Soviet Space Feats Still Spectacular

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS U.S. rocket and satellite launches have exceeded Soviet firings by almost 2-1. There were 27 American space objects orbiting the earth in late 1960 and only 10 Soviet. The United States then had two spheres whirling around the sun and the Soviet Union one. But Soviet space feats have consistently been more spectacular and have been "firsts"—starting with man's first scientific thrust beyond his earthly realm, the original Sputnik sent up by Moscow on Oct. 4, 1957. Sputnik I weighed 184 pounds, compared with later space objects weighing several tons, and reached a peak orbital limit of 588 miles into space. Soviet scientists followed up that launching exactly a month later with another equally as astounding. They sent up Sputnik II with a dog, Laika, aboard the 1,119-pound sphere. The satellite zoomed spaceward to a distance of 1,045 miles but burned up when it re-entered the earth's atmosphere and the dog perished. Subsequent firings by the Soviets increased in weight and in the complexity of their goals, as their scientists made rapid strides in the new technology of the space age. Soviet and American goals were the same—to be able to recover animals sent aloft and then to send the first man into space and bring him down alive. May 15, 1961, Sputnik III went up to a maximum height of 1,175 miles. It burned up in the atmosphere more than two years later—Aug. 6, 1960. The next Soviet rocket on Aug. 27, 1958, sent up two dogs in a still heavier object—3,718 pounds. They did not go as high—280 miles—but were brought back down. The Soviets ventured farther into space during 1959. A "Lunik" space rocket passed the moon Jan. 2 and went into orbit around the sun five days later. It weighed 3,832 pounds. On July 2 a dog and a rabbit took the Soviets into the 2,400-mile orbit where they rode a 4,400-pound sphere out and back. Lunik II hit the moon Sept. 13. The 3,324-pound object staged a claim by carrying a banner with the Soviet coat of arms. Lunik III circled the moon Oct. 4 in a Sputnik two-year anniversary sphere. It relayed the picture to Moscow by television. Lunik III weighed 8,416 pounds. The Soviets sent a cosmic ship with a dummy man into orbit May 15, 1960. It weighed 4½ tons and climbed as high as 230 miles. Later in 1960—on Aug. 22—a second cosmic ship weighing just over 5 tons took the dogs Belka and Strelka around the earth with mice, flies and plant life aboard. They flew outward 210 miles and returned safely to earth. The Kremlin's first failure with animals since Laika's death in space three years before came Dec. 1, 1960. A third cosmic ship was launched with two dogs and other animals aboard. But the 5-ton object failed to return to earth on command and burned up as it re-entered the atmosphere. Its maximum outward orbit was 165 miles. Last Feb. 4 a Soviet artificial satellite weighing 7 tons orbited at a maximum height of 200 miles. Eight days later, using a multi-stage rocket with powerful new thrust, the Soviets worked a triple-launching system to send a half-ton interplanetary station on its way to Venus. It was destined to arrive close to the surface of Venus in the middle of May, when the planet's distance from earth is about 30 million miles.

BY STANLEY JOHNSON MOSCOW (AP)—The world's first astronaut orbited the globe for more than an hour today, reported back that he was feeling fine, and then returned safely to receive the plaudits of scientists and political leaders alike. He was in the air an hour and 48 minutes, including an hour and 29 minutes in orbit. A five-ton spaceship carried Maj. Yuri Alekseyevich Gagarin, 27, father of two daughters. He took off at 9:07 a.m. Moscow time and returned at 10:55 a.m., Soviet officials reported. The orbit reached a maximum of 188 miles and dipped to a minimum of 110 miles above the earth before descent to a prearranged target in the Soviet Union. Launching and landing sites were not disclosed in the statement by the Soviet government and the Communist party. The route of the spaceship, named "Vostok" (east), also was not disclosed, but Moscow radio said it received messages from Gagarin twice during the morning—one sent while he was over Africa and the other from over South America. The spaceship, "having rounded the globe, safely returned to the sacred soil of our homeland, the land of the Soviets," the announcement said. The Soviet victory over the United States in the contest to put a man into space was hailed by Soviet citizens from Premier Khrushchev to workmen in the Moscow streets. A detailed statement was read by Moscow radio after newscaster, Levitan. He read three times. Then the radio broke into music, with songs glorifying Soviet space achievements. The pilot's report that he was well blurred over loudspeakers in the Soviet capital, which was blanketed with a heavy April snowfall. Muscovites clustered around the radios to listen to news of the historic achievement. Moscow radio and all other Soviet propaganda organs went into a demonstration of patriotism for the Soviet Union and the Communist system. And in Washington, President Kennedy issued a statement congratulating the Soviet Union on "an outstanding technical achievement." James E. Webb, chief of the U.S. space agency, called it a splendid achievement and expressed hope the Russians will share their findings with the world. The United States is planning to shoot a man 300 miles through space in May—but will not try to place him into orbit. The U.S. orbit try may come later this year. The space flight came as no great surprise. Soviet scientists have been freely predicting it in recent months, especially after last month's twin launchings of satellites.

HOW RUSSIA WOULD DO IT—"Communist Days" are scheduled at the Scurry County Library tomorrow and Friday, but it's merely a demonstration of how a library would be operated behind the iron curtain. The event has been scheduled as a prelude to "National Library Week" which begins April 16. Above, Mrs. Leland Herod looks at a display in the local library as it might appear after the communists "screened" it. Solons To Take Up Tax Problem Again

By GARTH JONES AUSTIN (AP)—Texas legislators put an "X" on the 33rd day of their regular session today. Only 47 days remain to reach agreement, without added special sessions, on how to raise, and spend $2½ billion. Both the House and Senate scheduled forenoon discussions similar to those already announced by the board and effective Aug. 1. The House version made one big change by removing most speeding violations as a basis for insurance premium penalties. In the afternoon the Senate killed, 9-19, a bill (SB106) setting new qualifications for professional nurses. A bill (SB107) redefining technical laws on involuntary liens for construction projects won temporary approval. When the Senate adjourned, it was debating a bill (SB109) to require all future-certified public accountants to have four years of college before taking CPA exams. No final action was taken.

Skies Clear After Day Of Turbulence

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Skies cleared over Texas again Wednesday as residents of at least four areas added up losses from tornadoes and hard-hitting thunderstorms. One twister dipping from a series of blustery storms late Tuesday flattened a two-story building and injured four persons northeast of Richardson, near the north edge of Dallas. Another funnel cloud knifed into a rural community near Malone, southwest of Corsicana in Central Texas. It wrecked two homes and damaged another but the occupants escaped harm. A pair of tornadoes appeared near Clifton in Bosque County and McGregor in McLennan County, also in Central Texas. The Department of Public Safety said neither caused injuries or damage. Sheriff's officers watched a tornado warily as it passed close to the Ferguson Prison Farm near Huntsville without touching ground. A powerful gust of wind caused a big canvas tent to collapse on a revival service crowd of 200 Tuesday night during a heavy rain in Houston. Several wriggled along with muddy bodies and all escaped serious injury. Another vicious thunderstorm battered Port Arthur, where wind up to 56 miles per hour, spiced trees and snapped power lines. There was no report of injuries. All the thunderstorms surged eastward into Louisiana well before midnight. The turbulence developed as two cold fronts billowed across the state and caused tornado alerts for two sectors 120 miles wide. One danger zone centered on a line from Dallas to Fayetteville, Ark., and the other from Palestine to 40 miles southeast of Shreveport, La.

New Contracts For All Teachers Okayed

One of the top items on the agenda required no action last night at the Snyder School Board's regular meeting when Supt. T. E. McCollum reported that all teachers in the system had been recommended by their respective principals for re-employment. According to their contracts, teachers are considered rehired, unless they are notified otherwise by April 15. Consequently, acceptance of the recommendations last night, in effect, means that all teachers now employed in Snyder Public Schools may return for the 1961-62 school year. In other business, a committee was appointed by Board President Lee D. Stone to study the possibility of new proposals on hospitalization insurance for school employees. Representatives of three insurance agencies were at the board meeting. They were Ray Hout, Frank Cullum and Ernest Sears. Hout, who made the request for action, noted that the present hospitalization plan had been in effect for three years, and he suggested that the board might want to look over other proposals from time to time. Stone appointed a board committee composed of Dr. T. F. Hartley, Dr. Robert Hargrove and Malven K. Stevenson to study the proposal. If they feel that new proposals should be submitted to school personnel they will inform the board. Also, all insurance accounts here will be notified that such proposals are under consideration.

Announcement was made that the Chapman Teachers Association banquet will be held on April 27, and June 20 was set as the date for a hearing on the school budget and July 25 was set as date for the school tax equalization board to meet. Also it was announced that the Rev. Jack Dean will be the speaker at high school Baccalaureate service this spring. McCollum presented a report from North Texas State College on grades earned by Snyder students there this year. Of 92 grades received by Snyder graduates there were more than a score of A's and only 5 F's. This is unusually high, the superintendent said.

Prosecutor Asserts Jews Won't Forget

By REIMAN MORIN JERUSALEM (AP)—Israeli Attorney General Gideon Hausner, pointing his finger directly at Adolf Eichmann, cried out in court today that the Jewish people will never forget Eichmann's "success in carrying out the Nazi plan to exterminate Europe's 11 million Jews. Hausner's impassioned warning brought no visible reaction from Eichmann. He looked at the attorney general with stony eyes, his face a blank mask. Hausner's outburst came in the second morning of Eichmann's trial of Israeli charges of "crimes against humanity" and "crimes against the Jewish people." The charges are the result of a mass murder—the state attacks that Eichmann, as chief of the Jewish Affairs Section of the Nazi Gestapo, bears direct responsibility for the slaughter of an estimated six million Jews. Hausner reminded the three-judge court that in thousands of years of Jewish history there had been previous attempts to wipe the Jewish people off the face of the earth.

Then, suddenly raising his voice and stabbing the air with his left hand, he said: "There is no pardon and there can be no forgetting." Eichmann looked a little haggard when he came into court on this second day. His wispy hair was slightly rumpled. Dark circles ringed his eyes. He coughed frequently, blew his nose, and removed his spectacles to wipe his eyes. Through most of the morning session, he sat quiet still, cupping his chin on his right hand. He made only one or two penciled notes on the paper in front of him. The only time he showed any animation was in the moment when he was asked to identify the Jewish Affairs Section of the Nazi Gestapo. He glanced a few words with his chief defense lawyer, Dr. Robert Servatius of Cologne, West Germany. As they talked, Eichmann's face suddenly came alive. He seemed to be eagerly emphasizing a point.

Hausner spent the whole morning session in arguments to refute the challenge Servatius made Tuesday of the court's and Israel's right to try Eichmann. The German lawyer had contended that the Israeli law under which Eichmann is being tried, was ex post facto—adopted after the event—and that Eichmann was only an instrument of the Nazi hierarchy, "dragged into these actions." Citing precedent after precedent, decision after decision, Hausner contended that the crimes charged to Eichmann had been considered crimes through-out the civilized world long before Israel's 1950 law brought them into this nation's legal code. He returned to words spoken by the "International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg in 1946," the United Nations, and declarations of tribunals in London, Moscow, Washington, San Francisco and many other cities during and after the war.

Rehearing On Pipeline Tax Is Rejected

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Supreme Court today rejected the state's motion for rehearing of its action Tuesday rejecting the legislature's natural gas pipeline tax. The court on March 29 upheld lower court findings that the 1959 gas tax law was unconstitutional. The court's refusal to reconsider was another formal step toward final submission of the lawsuit to the United States Supreme Court. In rare cases second motions for rehearing are submitted and considered, but this was not considered likely in the current case. Lower courts held that the pipeline tax is invalid because it constitutes a levy on interstate commerce. The various pipeline companies involved have paid in $13 million under protest and are held in a suspense account by the state pending final adjudication in the U.S. Supreme Court. The tax levied 1½ per cent of the market value per 1,000 cubic feet of gas at the wellhead. The gas affected is that purchased under reserve contracts and it must be paid by the last taker, usually the pipeline company. The state court decisions favored more than 80 gas pipeline companies in two cases brought originally by the Transcontinental Pipeline Co. and the Tennessee Gas Transmission Co.

Central P-TA Honors Herman Trigg With Life Program

The Central Elementary Parent-Teachers Association met Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the school auditorium for a most enjoyable evening.

Prior to the "This Is A Life" program, Mrs. Bill Butler, president conducted a short business session.

Approximately 250 persons sat in suspense as the part fiction, part truth, based on facts, fiction and imagination was disclosed, naming the story subject.

The curtain raised and a spotlight shone on Mark Adams beating drums and tooting a horn while the master of ceremonies, Bill Watson started unveiling the mystery.

"Once in the dear dead days beyond recall in the vicinity of Dunn, Tex., a sandy haired boy was born into the home of a country doctor and his pretty red-headed wife. As he grew, he began to show interest in music. He would beat on his drums, play horns of all sorts and practice leading the band to the old family victrola. He also showed avid interests in sports, especially football and baseball, and a great love of animals.

"By the time this fellow had gone through grade school, grammar school and now in high school, his interests remained the same. These two loves of his life were to gain him a scholarship in Daniel Baker College in Brownwood, and later to graduate from Howard Payne College of the same city. Of course, the athletic directors of West Texas Colleges had their eye on him when he made a victorious touchdown over Sweetwater. But the colleges in Brownwood, polished this gentleman up, and set him out to set the world on fire with music... as high school band director."

Mr. Watson went through the various phases of Mr. Herman Trigg's life and up to the present day as principal of Central Elementary. Kathleen Mott played the part of Eula Perle Ferguson, one of Mr. Trigg's pianists in his band. She presented musical and vocal selections. Wayne Kennedy was Dr. Spencer, a close friend, who delivered the Trigg's daughter, Sara Beth, while they resided in Brownwood.

Brad Boren a former classmate of Mr. Trigg, reminisced some of their younger days. Georgina Bolen, a former teacher of his back in 1923; Thurman Higgins, a student in Trigg's first band; and Roy Lee Ford, a former student now in the teaching profession.

Mrs. Trigg (Sallie) was presented a charm bracelet depicting moments of her life with Herman. Mr. Trigg was presented a movie of the evening reunion, complete with sound.

A coffee social was held following the program.

Mix cooked elbow macaroni with a sharp cheese sauce; top with slices of tomato and add a layer of grated cheese. Broil until cheese melt and tomatoes are hot.

MR. AND MRS. A. M. LINDSEY

Breezy Bobs For Behind The Wheel

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newswriters Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Elegant coiffures are not for wearing in sports cars, says hairdresser Michel Kazan.

"The only time an elegant hairdo has a proper setting in a car is when a woman is chauffeur driven," he explains. "The proper coiffure for driving or riding in a sports car is one that has an elegance of disarrangement, a hairdo that can look tousled but may be put back in place attractively with the fingers after the drive."

Michel himself is a sports car enthusiast, and he feels our current interest in speed has given us a new perspective on fashion.

"The sports coiff should look as if it can be arranged quickly to coincide with the speed picture," he points out, "otherwise you are out of step."

Hair that is exposed to the elements needs protection, he says. And he advises women sports car enthusiasts to have lubricating hair treatments. These will give protective coating against summer sun while riding, to avoid discoloration particularly of bleached and touched-up hair.

A color rinse is one of the best shields against the sun's rays, Michel advises. "It protects the head just as a little glove protects the hand."

Keep a hairbrush in the car and use it as much as possible, he suggests, and don't forget that frequent shampoos are necessary to keep the scalp clean.

"Because hair grows faster during the summer months, it should be cut no matter what its length," Michel says. This helps dispose of dead and split ends.

"The shape and cut of your summer coiffure is important to avoid an untidy appearance."

Lindseys Honored On Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lindsey celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, April 9, in their home at Fluvanna.

The couple were married at Winters, April 9, 1911. Mrs. Lindsey is the former Lillie Pearl Phillips, daughter of the late J. M. Phillips. Mr. Lindsey was from Miles at the time.

Having resided in Scurry County for 29 years, Mr. Lindsey, who brated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, April 9, in their home at Fluvanna.

in nine years all of the immediate family was together.

A buffet dinner with three tiered cake was served to 35 relatives and friends.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald of Banjo; Mrs. Buddy McCorkle and Debra of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lindsey, Jimmy, Johnny and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lindsey and Connie of Ira; Mr. and Mrs. W. Frozen Vegetables Cook Easily In Foil Over Charcoal

Frozen meats usually are at their best when thawed before being cooked over a wood charcoal fire. Frozen vegetables can be taken right from the wrappings without being thawed, put into foil with butter added, and cooked immediately on the grill.

Frozen lima or green beans, peas or whole kernel corn all are good choices. Take a length of foil about the size of a breadboard. Put a good dab of butter in center and then add your unwrapped block of frozen vegetables. Crumple up foil to cover the top so it looks like a paper bag carried from a nearby store. Heavy duty foil is best. The bag should be slightly open to let steam escape. Enough steam stays in to keep vegetables moist and juicy. Cook over low charcoal heat or at the side of the fire to avoid scorching.

Frozen squash or other vegetables that need a double boiler are best cooked in pans. Your own experiments with varied heat and butter will tell you what frozen vegetables you can add to your foil-and-fire list.

Speed Up Thaw

There are days when it seems to take forever for a piece of frozen meat to thaw. Now the experts approve of thawing frozen food in an oven if you have one with a low-temperature control. With the temperature set at 155 degrees a 15-pound turkey will be completely defrosted in three hours. The bird should be kept tightly wrapped so it won't dry out. No cooking takes place in the low-temperature oven so the flavor and texture of the meat will not be affected by the fast thaw.

Garbage Hauler

The average homemaker carries out around one thousand pounds of garbage a year. While that is not enough to qualify her for membership in a union, it is a considerable job. The automatic disposer not only removes the unpleasantness of the task, but it also eliminates the job of sanitizing garbage containers and constant trips in and out of the house in all kinds of weather. Models of the disposer are available that utilize bottled gas (liquefied petroleum) as well as natural gas.

Richard Rodgers Still Doing Well, As Is Entire Family

BY INEZ ROBB

Lunchroom with Richard Rodgers is like luncheon with a particularly pleasant, animated old shoe.

Before the composer starts singing, I hasten to add that in addition to being tragically comfortable to be with, he affords an added bonus of lively, far-ranging conversation. Perish the thought that I should enjoy luncheon with him solely because he can afford to take a gal to the most expensive restaurant in town.

Let me say at this point I have been shy of Mr. Rodgers ever since a hideous moment when I introduced him to friends as "Mr. Richardson." Sensing that I was praying to drop dead instantly, he quickly said, "Never mind. Most people call me Mr. Hammerstein."

Before we settled down to discuss what he has been doing since the death of his partner and dear friend, the poetic and brilliant lyricist, Oscar Hammerstein II, with whom he wrought such Broadway milestones as "Oklahoma," "South Pacific," "The King and I," and the current "Sound of Music," we polished off any number of other topics.

For instance, there is his wife of almost 31 years, Dorothy, "the only woman who ever checked in at the Ritz Hotel in Boston with a sewing machine."

"We were probably trying out a new show in Boston," her admiring husband recalls, "and she was probably in the midst of making me some lounge shirts. She makes all my lounge shirts; perfectly beautiful ones out of raw silk. She makes my bedroom slippers, too. And when she saw that world War II was inevitable, she knew there'd be a great shortage of domestic help, so she went out and learned to be a chef."

Honestly, I ought to forget Dick Rodgers and concentrate on Dorothy. He really doesn't have to work. Dorothy keeps an inventory and patenting household gadgets that sell like maple syrup. And keeps raking in the loot.

"She's the all-purpose wife," Rodgers said, purring with contentment. "Then there are his daughters, Mary Rodgers Beatty, composer of "Once Upon a Mattress" and Linda Rodgers Melnick, who has collaborated with her sister in a number of successful musical ventures, including both songs for children and for Mary Martin.

Next, there are four highly satisfactory grandchildren, especially the small one whom Grandma Rodgers took to the Ice Show and to whom she said, when the opening number was skated to a Rodgers melody, "Grandpa says that 'How do you know?' asked the skeptic.

What is a conversation without art? The Rodgerses collect contemporary paintings, including the small one whom Grandma Rodgers took to the Ice Show and to whom she said, when the opening number was skated to a Rodgers melody, "Grandpa says that 'How do you know?' asked the skeptic.

And so, by fresh strawberry and Devonshire cream time, we got down to the business of the day. What and how is Richard Rodgers doing today? How is he managing without his long-time partner, Hammerstein.

Well, he misses Oscar like a right arm. But, Rodgers said, he is busy as a bee, doing all right with both music and lyrics, too, to his surprise and pleasure. Recently Rodgers composed the score for the television series, "The Valiant Years," based on the Winston Churchill histories.

And, of course, there's his just-announced partnership with Alan Jay Lerner, of "My Fair Lady," "Camelot" and other Broadway fame, to begin in the winter of 1961 for a projected Broadway opening in the fall of 1962.

In addition, he has written the lyrics as well as the music for three additional songs for the new movie version of "State Fair." He was so modest when he submitted the songs that he told Hollywood to discard the lyrics if it didn't like 'em. On the contrary, Hollywood was crazy about them. "I enjoy writing lyrics," he said. "I don't agonize over them. In the theatre you always work in close relation to words. And you can learn from such men as Larry Hart (Rodgers' first great collaborator who died before Hammerstein came into the picture) and Oscar Hammerstein. I learned a lot from what they did right and others did wrong.

"I'm a relaxed type," Rodgers continued. "I am doing a play now all on my own. But if someone comes along with an idea I liked, and that involved a lyricist that would be okay, too. And I'm not afraid of sentiment or even. That's what both life and people are apt to be."

Success May Be Measured In Many Ways

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Are you a success?

There are many ways to measure success, but the chances are that you've done pretty well in life—at least in the eyes of your neighbors.

You have been living at a rate of only $1,000-a-year over your income for the last five years, and your credit is still good.

Your lawn is the only one on the block without crab grass.

The boss, instead of pushing a buzzer when he wants you, strods out to your desk to ask advice.

The barber can tell you in complete honesty, "Nope, it isn't getting any thinner on top."

None of your children has been sent to reform school.

All your brothers-in-law have steady jobs.

You can play pool instead of golf and still keep your standing in the community.

Your home has one more bathroom than it does bedrooms—and the garage has a door that opens automatically.

Welch Says Reds Become Ministers

By TED J. MCKENNA
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, says, "Protestant ministers do not become Communists — but Communists do become Protestant ministers."

He told a capacity audience of 6,000 at the Shrine Auditorium Tuesday night that Communists and their sympathizers are infiltrating the Protestant ministry because "it is the last place where Americans would expect to find them."

"There are about 200,000 ministers, and only about 7,000 of them could be called 'comsymps,'" he added.

"Nobody is accusing the other 97 per cent of anything except the gullibility and apathy with which Americans as a whole are afflicted."

He defined a "comsymp" as a "Communist or a sympathizer with Communist purposes."

About 35 persons picketed the auditorium, but there was no violence. The meeting was sponsored by the Freedom Club of the Los Angeles First Congregational church. The John Birch Society, which describes itself as a militantly anti-Communist organization, is named after an American intelligence officer killed by Chinese Communists 10 days after World War II ended.

Kennedy's Choice Of Mann Draws Praise

AUSTIN (AP) — President Kennedy's choice of Thomas Mann of Laredo as ambassador to Mexico was warmly applauded today by the vice president of the International Good Neighbor Council.

Ricardo Orozco said Mann's selection "is the best choice President Kennedy could make—a Texan who is familiar with our country and its people, who speaks our language."

Orozco, owner of several hotels in southern Mexico, is here for a meeting of the Good Neighbor Council.

Mayor and Mrs. John H. Hamblin will be guests of the Church at the dinner, along with a number of other local citizens.

Out of town guests will include the Rev. and Mrs. Donald N. Hungerford of Big Spring and the Rev. and Mrs. Alan B. Conroy of Colorado City.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the dinner is composed of Harland Birdwell, Mrs. Hugh Boren, Jr., Mrs. Sterling Price, W. C. Hart, and Bob A. McAlister.

The speaker of the evening will be introduced by the Rev. Custis Fletcher, Jr., vicar of St. John's Church. Rev. Fletcher will give the invocation and the benediction.

Members of St. John's Episcopal Church will be hosts tonight at 7:30 at a banquet to be held at the Snyder Country Club to initiate their Church Building Fund Campaign.

Approximately 100 communicants and their guests will hear the Right Rev. Joseph Mounin, Bishop of Dallas, give the principal address of the evening.

Bishop Harte, who is a speaker of national reputation in the Episcopal Church, is a graduate of Washington & Jefferson College in Washington, Pa., receiving his Doctor of Divinity degree there in 1954, and of General Theological Seminary in New York, N. Y., where he received his Doctor of Sacred Theology degree in 1955. He was made Deacon in April 1932 and was Ordained Priest in December, 1939, and was Consecrated as Suffragan Bishop of Dallas on June 29, 1954. Bishop Harte is National Vice President of the American Church Union, and is Trustee of the University of the South in Seawane, Tenn. Bishop Harte is the author of "Some Sources of Common Prayer," "The Language of the Book of Common Prayer," "The Title Page of the Book of Common Prayer," and "The Church's Name."

Plans call for a church and sanctuary to be added to the existing building with long range plans for additional class room facilities to be added later. The church has been offered an interest-free, long term loan from the Diocesan Revolving Loan Fund for the building program, and the balance is to be financed through a budget expansion program.

James E. Green, Warden of the Snyder County Jail, will be the guest of honor.

Texas GOP Likely To Spurn Nixon's Offer To Campaign

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas Republicans are reported to have decided to go down to the wire with Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., as the only out-of-state candidate for Texas GOP Senate campaigner for Texas GOP Sen. candidate John Tower.

Unless the signals are changed, this apparently means that former Vice President Richard Nixon's offer to spend in Texas for Tower may go unaccepted.

Goldwater, who heads the Republican Senate Campaign Committee, said he had agreed to make a series of appearances for Tower May 13 and possibly the next day.

Tower led the field in an April free-for-all contest to fill the seat vacated by Vice President Lyndon Johnson. He faces Democratic Sen. William Blakley in a June 3 runoff. Both list themselves as conservatives.

Republican hopes that Tower would benefit by a stay-at-home feeling among Democrats were arrayed Tuesday when House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., said he is supporting Blakley 70 per cent.

Goldwater, a spokesman for conservative Republicans, said he was informed he would be the only out-of-state speaker for Tower.

"Being from the West, I always think it is a mistake to import campaigners from other states in a senatorial contest," he said.

"But they won't me. You're the only one we're going to invite in and they asked me to come, so I agreed to do it."

Asked if this eliminated Nixon from the list of possible cam-aigners, Goldwater replied he didn't know anything about that. He said, however, he thought that with conservative Republicans running against each other, Tower's supporters wanted only conservative help.

Solons Ready Shrimp Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen from Gulf Coast states were ready today to offer bills for controlling imports of shrimp.

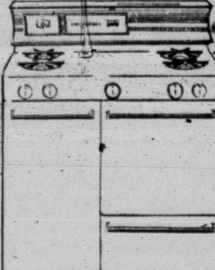

In the group promising to introduce identical measures for this purpose were Sens. Russell Long, D-La., George Smathers, D-Fla., and Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., and Reps. Hille Boggs, D-La., and Edwin Willis, D-La.

Their proposal would permit duty-free profits of unprocessed shrimp matching in amount the total imports of processed and unprocessed shrimp last year. It would make processed shrimp subject to a 35 per cent ad valorem duty, with the minimum charge 35 cents a pound.

The measure, the congressmen said in a statement, "is not intended to effect a cutback in United States imports of shrimp but simply to provide controls to runaway importations—that have depressed prices beyond the point where producers can profitably operate."

The South Atlantic islands of Tristan da Cunha are so remote that World War I was almost over before islanders knew it had started.

Junior Editors Quiz on MEDICINE

QUESTION: What is quinine made from?

ANSWER: Quinine is a very bitter medicine. It is chiefly valuable as a remedy for malaria. Although it does not cure the disease, it reduces fever. Quinine also can be taken to relieve pain in influenza, headache and the common cold. Today's other medicines are more commonly used. In 1944 two American chemists made synthetic quinine from substances derived from coal tar and petroleum. Before that, quinine was made from the bark of a tree native to South America, the cinchona tree.

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can find what other medicines and foods come from South American plants.

Ball Has Charge Of Important Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the truly important jobs in the Kennedy administration is in the hands of a man the country doesn't hear much about, George W. Ball, international lawyer. The tall, husky Ball, 51, once associated with Adlai Stevenson's Chicago law firm, is assistant secretary of state for economic affairs. That gives him two jobs mainly, both carried out with one eye on the Soviet Union. I. Trying to pull this country's various foreign aid programs together and making them work better than they ever did by putting aid on a long-term basis instead of the year-to-year arrangement of the past.

Working closer with American allies at a time when they are considering working closer together among themselves—not only on foreign aid but also on a multitude of economic problems affecting this country's relations with them. One of the handicaps of the past in helping backward peoples come abreast of the 20th century—at a time when backward insists it can do it better and faster—was the year to year kind of aid this country provided. Judge Denies He Has Any Occult Powers

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A judge who has removed many an evil doer from society denies that he also has power to remove warts. An unidentified elementary school principal called the Office of Criminal Court Judge L. A. Grayson Tuesday. She said a boy in her school had warts all over him and that two nurses at Tampa General Hospital had informed her Grayson had occult powers—that all he had to do was look at the warts and they would disappear. The judge sent word to the principal that he had such powers. "I wouldn't be doing such a thing now," I'd be out removing warts.

Macmillan Talks On Economic Affairs

OTTAWA (AP) — Economic affairs, including the idea of a new international credit organization, were discussed by British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan Tuesday in a half-hour meeting with the Canadian Cabinet. Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, speaking to newsmen following the closed meeting, said the British leader gave a general review of the economic situation. He did not elaborate on the nature of Macmillan's remarks concerning a new credit organization.

Writer Rebuked For Method Of Praise

WARSAW (AP) — The Polish Communist organ Trybuna Ludu recently rebuked a Polish woman writer for her way of praising Mrs. John F. Kennedy. The newspaper noted that the weekly magazine Swiat will become the model pattern and oracle for women of "the whole civilized world" including "our ladies." Trybuna Lud slapped at the writer, a Mrs. Koszykova, and asked: "Has not Koszykova of Swiat got confused as regards the difference between the development of underpinks countries. There are two pretty good reasons why Ball, despite the size of the job he is doing, may well be one of the "pretty" men in the background. 1. He's pretty quiet anyway. 2. In this administration it's the quiet ones who make the big difference.

Big Engine Given Test

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A massive 1.64 million pounds of thrust was developed recently in a test of the nation's most powerful single-chamber rocket engine. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Tuesday Rocketdyne's F1 liquid propellant rocket engine fired at that level for 13 seconds on April 4. The engine is designed to operate at a thrust level of 1.5 million pounds. This is the same thrust developed by the eight-engine cluster rocket being developed for the Saturn space vehicle. The F1, in turn, may be clustered for the huge Nova space vehicle—still no designed-to provide 8 to 9 million pounds of thrust.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor's family was back together today. The actress and her husband, Eddie Fisher, met her three children at Los Angeles International Airport Tuesday. When they flew in from London. The youngsters are Michael, 8, and Christopher, 5, Miss Taylor's sons by her first husband, Michael Wilding, and Liz's 3 daughter, her third husband, the late Mike Todd.

Racial Quarrel Mars Centennial Session

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — A racial quarrel cast a shadow over the national Civil War Centennial Commission proceedings today.

New Jersey delegates called for removal of the chairman, Maj. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant III (Ret.), for sponsoring a Southern speaker "who grossly insulted" the Negro.

The threat to try to depose the 60-year-old grandson of the famed Union general came at the height of the three-day round of centennial luncheons, banquets, receptions and ceremonies. The firing on Ft. Sumter, first battle of the Civil War 100 years ago, will be re-enacted tonight.

The first oratorical bomb in the verbal civil war was exploded unexpectedly by Charleston-born Ashley Halsey, an associate editor of the Saturday Evening Post.

Halsey's claim that New Jersey practices racial discrimination led to a New Jersey protest at the national commission banquet Tuesday night.

Vice chairman Joseph Dempsey of the New Jersey Centennial Commission said he wanted to ask the national commission "to determine who is responsible for this pathetic mismanagement and ask the President of the United States to remove him."

Grant won applause when he adjourned the banquet without yielding the floor to the New Jersey chairman, Donald Flamm.

Dempsey said the protest would be put in a formal resolution to the commission's business session today.

Chairman John May of the Southern Centennial Commission came to Grant's defense saying, "I would oppose any effort to get his resignation. I think that he has dedicated his efforts to making this a commemorative event rather than a political one."

The New Jersey delegation, whose Negro member caused President Kennedy to order national sessions held at the integrated Charleston naval base, charged earlier "there is ample evidence" that Grant should not be running the program of the congressionally created national commission.

The Negro is Madeline A. Williams, whose husband is New Jersey state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

New Jersey members began bristling when Halsey charged at a Southern centennial luncheon that New Jersey was "schizophrenic and discriminatory in its racial relations." Halsey said the northern state discriminated in housing and hotels.

5 Councilmen Are Elected In Galveston

GALVESTON (AP)—Five council members were elected in Tuesday's municipal election. There will be runoff for two other seats.

Those elected and their votes are Edward Schreiber 6,829, Mrs. Harris-Kropfer 6,668, Theodore Stubbs 6,532, Robert Albright 6,000 and T. A. Waterman 5,965.

Contenders in the May 9 runoff and their totals are T. D. Agnew, Negro businessman 5,088; Andrews Baker 4,323; Ed Harris 3,677 and Gus Loomis 3,648.

The winners will be the first to serve under a new charter substituting a council and city manager for the current mayor-commission form of government.

Losers among 34 candidates on the ballot included former Mayor George Roy Clough, who polled 1,812 votes. Clough is involved in two libel suits over statements attributed to him in campaign broadcasts.

Walter Bourke, Jr., city police and fire commissioner who sued Clough for $200,000 received 1,500 votes. Police Chief O. E. Henon, who seeks $100,000 in the suit against Clough.

No Official Word, Says Mrs. Powers

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—The wife of imprisoned U.S. Senator Francis Powers said today that reports of her husband's impending release and decision to remain in the Soviet Union were all a misunderstanding.

"I have heard nothing officially. I haven't heard one word that would lead me to believe such a thing," said Mrs. Powers in a telephone interview from her mother's home here.

The London Daily Mail said Tuesday that Powers would be freed from a Soviet prison May 1—exactly a year after his reconnaissance plane was shot down over the Soviet Union.

Mrs. Powers conceded that she had talked with a reporter from the Mail, but denied telling him that her husband was to be released.

"I have read that in some instances a prisoner in Russia is permitted to have his family join him when he is transferred from prison to a work camp," she said. "As you know, Gary's original sentence was three years for espionage—seven years in a work camp."

"Neither my husband nor I have ever been notified whether he is in the classification eligible for the work camp. And even if he were, he would still have to serve two more years in prison before I could join him."

Mrs. Powers described her husband as being "an all American as you or I. He has no bitterness for the work camp. He has resigned himself to the fact that he has 10 years to serve, perhaps less with time off for good behavior. He constantly expresses a desire to return to the United States with me."

Mrs. Powers said her latest letter from her husband was dated March 29. She said he was not permitted to say what he was doing in the Vladimire prison near Moscow.

Coming, Calif., is known as "Olive Town," because of its extensive olive groves.

Sea Water Conversion Tests Start

FREESPORT, Tex. (AP)—Workmen started final equipment tests Tuesday at the government's new $1.5-million plant for turning sea water into fresh water.

Charles MacGowan, director of the U.S. Office of Saline Water, and Allen Brown, engineer in charge of saline water conversion projects, inspected the Freesport facility and found it ready for operation.

The Freesport plant is the first of five the government is building to demonstrate the feasibility of converting saline water into fresh water. Each plant will use a different process.

It probably will be several days before the first reclaimed water trickles from distilling tanks. There are 12 distillation tanks, 10 to 18 feet in diameter and 38 feet tall, linked in a series.

Officials said most of the two months allowed the Chicago Bridge & Iron Co. to fulfill contract requirements probably will elapse before the plant hits its full capacity of one million gallons of fresh water a day.

Workers started sending fresh water through the process cycles first. They will switch to sea water piped two miles from the Gulf of Mexico and gradually step up the output.

Engineers estimate it will cost $1 to distill each 1,000 gallons of fresh water. Plants of greater capacity may cut the cost in half, experts figure. Some cities now pay more than 50 cents per 1,000 gallons for water supplies from conventional sources.

The city of Freesport has contracted to buy one-half the facility's daily output for 20 cents per 1,000 gallons and Dow Chemical Co. here the rest at 30 cents per 1,000.

When government processes for converting sea water are fully developed, MacGowan said they will be made available to industries and government agencies under royalty agreements.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITORS NOTE—Mrs. Vella Shifflett, Snyder High School Spanish teacher and state sponsor of the Pan American Student Forum of Texas, has been asked to write a letter to the Pan Am Times, the PASF newspaper, suggesting ways of improving the effectiveness of the Pan American Student Forum. Since this is Pan American Week, Mrs. Shifflett made a copy of her letter available to the Daily News, which we are happy to publish at this time.

To The Pan Am Times:

As State Sponsor for the 1961-62 school year, and realizing the extreme importance of better relations with all the other countries in our hemisphere, I am deeply concerned with the improvement of our effectiveness in carrying out the aims and purposes of the Pan American Student Forum of the State of Texas.

A few days ago I watched a television interview of people in different countries concerning the way they feel towards the United States. I was disturbed, yet not surprised, with the remarks of a man and woman interviewed in Latin America. The man did not like the attitude of superiority that Americans have. He said that even though Americans have been in Venezuela 10 years, they do not and will not mix socially with the people of that country, nor will they try to speak Spanish. The woman, who was interviewed in another Latin American country, said she would like to come to the United States to see how Latin Americans are treated here.

Here lies the key to better relations within our hemisphere. The Latin American people are a very proud people. They do not feel inferior to anyone.

The communists after them equally, while Americans look down upon them. It is any wonder many have become communists, and that many others are undecided? The only thing that has kept a majority of the people in Latin America from embracing communism is their religion. We do not know how long their faith will remain stronger than their desire for equality. They see that in our country, which is supposed to be an example of democracy at its highest, Americans of Latin ancestry are not treated as equals to the people of other European descent.

We would all like to see President Kennedy's Peace Corps achieve its noble purpose. Regardless of how hard these dedicated people work in Latin American countries, if we do not practice what we preach, here at home, their work will be in vain.

As your state sponsor, I suggest very strongly that we become a "Pan American Home Corps" and live Pan Americanism here at home. By so doing, we will be doing our share in helping our president establish lasting, truly friendly relations with our neighbors to the south.

You might ask what you may do as individuals. My answer is to live Pan Americanism. Remember that even a careless remark may undo some of the good work you are trying to do.

Not too long ago at a baseball game, when a Latin American boy from another town made a home run, someone in the crowd shouted, "Send that setback back to Mexico." Whether that was said as a result of prejudice, or whether it was said as a joke, no one knew. Remarks like that get back to the people of Latin American countries and are used as propaganda against us by the communists.

Last year some of my students wrote letters to the editor of the Snyder Daily News on Pan American Week. The credit for this should all go to them, because it was their idea, in order to let people know the importance of Pan Americanism. The response from the citizens of our country was very gratifying.

If any of you have any suggestions for a more effective PASF be sure and write to me.

Vella Shifflett.

Notaries To Re-Qualify

Secretary of State Frank Lake has announced that all qualified Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term ending June 1, 1963, must re-qualify by the payment of the required fee and the filing of a new oath and bond with the county clerk of his residence between June 1, 1961, and June 10, 1961.

Lake emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for re-appointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires that the county clerks approve notary bonds.

Any person not now a Notary Public who desires appointment should apply to his county clerk between April 1 and May 20. Application during this period will assure prompt attention before the rush procedure of re-appointing present Notaries.

The Secretary of State further pointed out that each person applying for a commission as a Notary Public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. The exact name and permanent address of the applicant must be furnished the county clerk.

Visitors Are Flagged Down

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Robert Murch, in a burst of patriotism, hoisted his American flag before he went to work Tuesday.

After he left, Mrs. Murch went about preparing for a luncheon for 80 guests.

By coincidence the St. Louis Priory Mother's Club had scheduled a tour of certain homes in St. Louis county and had marked each house to be visited with an American flag.

Much to Mrs. Murch's chagrin, swarms of women began trooping through her house. Each time she opened the door in poured more guests, some invited, most not.

Police, noticing the ever-increasing crowd helpfully erected "no parking signs."

Mrs. Murch finally got matters straightened out. Murch promised that from now on, he will check out the neighborhood program before he raises the flag.

Fluvanna Girl's Poem Is Accepted

FLUVANNA — A poem by Janie Gleghorn, 15-year-old freshman in Fluvanna High School, has been accepted by publication by the National High School Poetry Association.

Notice of the acceptance was received this week, and the poem titled "Unexplainable Life," will be published in the association's anthology this spring.

Miss Gleghorn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gleghorn of Fluvanna.

Kennedy Is Urged To Visit Rome

WASHINGTON (AP) — Italy Tuesday urged President Kennedy to visit Rome if he expands his forthcoming trip to Paris to any other European capitals.

The Italian ambassador, Manlio Brosio, said after a visit with Kennedy that he had urged him to visit the Italian capital. He said Kennedy had made no decision as to visiting capitals other than Paris.

Leader Says Reason, Discipline Triumph

SAYON, South Viet Nam — President Ngo Dinh Diem said Tuesday that "reason and discipline have triumphed" in the election that won him another five-year term.

Diem said the Communist Viet Nam leadership had threatened to force a coup.

In a statement read to newsmen gathered at his palace, the 59-year-old leader warned that his Communist threatened nation faces tough times.

MR. AND MRS. A. M. LINDSEY

Breezy Bobs For Behind The Wheel

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Elegant coiffures are not for wearing in sports cars, says hairdresser Michel Kazan.

"The only time an elegant hairdo has a proper setting in a car is when a woman is chauffeur driven," he explains. "The proper coiffure for driving, or riding in a sports car is one that has an elegance of disarrangement; a hairdo that can look tousled but may be put back in place attractively with the fingers after the drive."

Michel himself is a sports car enthusiast, and he feels our current interest in speed has given us a new perspective on fashion. "The sports coiff should look as if it can be arranged quickly to coincide with the speed picture," he points out, "otherwise you are out of step."

Hair that is exposed to the elements needs protection, he says. And he advises women sports car enthusiasts to have lubricating hair treatments. These will act as protective coating against summer sun while riding, to avoid discoloration particularly of bleached and touched-up hair.

A color rinse is one of the best shields against the sun's rays, Michel advises. "It protects the hair just as a little glove protects the hand."

Keep a hairbrush in the car and use it as much as possible, he suggests, and don't forget that frequent shampoos are necessary to keep the scalp clean.

"Because hair grows faster during the summer months, it should be cut no matter what its length," Michel says. This helps dispose of dead and split ends.

"The shape and cut of your summer coiffure is important to avoid an untidy appearance."

Central P-TA Honors Herman Trigg With Life Program

The Central Elementary Parent-Teachers Association met Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the school auditorium for a most enjoyable evening.

Prior to the "This Is A Life" program, Mrs. Bill Butler, president conducted a short business session.

Approximately 250 persons sat in suspense as the part fiction, part truth, based on facts, fiction and imagination was disclosed, naming the story subject.

The curtain raised and a spotlight shone on Mark Adams beating drums and tooting a horn while the master of ceremonies, Bill Watson started unveiling the mystery.

"Once in the dear dead days beyond recall in the vicinity of Dunn, Tex., a sandy haired boy was born into the home of a country doctor and his pretty red-headed wife. As he grew, he began to show interest in music. He would beat on his drums, play horns of all sorts and practice leading the band to the old family vicrola. He also showed avid-interests in sports, especially football and baseball, and a great love of animals.

"By the time this fellow had gone through grade school, grammar school and now in high school, his interests remained the same. These two loves of his life were to gain him a scholarship in Daniel Baker College in Brownwood, and later to graduate from Howard Payne College of the same city. Of course, the athletic directors of West Texas Colleges had their eye on him when he made a victorious touchdown over Sweetwater. But the colleges in Brownwood, polished this gentleman up, and set him out to set the world on fire with music... as high school band director."

Mr. Watson went through the various phases of Mr. Herman Trigg's life and up to the present day as principal of Central Elementary. Kathleen Mott played the part of Eula Perle Ferguson, one of Mr. Trigg's pianists in his band. She presented musical and vocal selections. Wayne Kennedy was Dr. Spencer, a close friend, who delivered the Trigg's daughter, Sara Beth, while they resided in Brownwood.

Bred Boren a former classmate of Mr. Trigg, reminisced some of their younger days. Georgia Bolen, a former teacher of his back in 1923; Thurman Higgins, a student in Trigg's first band; and Roy Lee Ford, a former student now in the teaching profession.

Mrs. Trigg (Sallie) was presented a charm bracelet depicting moments of her life with Herman. Mr. Trigg was presented a movie of the evening reunion, complete with sound.

A coffee social was held following the program.

Garbage Hauler

The average homemaker carries out around one thousand pounds of garbage a year. While that is not enough to qualify her for membership in a union, it is a considerable job. The automatic disposer not only removes the unpleasantness of the task, but it also eliminates the job of sanitizing garbage containers and constant trips in and out of the house in all kinds of weather. Models of the disposer are available that utilize bottled gas (liquefied petroleum) as well as natural gas.

The Mexican yam is important to pharmaceutical firms. It is a source of diosgenin, which yields cortisone as well as other hormones and steroids used in treating rheumatic diseases and some forms of cancer.

Richard Rodgers Still Doing Well, As Is Entire Family

BY INEZ ROBB

Luncheon with Richard Rodgers is like luncheon with a particularly pleasant, animated old shoe.

Before the composer starts singing, I hasten to add that in addition to being mighty comfortable to be with, he affords an added bonus of lively, far-ranging conversation. Perish the thought that I should enjoy luncheon with him solely because he can afford to take a gal to the most expensive restaurant in town.

Let me say at this point I have been shy of Mr. Rodgers ever since a hideous moment when I introduced him to friends as "Mr. Richardson." Sensing that I was praying to drop dead instantly, he quickly said, "Never mind. Most people call me Mr. Hammerstein."

Before we settled down to discuss what he has been doing since the death of his partner and dear friend, the poetic and brilliant lyricist, Oscar Hammerstein II, with whom he wrought such Broadway milestones as "Oklahoma," "South Pacific," "The King and I," and the current "Sound of Music," we polished off any number of other topics.

For instance, there is his wife, almost 31 years, Dorothy, the only woman who ever checked into the Ritz Hotel in Boston with a sewing machine.

"We were probably trying out a new show in Boston," her admiring husband recalls, "and she was probably in the midst of making me some lounge shirts. She makes all my lounge shirts; perfectly beautiful ones out of raw silk. She makes my bedroom slippers, too, and when she saw that world War II was inevitable, she knew there'd be a great shortage of domestic help, so she went out and learned to be a chef.

Honestly, I ought to forget Dick Rodgers and concentrate on Dorothy. He really doesn't have to work. Dorothy keeps on inventing and patenting household gadgets that sell like maple syrup. And she keeps raking in the loot.

"She's the all-purpose wife," Rodgers said, purring with contentment. Then there are his daughters, Mary Rodgers, Beatrice (composer of "Once Upon a Mattress"), and Linda Rodgers Melnick, who has collaborated with him since a number of successful musical ventures, including both songs for children and for Mary Martin.

Next, there are four highly satisfactory grandchildren, especially the small one whom Grandma Rodgers took to the ice show and to whom she said, when the opening number was skated to a Rodgers melody, "Grandpa wrote that."

"How do you know?" asked the skeptic.

What is a conversation without art? The Rodgerses collect contemporary paintings "because," as the composer said, "we discovered that only museum and Henry Ford can buy the French impressionists today."

"We've got some beauties!" he said in speaking of two Rodgers collections of contemporary art.

"I love the dining room special—'It's nutty, just nutty.'"

And so, by fresh strawberry and strawberry cream-licious, we got down to the business of the day: What and how is Richard Rodgers doing today? How is he managing without his long-time partner, Hammerstein.

Well, he misses Oscar like a right arm. But, Rodgers said, he

Success May Be Measured In Many Ways

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Are you a success?

There are many ways to measure success, but the changes are that you've done pretty well in life—at least in the eyes of your neighbors.

You haven't been living at a rate of only $1,000 a year over your income for the last five years, and your credit is still good.

Your lawn is the only one on the block without crab grass.

The boss, instead of pushing a buzzer when he wants you, strolls out to your desk to ask advice.

The barber can tell you in complete honesty, "Nope, it isn't getting any thinner on top."

None of your children has been sent to reform school.

All your brothers-in-law have steady jobs.

You can play pool instead of golf and still keep your standing in the community.

Some men have one more bathroom than it does bedrooms—and the garage has a door that opens automatically.

Both the minister and the postman call you by your first name, but the bank president addresses you as "mister" with a note of firm respect.

The family dog is too old to have any more pups, and the family cat is still too young to have kittens.

Your wife won't let you buy her a fur coat for fear it would make more than your medical costs. She trusts you absolutely—but still gets a bit upset if you talk more than 10 minutes to a strange blonde at a party.

A letter arrives from the Internal Revenue Service, and when you fearfully open it you find inside a message congratulating you on the detailed accuracy of your last income tax return.

You are able to take martinis or leave them alone, and you prove it—by letting them alone.

In any given year your church and charitable contributions total more than your medical costs.

You weigh no more than 10 pounds above what you tipped the scales in college.

The doctor envies you because he's on a diet—and you can still eat anything you want to.

You don't have to worry about your job at the office. Nobody else wants it.

You will bend over—knees stiff—and touch the ground 15 times without puffing or bragging on some days.

You are reconciled to the fact that the world can endure without you, but if you did go unexpectedly, some hearts would be left sadder.

Bashful Bridegroom Still Hiding Out

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—A full-scale search is under way for a bashful bridegroom who has been hiding out near the Vancouver International Airport for two weeks.

Sought by ground searchers, helicopters and tracking dogs is Boyo, a poodle dog valued at $1,000 who escaped his crate after being flown here from England. He has been spotted several times near the airport but has managed to elude his pursuers.

If Boyo isn't found soon a replacement will have to be found for his jilted bride, said Claire Davidson, the dog's new owner.

"The first litter we expected has already been sold," she said.

The Dalles, a city in Oregon, derives its name from the French word for "flagstones."

OUT BY A STEP—Mike Moffett is thrown out at first on a close play during yesterday's stormy 23-9 Tiger win over Levelland, as he holds onto his hat in an attempt to keep it from orbiting. Tigers Triumph By Wind-Tossed 23-9

By Jerry Jackson
News Sports Editor
What it was was baseball. Wild, wacky, and woefully windy, but baseball nevertheless. It all happened on the Towle Park diamond here yesterday, with Snyder coming out on top by a top heavy 23-9 at the expense of the Lobos from Levelland High.

By virtue of the win the Bengals topped their non-district tabulation to 15-8 and earned for Freddy Miller—who went all the way on the hill for Snyder—his eighth victory of the year as against a pair of losses. The Tigers have one other game in Levelland Saturday prior to the start of 33A family competition Tuesday in Colorado City.

A strong wind blowing in from behind the plate made it a day for the hitters, and both teams took advantage of the situation by fattening up their respective batting averages. The Tigers applied the hickory for a grand total of 19 base hits—including five doubles and a headoff third inning homer by Ronnie Wylie—while Levelland was busy rapping out 15 safeties of their own, among them three two-baggers and a homer by Jimmy Miller.

The visitors teed off on Miller in one quick hurry as the game started, as the first two men to face him singled sharply, then came in ahead of teammate Miller, who lefted the aforementioned round-trip blast to left center.

Snyder countered with one of its own in the home half of the first, as Spencer Dyer dropped a Texas League single into short left, stole second, and romped in as Weldon Ware sliced a single between second and first.

Snyder batted around in three different innings, the first such feat being the second when ten batsmen strode to the platter to produce five runs. Bennie Greenfield led off by walking and scored all the way from first when Miller slapped a blistering liner past short that rolled all the way to the fence for a double. Dyer and Mike Moffett walked to load the bases, and Ware lotted a pop fly to center that fell in for a double to score both Miller and Dyer.

Charlie Gladson lined a single to left to bring in Moffett and Ware with the final two tabs of the frame.

Levelland came back with three of its own in the third to go temporarily in front by a run on the strength of consecutive singles by Jimmy Miller, Earl Dunn, and Ronald Culpepper, and a double to left by Jimmy Harris, the eventual losing hurler.

The Tigers knotted the count in their half of the frame, however, on Wylie's solo homer, then tallied two in the fourth to go ahead for good. Those two were accomplished on singles by Ware and Greenfield and a pair of folding bobbles as lent the occasion by the Lobos.

Snyder built up to a crescendo in the fifth and sixth innings, scoring 8 and 6 runs, respectively, in those two cantos.

Singles by Dyer, Free and Wylie, plus walks as issued to Moffett, Ware and Jerry Franks and two more Lobo flinging miscues told the story in the fifth. Then in the sixth doubles on the part of Ware, Dyer and Moffett, aided by one-basers of the bats of Gladson, Wylie and Free combined to give the local nine its final tallies.

Levelland, down but not out, came back to score its last three runs in the seventh, as Culpepper doubled, Harris got on via Tiger miff, Ronnie Simpson doubled, and brother Robert Simpson skied a sacrifice fly to center.

Celts Ticked To Death About It All

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP)—The old pro Boston Celtics—scholastic happy and professionally proud—today reign from the high position they have held for three years, champions of the National Basketball Association.

"We're fabulous," Coach Red Auerbach beamed at his champions after their 121-112 victory over St. Louis Tuesday night eliminated the gallant Hawks four games to one in the best of seven final playoff.

"We're the greatest," Auerbach shouted into the confusion of the steaming, crowded dressing room. "The 1961 Boston Celtics are the greatest ever. There was never anyone like us."

As usual, it was a team effort. But as usual, it was keyed by the great Bill Russell and the incomparable Bob Cousy.

Russell, the 6-foot-7 post man and the league's most valuable player, scored 30 points—22 of them in the first half as Boston struggled to a 62-61 intermission—and hauled down 38 rebounds.

Cousy, the veteran backcourt man who wears the label "Mr. Basketball," scored 18 points, 13 of them in Boston's third-quarter burst that broke open the game, and contributed 12 assists.

The Cozy, who played 42 minutes on the dead run in Boston's lung-straining fast break, collapsed after the game and took no part in the victory celebration.

"Russell was fantastic," St. Louis Coach Paul Seymour said. "He kept them alive in that first half. He gave them life. Thirty-eight rebounds. And then that third quarter. That did it."

The third-quarter spurt, in which Boston outscored St. Louis 17-23, gave the Celtics a 15-point lead and apparently put it out of reach. But the Hawks came clawing back.

"Neale Fraser, Rod Laver, and Roy Emerson, Australia's Davis Cup teammates, swept the first round Tuesday without losing a set.

AUSTIN (AP)—Slow-healing injuries will keep two University of Texas hurlers out of the Dallas Invitation Track Meet Friday, Coach Clyde Littlefield said.

Ray Cunningham and Rex Wilson have been out with muscle injuries since the Border Olympics.

Randy Curson, a relay team member, also will miss the meet. He was injured in the San Angelo Relays and aggravated the injury in the Texas Relays last week. Larry Jones or Shelby Sharpe will replace Curson.

CARDS TO DEFEND TITLE

16-B Track Meet Here Tomorrow

Hermleigh's Cardinals, leading heavily on the fleet feet of speedster Wallace Wall, will be trying to outrun a strong field of ranking contenders here tomorrow on the Tiger Stadium oval, as they embark on the 16-B district meet track and field competition in defense of their title as won last year.

The cards won by a thread last year, as they notched a total of 136 1/2 points to runner-up Lorraine's 133 1/3. Ira's Bulldogs finished a strong third with 112 5/8, while Westbrook and Fluvanna trailed with 25 and 19, respectively.

Donnell Eubank, Ira's "kick-off" all-arounder who led with Hermleigh's Mickey Winter for top individual honors last year with 35 points, will be back to bolster the Bulldogs in their aspirations. Winter is gone by way of graduation.

Wall, who has kept the Red-birds high up in contention this season, is a strong and fierce competitor, and clocked a wind-aided 9.8 in the century last week in the Rochester Meet, a new record. He has consistently topped off 10.0 readings in the event and will be favored in that running as a result.

Preliminaries in the running events and several finals in the field events will be unrec'd tomorrow morning, with the bulk of the finals slated for the afternoon. Junior high and grade school action will also be held in conjunction with the high school phase of the meet.

The top two qualifiers in each high school event will gain berths in the regional meet, which is to be held later in the month.

Robert Ryan of Ira is director of tomorrow's district meet, with D-V-Marcum of Snyder serving as official starter.

The high school schedule of events follows, along with the existing records in each of the areas of play.

Ramos Blanks Proud Yanks

By ED WIKES
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pedro Ramos, who led the league in games lost last season, and Eli Grba, who set short on victories as he is on vowels, have turned the American League upside down right at the start.

Ramos, a curve-balling Cuban, stopped the pennant-favored New York Yankees cold in their season opener Tuesday, blanking the defending champs on three singles as the Minnesota Twins made their debut with a 6-0 victory at Yankee Stadium.

Grba, one of those $75,000 picks Los Angeles made in the expansion process, tripped up Baltimore's hopeful Orioles 7-2 with a six-hitter as the Angels joined the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland, Kansas City and the Twins in a five-way tie for the first day lead. The Yanks and Orioles -1-2 selections in the pennant picks, were dumped into the expanded second division.

Cleveland took off a running with a 9-5 decision at Detroit, and Kansas City smacked the Boston Red Sox 5-2. The White Sox and Washington, who opened Monday, were idle.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Philadelphia 6-2 in the lone night game after the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates had edged San Francisco 3-7 and the St. Louis Cardinals had beaten Milwaukee 2-1 in 10 innings. Cincinnati rapped Chicago's Cubs 2-1.

Ramos, who lost 18 And won but 11 last season, walked just one man and struck out five while putting away the second three-out hitting of his career and the 17th opening day shutout suffered by the Yankees in eight years. The right-handed veteran, also lined a two-run single off loser Whitey Ford in the seventh, after Bob Allison's inning-opening home run had ended the stubby southpaw's bid to shut out the Twins.

Grba, never a winner against the Orioles in two seasons with the Yankees, squared his major league record at 9-9 after getting all the backing he needed from Ted Kluszewski. Big Klu walked a pair and strove in five runs as the Angels completed three runs in the first and four in the second against loser Milt Pappas.

Big 7 Is Difference

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Four St. Mary's runs in the seventh inning erased a 6-4 Trinity lead and the 7-Rattlers won their non-conference 4 baseball game 9-4 Tuesday.

Why is the Ford Galaxie head and shoulders above all the imitators?

Because it's beautifully built to take care of itself!

Frankly, we're tickled to see so many other cars trying to latch on to the styling trend started by Galaxie. But they can't copy that Thunderbird roofline—any more than they can match Galaxie's Thunderbird luxury feel handling.

What's more, Galaxie is the fine car built to cut your operating costs—by being beautifully built to take care of itself! For example, you can go 30,000 miles without a lubrication. And when you compare price, you find that Galaxie costs several hundred dollars less than some cars that give you less. Challenging statement? We're here to prove it—today.

- Here's how the '61 Ford takes care of itself:
- Lubricates itself—You go 30,000 miles between oil changes. Lubrication costs only about $4.50 and takes about 10 minutes.
- Clean its own oil—You go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter. It filters out dirt and sludge.
- Adjusts its

Welch Says Reds Become Ministers

By TED J. MCKENNA
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, says "Protestant ministers do not become Communists—they become Communist ministers."

He held a capacity audience of 6,000 at the Shrine Auditorium Tuesday night that Communists and their sympathizers are training the Protestant ministry because it is the last place where Americans would expect to find them.

"There are about 200,000 ministers, and only about 7,000 of them could be called 'communists,'" he added.

"Nobody is accusing the other 97 per cent of anything except the gullibility and apathy with which Americans as a whole are afflicted."

He defined a "comsymp" as a "Communist or a sympathizer with Communist purposes."

About 25 persons picketed the auditorium, but there was no violence. The meeting was sponsored by the Freedom Club of the Los Angeles First Congregational church. The John Birch Society, which describes itself as a militantly anti-Communist organization, is named after an American intelligence officer killed by Chinese Communists 10 days after World War II ended.

Kennedy's Choice Of Mann Draws Praise

AUSTIN (AP)—President Kennedy's choice of Thomas Mann of Laredo as ambassador to Mexico was warmly applauded today by the vice president of the International Good Neighbor Council.

Ricardo Orozco said Mann's selection "is the best choice President Kennedy could make—a Texan who is familiar with our country and its people, who speaks our language."

Orozco, owner of several hotels in southern Mexico, is here for a meeting of the Good Neighbor Council.

Mayor and Mrs. John H. Harms will be guests of the Church at the dinner, along with a number of other local citizens.

Out of town guests will include the Rev. and Mrs. Donald N. Humphreys of Big Spring and the Rev. and Mrs. Alan B. Conley of Colorado City.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the dinner is composed of Harland Birdwell, Mrs. Hugh Boren, Jr., Mrs. Sterling Price, W. C. Hart, and Bob A. McAllister.

Texas GOP Likely To Spurn Nixon's Offer To Campaign

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Texas Republicans are reported to have decided to go down to the wire with Sen. Barry Goldwater, Ariz., as the only out-of-state candidate for Texas GOP Senate candidate John Tower.

Unless the signals are changed, Sen. William Blaker in a June 3 runoff. Both list themselves as conservatives.

Republican hopes that Tower would benefit by a stay-at-home campaign. Goldwater, a spokesman for conservative Republicans, said he was informed he would be the only out-of-state speaker for Tower.

"Being from the West, I always think it is a mistake to import campaigners from other states in a senatorial contest," he said.

BISHOP JOSEPH M. HARTE

FOR ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Bishop Harte To Speak At Banquet

Members of St. John's Episcopal Church will be hosts tonight at 7:30 at a banquet to be held at the Snyder Country Club to initiate their Church Building Fund Campaign.

Approximately 100 communicants and their guests will hear the Right Rev. Joseph Meakin Harte, D. D., S. T. D., Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Dallas, give the principal address of the evening.

Bishop Harte, who is a speaker of national reputation in the Episcopal Church, is a graduate of Washington & Jefferson College in Washington, Pa., receiving his Doctor of Divinity degree there in 1954, and of General Theological Seminary in New York, N. Y., where he received his Doctor of Sacred Theology degree in 1955. He was made Deacon in April, 1939, and was Ordained Priest in December, 1939, and was Consecrated as Suffragan Bishop of Dallas on June 29, 1954. Bishop Harte is the National Vice President of the American Church Union, and is Trustee of the University of the South in Seawane, Tenn. Bishop Harte is the author of "Some Sources of Common Prayer," "The Language of the Book of Common Prayer," "The Title Page of the Book of Common Prayer," and "The Church's Name."

Plans call for a church and sanctuary to be added to the existing building, with long range plans for additional class room facilities to be added later. The church had been offered an interest free, long term loan from the Diocesan Revolving Loan Fund for the building program, and the balance is to be financed through a budget expansion program.

Solons Ready Shrimp Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressmen from Gulf Coast states were ready today to offer bills for controlling imports of shrimp.

In the group promising to introduce these identical measures for this purpose were Sens. Russell Long, D-La., George Smithers, D-Fla., and Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., and Reps. Hale Boggs, D-La., and Edwin Willis, D-La.

Their proposal would permit duty-free ports of unprocessed shrimp matching in amount the total imports of processed and unprocessed shrimp last year. It would make processed shrimp subject to a 35 per cent ad valorem duty, with the minimum charge 35 cents a pound.

The measure, the congressmen said in a statement, "is not intended to effect a cutback in United States imports of shrimp but simply to provide controls to runaway importations that have depressed prices beyond the point where producers can profitably operate."

Racial Quarrel Mars Centennial Session

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — A racial quarrel cast a shadow over national Civil War Centennial Commission proceedings today.

New Jersey delegates called for removal of the chairman, Maj. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant III (Ret.), for sponsoring a Southern speaker "who grossly insulted us."

The threat to try to depose the 80-year-old grandson of the famed Union general came at the height of the three-day round of centennial luncheons, banquets, receptions and ceremonies.

The firing on Ft. Sumter, first battle of the Civil War 100 years ago, will be re-enacted tonight.

The first oratorical bomb in the verbal civil war was exploded unexpectedly by Charleston-born Ashley Halsey, an associate editor of the Saturday Evening Post.

Halsey's claim that New Jersey practices racial discrimination led to a New Jersey protest at the national commission's banquet Tuesday night.

Vice chairman Joseph Dempsey of the New Jersey Centennial Commission said he wanted to ask the national commission "to determine who is responsible for this pathetic mismanagement and ask the President to better the United States to remove him."

Grant won applause when he yielded the floor to the New Jersey chairman, Donald Flannery. Dempsey said the protest would be put in a formal resolution to the commission's business session today.

Chairman John May of the South Carolina Confederate Centennial commission came to Grant's defense saying, "I would oppose any effort to get his resignation. I think that he has dedicated his efforts to making this a commemorative event, rather than a political one."

The New Jersey delegation, whose Negro member caused President Kennedy to order a national session held at the integrated Charleston naval base, charged earlier "there is ample evidence" that Grant should not be "turning the program of the congressionally created national commission."

The Negro is Madeline A. Williams, whose husband is New Jersey state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

New Jersey members began bristling when Halsey charged at a Southern centennial luncheon that New Jersey was "schizophrenic and discriminatory in its racial relations." Halsey said the northern state discriminated in housing and hotels.

5 Councilmen Are Elected In Galveston

GALVESTON (AP)—Five council members were elected in Tuesday's municipal election. There will be runoff for two other seats.

Those elected and their votes are Edward Schroeder 4,829, Mrs. Harris Kemper 6,566, Theodora Stubbs 6,688, Howard Wright 4,006, and T. A. Waterman 5,965.

The winners will be the first to serve under a new charter substituting a council and city manager for the current mayor-commissioner form of government.

Losers among 34 candidates on the ballot included former Mayor George Roy Clough, who polled 1,812 votes. Clough is involved in two libel suits over statements attributed to him in campaign broadcasts.

Walter Rouse Jr., city police and fire commissioner who sued Clough for $200,000 received 1,590 votes. Police Chief O. E. Henson seeks $100,000 in the other suit against Clough.

No Official Word, Says Mrs. Powers

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—The wife of imprisoned U2 pilot Gary Francis Powers said today that reports of her husband's impending release and decision to remain in the Soviet Union "were all a misunderstanding."

Confidants in the May 9 runoff and their totals are T. D. Armstrong, Negro businessman, 5,966; Andrews, Baker 4,323; Ed Harris 3,677 and Gus Loomis 3,648.

original sentence was three years in prison and seven years in a work camp.

"Neither my husband nor I have ever been notified whether he is in the classification eligible for the work camp. And even if he were, he would still have to serve two more years in prison before I could join him."

Mrs. Powers described her husband as being "as all American as you or I. He has no bitterness toward the United States. He has resigned himself to the fact that he has 10 years to serve, perhaps less with time off for good behavior. He constantly expresses a desire to return to the United States with me."

Mrs. Powers said her latest letter from her husband was dated March 28. She said he was not permitted to say what he was doing in the Vladimir prison near Moscow.

Sea Water Conversion Tests Start

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP)—Workers started final equipment tests Tuesday at the government's new $1.5 million plant for turning sea water into fresh water.

Charles MacGowan, director of the U.S. Office of Saline Water, and Allen Cywin, engineer in charge of saline water conversion projects, inspected the Freeport facility and found it ready for operation.

The Freeport plant is the first of five the government is building to demonstrate the feasibility of converting saline water into fresh water. Each plant will use a different process.

It probably will be several days before the first reclaimed water trickles from distilling units. There are 12 distillation tanks, 10 to 18 feet in diameter and 38 feet tall linked in a series.

Officials said most of the two months allowed to fulfill contract requirements probably will elapse before the plant hits its full capacity of one million gallons of fresh water a day.

Workers started sending fresh water through the process cycles first. They will switch to sea water piped two miles from the Gulf of Mexico and gradually step up the output.

Engineers estimate it will cost $1 to distill each 1,000 gallons of fresh water. Plants of greater capacity may cut the cost in half, the experts figure. Some cities now pay more than 50 cents per 1,000 gallons for water supplies from conventional sources.

The city of Freeport has contracted to buy one-half the facility's daily output for 20 cents per 1,000 gallons and Dow Chemical Co. here the rest at 30 cents per 1,000.

When government processes for converting sea water are fully developed, MacGowan said they will be made available to industries and government agencies under royalty agreements.

Sellers were Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, who wrote book, lyrics and music, and director Moss Hart. The price was not disclosed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITORS NOTE—Mrs. Vella Shifflett, Snyder High School Spanish teacher and state sponsor of the Pan American Student Forum of Texas, has been asked to write a letter to the Pan Am Times, the PASF newspaper, suggesting ways of improving the effectiveness of the Pan American Student Forum. Since this is Pan American Week, Mrs. Shifflett made a copy of her letter available to the Daily News which we are happy to publish at this time.

To The Pan Am Times:

As State Sponsor for the 1961-62 school year, and realizing the extreme importance of better relations with all the other countries in our hemisphere, I am deeply concerned with the improvement of our effectiveness in carrying out the aims and purposes of the Pan American Student Forum of the State of Texas.

A few days ago I watched a television interview of people in different countries concerning the way they feel towards the United States. I was disturbed, yet not surprised, with the remarks of a man and woman interviewed in Latin America. The man did not like the attitude of superiority that Americans have. He said that even though Americans have been in Venezuela 10 years, they do not and will not mix socially with the people of that country, nor will they try to speak Spanish. The woman, who was interviewed in another Latin American country, said she would like to come to the United States to see how Latin Americans are treated here.

Here lies the key to better relations within our hemisphere. The Latin American people are a very proud people. They do not feel inferior to anyone.

The communists offer them a quality, while Americans look down upon them. Is it any wonder many have become communists, and that many others are undecided? The only thing that has kept a majority of the people in Latin America from embracing communism is their religion. We do not know how long their faith will remain stronger than their desire for equality. They see that in our country, which is supposed to be an example of democracy at its highest, Americans of Latin ancestry are not treated as equals to the people of other European descent.

We would all like to see President Kennedy's Peace Corps achieve its noble purpose. Regardless of how hard these dedicated people work in Latin American countries, if we do not practice what we preach, here at home, their work will be in vain.

As your state sponsor, I suggest very strongly that we become a "Pan American Home Corps," and live Pan Americanism here at home. By so doing, we will be doing our share in helping our president establish lasting, truly friendly relations with our neighbors to the south.

You might ask what you may do as individuals. My answer is to do our part in helping our Pan Americanism. Remember that even a careless remark may undo some of the good work you are trying to do.

Not too long ago at a baseball game, when a Latin American boy from another town made a home run, someone in the crowd shouted, "Send that setback back to Mexico." Whether that was said as a result of prejudice or otherwise, it was said as joke, no one knew. Remarks like that get back to the people of Latin American countries and are used as propaganda against us by the communists.

Last year some of my students wrote letters to the editor of the Snyder Daily News of Pan Americanism. The credit for this should all go to them, because it was their idea; in order to let people know the importance of Pan Americanism. The response from the citizens of our country was very gratifying.

If any of you have any suggestions for a more effective PASF be sure and write to me.

Vella Shifflett.

Notaries To Re-Qualify

Secretary of State Frank Lake has announced that all qualified Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term ending June 1, 1963, must re-qualify by the payment of the required fee and the filing of a new oath and bond with the county clerk of his residence between June 1, 1961, and June 10, 1961.

Lake emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for re-appointment or for commission directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires that the county clerk approve notary bonds.

Any person not now a Notary Public who desires appointment should apply to his county clerk between April 1 and May 20. Application during this period will assure prompt attention before the rush procedure of re-appointing present Notaries.

The Secretary of State further pointed out that each person applying for a commission as a Notary Public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. The exact name and permanent address of the applicant must be furnished the county clerk.

Visitors Are Flagged Down

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Robert Murch, in a burst of patriotism, hoisted his American flag before he went to work Tuesday.

After he left, Mrs. Murch went about preparing for a luncheon for 60 guests.

By coincidence the St. Louis Priory Mother's Club had scheduled a tour of certain homes in St. Louis County and had marked each house to be visited with an American flag.

Much to Mrs. Murch's chagrin, swarms of women began trooping through her house. Each time she opened the door in poured more guests, some invited, most not.

Police, noticing the ever-increasing crowd helpfully erected "no parking signs."

Mrs. Murch finally got matters straightened out. Murch promised that from now on, he will check out the neighborhood program before he raises the flag.

As your state sponsor, I suggest very strongly that we become a "Pan American Home Corps," and live Pan Americanism here at home. By so doing, we will be doing our share in helping our president establish lasting, truly friendly relations with our neighbors to the south.

You might ask what you may do as individuals. My answer is to do our part in helping our Pan Americanism. Remember that even a careless remark may undo some of the good work you are trying to do.

Not too long ago at a baseball game, when a Latin American boy from another town made a home run, someone in the crowd shouted, "Send that setback back to Mexico." Whether that was said as a result of prejudice or otherwise, it was said as joke, no one knew. Remarks like that get back to the people of Latin American countries and are used as propaganda against us by the communists.

Last year some of my students wrote letters to the editor of the Snyder Daily News of Pan Americanism. The credit for this should all go to them, because it was their idea; in order to let people know the importance of Pan Americanism. The response from the citizens of our country was very gratifying.

If any of you have any suggestions for a more effective PASF be sure and write to me.
