Anthony's, Western Auto Burglaries

Grand Jury Returns Indictments For 12

Mitchell County Grand Jury met Friday, returning nine indictments against 12 persons.

Jerry Wayne Strode, Diane Marie Strode, Michael Arlene Murphy and Pamela Joyce Christensen, all of California, jointly received three indictments.

March 20, the four persons were arrested for allegedly stealing over $1,000 from Colorado City Anthony's Department Store. The jury jointly indicted the four for theft over $200.

Besides the indictment for burglary, the four were also indicted in a two count indictment alleging burglary in the first count and attempted burglary in the second count. The group allegedly robbed Perry's Variety Store.

The third indictment returned by the jury against the four was for possession of a controlled substance, methamphetamine.

Other indictments returned by the jury included one against Jesse Heredia Ornelas, 23, of Colorado City, for allegedly burglarizing Western Auto, located on First Street and Walnut, March 4.

About $3,248 worth of merchandise was reported stolen in that burglary.

Hector Gardea was also indicted for burglary of Western Auto.

A sealed indictment was also returned against three persons for burglary of a habitation.

Three indictments were returned for driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense.

Ozie White was indicted for DWI, subsequent offense, for an incident March 5.

Roy Lloyd Goswick was indicted for DWI, subsequent offense, on April 4.

Olen Lee Davis was indicted for DWI, subsequent offense, on April 8.

The Grand Jury will reconvene Wednesday to continue with the deliberations.

Voluntary Program Set For Farm Producers

Changes in the 1978 farm program will allow producers to participate in an optional voluntary diversion payment program.

Producers who grew upland cotton, grain sorghum, barley or corn in 1977 may set aside 10 per cent of planted acres and receive a diversion payment on those diverted acres of 1.02 times the established yield times planted acres. The set aside acres must be planted in a cover crop.

Because grain sorghum has a mandatory 10 per cent set aside, an additional 10 per cent must be diverted to receive the diversion payment of $.12 times established yield on the planted acres.

Farmers not choosing to participate in the voluntary set aside program will still be eligible for other program benefits as long as they declare their intentions to plant before May 1.

Don Stewart, executive director of Mitchell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, will hold a meeting in the C. C. Thompson Room Tuesday at 2 p.m. to answer any questions in regard to current programs.

Any farmer who planted 1977 barley or grain sorghum is eligible for a deficiency payment. Payment documents must be signed to earn payment. Those farmers who have not requested payment should do so as soon as possible.

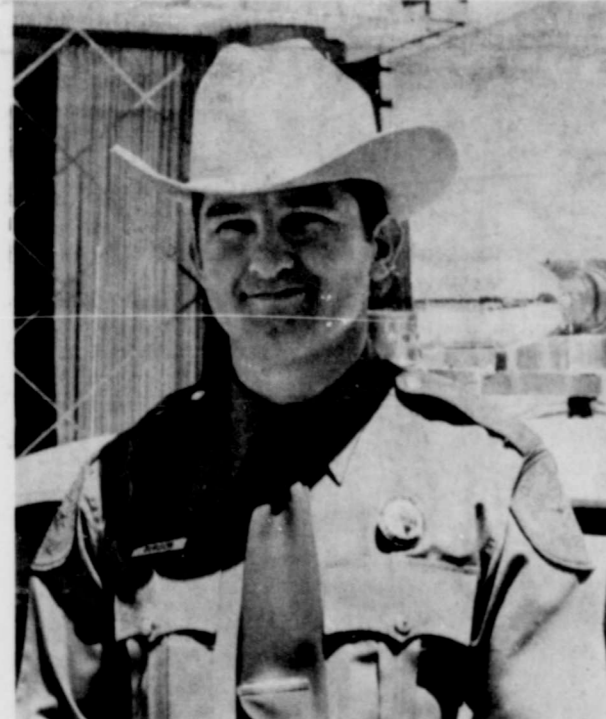

All farmers who plant wheat or feed grain are eligible to participate in the 1978 feed grain and wheat program.

Farmers who are still undecided about the program should sign up because there is no penalty if they decide not to plant a program crop. By signing up and planting the set aside crops, farmers are assured of such program benefits as price support loans, target price and disaster payment protection.

Sign up period ends on May 1.

April 30 marks the deadline for the current years emergency livestock feed program. ASCS will begin taking applications for the new year's program after that date.

JAMES BURSON has joined the Colorado City Department of Public Safety as a trooper. Originally from Waco, Burson worked as lineman for the electric company there. April 7 he completed school in Austin to certify him as a trooper. Burson and his wife, Maxine, have a four-month old son, James Jr. (Jake). The family attends the Baptist Church.

MIKE RATLIFF, 23, recently received his insurance solicitor's license. A December 1977 graduate of West Texas State University in Canyon, Tex., Ratliff is now associated with Ratliff Insurance Company. He received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree. While attending WTSU, Ratliff was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and was named Outstanding Active Member for the spring and fall semesters of 1977. A member of First Methodist Church of Colorado City, Ratliff graduated from Colorado High in 1973.

Production Is Held Over

Holdover performances will be held Monday and Tuesday night for the Colorado City Playhouse production of Annie Get Your Gun.

Monday night's holdover performance is already sold out as of Saturday afternoon but a waiting list is being taken. Tuesday night's holdover performance is almost a sellout with only about 30 tickets left. The Playhouse seats 160 persons.

The Opera House Box Office will open at 1 p.m. this afternoon (Sunday) and will be open again from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Monday and Tuesday.

A waiting list is being taken for Monday night and should Tuesday night's performance become a sellout, a waiting list will be taken for that night also.

Tickets not picked up by 5 p.m. the day of the performance will be sold to those on the waiting list.

Curtain time for the two-act musical is 8 p.m. Monday and Tuesday. It has been a sellout for all six past performances.

Playhouse President Carl Beery Moore said the Tuesday night performance will be the final performance for Annie Get Your Gun as the next Playhouse production, Accommodations, a three-act comedy, is already in rehearsal and needs the stage in order to present the play on schedule, the last two weekends in May.

County Registers 7,325 Vehicles

After a grueling spell, the employees at the Mitchell County tax-assessor collector office at last have a break—annual vehicle registration has ended.

According to figures compiled by the office, Mitchell County had a total receipt of 7,325 vehicles registered from Jan. 1-April 1.

A total of $127,062.23

Vallery Resigns

S. L. Vallery, chief of police at Loraine, resigned from his post Tuesday.

Vallery had served on the force for about two years and left the department to work with a private firm.

According to Mayor Vance Dickenson, Loraine is looking for someone with law enforcement certification to work in the department.

Dickenson noted that interested persons should contact him or Evert Henderson, head of the police department.

was collected from customers registering vehicles in Mitchell County.

Last year, a total of 7,243 vehicles had been registered from April 1-Dec. 31. As of Jan. 1, a new fiscal year began for the vehicle registration and the new process of staggered registration went into effect.

The tax office collected a total of $149,340.63 last year in vehicle registration.

This year, because of the new universal registration system, the total count of registered vehicles is not broken down into categories.

However, records show that 33 personalized tags were sold by the local office and 70 tags for big trucks. The other 7,222 were dispersed among other vehicles.

Rita Banks of the tax-assessor collector office noted that office was particularly busy the last 10 days before the April 1 deadline.

In fact, 3,100 of the 7,325 tags were distributed over the 10 day period.

House Defeats Farm Bill

Defeated in the House of Representatives, the Talmadge-Dole Farm Bill seems to be stymied.

The only ray of hope in the bleak outlook for farmers was defeated and has left in the aftermath a group of "angry, angry men," according to local farm strike supporters.

The defeat of the farm bill did not defeat the movement. Plans have been made for a state meet in Lubbock Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Civic Center Auditorium for all interested persons.

A National meeting is scheduled in Oklahoma City April 24.

No Classes Tomorrow

An in-service workday has been scheduled for Colorado City teachers and students will not attend school.

Students in the Colorado Independent School District will have a break from classes tomorrow (Monday).

Loraine and Westbrook schools will be in session tomorrow as usual.

Strauss To Run For Position

Joanne Strauss is a candidate for judge of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland.

Beginning with her early days as an attorney, she has worked and dreamed of being an appellate judge—an impossible dream 22 years ago. "Today, there is a fighting chance," she stated.

Mrs. Strauss added, "In order to be a good appellate judge, a person must love to spend many hours doing extensive legal research. I do love this type work—it is my main asset as a lawyer."

"The trial judge has to interpret the law's meaning and wait until the appellate courts reach a decision clarifying the law. This applies to numerous everyday legal matters such as marital problems, juvenile delinquency, workman's compensation and business ventures of all kinds," she continued.

An attorney for 22 years, Mrs. Strauss is a native of West Texas. She earned her bachelor of science and doctor of jurisprudence degrees from the University of Texas.

Her husband, Henry J. Strauss, is judge of the 326th District Court. They have two children, both graduates of Cooper High School in Abilene and the University of Texas. The family is Methodist and lives in Abilene.

SHOOTING CONTESTS are the highlights of Annie Get Your Gun, now on stage at Colorado City Opera House. The play will be presented in holdover performances Monday and Tuesday. Curtain time is 8 p.m. each day. Reservations may be made by phoning 728-3491 from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday or 1 to 8 p.m. Monday or Tuesday. In top picture, Annie Oakley's sisters make fun of Frank Butler (Sonny Pawkett) after Annie Oakley (Sarah Coleman in fringed jacket) has defeated him a shooting contest. In picture at bottom a rematch is about to take place.

Chamber Confirms Rodeo Proposal

After ironing out a couple of details, the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce has announced definite plans to sponsor an American Junior Rodeo Association performance locally.

At this month's Chamber meeting, the board of directors considered the possibility of sponsoring a rodeo July 5-8 in Colorado City.

Girls Softball Registration Nets 50

About 50 girls turned out Thursday to register for the Mitchell County Girls Softball Association league.

The league has been divided into four divisions, but as of Thursday's registration, no one had signed up for the fourth category for girls ages 17-19.

David Hancock, president of the league, noted that about five more girls are needed in each division to fill up the teams. Thus far, enough girls have registered to fill six teams.

Another registration has been set for Thursday from 4-6 p.m. at the Lone Wolf Medallion Room for the benefit of those who were unable to register last week.

Registration fees of $10 and proof of birth are required for registration. Hancock noted that if a girl is unable to make the registration day, she should pick up a form from Coleen Palmer, player representative, at her place of business, The Occasion!

League play is set to begin May 15 and practice will start May 1.

But location of the event posed a problem and demanded a little investigation.

A committee was formed—spearheaded by Kenneth Beasley—to check out available facilities.

Mitchell County fairgrounds will be the site of the rodeo, it was announced by the Chamber.

But, before the rodeo can be held, some repairs will be made on the arena. The Chamber began purchasing materials to repair the facilities and all work will be done through the Chamber.

About 400 entries are expected to compete in the rodeo. Entrants will be participating in barrel racing, pole bending, bareback bronc riding, bull and steer riding, call roping and roping.

Kelly Brothers Rodeo Company of Stanton, Tex., is directing the show for a fee of $2,800. The company will supply the stock, clowns, pick-up men and electronic gear for the performances.

Mary Pierce of Carlsbad, N.M., will serve as announcer.

"We hope to make this a community effort," said Chamber Manager Larry Winders. "The Chamber is going to run the whole thing—we're going to need local manpower and womanpower."

Chamber members and members of the community will spend the next couple of months lining up concession stands, collecting advertising for the program and publicizing the event.

Colorado City's rodeo is the only one scheduled July 5-8 in West Texas, and Winders anticipates a good turnout.

Persons interested in assisting with the rodeo preparations should contact the Chamber office at 728-3403.

"If people don't contact us, we'll contact them," Winders assured.

Farm Meeting Tuesday

A county wide meeting will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the C. C. Thompson Room of City National Bank for local producers.

Sponsored by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, the meeting will be to discuss 1978 program changes—producers wishing to voluntarily set-aside 10 per cent and reduce planting by 10 per cent.

Details of the program will be explained at the meeting.

Civic Center Is Site Of Style Show

"Showers of Fashion" is the theme for the Business & Professional Women's annual style show to be held this afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Civic Center.

Etta Jones is the general chairman for the show. Bobbie Steakley and Gary Dennis are to be the commentators.

The Colorado Middle School Stage band will perform several numbers for the afternoon's entertainment and Addie V. Payne will present accompanying music during the actual modeling.

Local merchants participating are Little Critters, Wood's Boots, Kirschbaum Clothiers, Free's Friendly Shop and Landau's. Each has selected his own models.

Admission will be $1.50 and door prizes will be given. Mildred Free, local B&PW president, extends an invitation to everyone in the community to attend.

Transfer Deadline

Students wishing to transfer into the Colorado Independent School District from another district must complete a transfer application before May 1.

Deadline for making application will be April 28, according to Lloyd McKee, superintendent of schools.

Parents may fill out the transfer applications at the superintendent's office, located at 534 E. 11th from 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. weekdays.

Nora Wilmer Addresses Retired Teachers At Wallace Center

Miss Nora Wilmer, National Retired Teachers Association director, presented an informative talk on "Your Retirement—The Golden Harvest of Your Life" at the Tuesday, April 11 meeting of the Mitchell County RTA at the Wallace Center.

The meeting began at 3 p.m. with prayer led by Mrs. Nadine Gordon. Mrs. R. M. Reed introduced Miss Wilmer to the members present.

Beginning her program with a bit of philosophy, Miss Wilmer went on to encourage her audience not to waste their golden years. She said, "The more we put into anything, the more we get out of it. Our yesterdays made us what we are, but we make all our tomorrows."

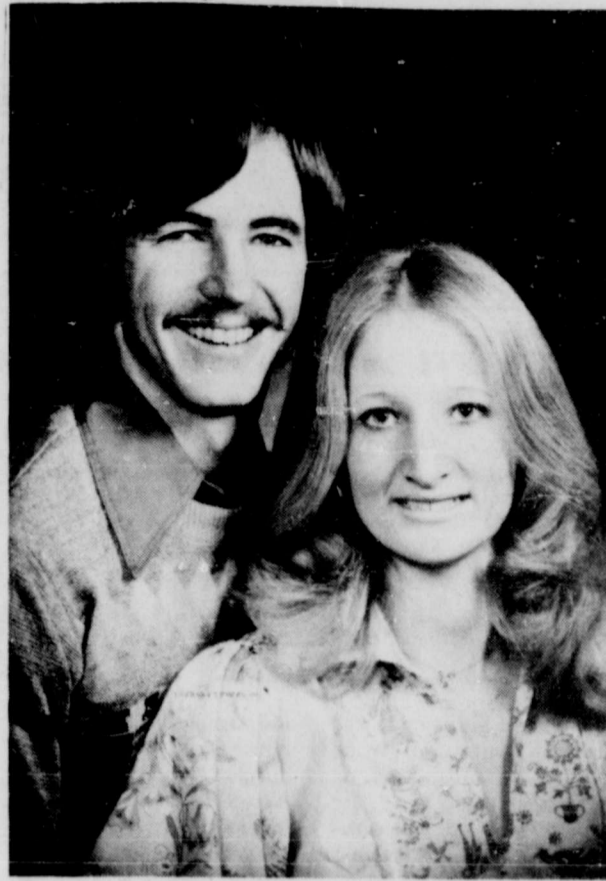

She offered the following quote from a book by Pearl S. Buck, "Young and old are for me meaningless words except as we use them to denote where we are at this stage of being. Would I wish to be young again? No for I have learned too much to wish to lose it—I am a far more valuable person today than I was fifty years ago, or forty, or thirty, or twenty, or even ten. I have learned so much since I was seventy. I believe I can honestly say that I have learned more in the last ten years than I have learned in any previous decade."

Miss Wilmer closed her talk with the reading of a poem entitled "Don't Waste Your Golden Years," which gave suggestions on things to do. "Pray. Don't spend your time in sadness" it read, "Try to make somebody happy" and remember "Each little deed of kindness bears its own and just reward."

Mrs. Nadine Gordon, Mrs. Swan Cramer, and Mrs. Lynn Halbert served as hostesses at the meeting, serving cake, sandwiches, strawberry candy, coffee and tea to those present.

Attending this meeting were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Andrews, Mrs. Tom Coker, Mrs. Fern Coon, Mrs. Swan Cramer, Mrs. Wilford Fox, Herman Minor, Miss Clara Shoemaker, Mrs. N. W. Stokes, Mrs. C. P. Gary, Mrs. J. D. Givens, Mrs. Gerald Gordon, Mrs. Lynn Halbert, Mrs. Witt Hines, Mrs. Ruth Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. Olson Sweet, Miss Edith Wilkerson, and Mrs. T. D. Wiman.

The next meeting of the RTA will be May 9 at 3 p.m. at the Wallace Center.

"GIVE UNTIL IT FEELS GOOD"
Rev. Monte Jones
Vicar
All Saints Episcopal Church

"Through Christ let us continually offer to God the sacrifice of praise, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge His name. But to do good and to distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased." Hebrews 13:15-16.

The most obvious mark of a Christian should be in his or her giving. Where does that comment hit you? I fear that many of us get uncomfortable when someone brings up the subject of giving tithing, stewardship, or whatever other terms are used in connection with sharing our worldly goods. The brilliant writer, C. L. Lewis, had this to say on the subject of giving:

I do not believe one can settle how much we ought to give. I am afraid the only safe rule is to give more than we can spare. In other words, if our expenditures on comforts, luxuries, amusements, etc., are up to the standard, common among those with the same income as our own, we are probably giving away too little. If our charities do not pinch or hamper us I should say they are too small. There ought to be things we should like to do and cannot because our charitable expenditure excludes them.

There is one school of thought that says, "Give until it hurts," and another that says, "Give until it feels good." I believe these thoughts are perfectly compatible. It really feels good to give something away that causes us to have to do without an extravagance that we wanted but did not need. This does not mean give away things to the detriment or discomfort of your own family, but we should be able to differentiate between actual need and strong desire for things. Consider this one thought. If all Christians shared as Christ would have us to share, there would be no need for the "W" in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, for when a need was seen, it would be met.

When you reach for your wallet or checkbook on Sunday, or when you are giving to a charitable cause, remember that all that you are and have come from God the Creator, and the treasures you build up in Heaven are in direct proportion to the treasures you give away on Earth.

Our Lord Jesus Christ gave himself as a perfect sacrifice for our sins; can we do less than share what we have with our neighbor in need?

Beautiful You:

Although most of us hate to discuss the topic of age (and weight). Age is related to calorie intake. Here are some general rules for determining our ideal weight and its relation to our age:

- To get your ideal weight, start with the 5 ft., 100 lb. woman. For every inch you are either over or under 5 ft., add or subtract 5 lbs. For example: the ideal weight for the 5 ft. 5 in. woman is 125 lbs.
- Since a calorie excess of 10 calories a day gains you one pound a year, if you don't cut calories, you will gain 10 lbs. in ten years. For example, a 20 year old will weigh 125 lbs., a 30 years old will weigh 135 lbs. and a 40 years old will weigh 145 lbs.
- To lose one pound per week, subtract 500 calories per day. To lose two pounds per week, subtract 1,000 calories per day.

Here is a formula to determine what your daily calorie intake is to "maintain" your ideal weight.

Calorie/Age Match-up Chart:
 Age/Calories
 TO Maintain Weight

Age	Ideal Weight	Cal. Intake
15 yr.	x 15	x 15
20 yr.	"	x 15
25 yr.	"	x 15-50
30 yr.	"	x 15-100
35 yr.	"	x 15-150
40 yr.	"	x 15-200
45 yr.	"	x 15-250
50 yr.	"	x 15-300

Notice: Each year you subtract another 10 calories per day (50 calories a day each 5 year period.) Caution: DO NOT drop below 900 to 1000 calories per day without your Physician's permission.

Suggestion: Use lots of Intense Body Lotion on your body and Intense Night Moisture and sheer Emollient on your face and eye and Neck Creme on your neck and eye area (all by Merle Norman Naturally!)

Self Culture Club Hosts Girlstown Program

The Self Culture Study Club hosted a community program on Girlstown, U.S.A. at the Colorado City Civic Center Friday, April 7. Several area clubs were invited to share in the program.

The program was presented through the efforts of Dean Headstream of Colorado City. Guest speaker was Marshall Cooper, Executive Director of Girlstown, U.S.A. at Whiteface.

Cooper's presentation dealt with the needs of neglected and abused girls and what the Girlstown program is doing toward filling these needs.

Through color slides, the group was able to glimpse a program through which a home-like atmosphere is provided for girls who, for many reasons, either have never had a stable homelife or are the victims of a breakup in the home, sometimes through broken communication, death, physical abuse, financial problems, mental abuse, or neglect.

Along with the slides, Cooper provided a narrative, tracing Girlstown through its beginning in Buffalo Gap in 1949 to its present 3-institution size.

Homes are located at Whiteface, Berger and Austin. The audience heard actual histories of child abuse, neglect and apathy behind which lies the story of why there is such a need for these homes.

A long waiting list for a place in these homes exists. Girlstown officials are presently looking into possibilities for a fourth location but with existing costs for buildings it is a slow process, Cooper noted.

The present 3 homes are supported by many service clubs, such as Lions Club, Kiwanis club, many women's sororities as well as the Federated Women's Clubs of which the Self Culture Study Club is one. Donations are also received from many private individuals.

Before the final question and answer period, Cooper sketched several success stories of girls who lived at Girlstown and grew up to attain jobs such as probation officer, secretary in the accounting department of the General Accounting in Austin, both filled by Girlstown girls. Cooper gave a rough outline of the various programs, vocational training, encouraged religious training, schooling, cooking, sewing and recreational activities.

One of the girls wrote a song entitled "Love Shined On Me," the context of which reflected experiences in her life following her entrance to Girlstown and this song was played in accompaniment to the slide presentation.

The local Self Culture

Study Club also won several awards at the District meeting in Stamford recently and the results were announced at a brief business meeting preceding the above program by Mrs. Dona Reed and Mrs. Les Watson. The awards are as follows:

Program: National Aid Division, 1st place; Program, International Hospitality Division, 2nd place; Program, Ethnic Culture, 2nd place; for most appropriate club name, yearbook cover B-2, 1st place award; Inspirational Poetry, Elizabeth Elliott, 1st place; Any Style Poetry, Elizabeth Elliott, 3rd place; and Programs, See Texas First division, 2nd place.

The secretary and treasurer's reports were given and approved and the members voted to give a donation to the Girlstown project. $32.46 was designated for this purpose.

Club members present for this program were Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. Linden Solomon, Mrs. E. L. Tiller, Mrs. C. P. Gary, Mrs. R. M. Reed, Mrs. Wilford Fox, Mrs. Paul Beeman, Mrs. Les Watson, Mrs. L. B. Elliott, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Jess Small, Mrs. Paul Logsdon, Mrs.

Charles Williams and Mrs. Leslie Keith.

About 30 persons attended the program that followed.

The next meeting of the Self Culture Study Club will be Friday, April 21 in the home of Mrs. A. A. Herrington, 342 E. 9th St. Police Chief Fred McWhorter will present the 3 p.m. program on Crime Prevention.

A native of Hillsboro, he moved to Hollis, Okla., in 1900 and married Viola Parks there in 1906. He was a Lamb County pioneer, moving to Littlefield from Wilson, Okla., in 1925. "Conversations On Carpeting"

By Fred Butts
SHOP AT HOME

Where is the best place to select carpeting? Right in your own easy chair. We at Penton & Son believe that the most practical way to find out how carpet color or pattern will look in your home, is to see it in your home. That's why we offer a free "SHOP AT HOME" service. One of our carpeting experts brings samples to you. You look each one over slowly and carefully, without rushing your choice.

What are the advantages of shopping at home? You can examine the carpeting under the natural and artificial lighting in your home. This is extremely important, since the store's bright, fluorescent lights often distort the actual carpet color.

When decorating a room in your home, it's best to select the carpeting first, then plan the furnishings around it. There are times, however, when this isn't possible. Perhaps you're replacing an area rug with wall-to-wall carpeting, but you can't replace all the furnishings. If you shop at home, you can see the carpet samples alongside your present furnishings, and make the right decorating decision.

Call us today. We'd like to tell you more about our free "Shop at home" service. Come by for FREE Carpet Care Books.

Chamber Of Commerce

By Larry Winders, Chamber Director

A number of years ago we did an article for the city in which we were working. The exact reason for this is rather obscure now. However after coming to work in this area, the general content kept running through my mind and I went back in some old files and found it. It was delightful to discover that the article had as much meaning for me, now as a reader, as it did then as the writer. For that reason we decided to share it with the readers of the Colorado City Record.

Can you remember the enthusiasm you showed the first week on the job, how hard you tried, how anxious you were to please?

What happens to that enthusiasm, initial enthusiasm?

The lazy, unambitious ones drop it, of course, as soon as they feel secure in the job...as soon as they find out exactly how little they have to do in order to "get by."

The real tragedy though, is the number of people who lose their enthusiasm because they get discouraged. Rewards, recognition and promotion don't seem to come fast enough...somebody else gets all the breaks. They begin to lose heart...their enthusiasm wanes...their performance slips. Their future prospects slip with it.

Like the chicken and the egg, enthusiasm and success seem to go together. You can't have one without the other. If you hope to succeed at anything in the world, polish up your enthusiasm and hang on to it. Don't let anything or anyone take it away from you.

What if George Bernard Shaw had gotten discouraged and quit when publishers turned down his first five novels?

What if Ted Williams, the great Red Sox slugger, had stopped trying when he was sent back to the minor leagues for more seasoning?

What if Abe Lincoln had given up when he failed as a storekeeper or was twice defeated as a candidate for the U.S. Senate?

What if Franklin D. Roosevelt had lost his enthusiasm after he was defeated for the Vice Presidency in 1920, or after he was crippled in the prime of his life by polio?

Thomas Edison estimated that it took 10,000 experiments, most of them fruitless, to perfect the electric storage battery. What if he had quit in despair after the first 50 or 100?

Each of us...famous or not...has similar obstacles to hurdle. Week by week, month by month, we face defeats and discouragement, little and big, where the only solution is to grit our teeth and try again.

It's so easy to lose enthusiasm on any job. Often, there appears to be very good reasons for it. But if we do, we're dead... it hurts us worse than anyone.

Every job and every company has its advantages and disadvantages, benefits and drawbacks. Whether we enjoy our work or not depends, far more than most people realize, on which we choose to look at.

If you've lost your old enthusiasm, set out today to recapture it...FOR YOUR OWN BENEFIT! When you're enthusiastic about your company and your job, you enjoy your work, and people enjoy working with you.

Half our waking hours, five days a week, are spent on the job. That's a big chunk of the one life we have to live. Why not adopt an attitude that will help you enjoy it? Does it really make sense to have any other?

Colorado City Garden Club Has Workshop To Prepare For Upcoming Flower Show

Mrs. John (Vera) Willingham of San Angelo's Cenisa Garden Club was guest speaker for Wednesday's meeting of the Colorado City Garden Club.

Mrs. Willingham, a national judge and future director for District 8 of Texas Garden Clubs, is a well known workshop director, particularly noted for her work with natural driftwood.

Subject of Wednesday's session was interpretation of the schedule for the local club's flower show, an event planned for April 22 in the C. C. Thompson Room of the City National Bank.

This year's theme is "Round About Springtime." Mrs. Willingham enthusiastically noted that the theme is appropriately worded as it can mean encircling springtime. She then showed scales of points prepared from the flower show handbook used to judge sample arrangements made by local members to illustrate the schedule.

Three major awards will be given in the design category: Tri-color, Award of Distinction and Creatity. Also, in the Horticulture division, major awards are award of merit and Arboreal.

Mrs. Willingham worked slowly through the schedule, pointing out hidden meanings in titles for each of the major classes. Four entries are required in each of the nine classes if awards were to be given, one of the more ambitious schedules for a local show in several years.

The public viewing for the year's show is set for 3-6 p.m. Saturday, April 22 as entries will be completed that morning and judging by an out-of-town group finished shortly after noon.

A salad luncheon followed Mrs. Willingham's demonstration and then she concluded the workshop with remarks about the Horticulture part of the schedule. Members were asked to make only a few changes to the schedule as a result of Mrs. Willingham's presentation. This year's schedule chairman is Mrs. E. M. Owen.

Members present for the workshop included the following: Mrs. John Bell, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Robert Chambers, Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, Mrs. W. S. Edge, Mrs. Ben Elliot, Mrs. Robert Garner, Mrs. Walter Gayler, Mrs. Lynn Halbert, Mrs. Bernice Hilliard, Mrs. Bruce Johnson, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. S. A. Palmer, Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, Miss Clara Shoemaker, Mrs. Don Stewart, Mrs. Gerald Gordon, and a guest, Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

Program leader was Mrs. Garner, who introduced Mrs. Willingham. Hostesses for the salad luncheon included Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Palmer and Miss Shoemaker.

In a brief business session preceding the workshop, president, Mrs. Elliot informed the group that the local club was recipient of an award certificate for January's President's report prepared by Mrs. Elliot. Also, the local club agreed to endorse Mrs. J. P. McCord of Cross Plains, presently director for District 8, as a member of the new state board.

Also, plans were discussed for a future trip to Abilene May 11 for the spring Iris Show.

VFW Ladies Auxiliary Nominates New Officers

The last is a project of the State president.

The following officers were also nominated: Dorothy Clark, president; Estella Rivera, senior vice president; Dale Wilson, junior vice president; Mae

Foreign Exchange Student Addresses Local B&PW Club Members

Endra Bessa, an exchange student from Manaus, Brazil was the guest speaker at the 7 p.m. dinner meeting of the Business & Professional Women's Club Monday, April 10 at the Civic Center.

Hostesses for the meeting were Etta Jones, Judy Winkle and Ann Halbert. The tables were decorated with runners of ivy and butterflies. Lighting was provided by oil lamps.

Miss Bessa, currently a senior at Loraine High School, addressed the B&PW members following the dinner. Showing a good command of English (her native tongue is Portuguese), Endra described for her audience how she came to be here, how the transition has affected her, interspersing the narrative with comparisons between her Brazilian home and customs and her American home and customs.

She related that problems in her country are much the same as in America. Laws are stricter there concerning parents of juvenile offenders; rules are stricter concerning dating; and preventing crime in the neighborhood is largely up to those who live in the area were points that interested the B&PW members.

Miss Bessa also gave a verbal portrait of her family; her country, both political as well as geographical features; plans for her future education, part of which must be finished in Brazil when she returns in May.

Present for this meeting were: Mildred Boyd, Molly Bruce, Katy Byrd, Margaret Ann Conaway, Virginia Dearen, Shirley DeLaney, Jackie Dennis, Mildred Free, Neida Garrett, Mary Hickman, Jean Holbert, Etta Jones and Ida Kirschbaum.

Also Ida Miles, Erdine Morgan, Velma Mosely, Ola Mae Johnson, Helen Reeves, Sallie M. Rogers, Velma Smith, Faye Spivey, Fern Thompson, Christene Ware, Sue Womack, Pearl Watson, Judy Winkle, and two new members, Barbara Williams and Bernice Urdy.

MOORMAN'S IGR MINERALS
"There's nothing else like it."
"Fly control with IGR costs about a cent-and-a-half per day for a cow. Total cost, including minerals, is about 3¢ per head daily."
"With IGR Minerals, around-the-clock horn-fly control on 100 cows costs about $1.50 per day."
"Compare the cost of roundup, spray, weight loss and spraying time for 100 cows each 10 days to the $15 it'll cost to control flies with IGR."
"Even if you spray every 10 days, new horn flies keep hatching out of the untreated manure. It's a never-ending cycle."
"With IGR, you don't have to worry about when to spray or that a rain will wash off the spray."
"Spraying for horn flies temporarily removes the symptom. It isn't a 'cure.' Feeding IGR relieves the symptom by providing the 'cure.'"
"It works."
"No need to worry about horn flies all season. That's peace of mind."
"IGR isn't a poison. It is a totally new concept in the control of horn flies without harming beneficial insects, wildlife or the environment."
"The active ingredient 'tricks' the horn-fly pupa into remaining a pupa until it dies without posion."

Card Of Thanks

I want to take this method to "Thank all of the thoughtful people that sent cards, letters, flowers and made telephone calls to me during my recent illness and operation." The operation on the left side of my face and neck was termed by the doctor as successful and they say I will be as good as new in about six months. However, the left side of my face is paralyzed at the present time. I didn't know I had so many friends. Thanks again.

Gardening Tips

By Bob Benson
County Extension Agent

With the warmer weather, warmer soil temperature and "Spring Fever" homeowners are busy planting spring gardens, fertilizing lawns and applying herbicides for weed control, states CEA Bob Benson.

With all of the normal problems that we face, cold weather, dry soil, weeds, etc., a new source of problem has been reported this week. That being Sparrow birds feeding on young vegetable plants. It is enough of a chore to get vegetables up and growing, but it's very disheartening to see birds completely demolishing young plants. My suggestion would be to place wire above the plants to keep the birds from feeding.

Usually birds feed on weed seeds, but with the dry fall and winter the weeds are not providing the normal food supply. There is one product available that can be ordered from Oklahoma that some homeowners are trying as a control method. So far results are not available.

The success of how your tomato plants produce is a normal way for gardeners to measure their gardening success for the year. Research has shown that you get the best results when you set out relatively small tomato plants that have only five to seven leaves. As a rule, these small plants have not yet begun to flower and will give you a greater total weight of tomato fruit than you would realize from larger older plants.

To obtain early production, it is quite preferable to select a quick-maturing variety such as Spring Giant and Big Set and set out small vigorously growing seedlings rather than use large older plants of the late-maturing variety.

Information concerning gardening, lawn care and fruit tree management is available at the County Extension Office, states Benson.
