book "Picture Book Of Fisher County", to be released in December 1991.

Dr. Maurice Callan's complete collection of early day pictures have been turned over to the Fisher County Historical Commission to be included in the book. After the book is published, the pictures will be on display at the Rotan Library.

Callan's collection is the result of a boyhood hobby and contains many original pictures that have not before been published.

The pictures contain early day street scenes, flood scenes, early day stores and a picture of the first Rotan Fire Department.

College-Bound Graduates Applying For Scholarships

College-bound 1991 Texas high school graduates seeking careers in science, mathematics or engineering have another opportunity to apply for scholarships before classes begin this fall.

The National Science Scholars Program is offering $976,000 in new scholarships to the country's high school graduates to pursue studies in physical science, life science, computer science, mathematics or engineering at colleges and universities. The program will award individual scholarships of up to $5,000 a year for four-year and five-year science, mathematics and engineering programs.

To apply for the scholarships, students should contact their local high school or school district office. School districts are scheduled to receive application materials the week of June 17. Application forms also will be available from the state's 20 regional education service centers. Completed applications from school districts must be received by the Texas Education Agency by 5 p.m. July 3.

A state panel will evaluate scholarship applications and nominate at least four applicants from each of Texas' 27 congressional districts. At least one of the nominees will be female. Nominations will be submitted to the U.S. Department of Education by July 12.

Two students, including at least one female, from each congressional district will be awarded scholarships. President George Bush will announce the scholarship recipients September 30.

The National Science Scholars Program is authorized by the Excellence in Mathematics, Science and Engineering Education Act of 1990. The program is designed to recognize meritorious students who excel in science, mathematics and engineering by providing scholarships for students to continue their studies at the postsecondary level. The program also aims to strengthen the leadership of the United States in science, mathematics and engineering by attracting men and women into the fields and encouraging them to pursue teaching careers in these areas.

Last year's highly successful computer camps are coming back to the campus of Texas State Technical College of Sweetwater. Children from 8-12 years old can attend either of two camps.

The camps will combine education with excitement as "campers" gain valuable exposure to computer technology in between swimming, games, hot lunches and more. Teachers and students from Texas State Technical College will instruct the children, as well as guiding them through hands-on computer labs.

The cost for the camp is $60 per child; each additional child will be $50. The registration deadline for the computer camp is July 5, 1991 and each camp is limited to 25 students.

Anybody needing further information can contact Nellie Gossett at 235-7394 or Lee Bland at 235-7397. Or they can be reached toll-free at 1-800-592-8784.

CARD OF THANKS

We have been humbled by the great outpouring of love and concern shown toward us during Ronald's recent illness and surgeries. Many kindnesses have been done for us and we wish to let everyone know just how grateful we truly are:

To the men who planted and cared for the crops and calves; to the fine staff and emergency personnel of Fisher Co. Hospital, Dr. Atkins and Dr. Callan; to Darrell Hart and the elders, deacons and members of the Roby Church of Christ; to the staff and employees of Roby C.I.S.D.; to the commissioners, elected officials and employees of Fisher County; to the members of Cross Roads Baptist Church and all the churches who added us to their prayer lists; Pat Neeper, Ilene Hale, Jimmy Wright, Malcolm and Laverne Young and other individuals too numerous to mention; the wonderfully skilled doctors and staff at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock; and to everyone who called, visited, sent cards and letters and especially to all who prayed for us. Your love and support made this difficult time in our lives much easier to bear. We have been blessed to live and work among such decent and caring people as you. Thank you.

Congressman Charles Stenholm

Stenholm To Speak At HUD Housing Open House

Congressman Charles Stenholm will make the dedication address of the new 20-unit moderate to low income housing project - HUD, on Saturday, July 6th, according to Rotan Mayor Jerry Marshall.

Stenholm is scheduled to make his speech at 10:30 a.m., Saturday prior to the scheduled Open House. The affair takes place at the new units in the 300 block of 7th Street.

A total of 20-units, at a cost of approximately $914,000, will be dedicated by Congressman Stenholm on Saturday. The new 20-unit block, added to the existing 66 units, gives Rotan a total of 86 moderate to low income units.

Stenholm left his Ericksdahl farm in Jones County more than a decade ago to serve a Congressman in Washington, D. C. In his seventh term of office, Stenholm is highly regarded for his involvement in agriculture, rural health care, budget, veterans and small business issues. A self proclaimed conservative Democrat, he now serves the nation as Chairman of the Livestock, Dairy and Poultry Subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee.

Stenholm is a graduate of Tarleton State Junior College in 1959 and received his bachelor's degree and masters degree from Texas Tech University.

Fisher County Hospital Receives Recognition

Fisher County Hospital in Rotan was recognized for 50 years of membership in the Texas Hospital Association during the 62nd Annual THA Convention and Exhibit Show recently in Houston. Arla Jeffcoat is administrator of the hospital, which received a plaque commemorating the 50-year membership.

"In 1991, six hospitals reach a significant milestone -- 50 years of active involvement in and support of the Texas health care industry through membership in the Texas Hospital Association," noted Terry Townsend, CAE, THA president and chief executive officer. "These hospitals join 85 other hospitals as 50-year members, and are highly commended for long-time, dedicated cooperation with their peers in working toward the betterment of health care for all Texans," he added.

Representing more than 80 percent of the state's hospitals, the Texas Hospital Association is one of the largest state hospital associations in the United States. Based in Austin, the trade association represents its members' collective interests regarding public policy and serves as the advocate for legislative and regulatory issues affecting the health care industry.

Stenholm Accepting Applications

Charles W. Stenholm is currently accepting applications from young men and women who are interested in attending one of the United States Service Academies.

Eligible applicants will be at least 17, but not pass their 22nd birthday, by July 1, 1992, and must have graduated from high school by that date. Competitive applicants will be in the top 20 percent of their class and have SAT scores above 500 Verbal and 550 Math, or ACT scores of 24 English and 26 Math. Involvement in extra-curricular activities, including school and community organizations and sports, as well as full or part-time employment is also in the applicant's favor.

Individuals who wish to attend the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Co., the Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. or the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Port, N.Y. and who wish to serve as a commissioned officer are strongly encouraged to contact Jayne Schoonmaker in Congressman Charles Stenholm's Stamford office. TAX PLANNING

Written by
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

SHOULD YOU INVEST IN U.S. SAVINGS BONDS?

The U.S. Government would like you to invest in its savings bonds. To entice you, the Government offers two different bonds designed to compare favorably to your other investment options.

A Series EE bond matures in 12 years. You may buy it through your employer's payroll deduction plan or from most banks. You pay 50% of the bond's face amount which can be $50, $75, $100, $200, $500, $1,000, $5,000, or $10,000. You may redeem or exchange a bond after six months. Because interest is not paid until maturity or redemption, you do not have to pay federal income tax on the interest until the bond matures. However, you may elect to report the interest annually. If the bonds are used to pay for college tuition, it may be possible to avoid federal taxation altogether. The interest is not subject to state or local taxation. If you hold the bond for at least five years, you are guaranteed an interest rate equal to the higher of 85% of the average return on five-year, marketable Treasury securities or 6%. If you do not hold the bond five years, you are paid a graduated rate that begins at about 4%.

A Series HH bond matures in 10 years. Series HH bonds are issued by Federal Reserve Banks or the Bureau of Public Debt only in exchange for Series E bonds, Series EE bonds, or Savings Notes (or for reinvestment of redemption proceeds of matured Series H bonds). You pay 100% of a Series HH's face amount, which can be $500, $1,000, $5,000, or $10,000. You may redeem the bond after six months. The interest, which is paid semiannually, is subject to federal income tax in the year paid. The interest is not subject to state or local income taxes. Presently, Series HH bonds pay 6% interest.

Savings bonds are considered a very safe investment. More than 55 million Americans own a total of almost $130 billion in bonds. You may want to consider including savings bonds in your investment portfolio.

County Agents Column

By Richard Spencer

Fisher County residents are beginning to have webworm problems.

Fall webworm moths are satiny white, sometimes with brown or black spots scattered over the front wings. Wingspread, about 1 1/2 inches.

Larvae are pale yellow, black spotted and quite hairy, measure about 1 inch in length when grown. They form webs around leaves at the ends of limbs of many kinds of fruit, and shade trees. Two to 4 generations are common in this area. Eggs are deposited in scale covered masses on underside of leaves.

Newly hatched larvae or worms feed on the foliage and spin a web over the foliage. The larvae can cause heavy defoliation in some years.

Control measures include destroying both egg masses and small larvae when first noticed. Some suggested insecticides include Orthene, Diazinon, and Dursban. Be sure to read the label to see if material is approved for the trees that are infested.

Roby Jr. High Cheerleaders Attend Camp At Hardin Simmons Campus

The cheerleaders from Roby Jr. High in Roby, Texas were among approximately 300 participants in the 1991 Big Country Cheerleader camp held on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene June 9-13.

The five-day camp was conducted by Southwest Camps of Cisco, with Mr. Eris Ritchie as camp director. Instructional staff and program were supplied by the National Cheerleaders Association.

The cheerleaders were taught new cheers, stunts, chants, and spirit ideas from a seven-member NCA staff headed up by Angie Anderson, a professional cheerleading instructor from the NCA's national headquarters in Dallas.

The June 9-13 session of the camp was the first of two sessions, with the second to be held June 16-20.
