Deadlocked Negotiators Sit In Silence; No Progress Made

U.N. ADVANCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 10. (AP) —Deadlocked United Nations and Communist truce negotiating delegations sat for two hours and 11 minutes in dead silence today, each waiting for the other to change his position.

The unprecedented silence was precipitated, the United Nations command said, when the Communists refused to talk about anything except a buffer zone located where they want it.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. delegate, proposed several alternatives to break the deadlock. Then he waited for North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il, head of the Red delegation to reply.

Nam said nothing.

For 131 minutes, nobody spoke.

ELECTRIFIED SILENCE

"The air was full of electricity," said Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, official U.N. command spokesman.

He said General Nam fidgeted in nervous embarrassment, smoked cigarets incessantly, drummed on the green-topped conference table with his fingers or his cigaret lighter, and glanced repeatedly at his watch.

Admiral Joy sat calmly, Nuckols said, "writing notes in a detached sort of fashion."

Joy finally broke the silence.

When negotiations resumed after a five day break, U.N. delegates offered alternatives intended to break the disagreement over where to end the shooting war.

The Communists turned down all U.N. proposals.

The five Red generals refused to consider anything except a buffer zone back along the 38th Parallel.

MOST CRITICAL POINT

The armistice talks appeared at their most critical point since they began a month ago today. The communique indicated the conference might be nearing a breaking point.

For ten consecutive sessions delegates have been stuck on the question of where to creat a buffer zone.

Joy tried to break the deadlock by proposing that negotiators temporarily pass over this question and go on to the next point.

Nam Il refused.

Despite the complicated deadlock, delegates scheduled another session for 11 a.m. Saturday (7 p.m. Friday, CST).

U.N. COMMUNIQUE

The U.N. communique said:

"The blanket renunciation by the Communists came after an historical, unprecedented two hours and 11-minute period of silence on the part of General Nam Il during which he failed to respond to Admiral Joy's reaffirmation of his 'complete willingness' to discuss (one) a demilitarized zone located generally in the area of the present battle line and (two) continued willingness to discuss possible adjustments of the proposed zone which thus far has been defined only in general terms.

The 10 envoys—five Communist generals and five high ranking United Nations officers — appeared almost jovial when they entered the conference room for the first time since last Saturday.

Condon Quits Federal Post

ASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP) —Dr. Edward U. Condon resigned today as director of the National Bureau of Standards. He said: "I can no longer afford to accept the severe financial sacrifice involved."

President Truman accepted the resignation, effective Sept. 30, "with regret." He said Condon has served "in a most critical position with continued and loyal attention to his duties."

Three years ago Condon was the target of a House Un-American Affairs Subcommittee. The committee called Condon "one of the weakest links in our atomic security. . ."

Condon hotly defended his loyalty and demanded a hearing, but none was held. He has been criticized by some Congressmen on loyalty grounds on a number of occasions and has been defended just as stoutly by others."

Mahon Expresses View On Generals Who Quit

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—Rep. Mahon of Texas disagrees with his house colleagues who voted to cut off the retirement pay of military men who quit solely to take other jobs or because they disagree with their superiors.

The House by an 81-50-71 standing vote favored such an amendment to the military appropriation bill Thursday.

Mahon opposed the amendment. He said if an experienced man is so lacking in "patriotism" he doesn't want to remain on duty in time of emergency it is doubtful whether he is a proper man to lead young men in battle.

Lost Battalion Will Hold Reunion; Plaque Will Be Dedicated

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 10. (AP)—The Lost Battalion opened a two-day reunion today.

Some 300 members of the Texas 131st Field Artillery Battalion, which fought and was captured in Java during the early days of the war, are expected.

A bronze plaque and monument will be dedicated near the Jacksboro Highway southwest of Wichita Falls. Major General Eugene Eubank, deputy inspector general of the U. S. Air Force, will speak.

The 131st was once a part of the 36th Division of Texas — National Guardsmen mobilized for duty. The battalion went overseas before the outbreak of World War II and fought in Java. The Japanese captured the unit and held them prisoners 42 months.

U. S.-Polish Relations Worse; State Department Blames Reds

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—State Department officials said today Russia undoubtedly is tightening the Iron Curtain around Communist Poland.

This opinion underscored a department announcement Thursday night that the Polish government had ordered an end to all American cultural activities in Poland, and that "there was no alternative but to comply with this request."

In retaliation, and within a matter of hours after receiving word of Warsaw's action, the American government ordered the Polish research and Information Service at New York closed today at the latest.

In announcing these developments, State Department press office Michael J. McDermott specifically linked them to: (A)—A recent visit to the Polish capital by Soviet Deputy Premier Vyacheslav Molotov, and (B) — A message earlier this week to President Truman from the Soviet president, Nikoalr Shvernik.

Molotov, in a speech, warned the Polish people against "Titoism" — breaking away from Soviet domination in the manner of the Communist Yugoslavian government of Marshal Tito.

Shvernik, in his letter to Mr. Truman, declared his government's interest in promoting peace and friendship between peoples.

Shortly before the State Department announced the cultural break with Poland, President Truman had told his news conference that we would answer Shvernik's letter. But he said he was not encouraged by this letter in his hopes for ultimately attaining permanent peace in the world.

Mr. Truman said he had noted "with special interest" a statement by Shvernik "that the Soviet government places no barriers in the path of the intercourse of the Soviet people with the people of other countries."

The President declared bluntly that "this has not been true in the past." He then cites a list of prohibitions by the Soviet government which, he said, he hopes that government "now intends to change."

Treasury Dips Into Another Bank Account

MARSHALL, Aug. 10. (AP) —The Treasury Department has nicked the bank account of a 12th Marshall housewife who refused to collect social security taxes from her servant.

An agent, Gus W. Davis, from Longview, served a warrant Thursday at the Marshall National Bank for $7.74 from the account of Mrs. Mary V. Hicks.

That made $55.71 the government has taken this week from women who refused to pay.

Thirteen women refused. The bank account of the remaining one has been untouched.

The president of the National bank, William F. Young, said he has received a money order for $36.03 from an Austin man, saying the money was to repay the "courageous ladies."

The sum was the amount taken Monday from bank accounts of eight women in two Marshall banks.

The Austin man, who signed the letter John W. Bode, asked Young to distribute the money. Young said he would deposit the sums in the accounts of the women who use his bank and send the rest to the other bank.

Test Rabies Shots As Polio Preventative

CORSICANA, Aug. 10. (AP)—In the interest of medicine 200 residents of the Frost area are to take rabies shots Monday to see what effect have they on immunity to polio.

Dr. Hebert E. Hipps of Waco is handling the program because he has discovered that people who have received rabies shots haven't had polio.

The doctor said he had collected over 700 names of children vaccinated for rabies and "not a single one has ever taken polio, even though many were directly exposed to it by close association with other children who did have acute polio."

Both rabies and polio affect the nervous system. Rabies treatments are a preventive to the disease, he said.

Hipps said "we can't actually promise parents that a child will not take polio if he has five shots of rabies vaccine but it looks from the data that I have accumulated that it may produce an immunity to it." He said it would not hurt a child to take five vaccine shots.

Heavy Drain On City Water

The drain on the city's water supply has been heavier than usual today, but the city will probably not run critically short, W. J. Ramsey, city superintendent, said.

At noon the storage appeared sufficient to take care of today's demand, Ramsey added.

Drilling was to have begun today on a new well at Seventh Street and Avenue M, where a small well was drilled first to test the formations.

Ramsey said that the test appeared favorable, and that the well could be drilled within two weeks if there are no unexpected delays.

Heat Relief Temporary; Sixth Day of 100-Plus Temperatures

A minor cool front which moved into West Texas yesterday afternoon, speading turbulent weather over the area and dropping rain in Midland, brought Snyder only dust, teasing sprinkles, and little change in temperature.

For the sixth consecutive day, temperatures here were over 100 degrees. The high recorded yesterday was 105.

During a series of windstorms which hit shortly after 8 o'clock last night, visibility was greatly reduced by billowing clouds of dust. On the Lubbock highway, for a few minutes, the blinding dust virtually stopped traffic.

The minimum this morning was 75 degrees, and by 7:30 the mercury had risen to 77. Clear skies gave little hope for relief from the heat today.

By the Associated Press

Wind, hail, rain and sandstorms hit Midland in West Texas Thursday night as spotty storms brought temporary relief from the heat wave to some Texas areas.

The heat wave, the weather bureau warned, is still with us. The bureau said the cool front of which the Midland storm was a part is only temporary. The state's heat-wave death toll reached 20.

Winds reached 75 miles per hour in gusts during the Midland storm, it brought 2.02 inches of badly-needed rain. Telephone and power service were disrupted but were reaching normal.

HAIL DAMAGE

Hail did light damage to windows at Midland, high winds blew numerous trees down. Hail also fell in the Big Spring area, where about 350 farmland acres were leveled.

A sandstorm that cut visibility to less than 100 feet preceded the Midland storm. The sudden rain flooded some low-lying homes, streets were filled from curb to curb. Coping stones blown by the wind from a six-story building fell to the roof of a one-story building below.

Spotted showers ranging from a sprinkle to an inch and a half brought temporary relief to about 100,000 acres of cotton in Howard and Eastern Martin counties.

HOUSEWIFE DIES

The latest heat death was that of Mrs. Cecil Hennigan, 34, Orange housewife. She died today of a cerebral hemorrhage after collapsing Thursday in her kitchen while baking her husband a birthday cake.

An Air Force private died at San Antonio Tuesday his death was belatedly disclosed today.

Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio said Pvt. John A. Myers, 21, Lancaster, Pa., collapsed while standing in line at the mess hall and died several hours later.

Frederick Moses Gilbough, 96, died in Dallas Thursday after being stricken with heat prostration.

The hottest place in Texas Thursday was Henrietta, with 112. Presidio reported 110, Wink 108 and Cotulla 105.

Good rains fell in some Panhandle and West Texas spots, sending temperatures to more comfortable levels. Rain at Borger continued until almost 9 o'clock this morning for a total fall of about an inch. Rain for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a.m. included Quanah .40 of an inch, Midland 2.02, Dimmit .46, Miami .20, Fort Stockton .23 and Big Spring .24.

The heat death toll breaks down this way: Dallas, 7; Houston, 5; Fort Worth, 2; and Austin, Sherman, Wichita Falls, Denison and San Antonio, one each.

BANDERA, Aug. 10. (AP) — A timber fire destroyed 1,000 acres of ranch and timberland near here Thursday, despite attempts of 50 volunteer firemen to control it.

Two small ranch cottages on the Red Johnson Ranch were destroyed.

Bexar County Fire Chief Cliff Holcombe said the fire probably started from an unattended trash fire at a lake cottage on Lake Medina.

Progress Made In British-Iranian Talks

TEHRAN, Iran, Aug. 10. (AP) — Britain and Iran have reached their first specific step toward breaking the deadlock which has shut off the flow of oil from the world's biggest refinery at Abadan.

British and Iranian negotiators Thursday appointed a committee to work out a system of receipts to be signed by tanker captains for oil they carry away from the rich Persian Gulf oil fields.

Education Minister Harim Sanjabi of the Iranian delegation disclosed the move, which was taken after Britain's nationalization specialist Sir Donald Ferguson explained how his own labor government had applied the principles of nationalization.

Ferguson was appointed on the receipts board, along with Ali Shayegan of Iran and a representative of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company—the $1.4 billion firm whose holdings Iran has nationalized.

The question of receipts caused the British-owned company to order its tanker captains to stay away from Abadan. When the storage tanks ashore were filled, the huge refinery was forced to shut down for lack of further storage space.

Polio At High Point of Year

AUSTIN, Aug. 10. (AP) — Polio climbed back to its peak incidence for the year last week.

The State Health Department reported 92 cases today for the week ending Aug. 4. It boosted the year's total to 777 cases.

Dallas County suffered the most cases for the week with 13. Tarrant, Harris and Nueces Counties were all in second place with nine cases each.

Other counties reporting cases for the week included Lubbock, Navarro and Parker, three each; Gregg, Hale, Howard, Runnels, Smith, Taylor and Wilbarger two each; and the following with one each: Andrews, Bowie, Castro, Duval, Fisher, Galveston, Grayson, Haskell, Hidalgo, Hunt, Hutchinson, Jeff Davis, Jim Wells, Johnson, Lamb, McMullen, Moore, Motley, Potter, Reeves, San Patricio, Travis, Wharton and Young.

The armed forces reported five cases.

Streamliner, Troop Train Hit Head On

SIMMESPORT, La., Aug. 10. (AP) —A head-on crash of a Kansas City Southern streamliner and a 300-Marine troop train today killed at least 12 persons, and injured 60 or more, state police reported.

None of the dead was identified immediately, the state police report said. The bodies were enroute to nearby Morganza, La.

The wreck occurred about 7 a.m. in a desolate swamp area 60 miles northwest of Baton Rouge, La.

State police detailed 100 officers to the scene where communications were crippled by the wreck. Telephone lines parallelling the railroad were knocked down the only way death messages could be telephoned out of the area.

REPORTS VARY

Casualty reports varied widely but a Kansas City Southern employe at the scene verified the state police report that the known death toll was 12 persons.

Several of the cars and both diesel engines caught fire after the smashup. A passenger on the Southern Belle said Marines told him three or four officers were trapped in a burning car.

The first report of state police placed the number of known dead at four. Police raised this number later to five with the death of an unidentified child bystander. One Marine was reported killed.

But unofficial reports placed the death toll at a much higher figure. Communications were limited to death messages from the scene. Details on casualties fluctuated wildly except for the state police report.

Reports from the scene said all injured have been removed to hospitals or clinics in surrounding towns, making an accurate count more difficult.

The passenger train was southbound for New Orleans. The troop train was northbound to San Diego, Calif. The passenger train was the Southern Belle operated by the Louisiana and Arkansas Railway, a subsidiary of Kansas City Southern.

The Kansas City Southern office at Alexandria, 50 miles northwest of the scene, said at mid-morning that some cars were still burning from the fire started by the wrecked diesel engines.

Help could not be notified until one of the passengers or trainmen walked several miles through the desolate, swamp do a telephone.

Dozens of ambulances were summoned and the injured lay alongside the wreckage awaiting evacuation to hospitals.

The Southern Belle is a Kansas City Southern Railway train between New Orleans and Kansas City. It was en route to New Orleans when the trains crashed.

Reports to the sheriff's office here were that many "persons were pinned in the wreckage of twisted steel and shattered wood."

McCarthy Charges Due to Go To McCarran's Senate Panel

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP) — Senator McCarran (D-Nev) said today his Senate Internal Security Subcommittee might be willing to consider the controversy over charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) of Communism in government.

"We don't crave it and are not asking for it," McCarran said. "But it might be our staff could analyze it and present it."

McCarthy said he was willing to let "a good Democrat" — meaning McCarran — and his subcommittee decide who is right about the long feud he has conducted with the State Department.

McCarthy used his Senatorial immunity from libel suits Thursday to name in the Senate 26 persons he identified as State Department officials and employees "charged with Communist activities."

This stirred Majority Leader McFarland (D-Ariz) to protest vigorously against what he called a Senator's use of his immunity "to smear any individual" or become "a character assassin."

And Senator Lehman (D-NY) charged that McCarthy had given "shabby and dastardly treatment" to Ambassador Phillip C. Jessup, one of the 26 on McCarthys list.

Under-Secretary of State Carlisle H. Humelsine issued a statement accusing McCarthy of "smear tactics in making this misleading list of names public."

McCarthy challenged this and declared he is anxious to have the McCarran subcommittee "decide the whole issue."

McCarthy's Senate speech, well publicized in advance, drew large crowds to the Senate public galleries, but few Senators listened to the entire exchange.

At one point McCarthy got a loud round of applause from galleries—a violation of Senate rules—by saying he hoped that if the Democrats win the next election it will be with "the McCarran type of Democrat" instead of some who "scream to high heaven and say you are smearing these poor innocent Communists."

Humelsine, who handles administration in the State Department, said McCarthy's list included two persons who do not work at the department, 14 who had been cleared by the department's loyalty board and 13 cases still under review.

CLIMBERS REACH CRASHED AIRLINER

A plane carrying 21 members of the New Tribes Mission of Chico, Calif., crashed against rocky Mount Moran in the Grand Tetons, near Jackson, Wyo., last November, but because of deep snows, climbers couldn't scale the peak until this week. Leaders of the climbers are shown examining the wreckage, lower left, while other climbers look down an escarpment. No attempt was made to remove the bodies. Instead, last rites were conducted on the lofty mountain near Yellowstone Park.

1 IN 3 WOULD LIKE TO LEAVE ENGLAND

In the time of Queen Victoria when Britain was rich and powerful, an English poet sojourning in Italy wrote longingly: "O, to be in England—now that April's here."

Today one Englishman in every three is saying, "Oh, to be anywhere else BUT England!"

A total of 33 per cent of the adult population would like to get out of Britain and settle permanently in another land, according to a survey by the British Institute of Public Opinion which asked a cross-section:

"If you were free to do so, would you like to go and settle in another country?"

Yes	33%
No	61
Don't know	6
	100%

By contrast, only 4 per cent of American adults questioned in a similar survey said they would like to leave the United States.

When Britishers were asked where they would most want to settle if they could emigrate, the countries mentioned were:

Australia	10%
New Zealand	6
Canada	6
U. S. A.	5
Other countries	6
	33%

Better Get Copper and Steel Before Starting Dream House

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP) —It's O.K. with the government to go right ahead and start building your dream house. Whether it's a tin bungalow or a big mansion doesn't matter.

What is important is that you have on hand or in sight all but small amounts of steel, copper or aluminum that will be needed after Sept. 30 to finish it.

If you don't, you had better get an authorization before you start. Otherwise the house-warming might be delayed.

Still busy explaining the newest government construction order (M-4A issued Aug. 3), National Production Authority (NPA) officials emphasized anew today what it does and doesn't do.

NO STARTING BAN

The main thing that it doesn't do insofar as home building is concerned is to put any barrier in the way of starting construction.

And the main thing it does is fix rigid limits on the quantities of scarce metals that may be used without specific authorization after Sept. 30.

If more metals will be needed than the allowable limits, an authorization and allotments of the materials must be obtained now.

But for the home builder who has the materials or has them promised —all but small quantities, that is— nothing has to be done.

The order places all construction under the NPA's controlled materials plan (CMP) beginning Oct. 1. But it allows builders "self-authorization" for small amounts of critical materials. This means the builder can buy within the allowable limits against available supplies without the formality of applying for a specific authorization.

AUTHORITY NECESSARY

Government authority must be obtained for any house, whether started before or after Sept. 30, which cannot be built within the "self-authorization" limits.

Here are the quantities of controlled materials for various types of dwelling construction for which the "self-authorization" procedure may be used starting Oct. 1:

One dwelling unit (using a steel pipe water distribution system) — carbon steel, 1,800 pounds; structural steel, none; alloy steel and stainless steel, none; copper and copper base allows, 35 pounds; aluminum, none.

One dwelling units (using copper pipe water distribution systems)—carbon steel, 1,450; structural steel, none; alloy and stainless steel, none; copper, 160 pounds; aluminum, none.

Two-dwelling units (using steel pipe water distribution systems)—carbon steel, 3,500 pounds; structural steel, none; alloy steel and stainless steel, none; copper, 65 pounds, aluminum, none.

Two-dwelling units (using copper pipe water distribution systems)—carbon steel, 2,750 pounds; structural steel, none; alloy and stainless steel, none; copper, 300 pounds; aluminum, none.

Officials said the limitations do not include so-called B products. These include furnaces, bath tubs and similar fixtures and may be obtained in addition to the allowable "self-authorization" limits for the controlled materials.

26 Killed By Flooding Lake Como in Italy

COMO, Italy, Aug. 10. (AP)—Ebbing flood waters today uncovered a stark scene of death and destruction in Italy's Lake Como district where storm-whipped waters have laid waste five villages.

The Italian news agency ANSA said 26 persons have perished in the striken area. Many others were missing, feared lost.

Two streams, swollen by heavy rains over the past week, overflowed their banks following a cloud burst Wednesday night in the five-village area.

Mud-laden waters burst through the Domaso Dam and wrought havoc in the hamlet of Gera Lario. Domaso and three other villages — Dongo, Sorico and Sondrio also were hard hit.

Although the rain stopped late yesterday, the waters of Lake Como continued to rise, and today they overflowed into this resort city of 60,000 persons. There was no immediate reports of damage, however.

Heavy rains brought threats of additional floods in the Adige region near Bolzano on the Italian-Austrian border.

The storm struck with less intensity through Europe as far north as Norway.

Connally Revives Fight Over Limit on Troops to Europe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP) —A warning by Senator Connally (D-Tex) that the United States may have to send more than six divisions to the Atlantic Pact army has intensified the bitter troops-to-Europe battle.

The issue which had Congress tied in knots earlier this year underwent a strong revival Thursday on both sides of the Capitol.

In passing a $56,062,405,890 money bill to finance the military establishment for the fiscal year, the House declined by a vote of 131 to 101 to put a six division lid on United States contributions to the European Defense Army.

Connally's remarks, made at a news conference, indicated that he may be concerned over the possibility of a similar Senate test. His warning brought critical response from several Republican Senators.

SENATE CHECKS BACK

The Senate checked its earlier controversy over troops for Europe in a resolution which said "it is the sense" of the Senate that only four U. S. divisions . . . in addition to the two already there . . . should be sent to Europe.

The resolution was originally backing oh the President as commander-in-chief.

Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, spoke out shortly after his group and the Senate Armed Services Committee wound up joint hearings on the administration's $8.5 billion foreign aid bill.

BILL PASSES HOUSE

A similar bill — but cut to $7,848,750,000 — cleared the House foreign affairs committee last night by a 20 to 5 vote. It is slated for rules committee clearance next Monday. House debate starting Wednesday and House action by the end of the week.

While the fund cut in the House measure was less than some administration leaders had expected, they liked other committee-voted changes even less.

In the latter category were committee decisions to put all foreign aid programs under a single administrator; to terminate the Economic Cooperation program (ECA) next June 30, and to limit the entire aid program to June 30, 1954.

Allies Bomb North Korean Capital City

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 10. (AP)—Forty-five American Thunderjets roared over Pyongyang today, bombing and strafing anti-aircraft positions in the Red Korean capital.

Marine pilots said they destroyed a command post near the capital.

Other fighters and bombers attacked highways and rail lines. Night pilots reported "an unusually large movement" along the highways. They spotted 2,400 motor vehicles traveling to and from the front.

Undercast was so heavy 12 Superforts flew by radar Friday continuing the B-29 attack on West Korean rail yards.

Today's attack was on 20-track yards near Hwangju. Thursday B-29s, escorted by Australian Meteor jets, rained 100 tons of explosives on two yards. Flak caused some damage to the attacking planes, but all returned.

Thursday's air action was marked by the return of Red jets to Korea.

Opposing jets clashed three times. One American RF-80 reconnaisane jet was slightly damaged when four Red jets jumped it.

In other encounters F-86 Sabre jets turned back 24 Red MIG-15s that were gunning for a flight of American B-29s, and four F-80 Shooting Star jets fought a brief engagement with eight MIGs.

Clouds and rains held U. N. air action to 475 sorties Thursday.

Rain also limited ground action.

U. N. troops stormed one strategic hill in Eastern Korea. But they were thrown off another high ridge they have fought for off and on for weeks.

Allies made no attacks in the West. But Red troops launched several small probes of their own, mostly at night.

Heaviest action was north of Inje on the Eastern Front. Here jagged Korean mountains rise 3,000 and 4,000 feet.

ALLIES WITHDRAW

An Allied unit tried to gain one of these crests, more than 3,000 feet high. It ran into savage resistance from North Koreans, supported by fire from nearby hills.

The attack began at 7:30 a.m. and lasted until 6:45 p.m., when the attacking force withdrew and broke off action.

A similar attack on a nearby but less forbidding peak was successful. The Reds started this action with a two-company attack of their own.

A quick counterattack swept the Communists back and carried the Allied force to the top of the hill.

Johnson And White Run-off In Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 10. (AP)—The 35-year-old son of a former Governor of Mississippi opposes former Gov. Hugh White in the Aug. 28 runoff primary in the state gubernatorial race.

Paul Johnson, Jr., won the right to oppose White by eliminating Lt. Gov. Sam Lumpkin in the first primary Tuesday. He is the son of the late former Governor Johnson who served as chief executive from 1940 to 1944.

Nomination in the primaries, in one-party Mississippi, amounts to election to the four-year term beginning in January.

Unofficial returns from all except two of the state's 1782 precincts Thursday night gave Johnson 86,313 votes as against 83,254 for Lumpkin. White polled 94,199 votes.

Votes for other candidates were: Ross Barnett 79,749; Mrs. Mary Cain, 25,318; Jesse Byrd, 22,715; Walker, 6,678.

Critical Cotton Picker Shortage in the Valley

BROWNSVILLE, Aug. 10. (AP)—The Rio Grande Valley needs pickers badly in its cotton fields and has asked the government to hurry things up.

Bill Hughes, chairman of the Valley Chamber of Commerce farm labor committee, wired President Truman Thursday asking help.

Hughes said the valley would lose a large proportion of the 400,000 bales of cottong in the fields unless 100,000 pickers are made immediately available.

Cotton stalks in Willacy, Cameron, Starr and Hidalgo Counties must be plowed up before Aug. 31 worm infestation.

Japanese Plan To Set Board On Disloyalty

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—Japan may set up a committee on un-Japanese activities.

Mitsusada Yoshikawa, head of the Japanese equivalent of the FBI said today, he was going to "study very carefully" the establishment of such a body upon his return to his homeland.

Government Figures '51 Cattle Production 6 Million Over '50

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP) —The Agriculture Department reported today farmers are raising about six million more head of beef cattle this year than last. They are staying on the farm instead of coming to slaughter market.

It looks now, the agency said, as if cattle slaughter this year will run below last year's level. In the first half, commercial cattle slaughter was down nine per cent and calf slaughter down 18 per cent from a year ago. Some increase was expected in the year's last half.

The smaller volume of sales, the department said, resulted from a greater tendency this year for cattlemen to retain stock for breeding or feeding to heavier weights than usual. The agency said price uncertainties also contributed to holding back of cattle.

Until recently, the market was clouded by a Congressional battle over government price ceiling rollbacks scheduled for Aug. 1 and Oct. 1. Congress banned the cutbacks in extending price control authority.

The department said generally good pastures and ranges and a big supply of feed grains in prospect promise continued expansion in production of hogs, sheep, lambs and beef cattle.

The department said there should be a seasonal increase in sale and slaughter of beef cattle this fall. Prices, it said, may show less strength than recently. The agency said prices of some grades of cattle may drop below ceilings.

The department said slaughter of sheep and lambs in the last half of this year is likely to continue below last year's level, because of desire to build up flocks, now at a very low level.

Brooklyn In Series Almost Cinch Now

By the Associated Press

"Who do we play in the world series?" That's all Brooklyn wants to know.

With a 12½ game lead in the National League, the Dodgers can start scouting the American League contenders. Unless the Brooks fold completely in their last 50 games, they're in.

A clean sweep of their three-game series with New York, capped by Thursday's 6-5 decision on Roy Campanella's two homers, just about put the clincher on it.

No such thing in the American where New York and Cleveland rest in an exact 66-39 tie with 49 to play. Boston, another 4½ back, and Chicago, only seven games out, remain in the picture.

COAN HELPS YANKS

New York regained a piece of the lead with the help of Washington's Gil Coan who dropped two fly balls to give the Yanks three unearned runs and a 6-4 decision. Cleveland and Chicago were idle.

Boston could do no better than a doubleheader split at Fenway Park with the Philadelphia A's. The Red Sox bounced back in the second, 5-3, on homers by Walt Dropo and Vern Stephens after losing the opener, 6-5. Fred Sanford and Satch Paige teamed up with a five-hitter for St. Louis' 6-3 victory at Detroit.

Rookie Chet Nichols of the Boston Braves ended the Phils' five-game win streak with a 5-4 win. Chicago rallied with four in the ninth to edge Cincinnati 5-4, and Cliff Chambers of St. Louis shut out his old Pittsburgh mates with five hits, 4-0, in a night game.

CAMPANELLA HOMERS

Campanella's second homer for Brooklyn broke a 5-5 tie in the seventh off loser Sheldon Jones, Clyde King, fifth Dodger pitcher, won his 12th with a scoreless three-inning job. Monte Irvin and Dave Williams homered for the Giants in the three-hour-30-minute game, marred by bickering with the umpires and a new league record of 24 walks by both clubs. The old high was 23 set in 1910 and tied in 1911.

Umpire Art Gore cleared the Dodger bench in the second after banishing third baseman Billy Cox.

Hogan in Good Spot for Tam O'Shanter Rush

CHICAGO, Aug. 10. (AP) — Put $12,500 up and the inevitable happens—a Klondike of golf, wild mayhem against par.

This is the scene at Tam O'Shanter, where top-graded pros are gambling shots for the sake of a low score to get rich quick.

They are in a headlong dash for the winner's $12,500 bonanza in George S. May's self-styled "World Championship," and $5,000 more if they crack the course record of 63.

In the field of 64 pros and 10 amateurs, 46 players were 71 or under. Par 72 turned the other cheek.

As the gold rush enters today's second round, marvelous Ben Hogan of Texas is in an ideal spot—not ahead, and not far behind. His steady 35-33—68 against the 36-36—72 standard Thursday left him one stroke off the pace. Hogan has the same wallop that carried him to victory in the Master's and National Open this season. It was enough to send shudders through the field.

At 67 were lean Ray Gafford of Dallas, Ted Kroll, Al Brosch, and Jimmy Demaret.

Hogan's main worries seemed to be Cary Middlecoff, the Tam All-American champion, and solid Dutch Harrison. Each were with him at 68. Others in this bracket were Eric Cremin, of Sydney, Australia, topping the foreign delegation; Jerry Barber, Lawson Little, Earl Stewart, and Glenn Teal.

Among 14 shooters in the jammed 69 group were Joe Kirkwood, Jr., winner of the recent Blue Ribbon Open at Milwaukee; Ed Furgol, Jim Ferrier, Sam Snead, and Clayton Heafner.

Stumpy Jones Gets 20th Win

By the Associated Press

The Austin fans declared Thursday night "Stumpy Jones Night," the chunky little lefthander beat the Waco Pirates for his 20th victory.

The victory gave Austin a game and a half lead over Waco in the fight for fourth place. It moved the Pioneers to within two games of third-place Sherman-Denison as the Twins lost to Gainesville, 15-8.

Temple bowed to Tyler, 8-6, to fall two games back of the league leaders. Wichita Falls bested Jodie Phipps and Texarkana, 6-5, in the other game.

Temple rallied for three runs in the ninth with two home runs sparking the uprising. But the East Texans nipped it two rons short.

Gainesville mauld Sherman-Denison pitching for 18 hits as Andy Sierra scattered 12 for his seventh win.

Wichita Falls came from behind to trounce Texarkana. They got four runs in the seventh and another in the eighth to wipe out a Bear lead.

High School Player Tells Of Good Offer

MEMPHIS, Aug. 10. (AP) — Seventeen top high school football players from throughout the nation related today how colleges sought to recruit them in a large-scale pursuit for grid talent.

Joe Terrazi from Waltham, Mass., said the 15 schools were so hot after him that one offered "a good job for your dad." He said the chase began while he was a junior.

Some said they encountered considerable pressure and were hounded frequently. But those who considered the U. S. Military Academy and the Naval Academy said these schools applied no pressure.

Virtually every player said the schools, without exception, offered special tutoring to insure passing marks. They offered four year scholarships.

Terrazi, a brilliant back, said he was approached by "every school in the Ivy League, Georgia, Michigan, Boston College, Annapolis, West Point, Boston University and others. I've got a drawer full of letters at home, some I never opened."

He said he was one of those who took a six-week cram course at West Point because Vince Lombardi, Army line coach, was a friend of his high school coach, Jackie Fisher. He said he flunked.

Accuses American

MOSCOW, Aug. 10. (AP) — Two leading Moscow newspapers — Literary Gazette and Pravda — accused the United States today of "mouthing the word peace" and carrying out a policy which is, "in no way peace-loving."

Handcuffs are made of steel—the stuff with which we build bridges and skyscrapers and churches!

But all men have not learned to build. Some have learned to destroy.

Hence, in a land where men treasure freedom, there must be handcuffs for some in order that the rights of all may be safeguarded.

But there is a better way. Religious training is a sure vaccine against the spiritual disease that produces criminals. The Church can provide our children with the God-given moral foundations on which life should be built.

And which is the stronger safeguard of the things we hold dear? A pair of steel "bracelets"... or a Church crowded with eager children and conscientious parents?

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By FRANCES BROOKS

Ever since the formal days of George Washington's military rule, the tricorne has been a perennial hat favorite, bobbing up from time to time as women rediscover its flattering lines.

Above, left, is an example of a "trimode," official name given the tricky headgear by the Millinery Creators Guild this year. This one is large, as tricornes go, and is in velvet faced with black, for sweet after-five wear. Jeanne Tete designed it. Next, you see a quill-trimmed version of the style, in soft, pale velours, most youthful. Next is three-cornered swank for fall, a small version of it, designed by Bernice Charles in hatter's plush with pheasant trim. Last, right, is a draped silhouette designed by G. Howard Hodge in coffee-colored felt trimmed with rings of bronze spangles and a dot-bordered veil.

* * *

This year will surely be a tricorne year, as indicated by all plush fall showings. The perky, cornered chapeaus come in all sizes and all degrees of formality.

You'll be seeing them in hatter's plush, in draped velvet, in felt, velours, corduroy, sometimes with feathers, with sequins, unusually with a small mask veil.

This seems to be the first definite trend discernible in a millinery season notable thus far for varied dramatic silhouettes by individual designers.

With a Pair of Chinchillas, Woman Can Grow Her Fur Coat

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP) Does your wife want a new fur coat?

Well, tell her to grow her own. All it takes is a couple of chinchillas and a little time — say five to ten years. Then she should have enough chinchillas to make herself a fur coat that sold for $30,000 a generation ago.

Raising chinchillas today is one of America's fastest growing livestock industries.

Some 5,000 people in the United States and Canada are breeding the furry little herds for fun or profit. All you need to start with is a pair of chinchillas in love, and they sell anywhere from $600 to $1,650 a pair.

Dale Mathews, 23, an Army veteran who was graduated this year from the University of Minnesota, is a typical chinchilla rancher.

"When I got out of the Army in 1947 I had saved up some money," he said. "It was a question with me of investing it or spending it on clothes and a new car. In May of 1948 I bought a pair of chinchillas for $1,400."

Dale now has a herd of 12 of the valuable pearl gray little animals, and recently sold a pair that got him back his original investment.

"In 10 years I should have a stock herd of 200 or 300, not counting others I expect to sell," he said. "I intend to raise them as a sideline only, but they can be made into a real business. There are people now making $15,000 to $20,000 a year from them."

Chinchillas, natives of the Andes mountains, were hunted almost to extinction by 1919, when their pelts rose to $185.

OBLIGING MULLET

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., Aug. 10, (AP)—It had been one of those days fishermen don't like to talk about for Henry McNamara, Red Pleasants and Pete Maresca.

So the trio, after fishing for several hours Thursday without a nibble, upped anchor and headed for home.

Their rowboat was within 10 feet of the pier here when McNamara felt something hit him in the back.

A two-pound fish (mullet) had leaped into the boat.

THE STARS

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 10, (AP)—"The morale of our men in Korea is terrific," reports Jack Benny, returned this week from entertaining troops in the front lines.

"They know what they're fighting for," added the fiddle-hacking comedian. "Naturally, they want peace. But they want the right kind of peace, and they're willing to continue fighting until they get it.

"The one thing that nearly every one of them asks is: 'Do the people back home know there's a war on?' I told them, 'You're darned right they do.'"

In his six weeks absence from Hollywood, Benny figures he traveled between 25,000 and 30,000 miles with his entertainment troupe. They played before troops and wounded veterans in Hawaii, Japan, Okinawa and throughout Korea.

"It was the toughest tour I ever made," said Benny, who made five world-wide journeys to entertain troops in World War II, "but also it was the most satisfying. I think we did the best job possible.

"The food was good wherever we went. But the living and traveling conditions were tougher than anywhere I had been, including North Africa.

"We had to use every kind of transportation, from light aircraft to helicopter to jeep. The reason is because Korea is so mountainous. The boys have a gag over there that if Korea were flattened out, it would be as big as Texas."

Benny is urging other stars to enlist for entertainment in Korea. "It is the greatest audience in the world," he said.

The NPR was organized a year ago on orders of Gen. MacArthur, then supreme commander for the Allied powers. His directive authorized the NPR to enroll 75,000.

Poles To Close U. S. Service

WARSAW, Poland, Aug. 10, (AP)—The U. S. Embassy closed down the United States information service office here Thursday following a request by the Polish foreign ministry.

Foreign Minister Stanislaw Skrzeszewski called in U. S. Ambassador Joseph Flack and asked the U.S.I.S. be closed as soon as possible. The embassy was given a month to dispose of the information service assets.

The offices of the U.S.I.S. did not open Thursday and a sign posted on the building says it was closed at the request of the Polish government.

The service had an extensive library, showed films twice a week and issued information bulletins. It is now known whether the books will be given away, as was done in the case of the British information center here last January when it was closed.

Herbert Hoover 77

PALO ALTO, Calif., Aug. 10, (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover was 77 today.

The ex-President, elder statesman of the Republican Party, planned to observe his birthday on his brother's ranch in the Santa Cruz Mountains. He said he would make no public statements.

We Do Poor Job Of Propaganda To Peoples Of Iron Curtain

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10, (AP)—It may be all right to keep on trying to get through the Iron Curtain to the Russian people, but let's not kid ourselves about the success we're having.

This week Eddy Gilmore, who has been the Associated Press correspondent in Moscow for years, had a brief but significant sentence in a story he sent from the Russian capital:

"The West, although it sometimes does not seem to realize it, has little opportunity to influence public opinion in the Soviet Union."

Since the Russian Communists run the country with an iron hand, they control all the outlets for information, radio, newspapers, and public speakers.

Because they want to stay in power and would crush any opposition, they tell the people what they want them to hear or read. It's one-sided but that's all the Russian people get.

The State Department's Voice of America broadcasts to Russia but the Communists have done their best, which seems to be pretty good to jam it out.

And it probably would be one of the great illusions of our time to assume great numbers of the Russians are panting to hear about us or from us.

This week the Russian government replied to a resolution passed early this summer, expressing friendship for the Russian people. It had been sent to the Russians by President Truman, with a note of his own.

The Russians repeated a peace plan which they had tried before. This government called it a phony.

Then the Communist broadcast the full exchange the length of Russia and published it all everywhere. But in publishing it, they also gave their interpretation of what we said. In short, they called us phonies.

There was some crowing around here that publication of all this in Russia had cracked the Iron curtain a bit. But it was in discussing the Russian publication of the exchange, side by side with the Communist interpretation, that Gilmore said the West has little "opportunity to influence public opinion in the Soviet Union."

Texas City Manager Says He Has Been Fired

TEXAS CITY, Aug. 10. (AP) — Rollie Hemsley, former major league star catcher who won two baseball championships in as many years as a manager in Class AA and AAA ranks, said today he had been fired as manager of the sixth-place Texas City club in the Gulf Coast League.

A spokesman for club President E. H. Thornton, Jr., said Hemsley had "asked for his outright release."

Hemsley denied the report and said: "I have been fired. I have never quit a job in the middle of the year."

Pitcher Bill Rogers was named new manager.

Hemsley recently applied to Bill Veeck, new owner of the St. Louis Browns, for the position of manager with the Browns next year but he has received no reply from Veeck.

GALLUP POLL

Tories Most Popular British Party, But Are Losing Ground

BY GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N.J., Aug. 10—The steady gain of the Conservative Party in Britain has halted.

Although the party of Winston Churchill and Anthony Eden is still running ahead of Labor in popularity, the Laborites have begun to gain back lost ground. The two parties are only 1 percentage points apart, whereas last February the Conservatives had a 14-point lead.

This change in party strength, recorded in a survey by the British Institute of Public Opinion, may be of the utmost significance to the Britain's political future.

A general election has been expected for some time. But the gain in Labor's popularity, if it continues and gathers momentum, may mean that an election is postponed.

And if it were forced, the Conservative Party's chances would be considerably less bright now than five months ago.

The latest standings of the parties are revealed in interviews with a representative sample of British voters on the question:

"If there were a general election tomorrow, how would you vote?"

The latest figures:

Conservative	48
Labor	41
Liberal	10
Other	1
	100

The undecided vote amounts to 12 per cent.

The change in sentiment can be seen in the fact that in April the Conservatives had 51½ per cent to Labor's 38½. In February, Labor trailed with only 37½ per cent.

Several possible explanations for the Labor gain have been offered by British political experts. One is the fact that the serious meat shortage of last winter has been somewhat relieved through a new importing agreement with Argentina.

Another is that the resignation of Aneurin Bevan, head of an outspoken left-wing group in the Labor Party, may have made the Attlee regime more acceptable to conservative - minded elements in the British electorate.

* * *

Will Labor Hold Gains?

However, the outlook for the Labor Party is still considered far form bright because of a rapidly worsening financial situation. Britain's dollar reserve is again threatened.

Once before, in the autumn of 1949, financial troubles brought a sharp drop in Labor's popularity. In fact, the Conservatives gained the lead.

Another financial crisis, forcing the British public, to even more austerity and belt-tightening, might throw Labor into a decline once more.

Meanwhile the Conservatives in Parliament, under the leadership of Churchill, are relentlessly trying to overthrow the Attlee cabinet on a vote of confidence and force a general election.

Jet Bomber Averages A Speed Of Over 800

SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 10. (AP)—Barksdale Air Force base reported that an RB-45 jet bomber averaged a speed of 886 miles per hour — believed to be a record for that type of plane.

This speed was made possible, it was explained Thursday, by a "hot air stream," which traveled at a speed of from 225 to 300 miles per hour. The stream is an air current which encircles the earth at certain stratas of the atmosphere.

Barksdale sources said the plane's average was made on a recent 13-minute 50-second 205-mile flight from Fort Worth to Shreveport.

Catholics Clarify View on Childbirth

VATICAN CITY, Aug. 10. (AP)—Catholics were assured today that the Bible does not prohibit lessening or elimination of pain in childbirth through modern medical science.

The question was raised by a reader of the Vatican's Sunday Osservatore Romano. The reader asked whether the Lord's words to Eve after she and Adam had eaten the forbidden fruit "in sorrow shalt thou bring forth children" did not decree such a ban.

A Catholic doctor's reply, printed by the Vatican newspaper, said that the Biblical text could be interpreted as meaning not only the pain of childbirth but "all the physical and moral sorrows that a mother must suffer because of her maternity."

Mock Bombing Raid Set

TAMPA, Fla., Aug. 10. (AP)—Thirty of the best bomber crews in the United States will get together here Monday for the Strategic Air Command's annual bombing competition.

They will make mock attacks, with "hits" figured by radar, on Birmingham, Dallas, Houston and Oklahoma City. Runs also will be made over regular ranges.

Election Will be Called On High Plains Water District

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 10. (AP)—People of the High Plains will vote on regulating water beneath their lands.

The Board of Water Engineers authorized an election Thursday to create an underground water district that would have this power. A five-man temporary board for the district was named.

Proponents stressed its conservation benefits and said it was a way to control the underground water supply and prevent state or federal control.

One outspoken oppenent was heard. T. L. Wright of Plainview said his was a "voice crying in the wilderness". Wright said he wanted to do with his land what he pleased and didn't want anybody telling him he couldn't.

TEMPORARY DIRECTORS

W. O. Fortenberry of New Deal, led proponents who spoke for the district. He is president of the High Plains Water Users and Conservation Association. His group submitted the five men appointed tmporary directors. They were E. C. Hatton, Lubbock; A. C. Chesher, Littlefield; Jess Osborne, Muleshoe; Tom McFarland Hereford and Tom Bostic Plainview.

The board conducted a public hearing to find out if the district was wanted and whether the people considered it a benefit.

The temporary board will serve until the 10,649-square mile area votes on forming the district and names directors to administer it.

The election date will be determined later. Residents who have [illegible] state, [illegible] acquire land for dams and install pumps and other equipment necessary to recharge the underground reservoir; enforce its rules by injunction secured in court.

Fortenberry said the district would bring no burdensome tax.

INCLUDES 21 COUNTIES

In the proposed district are all or parts of Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Castro Cochran Crosby Deaf Smith, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb Lubbock, Lynn, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Swisher and Terry counties.

A legislative act granted the underground water district power:

To make and enforce rules for the conservation and recharging of underground water; require permits for drilling certain types of wells; acquire land for dams and

Blaik Begins Rebuilding His Riddled Team

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 10. (AP)—Earl Blaik, a father and coach, began building his 11th Army football team today from the remnants of a squad that could have been one of the nation's best until it was riddled by the current cribbing scandal.

Gone is his own son, Bob, one of the 90-involved cadets. His father said he would stay as coach at the military academy.

Young Blaik, who would have been a senior, was a quarterback. Some rated him as the nation's best. He and all the remaining accused cadets face expulsion for either giving or receiving advance information regarding written tests.

Others who have identified themselves as involved are Harold Loehlein of Kimbal, Minn., captain-elect and president of the senior class; J. D. Kimme, powerful Tyler, Tex., tackle; Gibby Reich, an outstanding defensive back from Steelton, Pa.; Gene Gribble, another back from Newcastle, Pa.; Al Conway, a Kansas City end and Bob Haas, veteran center from Dayton, Ohio.

Balik said that "all but two, no make that a few" of the 1951 football squad were involved and would be dismissed. He added that the 1951 varsity basketball and baseball teams also were virtually wiped out.

He said that approximately 50 per cent of the accused cadets were athletes and explained that the high proportion was because the athletes ate together at the training table and because of their conversations on the practice fields and in the gym.

Tests at the Academy are given in shifts, with half the corps getting them one day and the other half the identical questions the next. If two cadets who have taken the examination discuss the questions in the hearing of a third all three are liable for expulsion.

Farm Bureau Names Sterling Taylor As Service Officer

Sterling Taylor was named full-time service officer for the Scurry County Farm Bureau at a meeting last night of the board of directors held in the office of O. M. Fowler, county agent.

Taylor, who has long been active in the work of the local farm bureau, will devote his full time to the bureau program, which includes enrolling members, insurance matters and work for the betterment of the organization, Ross Williams, president of the Scurry County farm bureau, said.

The appointment of Taylor followed a talk by Maurice Howell, Abilene, area service officer, who told of the need of such a man for this section.

DRIVER LIABILITY

Taylor told of the passing of the driver's liability law which naturally affects all farmers who drive cars, pointing out that the bureau maintains its own insurance for its members, including the driver's liability.

Taylor urged all members to take advantage of the benefits of the bureau. To be eligible for membership in the bureau, the person must receive 51 per cent or more revenue from the farm.

There are about 900 members in the Scurry bureau, with around 52,000 in Texas, it was revealed at the meeting. While the farm bureau is primarily for the farmer it works for the benefit of the entire community, state and nation, Williams said.

"Eighty - five per cent of the farmers in this county are members of the bureau, which gives us a voice in public affairs," Williams said.

The directors voted unanimously in favor of asking for disaster emergency freight rates on feed to Scurry County on account of the critical drouth situation that now prevails. This action was taken after O. M. Fowler, county agent, explained the situation to the members.

At a recent meeting, the County Agricultural Mobilization Committee, composed of heads of all federal agricultural agencies, also voted to make application to the railroad commission at Austin for such emergency rates on account of the prolonged drouth.

DAIRIES DROP OUT

"Two and one-half years ago or just before the oil boom, there were about 32 dairies in Scurry County, but today that number has dwindled to three," Fowler said. He pointed out that discovery of oil has affected the dairy business, but in the past several months, the drouth, with the big cost of feeds as caused many dairymen to fold up.

The bureau is sponsoring a wiener roast for members of the county Future Farmers of America and 4-H at Wolf Park, starting at 5:30 o'clock on the evening of Aug. 23. Plans include the awarding of plaques to the outstanding FFA and 4-H member for achievements during the past year, Williams said. Fathers of the youths will be special guests.

Members of the board of directors besides Williams include, Mel Andress, bureau secretary; Dewey Denson, C. A. Wade J. B. Wade J. J. Henry, B. J. Clifton Buford Browning, Whit Farmer, E. H. Williamson, Jack Ramsey, M. W. Bavosett and C. H. Stahl.

Russia's Peace Offensive Gets Big Press Play

MOSCOW, Aug. 10. (AP) — The Soviet press said today American newspapers were "unable to hide their alarm" at the proposal of Soviet President Nikolai Shvernik for a five-power pact of peace.

Soviet readers were told that the U. S. State Department rejected the proposal on "the awkward pretext" that the existence of the United Nations made such a pact superfluous.

"It is typical" said a story carried by all Moseow papers, "that both the announcement by the State Department and the stories in the American press carefully refrained from facing up to the real essence of Shvernik's message and the resolution of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet."

The Supreme Soviet's resolution expressed friendship for the people of the United States. The Soviet press has published this along with Shvernik's proposal and the U. S. Congressional resolution of friendship for the Soviet peoples adopted a month ago.

The Soviet people were at a loss to understand "what peace-loving motive" kept the United States Government from agreeing to a peace pact with the four other great powers, it added. The powers the USSR wants to sign such a pact are Russia, Communist China, Britain, France, and the United States.

The press still is giving the exchange of friendship messages a big play. Stories about reactions to it were spread over the entire third page and part of the fourth. There were many dispatches from Communist countries as well as from Western countries, and apparently the Moscow press intends for some time to keep the story alive.

Suspect Held In Noble Death

DALLAS, Aug. 10. (AP)—The driver of a blue Chevrolet pick-up truck that resembles the one seen speeding from the place where gambler Herbert Nobl was blasted to bits was in jail today.

Police said they planned to have a witness see whether the man was one of a group seen Tuesday near Nobles ranch 25 miles north of Dallas when the gambler was killed by a land mine.

The man was a suspect in an earlier gangland killing in Dallas but never was directly linked to it.

Four others are sought for questioning. One man of six originally wanted was picked up by officers in Fort Worth Thursday questioned and allowed to go.

Noble, who once operated policy game and other gambling enterprises, was killed when he looked into his mail box near his ranch. It was the 12th attempt on his life.

Services were held Thursday. He was buried beside his wife, who was blown to bits by a bomb intended for her husband in 1949.

West Point Superintendent Is Pleased That Blaik Will Stay

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 10. (AP)—Earl Blaik, electing to stay on as gridiron coach of an Army team shattered by the cribbing scandal, has the blessings of the Military Academy's top commander.

Blaik announced his decision at a private news conference in New York City Thursday.

Immediate reaction came from the Academy's superintendent, Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, who said:

"I am pleased that Red Blaik is going to remain [illegible] coach and director of athletics at West Point. He is a fine, forthright gentleman in whom I have the utmost confidence, and I know he will act in the best interests of the Military Academy."

In Washington, President Truman is conducting a private inquiry into football emphasis at the nation's service academies, including the operation of their athlete recruiting systems.

Mr. Truman told his news conference Thursday he is attempting to find a remedy for the situation at West Point without killing the patient.

One White House official said the President had no intention of probing into the discipline in the case, and added:

"What the President would like to do is get college football back to a real amateur standing."

Although the President's jurisdiction is limited to the service academies, aides said the all-sports inquiry possibly would dig up information on athletic operations at big colleges throughout the nation.

Blaik's decision to remain as Army coach was not easy. The cheating scandal—which involves 90 cadets—depletes his once-vaunted football forces to a mere few.

His own son and star quarterback, Robert Blaik, awaits expulsion on the cribbing charges.

The New York football Giants will start training at Saranac Lake their "lucky" camp on July 23.
