Nichols Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

The television is full of the news about boatloads of Cubans coming over to the United States right now. It has prompted me to saddle up my "high horse" and gallop away.

This country is founded on the principal of immigration. Except for Native Americans, every single one of us is descended from some nationality (or most likely multiple nationalities)that came to this country from another country. Some of our forebears came escaping religious or political persecution. Some came simply looking for a better life, or as an adventure. Some came as indentured servants, a condition similar to slavery. Others came as slaves. Still others (though not nearly so many as in Australia) came over as criminals.

After the United States had gained it's independence and steam ships hastened that long ocean journey, a huge flood of immigrants began to seek a better life upon these shores.

A few of these immigrants came with money enough to establish themselves comfortably ....most of them didn't.

No, many of our ancestors came over with absolutely nothing except the desire to work hard and achieve a better life for themselves and their families.

I have no problem with anyone from anywhere in the world immigrating here, BUT, there is one simple fact I think we have overlooked somewhere along the way.

Our constitution mentions life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness as basic rights. Notice the word "pursuit"... that doesn't mean that things will be handed out-but that they must be sought !

Somehow it has come to pass that immigrants must be granted food, shelter and medical care without having to work for it.

That I disagree with. I'm not saying they don't need some care when they first arrive, but they don't need to swell our already huge welfare rolls any further. I knew a man from Mexico who came to Texas and worked hard to become an American citizen, raise and educate his children and achieve a good lifestyle. He was disgusted by immigrants who came, took from this nation and did not, to quote him "learn to speak this country's language, become an American citizen and work hard".

If I moved to another, I would expect to have to learn the language, work hard and learn to follow the laws of that nation....why should it be any different here?

We are supposed to PURSUE the American dream...it isn't supposed to be delivered to us! Brand me as old-fashioned, bigoted or un-understanding....but I've had my say and am unsaddling my high horse now.

The First Assembly of God Church in Bogata, Hwy. 271S, invites the public to a Sunday Celebration with Robert Delatorre at 11:00 a.m., September 18.

Delatorre's ministry began in the early 1960's with a group named The Galileans. In the late '60's, the Galileans signed a major recording contract with Word Records giving them international exposure. They traveled with such groups as The Happy Goodmans, The Rambos, Andrea Crouch and many others.

COUNTRY COOKING

Minnie Lee Shands is our featured cook this week. In case you didn't notice, there is no picture. Yes, she is camera shy and refused havimng her picture printed. I have been on her for several weeks to do an article about some pear recipes. There seems to be an abundance of pears and apples this year. Pears can be used in many different recipes. There are pear pies, cobblers, jellies, jams, preserves and many, many more ways of preparation. She is sharing her Pear Honey and Pear Relish Recipe. Along with these, she has also added her Jalepeno Jelly, Black Russian Cake and Honey Bun Cake.

Minnie Lee loves to cook and take to the elderly and shut-ins. If she had the resources, she says that would be the thing that she would like to spend her time doing. Cooking and doing for others.

She does a lot of food preservation in canning and freezing vegetables and fruits. She has a small garden in her back yard that keeps her busy.

She is married to Hershal Shands and they have lived in the Red Oak community for over twenty years. She is a member of the Blossom Church of God. They have two children, Linda Hicks and Jerry Farris.

We hope you enjoy this week's recipes and will see you next week.

Patriots Outgunned By Union Hill 19-17

By Bill Moseley

But for one frustrating illegal motion penalty and a highly dubious call for assisting a ball carrier, there seemed to be little doubt that Prairiland would have had its second win of the young football season. Unfortunately both of those penalties happened to the Red and Blue in the last two minutes of the Union Hill game, and the Pats had to give the Bulldogs one last try.

And that try was all the visitors needed. Southpaw quarterback Randy Boren looped two long passes to Chris Styles, and within 54-seconds they had a hard earned 19-17 win, while the Patriot faithful had an extremely distasteful after-taste.

Prairiland had been totally dominant throughout the first 46 minutes of the game. And when David Ford stole the ball from Bulldog Greg Brown at the Bulldog 34, with less than three and ahalf minutes to play, it looked as if the home team had things in the bag.

Stephen Swaim, who got 126 yards on 23 carries, got eight quick yards on first down, and it still looked promising for Coach Rick Connot.

But the wheels began to come off.

The two penalties came up in rapid order, and although the Pats gained 16 yards on four carries, they had no first down due to two infractions which not only stopped the clock twice, but turned the ball to the Bulldogs with 1:12 still left on the clock.

It took just 54 seconds for the 'Dogs to win it. Randy Boren hit Chris Styles twice, at the Patriot 37 and just inside the end zone.

The game had begun as if there would be no problem for the Red and Blue. James Dudley had gained 29 yards on three carries, and Stephen Swaim pounded a steady tattoo of six and eight yarders. It was a straight-ahead drive to the visitors' eight yard line, but the Patriots had to settle for a 24-yard Swaim field goal.

It was a portion of the frustration Prairialand would endure all evening.

Just as it would look that the Pats ere in total control, back would come Union Hill. And the Bulldogs used the rest of the first quarter to take the lead. Derrick Hare got the score on a one yard jab on the second play of the second quarter.

Utilizing passes from Zach Allen to Swiam and David Ford, the Patriots mounted their first come-from-behind drive of the year. Swaim pounded in for the touchdown from teh 11-yard line, and his PAT left the halftime score at 10-7.

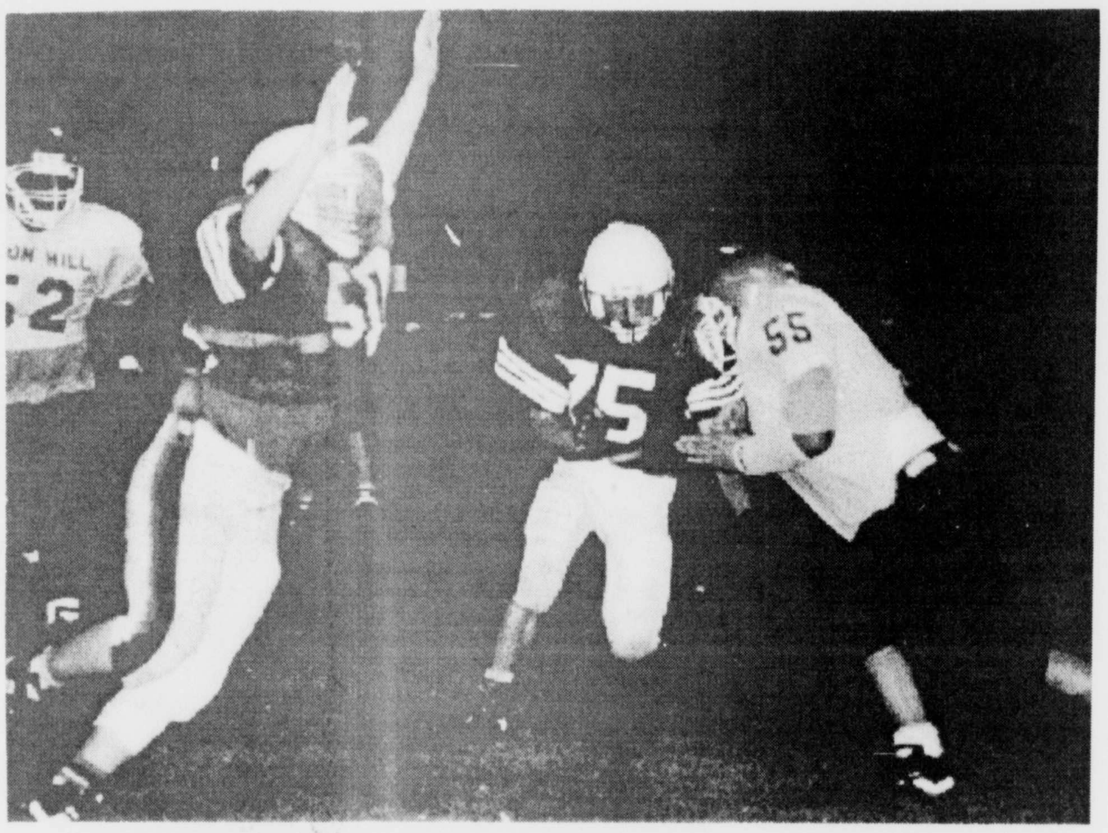

A short Patriot punt died at the 50 midway through the third quarter, and it took the visitors only six plays to go ahead. The scoring jab was a 22-yard burst by Obie Spears.

But the Patriot answer was even shorter. Beginning from the Union Hill 42 following yet another short punt by the visitors, Pat guns again were successful. Swaim put his team back in the lead at 17-13 with just three minutes left.

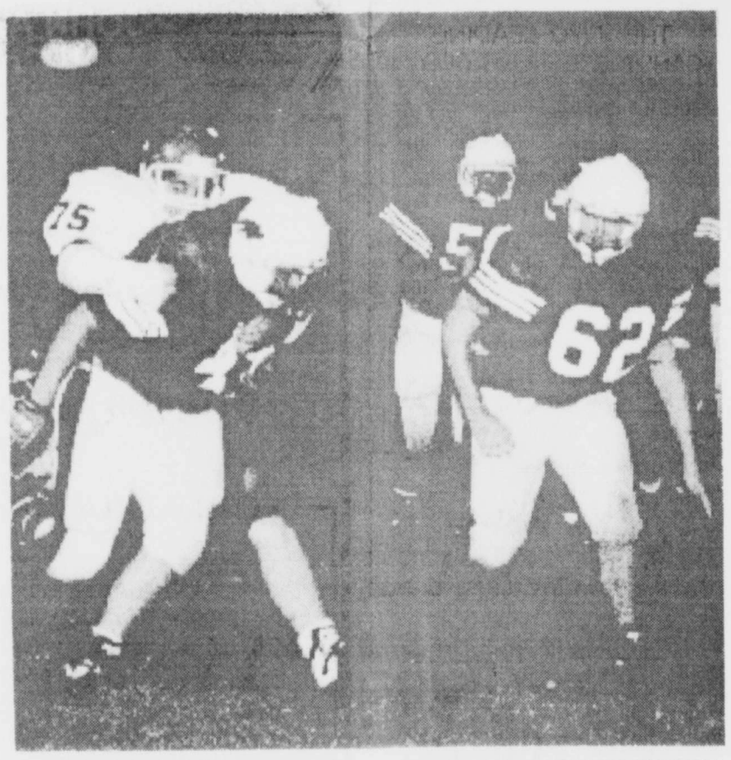

And freshman David Ford, who had an excellent game offensively, made what should have been the outstanding play of the night, stealing the ball from the Bulldog return man.

The Patriots killed as much clock as they could, but the two big penalties stymied their plan and the Bulldogs were just good enough.

James Bowie's Pirates furnish the opposition for the Patriots Friday night as Coach Connot leads his charges to their second road trip fo the season.

TRAVEL TIPS
By Marlene Pendleton, C.T.C.

It's awful hard to think about Skiing when the temperature is 95 degrees out, but we have our new brochures in for the 1994-95 winter season and as usual we have some good buys. If you're planning on skiing over Christmas or Spring Break book NOW...this space goes fast.

Crested Butte is offering free ski lifts from opening at Thanksgivig up until December 16th. If you want some good, inexpensive skiing try that. Crested Butte is one of my favorite places. Call the gals at Paris Travel. They have all skiied.

A couple of weeks ago I vowed to keep up with this column on a weekly basis and already I'm having to break that. I'm having some surgery and will be out for a few weeks. So, will start the column again when I'm back on my feet.

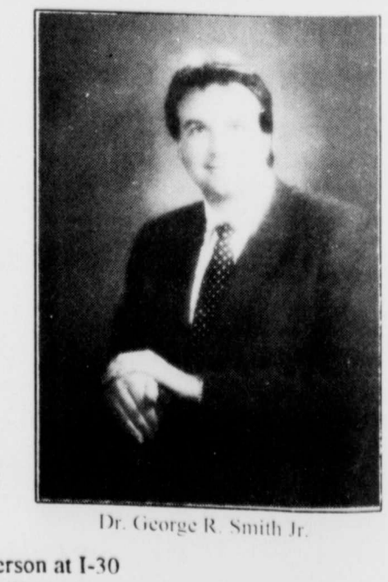

When I was telling Nanalee Nichols of my surgery and the rare blood type I had it wasn't 15 minutes until she had called back with a couple of donors! I was most touched by the generosity offered to a complete stranger. You'll never know how much that raised my spirits. I just want to say to all you caring people out there "I love you too".

Lady Pats Capture 4th Straight N L Crown

Once again, the Lady Pats captured the 1st place trophy at the North Lamar Varsity Tournament this past week-end. In Friday's pool play, Prairiland easily dispensed Queen City 11-2, 11-3. Terrell was defeated 11-2 and 11-2 and Aubrey 11-8 and 11-2.

Saturday's championship bracket play proved to be a bit more challenging as the Lady Pats shakily pulled off a win over Pleasant Grove 13-15, 15-6 and 15-4. All six starters contributed kills for the win. Mandy Babb had 12 kills, Trinity Bowden added 6, Jamie Sue McLeroy and Karen Brewer had 4, Breah Sessums had 3 and Kelly Cantrell added two. Babb also had four block and Sessums had 2 blocks.

In semi-final play, Prairiland handily defeated a talented Kaufman team 15-8 and 15-3. Babb again had 12 kills and 5 blocks with Bowden having 8 kills, Brewer 7 and McLeroy 4. McLeroy also had 12 service points.

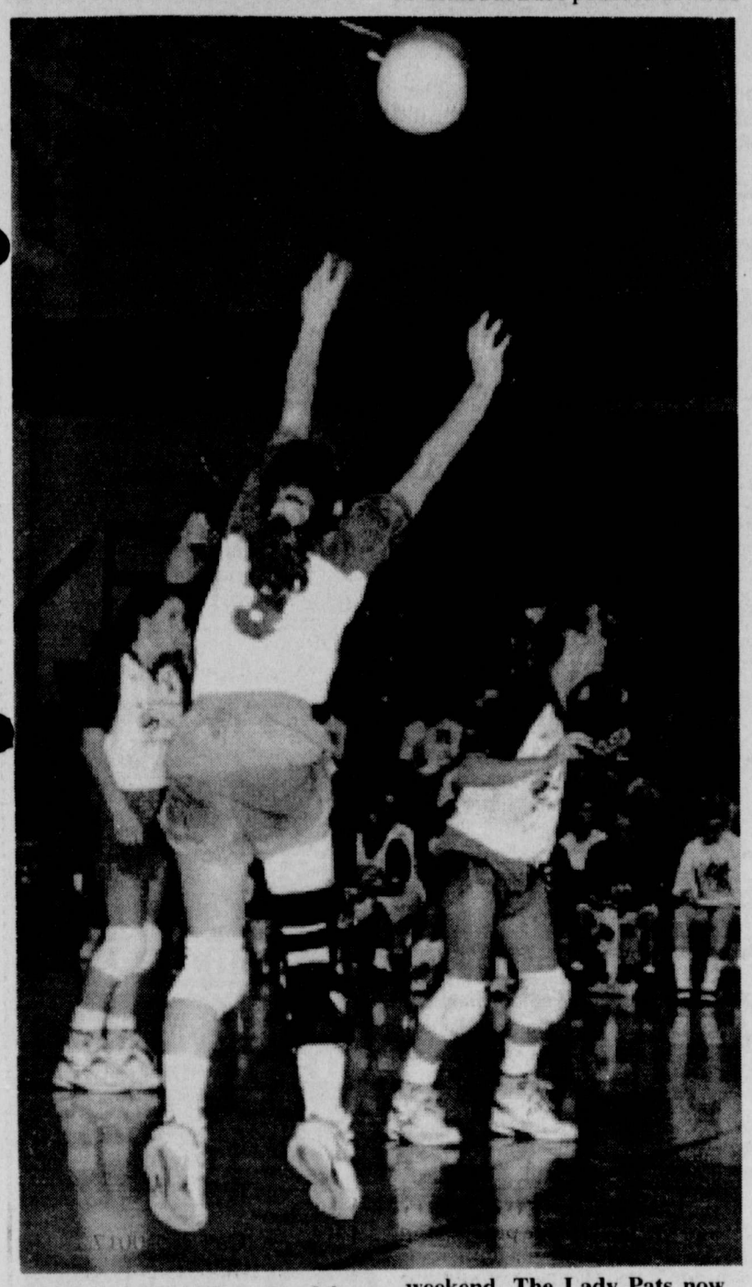

In what truly was the championship game, the Lady Pats entertained the crowd with fine-tuned offensive and defensive skills as they battled an impressive McKinney team in a 13-15, 15-7 and 15-7 thriller victory.

McKinney had just come off of a first place victory in their own tournamnet the previous week-end and were more than ready for a battle. However, the Lady Pats were not to be denied as Babb pounded down 20 kills, followed by Bowden's 9, McLeroy's 7, Brewer's 4 and Cantrell's and Sessum's shared 2 each. Babb again had 5 blocks and a game winning ace from a jump serve fro the final point of the three game match.

Cantrell and Sessums did and excellent job setting throughout the tournament, garnering 61 and 46 assists respectively.

The entire squad played exceptional defense in all three matches Saturday and now have an 11-3 record.

Babb, Cantrell and McLeroy were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Deport Nursing Home News

By Karry King

We started our week off with bingo, an activity the residents really love.

Our Fifties Day in honor of Rock and Roll Buddy Holly's birthday. Linda Rose and Jean Pendleton won the dance contest and Sharon Johnson won the bubble gum contest. Thanks to all the employees who dressed up.

Popcorn was good, too. The residents really do love the smell of fresh cooked popcorn.

Exercise is always good and we are trying to work in some new ones. Price Is Right is another game, loved and enjoyed too. It's interesting to listen to stories of it did not cost that much in?

Robbie Head won the decorated hat, donated and made by Osbelia. Thank you.

The biggest highlight was Friday at the Ms. Deport Nursing Home Beauty Pageant. Contestants were Betty Middleton, sponsored by Office and Activity, she won first runner-up and Most Expressive; Brodie Bell sponsored by 7-3 nurses won Most Friendly; Elizabeth Barnett sponsored by 3-11 nurses won Most Helpful; Edna Bell sponsored by 11-7 murses won the One Who Smiles the Most; Frankie Archibald sponsored by 7-3 nurses aides won Most Sweetest; Grace Griffin sponsored by 11-7 nurses won Most Cheerful; Johnnie Warren sponsored by Dietary won Most Personality and our Queen, Ms. Deport was Jo Wrenn, sponsored by Hosuekeeping & Laundry. She also won Most Photogenic.

Jo Wrenn will travel with Activity Director Karry King to Naples on Sunday, September 25 to compete in the Northeast Texas Senior Beauty Pageant with other nursing homes.

Sara Higdon and son Wayne, Viola Upchurch, Mattie Lou Upchurch, Grace Fendley, Elaine Bell and Floy Sparks visited Grace McHam.

Recent visitors of Babe Chesshire were Hershel and Erlene Tidwell, Don and Peggie Tidwell of Summit, MS, Clarice Vaughan of Bogata, Mary Elaine Lawler, Mattie Lou Upchurch of Milton, Wayne and Verda Mae Pierson, Sammie Kelsey, Adelene White, Jerry Westbrook, Regina Webb and Patsie Smith, all of Deport; JoAnne Haney of Wake Village; Sue Gast of Pagosa Springs, CO and Cecil and Margaret Allen of Lamar Point.

Weekend visitors of Johnnie Warren were Mrs. Martha Al Ghareeb and Michael of Longview; Mrs. Ruby Blevins of Pattonville; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Roach of Milton; Mrs. Linnie Bailey of Deport and Evelyn Roach of Deport.

A very special thank you is extended to all those who made the Ms. Deport Beauty Pageant a success. To Linda and Virginia who do the residents hair, to Amanda Wright, the social worker for helping out, to the judges, Joe Thompson, Doris Jackson and Floy Williams, to Bobbi Gifford for taping the program, to Kay Peek for the beautiful cake, and to Pam Humphrey and Osbelia for helping set up. It was a hard job and without these people, it would not have been possible.

Behavior

Children who get involved with the roughest sports tend to show more aggression, both on and off the playing field, than their peers, a sport psychologist has reported.

In a new study, children with the longest experience in high-contact athletics were more physically and verbally aggressive than their playmates in sports and in daily life.

Those most involved in such activities were also likely to lag farthest behind their peers in moral reasoning maturity, researchers found.

Some Thoughts On The Twilight Age

By Joe Howard Bell

There are many seniors from age seventy and up who are healthy and very alert. Like most people, they love life. They are warm and loving and like to be loved. Although they are living in the twilight age, life is beautiful. It is as beautiful as a sunset that everyone enjoys. They in their sunset years, bring strength and beauty to those around them.

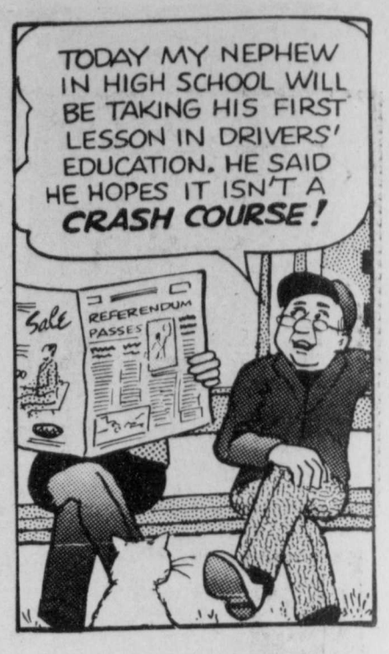

Older people do not want to be a burden to anyone. Usually their mi nds are sharp. They like to read and watch some television to help them keep up with current events. They like to make new friends and to cast their vote for their favorite candidate. Freedom is enjoyed, but they also like fellowshipp. Fellowship, to them is like a strong medicine and a sure cure for loneliness.

A dawn of glory, not the flash of morning. As in childhood, but the soft glow of sunset. Not the intensity of the day, with it's ceaseless activities. But the quiet peace of evening time until the assurance of well deserved rest; not the pace of full speed, but the time to notice, to care, to love , to smile, to encourage, to sympathize.

Although growing older, I believe the best is yet to come. I can see things more despassionately and know myself and others more truly. I will not ignore the time when I can not walk so far or so fast and may not be able to read as much or hear so well, but there will always be that communion with God. There will be more real light rather than distractions about many things and better relations with others.

The riders in a race do not stop short when they reach their goal. They let the horses canter before they come to a standstill. There is time to hear the voices of kind friends and to say to oneself," the work is done". But the work is never done while the power to work remains. It can not be while you still live for to live is the function. "They shall bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing." Psa. 92:14.

At eighty-three, I quote, "Thank God for life, with all it's endless store of great experiences, of hill and dale. Of cloud and sunshine, tempest, snow and hail. Thank God for straining sinews, panting breast. No less for weary slumber, peaceful rest; Thank God for home, parents, children, friends and for sweet companionship that never ends. Thank God for slendor of the earth. For nature teeming with prolific birth. Thank God for sea and sky and changing hours. For singing birds and fragrant flowers and so looking back at eighty-three. My final words to you, my friends shall be, Thank God for twilight bell and coming dawn."

Presbyterian Women Hold Bible Study

The Deport Presbyterian Women met Thursday, September 8 for the annual salad supper with 15 women and one guest, Mrs. Ped Read, present.

Mrs. Robert Temple, moderator, opened the meeting with prayer and welcomed the members and guest.

"The Purpose of Presbyterian Women" and a greeting from Anna Bell Teems was read by Mrs. Temple. The Least Coin offering was collected and dedicated.

Mrs. Tom Foley opened the Bible study with prayer, "A Prayer of Complaint" from Job 10:2-22 and "A Prayer of Intersession" John 17, were topics of discussion. The message of Job is that the ultimate reason for human suffering is beyond our understanding. God has the final answer. Jesus' prayer in John 17 is an intercessary prayer which means tha tone prays for concerns and needs of others. It is a plea for love and unity among Christians which can only exist by allowing God's love to shine through us to others.

The meeting closed wtih the Mizpah Benediction.

Will Our Children Have Faith?

As I was unpacking a box of books I own I came across a book written by John Westerhoff III that caused my mind to reflect on the title. The title (I borrowed for this article) I believe to be a very important question that should concern every person in our nation: Will Our Children Have Faith? The immediate response may be something like: "Sure, everyone has faith!" so maybe the question might need to be : What Kind of Faith Will Our Children Have?

Vast amounts of money, time and energy is spent on teacher training, buildings, training technology, and education for our church schools with little results. Why? The Sunday School hour has been labeled as the most wasted hour of the week. Why? Church school membership is in a steady decline in all but a very few churches. Why?

Is it because we have lost good teachers? Bad curriculum? Inadequate lesson plans? No. It is because we have stopped telling "The Story" that is so important to Christian faith. At the heart of the Christian faith is a story that must be told, lived, known, owned and shared by every person. When this story is withheld, distorted or told without commitment faith diminshes. It is a story that may seem old to those who are telling it, but to a new convert, it is as fresh as a spring rain.

Church schools not only need to be a place to learn but also a place to probe. People need to be aided and encouraged to judge and question themselves and their faith. There may be times when it is necessary to even doubt faith. There is nothing wrong with that for even the great disciple Peter had his doubts when the waves splashed him in the face. And Thomas, when he was not present to witness first hand the visitation of the Lord doubted. Our youth, as well as adults, need to know that it is okay to have doubts. That doubting is not hypocritical nor is it a display of little faith.

Church schools must be a place where people can come and learn, but also a place to test and to question. When these elements are left out of the lesson plan "The Story" has stopped being told. Church school can be an important element in the conversion process if it is understood that conversion is not an isolated event devoid of natural elements. Elements such as personal relationship s, understanding and concern, and questions and doubts.

When Christian parents make "The Story" important in their lives, children will also. So, will our children have faith? Yes, if their parents and the adults surrounding them, will exhibit their faith honestly and openly.
