Senate Group Okays Acheson For Post

GOPs Join Demos In Unanimous Vote After Candidate Indicts Communism

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The nomination of Dean Acheson to be secretary of state won unanimous approval of the Senate Foreign Relations committee today after he indicted Communism as "fatal" to freedom.

An excerpt from Acheson's secret testimony, released by committee Chairman Connally (D-Tex), declared:

"It is my view that Communism as a doctrine is economically fatal to a free society and to human rights and fundamental freedoms. Communism as an aggressive factor in world conquest is fatal to independent governments and free peoples."

Confirmation Expected

Thus Acheson capped his public testimony yesterday in which he scornfully rejected the label of "appeaser" in his views toward Russia and pledged himself to clean out any disloyal persons in the State department.

Chairman Connally announced that all 13 members of the Senate committee—eight Democrats and five Republicans—voted solidly for Acheson.

Swift and virtually unopposed confirmation is expected in the Senate, probably next Tuesday.

Testimony Is Secret

Committee members questioned Acheson in a closed-door session lasting two hours and 15 minutes. All members were sworn to secrecy, except for the single excerpt of his testimony given to newsmen.

All that Connally would say was that Acheson discussed "intimate and delicate" questions of policy. Other members told reporters before they went into the long executive session that they expected to find out just exactly where Acheson stands on the question of a mild or firm stand against the Soviets.

In general, the assumption was that Acheson gave the senators a comprehensive outline of his views on world problems—views which he will translate into action in taking over the No. 1 diplomatic post. He is slated to succeed the ailing Gen. George C. Marshall on Jan. 20, the day President Truman is inaugurated.

Opposition Dwindles

If there were any misgivings as to Acheson's outlook on Russia, the tall, brushy-moustached diplomat repeatedly sought to dispel them yesterday in his testimony before a packed Senate caucus room.

With emphasis, he disowned any "appeasement" leanings.

He cited his early advocacy of

Suit To Split AT&T Is Filed

By JOHN B. OWEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. — The government sued today to force the gigantic American Telephone and Telegraph company to abandon its billion dollar equipment making business. Attorney General Tom Clark said this could lower telephone rates throughout the country.

The suit demanded that AT&T and its manufacturing subsidiary, the huge Western Electric company, be divorced. It asked that Western Electric be split into three competing companies. AT&T then would have to go into the market for its equipment.

Filed by the Justice Department, the suit charged the firms with a "conspiracy to monopolize" the nation's telephone business. It said lack of competition keeps telephone equipment costs higher.

Replies To Charges

In addition, the department charged, efficient improvements have been withheld from general use to save on replacements; that the present hand telephone set did not become standard equipment on the Bell system for 17 years after it was developed.

(The AT&T and its farflung network of 21 operating subsidiaries are known as the Bell system.)

The suit, a civil anti-trust complaint, was filed in federal district court at Newark, N. J.

AT&T replied that the public and telephone users "would suffer most" from the changes demanded. A statement was issued in New York by President Leroy A. Wilson.

"I am sure," he said, "that when all the facts are known, the existing arrangement will be found in the public interest."

Western Electric has made the Bell system's telephone equipment since 1881, and the telephone users have benefitted the most, Wilson said. He contended that general use of "high quality" Western Electric equipment in the Bell system means faster calls, more dependable service, and better hearing.

Wilson also said the present arrangement keeps equipment costs as low as possible.

News of the suit was followed by a $1.50 drop in value of AT&T shares on the stock market. The price went to $147.7t, lowest since 1943.

AT&T was said by the Justice

Arizona Town Threatened With Flood As River Laps Outskirts

DUNCAN, Ariz., Jan. 14. (AP)—Water lapped at the outskirts of Duncan this afternoon but the crest of the Gila river failed to reach flood proportions.

City Councilman T. L. Wilder said the water overran the banks of the river, but did not reach the town. The crest was believed past at 4:30 p.m.

Earlier about 50 families had been evacuated from the low areas of the city which has a population of approximately 1,000 persons according to recent estimates.

Bridges were reported washed out or sagging in nearby New Mexico towns, but the Duncan bridge apparently withstood the water's onslaught.

Jaycees To Open Meeting Today

Lubbock's Jaycees today and Sunday will play hosts to a regional meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at which high state Jaycee officials will be present.

One of the highlights of the two day program will be the presentation of the Jaycee Man-Of-The-Year award to a resident of Lubbock for outstanding service to the community during the past year.

State Officials To Attend

Registration of the visiting delegates, of which from 150 to 200 are expected, will get underway at 9 a. m. today on the mezzanine floor of the Hilton hotel.

Delegates are expected from Regions No. 1 and 2, which includes the Panhandle and South Plains.

Special guests expected here for the meeting include Melvin Evans of Wichita Falls, state president of the Jaycees; William McDaniel of Denison, state vice president; and Jim Brown of Abilene, executive secretary of the organization.

Other activities planned for today and Sunday include a bridge party for Jaycettes at 3:30 p. m. today at the hotel; an informal gathering there at 4 p. m. today; a buffet supper at 7:30 p. m. in the hotel ball room; and a dance be-

Wire-Tapping, Strong Penalties Proposed

Clark Urges Tough Anti-Espionage Law

By MARTHA KEARNEY
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 — Attorney General Clark submitted to Congress tonight the toughest anti-espionage bill in the nation's history.

The measure, drafted to aid the Army, Air Force, Navy and Justice department in protecting national security, would legalize wire-tapping and wipe-out the current three-year statute of limitations on espionage cases.

The bill was filed with House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), and Chairman McCarran (D-Nev.), of the Senate Judiciary committee.

All four departments, Clark said, concurred in the stringent provisions. He explained that the proposed revisions had been under consideration since the end of World War II and reflected the "needs and experiences" of both war and peace.

The legislation would permit the admissability of wire-tapping evidence at the direction of the attorney general. Clark said that existing law "protects our enemies and hampers protectors in such matters."

It also would permit intelligence and government agents to examine radio, telegram and cable files.

Persons trained in espionage or sabotage by a foreign nation would be required to register under the foreign agents registration act.

The espionage statute would be extended to provide penalties for the illegal dissemination of documents or information which could be used to injure the United States.

This provision would extend to requiring under penalty of law that government officials report the theft, loss, abstraction or destruction of such documents or information.

Censorship Not Planned

The proposed bill would make the secretary of Navy responsible for the security of vessels and waterfront facilities while the secretary of defense would give directions for the security of aircraft and air facilities.

In proposing that the attorney general be empowered to order wire tapping and the study of radio, telegraph and cable communications, Clark proposed a penalty for the unauthorized dissemination of information obtained in this way.

He suggested that a violation of the proposed statute should be regarded as a felony, punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

In a brief synopsis on the bill prepared by the Justice department Clark noted that "nothing in the bill shall be construed to require or establish military or civilian censorship or in any way to limit or infringe upon freedom of the press."

Israel, Egypt Agree To Truce

RHODES, Jan. 14 (INS)—Jewish and Egyptian delegates agreed in 15 minutes today to refrain from military offensives against each other and to respect each other's territory.

This pledge will be incorporated into the preamble of the Palestine armistice which both sides began negotiating in Rhodes yesterday.

This swift agreement took care of the first point on the agenda, that of giving mutual guarantees regarding military offensives and the national security of each nation.

Hard bargaining is expected on the second vital item on the agenda. Acting U.N. Mediator Dr. Raiph J. Bunche is presiding over the discussions.

Item Implements Resolutions

The second item calls for means of implementing the UN Security council resolutions of Nov. 4 and 16.

The Nov. 4 resolution, which the Jews failed to comply with in full, called for Israeli troops to withdraw to the lines they held Oct. 14 before conquering most of the southern Negev desert.

The later resolution urged that both sides agree on an armistice as a prelude to a general peace

Crash Kills Three; Thirty-Seven Paratroopers Jump To Safety

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 14 (AP)—Three men died but 37 escaped today in the crash of an Air Force "flying boxcar."

Jumpmaster Sgt. Lee Hodgkiss, 26, of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, scattered 36 of his paratroop charges into the sky at 350 feet as soon as the C-82's engines began to fail and then rode the plane on seven seconds, but the plane was then too low for Hodgkiss to follow them.

Of the 36 jumpers, only Pfc. Virgil V. Votava of Parkman, Wyo., was seriously injured.

Sgt. Hodgkiss survived the crash. Capt. Robert L. Kilpatrick, pilot, of Baytown, Texas, was identified as one of the victims.

STATE REGISTRATION LAW URGED

Solon Favors Submitting Poll Tax Question To Texas Voters

By MAC ROY RASOR
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Jan. 14.—Gov. Beauford H. Jester considers Texas "out in front" in the removal of tax restrictions from the ballot box.

Under legislation proposed by Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg in the 51st Senate, Texas voters would get to strike from their constitution—or nail down—the long-debated poll tax requirement for voting.

The issue—part of the civil rights storm that splintered Democratic factions at the polls last fall—has thundered again in Washington where a U. S. constitutional amendment outlawing the voting requirement is being proposed.

"If the question is submitted by the legislature and acted on favorably by the people, the proposed federal amendment would have no practical effect in Texas," Gov. Jester noted today in a prepared statement.

The proposal at Washington, he said, does point up the urgent necessity of providing an adequate registration law for Texas.

"If the poll tax were repealed as a means of identifying eligible

U.S. Citizens Imperiled By Chinese Red Shells

Reds Outline Peace Terms

By FRED HAMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

SHANGHAI, Jan. 14. — The Chinese Communists broadcast tonight eight terms for peace which would amount to total surrender of the sore-pressed Chiang Kai-Shek regime.

In any case, said the long statement by Communist Chairman Mao Tse-Tung, a few more heavy military blows will cause the Chiang governments to "crumble into dust and extinction."

As if for emphasis, the Communists preceded the peace conditions with announcement that their troops had smashed into the great northearn city of Tientsin at noon.

Traditions Scored

The statement by Mao, broadcast from Yenan headquarters in both Chinese and English, listed these terms:

"1. Punish war criminals." (This would include Chiang Kai-Shek, who heads the Communist list of government leaders so designated.)

"2. Abrogate the bogus constitution." (adopted in 1946 without Communist participation.)

"3. Abolish the Kuomintang's 'legitimacy of traditional institution.' (The Chinese version of this point called for "calendar years to be counted from anno domini, not the republic's founding." This insistence on the Christian calendar apparently was one of the means intended to wipe out the tradition of the Republic founded in 1911.)

U. S. Treaties Hit

"4. Re-mold all reactionary armies in accordance with democratic principles.

"5. Confiscate bureaucratic capital.

"6. Reform the agrarian (land) system.

"7. Abrogate treaties of national betrayal." (Other portions of the text made clear that this referred to the United States, which was bitterly assailed.)

"8. Convoke a political consultative conference without the participation of reactionary elements, establish a democratic coalition government, take over all power from the Nanking Kuomintang reactionary government and its lower levels of government."

(These terms closely paralleled those listed by AP Correspondent Spencer Moosa Jan. 13 in a dis-

50 Killed, 400 Hurt In Riots

DURBAN, South Africa, Jan. 14 (INS)—African natives wiped out entire Indian families in a Durban race riot today in which at least 50 persons were killed and 400 wounded.

Eleven of the white population, nine of whom were policemen, were among the casualties, but otherwise the so-called European inhabitants of South Africa were not molested.

Troops called out by Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan at a late hour failed to halt the one-sided battle.

Tribal Songs Chanted

Descendants of the Zulu tribe surged through the Indian quarter chanting tribal songs as they killed and looted the Indian quarter in a mass assault.

The Africans also used guns, stones, and clubs in their murderous rampage. Those fleeing into the countryside were pursued, some of them cut down.

South African police, unable to get the situation under control, called on the navy, army and air force to aid them in suppressing the violence.

Hundreds of Indian women and children fled the city to the surrounding countryside in an effort

Mrs. W. E. Slaughter, 80, Of Lubbock, Claimed At Tahoka

Mrs. W. E. Slaughter, 80, of 1910 Ave. H, died at 11 a. m. Friday in a Tahoka hospital as a result of a light stroke. She had been ill for about three weeks, but was in the hospital only about two days.

Definite funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but burial will be in Buffalo Gap, near Abilene, where Mrs. Slaughter's husband died in 1938. The body is at Stanley Funeral home in Tahoka.

Mrs. Slaughter had been living in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. K. Miller of 1910 Ave. H. since the death of her husband, and was visiting with another sister, Mrs. H. R. Minor of Tahoka at the time of her death.

She is survived by another sister, Mrs. O. L. Miller of Fresno, Calif.; a niece, Dr. Pauline Miller and a nephew, Lester L. Miller, both of Lubbock.

Texas' U. S. Representatives Get House Posts; Pledge Secrecy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. —(AP)—Texas House members learned today how they will fare on committee assignments for the 81st Congress, but were sworn to secrecy not to divulge the appointments.

Rep. Combs of Beaumont, the sole Texan on the powerful House Ways and Means committee, was busy during the afternoon calling his Democratic colleagues from the Lone Star state and telling them the tentative selections.

Actually, the Ways and Means committee only makes recommendations, but these are followed almost without exception when the House as a whole formally elects committee memberships.

Rain Continues; Other Parts Of State Hit

Heavy Fog Blankets South Plains Area

SOUTH Plains traffic, snarled for most of the week by ice coated highways. Friday night was slowed again. This time by a "pea soup" fog that closed down visibility to one-sixteenth of a mile for several hours.

The fog, which halted operation at Municipal airport at 1 p. m. yesterday, closed in tighter as the day advanced and by 8 p. m. had limited visibility to half a block within the city. The fog continued to blanket the area early today.

Light rain which accompanied the fog was measured at .09 inch at the Weather station north of Lubbock. Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Motor Coaches reported many of its scheduleds running late as drivers reduced speed in the almost impenetrable mist.

The fog-rain was expected to end this morning as a slow moving front from the west moved into the South Plains. The weather station forecast partly cloudy skies and moderate temperatures for most of today and Sunday.

Temperatures today and Sunday probably will range from a 35-degree minimum to a 48-degree high, the Weather station forecast. An end to almost a week of precipitation is foreseen. Friday night's .09 fall brought the total for January to 2.66 inches.

Smith Resigns As Lubbock City Manager At Meeting

LUBBOCK today was in the market for a city manager, after the resignation Friday of Marlin R. (Red) Smith at a recessed session of the City commission at City hall.

Smith, who has served as manager since March 1, 1948, had prepared his resignation for submission at the regular meeting Thursday afternoon but other pressing matters delayed his action until the close of Friday morning's session. As a result his move came as no surprise to commission members, including Mayor W. H. Rodgers.

Smith's letter to the commission gave no reason for his action other than that he desired to return to private business as a consulting engineer with the firm of Parkhill & Cooper, with whom he was associated before accepting the managership a second time last March. He had previously served as city manager from Aug., 1942 until Jan. 1, 1946.

City Commissioner Clarence Whiteside made a motion that Smith's resignation be accepted "with regrets" and a resolution of commendation be spread on the minutes. Commissioner W. B. Price seconded the motion.

Smith asked that he be relieved of his duties "not later than Feb. 15, 1949," in his letter to the commission, but in informal discussion with members agreed to continue working with department heads on the city's annual budget and work with his successor as long as desired.

No Successor Mentioned

No mention was made in the meeting of a possible successor to Smith and Mayor Rodgers and commissioners offered no comment on the resignation.

Smith started to work for the city engineer's office in July, 1926 and served as city engineer until becoming city manager in 1942. He was associated with Parkhill & Cooper two years during the time Homer Hunter, now a Dallas consulting engineer, served in the post. He succeeded Hunter at the request of the commission last March.

Claim Of Rescue By British Girl Denied By Soviet Embassy

By JAMES E. BROWN
INS Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Jan. 14. — A three-year-old girl burned in a fire at the Soviet consulate in London died today and the Russians charged the incident was being exploited for "political propaganda purposes."

A young British girl told how she broke through "Soviet diplomatic immunity guards" last night to pluck the Russian child from the building—and her story was challenged by the Soviets.

Miss Jean Rougier-Watkins, 25-year-old airline hostess, then declared:

Reds Criticize Firemen

"What I said is the truth. If the Soviets are not grateful, then to hell with them."

The Russians reportedly refused to let would-be British police rescuers inside the building. Firemen were allowed to enter—then were criticized by Soviet officials.

The Russian statement denied that the British girl rescued the baby. It said she merely offered to help get the child to a hospital.

The fire, which started when a gas kitchen stove exploded and the flames spread to four other rooms, was put out after an hour.

The London fire brigade office later issued a statement denying Russian embassy charges that the firemen were late in arriving and did not carry respiratory equipment.

A Soviet embassy official said that if the question of an inquest arises because of the death of the little Abramov girl "we will claim diplomatic immunity."

Official Hurt At Tientsin

By ALLAN J. FUNCH
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan 14.—Communist bombardment of Tientsin today injured the American vice consul, damaged the U. S. consulate, and imperiled 95 American citizens.

The State department reported that the situation in the Communist-beleaguered Chinese city is "rapidly deteriorating."

A report received in London from Reuters in Shanghai reported tonight that Nationalist defenses in the beleaguered city of Tientsin apparently have collapsed.

No Resistance Reported

(The news agency quoted what it termed "reliable sources" in Shanghai who said Communist infantry has marched into Tientsin meeting no resistance.)

It reported fighting in progress near the east railway station.

Several large fires have started in the city from the intense bombardment of Communist troops seeking to destroy the forces of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Glass Shattered

Consul General Robert L. Smyth of Berkeley, Calif., reported that one Communist missile struck a Shell Oil company installation on the north bank of the Hi-Ho river just a short distance from the American consulate.

Glass in windows and doorways of the consular offices was shattered in the resultant explosion.

Vice Consul Sam Yates, jr., of Detroit, Mich., was cut by flying glass.

Thirteen other members of the United States consul's staff were reported barricaded in the consulate. Smyth informed the department:

"The situation seems to be rapidly deteriorating."

U. S. Offices Hit

All Americans in the Chinese city have been instructed to seek safety in the hallways and basements of their homes instead of congregating at the consulate.

It was explained that they might be wiped out by a single shell if all were together in the consular building.

During today's bombardment a live shell exploded in the new U. S. information service offices next to the French consulate, Smyth reported.

The same office was struck by

Two Girls Hurt In Auto Mishap

Two girls were injured, one possibly seriously, in an automobile mishap which occurred about 10 miles north of Tahoka on the Lubbock-Tahoka highway, officers of the Texas Highway patrol said.

Jean Covey, of Wilson, was admitted to Lubbock Memorial hospital here for treatment of shock, a possible fractured leg, a lacerated knee and a punctured lower lip. Several of her front teeth were broken also the investigating highway patrolman said.

Mary Ella Cook, of Wilson route 2, was treated for a bruised right eye and lacerated knee.

Fog Hides Intersection

The two girls and Lewis Fondy, of Slaton route 2, were enroute from Wilson in a 1948 Pontiac driven by John B. Bybee, 21, of Slaton.

Bybee told patrolmen that fog was thick and he failed to see the intersection of the Wilson road with Tahoka highway, the car going across the highway into a deep ditch. Neither of the men was injured, reports said.

Several accidents, but no injuries, were caused by condition of streets and avenues within Lubbock city limits, police reports last night showed.

Clyde C. Gibson, 41, of 2001 Ave. R, said he was driving south in 3300-block of Adams avenue when the front wheels of his vehicle dropped into a sewer ditch which had caved in. A wrecker was required to extricate the car.

A car driven by Harold E. Roberson, 19, of Myrtle Drive, "jump-

Weather Blamed For 121 Deaths, Damage

(By The Associated Press)

January, exploding across the country with blizzards, sleet, floods, tornadoes and freak cold, already has caused 121 weather deaths and more than $50,000,000 in damage to crops and property.

California storms caused 19 deaths, tornadoes killed 56 in Arkansas and Louisiana, eight perished in Colorado blizzards and cold, one died in Kansas, eight in Texas, one in Nevada, three in Oregon, four in Nevada, three in Utah, 12 in Wyoming, three in New Mexico and four in Nebraska.

California suffered $43,400,000 freeze damage to citrus crops and vegetables and another $1,000,000 damage from oil smudging. Cattle losses in the western plains run into "several million dollars." Nearly $2,000,000 sleet damage to communications lines was caused in five southwestern states. Arizona suffered $2,000,000 in crop losses. Arkansas tornadoes caused more than $1,000,000 damage.

'Cold War' Neutrals Warned Not To Expect U.S. Arms, Supplies

By JOHN SCALI
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 — The United States gave notice today that countries remaining neutral in the cold war will get no American arms or defense supplies.

Michael McDermott, State department press officer, told about this new policy shortly after the department charged that Russian "obstruction" has "seriously hampered" activities of the United Nations.

McDermott told a news conference the American government does not have enough arms to supply nations which are unwilling to associate themselves in collective defense arrangements with the United States.

Government officials said McDermott's remarks were intended to "correct" Swedish press reports claiming that Sweden could get American military help even if she refused to enter into the North Atlantic defense alliance now being actively planned.

Meanwhile, the State department struck out anew at Russia in a statement accusing Moscow

Deep Test In Gaines County Is Planned

Magnolia Petroleum company has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting a permit to drill a 13,000-foot, rotary tool wildcat in south-central Gaines county.

It is to be designated as that concern's No. 1 Flanagan estate, and is located 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 9, block A-23, psl survey. That puts it about 20 miles northwest of the town of Andrews.

Drilling operations are scheduled to start immediately.

This venture will be a direct east offset to Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Hawkins, discovery from the Clear Fork-Permian, Devonian and Ellenburger, which is now preparing to complete as a commercial oil well from the top of the Ellenburger.

The Magnolia wildcat is slated for an investigation of that horizon.

To Start Wildcat

A wildcat is to be started at once toward the San Andres-Permian in Northwest Dawson county by Cities Service Oil company.

That concern made location for its No. 1-B Scanlon as 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 87, block M, EL&RR survey.

It is to be approximately one and one-quarter miles west and one-quarter of a mile north of the nearest production in the Welch field.

The San Andres formation is expected to come in above 5,100 feet. Drilling is to be accomplished with rotary tools.

Denton County Agent Found Shot To Death Beside Auto

DENTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—George R. Warren, 57, Denton county agricultural agent since 1933, was found shot to death today.

He was shot through the mouth. His body was found on the ground beside his automobile, near Roselawn Memorial park, a cemetery three miles southwest of Denton. The right front door of the auto was open. On the floor board in the front of the car were a 12-gauge shotgun in which there was a discharged shell, and a 22-caliber rifle.

Justice of the Peace Z. D. Lewis told the Denton Record-Chronicle he expected to render a verdict tomorrow of "accidental death by gunshot."

Warren's body was found by Harper Sinclair, who was on his way to his farm near the cemetery. The body was found about 3:45 p. m.

A graduate of Texas A. and M. college, Warren joined the Texas Extension Service in 1919. He was with the service four years; for two years was in Sonora, Tex., and was a former county agent of Young and Wise counties.

From 1927 to 1929 Warren was secretary of the Denton Chamber of Commerce. He helped organize the Denton county fair in 1930.

Survivors include his wife and a son, Lt. Dayton Warren.

City Is Billed For $30 After Officer's Bullet Scares Negro

FORT WORTH, Jan. 14 (AP).—A policeman shot at a fleeing negro wanted for questioning. He missed. The bullet went through the window of a home.

Inside sat J. C. Williams, negro. He told city officials today he jumped, stubbed his toe and ran in fright, falling and breaking his glasses.

Williams presented a $30 bill for the window and the glasses.

All Masons have been requested to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the hall of Yellowhouse lodge No. 841 for the purpose of conducting Masonic services for William G. Adkisson, H. J. McClellan, secretary, announced Friday afternoon.

William L. Shirer, noted newspaperman, author, and radio commentator, stopped briefly in Lubbock Friday morning from Plainview to Dallas on a Braniff airliner. He planned to continue by air from Dallas to New York City. Shirer, best known for his 1941 book, "Berlin Diary," is author of a weekly column distributed by The Herald-Tribune syndicate.

The Amarillo-Lubbock sub-section of the Institute of Radio Engineers will have a meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday in Room 208 of the Engineering building on the Texas Tech campus. Election of officers for the forth-coming year will be conducted. A number of members from Amarillo are expected to attend.

Condition of Ross W. Tillinghast, of 1305 Twenty-third, was reported by an attendant at Mercy hospital in Slaton as "improved but still critical" last night. Tillinghast, a telephone lineman, was injured Wednesday when a telephone pole fell while he was repairing lines atop it.

Junior and intermediate Sunday school classes of the Four Square church, Eighth and Ave. Q, will hold a special program at 2:30 p.m. today at the church with Rev. E. L. Troke, of Colorado Springs, Colo., in charge.

Springlake Student Is Named Head Of Tech Supreme Court

Jerrold D. Wilson, junior government student from Springlake, was elected Chief Justice of the Supreme Court at Texas Technological college Friday afternoon when members of the Student Council met with Dr. J. William Davis, head of the college's government department.

Wilson will assume duties of the post with the beginning of the Spring semester Jan. 31, when the position will be vacated by the graduation of the present officer, James Bowman, of Lubbock. Wilson has been a member of the court during the past semester, and his place on the bench will be filled at a called Student Council meeting Wednesday, as will one other post left vacant early in the semester when Francis Brockman, of Carlsbad, N. M., was ruled ineligible by reason of being president of the senior class.

Three positions as representatives to the Student Council will also be left vacant by students graduating at mid-year. Graduating representatives are Hubert Bezner, of Lindsay representative from the Engineering division; W. O. (Dub) Boswell, of Sweetwater, business administration representative; and Joe Meador of Matador, representative from Arts and Science. These posts probably will be filled sometime during the second week of the Spring semester, Clint Formby president of the Student Council said.

Wedding Is Set Today

The wedding of Miss Margaret Hartsfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hartsfield of 1723 Twenty-seventh, and Norman L. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hicks of 2115 Twenty-fourth, will take place tonight at 8 o'clock at Asbury Methodist church.

A reception is to be held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

Club Meetings Characterized By Informality

Informality is the keynote for an unnamed forty-two club of six couples that was organized here twenty years ago and which meets twice monthly, on second and fourth Thursday nights, if "it is agreeable with everyone."

"We are rather casual about the whole thing; there are no dues and no officers," a member remarked this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scoggin and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Manning are the only charter members left but the other four couples have been in the club for over fifteen years. They are Messrs. and Mesdames J. A. Fortenberry, Burton S. Burks, J. C. Rigney and A. T. Cocanougher

Mr. and Mrs. Burks were hosts with a supper and forty-two party for the group last night. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Austin were guests.

Law Officers Probe Mounting Wave Of Rustling In State

AUSTIN, Jan. 14 (AP)—Central Texas officers are making a widespread effort to break up a wave of cattle thievery which combines modern gangster methods with old-time cattle rustling ways.

Six men have been arrested and charged in connection with the thefts. The Gonzales county grand jury was called into special session today to hear evidence of the streamlined rustling.

"These arrests are just the first of a series we hope to make within a few days spreading through several counties in this area," Texas Ranger Quincy J. Lowman said at his Victoria headquarters.

Recently cattle thefts have been reported in Gonzales, Victoria, Hays, DeWitt, Lavaca and possibly other central Texas counties.

"There's so much cattle stealing going on that we still have no idea how big this thing may get before it's cleaned up," Lowman said.

He said he believed the rustling is being done by a group of individual rings, rather than one large coordinated theft gang.

Arkansas, Oklahoma Men Named Among Nation's 'Outstanding'

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 14—(AP)—The United States Junior Chamber of Commerce announced today its selections of the "nation's 10 outstanding young men of 1948."

The winners, none of whom are over 36 years of age, were chosen by a panel of 13 judges which included President Dwight D. Eisenhower of Columbia university and Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania.

The men and their citations include:

Sidney S. McMath, governor of Arkansas—for his fight as a prosecuting attorney in ending 20-year control of a Hot Springs political machine "and for setting an example for young men in public service."

Mike Gorman, 34, reporter for the Daily Oklahoman, Oklahoma City—"For his writing which exposed conditions in Oklahoma's mental institutions and resulted in a model mental health act."

Plans For Fall Dog Show Are Mapped At Kennel Club Meet

The Heart of the Plains Kennel club decided at a monthly meeting Thursday night at the Hilton hotel to cancel a scheduled spring dog show and to schedule a show next fall, it was announced today by W. C. Boyd, club president.

The group discussed a dinner and program for the next meeting, on the second Thursday in February, when members are to invite guests.

Attending the Thursday meeting were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boyd, W. E. Ellis, and L. G. Moss.

Sales in diamonds in South Africa in seven months of 1948 totaled over $126,000,000, breaking the previous record of $120,000,000, made in 1946.

Miss Morris Is Married

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Morris of Southland are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Janey, to Arden Maeker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Maeker of Wilson, which took place in Chicago Jan. 11. Mr. Maeker is attending school there and until this week Mrs. Maeker was employed with the General Electric company in Lubbock.

The couple will be at home in Chicago.

The bride wore a navy suit with navy and pink accessories. She is a graduate of Southland High school and a former Tech student. Mr. Maeker was graduated from Wilson High school and attended Tech before joining the Merchant Marines where he served two years.

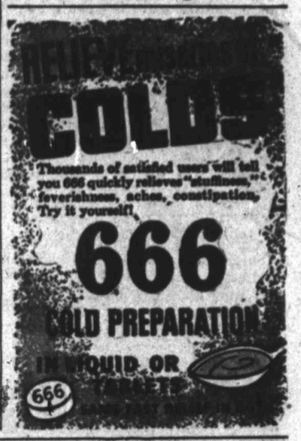

NALC Auxiliary Elects Officers Thursday Night

At a monthly meeting of NALC auxiliary held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Duncan, the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Merlin Wilson, president; Mrs. Frank Eddleman, vice president; Mrs. Buford Terrell, secretary; Mrs. Floyd Tidwell, treasurer; and Mrs. Gene Smith, master-at-arms.

The hostess served refreshments.

Red Raiders Stage Late Drive To Defeat Buffaloes, 53 To 39

Rally In Second Half Hands Tech Sixth Loop Win

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

CANYON, Jan. 14. — Texas Tech's sharpshooting Red Raiders staged a torrid scoring drive late in the second half to defeat the battling Buffaloes from West Texas State Teachers College 53-39 here tonight.

The crucial Border Conference tilt was much closer than the score indicated, however, although Coach Polk Robison's smooth-working crew led most of the way. The hustling Buffs tied up the count at 35-35 midway in the last half, but a spectacular scoring exhibition by Jiggs Jackson, Whistle Banks and Ardis Barton clinched the win for the Raiders, their sixth in conference play.

The story of the game is best told in the shooting percentages of the two teams. The Techsans connected on 32 percent of their shots, while the Buffs hit only 18 percent. The Raiders also piled up a decisive number of points on free shots, resulting from the Buffs' hustling, but very rough, defensive tactics.

Raiders Bounce Back

The game got away to a slow start, with the Buffs showing every indication of being extremely jittery. Bill Miller dropped in a field goal to put the home quint ahead, then Charlie Barnard sank a charity toss. The Raiders bounced back to tie up the count at 3-3 on a free throw by Don Grove and two tosses by Banks, then went ahead on a long set shot by Grove.

Grove, Hill and towering Gene Gibson boosted the score to 13-12, with Barnard and Miller keeping the Buffs in the game, and beautiful shots by Jackson, Gibson and Banks gave the Raiders a 24-17 halftime margin.

The Buffs of Coach Gus Miller came out for the second half with surprising fire and determination. The Raiders built up their lead to 34-20 early in the second half, with Banks and Jackson sparking the offensive, but with 15 minutes of play remaining, the Buffs started rolling. Bill Allen and the two Malone brothers—J. W. and Sammy — alternated in knocking the bottom out of the basket and cut the Raider lead to 35-32.

Jackson Scores Again

A free shot by J. W. Malone and a set shot from the corner by Allen tied the count at 35-35 at the 10-minute mark.

But Coach Robison's calm crew recovered from a case of jitters to launch a final drive that clinched the win. Banks, Hill and Grove hiked the score to 42-35, then Barton and Jackson added eight more points.

In the final minute, Jackson dropped in a field goal to make the final score 53-39

Jackson copped high point honors for the night, with 15 points on seven field goals and a single charity pitch. Banks took the runner-up spot with 11 points. J. W. Malone topped the Buffs with 10 points from two field goals and six free tosses.

Beaumont High School Coaching Job Still Remains Unfilled

BEAUMONT, Jan. 14 (AP) — The coaching job at Beaumont high school was still wide open today, but an authoritative source said the vacancy might be filled in "several days."

The newest figure to gain wide support to fill the shoes of I. B. Griffith, who resigned after Beaumont dropped ten games last season, was Thurmond L. (Tugboat) Jones, 31-year-old former Abilene Christian college football star.

School superintendent Dr. R. L. Williams said Jones had been invited to Beaumont for conferences but that Jones had not said he would accept.

Cooper Boys, Girls Win Pair Of Victories Over Frenship

COOPER, Jan. 14. (Special)—The Cooper High school boys and girls basketball teams turned in a pair of victories here tonight at the expense of the visiting Frenship teams.

The boys, paced by the eight-point shooting of Ben Dean, won 26-16, with Hall getting eight points for the losers. In the girls game, Cooper won 38-7. Wynelle Baldwin has 17 points for the victors, while Mary Teague caged four of the seven points for the losers.

STEERS, RICE TO MEET

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—Hampered by illness and injuries, the Texas Longhorns meet the Rice Owls here Saturday night in a Southwestern Conference basketball battle. The Longhorns have won their only two conference games to date. Rice has won one, lost one.

Bill Henderson TKO's Opponent

EL PASO, Jan. 14 (Special)—Bill Henderson of Lubbock, classy featherweight puncher, scored another technical knockout on his climb up the fistic ladder, chilling Sammy Galvan of California here tonight at 2:45 of the sixth round.

The fight, scheduled to go six rounds, had almost gone the limit when Henderson stepped in and opened up a vicious barrage of lefts and rights. Galvan slipped to the mat, clinging to the ropes in an efort to get up, but the referee saw that he was through and lifted Henderson's hand in victory.

Henderson weighed in at 131 for the fight, Galvan hit 129.

Down In Third

There was only one other knockdown in the fight, in the third round, when Henderson shoved his opponent away from him. Galvan went down on one knee and remained there getting his wind, while the count tolled to nine.

Henderson, with a slightly changed style, was never in trouble. He won five of the six rounds and one, the fifth, was a draw. Henderson seemed to tire in the fifth and could get no better than a draw.

The sixth round was different. Henderson seemed to have gotten more strength from somewhere and came out to carry the fight to Galvan. He made Galvan miss repeatedly and in the meantime struck damaging rights and lefts. Henderson bobbed and weaved toward his opponent, always the stalker.

Galvan Tough Hurdle

Finally the Lubbock boy got Galvan in a corner and let him have it. He threw three strong rights to the head, a punishing left to the body and another right to the head. Galvan sank to the mat, but tried to get up. He was too tired and fell back.

Galvan, with a string of 28 straight wins, was one of the toughest hurdles for Henderson to get past. The Californian counter-punched beautifully and, for a time, gave Henderson a lot of trouble. No kayo artist, Galvan s't was a good boxer, but not able to stand up under the punishment Henderson had in his left, especially good, or his right, also strong.

Bobby Goff Awarded Aggies' Top Trophy

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 14. (AP)—Bobby Goff, junior fullback, tonight received the Lipscomb-Colson award given, annually to Texas A. & M. college's most valuable football player.

Goff, a Kenedy resident, was one of the top ground gainers in the Southwest Conference last season until a mid-season injury slowed him down.

Goff gained more than 100 yards on the ground in two separate games in 1948 and netted 531 yards for the season.

Guard Max Greiner, Beaumont sophomore, received the Bert Pfaff trophy given annually to the best blocker on the Aggie team.

The awards were presented at the Brazos County A. & M. club's annual banquet, attended by more than 600 athletes and fans from many Texas points. Honored guests were members of the Aggie cross country team and members of the freshman and varsity basketball teams.

Special awards went to Jimmy Cashion, Odell Stautzenberger and Jim Winkler, captains of the 1948 football team.

Kern Tips of Houston was principal speaker at the meeting.

El Salvador expects to produce 27,500 tons of milled rice in the 1948-49 season.

Lubbock Gains 34-32 Victory Over Amarillo

Sharpshooters Salvage Tussle

AMARILLO, Jan. 14. (Special) —A trio of sharpshooting Lubbock High school basketball players pulled victory out of defeat here tonight, the Westerners storming to a 34-32 victory over the Golden Sandstorm of Amarillo High school.

Faced with a deficit going into the final half, the Westerners rallied to tie the score at 25-25 just as the third quarter ended. And in the opening minute of the final stanza, Jimmy Sexton, Charles Galey and Jim Wilson pumped home field goals to shoot Lubbock into the lead.

Game Looked Hopeless

The Sandies, playing a strict man-to-man defense, had pretty well throttled the visitors during the first half. But they never had been able to shake off Lubbock's effective zone defense for a lead of more than four points.

The last half was filled with action that brought the crowd to its feet and kept it cheering most of the time. And even in the closing moments of the game, a Westerner victory was not certain. Loss of James Garner soon after the start of the final half definitely hurt the Sandies, but Lubbock won the game by having just a little more at the right time.

Garner hooked a free throw to shoot the Sandies into a 21-16 lead at the start of the second half, but injured a knee and left the game. Lubbock fought to overcome the lead and finally tied it at 25-25 just as the third quarter ended.

In the final canto, Sexton hooked a twisting one hand push shot to make it 27-25 and Galey followed with a 20 foot set shot that ran the score to 29-25. Wilson picked up the tempo to dump a twisting push that handed the Westerners a 31-25 lead. That was the game.

Final Seconds Count

Little netted a set shot, but Galey dropped in a free toss and Turner dumped in two to give Lubbock its final margin. Bill Franklin pitched in a charity toss to make it 34-28 and Stanley Maness and Bill Hughes both connected from the floor to make it 34-32.

With 30 seconds left, Lubbock scored, but fouled Amarillo on the play and the Sandies took the ball out of bounds. There was time to work the ball in for one shot and Henry let go with a set heave that missed. Lubbock recovered and froze the ball.

This was the first loss for Amarillo at the Sports Arena and the first loss to Lubbock in Amarillo since the formation of District 1-AA. And it was only the fourth time in 14 games that the Westerners had turned back the Sandies.

Carroll Thompson Quintets Win Two Games From Levelland

LEVELLAND, Jan. 14. (Special) —Carroll Thompson Junior High school basketball teams made a clean sweep of games played here tonight.

The Cowboys took a 19-14 victory from the Levelland Juniors, after trailing at the half. Tom Yelvington of the visitors was high point man with 10; Robert Hood had four points for the losers.

The Calfropers had to go into an overtime period to win their game 17-15, after the regular game ended in a 15-15 deadlock. John Blocker scored eight points for the visitors, but Rogers of Levelland B had high honors with 10.

NARY PACES CROSBY MEET

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif., Jan. 14. (AP)—Carding a 32-34—66, six under par for the Cypress Point course, Bill Nary of Phoenix, Ariz., led the early finishers among the professionals today in the first round of the 54-hole $10,000 Bing Crosby Golf Tournament. Par is 37-35—72.

Plainview Boxers Invade Abilene

ABILENE, Jan. 14. (Special)—A strong St. Joseph Academy boxing team will have a chance to test its mettle against another crack team here tomorrow night, when the Plainview 12-man boxing team invades the local lair.

The Plainview fighters, with one inter-city victory under their belts already, will be strong favorities to take their second triumph against St. Joseph. Coach Bud Dean has come up with some of the finest boxers in West Texas, boys who are expected to go a long way toward winning state titles in the Golden Gloves.

The bouts will be staged here in the Fair Park Supper Club auditorium beginning at 8 p.m.

Plainview fighters are expected to leave early tomorrow by private car. They will present a veteran team that last week eked out a 6-5 decision over the Amerillo Junior college crew. Most of the visiting boxers will be on the regional Golden Gloves card in Lubbock, where they are pre-fight favorites to win.

The local team has been working out daily, getting ready both for the fights against Plainview and for the regional Golden Gloves here. They expect to make a strong showing tomorrow.

Coach Bud Dean informed the local sponsors of the meet that he would bring nine of the boys who fought Amarillo last week, as well as three other fighters, all of whom are rated highly.

O. L. Slaton Cagers Gain Pair Of Wins Over J. T. Hutchinson

The O. L. Slaton Junior High school basketball teams turned in a pair of clean victories over the J. T. Hutchinson quintets last night at the Lubbock High school field house.

The varsity game went to the Slaton boys by the lopsided margin of 41-11 and the Warriors had no more trouble in turning back the Ranchers 24-4.

Bo Sexton paced the Slaton varsity to victory with 12 points and Bob Newell had seven for runner-up honors. Several Hutchinson boys took part in the scoring.

In the Warrior-Rancher game, Mikie Brady topped the scorers for Slaton.

Abernathy Quintets Win In Tourney; Levelland Advances In Jaycee Meet

Title Games Are Set For Tonight

ABERNATHY, Jan. 14 (Special) —Abernathy High school girls eked out a 23-22 victory over Whitharral here this afternoon to feature games played in the second round of the High school invitational basketball tournament.

Tonight, Abernathy boys turned back Ralls High school 54-29 for a District 3-A conference victory, as well as a tournament win. It was the feature game of the night.

In afternoon games today, New Deal beat Spade 38-21 to open play. Marie Wales scored 26 points to pace the victors and Inklebarger had 10 for the losers. New Deal came back at night to edge Farwell 44-34, with Wales scoring as many points as the entire Farwell team. She topped all tournament scorers with 34, while Dial was tops for the losers with 15.

Farwell girls had gotten past Slaton earlier in the day with a 34-23 victory. Christian led the winners with 12 points and Sokoll had 10 for the losers.

In other girls games, Crump's 17 points helped the Shallowater sextet to a lopsided 40-12 victory over Lockney. Handley was the leading scorer for the losers with seven points. Belle Lutrick paced the Abernathy girls with 12 points in their tight victory over Whitharral. Hobbs and Durett each had seven points for the losers.

Don Snodgrass led the winning Abernathy boys tonight, scoring 16 points as the Antelopes rolled over the Jackrabbits. Marsh had seven points for the losers.

Finals Set Today

Booth and Dollar each scored 10 points to spearhead the Farwell attack against New Deal, the Lions dropping a 33-23 tilt. Hobgood had seven points for the losing Lions.

The tourney concludes play tomorrow, with four championship games at night. Play opens at 9 a. m. with Spade and Slaton girls playing. Floydada and New Deal boys collide at 10, Ralls and Whitharral boys clash at 11, Shallowater and Farwell boys play at 1 p.m. and Abernathy and Lockney oppose each other at 2.

Whitharral and Farwell girls meet at 3 p. m. and finals in the girls consolation play will be run off at 4 p. m.

TIME GROWS SHORT FOR ENTERING

Plainview Leads In Number Of Entries In Golden Gloves Meet

Plainview again paced entries in the regional Golden Gloves tournament yesterday, two open division fighters and a novice send ing in their entries, along with one Lubbock fighter.

From Plainview came the entries of Bill Chapman and Carl Gloyna in the open division, while Clay Weems of Lubbock was the third. In the novice division, Pat Bailey of Plainview sent in his entry.

Bailey strictly is a novice, with only one bout under his belt. He was a member of the Plainview team that beat Amarillo Junior college a week ago, making his debut at that time. Bailey lost his fight, but made a good showing. He is a lightweight and a southpaw at that, which gives him a slight edge. He is a willing mixer and shows promise.

Chapman Makes Debut

Chapman, another bantamweight, weighs 118 pounds and is in his first year of fighting. He didn't take part in last week's inter-city card at Plainview, but will make his debut tonight at Abilene. He is a good puncher and hits hard.

Gloyna is a 133-pound fighter, which puts him in the tough lightweight division. He is another first year boxer, but has made a good showing in training and turned in a good performance against Amarillo last week.

Weems, of 1634 17th street in Lubbock, will be mixing it up in the middleweight division on behalf of the Naval Reserve unit at Texas Tech. He is a 20-year old boy who weighs 158 pounds and persons who have seen him in action look for plenty of competition. He has had no ring experience to speak of, but gives promise of developing rapidly.

16 Days Are Left

Time is beginning to grow short for Golden Gloves entrants, although there still are 16 days before the three-day meet begins. Amateur fighters will assemble in Texas Tech gym Jan. 31 for physical examination and weighing-in, with the first bouts scheduled for that night.

Prospective fighters can train without charge, daily at Foster's Gym, 2417 Main street, from 6:30 p. m. until 9 under supervised direction.

Brownfield Drops Plainview, 38-36

BROWNFIELD, Jan. 14. (Special)—Brownfield Cubs scored a thrilling double overtime 38-36 victory over Plainview High school here tonight in a District 1-AA basketball game.

Plainview built up a 25-20 lead late in the fourth quarter, but the Cubs overtook the Bulldogs just before the game ended to send the tilt into a 25-25 deadlock. In the three-minute overtime, both teams hit six points and a second overtime had to be played.

Calvin Farris, a forward, and Tim Billings, a guard, hit field goals in the final overtime stanza to shoot the Cubs into a lead they never relinquished.

Farris was high scorer for the Cubs with 11 points, all scored in the last half and the overtime periods, but Guard Bobby Kay of the Bulldogs copped scoring honors with 13 points.

In a pair of preliminary games, Brownfield cagers also came out on top. The Brownfield B squad won a 26-22 game and the Brownfield Juniors won a 23-15 game from the Bulldogs.

Texas A & I College Invited To Join Texas Conference

WACO, Jan. 14. (AP) — Texas A. & I. college today was invited to become a member of the Texas Athletic Conference. The invitation was issued by Conference faculty representatives meeting here.

George L. Landolt of Austin college, Conference president, said Hardin college was no longer a member of the Conference and listing it in basketball standings, as has been done recently, was not correct. Hardin college has been voted into the Lone Star Conference.

A. & I. needs only approval from its board of trustees to join the loop, which already has Abilene Christian college, Southwestern university, Austin college, McMurry college and Howard Payne as members

Idalou Wildcats Win Two Games From Lorenzo Cagers

IDALOU, Jan. 14. (Special) — The Idalou Wildcats won two games from the visiting Lorenzo High school teams here tonight, the boys taking a District 7-B conference game 33-29 and the girls winning their tilt 29-14.

Don Seale led the Wildcat scorers with 13 points, but yielded scoring honors to Settles of the Hornets, who had 16.

Tinker Five Beats Denver City, 53-33

LEVELLAND, Jan. 14. — (Special — The Levelland Refiners fought their way into the next round of the Levelland Jaycee Independent Invitational Basketball tournament with a 46-32 victory over Brown's Layco cagers here tonight.

In the second game, the Thomas Tinkers of Lubbock easily turned back the Denver City cagers, 53-33, to advance to the next rung.

Gene McKee paced the Levelland quintet with 14 points, while Earl Jackson had nine to lead the Layco team. In the second game, Epperson of Denver City had scoring homers with 13, while Bob Galey had 12 for the Tinkers.

Saturday night Sanders Motor of Lubbock will meet Primm Drug of Brownfield at 7:30 p. m. in the opening game. This will be followed by the Plains Gassers of Shallowater opposing Hoyt Furniture of Lubbock. And the final game of the night will pair Anton and Derrick's Gulf Service of Idalou.

The tournament is behind schedule, since games were postponed during the bad weather and tonight's contests were in the first round.

Klan Opposes Use Of Negroes For Game

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 14. (INS)—Dr. Samuel Green head of the Georgia Ku Klux Klan, asserted tonight "segregation laws will be thoroughly investigated" to prevent negro members of the Brooklyn Dodgers from playing in three exhibition games with the Atlanta Crackers in April.

Otherwise, announcement of the three exhibition games by Atlanta president Earl Mann caused little reaction.

Gov. Herman Talmadge, busy pushing administration measures through the legislature, merely commented he was not familiar with laws concerning mixing races in athletic events.

He suggested contacting Fulton (Atlanta) County solicitor general Paul Webb, since the games would be played at Ponce De Leon park, home of the Southern Association team, and in Fulton County. Webb, however, stated he knew of no such law covering a situation like that.

Earlier Mann had said that the Crackers would meet any team fielded by the Dodgers.

TOP TRACK STARS IN MEET

Texas Aggie Crack Mile Relay Team In Washington For Event

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—The nation's top track stars are traipsing into town for one of the year's top indoor track events—the second running of the Washington Evening Star meet Saturday night.

More than 350 athletes—including eight good enough to compete on the U. S. Olympic team—will be on hand.

In addition to the individual events, 13 relays spice the program.

Oddly, the Olympic champion who will be most in the limelight hasn't a chance to be a winner here, Bob Mathias, the nation's outstanding amateur in 1948 and a decathalon champion, will have a try at the high jump.

His chances of survival there are rated somewhat lower than a Shara snowman.

For the field is topped by Dave Albritton, who has his eye on his 12th national championship. And Jack Heintzman of Bradley and Dick Phillips from Brown could win without anyone hollering "upset."

Among the relays teams, Texas A. and M.'s crack mile outfit will get the most attention.

Not only because it came the fartherest (it cost $1,000 to fly the boys in), but because it won the Southwest Conference meet last year, the Kansas and Drake relays and the Los Angeles Coliseum meet.

The Texans have three of last year's four runners. Their chief competition is expected to come from Seton Hall, which has a fair to middling bunch of baton passers, too.

Seton Hall, like Texas A. & M., has three regulars back. And last year's team turned in some of best times made in the east in ten years.

NAMING STREETS

Solving Our Puzzle

ANYONE who has had trouble in locating street addresses in booming Lubbock—and that means practically all the oldtimers and newcomers in town—will hope that the City Planning commission makes prompt recommendation to the City commission in straightening out our difficulties and that the City commission, then, will lose no time in implementing the recommendation.

A present condition of extreme confusion does not imply criticism of anyone. Like Topsy, it "just growed," and now has become a problem of increasing difficulty because Lubbock has "growed" a great deal in relatively a short time. Lubbock has become a city and some simple system of street naming has become an urgent need.

That such systems are readily available was brought out at a recent public meeting called by Chairman Kennedy Clapp of the Planning Commission and attended by a dozen interested citizens. It is true that working out a system will require considerable work, some temporary confusion and modest expense. But there's no mystery about the job and it is one which will have to be done sooner or later.

The sooner it is done, the better—and the less difficult and costly it will be.

Worth The Cost

UNDERSECRETARY of State Robert A. Lovett, who soon is to retire, could have startled no one by his recent statement that Soviet leaders will resort to war "whenever they feel they can win" in order to impose Communism upon the world.

Informed people throughout the world long have assumed the prospect to be one of factual and indisputable truth. They are supported in their assumption by Communist Russia's unbroken record of resorting to whatever force has been necessary to subjugate people and nations too weak to offer successful resistance. Only those nations with the strength, or the Allies, to offer formidable opposition have escaped open attack. None has escaped disturbances of varying degrees of seriousness and violence fomented by the Kremlin's undercover agents.

The bright spot in the prospect is the world's awareness of the danger. Fortunately the awareness is not complacent, like that prevailing generally, and specifically in the United States, prior to World Wars I and II. The attitude then was one of, "It can't happen to us."

This time recognition is virtually universal that direful things not only could happen, but are pretty sure to happen, if Soviet leaders ever feel sure of victory in a war of world conquest. The primary purpose of the cold war which continues on an expanding scale is to preserve peace by discouraging confidence among those who might aspire to world domination.

As long as it succeeds in that purpose—or if it puts democratic nations in stronger position to resist aggressions—the cold war will be worth whatever it costs.

Boy! You Scared Me—

Beware Of Romance

By ROBERTA COURTLAND
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: When sixteen-year-old Merry Carson learns that her dashing father, Kin, has asked her selfish mother, Susan, for a divorce, her whole world turns topsy-turvy. Kin tries to explain to Merry where the marriage failed; he tells her about Lissa, the woman who promises him the companionship Susan never gave him. But Merry is too dismayed to even try to understand. When Kin leaves the house she wonders if she'll ever see him again.)

MERRY awoke in the brilliant sunshine and lay very still looking out of the window. It was going to be a gorgeous day, she told herself happily. And then memory swooped down on her and everything blacked out except the thought that last night Mother and Dad had separated!

She had a sick, frightened feeling, as though she had been caught in public without her clothes on. As though everybody were staring at her, laughing at her, making fun of her. The gang that had seemed so wonderful yesterday—could it have been only yesterday? It seemed ages ago—what would they think? What would they say? Marshallville was old-fashioned, sedate, and in the gang divorces were almost unknown.

She went a little further in her thoughts. If it was this unpleasant for her, how must it be for her mother?

For Susan would have to face her friends, too — middle-aged women in the smug security of marriages of long standing.

Merry was startled out of her miserable thoughts by the opening door, and when she turned her head, she stared wide-eyed, and then flung herself out of bed and upon the stout, middle-aged woman bearing the breakfast tray.

"My land, child, mind the crockery," protested the gray-haired, middle-aged woman as she put down the tray and held Merry tight. "My, but it's good to see you."

"Aunt Jane, how in the name of goodness did you get here? Where'd you come from?" demanded Merry, halfway between tears and laughter.

AUNT JANE—she wasn't really an aunt, but Susan's cousin, several years older, the lines of whose life had fallen in much less pleasant places than Susan's, at least up to now—kissed Merry and said quietly, "Your father came to see me yesterday morning. He asked me to come as soon as I could. I tried to be here before he and Susan had their talk but had a puncture outside Ellaville, just as it was getting dark. I had to fix it myself and it took me a long time. Guess I'm getting old."

"You? You're the youngest thing that ever lived! Oh, Aunt Jane, darling Aunt Jane, I was never so glad to see anybody in all my life. Aunt Jane, isn't it awful?" And suddenly Merry was weeping stormily and Aunt Jane's arms were about her.

"There, there, now. Have a good cry, sweetie, and then blow your nose and wipe your pretty eyes and have a cup of coffee and we'll look the whole thing over from every side," she said at last. "Anyway, what's so awful about it? People grow up; they grow older; they grow apart. It's life, honey, and you have to get used to it."

"But how could Dad hurt Mother so?"

Aunt Jane looked a little annoyed.

"How could Susan hurt Kin so?" she snapped.

Open-mouthed, Merry stared at her.

"Why, Mother's always been wonderful!"

"She's the most colossally selfish—"

"Aunt Jane! Why, she's the most generous—"

"Self-centered was what I meant. She's got a whim of iron, as they say! Whatever Susan wants and that is for Susan's benefit, that Susan is going to have. She had her chance to grow up with Kin, to keep him contented and happy; but you can't feed a man on husks all his life, pet, and make him like it.

"Aunt Jane, I won't listen! I won't, do you hear?"

AUNT Jane studied the white, hard young face for a moment and then she shrugged and said wearily, "Oh, well, youngster, you're Susan's child, too. Now eat your breakfast while it's still fit to eat and we'll go another round in our battle. But I may as well tell you that I pride myself on seeing both sides of a problem."

Merry's chin trembled and Aunt Jane patted her shining head and went out of the room.

Later, when Merry had climbed into slacks and a shirt and went along to her mother's room, she admitted, with secret shame, her reluctance to enter that room that had always been a haven for her childish griefs and joys. But she braced herself and opened the door and stood, startled.

For the shades had been drawn against the bright winter sunlight and the room was dim and shadowy and faintly redolent of the eau de cologne with which Susan pampered her occasional headaches. It seemed to Merry, super-sensitive in that moment, that the room smelled faintly, too, of something not so easy to identify—a dark, moldy, closed-in smothering feeling that was more on atmosphere than a smell.

Susan stirred and turned her head, peering through the dimness, blind without her glasses.

"Is that you, darling?" she asked, and her voice had the mournful cadence of a tolling bell, before she burst into wild tears. "Oh, my poor baby! My poor disgraced, deserted baby!"

Merry went across the dim room and knelt beside the bed and put her strong young arms about that shaking, pathetic figure and held her close, and their tears mingled.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

PROBABLY I shouldn't be writing this.

It may not be good for the kiddies.

When you read about all the fuss being made over how the comics ruin our young generation, you are afraid to open your mouth for fear someone may come along and say you are ruining the children by just saying "boo."

BRANDIES

However that's another story.

What I want to tell you about is an item I just read in my morning paper.

Because it reminds me so much of what my father used to say when I was approaching the age when temptation wiggles its finger so pleasantly and says "Come and try me."

Father had been pretty well through the mill. While he believed in Santa Claus to the very end, I am sure he didn't believe in fairies.

He used to say to me:

"Be good, boy. Be as good as you can. But, above all, be careful."

What made me think of it was the story about Clyde McCoy, the bandleader, who is quitting the tooting game after thirty-one years as a bandleader, and opening a flower shop in Memphis, Tenn.

If you don't know about Clyde McCoy, he is the fellow who made the "Sugar Blues" so popular.

And if you never heard the "Sugar Blues," or of the "Sugar Blues," it may interest you to know that his recordings of that one song netted him more than $40,000.

WELL, Clyde McCoy never claimed to be a philosopher. But his outlook on life seems to be something like what my father's used to be.

He, too, believes in being good. And he believes in being good because any careful person knows better than to be bad.

Clyde McCoy, as a bandleader, has been around the night spots a lot.

So he doesn't believe in drinking. Not because of any moralistic principle, but because he has seen what drink can do to people.

He doesn't believe in gambling. Not because good people don't gamble, but because careful people don't gamble.

McCoy has seen too many drunks and too many gamblers cluttering up the gutters from San Francisco to Boston.

And here is something he said that I like especially well.

"I never wanted to be at the top," he said to the reporter. "I was right where I wanted to be, with some of them up there over me and a lot of 'em down lower.

"When you're at the top, there's only one way to go, and that's down. Fellows like Wayne King, Ted Weems and myself—we were in a good bracket."

McCoy is only 45. But he thinks that's too old for a bandleader.

And, furthermore, he wants to have his flowers while he can enjoy them. They won't do him much good when they are made into wreaths.

BUSINESS TAKES NOTE

Capital Pact Talked

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The political and economic position of labor and industry at Washington has shifted sensationally in the ten weeks since the election of Harry S. Truman sent the stock market into a nosedive, forced postponement of plans for industrial expansion and aroused fears that high-level prosperity might be replaced by a sharp recession in 1949.

Both the White House and Congress have reacted quickly and significantly to pessimistic reports from the economic front since November 2. Nobody now regards the outcome on that day as a mandate to kick business around or to invite labor to stuff itself regardless of the effect on the nation's long-range economic system.

TUCKER

Whether management deliberately tried to throw a scare into the Administration or not, increasing unemployment, a drop in car loadings, customer resistance and curtailment of orders have forced Democratic politicians at both ends of Pennsylvania avenue to slow down the New Deal parade.

WARNINGS: President Truman took cognizance of these storm warnings in his message on the state of the union, in his budget figures and in outlining his policies with respect to such key problems as new anti-inflation controls, fiscal and tax matters and replacement of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Even more important than the White House response is the fact that the giver of so many extravagant and expensive campaign pledges was influenced to outline a comparatively cautious and conservative legislative program by the political, economic and financial experts within his own household.

It is also significant that they urged him to go slow only after numerous post-election conferences with bankers, business men and industrialists throughout the country. For the first time in sixteen years, Washington listened to the men of management instead of to "brain trusters."

TRUCE: It is understood that Thomas B. McCabe, the Pennsylvania Republican who was named by Mr. Truman as head of the Federal Reserve System in place of the more liberal and experimental Marriner S. Eccles of Utah, served as emissary for the Administration in sounding sentiment among the members of what Franklin D. Roosevelt used to call "well-stocked clubs."

The identity of Mr. Truman's bearer of a flag of truce to the "fat boys" is extremely important. Even while the Pennsylvania Union Leaguer was consulting fellow-bankers in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, Mr. Eccles publicly demanded an excess profits tax and a special tax on undistributed dividends—two of F.D.R.'s favorite levies in early New Deal days.

Neither proposal has been advanced by Mr. Truman in his effort to raise four billion dollars of new money.

PACT: From the owners and managers of the nation's production plant as well as from the men who must finance expansion, Mr. McCabe is said to have brought this word to the White House:

"Leave us enough after taxes to take care of labor, the stockholders and present and prospective plants, and we will go along with you! In fact, we think that we can guarantee continued business activity, production, lower prices and employment on that basis!"

Despite the President's relatively restrained demands for federal aid for such public welfare requirements as housing, health and education, the McCabe group's first reaction is that their prayer has been heard for the first time in many years.

Whether it will be heeded will depend on Congress and whether forthcoming events enable them to keep their part of the prosperity pact.

NAME: It is also revealing that the recent goings-on around the White House and Capitol Hill have rung no bells in the hearts of labor union leaders, especially in view of their post-election activities designed to convince President Truman and members of Congress that they owe their recent political success almost entirely to the AFL and CIO.

Organized labor is bitter over the makeup of several key committees in House and Senate. The formal slate which it submitted to Speaker Rayburn and the Vice-President was disregarded. Its insistence on junking the House Un-American Activities committee will also be neglected, although that unit will be brought under stricter control by the Rayburn leadership.

Having based their support of and work for the Democrats mainly on their desire for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, Philip Murray and William L. Green are heartbroken. It is true that Mr. Truman has asked "repeal" of the Republican statute and enactment of an improved Wagner Act.

But the presidential outline of new labor legislation, combined with the Supreme Court's decision upholding state laws prohibiting a closed shop, means that any substitute legislation will merely have a different name, as former Representative Fred A. Hartley, Jr., forecast during the campaign.

An antagonist says men's legs would be as attractive as women's legs if men wore high-heeled shoes which cause the calf muscles to bulge. He's mistaken. The primary thing that makes a woman's leg attractive is the fact that it belongs to a woman.

"The average man would rather be stranded on a desert island with a woman who is a good cook than with a glamor girl," asserts a psychologist If so, the average man is considerably older than we had been thinking he was.

"Many species of hummingbirds would perish if they didn't eat at least once every 10 minutes during their waking hours." This is about three times as often as the 8-year-old boy has to eat in order to survive.

Several scientists are hanging around the Bronx Zoo trying to find out why the gorilla beats his chest We doubt they will succeed, as we don't believe the gorilla knows.

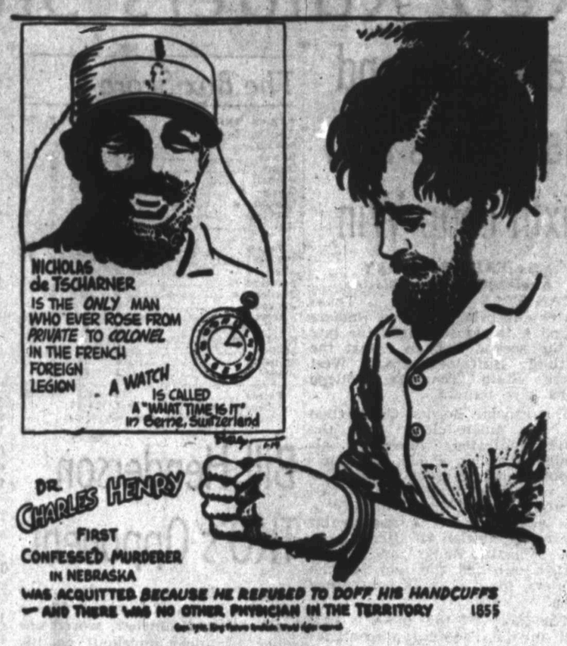

All of the people can't be fooled all of the time, but a majority of them can be (and are) fooled enough of the time to keep this old world in one heluva fix a lot of the time.

"Overeating will cause a person to become dissatisfied with life," says a physician. And not having enough to eat will cause him to entertain some pretty dark thoughts about life.

A preacher says playing golf stimulates his thinking. And for some of the resulting thoughts, he probably has to pray for forgiveness after the game.

"No one knows how much money is spent in tipping," says a statistician. This is especially true of the auditor who tries to check up expense accounts.

STUDY OF SPENDING NEEDED

War Costs Heavy Budget Item

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, — The dull headache that so many get these days in contemplating President Truman's forty-two billion dollar "peace-time" budget could be diagnosed by any competent doctor of statistics to be caused by millions of little men stamping with hobnailed boots on the nerves of humankind.

Soldiers. Round and round they march.

Or to bring it down to you—three-quarters, 75 percent, of that income tax bill you are adjusting this week goes for past wars and protection against possible future wars. It divides into pensions and care for veterans; current national defense, the single biggest item in the whole budget; rehabilitation of war-wrecked peoples and economies of which the largest share is the bill for the European Recovery administration; interest on the public debt, virtually all of which was incurred for war.

Curbs On Other Projects

That adds up to 32 billion dollars. Ten billion dollars is left for regular expenses of government and for government services to our people, such as housing, health, education, development of our land and water resources for agriculture and electrical power, development of our forests and mines and our transportation facilities.

All of these are sorely needed. Much more of them could be done for our people if it weren't for past wars and fear of future wars and at a cost of only a small part of that 32 billions. President Truman frankly announced the necessary curtailment just now of some needed development projects because the economy can't stand it because of war costs. After all, our taxpayers can stand only so much, and he asked for four billions more in taxes as it is.

President Truman spelled out the percentage costs in his budget message this year so that you can add up the overwhelming percentage for war. But he did not do it so pointedly as a year ago when it was about the same. Nor did he draw the obvious moral he stated then when he said bluntly in his budget message:

"This should be a sobering thought to all of us as we strive for the creation of lasting peace among the nations of the world."

It is perhaps an old story now. It shouldn't be. It is the real story of the budget. It is repeated here again, as it was a year ago, for we shouldn't forget it. Not that anything can be done about it in this year's budget, nor perhaps in the next or the one after that, for we must accept our obligations to our own and to others that war has imposed upon us. But, perhaps slowly, people will begin to wake up, individually. And, perhaps eventually, they will raise their voices collectively in a great tornado of public opinion and force those who are our leaders to do something about war.

War Costs Heavy

It would be a good thing if everybody could read the President's budget message, even though it is a bit of a task. It would be fine if it could be put out in pamphlet form and become a best-seller. It tells the story much better really than those best-selling novels about the horrors of war, even if not as dramatically. No, it is fairly dull reading.

But, as you go through page after page about the costs of wars, it hits you suddenly how little we human beings all over the world know about living with each other.

Here and there are little bits that bring the story down close. Its cost, for instance, $3,100 to keep one soldier for a year in our Army. Soon veterans of the last and previous wars will constitute 40 per cent of our population. Approximately 40 per cent of federal civil employees—865,000—work daily in defense activities of the national military establishment. For preparation for industrial mobilization alone—so essential in modern war—a total of 129 millions is provided for next year. That used to be a lot of money.

Expenditures for various veterans programs, readjustment benefits, schooling, and the like, are now declining. But, as President Truman adds, "the long-run trend of compensation and pension costs and of hospital and medical care is gradually upward." That takes us to hospitals where still-young men with drawn faces wake up suddenly at night with a start, from nightmares of jungles on Pacific islands, and the thin beachhead at Anzio, and the German guns barking from the monastery on the hill above Cassino, and the gory fighting at Julich.

'Black Dahlia' Death Suspect Questioned

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14. (INS)—Arthur Lane, also known as Jeff Connors, was questioned by police today as their latest suspect on the second anniversary of the brutal murder of Elizabeth "Black Dahlia" Short.

It was just two years ago tonight that the savagely mutilated and dismembered body of the 22-year-old beauty was found on a vacant lot.

Hundreds of suspects have been questioned in connection with the slaying and Lane is the latest.

Lane, arrested in Gilroy, Cal., protested his innocence and claimed that he was working at Columbia Pictures studio the night of the murder. His statement was corroborated by his former wife, Grace Allen.

The studio said that Arthur Lane was under contract at the studio at the time of the murder.

After two days of intensive police work detectives indicated they are unable to crack his alibi that he worked the afternoon and evening of the murder.

STOCKS IN SHARP LOSSES

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—A slow-poke stock market gained speed on the downgrade today.

Sudden weakness in American Telephone and Telegraph stock touched off a flurry of selling soon after the opening which carried prices down all along the line. It was the second sharpest setback of the new year.

Buying support appeared before the downturn gained real momentum but closing prices were still down fractions to well over a point.

The decline was accompanied by a pick-up in activity. Turnover of 990,000 shares was tops for the week and compared with a meager 760,000 yesterday.

A. T. & T. started to slip within minutes after the news was out that the Department of Justice had filed an anti-monopoly suit against the company asking that it divest itself of ownership in Western Electric Corp., a manufacturing subsidiary.

At the worst the Telephone company's stock was marked down 1⅝ points to 147¾, the lowest price paid since 1943. A later comeback shaped the extreme loss and the issue closed down 1 at 148½.

A. T. & T. is regarded as one of the most stable issues traded on the exchange and a price change of a point or more on any one day is an unusual event. The company's $9 annual dividend rate is one of Wall Street's strongest traditions. Stock holders have received the $9 dividend, in good times and bad, for nearly 20 years, even during 1932.

Gaylord Container, a prime favorite not long ago, lost 1⅝ at 21. The decline reflected that oil was not yet being produced on a commercial basis from a newly discovered on the company's Louisiana properties.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP) — Cotton futures were steady today on trade and New Orleans buying. Reports that some cotton sales to China have been consummated, a more favorable December cotton consumption estimate, and the continued sizable movement of cotton into the government loan strengthened the market.

Traders also noted that there was a sharp increase in unmade call sales for the week ended January 7 which represented potential buying power later on.

Futures closed 20 to 50 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 14 (AP) — Grains, soybeans and lard rallied today after sinking to new lows on the current downturn in early dealings.

Short covering and some new buying attracted by the mark-downs of the past few sessions brought about the rally, which got underway around mid-day in the session. It was sparked by soybeans and lard, weakest commodities in recent days.

Grain men said the rally may have been technical in nature, reflecting an over-sold condition of the market. In early dealings all lard, July soybeans and December corn and oats made new seasonal lows. Losses were either greatly reduced or replaced with small gains later.

Wheat closed unchanged to ¼ higher, May $2.25¾-¼, corn was ⅜ lower to ⅜ higher, May $1.46-1.46¼, oats were ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, May 75¼. Rye was ½ higher, May $1.67½, soybeans were 1¼-1½ higher, March $2.47-2.46¾, and lard was unchanged to 12 cents a hundred pounds lower, January $14.90.

Cash lard was offered at $14.90 a hundred pounds, a new low since June, 1946.

Longview Oil Men Give Scout Groups Deed To $500,000 Well

LONGVIEW, Jan. 14. (AP) — Thousands of east Texas area council boy and girl scouts became independent oil producers here today as they received a newly drilled well valued at $500,000 from local members of the industry.

The deed to the well lease was handed to representatives of the two organizations by John E. Wrather, Longview oil operator during a dedication ceremony at the well site near here this afternoon. The "scout well" idea was originated by Wrather.

Approximately 200 persons attended the ceremony, and heard Earnest O. Thompson, railroad commissioner, assail current large imports of foreign oil, which he said are "threatening development of domestic petroleum reserves."

BAKER RESIDENT DIES

WEATHERFORD, Jan. 14. (AP)—Tom Harrington, 96, a Parker county pioneer, died at his home here last night. He and his brother, the late Bob Harrington, were instrumental in developing the strain of watermelons that later became a multimillion dollar industry for Parker county.

Jury Gives Findings In Damage Suit Here

A 99th district court jury, which returned answers at 11:35 a. m. Friday to Judge G. V. Pardue in a $6,350 damages action growing out of a collision last April in Levelland, found that both plaintiff and defendant were guilty of negligence in connection with the collision.

The case was styled Doyle Kennedy, by R. H. Kennedy, against C. M. Lang and J. R. Givens, doing business as Lang Transit company.

Based on the findings, Mack Taylor, Dallas attorney, and W. D. Benson, Lubbock attorney, said they would move for judgment for the defendants.

A jury in the divorce and division of community property action of Loueva McCalla against N. G. McCalla returned answers to special issues in the case to Judge Pardue at 6:15 p. m. Friday.

The plaintiff was granted a divorce from the defendent, court officials said.

Based on the answers to the special issues involved, A. W. Salyars, who represented the plaintiff in the action, said that a move for judgment for the plaintiff would be made.

The defendant was represented by A. C. Cooke of the firm of Dillard, Cooke and Dillard.

$1,000 Bond Set In Forgery Case

Bond of $1,000 was set Friday for Lula Mae Lester, 18, of Lubbock, who was charged late Thursday with passing a forged $58.60 check.

A grand jury that reported bills Jan. 3 to 99th Judge G. V. Pardue failed to indict Miss Lester on a charge that she forged a check for approximately $31, which had been passed by a juvenile at Dunlap's.

Theft Attempt Probed

The defendant and a 17-year-old juvenile girl were arrested Thursday by city detectives, after they allegedly had attempted to pass the check at a downtown bank. The instrument was signed "J. W. Lester, jr." A juvenile petition will be filed, naming the younger girl. Bond set for the older girl by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, will bind her over to the next grand jury here.

Stolen Truck Found

Leon J. Hanlon and W. H. Verner, police patrolmen, arrested a 35-year-old man for Crane authorities who had said they wanted him on a felony warrant charging theft of a pistol valued at more than $50. The man had in his possession a .380 automatic pistol, arresting officials said.

KGZW dispatchers said they had received shortwave messages announcing that a pickup truck in which three fugitives had fled after a jailbreak several days ago from Paducah had been recovered by state highway patrolmen in the Abilene district, but that there had been no arrests.

A 19-year-old Lubbock youth, Wendell Wayne Corditt, was fined $100 in corporation court last night on a charge of reckless driving. Patrolmen E. A. Sherrell and Cecil Dickey said they pursued Corditt's car from Eighteenth and Ave. C to a spot five miles out on the Tahoka highway at speeds ranging up to 70 miles per hour.

The pockets of a 41-year-old Oklahoma man, arrested last night on a charge of drunkenness, yielded among other things 72 bars of hotel-size soap. Police surmised that he wanted to "come clean" because a short while after being locked in jail he washed all his clothing and hung it on the cell bars to dry. He was sleeping off his drunk "in the raw," they said.

Vincent J. Southwick told police that someone had filed the handle off the trunk of his car while it was parked Friday afternoon near the courthouse. He was unable to open the trunk to find if any of the more than $200 worth of tools and equipment in the trunk were missing.

Two watches, one a 17-jewel men's wrist watch valued at $67.50, were stolen from a department store here, Jim Stallings of 1619 Tenth reported to police. The other watch was listed as a ladies wrist watch of undetermined value.

A chrome hub cap valued at $4.35 was stolen from the car of Billy Boyd of 2818 Adams while the vehicle was parked at Sixteenth and Texas, police were informed.

Reds Outline Terms

patch quoting sources in Red-besieged Peiping.)

In a review covering the two and one-half years since the American-sponsored truce broke down, Mao Tse-Tung elaborated most of his terms.

"During these two and one-half years of war," he said, "the Nanking reactionary government in violation of the will of the people convened a bogus national assembly, promulgated a bogus constitution, elected a bogus president (Chiang Kai-Shek), promulgated a so-called order of 'mobilization for suppressing of rebellion.'

Rights Claimed Betrayed

"It betrayed national rights wholesale to the American government, and obtained several billions of American dollars in foreign loans from the American government.

"It brought in the American government's naval and air forces to occupy China's territory and territorial seas and encroach on her air sovereignty, concluded many treaties of national betrayal with the American government accepted the American military advisory group's participation in China's civil war.

"It obtained from the American government large quantities of planes, tanks, heavy and light artillery, machine guns, rifles, shells, ammunition and other military materials for the slaughter of the Chinese people."

(In Washington a State department spokesman said the only treaties between the United States and China were those of friendship and commerce, made last year, and American renunciation of extra-territorial privileges, concluded in 1943. There are also understood to be a number of agreements covering economic cooperation.)

Mao charged that the Chiang government started the civil war because it was "lured by the glitter of American weapons" and "thought that assistance from the American government would be powerful and limitless.'

Amarillo Man Charged After City Fireman Shot To Death

AMARILLO, Jan. 14. (AP) — Shelby Vitatoe, 31, was charged with murder and immediately released on $1,500 bond here today in the shooting last night of his brother-in-law, Melvin Williams, 25, city fireman.

J. L. King, head of city detectives, said Vitatoe, who lived next door to Williams, told him that he fired the four shots that fatally wounded Williams. King quoted Vitatoe as saying the shooting followed the mistreatment of Mrs. Williams, his sister.

Motley Rancher's Rain Gauge Shows Four Inches Sand

(By The Associated Press)

MATADOR, Jan. 14.—J. C. "Doc" Burleson has a government rain gauge on his ranch 15 miles northwest of Matador.

During the recent 70-day drouth, Rancher Burleson didn't bother to look at it, says Douglas Meador, editor of the Matador Tribune.

Then light, freezing rain fell, icing up this section of the South Plains. Burleson hastened to check the gauge. It measured four inches of sand.

Burleson said that while there wasn't enough moisture to wet all of the sand, continued sleet and rain have relieved the drouth.

School Enrollment Hike Reported Here

Gross enrollment figures for the end of the fourth month of the current school year show an increase of 523 Lubbock public school students over figures at the end of the third month, statistics released Friday by Supt. R. W. Matthews, show.

Largest increases were shown at the Guadalupe and Dunbar schools, where figures at the end of the fourth month were up 100 and 157, respectively.

Matthews, in announcing the increase, pointed out that the gross enrollment invariably climbs immediately after Christmas holiday vacation.

It marked the third successive monthly increase in local school enrollment during the current school year.

Fog Blankets Area

also was blanketed by a thick fog last night, slowing highway travel almost to a standstill, The Associated Press reported.

A week, which ended this morning, gave the South Plains almost a complete turnover in weather. Last Saturday the area was lashed by one of the worst dust storms of the winter. Sunday morning a light rain set in and delivered much needed precipitation. Monday the rain changed to freezing rain and sleet; Tuesday brought more of the same.

Lines Are Repaired

Wednesday morning the sleet changed back to freezing rain and by afternoon most of the Plains area was blanketed under from two to five inches of ice. Power service was interrupted, telephone lines and poles ripped down and most traffic brought to a halt.

Thursday morning the sun broke through the overcast and a general thaw set in. Friday much of the melting of the ice blanket was completed except for scattered spots in fields and protected areas, and then Friday night the fog-rain struck.

Communications, crippled by the onslaught of weather, were slowly being returned to normal yesterday. Emergency telephone lines had been strung to many isolated towns as repair crews were moving into the stricken area, but pre-storm service is not expected for several days, possibly weeks.

Delayed reports Friday night indicated that Hobbs, N. M., was one of the hardest hit spots within the storm area. Damage there was estimated by a wire service at $1,000,000. Officials in the New Mexico town admitted that any estimate was difficult to make because of the widespread damage to power lines telephone installations, trees and other property.

A Southwestern Associated Telephone company official in Hobbs estimated damage to lines and poles and other equipment probably would total $100,000. This was a $65,000 hike over a previous estimate given Thursday night. Miles of telephone poles and lines were reported snapped between Hobbs and Carlsbad.

Almost all trees in Hobbs were reported stripped of branches by the weight of ice. More than five inches of ice and sleet covered Hobbs streets when the storm slackened Thursday morning. Schools which were closed Wednesday morning will reopen Monday, but last night only the business section of Hobbs was reported to have electrical power, and almost all local telephone service was out. Two toll circuits to Lubbock were in operation.

Other Areas Recover

Reports from the Associated Press last night said that with the fast melting of the ice telephone and telegraph line gangs struggled through slush to restore communications to scores of communities in the San Angelo-Midland-Odessa area.

State highway patrolmen stopped buses northward out of Austin for a time Friday night because of the fog, and asked its Temple patrol to do the same there. It stationed patrolmen along the highways to warn motorists of danger from the lowered visibility. Traffic was released before midnight, it was reported.

At Austin the state highway patrol radio charted the heavy Central Texas fog belt as extending roughly from Austin north to Waco and from about 15 miles east of Austin to 50 miles west.

Air traffic skipped Austin. San Antonio, 70 miles away, reported fog but highway and air traffic still moving in ceiling zero weather.

Rains ranging from a trace to drizzles fell Friday at Amarillo, Austin, Big Spring, Dallas, San Antonio, Waco, Corpus Christi, Crystal City, Lufkin, Laredo, Del Rio, Salt Flat, Junction, Texarkana, Alice, Mineral Wells, Midland, and Abilene.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. estimated its damage to lines in the storm area at nearly three-quarters of a million dollars.

Late Friday the company still had not restored service to Rotan, Spur, Roby, Baird, Gail, Haskell, Jayton, Hermleigh, Lamesa and Seymour.

News Briefs

Appointments in the Texas National Guard, as announced in Austin Friday by the Department of the Adjutant General, included Robert A. Smith of Plainview, who received an appointment as first lieutenant, according to an Associated Press dispatch last night.

Mrs. Cecil E. King, of 3210 Thirtieth, who was injured in an auto collision about 8:40 a. m. Friday at Adams Ave. and Twenty-ninth, last night was in good condition at West Texas hospital, a hospital attendant reported. Mrs. King was a passenger in a vehicle driven by her husband when it was in collision with a car driven by Leslie C. Pinkston, 19, of 2412 Main. The impact caused King's car to spin and Mrs. King was thrown to the pavement when a door of the car accidentally opened. She was taken to the hospital by Plains ambulance. It was reported that she suffered abrasions and bruises of the head and shoulder. X-ray examinations revealed that she had no serious injuries.

cations for a sanitary sewer network in the Arnett-Benson addition and adjoining area in Northwest Lubbock highlighted the two and one-half hour meeting. Bids are to be received on the project on Feb. 10.

To Take Care Of Needs

Designed to take care of all populated areas in northwest Lubbock for a period of several years, the system will be "stage" constructed and as the area expands will be improved permanently. Present plans call for a lift station at one point along the line joining with main sewer lines.

Ten months would be required to complete the project under plans and specifications submitted by City Engineer R. L. Oldham.

Other business transacted Friday morning included:

Acceptance of a county proposal that administration of City-County Welfare be transferred to the City Health department and transfer of $2,000 in funds to the City-County Welfare fund:

Claims Are Approved

Approval of claims of D. F. Eaton and J. H. Murdough of $85.45 and $41.85, respectively, for damages to automobiles caused by running into an unlighted ditch and in collision with a city engineer's car;

Approval of a route change of the Lubbock City Bus company on a bus in southeast Lubbock, extending the route from Twenty-fifth south on Tyler to Twenty-eighth;

Approval of a request to the State Board of Water Engineers for an extension of three months in the time for completion of investigations on White River, Crosby county;

Acceptance of a report from Burt Blanton on the Canadian River dam possibilities; and Discussion of contemplated settlement of the suit of Mrs. Mollie G. Abernathy against the City of Lubbock for recovery of a portion of the land in Mackenzie State park.

Proposed Settlement

G. H. Nelson, local attorney who was employed to assist the city in the case, appeared before the commission and made the recommendation for the proposed settlement which provides for construction of a road through the park to the edge of the Abernathy property east of the park and the provision of a water line to serve the area.

The commission also instructed City Manager Smith to call for bids on trimming of trees around power lines in the city's alleys.

In discussion of the City-County Welfare situation, it was revealed that former county commissioner, Ben Mansker, was being considered for the post of executive secretary from which Joe W. Wilson recently resigned. City Health Director Gerald Jarvis was instructed to use his own judgment in employment of the official at a salary of $225 a month plus $25 car expense and an assistant at a salary of $175 a months plus $50 car expense. Mrs. Nancy Green is present assistant and Jarvis indicated she would more than likely be continued.

Letter Is Quoted

As the meeting was brought to a close, Smith submitted his letter of resignation. Dated, Jan. 13, it read:

"I hereby tender by resignation as City Manager for the City of Lubbock. I request that I be relieved of my duties not later than Feb. 15, 1949.

"I am resigning so that I may be associated with Parkhill & Cooper, Consulting Engineers, in the consulting engineering business.

"I want to express my appreciation to you and the city employes for the cooperation and assistance given me while serving as your City Manager."

Besides Mayor Rodgers, others attending the meeting included: City Commissioners Whiteside and Price and E. K. Hufstedler, jr., City Secretary Lavenia Williams and City Attorney Vaughan Wilson.

ginning at 9 p. m. in the ballroom.

At the 7:30 o'clock buffet supper tonight, the Jaycee Man-Of-The-Year award will be made by Dr. E. N. Jones, vice president of Texas Tech.

A breakfast at 8:30 a. m. Sunday, to be followed by a business session, will conclude the meeting.

New Zealanders are reported to be consuming from eight to ten bottles of free medicine, provided by the government, each week.

Methodist Rally Is Conducted In City

Addresses by Dr. E. T. Iglehart, veteran educational missionary in Japan, and Rev. Hubert Bratcher, pastor of St. John's Methodist church here, highlighted last night's session of the Lubbock district Advance rally, held at First Methodist church.

The rally, which opened at First Methodist church Friday, is the first of a scheduled series of district rallies in this portion of the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist church, and is held in the interests of the church's four-year advance program.

Dr. Iglehart spoke on "The Future of Christianity in Japan," while Rev. Bratcher, who is conference missionary secretary, had as his subject, "The Advance is Our Program."

At the Friday afternoon session, a devotional was led by Dr. J. O. Haymes, district church superintendent. Rev. Bratcher spoke on "Time Table for the Advance," while Dr. H. M. Hilliard told the assembled group of "Needs and Opportunities in Latin American Work in the Southwest." L. L. Hill, secretary of the Methodist Board of Missions, also spoke briefly.

A number of Methodist pastors from over the area participated in the afternoon session.

The second of the series of rallies in this area is set for Monday afternoon and night in Amarillo, and will be similar to Friday's conference here. Dr. Iglehart and Rev. Bratcher will take part in the program.

Jester Favors

voters, under present statutes Texas would have no means of compiling voters' lists," he commented.

Senator Kelley's proposed change would also authorize the legislature to pass a general registration law requiring voters to register 30 days before an election. It is Gov. Jester's idea, however, that this law should forerun the banning of the poll tax system.

Ceiling Discussed

Senator Kelley's plan would not abolish the poll tax's serving simply as a revenue-raising measure. Whether the tax as such could be collected, however, without the current penalty that denies the voting right is anybody's guess. Gov. Jester suggests substitution of a "citizen's tax"—simply a new name for the power-stripped poll tax.

Another matter Texas voters would have a chance to speak on under proposed legislation in the senate is the $35,000,000 constitutional ceiling on the Texas welfare program.

Removal of the ceiling, according to Director of Public Welfare John Winters, is not likely to show an immediate effect on the size of welfare grants to the individual. The major importance, he said, is the removal of a restriction that presently ties the hands of legislators from liberalizing the program.

Restriction Offered

The resolution, the work of Senator R. L. Proffer of Justin, authorizes the legislature to decide such details as individual payments — with one restriction. No state grant is to be larger than the federal grant. Such would automatically tie state grants to ride the same wave of national grants regardless of the latter's rise or fall. At present the state pays a little less than federal payments.

With the $35,000,000 restriction in the constitution, the welfare department must necessarily not spend more than that no matter if welfare rolls double or triple in size. Old age pension rolls have shown consistent monthly gains for some two years. At present $31,000,000 of the total appropriations goes to the old age program. The remainder of the $35,000,000 is divided among the blind and needy dependent children.

Americans Stay Home

Smyth said in his report that shells were landing near Victoria park and the municipal building at the time he filed his dispatch.

He emphasized, however, that there have been no serious U. S. casualties thus far.

Smyth could not give an account of conditions in the outskirts of the city since, he said, American consular employes have been confined to their homes in the downtown area.

The Economic Cooperation administration reported that it had three Americans working in its Tientsin office, which is responsible for distribution of food under the city's rationing program.

The three are James T. Ivy of Washington; George D. Wilder, New York City, and Jacqueline D. Flannery, New York City.

ECA said that it has been unable to get supplies into Tientsin since mid-December due to the presence of Communist forces on the outskirts.

Others believed to be in the consular compound are Smyth's wife and a daughter, Jane; Mrs. Carroll Wellbourne wife of Consul Alfred T. Wellbourne, and a daughter, Louis, New Orleans, La.; Vice Consul and Mrs. Alfred L. Jenkens of Baxley, Ga.; Willard O. Brown, Abilene, Tex.; Vice Consul Gordon C. Unemployment Shows Increase

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. — The number of people losing their jobs is increasing across the country. Some areas are affected more than others.

While disturbing to the individuals and communities concerned, federal and state government experts say there is no cause for alarm. For the country as a whole there are only 2,000,000 unemployed, an unusually low figure, and the number employed is nearly 60,000,000, hovering around all-time records for this season of the year.

But there are more workers out of jobs today than at this time a year ago. An Associated Press survey in nearly a score of principal states indicates that increases in unemployment or in claims for insurance or compensation range from four to 201 per cent above the 1948 level.

Reasons Given

The reasons given for the increasing unemployment include regular seasonal adjustments, severe winter weather and industrial adjustment being made with the return of postwar trade conditions. This includes the leveling off insuch industries as radio, shoes and apparel and similar lines where war-born shortages have ended.

At Washington, experts of the Bureau of Employment Security said about 33,000,000 of the nearly 60,000,000 civilians gainfully at work are eligible to receive unemployment checks if they are laid off.

They explain that's because their employes make regular payments into the government's "kitty" of $7,632,000,000 for just that eventuality.

Gains Are Reported

Others in the U. S. work force are farm hands, domestic servants, those who work for themselves, or are in occupations which the security laws exempt from payroll deductions for the jobless pay fund.

Total figures for those now employed also show gains over a year ago in important sections of the country. In many cases employment rolls, because of population increases or new industries, are at record peace-time levels.

And even the number of unemployed—while above the number idle at the end of 1947—is in most cases far below that prevailing in 1939 or 1940. Present unemployment totals reported were as much as 71 per cent under prewar.

Because of current talk of "soft spots" in the national economy, of buyers' markets and lowering prices, the news of rising unemployment is getting into headlines.

Texas Unemployment commission officials reported considerable layoffs resulting from winter slowdowns of outdoor building and contracting work.

Some percentage increases in unemployment, claims or compensation paid, for recent periods compared with a year earlier, are:

Maryland, 201 per cent; New Hampshire, 84; Illinois, 57; Massachusetts, 43; New York, 32; Wyoming, 31; Colorado, 25; Texas, 22, and Michigan, 4.

Record Set

In actual numbers, either of unemployed, jobless filing claims or whose claims were paid, here are the latest figures, and the comparable totals for a year earlier.

Maryland 22,768 against 7,5671, New Hampshire 13,500 and 7,350. Illinois 80,130 and 51,037, Massachusetts 118,498 and 82,672, New York 397,000 and 301,000, Wyoming 1,885 and 1,439, Texas 14,085 and 11,516, Michigan 104,000 and 99,800, Kansas 5,773 and 9,037, and Oklahoma 19,800 and 22,573.

Michigan reported employment currently at its highest level since the end of the war. Montana employment reached an all-time record in October and Unemployment Compensation Commission Chairman Barclay Craighead said the labor boom was expected to continue at least until summer.

to escape the infuriated natives.

The rioting began Thursday night when natives became enraged at an Indian shopkeeper who reportedly beat an African.

Prime Minister Malan in Cape Town ordered all troops in the Durban area to report to their barracks for police action.

The rioting reached its height when two thousand Africans swarmed over the Indian quarter, smashing and looting shops and attacking Indians.

Natives also hurled stones and bottles at Indian buses throughout the city.

Although there was no animosity displayed by either side against the white population, department stores in Durban closed early so women employes could get home before sunset.

R. A. May told police that his car had run into a ditch at Jefferson and Thirty-third street, another obstruction which he said was not marked by flares after being dug for sewer or other lines.

The road was reported "caving in" at Thirteenth and Ave. V. A day previous, police received several reports of incidents at First and College avenue, where another sewer was caving in.

Amendment Sought In Tidelands Case

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—A call for a federal constitutional amendment to assure state ownership of tidelands came today from State Senator John J. Bell.

Bell said he would introduce a resolution Monday petitioning Congress to call a convention to draft and submit the amendment to the states.

His resolution calls for a joint approval by the Texas Senate and House of Representatives and for submission to each state legislature in the nation.

Bell said that when the Supreme court of the United States ruled that the government held paramount rights over submerged lands of California it based its claim on the constitutional authority of the United States to conduct foreign relations.

His proposed amendment would read:

"The powers of the United States for conducting United States relations with foreign nations shall not be extended to include matters of internal sovereignty. The decision of the Supreme court of the United States in the case of United States vs. California, 332 U.S. 19, insofar as it announces the doctrine of paramount rights and dominion on the part of the United States as against the state of California is hereby repudiated."

Bell was at his home in Cuero today but made his announcement through his office here.

Bavarian Power Cut Threatened By Reds

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, said tonight the Russians have threatened to cut off electrical power into Bavaria from the Russian zone, beginning tomorrow.

He said the Russians demanded that power supplied by them be paid for in equipment rather than in money, and that unless their request was met the power inflow would be cut.

There is an embargo on shipment of goods into the Russian zone, and Clay stated at a news conference, "we are not willing to lift the embargo."

He said an investigation would be made to determine if any electrical power is going into the Russian zone from Bavaria and if it is, it would be cut off.

At present Russian zone facilities provide Bavaria with 10 per cent of its total electrical power.

settlement.

It is this armistice which is now being negotiated. The three-nation UN Conciliation commission composed of the United States, France and Turkey will take over after that.

The commission is scheduled to meet in Geneva next Monday.

Egypt Asked Halt

The Egyptians had insisted under the Nov. 4 council order that the Jews end their encirclement of an Egyptian brigade at El Faluja before consenting to armistice negotiations. The Jews refused.

Marking of so-called armistice lines also is likely to be a big issue since this raises the vital point of which nation is to "control the Negev."

Jewish troops still stand in most of the area after the Yuletide campaign which forced the Egyptians into armistice negotiations without invoking the Anglo-Egyptian mutual aid treaty.

Dr. Bunche commended Egypt for becoming the first Arab nation to negotiate formally with Israel and called for speed to save Middle Eastern peace which he said is "hanging in the balance."

Bunche added:

"I trust there will be no tendency to be rigidly legalistic, picayunish about detail, or recriminatory. There are many eyes here and motes can be readily found in them."

Social security benefit payments in New Zealand are showing big increases.

'Neutrals' Warned

of "gravely endangering the peace" with the blockade of Berlin.

The department's view was made public in a foreign policy outline distributed at a human rights meeting of 250 private groups and government agencies.

It said:

"Instead of the great power teamwork so devoutly sought by the people of the world, the obstruction of one country and its willing or unwilling associates has seriously hampered the activities of the United Nations.

Other Means Sought

"The end result, if not the aim, of the Soviet program has been to weaken the effectiveness of the UN and to shake the confidence of many people in it as an instrument of peace."

As a result, it continued, "forward-looking governments" have begun to seek additional means of preserving the peace in keeping with the principles of the UN charter.

"The only satisfactory antidote to fear," the department said, is collective action by the democracies in order to "confront a potential aggressor with preponderant power together with economic recovery and political stability."

In his news conference, McDermott listed the countries with whom the United States "has or will have" defense arrangements making them eligible for American military help. They are:

Nations Are Named

(1) The western European countries now negotiating a North Atlantic defense agreement with the United States and Canada. These include Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. In addition there are prospects that Portugal, Ireland, Iceland, Italy, Norway and Denmark will join later.

(2) Latin American republics which have entered into the hemispheric pact for the defense of the Americas.

(3) Greece, Turkey, Korea and China with which the American government "has special commitments" approved by Congress.

Answering questions, McDermott said "it is natural that such supplies as may be available should go to countries associated with us in collective defense arrangements."

He said he was sure the President had this in mind when he told Congress in his budget message Monday he would ask later for funds to buy arms for friendly democracies whose defense is essential to American security.

Government officials have estimated that President Truman will ask congress for $1,000,000,000 to arm western Europe.

Rail Unions Clear Way For Strike Vote

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (AP) — The nation's railroads will become vulnerable to a possible strike by their 1,000,000 non-operating employes Monday, but indications today were that there won't be an immediate walkout.

Negotiations between the 16 non-operating unions and the carriers have gone through all steps of the railway labor act required before a strike can be called. The last strike obstacle to a stoppage expires Monday with the end of a 30-day waiting period since a Presidential fact-finding board reported its recommendations to Mr. Truman, Dec. 17.

However, negotiators for both sides have been in day-to-day sessions here since Jan. 5 on interpretation of the fact-finding panel's report. Today, they agreed upon a recess until Tuesday.

Department to have a physical worth of $8,500,000,000. It was called the largest corporation in the world on the basis of assets.

Patent Releases Demanded

The department said that AT&T operates more than 98 per cent of long distance facilities. It owns and controls operating companies in the Bell system furnishing 85 per cent of all local phone service in the country.

It owns 99.8 per cent of all Western Electric stock outstanding. In 1947, the book values of these shares was given at $265,696,000.

Western Electric had sales of $995,964,000 in 1947, of which $902,655,000 were Bell system companies.

The suit said that Western Electric makes and sells or controls the production of virtually all telephones and telephone equipment in the United States.

The Justice Department demanded that both companies and the proposed successors to Western Electric release their numerous patents to anyone desiring to use them for a reasonable royalty. In addition, the firms should supply the "know how" for using the inventions, the government contended.

And with a reminder that Mr. Truman himself has said there will be no change in U. S. foreign policy, Acheson told the senators he will carry out the President's decisions unswervingly.

Earlier Senate opposition to Acheson appeared to be dwindling rapidly.
