By HENRY G. VERMILLION

This is the time of year of Christmas, of mistletoe and holly, of the yule log and Christmas presents, of Christmas trees and carols.

It's also the time when a northern can sweep out of Amarillo as it did Tuesday and ruin what would otherwise be a perfectly good Christmas season, as far as I'm concerned.

My Merry Christmas greetings are a little strained when uttered by me through chattering teeth. I'm not dreaming of a white Christmas. I'm dreaming of a balmy Christmas with roses blooming and birds singing. I'm a warm weather fiend.

Christmas in Eastland this year is much like it was a year ago, merchants report.

The business has fallen off some in some of the stores, but has picked up in others, to sort of even things off.

This does not fulfill the dire forecasts of some who seemed to believe that grass would be growing in the streets here by now after last summer's drought that ruined a good part of the peanut crop and did other crops and pastures no good.

In fact, business has been pretty good. But not wonderful.

My daughter, Sally, aged three, has been wanting a tricycle since she's been able to talk. Last year we thought she was too little, and didn't get her one.

This year, though, she started her campaign early. Any mention of Christmas or Santa Claus brought in Sally's bicycle speech. Somehow, along with all this, she got the idea that Christmas was about getting just one thing—one gift to her from Santa.

So the other day when her mother asked Sally if she didn't want a doll, she said, "Yes, I want a doll—a doll and a tricycle." Do you think she'll get 'em?

Christmas is a wonderful time you have small children to enjoy it—or if you are a small child. For a lot of other people, it's pretty over-rated, I fear.

My son Alan, now 11, is finding it out. He's reached the mature age when the little things that used to thrill him as presents don't any more.

Now it would take something pretty big and expensive to excite him, and even that would be kind of flat, some way. Christmas just doesn't seem quite like Christmas to him any more.

I know almost exactly how it is because not too awfully long ago I was that age myself—and can remember.

This is the time of year when annually take this means of wishing to all of you my personal wishes for a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year and many of them.

Scout Troop 6 Has Christmas Party

Boy Scout Troop 6 met at the home of their Scoutmaster, Bill Collins, and Mrs. Collings Tuesday evening for a Christmas party and chili supper.

Games were played and a Scout camp taken while the boys were in camp last summer, was given by Steve Potts.

Gifts were exchanged from the beautifully decorated tree. More than 20 Scouts attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Castleberry returned to Dallas last Friday where they met their granddaughter, Mrs. Castleberry, who came by from Shreveport. The three returned with relatives in Dallas to Eastland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Morrison of Dallas are the parents of a son, born Thursday, Dec. 18 at the Eastland Hospital. They have a seven pound eight ounce boy, Michael Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison will have as guests for the holidays their children, including John Allison of El Paso, Grady Allison, and Edith Allison of Abilene, and Harkin-Simmons.

Record To Publish Early Next Week

Amis, Kelly And Benham To Lead 1948 Mavericks

Dan Amis, Jack Kelly and Kenneth Benham were announced as next year's Eastland High School football captains at the annual Quarterback Club football banquet held Monday night in the Roof Garden of the Connellie Hotel.

Coach John E. Little said he had intended to have only two captains next season, but that on the voting by squad members, Amis was elected unanimously, and Kelly and Benham were tied.

Little also announced names of 20 lettermen for the past season, when the Mavericks won the regional title, and eight reserve lettermen.

The lettermen are Bobby Blair, Mack Harris, Dwain Lusk, Bill Hardeman, J. C. Burke, Wayne Lambert, Jimmie Mathews, Jim Smith, Jack Ernst, Hilton Kuykendall, Amis, Kelly, Jack Chamberlain, Dick Sparks, Lewis Crossley, Benham, Winfred Ward, Pat Crawford, Johnny Hicks and Pete McFarland.

Reserve lettermen are Don Hart, Allan Hunt, Roy Lane, Glenn Garrett, Leonard Quarles, Murray Herring, Roy Mitchell and Margil Wadley.

Little introduced each member of this year's squad, and at the conclusion of the introductions, called Dick Sparks forward to receive a statuette trophy for being voted by squadman as the most valuable man on the squad the past season.

He also mentioned that as a five-year letterman, Johnny Hicks may have set a new record for number of football letters received by any one player at the school.

Little pointed out that the Mavericks scored 268 points the past season to opponents' 62, and gained 3394 yards on the ground in 496 rushing plays for an average of 6.84.

This means that Maverick ball carriers advanced the ball nearly two miles during the season, during the actual 40 to 50 minutes they had the ball in play in their possession during the 12 games played.

The latter figure is based on the statement at the banquet of Coach Buddy Brothers of Tulsa University former Eastland High coach, who said that in a high school game that actual playing time is only about six and a half minutes—the rest of the time is taken up by huddles, untangling pileups, getting formations set, signal calling, and so forth.

Brothers also called football one of the outstanding examples of the American way of life.

Judge Milburn Long acted as toastmaster, and Frank Sparks introduced the speakers, who included Johnny Garrison, former Eastland High star who is Brothers' assistant at Tulsa.

Introduced were Assistant Eastland Coach Wendell Siebert and Dr. W. P. Watkins, team physician, and a number of special guests.

Decorations for the affair, arranged by Mrs. James Horton, school board member, were appropriate and unique. Red and white striped miniature goal posts centered each of the long tables, and arranged along the

Event Is Termed Marked Success By C Of C Head

Eastland's Christmas home decoration contest, sponsored by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce this year, was a marked success in that many more homes displayed decorations. H. J. Tanner, manager of the organization, said Tuesday as winners in the contest were announced.

Five dollar first prizes went to Mrs. R. L. Watson, 609 West Plummer Street, for the best decorated window; to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Muirhead, 902 South Seaman Street, for outside lighting, and to the Nazarene Church, 615 West Main Street, for the best Christmas scene.

Honorable mention went to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann, 903 South Seaman Street, for their huge lighted tree; to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murrell, 410 South Oaklawn Street, for their yard scene; to Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnson, 414 South Hillcrest Street, for their window decorations, and to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Courtney, 417 South Dixie Street, for their decorated front door.

Judges were Mrs. James Horton, Mrs. Theo Lamb, and Mrs. W. W. Linkenhogor.

Tanner said it was planned to make the contest an annual one, as it was before the war.

Judges based prize awards more on uniqueness and artistic effect than on cost, so as to put everyone on about equal terms.

EHS Football Players Talk To TCU Coach

Four members of this year's regional championship Eastland Mavericks football team and two Cisco High players went to Fort Worth Monday to talk to Coach Dutch Meyer of T.C.U., escorted by Coach John E. Little and five local businessmen.

Players who made the trip were Bobby Blair, Wayne Lambert, Lewis Crossley and Jimmie Mathews of Eastland and Stanley Williams and Flournoy Cleveland of Cisco.

The group had luncheon at T.C.U. and witnessed a scrimmage as the Horned Frogs prepared for their Delta Bowl New Year's Day game with Mississippi.

Meyer expressed the most interest in having Blair, Crossley and Williams, of the group that went, attend T.C.U.

The queen, a freshman, had as her king Bobby Mueller, a junior. The royal party was made up of representatives of all other classes in the school.

The program was given in the form of poetry by Barbara Franklin, senior, and Lydia Faye Houston, freshman. Included were a visit from Santa, special song, and a Christmas wish to the king and queen. Following the coronation, a box supper was held, and a calf given away.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday in the First Methodist Church of Cisco, with burial in Oakwood Cemetery there.

JOHN TARLETON A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The John Tarleton A Cappella
Choir under the direction of Mr.
Donald M. Morton presented a Christmas program last Wednesday morning. The first part of the program consisted of a group of carols by the choir. The second part consisted of solos by the following: Helen Grubb, Martha Patton and Clarie Hutchinson.
The third part of the program consisted of a group of scenes depicting the famous Christmas scenes. The choir sang suitable carols as the scenes were depicted.
It was a very impressive program
and it was enjoyed by all.

The program was sponsored by the Beethoven Music Club and everyone is grateful to them for the wonderful program.

After the assembly program,
the entire group went to the home of Mrs. A. F. Taylor where she served punch and cookies to them
before they went to Breckenridge
to give an assembly program.

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHT

Hey you!! Yes, you! You with the spotlight. Swing it over here.
Here she is folks, Bobbie Shero.
She is a pretty brunette with lovely blue eyes. You might have to look pretty hard, because she is only five feet three inches tall, weighs a mere 106 pounds. She loves bright plaids with red in them.

Any place you can find Harry James playing "You Do," or "Tallahassee," you can nearly always find "Robert."

On her movie parade the actor is Larry Parks and the actress is Greer Garson. Her favorite movie is "The Jolson Story."

She will eat fried chicken anytime. She hates turnips with a purple passion. She has very good taste!!

She has no subject or teacher,
because she likes all of them.

She likes all the football games
and I imagine she liked them most when good ole no. 26 was in there playing. Naturally, football is her favorite sport.

Her ambition is to be a reporter on some paper. Already she has made a good start by being on the Roundup Staff for three years.
She really does her part too.

She likes to ride in the rain,
to eat, to watch football games,
play tennis, dance, and also one of her favorites is cold weather.

She is in the Co-Ed Club, and is a very active member. Come on, everyone, let's wish her all the luck and success in the world.

FRESHMAN SPOTLIGHT

The freshman spotlight shines
on our good friend and pal, Wanda Richardson. She is quite a hit with all the kids and we all think the world of her. Wanda is all of 5 feet six inches with those dreamy blue eyes and that lovely brown hair.

She is a Maverick fan and that makes football her favorite sport.

Red is her favorite color and if you will notice it looks nice on her. Her favorite subject is math with Mrs. Hardeman as her favorite teacher. If Jennifer Jones or Alan Ladd is showing at a movie you can be sure she will be there. And you should hear her talk about the movie, "Homestretch." Bet she saw it 3 or 4 times. If she is around when "Near You" is played she will swoon over it like some do over Frankie. Her pet peeve is studying as most of ours is. Just like her pastime which is doing nothing.

She has three more years of school, that is if she doesn't go to college. But she seems to like school so let's wish the very best to a swell girl!

TEA GIVEN BY HOMEMAKING GIRLS

A tea was given for the eighth grade girls and the teachers of high school and junior high, by the freshman homemaking girls.
The custom of giving such a tea
at Christmas time was begun four years ago.

A Christmas theme was carried out in all decorations. The reception room had a small Christmas tree which was decorated with articles used in sewing such as spools of colorful thread, bobbins, crochet books, tracing wheel,
and a pin cushion shaped as a star
was in the tip top.

The tea table, laid with a beautiful linen cloth, had a centerpiece of large white chrysanthemums and long white tapers. The favors were tiny lighted candles
which resembled Christmas trees.
Records of Christmas carols were played throughout the tea.

Hot fruit punch, date pinwheel
and spritz cookies, cheese sandwiches, mints, and salted pecans were served to sixty guests who attended.

DOUBLE SEVEN MEETS

The Double Seven Club met Wednesday, Dec. 10 at the home of Nita Fay Massengale. Plans were made for a barn dance, but the date has not been decided yet.

Officers are elected for the next quarter. They are: President, Wanda Richardson, Vice president, Billie Farr; secretary, Margie June Poe; treasurer, Bettye Grimes; historian, Mozelle Pullman; and reporter, Barbara Branton.

Refreshments were served to all the members of the club with the exception of Margie June Poe and Guyrene Robinson, who were absent.

MISS RAMSEY WED TO BEN R. LITTLE IN CHURCH RITUAL

Christmas decorations of green and red formed the background for the exchange of wedding vows for Miss Opal Marie Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ramsey of Ranger, and Mr. Ben Rudolph Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Little of Eastland, Saturday at 6 p. m. in the First Methodist Church.

Baskets of red gladiolus and tall brass candelabra holding tall white tapers, which were lighted preceding the ceremony by Misses Lois Craven of Abilene and Katherine Canet, completed the setting. Rev. E. R. Gordon was the officiant for the beautiful double ring ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Robertson of Carbon accompanied Miss Glynn Castleberry, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," and later, Mrs. Robertson played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a suit of grey wool crepe. Her blouse, hat and gloves were of white, worn with matching navy shoes and bag. She carried a white gardenia prayer book bouquet with white satin ribbon shower.

Miss Loretta Allen of Anson was the bride's only attendant. Francis J. Brock was best man. Robert McFarland and Winston Boles were ushers. The couple left immediately for a trip which included stops in San Antonio and points in Mexico. They will make their home at 307 North Lamar Street. Mrs. Little is a graduate of McMurray College at Abilene, and has taught in the Carbon schools for the past four years. Hello, Santa,

This is the first letter I've ever written you because last year I was only four days old and you didn't know I was here, so I'll make up for it now.

I would like to have a snow suit, rocking horse, blocks, candy, fruit, and lot of things to tear up, and a little football like uncle Clinton Ray's, a small hammer like my daddy's large one, and that will be all with a small wagon.

Thank you,

The BLESSINGS

of Christmas

The cordiality of Christmas is one of the finest blessings that any of us can possibly enjoy. To us, Christmas means much more than just the opportunity of presenting and receiving gifts. It's more than a season of exchanging greetings and it goes far deeper than the traditional festive occasions.

Christmas, for us, is a season of genuine good will and happiness, a time of thanksgiving.

LINKENHOGGER'S

CHRISTMAS
At Its Best

The full enjoyment of the Christmas Season comes only from the pleasant associations of loved ones and friends. Our wish for you is that you may experience this blessing. Our sincere thanks, too, for your kindness and regard. We wish you all the richest things that life affords.

Altman's
Style Shop

Christmas, to us, means the contentment that comes from the association of loyal friends, the satisfaction of having been of service. It is a time for thanksgiving and reverence, a time to be more mindful of the blessings of peace and the right to live according to the dictates of one's own heart.
