750 Entries Made In Annual County Fair

Although exhibits were limited in number in some divisions, there were many outstanding entries in the annual Lynn County Fair held here Wednesday and Thursday. A total of 750 entries were listed.

Winners in the community exhibit contest were Dixie, Joe Stokes, and Draw, in that order. Outstanding was the flower show, in which there were scores of entries in the many classes.

There were also many entries in the woman's division, both in the handwork classes and in the culinary arts.

Especially outstanding were the hog entries, although there were only about thirty entries, and the beef cattle were among the best ever shown here.

Results in the beef cattle division were:

Bull, over 1 and under 2, Clarence Church, first and champion.

Bull, over 2 and under 3, V. P. Carter, first.

Bull, under one: Clarence Church, first.

Cow, over 2 and under 3, Clarence Church, first and second.

Charley Clinton Dies Wednesday

Charley Edgar Clinton, 50, died at 3:55 a. m. Wednesday in Tahoka Hospital. He had been in ill health about 18 months.

Funeral services were held at 4:00 p. m. Thursday at the Tahoka Church of Christ, with Doyle Kelley, minister, officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Funeral Home.

Mr. Clinton was born February 18, 1906, in Tennessee. He was married to Miss Corene Hill on January 25, 1925, at Quanah. He came to Tahoka from Oklahoma in 1929, and had lived here ever since. Mr. Clinton had engaged in the dairy business a number of years.

A daughter, Doris Jean, died about two years ago.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Lily Mae Frazier of Lubbock and Miss Leta Frances Clinton of the family home; three sons, Edgar of Plainview, Lee Roy of Odessa, and Cecil of Baytown; his aged mother, Mrs. M. P. Clinton of Tahoka; one brother, Elmer of Rosedale, Okla., and 10 grandchildren.

Hackney Named To State Board

Burton Hackney, Brownfield attorney who is well known in Tahoka, was appointed Tuesday by Governor Allan Shivers, as a member of the State Board of Public Welfare. He will succeed Hubert T. Johnson of Waco for a term expiring Jan. 20, 1961.

This is a three member board which administers about $180 million per year for the various phases of child welfare. John H. Winters of Amarillo, is executive administrator, and other members are John Womble of Abilene and Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs of Wortham.

Hackney graduated from high school at Tahoka while living with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Nelson. He married a former Tahoka girl, Leta Tarrance.

He is also a graduate of Texas Tech, has served as county attorney of Terry county, and has held many local and regional offices of honor.

Bulldogs Meet Seminole Here

Seminole Indians, always a top team in this area, will be the foe of the Tahoka Bulldogs tonight at Kelley Field here in a game that could be one of the best of the season.

The visiting team should be favored to take the Bulldogs, although the only comparison for this year shows Tahoka a slight edge. Seminole defeated Denver City in its opening game 38 to 7, while Tahoka playing its third game, defeated Denver City here last week 40 to 0.

Seminole had an open date last week end.

But, George Zoller, who has six assistant coaches, has a much larger school from which to choose his players.

Possible starters for Seminole will be: Johnny Speer, 186 pound senior fullback and one of the top all-around athletes of the Plains; Halfback Bill Wallace, 143 and Bobby Travis, 137; Bill Burnett, 142, six-foot left-handed quarterback; Dave Shelton, 179, center; James Luttrell, 159, and Richard Guber, 175, guards; Edwin Young, 188, and Truman Kidd, 189, tackles; and Allen Burk, 175, and Harry Walker, 163, a pair of six-foot ends.

The Bulldogs have three games behind them, having defeated a strong Seagraves team 13 to 12, lost to the elusive Crane 19 to 18, and out-manuevered Denver City 40 to 0.

The boys are in fair shape, and have been improving with each game. They will be badly out-weighted, especially in the line, against Seminole.

Friday of next week the Bulldogs have an open date. However, the B team will meet the New Home Leopards at New Home.

Picture Of Local People Appears In National Magazine

This month's Teen Times, national magazine for Future Homemakers of America published in Washington, D. C., carries a picture made last year in one of Mrs. Madeline Hegi's homemaking classes at Tahoka High School.

The picture is part of an illustrated story headed "Understanding and Caring for Children."

The picture was so striking that there has come a request from Sweden for its use in that country, with the notation that dolls, instead of live children, are used in homemaking classes in that country in teaching child care.

The picture in the magazine bears these cut lines: "A neighborhood mother sometimes brings own baby to, homemaking class to show how to bathe, dress infant."

Boy Breaks Leg Here Tuesday

Bobby Murray, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Murray, received a broken right leg Tuesday afternoon when a car backed into a motor scooter being driven by Phillip Havins, 14.

The accident occurred on South First just north of Rutherford's Dept. Store. Driver of the car, a Mexican, could not see the low scooter occupied by the two boys. Phillip tried to dodge the backing car, but the trailer hitch caught Bobby's leg, and broke the big bone just below the knee.

Negro Is Stabbed To Death Here

A Negro man, Clarence F. Frazier, about 40, of Lubbock, was stabbed to death in northeast Tahoka Sunday morning at about 10 o'clock.

Jessie Lee Ruffins, 31, also of Lubbock, was arrested immediately after the affray and charged with murder. His bond was set at $5,000, according to County Attorney, Harold Green.

Sheriff Norvell Redwine, who investigated the affair, said Ruffins is believed to have stabbed Frazier one time in the center of the chest with an "East Dallas special," a long-bladed pocket knife.

The wounded man was taken to Tahoka Hospital where he died a few minutes after arrival.

The two Negro men were in the colored section of Tahoka just west of Union Compress when the stabbing took place.

Ruffins formerly lived at Hearne and Pecos, but local officers had no information on Frazier. The body was taken to Stanley Funeral Home here, and later transferred to a Negro funeral home in Lubbock.

HAS HEART ATTACK

J. O. Freeman, operator of a local blacksmith shop, suffered a heart attack Sunday and is under treatment in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock. He must remain there several more days, and will be required to remain in bed two or three weeks after his return home.

Rains Benefit Crops Over Most of Area

Rains last Saturday which covered Lynn county will be of material benefit to late feed and may help some of the cotton, farmers report to The News.

The rain also caused irrigation farmers who were still watering to shut off their water and save on their fuel bills.

Although the rains were somewhat spotted, almost all the county received about an inch or more, except parts of the Wells and Three Lakes area, where only about a half inch fell.

Torrential rains, although not of a damaging nature, fell in the New Home area, ranging up to four inches or more, and Petty and Lakeview received one and one-half to two inches.

Fred Roper reported 4 inches at his place, Clifton Ashcraft 4 inches, Boswell Edwards 4 and

Water Restriction Is Lifted Here

The rain and return of cooler weather have permitted the City of Tahoka to lift restrictions on the use of city water, Mayor Clint Walker states.

Mayor Walker says the City hopes to try for more water during the coming months. Unless more water is found, Tahoka will be up against the same situation next summer—that of not having all the water necessary.

"The City Council greatly appreciates the cooperation of the people this summer in conserving our water supply. Had it not been for the help of everyone, there would have been days when we would have had to go without water," Walker stated.

Youth Improving From Polio Attack

Carl Ingle son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ingle of route 5 and a sixth grade student in the Tahoka schools, who was stricken with polio last week, is reported to be improving nicely in the Plainview Polio Clinic.

He has the non-paralytic type of polio, and it is believed he will recover without having any permanent disability. The News is informed.

Carl became ill Tuesday of last week. He was brought to Dr. Noble Rumbold here, and on Thursday was carried to a Lubbock hospital for further tests, and from there he was taken to the Plainview Clinic.

Bond Election Saturday On Right of Way Bonds

Grand Jury Investigates Vandalism, No Indictments Have Been Reported

No official report had been returned by the Lynn County Grand Jury Thursday morning in regard to an investigation it conducted Wednesday into any possible connection between recent acts of vandalism and a recent decision of Tahoka School Board to admit a Negro student to the local high school.

However, The News is reliably informed no indictments were returned.

The investigation was taken up by the Grand Jury following the scratching of three new cars in an enclosed parking space behind Bray Chevrolet Co. Tuesday night of last week following a school board meeting attended by about 25 men protesting admission of the Negro; and as a result of rumors the Negro youth had been threatened with bodily harm if he attended the white school.

Members of Tahoka School Board informed The News they decided to enroll this one Negro, who had made written application for entrance, in view of the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision ending segregation of races and ordering all school districts to begin at once making some gesture toward compliance with the ruling.

The local board had this one application from a youth whose grade is not taught in Dunbar School, the local Negro school. He had completed the tenth grade there, the last grade taught at Dunbar. Possibly the boy could have been sent to Lubbock, members of the board stated, but then they could have been held liable for not complying with intent of the Supreme Court ruling to finish his education in this district and thereby taking steps toward desegregation as ordered.

Most local Negroes do not desire to send their children to the white school. The News is informed, and it is entirely possible that the school can be maintained and still comply with the court ruling.

Board members declare they have not thrown down the bars to desegregation and will not do so until the ruling is enforced generally.

Mrs. Beulah Atkins underwent major surgery at Tahoka Hospital Wednesday.

Statement Made By Local Group On Negro Dispute

Following is a statement handed The News Thursday morning by some local men opposing action of Tahoka School Board in permitting a Negro to enroll in the High School:

To the Citizens of Lynn County:

A group of citizens residing in Lynn county and interested in the decisions and opinions of the Tahoka School Board met with the board Tuesday night, Sept. 9, and asked the Board of Trustees for a chance for the public to have a voice on the admission of the Negro lad to Tahoka High School.

These questions are being asked:

Why did the public not know of the Negro lad's admission to Tahoka High School before the

Union Compress Covers 8 Acres

Union Compress is preparing to build another large warehouse at its plant in northeast Tahoka. The building will cover 42,000 square feet of floor space, will be constructed of sheetiron and have an asphalt flooring.

The local compress, when the new warehouse is completed, will have 350,000 square feet, or about eight acres, under cover, including the seven warehouses and the main compress building, which is 135 feet by 600 feet in size.

This addition will give the compress approved storage space for 50,000 bales of cotton, states E. R. Edwards, manager.

New Home Pastor Is New Champion Texas Rifle Shot

Rev. Hugh Daniel, Methodist pastor at New Home, is the new state marksmanship champion of Texas.

He won first place with a score of 3135 out of a possible 3200 in the state contest of the Texas Rifle Association held in Dallas September 17 and 18. Competing with him were 64 contestants.

Using a .22-calibre rifle, shooting was from distances of 100 yards, 50 yards, and 50 meters. The group shot four matches of 40 shots a match each day.

Rev. Daniel has been shooting only about two years, and this was his second effort in the state contest. There are four divisions in the competition, the marksmanship division being for those who have been in competition only a short time.

A member of his congregation suggested that it might be wise for those attending services at his church to wear breast protectors, as the Preacher might start using his rifle if his verbal shots fail to hit the mark.

Dr. Cain has visited in Tahoka on several occasions.

99 YEARS OF AGE

The News is informed Andrew Jordan of O'Donnell, pioneer Lynn county citizen, was celebrating his 99th birthday Thursday.

Saturday is the day when Lynn county voters are to approve, or reject, the proposed $200,000.00 bond issue with which to buy right-of-way for the four-lane divided highway along U. S. 87.

Voting places by precincts are: 1, county court room; 2, Wilson school; 3, O'Donnell school; 4, New Home school; 5, Draw Methodist Church; 6, county court house; 7, Grassland school; 8, Gordon school; 9, Garnolia school; 10, Tahoka High School; 11, Newmoore school; and 12, Lakeview gin.

The State Highway Department with appropriations from the Federal government, proposes to build the road from the Dawson county line north to the Lubbock county line.

Right now, plans have been drawn for the first sector of this road, to be built pending the furnishing of the right of way by Lynn county, from the Dawson county line north to the point two miles south of the courthouse square in Tahoka, just south of the H. B. Howell farm. Funds are available now for this project, according to A. W. Partain, Highway Department resident engineer, of Lamesa.

In the near future, if the bonds are approved, Mr. Partain says work will start on plans for the four-lane road north of Tahoka.

Dawson county is now securing right of way for a similar road from Lamesa north to the Lynn county line.

The Highway Department is asking for a total of 240 feet. It now has 100 feet. Not all of the 340 feet will be used at this time, but possibly 60 feet in most cases taken now and the other held in reserve in case some day the road is made into a super highway, or expressway, with local paved road beside the four-lane road.

No decision has been reached on a route through or around Tahoka.

Less than half of the proposed bond issue would be used on the Tahoka to O'Donnell sector, as a much greater portion will be required to buy the right of way in the north half of the county, much of which is irrigated land.

County Judge W. M. Mathis states the Commissioners Court has worked out a plan whereby the issuance of the bonds will not cause an increase in taxes. This will be done by deducting 20 cents from the 1946 road bond tax and using approximately the same amount to retire the new issue, at least until the year 1966.

All qualified voters who pay property taxes and hold a poll tax are urged to express their desire at the polls Saturday.

Hints Given On Care of Eyes

Austin, August 18—If Johnny should come home crying, "Mom, I got something in my eye!"—what would you do?

The sensible thing would be to follow this 3-step procedure recommended by the State Department of Health for just such emergencies:

Lift the upper lid and pull it down over the lower lid. This will allow the tears to wash out the offending speck. Tears are nature's own eye wash.

If this doesn't work, wash the eye with drops of lukewarm tap water, using an eye dropper and holding Johnny's head so the water will flow away from the nose, toward the side.

If the speck still doesn't dislodge, bandage the hurt eye lightly to prevent Johnny from rubbing it, and take him to a physician.

"Remember," the Department cautions, "trying to rub the speck loose can cause infection that may scar the cornea, resulting in partial blindness."

Every heard someone remark their eyes were "simply worn out?" That's sheer nonsense, says the Department. It's impossible to "wear out" healthy eyes by overuse.

Then why do your eyes feel strained? It could be because you need glasses or are wearing improper fitted glasses. Or it could be that you are failing to follow the rules of good lighting and proper eye use. Or the strain could be due to an eye or body disease.

Under correct conditions you should be able to use your eyes as much as you want to without strain. Healthy eyes give the best and most comfortable service when you sit erect with your work arranged at 45 to 70 degrees from the horizontal and from 14 to 16 inches from your eyes. Tilt-top desks or book easels are best for children.

Reading in bed is perfectly all right, providing you stick to the rules of good lighting and good posture. But it's never wise to read in sunlight, even if your book or magazine is shaded.

What about television? It does not harm the eyes if the picture is clear and steady, and if there is enough light in the room to prevent too great a contrast with the screen. Avoid sitting off-center or too close to the set.

It's smart, the Department says, to protect your eyes from light exposure to bright sunlight. But don't make the mistake of wear-

Local Boys Get Premiums At Show

Coy Rinne of Wilson showed his top Lynn county Sears gilt and Lester Ford of Tahoka showed the Lynn county Sears boar in the district contest at Lubbock, but neither boy won the top money.

However, each boy received $20.00 in premiums for showing. Gilt winner was a Gaines county boy and boar winner was a Hockley county boy.

Bill Griffin, Lynn county agent, served as master of ceremonies at the show.

ing sun glasses just to look Hollywoodish. Indiscriminate wearing of colored glasses reduces your tolerance to light.

Kearney Name Of New Barley

College Station, August—Kearney, a new and unusually cold and greenbug resistant barley for the High Plains area of Texas, will be available to growers for 1955 plantings.

The variety was developed by the Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station. Tests covering its adaption and resistance to greenbugs have been conducted at the Amarillo Experiment Station at Bushland. It is recommended for the area west of the Caprock and from Lubbock north through the Panhandle.

Kearney had a survival of 97 percent at the Amarillo station in 1951 compared with 59 and 0 for Reno and Cordova, respectively. It is a true winter type barley and will head normally only from fall plantings.

It matures later and grows taller than most other commercial varieties grown on the High Plains. Kearney has outyielded Reno and Ward but in seasons when winter survival is not a factor, less hardy varieties, such as Cordova, may yield more.

The new variety probably will produce less early fall grazing than the upright growing tender varieties but because of its superior winter hardiness, should be more suitable for winter and spring grazing on the High Plains. Its test weight compares favorably with other varieties.

Seed were released to commercial growers in the fall of 1954 and limited quantities will be available to farmers for 1955 fall plantings. No seed will be available to farmers from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Bulldogs Swamp Denver City 40 to 0 Better Harvest Methods Advised

The Lynn County News, Tahoka, Texas September 23, 1955

Tahoka Bulldogs took an easy 40 to 0 victory over the usually strong Denver City Mustangs of District 4-A here last Friday night in a game marred by numerous penalties.

In fact, one Tahoka touchdown and two long runs were nullified by holding penalties.

Coaches Bill Haralson and Dean Wright used 25 boys in the game, with reserves being used liberally in the second half after the Bulldogs built up a 27 to 0 halftime lead.

Score Early

Tahoka received the opening kickoff, and Quarterback Gordon Smith nearly got away as he brought the ball back 36 yards from the 7 to the 43. However, D. C. held, and Tahoka was forced to punt, getting away a 29-yard kick, short for Halfback Jerry Williams. On fourth down, D. C. had to punt.

Taking the ball on its own 41, only three plays were required for the Bulldogs to score, Smith making 11 at right tackle, Fullback Don Blair breaking through center for 33, and Williams finishing up with a 15 yard canter off right tackle.

Prohl Place Kicker

This night, Smith was holding while Reserve Quarterback Karl Prohl did the place kicking, and Karl missed this and the last, but put four others through the uprights.

Three D. C. plays made nothing after the kickoff, and was forced to punt from its 36. Tahoka's Smith took the ball on his own 28, faked a hand-off to Prohl and went 72 yards to the goal line, but the play was called back by a clipping penalty and put in play on the Tahoka 34.

Tahoka drew 5 for offside, Blair made 9, Halfback Ted Pridmore 8, and Tahoka drew 15 for holding. However, Smith then completed a 26 yard pass to End L.W. Castleberry. Williams made 13 to the D. C. 28, but two plays later Tahoka fumbled and D. C.'s Stroud recovered on the 27. D. C.

drew 15 for holding, Fullback Olen Cardwell lost two, and Guard Ronnie Brooks covered a fumble on the D. C. 11.

Tahoka Gets Breaks

On Tahoka's second play, the Bulldogs were set back to the D. C. 26 on a holding penalty, Blair made 4, and then Smith passed to Blair in the open down the middle for the second score. Tahoka 13, Denver City 0.

Smith was kicking most of 'em into the end zone, as he did this kick-off. On third down Williams intercepted Quarterback Don Bigbie's jump pass on the D. C. 29. Williams and Blair took the ball to the D. C. 14, Williams made 7 and then Blair went through his right tackle 7 yards to score. Tahoka 20, D. C. 0.

On the third play after the kick-off, Tahoka Guard Ware High, acting as linebacker, intercepted another Bigbie jump pass, appeared surprised to find he had the ball in his hands, and then took off like a gazelle to his left 29 yards to pay dirt. Score, Tahoka 27, D. C. 0.

Reserves Go In

The half ended without Denver City having made a first down. As the second half opened, Tahoka coaches began using more reserves.

Following the half, D. C.'s Cardwell got away on a 20-yard run to his 47, but three plays later, the visitors' drive was stopped by a 15 yard penalty.

Bigbie got away a short 18-yard punt, which Smith gathered in on his 47, and raced 53 yards for another touchdown, with Brooks throwing the key block that turned him loose. Tahoka 34 D. C. 0.

Fullback Donald Renfro made 2, and Prohl 1 to the one yard line but Tahoka drew a five yard penalty and a Prohl to Pridmore lateral lost to the 9. On fourth down, Prohl hit Pridmore with a pass good for 9 yards and the final Tahoka TD. Tahoka 40, D. C. 0.

Reserves Looked Good

With many Tahoka reserves in the game, it was then that the visitors got their first real attack underway moving from their own 26 to Tahoka's 18 With Halfback Elvis Weir carrying on runs of 20 and 29 yards, but The Bulldogs held and the ball went over on the 18. Blair back in, made 11, and then Pridmore got away on a 38 yard run nullified by a 15 yard penalty, and Blair finally had to kick, getting off a 32 yard punt. Cardwell took the ball, lateraled to Bigbie, who brought it to Tahoka's 35. But the next play, little Donald "Shorty" Williams covered a fumble on Tahoka's 37. Renfro, Halfback Floyd Brasher, and Smith carried to the D. C. 49, but D. C.'s Donnie Reed covered a Tahoka fumble on the D. C. 47.

The Mustangs completed a pass for 7 yards, Tahoka drew a 5 yard penalty, and Weir nearly got away but W. H. McNeely nailed him on the 10 with a shoestring tackle. Cardwell carried to the Tahoka 3 for the Mustang's almost sure touchdown, but on the next play the ball was fumbled, and Tackle Bobby Paris covered. The game ended before Tahoka could get off a play.

Bulldogs Improving

The Bulldogs looked sharper in this game than any played so far. Both the line and secondary looked better, especially on defense. Don Blair hit his stride with some jarring tackles. He looked better on his running game, as did Smith, Williams, and Pridmore, the other backfield regulars.

Karl Prohl, sophomore back, is proving a very valuable man, both on offense and defense. Others seeing action in the backfield were, Don Renfro, Floyd Brasher, Jimmy Harter.

Center Stanley Stone was up and at 'em as usual, and Tackles Bobby Paris, Leon Davis, and Larry Simmons showed continued improvement, who are the bulwarks in the line along with Guards Ronnie Brooks and Ware High, two tough little men. Also, Ends Castleberry and Carlton Bell played their positions well.

Among others doing yeoman service were Cecil Hammonds, Tommy Paris, Kent Gibson, James Adams, Jerry Slover, N. E. Wood, Donald Williams, Jay Curley, W. H. McNeely.

CARD OF THANKS

Our recent sad loss leaves us with grateful hearts toward neighbors and friends. Their comforting expressions of sympathy and thoughtfulness will always be remembered. We are especially grateful to those who were so kind during mother's long illness and to those who brought and served food at the home, at the time of her death.—Myrtle Mathis.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Rev. J. B. Stewart, pastor, announces that the First Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Church will be held by Rev. Vernon Henderson, Brownfield district superintendent, here next Monday night at the church.

Quality harvesting for more dollars should be the aim of every cotton producer in 1955, according to information released recently by the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association.

Competition from synthetics at home and expanded cotton production abroad points out the importance of quality cotton regard less of the harvesting method used.

One source of heavy loss to producers each year is the two-sided bale. Since all such bales sell on the "low side," this loss can be minimized if producers pay more attention to these suggestions:

1. Allow cotton to dry out before starting to pick so that the trailer does not show at the gin with a "plate" of wet cotton on the bottom of the load.

Don't Tramp Cotton

2. Don't tramp cotton in the trailer. A lower grade is almost always guaranteed by this practice. A two-sided bale often is the result, particularly if the seed cotton is damp.

3. Don't pick from fields of different quality and load the seed cotton in the same trailer.

4. Change trailers and empty the basket when changing fields with machine pickers.

5. Don't neglect to clean trash from baskets, picker drums and other "build-up" places regularly.

All producers should cooperate with the ginner so that he can better use his knowledge and experience to gin a high quality bale. Two-sided plated bales and "wedded bales" are a real problem to ginner as well as producers.

Producers Can Help

Cotton producers can help the ginner do a better job and help themselves by:

1. Allowing and encouraging the gin to line up cottons of like quality to be ginned consecutively rather than on a "first come, first served" basis.

2. Notify the ginner when a trailer contains mixed cottons.

3. Allow the gin sufficient time to gin cotton properly without mixing with the bale before or after.

The two-sided bale is only one of the quality problems facing cotton producers, but greater care in harvesting and ginning can reduce the tremendous dollar loss it causes.

STATED MEETINGS of Tahoka Lodge No 1041 the first Tuesday night in each month at 7:30. Members are urged to attend. Visitors welcome.—Douglas Greer, W. M. Harry Roddy, Sec'y

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

LYNN COUNTY, PRECINCT 4:
Effective now, there will be a charge for any work done on farms by road equipment in Precinct 4.

The county rate is $7.50 per hour, time to count from the time the equipment leaves where it is working until it gets back, with a $10.00 minimum charge for any job. This includes slush pits and does not mean we can take on any big jobs.

My reason for this is we are always short of funds, and there is so much "dead heading" the graders, it's hard on tires and equipment.

We don't spend any of the county tax money on equipment, supplies, fuel, repairs or salaries, or anything used in maintaining county roads.

Hope this meets with your approval. Will say I am always wishing we could get more work done on your roads.

E. H. WEST, Commissioner, precinct 4.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Excellent recreational and educational opportunities are provided for service men at their military bases. But servicemen naturally look forward to off-post hours. In very small towns or strange big cities, the USO Club represents to members of the armed forces a familiar way to satisfy their longing for a place that seems like home and is equipped to serve their needs. Your contribution to USO will make it home.

School Trouble...

beginning of school? Why, was The News misinformed about the Negro being threatened with bodily harm?

Some of the citizens of Lynn county have been misinformed as to the meaning of this meeting. We do not wish to deprive the Negro of an education. This group was looked down on for defending their right to ask a few questions and the right of the public to express an opinion on the issue.

The committee wishes to state: "This group, in opposition to the School Board's decision, does not condone violence, mob rule, or character assassination.

Why is the transfer for Nance from this district to Lubbock on which they are drawing state aid, and which Tahoka is not drawing state aid, still in the County Superintendent's office, which is signed by Supt. Spears and dated in August?

What did the school officials learn from the State Education Department concerning desegregation, and what was the State Education Department's suggestions?

Why were people summoned to go before the Grand Jury, not knowing the reason for their appearance?

What is the complete story on the Grassland School District consolidation with Tahoka?

Why was the Negro elected vice president of his class?

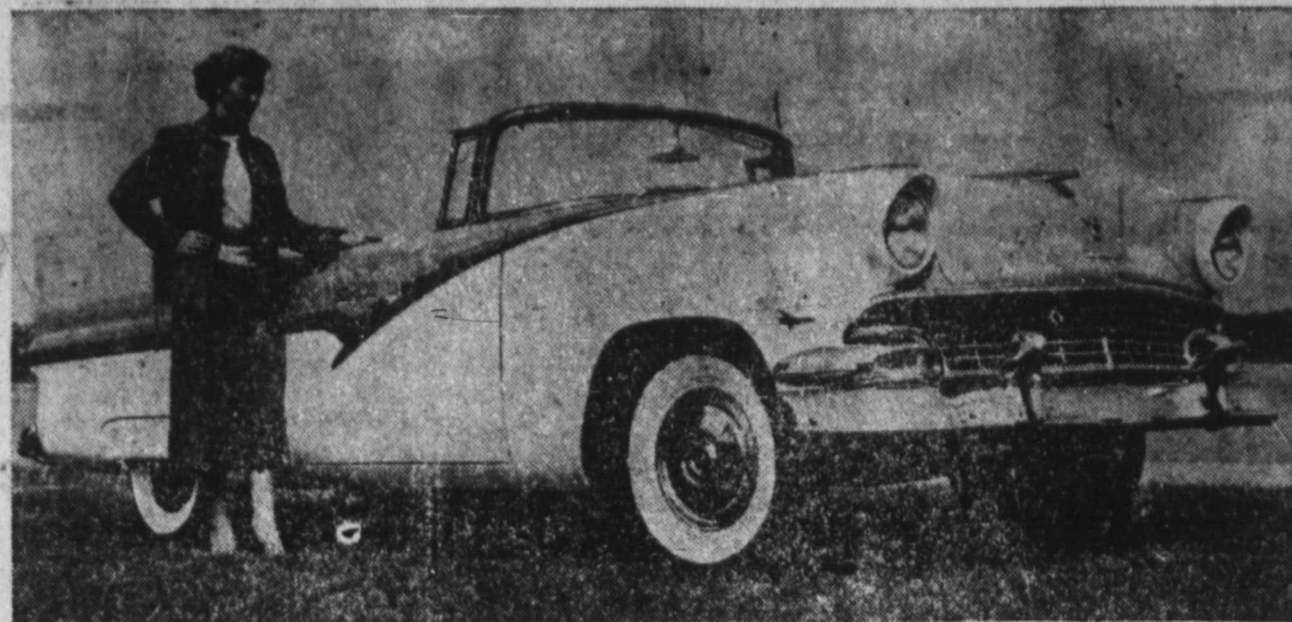

Why was an orderly meeting of the School Board referred to as mob rule?

When the citizens of this county cease to voice their opinion, they cease to be a democracy, and when it ceases to be a democracy there will be no need for a school; and it is a poor county when a citizen is called before the Grand Jury for exercising this right.

We eagerly await the decision of the Grand Jury, which we assume will be the governing factor in this dispute.

We are sorry and apologize to Mr. Bray for the threatening phone calls, if there have been any, for it is not our intention nor our doing; however, at least, he was not subjected to the wrath of Mr. Spears' remarks, illiterate parents, vandals, culprits, etc.

A group of Citizens.

Physically Handicapped New Home Girl Will Study In Paris, France

A former New Home girl, filled with ambition and determination, despite handicaps, is seeing a dream come true of a trip to Paris, France, to study dress designing.

She is Miss Midian Hidalgo, of San Angelo, but formerly of New Home, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Hidalgo, and a brother, Cesar Hidalgo, still live.

She sailed on last Thursday for Paris for further study in her chosen field as a culmination of three years of dreaming, hard work, and saving, plus a surplus amount of courage, initiative, and self-confidence.

Born at Langtry April 11, 1932, Miss Hidalgo moved to New Home with her parents about five years ago. But, she had developed curvature of the spine, and was denied many activities of the normal child.

At the age of nine, she began sewing, which later led to an ambition to take up designing.

After coming to New Home, Dr. C. Skiles Thomas of Tahoka, took an interest in her and her disability. He helped her gain entrance to the Crippled Children's Hospital at Plainview, where she underwent periodic treatments for about two years.

The girl was ambitious, and Dr. Thomas and others recommended her for entrance in San Angelo Junior College.

Because of her disability and the necessity of hospital treatments, she had not been able to complete her high school work. She held three jobs while carrying 21 was permitted to take college entrance examinations, which she passed, and was granted a scholarship in the San Angelo college to help defray her expenses.

Since entering college, she has held three jobs while carrying 21 semester hours of work, with a major in dress designing. She took every course offered in home economics in the San Angelo college.

"I wanted to go to school and learn something," she recently told a San Angelo Standard-Times reporter. "So many say they can't go to college for one reason or another, but I managed all right."

While in college, Miss Hidalgo was a member of the Spanish Club and Home Economics Club. She speaks Spanish, French, and English.

Since August of last year she has been employed by the Texas Educational Agency as a teacher of dressmaking, tailoring, and alterations at the McKnight State Hospital at Carlsbad, and has worked in dress shops, and other jobs.

She sketches, cuts, and sews according to her own designs.

In Paris, France, she hopes to develop this talent by studying at Chamber Syndicale de la Couture Parisienne, a school which teaches designing, dressmaking, sketching, cutting, and business courses for designers. About 2,500 attend the school.

The Hidalgo have lived at New Home five years, where the son, Cesar, is employed by Bill Balch Service Station and Butane Co. His parents live with him.

Bond Issue Is Subject of Talk

The proposed $200,000 bond issue, on which citizens will vote this Saturday, was the subject of a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week by Ransom Galloway of the Henry Seay Co. of Dallas and Lubbock, employed by Lynn county to handle the proceedings on the bond election.

Mr. Galloway explained several methods the county might use in disposing of the bonds, if the voters approve them, principal one of which was a plan whereby it would not become necessary for the Commissioners Court to raise taxes to retire the bonds.

He said 20 cents could be deducted from the 75 cents tax for retirement of the 1946 road bond issue and used until 1966 to retire the proposed new issue. There now is a surplus of $90,000 in this interest and sinking fund, he said.

The bond issue is proposed for the purpose of buying right of way for the new four-lane highway from the Dawson county line to the Lubbock county line, across Lynn county from south to north.

President Harold Green announced Dr. E. Prohl and Tom Bartley will be in charge of program for the month of October.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards and Lynn of New Home spent last week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Loyd McCormick at Ruidoso, N. M. They report Loyd was some improved, but that he had a skunk under his cabin that was giving a little bit of trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Richey of Grassland, residents of Lynn county, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in the home of a niece, Mrs. W. L. Gribble.

Sam Ramsey's Sister Is Buried

Mrs. O. P. Rutledge, 66, a resident of Floydada for 40 years, died of a heart attack at 5:30 a. m. Saturday at her home. Funeral services were in that city Sunday.

Mrs. Rutledge was a sister of Sam Ramsey of Tahoka and of Mrs. R. P. Weathers of Lubbock, formerly of Tahoka. She is survived by her husband, three sons and a daughter, and eight grandchildren.

LOYD MCCORMICKS ARE STAYING AT RUIDOSO

Mrs. Loyd McCormick of New Home writes The News that she and her husband are staying at Ruidoso for a while and want The News sent them.

"The temperature has been in the 30's every night since we've been here," she writes. "This Hondo valley really has an apple crop. Peaches and pears have been gathered."

Wilson Men On Fishing Trip

Bill McLaughlin of Wilson says he turned down an opportunity last week while on a fishing trip to Eagle Pass, on the Rio Grande, to get rid of two Wilson citizens.

He says he had a good chance to push W. F. Raymond off a bluff and an opportunity to push hefty Pat Campbell out of a boat, but his better nature caused him to refrain from either act.

On the trip were H. G. Cook, G. L. Nelson, Dan Cook, E. O. Montgomery, D. A. Brown, Campbell, Raymond, and McLaughlin. Pat Campbell declares the nearest Bill came to catching a fish was when he took a yellow cat off Pat's line.

Their luck was only fair, about 65 pounds of fish being landed, and most of this was eaten in camp.

Miss Frances Murray And Charles Jones Take Wedding Vows In Garden Ceremony

Miss Frances Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Murray, became the bride of Charles Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jones, in a twilight ceremony read in the garden of the bride's parents here Friday at 6 p. m.

Rev. D. W. Copeland, local minister, read the double ring ceremony before an arch decorated with pink gladioli and fern, flanked by baskets of gladioli. Roy Gene Shroog sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white linen suit with navy blue accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with light blue carnations.

Miss Barbara Roberts, friend of the bride, attended as maid of honor, and Frankie Jones served his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Assisting with hospitalities were Misses Barbara and Wanda Jones, sisters of the bridegroom, and Annabelle Decker of Lubbock.

After a short wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Brownfield.

Clyde Jones Farms Mathis Place At Grassland

Mystery Farm No. 61 is owned by Mrs. J. G. Mathis of Grassland. But the place is farmed by Clyde H. Jones. It is located a mile south and a mile and a half west of Grassland.

Dale Thuren was the first to identify the place, and Mrs. Joy Brookshire was the second, the first rural reader. Others recognizing it included James Walker of Wilson, G. W. Grogan, Kenneth Turner, Mrs. E. L. Walker, and Othell Meeks.

The place is known as the Tate farm. Mrs. Tate died just two weeks ago at the age of almost 83, and her sole survivor is a daughter, Mrs. J. G. Mathis, who lives on the quarter section immediately north of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate came to Lynn county from Hawley, Jones county, in 1919, and bought the land from the Post Estate. They lived in a barn while the house shown in the picture was being built. Mr. Tate died in 1942.

Mrs. Mathis, who was married in Jones county, came with her late husband to the place almost immediately following her marriage.

After Mr. Mathis' death in January, 1945, the farm was rented to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Jones of Anson, Jones county, old time friends of the family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jones have lived on the place ever since.

Mr. Jones also farms the adjoining place, on which there is an irrigation well.

He and his wife have three children, Clyde H. Jones of Albuquerque, Mrs. Wayne Hundley of Natchez, Miss. and Durwood Jones of the family home. Mrs. Jones is the former Addie Lou Lindsey of Jones county, the couple having been married there in 1916.

In addition to these two quarter section farms, Mrs. Mathis owns a quarter section at Graham Chapel, in Garza county.

There were two railroads in Texas at the beginning of the Civil War.

Letters From News Readers—

Tahoka, Sept. 15
I have just read in The Lynn County News about how some of our citizens are angered by the Colored boy attending our school in this city. It made me wonder if God would have taken this attitude. We, as Christians, should always ask this question.

God gifted us with being of a "white" complexion. This one "black" boy may be a great blessing to his race of people in a few years. Surely, the Negroes need someone to help them regain some of their lost privileges. If there is some one of the Negroes who is willing to be persecuted to gain this education, I'm sure God will help him in this fight.

Some of our citizens probably have not stopped to ask themselves what they would do if they, or their children, were a Negro and were struggling to get an education. I can imagine you would almost lose your respect for the white man.

The Christian view is this: There is no color of a soul in God's eyes. We read in St. Matthew 16:27: "For the Son of Man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his work." We, as Christians, are to treat our fellowman, regardless of color, with kindness.

Some are afraid of intermarriage, but I would say there is very little chance of this. We read where the Negroes had rather not attend the White man's school.

How will it be when we get to heaven? Will the White man be seated at the head of the table and the Negro at the foot? No, I think the color will all be gone up there.

It stirs my soul to see a person treated so unjustly. Every one who is opposed to this young boy attending our school should fall upon their knees and ask the Lord to search out their hearts and ask God how He, as a Holy One, would do in this situation. . . . Can we live as brother and sister in heaven? We won't have time to pick out color in hell.—A Christian Reader.

O'Donnell Wins Over Cooper

O'Donnell Eagles got back on the victory train last Friday by defeating Cooper 19 to 13 in a game played at O'Donnell, although they had to come from behind to do it.

On the second play of the game, Halfback Leo Barrington broke away on a 55-yard run for the first score. Cooper came right back when Halfback Donald Crooks got away on a 25-yard spree.

Then Eagle halfback Gerald Barton took the kick-off back 82 yards to the one yard line, and Ben Richburg scored on the next play.

Trailing 12 to 13, O'Donnell put on a 50-yard march with Barton, a sophomore, carrying the last two, and Richburg added the extra point.

Wilson Defeats Amherst 26-13

Wilson Mustangs scored in each quarter to take a 26 to 13 victory over the Bulldogs at Amherst last Friday night.

Petersburg Buffaloes will be playing at Wilson tonight. Dewey Corley took the ball over the goal line twice, once in the first quarter and once in the final, while he set up another in the second by recovering an Amherst fumble, following which Dan Verkamp raced 40 yards to score. Verkamp also scored in the third.

Amherst, behind all the way, scored its touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters. Coach Ralph Huntington's boys at Wilson ran over New Deal in their opener the week before.
