Balkan Issue Raised In UN

By PIERRE J. HUSS
INS Staff Correspondent

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 20 —The Balkan issue and the Palestine refugee problem cropped up on the UN General Assembly agenda today as forerunners of the heated East-West battle looming in Paris.

Although the Security Council adjourned late last night until it meets again in Paris, Poland served official notice that the refugee and displaced persons problem must be dealt with at the assembly.

The Balkan "watch dog" commission today handed in its annual report to the assembly and again raised outright charges that Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria are guilty of aiding the Greek guerrillas.

Poland Brings Charges

Both this and the Palestine case are loaded with sufficient ammunition to set off an endless series of fireworks on the East-West dispute. Poland in addition to the Palestine refugee problem, filed charges against "certain states" that they are discriminating against trade and labor.

The "certain states" obviously are the United States, Britain and France. One of the four Polish items in particular directs attention to discriminations "against labor recruited from the ranks of refugees."

The last of the Polish items strikes directly at the United States by sarcastically listing "the problem of wasting food in certain countries."

The charges contained in the Balkan commission's report have caused Russia and her satellites to boycott the "watch dog" group.

The present commission's report to the assembly expresses the conviction "that a threat to the political independence and territorial integrity of Greece will exist, and international peace and security in the Balkans will be endangered" if guerrilla support is continued.

Its 35-page report recommended that "a United Nations agency continue to exercise vigilance regarding the relations of Greece and its northern neighbors."

Australia, in an annex of the report, recommended the creation of "a good offices committee" to aid the restoration of "normal diplomatic relations" between Greece and the three Communist countries.

ALLEGED STONER ARRESTED IN BERLIN—A member of the Berlin police of the Western Allies' zones holds a youth he arrested for allegedly stoning Russian-sponsored police in a melee during a raid on alleged black market operators in Potsdamer Platz. Stoning brought about gunfire in which five of a crowd of 600 infuriated Germans were wounded. Russian soldiers invaded the Anglo-America sectors again Friday night. Five Police In American Sector Seized

Russians Back New Raids On U.S. Zone

By EDWIN SHANKE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Aug. 20—Soviet-controlled German police backed up by Red tommy gunners today staged two lightning raids along the western sector border and carried off five American sector German police.

An American official denounced the action as a violation of United States jurisdiction.

The raids were directed against blackmarket operators in Potsdamer Platz in the heart of Berlin where the American, British and Soviet sectors converge.

Germans Jeer Reds

Potsdamer Platz was the scene yesterday of an anti-Communist riot in which four Germans were wounded by Soviet sector police bullets. Several German police were injured by stones thrown by angry Germans denouncing "Communist pigs."

In the first raid today, Russians estimated 600 alleged blackmarketeers were hauled away.

Germans jeered 60 Russian military police and soldiers who withdrew about an hour and a half after the raid. Some soldiers immediately leaped from their truck and rushed at the crowd. The Germans fled into the American and British sectors.

German Police Seized

Later in the afternoon, another group of Russian military police with their controlled German police invaded the American sector for at least the third time within the last week.

Ray Ashworth, United States public safety officer, said they rounded up an estimated 200 alleged German blackmarketeers and took them into the Russian sector for arrest.

A jeep load of four American sector German police were seized as they drove up to investigate the disturbance.

When the American sector German police chief for the borough of Kreuzberg sought to investigate, he also was picked up. Ashworth said he was enticed into the Russian sector to talk over

High Price Of Eggs Makes Woman Glad To Become Citizen

(By The Associated Press)

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 20. —A Russian-born woman, admitted to citizenship today, told U. S. District Judge Thomas J. Madden she was happy to become an American because "I can raise poultry here and eggs are 80 cents a dozen."

Mrs. Bertha Gutin, 53, of Atco, N. J., one of the 19 foreign born persons to whom Judge Madden administered the oath of citizenship, was asked why she was so happy.

"This is a fine government here. Eggs are 80 cents a dozen and I'm getting lots of money."

Smiling, Judge Madden asked how she would feel about the government if the price of eggs went down.

"Well," the springhtly little farm woman said. "the price of feed is very high."

Forrestal Begins Conference With Joint Chiefs Of Staff

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 20. (INS) —Defense Secretary Forrestal and his joint chiefs of staff began a three-day conference on "important policy questions" tonight at the Naval War college at Newport.

Forrestal announced that high naval and military officers under the joint chiefs of staff will attend the sessions.

The defense secretary said he will report on his talks with Canadian defense minister Brooke Claxton, and other high Canadian officials, during his visit to Ottawa last week.

There has been speculation in military circles that Forrestal's talks with Claxton were in an attempt to agree on a multi-million dollar radar defense network plan between the two countries.

Coke's Clemency Record Scored

AUSTIN, Aug. 20. (AP)—Riley Wyatt, former chairman of the state prison board, said today that 8,500 convicts were turned out of prison, many later to repeat crimes, during the administration of former Gov. Coke Stevenson, candidate for U. S. Senator.

In an address Wyatt claimed this to be more releases and at a faster rate than during the administrations of two governors who preceded him and the present governor.

211 Clemencies Revoked

The San Antonio title and guaranty business man said his speech was political "only in the sense that it involves the record of the man who was governor during much of the time that I was chairman of the prison board and that man is now a candidate for United States senator." Advance notices of Wyatt's address and copies of the address itself were made available to the press by U. S. Senatorial candidate Lyndon Johnson's headquarters here.

Wyatt cited that Gov. Beauford H. Jester in a recent report said he had been compelled to revoke the clemencies granted to 211 convicts freed by previous administrations.

"What did that mean? It meant that 211 men had been sent out to commit fresh crimes, 211 men sent out to kill again, to thieve

Truman Orders Court Action To Block East Coast Strike

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP)—President Truman today ordered emergency court action to block an East coast strike of 45,000 AFL longshoremen set for tomorrow midnight.

The Justice department will seek a federal court order in New York tomorrow that would keep the men working for about 80 days—or until Nov. 9 if the dispute is not settled before then.

Mr. Truman acted under the "national emergency" provision of the Taft-Hartley law.

Mrs. Ownby Fatally Hurt

(Special To The Avalanche)

POST, Aug. 20—Mrs. Ray Ownby, 26, of Oklahoma City and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Bowen of Post, died tonight of injuries suffered in a two-car collision on Highway 84, just within the city limits.

Mrs. Ownby, together with her husband and a one year old child, were rushed to a Lubbock hospital immediately after the accident, but Mrs. Ownby was pronounced dead upon arrival at Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Ownby and the child were given emergency treatment for minor injuries but were released to accompany the body on the return trip to Post.

Highway patrolmen who investigated the crash which occurred about 8:30 p.m., said the Ownby car apparently was pulling on to Highway 84 from West 10th street when it was struck by a Cadillac coupe travelling south on the highway. The coupe was driven by a Colorado City man.

The Ford coach driven by Ownby was caved in on the left side and hurled down the highway where it overturned. Mrs. Owenby was pinned in the car.

Other Driver Not Hurt

The Ownby family then was picked up by a Hudman Funeral home ambulance for the trip to Lubbock. The driver of the coupe was not injured, and his car was only slightly damaged, it was reported.

The ambulance driver said Mrs. Ownby died shortly before reaching Lubbock. Hospital attendants at Lubbock Memorial hospital said the woman suffered a fractured skull and severe lacerations on the right side of her face.

Highway patrolmen said negligent homicide charges would be filed Saturday against the Colorado City man in connection with the accident.

Mrs. Ownby is survived by her parents; two uncles, County Judge Lee Bowen, and O. K. Bowen, both of Post, Hudman Funeral home, which will have charge of funeral arrangements, reported.

In the first raid today, Russians estimated 600 alleged blackmarketeers were hauled away.

The accident was the second fatal traffic mishap on the South Plains in as many days. Lillard Dale Thomas, 15-year-old Dawson county youth, died late Thursday afternoon of injuries suffered when a motorcycle he was riding was in collision with a truck in Lamesa.

Curbs On Grain Exports Eased

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Export controls will be dropped August 27 on shipments of wheat, wheat flour, oats, barley, grain sorghum and wheat semolina to western hemisphere countries and the Philippine islands.

The Commerce department announced today that its action was made possible "by the easing in the domestic supply of these commodities as shown in the August crop report of the Department of Agriculture."

Corn Not Included

Export licenses will not be required for such shipments, the department said, but will continue to be needed on exports to other parts of the world.

A spokesman for the Commerce department's office of international trade said corn was not included in the decontrol action because it will continue to be scarce until the predicted all-time record crop is harvested.

Only about 10 per cent of this country's exports of wheat and other decontrolled grains and cereals go to the other American republics and the Philippines, the spokesman said.

The action was regarded as significant, nevertheless, since it may foreshadow future relaxations in export control.

Fugitive Slays Sister, Sets Fire To House And Kills Self

HARRISON, Ark., Aug. 20. (AP) —A 60-year-old mountaineer fugitive whose sharpshooting rifle fire held off a 30-man posse for 10 hours shot his invalid sister, set fire to his house and then ended his own life near here today.

Arkansas state police director J. R. Porter, who was at the scene near Hasty, Ark., said the charred bodies of Heywood Brown and his elderly invalid sister were taken from the smouldering ruins about 4 p. m.

Porter said Brown shot his sister and set fire to the crudely constructed frame house before he shot himself shortly after noon.

BORGER GIRL 'DOING FINE'

Bladder Placed Inside Child's Body In Four-Hour Operation

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Aug. 20 — Little Linda Markham was reported "doing fine" at a local hospital today following a delicate, four-hour bladder operation.

"It is still rather early but everything looks very good now," a hospital nurse said.

The four-year-old Borger youngster had smilingly entered the gray-walled operating room at St. Joseph's infirmary, unaware of her condition and that death would be brushing near.

The operation began at 11 a. m. and ended shortly after 3 p. m.

An eminent Houston urologist, aided by a general surgeon, worked skillfully the long four hours on correcting a condition which found Linda born with her bladder outside her little body.

The urologist had given her only a "slim chance" of reaching adulthood without surgery but a 95 per cent chance of surviving the operation.

"I'm going on a wagon ride," the little girl laughed as she was wheeled into the operating room.

Little Linda, blonde and thin, has been suffering the same ailment as that of the much-publicized Chicago baby, Patricia

Terry County's First Bale Will Be Auctioned Today

BROWNFIELD, Aug. 20 (Special) — Terry county's first bale of 1948 cotton, grown by James Putty, who farms about 12 miles southwest of here, is to be auctioned at 3 p. m. Saturday on the courthouse square.

Putty's bale, ginned Tuesday by Foster Gin, was gathered from eight acres of irrigated cotton which was planted shortly after April 1. The bale weighed about 485 pounds and was taken from 1,680 pounds of seed cotton.

Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, following a custom of several years, will probably pay a premium for the bale.

B-29 BURNS

19 Killed In Air Crashes

(By The Associated Press)

RAPID CITY, S. D., Aug. 20—Seventeen men were killed late today when a B-29 crashed and burned in a wheat field just off the edge of the Army Air Force field.

Captain Thomas Siegler, public information officer, said 17 bodies were recovered from the wreckage of the plane, which burned for an hour and a half.

The heavy bomber, attached to the 28th bomb wing, was taking off on a training flight when it crashed shortly before 5 p.m. (CST). Captain Siegler said all aboard were killed.

(Two other men were killed late today in the crash of a light bomber 15 miles west of Fairfax, Va., the Air Force reported tonight. The B-26 was enroute from Bolling field, Washington, to Lockbourne Air Force base at Cleveland, Ohio).

Names of the victims were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

HST Orders Deferments

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—President Truman today set many a mind at rest by officially deferring married men, farmers, all men with dependents and many others from the 21-month peacetime draft.

The deferments are far more liberal than they were during World War II.

Draft Speedup Ordered

Most of them had been predicted long ago, but they are not official until the President announced them today in a 30-page set of regulations that also ordered selective service to speed up induction machinery.

This will be accomplished by sending out the all-important classification questionnaires as soon as possible to single, non-father, non-veteran eligibles after men 18 through 25 register at their local boards between Aug. 30 and Sept. 18. All except 18-year-olds must fill out the questionnaires.)

These forms, which will go to draft-age men 19 through 25, must be filled out in 10 days and returned to draft boards which will use them to determine classifications. (Youths of 18 are not eligible for the draft, but must register).

The classifications as listed by the President today fall into 13 groups, with men available for military service listed as 1-A. Actual drafting of 1-A men will be by age, with the oldest called first.

There will be no lottery as in

New Kremlin Parley Fails To Materialize

MOSCOW, Aug. 20 (INS)—An expected new Kremlin conference between the western envoys and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov—or Premier Stalin—failed to materialize today.

There was no official explanation, but it was believed the U S., British and French diplomats were trying to fully synchronize their views before asking for another Kremlin session.

More time has elapsed between the last Kremlin talks last Monday night and a new meeting than between any of the previous six sessions which began July 31.

Truman Leaves Capital On Campaign Planning Cruise

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP)—President Truman armed himself with campaign ammunition today and embarked on a nine-day cruise of nearby waters.

At the end of the trip on Aug. 29 he will spend a week at the White House before opening his drive for a full four-year presidential term with a one-day, five-speech swing in Michigan on Labor day.

Both Republicans and Democrats are claiming Michigan this year. The state's 19 electoral votes went to the late President Roosevelt in 1944, but only by the slim majority of 22,476 popular votes over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in a total vote of 2,191,322.

Guard Over Teacher Is Strengthened

By INEZ ROBB
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Aug. 20—The police guard over Mrs. Oksana Kosenkina was strengthened at Roosevelt hospital tonight as a result of what authorities called the "tense" situation arising from the U. S. demand for the recall of Soviet Consul General Jacob Lomakin.

Assistant chief inspector Edward Mullins, in charge of the local phases of the explosive Kosenkina case, announced the guard increase and it was he, too, who called the situation "tense."

Mullins added the cryptic comment that "things are a little desperate" at the Soviet consulate, "but we are on the alert."

Vigilance Increased

When pressed by newsmen for an explanation of what he meant by the words "tense" and "desperate," Mullins replied:

"Use your own judgment."

Within an hour, one of Mullins' ace detectives was stationed in the hospital lobby. It was revealed his orders were to "screen everyone entering or leaving."

Lomakin himself, in brief appearances at the consulate, seemed outwardly unperturbed by the international storm now swirling over his head.

Runs Into Hospital Ban

He persistently refused to answer reporters' questions. Up to a late hour tonight, he had made no comment on the State department demand that he be ousted from this country.

Lomakin did, however, through subordinates, try again to penetrate the hospital room of Mrs. Kosenkina. But he again ran into the ban on visitors from the consulate—a ban requested by the gravely injured teacher herself. She improved slightly today but is still on the critical list.

Lomakin himself did not try to see Mrs. Kosenkina today, but he telephoned several times in an effort to win a hospital okay for two doctors he had selected to examine the teacher.

Soviets Turned Down

These doctors were considered unacceptable, however, the hospital announced, because neither was a surgeon.

The attending physician said he told Lomakin that one of the two doctors was not even listed on the New York medical register.

This evening Lomakin again

Army Warns On Data Requests

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—The U. S. Army said today that requests from German individuals, farms, schools and museums for information should be regarded with a skeptical eye. Many of these requests are coming from the Russian zone, it said.

Last June the Army sent out confidential instructions to its public information officers throughout the United States to advise businessmen, key officials in industries, utilities and civic organizations to be wary of requests.

San Antonio Is Target

Much of the information sought —road maps, telephone directories, scientific journals, etc.—provides "basic intelligence information of strategic importance to all potential enemies of the United States," the Army said in alerting its public information officers.

It said a sizable number of German individuals, firms, schools, museums have made direct requests to American civic organizations and business firms during the past several months for printed material that did not seem especially to concern them.

An especial target for the information seekers has been San Antonio, Texas, one of the most important Army and Air Force posts in the United States.

Witnesses In Probe Balk

By ROSE McKEE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—Three former New Deal officials, including Lee Pressman, refused to answer today when asked if they ever were members of a Communist underground.

This latest development in the sensational, far-flung spy investigation coincided with an Army warning that Russian intelligence work in the United States is increasing.

The Army disclosed that American business firms have been asked to be on the watch for Soviet information requests and to refuse those for "basic information of strategic importance to potential enemies."

Refuse To Answer

Rep. Nixon (R Calif), a member of the House un-American Activities committee, said that the three former New Deal officials refused to say whether they ever were members of the Communist underground or of the Communist party.

Nixon said they based their refusals on grounds of self-incrimination and constitutional immunity.

In addition to Pressman, former general counsel of the WPA, the witnesses were John Abt, former assistant general counsel of the agency, and Nathan Witt, former attorney for the National Labor Relations board.

Alleged Leader Sought

Pressman, until recently CIO general counsel, is a key figure in Henry A. Wallace's Progressive party, along with Abt.

Whittaker Chambers, a former Communist, charged that the three were leaders in a Communist underground which he said sought to infiltrate the government for the eventual purpose of espionage.

Meanwhile, U. S. Immigration Commissioner Watson B. Miller told Nixon that he does not know the whereabouts of J. V. Peters, alleged "brain" of the entire Communist underground in the United States.

Deportation Hearing Due

Miller told newsmen that he has no authority to apprehend Peters except for the deportation hearing he is awaiting.

Nixon, however, disclosed that Miller told him the immigration service expects to ask Peters to appear at a deportation hearing in 10 days and the House committee could serve a subpoena on him at that time.

'RADIO SABOTAGE' TEST PLANNED

Air Force To Investigate Many Strange Fires On Illinois Farm

(By The Associated Press)

DAYTON, O., Aug. 20 — An Air Force technician raised the theory today that sabotage materials, ignited by radio waves, may be causing the strange fires on the Charles Wiley farm near Macomb, Ill.

Lewis C. Gust of the Office of Technical Projects at nearby Wright Field said an expert had been ordered to the Macomb area to test for "very high frequencies and short wave."

"It is our business to investigate such matters," Gust said. Ordinarily, we wouldn't go so far afield, but the situation at Macomb was just too unusual to ignore. We weren't called in."

Two hundred fires—their origins unknown to authorities—have sprung up on the Willey farm. Three new ones struck last night; one destroyed a second barn.

Two others, in a chicken house and a milk house, were put out by the elderly farm couple, who are living in a tent near the site of their former home.

Gust said radio-combustibles were possible.

"If it is true," he said, "we think it must be very high fre-

Other Russian Officials May Face Action

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Secretary of State Marshall, acting on an order from President Truman, today virtually directed the Russian consul-general at New York to leave this country.

A note delivered to the Russian embassy in Washington stated that the consul-general, Jacob M. Lomakin, had misinformed his own government, sought to mislead the American people, and otherwise "abused" his official position.

The charge grew out of Lomakin's actions in the case of the Russian school teacher, Mrs. Oksana Kosenkina, who last week threw herself from an upper story window of the consular building in New York, receiving serious injuries.

Lomakin's Conduct Scored

"The United States government considers that Consul-General Lomakin's conduct constitutes an abuse of the prerogatives of his position and a gross violation of the internationally accepted standards governing the conduct of foreign officials," Secretary Marshall's note to the Soviet embassy stated.

"The Department of State is therefore requesting the President to revoke the exequatur issued to Consul-General Lomakin, and it is requested that he leave the United States within a reasonable time."

The note also referred to "highly improper" conduct of other Russian officials.

Chepurnykh Not Mentioned

It did not name them, however, or set forth any details of what they had done. Diplomatic observers inferred that the United States might take similar action against other Soviet officials if it deems them guilty of "improper conduct."

Michael J. McDermott, State department press officer, did not amplify these points in a news conference. He was questioned specifically about possible action against Zot I. Chepurnykh, Soviet vice-consul, and he replied "I know nothing about that—our opinion so far is limited to Lomakin."

Asked about the other "officials" mentioned in the note, he replied. "That's a good sentence—those who wrote the note mean it."

As for the Kosenkina case, McDermott said it is not closed. He called attention to the American

Heat Wave Hits Most Of State

Lubbock and South Plains residents who thought it was hot Friday were much better off than other parts of the state where the heat wave of the past few days sent the mercury soaring to scorching readings.

The mercury hit a 97 degree maximum here Friday afternoon after a dry wind out of the south southwest whipped up a fog of dust in the rural areas. At one time, about 9:30 a. m., the wind hit a maximum speed of 27 miles an hour.

Cool Front On Way

The humidity during the day here was below average. A high of 55 per cent was recorded at 5 a. m. but during the afternoon the reading dropped to 30 per cent, the Weather bureau said.

Meanwhile, a cool front swung into the Panhandle area late Friday, the weatherman said, but it is not expected to move into the South Plains until Sunday. The forecast for today is partly cloudy with scattered showers during the afternoon and evening. Little change in temperature is expected.

Over the rest of the state Friday, however, the temperature hit record and near record highs, the Associated Press reported.

Dallas and Mineral Wells caught the full blast of the mid-summer heat. Temperatures there were 107, hottest in the sun-scorched state. It was the hottest Aug 20 on record in Dallas, the Associated Press said.

Other temperature readings included.

Dukes Drop Hubs

Cantrell Gets Fifteenth Win

ALBUQUERQUE, Aug. 20 (Special) — Albuquerque's league-leading Dukes rallied in the late innings to pound out an 8-3 victory over the Lubbock Hubbers here tonight in the final regular season meeting of the two teams.

The Dukes tallied a single run in the first inning, off Hub starter Roy Larue, then tied the count at 3-3 with a two-run outburst in the bottom of the fourth. Two more runs in the seventh and three in the eighth clinched the win for the home nine.

The Hubbers, who were bumped down to fourth place in the league standings as a result of the defeat, pushed across their three runs in the top of the fourth stanza. With one out, Floyd Walker slammed a double down the left field foul line, then Frank McAlexander waited out a free pass to first.

Don Moore, playing in right field tonight, scored Walker with a sharp single and Jack Wilcox walked to keep the rally moving. Larue struck out, but Chick Fowler's bingle scored McAlexander and Moore with the second and third runs.

The loop-leaders moved back into a deadlock in the bottom of the frame, as Les Mulcahy and Don Cantrell drew walks. After Len Attyd went out on a short fly, Frank Okrie walked to fill the bases and Will Dixon's bingle tallied Mulcahy and Cantrell.

Two runs in the seventh inning clinched the win for the Dukes, with Hershel Martin and Len Pill scoring on Dick Dawson's triple.

Cantrell gave up just seven safeties in chalking up his fifteenth mound win of the season, although he walked six Hub batters. Larue, who went the route for the Lubbock crew, was charged with the defeat.

The Hubbers move to Pampa Saturday night for the initial tilt in a two-game series.

Houck stayed in the race with a one-up decision on the twentieth hole.

Pro Cardinals Beat College Stars, 28-0

All-Stars Make Only One Threat

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP) — The Chicago Cardinals, displaying the class that swept them to the 1947 championship of the National Football league, tonight ended the College All-Stars' two year domination of the annual game by burying the Collegians under a 28 to 0 score.

The game, played in flood-lighted Soldier Field, drew a shirt sleeved crowd of 101,220 spectators.

The Cardinals' margin of victory was the widest in the history of the 15-year-old series.

The All-Stars, coached by Notre Dame's Frank Leahy, made only one serious threat with their heralded twin offensive. That was in the third period when the Collegians marched 84 yards to the Cardinals' one yard line.

Collegians Bewildered

The slashing running of Charley Trippi, Georgia's one time All-America, Pat Harder and Elmer Angsman, a former Notre Dame star, and the passing of Paul Christman and Ray Mallouff riddled and bewildered the outplayed Collegians.

The professional champions scored with apparent ease in every period, with the exception of the third, when they throttled the one All-Star threat on their one-yard stripe.

The first two touchdowns came on Cardinal marches of 80 and 82 yards. On the first, half back Elmer Angsman smashed across from the two yard line. The second long drive was capped by Vic Schwall's explosive 14 yard scoring thrust in the second period.

Bobby Layne Fumbles

After the scoreless third period, the Cardinals capitalized on miscues by the tiring Collegians. Center Vince Banonis, a defensive thorn in the All-Stars side all evening, intercepted a pass by Illinois' Perry Moss and waltzed 31 yards for a touchdown.

The fourth and final touchdown came after the Cardinals recovered a fumble by the All-Stars Bobby Layne on the college 12. Four plays later Mallouff fired a pass to Trippi, who speared the ball on the five and sneaked across the goal line.

Harder, former Michigan star, place kicked all four extra point tries.

Westerners Hold Scrimmage Session

Lubbock High's Westerner gridders had their first full-scale scrimmage session of the new season Friday afternoon at Chapman field, as Coach C. R. (Pat) Pattison gave the candidates a brief tryout "under fire."

Pattison used every player on the squad during the 30-minute session, alternating combinations on offense and defense. There are no first or second team lineups, and all the boys are very much in the race for starting assignments.

The candidates also received last-minute instructions concerning the journey to Lawton, Okla., for a one-week grid camp. The group will leave Lubbock at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning, then will return the following Sunday, Aug. 29.

Pafko's Homer Gives Cubs 5-2 Win Over Reds

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP) — The Chicago Cubs defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 2, here today in the battle for the National League cellar before a ladies day crowd of 21,614. It sliced Cincinnati's seventh-place margin over the Cubs to one and a half games.

Andy Pafko paced the eight-hit Cub assault on Howard Fox and Harry Gumbert with a two-run homer, his 19th of the season, a double and a single. Pafko's homer came in the first inning to set up a quick lead.

The Reds tallied once in the sixth on a pair of singles by Claude Corbitt and Ted Kluszewski and had the bases loaded when Dobernic relieved McCall and got the side out.

Sunbeamers Slated To Open Playoffs In Monahans Tonight

The Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers softball team, first place winners in the Texas Softball League, will open the Shaughnessy playoffs for the title in Monahans tonight.

At the same time, the Baldridge Bakery nine of Lubbock will meet Ragsdale of San Angelo at San Angelo in the other opening round games of the playoffs.

Both series will be best two out of three, with two games on the schedule for tonight. If a third game is necessary, teams will rest until Sunday afternoon, when the final tilt will be played.

The final round between the two winners will be unreeled next week in a three out of five game series. If both Lubbock teams should win opening round series, the tournament probably will be played at Jumbo Webster Field in Lubbock.

Jackie Neel probably will hurl the first game tonight for the Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers, while G. W. Warden is expected to go in the second game.

For Baldridge, Loy Hubbard is the probable first game starter.

IN MISSOURI:

The Cat Comes Back

THE tenacity with which political machines cling to life has been illustrated again by the news that the Pendergast organization again has won control of the Jackson county, Mo., Democratic committee.

If ever there was a machine which has appeared completely smashed, it was the Pendergast organization of Kansas City. It appeared dead beyond the possibility of revival several years ago when the late Tom Pendergast was sent to prison after launching Harry S. Truman on the political career which carried him into the White House. It apparently was dead, again, when grand jury investigations, actual and threatened, a few months ago caused the leaders of the revived machine—including Jim Pendergast, nephew of Tom—to announce "abdication."

Now the machine bobs up again, apparently more powerful than ever. Just how this revival was accomplished is not clear. But one fact which is clear is that the Pendergast organization is back on its feet in time to do battle for its No. 1 protege, Harry Truman.

The "Met's" Woes

RECENT reports that the Metropolitan Opera company may not open for its usual Fall and Winter season in New York City this year because of labor and financial difficulties implied less fault with the operatic art than with Metropolitan's operating policies.

Most public sympathy doubtless is with Metropolitan's refusal of the demand of one of the stagecraft unions for increased wages. But the conviction probably is widespread that Metropolitan itself is chiefly to blame for the fact that it has operated "in the red" year after year.

One obvious reason for Metropolitan's consistent record as a financial flop has been that it has catered entirely too much to the long-hair set. Performances too often have appeared to be occasions more for the snobbish display of finery than for the interpretation of what some people call fine music.

The atmosphere has been anything but hospitable for the plain John Q. Citizens who, if encouraged, might attend in sufficient numbers to provide a handsome profit in New York City, just as they have done in many smaller cities—Atlanta, Kansas City and others—where the Metropolitan has played limited and highly lucrative engagements.

The Metropolitan could, in short, reasonably expect to show a profit if it would cater to those who might attend because they love opera, rather than to those who merely want to show off clothes, diamonds and hair-dos.

"Men judge women by the things they refrain from saying," declares a psychologist. With so little to go on, it is no wonder that we men can't understand women.

Bitter Reprieve

By DREXEL DRAKE
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling has stolen his wife's diamond necklace and handed it over as security on a $10,000 gambling debt to racketeer Harry Bindle. To cover the theft, perpetrated while his wife slept, Sterling makes it appear a professional burglary. He spends the night at Edgecraft Country Club to establish an alibi. Along with the necklace he also took a sealed packet from his wife's safe. This turns out to be $10,000 in cash which Miriam Sterling had withdrawn from the bank for him.

Next morning Mrs. Sterling is found murdered in bed. At the club, Sterling gets rid of Miriam's cash by mailing it in a sealed packet to his secretary, Miss Wilson. Police Lt. Talent brings Sterling home. He is confronted with the body, the evidences of burglary in the library. Sterling says he knows he's under suspicion but is just as anxious as the police to get his hands on the murderer.)

NO one stirred immediately. Neither Talent nor Trapgood could have guessed that the initiative was so sweepingly to be taken away from them.

Talent managed a patient, soothing grin.

"Let's not be careless about those words 'under suspicion,' Mr. Sterling," he said. "If you mean by that that we suspect you of murdering your wife, that's preposterous and beyond any notion that has entered our heads. There are degrees of suspicion. In a murder case, every straw is weighed. We go after an explanation for every unexplained circumstance. If you prefer, call them suspicious circumstances. Certainly your absence from home last night, particularly as you did not leave home for your club until after midnight, and again particularly as it left your wife at home alone in this big house in a secluded community, comes under that head. I appreciate your candor and welcome your offer of help . . . putting it that we have the same job. So let's get the time element straight."

"Okay, Lieutenant," Sterling said. "Where do we begin?"

"Exactly at what time did you leave here last night?"

"Very close to 20 minutes after 12."

"And you went directly to Edgecraft Country Club?"

"Yes."

"How long had you been at home, Mr. Sterling?"

"I came home at 10 o'clock."

"So that from 10 o'clock until you left for Edgecraft at about 20 minutes after midnight, you were here in the house alone, is that right?"

"OH, no. My wife came home about half an hour after I did.

Both Talent and Trapgood were caught off guard by that unexpected reply. They were tricked into an exchange of surprised glances which did not escape Sterling, but he betrayed no interest.

"I'm sorry," Talent said, "but I was misled into that assumption because of the note you left for your wife on the mirror of her dressing table. Naturally, that's how I knew you were at Edgecraft."

"I've assumed that," Sterling said quietly.

"Mrs. Sterling came home alone, did she?"

"Of course. She was coming home for the night."

Trapgood cupped his chin and inserted, "We're right, are we, Sterling, in assuming that you were here alone until your wife came home?"

"I was the only one in the house. I was sitting in this chair reading. She came in here and sat with me a short time before going upstairs."

"Yet you left a note for her, and one we can't be sure she read because apparently she didn't take it down from the mirror," Talent said.

"Well, she really had no reason to take it down and read it," Sterling volunteered. "When I came home about 10, with my mind set on going out to Edgecraft for overnight, I went up to my room and packed my bag. Then I wrote a note to my wife and put in it her room where you saw it. I came downstairs, left my bag in the hall, and came in here for a drink. I was having, I believe my second drink, when Mrs. Sterling came in. Naturally, I told her I was going to Edgecraft, mentioning that I had left a note."

"So that it was yesterday's newspaper when she got up to her room and she didn't bother about it," Trapgood conceded.

"Exactly," Sterling said.

"YOU say she was in here with you a short time only," Talent said. "Long enough for a drink, or a cigaret?"

"She didn't smoke while she was in here, Lieutenant. She sat in that chair," Sterling pointed.

Talent got up, walked to the smudged spot on the rug near the doorway. "There's a real point, Mr. Sterling, in asking you if she smoked a cigaret while she was in here . . ." Indicating the smudge with a toe, Talent said, "On this spot we found a partly smoked Lucky, showing a lipstick ring. It had been mashed out under foot. Your maid, Stella Nelson, takes an oath that it wasn't her cigaret. Could it be that Mrs. Sterling was smoking when she came in here, dropped her lighted cigaret on the rug and mashed it out?"

A partly smoked Lucky with a lipstick ring! Sterling wondered if the shock of that surprising announcement had betrayed itself in the twitch he had not entirely arrested.

"My wife did smoke Luckies," he replied, "but I'm postive she was not smoking when she came in here last night, and she didn't smoke while she was in here. In no circumstances, believe me, would she have crushed out a lighted cigaret on the rug. And I would be inclined to believe Stella."

Talent walked back to his chair thoughtfully. "That makes it a live clew," he said.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

SOME of my best friends are vice-presidents.

So I am not trying to make fun of vice-presidents.

As a matter of fact, the very editor who reads this column in my syndicate may be a vice-president, for all I know, so if he should get mad at me you might not even read this little item

BRANDEIS

But it is definitely news, so I'll take a chance.

A dog has just been named vice-president of a chemical firm in New Jersey, and honorary vice-president, at that.

The name of the firm doesn't matter. The whole thing may be just a publicity stunt, and I hate to be a fall guy for press agents.

But I'll give you the dog's name — "Mr. Magnus."

It seems that Mr. Magnus, a two-year-old stray, resembling a beagle, appeared at the company's front door one morning and refused to go away.

He wasn't much good as a watchdog, but he showed other traits which, in the opinion of the firm's executive vice-president, entitled him to join the rank of the firm's top executives.

So, from now on, Mr. Magnus will be honorary vice-president for life and entitled to all the emoluments of his office, namely a good place to sleep and free board — which is more than a whole lot of human vice-presidents are sure of.

In announcing the appointment, the executive gave the reasons.

"Mr. Magnus was put on the payroll as an assistant watchman, but such work was obviously not his forte.

"He was more the executive type.

"His ability to get along with anyone, his prompt response to a pat on the back, his interest in watching others work, his great knack for looking wise and saying nothing, made him a natural for quick promotion."

I SUGGEST you read this citation over again.

Then let your mind run over some of the people in your own organization.

I bet you'll recognize more than one "Mr. Magnus" in several of the offices marked "Vice President" — and perhaps you may even recognize a little of "Mr. Magnus" in yourself.

I know, because I was a vice-president once and, by golly, if I weren't absolutely sure that I am not a stray beagle, I'd swear the fellow who issued the above citation was talking about me.

I, too, loved to watch others work, and I had a rare knack for "looking wise and saying nothing," thus succeeding in letting my superiors take ignorance for wisdom.

But did I really succeed?

I wonder. I asked them for a raise. They made me a vice-president instead.

It didn't mean much, as I found out when I was fired.

But it looked swell on my calling cards.

LABOR BACKS PLAN

U. S. System Praised

BY RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—President Truman has enlisted the aid of leaders of organized labor in an all-out, world-wide effort to convince the workers of Europe that the American system of individual enterprise offers a more abundant life to men and women who toil than the gains promised the "prisoners of starvation" by Josef Stalin. It is an unpublicized but extremely important offshoot of the Marshall Plan.

Mr. Truman has even permitted his Army industrial relations experts to eulogize John L. Lewis in a revised pamphlet on "Organized Labor in the United States," which was originally written for distribution among our troops in Germany.

TUCKER

It notes that the United Mine Workers boss has achieved "remarkable gains" for his men, with nary a word of the difficulties he created for the Roosevelt-Truman Administration during and since the conflict. It suggests that reports of serious strikes are "exaggerated."

STANDARD: This document, which emphasizes the American workingman's high standard of living, is only a small part of the movement to answer the Kremlin's charges, inflated by the Wallace-for-President movement, that this country's 62,000,000 employees are only waiting to join a Communist movement for destruction of the capitalistic structure on a global scale.

E.C.A. Administrator Paul Hoffman, who never had a major strike at his automobile plant in South Bend, Ind., recognized immediately the need of labor cooperation.

For advisers he selected two of the ablest men in the C.I.O. and A.F. of L., respectively—Clinton Golden and Bert Jewell. He plans to name labor experts for each mission to a foreign country, always seeking the right man for the right place.

SIGNIFICANCE: He has given his blessing to the voluntary efforts of American leaders to enlighten their foreign associates on the underlying significance of the Marshall Plan as it affects workers everywhere.

Among those now conferring with members of the British Labor Party and Trade Union movement are such outstanding laborites as George Harrison of the Railway Clerks and David Dubinsky of the Ladies Garment Workers.

It is their assignment to propagandize that our foreign aid program is not designed to steal their markets or jobs from them, as Stalin and Wallace allege. And had it not been for the fact that this propaganda was discovered to have made some headway overseas, the enlistment of labor would not have been considered so essential.

RECALL: Mr. Hoffman's A. F. of L-C. I. O. aides face formidable opposition in their good will campaign from their enemies on the American labor front.

Mr. Wallace's supporters among the left-wing unions have tried to create an unfavorable impression of labor's status in the United States. A delegation of Harry Bridges' West Coast longshoremen is now touring the ports of Europe, beginning at Marseilles and winding up with a vodka blowout at Moscow at the personal invitation of the Soviet dictator.

In accord with the Wallace platform, which denounced the Marshall Plan as "imperialistic" and demanded "appeasement" of Russia, the Bridges group has been telling the European Reds what they want to hear—namely, that the revolution of our downtrodden and underpaid proletariat is just around the corner.

According to more substantial labor observers who have trailed the Bridges delegation, they have "loused it up over there." Indeed, their bitter comments on the domestic industrial scene are so violent that there have been demands for rcall of their passports.

SIGNIFICANT: An influential faction of the British Labor Party, possibly prodded by a few vociferous "Commies," has always been suspicious of the Marshall Plan. They resent the fresh deprivations they must suffer under our demand that Britain help herself by cutting domestic production so as to increase her export trade. They figure that Uncle Sam is keeping them hungry and homeless.

It may be significant that among the American labor leaders engaged in Hoffman missionary work is Jay Lovestone, secretary of the Communist Party in the U. S. 20 years ago, but now viciously anti-Red. His personal experiences, as well as the reasons for his shift, may win converts.

SURPRISE: The Army pamphlet may surprise even domestic lookers-on and participants in the labor-management drama, in view of the Truman-Clark injunction battles with Mr. Lewis and the railroad unions. The April edition was revised abroad after criticism that it read like a political placard, and that it was "too favorable to labor."

The new issue contains few alterations or additions, but two are of current significance, against the background of the presidential campaign and our clash with the Kremlin. A fresh chart shows "What John L. Lewis has won for his miners since 1940." It mentions a 100 per cent wage increase, travel time pay, vacations with pay and the welfare fund. It doesn't say that he may support Governor Dewey.

An extra section belabors the Russian industrial system. It says that Stalin's workers enjoy "no freedom" and "no collective bargaining," and are regular victims of the "speed-up and stretch-out". It doesn't mention that employees or managers who fail to meet production schedules are sent to Siberia.

A man can't tell by what she's saying when a woman is being catty to another woman, but he can tell by the tone of her voice. If she is cooing, she's ripping the hide open in some especially tender place.

The Constitution is something many a congressman ignores until he needs it to hide behind in order to escape a burning issue.

"Falling in love is the same thing as going crazy," says a psychiatrist. This explains how the dizzy blonde can fall in love so often with no disastrous effects (to her): She hasn't far to fall.

The laws of averages don't always work. For example, it is said a fourth of American women are on a diet, yet the chance that a woman a man invites out to dinner is in this class is less than 1 in 40.

The person who says youth is only a state of mind invariably has more state of mind than youth.

A man who puts his head in a lion's mouth doesn't take much risk. He hasn't much to lose, anyway.

There are times when working in order to live in order to continue to work in order to continue to live seems terribly futile.

It is far easier to run into dept than it is to outrun bill collectors.

Believe It Or Not -- By Robert Ripley

REFORMS AGAIN ARE NEEDED

Progressive Move Now Divided

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The sad and divided state of political progressivism in the U. S. A. today needs no exhibit or proof.

It is in plain view, visible to the naked eye.

It appears most dramatically in the disintegration of the party which was once a dynamic organization, the Democratic party. There you have a president and party leader who is, by instinct, in the progressive tradition but almost completely helpless because he does not have a party that can function, unitedly, on any progressive issue in Congress where it counts.

STOKES

That was clear to anyone who watched the 80th Congress. There, time after time on major issues involving favors for big business and monopoly you watched conservative southern Democrats standing side by side with Republicans to make an overwhelming majority. Only a corporal's guard, largely Democrats but with a few stray Republicans, would stand up to say nay. The role of the latter was entirely negative. They didn't have enough votes or influences to start anything of their own in the general public interest.

Various Groups Busy

Outside there was Henry Wallace hopping off to start a new party only to get himself all entangled with Communists.

Outside also was the somewhat forlorn group of one-time New Deal lieutenants who rejected any Third Party notion, particularly with Henry Wallace, thus showing some political astuteness, but then joning up at the Democratic convention with big city bosses and their Southern Democratic enemies in a futile and foolish attempt to replace Harry Truman.

All this running around at loose ends was due, of course, to just one thing, the loss of the leader who had held them together, thought for them, organized them, and told them what to do. He was their great strength when he was here, and his absence constituted their great weakness. They had let him do their thinking and their work for them. They had relied solely on him and, meanwhile, had neglected to build up an organization back to the grass roots which would not depend upon one man but could function on its own.

Now, at last, the Progressive forces seem to have waked up to the fact that Franklin D. Roosevelt is dead. They have waked up to something else, too, which is if you want something changed in this country, which means a law, then you've got to get a bill through Congress, and to do that you've got to have people in Congress who will vote for it. Such as a housing bill, or an education bill, or a health bill, or an anti-inflation bill. Or, if the special interests want something that you don't want, then you've got to have enough people in Congress to stop that. The 80th Congress was lesson enough in all that. Or, if you want to stir up the public about something, either for it or against it, then you need people in Congress who have the courage to rise up and speak about it, or start an investigation about it.

Big Vote Is Sought

So today we find the CIO and PAC, its Political Action committee, and the AFL and ADA, Americans for Democratic action, the anti-Communist progressive organization, getting down to brass tacks and organizing people to get out and vote next November on Congress.

In their pamphlets they all point out that only 34,000,000 persons voted in 1946 when we got the 80th Congress, though 91,000,000 were eligible to vote. They are working on the theory, which is sound, that there is plenty of Progressivism in this country, if it will only get out and express itself. This year they believe there's plenty of reason for it to express itself, and that is sound, too.

This is the way the progressive movement can be built up again—the slow way, the hard way, but the only way.

This period is in many ways like that after the first World War when a reaction set in that brought the same special favors for big special interests from Congresses that did very little for ordinary people. But there was a nucleus of progressivism in Congress that slowly grew. It was able and effective at prying behind the scenes and finding out who got the money so that, when the inevitable breakup came with the depression, it had educated the public to some of the facts of life, and the public was receptive to the necessary measures.

This slow process seems to be beginning again, which is all to the good. It is about time.

New Rules To Begin Sept. 20
Loans, Installment Buying Affected

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—The government today pulled a brake on free-wheeling credit.

New rules to stiffen "easy payment" loans and purchases covering most consumer goods costing from $50 to $5,000 were posted officially by the Federal Reserve board. They take effect Sept. 20.

Businessmen were divided. Some thought it "fair and reasonable." One furniture executive denounced it as "rationing the poor."

These are the terms—backed up by criminal penalties and the power of the Federal Reserve board to put a violator out of the business:

One-third down on automobiles. A 15-month time limit to complete payment if the article costs $1,000 or less.

An 18-month limit on credit over $1,000, but with a minimum $70 monthly payment.

Suspects Held In Burglaries Here

Four persons, one a juvenile girl, have been returned to Lubbock for investigation into several burglaries committed here.

Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank and City Detective LeRoy Boling, jr., delivered three of the defendants: Robert Louis Scales, 31, a Clarksville negro accused of burglary Aug. 16 of a residence of Surlester Hereford, another negro; Paul James, 23, of Lubbock, charged with burglary May 14 of property controlled by Chester Putteet; and Johnny Williams, 23, a Slaton negro accused of burglary Jan. 19 of property of Hosie Wayne.

Arrested At Seminole

The girl, reputed to be only 15, was arrested by officials at Seminole, E. H. Gilbert of the state highway patrol, informed Lubbock officers. Detective Capt. Pat Davidson and Dep. Sheriff F. H. Bolen transferred her here. The girl was questioned into a series of offenses. Officials said someone answering her description in recent weeks had entered numerous houses here. If occupants were found inside the intruder would ask to use the phone, or would inquire where the bathroom was. If no one was there, officials said they believed she took possessions.

The suspect had been sought over a wide section of this area in recent days.

Admits Five Burglaries

The girl, who said her father lives in Hobbs, N. M., and a sister in Morton, admitted to five burglaries, Capt. Davidson said.

Sh denied that she had figured in eight other offenses, burglaries and thefts, that had been reported here recently.

Recovered from her, or recovered before her arrest and admitted taken by her, were a diamond ring, a radio and a ballerina skirt.

The 5-foot 3-inch, 119 pound brown-eyed girl admitted the following burglaries:

On Aug. 5, at the L. O. Griggs residence at 1711 Seventh; Aug. 12, the 1502 Ninth apartment of Mrs. Ocie D. Wadsworth; Aug. 14, the residence of J. S. White at 2402 Tenth; Aug. 15, the quarters of Lois Butler of 1908 Main; and a brief time later a residence in 2400-block Main.

She admitted having taken the following other properties: $135,60 in money, a fountain pen, a purse, a billfold, two handbags and a child's bank.

Capt. Davidson said the case would be turned over to the juvenile officials here for further action. John W. Wilson is city-county juvenile counsellor.

Dep. Sheriff Earl Horton and Police Patrolman Jerry Hoover left for El Reno, Okla., where officials said they were holding J. C. Wells. Wells, it was announced here, is under 72nd court indictment charging desertion of minor children.

Women Are Fined

Police said 16 women were fined $25 on pleas of guilty of guilty of vagrancy by prostitution. Two other women, both negroes were fined for simple assault, after one reputedly beat the other with a chairleg.

Fender skirts valued at $25 were stolen from the car of Maxey Bagwell of Texas Tech.

County Judge Walter Davies said bonds were set for two defendants who pleaded innocent of charges—Willie Jean Green, about 35, a negro woman charged with aggravated assault upon an 8-months-old infant; and Billy Gene Johnson, charged with driving while his operator's license was suspended.

The mother of the infant, Virginia Askew, swore to the complaint naming the Green woman.

the release of his men.

Two of the policemen later escaped in the milling crowd, but three still were held hostage tonight. Ashworth said he has demanded their immediate release.

The incident, he said, was a clear violation of United States jurisdiction.

Since the police force split into East and West units, the Moscow-trained head of the Soviet sector police, Paul Markgraf, has ordered his men to ignore sector boundaries in their operations.

Reviewing last night's rioting at Potsdamer Platz, Col. Frank L. Howley, United States commander of Berlin, said, "it must be recognized that German police have a right to defend themselves against attack by lawbreakers.

"The lawlessness indicated in yesterday's activities in the Soviet sector is regretable, but it is quite understandable that police in the Soviet sector are having difficulty maintaining law and order, and maintaining respect of the population, in the face of the known criminal records of their leaders.

quencies or short wave.

"We can't afford to take any chances. We must test anything, even if it sounds a bit farfetched. We don't miss any bets over here."

As the Air Force proceeded on its own investigation of the bizarre fires, state Fire Marshal John Crait of Illinois led the official probe.

Assisting, said Gust, are the National Board of Fire Underwriters and the University of Illinois. He explained these two agencies are attempting to determine which, if any, special materials were present in all the fires.

"They are even testing the soil", said Gust. "This could be a natural phenomenon."

Fire Marshal Crait quoted Gust as saying the origin of the Willey farm fires may be related to several unsolved airplane fires in which, he said, radio-activity is suspected of playing a part.

Gust did not elaborate on this statement in an interview.

Commission Is Asked For Drilling Permit On King County Well

Request for a permit to start drilling by Aug. 31 on a 7,000-foot wildcat in the Bateman Ranch area of East-Central King county, has been filed by Humble Oil and Refining company, through its North Texas division office at Wichita Falls, in an application with the Texas Railroad Commission.

The exploration will be Humble No. 43 Bateman Trust estate. It is located 7.3 miles northeast of the town of Guthrie, and 4,052 feet from north and 1,065 feet from east lines of section 114, block A, John B. Rector survey.

This prospector is adjacent to producers from the regular Bateman Ranch pay in the upper Pennsylvanian lime, at around 3,700 feet.

It is presumed that operator hopes to find the Ellenburger in going to 7,000 feet in the No. 43 Batesman Trust estate.

Drillstem Test Is Made

Cities Service No. 1 Burney, Southwest Scurry county deep wildcat, 15 miles southwest of Snyder, and 1,980 feet from north and 2,130 feet from west lines of section 143, block 97, H & T C survey, took a one hour drillstem test in a Pennsylvanian lime at 7,414-30 feet.

There was a fair blow of air throughout the period. Recovery was 130 feet of muddy, salty, sulphur water, and 500 feet of salty, sulphur water. No signs of oil or gas were reported.

The exploration is making more hole below 7,455 feet in lime.

It had shown some small quantities of free oil in a previous drillstem test at 7,394-7,415 feet. Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Winston, four miles south of Snyder, in South-Central Scurry county, and 330 feet from north and west lines of tract 72, Kirkland and Fields survey No. 37, took a two and one half hour drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian at 7,183-7,200 feet.

Gas Shows At Surface

Gas, of an unreported amount, showed at the surface in 21 minutes. Recovery was 310 feet of oil, 95 feet of oil cut with drilling mud, and five feet of salt water.

The development is drilling ahead belowe 7,236 feet. This prospector has shown for a possible small commercial producer from a Pennsylvanian lime above 6,918 feet. It is scheduled to drill on down to the Ellenburger, unless it gets better indications of possible production than has so far been encountered.

Clemency Record Hit

again, to commit crimes upon defenseless people," he said.

Coke Told Of "Discontent"

Wyatt charged that another board member had apprised Stevenson of "discontent" in the penitentiary because, he said, first termers would frequently serve more time than a three or four-time convict with the same sentence.

Wyatt quoted the 1946 state auditor's report as showing that 2,754 convicts released during that year included 722 burglars, 608 murders, 507 robbers, 465 thieves, 221 forgers, 127 sex offenders, 18 embezzlers, 18 men guilty of unnatural crimes, eight swindlers, six bigamists, and four kidnappers.

"I could tell you of actual case histories which would make your blood run cold," Wyatt said. "Such as the case of the man who committed a terrible offense against a girl theological student in Fort Worth. He was released under a clemency signed by Gov. Stevenson's name, and while on parole tried to commit the very same offense against another girl. He was sent back to prison and served a few more months and then, believe it or not, he was turned loose again. What did he do? Why he attempted his third attack on a defenseless little school girl. This time, every parent fervently hopes, he is behind the bars for good."

Cites Other Cases

Wyatt said this was "no isolated case."

Let's dip into the grabbag of crime again and pull out another," he said, citing an instance of "a particularly horrible character who was molesting small girls."

"The board of pardons . . . looked at some photographs which this man had taken, the details of which are too revolting to tell you about. They placed these pictures in the man's file with a notation that he should never be released. Yet he was freed—freed to destroy the morals of children," Wyatt said.

"So far as I know, Mr. Stevenson's comment on this record has been that signing clemencies recommended by the board is a matter of routine, and that the pardon record is not an issue in this campaign. That may be. It is true that a member of the United States Senate has nothing to do with clemencies. In any event, I have made this talk because I think that the people of Texas are entitled to the facts with reference to pardons and paroles," he concluded.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 20. (AP)—Cotton futures were irregular in slow dealings today. Scattered selling developed on reports of further easing in prices for cotton textiles due to a slow demand for goods. Hedge selling was light, as producers awaited better prices in the futures market for hedging purposes.

Advices also said the warehousemen and ginners predict a large part of the southeastern ginnings will go into the government loan at current prices. Storage space for loaned cotton was reported ample.

Futures closed 90 cents a bale higher to 65 cents lower than the previous close.

request for two letters written by Mrs. Kosenkina.

Russian On Spot

The American action apparently puts Lomakin on an extremely hot spot. He will lose his official status here in a few days by order of President Truman. If he goes home to Russia, American diplomats believe, he will be in bad trouble for having bungled the refugee school teacher case; if he doesn't leave this country readily he may be deported — unless of course he wants to join the ranks of the Red Russian refugees which no one here expects. In New York, Lomakin declined to discuss his situation.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters "the whole thing was done under the President's orders."

The action against Lomakin was part of a three-front attack by the United States last night and today against Russia in the diplomatic-propaganda battle between Washington and Moscow over Russian refugee school teachers. They are Mr. and Mrs. Mikhail I. Samarine and Mrs. Kosenkina.

The Russians had filed three major protest notes charging American authorities with helping a private organization, the Tolstoy foundation, to "kidnap" the teachers; "surrender" of the teachers was demanded; punishment was asked for New York policemen who allegedly entered the consulate, at the time of the Kosenkina jump without permission.

sent two consulate secretaries to Roosevelt hospital. They conducted an extended and frequently excited conversation with hospital authorities, insisting on their "right" to enter the sickroom.

Seemingly more nervous than in the past, Zina Ivanora and Maria Kharlamova protested loudly to assistant hospital director Michael Mertel but were turned down coldly because Mrs. Kosenkina herself had refused to see them.

They said again they had a letter from "Moscow relatives" for Mrs. Kosenkina. Newsmen pointed out that Mrs. Kosenkina herself had said she had no relatives in Moscow.

Then Miss Ivanora said: "Well, it might be from one of her neighbors."

With that, they left the hospital again.

Witnesses Balk

Peters appear Wednesday when Alger Hiss, former State department policy official charged by Chambers of having been a Communist agent, faces his accuser.

Questions Declined

Chambers testified that Peters was the man who introduced him to Hiss. However, Hiss said that Chambers introduced himself as a "George Crosley."

The committee wants to know who is telling the truth in the conflict-ridden Hiss-Chambers case.

The three former New Deal officials followed one another in quick succession into the closed-door hearing.

Asked if the three witnesses threw any light on the spy case, Nixon replied that sometimes a refusal to answer is "more revealing" than an answer.

West Texas C-C To Continue Using Old Federal Building

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP) — The West Texas Chamber of Commerce was assured today it can continue using the old Federal building in Abilene.

Rep. Burleson (D-Tex), after conference with public buildings commissioner W. E. Reynolds, said a new five-year contract will be signed with the city so that the chamber can continue to occupy it under sublease.

The new contract will not contain a 90-day concellation clause as did the one under which the building was acquired by the chamber and made into a headquarters and museum.

Reynolds gave assurance that in all probability the contract will be renewed every five years so long as the building stands and is wanted by the Texas organization, said Burleson.

Attempt To Escape Fails For Convict

TEXARKANA, Aug. 20. (UP)—A convicted negro slayer of a former Bowie county officer yesterday failed to make good a desperate bid to escape death in the electric chair when a pistol which had been smuggled to him failed to fire.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Riley escaped death when the hammer jammed on an old model 32 pistol that Andrew Hill pulled from under his shirt.

He flashed the weapon as officers removed him from his cell, preparatory to taking him to the state penitentiary at Huntsville.

Jailer Sam Rainey said Hill jammed the barrel of the gun in Riley's stomach and pulled the trigger. The gun failed to fire. Hill then broke and ran down the hall of the jail and started to enter the kitchen, where he pulled the gun on Mrs. Rainey.

Door Slammed Against Him

She slammed a screen door against him, knocking his arm upward. The gun was discharged into the air.

Hill then ran from the jail but was captured some 400 yards away by Riley. Riley and Deputy Sheriff Clarence Thompson then left for Huntsville with the condemned man.

Hill was sentenced to die last November for the fatal shoting of R. F. Talley, former Texarkana policeman. He is to be executed Sept. 3.

Senate Candidates File Second Primary Expense Accounts

(By The Associated Press)

The two candidates in Texas' heated U. S. senatorial runoff campaign continued to talk about each other last night.

Coke Stevenson told a farm audience at Kerens, in Central Texas, that his opponent, Lyndon Johnson, had been "making light" of the threat of foot and mouth disease.

Johnson, at the East Texas city of Longview for a rally, asked Stevenson to tell voters "what promises of support he extracted from Henry Wallace, when Wallace cooled coffee with him (Stevenson) in the governor's mansion back in 1944."

Both Hurl Charges

"If my opponent was really well-informed on farm and ranch problems he would not be making light of the menace of foot and mouth disease.

"It is a danger not only to ranchers and farmers, but to the general public-anybody interested in buying meat. The spread of the foot and mouth disease to this country would cause a shortage of meat and an increase in prices."

Johnson said in a statement: "To cover up the slush funds being poured into Texas in his behalf, my opponent tries to start a smokescreen by asking who is furnishing the funds.

Expense Accounts Filed

"I do not know who is paying for his big billboards, for the expensive book he published praising himself, or for his full-page newspaper advertisements and hundreds of paid workers, but I have a pretty good guess."

The two candidates, both claiming that vast amounts are being spent against them, filed their second expense accounts for the second primary with the secretary of state at Austin Thursday. Johnson reported he has spent $8,988.94 thus far and listed donations totaling $4,955. Stevenson's report listed expenses of $9,018.59 and donations of $7,225.

State law limits candidates in statewide races to personal expenditure of not more than $10,000.

Prospector Reports Uranium Ore Discovered In Oklahoma

LAWTON, Okla., Aug. 20 (UP)—Uranium, the raw material of the atomic bomb, can be mined in the Wichita mountains in southwestern Oklahoma, a pioneer mine developer claimed today.

H. G. Southard, a prospector since 1905, said analyses of mineral ore obtained in the hills northwest of Lawton have recently been completed by both the government and a New York chemical firm.

"It would cost $50,000 to develop the mining of uranium but I hope to interest some capitalist in the project," Southard said.

The prospector, who lives on Route Two, Indiahoma, Okla., did not name the government agency or the chemical firm to which he sent samples of ore.

Girls' Nation Leader Is Given Big Welcome Home

McALLEN, Aug. 20. (UP)—Curly-haired Kennon Kethley got a royal welcome from 400 of her townspeople today as the newly-elected 16-year-old president of "girls' nation" returned home.

The McAllen high school band and a host of speakers, all limited to one minute greeting talks, were among the hundreds that got up bright and early to meet the 7 a. m. train bringing Kennon back from Washington, where she was elected to her post at a teen-age conference sponsored by the women's auxiliary of the American Legion.

After saying she was "overwhelmed" at the welcome and getting kisses from many of her school chums and relatives, Kennon explained her elections by saying "it was because I was from McAllen."

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20. (AP)—Gene Lamb, 54, explorer, author and lecturer, died of heart disease last night.

Work Will Start On Lubbock Wildcat

Operations are to start immediately on Phillips Petroleum company No. 1 Kerry, a scheduled 11,000-foot wildcat in north-central Lubbock county.

The prospector will be 608 feet from west and 645 feet from south line of section 25, block D-7, EL&RR survey. That puts it one mile northeast of Monroe.

The 11,000-foot objective indicates that this venture is to project to the Ellenburger, unless it finds granite before getting into the lower Ordovician formation.

These are the men who are exempt from the draft:

The law passed by Congress automatically exempts war veterans with at least 90 days service between Pearl Harbor (Dec. 7, 1941) and V-J day (Sept. 2, 1945), or with 12 months service between Sept. 16, 1940 and June 24, 1948 (the date the draft law went into effect.)

Also exempt by law are ordained ministers, students studying for the ministry, and conscientious objectors (from combatant service: they may be used in the military services in non-combatant activities if they do not protest.)

Automatically deferred by the draft law are high school students up to graduation or the age of 20 (whichever comes first) and college students for the rest of the academic year. However, students must be doing all right in their studies.

The law says the President has the right to defer certain others, and today he did, listing them as follows:

II-A—Men involved in study, research or medical, scientific or other endeavors considered necessary to the national health, safety or interest. The deferments will be for one year or less, and may be changed by the President, or by local boards (if the men change jobs).

II-C—Farm workers or men engaged in agricultural occupation. The same deferment period and qualifications govern this group the same as II-A.

III-A—Anyone with dependents. This can mean a married man who maintains a bonafide family relationship, or a man whose induction could mean hardship to a dependant.

Dependants are defined as a wife, a divorced wife, a child, parent, grandparent, brother or sister, a person 18 years of age (or older if the person is physically or mentally handicapped) or, in short, anyone who depends on the draft-age man for a living or financial help.

Some points probably will be cleared up later, selective service headquarters said. As the ruling stands now, it merely says a married man is deferred, and does not set any specific dates for his marriage.

Consequently, men married between now and registration periods would be exempt, draft officials said.

IV-A—A registrant who has completed service, and sole surviving sons. (A sole surviving son is one of a family of which one or more sons or daughters were killed during the last war.)

IV-B—Almost all public officials elected to office, including the vice president, state governors, any official chosen by voters of the entire state (congressmen, for example), a judge of a court of record, a member of the legislative body of any state or territory or possession.

IV-C—Aliens.

IV-D—Ministers of religion or divinity students. This means any duly ordained minister, or students preparing for the ministry under the direction of a recognized church or religious organization.

Objectors Deferred

IV-E—Conscientious objectors to both combatant and non-combatant service and training. (The law says an objector need not serve as a combatant in the armed services, but could as a non-combatant. Today's ruling frees him from either service if he requests.)

IV-F—Physically, mentally, or morally unfit.

V-A—A registrant over the age of liability for military service.

One clause says that the draft director (Maj Gen. Lewis B. Hershey) may "direct that eligibility for particular service be disregarded."

He may ignore any other provisions of the regulations, if he deems it necessary, and draft or defer men regardless of classification. Just what this means was not explained.

Registration will begin in ten days, and will follow age groups:

Men born in 1922 after Aug. 30 will register at local draft boards first of all on Aug. 30. These are men of 25, and it predicted that few of them will be called into uniform.

Next to register will be all born in 1923. Some will be 24, some 25, but all born in 23 will register Aug. 31-Sept 1.

Persons born in 1924 will register Sept. 2-3: 1925, Sept. 4 or Sept. 7; 1926, Sept. 8-9; 1927, Sept. 10-11; 1928, Sept. 13-14; 1929, Sept. 15-16; and persons born in 1930 before Sept. 19 register Sept. 17-18.

Today's ruling said that classification questionnaires must be sent all registrants 19 through 25 almost immediately after registration.

Local Man Narrowly Escapes Death In Tractor Accident

E. W. Holder, 46, of Lubbock route 4 (Fortieth street and College Ave.) had a narrow escape from death about 4:30 p.m. Friday, when a tractor with a 20,000-pound roller attached was accidentally set in motion.

Holder, a superintendent for the C. W. Zahn Construction company, was working with the tractor at a local compress. The starter was evidently pushed while the machine was in gear, knocking him under its wheels. The tractor and part of the 10-ton roller hit him.

Although considerably bruised and lacerated, doctors at the hospital said that no broken bones had been discovered last night, Holder's wife stated.

He suffered injuries to one leg, the right shoulder and the right side of the head, she said, and indicated that his ribs were "pushed around some." Further examination by hospital officials will be made, she said.

Pioneer Texas Oil Explorer Taken By Death At Palestine

PALESTINE, Tex., Aug. 20 (AP) — M. A. Davey, sr., 73, who discovered one of the first commercial producing oil fields in East Texas, died at his home here yesterday. He had been ill a month from a heart condition.

Father L. A. Brezik, Houston, will hold requiem mass here at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and burial will be in Galveston.

Discovery of the first well to produce oil in this section of Texas is credited to Davey. He had spent 25 years on a one-man exploration task before persuading the Humble Oil and Refining company to sink a test in the Boggy creek dome. The producer, No. 1 Lizzie Smith, came in with 5,000 barrels a day in March of 1927.

Revision In Long Distance Telephone Rates Announced

DALLAS, Aug. 20 (AP) — Revision in long distance telephone rates which will mean a gross revenue increase of about 7½ per cent was announced today by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

General manager W. L. Prehn said the new rates were similar to those already in effect in 19 other states.

"The increases included in these changes are not only the first increases in long distance rates in Texas since 1919," Prehn said, "But there have been 11 voluntary reductions in rates during the past 29 years. The increases apply principally to calls for shorter distances and to person-to-person calls where increased operating costs have been large in relation to the revenue."
