Battle Of The Census Still Raging As Enumeration Of Persons Begins Today; Cooperation Asked By Officers

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Official opening of the 1940 census failed today to end the battle of Senator Tobey (R-NH) against alleged invasion of personal privacy.

Tobey introduced in the Senate a bill to repeal the possible 60-day jail penalty for persons refusing to answer the questions. He had objected that inquiries about wage and salary income up to $5,000 per person were improper, and that the answers might be misused for political purposes.

Meanwhile, Census Director William L. Austin, who said he could not recall in a lifetime of work for the agency that anyone ever had been jailed for refusing to talk to enumerators, issued a statement saying that Francis P. Murphy, Republican governor of Tobey's state, had urged public cooperation with the census.

The census began technically at 12:01 this morning. Although the enumerators won't ring doorbells until tomorrow, they will base their count exclusively on who was alive at the official zero hour. Thus, babies born today won't count, while adults who died today still will be listed.

More than 120,000 canvassers were ready throughout the United States and its possessions to start the actual door-to-door work tomorrow morning. Every name they get will get them four cents in pay.

Censuses of housing and agriculture also will be taken, so the range of questions goes all the way from the age of a citizen to his acreage in peanuts.

If Your Door Bell Rings, Answer It!

By R. C. HANKINS
Avalanche Staff Writer

IF THE doorbell rings, go answer it.

If you're taking a siesta, wrap something around you and allow yourself to be interrupted.

It may not be a pesky salesman.

More than likely it will be one of Uncle Sam's enumerators wanting to know who you are, how many rooms you have, whether you have an electric refrigerator or an electric fan, etc. etc.

Hundred Per Day

In other words, the census will get underway today.

In addition to the population census, there will be official forms for housing and agriculture.

Jack Woodward, assistant district supervisor, said it had been estimated that the enumerators would be able to "get approximately 100 names a day in the census, which is expected to be completed in about three weeks."

There will be approximately 45 questions for the housewife to answer. It is mandatory that they be answered.

To Be Of Import

From the facts developed by the census great tabulations will be published. These will have a great bearing on American living conditions and will provide a basis for social legislation of the next decade.

The government has been quick to point out it is not attempting to "nose into private lives." Questions on the census forms have been requested by great groups of civic or educational or church or business groups.

"It costs $100,000 to the census to add a question, it had been figured," said Woodward. "The government has declined scores of times to list a question, in proportion to the number of questions that have been accepted."

Tell The Wife "All"

If you are a husband, you should tell you wife "all"—if she is to be able to answer enumerators' questions for the entire family. Particularly, he should tell her how much money he earned last year and how much of the time he was unemployed. Also, he should tell her exactly how much education he obtained, in terms of high school or college work.

So—

Better stay home and answer the doorbell.

Every head must be counted.

If you are not home one time, the enumerator will be back until you are.

If you are in some other community, you must go through the formality of giving the information

Economy Suffers As Funds Sought

By MAX BOYD
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 1.—April Fool's day produced increasing indications that Congress was only fooling when it showed signs earlier this year of hitting the economy trail to avoid additional taxes or an increase in the public debt limit.

Almost the last vestige of the reductions voted by the House or Senate previously in President Roosevelt's budget estimates was offset when Senate appropriations subcommittee added $44,150,000 to a House-approved appropriation for civil functions of the war department. Of this increase $30,000,000 was for general flood control work and $14,150,000 to start construction of a third set of giant locks at the Panama canal.

Possibly heralding further setbacks to come for the economy forces, appeals for increased relief funds were heard on the House side of the Capitol.

Cochran (D-Mo), WPA had cut its for April by lop- sons employed in a supplemental re- n of $38,000,000 for l year. He said Col. n, the WPA commis- advised him that this ...uld be needed, in addi- tion to the $1,477,000,000 already voted the work relief administration for the current year, if the rolls were to be kept at the present level until the year-end—June 30.

To stay within appropriations, WPA has been cutting its rolls. The aim has been to bring the rolls down to about 1,500,000 by June 30—a cut of roughly 700,000 as compared with the total of project workers on March 20. Harrington has set the April quota of jobs at 2,120,000, and he said today that he had made no final decisions on exact figures for May and June.)

From Representative Voorhis (D-Calif) came a proposal that a supplemental relief appropriation of $68,800,000 be provided. This, he said, would keep 2,300,000 on the rolls from now until June 30.

Up jumped Rep. Rich (R-Pa) to shout that, if Congress would show as much concern about getting people jobs "as we do to get them on the dole," the country would be better off.

Harrington is scheduled to testify before a House appropriations subcommittee tomorrow regarding the relief fund to be provided for the next fiscal year.

FDR's Trip Deferred Because Of Illness

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP)—The White House revealed today that the illness which has bothered President Roosevelt for three weeks is intestinal influenza and said that he would defer a trip to Warm Springs, Ga., at least until April 18.

Aides previously had said that Mr. Roosevelt had a cold, and the president himself had described his illness facetiously as "swamp fever."

Stephen Early a presidential secretary, said the chief executive's temperature had been normal several days but that the "flu" still was slightly in evidence in an occasional gaseous condition in the stomach area.

He said Mr. Roosevelt would go to his home at Hyde Park, N. Y. next week end.

Wisconsin Will Vote On Garner And FDR Today

(By The Associated Press)

MILWAUKEE, April 1.—Wisconsin voters, who like their politics well scrambled, will get another serving tomorrow in the spring election to choose delegates—24 Democrats and Republicans each—to the national party conventions.

The Badger state's vote will provide the first test of sentiment for or against a third term for President Roosevelt, and turn the spotlight on the relative strength of Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Thomas E. Dewey of New York as Republican presidential hopefuls.

Face Third Term Issue

The third term issue confronts the voters in a direct presidential preference vote on the Democratic side between Roosevelt and Vice President John Nance Garner.

Two slates of candidates are pledged to the president, one sponsored by National Committeeman C. E. Broughton—who is not a delegate candidate—and the other by a liberal group known as the "Democratic party organization of Wisconsin."

Each slate has entered four names for the four places at stake as delegates-at-large. Four names also have been entered as pledged to Garner. The thirteenth Democratic candidate is a Milwaukee woman running uninstructed.

Margin They Need

Garner's backers hope the split in the vote for Roosevelt delegates will give them just the margin they need. The vice president's boosters predicted flatly today that Garner would capture all the state's 20 district delegates and the four at-large.

There will be no direct presidential preference vote between Vandenberg and Dewey, because no personal nomination papers were filed, but the test will come in the struggle for delegate seats. Each faction has entered four names for the four at-large places to be filled.

Finder Of Wallet In Favor Of April Fools

SLEEPY EYE, Minn., April 1. (AP)—Nis Ruenitz found a pocketbook today and it didn't have a string on it.

In the spring of 1936 he lost a pocketbook with $6.28 in it.

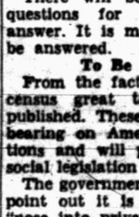

Putting a new floor in his chicken coop, he had to remove some wall board from one side of the building, and there in the insulation between the inner and outer walls was the long lost purse, still intact.

If this is April's Fool day, said Nis, let's have more of 'em.

Gamblers Urged To Plead Guilty, Clear Consciences

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, April 1—A bunch of last summer's crap shooters were asked legally today to come in and surrender and pay fines of $13.75 to a justice of the peace.

The request was made in a petition filed by Percy Foreman, an attorney representing E. Allison, who said $1075 was taken from him in the crap game last August at a barbecue, where some 2,000 persons rolled the bones.

The petition proposed that the fines, which he said would total $27,500 if everybody came in and cleared their conscience by pleading guilty, be used to build a community house in rural precinct where the alleged crap game took place.

Justice of the Peace C. E. Lloyd of Hockley has impounded the money Allison claims was taken from him at the scene of the dice game. Foreman, who has been assigned Allison's claim, is suing the justice of the peace for release of the money.

Bits of poetry, jibes at law enforcement and other humorous suggestions were contained in the petition, which was a disclaimer by Allison of any interest in the suit.

Many city and county political leaders and officers attended the barbecue.

Demands Made For Probe Into Nazi Charges

Both Houses Hear Requests; Series Of Denials Heard

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 1 — Demands were made in both House and Senate today for congressional inquiries into unneutral statements attributed to American diplomats by the German government's white book.

Rep. Fish of New York, ranking Republican on the House foreign affairs committee, proposed an investigation by a special five-man committee with a view to "impeachment of any American ambassador or minister or even of the president" if facts warranting such action were developed.

Resolution Offered

Senator Reynolds (D-NC) urged an inquiry by the Senate foreign relations committee, asserting that war machinations imputed to Ambassadors William C. Bullitt and Joseph P. Kennedy imposed "a very definite duty on the senate" to determine the truth.

The North Carolinian also offered a resolution which would have this government "disclaim any desire to interfere" in controversies between other nations.

Denials Are Issued

The white book, published by the German foreign office Friday, included what was alleged to be correspondence found in the Polish foreign office in Warsaw. Papers said to be reports from Polish ambassadors, ascribed pro-Allies statements to Bullitt, ambassador to Paris, and Kennedy, ambassador to London.

A series of denials followed publication of the papers. Both Bullitt and Count Jerzy Potocki, the Polish ambassador to the United States, denied specifically a conversation attributed to them, and Secretary Hull said "no credence" was placed in the papers.

No Notice Given

At a press conference, Secretary Hull said no diplomatic observation had been made by Germany to this government in connection with the papers. He indicated that the document was published without any notice or comment to the American embassy in Berlin.

When Reynolds brought up the white book in the Senate, Senator Byrnes (D-SC) read a passage from Hitler's "Mein Kampf" into the record. Discussing the 1914 "war guilt," Hitler wrote, Byrnes said, that it was a grave mistake to permit this to be laid to Germany—that the guilt for the war "ought to be laid on the enemies even if that does not correspond with the true facts."

Similar Statement

Another development was release of an open letter from Amos Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, to President Roosevelt asserting that it "matters little" whether the papers bearing on statements attributed to Bullitt are authentic.

With particular reference to the allegation that Bullit told the Polish ambassador early in 1939 that the United States would enter

Draft-Roosevelt Meet Is Set For Tonight

AUSTIN, April 1. (AP)—The second of a planned series of draft-Roosevelt rallies by third-term movement leaders in Texas will be held in Corpus Christi tomorrow night, Chairman Tom Miller, mayor of Austin, announced today.

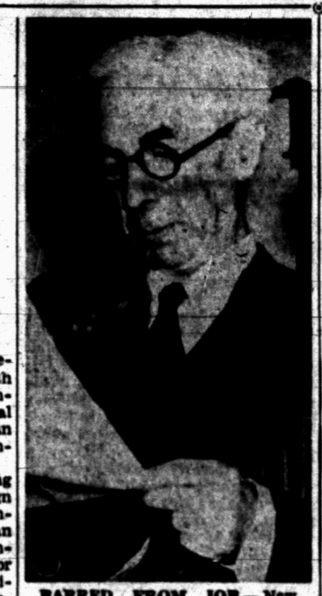

Miller said former Governor James E. Ferguson, Mayor Maury Maverick of San Antonio, former Secretary of State Ed Clark and John T. Scott, jr., of Houston would participate.

Following the opening meeting in Fort Worth last week of an effort to win pro-Roosevelt control of precinct convention the movement thus will be carried into the home town of Roy Miller, a leading supporter of Vice President Garner, and Mrs. Clara Driscoll, national committee-Garner state campaign.

Kansas City Election Will Be Held Today

KANSAS CITY, April 1. (AP)—The battle for control of Kansas City's government, long dominated by Boss Tom Pendergast before his imprisonment, shifts to the polls tomorrow.

Leaders of both the cleanup movement, which demands an end to machine rule, and the Democratic organization, on which Pendergast rode to power, predicted victory. Both groups expect a heavy turn out of the 200,000 voters.

O'Daniel To Air Plans In Talk Tomorrow Night

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, April 1.—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel worked hard today trying to whittle down the speech Wednesday night in which he has said he will answer the question whether he will run again.

"The talk will total about 10,000 words," he replied to a query. "I've been trying to whittle it down to that amount, but it isn't easy to do because I have so much to say."

There will be no other speaker on the program, to be delivered over a statewide radio hookup, he asserted.

Retirement Possibility

While speculation over the governor's intentions included the possibility he might retire, the concensus in the capitol was that he intended to ask a second term. The comment was heard that if he did not intend again to be a candidate it would not require 10,000 words to say so.

In the first of a new series of 15-minute broadcasts at 7:15 a. m. the governor reiterated recent criticisms of some newspapers and radio stations, declaring the former were "propagandized" and the latter were attempting to "censor" and "muzzle" him.

Others Are Active

Purpose of these broadcasts and others at night over a Mexican radio station is to advertise a weekly newspaper he is starting. He said the broadcasts would be continued "two or three weeks."

Meanwhile, two announced gubernatorial candidates were active, Harry Hines broadcasting from San Antonio and Albert Derden scheduled to deliver a speech at Harlingen, both tonight.

Mercury Climbs To 92.7 Degrees Monday

If the thermometer in your home or office registered a somewhat fantastic figure Monday that was no April fool joke.

Although not a record for April, the 92.7 degrees to which the mercury rose was high for early days of the month. Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state experiment station, said a reading of 100 degrees was registered in April, 1925.

Last year the mercury soared to 4 degrees during the month.

Sunday's 92 was highest March temperature recorded in 27 years figures have been kept at the experiment station.

Independent Business Hurt By Chain Stores

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP) — A House ways and means subcommittee was told today that the nation's independent business men were being "slowly put out of business" by large interstate chain store companies.

George Schulte, publisher of the Independent Merchant, St. Louis, made the statement during hearings on a bill by Representative Patman (D-Tex) to impose taxes on chain stores ranging from $25 to $500 for each unit.

Eight To Sixteen Thousand Homeless In Pennsylvania

(By The Associated Press)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 1 — Steadily mounting tonight toward an unpredictable crest, the rain-gorged Susquehanna drove thousands of Pennsylvanians from riverbank towns along a 100-mile stretch downstream from Wilkes-Barre.

Refugees bundled up their belongings and hurried to emergency aid stations on higher ground as the tawny waters of the river's north branch lapped their banks at 31 feet here and pierced a temporary dike across the stream at South Kingston.

Crest Due Soon

The torrent was expected to go to 33 feet—11 feet above flood stage—before morning.

Throughout Pennsylvania's anthracite region lowland schools were closed, hundreds of homes and business buildings emptied, highways blocked and streets and cellars inundated.

Loss of life was placed at six, and estimates of the temporarily homeless ranged from 8,000 to 16,000.

Tanks Explode

Weakened by flood waters, three huge gasoline tanks exploded at the Edwardsville storage depot of the American Gas and Oil company. The blasts showered flaming gasoline over a quarter-mile area, destroyed several small farm buildings and roadside stands and smeared the deluged area with floating fire. Alarm subsided as the blaze burned itself out in clouds of black smoke.

Governor Arthur H. James motored here from the Capitol to inspect rescue activities. His home at nearby Plymouth stood in four feet of water.

Rise Continues

Coast guardsmen in boats shipped here by rail toiled to evacuate families from endangered homes. The WPA authorized expenditure of $100,000 for emergency aid, and more than 1,500 project workers built dikes, reinforced levees with sandbags and constructed temporary roads and bridges.

Life Sentence In Case Sought

(By The Associated Press)

TULIA, April 1—District Attorney Herbert C. Martin of Littlefield said tonight he would ask a life sentence for W. T. Simmons, butcher and dairyman, who pleaded guilty to the murder of L. B. Hand, Swisher county farmer.

Simmons' trial opened today and the state introduced a note which the prosecutor said Simmons wrote in jail and asked a former prisoner to mail "in some distant city." The note was a purported admission by another man that he murdered Hand and his 76 year old sister, Mrs. Lula Widegren.

The brother and sister were killed and their bodies burned at their home on January 17 after Hand had sold Simmons a calf.

The state rested late today and defense testimony will begin tomorrow.

IN THE MAIL

DEAR MISS TURNER: I am sending a caramel filling I have used since I was a little girl. It's very nice on a "snow" cake. I also use it for a filling for a jam cake. Mrs. R. E. Perry.

Caramel filling: One one-third cups granulated sugar, 2-3 cup brown sugar, 1-3 cup butter, 2-3 cup milk. Mix ingredients and boil 13 minutes without stirring. Beat until of the right consistency to spread. One-half cup nut meats may be added if desired.

Thank you Mrs. Perry for your kindness in sending the recipe which we are sure is just the thing many women have been looking for and write again sometime, won't you?

HEMS OF BEAUTY

REVOLUTIONARY innovation in the manufacture of sheets and pillowcases has been introduced by Pequot mills of Salem, Mass., in a new line of muslin bed linens to be known as "beauty hems." The hems are woven right into the fabric with a decorative design which gives a distinctive, tailored finish to both sheets and pillowcases and yields greater length on the bed. The lengthwise shrinkage has been reduced to a minimum and beauty hem sheets will retain their proper proportion to fit the bed correctly.

The actual difference in sheet construction can be explained simply thus: regular sheets are woven in the width and "torn" in the length as the sheeting comes off the loom. The beauty hem sheets are woven in the length and "torn" in the width.

BEST DRESSED GIRL

WHEN the Fashion Academy recently nominated Gladys Swarthout to the honorary post of "best-dressed All-American girl," she must have been surprised. But she has expressed the opinion that any woman who can afford three simple costumes can rate as best dressed provided she chooses those ensembles with care.

This lovely Methropolitan singer has in her wardrobe a gown which she calls her "uniform." Every year it appears on the concert stage in a different version, varying only in material and cut to make allowances for climate, season or occasion. It's been her favorite for years and she sees no reason to change.

• • •

MANY of her street dresses and a few of her gowns have been a constant use for four or five years. The little tweed suit she wore when she arrived in Lubbock several weeks ago has been pictured on her in St. Louis, New York and Chicago as well.

• • •

I believe that the secret of Miss Swarthout's rating as "best dressed" lies in her sheer ingenuity and cleverness. She knows one basic dress can appear to be any number of outfits with different accessories and a tiny change here and there from time to time.

I said because Miss Swarthout's dresses are not as shapely as they would be on such a slender person as she, she is wearing every single dress and coat an inch longer than prescribed for this season. A smart woman Miss Swarthout!

House Consideration Of Measure Blocked

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP)—Rep. Costello (D-Calif) refused today to permit House consideration of a bill providing pensions for dependents of deceased World war veterans on the ground it was "a dangerous step" toward general veterans' pensions.

The measure, which provides allowances for widows, orphans and parents without regard to whether the veterans' death were connected with their service, came to the floor under procedure requiring unanimous consent for consideration.

Costello estimated that the proposal might result in a fixed annual federal expenditure of $48,000,000.

Berlin Reports Are Called Propaganda

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1 (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt yesterday labeled as German propaganda reports from Berlin that American diplomats in Poland said the United States would enter the European war on the Allies' side.

"I simply can't imagine any American diplomat saying what the Berlin reports announced was said in Poland," Mrs. Roosevelt said. "These reports are good propaganda from the German point of view, but as I said I can't imagine any trained diplomat saying any such things as is reported from Berlin.

"Of course, anyone who has not had any training in the diplomatic service might have made remarks like those, but a diplomat would not. And the Germans are saying the statements were made by our diplomats. Of course, all I know about it is what I've read in the newspapers."

High Court Orders Texas To Get Funds

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP)—The supreme court today ordered that approximately $10,000 held in the registry of the court in connection with water diversion litigation between Texas and New Mexico be turned over to the Texas attorney general "for disposition as the state may require."

Texas had asked the court for permission to use the funds to reimburse El Paso county water improvement district No. 1 for the costs of the litigation.

The amount was what remained of an original deposit of $16,500.

The diversion dispute, involving a complaint by Texas that New Mexico was diverting too much water from the Rio Grande above Elephant Butte, dam, has been settled.

Texas CAA Hearings Are Requested By CC

Chamber of commerce here has taken lead in efforts to persuade Civil Aeronautics authority to conduct Texas hearings on several applications seeking permits to establish airlines in this section.

Cooperation already has been assured by chamber of commerce and city officials and several executives of the affected airlines, officials of the local chamber said.

Congressman George Mahon has given assurance the information continued, that he will exert every effort to persuade the CAA to grant the request. Senators and other congressional representatives from Texas also will be asked to cooperate.

The hearings are those which had been set for April 15 but which have been postponed indefinitely along with all others originally scheduled in the period from April 15 to June 1. The original settings were in Washington.

Chief argument urged in support of granting the request is that hearings in Texas would be a vital convenience to the numerous witnesses and the voluminous documentary evidence which will be essential to a proper presentation of the case on behalf of the various airlines.

Persons with annual incomes over $3,000 own only 10 per cent of all the automobiles in the United States.

Federal Suit Filed Here Against FHA

FHA is plaintiff in a suit filed in the Lubbock division of federal court, probably for the first time, said Mrs. Olive Fluke, deputy court clerk.

Suit was brought by the U. S. district attorney's office at Dallas, at the special "instance of the attorney general," against G. P. Wright and Adde L. Wright of Lubbock county for the F. H. A. Land involved is 260 acres in the west half of section 31, block D, under the national housing act.

Petition alleges that in 1935 a promissory note was made, covered by chattel mortgages, to be paid in three annual installments. The note eventually became property of FHA through transfers and the government seeks payment of the unpaid balance, with interest and foreclosure of the chattel mortgages to secure the note.

"Build-Up" Relief Explained To Women

A simple method has saved many women a lot of suffering!

It is based on the fact that headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain are often symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition.

Help for this condition so often follows the use of CARDUI, because it usually increases the appetite and the flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion and helps build physical resistance. Usual result is less periodic distress.

Many who take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time" have found this also helps ease periodic discomfort. Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years! Adv.

Death Of Jail Sentence Penalty For Refusing To Answer Census Is Propose

Bill Is Offered By Sen. Tobey

WASHINGTON, April 1. (UP) — Senator Charles W. Tobey, R., N.H., who said he would refuse to answer some census questions, introduced today a bill which would eliminate the jail sentence penalty for such refusal.

The bill would repeal the existing law which provides for a 60-day jail sentence for refusal to answer questions in the 1940 decennial population count starting tomorrow. It would not remove the $100 fine.

Tobey led an unsuccessful fight for Senate action to eliminate questions about personal income. He said he would refuse to answer questions which he considered personal.

Coincides With Appeals

Introduction of his new bill coincided with appeals by public and private leaders for unstinted cooperation with the census takers who will begin the task of counting an estimated 132,000,000 persons and recording answers to more than 100 separate questions. One of those appeals for cooperation came from Francis P. Murphy, Republican governor of Tobey's own state of New Hampshire.

William L. Austin, director of the census, said he was certain that all "reasonable men and women everywhere" will cooperate "when they know all the facts."

Tobey charged that "active communists" have been hired as census enumerators and district supervisors.

"In the light of this," he said, "it is intolerable to impose a penalty of imprisonment on any American citizen who declines to unbosom facts about his private affairs.

Robert H. Bean, district supervisor of the census, recently announced the following persons would take the census in Lubbock county:

Lubbock Takers Named

Mrs. L. Liddell, Henry Royalty, Vincent Nesbitt, Robert D. Rich, Mrs. Lyda Royalty, Mrs. Beula Petticolas, Mrs. Alice B. Perdue, Miss Vera Thacker, Mrs. Lucille Daniels, Mrs. Vera Schmidt, Mrs. W. F. Fry, Mrs. Frances Jones, Mrs. R. T. Lee, Miss Florence Baldwin, S. R. Steele, Berry Brazile, Mrs. Billy Slower, Mrs. Lois Davidson, Mrs. Walter Dickinson, Miss Ita Brummett, Mrs. R. S. Williams, Mrs. Elizabeth Toney, Mrs. Margaret Birkman, Mrs. Carrie Long, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, Johnnie Carter, Mrs. Lucy Revier, A. J. Amonds, John R. Henderson, J. Boyce Wicker, Katie Lee Page, Carl T. Smith, George Watkins, W. O. Willingham, Jack Goodwin, Mrs. Ruth Casey, Walter Dickinson, and J. A. McWhorter.

In addition, Bean listed three enumerators for Slaton, A. V. Morgan, Miss Sophie M. Eklund and W. E. Pohl.

COOPERATION URGED

Mark Halsey, president of Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, Monday issued a statement urging cooperation of all Lubbock persons with enumerators. He said:

"Lubbock business men—in fact, Lubbock citizens as a whole—are among the most progressive and cooperative found anywhere. The 'Lubbock spirit' has built a town of which we all are proud. A picture of that town was taken ten years ago—when the 1930 census was made. The picture has served its purpose and now we are ready to be photographed again. This time let us remember that the picture we make during this census must last us 10 years, so let it be a good one—a truthful one.

Cooperation Urged

"Other towns an cities all over the United States are working with the census bureau to assure complete returns on the 1940 census. Lubbock, by all means, must be listed among those cooperating. We must not fall down if we are to assume our rightful position among towns of West Texas and the great Southwest.

"Census enumerators already have started working. When he or she calls at your place of business or at your home in Lubbock, it will be well, therefore, to remember that the enumerator is not there to pry into your personal affairs but that they are your agents bent on obtaining evidence of national trends of deep concern to every individual.

"Let's cooperate with the census bureau."

Investigation Asked

the war on the Allies' side, Pinchot said, the American ambassador had made "practically the same statement" at a dinner at the American club in Paris.

Far From Clear

Pinchot went on to say that the president himself had said last April that his views were representative accurately by an editorial in the Washington Post. Pinchot said that the editorial expressed the view that in event of war between Germany and the Allies, this country's entry would be a virtual certainty.

"If it is not the intention of your administration to involve the United States in war, against the will of the citizens, it is high time to make your position clear," Pinchot continued. "It is far from clear now."

BILLY GILBERT as Herman Goering

JACK OAKIE as Benito Mussolini

CHARLIE CHAPLIN as Adolf Hitler

MEET FUEHRER CHAPLIN, DUCE OAKIE—The same kind of secrecy with which Europe's dictators hide their movies has been thrown about Charlie Chaplin's new movie, a travesty on one-man government. Charlie's moustache made it mandatory that he take the Hitler role himself. Jack Oakie will protray Il Duce under the name Benzino Napoleoni, and Billy Gilbert will do Hermann Goering. Chaplin has allowed no pictures to leak out, but here's an artist's version of the three roles, made by putting the Hollywood faces in the uniforms of their European counterparts. Any resemblance to characters living in Europe is entirely intentional.

LEADERS TUMBLE

NEW YORK, April 1. (AP) — Leading stocks stumbled in today's market while renewed strength was exhibited by air transport and specialty issues.

The earnings outlook for the air carriers helped put up American Airlines to a new 1940 high a gain of 3¼ points, 69½, and boosted United Air Lines, Eastern Air Lines and Pan American Airways. Given a moderate lift also on profits hopes were Canada Dry, White Rock, Brunswick-Balke, Loft and McKesson & Robbins.

With such pivotals as U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors and Chrysler on the downside for fractions to a point or so, the Associated Press average of 60 issues was off .3 of a point at 50.1. Transfers for the full session amounting to 760,-700 shares compared with 836,530 last Friday.

Among other losers were Glenn Martin, U. S. Rubber, Lockheed, Boeing, Anaconda, N. Y. Central, du Pont, Westinghouse, Johns-Manville and Consolidated Edison. Declines, however, mostly were small.

Copperweld steel was an exception in the metal group, touching a new top for the year. Retaining modest advances were Curtiss, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Dow Chemical and Standard Oils of N. J. and Indiana.

Bonds noted much better than stocks. U. S. governments and secondary rails being in demand. Commodities were mixed.

Up as much as a point or more in the early were Aluminum of America, Grumman Aircraft and Montgomery Ward "A." Boeing Aircraft slipped, along with Gulf Oil and Pittsburgh Securities. The turnover here was about 240,000 shares compared with 283,000 last Friday.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, April 1. (AP) — The average price of middling 15/16ths-inch cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 6 points lower at 10.46 cents a pound; average for the past thirty market days 10.65; middling 7/8ths-inch average 10.38 cents a pound.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 1. (AP)—Foreign selling sent cotton futures into a decline that left the market 6 to 9 points lower at the close today.

Plenty of fuel for an advance was lying handy in reports from Worth street estimating the day's sales at around 28,000,000 yards at advancing prices, cotton dealers pointed out.

But the market was far more concerned with fluctuations at Bombay and local price swings were patterned closely on movements in the Far Eastern center.

Inspired by advantageous price differences between here and Bombay, foreign sellers threw around 15,000 bales of the staple on the market at the start. This pressure subsided following news of a partial recovery at Bombay and buyers perked up when they heard of the Worth street activity.

Bombay turned down sharply at the close, however, and a new dose of selling came from East Indian brokers.

Most of the textile business was done in print cloths with popular constructions marked up ⅛ cent a yard. Sheetings were largely neglected but considerable business was written on twills, sateens and drills at firm prices.

Exports Saturday 24,734 bales; season so far 5,453,782. Port receipts 6,586; port stock 2,689,127.

Grain . .

CHICAGO REPORT.

CHICAGO, April 1. (AP) — Wheat price gains of as much as 1⅞ cents, which were cut in half later, today registered the market effect of bullish news that included another supply of pessimistic crop reports and export sale of 10,000,000 bushels of Canadian grain to Europe.

Grain traders said the market's failure to respond more strongly to these developments was due partly to persistent hedging sales in connection with marketing of grain that has been under loan.

Wheat closed ¼-⅝ cent higher than Saturday, May $1.04⅝-1.05; July $1.03¾-⅞; corn unchanged to ¼ up, May 56¾-⅞, July 57⅞-¾; oats unchanged to ⅛ up; rye ⅝-¾ higher and lard unchanged to 3 lower.

Some buying of wheat came from mills but this was offset by hedges against increased movement of loan grain.

High temperatures over the week-end in the Southwest, while stimulating growth, increased apprehension because of reports of need of moisture. The spring wheat belt had precipitation and more was promised.

FORT WORTH REPORT

German Liner Was Filled With Benzine To Aid In Scuttling, Crew Member Declares

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1. (AP)—Crew members of the scuttled German liner Columbus in a story published today in the San Francisco Chronicle told of flooding the ship with benzine to the extent a premature spark "would have killed us all."

The story, told by men now at Angel island immigration station here, explained why two of the Columbus' crew of 580 men died. They were torchmen who "did not make it" to the lifeboats when the order came to fire the benzine.

The crew had been instructed what to do should the scuttling alarm be given. The alarm came Dec. 19, when a British destroyer ordered the Columbus to stop.

Almost 150 of the 512 crew members who were brought here have been returned to Germany by way of Japan. They were men unfit for military service.

Century Plant At Home Of Mrs. Groves Is Blooming

A century plant, an uncommon variety in anybody's garden, is beginning to bloom in the backyard of the R. T. Groves home at 1925 Twenty-sixth street, and the owners are inviting the public to call by to see it.

Since Sunday the plant's stalk has grown over six inches. It is expected that it will attain a height of fifteen to 20 feet. Century plants bloom as a rule when they are about 25 years old Mrs. Groves said, adding that as the bloom fades the plant dies.

She has had the plant for ten years, Mrs. Groves said, and watching its growth this week has made it difficult for her to leave for Senior High school where she is librarian.

April Fool Joke Has Kickback As 'Phone Company Suffers

Several Lubbock women Monday played an April Food joke on their friends, that had a kick-back from the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

A woman would call a friend, explained that "this is the telephone company," and that "we are having trouble with sand blowing out the telephone." The person was asked to put a sack over the transmitter and to leave the receiver hand down so as to stop the expected disaster. Generally the request was complied with.

Later, telephone operators had trouble with subscribers leaving the receiver down and they had to disillusion many about falling for a practical joke.

City Starts Fiscal Year On April Fool

Monday was April Fool day.

Likewise—to city employes — it was New Year's, since the date marked beginning of another fiscal year.

That also makes it quite important to many of the city employes because the budget for the next 12 months is dated from April 1. That means that if any wage increases are to be granted, they are more likely to be dated from April 1.than any other day during the year.

Most Complete Records

The day also is important to city employes because the records for the past 12 months must be completed and the budget for the next 12 months must be prepared. Considerable preliminary work has been done on the budget which, along with property valuations, will be one of the two factors determining what the city tax rate for the coming year will be.

While officials said that so much remains to be done that no accurate "guess" could be made as to what the tax rate may be, the general belief was that it will be no larger, and possibly a little smaller, than the present rate of $1.05 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The motto of the State of Washington is Al-Ki (By and By).

Declaimers Named At Junior High School

Fay Beth Hill and Milton Butler will represent Junior High school in declamation in the district Interscholastic league contests here April 12-13.

They were winners Monday in competition at the school. Beverly Ann Giles was second in girls event and Charles A. Guy, jr., was second to Butler.

Other girl competitors were Jane Robbin Lawson, Charmaine Kelner, Mary Lou Nolan and Verdis Beth Edler. Others in boys contest were John McLarty and Cleve and W. T. Diviny.

Publicity Stunt Backfires To Scare Many Residents

PHILADELPHIA, April 1. (AP) — What started out to be a publicity stunt turned out to be a scare for hundreds of Pennsylvania residents last night.

Following a news broadcast, radio station KYW read the following telegram, addressed to Jack Benny:

"Your worst fears that world will end are confirmed by astronomers of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia. Scientists predict that the world will end at 3 p. m. (EST) April 1. This is no April Fool statement. Confirmation of this report can be obtained from Wagner Schlesinger, director of the Fels planetarium, this city."

The telegram was signed by William A. A. Castellini, public relations director of Franklin institute, where a new exhibit, "How the World Will End," opened today.

No mention was made of the exhibit, however, and KYW, the electrical bureau and newspaper offices were flooded by telephone calls from frantic residents. They were told the facts, and after a few minutes KYW went on the air with an explanation.

A spokesman for KYW said the telegram was broadcast in "good faith." Castellini said officials of the station had been advised of the true facts.

Vegetable Laxative Has Important Points

Most people want a laxative to do three things: (1) act punctually, (2) act thoroughly, (3) act gently.

Here's one that usually fills all three requirements when the easy directions are followed. It's an all-vegetable product whose principal ingredient has medical recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative."

That's the ingredient which enables BLACK-DRAUGHT to help tone lazy bowel muscles. It is the main reason for the satisfying relief from constipation that generally follows next morning when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime.

The millions of packages used are proof of its merit.—Adv.

Diamond Greats Among Chisox, Pirate Infields

Game's Veterans Will Appear In City Thursday

(Editor's note: This is the second of a series of "thumb nail" personality and historical sketches dealing with members of the Chicago White Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates baseball teams who play in the Lubbock park Thursday afternoon. The first of the series, dealing with outfielders, appeared in Monday's Evening Journal. This morning's discussion deal with infielders. Today's Journal will deal with pitchers and catchers.)

By COLLIER PARRIS
Avalanche Sports Editor

Big League baseball names you've heard and read for years will appear "in person" and in uniform Thursday afternoon when big league teams, the White Sox and Pirates, play a regulation game of ball at the Hubber park.

Some of the great names of the game appear in the list of infielders who play with the Pirates and Sox, and if the class will come to order we'll give a gang of infielders a going over.

Hayes, Kuhel Start

Manager James Joseph (Call-Me-Jimmy) Dykes of the Chicago American Leaguers, himself an infielder of fame and fortune and who still can get the ball over from third to first quite hastily, has informed that his probable infield starters here Thursday will be the veteran Minter Hayes, leading off and playing second; the well known Joseph Kuhel at first; Luke Appling at short, and Eric McNair at third. They're fairly well established names.

MINTER CARNEY (JACK) HAYES, one of the best double-play men in the American League, is a native of Alabama. He's 34 years old, has been with the Sox since 1933, after five years with Washington. He broke in at Birmingham. He is 5-foot-11, weighs 170, bats and throws right. Last year he was hampered following a knee operation, submitted to another operation in December, and has been looking good this spring. He batted .249, fielded .974 last season.

Appling To Celebrate

JOSEPH (JOE) KUHEL, first baseman, 34 years old, 180 pounds, came to the Sox in a trade for Zeke Bonura in 1938. One of the game's best fielding first sackers. He has rarely fallen below the .300 hitting mark, making it an even .300 last year while fielding .992. Broke in with Flint in 1925, served with Springfield, Lincoln and Kansas City before going to Washington in 1930, where he nudged the capable Joe Judge out of a job.

LUCIUS B. (LUKE) APPLING, who celebrates his 29th birthday in Lubbock Thursday, has been playing professional ball 10 years, having started with Atlanta. He went to the White Sox the same year, and has stuck. The 165-pound shortstop bats and throws right, won the American League batting title with .388 in 1936, and holds a life-time batting average of .312. He packed out a neat .314 last season with the fourth place Sox. Although right handed on the field, he wields the fork in his left hand, when hoisting calories to his lips.

Rookie Shows Well

DONALD ERIC (RABBIT) McNAIR, third baseman, will be 30 years old April 12. He came to the Sox in 1938 in a swap for Boze Berger, and led the team with a snappy .324 last season. Previously he had been associated with Connie Mack's Athletics, where he rolled up impressive records. He had played with Meridean, Knoxville and Memphis before joining the A's in 1929. In the early part of that season, he had batted .391 for Knoxville.

DON M. KOLLOWAY, second baseman who is giving Hayes a race for second base, appeared here with the Oklahoma City Indians in exhibition games against the Hubbers late last season. A 6-foot-3, 195-pounder, Kolloway has been one of the brightest lights in spring training. Only 22 years old, he pounded the ball at a .302 clip for Oklahoma City last year.

Don't Forget Kennedy

Other infielders on the Sox roster are James Webb, shortstop, 29 years old, who played most of last season as regular shortstop at Cleveland, finished the season at Buffalo. He's slated as No. 1 utility infielder; Robert Kennedy, giant third baseman rookie who hit .284 for Shreveport last year, after being signed at the age of 16 by Dallas, and Lewis Leiter, first baseman, who hit .320 for Jonesboro last year.

Records Fall Like Leaves—But It's None Other Than Nurmi Who Brings Down House

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 1.—The spotlight's dazzling eye picked out a shiny baldhead and a slick black head of hair, and blase Madison Square Garden rocked with the crowd's roar.

The walls rattled with applause when little Greg Rice, the ex-Notre Damer, came winging home with a new world three-mile record in 13 minutes, 52.3 seconds last night; when Allan Tolmich, the Detroit jackrabbit, posted two new hurdle marks; when Georgetown's Al Blozis upset shot put standards; and when Taisto Maki, the new flying Finn rewrote the books for 2 1-2 and 2 3-4 miles.

But the 14,000 set of sore tonsils sported today by the folks who turned out for the Finnish relief fund track show were largely the fault of Paavo Nurmi, and the veteran Pennsylvania board-pounder, Gene Venske. Neither won anything—yet, the folks cheered them.

You remember old Paavo, who used to break a record almost before each meal back in the roaring '20's. Well, old Paavo came home last night. He hadn't been on those Garden boards in 11-years, and he felt so good about it, he just had to put on a track suit and take a four-lap turn. From the way he went around the track, he looked like he still could give any of 'em an argument.

Venske trotted out for the mile and a half run, against Chuck Fenske, Walt Mehl, of Wisconsin, and Ralph Schwarzkopf, of Michigan. The crowd cheered, but he was no match for Fenske and Schwarzkopf, who wound up in front in that order.

From a competitive standpoint, the feature event, the three-mile grind, was the high spot. Rice went to work a lap and three quarters from home, sprinted all the way to the wire and finished ten yards in front of Don Lash, with Maki back another five. His mark of 13:52.3 compared to the listed world record of 13:56.2, which Rice, himself, set during the current season.

Reds Still Wear The Crown

War Nips Hopes For Wooderson

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, April 1. — Sydney Wooderson — remember him, the world mile record holder — is a fireman now and liable to become a soldier soon.

Sydney the solicitor who normally would be dashing about in preparation for the 1,500 meters at Helsinki's Olympics this summer is going sedately about his chores as a member of the auxiliary fire service all tricked out in a sort of bus conductor's uniform. He has a good chance of changing it to an army uniform before the year is out. Sydney is 25 and the intention is ti call up his class starting the latter part of this week.

Wooderson's present duties are confining but not hard. The A.F.S. was organized to take care of blazes caused by enemy bombing. To date there has been no bombing. So Wooderson, in common with thousands of others, keeps his buttons bright, practices shinnying down fire poles and the like and spends 48 of every 72 hours on duty.

It is knocking the daylights out of his law practice, not to mention his running.

Sydney, who was involved in that bumping incident in the Princeton invitation mile last June, is beginning to feel sorry he didn't stick around and do more than "just run" in the United States.

"If I had thought this war was going to start, I probably would have stayed over there and entered two or three more races. As it was I thought I'd gain my revenge at Helsinki. It doesn't look as though htere'll be any running up there this summer, does it? Not for me, at any rate."

Only Two Days Remain To Sign For School

Lagging registration Monday for the first annual Lubbock junior baseball school, starting at Fox Recreation Park Wednesday afternoon, prompted those in charge of the affair to issue a warning to those aspiring to receive the free training that they should sign for a berth befire 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Registration will continue until that time at Sherrod's Hardware company and at the office at Fox Recreation Park on College Avenue and Third street.

Thus far, 126 names have been put on the dotted line for 10 days of instruction from veteran baseball enthusiasts who have been signed for the school. Possibility that another instructor or so would be added was seen yesterday when it was revealed others than those already secured had volunteered their services.

Instructors who definitely will be in hand each afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock include Sled Allen, Clar-Brown, Bud Adderton, Colin Bishop and possibly Sam Langford, of Plainview. Plans are under way to invite several members of the White Sox and Pirate ball clubs to meet the boys Thursday afternoon.

INDIANS STOP TYLER

TYLER, April 1 (AP)—The Oklahoma City Indians rattled extra base hits with amazing regularity today to trim the East Texas league Tyler Trojans, 16 to 4.

Tech Golfers Split Match With Owls

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, April 1. — Rice Institute and Texas Tech were all square at the close of their golf meet at the Braeburn Country club this afternoon.

The teams garnered two each while the two doubles matches were also halved.

The closing match of the day found Harry Albaugh of Rice beating Billy Cook of Texas Tech one up in 19 holes.

In the other Rice victory in singles, Captain Harry Crissman played par golf to win from Co-Captain J. D. Webster of Texas Tech, 6 and 5.

In the Texas Tech triumphs, Donald Doherty beat Jim Nelson of Rice, 4 and 3, and Alex Cook beat Kenneth Arthur of Rice, 2 and 1.

In the doubles, Kenneth Arthur and Jim Nelson of Rice shot a best ball of three under par to beat Alex Cook and Co-Captain Donald Doherty, 7 and 5.

To even the count, J. D. Webster and Billy Cook of Texas Tech defeated Harry Crissman and Harry Albaugh of Rice 6 and 4.

Harris, Kingsbury Top Red Raider Prospects

A couple of young American huskies who are trying very hard to make the 1940 Texas Tech football team received first hand encouragement in yesterday's practice when Coach Pete Cawthon said that Ed Harris, left halfback, and Norman Kingsbury, halfback or fullback, were two of the most promising candidate on the squad of 76 prospects.

Both are sophomores and look like football players. Harris has revealed uncanny passing ability along with pleasing work on his tailback assignments. Kingsbury is showing plenty of power and speed plus a fine ability to catch passes. Both showed well in yesterday's work and are sure to see plenty of service in Saturday's first scrimmage.

Coach "Dutchy" Smith picked his A, B, C and D lines yesterday and worked them against each other in putting on blocks. It was a rough afternoon for the forwards. Bink Bingham, after he got good and mad, really tore into the practice and had his blocking opponents asking for mercy. Newman Ledbetter, Will Allbright, Rafe Nabors, Marvin Shields and Lonnie McCurry were putting on the best blocks of the day.

After a long drill in major fundamentals the various prospects formed several different teams and started learning some ten plays they will be expected to use in Saturday's scrimmage. Cawthon and Smith are well pleased with the condition of the players, their spirit and believe that Saturday's headbumping will be something to see.

CARDS DROP CLOSE ONE

Hollywood, Fla., April 1 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals dropped a 2 to 1 decision to Columbus of the American Association here today after rallying to tie the count in the first half of the ninth inning.

Cards Are Weak Around Second

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 1.—It is generally agreed that the National league race this year will be a two-team affair, with the Reds and Cardinals taking after each other and the other six clubs just taking after their folks.

This corner falls right in line with the common idea, and after a month spent watching the various contenders has decided that, with all due respect to the Cardinal power and pitching, the Reds still seem to have what it takes.

Pirates Moved Up

The opening of the campaign still is better than two weeks away, so the following selections are subject to change without notice:

1—Cincinnati; 2—St. Louis; 3—New York; 4—Brooklyn; 5—Pittsburgh; 6—Chicago; 7—Boston; 8—Philadelphia.

Only the Pirates and the Cubs were not observed, so their positions are selected by hearsay and a recollection of their 1939 performance. The Pirates, under Frankie Frisch, are moved up a notch to fifth place, and the Cubs are dropped back two notches to sixth.

Same Team Back

The Reds were good enough to come through when the chips were down last year, and Bill McKechnie has practically the same team. Any change apparently is for the better, with either Vince DiMaggio or Mike McCormick in left field.

It is argued that Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer will not have as good seasons as they had in 1939, but to offset this there is the possibility that Junior Thompson, Whitey Moore, Joe Beggs and Big John Hutchins will more than take up the slack.

Have Power, Pitchers

The Cardinals have the power and the pitchers, but they are none too stout around second base. It will be a rookie at shortstop, probably Martin Marion, a neat fielder but a pallid hitter, and that's quite a handicap for a pennant contender.

Bill Terry's New York Giants, the big if, and, but team, is moved into third place on the hunch that Hubbell, Gumbert, Lohrman, Melton and the rest of the mound staff will be holding their own fanning bees. With the exception of first base, the remainder of the lineup appears stout enough.

White Sox Drop Cubs, Pirates Measure A's

(By The Associated Press)

BISBEE, Ariz., April 1.—Manager Gabby Hartnett gave Clay Bryant another test on the mound today and what he saw was far from pleasing as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Cubs, 8 to 6, and evened their exhibition feud at five games apiece.

PIRATES WIN TWO!

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 1. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates won a double header from the Philadelphia Athletics today, 8 to 7 and 8 to 5.

YANKS STOP MISSIONS

SAN ANTONIO, April 1. (AP)—The San Antonio Missions kept pace with the New York Yankees fox six innings today, but in the seventh the World Champions began hitting against Ewald. Pyle and hammered over six runs to win 9 to 3.

GIANTS DEFEAT TRIBE

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 1. (AP)—Cliff Melton held the Cleveland Indians to four hits and one run in seven innings today while the New York Giants exploded a four-run attack against Willis Hudlin in the first and went on to beat the Tribe 8 to 6.

NATIONALS WIN, 15-0

SANFORD, Fla., April 1. (AP)—The Nationals snapped out of their batting slump against Class D opposition today and shutout Sanford of the Florida State League, 15 to 0.

PHILS ACTUALLY WIN

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 1. (AP)—The Phillies played two games today. In the morning Chuck Klein's triple with the bases full in the last inning gave the Grays a 6 to 4 victory over the Blues in an intra-camp struggle. In the afternoon they slaughtered the Miami Beach All-Stars, 18-0.

DODGERS TRIUMPH

LANETT, Ala., April 1. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers pounded Atlanta pitching for 20 assorted hits today and trounced the Crackers 19 to 2.

Four Texas Aces, Slammin' Sammy Tops In Masters' Tournament Calcutta Pool

By ART KRENZ
NEA Golf Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga., Apr. 1—Favorites in the Calcutta pool bidding preceding the annual Masters' Tournament over the Augusta National Golf Club course, April 4-7, will be 140-pound Ben Hogan, Jimmy Demaret, Byron Nelson, Ralph Guldahl and Samuel Jackson Snead.

All save Sam Snead, the Virginian, hail from Texas, where great golfers grow. Up to the Greensboro Open, Demaret, Hogan and Nelson won seven of 11 tournaments on the winter circuit. Demaret was the warmest with five victories before returning to his Houston club.

With Demaret's departure, little Hogan became the sharpest golfer on the wheel.

He crashed the select circle with a record-breaking 277 which captured the North-South Open at Pinehurst.

The long-legged Guldahl is the defending Masters' champion.

Guldahl had his swing grooved again in the Greensboro Open, after a slump which followed his writing an instructive book.

Next to the United States Open and P. G. A., the professionals would rather win the Masters'.

MASTERS' PROVIDES THRILLING FINISH

Each spring provides a thrilling finish. Never has the winner prevailed by more than two strokes. Horton Smith, two-time victor, sank a 20-foot putt on the 17th hole of the final round to beat Craig Wood in 1934.

Wood again appeared to be the winner in 1935, but Gene Sarazen sank a 220-yard spoon on the 15th for a double eagle to wipe out the blond Wood's margin with a single swipe, and Sarazen came down in front in a play-off.

Guldahl seemed to have the Masters' won in 1937 until Nelson picked up six strokes on the Norwegian in two holes to take it all with 283.

The veteran Billy Burke's 282 tied the course record a year ago. Snead came in next with a record-wrecking 280. Guldahl required a 33 on the last nine holes to win, played daring golf and scored an eagle three on the 13th to win with a third record-shattering 279.

The Masters', with $5000 in prize money, rings down the curtain on the winter loop in which more than $100,0000 went to the more fortunate shotmakers.

BOBBY JONES MAKES ANNUAL APPEARANCE

Bursitis having disappeared from his shoulder, Bobby Jones wil' make his annual competitive appearance.

About 65 will tee off. All United States Open and champions and members of the der and Walker Cup teams vited.

Also asked to compete first 30 in the 1939 United Open and Masters', foreign holding titles and one amat Holt, selected by the United Amateur Champion, the ing Bud Ward of Spokane.

Nelson, the United State champion, given the priv selecting one professional, Mac Smith. The last eight 1939 P. G. A. and United Amateur also get in.

Foreign combatants are Huot, Canadian P. G. A. ti Martin Rose and E. Bertilino gentina and huge Jim Australian Amateur and champion for the past two The Masters' is right! The winner has to be one.

Pledges Honored At Fraternity Meeting

Pledges and prospective pledges were guests of Kappa Kappa Psi, band fraternity at Texas Technological college, at a smoker in the men's dormitory No. 1 Monday night.

Reports of the district convention in Tulsa during the Easter holidays were given by delegates. Fred Stout, Midland, presided. Other guests were D. O. Wiley, director of the Tech band, and H. A. Anderson, instructor in economics and former director of the Lubbock High school band. Thirty attended the meeting.

U. S. Government Praised

Dr. Domans commended the American form of goversment as the finest in the world and said "it would be a luxury for European countries to elect a president every four years.

The talk was interspersed with humorous remarks. Approximately 200 attended. Final talk of the series will be conducted next Monday night.

YANKS, OF COURSE — With the entire baseball world searching for pitchers, the New York Yankees bob up with three promising new righthanders. They are Morvin Breuer, abive; Tommy Reis and Charley Stanceu. Breuer and Reis each won 17 games for Kansas City. Stanceu was recalled from Binghampton.

League side of the fence and the Pittsburgh Pirates' infielders:

Vaughan Captains Pirates

FLOYD E. (ARKIE) VAUGHAN, the reliable old shortstop who wields a wicked willow, is the captain of the Pittsburghs, and a man of reputation. Twice picked for the shortstop position on the senior league's all-star team, Arkie is 28 years old, has been with the Pirates since 1932. He weighs 170 pounds, stands five-foot-ten. Never has hit below .300. Highest was .385 when he led the league in 1935, and his lowest was his .306 of last year. His grand batting average for 8 major league campaigns is .329.

LEE HANDLEY, third baseman, is 25 years old, weighs 160, and was signed by Cincinnati out of college in 1935. Played at Toronto, was called in by Reds in 1936, shifted back to Toronto later. Commissioner Landis decided he wasn't being treated fairly and declared him a free agent, whereupon Pittsburgh outbid eight other major league clubs and gave him a bonus of $20,000 for signing. Became regular third baseman in 1938, batted .268 then .285 last year, tied for the league's stolen base mark.

If You Can't Beat 'Em

DEBS GARMS, former Texas League player, is contesting Handley for the third base job. Debs was born at Banks, Tex., June 26, 1908, and has been around. Broke in with Abilene in the old West Texas loop in 1928, then to Spartanburg, Augusta, Topeka, Wichita Falls, and the St. Louis Browns. Calls Wichita Falls his home. Browns sent him to San Antonio, and the Boston Bees got interested, after he batted .316 in 1936. For three years he was a Bee regular, more or less, and was particularly painful to the Pirates. So they bought him. He is a brother-in-law of the famous Slim Harriss, who used to pitch for the Athletics.

WILBUR LEE BRUBAKER, first base, is a 30-year-old veteran who started at Beaumont in 1932 and was obtained as free agent the same year by the Pirates. Optioned to Toronto, then to Albany, then to Kansas City, recalled in 1935 by Pirates and a "steady" ever since. Also plays second and third base. Batted .300 in 1938, had a tough time last year and came in with a .232.

Don't Forget "Pep"

ELBURT FLETCHER, first baseman, contesting with Brubaker for the regular job, is a 26-year-older, 6 feet tall, weighing 190 pounds, a lefthander all the way, started with Harrisburg in 1934, was bought by the Boston Bees in 1935, and by the Pittsburghs in 1938 for twenty grand and a ball player. He fitted into the first base job perfectly, and has been doing well.

LEMUEL FLOYD (PEP) YOUNG, second baseman, is a middleweight from North Carolina, 33 years old who started out professionally as an outfielder for Fayetteville in 1928. Later played at Greensboro and High Point, for Columbia and Wichita. Bought by Pittsburgh from Wichita in 1931 and optioned to Tulsa. Later to Albany and has been with the Bucs since 1935, playing second, third and shortstop, but now regarded as the second baseman to beat. Hit only .276 last year but is regarded as a sure thing at second unless there comes up a guy named. . . .

FRANK WILLIAM GUSTINE, a 20-year-older, six-footer, 180-pounder. Played with Paducah, Ky., Hutchinson, Kas., and Gadsden, Ala., before Pirates brought him up last fall. Resembles Pie Traynor physically.

Then there's Eugene Handley, young brother of Lee, who aspires to becoming part of a second "brother act" on the Pirate ball club.

Frenship High Drops Cooper Nine, 17-5

WOLFFORTH, April 1 (Special) —In the initial game of the South Plains High School baseball league here this afternoon, Coach Ira Steele's clouting Frenship crew measured the Cooper High nine, 17 to 5.

Performances on both sides were ragged, errors coming in droves and hits likewise.

The tilt will be returned Wednesday afternoon, April 10. Lineup for the winners follows: Harold Spear, shortstop; Chesley Hobgood, third base; Gene Gatlin, first base; Wayne Bennett, catcher; Lewis Winter, pitcher; Hugh Snyder, second; Leroy Jenkins, right field; Durwood Wheeler, centerfield, J. L. Gamble, left field; and subs Altman, right fielder; Alexander, centerfielder, and Tucker, left fielder.

Children Owe Lives To Boy Scouts' Aid

SAN ANTONIO, April 1. (AP)—Three San Antonio children probably owe their lives to the training and alertness of two Boy Scouts.

The children, wading in the shallow water of Medina river yesterday, were caught in the swirling stream and carried into ten feet of water.

The screams of the mother, Mrs. D. Sosa, brought Robert Zepeda and Ramiro Mendez, Boy Scouts on a hike to the children's rescue.

Mendez jumped into the stream and pulled the three to safety, while Zepeda applied artifical respiration.

Me Nazi Propaganda

ALTHOUGH certain "disclosures" made in Berlin last week concerning statements of various of our diplomats before outbreak of the present European war are wholly unworthy of credence, they are of such a serious nature as to call for a complete denial by our government.

If it should happen that some of the statements attributed specifically to our Ambassador Bullitt to France and Ambassador Kennedy to Great Britain, then either they—or those for whom they were spokesmen—have presumed so seriously upon their authority of office that impeachment would not be too strong a term to mention in their connection.

The purported revelations are those contained in what are claimed by Berlin to be the secret archives of the Polish government. The ambassadors are quoted, in substance, as having given a virtual pledge that the United States would engage actively in the present war. That would be a pledge that no man—not even the President—nor any minority group of men would be authorized to give.

However, the Berlin claims cannot be believed. We have only the word of the Nazi government that the documents quoted in support of the "disclosures" are genuine, and that word isn't worth a continental. Germany would have so much to gain from persuading people of this nation that the claims are true that it cannot be supposed for an instant that there would be slightest hesitancy in manufacturing whatever "evidence" might be helpful toward that end.

The supposition that they are fiction is further supported by the statement attributed to Ambassador Bullitt that "today there is a psychosis among Americans similar to that before America's declaration of war on Germany in 1917." Any such statement would have been so absurd, would have differed so completely from the existing conditions, that it is wholly incredible it could have been made by any well-informed American. Mr. Bullitt certainly was well-informed.

The only logical supposition in connection with the Berlin dispatches is that they are offered as another dose of propaganda with the hope it will be swallowed by the American people. Fortunately, however, most of our people have come to recognize that kind of medicine as poison. We simply don't swallow it.

Fostering Greater Friendship

COOPERATION of Texas Technological college in a library exchange arrangement with nations of the Latin Americas continues the school's participation in the government's attempt to develop the foreign relationship which overshadows any other possible for the United States.

The fact that destinies of the Americas lie largely within themselves should be self-evident. Geographical reasons, together with the automobile and airplane, are steadily binding them closer together. Their conceptions of liberty and democracy have as a common root that every last one of them had to throw off the yoke of an European oppressor. We need their raw materials that we cannot produce, and they require manufactured products like those we have in abundance for their development. Furthermore the American nations are confronted by the same dangers from without.

To deny that jealousies and suspicions still exist among the various nations in the hemisphere would be absurd. It also is a fact that while others of the Latin American nations may be suspicious of each other, they have been as one in suspicion—and perhaps fear and envy—of the "Colussus of the North," the United States.

Much of the suspicion, however, has been due to a mutual lack of understanding. Friendships have been bound closer in recent years as the misunderstandings have been removed. Although the job is far from finished, such things as the library exchange movement help build toward a day of complete understanding.

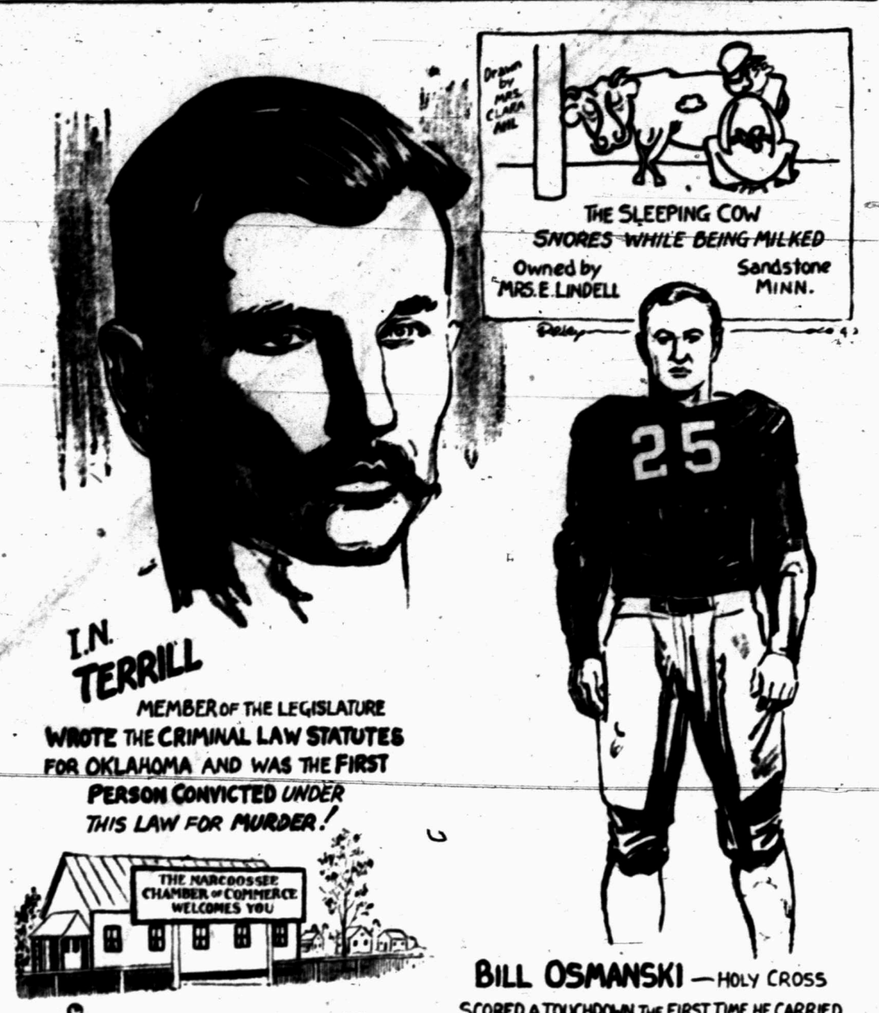

The One-Minute Sermon

Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way:

Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you.

But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king. —I Samuel 12: 23 through 25.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

ANN BROWN—orphan daughter of a gambler, alone in an unfriendly city.

PAUL HAYDEN—stock room boy with ambition.

STEVE CLAYBOURNE—wealthy playboy.

CLARA BROOKS—society debutante.

* * *

YESTERDAY: Steve makes a scene at the dance but a pleasant stranger saves Ann from embarrassment. Paul gives Ann a favor, a tiny silver bracelet. After the dance they walk in the park. While Ann sleeps Paul kisses her lightly. With dawn, they hurry home. Ann remembers not the dance and its glamor, but Paul.

CHAPTER XXI

Ann received orchids at the shop the following day. The satin box was tied with a wide ribbon. There was a note enclosed.

"I'm a little hazy about last night but, if my memory serves me at all, I again owe you an apology. Forgive me for behaving like a clown. Let the posies tell you that I mean it." The card was signed, "Steve."

He called at 5 o'clock, blithe as a spring breeze, cockily sure of himself. He invited Ann to go to the theater with him and, while she could see no harm in accepting, she hesitated. It would be fun to see a good play, but not so much fun to see it with Steve. Now if it were Paul— With the thought of Paul, she made up her mind. She declined and hurried on before he could argue.

"The flowers are gorgeous, Steve," she said, "too gorgeous for a working girl. Thank you for sending them to me."

"Did I, or did I not, owe you an apology?"

"Oh, you were a little difficult."

"So sorry."

"Let it go."

"All right, I will. Now about a show—"

"No, Steve."

He was not accustomed to feminine rebuffs. "Say—what's the matter with me? Am I poison or something?"

Ann could scarcely tell him that she was merely a new adventure to the bored Steve Claybourne, she could not explain that he only persisted in his attentions because she did not respond in kind, that he would not think of introducing her to his mother, that their paths were so widely separated that they could never meet. So she said the obvious thing.

"I don't go out with anyone but Paul."

That did it. He said, "Oh, I see."

She said, "Goodbye, Steve," and hung up the receiver.

* * *

The weeks rolled on and Ann did not see Steve Claybourne again. She almost never thought of him. Her life with Paul worked itself into a pattern. Each Saturday night they dined together at an inexpensive restaurant and went to a moving picture show. They were utterly companionable. The slightest show of sentimentality was studiously avoided.

Summer came with sizzling heat. Mrs. Follet's third floor was like a fiery furnace, the hat shop was little better. Ann grew thin, the roses left her cheeks. She and Paul sat on the bench in the park, occasionally they traveled across the city to the lake.

A burnished, hazy fall was banished by an early blizzard and winter was upon the city. Acrid smoke hung in the heavy atmosphere, the gutters were slimed with dirty slush. Then Christmas lights turned the city into a neon fairyland.

Paul gave Ann a silver bangle for her bracelet as a Christmas gift. It was a quaint little bell and tinkled when she moved her hand.

With the coming of the New Year Ann fretted over the static, changeless quality of her life. With the exception of an occasional marriage among the girls whom she had come to know, there was not the slightest difference in her surroundings. Neddy and Teddy still chattered and danced their way through the days and nights. Florabelle appeared in stunning new outfits, was forever "going on a party." Clara could talk of nothing but a certain expressman who delivered goods to the store.

A concurrity of incidents kept the third floor laughing, namely, the regular visits of Florabelle's friend, the postman. The hopelessness of his love was amusing, and really not amusing at all. Once each week he climbed the stairs and knocked on Florabell's door. He had a simple, solemn way about him. Why he continued his regular visits, the girls could not imagine. Neddy and Teddy twitted him unmercifully. Clara openly laughed at him. Still he came, now and then encouraged when Florabelle allowed him to enter her domain.

Ann's static mode of living might have gone on indefinitely except for two things. In the first place, she realized that another change in rooming houses was imminent. Clara's expressman friend, Roy Swenson, was practically living in the apartment which the girls shared. He sprawled in one of the big chairs night after night, paying court to a most willing Clara. Ann knew that it was but a question of time until he would move in entirely, in which case, she must get out.

Secondly, spring rolled around again and Paul kissed Ann. That kiss, in the heady sweetness of spring, had a most unforeseen aftermath. Not yet had Ann admitted, even to herself, that her love for Paul had become a monstrous thing, too monstrous for any sort of peace of mind. She lay her unrest to the utter lack of progress in her ambitions.

* * *

One night she and Paul were sitting in the park. It was one of those humid evenings which sometimes come early in May. They were eating popcorn, each silently intent.

The bag was finally empty. Paul gave Ann his handkerchief and she wiped her hands.

"Paul," she said, "it's another year. We've been sitting on this bench and in the movies for a year."

"Yeah—I know. Last year I was making $19. Now I've shot up to $25. Soon I'll be hiring an investment broker to take charge of my surplus." He spoke bitterly.

"At least you've moved up a little," she said. "I'm just exactly where I was a year ago. Oh, Paul —I thought if a girl had ambition and was willing to work she could find a way."

He sighed. They were both in low spirits that night. Paul had come to realize that life without Ann would be as blank as a freshly plastered wall. He loved her, he wanted her, more than anything else he wanted to give her the beauty she craved. And there he was, helpless, shackled to a $25 job.

Of course, there was a future to his job—buyer, department head, Managership of a store—but when—when? His soul cried out at the waiting. While he waited she would be lost to him.

"It's a rotten shame, Ann," he said, keeping his voice at a casual level. "Have you tried to get a better job?"

"Oh, yes." But her tone betrayed her discouragement. "I've tried everywhere. Fifteen a week is the best I can do. Fifteen a week," she cried furiously. "I hate the sound of it. A living wage, barely enough to keep soul and body together, no hope, nothing ahead —" Her voice broke and she stopped. "Let me have your handkerchief again, Paul. I must have a little cold."

She blew her straight little nose and wiped her eyes. She tried to laugh. "Guess it doesn't do any good to rave," she said. "I'm tired tonight. I dread the thought of another summer."

It grew quiet in the park and they stayed on the bench. Occasionally the big policeman passed on heavy tread. He always spoke to them.

At last Ann said, "We'd better be going back. Another day is creeping up from China."

"Yes, another day and another month and another year. We'll be old, Ann, still fighting—" Paul spoke savagely.

* * *

Ann slipped her hand into his. The two of them—hopeless. Suddenly she wanted Paul to take her in his arms. Suddenly she had an aching need of the comfort of his arms. His hand tightened on hers, he drew nearer on the bench.

"Ann," he said huskily, "I want to kiss you, but it's dangerous, dear. We promised to be friends and if I kiss you—I won't be your friend any more." He leaned toward her. She felt the muscles of his arm tighten.

"I don't care," she whispered.

"Oh, darling—" He put his arms around her and bent his lips to hers. The first kiss was tender, the second was not so tender. It bruised her lips.

The big policeman, approaching along the path, turned quickly back. "That's better," he muttered. "That's more like it."

Ann did not see Paul for a week. During that week she lived in a rosy daze, not looking ahead, nor back. She knew now why little $15 girls married their men, she knew that if Paul asked her—that was the catch —if Paul asked her—

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

IN a private memo to the State department the French government recently revealed that it entertains a slight skepticism about American proclamations and protestations of neutrality in the present war. Paris apparently regards the United States as an ally.

Because of the British blockade Uncle Sam's Weather Bureau at Washington no longer receives from belligerent or neutral vessels advance information about coming storms. Ships which once relayed valuable weather data to this and other Capitals have discontinued the service for fear that they might give away their positions to lurking submarines or raiders. To fill in this gap, Secretary Morgenthau has sent out several Coast Guard cutters as weather reporters, and they forward their reports in regular code to Washington.

Now comes Paris to protest that these messages about conditions at sea furnish valuable information to the Germans in their submarine warfare. Therefore the French have asked that Mr. Morgenthau's weather experts send in their tips in a secret code which Berlin cannot break down.

POWER: If every community in the nation could put a delegation of intelligent men and women back of the scenes in Washington for a week or two, there would be a sharp change in our belief that we're keeping out of the war. Countless small indices would be totaled to a jarring picture.

They would learn that the pattern of 1916-17, streamlined, is being followed at every key point. The streamlining is sharp and clear. This time the Secretary of State is pathetically out of the policy making picture. The Secretary of the Treasury is Man Friday to the Boss. The Department of Justice is headed by a favorite for succession to the Presidency. The War Department head is taking punishment as an independent—his assistant runs the job. The Postmaster General performs his statutory duties as a free man. The Navy Department's head is in temporary and nominal occupancy only. Dictatorship is de facto—not open and advertised, as overseas.

Most probable successor to Mr. Edison has been told that he can have the chair if he understands that authority rests at the White House and not in Constitution Ave. The form of the qualification gives old-timers a certain sardonic pleasure.

* * *

REVIVAL: After several years of going along with the New Deal, the Supreme Court has again split into two factions. In a recent tax case—Helvering versus Wood—F. D. R.'s appointees lined up solidly against veteran members of the tribunal.

For several years the administration has begged Congress to plug the tax hole under which a husband reduced his income payments by setting up a short-term trust in his wife's name. The legislators, however, have stubbornly refused to block this method of tax evasion. So the majority on the Court, in an opinion delivered by Justice Douglas, rushed in where the legislative branch has refused to tread. F. D. R.'s jursts closed the loophole. They said, in effect, that they were tired of sitting around and waiting for Congress to act.

Messrs. Hughes, Roberts and McReynolds dissented. They branded the majority opinion as an attempt at legislation and a usurpation of the powers which belong to Congress. Now that the Court appears to be secure against Presidential tampering, it is believed that the conservative minority will assert itself more vigorously than it has since the early days of the New Deal.

* * *

MINUS: Diplomat Cromwell's chief offense did not consist of praising Great Britian and France and condemning Germany's war aims. His blunder was political rather than diplomatic.

What irked the White House and the State department was his damning of American isolationists, who presumably compose a majority of the electorate, and who are especially strong in the states which the Democrats must carry in November. It is doubtful if any speech by a public official in years precipitated such a flood of protests to the White House and members of Congress. And most of the letters assailing his pro-Ally stand came from the Middle and Far West. They came from territory where the adminstration because of its domestic policies, is meeting serious trouble.

Mr Cromwell's outburst has proved to be a blessing in disguise. The adverse reaction demonstrated to members of House and Senate, also to Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Hull, that American sympathy for the Allied cause has not yet reached the stage where we are willing to fight for them or make any move which will compormise Uncle Sam. Golden Boy Jimmie is definitely and distinctly in the minority.

NEW YORK
By Richard Waldo

HIS Royal Highness, Eduard, Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha recently gave New York's society dowagers a miserable hour. They had to choose between entertaining one of the august names in European royalty or snubbing one of Germany's propagandists. And the propagandist Hitler sent over to soften the stories of Polish atrocities ups the ante on propagandists Lothian, Duff Cooper, and Anthony Eden by several yards of purple plush.

The New York receptions for Duke Eduard were a mixed success; society was not equal to the poser set before it by von Ribbentrop. The Duke was sent here to coordinate Red Cross work in Poland—where the Red Cross is supposed to be under lockout. He is one of the "first hour" Hitler backers; as such was presumed to be a stooge operating under the Red Cross banner. But New York knows him as one of the organization's powerful figures of pre-Hitler days, when the commission to head German relief was bestowed by President von Hindenburg. To top the confusion, Duke Eduard was born an Englishman, attended Eton and Oxford, was a Peer of the Realm until he elected German citizenship so as to inherit his German duchy.

* * *

SUCCESSION: The dog fight in Democratic ranks occasioned by the third-term mystery is inspiring the G. O. P. hopefuls to greater heights of teamwork. The word has gone out of the Dewey camp, for example, that if the New Yorker gets the brass ring he will not insist that Campaign Manager Russell Sprague get the automatic elevation to the job now held by John Hamilton.

By rule, the national party chairman is chosen by the national committee; by custom the job always goes to the campaign manager of the winner's stable. The practical politicians have been studying Mr. Sprague to get a line on the type of National Chairman the Party will inherit—if and when. Here enters an adroit bit of Party harmony. Sprague has indicated that if John Hamilton wants it, and if the Committee concurs, the incumbent can carry on. It's sound politics and a sincere offer at the same time.

Hamilton sailed under a dark cloud for two years following the Landon debacle, has really come to grips with the job and risen in Party councils for his work of the last year. The Sprague endorsement is a merited if belated tribute. Should Dewey win, Hamilton will do the gracious thing and will decline in favor of Sprague. If Dewey fades, the offer is academic. In the meantime Mr. Hamilton's good will engendered by the offer isn't exactly a liability to the Dewey cause.

Another discouraging thought in connection with the present international situation is that some day historians are going to have to figure out what this mess is all about.

Census takers in Tulsa are being provided with mallets to save their knuckles in rapping on doors. The hammers are not to be used for tapping stubborn citizens on the noggin.

Hitler has repatriated 226 Germans driven out of East Africa by the British when war broke out. They will probably be permitted to express their gratitude by being allowed to die for the Fatherland.

A North Carolina holdup man got only one penny in a recent job. Unless conditions get better he may have to go to work.

An 82-year-old woman got a divorce from her husband, 81, because she said he was jealous. She wants to start life over anew.

Stalin's Brigandry In Finland Results In Red Excoriation By Britain's Labor Party

BY MILTON BRONNER
NEA Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 1.—Whatever arguments Soviet Russia may present to world labor in support of its conquest of Finland, they will have no effect upon the British Labor party, official opposition to the Chamberlain government.

The party has just issued one of the most scathing denunciations of the Bolsheviks which has been printed in these troubled times.

In a booklet labeled "Finland," the Labor party says, "the two gangsters, Hitler and Stalin, had agreed to work different pitches. . . A bargain in a thieves' kitchen was followed by the inevitable war; Russia and Germany partition Poland; Russia takes the Baltic states under her 'protection'; erects 'strategic bases and sally ports' and uses them in a new war against Finland."

* * *

CHARGE BLACKMAIL, BRUTALITY TO REDS

THE authors trace the story of Russian demands upon Finland.

Says the pamphlet:

"Victims of a policy of deception, blackmail, trickery, cynicism and brutality not dissimilar to the subtle cruelty of Japanese militarism, but excelling in cunning and dissimulation the diplomacy of Russian Czardom, Nazi Germany and Italian Fascism—whose daggers were never conceled in the folds of angels' wings—the Finns were now confronted with the brute weight of the Russian Empire.

"The new Russian air dromes and naval bases in Esthonia which were to protect Esthonia from 'any great European power,' became bases of operation against Finland."

* * *

"POPULAR FRONT" UNPOPULAR WITH LABOR

THE Communist party in Britain, small in numbers but loud in words, has time and again sought to have the British Labor party support a "popular front." The British Labor movement has never had truck with the Reds.

It is angered at the present gyrations of the British Communist party which seeks to justify the invasion of Finland.

On this point the Labor party pamphlet says:

"Stalin the Red czar, is now the executor of the traditional imperialism of Czarist Russia. His men use the freedom which they enjoy to defend war and tyranny, a war of conquest by an alien and powerful despot against a small outpost of republican democracy."

Clement Atlee, leader of British Labor party: His [illegible] wants no truck with Communism.

Light Vote Is Expected Today

Today's election day.

But, despite the fact a large vote generally is considered a safeguard against possible write-in choices who might be opposed to progress, today, from Monday night's indications, will be slightly more than "the day after April Fool."

The absence of interest obviously was due to the fact that the candidates for the three places to be filled are without opposition.

Only Three Candidates

Carl E. Slaton is seeking re-election to a second two-year term as mayor. W. G. McMillan is candidate for a second four-year term as commissioner and Garland Newsom is asking election to the four-year commission place from which J. A. Fortenberry will retire.

Polling place will be in the space formerly occupied by Central Fire station on the first floor of the city hall. Polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. Judges will be R. Bush Smith, W. E. Ballew and Mrs. P. M. Maddox.

Predictions as to what the vote may total ranged from 300 to 1,500. The 300 was regarded as a minimum because of the certainty that most city employes and their families will vote. The hope of a 1,500 or larger poll results from the get-out-the-vote campaign which has been in progress several days.

Any person residing within the Lubbock city limits and possessing a poll tax receipt or exemption certificate will be eligible to vote.

Officials Have Busy Week-End

Lubbock law enforcement officers returned to routine duties Monday after experiencing a busy week-end.

Investigation continued in the hijacking early Sunday morning of Eva Barton, 30, negro maid in the Morris Levine residence at 3017 Nineteenth street.

Men Surprised Her

The woman told police two men surprised her when she went into the residence to use the telephone. At gun point one of the masked men demanded she give him her purse containing $360. The purse was found on the lawn at the residence.

Levine was in New York City and Mrs. Levine in Mineral Wells at the time of the hijacking, the maid said.

Sheriff Jim Williams of Crosby county transferred a man from Lubbock county jail to Crosbyton for investigation. The man was suspected of hit-and-run driving in connection with a collision Sunday near Lorenzo.

Police Chief Hoyt Curry of Plainview sought an Indian giver. He asked Lubbock police to assist in his search for a man who sold his car in Plainview and "stole it back the same night."

Fines of $30 each were assessed against two Lubbock men, 19 and 27 years old, for theft of a pair of trousers and a belt. They were ransacking a car when arrested, police said.

Fred Smith of 1311 Twenty-third street reported theft of his bicycle from 1200-block Texas avenue.

American Volunteers Summoned By Probers

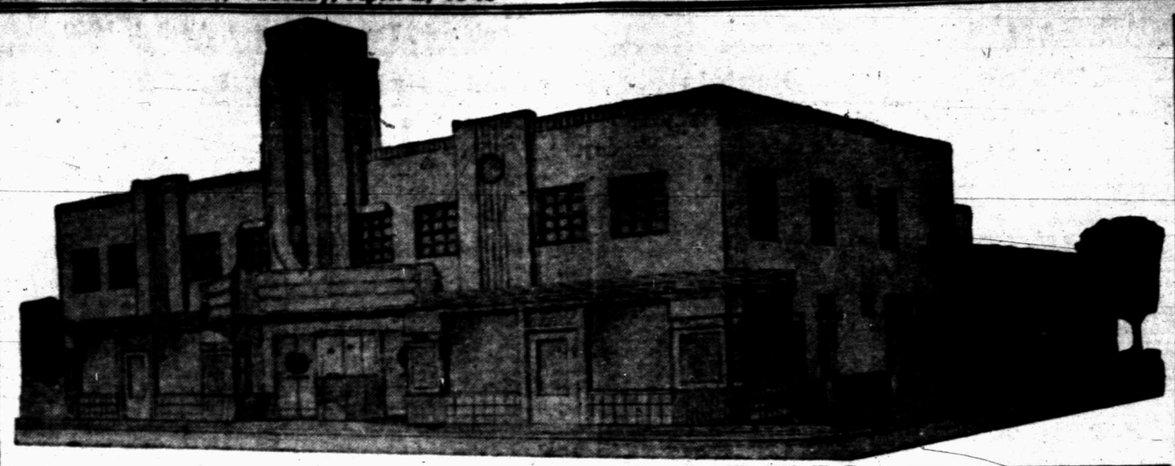

NEW YORK, April 1. (AP)—The Dies committee today summoned three officials of the veterans of the Abraham Lincoln brigade, an American volunteer organization which took part in the Spanish Civil war, to appear immediately in Washington with records and membership lists.

The subpoenaes were served by the committee's chief investigator, Stephen Birmingham, outside the west side magistrates court where the three were defendants on disorderly conduct charges in connection with recent demonstrations at the French consulate protesting the purported ousting of Spanish war refugees from France.

Those subpoenaed were Milton national commander of the brigade; Gerald Kent Cook, national secretary, and Fred Keller, New York Post commander.

ONE IS KILLED

LAKE CHARLES, La., April 1 (AP)—Andrus Perrodin, 20, of Church Point, La., was killed and five other CCC youths were injured in an auto collision in a heavy fog on the Old Spanish trail near here today.

SEMINOLE'S NEW THEATER UNDER CONSTRUCTION—W. E. and Aldrey Cox, operators of the Palace theater in Seminole and three theaters in Lamesa, are erecting a new playhouse, the Tower, shown above. This theater will be air-conditioned, have a seating capacity of 800, have a frontage of 56 feet, extend 150 feet in depth, and have two storerooms and eight office adjuncts. T. R. Douthit of Dallas, manager of the Lincoln division of the Dallas branch of the Ford Motor company, has been in Lubbock several days arranging the establishment of the new franchise.

Exclusive In Lubbock

The distributorship of the two cars covers a franchise including the following counties: Bailey, Cochran, Yoakum, Gaines, Lamb, Hockley, Terry, Dawson, Hale, Lubbock, Lynn, Floyd, Crosby, Garza, Borden, Motley, Dickens, Kent, Cottle, King, Stonewall, Fisher, Hardeman, Foard, Knox, Haskell, Jones, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Ector, Midland, Glasscock and Crane. In 1936 and 1937 he was manager of the Leftwich Chevrolet company at Slaton. He was active in the finance company until Sept., 1939 when he was appointed Pontiac dealer here. He since has sold his interest in the finance company and will devote all of his time to the new business.

The K. D. Leftwich Motor company is a successor to the Leftwich Pontiac company and became the Lincoln-Mercury dealer on March 29 at the same location where new car sales and service will be maintained. The company will continue to merchandise used cars at the used car location, Thirteenth and Avenue K.

Hard-Surfaced Road To Park Is Planned

Providing another hard-surfaced connection with Mackenzie state park, preliminary work has begun for paving of Fourth street and north Avenue D.

The work being done immediately is excavation, to be followed by the laying of caliche base. Asphalt will be put down before the rush season starts in the park, officials said.

The asphalt topping will be 30 feet in width on a 40-foot caliche base. Elevation of the work is such that the paving can be widened when desired. Curb and gutter will not be installed unless the improvement should be widened in the future.

The improvement is being made without cost to property owners there. It will provide the shortest route, officials said, to the most frequented portions of the park, including the swimming pool and the picnic grounds.
