Mrs. Wallace Threatens To Defy Court Order

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. Lurleen Wallace confronted U.S. authorities today with threatened defiance of a new school integration order and the vow, "Whatever need be done will be done."

She urged a cheering Alabama Legislature to hand down a "cease and desist" ultimatum to a three-judge federal court which said nine days ago all public schools in the state, including their faculties, must be desegregated by next September.

And she asked the Legislature, in a speech Thursday night to vest her with authority to take overe the schools now held by the state school superintendent so she can refuse to carry out the court order. The speech was broadcast statewide by radio and television.

She told the House and Senate it may be necessary to employ more state troopers "in order that the children of our state be protected." She asked legislators to consider appropriating funds to pay additional state police.

She was interrupted by applause 20 times during her 30-minute speech in the House chamber where 106 years ago Alabama seceded from the Union at the outset of the Civil War.

Virtually all of Alabama's city and country school systems have some integration now among the pupils, but few teachers have been assigned to schools of another race.

Mrs. Wallace solicited the support of other Southern states in resisting the desegregation order, but promised, "If we stand alone, we will go alone."

Alabama is appealing the order to the Supreme Court.

There was little indication of opposition from the legislators.

Mrs. Wallace promised to use "whatever power I possess under the Constitution of Alabama . . . to prevent the destruction of our public school system."

And, she added, those responsible for the court order "had better understand what the people of Alabama mean."

The governor told the legislators the decree handed down by the three-judge court and a similar mandate issued Wednesday by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for schools in Alabama and five other Southern states would force the closing of all Negro schools in this state. If any schools are closed, she said, "the federal courts will close them."

She said "the only way to force students to attend elementary and junior high schools is to put their parents in jail." That, she said, Alabama will not do.

Mrs. Wallace said school boards throughout the state have been "judged without their day in court." To give them a hearing, she asked the House and Senate to meet as a committee of the whole and invited school officials and parents to testify.

That, she said, would give the legislature a chance to see if the legislation she asked for is warranted.

It was four yyears ago that her husband, then in his first year as governor, gained nationwide recognition as a symbol of segregationist resistance with his resolute stand in the doorway at the University of Alabama.

He sought in vain to block the admittance of two Negroes but finally stood aside when federalized national guardsmen escorted the Negroes onto the campus.

School Elections Set For Saturday

Voters will go to the polls tomorrow to elect school trustees.

All school districts in Scurry County will have elections and all have contested races for posts on their respective boards.

Voters in the Snyder Independent School District may cast ballots at either of three locations. The Snyder district polls will be at the East Elementary School, the City Hall and the West Elementary School.

Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. in all school districts in the county.

In the Snyder district there are six candidates. However, one of those listed on the ballot has withdrawn from the race since the ballots were printed. Thursday, Darrell Sims announced that he was a write-in candidate, raising the number of candidates to six again following the withdrawal of Wesley Graves.

Other candidates in the Snyder race to fill two posts on the board are O. K. Fletcher, Eugene Glasscock, Harold Lacik, Max von Roeder and Curtis C. Grant. Von Roeder has been serving on the board for a year by appointment and is seeking his first full term on the board. Clifford Terry, whose term expires, is not seeking re-election.

At Fluvanna there are six candidates for three places on the board. In the race are Ray Herring, K. D. Ball, Guy Turner, Donald Gill, R. L. Drum, and Paul Contreras. Ball is the only incumbent in the race.

Hermleigh has nine candidates for three posts on the board. Raymond Schwartz is the only incumbent in the race there. Others running at Hermleigh are Donald Tate, Olin Culp Jr., Julius Roemisch, Melvin Calhoun, J. W. Kimzey, Joe Roemisch Jr., James Ince and Edwin Kuss.

Two places are to be filled on the board of the Ira Independent School District. Candidates are Tommy Clements, Clarence Payne, Floyd House and Jake Autrey. Only incumbent in the race at Ira is Autrey.

There are no contested races for posts on the county school board. Perry Echols is a candidate for re-election in Precinct 3, and Marvin Hanson Jr. is a candidate for re-election in Precinct 4.

Projects Are Coordinated

Mayor M. L. Broman and City Manager George Patterson conferred in Abilene yesterday with J. C. Roberts, District Highway engineer on coordination of the local downtown improvement project and a highway department project here.

Roberts told the Snyder men that there would be no problem in coordinating street work contemplated by the Texas Highway Department with the local curbing project. In fact, the district engineer said that in view of the local project, the highway department likely would upgrade specifications on its project, which mainly will involve overlaying some brick streets with asphalt.

RFK Asks Unity Behind Top Team

By CARL LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., appealed today for Democratic unity behind President Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to insure a Democratic victory in the 1968 election.

"I know that all of you are going to work for them as I am going to work for them in 1968," Kennedy told a breakfast meeting of Democratic state chairmen and vice chairmen, sponsored by the New York State Democratic Committee.

He said, "We are brothers together, we can work together." Then he added that "we have a strong team in President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey." The important thing, he said, is to insure the continuation of a Democratic administration in Washington.

Kennedy admitted there are "differences within the Democratic party." But he said "that is part of our strength."

The chairmen are winding up two days of meetings today after giving President Johnson two standing ovations for an hour-long defense of his domestic and Vietnam policies.

Speck Trial Jury Seated

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — The Richard Speck murder trial, after struggling through six weeks of tedious jury selection, was set for launching Monday.

A jury of seven men and five women was completed Thursday. Speck, 25, a Dallas drifter, is accused in the July 14 slayings of eight student nurses in Chicago.

The third panel included a housewife employed as a computer operator, a mother of four children a boiler operator in a chemical factory and a retired parking lot owner.

A middleaged machine operator was picked as the first alternate juror and a woman with five grown children was the second alternate.

Driving For Kicks Proves To Be Costly

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Jerry B. Bauman Jr. of nearby Belmont was fined $85 Thursday for driving an overwidth vehicle without a permit, driving with no license plates and driving a vehicle with defective equipment.

Bauman's vehicle, which he bought for kicks last year, was found by officers after it broke down under Bauman's handling on a nearby road.

Bill Turned Down

BOSTON (AP) — Before the Massachusetts Senate turned down a bill that would allow prosecution of an owner who allows his property to be used for illegal gambling, Sen. John J. Moakley, D-Boston, said it would have allowed prosecution because of a whist party.

March Goes Out On A Damp Note

And the weatherman offered promise that April Fool's Day might bring even more moisture to the area.

Thundershowers which developed early this morning and continued intermittently past daybreak brought some relief to rain-starved Scurry County areas. A total of .60 of an inch was logged in the official gauge at the city water plant.

Showers appeared to lighter to the east, heavier to the west.

Half an inch of rain had fallen by mid-morning at the Snyder pump station near the Lake J. B. Thomas dam. Heavier rainfall was reported to the west and northwest, with falls up to an inch and a quarter in some areas as far west as Dawson County.

Temperatures which had zoomed upward Wednesday, topped out at 84 degrees Thursday and then dipped to a pleasant 55 degrees this morning. The mercury still lagged in the high 50's late this morning.

Early morning temperatures dipped as low as 34 degrees at Dalhart, in the Panhandle and behind a weak cool front stretching from near Childress toward Presidio and into Mexico. Readings elsewhere ran as high as 73 at Corpus Christi.

Scattered showers and thunderstorms blustered along the frontal zone during the night and early morning. Weather Bureau detected the heaviest rains in an area 150 miles long by 50 miles wide between Andrews and Guthrie.

Up to 1.6 inches of rain drenched the area around La-mesa. Considerable hail accompanied it but there was no report of damage.

Unofficial amounts elsewhere included Seminole .75 inch and Andrews .25, while the official gauge measured .11 at Childress.

Scattered showers were expected to continue in Northwest Texas, with a few developing late in the day in areas east of the Pecos River.

Crusade Against Cancer Underway In Scurry Area

The 1967 Crusade Against Cancer got underway in Scurry County this week with the appointment of Darrell Rains as Crusade Chairman and Bill Dryden as Residential Chairman.

Mayor M. L. Broman signed a Proclamation this morning declaring April as "Cancer Crusade Month, 1967." The text of the Mayor's proclamation follows:

"WHEREAS, the right to a life free from pain, free from fear, has long been recognized as a desirable heritage for each human being; and

"WHEREAS, the constant concern of the government and of the leaders of this community has been protection of that right for all our citizens; and

"WHEREAS, the great volunteer action of the American Cancer Society is dedicated to bring awareness of the hope about cancer to every home in our community; and

"WHEREAS, knowing the hope, knowing the warning signals, and acting on this knowledge; will prevent half the current needless deaths from cancer;

"THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, M. L. Broman, Mayor of the City of Snyder, do hereby salute and commend the Scurry County Unit of the American Cancer Society and urge each citizen of this city to contribute generously to the Crusade against cancer. Let us all give that others may live.

"Signed this day, March 31, 1967 at Snyder, Texas.

"M. L. BROMAN."

In addition to the urgent goals of getting information about cancer into every household in the county, and raising the funds needed to continue cancer control activities throughout the state, volunteers for the ACS will have a new and important assignment.

The Cancer Education Survey will be conducted in Texas for the first time this year; an estimated 600,000 replies will be collected from households in every section of the state.

Here in Scurry County, the Survey will be carried out by Crusaders during the House-to-House drive the night of April 18. After householders have been given the list of cancer's seven warning signals, they will be asked to fill out a brief, confidential form, asking questions about their own health practices. The completed forms can then be mailed back in the envelope provided and will be counted by volunteers in the

Huge Segment Of Economy Embroiled In Labor Woes

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A huge segment of the U.S. economy — from the mass communications media to agriculture, the transportation industry and some city employes — finds itself embroiled today in labor disputes.

While the walkout continues against the four broadcasting networks and the National Farmers Organization pursues its milk holding action, strike threats loomed in the railroad and trucking industries and the New York City newspaper world.

But New York City's firemen joined city policemen Thursday night in postponing indefinitely a work slowdown scheduled for today. However Philadelphia city employes picketed municipal buildings Thursday, seeking action on a pension plan.

Both a National Broadcasting Co. official and a spokesman for the striking American Federation of Television and Radio Artists predicted the three-day-old walkout could last more than a week. Besides NBC, AFTRA has struck the American Broadcasting Co., the Columbia broadcasters and announcers, Mutual Broadcasting Sytem.

Supervisory personnel continue to substitute for striking broadcasts and and announcers, although most of the live or videotaped programs have been knocked off the air in the dispute over wages and foes.

Theodore W. Kheel, chief negeotiator in the newspaper talks, reported today that progress has been made in Thursday night's discussions and said "there will obviously not be any strike (today) but the situation is still not settled." Negotiations resume tonight.

The five New York City dailies are the News, the Times, the World Journal Tribune, the Long Island Star-Journal and the Long Island Press.

USDA Says Interest To Be Unchanged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says interest rates on 1967-crop price support and farm storage facility and equipment loans will continue at 1966 levels.

The rate on price support loans is 3.5 per cent annually and 4 per cent on storage facility and equipment loans.

The department said it was decided to make no change in these rates because of rising costs encountered by farmers and declining farm prices and income.

Zone C Reports Savage Fighting

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops battled four hours in War Zone C today against a hard-core Communist regiment believed to be protecting a divisional headquarters, then pulled into defensive lines for the night under a rain of bullets, rockets and motar shells.

Two battalions of the 1st Infantry Division — about 1,400 men — were involved in the battle, five miles from the Cambodian frontier, against an enemy force tentatively identified as the 70th Regiment, know as the palace guard of the Viet Cong's 9th Division.

In the air war the U.S. Command announced that Air Force jets led by a 44-year-old World War II ace blew out the blast furnaces of North Vietnam's showpiece Thai Nguyen steel plant 37 miles north of Hanoi Thursday.

In the savage ground action the enemy, at first believed to be the 2,500-man 271st Regiment, stopped the Americans cold.

The battle started shortly after noon when a 32-man reconnaissance platoon pushed into the jungle from a helicopter landing zone.

"The platoon leader's voice disappeared within two minutes after the fighting started," Associated Press photographer Horst Faas reported from the scene. "Either the man or his radio had been hit; in either case the vital communications link broke."

A company of about 100 men went after the platoon, which was pinned down under rocket, mortar and machine-gun fire. That company was soon pinned down as well. On the flanks, enemy snipers kept two other U.S. companies pinned down, preventing them from moving to the rescue.

While the 1st Battalion was tied up at the northern part of the landing zone, the 2nd Battalion moved into the western woodline, hoping to outflank the enemy. This battalion was pinned down after pushing only 50 yards.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am new in this community and have made many lovely new friends. I met a lady at church and invited her to my home for coffee and cake. It was then that I discovered that she is either a thief or a kleptomaniac, for when I went into the kitchen for a moment, and suddenly returned, I saw her open her large purse and drop my silver spoon and fork into it.

You can't imagine how shocked I was! Now I do not want to make a big issue of it by preferring charges against her, but I do want my silverware back as those pieces are sterling silver and are part of my set. Do I dare ask her to return them? And if so, how? I have told no one and I do not intend to.

MRS. NEWCOMER

DEAR NEWCOMER: You are considerate, compassionate, and wise. Telephone the lady and tell her you saw her take your silverware and would appreciate her returning it. Then tell her that you know there are people who have a compulsion to take things, which is an illness, so you "understand," will tell no one, and hope that she will seek professional help.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 years old and have always lived in a small town in South Carolina. Last summer my family and I spent our summer vacation in New York and Philadelphia.

Down here in South Carolina everyone is friendly to everyone else and when you pass a person on the street you say, "Hi." This isn't just in our little town, but all over the south.

If you do that up north, the looks and stares you get back show that northerners aren't used to it.

Maybe I'm prejudiced, but I never really appreciated southern hospitality until I went north. I think the north is a nice place to visit, but I wouldn't want to live there. Anyone care to comment?

SOUTHERN GIRL

DEAR GIRL: You have a point about southern hospitality, but don't repeat a mistake some northerners make by judging a whole region by the actions and reactions of a few.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago I married a fine young woman from a "good" family. She was 22 and I was 26. We are both college graduates. We were "in love," altho she proposed to me, and pressured me into marrying her sooner than I had intended to.

Shortly after marriage, I found her to be moody, stubborn, and quarrelsome. If you are guessing that we are not very happy, you are correct. At my insistence we sought help from our clergyman. He gave us some lectures on "trying harder," but it didn't help much. Then we went to a marriage counselor, who suggested a trial separation. This my wife refused to do.

She has been seeing a psychiatrist for five weeks now and she insists that she is "well" now, and all we need to save our marriage is a baby. Abby, I don't want a family until I am absolutely sure that this marriage will last. If I tell her, it might upset her more. What should I do?

YOUNG HUSBAND

DEAR HUSBAND: Have a talk with her doctor and ask him how to handle it.

Hold Suspect In Vandalism

The man was apprehended at 5:14 a. m. at Twenty - sixth Street and Avenue Y for discharging a firearm, according to police, who said that he had only one shoe on his foot when arrested.

Officers earlier had answered a call to Beaty's Laundry when the manager reported that someone had broken three windows and punched a hole in one of the walls. Officers found a black shoe inside the laundry.

They said it matched the one worn by the man who discharged the firearm. He was charged with the shooting offense, and other charges are pending.

CANCER

District Cancer Society offices. Rains, Crusade Chairman, has seconded the enthusiasm of his fellow volunteers about the Survey. "We'll be giving something tangible to our neighbors in this project," he has said, "because we're giving them a chance to help us understand what the greatest needs are in programs to reach all sections of the populations."

In line with the American Cancer Society's vigorous campaign against smoking, volunteers are seeking to discover how many people in each community smoke, how many have stopped smoking in the last year, and what the ages are in each group.

A follow-up survey will be conducted during 1968 to compare progress made through the Society's year - 'round programs of films, exhibits, pamphlets and speakers.

"A survey of this size would be impossible by a health organization were it not for the tremendous cooperation of volunteers," Bill Dryden Residential Chairman has commented. "The cost of the Survey, as it will be carried out in each of Texas' 254 counties, will only amount to the cost of printing. All other services are rendered free by interested citizens in each community."

The goal for the 1967 Crusade in Texas is two million dollars, roughly a dollar for each Texan now living who will have cancer, if present trends continue.

The climate is hopeful, however, since one-half of all cancer victims could be cured, through early diagnosis and prompt treatment. To emphasize the vital need for regular, complete health examinations, the Crusade this year will seek to reach every home in the community.

Volunteers wishing to join in the Crusade and Survey are invited to telephone Bill Dryden at HI 3-5933 for more information.

Texas Ranks Second In Defense Payrolls

AUSTIN (AP) — Federal defense payrolls in Texas totaled $1.28 billion for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1966 according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Texas ranked second among the states in military and defense agency payrolls last year, the bureau said Thursday. About 10 per cent of the nation's resident military personnel is stationed in the state.

The bureau said a recent report shows about 175,000 military personnel stationed in Texas received more than $800 million annually in salaries.

Air force payrolls are by far the largest in Texas, with air force bases accounting for the most military establishments.

Only California exceeded Texas in total defense income received, the bureau said.

University Will Still Be A Cow College

ORONO, Maine (AP) — President Edwin Young says the University of Maine will continue to be a cow college.

Powell Describes Black 3rd Party

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell and Negro leaders from across the United States say they have devised a plan whereby a "black political power third force" could become a third major party.

Powell said a national conference of all elected black officials will be held in Los Angeles May 26-28.

With Powell when he made the utterance Thursday were:

Wilfred Ussery, chairman, and Floyd McKissick, director, of the Congress of Racial Equality; Julian Bond, Georgia legislator at first denied his seat; California state Sen. Mervyn Dymally and California Assemblyman Bill Greene, representing the Watts section, and others.

"We are getting together as a team very soon, criss-crossing the nation from Washington to Berkeley, Calif., stopping at strategic points," Powell asserted.

The Harlem preacher-politician said he would attend the May conference in Los Angeles.

He is waiting on the island 50 miles off the Florida coast for the April 11 Harlem election that almost certainly will restore the congressional seat denied him by the House.

"The future of black political power is the future of the United States. . . We have faith in the black man and also in the young white man," Powell asserted.

He wore a yellow sport shirt and yellow shorts.

Powell refused to tell newsmen when he would return to the United States. He is subject to arrest in New York on a criminal contempt conviction.

Powell has not been in his pulpit at the Abyssinian Baptist Church in Harlem since his criminal contempt conviction. He preaches each Sunday afternoon on Bimini and spends the rest of the week fishing, drinking scotch and playing dominoes.

The blue-chip investment with an extra dividend of pride
What do you want from an investment?
Good earnings? Series E U.S. Savings Bonds return $4 in just seven years for every $3 invested. And they keep on growing beyond maturity under the automatic extension privilege.
Safety? Savings Bonds are obligations of the United States Government. And you can't get safer than that.
Cash availability? You think twice before you cash in a Bond, but if you do need money, Series E Bonds can be redeemed any time two months after purchase.
Ease of purchase? Sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work and let the Bonds pile up automatically. Or buy them where you do your banking.
Tax advantage? There are no state or local income taxes on Series E Bonds interest. And you don't have to pay Federal income tax until the Bonds are redeemed.
An extra something? Pride. Knowledge that you are giving Uncle Sam a helping hand. Particularly important now when your investment dollars are helping to support our fighting men in Vietnam. Invest wisely. Invest pridefully. In U.S. Savings Bonds.

O. K. Fletcher Is Candidate

O. K. Fletcher, Candidate for School Board.

I would consider it a privilege and an opportunity to serve our School District. The several Teachers and School Officials I have had the opportunity to meet and talk with, have led me to believe that we have some of the best qualified teachers and supervisors that any School System, anywhere, has.

I would like to help our Teachers in a Tangible way and to work with them and the School Board to up-grade their Professional status. This is essential if we are to retain our present Faculty of Qualified Teachers, and to enlist others, if and when, they may be needed.

I go into this with an open mind and a sincere desire to help our Schools and our Children, in any way that I can, to a higher level of education. I have nothing against anyone connected with our School System, and I think if we all work together as a Harmonious group, we can be proud of our achievements and grow to even better educational facilities, and as a parent who loves children, I would like to have a part in the continued good work being done by our teachers and supervisors in our schools.

I will also guard against any expenditure of Tax money, which, in my judgment, is non-essential to the betterment of a higher level of education.

I would have liked to have met those of you connected with the School Maintenance Dept. and those of you in the School Cafeterias. I hear you are doing a splendid job and I am proud of you. I know we all have our problems, and if I can be of any help, at any time, please feel free to call on me.

One of the important things at the present, is for each person interested in our schools, to come out and vote. This includes you in the rural areas, too. The School system is everyones school system. Please support it by casting your vote Saturday. We need your support.

We are all good guys.

Thank you.

Hanoi's Revelations Served To Bolster American Image

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — North Vietnam played it cool for years. Then suddenly it didn't. And just because it didn't, it did President Johnson and the United States a big favor. But it meant to do the opposite.

Just when Johnson's popularity was way down and American prestige around the world was suffering because of the war in Vietnam, Hanoi on its own revealed the repeated efforts of Johnson to find some road to peace.

If Johnson had looked inflexible about making war until these revelations about his peace efforts, which Hanoi ridiculed, now it's the North Vietnamese who look bullheaded. They made Johnson look better, themselves worse.

This was the opposite of their intentions.

For years on the canvas of the world Hanoi had painted Johnson and the United States as berserk monsters and aggressors and, in the process, belittled all the American statements about wanting peace.

North Vietnam's leader, Ho Chi Minh, had a pat answer for American peace suggestions: Stop the bombing unconditionally, although Johnson had ordered bombing pauses to see if North Vietnam would respond. It didn't.

Gradually the American position hardened. Johnson laid down the preliminary condition for peace: If this country is to stop the bombing, Hanoi must show it is interested in peace by reducing some of its own warmaking.

Johnson's critics, here and elsewhere, ignoring his proposal, apparently preferred to listen to Hanoi. They clubbed Johnson for not doing what Hanoi demanded: Stop the bombing unconditionally or at least indefinitely.

They skipped over the fact that North Vietnam had ignored several chances — during the bombing pauses — to show it was interested in ending the war.

At the time of the last bombing pause in February, Johnson wrote Ho Chi Minh directly, proposing peace steps. But the North Vietnamese leader didn't answer until the day after Johnson finally ordered the bombing resumed.

And all Ho Chi Minh did then was what he had done before. He ridiculed Johnson's efforts. Worse still, from Washington's view, he didn't even show enough interest in peace to hint at some further correspondence.

While Johnson could have made capital out of this, by making the correspondence public to show Ho Chi Minh had rejected his peace gesture, he didn't. He considered the whole business too delicate to risk wrecking it by exposure.

For some twisted reason — it showed no sense, since it was bound to work against them — the North Vietnamese broadcast the Johnson-Ho Chi Minh correspondence, along with the usual ridicule.

All it did was reveal that Hanoi wouldn't budge. Meanwhile, U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations, proposed to both Johnson and Ho Chi Minh three steps to bring peace.

The United States promptly accepted, with some reservations. North Vietnam apparently answered "no," for while its response to Thant has not been made public the Hanoi Radio has indicated a refusal to deal or listen.

Thus twice within a few weeks Hanoi presented itself to the world as inflexible, repudiating the peace efforts of both Johnson and Thant. But that wasn't all North Vietnam did to make Johnson and the United States look better and itself worse.

This week the Washington Post reported that Hanoi's newspaper Nhan Dan said the United States had made 30 attempts to start peace negotiations.

Here again Johnson had kept quiet on these bids for peace. But the Communist paper denounced all these efforts as "tricks," to soften world opinion about "U.S. aggression."

But, by publicizing Johnson's efforts for peace and its own repudiations, Hanoi very effectively helped soften world opinion about this country.

This doesn't make sense — from the standpoint of Hanoi's own self-interest. Which raises a natural question: What kind of thinking goes on in North Vietnam?

Junior Editors Quiz on WEDDING RING

QUESTION: When and where did the wedding ring originate?

* * *

ANSWER: People have always loved to adorn themselves. The shape of the fingers naturally suggests that they be used for adornment. It is probable that the wearing of rings goes back to the earliest times, but just how far back we do not know. The earliest rings on record have been found in ancient Egyptian tombs. Rings came to have different meanings and uses. One use was to act as a person's signature. They could be rolled in wet clay or stamped on paper with ink. Notice the two signet rings. Some countries and tribes have worn rings on noses, ears, arms, toes and ankles, but in our civilization their use has been mainly on fingers and ears. Until about 1300, it was usual to wear rings on the thumb. A most important use of the ring began in Roman times. There was once a belief (which is untrue) that there is a vein connecting the third finger of the left hand with the heart; so came the custom of wearing rings to celebrate a betrothel or wedding. A ring is a natural setting for a precious stone such as a diamond, ruby or emerald.

Star Knows The Power Of A Smile

by HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Many housewives yearn to be glamorous stars. Caterina Valente is a glamorous star who aspires to be a housewife.

"If I ever should retire, I'll concentrate on being a housewife," she said. "I am very good at it."

She is so good at it that she has written a cookbook in German. It features Chinese dishes, her specialty.

It took seven generations of entertainers to produce Caterina, a performer of stunning brilliance whose versatility and industry lead her to be spoken of in show business with something akin to awe.

The slender, vivacious singer can belt out songs in 12 languages. She dances and plays the flute and guitar. She gives from 50 to 70 concerts a year in places as far apart as Sweden and Argentina. She makes a dozen to 20 television appearances a year in this country, Britain, Germany and Italy, and turns out from four to eight record albums.

She also tapes — in a West Berlin station, in Japanese — a disc jockey program for a Tokyo station and writes a syndicated fashion tips column.

"In my spare time I am also taking a correspondence course in photography," she said the other evening, resting in her room after receiving an ovation for her opening show in the Americana Hotel's Royal Box.

"I had to learn several languages just to be able to talk to the playmates I met in the countries we traveled through," she said.

Caterina is married to Eric Van Aro, a German television producer whom she met and fell in love with when he was a music hall juggler. They live in an apartment in Lugano, Switzerland, but the singer feels she is lucky if she gets to spend three months of the year there.

"Going up in this business is one thing, but staying there is much harder," she says. "It takes work, work, work."

To Caterina life means love and cheerfulness.

"With love you can make everything work," she said. "It is not difficult to love and give love. If you do that, you'll get love back yourself.

"I believe in smiling 100 per cent of the time if you can, too. You can reach so many things with a single smile — as long as you mean it."

Schoolboy Meets Cokes

NEW YORK (AP) — "Worried about Curtis Cokes? Why should I be. He'll do enough worrying for both of us."

That's the word from Gypsy Joe Harris, a cool, unbeaten 22-year-old fireball who meets welterweight champion Curtie Cokes in a nontitle 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight. The bout is rated even money.

"I'm not worried about him," said Cokes, making his debut in the Garden. "He's a kid but he can be fought. And he can be handled. I'll handle him."

It will be the first appearance in New York for Harris, a squat, 5-foot-5½ buzzsaw puncher who has become a red hot attraction in his native Philadelphia.

"After I whip Cokes, I'll be just as hot in New York," said Harris, a 10th grade, school dropout who has been getting nothing but straight A's in his ring tests. He has won all 16 of his pro fights, eight by knockouts, in 28 months of pro battling.

Cokes, 29 stands 5-foot-9 and is rated a boxer-puncher. In nine years he has posted a 45-8-3 won-lost-draw. record, including 20 knockouts. He has been stopped once. He has an unbeaten string of nine over two years, including a draw in Paris with Frenchman Francois Pavilla.

He'll meet Pavilla in a title 15-rounder in Dallas, Tex., May 19.

Lower Sports Rates For Out Of State?

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas sportsmen can hunt and fish in other states at reduced rates if the legislature approves his bill, Rep. Clyde Haynes Jr. of Vidor told the House Parks and Wildlife Committee Thursday.

Haynes' bill authorizes the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to make reciprocal agreements with other states to charge uniform hunting and fishing license fees.

"The bill also permits bank-to-bank fishing in waters connecting Texas with other states," Haynes said

Louisiana already has a law authorizing reciprocal license agreements, he said. "I think this will encourage tourism," Haynes said.

Greensboro Lead Goes To Pott

By KEN ALYTA
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — You have to drop all the way down to 53rd place in the latest money list to find the name of Johnny Pott, the leader going into today's second round of the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

The 31-year-old, one-time No. 1 player on the Louisiana State golf team shot his best round of the year Thursday, a six-under-par 65.

It gave him a two-stroke lead over defending champion Doug Sanders and Californians George Archer and Dave Stockton in the $125,000 tournament, which has a $25,000 first prize.

Pott has won four tour events since turning professional in 1956 but none since 1963.

Last year he won nothing but money—$47,000—to rank 18th. In a five-week stretch last spring he pocketed more than $25,000 with finishes ranging from second to seventh.

But this year he has won only $3,700 in official money, with a 10th place tie his best finish.

Pott's opening round over the 7,000-yard, par 71 Sedgefield Country Club course produced six birdies, the longest from 20 feet, and 12 pars. He played the par 36-35 course in 32-33 and was one shot off the course record.

Archer, a lanky 6-foot-6 professional of four years, has more than the Greensboro tournament on his mind. He wants to earn a spot in the Masters with a good showing here. Two more places are available for Augusta, Ga., classic, and Archer leads the point race which will determine them.

Chi Chi Rodriguez, the 116-pound Puerto Rican who has had a variety of ailments in the last year, came up with a 68 to tie South Africa's Gary Player for fifth place.

All told, 30 men broke par and 15 equalled it under ideal weather conditions. Skies were clear and temperatures were in the high 60s.

There were eight 69-shooters, including Julius Boros and Arnold Palmer, the only double winners on the tour this year and the leading money winning pair in that order.

Among the 16 men who shot 70 was 54-year-old Sam Snead, who won here for the eighth time two years ago.

Warriors Tip Hawks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We lost the game and it makes no difference whether we lost by 50 points or one," surmised player-coach Richie Guerin of the St. Louis Hawks who nearly won after benching himself.

If Guerin stays in Saturday night's game, the San Francisco Warriors has best beware, warned their own coach Bill Sharman.

San Francisco took a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven playoff for the Western crown in the National Basketball Association chase by edging the Hawks 117-115 after building a 22-point lead on Thursday night.

Tonight's eastern division action centers in Philadelphia where the 76ers tangle with the Boston Celtics in another clash between Wilt Chamberlain and Boston's player-coach Bill Russell, who won't figure on sitting benchwise.

Before a crowd of 7,813 at the Cow Palace, the Warriors jumped into a 40-25 first quarter lead as Rick Barry dumped in 16 points and Nate Thurmond contributed 10.

Guerin played only 12 minutes and explained, "We had to go to a pressing game. We needed quickness to generate our offense."

Ags Rap Missouri In 16 Innings

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas A&M needed 16 innings but it finally defeated Missouri in one of two baseball games they played Thursday.

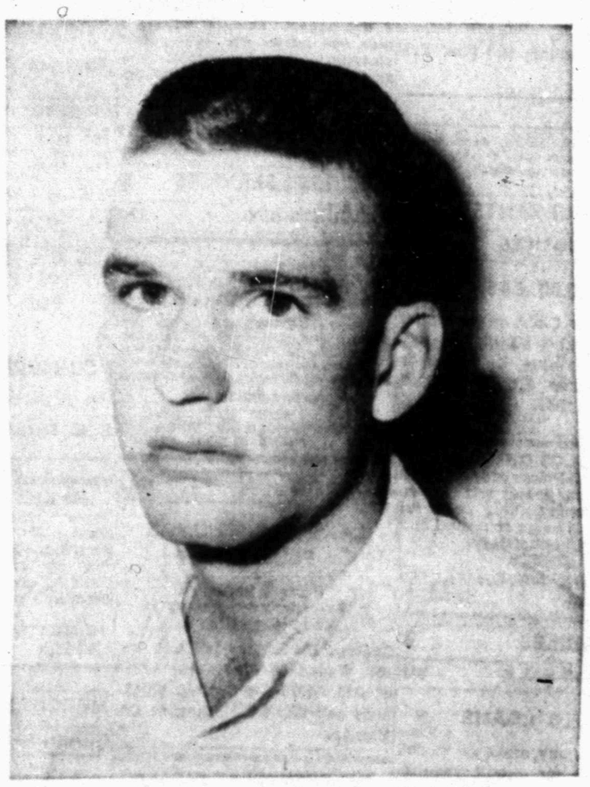

The Aggies and the Tigers played to a 6-6 tie in the first game which went two innings past the scheduled seven before being called so the second contest could be started.

Then A&M sophomore right-hander Walter Varvel pitched the first complete game of the season for the Aggies as they won 8-2. He gave up only five hits in the seven-inning game.

Baylor avenged a Wednesday loss to Abilene Christian by beating the Wildcats 17-3 Thursday in a game stopped after seven innings. The Bears failed to score in only one inning.

The Greatest Sermon

Dear Sinner:

Please don't scoff the Lord. He is long suffering and His mercy is great to them that fear Him. He is our only hope, but hope deferred maketh the heart sick. Life's road would quickly come to a dead end without Him. Why not take Him at His word today? He can perform miracles with your life. He can give you the desire to attend church. He can make your deeds shine, your good works glow, so that others may be constrained to glorify the Lord, to find their way before it is too late. He says, "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." — A-men.
