Lubbock Loses 14-6 Thriller To Sandies

Amarillo Scores In First, Fourth Quarters To Keep Perfect Record

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

SPIRIT and hustle almost won a football game at Jones Stadium Friday afternoon as a battling band of Lubbock Westerners fought Amarillo's powerful Golden Sandies to a standstill for three quarters and then fell victim to a late touchdown thrust that gave the Panhandle gridders a shaky 14 to 6 victory.

A crowd of approximately 13,000 watched the Golden Sandies protect their undefeated, untied record this season and take their second straight win in District 1-AA competition, but only after overcoming a determined Lubbock squad which suddenly came to life late in the first quarter to hurl the "Amarillo jinx" of past years back into the Sandies' teeth.

Lubbock Fights Back

The Sandstorm, rated second in the state and previous to Friday's game one of the top-heavy favorites in the schoolboy race, put together a sudden, downfield scoring thrust in the first eight minutes of the game, and a fourth quarter "break" to eke out victory in a game full of golden opportunities that went awry for both teams.

But it was the unfaltering determination and brilliant performance of the Lubbock schoolboys that gave the partisan crowd its thrills. The Westerners, who entered the game slated to lose by 25 or more points, came from behind to score after Amarillo's first touchdown then battled the vaunted Amarilloans on even terms for most of the game, and actually made more scoring threats than their Panhandle rivals.

Coach Pat Pattison's superbly-coached gridders held the Sandies to their smallest margin of victory over a Lubbock team since the 1941 encounter, when the Amarilloans copped a 3-0 win, and also held the Sandies to their lowest number of points since that tilt seven years ago.

Sandies Score In First

The Sandies tallied the first touchdown in the traditional clash late in the first quarter, following a series of short drives by both teams. The Amarilloans took over on their own 34-yard line on a pass interception by Back Jack Newby, then ace Tailback Marvin McNeil swept around right end for 50 yards to the Lubbock 15. Fullback Claude Fox smashed through center to the seven, McNeil was held to a yard at right tackle, and Fox blasted over right tackle for the touchdown.

Guard Bobby Hudgins, who played brilliantly for the Sandies, kicked the extra point from placement and the visitors held a 7-0 margin.

The undismayed Westerners surged back mid-way in the second period to chalk up their counter. Lubbock took over the ball on the Westerner 47, following a short punt by McNeil, and on the first play Lubbock Tailback Bobby Brown sprinted through right tackle all the way to the Sandie 27-yard marker. Brown gained another yard at center, then Fullback Malcolm Young churned through the right tackle slot for a first down on the Amarillo 15. Wingback Donald Decker was trapped for a six-yard loss on an end sweep, with Brown picking up a yard on a tackle slant.

Agents Push Vote Probe

(By The Associated Press)

THREE FBI men investigated second Democratic party voting in Jim Wells county Friday while two Senate investigators prepared to ship the county's election ballots to Washington.

Senate investigator Arthur E. Broer served a subpoena on Luis Salas, resigned election judge of Jim Wells precinct No. 13, instructing him to be ready to report to Washington when and if a hearing is held there. Precinct 13 has figured strongly in the hotly contested U. S. Senate contest between Lyndon Johnson and his opponent Coke Stevenson. Johnson won the Democratic primary nomination by 87 votes but Stevenson has charged that fraud deprived him of the nomination.

Senate Contest Hinted

Jack Porter, Johnson's Republican opponent in the general election Friday called on Johnson to remove himself from the campaign.

"I think it is plain to everyone by now that his seat in the Senate, if you send him there, will be contested," Porter declared in a speech at Waco.

At Austin Friday, Stevenson said in a statement that Johnson "no longer seems proud of his 87-vote margin."

Stevenson claims that irregularities in Jim Wells county added votes to Johnson's total. Al-

San Angelo Man To Head Texas Mines

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, 40, president of San Angelo Junior college, was named president of the University of Texas College of Mines at El Paso by the board of regents today.

Elkins was a football star at the University of Texas and Rhodes scholar. For the past 10 years he has been president of the San Angelo Junior college.

He will succeed Dr. D. M. Wiggins, who resigned from the College of Mines presidency to become president of Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Foreign Policy Claimed Safer With Demos

(By The Associated Press)

PRESIDENT TRUMAN told a Brooklyn crowd Friday night that "the fate of mankind" depends on U.S. foreign policy and "our policy is safer in Democratic than in Republican hands."

Mr. Truman wound up his eastern campaign for the presidency in the Brooklyn speech, while his Republican opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, arrived in New York to address another gathering tonight in Madison Square Garden.

But even before he got to New York, Dewey had words of his own on foreign policy, as well as a new pledge of White House Congress cooperation. Speaking for Joseph W. Martin (R-Mass.) joined in the pledge of cooperation, if the Republicans win the White House and Congress next Tuesday.

Truman's "Foot Slipping"

Dewey told a crowd at New Haven, Conn., that the Truman administration's "foot is slipping with increasing rapidity," and "you can't stop it by giving away other people's freedom."

President Truman will speak at St. Louis tonight.

Policies Hit

Mr. Truman based his expressed fears of Republican mis-handling of foreign policy on what he called (1) Republican crippling of reciprocal trade programs, (2) GOP efforts to turn the European recovery program from one of "world reconstruction to one of hand-out relief," (3) the fact that "the Republican record shows that it is never far from the forces of isolationism."

Mr. Truman did say that in bipartisan foreign policy "we have had the cooperation of some wise and patriotic Republicans." But their contributions, he said, "must not blind us to the fact that the Republican party, as a party, is a late convert to the cause of in-

Dewey Holds Big Lead In Survey

BY GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., October —The Institute's second nationwide state-by-state survey shows Governor Thomas E. Dewey holding a marked advantage in popular votes in 19 states and leading by smaller margains in 12 others.

President Truman today enjoys a substantial lead in ten states and has a smaller advantage in four of the sixteen "battleground states of 1948."

Governor J. Strom Thurmond holds long leads in three of the Southern states.

All voters who have not yet made up their minds on a choice for president have been eliminated from consideration in this semi-final analysis of political sentiment throughout the nation.

Not Final Forecast

These figures for the most part represent voter opinion up to the middle of October and are not the Institute's final figures on presidential standings. The final standings will be reported next Monday and will be based on surveys of voters across the country which were being conducted during the last days of the campaign.

Truman Order To Halt UN Move On Israel Reported

By PIERRE J. HUSS
INS Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Reported personal intervention by President Truman brought another American reversal on Palestine policy today and forced the Security Council to delay action on proposed sanctions against Israel.

Indisputable Security Council sources admitted tonight that Mr. Truman's last-minute signal to the American delegation to switch its previous support of the Anglo-Chinese resolution [illegible] the council brought the [illegible] day—presumably until after [illegible] Tuesday's U. S. elections.

[illegible] resolution proposed that economic sanctions be employed against Israel or Egypt failed to obey an order to withdraw troops from Palestine's southern Negev to positions held Oct. 14.

Referred To White House

Egypt, with her troops trapped in the Negev, stood to gain by the withdrawal plan, and has been willing to do so. But Israel objected on the grounds that the recent cease-fire left the question of withdrawal open to negotiation.

Reporters seeking an official statement regarding President Truman's indicated intercession in the Palestine case were told by U. S. representatives in Paris: "We have been instructed to refer all such inquiries to the White House."

(President Truman, in New York, crisply declined to comment. But in his Madison Square Garden speech Thursday night he reaffirmed that he stands on the Democratic platform which backs the original UN resolution on Palestine, giving Israel the disputed Negev. This is counter to the Bernadotte plan which would cede the Negev to the Arabs, and which has been supported by U. S. Secretary of State Marshall.)

Goblins Through Downtown Streets Is Slated

Goblins, Witches, and the assorted Hallowe'en characters, both large, small and medium sized, will gather in downtown Lubbock tonight for a parade and holiday observance which takes the place of the regular Hallowe'en spree of Oct. 31, which falls on Sunday this year.

The witching hour will be 7:30 p.m. today, several hours before the usual stroke of midnight when the spooks come out to do their haunting.

The City recreation department has arranged the "reunion" of the Hallowe'en characters, and to lure out the most funny, most original, and best characters, have amassed a prize fund of $170 to be split among the winning characters in the parade, assuming a witch riding a broomstick has as much use for money as anyone, of course.

Anticipating an unusually large gathering of the Hallowe'en folk, the city recreation officials have designated the Sears and Roebuck & Co., parking lot as the meeting place. From the parking lot the parade route will be down Thirteenth to Ave. O, go to Broadway, turn right on Broadway, down Broadway to Ave. G, turn left on Ave. G to Main street, turn left on Main down Ave. L, down Ave. L to Broadway, down Broadway to Ave. O, down Ave. O to Thirteenth, turn left there and return to starting point.

Schools over the city held carnivals to start the weekend observation last night.

French Police, Soldiers Drive Pickets From 20 More Mines

PARIS, Oct. 29 (AP)—Thousands of heavily-armed French police and soldiers drove pickets from about 20 more struck coal mines today.

They met no important resistance, and there was rising governmental optimism that the 25-day-old tie-up was nearing an end.

National Defense Minister Paul Ramadier said the situation may be so well in hand next week that troops can be withdrawn from the coal fields.

Amarillo Is Host To Tech Board

By C. W. RATLIFF
Avalanche Staff Writer

AMARILLO, Oct. 29.—Amarillo played host to Texas Tech's directors today as they visited the sprawling 17,000-acre Pantex Ordnance plant, 17 miles northeast of the city where the college is co-operating with Texas A. & M. in research work on wheat poisoning of cattle.

Later, the Tech board members, President D. M. Wiggins and other college officials were guests of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce at their directors' luncheon at the Amarillo hotel.

Five members of the board, four of whom had never visited the plant, were present for the day's program which started with a two-hour ride over the labrynth of hard-surfaced roads and through a maze of buildings of various sizes and types in the huge plant, which was a shell-loading unit during the war.

The Tech officials saw the 5,400 acres of wheat land and 1,900 acres of pastureland which is being used as a basis of the research program. The cultivated land is divided into 11 units with G.I. co-operators operating the various units. A total of 8,500

Air Force Rescue Group Rushes In Planes To Aid In Intensive Search

A WIDESPREAD aerial search for a missing airplane with four persons aboard was launched over hundreds of miles of territory between Lubbock and Wichita Falls by the Air Force Air Rescue Service late Friday and will be resumed early this morning.

The plane, carrying R. G. Rapp, president of the Denver Producing and Refining company of Oklahoma City and Denver City, Texas, and three other persons, has been unreported since midmorning Thursday when it asked weather information near Wichita Falls. The plane was believed headed toward Lubbock on its way to Denver City at the time.

Late Friday night no trace of the plane had been reported to Air Force officials at Lubbock Municipal airport or to Sheppard Field at Wichita Falls.

Aboard the missing plane were Rapp, 60; L. S. Tunks, superintendent of production for the Denver company; Mrs. Tunks, and Ben Parr, the pilot.

All were reported to be residents of Oklahoma City. The plane reportedly had left the Lake Texoma area Thursday for Denver City, possibly flying through Lubbock. However, no trace of the plane having landed at Lake Texoma has been reported.

The plane was identified as a Cessna, low-wing monoplane, a small passenger plane.

Three C-47s, one B-17, two L-5s and one helicopter and more than 30 Air Rescue Service personnel with emergency aerial and land equipment flew into Lubbock and Wichita Falls from Biggs Field at El Paso, late Friday afternoon to start the search. Two of the C-47s, the B-17 and the two L-5s searched parts of the plains and canyons between Lubbock and Wichita Falls until near darkness Friday but found no trace of the missing craft.

Aid In Search Asked

Lt. C. J. Fuhrmann, public relations officer with the Air Rescue team from Biggs Field, said late last night that the widespread search would be intensified Saturday morning. The Air Force officer asked all radio stations and newspapers to publicize the disappearance of the plane in hopes that information concerning it might be sent in to the group. Lieut. Fuhrmann asked that anyone having such information call him long distance 9914 collect at the Lubbock Municipal airport.

The planes and helicopter were equipped with emergency drop equipment which can be parachuted to the plane and its occupants provided they are found in the

Army's New Setup Pushed

By JOHN DRUCKENBROD
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 — The Army announced a top-level reorganization tonight to put the service on a semi-wartime basis.

Army Secretary Royall said that the shakeup, effective Nov. 15, "is designed to obviate the necessity for sudden change in event of emergency" and places the Army on "a peace-or-war functional footing."

The most significant change is the creation of a new post, vice chief of staff, and the appointment of two deputy chiefs to "increase the efficiency of top Army administration and expedite business."

At present there is only one deputy under chief of staff to Gen. Omar N. Bradley. He is Gen. A. Lawton Collins, whom Royall appointed as the new vice chief.

Deputy Chiefs Named

Royall appointed Lt. Gen. Wade H. Haislitzn now special assistant to Bradley, as deputy chief for administration, and Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, presently general staff director of plans and operations as deputy chief for plans and combat operations.

The Army secretary declared that the vice-chief "will be available to relieve the chief of staff for inspections at home and overseas and for coordination with the military chiefs of the other defense departments." He added:

"In all matters relating to the Army, the vice chief of staff will be principle adviser and assistant to the chief of staff."

According to Royall, this new position will "provide the chief of staff with an alter ego whose official acts shall be considered

TOUCHDOWN BOUND!—Lubbock's touchdown play against Amarillo's Golden Sandies Friday afternoon at Jones Stadium—and another near-touchdown thrust—are shown in the photos above. In the photo at left Lubbock End Bob Rooker (No. 62) sprints the last five yards to pay dirt after taking a 20-yard pass from Tailback Bobby Brown. Note path of pass marked. On the play, mid-way in the second quarter, Rooker was hit by Amarillo safety man Marvin McNeil at the five, but twisted away to go over the goal line standing up. Other players in the picture are Lubbock End Ted Vaught (No. 70) and Amarillo's Center Charles Sieber (No. 50). In the photo at right, Lubbock's Vaught is shown snagging a short aerial from Brown on the Sandie three-yard line late in the second quarter. The play followed recovery of an Amarillo fumble on the Sandie 11, and gave the Westerners their second scoring opportunity. But running plays lost ground and a field goal was nullified by an off-side penalty. Other players in the photo are Jimmy Richards, Lubbock blocking back (No. 43); Rooker (No. 62); and Sandies Claude Fox (No. 30); Jack Newby (No. 41); and James Garner (No. 81). Walker Winner In Debt Action

A 99th district court jury answered for the plaintiff when it reported at 5:50 p. m. Friday to Judge G. Y. Pardue its findings in five special issues submitted at 4:45 p. m. in the debt action of C. R. Walker against Lee Optical company and others.

Homer L. Pharr, attorney for the plaintiff, indicated he would move for judgment based upon answers of the jury, of which Roy B. Carnes was foreman.

Other Defendants Named

Other defendants in the action were Sam Balk, A. I. Glassman and Archie Skibell, who are associated in operation of Glassman's Department store, and Dr. Ellis Carp, of Dallas, official of the optical company.

Involved in the suit was $780.60, which Walker said was his 5 per cent fee for arctitectural services in connection with plans to provide space in the Glassman building for the optical company.

However, there was disagreement as to who had authorized the drawing of the plans—associates, or some of them, of the Glassman firm, or Dr. Carp or a business representative of his.

On that the lawsuit hinged.

Against Optical Firm

Based on the answers to the five issues in question, it was indicated that the judgment would be against the optical company.

Former 72nd District Judge Homer L. Pharr represented Walker. Durwood H. Bradley, of the law firm of Bradley, Key and Kimmel, represented Glassman and his associates. James O. Cade represented Lee Optical company, which, it was brought out by Cade, never obtained a written lease to space in the Glassman building, but obtained one several blocks westward, near Lubbock hotel.

The jury is: Henry Dieble, J. W. Ray, Acie Cope, Dan E. Moore, Roy B. Carnes, E. D. Norman, Elmer Hill, H. C. Norris, O. J. Aycock, Charley Boyd, James Burrough, and C. T. Patrick.

Texas Tech Host To Rice Owls In Homecoming Feature

19,000 Expected To See Favored Owls In First Visit To Lubbock

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

The powerful Owls of Rice Institute and the scrapping Red Raiders of Texas Tech clash in Jones Stadium this afternoon at 2:30 in the feature football game of Homecoming, with 19,000 fans expected to jam the stands and temporary bleachers.

Rice, beaten four straight weekends, arrived in Lubbock by plane yesterday afternoon and took a brief workout. Coach Jess Neely's men are in good condition and ready to hit the winning trail. Underdog Tech also had light workout yesterday and Coach Dell Morgan's squad is ready for the game. The weatherman indicated fair skies and a cool breeze for the non-conference battle.

Preparation for the game by each team dealt primarily on forward passing, with respective defenses resting. If the week-long drills are any sign, it will be an offensive game today and both teams will throw caution to the breeze.

Tech stands to gain more from a victory than Rice, but the visitors have only one win to their credit this year and they will go all out to make the Raiders their second victim. If Tech comes out on top, it will give them an even split in four games against Southwest Conference teams. If Rice loses, it will be their third defeat outside that conference.

The Owls opened the season with a 40-0 licking of Sam Houston, but four defeats followed in order. LSU conquered them 26-13 and Southern California added their scalps 7-0, both non-conference tilts. The great Methodist eleven went to Houston the following week and trounced the Owls 33-7 to hand them their first defeat in the conference. Last week, after leading Texas 7-0 at the half, the Owls were eliminated from SWC championship consideration when the Steers rallied for a 20-7 victory.

Tech currently leads the Border Conference and is the defending champion. The Raiders opened with a 19-0 win over West Texas State Teachers college and upset Texas A and M with a last half rally, 20-14. SMU took their measure in Dallas 41-6, but the Raiders bounced back to smother downtrodden Tulsa 41-20. Baylor was the second SWC team to beat Tech, turning in a 13-0 victory on a sea of mud and water at Waco. Last week the Raiders unleashed a powerful last half offensive to trounce Arizona in Tucson, 31-0.

On the basis of the comparative score with SMU, Rice rates a one-touchdown margin, even though it isn't conclusive. Tech played the Mustangs at Dallas on their home field, while the Ponies went to Houston to oppose Rice. Most football experts are giving Rice a one to two touchdown edge over the Raiders, but local sentiment, using Homecoming as a yardstick, are looking for a Tech-san victory.

Rice Holds Wide Edge

Only once in the six meetings of the two teams has Tech gained a victory, in 1944 they won 13-7. The Owls have won all the other games to pile up a point total of 133 to Tech's 33. The Owls slaughtered Tech in 1946 40-7 and last year turned their rout into a 41-6 victory.

The Raiders this week gained the services of Guard Milburn Haydon, who is expected to see some duty today, mainly on defense. Haydon has been out of action since he twisted his knee in the Aggie tilt.

Rice will be at full strength. Last week Quarterback Tobin Rote, Tackle Ed Parker and Center Joe Watson all received minor injuries, but they have recovered and will be ready for today's game.

Rote gives teeth to the Owl offensive and his passing is not far behind Gil Johnson of SMU On him rests much of the success of Rice's T formation, while Huey Keeney, the great punter and broken field runner; Harold Riley, the hard-running halfback; and Bobby Lantrip, the damaging line plunger, gives the Owls a diversified attack.

Watson is one of the top centers in the nation. A 235-pound giant, Watson last week was Lineman of the Week and has made various of the All-Americans Texas called him "immovable" on defense and titantic on offense.

Tech will spot the visitors a weight advantage, with Rice expected to have a 25-pound per man edge in the line. But the lighter Tech linemen make up for much of the difference in fight. In the backfield, Halfbacks Cal Steveson, Walter Maloney, Charley Reynolds, Glenn Lewis, Zac Henderson and Ike Stuver give the Raiders breakaway runners who are always a threat. Fullback Bud Conley, J. W. Thompson and Earl Jackson are dangerous, hard-hitting runners. And the quarterbacking duties are in the capable hands of Ernest Hawkins and Bill Lyman, both of whom can pass efficiently.

Idalou Squad Beats Ropesville, 33 To 6

ROPESVILLE, Oct. 29. (Special)—Idalou handed Ropesville a 33-6 defeat in a District 4-B conference play here tonight.

Idalou took the lead early in the game when Left half Jarratt, on a run around end, went over for the first tally. Quarterback Donald Seale made a 20-yard run for the next touchdown in the first period. Fullback Alvin Joiner intercepted a pass and went 30-yards for pay dirt in the second quarter. Jarratt scored again in the third and Seale again in the fourth. Seale kicked one extra point and two other points were made on passes.

Ropesville's single score was made in the second quarter.

Monahans Gridders Beat Kermit, 19-0

MONAHANS, Oct. 29 (Special) — Monahans' mighty Lobos tallied twice in the first half and then added another six points in the last two quarters to pound out a 19-0 victory over the stubborn Kermit Panthers.

The win protected Monahans' undefeated record this season and kept the Lobos in a deadlock with Seminole for the District 5-A lead.

Battering Fullback R. Cathey tallied the first two Monahans touchdowns on 20-yard scoring gallops, then Halfback Waldo Young sprinted 25-yards for a third six-pointer.

SADDLER KAYOS PEP

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—Sandy Saddler, spindle-legged Harlem negro, scored a stunning fistic upset tonight when he knocked out Willie Pep of Hartford, Conn., to win the world featherweight championship in 2:38 of the fourth round at Madison Square Garden.

The first great mechanical advance in farming was the evolution of the plow from the hoe.

Major Teams Risk Records

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Eight of the nation's nine major all-victorious football teams risk their spotless records tomorrow on a program crowded with games that will have a definite bearing on the championship picture in all the top drawer conferences.

The members of the all-winning fraternity who appear to be facing the toughest assignments, however, are the two Dixie powerhouses—North Carolina and Georgia Tech.

North Carolina, currently rated the third best team in the country and a topheavy favorite in the Southern Conference, moves into Knoxville to battle a Tennessee team that has won three in a row after a slow start and has been pointing for the Tar Heels all season.

Wreck Meets Duke

George Tech, holding sixth place in the rankings determined by the Associated Press poll, drops out of the Southeastern Conference, in which it is the favored leader, to tangle at Durham with Duke, unbeaten in five starts although tied by both North Carolina State and Tennessee.

In the Big Nine, a three-way deadlock for second place is almost certain to be broken, but front-running Michigan, No. 1 team in the nation, appears in no danger of losing to invading Illinois. With Michigan slamming steadily toward its second Big Nine title but ineligible for the Rose Bowl assignment, the scramble for the trip to Pasadena involves the trio now tied for the runner-up spot with two victories and one defeat — Northwestern, Ohio State and Indiana.

Minnesota figures to erase Indiana at Minneapolis tomorrow, while Northwestern and Ohio State come face ot face at Evanston. Wisconsin and Iowa, whose 1-2 records match Minnesota in the Conference, play each other at Iowa city.

SWC Situation

Considerably less involved is the situation in the Southwest Conference, where Southern Methodist and Texas hook up at Austin in what likely will be the title game. Like once-tied Baylor, which invades Texas Christian, both Texas and SMU are all-victorious in the Conference but Baylor still has to face both of them.

Fourth-ranking California will be shooting for its seventh straight triumph and third in the Pacific Coast league at Southern California, while Oregon, the Bears' biggest conference threat, steps outside to entertain St. Mary's.

A pair of Ivy league games which should produce the outstanding challenger to Pennsylvania send Cornell to Columbia and Dartmouth to Yale.

Missouri At Kansas

Missouri and Oklahoma, who will go a long way toward settling the Big Seven title when they meet next week, are on the road tomorrow, Missouri at Kansas State and Oklahoma at Iowa State for league tussles.

Other headline games around the country by sections:

East — Virginia at Princeton, Syracuse at Boston university, South Carolina at West Virginia and George Washington at Lafayette.

Midwest—Marquette at Purdue, UCLA at Nebraska, Kentucky at Cincinnati, Oklahoma A. and M. at Kansas and Tulsa at Wichita.

South — Georgia at Alabama, Mississippi at Louisiana State, Mississippi State at Tulane, Florida at Furman, North Carolina State at Wake Forest, Richmond at William and Mary and Davidson at VMI.

Southwest and far west—Arkansas at Texas A. and M., Rice at Texas Tech, Washington at Stanford, Michigan State at Oregon State, Idaho at Washington State, Montana at Brigham Young, Colorado at Utah and Wyoming at Utah State.

Amarillo High Golfers Defeat Lubbock Schoolboy Links Team

Amarillo High's golf team turned in steady near-par rounds to chalk up a 14-3½ point victory over the Lubbock High links team Friday morning at Lubbock Country club.

In the feature foursome, Amarillo's Don Hill beat Lubbock's Clyde Mitchell, 6 and 5; while the Sandies' Art McKay took a one-up decision over Jack Whitehead.

Scotty Mills paced the Amarillo ans to a second foursome win over Jimmy Sexton, one-up; but Lubbock's John Paul Rangel notched a one-up victory over Amarillo's George McCormick.

The match was the first of the year for the Lubbock High squad.

Antelopes Score 14-6 Win Over Levelland

Post Noses Out Lobos

By CHOC HUTCHESON
Avalanche Sports Writer

LEVELLAND, Oct. 29. (Special)—Coach Bing Bingham's Post Antelopes continued their unbeaten, untied march through District 4-A grid ranks here tonight by spilling a slightly-favored Levelland team, 14-6, before more than 3,500 fans.

The contest was a non-conference affair, although the same two clubs are expected to meet again later in the season for the district crown. Both currently are leading their respective divisions in the conference chase.

Junior Malouf, a speedy, hard-running halfback, proved the difference in two otherwise well matched teams tonight. He counted Post's opening touchdown by intercepting a Levelland pass and racing 50 yards untouched in the second quarter, then paved the way for the clinching Antelope score with a 26-yard romp deep into Lobo territory in the closing period. Ronnie Boucher, after Malouf, Roy Teaf and Ray Kirkpatrick had moved the ball to Levelland's three-yard stripe, went over for the tally. Jack Kirkpatrick place-kicked both Post extra points.

Levelland's lone touchdown came on an 80-yard power drive midway in the fourth quarter. A fourth-down pass for 11 yards from Don Taylor to Dean Waltrip provided the final ten yards, after Lonnie Northam had spearheaded a crushing ground attack into Post territory.

After the game, Coach Bingham said that Truett Rattan's Lobos had given the Antelopes what he considered their toughest game to date, adding that his boys had to come up with their best brand of football to squeeze out the triumph.

Both teams exhibited considerable finesse in the ball-handling department, and as a result both gained consistently on the ground. Yardage figures gave Levelland a slight margin, but Post's fine "chips down" play in the crucial stages, plus Malouf's runback of the pass interception, proved the difference.

The tilt was a District 4-A (north half) conference game.

Penalties and a stubborn Roughneck defense throttled three Littlefield drives, one of which would have gone for a touchdown.

Savage line play marked the first quarter with Littlefield making gains on the ball carrying of Quarterback Syrgley and Halfback Bales. In the second quarter Sundown drove 45 yards to the Littlefield 18 yard line but was held for downs. Douglas Etheridge and Bill McCulloch sparked the drive.

On the first play after the half Littlefield's halfback, Bales, broke loose around right end from the 50 yard line and ran across for a touchdown but the score was nullified by a 15 yard holding penalty. A short time later the Wildcats opened up with a passing attack. Syrgley hurled 25 yards to Currin, Littlefield right end, on the Sundown one yard line but the gain was called back because of a pushing penalty.

The Roughnecks scored the lone touchdown of the game in the fourth period when Etheridge sparked a 55 yard drive, carrying over from the Wildcat three. A Wildcat drive was halted by an intercepted pass on the Sundown five shortly before the game ended.

Littlefield made 13 first downs to Sundown's eight. Penetrations were even with two each.

O'Donnell Rolls Up Impressive 26-19 Win Over Slaton Tigers

O'DONNELL, Oct. 29. (Special)—O'Donnell's surprising Eagles rolled to an impressive 26-19 victory over the Slaton Tigers in a south half District 4-A tilt here tonight.

A capacity crowd watched the smooth-working Eagles tally two touchdowns in the first quarter, then move ahead at the half, 19-6. A third quarter tally clinched the conference win for the Eagles.

Quarterback Joe Palmer engineered the first Eagle six-pointer, passing 30 yards to End Carrol Pearson for the touchdown. Palmer boosted the score to 12-0 minutes later, when he circled left end on a keeper play and went 64 yards to paydirt.

The Tigers rallied early in the second stanza, with Slaton's Carl Lewis breaking off-tackle for a 42-yard touchdown gallop. But Palmer climaxed another Eagle drive with a one-yard plunge through center to the double stripe and Buddy Brock converted.

O'Donnell's final touchdown was chalked up on a one-yard smash by Halfback Jack Houston early in the third period, with Brock again converting to give the Eagles a 26-6 margin. The Tigers pushed across two more tallies, on Fullback Tom Smith's 20-yard run and a 23-yard pass from Smith to Lewis, but the Tigers couldn't overcome the Eagle lead.

Tahoka Bulldogs Score 27-6 Win Over Morton's Indians

MORTON, Oct. 29 (Special)—The Morton Indians took a 27-6 licking from the Tahoka Bulldogs in a district 4-A, north half battle here tonight.

The Indians took the lead in the first period when Halfback Yeary scored from 60 yards out in a play through the line.

End Carter scored for the Bulldogs in the second period. In the third, Back Chandler went over for a tally. End McNeely scored on a pass in the final period and Back Small went through the line for the final tally from 30 yards out. Carter kicked the three extra points.

Petersburg Defeats Amherst, 34 To 19

PETERSBURG, Oct. 29. (Special)—Petersburg came out on top of a free-scoring district 3-B conference game with Amherst here tonight 34 to 19.

Petersburg broke the scoring ice in the first period when left guard Vernon Burrow blocked an Amherst punt on the 15 and Main scored on a 15 yard end sweep. Holloway scored Petersburg's second marker on a five yard plunge.

Amherst broke into the scoring column in the second quarter when end Jack Carpenter hit pay dirt on a 30 yard pass play. Jimmy Eaves marked up Petersburg's third touchdown on a 20 yard quarterback sneak.

In the last half Billy Joe Wright scored for Amherst after 60 yard drive and Jackie Perkins added another on a line drive. Petersburg met the challenge when Eaves scored on a sneak, and Wamon Foster carried a kickoff 65 yards into pay dirt.

Friona Chiefs Gain 47-0 Victory Over Whitharral

FRIONA, Oct. 29. (Special)—A trio of fast backs tore loose tonight to lead the Friona Chiefs to a one-sided 40-0 victory over an outclassed Whitharral eleven in a District 3-B game.

Fullback Wayne Bainum, halfback Richard London and Quarterback Tommy Lacewell took turns racing up and down the field. Lacewell scored on runs of 48 yards, 25 yards and 30 yards, while Bainum scored twice and London went over the final chalk mark twice also.

Extra points tonight went to Bainum, with two, Lacewell, with two, and London.

Friona scored once in the first period, twice in the second, twice in the third and twice in the fourth.

Harvesters Rack Up 33-0 Victory

Pampa Swamps Cubs

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 29 (Special)—Pampa's rampaging Harvesters racked up their second District 1-AA conference victory of the season at the expense of an outclassed Brownfield eleven here tonight 33 to 0 before 3,500 surprised fans.

The Harvesters scored twice in the first quarter and once in the second quarter to take a 20 to 0 halftime lead. The first score was set up by Halfback Wesley Keith who returned a Brownfield punt 47 yards to the Cub 23. Jack Williams, Pampa halfback, sneaked through center for 15, and Quarterback Carroll Smith looped a pass to Daral Davis, Harvester end, for a touchdown.

The second score was marked up by Davis on a fourth down gallop from punt formation. The play carried for 36 yards. The third touchdown was made when Davis intercepted a Cub pass and ran it back 35 yards and across the double stripe.

After the half Brownfield shook Bill Tankersley, star Cub halfback, loose on a 32 yard run to the Pampa 20. Tankersley apparently was headed for a sure touchdown when he stumbled and fell. Halfback Jimmy Billings passed to Carroll Johnson on the Pampa four, but the Cubs drew a five yard penalty for delaying the game, and the drive died on Pampa's five.

The Harvesters moved 75 yards for their fourth score with Keith driving the last nine yards on a cutback over tackle. The final marker came in the fourth period with reserve Halfback Pete Cooper hammering over from the four-yard-line after a long downfield drive.

Johnny Winston was outstanding in the line for the Cubs

Marfa Eleven Gains 27 To 7 Victory Over Fort Stockton

FT. STOCKTON, Oct. 29 (Special) — Marfa's Shorthorns invaded Ft. Stockton tonight for a 27-7 win over the Panthers in a non-conference tilt. It was the Panthers' seventh straight loss.

Panthers took the lead during the first period when Back Scudday passed to Harral, end, to go 55 yards for a touchdown.

The Shorthorns, after failing to score in the first period, made two touchdowns during the third period and two in the fourth. Full back Dasquez scored two of the tallies and kicked three extra points, and passed to End Dasquez for another touchdown. Tailback Ramon made the other score on a 58-yard run

Steers Win Sixth Straight Game

Lockney Squad Edges Floydada, 15 To 12

By JOE HITCHCOCK
Avalanche Sports Writer

LOCKNEY, Oct. 29 (Special)—The Lockney Longhorns ran their victory record to six straight by outclassing the Floydada Whirlwinds 15-12 here tonight in the top conference tilt of district 3-A. The Longhorns smashed over their opponents, gaining 289 yards rushing to 63 for the Whirlwinds, and piling up 16 first downs to three.

Both teams set up one touchdown through the air and chalked up second tallies by pass interceptions. A Floydada back was thrown for a safety early in the first period for the first score of the game.

Jack Cole Passes

At the beginning of the second quarter, Back Jack Cole's heave from his own 38-yard line to Jimmy McGowen carried the pigskin to the Floydada 29-yard mark. In five more plays, McGowen plunged over from the five-yard stripe. Kick for extra point failed.

Delbert Shearer, tackle, intercepted a Whirlwind toss in the second quarter on the Lockney 30-yard stripe. Five plays later Calvin Pyle plunged over from the nine-yard marker for the touchdown. McGowen kicked the extra point to end the Longhorn scoring for the game.

75-Yard Run

In the third period Halfback Bob Bishop snatched a Longhorn pass on the Floydada 25-yard stripe and scampered 75 yards for a touchdown for the outstanding play of the game. Kick for the point was no good.

Another tally for the Whirlwinds came in the fourth period. From his own 35-yard line, Finley threw to Randall Handley on the Longhorn 35 and from there Handley ran to the eight-yard line. In two plays Capt. Bill Jeter carried over. Kick for extra point was blocked, making the score 15-12.

Tonight's victory assured Lockney of top place in the conference and dropped Floydada to third, behind idle Spur.

Lubbock Edged In Grid Thriller

perfect protection from the Westerner forward wall and shot a 20-yard pass to End Bob Rooker, who caught the ball on the eight, shook off McNeil at the five and went over the double stripe standing up. Blocking Back Jimmy Richards, who had connected on 10 of 11 conversion attempts this season, missed the extra point try and Lubbock trailed, 7-6.

Miss Scoring opportunity

The Westerners received another scoring opportunity seconds later, when Sandie James Garner fumbled the Lubbock kickoff and Decker recovered the ball on the Amarillo 11. Young hit left tackle for five yards, then Brown passed to End Ted Vaught on the three. A bad pass from center resulted in a two-yard loss back to the five, so Richards attempted a field goal. The kick was good, officials ruled, but Lubbock was off-side and on the last play Brown was dropped back to the Amarillo 13.

Both teams were stalled during the third period, but late in the quarter McNeil got off a booming punt that finally was whistled dead on the Lubbock one-foot line. Young's punt was returned by Garner all the way to the Lubbock 16-yard line, then Wingback Charlie Priolo swept around left end to the seven.

McNeil smashed to the three as the quarter ended, and, following losses on running plays back to the 10, Priolo raced around left end for the touchdown. Hudgins again converted to make the count 14-6.

The scrapping Westerners made another desperate drive late in the final quarter, with Brown running and passing the Lubbock eleven to the Amarillo 10-yard marker. But two running plays and two pass attempts failed to gain and the Sandies took over on downs.

It would be impossible to name all of the boys who turned in good jobs in the tussle, although Brown, Young, Decker, Rooker, Guards Jack Hensley and Merle Burchett and Center Leon Stuart were obviously outstanding. The forward wall was outweighed by the Sandies and out-charged at times, but they never quit fighting.

McNeil was the whole show for the Sandies, although he was aided in the ground-gaining department by the line smashes of Fox and the sweeps of Priolo. Hudgins and Tackle Bobby Moore sparked the Sandie line play.

DENVER, GEORGETOWN TIE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (INS)—A scrappy Denver university eleven battled favored Georgetown to a 10 to 10 tie tonight before 7,394 fans at Griffith stadium. Linked seven all at halftime, the two teams matched field goals in the final quarter five minutes apart.

Tech Frosh Beat WTSTC Fish, 13-6

CANYON, Oct. 29 (Special)—Despite a 100-yard touchdown run by Fullback Tom Airhardt, the West Texas State Teachers college freshmen tonight lost a 13-6 football game to the Texas Tech freshmen.

Harold Haynes of Roscoe, a rabbit back, put the junior Red Raiders in the lead in the second quarter, when he plunged over the line on fourth down. The touchdown climaxed a steady 60-yard drive down the field, with running and passing featuring the advance.

On the ensuing kickoff, Airhardt grabbed the ball on his own goal line and started upfield. The Buff backs gave him good blocking up to the 50-yard line and from that point he simply outran all the Tech players to score.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Techsans started another drive. This one was climaxed when Bobby Close of Shamrock, a fine player all night, went off tackle to cross into pay dirt. Jack Davis of Littlefield booted the extra point.

It was the second meeting of the two teams and left them even for the season, each with a victory. WTSTC first year men took the first meeting, 6-0.

Tech threatened constantly during the first half and only a determined Buffalo defense kept them from scoring more than once. But in the second half, it was a different story. The Buffalo freshmen threatened on several occasions, but the Raiders held to hold off every threat.

The Raiders held an edge in all the statistics, gaining a net 142 yards rushing and completing four of eight passes for 71 yards. The Buffs gained a net 101 yards rushing and completed two of eight passes for 24 yards. Each team intercepted one pass.

Each team punted six times, with Tech holding an average of 39 yards, compared to the Buffs' 36. Tech fumbled twice and recovered each time; WTSTC fumbled once and recovered. Tech drew three penalties for 25 yards; WTSTC drew one penalty for 15 yards.

Dimmitt Thumps Anton, 40-6, In District 3-B Title Game

DIMMITT, Oct. 29. (Special) — Dimmitt swept by Anton tonight 40 to 6 in a District 3-B conference game. The Dimmitt team got off to a fast start in the first period when Lonnie Rice hurled 30 yards to Carl Jowell for the initial touchdown, and then turned on the steam to rack up 36 more points.

Lewis Morton, Dimmitt right end, scored two touchdowns, one on a 25 yard pass play and the other on a 15 yard pass. Carl Jowell also scored twice, one was the game's first touchdown and the other a 12 yard line plunge.

Lonnie Rice crossed the double stripe once on a five yard line play and Harold Brannon scored on a 15 yard plunge. Jim Jowell kicked four extra points.

Billy Glasscock scored Anton's lone touchdown on a 50 yard pass play late in the fourth period.

AGGIES WIN MEET

AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—J. D. Hampton and Julian Herring led Texas A&M to a 24-31 victory over the Texas Longhorns in a dual cross country meet here today.

Smith Plunges From Five To Score

Borger Wins, 6 To 0

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 29 (Special)—Borger's powerful Bulldogs overpowered a scrappy Plainview squad, 6-0, in a District 1-AA conference tilt here tonight. The win leaves Borger undefeated in two conference plays after beating Lubbock, 20-14, earlier this month.

Borger was held scoreless during the first half, but in the middle of the third period Borger Tailback R. C. Dalton broke loose for 65 yards to place the ball on the Plainview five. Leroy Smith, 175-pound end who was shifted to fullback position for the play, plunged over for the single score of the game.

Plainview threatened during the last minutes of the game when they marched 50 yards to the Borger nine. At that point, Borger Fullback Jerry Glass intercepted a pass which ended the drive.

Borger made 13 first downs, 269 net yards rushing, 36 yards passing, connected with two out of seven passes, intercepted two passes, punted twice for an average of 38 yards and was penalized six times for 30 yards.

The Plainview squad made nine first downs, 90 net yards rushing, 42 yards passing, completed four of 13 passes, intercepted two passes, punted four times for a 34-yard average and was penalized twice for 20 yards.

IT'S HALLOWE'EN

Word To The Wise

NOTHING that anyone could say or do would persuade or compel all who celebrate Hallowe'en tonight to confine their observance to good clean fun. Some will get out of line, come what may.

But the downtown parade, with cash prizes, sponsored tonight by civic clubs should provide harmless outlet for much of the enthusiasm which otherwise might blow off destructively. Parents also might help a great deal simply by reminding their offspring that pranks cease to be fun, even to the pranksters, if they result in injuries, deaths or property damage. If the average youngster deliberately endangers life, limb and property, it is due to thoughtlessness and not to inherent meanness.

The vast majority of those who celebrate tonight will do so solely for the sake of fun, without desire to harm anything or anyone. Not many of their envious elders, including some who will be scrubbing soap off of windows, hunting for loose gates and the like as an aftermath, begrudge them that.

But those who refuse to observe reasonable restraints will be proper subjects for police attention—and police should not be hesitant in attending to such matters, vigorously when necessary.

Otherwise, it will be desirable to let the merriment be unrestrained. It is just as well to be reconciled to this prospect because there isn't much that anyone might do to prevent it.

HST And The Polls

PRESIDENT Truman's ridiculing assailment of public opinion polls which, without an important exception, indicate his defeat next Tuesday, had the sound of whistling past the graveyard.

Only once in history has such a poll, attempted on an elaborate scale, missed. In 1936, the Literary Digest, a weekly magazine then tottering on its last legs, conducted the last of several polls. It indicated a victory by Alfred M. Landon over Franklin D. Roosevelt. Landon got eight electoral votes. The Literary Digest expired soon after. The better known polls since then, conducted with increasing scientific exactness, seldom have missed actual results by more than one or two per cent.

The President's charge that public opinion tests have been "rigged" against him is without foundation and he knows it. Several of the polls have attained the stature of important businesses. Practically their sole asset is accuracy. They can't be far wrong in their forecasts and survive. Their selfish interest is in being correct, and not in whom the successful candidate will be.

Mr. Truman's attacks upon the polls almost certainly were rooted in the fact that they are unfavorable to his prospects. If they indicated a Truman victory, the probabilities are he would be extolling them to the skies.

It's usually the matters of small moment that accumulate into hours of time.

The difference between a statesman and a politician is that a politician is always on the side with the most voice.

Utopia must be the place where they keep the gag men gagged.

Tryst

(THE STORY: Dying in the Indian desert, British secret agent Hilary Shenstone feels a desperate need to get back to England and to Nuns Farthing, his family home. He doesn't know the house has been let and that dreamy, 17-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. Hilary does return to England and to Nuns Farthing—after death. When he sees Sabrina, he realizes she is the girl he would have loved if he had lived. Hilary's room is locked after George, his brother, brings word of his death. Sabrina broods until Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, unlocks the room again for her. Sabrina knows then that Hilary has come home. But Aunt Effie, beginning to feel a strangeness in the house, is upset when she finds out Sabrina is once more using the room. "I must take her away," she tells Mrs. Pilton.)

"IF I might say so," began Mrs. Pilton, and the quiet words were like a restraining hand on Aunt Effie's arm, "you ought to think twice before you try to take Miss Sabrina right out of the house. It might be dangerous to interfere."

"Dangerous to—!" That left Aunt Effie very nearly speechless. "I didn't mind very much when she began to make a—a friend of a man she would probably never meet," she floundered. "B-but now it's as though she had—fallen in love with some sort of—ghost! You should have told me about this sooner! You should have warned me!"

"I thought the best way would be to pretend we didn't notice anything at all."

"But that's impossible! It can't go on! Where would it lead to?"

"She might outgrow it. Or he might go away. In any case, it isn't a thing you can decide about."

"I have already decided!" said Aunt Effie obstinately. "We shall leave the house at once. I shall speak to her father. We shall take her back to London as soon as possible."

"I suppose you must do as you think best," said Mrs. Pilton drily, and turned away as though dismissed. "Good-night."

AUNT EFFIE marched with resolute footsteps across the hall and tapped on her brother's study door.

"Alan, I must speak to you."

He looked up at her over his spectacles, his pen poised. "Yes, Effie—what is it now?"

She came in and sat down on the edge of the chair at the end of the desk, facing him, her hands pressed tight together in her lap.

"Alan—I've just had the fight of my life. We've got to go back to London."

In spite of his habitual preoccupation, something of her urgency communicated itself to him. "My dear Effie—" he began, laying his pen down.

"Alan, I'm worried about Sabrina. It's that room upstairs—the one that belonged to the brother who d-died. She's got into it again. Mrs. Pilton gave her the key!"

"Well, so long as the family don't know—and who's to tell them?—I can't see that it matters much."

Aunt Effie looked at him hopelessly. The task of explaining to him about the brightly lighted, empty room where Bella wouldn't go, and about her unnerving interview with the housekeeper, was beyond her.

Quite unexpectedly, even to herself, Aunt Effie began to cry.

"Effie!" He was thoroughly horrified. "Effie, what in the world—I had no idea you were so upset! Here—take my handkerchief!"

At last Aunt Effie blew her nose, and visibly braced herself.

"Alan, I want to go back to town. Just as soon as possible. We must go. For Sabrina's sake. We must get her away from that room. It's not right for her to become so—obsessed—with a dead man's things. It's—it's macabre! She might go mad!"

"I AM the one," said Father, with exaggerated patience, "who will go mad. Must we go all the way back to London to separate Sabrina from this—so-called obsession? Or would some other house in the district do?"

"No, no, we must go right away, Alan! Right away back to London! And I think Sabrina had better go off to some nice school again for a while—"

"But the last time we put her in a school you distinctly told me that that sort of thing was no good to her!"

"I know," she sighed. "It's so hard to know what to do. I can never be sure—"

"How old is she?" he asked suddenly.

"Why, Alan! Your own daughter! She'll be 18 in September, you know that as well as I do!"

"That's old for a school, isn't it? I might have her tutored for Girton, I suppose—"

"Yes, Girton might do—all those nice Cambridge boys," agreed Aunt Effie vaguely. "And then there was that Swiss school I told you about the last time we talked schools—the one that teaches them skiing, along with all the usual things."

"Well, I don't know, Effie—Wasn't that place pretty expensive?"

"You said it was at the time, but this is a special case, Alan. I do think that to get her right away from England for a while—"

"Very well, I'll think about it."

"But we must do something at once, Alan, there's no time to go on thinking about it! I'd better write to the Swiss school in the morning and ask if they can take her."

"Well, all right, if you think that's best."

"And a letter to Mrs. Shenstone, about giving up this lease," added Aunt Effie with satisfaction. "I'm sure if you knew everything, you'd agree with me that it is the only possible course—"

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

NOT THAT I wish her any bad luck, but a certain woman is the bane of my life.

She is the food editor of one of the New York newspapers I read regularly, and apparently her whole existence consists of going around to expensive restaurants, eating her fill of the most fattening dishes and then telling about them in her column.

BRANDEIS

You know, of course, that one of the most important things after you have had some trouble with your heart is to keep your weight down.

I was about fifteen pounds overweight and, by sheer willpower mixed with a little fear and a lot of talking-to by my wife, I finally got myself down to normal.

As you also know, you get yourself down to normal by cutting out everything you like, just as in general life most of the things you like seem to be bad for you.

I had to cut way down on my bread, which I love. Butter, sugar, starches—all bad for me and all delicious to my taste.

It was bad enough to cut out smoking. After fifty pipes a day it isn't so easy to become a non-smoker overnight. But it can be done and it was done by this writer.

Strange to say, I can read all the tobacco ads in the magazines and papers now without any particular pang, and even Arthur Godfrey's praise of "ABC" or that singsong about more people smoke Giraffes (is that the name?) than ever before does not affect me.

But that food editor!

Take today.

Here is a picture of a woman with a pot in her hand.

The picture isn't very clear, but out of that pot she pours something into another pot.

The caption of the picture says "Mrs. So-and-So mixes every batch of the fruit cake, mince meat and plum pudding baked in her home kitchen."

THEN the food editor describes these fruitcakes in detail. She makes your mouth water for a column and a half and then, to add salt to the wound, she goes into ecstasies over brandied fruit pudding with hard sauce, which, as you know, is one of the most fattening dishes in the whole wide world.

If it isn't fruit cake and pudding it's some other fattening dish. But every day she does me wrong by making reducing, and staying reduced, harder and harder.

I don't have to read her stuff, of course. But somehow, to me this woman, whom I have never seen, is a Lorelei and she'll get me yet, just as her legendary predecessor got the poor sailors.

REA OFFICIALS BLAMED

Vote 'Plot' Charged

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Rural Electrification officials have indulged in a $9,000,000 blackmail scheme in order to wrest votes and cash contributions for President Truman from Democrats in South Carolina, citadel of the anti-Truman, States' Rights rebellion, according to charges filed with the House Appropriations committee by Committee Member Charles A. Plumley of Vermont.

In a letter to REA Administrator, Claude R. Wickard of Indiana, the Vermont Congressman has suggested that impeachment charges may be brought against him, unless he can refute the allegations.

TUCKER

So far the officials of this supposed non-political agency have remained silent on their dealings with South Carolina politicians and the heads of the cooperatives who want the $9,000,000 to build transmission lines from the Santee-Cooper hydroelectric project, a government-financed enterprise.

CHARGE: Although the alleged "political shakedown" has won notice chiefly in South Carolina newspapers, it has national significance because of the Truman charge that Governor Dewey sides with the power interests with respect to the transmision of electricity from government dams to the eventual consumers.

Mr. Truman says that his opponent plans to sell the juice to private utilities at the bus bar, and let them charge extortionate rates for delivery into the home.

In South Carolina this issue has come to a test under President Truman. The Central Electric Cooperative down there, which consists of sixteen REA co-ops, applied for a loan of $9,000,000 so it could build its own high lines across the countryside.

COLLUSION: For some unknown reason, although the public explanation was that there were technical difficulties, their application was turned down flat by REA officials at Washington only two months ago.

Now, after a recent and secret huddling of REA-ers and pro-Truman politicians from South Carolina, the men from Dixie were given to understand that "technicalities" would be waived if they kicked through with the political cash so badly needed by Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath.

Despite understandable reticence on the part of the South Carolinians and the Washingtonians, Congressman Plumley suspects collusion, as his letter of October 19 to Administrator Wickard reveals:

CONTRIBUTION: "I am extremely disturbed," wrote Mr. Plumley, who heads the Appropriations subcommittee handling REA funds, "by recent reports appearing in the Charleston (S.C.) News and Courier to the effect that loans by your agency are contingent upon the borrowers' ability to 'sweeten up' the 'Democratic party coffers' by contributions to the Democratic National committee.

"I am referring specifically to the $9,000,000 loan request of the Central Electric Cooperative of South Carolina, which request you turned down several months ago.

"If the loan to this cooperative was not justified two months ago on the basis of its merit, it certainly is not justified today, particularly in light of the impression which was apparently left with the local co-op managers that a sizable contributior to the (Democratic) Party would smooth the deal considerably."

NON-POLITICAL: Representative Plumley then elaborated on the attempt of the late Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, father of REA, to make and keep it completely non-political. Inasmuch as the writer was extremely close to the "grand old man on Capitol Hill" during REA's establishment, he can testify that the Vermonter's version is correct.

"The Rural Electrification Administration," continues Mr. Plumley, "was set up by Congress on a non-political basis. The Administrator's term was fixed for a 10-year period for the specific purpose of keeping politics out of that office.

"If the office of the Administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration cannot be conducted in the manner set forth by Congress, then it is high time that a new Administrator be appointed."

There probably will be a new one soon after January 20, 1949.

"LOW": "If The News and Courier charges are true—and to my knowledge they have not been denied by you or your office—then the national Administration—and your office particularly—has reached a new low in political immorality.

"If the charges in this reputable Southern newspaper are true, the persons responsible for this 'shakedown' are guilty of political blackmail and subject to prosecution under the Hatch Act. If it occurred with your knowledge, however, you, of course, would be subject to impeachment proceedings.

"I am going to proceed upon the assumption that you are innocent of personal participation until and unless the contrary is proved. On the other hand, if this shakedown story has a basis in fact, the office of the Administrator would stand convicted as guilty of reprehensible negligence at the expense of the splendid program of farm electrification."

NOTICE: Mr. Plumley also notified Administrator Wickard that he had submitted his data to the House Appropriations committee. He also asked for thirty days' notice before any grant of the $9,000,000 to the South Carolina co-ops.

It is estimated the average man speaks 20,000 words per day. And half of them is in explaining something to the wife.

Things weren't so complex in the old days. A fellow didn't have to go to a psychiatrist to find out he was crazy.

A few years ago a man wanted to be paid for what he was worth. Nowadays he wouldn't think of working for such a small salary.

An old-timer is the one who can recall when the neighbors pulled down the shades when they played cards on Sunday night.

There should be a law making it compulsory for a man to typewrite his name under his signature.

The difference between a good habit and a bad one is that it does not take all the will power you have to break a good one.

Maybe another reason they refer to them as the opposite sex is because one usually takes the opposite side from your position.

You can always spot an interesting talker. He is the one who makes conversation without getting involved in a debatable subject.

STATES' RIGHTERS WIN STATE

HST Blocked On Alabama Ballot

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Here in Alabama you find the very quintessence of the States' Rights movement, the name its gilt-edged financial and industrial backers prefer to dignify this southern splinter party and conceal some of its motives that redound to their private interests.

Here they really fixed up Harry Truman good and proper. There's no way to vote for the President of the United States on November 2. His name is not on the ballot. Consequently you can write this state off now for J. Strom Thurmond, the States' Rights candidate, who probably would have won it anyhow. Governor Dewey will get lots of votes, but not enough, and Henry Wallace's support will be negligible.

Here, in bitter tirades against Harry Truman, there crops up reference to his former association with the Pendergast machine in Kansas City. But boss Tom Pendergast in his heyday never pulled off any disfranchisement on the scale in which it has been achieved by the silkhat bosses of the States' Rights party here. It may be their last stand in this state. For there is considerable resentment which is growing, but which can not be expressed ballot-wise until later. There is a firm foundation of progressivism in this state, as is exemplified in its two United States Senators, Lister Hill and John Sparkman, who beat the Democratic old guard four and two years ago, respectively, in state-wide referenda.

It was fitting that the bolting southerners picked this city for their rump convention at which they nominated their candidates. For here is the symbol of its real motivation, rather than agricultural Mississippi, where the call was first sounded.

Prominent in creation of the Southern party here and in its direction are two corporation lawyers, Frank Dixon, former governor, who has the Dupont interests among his clients, and Gessner T. McCorvey, counsel for Standard Oil and Gulf Oil, who also conveniently is chairman of the state Democratic executive committee and thus in the strategical position to take over the party machinery for the new southern party. Other representatives and agents of big interests are influential in its direction.

Campaign Plot Claimed

These men do not represent the people. They cannot. Their interests are not those of the rank and file. They represent a club, which is remote from those who toil in Alabama's mines, mills, shops, and in her fields. They represent the privilege which sincerely and earnestly stands for States' Rights, for their interests are much more successfully handled with amicable local officials than with more independent officials representing the whole people.

The basic conflict in this state and the South was dramatized when Senator Hill held half of the Alabama delegation in the convention hall at Philadelphia in July as the other half walked out to start a new southern party. Four years ago the big special interests tried desperately to beat Lister Hill. This reporter, who came here to cover that election, found the most vicious use of the "nigger, nigger issue," as it is called. Exhibits were published at that time.

Just what was needed to carry on the campaign was provided, full blown in President Truman's Civil Rights program. Senators Hill and Sparkman and other Democratic leaders of like mind ducked for cover in the storm of prejudice that was raised. The national Democratic party leadership became timid also in the confusion. So no effort was made to get President Truman on the ballot after the States' Righters had excited the people to the point where they chose as electors men pledged to vote against him in the electorial college. This offers the best possible argument, if any more is needed, for abolishing the antiquated electorial college system.

Those who want to vote for the President, including many workers, farmers and negroes, have no opportunity. Some just won't bother to go to the polls. Some will vote the regular Democratic ticket, which is the Thurmond ticket, hoping that something may come of the suit that Governor "Big Jim" Folsom says he is going to file to challenge the whole disfranchisement process.

Austria has a lag in housing construction because of a shortage of funds to finance new construction and rehabilitation of war-damaged dwellings.

Grain

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 29 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 2.40¾-43¾.
Oats No. 2 white 87¼-88¼.
Corn No. 2 white 1.73-93.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. 2.61-66.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 29 (AP) — Wheat seesaw under commission house selling on the board of trade today. Rains in Kansas and Nebraska overnight caused some of the liquidation, but the December contract showed even more weakness than the 1949 crop months.

Another fairly sizable run of cash grain, plus purchases on a to-arrive basis of more than 200,000 bushels, caused the December corn contract to slip. But the deferred months showed some independent strength, being ahead much of the day.

Wheat closed ½-1¼ lower, December $2.28¼-½, corn was unchanged to 1¼ lower, December $1.37¾-1½, oats were the ¾ lower, December 77⅛-¾.

Thousands Here For Homecoming

scriptive, and most humorous float in the parade, based on the decision of five judges to be stationed on the southeast corner of the Lubbock hotel balcony.

The plaques will be presented to the winners at halftime during the game, and are obtained through the courtesy of Lucian Thomas, Tech graduate and Lubbock jeweler. Judges are Dale Buckner, Mickey Henly, Culver Hill, A. B. Watkins, and Preston Smith.

Alumni Group To Meet

Members of the executive board of the Alumni and Ex-Students association will approve business to be presented to the council of the association at a breakfast at 8 o'clock this morning in the Hilton hotel. Officers will be elected.

In addition to business previously announced as due to come before the executive board and the council this morning, consideration will also be given to a proposed policy of designating the student body as host for Homecoming, in which capacity it has served this year, said D. M. McElroy, executive secretary of the Alumni and Ex-Students association.

By being host at Homecoming students receive proceeds from the Homecoming dance and from any other events which yield revenue, exclusive of the football game.

Board Meets Friday

The board met Friday afternoon in the hotel. Members present were R. Guy Carter, Dallas, president; Hurley Carpenter, Lubbock, first vice president; Miss Harriette Williford, Dallas, second vice president; and Fred Rollins of El Paso, Robert J. (Red) Huff of San Antonio, and D. M. McElroy of Lubbock, directors. The other member, Vestal Askew of Sonora, was unable to come.

The board attended another meeting at 4:45 p. m. Friday in the Aggie Memorial auditorium on the college campus.

At the pep rally, Andy Willingham, head cheer leader, acted as master of ceremonies.

Willingham introduced M. P. J. Minter, Tech graduate and 1935 yell leader who now is a faculty member at the college, who led the crowd in traditional yells. Short speeches were given by Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of the college; Head Coach Dell Morgan; Dr. J. William Davis, chairman of the athletic council; and Marshall Gettys, president of the Double T association and first string tackle on the football team.

Hotels Are Jammed

After the rally, spectators then walked to a site southeast of the gym to watch traditional bonfire ceremonies. The bonfire stack, approximately 25 to 30 feet high, was topped with a large dummy owl, symbolizing the Rice Owls, in place of the customary outhouse. The crowd, totalling probably between 3,000 and 4,000, cheered heartily as the bird began to blaze.

"Pluck the Feathered Fowl," and the other, "The Owls' Last Hoot," were displayed on signs.

Numerous former students made reservations weeks and months in advance of the Homecoming date. Every hotel and tourist court in Lubbock was believed filled last night. In addition, hundreds of alumni and ex-students spent the night with Lubbock friends and relatives, while hundreds more will arrive this morning. Approximately 7,000 ex-students are expected to be here for Homecoming.

Halftime during the game will feature the performance of the Tech band, presentation of plaques to clubs entering winning floats in the parade, and the traditional shoe race.

From the end of the game until 9 p. m., many of the social organizations are holding open houses and other social events, prior to the Homecoming dance in the decorated gymnasium. Music for the dance will be furnished by Burl Hubbards dance orchestra through the courtesy of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal and radio Station KFYO. Decoration of the gymnasium has been under the direction of Alpha Phi Omega, men's service club on the campus.

Army Reorganization

as emanating from the chief of staff and shall full force and effect as such."

Services Ranked Higher

The new organization, Royall said, is a combination of the Army's set up in World War II and the organization in effect since mid-1946. The reorganization also:

1. Gives the Assistant Army Secretary Gordon Gray, or undersecretary of the Army William H. Draper, jr., overall supervision of Army logistics.

2. Raises the four so-called "administrative services"—adjutant general, provost marshal, chaplain, and special services—two levels higher in the organizational setup and puts them directly under the general staff director of personnel and administration.

3. Raises the seven so-called "technical services" — chemical corps, signal corps, medical, engineers, ordinance, transportation and quartermaster—two levels higher and places them directly under the general staff director of logistics.

HEARING SET TODAY

FORT WORTH, Oct. 29 (AP) — Judge Walter Morris of 67th district court today said that he expects to begin hearing at 10 a.m. tomorrow on an injunction suit brought by self-styled "conservative" Democrats to halt an alleged party [illegible] and to nullify actions of last month's state convention here.

Dewey Holds Lead

ago, five states have moved into the "battleground" category, where neither candidate has a lead of more than eight percentage points over his rivals. Delaware, Colorado and Wyoming are now in that marginal position whereas they previously gave Dewey an advantage of more than eight percentage points. Missouri and New Mexico in the earlier report showed substantial leads for Truman, whereas today the gap has been narrowed somewhat in both states.

HST Leads Louisiana

Connecticut, Maryland and Florida have moved out of the battleground column, the first two giving good leads today to Dewey and Florida swinging over to Truman.

As compared with the earlier survey, today's report also finds Truman gaining a state at the expense of Governor Thurmond, the States' Rights nominee. Two weeks ago the Institute showed Thurmond was substantially ahead in Louisiana; today the President holds a nine point advantage over the Dixiecrat.

In Louisiana and a number of other Southern states, at the time this poll was taken, there was still confusion in voters' minds as to designation and position of the candidates on the ballots. For example, Thurmond has been given the traditional rooster symbol of the Democratic ticket in Lousiana, while Truman will run under a less familiar designation. No votes for Truman are shown in today's report on Alamaba, since he is officially not on the ballot, although some voters may write in his name.

Today's figures on such states as Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina reflect voter opinion as Institute interviewers found it in mid-October. Because of confusion as to candidate designation on the ballots and ballot distribution, these figures are not in any sense to be considered a forecast of the outcome of Tuesday's voting in those states.

Political sentiment throughout the nation, as found by the Institute in its semi-final state-by-state roundup, is pictured in the following tables:

UN Move Halted

flew suddenly to London today. U. S. delegation spokesmen said the secretary's departure for the weekend was purely personal and that he and Mrs. Marshall were to be guests of the ambassador to Britain, Lewis Douglas.

The informants who disclosed President Truman's hand in today's developments said the Anglo-Chinese sanctions resolution could have been steam-rollered through the council with an easy majority. The Soviets were planning to abstain.

"Escape" Motion Voted

Mr. Truman was said to have instructed Warren R. Austin during the night to arrange the switch and block passage on sanctions if possible.

Immediately, there began a series of behind-the-scenes manipulations which became clearly visible when debate began in the council.

Britain's Hector McNeil held a whispered parley with Austin, and notes flew back and forth.

Canada then tossed a hurried "escape" motion before the council. This called for creation of a subcommittee to draft a revised resolution on the basis of amendments submitted to the original resolution, including a French move to eliminate sanctions provisions.

The Canadian move won out 9 to 0, with Russia and the Ukraine abstaining—and a possible council crisis was avoided.

ternational good will and cooperation."

The President's Brooklyn speech climaxed a busy day in New York City, including a pledge in the city's negro district of Harlem to fight for "equal rights and equal opportunity with every ounce of strength and determination I have."

He also told a Bronx women's group that he is committed to the Democratic platform on Palestine.

Liff Sanders, elder of Broadway Church of Christ, will speak Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock at the church on the exact anniversary of his first sermon at the church 50 years ago, Dr. M. Norvel Young, minister, announced Friday. Mr. Sanders is one of the pioneers of the South Plains and has been a minister of the gospel for more than 50 years. The church has planned this service to honor him, and following the service, ladies of the church will hold open house in the church annex for the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jondahl, of the Watson Furniture company here, flew back to Texas Thursday from Glasgow, Va., where they participated in a retail merchandising clinic sponsored by a carpet-making plant, but are not expected to return to Lubbock before next week. The Jondahls also toured the carpet plant and observed manufacturing methods. They and seven others flew to Roanoke via American Air lines, and stayed at nearby Natural Bridge hotel while in the Virginia city.

The county clerk's office reported about 5 p.m. yesterday, the deadline for absentee voting in the Nov. 2 general election, that approximately 300 ballots had been voted in person or mailed in to the office. An exact count was not available, it was reported, since some ballots had already been placed in the ballot boxes of the various election precincts.

Former Texas A&M students will meet at Lubbock hotel at 11:30 a.m. today for lunch. Marty Karow, A&M assistant coach, will show pictures of the A&M-TCU game at 12:15 p.m., Davis Sherrill, president of the South Plains A&M club, announced.

James Gibson, about 24, bell hop at Lubbock hotel, had the tip of his right index finger cut off last night when a window at the hotel fell after he had raised it. He was treated at West Texas hospital where he was taken by Rix ambulance. Hotel employes took him to his home after treatment.

Guy Taylor, 29, of Lubbock route 2, was arrested last night by sheriff's deputies on two charges of violation of check law. He was remanded to custody in lieu of $400 bond set by County Judge Walter Davies, records showed.

An attempted armed robbery of Cavern hotel in Hobbs, N. M., was reported last night by radio to local authorities. The Hobbs sheriff's office said that two unidentified white men with rifles held up the hotel's porter, but took nothing since the porter had no cash on his person. A girl, about 18, was said to have been in the car in which the two men made their getaway.

A man identified as O. C. Mc Neely of route 6 Lubbock was in West Texas hospital at 1 a. m. this morning for treatment of leg and other injuries suffered in a truck accident two miles north of Cone on the Ralls-Floydada highway. His condition was reported as possibly serious but not critical.

Vote Probe Pushed

together, five investigators worked at Alice Friday. Two were sent in by a Senate elections subcommittee headed by Senator William Jeffer, Indiana Republican. The Alice Echo said it learned that the other three are FBI agents.

Salas testified at a hearing held by a federal investigator at Alice last month that precinct 13 records were stolen from his automobile about two weeks after the election. It was in precinct 13 that Stevenson alleged about 200 votes were added to Johnson's total after the polls closed Aug. 28.

County Clerk Brushed Aside

B. F. (Tom) Donald, former secretary of the Jim Wells county Democratic executive committee, said Friday he had turned over to the Senate agents a receipt Salas had given him for his (Donald's) copies of the records. Salas testified that both his and Donald's copies were stolen.

In Duval county, also a South Texas county where Stevenson charged irregularities occurred, Senate investigators were told the county's ballots had been accidentally burned.

Referring to this Friday, Stevenson stated:

"Who gave the order to burn the ballots in Duval county? Who stole the box 13 poll list in Jim Wells county?"

NAVARRO BALLOTS BURNED BY COURTHOUSE EMPLOYE

CORSICANA, Oct. 29 (AP) — Ballots of the two Democratic primaries were burned in Navarro county last week.

Navarro county was not one of the 13 counties in which a U. S. Senate election subcommittee asked that ballots from the Aug. 28 second Democratic primary be impounded.

Dave Kinnemore, yardman and fireman at the courthouse for 30-odd years, said he burned the ballots last week as he got ballot boxes and supplies ready for the general election. Kinnemore said he did not discuss destroying the old ballots with county or Democratic officials but did as he had done through the years.

Texans Are Awarded Medals For Heroism

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 29. (AP) —A silver Carnegie medal for heroism has been awarded Sam E. Wholford, the Stratford, Tex., rancher who rescued a family from exposure in last February's severe blizzard in the Texas Panhandle.

Bronze medals were awarded Morris V. Jacks, Wichita Falls, Tex., brakeman for saving a man from burning; Lecile G. Neves, 11, Roby, Texas, schoolboy who saved a small girl from drowning, and Harlan Y. Baker, Jr., 11, San Benito, Tex., schoolboy who saved a boy from drowning.

The awards were announced today by the Carnegie Hero Fund commission.

Wohlford, who is 57, braved the February storm to rescue the family, which had been snowbound in an auto truck on Feb. 11.

Jacks, of 1703 McGregor street, Wichita Falls, rescued locomotive engineer James H. Kimes, 52, after the collision of a train and a gasoline truck at a crossing in Seymour, Tex., Oct. 15, 1947. The Roby schoolboy saved Alice Sue Graham, 8, from drowning at Graham, Tex., March 30, 1947, and Harlan Baker's rescue of ten-year-old Robert W. Glasgow occurred at San Benito on March 12, 1947.

Search For Plane

area.

Members of the Air Rescue Service, one of nine such units over the United States whose sole duty it is to assist in such emergencies, expressed the opinion that the plane could be down in some remote spot between Lubbock and Wichita Falls or to the south on a flight route to Denver City. There are numerous almost inaccessible breaks in the area.

Company officials at Denver City expressed the opinion that had the party landed anywhere some member of the group would have contacted the home office in Oklahoma City, Denver City officials or their homes. No such contact had been reported at midnight Friday.

The search is being directed by Capt. B. B. Moore at Biggs Field in El Paso. However, Lieut. Fuhrmann is in charge of operations at the Lubbock Municipal airport and Capt. James E. Nelson in charge at Wichita Falls.

Two of the C-47s flew into Lubbock Friday afternoon and unloaded emergency equipment which might be needed in any land search, included a radio equipped jeep. The C-47s then went on to Wichita Falls.

Today, the three C-47s, the Army type cargo plane known also as the DC-3, and the B-17 will start combing the area from Wichita Falls toward Lubbock while the two L-5s, the helicopter and possibly other planes will start a more intensive search from Lubbock toward Wichita Falls.

Four officers, pilots of the planes, and seven enlisted personnel are at Lubbock Municipal airport engaged in the search, the remainder of the crew being at Sheppard Field.

"We will stay here at least two or three days, longer if necessary," Lieut. Fuhrmann said last night. "In the meantime, we would appreciate it if anyone in this vicinity who remembers hearing a plane flying low that might have been in distress please contact us immediately at Lubbock Municipal airport."

J. B. Belcher of the CAA communications office at Wichita Falls, said that about midmorning Thursday, the pilot of a plane which was identified, reasonably, to be that of the missing plane, had requested weather information at Lubbock from Wichita Falls. After relaying the information, the pilot made no comment, Belcher said. Most of the nearby small airports and communities in this area where the plane might have landed have been contacted, Lieut. Fuhrmann said.

Testifying to the thoroughness of the search, one of the C-47s and the B-17 were rerouted in flight, the former from El Paso to the West Coast, the latter to San Antonio, to aid in the search.

Meanwhile, W. I. McDowell, in charge of production for the Denver company at Denver City, said a search plane also was searching in that area. McDowell said the party of four took off from Rapp's ranch at Lake Texoma Thursday morning. Rapp was on his way to Denver City to inspect his company's oil leases there, McDowell said.

Soviets To Consider Use Of New Weapons International Crime

PARIS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Russia warned today she would consider the waging of "new methods of warfare" an international crime punishable by death.

Soviet Delegate Alexei Pavlov did not mention the atom bomb or new types of fighting such as germ warfare by name in his discussion before the United Nations social committee. However, he clearly indicated Russia would regard any future use of the atom bomb as an international crime on a level with the atrocities committed by Nazi Germany.

Burglary Loot Is Small Here

Burglars who smashed a back window of the Cooper and Vaughn service station at Nineteenth and Ave. Q sometime Thursday night took approximately $25 from the cash register, H. T. Cooper told newsmen.

Cooper and his partner, Abe Vaughn, said the cash register was pried open and damaged.

Presumably, they said, two men entered their place after climbing a fence of Maxey lumber yard, and left by the same rest room window.

No Merchandise Taken

The burglars, newsmen were told, apparently were not interested in a large stock of permanent anti-freeze that retails for $5 a gallon, $25 batteries and new tires.

The burglary was reported to police.

The sheriff's department was investigating a complaint of Don Williams, of 1810 Nineteenth, that someone stole a $425 gear head for an irrigation pump from his truck Thursday night in Slaton. The equipment belongs to Western Irrigation company, Williams' employer. Williams was having dinner in a cafe when the gear head, which weighs 550 pounds, was stolen, he said.

In North Lubbock, someone selected eight pairs of women's panties from three full lines of wash that had been hung out to dry—and took nothing else.

A late report said F. N. Mayhugh, whose light automobile had been stolen Thursday night, had recovered the machine.

Frank B. McWatters, 40, of Lubbock, arrested early Thursday night by Texas highway patrolmen about seven miles out of Lubbock on the Idalou highway, was fined $50 and county court costs Friday morning for drunk driving.

Edward Dee Higgins entered a plea of guilty to liquor law violation and was fined $100 and county court costs, records of County Attorney John Steele showed.

Russians To Leave

boomeranged again. Two thousand freight cars loaded with Soviet reparations were reported stalled in the Soviet zone because of a transport breakdown resulting from shortage of parts usually received from western Germany.

The Communists admitted that "reactionary elements" and anti-Soviet propaganda are threatening success of the Sovietization drive in eastern Germany.

The Russian-licensed Berliner Zeitung also admitted that the Russians have been unable to fulfill their promise to distribute a second round of coal supplies in the Soviet sector of Berlin.

Certificates Are Awarded As Retail Credit Course Ends

Certificates were awarded last night to 130 persons who had satisfactorily completed the Retail Credit Procedures course which was held two hours nightly this week, Monday through Friday, at Hotel Lubbock.

Sterling S. Speak, retail credit specialist with the University of Texas division of extension, conducted the 10-hour course, which was sponsored jointly by the Retail Merchants' association, the Credit Managers club and the Credit Women's club.

The class, which had a total enrollment of 162, was composed of store owners, managers, credit department employes and other concerned with retail credit. Last night's class was concerned with collection policies and devices, collection letters, follow-up procedures and store credit policies. Speak will leave Lubbock for Childress where he is conducting a similar course next week. Lufkin and Waco are next on his itinerary after Childress, he said.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (INS)—A young man identified by police as "an over-eager autograph hound" broke through police lines in New York tonight to reach President Truman.

He was seized by New York detectives before he could make known what he wanted.

Board Visits Plant

acres of land is under lease by the college.

The college administration is hopeful that the entire plant will be deeded to Tech, but several were dubious of the expense of maintaining such a huge layout today after visiting the site.

The huge plant, built at a cost of $30,000,000 during the war, is already showing signs of deteriorating and maintenance alone would be a tremendous expense if many of the buildings were to be maintained, one board member pointed out on the drive.

The application for transfer of the land to Texas Tech was sent recently to War Assets administration officials in Washington, D. C. Final action of the war assets board is awaited. Zone officials told President Wiggins that all qualifications had been met by the college.

Wheat Production Low

Weeds were thick in many of the areas where wheat was not being grown. Mention was made of placing 500 to 1,000 head of sheep on the land to keep the weeds down.

Greatest task in the first year's operation has been to get any wheat to grow and production only averaged four bushels to the acre on the entire 3,500 acres of wheatland this year. Lack of rainfall this fall has retarded growth of volunteer wheat and the 2,500 acres of dry-sown land An .85 inch rain Thursday brightened prospects slightly.

There are now 135 head of cattle on the Tech land and 15 more head are due to arrive within a short time.

Dr. C. O. Morgan, research technician for Texas A. & M., told the directors at the laboratory that an effort will be made to get the wheat poisoning experiments under full swing next winter and spring.

Chanslor Weymouth, Amarillo member of the Tech board who has been the guiding hand behind the Pantex project, was host at today's visit to the plant and introduced board members and officials at the luncheon.

Attending were: Charles Wooldridge, Dallas; Leon Ince, Houston; A. G. (Pat) Mayse, Paris; O. B. Ratliff, Lubbock, directors; and Dr. Wiggins, W. T. Gaston, business manager; Dean W. L. Stangel, and Frank Junell, assistant to the president.

A regular meeting of the board is scheduled for Saturday morning in the president's office at the college, with adjournment scheduled by noon so that the directors can attend the annual homecoming game between the Raiders and Rice institute of Houston.

A new barn, also recently completed, houses the livestock exhibits. Both structures were built by the county.

An exhibit by Mrs. Emma Austin, who is called the mother of Seminole, is drawing the most attention at the fair. The exhibit shows a number of photographs of the first town in Gaines county, The town, Kaput, was located one and a half miles southwest of Seminole, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin owned the first store there.

The women's department, of which Mrs. Ira Elkins is superintendent, has some excellent displays of art and handicraft.

L. H. McElroy, Gaines county agent, is superintendent of the agriculture and livestock exhibits.

Two Persons Hurt In Collision Of Motorcycle, Car In City

Dwight Luther Workman, 24, of route 6, and Miss Billie Jean Ramsey of 820 Ave. J, were treated at Lubbock Memorial hospital Friday night for injuries received about 9:30 p. m. when the motorcycle on which they were riding pulled into the side of an automobile in which J. F. Alls, his wife, and children, all of route 6, were riding. The accident occurred at about Forty-sixth and Ave. H.

The highway patrol report showed the Alls family was driving south on Ave. H and that Workman and Miss Ramsey were riding north. Workman was blinded by car lights and pulled into the Alls vehicle near the left rear side.

An attendant at Lubbock Memorial hospital said that Workman suffered a possible fracture of the left ankle, definite determination pending X-rays this morning. Miss Ramsey received bruises of the leg. None of the occupants of the Alls car were injured.

Chinese Communists Claim 12 Divisions Annihilated

NANKING, Oct. 29 (INS)—Sweeping Communist successes which would make the government's Manchurian positions virtually untenable were claimed by the Reds today.

A Communist radio broadcast claimed that 12 Chinese government divisions in southern Manchuria have been "completely wiped out," including "four American-equipped armies."

Government spokesmen in Nanking were ominously silent about the Communist claims. This, in the past, has served as an indication of the substantial truth of Communist radio assertions.

A four-tube radio receiving set so small that it fits almost completely in the palm of the hand, is reported to have been exhibited recently in Moscow.
