Corporations Line Up For Sales Tax

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP)—Corporation and utility lawyers and Chamber of Commerce heads supported a sales tax route today during the tax hearings before a Senate committee.

Jeff Neely, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce president, representatives of Southwestern Electric Power and Light Co. and Gulf States Utilities Co. plugged the sales tax in preference to the pending tax bill.

The 149 million dollar, two year tax bill likely will go to a subcommittee later today to be revised for possible floor debate by mid week.

"Where ever I go in other states I leave a token for payment when making purchases for the privilege of being there. I'm not in favor of hiding all the taxes. We should have the pride of government in making direct tax payments," Neely declared.

Bill Sedberry, Marshall manager of Southwestern Electric, said the company would suffer a 215 per cent increase in gross receipts tax provided in the bill.

"It may be the straw that breaks the camel's back and will force us to go to the city councils and pass this on to the consumers in rate increases," he predicted.

Asked by Sen. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth how he felt about a broad base tax, he replied: "Naturally we prefer a broad base tax."

"You think you are being discriminated against?"

"In gross receipts tax, we feel we are."

"Of the two broad base taxes which would you prefer, the income tax or the sales tax?"

"The sales tax."

Major Bell of Beaumont said for Gulf States Utilities that the bill would increase the company's taxes $600,000 a year and 90 per cent of the increase would be passed on to the customers.

He said he preferred a sales tax.

The hearing got off to a late start while chairman, Sen. Dorsey Hardeman and Senate dean R. A. Weinert of Seguin conferred with Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey undoubtedly over the tax issue.

Gov. Price Daniel defended the bill at the hearing's outset in an unusual appearance.

"Texas is one of only two states which treat foreign corporations better than the state corporations on franchise taxes," he said in support of a revised franchise tax formula for companies doing interstate business.

He dealt largely on the franchise formula which will raise 24 million dollars and the 35 million dollar "five and five" plan for taxing natural gas.

More Rain Stalls Cleanup Efforts

Rain came for the third straight night last night here, hampering efforts of a number of north Snyder residents who were attempting to repair their residences following storm damage of the previous night.

Dozens of Snyder homes were damaged in the Tuesday night storm, in which hail battered roofs and wind tore loose parts of houses and other buildings.

Preliminary estimates here had been that the damage may run to $500,000 in the city. Some insurance men said today, however, that while the damage looked heavier on the surface, they did not believe it would be more than $200,000 or possibly $300,000 in the city. That estimate did not include crop damage.

It appeared that the majority of those whose property was damaged were insured, although there will be many cases of damage which regular insurance will not cover, including flood damage and some cases of leaky roofs.

Adjusters were attempting to take care of those damaged the worst first.

Only five families were known to be out of their homes because of the storm, however. Those included two whose trailer houses were completely destroyed, the Bobby Channell and Pete Thompson families, and three whose houses were unroofed, the families of Pete Lewis, Walter Morgan and Oren Tudor. All except the Thompson family lived in the Green Hill addition, while the Thompson trailer was near the North Elementary School.

Reports were that those families were staying with relatives or neighbors. Other families were out of their homes temporarily pending repairs, including a number of persons who lived in trailers which were overturned.

The Jaycees yesterday afternoon, in a directors meeting, decided to start a fund for those who had excessive personal losses in the storm. In starting the fund the Jaycee organization presented the new fund a $100 check and asked other persons and organizations wishing to participate to mail or take their checks to the Chamber of Commerce office or to Herman Bond, a Jaycee director, at the West Texas State Bank.

Ernest Sears, Jaycee president, said several families had extensive losses of such personal items as dishes and cooking utensils, clothing and bed clothing and that the Jaycee fund would be used to help those who had the most extensive losses. This will be done above any aid given to any of the families by the Salvation Army or any other agency.

City employes worked all day yesterday and through a part of this morning cleaning debris out of city streets. Tree limbs and other debris were in numerous streets in north and east Snyder after the storm. Utility company employes were still busy restoring their facilities in the storm area.

Ten to 12 insurance adjusters were busy here, working through the various insurance agencies, to adjust claims on storm damage. Insurance agents have already received several hundred claims, ranging from very minor damage to demolished homes and buildings.

Agents were asking that those who have storm damage go ahead and get estimates, since that is the first thing which must be done. That will speed up claims when adjusters call on them. Lumber yards were being swamped with requests for repair estimates.

Rocket Ship Flight Is Postponed

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Technical difficulties today forced postponement until at least Friday of a scheduled first free flight for the rocket ship X15.

The glide test for the little craft had been scheduled for today but a 24 hour delay was announced this morning.

The sleek black arrow, expected ultimately to carry a man at 4,000 m.p.h. to a height of 100 miles, is to be dropped from a mother ship at 38,000 feet for a four or five minute glide to earth. The X15 will carry no fuel.

Test Pilot Scott Crossfield will be at the controls. He is expected to make a couple of S turns to check the hydraulic controls before bringing the plane in for a screeching skid landing at 230 m.p.h.

A B52 eight-jet bomber will cut the X15 loose from under its right wing over Rosamond Dry Lake, 17 miles from where the rocket plane is expected to land at this desert test center 100 miles north of Los Angeles.

Crossfield — North American Aviation Co. test pilot—has been in the X15 cockpit on four captive flights locked under the B52's wing.

There probably will be two or three more glides, depending on the craft's performance. Then its twin low-power engines will be fired up to see how it functions at conventional speeds in the lower atmosphere.

Next summer these engines will be pulled from the rocket plane's tail and a 50,000-pound-thrust single-chamber engine will be installed in their place. This engine is designed to blast the X15 to the edge of space.

Report King Plans To Wed

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — King Baudouin intends to marry a French princess, a Belgian weekly newspaper said today. It reported his engagement to Princess Marie Therese of Bourbon Parma will be announced within a month.

"We will soon have a queen," declared the newspaper Samedi, published in Gent. "There have been a lot of false rumors, but this time its true."

Foreign Minister Pierre Wigney was quoted as saying in New York last week: "The marriage of the King will come sooner than we think."

Confirmation of the engagement was lacking. A press secretary at Baudouin's palace said "I know nothing at all about it."

Samedi's report of romance in the life of the 28-year-old monarch, who returned last Monday from a three-week tour of the United States, coincided with the palace's announcement that his brother, Prince Albert, will marry Italian Princess Paolo Ruffo di Calabria in Brussels July 2.

Space Mice Miss Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Four black mice, blasted aloft in an Air Force attempt to return a living creature from a satellite for the first time, apparently didn't make it.

The Air Force wanted them to orbit the earth in a satellite, Discoverer III, for 26 hours, then parachute in their air-conditioned capsule.

However, something went wrong. The two-stage Thor missile roared into space Wednesday as scheduled and sent back radio signals for 13 minutes. Then the signals stopped. The Air Force said it has heard nothing since.

The 78-foot-long projectile was presumed to have burned up on reentering the atmosphere. It was considered highly unlikely that it could have escaped the earth's pull, because of speed factors.

Planes had been poised to try a difficult aerial catch over the Pacific. But officials had given them only one chance in 700 of succeeding.

The mice, pick of their breed, would have been the first creatures retrieved alive from orbit. Two monkeys were fired into space from Cape Canaveral by the Army May 28 but their trip covered only 1,500 miles. They were not intended to go into orbit.

Information from Wednesday's launching will be used in planning the Project Mercury attempt to put man in orbit some two years from now.

At blastoff the mice underwent an acceleration force seven or eight times that of gravity. This was nothing new to them — they had trained for the flight in test chambers simulating the severe stresses to which they would be exposed.

Strapped on their backs like saddles were tiny radios. These were intended to relay their heartbeat, breathing, temperature and muscular activity back to earth. Their color — black — was to have shown the effects of any cosmic radiation, based on the degree of graying.

The Thor IRBM first stage and Bell-Hustler second stage functioned satisfactorily, the Air Force said.

The missile was last heard from by a telemetering ship 1,200 miles south of the launch site. The absence of sightings or radar contracts from that time on led authorities to doubt that the missile had gone into orbit.

The Air Force said its next Discoverer will not carry animals but will be strictly an attempt to improve the propulsion and instrumentation of the rockets used in the series.

Wednesday's launching, followed four unsuccessful tries. Poor weather and technical difficulties delayed the others.

Long Still Figures In Pelican Politics

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Ailing Gov. Earl K. Long, though down, still can't be counted out of the Louisiana political potpouri today.

Attending doctors at the John Sealy Hospital here said the 63-year-old Long might recover, possibly, within a three-month period.

It was the first official speculation on how long the governor might be out of action.

Physicians added to the brighter picture by reporting that Long had quieted down and his thinking and speaking were very clear.

At the same time, Mrs. W. M. Knott of Many, La., the governor's sister, indicated his inclination was to be in touch with the political scene in his state.

"He knows what should be done," said Mrs. Knott, who is visiting him regularly. "His friends are cooperating."

In the Louisiana capital city, Baton Rouge, legislators split in their camps of opinion on Long's political future. But while there was doubt as to if and when he would return, nobody moved to challenge his leadership.

"The people around me know that I expect the governor to come back," Acting Governor Lether Frazar said.

In the Legislature, Sen. B. B. Rayburn, in an effort to hold the pro-Long faction together, made a guarded announcement that his name had been mentioned as leader of the Long forces.

But Rayburn, the administration Senate leader, was quick to add that he would step up only if Gov. Long was unable to return.

There was also reports that the governor's nephew, Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) wanted to succeed his uncle in office. But again, the feeling was the senator wouldn't be interested unless the governor was out of the picture.

Still in doubt was what Long's actions will be regarding his wife's committal petition.

Probate Judge Hugh Gibson ordered Long into protective custody after reviewing the petition. It was filed by the governor's wife, Blanche, and a cousin for Long's "protection."

Gibson said he will set a date for a sanity hearing tomorrow. He indicated it would be June 16. Just what the governor intends to do at the hearing is not known.

The hospital issued no early morning bulletin on Long's condition.

Boy Catches Winged Cat

PINEVILLE, W. Va. (AP) — A 15-year-old boy has nabbed an odd freak—a cat with a winglike growth.

Douglas Shelton, high school freshman at this southern West Virginia community, said he was in the woods the other day when he noticed the animal treed by a dog.

He shinnied up and captured the cat, then took a good look at his prize.

The female cat is 30 inches long, has a bushy tail and attractive white fur, like a Persian.

Each wing is about six inches long. Each appears to be boneless, but evidently cartilage gives them their shape.

The wings are also a barometer of the cat's temper — she lifts them when angered.

A local veterinarian said he has never heard of such an animal.

Hail Batters Kansas Town

SELDEN, Kan. (AP) — A hail storm battered this prairie village in northwest Kansas for two hours Wednesday night, covering the town with a foot and a half of ice.

Extent of the damage hasn't been determined. But it will be heavy. The roofs of four business houses and several homes collapsed under the weight of the ice. A torrential rain followed the hail, flooding many basements.

As the hail pelted down, many of Selden's 485 residents abandoned their homes for more substantial shelter. Only one person was hurt. Jim Stewart suffered a cut when an awning toppled from the Farmers State Bank and hit him on the head.

A National Guard unit, 45 strong, moved into the town to guard against looting. Sightseerers also converged quickly on Selden, posing an additional problem for the guardsmen. Reinforcements were to move in today.

For a time, Selden was isolated. But road graders cleared a narrow path on U. S. Highway 83 toward Colby, 25 miles to the southwest.

House, Furnishings Damaged By Blaze

Fire destroyed a couch, damaged drapes and charred the window frame in the home of the L. E. Dirden family on Merrill Drive about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Firemen, answering the general alarm, put the fire out before extensive damage was done, D. A. Porter, fire chief, said.

The house is owned by W. C. Sheldon.

Nicaragua Is Doubling Its Army Forces

By JACK RUTLEDGE

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Nicaragua began doubling its army today in the wake of invasion thrusts by opponents of Dictator-President Luis Somoza.

The buildup of the nation's armed forces got under way even though it was officially announced the small band of rebels who invaded by air over the weekend was fleeing and no longer a danger.

The government said it was adding 2,000 men to the National Guard—the nation's army which already numbers about 2,000 actives. In addition, 10,000 guard reservists are being called up for training.

To support its claim that the airborne invaders were on the run, the government was taking foreign correspondents to the area in south Nicaragua where the rebels landed from Costa Rica. The army has said only about 75 rebels landed and that they were on the point of annihilation.

But in San Jose, the Costa Rican capital, the Nicaraguan rebel leader, Enrique Lacayo Farfan claimed that strong contingents of farmers were joining the rebels. He said a National Guard force had been ambushed in Pozote Canyon and a large amount of military equipment captured. A rebel radio broadcast said the rebels had suffered no more than six casualties.

Somoza's government also was pressing for the Organization of American States (OAS) to intervene. The OAS met Wednesday to consider Somoza's appeal for help and set another emergency session for today.

Compromise Seen On Missile Funds

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise decision to continue both the Nike and Bomarc missile programs at a cut-back level was reported in the making today.

An influential congressional official said he has been informed that Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy plans to recommend a go-ahead for both the Nike-Hercules and Bomarc missiles.

But he said the secretary is likely to propose to President Eisenhower a reduction in outlays for both of the missiles, since they represent air defense only against bombers at a time when chances of missile attacks are growing. This decision was expected to depend in part on the reports McElroy receives on progress toward obtaining the Nike-Zeus anti missile missile.

Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday that "a complete and exhaustive" survey of the missile field is being made by McElroy and should be completed within 10 days.

The Army and the Air Force have been squabbling over the respective merits of their missiles and House and Senate committees also have taken opposing stands.

The Army contends its Nike-Hercules, although limited to a range of about 85 miles, is a proved weapon which already has been installed in some areas.

The Air Force Bomarc is still being developed, but its proponents contend it is needed to keep enemy planes from getting too close to their targets. It now has a range of about 200 miles, with a hoped-for increase to 400 miles in an improved model.

The House, in passing a $38,848,339,000 defense money bill Wednesday, cut $162,700,000 from budgeted funds for the Bomarc. It rejected an effort to cut another 200 millions which the appropriations committee left in the measure for Bomarc procurement. The House also gave the Army the full 95 million dollars budgeted for its Nike-Hercules.

Coffee Heir Gives Debbie A Diamond

NEW YORK (AP) — Houston coffee heir Bob Neal was reported today to have given actress Debbie Reynolds a large diamond brooch after dating her steadily for 10 days as both visited New York.

However, each denied that it signified an engagement, according to New York Post columnist Earl Wilson. Just the same, Wilson added, friends of Neal insisted upon congratulating him on marriage plans.

Wilson quoted Debbie as saying in Hollywood that she is not engaged.

West May Be Set To Offer Reduction In Berlin Force

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP) — Top Western officials said today the United States, Britain and France may be willing to cut their 10,000-man force in West Berlin if the Soviet Union agrees to drop its threat to the city.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was reported to have given some signs that the Kremlin may be willing to drop its demand that the Western powers give up their occupation rights in Berlin.

Gromyko, according to informants, has in the last few days shown some elasticity in his attitude but the highest Western leaders do not know whether he yet has instructions from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Gromyko has been put under heavy Western pressure to come up with concessions that would in effect clear the way to a summit meeting.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd are both reported to feel that some progress has been made. It is still very tentative, however, and Gromyko could switch.

Here are standout points in top-level American evaluation of the conference as it nears the end of its fourth week:

1. The Western powers are making a little progress in getting Gromyko to move toward some kind of Soviet guarantee of the rights of the Western powers in West Berlin, the major objective of Herter, Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville. A Soviet pledge would break the back of the Berlin crisis.

2. Western powers have told Gromyko that they would be prepared to put a ceiling on their forces.

3. Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville are fully agreed, and have so advised Gromyko in their secret talks, that Western troops in West Berlin do not serve a military purpose so much as the purpose of symbolizing Western protection of West Berlin.

4. Gromyko has been told repeatedly that the Western powers will not give up their basic rights in Berlin and they will not agree to admit Soviet troops to share in the occupation of West Berlin.

Oilmen Hope For Production From Atlantic's 'Tidelands'

By MAX B. SKELTON

NEW YORK (AP)—Oilman have hopes oil will be found in the submerged lands off the Atlantic coast.

Exploration projects are not even in the planning state but geologists say petroleum probably is there.

The prospects are not as bright, however, as current operations off Louisiana and California.

Technical papers on the three offshore areas of the United States were presented today at the World Petroleum Congress.

A paper authorized by the director of the Geological Survey said economic changes and advances in geologic knowledge could conceivably make the Atlantic a producing area. The area under study included the east coast from Canada to north Florida.

Gordon Atwater, New Orleans consulting geologist, said only half of the Gulf of Mexico offshore prospects have been tested. Proved reserves already discovered, however, exceed 2½ billion barrels of oil and 9 trillion cubic feet of natural gas.

Francis Hortig of Los Angeles estimated potential production from three basins off California at four billion barrels. California has had offshore production since 1921 but total output so far has been only 561 million barrels.

The Atlantic paper was prepared by James Trumbull of the Geological Survey in Washington and Gordon Eaton of Middletown, Conn.

They said the embryonic state of geological information and the high cost of offshore operations indicate the Atlantic area probably will not soon be an area of intensive petroleum exploration.

"Petroleum is probably present there, however," they said. "No nation can afford to overlook an area that overlies 175,000 cubic miles, though the first barrel of oil is yet to be produced."

MORE RAIN

was evident from here north toward Fluvanna and several miles both east and west, and southeast to the Hermleigh area.

[illegible] out [illegible] where some were washed [illegible].

[illegible] Moore, work unit conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, surveyed the most damaged areas yesterday and said there will be a big maintenance job on terraces this fall. While some farmers will go ahead and repair their terraces, others will not take the time now since they will be replanting as soon as they can get into the fields.

It has been estimated that more than [illegible] acres [illegible] one crop will have to be replanted.

In many cases fields were completely washed out, with terraces not just broken but almost leveled. Terraces are designed for holding normal rainfall through a 10-year period but not for flash floods like that which came with the storm early yesterday morning.

Many parts of the county which were outside the badly damaged areas welcomed the additional rainfall which came last night. While Snyder has had 3.39 inches of rain in three days and some areas [illegible] others had little and could still store the additional moisture [illegible].

In last night's rain Snyder had .40 of an inch at the official gauge of David Strayhorn, weather observer. About an inch fell at Hermleigh and at Dunn, making about four inches for the three days.

[illegible] was about half as much last night, has had only about 1.4 inches this week.

The Lake Thomas area has had little rain this week and has shown no appreciable gain. About half an inch fell there last night. Nearby at Knapp there was .7. North and west of the lake at Gail there was .75, the same as that which fell in the northern part of Borden County.

Fluvanna had .3 in town, with some parts of the area getting half an inch. North of Snyder at the Pasotex Pipe Line camp there was .8 last night, making a total of 3.1 for the three days.

There was .7 at Lloyd Mountain, which has also been out of the storm area, and Camp Springs had .8, making 3 to 3.5 inches for the three days in that area.

Undercover Man Still Has Few Friends

CHICAGO (AP)—For 18 years Joseph Poskonka — branded as a Communist—endured the beatings, insults, sneers and scorns of his neighbors.

Suddenly, less than a month ago before a House subcommittee, he told the world, and more especially his friends, that the Red label was a disguise. He really was an FBI informer, supplying them information on Communist activities in labor unions.

He hoped then the hate would disappear, that he could walk down the street and find a friendly hello instead of a vacant stare. He says he didn't. Now he is bitter.

"I guess I was foolish to believe that. Out of the whole block, just one guy, only one, has come up to shake hands," Poskonka told a newsman Wednesday.

His wife, Antoinette, 55, agreed.

"It's ignorance, that's all it is," she said with a slight Polish accent. "These people have hated us so long they don't know how to change."

But some of Poskonka's stock yards district neighbors had different things to say.

"This is an old Polish neighborhood," said one. "They'll never admit they're wrong. No one has a good word to say about anyone else."

Another declared he never did shun the 57-year-old Poskonka. "I don't have anything to do with my neighbors. I just mind my own business."

A third said the Communist guise had nothing to do with Poskonka's complaint at all. "It's his personality," she said. "He never did have a lot of friends. He's not too friendly himself."

Missing Man From Winters In Hawaii

WINTERS (AP)—Mrs. Hershel White, who learned yesterday that her husband has turned up in Hawaii after a seven-week absence, expected to find out today [illegible] home.

White, 31-year-old farmer and rancher, told Honolulu police yesterday that he remembered nothing between March and Tuesday night, when his memory returned as he sat on a waterfront wall.

"It's the most wonderful thing in the world," Mrs. White said after Runnels County Sheriff Don Atkins telephoned her White had been found safe.

She said she talked to White briefly by telephone in Atkins' office after learning of his whereabouts. "He talked only a little while, he is so upset," she said.

Atkins said Honolulu police told him White will be hospitalized in Honolulu until he is able to return home.

Police said Atkins told them the last thing he remembered was going to bed one night in March and making a mental note to go to the bank the next day to borrow $900 to pay his taxes.

How he got to the islands, or why he came, White couldn't say.

"It's a frightening feeling," he said.

Mrs. White said she has had no serious financial trouble during White's absence. She said she had to sell the cattle on the farm because she was unable to care for them.

She said White got up on the morning of April 14 and left the house. "I thought he was going for a thermometer to take our son's temperature," she said.

"He never came back," she added. "The last we heard of him he sold his pickup truck in Abilene for $475."

The Whites have a 6-year-old son, Don Jr.

Donald's brother Merrill, 8, suffered slight wounds during the spree which terrorized the town.

Housewife Victim In Daylight Robbery

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three robbers, one carrying a gun, walked into a Forest Hills district home here in daylight Wednesday, robbed a housewife of $160 and threatened to take care of her 8-year-old son should she call police.

Minister In Triangle Asks Replacement

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Three times, a couple in the congregation of the Rev. W. S. McBirnie was on the verge of a break-up. And three times, he sought to reconcile the couple.

Twice, he said, the couple was reunited.

But when he tried to repair the family ties a third time, he said, "I unwisely became partisan in my defense of the wife.

"This led to an involvement between us of the kind I now recognize to have been improper."

The 39-year-old pastor of the Trinity Baptist church, second largest Baptist church here, asked his congregation Wednesday night to replace him, and to forgive him "as I have begged God for forgiveness."

A standing-room-only crowd jammed the sanctuary and listened in silence as McBirnie—married and the father of a high school pupil—confirmed a report published by San Antonio News columnist Paul Thompson.

The minister did not elaborate on the "improper" involvement.

McBirnie asked an assistant pastor to lead a prayer.

As heads in the sanctuary were bowed, McBirnie left the auditorium and went home.

He became pastor of the church three weeks after it was organized in 1949.

McBirnie said he chose to give an exclusive interview to Thompson because his action was a matter for community concern.

"The congregation took no action, and there were no demonstrations or obvious reactions to McBirnie's statements. The minister asked that there be no demonstrations.

The pastor did not name the other woman involved. There has been no comment from Mrs. McBirnie.

In his interview with Thompson, McBirnie said he was "not being noble or gallant."

"In all honesty, I must plainly state that blame for this involvement is mine and mine alone," he said.

Delinquents Enjoy Role

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Juvenile delinquents enjoy being juvenile delinquents, says the nation's top man in scouting.

"It's very difficult to get them to give up juvenile delinquency once they've got started," Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America, told a news conference.

"But if you have a constructive program, as we feel we have, you can keep the numbers down."

Schuck said too much emphasis has been placed on juvenile delinquents because "people get the wrong impression when this 2 per cent is played up. The future depends on the 98 per cent who stay out of trouble."

Elvis Presley To Keep His Tonsils

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Elvis Presley will keep his tonsils, at least for the present, the U.S. 3rd Armored Division announced today.

The singer was admitted to the Army's 97th General Hospital Wednesday suffering from tonsilitis. Today a spokesman said he had a throat infection too, and the length of his stay would depend on how it responds to treatment. There is no question of a tonsillectomy, the spokesman added.

There Are Ways To Earn Expenses Through College

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

COLLEGE costs have climbed and many a bright student is at a loss to figure out how to finance his education. Time was when families could mortgage the old homestead as each new college entrant came along, but college educations are expensive today, and one can't figure on Dad footing the bills for the entire brood. It may not be possible.

Even a publicly - supported college may cost a minimum of $1,500 a year for tuition and living expenses. At a private college, a realistic budget covering all expenses for one academic year may amount to $2,500, says the American Bankers Assn., which conducted a survey.

There are only a few ways to get to college with the funds you have on tap, the A.B.A. advises. One way is to win a scholarship, but there are only about 125,000 scholarships available annually for 3,000,000 students, and the average award is less than $300 a year.

A more dependable source of income is part-time and summer work that will pay some of the costs. It has become virtually impossible for resident students completely work their way through school these days. The nation's average shows you can aim at the goal of earning about one-fourth of your expenses, which means working full time in the summer and part-time during the school year.

The college of your choice may have a job placement bureau to help you find work on or off campus, and it may even turn up a good summer job for you.

A third way you can ease the squeeze on family finances is by borrowing money to be paid back after you get your sheepskin. Check to see whether your college choice has a loan fund. Some of the schools will advance as much as $2,500 over a four-year period with from three to six years after graduation to repay the money.

You may be able to borrow money from your local bank. Educators and bank people have worked together to develop some plans to meet college needs' problems. Your scholastic record need and he can get his hands on and put Under one of these plans students in good standing can obtain long-term, low interest loans up to a total of $1,500. You must apply to a state commodity bank for these loans which are secured by an 80 per cent guarantee of repayment from a fund contributed by business firms and individuals.

Many banks make special education loans of various types on their own, either granted to the parent or on the joint signature of parent and student with both sharing responsibility for payment.

The newest source of student loan funds is the Federal Government. Under the National Defense Education Act, qualified students attending colleges which participate in the plan can borrow $1,000 a year, up to a $5,000 maximum with the loan repayable after graduation over a 10-year period. Your eligibility is determined after you apply to a college and it appraises

Start Now For Slim Summer Line

Now is the time to begin working toward "summer slimness". A slim figure is always the envy if not the goal, of every woman, especially now that bathing suit weather will soon be with us.

Sensible reducing plans cut out unnecessary "empty" calories, yet allow you to continue enjoying your favorite dishes. Many delightful desserts, salads, breads and beverages can be calorie-streamlined to a fraction of their normal calorie count, simply by replacing the sugar in the recipe with a non-caloric sweetener. Good example is this delectable dessert, "Lemon Rice Velvet". Each sweetened serving contains just 62 calories, less than half the usual calorie count — and you can't taste the difference!

Lemon Rice Velvet
(A delicious low-calorie dessert)

2 tablespoons or envelopes gelatin
½ cup lemon juice
1½ cups boiling water
¼ cup rice
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon lemon rind
1 tablespoon sucaryl solution
¼ cup nonfat dry milk solids
¼ cup ice water
¼ teaspoon almond extract

Soften gelatin in lemon juice, dissolve in the 1½ cups boiling water. Combine rice and the 1 cup boiling water; cook over low heat about 25 minutes, or until done. Place in electric blender with lemon rind, sucaryl and dissolved gelatin; blend about 3 minutes. Chill until mixture begins to thicken (about 2 hours). Then combine dry milk, ice water, and almond extract; beat on high speed of mixer until of consistency of whipped cream. Fold into rice mixture. Spoon into sherbets, or a mold. Chill until set.

Makes 6 servings. Each serving contains 62 calories, 5.5 grams protein, trace of fat, 10.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 126 calories.

Reduce Stress

When you feel comfortable you feel better. That's why air conditioning is really an investment in a better way of life. When you buy air conditioning or a year-round heating and cooling system you are investing in comfort for yourself and your family.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE FIRST OF TWO state meets to be held here this summer comes off Saturday when the Scurry County Boys Club hosts the state Boys Club track and field meet.

The other state meet will be the state Little League baseball tournament slated here in mid-August.

This provides us an excellent opportunity to make a good impression on our visitors from other parts of the Lone Star State. And we can do this by exploiting that good ole West Texas hospitality, Snyder-style.

When people are treated well a way from home, they will naturally want to return some day.

There'll be a full day of track Saturday at Tiger Stadium, scene of the state Boys Club meet. Activity will get underway at 8:30 a.m. and will continue through most of the day.

Some future Tigers will be running in Saturday's show. And there may also be some Eddie Southerns and Bobby Morrows competing here Saturday.

It'll be a good show for all you track lovers.

Cowboys List 2 Ex-Tigers As Starters

Two former Tigers, Shorty Grimmett and Don McNew, are expected to be the starting guards for the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys next fall. Shorty and Don were rated as the No. 1 men at their respective positions following the Cowboy spring drills, Shorty at left guard and Don at right guard.

Both Shorty and Don will be seniors next fall.

Another area lad, Bill Voss of Hermleigh, was rated as the No. 1 right end for the Cowboys following the spring drills.

And still another fellow familiar to Tiger fans, Fred Thigpen of Graham, was listed as the No. 1 left tackle. Thigpen was the lad who kicked that all-important extra point in Graham's narrow 7-6 division over the Tigers in bi-district play in 1956.

Mullins Ranks High In Raider Camp

Over Texas Tech way, Larry Mullins, a member of the 1956-57 Tiger football squad, is also doing right well as a collegian.

Mullins, a sophomore-to-be, is listed as the No. 2 left tackle in the Raider camp behind veteran Jerry Selfridge.

Larry has surprised the Red Raider coaching staff.

At one time the Raider coaches were going to "red shirt" Larry next season, mainly because of his age. Larry is now [illegible] which is pretty young to be playing major college football.

By "red shirting" him he could have skipped a year of competition and still have three more years to play.

But Larry came along so well that he is now ticketed for varsity competition next fall.

It could be that Mullins will be a starter in 1960, the first year the Raiders become eligible to compete for the Southwest Conference title. Selfridge graduates next spring which will leave the left tackle job open.

It's always good to learn of our boys doing well in college ball, be it football, basketball or what have you.

Gold Jackets Hosts To Hamlin Tonight

The Snyder Colored girls softball team, the Gold Jackets, will host Hamlin tonight at Winston Park.

Game time is 8 p.m.

Tonight's game will be the second tilt of the year for the Gold Jackets. The Jackets defeated Haskell in their lone start to date.

10 Clubs Due For State Track Meet

Ten clubs are expected to be here Saturday for the 1st annual State Boys Club track and field meet, Miche Brous, director of the Scurry County Boys Club, said today.

San Antonio's three Boys Clubs are planning to take part in the meet. Other clubs entered are Abilene, Odessa, Panther Boys Club of Fort Worth, Maverick Boys Club of Amarillo, Laredo, Wichita Falls and Snyder.

All teams will arrive Friday afternoon and night with exception of Abilene and Odessa who will drive to Snyder Saturday morning. The visiting clubs will be quartered at the Boys Club and the National Guard Armory.

About 200 boys are due to participate in the one-day meet.

Bill Zimmerman, immediate past president of the Boys Club board of directors, is the meet director.

The meet is sponsored by the Texas Area Council of Boys Clubs of America. The Council is composed of all certified Boys Clubs within the state of Texas. Joe Day, Jr., of Fort Worth is president of the Council. Executive secretary is Ben A. Singleton of San Antonio.

The Texas Area Council also sponsors state tournaments in baseball, basketball, declamation, games room tournament, trampoline and gymnastics. The games room tournament includes chess, checkers, table tennis and pool.

To be eligible to participate each boys must be a member of a certified Boys Club and must not have placed in a senior high school track meet.

There will be four age divisions in the state meet. Midget (10 years and under), Juniors (11-12 years), Intermediate (13-14 years), and Senior (15-16-17 years).

Trophies will be presented to the team champion, runnerup and third place teams. Individual medals will be presented to first place winners and ribbons to second, third and fourth place winners. Trophies will also be presented to the Champion Relay team in each division.

The local Boys Club will have entries in all four divisions of the state track meet. Guy Sullivan is the coach for the Snyder Midgets and Juniors while Bill McLaughlin coaches the Intermediates and Seniors.

The Midget and Junior teams are working out each morning at 9:30 at the high school track while the Intermediates and Seniors are holding workouts at 1 p.m.

Activities will get underway at 8:30 a.m. Saturday with preliminaries. Finals will begin at 2 p.m.

Braves Regaining Stride; Up Lead

By ED WILKS

It seems like ages ago, but remember when the word was that Milwaukee's Braves were choke-up guys? Whether that was a bum rap or not, they're a cool crew of two-time champions, now, chopping down anyone who threatens their shot at a third straight National League pennant.

It was mid-May when the Braves zeroed in, running off six in a row for a 4½-game bulge. Then they slowed to a walk, winning a couple, losing a couple. That's when San Francisco started to close in.

Just last Monday the Giants steamed into Milwaukee with a 7-2 record and walloped the Braves 11-2, whittling their edge to 1½ games.

That did it. With Ed Mathews hammering a home run, and Bob Rush pitching a five-hit shutout, the Braves beat the Giants 3-0 in the second game of the series. And Wednesday night they made it two straight, battling from behind for a 7-4 victory on a pair of two-run homers by Mathews and a solo shot by Hank Aaron that clubbed the second place Giants 3½ games behind again.

Mathews, who had hit only two home runs in 17 games, now has upped his total to 19 with three in two nights. And Aaron, who was hitless in three consecutive games, now has gone 5-for-7 in the last two, fattening his startling average to .426.

While the Braves were spanking the Giants, third place Pittsburgh remained with 4½ games of the lead by beating St. Louis 5-3. Los Angeles defeated Cincinnati 5-1 on Stan Williams' two-hitter, and Philadelphia beat the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

In the American League, Washington handed Cleveland a fifth straight loss, 4-0. That trimmed the Indians' lead to .003 percentage points over the Chicago White Sox, who reclaimed second from Baltimore by beating the Orioles 6-1. Fourth place Kansas City, just 1½ games behind, whipped Boston 5-3. The New York Yankees finally stopped Detroit, 6-5.

Mathews parked a 450-foot drive in the right-field bleachers with a man on to tie the score 3-all in the sixth. Aaron then doubled and scored on Wes Covington's single for a three-run inning that handed Jack Sanford (6-6) his fourth defeat in his last five decisions.

Ector Wins Opener, 3-0

AUSTIN (AP)—Odessa's Ector Eagles waited today to see who their opponents will be in the AAA state schoolboy baseball tournament finals.

The Eagles shut out Nederland 3-0 yesterday behind the pitching and batting of Mike Kropp.

South San Antonio and Nacogdoches met today. The winner plays Ector.

The AAAA schedule put Odessa against Beaumont and Austin Stephen F. Austin against Fort Worth Paschal.

Rain postponed other games yesterday.

Nederland's Mike Johnson lost his first game in 10 as he and Kropp dueled.

Kropp broke the scoreless game in the sixth, driving home two runs on a towering triple.

Kropp scored Larry Weaver and Gayle Courtney, and came home with the third run when catcher George De Vries dropped the ball.

Brown TKO's Rosi In 9th To Keep Title

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lightweight king Joe Brown, truly a fighting champion, said today "I'm ready to go again on Monday if someone brings along a little money."

The 33-year-old fighter from New Orleans and Houston stopped cut-prone Paolo Rosi for a ninth-round technical knockout in their 15-round title fight at Uline Arena Wednesday night. Rosi suffered a deep, wide gash over the left eye.

Old bones and the bald challenger were even in the scoring at the time but it didn't matter much when the blood started to flow.

It was the seventh defense for the busy Brown since he won the 135-pound crown from Bud Smith on Aug. 24, 1956. Now the champ wants to go again.

"I don't have anything lined up," said Brown, "but if Rosi wants another shot and it can make some money, that's okay with me. There's Kenny Lane and Carlos Ortiz (the No. 1 and 2 contenders) and I'm ready for them."

Brown edged Lane in his fifth defense on July 23, 1958.

A straight right—Rosi moaned it was a butt—split open an inch and a half long, one-quarter inch wide cut over Paolo's left eye in the eighth round. Blood streamed from the gaping wound and it was no surprise when Referee Charley Reynolds, at the direction of the two ringside physicians, stopped the fight during the intermission between the eighth and ninth rounds.

Under District of Columbia rules it went into the record books as a ninth round TKO.

"He hit me with his head," Rosi said bitterly. "No punch, just his head. He's a champ? Say — a champ don't have to run away. I chase him all night—he hold. In the last round he butt and hold out his hand, say 'I'm sorry.' I fight him again and I beat him, you see."

"That little bald head can butt pretty hard," said Brown in rebuttal. "Feel them lumps on my forehead (he had them, too). I don't blame him for yelling 'butt' as an alibi but everyone in the place saw that right cut him open."

Cleveland Falls Again But Retains Slim Hold On Lead

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

They're still holding on by a scalplock, but Cleveland's tribe is fast becoming a bunch of vanishing Injuns in that American League race.

Washington's Senators handed Cleveland a fifth consecutive defeat, 4-0, Wednesday night on home runs by bombin' Harmon Killebrew and "rampaging" Ron Samford that backed up Bill Fischer's three-hit pitching. All the once powerful Indians managed off the well-traveled right-hander was three widely separated singles as their lead dwindled to mere percentage points.

The Chicago White Sox moved into a virtual tie for the top, .003 behind, by reclaiming second place from Baltimore with a 6-1 victory over the Orioles in an afternoon game.

Fact is, the whole league has closed in on the Indians, who have lost seven of their last eight games. Baltimore is just a half-game behind. Fourth place Kansas City is only 1½ games back, after a 5-3 victory over the last place Boston Red Sox, who are just six games out of first. And fifth place Detroit is within 3½ games of the lead, even after losing 6-5 to the New York Yankees. The champs still are seventh, but only 4½ games shy of first.

In the National League, Milwaukee regained a 3½-game edge over San Francisco by beating the Giants 7-4. Pittsburgh defeated St. Louis 5-3. Los Angeles rapped Cincinnati 5-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Stan Williams. Philadelphia beat the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

Fischer, 28, who also has worked for the White Sox and Tigers, breezed to a 5-1 record and his first victory ever against the Indians after Killebrew hammered his 19th home run in the fourth inning and Samford made it 2-0 in the fifth.

The only hits off Fischer, who struck out four and didn't walk a man, were by Minnie Minoso in the second, Vic power in the sixth and Billy Martin in the ninth.

Herb Score (5-3) was the loser, giving up six hits in his six innings.

Southpaw Billy Pierce, after losing three straight, gained a 6-5 record with an eight-hitter as the White Sox ended their losing streak at three with their third victory in 11 games. Gene Woodling's eighth-inning homer junked Pierce's shutout bid. By then, the White Sox had a 5-0 lead, after being blanked on one-hit for four innings by Billy O'Dell (2-5).

Ex-Yankee Johnny Kucks (1-2) had a one-hit shutout for five innings for the A's, then gave up two walks and Ted Williams' scoring single in the sixth and finally needed Ray Herbert's relief. Bill Monbouquette (1-1) was the loser.

The Yankees, who had lost seven in a row to the Tigers, five this season, chased troublesome Frank Lary with five runs in the third, then had to wait until the ninth to clinch it on Mickey Mantle's tie-breaking home run off Ray Narleski (1-6). Home runs by John Blanchard, his first in the majors, and Yogi Berra, a two-run smack, chased Lary. Charlie Maxwell's two-run homer helped the Tigers battle back to a tie before Ryne Duren finally wrapped up his first victory in three relief decisions for the Yankees.

OUR VIEW

No Freedom Without God

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE

Take God out of the American concept of freedom and there is no freedom left for the individual. The American government was founded by men who believed that God endowed human beings with individual dignity and unalienable rights. They built into the structure of our government guarantees that no man or group of men could take away these rights.

These rights are being taken away.

Widespread opposition has arisen across the country to the trend of United States Supreme Court decisions, such as the recent one declaring that a health inspector may enter a home without a search warrant. These deprivations of freedom are obvious, so that the American people are aware of what is happening.

There is another danger, a subtler one, which has alarmed many thinking citizens. It is the move in numerous parts of the country—indicating it is a general and organized plan—to remove all reference to God from the public schools. There even have been protest against the singing of Christmas carols in public schools.

An American Legion official in Houston sees great danger in the movement. William H. Dalton adjutant of the Eighth District American Legion, dwelled on this subject in his speech last week at the Legion award ceremonies at Frank M. Black Junior High School.

Telling the students and their parents that good citizens should always keep God before them, Dalton said, "There are those irreligious people who would like to see religion removed from all public schools. They would go so far as to remove Christ from our Christmas, if you can imagine that, and make it a pagan festival. . . I am mentioning this to you so that you will recognize this movement when you see it so that you may protest this removal of God from our lives and the substitution of man-made law and Godless atheism."

Dalton and others who are alrmed over the trend aren't contending that any particular type of religion should be taught or discussed in public schools. They are talking about the basic concept of God which is accepted by Christians, Jews and many other religions.

This nation would be letting the cornerstone of the American system be torn away if it allows a denial of God to become prevalent in our schools, because then it would become general throughout our society.

All Have Interest In Interest Rates

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—All borrowers—and most Americans seem to be these days—have a stake in the U.S. Treasury's desire to raise the interest it will pay on long-term bonds. All savers have, too.

For the Treasury competes with private borrowers, and state and local agencies, for funds available for lending. And if it offers to pay more for the loan, others likely will have to, also. All interest rates will tend to rise. This would be true for bank loans, mortgages, instalment loans.

The move might lead to higher interest paid by banks and others to savers, to hold them as customers. And payroll savings bonds buyers might get more, too.

Interest rates are rising anyway because the demand for funds is increasing faster than savings — the source of new investment money.

Stock traders are watching the Treasury move, too.

If the yield on government bonds rises further, some now yield more than 4 per cent, and the yield on corporate bonds goes higher, many now yield better than 5 per cent, it will make the return on stocks at present prices look even more skimpy.

A switch from stocks to bonds might develop — particularly if the Treasury has its way and by tightening the money supply dampens some of the inflationary psychology.

Under a 1918 law the Treasury cannot pay more than 4¼ per cent on bonds of more than five-year maturity.

Despite the greater security of U.S. bonds, the Treasury says it can't sell long term bonds in the present market at less than 4½ per cent because investors can get more than that on private forms of long term debt and ig more the greater risks.

Yields on state and local issues — the tax exempts — have risen to a point where they also compete with federal securities.

So the Treasury would like authority to put out long term bonds at a rate high enough to attract investment institutions — insurance companies, savings banks, pension and trust funds.

It also would like to sweeteh the returns on U.S. savings bonds to lure individual savers back into the fold. There are now 50.8 billion dollars of these outstanding. But this is down 1.4 billion dollars in a year—largely because they pay only 3¼ per cent.

If the Treasury could sell more long-term bonds to investors and more U.S. savings bonds to individuals, it would tend to dampen the fires of inflation, since such money wouldn't be breeding new credit, as short-term Treasury bills, do. The latter tend to end up as deposits in banks, available for lending.

But if the Treasury is allowed to pay higher interest—and if it gets the higher debt ceiling it also wants—the cost of servicing the national debt would rise. It's already over eight billion dollars a year.

If Congress takes up the interest question, it will likely open up afresh the long and bitter battle between the advocates of tight money and dear money as a brake on inflation and the advocates of easy credit and cheap money as a way to expand the economy.

Everyone has a stake in the outcome.

Poverty Okay If You Can Afford It

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hal Boyle, the rightful landlord of this space in your newspaper, likes to turn Poor Man's Philosopher and make with homespun observations.

Now that Boyle — unlike most poor men of our acquaintance— is gallivanting about Europe, let's switch the pitch and play Rich Man's Philosopher.

Poverty is no handicap if you have money enough to afford it.

Money can't buy everything, but it can buy a lot more things than no money.

The tolling of a cathedral bell may be more melodious than the jingling of a cash register—but where did the money come from to pay for the bell?

Julius Caesar was great, and Napoleon has his admirers, but why don't they put up a statue to the man who invented credit?

Neither a borrower nor a lender be. Just have rich parents and disconnect your doorbell and telephone.

When you are poor you have to borrow a buck from time to time. When you are rich you can't afford to borrow less than a million.

Never forget that the rich man and the poor man have the same right to sleep on a park bench.

The love of money may be the root of all evil, but the lack of it is more likely to turn a man into a pickpocket.

If all the money in the world were divided equally among all the people of the world, women would still insist on having charge accounts.

Any man who wouldn't rather be thin than wealthy deserves to be fat and poor.

Start worrying about money when you miss your first meal.

Invalid Hit By Empty Car

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A woman, crippled by arthritis and unable to move from her chair, sat helplessly and watched Wednesday as a driverless car smashed through a wall and window into her.

Attendants at Portland Sanitarium said Mrs. Glen Darnall, 58, suffered fractures of both legs. She was sitting, as was her daily custom, in a chair watching the traffic go by.

A car rounded a corner nearby and the driver and passenger suddenly fell from an open door. The car plunged through a hedge, traveled up the lawn and smashed headon into the house.

Police said Earl Wagoner, 24, said he had been driving the car when the door opened and he fell. Passenger Gene Cannon, 29, told officers he reached for Wagoner and fell out, too.

The driver was not cited.

U. S. Must Listen With Both Ears

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has to listen with both ears. Nikita Khrushchev, the bouncy Soviet premier, is forcing this country to have two conversations with him at the same time and on the same subject.

The United States is negotiating with Moscow at Geneva, but at the same time must pay attention to every word Khrushchev says, miles away for a clue to what may happen in the talks.

At Geneva when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko says something, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter says something back. And when Khrushchev somewhere else says something, the State Department says something back to him.

This has been going on for weeks. Since Gromyko says only what his boss tells him, it isn't what Gromyko says, but what Khrushchev says, that counts.

Khrushchev made that clear months ago when he said foreign ministers can settle nothing and only the "heavyweights" — like himself and President Eisenhower at a summit conference — can come up with answers.

Eisenhower has acknowledged the truth of this and did it again Wednesday when he told a news conference:

"It would be unrealistic to believe that the foreign ministers could make a number of agreements that would be significant to the world. This is because these foreign ministers are, after all, acting for someone else."

The foreign ministers' meeting at Geneva started almost a month ago and has arrived nowhere. The Khrushchev - State Department back-and-forth has gotten nowhere, either. The Geneva conversation is polite. The other one isn't—at least not very.

On May 22, while the foreign ministers were talking solemnly in Geneva and agreeing on nothing, Khrushchev in Moscow warned he would sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany if there's no meeting of minds at Geneva.

The State Department mulled this over three days and on May 25 let go at Khrushchev with a statement which, if put in plain language, would have said: "Why don't you keep your big mouth shut?"

What the department actually did was to tell Khrushchev he should stop making threats if he wanted the Geneva meeting to succeed.

On May 26 Khrushchev, never a man easily persuaded, came right back with a warning that if the United States helped to set up missile bases in Greece and Turkey, he'd set up missile bases in their next-door neighbor, Albania.

It took the State Department another three days to digest this and on May 29 it fired a second shot at Khrushchev. This time it accused him of aggravating East-West tensions by threatening Greece and Turkey.

Biography Of Hogg Ready

AUSTIN (AP) —A biography of former governor James Stephen Hogg will be published here Monday.

It is the product of years of research into the life and policies of Hogg — who based his political philosophy on concern for the welfare of the people—by Robert C. Cotner of the University of Texas history faculty.

In 1951 Cotner edited a ... of Hogg's papers and addresses, published by the University of Texas Press. The press also is bringing out Cotner's biography of Hogg.

Gov. and Mrs. Price Daniel; University of Texas regents and administration and the University Press will honor Cotner and Miss Ima Hogg at a reception Monday at the Governor's Mansion.

Miss Hogg, daughter of the former governor, was one of four children. They sought to carry on their father's concern for public welfare through establishment of the Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene, an agency administered by the University of Texas.

STORM'S AFTERMATH—The Y-Z Engine Service building on the east side of the Lubbock highway in north Snyder is pictured above as it looked yesterday morning following a destructive windstorm here early Wednesday morning. The rear portion of the building was demolished by the high winds. Nearby, a 300-foot two-way radio antenna was toppled at the E. L. Farmer Trucking Co. yards. Two large oil storage tanks were rolled several hundred yards in the same area, where damage from the storm was heaviest in this area.

GARAGE BLOWN DOWN—Lee's Auto Service garage at Avenue E and the East Highway was demolished by winds early Wednesday morning. The building appeared to have collapsed on its foundation. Further east, a new Great Lakes house trailer was turned upside down at Moore's Trailer Sales near the east city limits on the East Highway. Damage was heavy to roofs, windows, TV antennas and trees all over Snyder. (Lee Watson photograph)

Germans Sensed Defeat As Invasion Forces Landed

Editor's note — When the Allies swarmed ashore on the French coast, a young German artillery officer was busy training green replacements for the defense of Hitler's Atlantic Wall. In this third of four eyewitness articles commemorating D-Day, Horst Fluegge — now on The Associated Press staff in Germany — recalls the momentous events from a German viewpoint.

By HORST FLUEGGE

BONN, Germany (AP)—We had waited for the phone call for a long time. It came around 8 o'clock on June 6. A sergeant picked up the receiver. He listened for a while, then turned to us and said, "They have landed."

That was D-Day, 15 years ago.

I was a lieutenant stationed with a German army mobile artillery unit at Avranches, 60 miles from the main Allied beachhead at Cherbourg on the Normandy coast of France.

I didn't see what happened at Cherbourg that morning, for we were marshaling the curious mixture of youthful veterans of the Russian front and the kids and old men hastily recruited for the defense of the Atlantic Wall.

We marched for two days until we reached the Orne River near Caen and there we ran into the powerful barrages of the Allied naval vessels that lay offshore.

We were an exhausted, defeated bunch, the men of Artillery Unit 1154. We knew we had lost the war, but there was nothing to do but fight it out. To us it did not appear honorable to surrender.

I remember standing among the batteries of inferior Italian long-range guns and Russian material confiscated on the Eastern front and listening to our staff chief.

"Maybe they'll smash our artillery in a hurry and we'll get new stuff," he observed ironically.

Another artillery officer, a man with whom I had made the long retreat from the heart of Russia, had this cynical observation: "We might as well start the counter-attack. Then we can retreat faster."

It's difficult to remember what I thought and felt then. I was tired, worn out from four years in Russia and from trying to train our inexperienced replacements. Normandy was a long way from Berlin where I had been studying philosophy at the university when the war began.

From the middle of May I had been adjutant to the commander of Artillery Unit 1154 in Avranches. I was moved there with our other officers from the Eastern front.

Our men were mostly youngsters and old men who had held staff jobs in Berlin. They were inexperienced and unable to cope with the superior weapons and manpower of the enemy.

We were not at all surprised that the Allies struck at Cherbourg. The coastal area of Normandy was the most vulnerable region in the Atlantic Wall whose defenses had been planned by Field Marshals Rommel and Von Rundstedt.

Our main forces lay 60 miles from the coast and we had to rush men to the beaches to combat the Americans, British and Canadians who stormed ashore.

From the first it was clear that the Allies had air superiority more than the Russians had managed in the East. And the naval artillery on the Allied ships had greater range than our big guns. They could hit us while our shells fell far short.

Never during the war, including the dismal days in Russia, did I find the morale of our troops as low as it was in the first days of the Allied invasion.

I remember talking to our staff chief in those first invasion days and hearing him say with a defeatist grin: "Let's take a Messerschmitt and go off to Spain."

On July 20, 1944, the plot to assassinate Hitler took place and failed. Word got around fast and we felt then that the war would last until we were driven back into Germany.

I remember the signs at the railway stations in the early days of the war. "The wheels must roll for victory," the signs said.

After July 20, there was a new twist to that: "Heads roll for victory—of the other side."

Near us was one of Hitler's crack SS divisions, the Leibstandarte. The morale in that division was much higher than the morale in the regular army divisions.

But in talks with officers of the division I was surprised to find so few dedicated Nazis.

We fought hard, though it is difficult now to explain why. We fell back slowly before the advancing American and British tanks.

On Aug. 11 we underwent a particularly severe attack. Most of the men of Unit 1154 were killed or taken prisoner. I was hit in the side by a tank machinegunner and removed to a hospital in Holland.

When the Allies moved into Holland I was shipped back to Germany and eventually found myself in command of a newly organized artillery unit on the Eastern front. I was in Czechoslovakia when the war ended in May, 1945.

Soviet Educator Says Goals Similar

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The United States educational system is based on goals similar to those in the Soviet Union, a Soviet educator says.

"The American system does seem to us to be much more unified than it did at a distance," Soviet teacher Aleksei I. Markushevich writes in the current issue of the Texas School Board Journal.

"In its great scope and in its effect in raising the educational level of all the people, it shows itself to be based on goals akin to ours; for we, too, wish to make education available to everyone."

Markushevich recently visited American schools including some in Texas. He wrote the article before returning to Moscow.

He said the Americans showed the visiting teachers only the best—"the developments of which they're most proud."

Ability groupings—"Segregation of children by ability is one of the distinctive features of the American schools. Of course, we noted many interesting variations of it—in Chicago and San Angelo, for instance—but in one form or another it seems to prevail generally. In the Soviet Union, where we do not consider ability groupings significant, we mix the children in school just as they must mix with each other in life."

IQ tests—"You in America make much use of psychological tests—intelligence tests, aptitude tests and achievement tests. We, however, don't use such tests at all; we tried them for 20 years and came to the conclusion that they do not measure adequately."

Mathematics—"I must say that in the classes I observed the teachers presented their subjects with skill and knowledge and the students were enthusiastic. But when I compared the tempo of instruction here with the tempo in the Soviet Union, it seemed as if I was watching a slow motion movie."

Science and math curriculums—"In the USSR we require all our students to take both science and mathematics for several years, whereas you permit them to choose how many if any."

Peace—"Teachers here, like teachers in the Soviet Union, are bringing up children in the spirit of peace. And the American people, too, are working for peace."

Literature—"From what we observed, we are inclined to think United States education in world literature casual and incomplete.

"I'm not talking about Russian literature—I'm talking about Stendhal, Flaubert, Anatole France, Balzac. And the American students I talked to seemed less interested in and knew less about foreign literature than Soviet children of the same age.

History—"I noted that American children are well-grounded in the history of their own country."

Junior Editors Quiz on NAILS

QUESTION: Why do we measure the size of nails in "pennies"?

* * *

ANSWER: When you go into a hardware store nowadays to buy some nails, the storekeeper will sell them to you by the pound. But it was not always that way.

In the olden days people bought nails by number according to size. For instance, a nail one inch long cost two pennies per hundred; a nail 1 1/4 inches long cost three pennies per hundred; and so on up the scale.

Gradually, nail sizes came to be known by their prices and, even after methods of pricing changed, a nail an inch long still was referred to as a two-penny nail.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Many different types of nails are used for different purposes. Go to your library and see if you can find out the purposes for which these nails are used: finishing nail, brad, tack, dog spike.
