

Dawson Co. Included In Emergency Road Work

Pink Boll Worm Measure Passes Senate 25 to 5

PANHANDLE AND SOUTH PLAINS TO RECEIVE RELIEF

Recent newspaper lines from Washington state that 23 counties in the Panhandle and South Plains will get special relief from the $60,000,000 allotment recently ordered by the President. Dawson county is not listed in the news from Washington. But the article does state that if the State Relief Commission finds it necessary it can name other counties to be included.

Recent word from Senator Duggan of Austin and the Texas Relief Commission is to the effect that Dawson county, Bailey and Yoakum counties WILL be included in the program.

Much good work has been done by the local chamber of commerce and Senator Duggan to get Dawson county included.

Dawson, Bailey and Yoakum Added To List

Austin, Oct. 6.—Dawson, Bailey, and Yoakum counties Thursday were added to the list of counties in West Texas to receive the benefit of Emergency Road Work according to advices of the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission from the Federal Emergency Relief Administration.

The Washington letter authorizes the Texas commission to supply work men from the relief rolls in these three counties on a work relief basis when funds required for materials, equipment and supervision have been authorized by the Texas State Highway Department and the Federal Roads Bureau.

Workers furnished from the relief rolls will be paid out of relief funds on the regular basis whereby workers will work only the number of days each week necessary to take care of their budgeted relief needs. This will require the use of a stagger system whereby the relief clients will work in rotation to meet the rule, according to the Texas Relief Headquarters office.

The purpose of work relief, as defined by the rules and regulations of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration is not to supply jobs, but to make relief clients feel that they are doing something in return for relief advanced to them. If at the same time they are doing something useful for their community on a work relief project the advantage is two-fold.

No workers on the Emergency Road projects will be permitted to work beyond the amount of their budgeted relief needs per week. They are to be credited with relief at the rate of 35 cents per hour for the time they work it is explained. Where fore men are employed continuously, and not on a work relief basis, their wages must be paid by the counties or the State Highway Department. The Relief Commission is not authorized to pay rental on trucks or teams, this coming in the classification of materials, equipment and supervision.

Farmers To Be Given 10c Per Pound Thus Tending To Fix That As Price Roosevelt Tells Corporation To Carry Out Pledge Given Planters; 4 Per Cent Interest

President Roosevelt announced Friday a commodity credit corporation would be created immediately with an initial capital stock of $3,000,000 with authority to borrow from the Reconstruction Corporation and to lend funds on the security of commodities.

The President said the first duty of the corporation would be to carry out the pledge to loan farmers 10 cents a pound on cotton in an effort to raise cotton prices and increase farm purchasing power.

Indications are the corporation may later be called upon to loan on other commodities.

President Roosevelt made the announcement at his regular press conference.

Personnel of the corporation has not been completed, but probably will

ONE OF OUR CITIZENS IS HONORED

With all apologies to Governor Ferguson. Mrs. J. E. Barron, one of the teachers in the Gramar School here reports that she recently gave an examination in history. One of the questions read: "Who is the Governor of Texas?" When she graded her papers she found that one little fellow had answered "The Governor is Wm. A. Wilson."

We are at a loss to determine who is to make the apology. The boy, Mrs. Barron, Wm. A. Wilson or Mrs. Ferguson. Maybe neither. It could be considered a compliment all the way around. Anyway the little fellow was loyal to his own community to say the least of it.

Big Plans Being Made For Next Trades Day

Big plans are being made for next Trades day in Lamesa. Lots of fun is being planned. If present plans go through there will be something happening from early morning till late Monday afternoon—November 6th.

Nice yellow tickets are being given by merchants for the big show which takes place on First Monday at 4 P. M. at the band stand. Be sure and call for your tickets to this show.

Merchants are advertising BUY NOW campaign. Everything is going up—the sooner you buy the better.

People tell Lamesa merchants that they are really getting bargains in Lamesa. The reason: WHERE THINGS ARE CHEAPER. Lamesa folks wont admit things are quiet here—but nevertheless there was a depression and then a drouth and of course people do not have as much money as they would like to have to spend. Any way one can make his dollars go further in Lamesa than any town we know of NOW.

Come in for Trades Day, November 6th. You wont regret it. Do not forget to ask for tickets—for the big show.

Highway No. 83 Recommended By Divisional Engineer

WORK TO START WHEN RIGHT OF WAY SECURED

Guy R. Johnson, divisional highway Engineer was in Lamesa Thursday noon this week and told the Highway Committee and Judge Philip Yonge, county judge, that he had recommended Highway No. 83 for Dawson county's Emergency Drouth Relief project—work to begin as soon as authority was given him—and he thought within the next two weeks if right-of-way for this road is secured. Johnson said, "The sooner we get to work in Dawson county the more money the county gets—the longer we are in getting started the less money Dawson county gets."

Increased Acreage And A Much Larger Production Also Is Indicated Abroad; Average Yield Is Bigger

Along with an estimate that 12,885,000 bales of cotton would be grown in the United States this year, the agriculture department said Monday that an increased acreage and "much larger production" was indicated abroad.

The forecast Monday was 471,000 bales higher than that on September 8. The 1933 crop, if the departments predictions are borne out, will be only 177,000 bales less than that of 1932, despite the campaign which resulted in the plowing under of about 10,396,000 acres this summer.

The average yield forecast per acre gave the reason. The crop reporting board predicted the yield at 205.3 pounds of lint per acre, as compared to 173.3 in 1932 and an average of only 164.4 in the period between 1922-31.

HOUSE EXPECTED TO VOTE ON BILL SOON

The Pink Boll Worm Bill has passed the Senate. Boy and How! The vote was 25 to 5. We all expected a harder fight in the upper house—but according to this vote and the way the House—Lower—passed the bill last regular session—105-0—we can expect the House to pass it again this time. No doubt by the time you read this the House will have voted for this bill and then it will be up to Ma Ferguson. That is if the vote in the house does not fool us all and they about face on the way they have always stood on the bill.

LATE NEWS FLASH

Word was received from Arthur P. Duggan late Thursday that the Pink Boll Worm Bill had just passed the House and was now up to Mrs. Ferguson.

Anyway—whatever ever happens we are deeply indebted to our good friends Arthur P. Duggan, our state senator. Word comes from Austin that Senator Duggan has been the power behind the pink boll worm bill in the senate and to him goes the credit if the bill never goes in further. He is a hard worker and is doing his best for us out here. He helped get us included as a drouth county and now we get more money for road building.

Let's hope the boys in the house do their duty now and vote for the bill which is for $500,000 to repay farmers in this section for money they have been out for the State of Texas to help control the pink boll worm—which we think was never here anyway. If the bill passes Dawson county will get around $90,000.00.

Mrs. Orval McMillan - Killed Husband Hurt In Car Accident

Mrs. Orval McMillan, 54, of Slaton was killed instantly and her 61 year old husband was seriously injured in an automobile accident on the highway one half mile south of Arvana Saturday night.

The McMillans were enroute to Lamesa to visit their son, T. K. McMillan and his family, when their auto mobile overturned. Mrs. McMillan was thrown clear of the car, which stopped in an upright position. It is said that the car became uncontrollable when Mr. McMillan applied the brakes and swerved the car suddenly on an incline.

Mr. McMillan suffered numerous bruises and cuts, but attending physicians say that he is not in a critical condition.

Mrs. McMillan died instantly of a crushed chest.

The body was taken overland to whiteright by Higginbotham Funeral attendants Sunday for burial.

Mrs. McMillan is survived by three sons, T. K. McMillan of Lamesa, Rock McMillan of Whiteright, and Fain McMillan of Smithshire, Ill; one daughter, Mrs. R. C. Foley of Dallas and one sister Mrs. J. Womach of Floydada.

no part dependent on lifting the country by its boot-straps. What this plan does is the most that any governmental plan can ever do—to give our people the chance to help themselves—industry, workers, farmers and the public, the President's plan says to all, "In this way you can help in our great united effort at recovery. But let us make no mistake. The effort has just begun! It will take time and patience, and work and waiting and continued never ceasing effort."

There are some slight stirrings of opposition to all this and it will be well to look to whence these efforts come. There was a leadership—in industry and trade as well as in finance and politics—which we followed into the 1929 disaster. It told us that the rule of devil take the hind most was the way to a practical paradise. It was thought we were in a new economic era. The whole of America was enticed into speculation on the Exchanges at prices so high that only a madman making crazy figures on a slate in some barred asylum could justify them. This leadership so vaunted itself that any glance from government in even the direction of what they were doing, was resented as an impertinence. With the whole agricultural population verging toward peonage—with half the business enterprises in the country operating at a loss—with not less than 2,000,000 men out of employment and more being driven out of work each year by a reckless race toward complete mechanization—this leadership stood up and preached unending prosperity because its own minority, gorged with paper profits, was revelling in a fool's paradise and shaking enough of its superfluous down into the population to make everybody feel good enough to stand for it.

The memories of these men are short. But it is this very same discredited leadership that is now saying, "We are on our way out. The Recovery Program had nothing to do with it. Let us abandon the whole thing and go back to the good old days."

"By their fruits ye shall know them." The President's program is not for them, and they are not for it. As Will Rogers said the other day if the Administration fails, a good epitaph for its tombstone would be, "Died trying to do something for the little fellow."

So perhaps the little fellow's memory may not be so short as others and when he hears this growing and gratuitous advice it might be well for him to ask, "What advice was that authority giving in 1927, 1928, and 1929?" "Under what flag does he march?"

If this test be applied, I think that —without one single exception—you will find that the few sly and furtive undercuts, the sneers, the sarcasms and the forthright and courageous assaults, all center back to men in some way associated with the policies and practices that led this country to the precipice of 1929 and that as we all now know—have dragged us through four years of as grievous trouble as ever plagued a people.

The President's program may be subject to criticism and nobody in this administration that I have seen presents criticism—honest, forthright and constructive criticism. They welcome it, they seek to profit by it, and frequently call upon the critics to join the procession and try to put their thoughts to helpful effect. I have seen that happen more than once. It is the most open forum I have ever known in Washington. There is less attention to partisan politics than there was under Woodrow Wilson in the war—and that was almost none. I do not even know what the politics of some of the leading figures of N. R. A. may be. I only know that we have no political leaders of any stamp, and that without exception, they regard Franklin Roosevelt as an inspired leader, believe in what they are doing, and can be counted on to carry out the President's policies to the limit. They think that this is a crisis in our country's affairs and they are working as I have never seen men work—even during the war—to translate those policies into action.

I do not need to tell you this—you can see it in your own city. You can see it from one end of this country to the other. Without regard to politics, race or creed, our people are trying to pull together on the first popular, cooperative and consistent program that has ever been given to this country.

So I do not wish to be misunderstood as coming here to resent criticism. But I do believe that it is right to call attention to misunderstanding and to misrepresentation of men who stand (and who always have stood) for the very reverse of what this Administration is trying to do.

It is wrong to say that the people being shackled or put in a straight jacket. The fact is that industry is being freed.

The band went along and so did many other good numbers from Lamesa—including a solo by Miss Asalie Key; cornet duet by Conway King and Richard Crawley; comic solo, "Mountain Music" Miss Marjorie Ferguson; the male quartet, three appearances, Messrs. W. K. Crawley, V. Z. Rogers, J. D. Wilson and Owen C. Taylor. Owen C. Taylor led community singing. The program was in charge and was arranged by J. E. Haynes, manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Company and judging from the many comments heard of the program, Ed made a wonderful program chairman.

The McCarty community is one of Dawson county's best communities. They have there one of the most modern brick school buildings in the county and for that matter in this part of the state. Another thing they have that is essential and an asset to any community and that is co-operation. No where in the state will you find a finer spirit of cooperation than at McCarty. They work in unison in every thing they undertake.

Joe M. Peterson gave the welcome address to the Lamesa party and made timely remarks regarding the way Lamesa and McCarty folks work together. He said Lamesa needed McCarty—and that's true Joe—and McCarty had to have Lamesa—We hope that's true Joe.

One thing about McCarty—you will find that most all of her people trade in Lamesa. They like Lamesa and do not care to send their money to a foreign country but like to keep it all at home if possible. McCarty people boost Dawson county as one of the best counties in the state—although they did not get to plant cotton there this year. Maybe next year you folks at McCarty will get to plant the whole country side to cotton. You see the Lord thought your land needed a rest this year. Any way we will all get by some how and be ready for next year.

One thing brought out at the McCarty meeting that has not been brought out at any of the Lamesa good will meetings and that is: "Where you find business a little quiet—you find cheaper and better prices." Well, the people of Lamesa do not want to admit that things are quiet in Lamesa, but after all things are not booming like they were in 1924, or 1926. Come on boys and get the bargains.

The entire Lamesa party that went to McCarty really enjoyed their visit. Going to do it again and more of us will be out next time.

Luncheon Club Has Good Program

The program at Luncheon Club was a dandy last Tuesday. Buddie Smith and young Will Beeman gave two very interesting and enjoyable numbers. Mrs. McCall was at the piano and furnished music for the club while the boys dined. Owen C. Taylor led the bunch in song while the invocation was given by Dr. W. H. Dunn. W. K. Crawley had charge of the program and turned the business part of the hour into a general roundtable discussion of the several projects now being undertaken.

Five major projects were mentioned and discussed, namely: Trades Day, Trades and Goodwill Trips, Drouth Relief for more highway building and Fair and Recreational Park. There are other projects underway but these were named as the major ones at present.

Next week Tuesday at noon at the Williams Hotel, Dr. Sam Z. Frazier will have charge of the program and of course it will be good.

Golden Tornadoes Defeat Hobbs 27 to 0

In one of the best and hardest fought games of the season the Golden Tornadoes defeated the Hobbs Oilers 27 to 0 last Friday afternoon at the local ball park.

Both teams played good clean football and the penalties were few. The outstanding man on the field was Vergil Lyons of the Hobbs team. He played a whale of a game, making two thirds of the tackles for his team catching several of the Lamesa boys from behind after they had broke loose for almost sure touchdowns, and also played a stellar part on the Hobbs offensive, being on the receiving end of several Hobbs passes. He was removed from the game late in the third quarter completely exhausted and barely able to stand.

Stanley Wilkes of the Lamesa team also played heads-up football, scoring all four of the Lamesa touchdowns being on the receiving end of three passes and picking up a punt and running 50 yards for the other.

A peculiar situation arose on the punt return. Hobbs punted and a Hobbs player covered the ball but walked off and left it before the referee blew his whistle. Wilkes seeing the opportunity picked it up and ran unmolested for the touchdown.

Bids To Be Received On Lynn County End Of Highway No. 9

Bids for grading and drainage structures on highway No. 9 from Tahoma north to the Lubbock county line, a distance of 15.7 miles, will be received by the State Highway Department on Monday, Oct. 16.

Highway No. 9 is already paved through Lubbock and Hale counties and paving is about complete in Randall county. Contract has been let for grading and drainage structures in Swisher county. When these contracts have been completed and when paving shall have been laid in this and Swisher counties, we will have a paved road all the way from here to Amarillo. Grading and drainage structures are now being built from Lamesa to O'Donnell and it is expected that other contracts covering the entire course from here to Big Spring will be let within the next few months.

The paving of No. 9 throughout its course in Texas, which is a Federal as well as a state highway, will go forward just as fast as right-of-way can be secured and funds become available for the work. Possibly within the next two years this will be a paved highway from Amarillo to San Antonio.—Lynn Co. News.

Let's talk library. Let's talk and do for the library. First Monday will be library day. How many will visit the library that day? We hope one thousand people will come in that day, and register as an indication that they are believers in public libraries. All the rest of the month will be library days.

While brutes grew coats of mail in OKLAHOMA

Today the drills of Sinclair oil men have bitten deep into the soil of Oklahoma and tapped that treasure trove of the ages, the Cambro-Ordovician oil pool—the pool that was already old when the age of dinosaurs came upon the world. Piped into the great Sinclair refineries and carefully refined and blended, this oldest of Mid-continent crudes becomes Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, a product averaging more than 80 million years of Nature's priceless mellowing and filtering. In process of manufacture, Sinclair Opaline is de-waxed and freed from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Note how Sinclair Opaline lasts in the heat of hard, fast driving—observe at draining time how little oil has been used up. A sure proof of quality! Ask for Sinclair Opaline.

Household Budgeting

The Home Economics 2a class has been studying for the past week the importance and results of household budgeting. Through class discussion, reference readings, observations, and experience we have decided the budget is very beneficial in the household. If churches, schools, governments, and business firms are run on a budget then why couldn't a home have a systematic way of spending money?

The budget is very important to the household because it more evenly distributes the income among the different needs and each member of the family.

The approximate percentage of the income given to the needs of the household are: 20 per cent for shelter; 25 per cent for food; 10 per cent for medical expenses; 15 per cent for clothing; 15 per cent for advancement; 15 per cent for savings.

Much can be saved by running a home on a budget so why shouldn't more home use them?
