12 Screwworm Cases Reported In Crockett Co.

Crockett county has had 12 confirmed screwworm cases this year, with six cases confirmed last week and two cases through Tuesday of this week. Cases this week were reported on the Beecher Montgomery and Peery Holmsley Ranches. Last week, cases were reported on Joe Tom Davidson, John Childress, T. A. Kincaid, Jr., Basil Dunlap and Billy Hoover ranches. Previous cases had been reported on the Bill Hoover Estate, Luckett, and Jack Williams ranches.

Mission Screwworm Eradication Program officials urge all livestock owners to inspect livestock routinely, treat all wounds, collect larvae samples from all wounds with worms, and send the samples to the Mission Lab for identification. Sterile fly treatment is underway over all areas with reported cases, according to reports received by county agent Pete W. Jacoby. Any delay in reporting cases allows damaging buildups of native fertile flies, officials at Mission warn.

All ranchmen are encouraged to report cases when found so as to keep program officials at Mission advised, advises the county agent. Last year a heavy infestation in the county was stamped out in less than a month with sterile fly drops. With fall shearing cuts and spray livestock in order to help prevent further outbreaks in the county, advises the county agent.

PHYSICIANS THINK —

Most Ozonans Now Immunized Against Polio

Dr. Lloyd Sherrill, county health officer, reported a very good turn-out for the second and last community polio and measles drive held Sunday at North and South Elementary schools.

The final tally was not available, but Dr. Sherrill estimated that 300 persons came for vaccine at North Elementary and 621 were on hand at South Elementary. Only 40 came for their first polio vaccine.

Measles vaccine was given to 288 at South Elementary and to 75 at North Elementary. The majority receiving the inoculations were children, but the vaccine was given to all who had not had the disease and wished to take it. The measles vaccine, which is supposed to give lifetime protection, was not on hand during the first community drive.

The vaccine gun, used to expedite the measles inoculations, created a furor among the younger set, but all received the vaccine.

With boosters and the first and second doses of vaccine given during the two drives, Dr. Sherrill feels that the vast majority of Ozonans are immunized against polio. He said that officials from the State Department of Health, which furnished the vaccines, were very well pleased with the results of the drives.

Estimated 50 Grid Hopefuls To Be Out Mon. For First Practice

Coach Sam Mosley said 42 boys were on hand for football physicals Saturday afternoon for both the A and B teams. However, several players were out of town and he said he expects 50 to 55 boys to show up for football practice Monday morning.

Football shoes and socks were issued yesterday and the remainder of the equipment will be issued Monday morning at 9 a. m., with practice shortly afterwards. Coach Mosley said practice has been set up for 2 a day until school starts. The first practice will begin at 9 o'clock each morning with the second practice scheduled for 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Playing for the first time in District 2-A, out of a ten game schedule, the Lions will have 6 home games and two scrimmages. The first scrimmage will be with Ft. Stockton August 29 and the second with Robert Lee September 6. Both will be held at Lion Stadium, but the time has not been set as yet.

With 13 returning letterman, Coach Mosley feels the team should shape up well if the tackles can come through. The loss of Gary Sutton and Wesley West left weak spots in the tackle positions. The Lions will use a strong wing T formation this year.

Returning lettermen include the two captains, elected by popular vote of the players last year, Randel Clepper and Fleet Coates. Clepper is a 3-year letterman, senior quarterback and weighs 170 pounds. Coates, also a senior, is a 2-year letterman and will play tailback, weighing 168 pounds.

Others are David Huff, senior quarterback, who lettered 1 year and weighs 162 pounds; Rodney Pagan, fullback, 2-year letterman and senior; Beto Vargas, 1-year senior letterman, wingback and 141 pounds; Carlos Sanchez, wingback, 1-year letter and 145 pounds; Tom Davidson, sophomore guard, 1 letter and 170 pounds; Johnny Barbee, senior, 2-year letter guard and 155 pounds; Mar-

Willis Barbee, VeteranLawman Buried Here Fri.

Graveside services were conducted here at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon for Willis Monroe Barbee, 80, father of Beall Barbee of Ozona, who died at 2 a. m. last Thursday at his home in San Angelo.

Services were conducted by the Rev. W. P. Fulmer, visitation minister of the First Methodist Church in San Angelo.

A retired lawman-livestock commission man and former San Angelo police chief, Mr. Barbee was born March 16, 1888 in Hamilton County. He moved to Ozona in 1892 and began his law enforcement career at the age of 18 in Sweetwater. He served as deputy sheriff in Nolan county for 15 years. He was married to Kate L. Beall Aug. 3, 1912 in Sweetwater.

He and Mrs. Barbee moved to San Angelo in the mid-1920s where he was appointed chief of police in 1925, a post he held for almost 10 years.

He had lived in San Angelo for 46 years. He was a former Texas Ranger, and had traveled many miles along the Rio Grande in search of cattle thieves and alien.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Beall Barbee of Ozona, and two daughters, Mrs. Bill Upton and Mrs. Katherine B. Hunter, both of San Angelo, and five granchildren.

Mr. Barbee was buried beside the body of his mother the late Mrs. Monroe Barbee, who died in Ozona in 1898 at the age of 28 years and is reported to have been the first or among the first women to be buried in the Ozona cemetery. Shortly after her death, her husband, who had just sold the ranch which later became the Couch ranch west of Ozona, started toward Fort Worth, presumably carrying the money he received from the sale. He was last seen in Ranger but disappeared and was never heard from again.

Quarter Inch Rain Accompanies Noisy Electrical Storm

Last night .24 of an inch of rain fell during a heavy shower and severe electrical storm, which blacked out the entire west section of the town for a space of 30 minutes. Power was interrupted west of Hwy 163 during this time.

From all indications, Ozona should have received a drenching rain Monday afternoon. However, only a trace of rain fell from the electrical storm which passed over head several times during the afternoon and evening, creating nothing but steam for Ozona residents.

The hottest weather of the summer has sent temperatures soaring around the century mark all week, in spite of heavy cloud buildups in the afternoon and evenings.

Fisher Pounds Lawlessness In Address Here

Congressman O. C. Fisher, veteran U. S. Representative from the 21st Congressional district, laid a finger on the U. S. Supreme Court and its "coddle the criminal" decisions as the prime cause of the alarming increase in crime in this country in a speech delivered to members of the Ozona Rotary Club and their guests Tuesday noon.

The Congressman revealed some shocking first hand facts concerning the so-called "Poor People's March" on Washington and the filth and crime-ridden "insurrection city", the encampment on public land authorized by the Secretary of the Interior and protested by Congressman Fisher and others in the Congress. It's leader under serious morals charges back home and the whole show nudged along by the Communist Party(well documented facts, Fisher said) the "trouble makers strong-

Ernest Angelo Launches State Sen. Candidacy

Ernest Angelo, Midland petroleum engineer and active civic worker, has officially announced his Republican candidacy for State Senator, 25th District, in the upcoming November general election. He launched his campaign in Crockett County this week with a day long and overnight visit Wednesday.

The 34-year-old GOP candidate says he seeks the state office "because, like so many others, I am convinced that it is time for the average citizen to become active so that we will have government of and by, as well as for, the people."

Angelo opposes W. E. (Pete) Snelson, Democratic nominee, for the seat now held by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo. Snelson defeated Hardeman in the May Democratic primary.

Heavy Damage No Injuries In Two Accidents

Highway patrolmen Orvil Perry and Del Copeland investigated two automobile accidents in Crockett county the past week, which resulted in several hundred dollars worth of property damage but no personal injuries.

Hewitt Vinson, Jr., narrowly escaped injury Sunday afternoon at 2:15 around 24 miles northwest of Ozona, when the 1968 Chevrolet pickup he was driving ran off the road on a curve, hit a guard post, jumped a culvert apron and came to rest in a creek bed. Vinson was traveling south on Hwy 137 when the accident occurred. He said he felt the steering mechanism lock as he rounded the curve. The pickup was damaged to the extent of $900.

Late Tuesday afternoon there was a two-car collision in front of Maness Texaco Station. The accident occurred when Johnice Mier of Lake Charles, La., driving a 1968 Oldsmobile, pulled out of the station drive directly in front of a 1968 Chrysler driven by Mrs. P. S. Perner and traveling west on Hwy 290. Passengers in the Mier car included the driver's parents and four brothers and sisters. There were no injuries. Investigating officer Del Copeland estimated $800 damage to the Chrysler and $500 to the Oldsmobile.

DIRE CONSEQUENCES

Back in 1962 when some of the steel companies announced price increases, President John F. Kennedy delivered a public denunciation in mule-skinner language that most family newspapers found too rough to print. It did not go unnoticed, however, that neither Castro, Khrushchev, nor Ho Chih Minh ever inspired such violent language on the part of the youthful President.

Now, six years later, President Johnson has repeated the performance, although the language he used was not as profane as that of his predecessor. Mr. Johnson sees "dire consequences for our nation" in the price increases announced last week by certain steel companies. "Inflation in steel", the president told a press conference, is inflation for the nation."

He particularly singled out Bethlehem Steel, which had announced a 5 percent general increase, and said that the action was "unreasonable", and "just shouldn't be permitted to stand."

When a President sounds off, he makes headlines. The "unreasonble" charge was repeated so often by the news media that the reason for the increase was obscured. Earlier in the week, on Tuesday, the eleven major steel companies wrapped up a new contract with the United Steelworkers of America. Under the contract the companies agreed to increases in wages and fringe benefits amounting to between 90 cents and $1 an hour over a three-year period. The price for averting a nationwide steel strike had come to about 6.5 percent increase each year, for three years.

In short, Bethlehem and the other steel companies obligated themselves to make pay increases of 6.5 percent, and then increased prices 5 percent. And that is what the President angrily branded as "unreasonbale," raising high the spectre of "inflation for our nation."

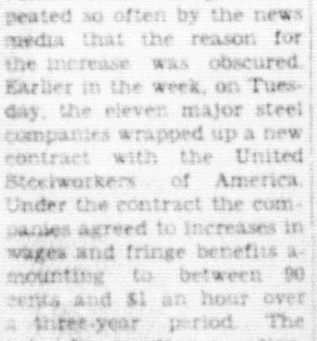

For our part, we thought President Johnson's outburst more than a little "unreasonable" in the circumstances.

As to inflation in our nation, steel executive Roger Blough put it this way last month: "When government spends more than it gets, and when labor gets more than it gives, that empty feeling in your pocketbook is inflation."

"An elder statesman is someone who can remember when the U. S. was stronger than countries like North Vietnam and North Korea." — Thermopolis (Wyo.) Record.

"It now looks as though the taxpayer will be the first of America's natural resources to be completely exhausted." — Addison (Vt.) independent.

National Highway Week In Texas Is Proclaimed By Gov.

Austin — Governor John Connally has proclaimed September 22-28 as National Highway Week in Texas.

In his official memorandum, the Governor urged citizens "to devote thoughtful consideration to the contribution of highways to the lives of all Texans, mindful of the continuing need for more and improved highway facilities."

Theme of this year's observance is "Highways Are For People," pointing up the vital role played by highways in today's society. "Virtually everything Texans buy, sell or consume moves at one time or another over the highway system," the Governor's message noted.

"Highways afford avenues by which Texans everywhere may move toward a better, fuller life in the enjoyment of the freedom of mobility that the highway system affords.

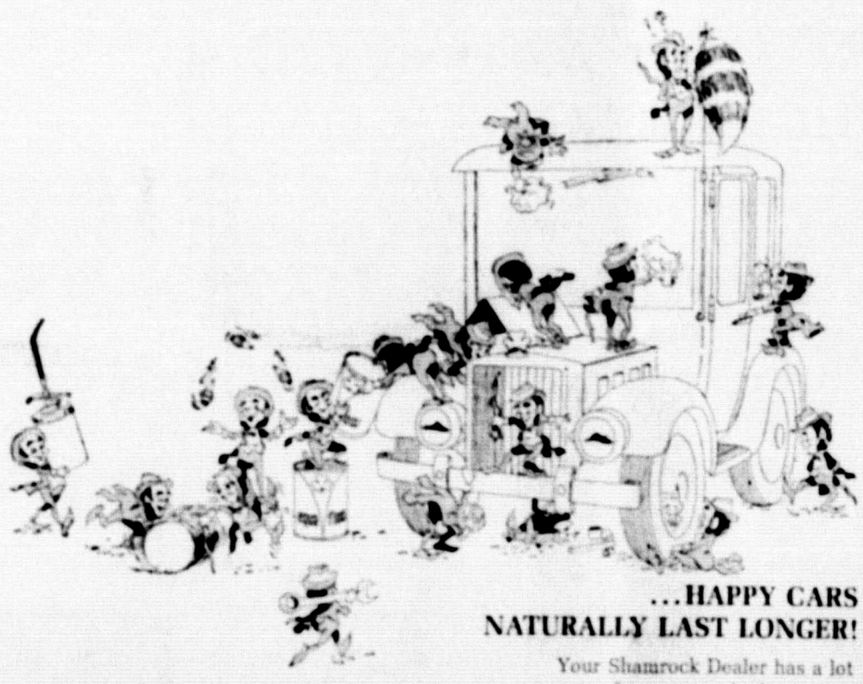

"The Texas Highway Department builds, maintains and operates facilities for the benefit of all Texans in every part of the State, fully dedicated to the fact that "Highways Are for People."

Ice Cream Cake

1 qt. strawberry ice cream
1 qt. lemon sherbet
1 qt. vanilla ice cream melted
3 cups heavy cream whipped

Fill a 9-inch tube pan with scoops of strawberry ice cream and lemon sherbet. Freeze until firm. Pour the melted vanilla ice cream over the ice cream balls to fill in all the spaces. Freeze. When frozen unmold on a serving plate and frost all over with the whipped cream. Return to freezer until serving time. Serves 10-12.

Strawberry Ice Cream Pie

Baked deep 8-inch pie shell
1 qt. strawberry ice cream, softened slightly
3 egg whites
¼ teas. salt
¼ teas. cream of tartar
6 tbs. sugar
1 teas. vanilla

Pack ice cream firmly in pie shell and refreeze at once. Beat the egg whites with the salt until almost stiff. Add the cream of tartar and then gradually beat in the sugar until the meringue is very stiff. Stir in the vanilla. Spread the meringue over the ice cream carefully, making sure there are no gaps or holes, and that the meringue is in contact with the edge of the pie shell all around. Bake in a hot oven, 450 degrees, 4 or 5 minutes, or until the meringue is a delicate brown. Serve at once.

This is really a form of baked Alaska, and it is just as good and just as spectacular as that popular dessert, and a little easier to make.

Washington News Letter

Congressman O. C. Fisher

During the recent flurry over gun control legislation, I received communications from some 6,000 constituents. A letter which caught my attention was from a 71-year-old woman, living alone in a rural area, without a telephone.

"My concern," she wrote, "is the apparent drive to disarm law-abiding citizens such as myself, making us look like criminals because we own firearms for protection and sport. Little seems to be done to punish criminals severely who misuse firearms."

Then, defending her need for guns, she continued:

"I've lived with firearms all my life. My shotgun to me is an essential tool that is old and well worn. It has served me well — many a rattle snake, chicken hawk, and coyote can attest to that. On a few occasions it has been my own personal policeman and bodyguard. I've never had to shoot anyone, but looking down the barrel of a 12-gauge kind of backs people off and my .38 is always a back-up.

"I know that some people will say — 'Why don't you get a phone so that you can get help if you need it?'

"Well, I can tell you that when I need help I'm not about to sweat out an hour or so waiting on a policeman. I can take care of myself, and I think that's what more people should do in this country.

"Our country has come to its greatness by pushing on with courage and strength, believing in themselves, asking nothing of anybody, going as far as their abilities would take them. But now, it seems like they want to be led by the hand, letting themselves be herded like sheep. I'm afraid if they don't wake up soon, their sheep-pen fence will be too strong to break down. This sheep is not about to let the wolves disarm her. I'm strictly against gun registration. Stop trying to restrict us all because of a few. I'd rather take the risk of a few bad apples."

"Section 11a. In addition to the bonds enumerated in Section 11 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, the Board of Regents of The University of Texas may invest the Permanent University Fund in securities, bonds or other obligations issued, insured, or guaranteed in any manner by the United States Government, or any of its agencies, and in such bonds, debentures, or obligations, and preferred and common stocks issued by corporations, associations, or other institutions as the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System may deem to be proper investments for said funds; provided, however, that not more than one per cent (1%) of said fund shall be invested in the securities of any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; provided, further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for five (5) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors.

It's pretty exhausting to have two big brothers that excel in everything!

Of course, there are advantages. Like the time a bully beat me up—my brothers followed me to school for two weeks. They wouldn't have fought him, but he didn't know that. Every night they worked out with me. Finally, I took him on and won.

My brothers are first-rate in everything — studies and athletics. There's nothing wishy-washy about them—if they don't think something's right, they say so. When there was a "walk-out" at school, they squashed it, practically single-handed.

Because our parents have always taken us to church and taught us God's way, my brothers are strong-principled and good. I aim to be like them.

Your church is a training ground for integrity!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read hereafter as follows:

"Section 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the state, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of this state as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the state who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the state, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classification of officers and employees of judicial districts of this state as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this subsection; and persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 48-a of Article III of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this subsection except as permitted by Section 63 of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this subsection, except as otherwise provided herein. The amount contributed by the state to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time six per centum (6%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the state.

"There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Employees Retirement System of Texas, the rights of membership in which, the retirement privileges and benefits thereunder, and the management and operations of which shall be governed by the provisions herein contained and by present or hereafter enacted Acts of the Legislature not inconsistent herewith. The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of said system are hereby vested in a State Board of Trustees, to be known as the State Board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, which Board shall be constituted and shall serve as may now or hereafter be provided by the Legislature. Said Board shall exercise such powers as are herein provided together with such other powers and duties not inconsistent herewith as may be prescribed by the Legislature. All moneys from whatever source coming into the Fund and all other securities, moneys, and assets of the Employees Retirement System of Texas shall be administered by said Board and said Board shall be the trustees thereof. The Treasurer of the State of Texas shall be custodian of said moneys and securities. Said board is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, hold, manage, purchase, sell, assign, trade, transfer, and dispose of any securities, evidences of debt, and other investments in which said securities, moneys, and assets have been or may hereafter be invested by said Board. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to invest and reinvest any of said moneys, securities, and assets, as well as the proceeds of any of such investments, in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued, or assumed or guaranteed in whole or in part, by the United States or any agency of the United States, or by the State of Texas, or by any county, city, school district, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas, both general and special obligations; or in home office facilities to be used in administering the Employees Retirement System including land, equipment, and office building; or in such corporation bonds, notes, other evidences of indebtedness, and corporation stocks, including common and preferred stocks, of any corporation created or existing under the laws of the United States or of any of the states of the United States, as said Board may deem to be proper investments; provided that in making each and all of such investments said Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as probable safety of their capital; and further provided, that a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may now or hereafter be provided by law. Unless investments authorized herein are hereafter further restricted by an Act of the Legislature, no more than one per cent (1%) of the book value of the total assets of the Employees Retirement System shall be invested in the stock of any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid cash dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further, that not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) at any one time of the book value of investments of said Fund shall be invested in Government and Municipal Securities as enumerated above. This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 5, 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas relating to the Employees Retirement Fund and the Employees Retirement System of Texas, revising provisions for investments of moneys and other assets of the Fund, and changing other existing provisions and making other new provisions with respect to the administration of the Employees Retirement System."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas relating to the Employees Retirement Fund and the Employees Retirement System of Texas, revising provisions for investments of moneys and other assets of the Fund, and changing other existing provisions and making other new provisions with respect to the administration of the Employees Retirement System."

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary Proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

I enjoyed each of them. Sometimes I won for my view; sometimes I lost; but every time I came out committed to the decision of my group.

I would just as much have enjoyed such meetings of other denominational groups had I possessed long background experience and thorough understanding of their political processes. I always get a keen delight out of the way the Presbyterians, Southern Baptists, Roman Catholics, and others manipulate to form their pattern of life together.

Likewise there is a real kick in the civic political processes and I enjoy watching each group whether Democrats, Republicans, or American Independent Party, work out their differences, come to their agreements, and then proceed to their work.

Consequently I had great fun watching as much of the Republican National Convention as I could find time for and look forward to the Democrats and their political parleyings.

My regret is that I'll not have an unusually alert and perceptive eleven year old grandson to sit up with me until 2 a. m. to watch proceedings in Chicago. He knew his facts, had his preferences, and was as capable as I of predictings outcomes.

This, to me, is symptomatic of what, I believe, is happening to our oncoming generation. I am firmly convinced they are going to make better citizens than we have. In this I rejoice.

Although my essential political philosophy would, as best I could assay, differ from that of Congressman O. C. Fisher, nevertheless, I enjoyed his day in Ozona this week and was delighted to watch his political astuteness and his clarity of presentation of his basic stance.

More citizens should have been at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon to question and hear him. He is our Congressman and our public servant. We need to hear from him and he from us if a democratic political society is to function in our time and place.

Too much on politics: but I do want to register my commitment to politics as the art and science of living together in nation, in church and in family. We must play this game. To play it well for the good of our land we must know and be committed to our fundamental documents: the Declaration of Independence and the Federal Constitution. In addition we must know the times in which we live, the issues we confront, and the actions possible to us.

So really what I have been saying is simply that our times call for us to be intelligently and diligently involved in life. For as Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes once said: "It is required of every man that he be involved in the action and passion of his time, lest he be judged not to have lived at all."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Although the war in Vietnam seemingly drags out interminably, there perhaps should be no despair, because the Vietnamese are becoming westernized, or perhaps Americanized is the better term.

The very able Wall Street Journal man in Saigon recently gave evidence of this fact.

C. W. Harder

In January, which is summer in that latitude, the Vietnam celebrate their lunar New Year's. Traditional is the placing on family altars a pair of watermelons.

Great symbolism is attached to the quality of these melons. They should be round, dark green on the outside, deep red on the inside, with a high sugar content. However, the usual native Vietnam melon does not meet these desired attributes.

However, the always eager U. S. foreign aid people in 1962 brought into Vietnam some 30 different strains of melon seeds, and Vietnamese found the best results both from yield and quality from a strain known as Sugar Baby.

In 1963, 12 acres of Sugar Baby melons were grown. This year an estimated 5,000 acres were devoted to this melon.

For an economy where the average annual income of the individual is very low, and is in fact measured in terms of only a few hundred dollars per year excluding the politicians and generals, growing of Sugar Baby melons is a tremendously lucrative occupation.

It is estimated the returns per acre from Sugar Baby melons is between $1500 and $2000 with the cost of production running between $400 and $600 per acre. In addition, as the melons only require three months from planting to maturity, rice lands can usually be double cropped.

The consumer pays about $3 per melon, which is probably equivalent to an American family paying $30 for a watermelon. Yet due to ingrained tradition, apparently there is no consumer bucking on prices they must pay for this ceremonial fruit.

Thus, with everything going for them, including what amounts to a forced market, and the largesse of the U. S. foreign aid program, it could be assumed the melon growers of Vietnam are deliriously happy.

But this is not so. Some feel that if there were not now such a big crop the prices could be raised even above the $3 figure. And the Vietnam growers have the solution for what they view as a problem.

Some of them feel American air forces should use the methods they are employing to defoliate the Vietnam jungles to destroy about a third of the melon plantings. Yes, they are learning. While U. S. military "advisers" may encounter difficulties in teaching them modern combat tactics, they are sure learning other American ideas rapidly. Could it be Vietnam will have a Great Society long before it has peace?

"The Attorney General apparently accepted the insult and threat and didn't throw him out," Congressman Fisher observed, and added, "I think we are in great need of a new attorney general." The remark triggered prolonged applause. He enumerated a number of crimes committeed in the city and directly connected with the squatters.

"When the people go to choose their next president, they are going to want to know what the contenders propose to do about lawlessness, rioting, looting and arson in the land," Fisher said. "They are going to ask him what kind of man he proposes to appoint to the Supreme Court should a vacancy appear. They are going to demand that he lower the boom on lawbreakers regardless of color.

"Supreme Court decisions have so hampered law enforcement officers and so protected the law breaker than crime has increased 88 percent in the last two years, nine times faster than the increase in population growth. This trend must be reversed and it cannot be done with pantywaist treatment of criminals. The causes must be analyzed and treated. The hysterical cry for gun registration as a means of controlling crime is ridiculous. Gun registration would not make a dent in crime, in fact, it would tend to place further advantage on the side of the criminal."

Congressman Fisher decried the report of the president's commission to study the causes of crime increase.

"I would rather have one good solid appointment to the Supreme Court than all the president's commissions ever appointed," Fisher observed.

Following the Rotary luncheon, Congressman Fisher met with interested citizens at the courthouse for a brief question and answer session on issues of the day.
