In order to help conserve space at the landfill, only wood and metal will be collected on this clean-up day, scheduled for Saturday, October 18th, according to KCCB president Bob Reily.

"We're encouraging everyone who has a pickup or trailer to help those who can't by

BEEN THERE GOT the T-Shirt and ready to go again – Joel White, a member of the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department is ready to take on all comers at the 2008 Boer Goat Cook Off.

Stagecoach rides, ghostly encounters guaranteed to give goosebumps, plenty of Wild West flavor and activities for the whole family are the hallmarks of the 3rd annual Junktique Jamboree sponsored by the Main Street program.

Pack and Pedal your way downtown at 9:45 a.m. Saturday morning, October 4th for the parade led by Grand Marshall Piper Harris. Harris, the 8-year-old Hollywood actress famous for her roles in iCarly, G-Force and Blond Ambition, will also be available for autographs.

After the parade, which begins at the corner of Hickory and 2nd, head on over to the Railhead Building for lots of variety acts performed by Colorado City's school children.

"This is the unifying event for Colorado City," said Main Street coordinator, Cecilia Scott. "Everyone comes together to make it happen. We're making memories for everyone."

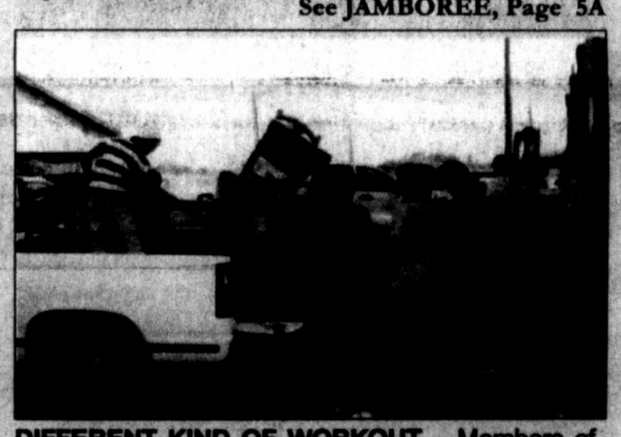

Those memories include rides in the same stagecoach Russell Crowe rode in during the filming of the movie 3:10 to Yuma; live rattlesnakes on display from the Texas Tech Science Center and rattlesnake skins from the Don Bennet estate; the Ugly Women Saloon, complete with a Wild West gunfight or two; and even an old fashioned fortune teller.

Spend time riding on a mechanical bull or roping horse, or visit with local authors on hand to autograph copies of their books. A fashion show, sponsored by Wood's Boots, Dragonfly, Eclectiques and Bella Janes, and a Trash to Treasure auction are sure to provide hours of fun and entertainment. "We have bidding wars, you'd better come early and bid often," advises Scott, adding the Jamboree was still taking items for the auction.

The Heart of West Texas will have an 1800's hearse on display downtown, complete with gas lanterns on the side and beveled glass viewing windows.

The afternoon will be filled with crafts, food and games, including free air games. Chavos, skinless sausages wrapped in tortillas with guacamole and salsa are back on the menu this year, sponsored by the Westbrook PTA. Catch a full slate of great movies at the 3M Palace all day Saturday at DIFFERENT KIND OF WORKOUT – Members of the Wolves football team lend a hand this week to help set up for the Junktique Jamboree.

Apartment fire does little damage

Quick actions on the part of Detective John Bivins, Adam Lloyd of the Westbrook Fire Department and Rick Goodney of the Colorado City Fire Department prevented a structure fire in the Colorado City Apartments from spreading and causing further damage.

"The response time of the fire department was awesome," said Bivins, who along with the two firefighters pulled a burning mattress from an upstairs apartment.

"The fire department did an excellent job," said Lieutenant Chris Pearson. "We were fortunate there wasn't a tremendous amount of damage out here."

The cause of the fire, which was called in at 2:21 p.m. Monday, has not been determined, although one firefighter suggested it might have been attributed to smoking. No one was injured in the fire.

The Mitchell County EMS and Sheriff's Department were also on the scene to lend assistance.

Hospital awarded improvement grant

The Office of Rural Community Affairs, a state agency dedicated solely to rural Texas, recently named Mitchell County Hospital the recipient of a Small Rural Hospital Improvement Program (SHIP) grant for approximately $9,000.

"This grant will be used to cover costs for various quality improvement activities, most of which are through the RCHI (Rural and Community Health Institute)," said Justa Gunn, R.N., Quality Improvement, Compliance and Risk Management Coordinator.

Former Hospital Administrator Linda Mize completed the grant writing endeavor prior to her resignation. She had been successful in obtaining numerous grants for the hospital district in previous years.

According to Interim Administrator Karl Stinson, the hospital district hopes to secure grant funding from several sources to assist with growth and expansion within the dis- -

Exceptional TAKS scores grant 7th graders eligibility for ACT

By virtue of passing the TAKS with a score of 99%or better, eight Colorado Middle School students have been selected to take the ACT exam.

Maricela Espinoza, Jacob Kimball, Jessica Hawkins, Sarena Lujan, Keeley McClintock, Cason Smith, Joshua Ludwig and Rene Aguirre became eligible to take the ACT as seventh graders through the 7th Grade Talent Search sponsored by Duke University. The program singles out middle schoolers with exceptional academic skills and rewards them with the opportunity to get a head start on preparation for the ACT test.

"CMS has participated in the Talent Search for several years," said counselor Emily Strain. "They do really well. I'm very proud of our students."

Strain said this year boasted the "most that have qualified in a long time."

Two of the students, Cason Smith and Joshua Ludwig, will be taking the ACT for the first time on Dec. 13 at Colorado High School.

The students are given a study booklet to help them prepare for the test. "In the past years we've gone, they've scored pretty well for seventh graders," she said.

Through the Talent Search program at Duke, middle school students receive a decided advantage. Taking the SAT or ACT in seventh grade gives students a chance to practice and become familiar with the exams that play a major role in college admissions. "The more you see the test, the better you do and the better chance you have of getting college scholarships," Strain said.

Since 1980, the Duke Talent Identification Program (Duke TIP) has been a world leader in identifying academically talented students and providing innovative programs to support the development of their optimal potential.

OPINION & COMMENTARY

TUMBLEWEED SMITH

Be careful about buying gifts on vacation

While we were in Peru, we saw some extremely beautiful silver and gold items. The colorful weavings were fantastic. The caps, shirts and jackets were made with skillful hands. The very special alpaca and vicuna coats and scarves were of extremely high quality. There were so many interesting and unique things. We wanted to bring practically everything we saw back home with us.

We stayed in a shopping district full of small, fun stores to visit. In the mornings, we walked up and down the streets near our hotel and visited several of them. We were in Lima over a weekend when a large marketplace was set up over a several block area downtown. Vendors from nearby villages brought items to sell along a boulevard esplanade.

They just plunk themselves down on the grass and set up shop. It reminded me of Santa Fe, when Indians offer things for sale on the town square. The Peruvian vendors were wearing the brightest-colored clothing I've ever seen.

Shopping for our family was fairly simple, but finding special gifts for our friends was difficult. We wanted something small, since we always try to travel with carry-on luggage. A lot of consideration went into every choice we made. We went back and forth between vendors, shops and the marketplace. We finally decided on some silver letter openers.

We made our purchases early in the trip, since we were going to be fairly busy later on. We had some scheduled excursions throughout the country.

After buying the gifts, we went to the Lima airport to catch a flight to Cuzco. In Peru, you have to pay an airport tax prior to boarding. And you pay it after checking your luggage. Since we had just carry-on, we paid the tax and headed for security.

I travel with at least two cameras and a recorder. When the security camera scanned our luggage, there seemed to be some kind of a problem with a bag. The security officer said something that sounded to me like the word corder. I though he was speaking English and told him, "You must have found my recorder." He didn't respond and looked stern. Turns out he was speaking Spanish and the word he was saying was cortar, which means to cut.

He started plowing through the bag in question, which had my recorder in it. He didn't pause an instant when he came to the recorder. He kept going until he found the silver letter openers we had purchased for our friends. Another security officer, a woman, approached and looked over the situation. She saw the surprised look on our faces and could tell we had never considered the letter openers being weapons.

She figured we were not terrorists and courteously asked us to please return to the ticket counter and check our luggage.

We learned a lot about buying gifts on that trip. We did have to pay another airport tax; but it was a small price to pay, considering what could have been the consequences of our trying to carry weapons aboard a plane.

The wait is over -- come on downtown

The anxiously awaited 3rd annual Junktique is this weekend. Come downtown at 8:30 for the Pack N Pedal Parade with lots of surprises. Entertainment begins at 9:00 a.m. and vendors will be open by 10:00 a.m.

Stagecoach rides, snake exhibits and mechanical bull rides will be a few of the activities. Take a break and head to our frontier food court for an array of goodies. Check out the candy choices or fill up with a funnel cake. Chavos are back and the sausage treats that were a sellout at our first Junktique are a sure hit.

Piper Harris is a special feature in our parade and will be available for autographs and visits.

Mosey over to the soft drink saloon and hobnob with the unique western characters and play a game of checkers or cards.

Beautiful mesquite bowls made by local craftsman Buddy Compton will inspire you as you observe his creation process. Check out the rest of the wonderful vendors.

A treat for everyone is the late 1800s horse drawn hearse from Colorado on display. This hearse is a piece of art.

Be sure and get your ticket for the 50/50 raffle.

If you are wondering what fun fortune lies ahead, check out our mysterious fortune teller in her own special tent.

Marcus has movies on for your viewing pleasure and you can relax in luxury as you go back in time.

If your face could use some decor, be sure to see Lana our terrific face painter. Our cowboys in Kiwanis Park will show up to shoot a bit and hopefully no shoppers will be caught in the crossfire.

We have a special ghost tour with a new twist and a new ghost telling our city tales.

To catch up on the latest and greatest in fashion, sponsored by Wood's Boots, Bella Janes, Eclectiques and Dragonfly, select a seat at 2:00 on Sunday for our fashion show.

For our readers, the library hosts an Authors' Corner with special authors to show and sign their creative books.

The highlight of Saturday afternoon is our Trash to Treasure auction at 2 p.m.

Dandy's Diner will be open, as well as the Coffee Cup Cafe.

Speaking of eating, don't miss our Saturday night Sparkle and Stars dinner theater with the talented Troy Sutton and his family. A delicious dinner of sour cream chicken, potatoes medley, Venetian vegetables, salad, rolls and pecan carmel cheesecake, begins at 7:00 p.m. at the Civic Center.

The dinner show features the talented Troy Sutton and his family. All of this for a $15 ticket, which are selling fast. What a bargain! Ghost tours to follow.

Then on Sunday morning, go to the C.C. Thompson Room for a cowboy breakfast and visit with friends.

Longhorns across from the Civic Center will inspire the Old West in you. Then the live snakes will scare the Old West out of you. Touch a snake skin and see one of the largest snake skins ever.

A roping horse will be available for those aspiring rodeo stars, as well.

Don't forget we have some awesome free events: the fortune teller, the snake show on Saturday, train rides and air games.

Truly something for everyone! Come on down.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

For those of you who weren't able to attend last Friday's homecoming game at Wolf Stadium, I want you to know that you missed a good one!

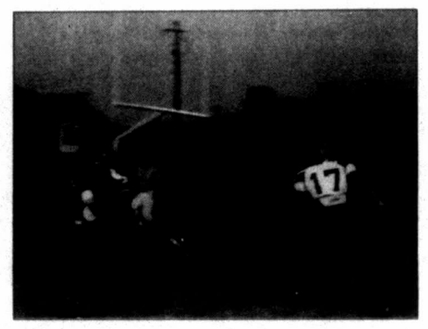

During the week before the game, I kept hearing talk about the Cisco Lobos and how they were ranked #1 in the state. Most people painted a pretty dismal picture of the match up between them and the Wolves.

I went into that game fearing the worst for our boys, but I came out excited and impressed. Although the Wolves lost to Cisco 47-31, they are winners in my book. They played well and never gave up.

I found out later that the Wolves scored more on Cisco than any other opponent so far. Our boys fought the Lobos with heart and gave them a run for their money. We should be proud of the Colorado City Wolves!

If you see any of these boys out in town, take the time to go over and congratulate them on a job well done.

Local authors to autograph books during Junktique Jamboree Oct. 4

Four area authors will be featured during the Junktique Jamboree this Saturday. The Authors Corner, sponsored by the Mitchell County Library, will convene in the Railhead Building and offer a smorgasborg of genres from West Texas frontier, to mystery and science fiction.

Emily Beaver

Emily Beaver, former Snyder resident and first time author, graduated from Abilene Christian University in 1996 with a degree in English literature. She has since taught English and Drama at the junior high level and has three young children.

In the fall of 2005, she began writing her premier novel, The Recluse of Iffley Village, first book in the all new Meriwether Mystery series. The series targets adolescents ages 9 to 14.

Writing and publishing a novel represents the culmination of a lifelong dream for Emily. Always an avid reader, she is delighted to share stories of her own with a new generation of young readers.

The author currently lives in Sterling City, TX with her family.

Doris McClellan, author of a number of books set in West Texas, makes her home on the Ellwood Spade Ranch, near Sterling City. A student and observer of plant and animal life in West Texas and the Trans-Pecos region and the author of An Angel on my Shoulder and Cowboys Cowgirls Cowchips, she draws on over 31 years of ranch life experience, blending facts, insights and inspiration to make her books truly exciting to both young and old.

Doris McClellan

"These are true stories as told to me by the cowboy's cowboy," said McClellan. The purpose of Cowboys Cowgirls Cowchips is to give credit and to salute the cowboys who give their muscle, blood, sweat and the strength of their youth – riding for the brand. Vic Choat wrote, "It's not what all he gathered up, but the tracks he left behind."

Jim Baum, mayor of Colorado City for 18 years, raised in Abilene and since moving to Colorado City in 1980 has recorded over 1200 interviews with local residents. Excerpts of these interviews have been included in four books written by Baum. His favorite book, Bootleggers, Braceros, and Bronc Busters features true West Texas tales about Mitchell County characters and communities.

Carol Parsons finds science fiction a great venue for tackling tough subjects. Her first novel, Advent Phoenix, features characters who hold fast to what is good regardless of the cost. Parsons is the editor of the Colorado City Record and lives in the Champion community south of Roscoe.

Carol Parsons

The authors will be on hand throughout the day to autograph copies of their books.

Peas, deer hot topics for farm tour/ag day on October 2

By John R. Senter
Michell CEA-Ag
Texas AgriLife Extension Service

The Annual Mitchell County Crop Tour is here and will be held on Thursday, October 2nd at the C.C. Thompson Room. The day will begin with registration, coffee and donuts from 8:30 to 8:45 a.m.

The Ag and Natural Resources Committee have again done a great job in planning the day and identifying presenters who will surely offer some great insight. Participants should plan to board the bus about 9 a.m. with a couple of stops on this year's tour. The stops for this tour are somewhat different in comparison to past years but should hold great value nonetheless.

First, we will take a look at some acres planted to Iron & Clay Peas, on the Todd Shaw farm. This stop will fit very well into information to be presented by Dr. Calvin Trostle and relates to Legume Options for Soil Building.

Second stop: In keeping with the wildlife programming we have done this year, we have all but confirmed a stop and presentation at the PAX 96 Ranch with a presentation by the ranch manager. This stop will showcase their wildlife management goals, food plots and genetic research to improve their deer quality. This promises to offer great thought and possibilities for producers who would like to improve deer hunting on individual operations.

We will return to the C.C. Thompson Room for a lunch sponsored by City National Bank, First Bank of West Texas in Loraine and First National Bank. During lunch, we will have presentations by the following folks, on these topics:

- Dr. Randy Boman & Dr. Mark Kelley – Harvest Aid Outlook; Weed Resistance in Cotton and also Understanding Using Deep Soil Nitrogen
- Dr. Jackie Smith & Dr. Jay Yates: Farm Bill Update & SURE Calculations.

As always, we will hold the Cotton Production guess and award the boots to the winner for 2007. Producers who need Continuing Education Units for pesticide license certification will receive three (3) CEUs.

Finally, those who plan to attend, should call our office 728-3111 to reserve a meal before noon on Wednesday, October 1. Plan now to attend the 2008 Ag Day and Farm Tour.

bargain prices, with plenty of their bottomless tubs of buttered popcorn.

Events are just gearing up as Saturday evening rolls around featuring the talented Troy Sutton at a dinner theater in the Civic Center. Tickets are still on sale, but going fast. The Jamboree's famous Ghost Tour will have new stories dragged up from the recesses of Colorado City history, including one elegantly dressed lady from the days of the Cattleman's Ball who still wanders at night, tapping unsuspecting guests on the shoulder. Or maybe the ghost of Dr. Phoenix who met his end at the Coffee Cup Café might drop by during the tour of downtown's picturesque buildings.

The good times continue on Sunday afternoon beginning with a Cowboy Breakfast from 8:30 -10:00 a.m. All booths will be open from 12 p.m until 5 p.m. with plenty of food, crafts and games. So come early and stay late.

HAVING MORE RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS
IS NOT THE SAME
AS HAVING MORE MONEY.
Many investors won't put all their retirement savings at a single broker because they believe it's far too risky. Actually, there may be more risk in having multiple accounts. Without a single focus, it can be difficult to keep track of your investments and to see if you're properly diversified.* At the very least, multiple accounts usually mean multiple fees.
Bringing your accounts to Edward Jones could help solve all that. Plus, one statement makes it easier to see if you're moving toward your goals.
*Diversification does not guarantee a profit, nor does it protect against loss.
To learn why consolidating your retirement accounts to Edward Jones makes sense, call your local financial advisor today.

Blake, Scherle united in August ceremony

Armenda Michelle Blake and Daniel (Dan) E. Scherle were united in marriage August 16, 2008, at The Orangery, Knoxville, Tennessee.

The bride is the daughter of Ed and Sendia Blake of Colorado City. The groom is the son of Joe and Lois Cohen of Edgewater, Florida, and the late Edward R. Scherle. Reverend Rebekah Fetzer of Cokesbury United Methodist Church of Knoxville, Tennessee, officiated.

The ceremony was held at The Orangery indoor courtyard. Tthe courtyard balconies and the stairs were draped with white chiffon and twinkling lights, the indoor fountain was topped with a beautiful floral arrangement of deep yellow calla lilies, lily of the valley, goldenrod and ivy, created by the bride.

Music was provided by Special Notes Entertainment Agency, pianist Beverly Kerr and dogwood string duo first chair Knoxville Symphony.

Matron of Honor was Emily Cleveland of Frankfort, Kentucky, longtime friend of the bride. Maid of Honor was Stacey Streeter of Perry, Michigan, friend of the bride. Bridesmaid was Patty Monnett of Oakridge, Tennessee, friend of the bride and groom. Bridesmaids wore black satin sweetheart bodices with matching a-line skirts and carried yellow calla lilies. Crystal, cushion cut necklaces and earrings, gifts from the bride, complimented their outfits. The bride's personal attendant was Terri Lyons of Eldersburg, Maryland, friend of the bride.

The best man was Mike Monnett of Oakridge, Tennessee, friend of the bride and groom. Groomsmen were Danny and Conor Scherle of Pennsylvania, sons of the groom. The best man and groomsmen wore black tuxes and black ties and single, yellow calla lily boutonnieres with a spray of yellow berries. The groom wore black tux and white tie and a double white calla lily boutonniere with a spray of yellow berries.

The bride wore a draped halter top, designer gown of diamond dust satin, dropped-waist inset with a black satin band, accented with a crystal brooch. The attached train was embellished with crystals. To complete the bride's ensemble, she wore a French net face veil. She carried long-stem, white calla lilies wrapped with black satin and adorned with a rhinestone buckle. She also carried a blue and white embroidered handkerchief that belonged to her paternal grandmother, the late Stella Black. "In Better Hands" by Natalie Grant was the background music for the bride and groom's Unity Sand ceremony.

Mrs. Daniel Scherle

Following the ceremony, a sit-down buffet meal was served in The Orangery ballroom. Table centerpieces were crystal vases of yellow calla lilies with white orchids, yellow candles and crystal candle sticks on black over white linens. The buffet provided selections of marinated al dente vegetables, poached Alaskan King Salmon served chilled with sliced lemons and lemon caper mayonnaise, crudités with sage bleu cheese dip and a California avocado dip, smoked salmon pate, fruit brie in puff pastry garnished with berries, mixed domestic cheeses and mixed fresh fruit and a salad station.

The wedding cake, created by Magpies Cakes, consisted of vanilla buttercake layers, drizzled with fresh strawberry juice, then filled with luscious strawberry cream and enclosed in a delicious fondant design of black, white and yellow. After the meal, guests retired to the indoor courtyard, where music was provided by Jim Ogle Knoxville's #1 DJ.

The couple flew to Milan, Italy, where they began their honeymoon at Lake Como, Isola Bella, Lake Maggiore, Lugano and Lake Lugano. From Milan they traveled to Bolzano, Italy, to see the breathtaking Italian Alps. Next stop was Venice, Italy, the Dolomites/Cortina. Returning to Milan for a tour of Duomo, Galleria to the famous Scala Opera House and the Sfozesco Castle.

The couple will reside in Oakridge, Tennessee, and maintain their business Global Recruiting Network, downtown Knoxville.

Wolves fight hard against state ranked Cisco Lobos

By Tony Franco

The Colorado City Wolves unleashed their offensive firepower against the top ranked Cisco Lobos at Wolf Stadium last Friday night. Running back Jamarcus Brooks ran for 156 yards on 18 carries and Manuel Garza caught 10 passes for 189 yards, as the Wolves battled #1 ranked Cisco in a 47-31 thriller eventually won by the speedy Lobos.

"We're back," proclaimed an excited Wolves Coach Frank Johnson after the game. "We stood toe-to-toe with the top team in Texas. We were supposed to get hammered, but we sent a message to the other teams in our district that we're not a fluke. We're playing football." Cisco improved to 5-0 while the Wolves are 3-2. Colorado City is open this week and begins district play by hosting Grape Creek next week.

Cisco was expected to rely on a running game and the top 2A team in Texas did just that as they raced to 443 rushing yards on 34 carries. After Cisco returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown it appeared the Wolves were in for a long night. However, Brooks and The Pack showed they were ready to do their own running.

Quarterback Clint White led the Wolves on a 14 play drive and scored on a one yard keeper that answered Cisco's opening score. Wolf fans enjoyed more of the same for the rest of the evening as Colorado City and Cisco exchanged blow for blow.

"I'm disappointed we lost," said Coach Johnson, "but the kids laid it out. I'm very proud of the effort. I'm proud of the kids and the coaching staff." White, Brooks, Garza and Sam Shrode were named Offensive Players of the Week. Ryan Gainey took Defensive Player of the Week and Adam Gonzales was the Special Teams Player of the Week.

Cisco relied heavily on a speedy backfield that included junior running backs Vegas Hastings and Bradley Tolar and quarterback Josh Bridges. The Wolf defense worked hard to contain the threesome but when the speedy trio got loose they did so in a big way. Stopped by the Wolves on their first possession, the Lobos made an interception to retake the ball. Three plays later, Hastings took a pitch around the left end and streaked to a 47 yard score that made it 13-7 for Cisco with 37.5 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

Brooks led a Wolves counter attack and scored with a 35 yard touchdown run on a short, delayed screen pass from White. Colorado City also missed their point after attempt to make it 13-13 with 10:34 left in the half.

Cisco then took three running plays to make it 20-13, as Hastings scored again on a 19 yard run with 9:33 left in the second period. The Lobos extended the lead to 28-13 on a 47 yard burst by Tolar with 7:14 left in the half.

The Wolves then went on a 12 play, 78 yard drive to complete the first half scoring. A scrambling White found Derrek Gutierrez for a 23 yard completion at midfield. Brooks then ran 21 yards to put the Wolves at the Cisco 26. Facing third and 15 at the 31, White found Garza running from left to right for the score with 3:29 left in the half. A failed two point try made it 28-19 at halftime.

Brooks had another exciting run through the Cisco defense later in the half, but the possession ended at the Cisco 24 yard line. Gainey made a fumble recovery to end Cisco's final first half possession. "Jamarcus became a stud running back tonight," said Coach Johnson. "I can't express how great he ran against one of the best teams in the state."

Defense ruled the third quarter until Cisco's Hastings got loose again for a 35 yard score to make it 35-19 for the Lobos with 2:15 left in the period. Hastings opened the fourth quarter with a 26 yard touchdown run that made it 41-19.

With 10:37 left in the game, the top ranked Lobos had their lead but the Wolves were far from done. Receptions by Garza helped the Wolves march to a first and goal at the Cisco 9 yard line but the possession ended with an interception. On the next play Hastings put the top ranked Lobos on the board again with a 93 yard run to make it 47-19 with 5:45 left in the game.

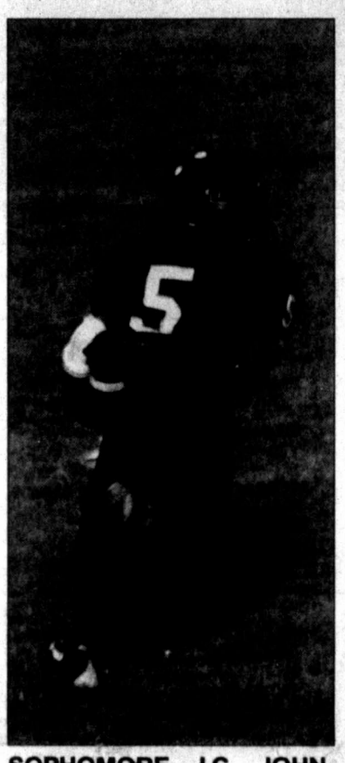

Again the Wolves came right back. Brooks reversed direction in the backfield then bolted for a 43 yard touchdown that made it 47-25 with 4:33 left in the final period. Christian McKinney made a fumble recovery to get the ball back for Colorado City.

Facing fourth and 13 at the Cisco 46, White completed a 33 yard pass to Garza, who made a leaping catch over the Lobo defender along the left sideline. Two plays later White connected with senior Michael Mauldin for a 10 yard touchdown that completed the scoring with 3:08 left in the game.

The Wolves final possession came from a Gutierrez hit that resulted in a fumble recovery by Jarod Lynch.

SENIOR MANUEL GARZA (4) breaks a tackle in last Friday night's game with Cisco. Garza caught 10 passes for 189 yards and was named Offensive Player of the Week along with Sam Shrode, Jamarcus Brooks and Clint White.

Bulldogs rest this week in preparation for district

By Carl Graham

After pulling off their second straight win of the season the Loraine Bulldogs will take a much needed rest this week before starting the district race on October 10th with the O'Donnell Eagles.

Loraine pulled out a win in the last 27 seconds last Friday night against the Lueders-Avoca Pirates when they held them out of the end-zone from the 5-yard line on a first and goal situation.

O'Donnell is in their first year of six-man football, but they are a well coached team that has capabilities of putting lots of points on the scoreboard if mistakes are made. The two teams have one common opponent in the Sterling City Eagles. Loraine lost to Sterling City in the last minute of play by six points while Sterling City defeated O'Donnell by four touchdowns. Since defeating Loraine for their first win in two years, Sterling City has continued a three-game winning streak.

Head Loraine football coach Steve Komppa said he does not know a lot about O'Donnell, but said he was glad to get the open date in order to get ready for them.

"We really need this extra time to get some folks healed up," said Komppa. "I have watched a couple of films on O'Donnell and I know they are a well coached team and that they are picking up the six-man game well just like Sterling City is doing. Each week we have to be ready to play. We can't be looking ahead at all in this district."

JV Wolves lose first game of '08 season

The JV Wolves lost their first game of the season at the hands of a tough Cisco Lobos team last Thursday in Cisco, 22-6.

The Wolves' only score of the game came on a 15-yard run by Derek Gainey for a touchdown that was set up when Gainey hit Benny Jones on a slant route that went for about 60 yards.

The Wolves have an open week this week and will return to play October 9th on the road against the Grape Creek Eagles.

C-City JV Red competes in Bronte

The Colorado City JV Red participated in a volleyball tournament in Bronte on Saturday, September 13th. They played Grape Creek JV, a team they lost to in Sterling City earlier in the season, and beat them in three games, 22-25, 26-24, 25-19.

"Lauran Meeks had some great hits and blocks, and Miranda Reyna and Heather Barrera did a good job at back row as well," said Coach Kaci Moody.

The Lady Wolves faced Bronte next, losing a heart-breaker, 25-27 and 19-25.

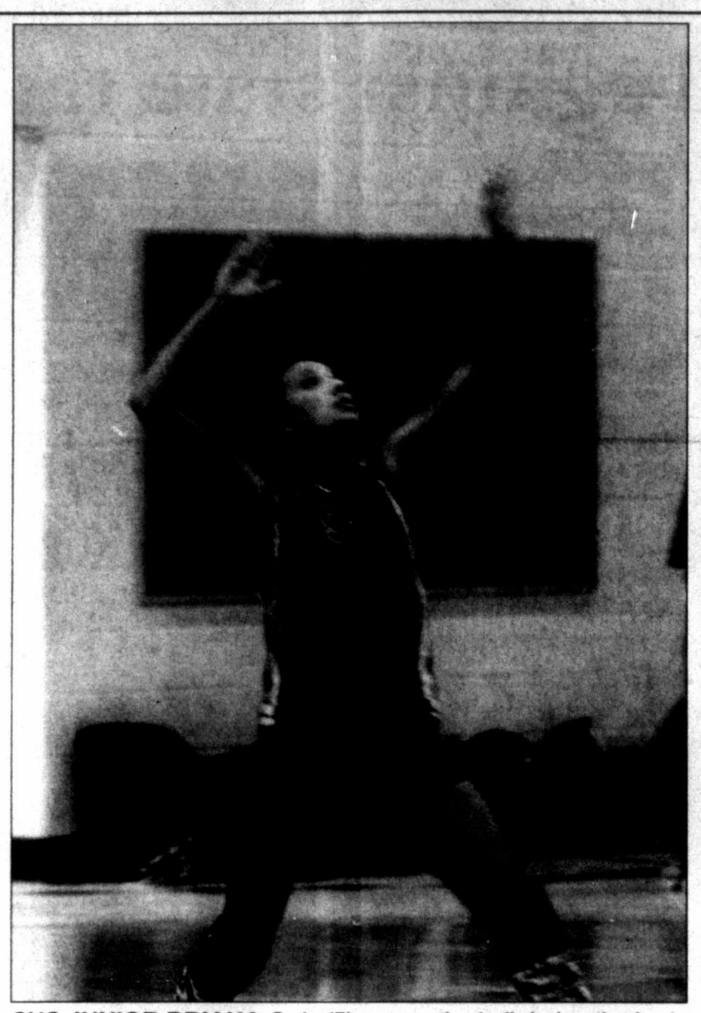

The Colorado City squad went on to beat the Grape Creek freshman team to take third place in the tournament. "Ashley Coronado had a great game, and Bethany Blassingame had some good hits in their win over Grape Creek," said Moody.

On September 23rd, the CHS JV Red volleyball team traveled to Bronte to take on the Lady Longhorns.

The squad won their first game. "We got off to a rough start, but Lexi Espinoza served 8 unanswered points in a row to put us up 25-19," said Moody.

Play in the second game was point for point, with Kristi Barnett getting some hits from the back row. "We were down 10-11, then Tiffany Martinez served 15 in a row to make the final score 25-11. The girls did a great job, and I was very proud of them," said Moody.

CHS JUNIOR BRIANA Ortiz (5) serves the ball during the Lady Wolves' varsity volleyball game last week. Ortiz had eight assists against Bangs recently.

Lady Wolves begin district with loss

By Tony Franco

District 8-2A volleyball action for Colorado High School began with a loss at Bangs last Saturday. After traveling to Dublin this Saturday, the Lady Wolves host Grape Creek Tuesday for the first district contest at The Pit.

The Bangs Lady Dragons took advantage of Colorado City miscommunication early in the contest last Saturday. Several balls fell to the floor uncontested as the Dragons took the first game 25-16 then closed out the Lady Wolves 25-23 and 25-15.

"We weren't mentally prepared," said coach Anita Graham. "Our bodies were in slow motion reacting to the ball. The second game I thought we were coming back. We were ahead then missed some serves and allowed them to catch up."

After the first game woes, the Lady Wolves had fewer errors and had a late lead before being nipped in the second game. The Lady Wolves trailed just 15-13 in the third game before Bangs pulled away. "We expected them to be a lot harder hitting," said coach Graham "but instead Bangs threw a lot of soft hits and tips. Our setters did a good job but our passes weren't as close as we want. We had too many errors from our hitters in the third game."

Erin Graham had 7 kills to lead the offense at Bangs with Felicia Arellano 5, Emily Hicks 4 and Michelle Billingsley 3. Lauren Munoz and Laura Warren had 8 and 6 digs, respectively. Hicks added 8 assists with Briana Ortiz recording 6.

The Lady Wolves had a better outing earlier last week when they travelled to Bronte. Colorado High School lost 25-22, 25-17, 25-20 after scoring no more than 19 points against the Longhorns back in August. "They played as a team," said coach Graham. "They came together and worked hard."

7th, 8th grade teams continue to improve

The 7th grade Wolves' football team lost to Stanton, 18-8 and dropped their second game to Coleman, 26-18.

Felipe Garcia scored all the Wolves' touchdowns.

Coach Kevin Wright said the team is getting better each week. "We're moving the ball and scoring but need to tighten up our defense a little more," he said.

The 8th grade Wolves' football team beat Coleman, 46-8 last week.

Mark Henderson was the Wolves' top performer, rushing for 198 yards on only 6 carries and scoring 5 touchdowns. He also had 2 interceptions on defense. Henderson's scores came on runs of 55 yards, 50 yards, 37 yards and 40 yards. He also scored on a 65-yard punt return.

Alex Hernandez rushed for 32 yards, scored a touchdown and had an interception on defense. His touchdown came on a 79-yard kick-off return.

Nathan Jackson added 45 yards rushing with 5 carries.

Two weeks ago, the 8th graders tied Stanton, 26-26. Again, Henderson led the offensive efforts rushing for 193 yards on 15 carries and scoring 3 touchdowns. Nathan Jackson scored the other Wolves' touchdown.

COACH COOPER THORNHILL talks to the Wildcats during a timeout at last Friday's homecoming game. The Wildcats lost 67-22 to Blackwell.

Blackwell rallies in second half to defeat Westbrook

By Carl Graham

The undefeated Blackwell Hornets may have come to Westbrook expecting a cakewalk over the winless Westbrook Wildcats, but ended up having to use the second half to take charge of the contest and come away with a 67-22 win.

Blackwell, who led by a slim 33-22 margin at the half, shook off early costly turnovers to score 35 unanswered points in the second half.

Westbrook took an early 6-0 lead when sophomore standout Michael Bray intercepted an errant Hornet pass and raced 25 yards for the first score of the game. "The defense carried us through the first half," said Coach Cooper Thornhill. "Colton Rich and Brandon Smoker played outstanding defense."

Blackwell roared back, however, on a Ware 59-yard touchdown run to tie the contest up at six-all, but the Wildcats retook the lead at 14-6 when Smoker scored on a fumble recovery he returned for a touchdown and then tacked on the two-point PAT.

Ware came back to score two more times, ripping off a 69-yards touchdown and a 23-yarder that put the Hornets up to stay at 19-14.

Blackwell scored two more touchdowns on a 7-yard run and a 43-yard touchdown pass that made the score 33-14. Westbrook closed out their scoring on the evening when senior Smoker scored on a 35-yard touchdown run before the first half ended.

The Hornets held the Wildcats out of the end-zone the second half keeping them pinned on their own end of the field throughout the second half.

The Hornets ended the game with 377 total offensive yards while holding the Wildcats to 183 yards of total offense, most coming in the first half.

"There were a lot of things that were right," Thornhill said, "but we still have lots of room to improve. That's a good thing."

"We're finally getting on the road to doing things right," Thornhill said. "The team has finally sold out to the program; wanting to do things right instead of having to do things right."

Westbrook will seek their first win of the season this Friday night when they will host Southland in a 7:30 p.m. contest. "Southland is very quick, but our guys are on the right page to get our first win," declared Thornhill.

CARD OF THANKS

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to all those who supported and sponsored me on my trip to Washington D.C. for the National History Day competition. These are the times that make, mold and create us as young adults. Your generosity is an investment in the future. After getting the chance to visit with many different people and seeing other places, I realized our community is a very caring and generous one.

I'm proud to call Colorado City, Texas home!

Tucker French

Thank you...

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much whatever the part.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Tom G. Castillo would like to thank our friends and family for the flowers, prayers, cards and for all the food. A special thanks to Dr. Scott and the hospital.

Card of Thanks

On behalf of the Colorado Wolves Booster Club, I would like to thank everyone for their support of CISD Athletic Programs. As always, we appreciate each member and each business that advertises in the football program and on the football, volleyball, and basketball posters. Many businesses also sponsor photos of individual football and volleyball players. We encourage citizens to do business with these generous supporters.

We would like to extend a special THANK YOU to Blaine Lemons, Randy Bullard, Tex Blankenship, and Spencer Cannon for their hours of work welding flag holders, hanging wolf heads and wolf flags. As a result of time donated by these men, everyone who drives down Hickory Street knows they are in "Wolf Country"!

We would also like to express our appreciation to Browne Brothers, Sheriff Patrick Toombs, TDCJ, the Colorado City Fire Department, and City Secretary Donna Madrid for their help with this project.

LORAINE NEWS

By Bessie Ann Vaughn
Loraine Correspondent

Judy Macha of Lockney came to visit her mom, Elnora Mitchell, last Thursday. They, along with Sonja Miles went to the Opry House and enjoyed all the good music.

They went antique shopping and dined out and had a nice dinner.

After dinner, the ladies drove around and toured different places of interest to them. They all enjoyed being together and having a good time.

We have concerns at this time for Herman Mitchell. He is in a Lubbock hospital and had surgery Monday. We send him our get better wishes and hope he has a speedy recovery.

We still have concerns at this time for Arthur Zuniga. He was hospitalized in Midland for several days but is not at home. We send him prayers and better health wishes.

The City of Loraine has hired Darl Messick for Animal Control. Darl lives here in the community, and we are so glad to have his help.

The City of Loraine has received some warning arms for the railroad crossings. It was quite a long wait for them, but we are very glad to receive them, as they were badly needed for everyone's safety.

Ladies Salad Dinner will take place Oct. 6th at 6 p.m. at the Loraine Methodist Church at the fellowship hall.

All women are invited and urged to bring a friend, and also bring your favorite salad. There will be a time of eating, fellowship and a short devotional. It is scheduled to be over at 7 p.m.

I just received word that Leila Beaty, former longtime resident of Loraine, passed away Tuesday, September 30, 2008, while residing in Corpus Christi. As of press time, services were pending.

Special music was provided at the Loraine Methodist Church Sunday morning by Betty Chandler. She sang "Showers of Blessings", accompanied by Debby Mitchell.

My traveling sister-in-law, Dottie Vaughn of Irving and a lady friend are huge fans of Paula Deen, a southern cook on the Food Network Channel.

The ladies learned that Paula opened a buffet restaurant in the same building that houses Harrah's Casino in Tunica, Mississippi. The casino is on the first floor and Paula's buffet is on the second floor.

The ladies drove to Tunica. Well, you can imagine on which floor the ladies spent most of their time even though they both like to eat.

Ever after, she will be known as my traveling, gambling sister-in-law. She arrived home the next day with holes in all her pockets and a guilty feeling.

I received a Thinking of You card from a friend, and it had four $1 scratch off tickets inside. I finally bested my sister-in-law. I won $2.

Durwood and Ina Vay McAdmas paid A.K. and Billie Sheffield a visit over the weekend and found them improving slowly. We send another get-well message to them both.

Durwood and his sister, Joan Long went to the Opry Thursday night in Colorado City and had a great time. They later had good food to eat and visited with friends.

Making great music down at the Senior Center last Monday prior to the noon meal were Bro. Hartley, Charles Dunn and Durwood and Ina Vay McAdams. It was very well received.

Christene Britton went to Abilene to visit Janna and Tray Halloway and daughter, Hanna from Carrolton and watch son, Weston with the Hebron Hawks, play the Cooper Cougars at the football game.

She also visited with daughter, Charla and Dwight Aston while there.

Last Monday, Dorothy Norwood and Charles Dunn provided music at the Senior Center.

Wednesday, Debby Mitchell and Judy Beasley entertained seniors.

Visitors Friday were Clyde Parnell from Grand Prairie, Barbara Chaney, Randy Phillips and Trisha Phillips, son and granddaughter of A.W. and Janet Rogers.

Seniors having birthdays in October are: Mary Helen Motley, Aubrey Wilson, Bill Taylor, Connie Cranfill, Leora Spann, James B., Diane Sanders, Billie Powell, Doris Graham, Jim Harris, Billie Sheffield and Evelyn White.

Come down to visit and have a nice lunch with us at the Senior Center. We have fun and good food.

Mad dog defense holds off late Lueders-Avoca rally

By Carl Graham

The Loraine Bulldog defense held off a late rally by Lueders-Avoca last Friday in action played at Johnson Field in Loraine, preserving a hard-earned 50-42 win over the Pirates.

That was the second of two goal-line stands the defense had on the night as earlier in the game the Bulldog defense held the Pirates out of the end-zone on a first and goal from the two-yard line.

Senior quarterback Jacob Sanchez had a hand in seven of Loraine's touchdowns, tossing five touchdown passes while running for two more. He compiled 252 yards through the air and added another 177 yards on the ground for a total of 429 yards of offense.

Bulldog center Carlton Johnston was on the end of four of Sanchez's touchdown passes giving him seven over the past two weeks. The other touchdown came when Sanchez hooked up with Ector Lopez on a long touchdown catch.

Sophomore running back Jacob Benivamondez, who has been nursing a severe ankle sprain, did see limited action Friday with six yards rushing and 14 yards through the air. Freshman Brandon Gibson had 17 yards through the air and Toby Garza added another five yards through the air.

"I was very proud of these kids for the way they held Lueders-Avoca out in the last seconds of the game," said head coach Steve Komppa. "They were determined not to give up a touchdown. They buckled down and got the job done."

Loraine will now have a bye week before opening district play on October 10 when they host the O'Donnell Eagles.

The win moves the Bulldogs record to 2-3 on the season at the halfway mark of the season.

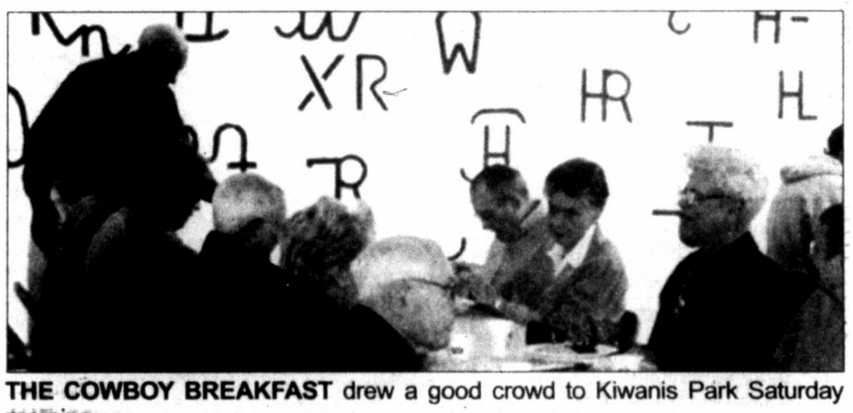

THE BERMAN BROTHERS, (l-r), Stanley, Harold and Irwin, came back to Colorado City for the Mitchell County Reunion held Saturday. Harold Berman was the speaker for the event.

COLORADO CITY RESIDENT Bo Merket enjoys meeting and greeting some old friends during the Mitchell County Reunion held at the Civic Center last Saturday.

ROLAND GRAHAM ENJOYS some coffee during the Cowboy Breakfast held in Kiwanis Park last Saturday morning. The breakfast is held each year in conjunction with the Mitchell Co. Reunion.

THE COWBOY BREAKFAST drew a good crowd to Kiwanis Park Saturday morning.
