East Lubbock Citizens Hold Neighborhood Meeting With City Attorney Last Tuesday

Twenty-seven residents of East Lubbock met in their immediate neighborhood (East 28th Street) and discussed the problems of the caliche pit and landfill dirt operation behind their residents last Tuesday evening. The group discussed, at length, their problems with City Attorney Fred Senter. Prior to that, a group of men had met with the City Council concerning the matter.

Late last week the City of Lubbock filed a suit for injunction to stop a caliche and landfill dirt removal operation in the Manhattan Heights addition.

The suit was filed in Judge William R. Shaver's 140th District Court, naming J.W. Wright, Kenneth Pharr and J.T. Roberson, doing business as Red Roberson Dirt and Paving Contractors, as defendants.

The City's petition alleges the operation is making a sizable pit or hole and stirring up dust, fumes and noise in the neighborhood.

One point brought out in the meeting last week was that the big trucks run fast in the neighborhood and endanger the lives of boys and girls in the Dunbar High School and Wheatley Elementary School area. Aside from this problem, many residents complain of the large amounts of caliche dropped from the trucks in the neighborhood.

The neighborhood group made it clear in their meeting with the city attorney last week that the dirt operation "created a public nuisance in noise, quaking of their homes and dust in houses."

Some householders feel as though as much as $2,000 to $3,000 worth of damage has been caused to their property since the operation of the dirt business began.

The game, scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m., drew a record crowd of 42,150 in 1970.

Murder Charges Filed Against City Man

A Lubbock man, Charles Edward Sanford, 19, of 602 Avenue E, was charged with murder with malice here Monday morning.

Sanders was charged in connection with the fatal shooting last Saturday evening of Jesse Lee Fleming, 29, of Lubbock.

Fleming was dead on arrival at a local hospital after suffering two shotgun wounds in the right side.

According to police, the incident happened in the 700 block of Avenue D.

Rose Backs Off Bond Case Appeal Here

Tuesday of this week, Merle Rose backed off his appeal in a suit against the City of Lubbock. His decision to do so virtually cleared the way for delivery of $7 million in capital improvement bonds.

City manager Bill Blackwell said the bond purchasers, First National Bank of Dallas and associates, will poll other members of the syndicate to determine if they will accept the bonds.

However, due to the suit, the bonds could not be delivered before the deadline date of March 29th. It was understood that the purchasers had 45 days in which they can accept the bonds at their option.

Rose, who is a railroad man, had lost his case against the city when Judge Pat S. Moore ruled March 24th that he had failed to prove the ordinances calling the August 8th election and authorizing the February 11th bond sale were void.

Rose filed notice of appeal in that decision last Friday.

District Judge Howard C. Davidson ordered Tuesday that the Friday notice of appeal be "stricken from such records."

This order came after an attorney for Rose filed a document that Rose "no longer desires to prosecute his appeal."

A Times' reporter contacted Supt. Ed Irons shortly after the ballots were counted Tuesday evening and he said, "We are delighted of the support the entire community has given. This includes the many civic clubs and news media."

Mr. Irons summarized the turnout on Tuesday by Lubbock voters by saying, "it was a total community effort."

The positive vote by Lubbock citizens will make it possible for a five-year plan to be put into effect in upgrade and improve much of the local school system.

Lubbock Voters Approve $5.6 Million School Bonds With Record Vote Tuesday

Lubbockites went to the polls, between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Tuesday, and voted overwhelming for a $5.6 million package for the young people in the Lubbock Public schools.

The record for a school bond vote was set in 1968 when 4,112 votes were cast and the record for any school election was set in last year's board election with 8,556.

Total number of votes cast on Tuesday was 8,265, which is 4,153 more votes than were cast in the last school bond election. Non-property owners voted 5 to 1 while property owners voted 2 to 1, for the measure.

CHAMPION VIKINGS' For the second consecutive year, the fighting Vikings of E.C. Struggs Junior High School have won the Eighth Grade City Basketball Championship. Their season's points per game average was 62.5, and their overall record for the past two years stands at 34-2. Virgil Johnson is coach.

As a result of a special hearing March 5th with an attorney from Washington, D.C., representing the U.S. Department of Justice, District Judge Halbert O. Woodward entered an order this week giving Lubbock schools until September 1 to comply with faculty desegregation.

During the hearing last month, the U.S. Justice Department anticipated an immediate ruling to force faculty desegregation on the basis of federal guidelines patterned after the case of Singleton vs. Jackson, Mississippi, Municipal Separate School District.

In regard to that case, the Supreme Court ruled that each school in a school district should have the same ratio of black to white teachers employed by the district as a whole.

In addition to the order of faculty desegregation, the Lubbock schools were also ordered to submit a plan to the court by June 15 for carrying out the faculty desegregation.

The order states, "As it appears to the court that immediate reassignment of faculty members at this time would be disruptive of the educational program and would certainly not develop the kind of atmosphere necessary to promote harmonious desegregation in the school system, the court will not require absolute compliance with mandate of the Singleton case until September 1971 and the district is hereby ordered to comply by September 1, 1971."

It went on to add, "The district shall file a plan with this court on or before Tuesday, June 15, 1971, stating what steps, including the transfer and hiring of teachers, are to be taken in order to comply with the Singleton decision and giving the ratio of teachers as to race in each school district."

Last August, Judge Woodward ordered secondary school attendance lines redrawn here. In the Singleton case, the Supreme Court ordered the Jackson, Mississippi, schools last year to desegregate faculties on a percentage basis immediately.

Easter

"I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die." John 11: 25-26.

Sunday, April 11th is Easter. Many of us will be going to church wearing our new clothes and the like—and little tots will be thinking about the hiding of eggs and goodies. However, at this time of the year we should remember the significance of Christ's resurrection to the Christian faith.

The whole teaching of Jesus Christ about God and man is in the atmosphere of endless life. Jesus never meant anything else than eternal life when He spoke of life at all. This accounts for the fact that there is very little specific teaching in the gospel concerning the doctrine of immortality, far less than in the dialogues of Plato for instance. There is no sublime conjecture, such as we find in Phaedo. When Jesus speaks of the subject it is as though He assumes that any soul which has found the life in God, already has agless life.

Let us not forget this Easter that the trend is toward death, as the consequence of sin, and has been arrested by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. A second beginning has been made. Christ demonstrated a new harmony, replacing the old that was broken by sin. He demonstrated all this through His faith in the redemptive love and power of God. He was perfectly at one with His Father in Heaven.

The Easter season, let's remember the teachings of Christ. In this time when our country is so filled with problems, it would help us all to remember the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

It's Good To Take A Stand

It's good to take a stand for something you believe in. This is what is being done by the residents of East Lubbock—in the vicinity of East 28th Street and Yellowhouse Canyon. These Lubbock citizens are unhappy over a local dirt and paving contractor who is removing caliche and dirt from behind their homes.

The City of Lubbock has also taken a stand, by filing an injunction to stop the removal operation in the area, and this is also good. The city taking action is how it should be.

These concerned citizens met with City Attorney Fred Senter last week to discuss their position in the case. They had done their homework and did a beautiful job of articulating the problems to the legal "rep" from City Hall.

This neighborhood has begun to move in the right direction in getting down to the "roots" of their neighborhood problem. They are not only concerned about the welfare and property value of their homes, but they have also expressed great concern about the well-being of their youngsters. No group of people, black or white, should be expected to purchase nice homes, maintain these homes and their neighborhood in a nice manner, and expect to raise their children in the area—and then be asked to allow dump trucks and loaders and caliche crushers to operate across the alley from their homes.

The group has presented several points which are valid by anyone's reasoning. The group has not "lost its cool". It's always more healthy to work together at the peace table on problems which involve the community. They are going about the matter as it should be. They have exercised their rights to protect their families, property and dignity.

Let's hope that the action taken by the residents of the East 28th Street area will continue to be shown in our community. We need more citizens of our community to take this type of a stand, and be sure and stand up for what is right, regardless of who or what is involved.

The 27 householders who took this positive stand last week are to be commended for a job well done. Each of them showed courage in their effort to protect their rights as taxpayers.

The West Texas Times endorses your movement. We hope that strong organizational movements will come about—throughout the community—because of this problem and your actions.

We're glad you believe in taking a stand and have the necessary pride in your neighborhood to make that stand stick. Right On!!

Black People Ain't Together

by Virgil Merriweather

In Lubbock, regardless of what age group you rap with, there is always the same old rap.

"Black People ain't together." Well, I've asked myself why a lot of times.

I feel that one of the reasons for this is that the black people of Lubbock try and form a class system among themselves. The very same type of class system which has underdogged our people for years.

If a brother lives in the "flats," dudes who live on Colgate Avenue don't associate with this brother. And it happens like this.

The black man has pulled away from each other with this class system. He has patted himself on the back and told himself that he's doing good for himself because he doesn't associate with anyone that goes to the "Lucky Corner Inn."

I know many of the people who are reading this article are saying, "I know what I've been doing, how can I help the situation?"

There are numerous ways of improving our actions. But it is really up to each person to look at his own actions and decide which of them need alteration.

We need more group activities instead of public dances. We need to do a lot more communicating with each other, rather than just shooting the jive.

If each reader would just be honest, when's the last time you've ever sat down and really held an interesting conversation with a black person?

my views

History Is A Thing of The Past—Which Must Be Remembered!

History is a people's memory—and without a memory man is demoted to the lowest form of animal life. Armed with the knowledge of our past, we can with confidence chart a course for our future. Culture is an indispensable weapon in the freedom struggle. We must take hold of culture and forge the future with the past. We must always remember, "a race of people is like an individual; until it uses its own culture, affirms its own selfhood, develops its own pride, it can never fulfill itself."

Our history and culture were completely destroyed when we were forceable brought to America in chains. And now it is important for us to know that our history did not begin with slavery's scars. We came from Africa, a great continent and a proud and varied people. A land which is the new world and the cradle of civilization.

Somewhere along the way we became the Proposed Recreation Area

This was a proposed recreational area for the boys and girls of East Lubbock several years ago. Several thousand dollars worth of playground equipment was placed in the area for the young people to play volley ball, soft ball and basketball. The necessary equipment was provided, but that's all.

Today, as shown in this photo, this is the way the area looks. The young people of the Coronado and Green Fair Manor Apartments area would welcome use of these facilities, provided there was a way to take care of the towering weeds which grown here each summer.

Let's hope the placing of this equipment here was not a "bone," thrown to the blacks in order to steer them in other directions. This could make a swell recreational area for hundreds of boys and girls during the upcoming summer.

This area is located southeast of the Coronado Apartments—to be exact, it's across the street from the Coronado Apartments.

Usually the conversation will be about what happened last night or who's wife is messing up.

This isn't constructive conversation. It's just "shooting-the-jive". We replace conversation for bull sessions. As a result, we know very little of each other, we become on-guard against each other and tell ourselves, "Black people ain't together."

This class system is indirectly responsible for brothers killing brothers. It has also divided us up into a lot of small groups instead of one united race of people.

By our people being divided up as we are, we have oppression from every angle. We don't have the time to think of getting together, only that we are not together. This is very bad.

No one feels that it is his or her responsibility to try and get us together, when it should be that everyone is doing all they could to bring us together.

No one has time to work for togetherness, but everyone has a comment as to why this togetherness does not exist.

Let's stop downing another brother, because his old man was a laborer and your's is a teacher. Let's associate with all black people. Let's converse more with each other instead of conversing about one another.

Let's Get Together!!

world's most apathetic, complacent, brainwashed and scared, untrusting, unrespecting group of people on mother earth.

Our culture and history is as old as man himself and yet we know almost nothing of it. We must recapture our heritage and our identity if we are ever to liberate ourselves from the bonds of white supremacy. We must launch a cultural revolution without being phony and false to unbrainwash our group of people.

Our culture revolution must be the means of bringing us closer to our black brothers and sisters everywhere. It must begin in the communities and be based on community participation. Black people will be free to create only when they depend on the black community. Black artists must realize that they depend on their black brothers and sisters for inspiration. We must work together to establish neighborhood culture centers which will include people of all ages, and conduct workshops in all arts, such as film, creative writing, painting, theater, music and black history.

This cultural revolution will be the journey to our rediscovery and to most of us our discovery of our selves.

From: And Then We Heard the Thunder, by John Oliver Killens, "When the battle is won, let history be able to say of each one of us: 'He was a dedicated patriot; Dignity was his country, Manhood was his government, and Freedom was his land'."

Police Beat

Burglary

George Truitt, 1701 East 15th Street, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone took a television set and stereo player from his residence while he was away.

The value of the items is listed at $350.00. He has no idea who would have done such a thing.

Theft of Felt Hat

Roy Blue, Jr., 1806 East 24th Street, reported that someone took his gold felt hat from his car while he was having breakfast at a Furr's Cafeteria, 34th and Avenue H.

The value of the hat was $19.00.

Aggravated Assault

Strange things are always happening. At least that is what one young man in Lubbock will tell you. He experienced an unusual situation one day last week while standing in front of a local apartment complex.

The man told Lubbock Police, while he was in the emergency room of a local hospital, that he was standing in front of the apartment talking to a swinging sister when out of the blue comes a brother who says, "that's my girl you're talking to."

At that time, the jealous man pulled a knife and began to stab the innocent fellow, according to his story to the police.

Anyway, he was stabbed once in the left side. To really cap off the whole thing, the victim refuses to file charges against a man who allegedly stabbed him for talking to a young lady in front of an apartment.

Theft

Luke Blackwell, 3615 East 15th Place, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone apparently took his new license plates from his pickup.

Patrolman's Jacket Stolen

Here's one that's worth reading twice. Horace E. Whitaker, Jr., a Lubbock policeman, received a call to investigate a theft at 705 Avenue D. As ordered, he went to the area to investigate.

He got out of his patrol car and started investigating the situation. When he returned to his patrol car, he discovered that his police tuffy jacket had been stolen out of the police car.

If you ask Officer Whitaker, he will tell you that anything is possible.

Checks Taken From Mailbox

Joe Cile Robinson, 2408 Weber Drive, Apartment B, reported to the police that someone removed a Social Security and a Welfare check from the family mailbox.

According to a witness, she saw the two checks in the Green Fair Manor Post Office area approximately 15 minutes before they were discovered missing.

The Social Security check was in the amount of $57.06 and the Welfare check was $102.00.

Internationally-known artist Robert Nelson juried the show which attracted some 500 entries from 285 artists across the nation.

Nelson, chairman of art at the University of North Dakota, is represented in a number of major museums and private collections. In his own work, he uses symbolism and out-of-context imagery and has become noted for his ability to portray irony in projecting comments on social issues.

"Colorprint U.S.A." will award purchase prizes totaling $1,000, said Tech Art Prof. Lynwood Krenneck, exhibit director. The show also will include 19 pieces of invited art, including works by Harold Altman, Albert Christ-Janer, Warnington Colescott, Constance Forsythe, David Dreisbach, Gabor Peterdi, Rudy Pozzatti, Carol Summers and Nelson.

The exhibit, mounted in the Department of Art Gallery in the university's new Art and Architecture Complex, will remain on view through May 8.

AMARILLO

From My Scratch Pad

by George Parrish

It was reported Sunday that Mr. Benny Nevels, of 504 North Hughes, daughter had passed. At the time of this writing no further word has been received. Mr. Nevels is a steward in Johnson Chapel A.M.E. Church and owner and operator of the Green Gables Motel on Amarillo Blvd. West.

I would like to thank all of the readers of the West Texas Times here in Amarillo for buying the paper from the boys when they come around to call on you. You would be surprised to know just how much you are helping them. These kids have a lot of energy to get rid of and if they are not kept busy doing something constructive then they will do something destructive. Who knows but what it would be something of yours that they might destroy?

While we are on this subject, let's talk about our youths of today. Parents, when have you had a good talk with your child or children? Well, that's too long ago. I thank you should have a real good old fashion, if you want to call it that, talk with your child. Get down to the "netty gritty" of things. Tell your boy or girl about the birds and bees. Wouldn't you rather tell them yourself than for them to learn about these things on the street corner, in a language that isn't fit to repeat? When have you visited the school where your child attends and had a talk with his or her teacher? Or do you feel like so many others, that the teacher can do it all? Have you noticed that a lot of our children are being expelled from school? Why? This brings to my memory an article I saw the other day and would like to pass on to you. The subject is Time; the author is unknown:

Take time to pray. . . it helps to bring God near and washes the dust of earth from your eyes.

Take time to think. . . it is a source of power.

Take time to read. . . it is the foundation of knowledge.

Take time for friends. . . it is the source of happiness.

Take time for work. . . it is the price of success.

Take time to laugh. . . it is the singing that helps with life's loads.

Take time to love. . . it is the one sacrament of life.

Take time to dream. . . it hitches the soul to the stars.

Take time to play. . . it is the secret of youth.

Take time to worship. . . it is the highway to reverence.

Parents, let's give a little more time to our children, take time to talk

West Texas Negro Citizens; From Early Days to Present Times

(Editor's Note: Following is a column which will appear from time to time in the West Texas Times featuring memories of older citizens in West Texas relating the early history of Negro citizens in the area.)

by Mrs. Atlanta Turbon

My husband and I moved to Amarillo in 1936 from Albany, Texas. We worked on the Jim Shelton Ranch out of Naravisa, New Mexico, but the ranch was on Texas land. After staying there about ten years, I started working for Tony Chisholm, 2122 Harrison in Amarillo, Texas.

Harrison Street was the main street for the Negro population (and) most of their businesses were there. Gabriel "Gabe" Carthen owned the cafe. The leading pool hall was operated by Clarence Watley. The first Negro hotel, Grey's Hotel, was owned by Mrs. Etta Grey. Herby Williams owned the next Negro hotel which was on Van Buren Street. Mrs. Jennie Watley's hotel was also on Van Buren. Tony's Barbecue was located on East Third Street.

Shortly after coming to Amarillo, I joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church and the pastor at that time was Rev. C.C. Cyphers, who now resides in Dallas, Texas. Services were held in what is now the basement of the church. The original building was a little white frame house. It was moved to the Anzey Gipson family, 1300 N.W. 14th, where it gradually fell apart. Jenkins Chapel Baptist Church was named for Miles Jenkins who had been pastor there for a long time. A white family who was fond of the Jenkins family gave the stained glass windows to the church in memory of them.

Brother Jerry, Jerry Callaway, was a usher at Mt. Zion. He came to Amarillo in 1888, the first Negro to come to Amarillo. He was brought here by the J.S. Callaway family from Georgia. For years he worked around the Amarillo Hotel. He attended the Methodist Church with the Callaway family. Later he united with Mt. Zion. Although he was simple-minded, he may have been smarter than some of those who had good sense. He collected Sunday School money by going up and down the streets begging, collecting as much as eight or ten dollars. He couldn't count, but he gave all of it to the church. He died in 1956 on March 24.

I met "Bones" Hooks when I first came to Amarillo. He stayed at Grey's Hotel. He was a known Negro cattleman and he started the custom of giving white flowers to famous people and to old settlers, Negro or white, of Amarillo. Among those receiving white flowers from him were Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, Allen Shivers, and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. At his death on February 2, 1951, he had given nearly 500 white flowers away.

For a while I ran a cafe on the alley of the Herring Hotel, catering to the maids and bellhops and the help at Robert Crudgington's automobile place.

Moniea Conway was the first Negro child to be born in Potter County. She lives at 200 Harrison in Amarillo.

Clarence Watley was a wonderful citizen (and) he owned a lot of property. He had a mighty fine family.

Jake Dixon and his wife, Lizzie, were friends of mine for years. He helped the cause of the Negro a lot and was responsible for saving the Mason Lodge Hall. Their daughter, Jean Dixon, works in the public school system.

Jesse Smith had a grocery store on third street and Rev. L.L. Langston had the Rescue Home for elder people. A person could ride the one North Hughes bus for five cents. If you missed it, you just had to wait until it came by again. The driver was a man called "Buck" who is sometimes used as an extra driver on the bus line. The bus ran from Polk Street to 18th and North Hughes where it turned around. Hughes Street was the only paved street in the Negro section of town. The first school I knew about here for Negroes was Patton. It was named for Patton who was the principal. Mrs. Grey was one of the teachers. At present, I am working for the Robert "Bob" Crudgington family at 3001 Parker. I have worked for them nine years.

If any old timers in the Lubbock, Midland, or Amarillo areas of West Texas, would like to add their thoughts to this column, please drop us a line to the West Texas Times, we'll arrange a meeting and be glad to print your story.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas—Gov. Preston Smith has called on President Nixon to declare 60 Texas counties eligible for drought disaster relief and requested initial allocation of $5 million in federal aid.

All the counties, said Smith, received less than 1.5 inches of accumulated rainfall in the past six months, creating a critical drought condition which adversely affects ranches, farms, dairies, businesses and employment through out the entire state.

Smith said he would not call for emergency disaster legislation from the state legislature because of the "extremely critical" state financial problem. State and local health, employment, agriculture and welfare agencies, the Governor stated, are performing emergency disaster duties as required.

Governor asked an initial allocation of $5 million. In addition, he urged that the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Department of Labor, Health, Education and Welfare and Small Business Administration representatives be assigned to counties to collaborate with state and local officials in inspections, cost estimates and technical guidance.

Texas counties included in the request (others may be added), ranging from the tip of South Texas to the top of the Panhandle, are:

Armstrong, Aransas, Atascosa, Bandera, Bee, Bexar, Blanco, Brooks, Burnet, Caldwell, Cameron, Carson, Childress, Coke, Comal, Cottle, De Witt, Dickens, Duval, Uvalde, El Paso, Frio, Garza, Gillespie;

Goliad, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Hildalgo, Hutchinson, Jim Hogg, Jim Well, Karnes, Kendall, Kenedy, Kent, Kerr, Kimble, King, Kleberg, Kimmit, LaSalle, Lipscomb, Live Oak, McMullen, Medina, Nueces, Oldham, Potter; Refugio, San Patricio, Schleicher, Starr, Stonewell, Swisher, Val Verde, Webb, Willacy, Wilson, Zapata and Zavala.

Welfare Cut Averted?—Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes announced a way has been found to prevent the sharp cut on May 1 in aid to needy families with dependent children.

Legislation has been introduced to permit the Welfare Department to transfer and spend for AFDC necessary sums not to exceed $6.8 million for the rest of this fiscal year ending August 31.

Barnes said about $5 million is available in a contingency fund of the Welfare Department, and an additional $1 million or more will come from federal matching money.

A comptroller's office representative said there is no question but what funds can be used to avert the scheduled AFDC reduction. Welfare Board on March 22 ordered the May cut which would bring the average AFDC family grant down from $118 a month to $80 and eliminate some 4,500 families from the rolls entirely.

Courts Speak—Third Court of Civil Appeals here ruled that welfare applicants who are turned down by the Welfare Department for aid have no right to appeal to state courts since assistance is not a "vested property right."

Court of Criminal Appeals in a Coryell County case held that a district judge has no power to credit a prisoner's time in county jail while he is appealing his conviction toward his eventual prison sentence.

State Supreme Court concluded that a man who build a cabin on an otherwise unoccupied island in Galveston Bay and camped there off-and-on for 10 years did not gain title to it by adverse possession. Court said possession must continue through at 10-year period to take title under adverse possession.

Short Snorts—Tax bill is due to be reported back to the Senate State Affairs Committee by a sub-panel on the return from the Legislature's Easter holidays.

An early House vote is seen on the liquor-by-the-drink bill.

Mount Vernon United Methodist Church

From the Pastor's Desk: Rev. M.T. Reed.

After reading an item in one of our local newspapers, I was reminded of something I had read in the office of the editor of the Dallas Star Post.

A dear friend of mine—the founder of the Dallas Star Post, the late Dr. L.G. Pinkston, hoped to give the City of Dallas a respectful newspaper. He hired good news hounds as he called them and they were responsible for getting the news that would be of interest of the people. In the meeting room there on the wall you could read in large print the words: "The Bee that gets the Honey doesn't hang around the Hive." Too often we sit and wait for things to come to us and when it doesn't we blame someone else for our own failure. May God help us to see ourselves.

Shiloh Baptist Church

Amarillo—Sunday School opened at the regular hour of 9:30 with Brother E.J. Masters in charge. Subject of the lesson was, "Use It or Lose It." The pastor brought the review.

Worship service was held at 10:55 with the deacons in charge of the devotion service. The mission choir furnished the music for the service with Ronnie Sherewood at the piano.

Silent prayer was given for the sick and shut-ins.

We were happy to have worshipping with us the Reverend and Mrs. V.R. Brown of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Brown rendered a solo and Rev. Brown brought the message for the day, both were very inspiring. Rev. Brown's message was from St. Mark, 11:24, "When Ye Pray."

We were also very happy the Rose Club came to worship with us. Mrs. Vivian Bryant is president of this club and Mrs. A.B. Turner is vice president.

At the 5:00 training union, films were shown and a Bible drill was given along with other activities. Ann Collins won the Bible drill.

The youth department brought the evening program with the following youngsters participating: Mark Harris, Kathy Perry, and Theresa Perry.

Tuesday night Circle No. 2 entertained five circles. The General Mission surprised the president, Mrs. W.M. Clay with a belated birthday party.

TALKING ABOUT TAXES

Salt, windows, bridges—these are just a few of the strange things on which taxes have been laid in years past. Today a family's income tax depends on the number of children.

But whatever the number of children they desire, women today have more convenient methods to plan their families than ever before—pills, spermicides, diaphragms and intrauterine devices. Delfen contraceptive foam can even be obtained in the drugstore—and while you won't need a doctor's prescription for this newest method of family planning, you may pay a sales tax!

Jenkins Chapel Baptist Church
Amarillo—The Jenkins Chapel Baptist Church School opened at the usual hour with Supt. Roger Scott and teachers on duty. The high points of the lesson were given by Mrs. Sarah Young. The morning service was conducted by the deaconess department. Mrs. Delmar Ward brought a devotional message with a solo by Mrs. Roxie Terrel. Rev. H.B. Whitten, former pastor of the Mt. Sinia Baptist Church of Hereford, Texas, brought the morning message. His theme, "Trusting in God" was taken from Job 13:9-15.

Food for thought: God has not failed man, man broke the law of love God commanded us to love our neighbor.

Rising Star Missionary Church

Church school opened promptly at 9:30 a.m. with Deacon Edwards acting superintendent. Deacon Morris was absent due to illness. The lesson was based on Christ's entry into the holy city. School was well attended and enjoyed by all.

In the 11:00 a.m. services the deacons were in charge of the devotional period with singing by the congregation and Sister Nettie Edwards at the piano.

The message of the morning was brought by our pastor, Rev. R.J. Dixon, entitled, "Unclean, Unconverted, Undelivered," as recorded by the prophet Zecharias, 9:9. The message was based on Jesus' entry into the holy city and depicted the tied colt that had never been ridden, tamed or bridled.

In the 7:00 p.m. services the Lord's Supper was administered by the pastor and deacons following the message by Rev. Dixon, entitled "Eating at the Lord's Table," Matt. 26:18.

Sunrise services will be held at the church on Easter Sunday morning at 6:00 a.m. The public is cordially invited to attend these services. Pastor Dixon will speak from the theme, "The Glory of the Empty Tomb."

May we remember the sick and shut-ins everywhere in prayer and visitation.

Lyons Chapel Baptist Church

Saturday night the brotherhood met and Pastor Hollins brought a wonderful lesson. Every 1st Saturday is social night with a very tasty menu being served. Brother Joe Collins is president.

Sunday morning Sunday school was opened at 9:30 a.m. with C.E. Brown, superintendent, in charge.

The 11:00 a.m. services saw the opening of our spring revival with Sister L.E. Moore, evangelist, speaking from Matt. 22:11, Eph. 4:24 on the subject, "A Speechless Guest." The revival will close Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

At 3:00 Sunday the senior mission celebrated their third annual anniversary. Sister D. Hood is president.
