

ing up is the one of two mornings all local preach-
 *
 the day that daylight savings
 finally over and we return
 hard time.
 *
 preachers have reminded us
 this to everybody's atten-
 cause they don't want folks
 up for the morning wor-

General today for Mrs. Ethel King

rites for Mrs. Ethel B. King, who died about 9:30 a. m. yesterday in Garza Memorial hospital, will be held at 3 p. m. (Thursday) at the Calvary Church with the Rev. Joe A. King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.
 Mrs. King, who lived at 201 Ave. F, died following a illness. She had been a reof Post for 15 years.
 Mrs. King are three daughters, Thelma Guthrie of Slaton, Earline Capwell of Mem-Tex., and Mrs. Anita Wood-
 two sisters, Mrs. Nola-
 of Gorman and Mrs. Pate; 13 grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
 will be in Terrace Ceme-
 under the direction of Hud-Funeral Home.

Retired farmer dies Wednesday

Mr. A. Bright, 78-year-old refarmer of Route 1, Post, died
 after 7 o'clock Wednesday
 in the Golden Years Nursing
 following an illness of about months. Funeral arrange-
 were pending this morning
 at the funeral home.
 Bright was a longtime resident of Justiceburg before moving to Post in 1938. He moved to Post seven years ago. Mrs.
 died in 1955 while they were
 at Crystal City.
 Bright is survived by two sons, C. S. and G. E. Bright, both
 of Post; three daughters,
 W. J. Elliott of Kerrville,
 James Richter of Hondo and Douglas Tipton of Route 1,
 and a brother, L. B. Bright
 of Albuquerque, N. M.

Way to go fund drive

Garza County United Fund officials said this morning they hope 75 per cent complete by next Monday toward the 1969 goal
 of $100,000.
 with the contribution cards
 starting to trickle in, only
 was "in" as of yesterday,
 going to Bailey Mayo, president of the fund organization.
 reported a "good turnout" at United Fund talent show Monday, but added "We didn't
 much money."
 big thermometer has been
 up on the courthouse lawn to
 local residents aware of the goal of the drive.

Students meeting next Tuesday

Members will be elected at a meeting of the Post Ex-Students Association at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday,
 Oct. 22, in the Reddy Room.
 High School ex-students are invited to attend the meeting, said
 J. McAllister, president of the association.

19,000-bale estimate as harvest kicks off

Garza County's 1969 cotton harvest is now getting under way,
 topped by rosy prospects in the Graham and Post areas, and with an early overall crop estimate of about 19,000 bales.
 A lot, however, will depend upon
 how the weather treats the June-
 planted cotton in the northwest
 part of the county in the next
 two weeks.
 The weather still remains a very important factor. If it continues to hold as it has over the last two weeks — and the freeze is late —
 the county's 1969 bale total could
 even climb well over the 19,000
 bale mark.
 Last year's harvest totaled out
 between 16,000 and 17,000 bales.
 The Dispatch's first "gin check"
 of the new harvest season yesterday showed 642 bales ginned to date.
 The check ranged all the way
 from 340 bales ginned at the Graham Co-op where Gin Manager
 Bill McMahon declared the Graham area crop "the best around
 here in 20 years" to the Basinger
 Gin at Southland where yesterday
 the first bale from that area was being ginned. The hand-pulled bale came from Stonewall Jefferson's farm who has come in with the first bale in the Southland area
 three out of the last four years.

Absentee voting here reaches 30 Oct. 23

Nineteen absentee ballots had been mailed and 11 persons had voted absentee at the county clerk's office up to 3 p. m. Wednesday in the general election to be held Nov. 5.
 The absentee voting period began Oct. 17 and is to continue through Nov. 1.
 County Clerk Carl Cederholm
 said most of the ballots mailed
 went to servicemen.

Liquor store hardest hit

5 burglaries are probed by police
 City police report the investigation of five break-ins here, in one of which money and merchandise
 totaling between $700 and $750 was taken from the Caprock Liquor Store.
 There were two break-ins at Jackson Bros. Food Lockers and one at the Snak Shak. A house on West 13th Street was broken into
 early Tuesday morning.
 The Caprock Liquor Store was entered Saturday night by someone who broke out the front glass.
 Police said about $75 in money
 and several cases of whiskey were stolen.
 The break-ins at the food lockers occurred Friday and Saturday nights, with entrance being gained
 each time after a hole was knocked in the front door glass. The first night the intruders took about $50 in money and the second night
 they stole two .22 caliber rifles
 used in the locker's "kill" room.
 The Snak Shak was entered Tuesday night by someone who kicked in the northwest door of the building. An undetermined
 amount of money, thought to be $100, was stolen.

Stock show building to get city, county support

City promises project support

The city council will hold its third special meeting in 12 days
 next Tuesday afternoon over what some term another "municipal auditorium project" — city financial support for the Garza County Junior Livestock Association's
 show and county fair building.

Councilmen next Tuesday afternoon will hear a report from City Atty. Carleton P. Webb on the legal aspects of the city participating
 with the county and individual
 donors in the show building project.

No council action on the proposal
 is expected to come before the regular November meeting of the council.

Jerry Thumet, president of the junior livestock association, told
 the council at its first special meeting last Friday afternoon that present plans for a $24,200 building
 "is our goal" but that "we want to make the building large enough
 to be worthwhile, if the city wants
 to make a community auditorium
 out of the front part of the building."

Representatives of the junior livestock association asked for —
 and received the promise of —
 city council support of its building
 project.

BUT THE COUNCIL HAS NOT, AS
 yet, indicated "how much" the city's aid will be — and that decision probably won't come before
 the November meeting early next month.

At a second special meeting on the project, called by Mayor John Hopkins Tuesday afternoon, the council instructed City Attorney
 Webb to confer with County Atty.
 Preston Poole and to report back
 next Tuesday on the legal aspects
 of any city financial aid to the building project.

Webb explained to the building
 committee of the junior livestock
 association at the first session Friday that since the county and city
 are joint owners of the land on which the proposed building would be located, a joint agreement would be required between the two for
 any improvements on the property. He added that state law requires that any such improvements be initiated by the county.

At the Friday meeting, the committee and the council discussed
 the possibility of enlarging the front part of the building to the extent that it could be used as a banquet hall and for other community events.

INSTEAD OF THE 60 BY 40
 foot dimension of the building's front
 section, as included in present
 plans, it was suggested that it could be enlarged to 60 by 80 feet.

The building committee told the council that approximately $13,000
 in cash and commitments toward
 the show building's $24,200 cost
 had been raised.

High school set for homecoming

Most of Post High School's homecoming activities this year
 will take place at Friday night's Post - Frenship football game.

The football queen and pep
 squad band will be crowned before
 the game and the band sweetheart
 at the halftime intermission.

The coronation ceremonies will start about 7:10 p. m. because of the 7:30 kickoff time for the football game.

Principal Vernon Payne said
 homecoming signs will be up at the high school Friday welcoming
 ex-students who return for a visit.

The Band Booster Club will hold
 a barbecue dinner at the school cafeteria before the game. Serving will begin at 5 and continue until 7 p. m. Proceeds from the dinner will be used to help finance the band's trip to the Tri - State Music Festival at Enid, Okla., next spring. The dinner is priced at $1.50 for adults and $1 for children between the ages of 6 and 12.

Two or three classes of ex-students have reunions planned for Friday or Saturday.

Hospital district plan is approved

Garza Memorial Hospital trustees and the county commissioners court have agreed on a plan to place the hospital's operation under a new county - sized hospital
 district — providing voters approve.

Petitions already are being circulated to call for a hospital district election, as provided by state law.

Hospital trustees at a special meeting Tuesday night gave their unanimous support to the hospital

Sledge to stay as administrator

Hospital Administrator Kenneth Sledge told The Dispatch yesterday he has reconsidered his decision of last week to resign his position with the Garza Memorial Hospital here to take a similar position in a new hospital soon to open at Eldorado, Tex.

Sledge said the reason he is
 staying is because of the upcoming drive, announced in today's Dispatch, to form a hospital district here to operate the hospital
 and take it out of its present county status.

The administrator said only 30
 county hospitals now remain in Texas as most of them already
 have converted to hospital district
 operations through necessity.

Sledge also said he "appreciated
 the concern shown by the people
 of the community by their calls
 and visits in regard to his resignation as hospital administrator."

Henry Harden is moving to Gilmer

Henry Harden, who with Max
 Knox opened the Texas Highway
 Patrol station here in March of 1961, is moving to Gilmer, in East Texas, where he will be a patrol
 sergeant with the highway patrol.

Harden began his new duties at Gilmer this week, but will be back
 in Post next week to move his family there. He and his wife, Doris, have three children, two of whom are in school here.

Harden is immediate past president of the Post Lions Club and has served as a Lions zone chairman the last few months.

"I have enjoyed living and working in Post," Harden said this week in announcing his promotion
 to the position at Gilmer.

Another highway patrolman will be assigned here about Dec. 1 to begin work with Jon Robbins,
 who has been here about two years.

Gets championship saddle

A 14 - year - old Lubbock cow-
 girl, Phyllis Russell, won the all-around championship saddle in the
 All-Girl Rodeo held Saturday night
 and Sunday afternoon at the Post
 Stampede arena.
 Miss Russell placed first in goat
 in steer riding, fourth in ribbon
 roping and was a member of the second place wild cow milking
 team.

First and second runners-up in
 the all-around championship competition were Debbie Whitehead of Morton and Viola Sims of Lubbock, respectively.

A Post team of Trena Jackson,
 Patricia Cochran, Debbie James
 and Sue Johnson won the wild cow
 milking contest.

Fair - sized crowds attended the
 two rodeo performances, according to L. D. Jackson of Post, arena director. L. T. "Big John" Pate of Denver City was the rodeo's stock
 producer and Dick Conlee of Lubbock was director. The rodeo was an independent production and not connected with either Post Stamppede, Inc., or the Post Junior Ro-
 deo. (See All-Girl Rodeo, page 8)

$5,000 pledged by Garza County

The Garza County Commission-
 er's Court has pledged $5,000 over the next four years to help finance
 the proposed fair and show building of the Garza County Junior Livestock Association.

The action came at a special meeting of the court Monday morning with members of the association's building committee.

COUNTY JUDGE J. E. Parker
 said the court agreed to pay $1,- 000 into the construction fund this year with $1,000 payments pledged
 in both 1969 and 1970 and $2,000 in 1971.

He said the money will come
 from the county's permanent improvement fund.

Parker said formal action will be taken by the court at a later
 date, but that the court agreed to the $5,000 commitment providing that the association proceeds with
 its present building plans.

"We feel that the building will be a good thing for the entire
 county," Parker told The Dispatch
 yesterday.

He emphasized that the county's $5,000 is being made to help build
 the original building for fair and
 show purposes and is not to help
 pay for an enlarged finished room
 which could be used as a community center.

Parker indicated enlargement of
 the finished room in the proposed
 building should be more properly
 financed by the city of Post.

THE BUILDING committee of the junior livestock association at a meeting Monday night voted to double the size of the finished room
 in the proposed fair and show
 building so that it can serve as a community center for most local functions until the city ultimately
 can build a community of its own.

Joe Irons, publicity spokesman
 for the committee, told The Dispatch that increasing the size of the finished room will add about $7,300 in additional cost to the building.

The association, it is understood,
 has a contractor's bid of $24,200 on
 the original plans which called for (See $5,000 Pledged, page 8)

Day care center opens enrollment

As there are still a few vacancies at the Post Day Care Center
 the board of directors has decided to accept applications for use of the center from working mothers
 who can afford to pay a sliding scale rate from 50 cents up to $2
 per day.

Classes will soon be started at
 the center for children who need English instruction before entering public school. Other children, without this need, will also be
 accepted on the sliding scale pay
 rate.

A charge of 50 cents per day is being paid by families who cannot afford commercial day rates. Those interested in the sliding pay rate
 may make application and will be considered by the board of directors.

Mothers of children must be employed before their children can be accepted.

Applications may be made by contacting Mrs. Jewell Graham,
 supervisor of the day care center,
 Mrs. Helen Cornish at the Post
 Dispatch office, or Mrs. Madie
 Johnson.

The center is housed in the First Methodist Church and is open from 8 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. A hot meal is served at noon and a snack in the morning and afternoon. Mrs.
 Graham's staff is composed of volunteer workers.

Veteran's Day supper scheduled for Nov. 9

The American Legion post's annual Veteran's Day supper will be held at 7 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 9,
 at the Legion Hall.

This year's Veteran's Day supper will be held on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the American Legion. All ex-servicemen
 are invited to the supper.

Bellyaching stops at voting booth

Ask the first half-dozen people you meet in the street what their plans are for the next four years, and the chances are that you'll get an uncertain answer. They haven't really thought out what they want to accomplish.

Four years is too far ahead for the average person to make any definite plans. Yet the law requires that on Nov. 5 we must go to the polls and choose a man to lead us and our country for four long years.

Whoever we choose on Nov. 5, it will be 208 weekly paychecks before there is a chance to "can" him. We are going to have to live with our Nov. 5 vote every day, not to mention every April 15, for four years that could be the longest in a lifetime.

In years to come, we suspect that 1968 will be known as the year of the "bellyachers" campaign. Some dissidents are going to sit out the election; some are going to cast a "protest" vote.

But experience has taught that even the most eloquent bellyachers aren't really leaders. They attract listeners, but not followers. They pronounce strong-arm remedies, but seldom offer reasoned solutions.

This election, after all, is not a question of whether or not we want a change in Washington. We're going to have a change. Somebody is going to replace LBJ.

The next President will have to govern our land through cooperation with state and local governments, the Courts and the Congress. It isn't a job for a bellyacher, nor a zealot. The vote you cast on Nov. 5 is not a "yes" or "no" referendum. It is, rather, a choice of alternatives; an endorsement and affirmation of support.

The bellyaching stops at the voting booth this year. There is nothing to vote against this year. There's really no such thing as a "protest" vote on Nov. 5—CD

Friday will still be Homecoming

There'll be some sort of Post High School homecoming Friday despite the fact that the president of the Ex-Students' Association announced last week that his group was cancelling its homecoming plans because of not being able to reserve a suitable building for the various activities.

There will be two or three class reunions, in addition to the usual ceremonies at Friday night's football game, these ceremonies scheduled to include coronation of the football queen and band and pep squad sweethearts.

Then, of course, there will be the Post-Frenship football game, with the kickoff scheduled for 7:30 p. m. The Antelopes, needing the support of hometown fans as they've never needed it before, no doubt are hoping that the ex-students cancellation of homecoming plans won't cut down on the size of the football crowd.

Let's make the most of it this year and hope that next year we can have a full-fledged homecoming again—CD

Dear Turnrow Junkel

O. C. McBride

Did you read where it has been discovered that teeth can be cleaned with sound waves?

It must work, at least in some cases. I have noticed that both me and Hubert Humphrey have real bright teeth.

I understand that cucumbers and cabbage soup are the main items in the diet of average Russians, who spend only 34 minutes a day eating.

With a menu like that, I could give them back 45 minutes.

Were you surprised that Greek billionaire Aristotle Onassis proposed marriage to Jackie Kennedy?

I don't consider it any of my business, but a friend of mine—a veteran married man—says we now have two Greeks in the news: Mr. Onassis and Spiro T. Anagnostis. He allows they have something in common—the tendency to say things on the spur of the moment that they may regret later.

Judging from your experience in WWII, would you say that men from the farms and ranches of the Southwest made good soldiers?

When things got rough, they were the best. It's pretty hard to shake a fellow who has worked on top of a windmill with a "blue Norther" blowing.

What did you think of Mr. Nixon's statement that if he is elected he will not ask Congress for a lot of new legislation? He thinks we have too many laws already.

His attitude could result in much unemployment. When Congress passes a new law, a bureau must be set up to administer, interpret and enforce it.

Does this type of law doesn't matter, in fact the more employment it provides. This probably explains some of the legislation passed the last few years.

Don't you think that Fall is the most pleasant time of year in the Southwest?

How about Winter, when it's too cold to plow, but just right to play dominoes?

Have you been reading about the gal with the well-filled sweater who has been attracting huge crowds along Wall Street during the lunch hour?

Yes, but I'm not surprised. Bankers and stockholders are always interested in figures, and you'll have to admit that 43-25-37 is a pretty nice Dow Jones index.

Did you know that "catfish farming" is increasing in the South? More than 26,000 acres of farm ponds are being used for fish production.

Sounds like an interesting business, if Orville Freeman can be kept out of the act. He'd probably want to set up a government loan program, and give each producer a catfish allotment.

I read that after four years, the Government's "aid to Appalachia" program has not been successful.

Fellow in the barber shop the other day said he was against all this foreign aid. He said we ought to help Americans first, and if the Appalachians didn't like it, let 'em go ahead and turn Communist.

I understand that many new apartment houses being built have a policy of renting to single people only.

That's what I call "housing discrimination." I don't think people looking for an apartment should be penalized for a past mistake.

Mayor's Message

My Fellow Citizens:

You elected me your Mayor for two years and I thank you.

I did not ask for the job for selfish motives, for special interest groups, or for any individual. Now I realize that I cannot please everyone's likings but, I am doing my best to protect the interest of all the people, not for just a few.

People who have been criticizing the Mayor, City Attorney and City Manager are reminded that they have no vote in the first place, as they act only on decision of the Council.

There is such a thing as law that the City government must follow and I assure you, we, as your officials, respect, for your own protection as well as ours. We are all for progress and interested in the welfare of our citizens.

Anyone that wished to learn true facts of any issues that your City government adopts, you may learn by attending our meetings—you are welcome—this way you can eliminate second-hand information.

We would appreciate the mentioning of the good things we do, such as reducing the taxes, which we voted for 1968.

Let's all work together for a better understanding and continued progress of Post.

Yours truly,
JOHN N. HOPKINS
MAYOR

(This advertisement paid for by John N. Hopkins)

FOR THE LAST two weeks the Post Antelopes and their handful of faithful followers have caught opposing teams on the latters' Homecoming nights, which always makes the home team, no matter who it might be, just a little tougher than usual. It was that way at Tahoka last Friday night and it was the same way at Stanton the previous Friday night.

Well, this Friday it's Post's time for Homecoming, even though it will be a bob-tailed one because of the community auditorium fiasco. And I'm predicting the amazing Frenship Tigers will taste defeat for the first time this season when they go up against the Antelopes here on Post's Homecoming night. Don't miss it!

OUR CAT Blackie, who mixes good citizenship with his backyard prowling, urges that everybody help get out the vote for the General Election on Nov. 5. Blackie says this year's blanket-size ballot might require more than one voter to carry, handle and fold.

The man up the street says a joint checking account is something that allows a wife to beat her husband to the draw.

I GOT TO thinking about auctioneers the other day while writing something about the Garza County Junior Livestock Association's proposed new show building and suddenly remembered that I had collected a couple of stories to the effect that when you are attending an auction sale you'd better stand like a statue and remain quiet unless you want to buy something you didn't bargain for.

At Tulsa, Okla., a red-faced lady explained to the auctioneer at the Bluestem National Charolais Association sale she was only waving to a friend across the ring and didn't want to buy the bull. "Okay," signed the auctioneer, "we'll back up and take the next lowest bid."

That, of course, was her friend across the arena, waving back.

The auctioneer called a halt to the whole thing and delivered a lecture on sitting on your hands if you don't want to buy a bull. Then he started selling the animal all over again.

The other story is from Sterling, Colo., where Sherm Sigler, a retired photographer, was attending a weekly livestock sale when several flies settled on his head. He reached up to brush them off and was informed he had just purchased a carload of heifers.

He was released from the commitment after explaining to sales officials why he raised his hand.

THIS WILL probably bring up an argument about what is and what isn't a joking matter, but there's the man who received a heart transplant from a crooked gambler. Now he has a cheating heart.

When I'm about to run out of something to say, I always fill in by saying something good about Arkansas—which is a little harder to do than usual after the Parkers lost to Texas Saturday night. But, did you know that the routing "money" cheer has been selected by the Cheerleaders Association of America as the nation's most outstanding college cheer? Well, if you already knew that, did you know that a 22-year-old Arkansas brunette was selected as "Miss HemisFair" on the big fair's final day? "This has been the greatest summer of my life," she said after working at the Arkansas Pavilion during HemisFair's run.

THIS COMES from a contributor, and while it's the wrong time of year for it, I never turn down a contributor who has something worthwhile.

Want to plant a spring garden? First, plant five rows of Peas: Preparedness, Promptness, Perseverance, Politeness and Prayer.

Next to them plant three rows of Squash: Squash gossip, Squash criticism, Squash indifference.

Then five rows of Lettuce: Let us be faithful, Let us be unselfish, Let us be loyal, Let us be fruitful, Let us love one another.

No garden is complete without Turnips: Turn Up for church, Turn Up with a smile, Turn Up with a new idea, Turn Up with determination.

Next Sunday when you change your clock back to normal time from Daylight Saving Time, remember—Spring forward, Fall back!

Just the increase in Texas vehicles since World War II is approximately 3.1 times the total number of vehicles on Texas roads when the war ended.

'68 Homecoming Game!

POST ANTELOPES

Vs

FRENSHIP TIGERS

FRIDAY NIGHT, OCT. 25

7.30 P. M. KICKOFF

This one won't be easy. The Frenship Tigers come equipped with real claws this year. They're undefeated for the season (four wins and one tie) and are tied for the lead in district play after the first weekend of play.

Frenship's coach is John Blocker, who began his coaching career here as a Post grid assistant the same year Glynn was starting.

The Tigers have subdued Cooper, Lorenzo and New Deal and tied Boys Ranch 20-20 before opening district play by whipping Morton, 28-14.

With all this going for them, the Tigers can be had if those Post Antelopes can put it all together in one game Friday night.

We wish to thank everyone for all the visits, cards, flowers and prayers for us during our stay in the hospital following our accident. We appreciate it very much. May God bless each of you.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Perkins

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of my friends for the flowers, cards, and visits while I was in West Texas Hospital and for the food brought in after I returned home. I also wish to thank the hospital staff for their care.

Mrs. Ethel Redman

We take this means to thank all of our friends for the gifts, visits, cards and the food brought to our home since our accident. Thanks to Dr. Tubbs, and the nurses and the Pink Ladies while we were in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wheatley

We would like to express sincere appreciation to each of you for the prayers, cards, flowers, and food, and especially to the American Red Cross for the assistance extended to us at the loss of our loved one. Your sympathy and kind thought will always be held in grateful remembrance.

The family of Alton F. Greer

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for all their acts of kindness in the loss of my father, Lorenzo Alexander. A special thanks for the food, flowers, money gifts, cards and visits. I hope to thank each one personally. May God bless each of you.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

STATE OF TEXAS )
COUNTY OF GARZA )
By virtue of an Execution issued out of the Honorable One Hundred Forty Second District Court of Midland County, Texas, on the 15th day of October, 1968, by the Clerk thereof, in the case of JOHN W. ERNST, Assignee as Plaintiff vs. PAUL C. TEAS, JR., as Defendant, Cause No. 22,461, and to me, as Sheriff directed and delivered, I will proceed to sell, within the hours prescribed by law for Sheriff's Sales, on the FIRST Tuesday in December, A. D., 1968, it being the 3rd day of said month, before the Court House Door of said Garza County, in the City of Post, the following described real property situated in Garza County, Texas to-wit:

An undivided 3.75% of an undivided three-sixteenths (3/16) interest in and to the following described oil, gas and mineral lease covering land situated in Garza County, Texas, to-wit:

Oil, Gas and Mineral Lease dated March 9, 1951, executed by B. D. Huntley, et al, as Lessors, to Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware, as Lessee, recorded in Volume 21, Page 20, of the Oil and Gas Lease Records of Garza County, Texas, insofar as such lease covers the following described land situated in the said Garza County, Texas to-wit:

240 acres, more or less, in Garza County, Texas, being only that portion of the hereinafter described tract of 964 acres that is situated in Survey 2, SF 8369, Abstract 1168, Survey 4, Block A, SF1442, Abstract 1965, and Survey 4-1/2, Block A, SF1442-1/2, said 964 acre tract being particularly described as follows:

Six Hundred Sixty Four Acres (664) being out of Surveys Nos. 44-SF1442, 4-SF1442, 2-SF8369, 1214, in Bk. Nos. A, A.

Cert. Nos. 146.

Texas 1st in job for handicapped

LUBBOCK — Texas led the state in the nation last year in placement of handicapped people in jobs through state employment offices. The Texas Employment Commission made 14 per cent of the national total handicapped placements.

I. V. Ferguson, manager of local TEC office in Lubbock, said this announcement in connection with National Employ the Handicapped Week, Oct. 6-12, and that the Lubbock office made 14 per cent of the national total handicapped placements last year.

"It is highly significant that this announcement in connection with National Employ the Handicapped Week, Oct. 6-12, and that the Lubbock office made 14 per cent of the national total handicapped placements last year," Ferguson continued, "means that more and more employers are realizing the valuable potential and sound business sense of using the vast resources of handicapped manpower."

"Employment barriers based on misinformation — false notions of the ability and dedication of the handicapped worker in the right job — are getting through to employers."

Library

By GEORGE L. MILLER

To the casual observer and discriminating reader, it would seem that books are getting dirtier than ever.

From time to time I have someone come to me with raised eyebrow and concerned frown, asking me what I think of such and such a book. The book in question is usually a new title, best-seller, and popular chiefly because of its explicit bedroom scenes.

Being a minister and the public librarian, I find myself in a peculiar position. On the one hand I certainly am interested in upholding good moral values. On the other I am most concerned that our public library be maintained as a free institution, and not be harnessed in the bonds of censorship.

There are several popular arguments for having these books in our library. People want them, who are we to keep them from what they want? People will read them anyway, why be hypocritical about it? Reading a dirty book never hurt anybody anyway. And so on.

To me, these are side issues. Another line of questioning goes like this: "Who says the book is dirty? What's your definition of dirt?" That's a far more interesting question, and far more difficult to answer. The Supreme Court of our land has had to wrestle with it more than once, and no clear definition has yet developed. It begins to look as though dirt — like beauty — is in the eye of the beholder.

The fact is, many new novels contain descriptions which readers may find objectionable. There's no getting around that. We can blame the author for writing such trash, or we can blame society for encouraging him by buying his trash. Wherever you put the blame, the fact remains that some people are going to go right on objecting.

This seems like a modern problem, but it isn't. It goes way back to the beginning of writing itself. Some Greek plays cannot be produced on the modern stage for the simple reason that they would be found morally objectionable. The immortal Shakespeare never hesitated to call a spade a spade, and his contemporaries could get even more bawdy.

Thus, respectable people have always talked about censoring books. Lists of books have been drawn up that were considered morally offensive. As so often happens, certain success is guaranteed when a book is banned.

What should the modern librarian do about this? We do not want to offend anyone. We certainly aren't in the business of corrupting public morals. Perhaps censorship is necessary.

At the same time, censorship has never worked. Forbidden fruit is always sweeter. And many a book that had little or no literary worth, became a best-seller simply because of public outrage.

Some countries have abandoned censorship of any kind. Sellers of filth were delighted, and stocked up on forbidden merchandise. Instead of making a profit, they went out of business. What was no longer forbidden, had no appeal.

There is another moral question here. How moral is censorship? How moral is the curtailment of freedom? Granted freedom is not — and should never be — license. At the same time, the censorship of one book opens the door to the censorship of another and still another. Where will the line be drawn?

Some public libraries have had to withdraw books like "Huckleberry Finn" because citizens found the story offensive. A school textbook was called into question in one city because, in it, George Washington called his soldiers "comrades". The obvious assumption was made that the author had to be a Communist.

This is the sort of abuse that censorship leads to. No right thinking person would want to have good books, classics that have been read for generations, banned from the library shelf. But if certain standards of censorship were exercised, many of them would have to be withdrawn.

A library is not a guardian of public morals, it is a storehouse of knowledge and opinion accumulated through the ages. It cannot tell you what is good or bad. It can only supply you with what men have thought. You must be the censor, if you will.

Moral decisions cannot be made for you. If you are a responsible citizen, a responsible person, you must decide. We cannot and will not do your deciding for you.

This much we can, and do do. Whenever we feel there is anything questionable about a book, we try to reserve it for adult readers only. We do not hide the book, as if it were something we were ashamed of. Nor do we place it before you, insisting that you read it for your own good.

We do not buy books because they are sensational, nor do we avoid a book that has been judged to have literary worth because it may offend. We try to offer as wide a range of books as possible, books that will appeal to as many people as possible.

Our library is here to serve you. The only way we can serve you is in an atmosphere of freedom. We hope you have been satisfied with our service, and will continue to give us that freedom.

Third of a Series

By Bernard S. Ramsey

"MY PARENTS FORCED ME TO GO TO CHURCH WHEN I WAS YOUNG, AND IT KILLED MY INTEREST." . . . that's Mr. Smith's third excuse for being AWOL from church.

But I've got my answer ready for this excuse. "Mr. Smith, the best thing that ever happened to me and all of us are the things our good parents forced us to do. You ought to be very grateful to your parents for forcing you to go. You are a good man today primarily because your parents forced you to go to church."

"Have you been consistent in the other things your folks forced you to do? I am sure they forced you to get your reading lessons

when you were a boy — HAVE YOU QUIT READING? Doubtless, they forced you — at least at times—to do your arithmetic lessons —HAVE YOU QUIT USING FIGURES? On a number of times they forced you to come to the table and eat — HAVE YOU QUIT EATING?

"I don't believe you meant to cast any reflections upon your parent's love for you, Mr. Smith . . . you should be very appreciative of them in that they saw that you did the important things in life — including going to church."

Mr. Smith decides he won't use that excuse again . . . "BUT PREACHER . . .

Antelopes to host Frenship in homecoming battle

Amazing Tigers unbeaten;
Koff 7:30 p. m. Friday

SECTION TWO Sports The Post Dispatch

Thursday, October 24, 1968

Amazing Frenship Tigers, led in six games, will provide Post Antelopes' homecoming competition at Antelope Friday night with the scheduled for 7:30.

Tigers, under ex-Post coach, are enjoying one of the greatest comebacks in the history of South Plains schoolboy football after several consecutive seasons, in some of which they failed to win a game.

Frenship eleven has been this year's "Cinderella" District 4AA. They opened season with a 20-20 tie against Ranch after getting off to a lead. Then followed non-wins over New Deal, Lorenzo and Bovina and a 4AA victory over Morton day night.

THE explosive Frenship team has six seniors, three juniors and two sophomores in its starting line-up on offense, as follows:

Rex Brooke (170) and Bobby Hobgood (155), ends; Allen Rucker (185) and Kenny Patterson (200), tackles; Wayne Taylor (145) and Mike Walker (170), guards; Denny Hutchinson (185), center; James Madison (185), quarterback; Johnny Carrizales (150) and Luis Alvarado (135), halfbacks; and Wadell Smith (155), fullback.

Madison, a senior quarterback, can pass as well as run, and threw three touchdown passes in the Tigers' 28-14 win over Morton Friday night. Alvarado, Carrizales and Smith are all three breakaway runners and a threat every time they get their hands on the ball.

Frenship uses a basic winged-T formation with floater sets and some slotting. They employ the Oklahoma "S" system on defense.

Coach Gregg Tuesday reported the Antelope squad in fairly good physical condition for the Frenship game. "We'll be trying extra hard for this one," he promised.

ABOUT the only casualty in the Tahoka game was an injured hand received by lineman Jimmy McKamie.

Gregg said the coaching staff naturally was disappointed with the Antelopes' showing against Tahoka, in their first conference game, particularly their failure to capitalize on scoring opportunities.

"We think we had one touchdown, though," the coach said. "The game film shows that Torres went over on his third down try the second time we got down to the goal line, but the officials ruled he didn't make it." The coach added that Torres said he got across the goal line and the other kids said he did, too."

Plainview games thrillers

Junior High 11's win, tie Tuesday

Post's 8th grade football team downed Plainview, 12 to 6, but the 7th grade team had to settle for an 8-8 tie with its Plainview counterpart in games Tuesday evening at Antelope Stadium.

Coach Bud Davis described his 8th grade team's win over Conference AAAA Plainview's 8th grade eleven as an "outstanding team effort."

The first quarter was scoreless in the 8th grade contest, but Post began to move in the second period when Danny Lee gained 40 yards on an end-around play to the Plainview nine-yard stripe.

Plainview held, recovering a Post fumble on the 20 and punting out to the Post 45. Robert Torres' pass to Roger Pace took the ball back down to the Plainview 10, from where Torres rounded left end for a touchdown. Robert Mindieta failed in an attempt to run over the extra points.

THERE WAS NO scoring in the third quarter, but Pace went 45 yards on an end-around to the Plainview 2-yard line in the fourth period and Torres lugged it over from there. Once again, the big Plainview line halted Mindieta on his extra points attempt.

With five minutes left to play, Plainview put on a sustained drive for its touchdown, eating up yardage in short chunks to score with only 47 seconds left on the clock. Their extra point attempt failed, to leave the score at 12-6.

The teams were fairly even in statistics, Plainview getting 17 first downs and 174 yards rushing to Post's 16 first downs and 193 yards on the ground. Each team lost two fumbles. Post punted four times for a 27.0 average, while Plainview punted twice, one of the kicks being blocked by lineman Mike Hughes.

Slaton in today for frosh game

The Post freshman football team will play the Slaton freshmen here today (Thursday) in a game starting at 5:30 p. m.

The freshmen lost to Lockney, 38 to 14, at Lockney last Thursday, with Kyle Josey scoring both Post touchdowns.

After Lockney had broken the scoring ice with eight points, Post scored on Josey's 30-yard run, but the extra points were missed to leave Post trailing, 8-6.

Lockney came back with two more touchdowns to lead 22-6 at the half. Coach Bill Smith's team made it closer in the third quarter when Josey returned the kickoff 70 yards for a touchdown and Kim Owen scored the extra points on a dive play.

Coach Smith said the Post team "did a much better job" than the final score would indicate. "The difference," he said, "was our inability to stop Lockney's end sweeps, which accounted for most of their yardage."

Kelly Duren directed the Post team from the quarterback position with Owen, David Hart and Ronald Tyler outstanding on defense.

Tahoka Bulldogs too much for Post team

The Tahoka Bulldogs celebrated homecoming Friday night by rolling over the Post Antelopes, 41 to 0, for their first District 4AA victory.

The Bulldogs dominated play throughout the game, scoring 14 points in the first quarter, 13 in the second, seven in the third and seven in the fourth, their final touchdown coming on the last play of the game.

Tahoka was as tough on defense as it was on offense, twice stopping Post on or about the six-inch line in the fourth quarter to add to the Antelopes' humiliation.

It was as bad a night for Coach Glynn Gregg's 'Lopes as they've had all season. On their two fruitless scoring threats they couldn't get the ball across even with the help of a pass interference call and two offside penalties against the Bulldogs inside their five-yard line.

TAHOKA OPENED the scoring with seven minutes of the first quarter game when quarterback Charlie Brown swept right end for 20 yards and Jim McCord booted the extra point.

The Antelopes had slowed a Tahoka drive earlier in the quarter when Karl Hall pounced on a fumble on the Post 30.

Jody Edwards, 200-pound guard, scored the Bulldogs' second touchdown on a 74-yard run after he picked up a "grinder" while back to punt, broke at least three tackles and lumbered across with only two seconds of the first quarter remaining. McCord's kick made it 14-0.

After an exchange of punts, Tahoka got on the scoreboard again when halfback Robert Montemayor scooted 18 yards for a TD with 6:41 of the first half remaining. McCord's kick sailed wide of the uprights.

Less than a minute later, the Bulldogs scored again following Tim Walker's interception of Ray Altman's pass on the Post 38.

Brown passed to Montemayor on the Post 21 and on the next play, Montemayor took a lateral from Brown and went the distance. McCord's extra point kick boosted the score to 27-0.

LATE IN the first half, Post drove 63 yards to the Tahoka 12, mainly on three pass completions from Altman to Jerry Crenshaw, but the half ended with Altman thrown for an 11-yard loss on a fourth down passing attempt.

The Bulldogs lit up the scoreboard again late in the third quarter on a 79-yard drive, with Brown taking it across from seven yards out and McCord again booting the extra point.

The Antelopes started bouncing back early in the final period after Randy Hudman recovered a Tahoka fumble on the Post 35.

Slashing gains by running backs George Torres and James Pollard moved the ball to the midfield stripe and pass interference was called against Tahoka on the Bulldog nine-yard line.

Pollard gained six yards to the three and an offside penalty against Tahoka moved the ball to the one and a half. Altman failed to gain on two tries, but Tahoka was penalized to the six-inch line after Torres had been stopped at the line. Jay Bird was thrown back in a fourth down attempt at the right side of the Tahoka line, but the Bulldogs recovering his fumble on the three.

WALKER quick-kicked to the Post 43, and the Antelopes stormed right back down to the goal line, with Pollard's 36-yard run taking the ball to the six.

Altman ran left end three times, getting within inches of the goal on his last try, but Pollard was shoved back on his fourth down attempt at the line.

The 'Dogs, apparently nettled at the 'Lopes assault on their goal line, took over with 1:54 remaining and drove 98 yards for a touchdown. Brown hitting end Jim Dams with an eight-yard pass over the center of the line on the last play of the game. McCord kicked the extra point.

Students divided on lowering voting age

By Sharyn Bilberry

An issue which is being discussed widely is whether the voting age should be lowered or not. The following are statements made by ten Post High students:

CHRISTINE MORRIS: I feel that 18 is a good voting age, because youth of today are so much more informed than many other generations have been on world affairs. I do think that in any age group you will find immature voters and that this fault could only be corrected by using a sophisticated method of testing to determine mental fitness to vote.

MIKE PETTY: I feel that 18 is the right age to vote because the younger generation is maturing earlier and have a greater outlook on life. They do care about what is happening in the U. S. The younger generation can see what problems are around and see that they need to be corrected. The voting age at 18 is a start for us expressing our idea and ideals.

MARY ANN STELZER: 18-year-olds should be allowed to vote, because they are the most informed generation ever. They fight the wars.

DEBBIE DICKSON: I feel 18 is old enough to vote. The idea that a person matures at 21 has been followed for many years and does not apply to our "Aware Generation."

BARBARA LUCAS: I think the voting age should remain at 21 because most 18-year-olds are still living at home, or are still supported by their parents. Most young adults would show more maturity in voting if they were on their own in the world.

DAVID HAMILTON: I feel that the majority of 18-year-olds are too immature to vote. I realize that 18-year-olds are more informed today than they were a few years ago, but at the same time I feel that waiting another three years, till age 21, helps a person mature and accept the responsibility that goes along with voting. At the present time I think that 18-year-olds are not mature or responsible enough to vote.

THRESE SIMS: I think that when a boy becomes 18 and can go and fight for his country then why can't he also vote for his President.

STEVE COLLAZO: I feel that the age of 18 is the right age to vote because if you can go fight for your country at 18 you're old enough to vote at 18.

MARTHA JO WALLS: I believe that 18 years of age is too young for a person to vote. Being 18, I realize that I myself am too immature to accept the responsibilities of voting that the older generation so calmly and haphazardly attempt. It has been said that if you can die for your country you can vote — this necessarily doesn't mean you should also vote.

DANNY DOZIER: I think if a person should have to fight for his country at the age of 18, he should be able to have a say in what his country does.

What Misery Is . . .

By Martha Jo Walls

Misery as defined by Webster is a wretched circumstance; misfortune.

Misery is . . .

—Waiting until the last possible moment to do your Civics research paper and political cartoons.

—Going to the show and sticking to the floor.

—Getting beat to death with a license stick.

—Letting someone borrow your pencil and getting it back all chewed up.

—Turning down offers to Homecoming waiting for the special one and going alone.

—Getting whistled at by a six-year-old boy.

—Saying the wrong thing, at the wrong time to the wrong person.

—Making hydrogen sulfide.

—Picking up the spray deodorant and using it as hair spray.

—Being dead tired and being told to get on the black line. (For those who don't know what this means — to run some more.)

—Shaving with a dull blade.

—Hearing all those big words and not knowing what they mean.

—Getting your paper taken up for cheating when you're not.

—Running out of ink during dictation.

—Having to ask a boy to walk you down the hall.

—Forgetting to wear your Senior ring and feeling naked.

—Losing the toothbrush bristles in your mouth.

—Typing a stencil in backwards.

—Dying for a Coke and the Coke machines not working.

Karen's Korner

By Karen Hundley

The sun shines and life is good, but life is so complex, so transient that it cannot be enjoyed. Where are the days when you had time to watch the sun rise or set, and to think about the world and your place in it? Life today is so crowded and so full that it is merely the passage of time, the precious item that leaves never to return. Yes, I am pessimistic. I am tired. I am confused. What kind of world is it that we must live in? Who are you? Why are you here? And the answers . . . (?)

The pep rally last Friday was injected with that good old SPIRIT. Speakers there were Steve Newby and Dennis Dodson, members of the Antelope football team. One reason for the exuberance last Friday was the fact that we students were given a holiday from The Institution last Monday. I know from personal experience that that day was put to good use by civics students!

Remember "The Holy Roman Empire?" Well, they're back! Except that they are now "Flyte Ltd.," with Timmons Bull and Bo McWhirt as drummers; Mike Scott on the organ; Giles McCrary, Jan Olson and Curtis Lancaster on the guitars; David Pierce as the lead singer, and Steve Newby as the manager of the group. They will be performing soon. Now, they practice at 3 p. m. at "The Palace" on Sunday. Anybody that wishes to listen is invited for an earful.

If you don't know by now that Friday is Homecoming, then YOU need HELP! After the game Friday night, "The Coachmen" from Hobbs, N. M., will play at Teen Town until 12:30. And if you miss that, then you DO need HELP!!

By the way, who is it that doesn't know "a dime's worth of difference?" Aside, what occurred at the park last Saturday night? Nathan Manuel is back in school after the loss of his father. Mike Scott left for San Antonio last Friday to pick up the van for "Flyte Ltd."

PHS Band met last Tuesday morning to elect their sweetheart. Last Friday the Pep Squad gathered to choose Pep Squad Beau.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL. Mrs. G. L. Perkins was dismissed from Mercy Hospital in Slaton Tuesday where she had been a patient for five weeks following an automobile accident.

33 Greenhands become Chapter Farmers here

At the regular meeting of the Future Farmers of America chapter last week, 33 Greenhands were received into the chapter.

The following former Greenhands were present for election as Chapter Farmers and awarded chapter pins:

On Oct. 18, the third and fourth year members and Co-op members, along with some area farmers, took a farm tour and visited some of the surrounding farms.

We visited Syd Conner's farm where he told us of the varieties of cotton he had planted and the fertilizer plots he is using this year. He also told us some interesting things about the boll weevil.

The farms visited were those of Robert Craig, Waggoner Johnson, Lewis Mason, Albert Stone and James Stone.

After visiting the farms we were guests of the Post Rotary Club and were served a delicious meal.

Post students at Lubbock college

LUBBOCK — Emily Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Potts, 117 North Ave. R, has enrolled for the fall semester at Lubbock Christian College.

Emily, a 1968 graduate of Post High School, will be a freshman student this fall and is planning to major in home economics.

LaGayluah Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Young, 116 South Ave. Q, has also enrolled for the fall semester at LCC.

LaGayluah, a 1967 graduate of Post High School, is now a sophomore student at LCC and is majoring in business.

LCC is a private liberal arts junior college now entering its 12th year. Beginning this year, plans for becoming a senior college will be begun and all entering freshmen will have the opportunity to go the full four years at LCC. At present LCC offers associate degrees in 12 different fields.

NEW MEXICO VISIT

Mrs. W. C. Kiker spent Friday night in Carlsbad, N. M., as a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown. They attended the Carlsbad-Alamogordo football game. The Browns' son, Richard, is on the football team. Mrs. Kiker also got to see her other grandson, Paul Brown, participate in the PP&K contest at Hobbs on Saturday.

Meeting of Student Council short one

By Jay Pollard
Last week's Post Junior Student Council meeting was short one. We ate lunch and Conner called the meeting to order.
We discussed the assembly every Friday. We had no more read because the secretary, Orlan Criswell, was not there. Neither was Linda Bird, vice president. The Student Council made a $60 on the concession stand last week. We hope to make more.

Ohio family visiting relatives at Graham

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Oakley and daughter of Piqua, Ohio, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Maxey and brother, Don. The Oakleys and Mrs. Maxey visited part of last week in El Paso with
the Franklin Maxey and Bruce Evans families.
Mrs. S. D. Lofton returned to West Texas Hospital Sunday after a week's stay at home. She is scheduled to undergo surgery
again. We wish for her a speedy recovery.
Weekend and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Stone were all of their children, the Jim Eblins
of Slaton, the Jerrel Stones of Dallas, the Gerald Deans of Capitan, N. M. Mary Ann Stone of Abilene
and the Pete Pierce family. They all helped James celebrate his birthday.
Mmes. Winnie Henderson, John-
nie Rogers, Jewell Graham, Vera Gossett and Viva Davis visited
Saturday afternoon in Methodist Hospital with the Hayden Rogers family. Hayden was in the intensive care ward after undergoing major surgery on Thursday. We have learned that he was moved to a room Monday with a special nurse. We wish for him a quick
recovery.
Larry Lee Mason of Andrews had
a birthday luncheon with his sister, Mrs. Ray McClellan, and family and Mrs. Willie Mason last Tuesday. Mrs. Mason visited her relatives in Post.

Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Jason
Justice visited Sunday afternoon
with the Fred Gossets.
Mrs. Oletha Hawkins and Mrs.
Jo Williams visited in Slaton last Thursday with Mrs. Williams' relatives.
Mrs. Don Brown and children
and Mrs. Bob Foote visited over the weekend with their parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Bill McMahon, and grandmother, Mrs. Steen. They all helped with the Methodist Church
supper in the community center.
The Troy Nelson family visited
Friday evening in the Melvin Williams home.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cowdrey and

Letters to the Editor...

THE VD PROBLEM
Dear Editor:
You ran an article on page 8 of last week's paper which, because of other controversial issues, I fear may have been hastily read
and forgotten or perhaps even overlooked completely.
(Editor's Note: The article referred to by the writer was on a venereal disease program presented the Future Homemakers of America chapter by a representative of the Texas State Health Department.)
This article to me seems to be of the utmost importance. It is a problem that we cannot turn our backs on and it will eventually go away. Perhaps we have already done this too long.
I attended this meeting and
one thing that shocked me so very much (which was not stressed in the article) was the ages of the children now having VD. A few years ago the age concerned
with mostly was the 12-19 year
group but now the age level has dropped to the 9-12 year group.
This may seem appalling to you;
as it did to me, but regardless of how appalling or disgusting the subject may be, it is one that could reach into the home of every one of us. I would like to see our people attack this problem with the same fervor and determination that others have been.

1969 Ford. Wider. Longer. Quieter. Roomier.

(Easier to handle.)

These are the things to look for in a great road car. And every day more and more people are finding them in the 1969 Ford.

Wider. The '69 Ford hugs the road with as wide a track as Cadillac.

Longer. The '69 Ford smooths your ride with a longer wheelbase than Chevrolet. Yet it turns in a smaller circle than last year's Ford.

Roomier. We've grouped all the controls in front of the driver, made our front passenger compartment so spacious people are calling it the Front Room.

Quieter. Our '69 LTD is designed to ride even quieter than the LTD that rode quieter than Rolls-Royce.

Record first-month sales of the '69 Ford tell us we've got a good thing going. A test drive will tell you.
