Fort Worth Flyers Begin 'Home Stretch' With Staunch Ship Performing Perfectly

CLOUDLESS SKY GREETS AIRMEN 6TH NIGHT UP

Endurance Plane Weathers Rainy Day Without Incident

RECORD DUE TODAY

Robbins and Kelly Smile As They Pass Two Long Flight Marks

FORT WORTH, May 24. (AP)—The monoplane Fort Worth was well down the "stretch" of its 151 hour, 40 minutes, 15 seconds goal of sustained flying at 11:33 o'clock tonight, having less than a day's time ahead in order to set a new record. At that time, less than 20 hours more of flying was needed for the new mark, the ship having been aloft 132 hours. The single motor still was functioning smoothly.

FORT WORTH, May 24. (AP)—The sixth night in the air for Reg L. Robbins and James Kelly in their endurance flight began with a sky clearing after a day of rainy weather when the "Fort Worth" remained above the low hanging rain filled clouds.

At 6 p. m. 60 gallons of gasoline were transferred from the supply ship and food, letters and newspapers were given the two fliers, who had been in the air 127 hours, 27 minutes.

As the fliers passed the 127th hour in the air their motor sounded as sweet as it did Sunday morning when they took the air.

On Final Stretch

At 7:13 p. m. the fliers had only 24 more hours to stay aloft to establish themselves as the world's champion endurance fliers.

During the day the last two records separating Robbins and Kelly from the time established by the Question Mark fell. At 3:03 a. m. the 112-hour record of the Graf Zeppelin went down and Earl B. Mathews, an official timer, wrote in the log:

"Adios Graf Zeppelin. Your flight is ancient history now."

The 118-hour record established by the ill-fated French lighter-than-air machine "Dixmude" was surpassed at 9:33 a. m. The record for sustained flight by two-man crews had been passed hours before as had the record for single motored ships. The Question Mark carried three motors.

Borograph Limited

Some worry was expressed today as it appeared possible that the fliers might try to break the record by days instead of hours, as to the length of time the barograph which the plane carries would continue to register. The barograph records altitude and furnishes proof at the end of a flight that a plane did not come to earth at any time during the flight. Officials were of the opinion that the barograph was set to run eight days that it would run out Monday morning. A telegram has been sent to Washington urging that a new instrument be rushed to Fort Worth so that it may be lowered to the "Fort Worth" from the refueling plane.

When Robbins went aloft he set seven days as a minimum for the flight, suggested that he might stay up 10 days and promised to remain aloft two or three weeks if the plane would stand it. Today it appeared to be a question of whether the plane could outlast the men. The wives of the pilots went up in another plane today and were relieved to see that their husbands did not show the strain as much as they had expected.

"In every letter I write him," Mrs. Robbins said, "I tell him he must stay up at least seven days."

JOE SALTIS FINED

Famous Surgeon Races Death To Bedside Of Polly Tunney

Crisis in American Girl's Grave Illness Nears With Her Life In Balance; Gene 'Almost Crazy'

By PRINCE PIGNATELLI
Universal Service Correspondent.

BRIONI, May 24.—Ever since I reached here by airplane two days ago I have only found confirmation of my exclusive cabled story of the grave illness of Mrs. Gene Tunney. Tonight there is every reason to believe that the crisis is nearing and that the life of the former Polly Lauder hangs in the balance, depending on the arrival of some famous continental surgeon. Who that surgeon may be has not been announced.

I have tried for two whole days to get to talk to Gene. I was able to have a moment's talk with him Wednesday when he said:

"I am sorry, Prince, that I cannot spare even a few minutes. Mrs. Tunney is very ill and I am unable to leave her even for that short a time. Please see my secretary."

Secretary Mahany, as I cabled, affirmed that Mrs. Tunney had had a relapse about four days before and that her condition was then extremely grave—so grave that her husband was "almost crazy."

"Gene has not left her for three whole days," said Mahany. "We have been trying to get Professor Meyer to return from Berlin, feeling that a second operation is most urgent.

"We have had a surgeon from Pola, but he has not been able to assure himself that Mrs. Tunney would survive a further operation in her present condition."

Later on I met a German woman

Verdict Sentencing Boy, 6, 'Heard Around World,' Many Protests Show

While Kentuckians Generally Favor Severe Penalty For Child-Slayer, Nation as Whole Disagrees

PAINTSVILLE, Ky., May 24. (US)—Carl Newton Mahan, 6-year-old convicted murderer of his playmate, Cecil Van Hoose, 8, tonight faced a 15-year prison term when Judge John Butcher refused pleas of his counsel for a new trial.

The conflict in the state law on the trial and conviction of children under 10 years of age will be argued in an appeal to be taken on the conviction by defense counsel headed by Judge John Wheeler, former justice of the Kentucky court of appeals.

Verdict Favored

In an argument for a new trial today it developed that Judge Butcher took jurisdiction of the Mahan case on instruction of Attorney General J. W. Commack.

Despite the case has attracted nation-wide attention and sentiment is against the sentencing of the child, the people here favor the verdict. Hundreds of telegrams and letters have been received from people in all parts of the country by various persons connected with the case.

The jury of 12 mountaineers found the child guilty of manslaughter after hearing evidence that he had, gone to his father's home and secured a shot gun and then returned with it to kill a one-time friend. Since the murder and during the trial the boy showed no remorse for his act.

The child is now under bond and has been given in custody of his parents pending his removal to the state reformatory.

Under the Kentucky law Carl will be eligible for parole after having served 15 months of his sentence providing his conduct has been good and his parole is approved by the parole board.

DARROW SCORES SENTENCE FOR BOY

CHICAGO, May 24. (INS)—Clarence Darrow, noted criminal lawyer, when asked today to comment on the sentencing of a 6-year-old child in Paintsville, Ky., to 15 years in a penal institution, said:

"It's rotten! Ridiculous! They'll be trying cats, dogs and pigs next. It would be interesting to give those jurors a mentality test. I doubt if they would rate as high as the child.

"It is just another crime committed in the name of justice. The community in which such a thing occurred should feel deeply ashamed."

CAGLE GIVEN 5 MORE YEARS

Wichita Youth's Prison Sentences Total 25 Years

FORT WORTH, May 24. (AP)—A five-year sentence was assessed T. O. Cagle, wounded in a jail break attempt at Wichita Falls last week, on a charge of automobile theft here today.

Cagle pleaded guilty. Under a 20-year sentence in Wichita county for burglary of a private residence. He was brought here from Wichita Falls Thursday.

CAGLE'S TOTAL REACHES 25 YEARS

With the assessment of a five year penalty by a Fort Worth court, the sentences which T. O. Cagle must serve now aggregate 25 years.

Cagle pleaded not guilty to one charge of burglary here, and was sentenced by a jury to serve 15 years in the penitentiary. He pleaded guilty in three other cases, and was sentenced to five years in prison in each case, the terms to run concurrently after the 15 year penalty had been served. Two other burglary charges, pending against him as the result of a series of house robberies here, were dismissed. The final sentence at Fort Worth brought his total number of years of assessed punishment up to a quarter of a century.

Moody Marks 'X' On Three Bills Recently Voted by Lawmakers

AUSTIN, May 24. (AP)—Governor Moody vetoed three bills passed by the special session of the legislature today.

They were: increasing salaries of prosecuting attorneys in districts composed of two or more counties; giving tax collectors a commission of four per cent on all motor vehicle license fees collected from the first 5,000 motor vehicles registered and two per cent on all amounts collected on vehicles registered thereafter; increasing "time off" for good conduct by penitentiary inmates.

BANK BANDITS HIDE IN HOUSE

Oklahoma City Officers Follow 'Tip'

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 24. (UP)—A gun battle was believed imminent tonight as deputy sheriffs searched west side homes here for the three bandits who, operating with all the dash of frontier bad men, held up a bank messenger on downtown street today and robbed him of $80,000 in currency.

Deputy sheriffs reported late today that they were watching a house in the west side, believed to be occupied by the bandits. The officers were working on a tip given them by a woman, whose identity was not known.

The bandits are believed hiding in some house in the west section of town and posses are searching all homes. Possibility of a gun battle increased as the officers had closed in.

The robbery occurred at a busy downtown street intersection today when C. H. Vowell, bank messenger carrying a bag of money, was crowded to the curb in his car, was attacked, shot in the arm, and robbed.

The money, in $20, $10, and $5 bills, was payroll money being taken from the branch of the Federal Reserve bank to the American First National bank. Bank officials said the robbery was well planned, as the payroll car made regular trips between the two banks every Friday with thousands of dollars to prepare for weekend bills and payrolls. The loss was covered by insurance.

The robbery was witnessed by many persons. Deputy sheriffs in a police car followed the bandits for several blocks through the city streets. They fired at the fugitives, but so far as is known none of the shots took effect.

The reward for the arrest of the bandits was increased late today when the Oklahoma City clearing house offered $1,250 each for all persons arrested and convicted, providing the total amount was not more than $5,000.

W. C. T. U. Head Flays 'Medical Bootlegger'

AUSTIN, May 24. (AP)—Action of the Texas Medical association in declaring for repeal of that part of the Dean law which permits physicians to issue whisky prescriptions was endorsed by Mrs. Claude De Van Watts, president of the Texas Woman's Christian Temperance Union, today.

"The W. T. C. U. is against all bootleggers," Mrs. De Van Watts stated. "Since the medical association recently assembled at Brownsville declared against the 'medical bootlegger' we endorse their movement."

Three Murder Suspects Arrested at Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La., May 24. (UP)—Charges of being fugitives from justice were filed against two men and a woman by police here today. The trio, Marie Parker, 22, Billy Ring 29, and Charles Hewett, 28, were returned to Seminole, Okla., by officers from that city, where they are said to be implicated in the slaying of Jesse Hayes about 10 days ago.

The Parker woman was arrested here. The two men were arrested in Alexandria.

'Gag' Rule Voted For Discussion of Tariff

WASHINGTON, May 24. (UP)—Bowling over opposition from the Democratic minority, Republicans in the house today forced adoption of a "gag" rule for consideration of the controversial tariff bill. The vote was 234 to 138.

Five Democrats voted with the Republicans for the rule, while 12 Republicans went along with the opposition. A final vote on the bill Tuesday was provided for in the adopted rule.

COUNTY JUDGES OPEN MEETING HERE TODAY

Mayor J. W. Akin to Greet Officials of Twelve Counties in Area

C-C GIVES LUNCHEON

Insanity Cases, Schools And Roads Major Themes For Discussion

Prospects for a record attendance at the quarterly meeting of the county judges and commissioners association for the 13th congressional district, to be held here Saturday, were brightened late Friday by the clearing of the skies, and county officials, hosts for the occasion, were expecting a session of unusual interest and significance.

Judges and commissioners from at least 12 neighboring counties are expected to assemble at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the county court-at-law from the welcoming address from Mayor J. W. Akin which will open the all-day session.

New Laws Discussed

Schools, roads, and the problem of handling the cases of insanity which go through the county court are among the important topics of general discussion and special address. An interpretation of the new laws which have been put on the books through the regular and the special session of the legislature is to be offered by Judge J. C. Cox of Gainesville; and additional changes to be advocated by the group will be presented by Harvey Harris, former county judge here. Burl Bryant, county superintendent of schools, will discuss "Good roads and public schools."

The study of insanity problems, to be presented by Judge J. T. St. Clair of Seymour, will be followed by a discussion from Dr. Charles W. Castner, superintendent of the Wichita Falls State hospital and by a visit to the institution itself.

The visitors will be entertained at luncheon at the Kemp hotel by the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce. At the end of the day's session they will be escorted in a drive over the city.

Program Given

John P. Marrs, county judge, and members of the Wichita county commissioners court, will act as hosts throughout the day. Judge H. N. Dearmore of Montague, presi-

WIDOWED GIRL AIDS FATHER IN BOND MOVE

Hamilton's Wish Violated By Her Marriage To Tom, She Says

PARENT GAVE ADVICE

Amarillo Attorney Urged Delay of Wedding For Months

AMARILLO, May 24. (AP)—Reconciled to her father whose pistol made her a widow, Theresa Hamilton Walton, 19, today testified for the parent, R. H. Hamilton, in his appeal for habeas corpus release under bond from a murder indictment returned after he killed Tom Walton Jr., the girl's 21 year old husband.

Hamilton, prominent Amarillo attorney and former judge on the Texas supreme court's appeals commission, tonight did not know whether his application for freedom on bond pending his trial would be granted. Court recessed suddenly this afternoon until tomorrow.

More Evidence Likely

E. W. Thomerson, district attorney, announced the state might introduce additional evidence tomorrow.

Today's drama was featured by the entrance of Walton's young widow who fondly embraced her father.

Theresa told of marrying against her father's will. It was in February while she and the boy she loved were students at the University of Texas.

She had talked with her father early in the spring about her love for Walton, but the father advised against it until they both were out of school and Walton had employment. Hamilton did not object to marriage if it was postponed, she declared.

Marriage Kept Secret

Walton was leaving school to come to Amarillo and wanted to have the ceremony before he left Austin, she said. She wanted to defer it, but finally consented with the understanding it would be kept a secret.

She said she met Walton last Thanksgiving and that their romance dated from that time. In a clear voice and without hesitation she declared she "liked him a great deal." Her testimony was brief, lasting 10 minutes.

Dr. J. H. Vaughn, who examined Walton's body soon after the shooting, testified Walton was shot twice in the back.

Pistol Sale Told

H. G. Hendricks, Hamilton's law partner said he sold a pistol to Hamilton three weeks before the tragedy. He also testified Hamliton had told him of alleged threats on Hamilton's life said to have been made in a letter and through friends. Hendricks was in an adjoining room when Walton was shot.

Husband "Picked"

Harry Bishop said Walton sought legal advice on getting his bride away from her parents. He said he conveyed the information to Hamilton the next day with the expression that he believed Hamilton's life in danger.

Bishop declared Walton had told him he had talked to Hamilton about the marriage to his daughter, and that "Hamilton was made." He said Walton declared Hamilton was angry because "he had picked out a million dollar husband for his daughter."

Tennessee Merchant Dies After Beating

GEORGETOWN, Tenn., May 24. (AP)—Lee Atchley, 35, merchant, died today of wounds allegedly inflicted yesterday with a wagon spoke by Eva Cofer, 25, reported to have resented advances made to her by Atchley.

The young woman went to the store yesterday and left after the asserted remarks of Atchley. She returned a few minutes later with a wagon spoke and, according to reports of the affair available today, hit him six times on the head. She then returned to her home, and spent today at her employment, picking strawberries. She had not been arrested tonight.

Deputy's Defense Witnesses Fail To Agree on Picture of Slain Chinaman

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 24. (AP)—Three defense witnesses in the trial of John Harrison Northcutt, Texas deputy sheriff, charged with the murder of Eng Joe, Chinese restaurant cashier, testified today that Eng was of troublesome disposition.

On cross examination, when asked to identify Eng from a group of five pictures of Chinamen, each of the three selected a different picture. Then Howard Hopps, special prosecutor retained by Eng's Chinese friends, was placed on the stand and testified that none of the pictures was of Eng. Hopps said he knew Eng intimately.

George M. Callahan, county attorney, objected to all the testimony concerning Eng's disposition on the ground that Northcutt, unacquainted with his victim, could not have known of the latter's temperament.

Parole Urged in Hostler Verdict "Without Legal Weight," Says State

A jury in the 89th district court Friday morning sentenced Fred Hostler to five years in the state penitentiary for the robbery of Harold Diggs in the Spoonts Drug store last Christmas night. The verdict was returned at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning after one man had kept the jury in disagreement since 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, court officials learned. E. F. Fruechte, attorney for Hostler, gave notice of appeal.

Hostler has been tried twice before on charges growing out of the same event, the first hearing resulting in a hung jury; the second in an acquittal. R. B. Nichols, indicted with him, will be tried for the third time next week, two former trials having ended with juries in disagreement.

Mike Anglin, assistant district attorney, said Friday afternoon that a recommendation returned by the jury along with the formal verdict,

2,000 ATTEND JUNIOR COLLEGE-HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

273 AWARDED DIPLOMAS HERE

Arlington Educator Gives Chief Address

Nearly 2,000 persons attended the annual commencement exercises Friday night at the Wichita Falls Junior college when 273 graduates of both the high school and college were issued diplomas. A total of 214 students graduated from the high school and 59 from the Junior college, representing the largest graduating classes in the history of the institution.

The commencement exercises brought to a successful close a week of activity for both graduating classes, both of which had full schedules for "Senior week." Following the exercises, the high school and Junior college graduating classes attended banquets at the Wichita club, followed by a dance.

Dean Gives Address

E. E. Davis, dean of North Texas Agriculture college at Arlington, delivered the commencement address. He presented a number of outstanding economic and industrial problems facing the world in the future and urged these problems be conquered by the graduates.

Diplomas were issued high school graduates by C. H. Clark, president of the board of education, while Dr. J. W. Cantwell, city superintendent of schools, issued diplomas to each of the Junior college graduates.

Scholarships were awarded to Mack Thomas Jr., and Virginia Belle Walker, valedictorian and salutorian, respectively of the Junior college, and R. T. Craig, valedictorian, and Elizabeth Powers, salutorian of the high school. Scholarships awarded entitle the winners to entrance, with tuition paid, in one of a large number of institutions specified.

Clay Underwood was awarded the J. Wilkie Talbert medal for high school extemporeaneous speaking by Mr. Talbert, and Seldon Hale, winner of the college Haley medal, was also awarded a medal by Frank Haley.

Little Theater Dress Rehearsal Gives Promise of Excellent Show

Promises of a distinguished performance of "Three Live Ghosts," a comedy in three acts to be presented by the Wichita Falls Little theater on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week, were reflected Friday evening in the first preliminary dress rehearsal at the Episcopal parish house.

The play is to be the first presentation to be offered by the Little theater since its reorganization under the direction of F. C. McClung. The director has chosen a whimsical and dramatic comedy, laid in London in 1918, for his initial production, and has been working with a carefully selected cast throughout the month. The players plunged Friday evening into the final intensive work which is to precede the opening night. All three performances are to be given at the Episcopal parish house, between Austin and Burnett on Tenth street.

Tickets have already been placed on sale at the Renfro Drug store at Eighth and Scott and in the office of Baldwin Montgomery in the Kemp hotel building. Advance sales have been brisk and the organization members and backers of the production are expecting the parish house auditorium to be crowded for all performances.

Work on the set was completed Friday and the first dress rehearsal moved smoothly against the background of a picturesque living-and-dining room in Cockney London. The action of the play develops rapidly through a series of dramatic and highly comic situations, all growing out of a Cockney mother's efforts to reach her son through the medium of a spiritualistic scance.

Author of 'The Face on the Barroom Floor' Becomes Celebrity at Last

NEW YORK, May 24. (UP)—John Henry Dorsey Titus, who has a crinkled, grimy manuscript to prove he is the author of "The Face on the Barroom Floor," joined the immortals today.

Three days ago he was an 83-year old man who was about to be evicted from his garret because he could not pay his rent, but that was before a landlord, ignorant of the fact that he was dealing with a celebrity, caused Titus to be brought into municipal court for non-payment of debts.

Titus waved aside the court's offer to supply him with counsel.

"I," said Titus, with a lift of his chin, "am the author of 'The Face on the Barroom Floor'," the court was all attention as the old man stroked his beard and began:

"It was a blamy summer's evening and a goodly crowd was there—"

On he went, verse after verse and slowly the judge's face relaxed into studious attention. Titus came to the end of the barroom ballad and the judge reached for his wallet. Out came $5, and soon lawyers in the court had contributed enough more to pay Titus' rent.

That was only the start of the troubadour's good fortune. Today Mrs. Bella Zilberman announced she had started a trust fund to pay Titus' rent and establish a poetry scholarship to perpetuate his name.

MRS. J. M. BENNETT

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, May 24—Following two months' sickness of pneumonia, Mrs. J. M. Bennett, 76, of Hobart, died at the home of her son, June Bennett on South Seventeenth street, at 7:40 p. m. Thursday. Her husband and three sons survive; June Bennett, Frederick; P. B. Bennett, Licking, Mo.; Burley Bennett, McAlester, Okla.

She was born in Mississippi Aug. 29, 1852.

UNABLE TO WORK FOR FIVE YEARS; TURNS TO SARGON

"There's no telling how much money I have spent the last ten years trying to find a medicine that could do for me what Sargon has done. It is bringing me health and strength, and I hope what I say will help others get the remarkable benefits I have gotten.

E. P. RUSSELL

"I was dreadfully run-down, and suffered from rheumatism continually. My joints were so stiff I could not raise my arms. I was so weak I would be exhausted and panting for breath if I walked a city block. In fact I had not been able to do a day's work in five years. My whole system was full of poison and lately I had begun to suffer from constipation and bilious headaches.

"I had thought Sargon was just another medicine like others I had taken, but when I read a statement of a man right here in Dallas who described his case similar to mine I began taking Sargon and found I was absolutely wrong. I began improving at once and now my rheumatism is better than it has been in years. Sargon Soft Mass Pills overcame my constipation and the bilious headaches, and I feel wonderfully improved in every way.

"I am delighted with the results I have gotten from this remadkable medicine, and believe I will soon be a well man and able to go out and do a day's work with the best of them."

The above statement was made by E. P. Russell, 1315 Royal St., Dallas.

Sargon may obtained in Wichita Falls from the Renfro Drug Co., Eighth and Scott streets, No. 1 main store, and Seventh and Indiana, No. 2; and in Electra from Lough's Drug Store.—Adv.

Three Fort Worth Men Charged With Arson

FORT WORTH, May 24. (AP)—Frank Graves, attorney, K. L. Eastment and Earl K. Mahancy in justice court today were charged with arson in connection with a fire at Graves' vacant house on the Mansfield road last night.

Graves is charged with having "wilfully set fire to and burned his own house" while the other two men also are accused with firing the structure.

Mexico City Students Continue Riot Mildly

MEXICO CITY, May 24. (AP)—Striking students of the National university law schools, who fought police in a series of riots last night, continued vociferous street demonstrations today, but were not molested by the authorities as long as they remained fairly orderly.

From 200 to 300 students, protesting against newly ordered monthly examinations, held a 15-minute rally in front of a newspaper office and then marched off to another downtown section.

Mother Slays Three Children and Herself

LEBANON, Ky., May 24. (AP)—Apparently worried about financial troubles, a mother who yesterday said she "would not go through another day like this" today kept her word, taking three of her children in death.

The mother, Mrs. Mamie Shey Shoaf, was found dying in a cemetery here today and near her were the bodies of Tom, 2, Ina, 7 and Catherine, 11, hog children, all with throats slashed. The mother apparently had killed the children, then cut her own throat.

Marion Talley Buys Farm 'a Mile Square'

KANSAS CITY, May 24. (AP)—The Kansas City Star will say tomorrow that Marion Talley, Metropolitan Opera company soprano who said she retired to live on a farm, has bought the farm.

The paper will describe it as a Kansas farm, "a mile square, knee-deep in wheat," and purchased for $1 and other valuable consideration.

France Would Accept Delayed Debt Collection

WASHINGTON, May 24. (INS)—France will not be offended if congress passes legislation postponing collection of her $400,000,000 debt to Uncle Sam, French Ambassador Claudel notified the state department today.

The note, however, did not mention what action France plans to take toward ratifying the Kellogg Berenger agreement which designates Aug. 1 for the initial payment.

Brenham Celebrates School Anniversary

BRENHAM, Texas, May 24. (AP)—A 24 hour jubilee celebration will begin here tomorrow, commemorating the 80th anniversary of the building of Oak Lodge, near here, long known as Liveoak Female Seminary, and the 19th anniversary of the establishment of Prospect Presbyterian church, now on Oak Lodge farm.

Plantation Foreman's Body Is Recovered

TEXARKANA, May 24. (AP)—The body of Rasmond Hays, 28, plantation foreman, was recovered from the waters of a levee "borrow pit" several miles south of Fulton, Ark., today. It was 100 yards from the spot where Hays went down yesterday in an effort to rescue flood marooned stock between the breached Fugua levee and the Red river.

SHOT KILLS HOLLIS YOUTH

Gun Accidentally Fired As Boy Plants Cotton

Special to The Record News.

HOLLIS, Okla., May 24.—Aubrey Yancey, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Yancey, was instantly killed here late this afternoon when a 22 caliber rifle which he was carrying was accidently discharged shooting him through the lung.

The boy was planting cotton in a field near his home and was carrying the gun along with him on the planter to shoot rabbits which he occasionally scared up while at work.

He had just completed planting a small patch near his home and was leaving the field when the gun caught in one of the wheels of the planter and was discharged.

Young Yancey fell into the arms of his father who had come to the field to tell him it was time to dress for the graduation of one of his younger brothers from the Hollis school Friday night. Te died before aid could be summoned.

The boy is survived by his parents, two younger brothers and one sister.

Funeral arrangements had not been made Friday night.

Sinclair Does Well In Washington Jail

WASHINGTON, May 24. (US)—Prison fare, together with the early to bed and early to rise routine of jail life, agrees with Harry F. Sinclair.

The millionaire oil promoter who is spending 90 days in the district jail for contempt of the senate, was described today as in the best of health. He looks fitter, by far, than when he entered the jail two weeks ago last Monday. He appeared to have lost a few pounds and to be "harder."

Sinclair apparently relished the simple but abundant food that is served on the long wooden table at which he sits with the other inmates, and he eats heartily.

Morrow Keeps Private Car Closely Guarded

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 24. (INS) — Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, en route to his home at Englewood, N. J., refused to comment on threats recently made against his daughter, or the approaching marriage of Miss Anne Morrow, to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

His private car was closely guarded by nearly 50 officers while here. The ambassador declined to leave his car, except to pose for a picture.

Juror Found Guilty Of Accepting Bribe

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 24. (AP)—A verdict of guilty, with a recommendation of five years' imprisonment, was returned tonight against B. P. Osburn, juror in the murder mistrial of Walter Liggett. Osburn was charged with accepting a bribe. The jury deliberated 20 minutes.

Pryor, Reported Seriously Ill, May Ask Another Delay in Trial Here

The reported illness of Ed Pryor, former Electra constable charged with robbery, will probably result in efforts to obtain a postponement of his trial, set for Monday in the 89th district court, Shields Heyser, attorney for Pryor, announced Friday.

Pryor is suffering from an illness which borders on apoplexy and is confined to his bed at Kirkland, Texas, according to information to Mr. Heyser from C. P. Pryor, brother of the defendant. The attorney Friday expressed the opinion that his client will be physically unable to appear for trial Monday.

Sam Spence, district attorney, said Friday evening that the state would call the trial as scheduled and would contest any effort for continuance.

Pryor is to be tried on an indictment charging him with the robbery of the Jefferson hotel in Electra during his term of office last summer. Henry Shumate, also under indictment, is charged with the actual commission of the alleged crime, the former officer being accused of offering him encouragement and protection. Shumate is one of the principal state witnesses.

Pryor was acquitted several months ago of a similar charge in which the robbery of a cigar stand in Electra was involved. A third indictment is pending against him.

BURGLAR ALARM

Gong at First National Gives Crowd Thrill For Brief Time

The resounding clang of the First National bank's burglar alarm late Friday night announced forcibly that a burglar, apparently, was in town.

A large crowd gathered and witnessed Patrolman Austin's investigation, which proved that the alarm device had gone on one of its inexplicable "whoopees." The cause of the alarm was probably due to a short circuit, officers said.

Sir Esme Ready To Become 'Teetotaler'

NEW YORK, May 24. (AP)—Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, tonight said that he was willing to surrender the privilege of diplomatic liquor "if the United States intimates a desire to cancel the privilege."

The British ambassador told newspapermen at Hotel Plaza, where he was the guest of honor at the first anniversary dinner of the British Commonwealth club, that he would be only too glad to cooperate with other members of the diplomatic corps in carrying out such a desire of the American government.

Sir Esme said he had written a letter to James T. Carter, of the Epperson Lumber company, of Lynchburg, Va., expressing willingness to surrender the embassy liquor privilege. The communication was in reply to a letter from Carter.

Taylor Foundry Given Corporation Charter

A charter of incorporation was granted Friday to the Taylor Foundry company, 1320 Sibley, by the secretary of state at Austin, according to Associated Press dispatches received here Friday night.

The company was incorporated with a capital stock of $10,000. Lloyd J. Taylor, M. E. Taylor, and George C. Taylor are named as the incorporators.

GERMANS RAP ALLIES' 'TRICK'

Payment Plan Called Dishonest Juggling

BERLIN, May 24. (INS)—How the allied reparation experts at Paris accepted the Young plan "in principle" and, at the same time, added 2,325,000,000 marks to it, was revealed today by analysis of the allied payment plan which has just been received here.

Germans denounce the allied experts revisions of the original Young plan as a "dishonest juggler's trick," asserting that the allied delegates in Paris had proceeded upon the principle of "now you see it, now you don't."

The "trick," according to Germans who have studied the revised plan, was very simple.

It was pointed out that, under the latest proposals of the allies, Germany continues to pay the Dawes plan annuity of 2,500,000,000 marks until December 31, 1929. In addition, retroactively, beginning April 1, 1929, Germany also pays the new Young plan annuity at the rate of 1,675,000,000 marks.

This overlapping of the Dawes plan and Young plan annuities for nine months increases German payments during the first year's operation of the Young plan by 1,875,000,000 marks just at a time when Germany is urgently seeking financial relief.

The payment of the larger part of this additional sum is, therefore, postponed and distributed over the following 36 annuities.

This, together with the extra 25,000,000 marks Germany is supposed to pay Belgium, increases the German annuities approximately 150,000,000 marks annually above the Young schedule.

DR. SCHACHT WILL "CARRY THROUGH"

PARIS, May 24. (INS)—"Dr. Schacht will not resign. He intends to carry through to the very end."

This was the statement given International News Service today by a leading member of the German delegation as the reparations committee of experts met again in an effort to reach some solution of what now appears a hopelessly tangled problem.

The statement, whose source may be regarded as authoritative, set at rest prevalent rumors that Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, leader of the German delegation, was contemplating following the example of Dr. Albert Voegler, who has resigned his position as a member of the German committee.

July 4 Celebration Planned at Vernon

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, May 24.—A combined celebration and homecoming for former citizens of Wilbarger county will be held in Vernon July 4, marking the triple dedication of the Wilbarger county courthouse, Vernon municipal building and Vernon airport. The municipal light plant will also be officially opened to the public for inspection at that time.

The program as outlined today by J. B. Lawson, chairman of the trade and development committee of the chamber of commerce, includes a big free barbecue, baseball games, athletic contests, airplane stunts, parades and an all-day celebration and good will program. Prizes are planned for various events.

All cities and communities in the Vernon trade district will be officially invited to attend the celebration, including Electra, Harrold, Oklaunion, Rock Crossing and all the oil field section, Crowell, Thalia, Lockett, Quanah, Odell, Tolbert and Tipton, Frederick and Davidson in Oklahoma.

HOUSTON, May 24. (AP)—Only one of the three ambulances which were called to a grade crossing wreck here today reached the scene, and it was not needed.

One of the "help wagons" was disabled when it collided with an automobile. Another turned turtle while rounding a slippery curve.

Contact between a train and an automobile started all the flurry. The automobile was demolished.

No one was hurt in the series of accidents.

Voodooism Blamed for Deaths of Two Indian Maidens of West Coast Tribe

UKIAH, Calif., May 24. (INS)—Indian voodooism and powwowism was believed today to be responsible for the death of Katherine Williams, 8-year-old Indian maiden, here.

Her death followed within a week that of her sister, Geraldine Williams, 19, an Indian beauty.

Little Katherine died in the county hospital after being treated by Indian medicine men in the wilds of Mendocino county where tribal rites are still held.

Miss Lucy Keenan, government nurse for Indians in northwest California counties, asked a federal investigation into the case.

She declared that the child's body was covered from throat to thighs with lacerations.

Geraldine was widely known for her beauty.

Black magic, voodooism, powwowism and other forms of witchcraft have been practiced for more than a century among the Indians in northern California according to Miss Keenan.

She said she had warned the tribe leaders repeatedly against voodooism but they still clung to their ancient beliefs that by torturing the sick they can drive the evil spirits away.

GRAVE VISITED

Murdered Dallas Girl's Picture Chiseled Off Tombstone

DALLAS, May 24. (AP)—A murderer is supposed to revisit the scene of his crime and likewise might be impelled to visit the grave of his victim, Dallas officers assert.

Mrs. Bessie Lynch and Mrs. Cleo Lieto were slain near here Nov. 4. During the last week someone has visited Mrs. Lynch's grave, over which her mother had erected a stone marker with a photograph of the girl in a niche. The visitor chiseled away the stone and cement, stole the picture and left the protecting glass in fragments on the grave.

ALTUS HIGHWAY SURVEYS MADE

Quanah, Eldorado Roads To Begin Soon

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., May 24.—Survey work by the location party on the highway from Altus to Quanah, Texas, has been completed. This marks the initial step taken preparatory to beginning actual construction on Jackson county's highway program.

The county two years ago voted a bond issue for this road construction with the provision that the state match the county appropriations two to one.

On the proposed state highway to be constructed from Altus to Eldorado and connecting with state highway number seven, all locations have been mapped out by the survey.

RAIL UNIONS GIVE WARNING

Consolidation Programs Protect Workers

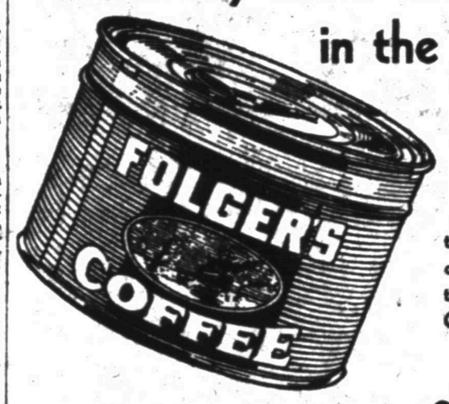

HOUSTON, May 24. (AP)—A warning to the railroads that any consolidation program which did not protect the interests of the unions would be blocked in congress was sounded today at the closing session of the southwestern meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen by D. B. Robertson of Cleveland, president.

"Consolidation of lines means less men to run the railroads," Robertson said. "Our progressive friends in congress hold the balance of power. Consolidation may be good or bad for the unions. Now when the railroads want something is the time for us to assert our rights."

Selection of the next convention city was left to a committee. Claims of Amarillo and Tucson, Ariz., have been pressed.

Report of Children's Aid Society Makes Plea for Tots at Home

At a semi-annual meeting of the executive board of the Children's Aid society of West Texas held Thursday at the Y. W. C. A., the children in charge of the society furnished the program and refreshments. Fifteen children did fine work for the audience. One child was so good that she will be given free gymnastic dancing this fall by one of the city's best teachers.

A nine year old, read "The Japanese Doll" in costume; one, age seven, read a negro dialect selection and another, dressed as a boy waif, read splendidly, "The Only Thing That's Wrong With Me."

The children made the little white iced cakes topped with nuts that were served with the cream. About 50 were present at the meeting.

The outstanding feature of this board meeting was the report made by Miss Katherine Henricle showing the work done by this organization. A statistical report follows:

Cases reported	109
Children involved	232
Cases referred to other agencies	15
Number received into care:
Children	82
Girls	20
Total	72
Children returned to parents, relatives	27
Placed in foster homes	8
Sent to institutions	34
In boarding homes 11-1-28	14
In boarding homes, 5-23-29	21

Among all the children handled in the past six months, said Miss Henricle, there has not been a single full orphan. Two or three have lost by death either father or mother but the real causes of their dependency were sickness and unemployment in six homes; 47 homes broken by divorce, desertion, immorality, drink and drugs; and insanity or feeble mindedness in 14 homes.

Runaways, juvenile arrests and unmarried mothers cared for numbered 40. The average age of the children in the care of this society is seven years and three months. The youngest now is three months and the oldest 14 years. There are ten children representing four families, devoted sisters and brothers whom the society hopes not to separate.

Miss Henricle spoke warmly of the Methodist Mission home and Training school at San Antonio, where a beloved "Mother Culbertson" gives not only a retreat but a training school for the protective cases sent there.

The number of girls who have gone through the Mission home from the Wichita organization has passed the hundred mark. Many of them have married and established their own homes and their husbands have legally adopted their children.

What the Children's Aid society needs most today, said Miss Henricle, is another worker, who should be trained as a supervisor and home finder, and a receiving home. The society has never wanted an institution, believing that boarding children in a private home is a better way, but private homes must be supervised and with only two people in an office, this is almost impossible, she said.

She said her dream is of the time when the society can have a modern receiving home—preferably three cottages, one for the boys, one for the girls and the central cottage for executive offices—dining room and small receiving ward. Such a home, she says, should be owned by the organization, so that control and supervision could be maintained. And it would prevent such an institution from becoming involved in politics. Owned by the organization and subsidized by the county, it would save the taxpayers money and would be no more expensive to the organization than it now is.

Miss Henricle's plea to her board and the friends present was that some of the thousands of dollars that go out of the city each year to maintain orphanages here and there in the state go to the cause of the Children's Aid society at home. She was deeply earnest in her wish to take care of the children of Wichita Falls and vicinity in a bigger and better way.

Expert Gives Hints On Food for Spring Picnics and Camps

By BARBARA B. BROOKS
Home Economics Department, Kellogg Company.

The lure of spring is in the air and fruit trees are in bloom in many sections of the country, adding much to the beauty of the great out-of-doors and calling us to "lay dull care aside" and go for a hike or a picnic. The hours for recreation for most people are after 5 o'clock in the afternoon, but there are three hours of daylight left and we can enjoy them all the better for having been confined to our working duties all day. A real treat will be a meal in the open beside a stream or lake where we can be sure of a view of several flowering trees in the background.

An answer to the problem of cooking in the open is a wire grill with four legs, which may be stuck into the ground over the fire. If we have included a bag of charcoal in the supplies, we can soon have an excellent fire over which we may broil steaks or bacon. The fire should be allowed to burn until the charcoal forms coals which are very hot, then the steak placed on the grill and broiled until it is brown on one side before turning it. Turn the steak often, allowing it to cook until "done"—as well done as you like it. Season with salt and pepper just before serving.

A salad of fresh tomatoes and cucumbers, and rolls may be served with the steak. The salad can be prepared while the steak is broiling. With a dessert of bran gingerbread topped with whipped cream or served with canned peaches we have a balanced meal which is simple to prepare, yet filling.

Another variation of a meal which is suited to the out-of-doors consists of a Denver sandwich, salad and other accompaniments and a dessert. A Denver sandwich is made by scrambling eggs with cold boiled ham and onions which have been chopped and browned in butter in a frying pan on top of the wire grill. This may be served over slices of buttered bread or toast, and is delicious with sliced tomatoes or a potato salad. For dessert we recommend as being universally popular—strawberry shortcake. The shortcake would have to be made ahead of time, but the strawberries need not be added until just before serving.

By all means we must have a hot drink for these early spring dinners in the open. We suggest caffeine-free coffee, because this is our evening meal. This may be made at home and carried to the picnic ground in a thermos jug, but we like best to make it over the camp fire in an old-fashioned coffee pot with a handle, so that it can be suspended on a cross stick over the fire. Tie the amount of coffee required in a cloth sack before leaving home and it is all ready to drop into the pot of boiling water.

A good recipe for bran gingercake follows: ¼ cup shortening, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup All-Bran, 1½ cups flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon ginger, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, ½ cup sour milk, ½ cup molasses.

Cream shortening and sugar together. Add the egg; beat well. Add the All-Bran. Mix and sift the dry ingredients and add them to the creamed mixture, alternately with the sour milk and molasses.

Bake in a moderate over (370 degrees F.) from 30 to 40 minutes. Yield: 1 loaf.

SHAME WORST OF EMOTIONS

Husbands Suffer When They Despise Mates

Comforting Advice to the Socially Inexperienced Wife. Is Swearing at the Car a Dangerous Vice in Husbands? The Flapper Who Is Vamping Middle-Aged Husband.

Dear Miss Dix: I was a poor girl who had few advantages of education and none of society. Five years ago I married a clever and ambitious man who is making a great success, and, although he loves me and is good to me, I can see at times that he is ashamed of me because I do not know how to dress, nor what to say to people, nor even how to eat properly. I am often invited with him to places, but I always decline because I know that I would eat with the wrong fork, or do something terrible before the evening was over. My husband would like for me to go with him, and also for me to entertain, but I simply can't do it because I don't know how. I want my little daughter to be proud of her mother and to be a help to my husband instead of drawback. What can I do? —MRS. X.

Answer: You are right in thinking that you must keep up with your husband, or else you will soon lose him. For if you just fade into the background of his life and take no active part in it, he will soon forget you are there. A wife has to keep herself in evidence these days if she wants her husband to bear in mind that he is still married.

And you are wise to realize that the most devastating emotion a husband can feel for his wife is for him to be ashamed of her. It will kill his love quicker than anything else on earth. For it touches his vanity on the raw. She represents his taste, his judgment. She bears his name and is part of himself, and he cannot endure for other women to smile covertly at her gaucheries or lift their eyebrows at her appearance. His own awkwardness he might ignore, or be ignorant of, or condone, but not his wife's.

In the society of which your husband's success is taking him he will find many beautiful, elegant, smartly dressed, accomplished women who will seem all the more alluring to him because they are more sophisticated than the women with whom he has been associated in the past. And many of these women are ruthless creatures who think it great sport to take a brilliant and talented self-made man away from the wife he has outgrown.

So, my dear lady, it is time for you to get busy. Your letter shows that you have a keen, incisive, forward-looking mind of your own, and there is no reason why a woman with that sort of equipment shouldn't be able to catch up with her husband and march beside him.

You have analyzed your situation very clearly and the answer to your problem consists in getting private tutors.

First, get some teacher of literature, or some highly educated woman to read with you for a couple of hours every day. Don't undertake a college course at your age. You would get discouraged and quit. Just read new books and get your tutor to talk to you about books and about current events and explain things to you so simply that you will get a grasp on world problems. Then get her to go with you to the theater and talk to you about the new plays. Then read the newspapers and magazines as religiously as you do the Bible, and in six months you should be able to carry on an intelligent conversation with any one, instead of being embarrassed and tongue-tied.

Perhaps this won't give you culture in its broadest sense, but it will give you a nice veneer of culturine, and there is a lot of skimmed milk that masquerades as cream even in intelligensia circles.

In every community there are women, who have been noted as hostesses and who have moved in the smart clothes of society, who have lost their money and would be glad to coach any social aspirant.

Get such a woman to teach you how to enter a room and how to leave it, what to say to people when you are introduced to them, what forks and knives to use, what to order at a restaurant and at a tea and how to entertain at home.

There is nothing occult about these matters that any woman with ordinary powers of observation cannot acquire in a short time.

And get somebody who speaks beautiful English to teach you how to talk. Get her to correct your grammar, your pronunciation, your intonations, your phraseology, and to teach you the patter of the day, for it is just as bad to be too precise and stilted as it is to be too unconventional in your speech.

As for clothes, go to a good dressmaker and put yourself in her hands and don't dare to follow your own untutored taste. Perhaps the reason you are ill-dressed is because you are overdressed and don't wear the right things at the right time.

The American woman is the most versatile creature in the world and she can make herself over if she wants to. And I am sure you are one of them who is able to do so. —DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix: I am not in good health and my only recreation consists in my husband's taking me out in my father's car in the evening once or twice a week. As long as there are no mishaps to the car, husband is a peach and seems to enjoy the ride as much as I, but lately almost every time we go out—the tires are rotten—we have a blowout, and then husband growls, "Just my luck." And while he doesn't swear out loud, I know what he is thinking and that spoils my ride. And it makes him so grouchy that it takes a night's sleep to restore him to normal. The only time my husband ever loses his temper and acts mean is when something happens to the car. Now shall I eliminate the rides, as fixing the tires vexes him so? If I do so, shall I be spoiling him, or just being a good sport?

SALLY ANN.

Answer: Lord, child, don't you know anything more about men than to take seriously your husband's getting peeved because he has to put on a new tire?

In riding along, haven't you observed that when a man is changing a tire, or peering into the inards of an automobile that is parked along the roadside, the women of the family are always gathering daisies, or gazing in shop windows at a safe distance so they won't hear what he is saying?

Haven't you ever heard a man's remarks to his wife when she suggested that he turn to the right, or turn to the left, or warned him to slow down? My dear, what men say at such a time is not fit for women and children to hear.

And they are all alike. There is something in an automobile that changes a man's entire nature and that provides a Sunday school superintendent with the profane vocabulary of a longshoreman, that makes the meekest, henpecked one sass his Maria right to her face and say things that he wouldn't dare to say if he was sitting in a rocking chair instead of an automobile, and that converts the sweetest-tempered man into a grouch and a grump and a potential wife-murderer. It is a good thing they didn't have automobiles in Job's day. They would have counted him out on the first round with one.

All wives know how men react to an automobile and all sensible wives overlook it and don't think anything about it. So follow their example and don't worry over your husband's kicking at the rotten tire. It won't do him any harm, or you, either, unless you get morbid about it. —DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix: I have been married 25 years and have had a good husband and a happy home. Now a girl in her twenties has come to live with us. She is of the flapper type and the way she takes on over my husband is simply disgusting, but he likes it and is furious with me because I resent it. I fear for my happiness. What shall I do?
A BROKEN-HEARTED WIFE.

Answer: Get rid of the girl as soon as possible. She is as dangerous as a poisonous snake. Any middle-aged woman who takes a pretty young girl to live in her house is going out of her way to hunt for trouble.

A girl like the one you describe takes a fiendish delight in making a wife jealous and, making a fool out of a middle-aged man.

DOROTHY DIX.

So that all may enjoy healthful vegetables

Cook with sugar in only a little water

A group of cooking experts recently made extensive tests in New York on the correct way of cooking vegetables. They made a discovery so simple and yet so far-reaching that every woman interested in good foods should know about it.

The vegetables were cooked in various ways. The various dishes were numbered. Then the experts tested them and voted. In every case the vegetables prepared with sugar and little water won unanimously.

Try, for example, this delicious Corn Pudding. Use either fresh or canned corn. To 2 cups of corn add 1 canned pimiento and 1 small green pepper shredded coarsely, ½ small grated onion, 2 well-beaten eggs, 2 level tablespoons of sugar, 1 teaspoon of salt, ¼ teaspoon of pepper and paprika, 2 tablespoons of flour, 1 teaspoon of baking powder and 1 cup of milk. Mix all ingredients together, add 2 teaspoons of melted butter. Drain into a well-buttered casserole and bake half an hour. Then remove cover and delicately brown.

Try this new discovery every time you cook a vegetable. Note how much more both children and adults like vegetables cooked in this way because the added sugar develops and brings out all the natural, tasteful flavors of the foods. Sugar restores the flavor of freshness to vegetables that are wilted and to canned vegetables. Add a dash or more of sugar, depending on quantity, when cooking peas, lima beans, string beans, corn, carrots, beets, parsnips, sweet potatoes, squash, onions and tomatoes. Good food promotes good health. The Sugar Institute.

"Cuisine" Luncheon Given In Honor of Misses Howell and Long

Honoring Miss Modena Howell and Miss Annie Laurie Long, whose approaching marriages have recently been announced, Mrs. E. F. Bohmfalk was hostess Thursday at her home on Twelfth street at a four course luncheon novel in all appointments.

To carry out her pastel color motif, Mrs. Borhmfalk made pink slip covers for each chair used in the luncheon, cushioned and fringed in lovely effect.

Miss Howell's table was laid with a pink foundation covered with green tulle, carrying out the bride's chosen colors. At each corner of the table, pink larkspur was attached with fluffy bows of the green tulle; pink candles and green crystal service were used on this table.

Miss Long's appointments were in her colors of pink and delicate blue. Over the pink foundation, blue tulle was laid and blue larkspur, tied with pink tulle adorned the corners. Pink candles and pink crystal were used on this table. At both tables, the pastel shaded place cards were held with bows of tulle on tiny sifters, indicating the nature of the luncheon.

Mrs. W. W. Cook substituted for Miss Long, who is preparing to leave Wichita on Saturday, May 25, and whose marriage to Dr. R. P. Johnson will probably be hastened on account of the recent bereavement in his family.

Between the first two courses, a contest was held in which the blank spaces on slips handed the guests were to be filled with the names of those present. The winner was given a tiny lantern, to secure "more light on the subject."

Another contest staged between the next courses was a test of ingenuity. Each guest was given a tiny shopping bag with a dainty picture on the side and handles of pastel shaded ribbons; they were told to go shopping in another room and find all the groceries possible. In the other room were small slips typed with names of cooking commodities and when these were brought back to the table, each guest was told to write from the grocery list she had acquired, her recipes for the best menu possible; she could add only one ingredient, water. The prizes were two little glass rolling pins filled with vinegar and these were presented to the honorees to use, filled with ice, for pastry rollers.

Each guest at the party, wrote out and presented ot the honorees, two of her best recipes.

Mrs. Bohmfalk presented Misses Howell and Long with lovely linen breakfast sets.

Covers were laid for Misses Modena Howell and Marguerite Haynie, Mesdames S. S. McKenney, W. W. Cook, W. W. Silk, J. W. Akin Jr., Joel MacGregor and Mrs. Bohmfalk.

Easily Tired, So Weak

"ABOUT three years ago, after a spell of sickness, I did not regain my strength," writes Mrs. J. McLester, 410 W. Fourth St., Texarkana, Texas. "I was very nervous and weak. The least thing would tire me so I felt like I wanted to just drop down and go to sleep. I was very pale, and there were brown spots in my complexion. When a friend of mine wanted me to go uptown with her, I told her that I couldn't, as it tired me so. She told me I should take Cardui. I asked her to bring it back with her. After I had taken this one bottle of Cardui, I felt better. When I had taken three bottles, my skin had cleared up. I had gained in weight, and was feeling fine."

LABOR TAX ACT IS OPPOSED

Sugar Firm's Attorneys Petition Moody

DALLAS, May 24. (AP)—Petition for an injunction restraining Gov. Dan Moody and others from enforcing the recently enacted law taxing labor agents was filed here today by attorneys for the Michigan Sugar company. Arguments are to be heard tomorrow.

The petition was filed in an effort to prevent enforcement of the law and permit the transportation from Texas to Michigan of a number of Mexican laborers contracted for prior to May 17, the day on which the law was enacted.

Other defendants were Atty. Gen. Claude Pollard, Labor Commissioner Charles McKemy, District Attorney Tom Newton of Bexar county and District Attorney William McCraw of Dallas county.

The petition contends the law would prohibit the transportation of immigrant labor from Texas to Michigan and would cause the plaintiffs a loss of not less than $10,000.

General Motors Buys Allison

DETROIT, May 24. (INS)—Official announcement by General Motors this afternoon that the giant corporation had purchased the entire interests of the Allison Engineering company of Indianapolis, was believed in aviation circles here to presage the entrance of "G. M." into the airplane production field.

Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of General Motors, confirmed published reports of the purchase with the following statement:

"General Motors has acquired the Allison Engineering company of Indianapolis, Ind., in its entirety.

"The Allison Engineering company has for some time past been engaged in various projects of a mechanical nature and recently has been giving considerable attention to development of aviation engines, including those of the Diesel type.

Goober Pilot In Danger Now From Failing Knee Cap

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 24. (UP)—Bill Williams, driving a peanut with his nose with the intention of landing it on the top of the Pike's Peak, gave his big gallery a lot of worry today. Bill has developed a bad knee cap and the fifth day of the peanut derby may be the last.

"These dornicks are trying to get my goat," said Bill, as he stopped for lunch. He was limping considerably.

During the luncheon period Bill dispatched a friend to Colorado Springs to order a new pair of pads for his knees.

"Plenty of soft stuffing," was Bill's order.

Bill noticed the attack coming on last night and applied a heavy pack of a "hand and hoof" ointment and got some relief but the old trouble came back as he drove peanuts today.

The morning's push was a scant three-tenths of a mile.

BOYS BARTER MAMA'S BREW

Youngsters Sentenced for Appeasing Students

FORT WORTH, May 24. (AP)—Home brew, stolen from "mother's ice box," and sold to college students, landed two Arlington boys, 11 and 13 years old, in juvenile court today. They were given two-year suspended sentences and assurances of parental reprimand.

It was a good scheme while it lasted, but went awry when college authorities heard rumors that students were spending allowance money for home brew. Three students volunteered to investigate.

They made arrangements to have a quantity of beer delivered, getting it from a cache on the campus. Then they went to another part of the campus to "pay off."

The two boys were arrested as they were accepting the money.

Mangum Citizens Plant Grass on Airport Field

Special to The Record News.

MANGUM, Okla., May 24.—There was "something new under the sun" here Thursday. It was declared by Mayor G. F. Border as "Sod Day" at Ponder field, the municipal airport. So 500 men and boys under captains appeared at the field early in the morning and sodded it with Bermuda grass furnished by the city.

The north half of the field was planted in Bermuda Wednesday with seed sown from an airplane by Capt. Ira C. Eaker, noted army aviator and commander of the Question Mark who was one of the distinguished visitors on the state air tour. A buffalo barbecue luncheon was served to the pilots and passengers at Ponder field, and the buffalo hide was presented to Captain Eaker.

Herbert Kaufman's
STITCHES IN THE AGES
Daily Editorial

THE BLACK and gold vase on the mantel-shelf is a Persian tear-bottle which once held the grief of Shahs.

And the panoply of arabesqued armor above it was wrought in Ispahan when Balboa first looked upon the redwoods. These broken camail links mark where a Cossack yataghan bit to the bone and won loot to wander through the centuries and junkshops and auctions.

Christianity was young when a Byzantine monk stretched a square of vellum on a bit of wood and painted yonder St. George.

The Tanagra figurine at one side still daunts the years and disdainfully gazes on the crude Sung horse that impious spades dared wrest from a Shantung sepulcher.

Medieval Florence built the table under the Great Mosque lamp. And the strip of brocade that hides its warped top rode the thighs of a pre-Tokugawa joro, as she minced in the courtesans' parade at Cherry Blossom festival, through the streets of old Kioto.

Hideyoshi himself owned the lacquer helmet near the window—and those wierd masks were worn by No-dancers, the while he ruled behind the throne.

The incised cinnabar screen is patterned with the story of Nurhachu, the Khitan lad, who raped Cathay and made her a Manchu concubine. And the carved doors about the room began their careers as palace bed-panels.

A repoussed corselet and two falconets from the forge of Negroli; venerable altar pieces, begrimed with the smoke of Tibetan butter lamps; naive pottery from the grave of Troy and a fragment from the Parthenon frieze—velvets sired by Renaissance looms, and a Princess Bokhara carpet, woven out of turquoises and rubies and carbuncles—Delhi brasses that watched Islam Shah batter the pride from Rajputana's face, and a conglomerate of Tang mortuary jars, lacquer game boxes and Quincento ivories—what a melting pot!

THE RUSTY iron Buddha, in tattered rice-paper vestments, could swap many a tale of Ming courts and priestly intrigues, with the shabby Gods of Wealth and legendary sages portrayed upon the opposite wall.

This corroded disk reflected a slant-eyed coquette's smile in the long, long ago, and in that dragon-mounted scabbard lurks the hara-kiri dagger of a Mikado's daughter.

Celadon beakers, Samarkand tiles, Granada varguenos and a chair on which Venetian doges sat: Paduan rapiers, a first folio Hakluyt and Pasquier's "Monophile" in original binding—a case of LePage's dueling pistols and a pair of Gothic triptyches—Pekin enamels and Spanish reliquaries—Vertu's etchings and Korean ambers—Cairene tabourets and a Moorish cabinet laboriously marquetried in ivory and ebony and silver!

One Kwan Yin of fetsui jade and another clad in verdigris—a Hiroshigi print and a Teisei kakemona consorting with Van Goyen marines and Tuscan primitives.

Of such is the democracy and eternity of art.

Who knows the authors of half of it, and who cares? Genius speaks in its own voice and reminds impatient, slap-dash generations that only sincere and heartfelt effort endures.

Take a little longer—do less and do it better. Phrases, canvases, casts and marbles stitch the ages together. Nothing unusual is lost to memory.

Immortality never misses a first-class job. History recalls less than a hundred merely rich men; but anthologies, encyclopaedias and museums haven't yet let a really important name or performance vanish.

DAVID BRANCH'S DAILY FILOSOFY

"He who understands, and understanding, loves, enlists all the powers of nature as his partners,"

A new mechanical device will do the work of a cash register, bookkeeper and adding machine, making a complete record of a sale as it is being made. Now some scientist should only invent a machine that could spell out dictation.

Several women have written to Thomas Edison asking why his scholarship contest to select a successor to himself is not open to girls. Anybody who ever saw a woman driving a nail can answer that.

Tom Mix, indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of withholding $100,000 income taxes, says he "don't know much about this income tax affair." Probably he just got Mixed up.

The Magic of the Road

IT IS A GREAT mistake to say that American life is monotonous and prosaic. As a matter of fact, it is one of the most wildly romantic and colorful things ever heard of; and the fact that the tin-can tourist will shortly be abroad upon the highways ought to prove it to anyone.

Year by year, the custom of vacationing by auto has taken a firmer and firmer hold on the mass of the population. It is a far more significant custom than we ordinarily dream. Its effects on the national psychology, the national outlook, are profound and far-reaching.

About this time every year a restlessness steals over the land. Staid and sober citizens fumble with maps, dream day-dreams about distant roads, overhaul weather-beaten camping outfits, speculate on the distance the family finances can carry them. People who live within hailing distance of the Pacific talk of trips to such places as Chicago and Baltimore; easterners consider the magic of sunset cities like Seattle and San Diego; inhabitants of the midland look both ways at once, and balance the charms of the Shenandoah valley against the magic emptiness of the upland plains of Wyoming.

Presently this restlessness gets translated into action. In every state thousands of autos—new ones and old ones, costly ones and cheap ones—roll forth upon the highways, each carrying a family and its supplies on a roving trip through the open air. The tents of this restless army rise on a thousand camping sites; the dust kicked up by their wheels hangs over every highway from Florida to Oregon.

The auto touring season, in other words, is upon us; and we don't half begin to realize its importance.

Was there, ever, a spectacle like this before? Here is a huge and prosperous nation, devoted to industry with a passionate intensity. But every summer several millions of the most industrious drop what they are doing and ride gaily off a thousand miles or so to see whether the sights beyond the next mountain chain are fairer than the sights at home.

The migrations of Attila and Ghengis Khan never saw so many people on the march. The rovings of all the gypsy bands of Europe do not compare with it. The old ties that used to bind men to their native valleys have been broken forever; provincialism is on its death-bed. Will you find sectionalism in a man who lives in Massachusetts but visits such faraway places as Montana, Arizona, Texas and Alabama every year? Never; the old order has changed.

There are the makings, in this habit of automobile touring, of a grander, more ennobling patriotism than we have ever seen before. America ceases to be an abstraction to the tin-can tourist. It becomes something more than a vague word. It has the spice of the sage-brush plains, the silent majesty of the Great Smoky mountains, the drowsy peace of the New England hill country, the breath-taking splendor of the Rockies. It is a magic word, made illimitable by much wandering.

If you have an auto, toss an old tent, a blanket roll and a few extra clothes into the back seat and start out. If you haven't, get one and let yourself go. Every road on the continent is an enchanted road. Discovery lies beyond every hill.

A Healer and a Killer

THE most tragic thing about the terrible catastrophe at the Cleveland Clinic hospital is that it happened simply because the institution was conducted along the most modern and efficient lines.

No hospital in the country made such use of X-ray photographs in the diagnosis and treatment of disease. Hundreds and hundreds of lives have been saved by the long rows of X-ray films in the basement of the building.

Yet it was these X-ray films that caused the tragedy. They caught fire from spontaneous combustion when a leaky steampipe overheated the room; and, in burning, they gave off the poisonous gasses that brought death to 120 men and women.

It was an odd, ironic twist of fate that turned one of medical science's greatest allies into a death-dealing force of terror.

A Sign of the Times

ANOTHER sign of the times in regard to the future of aviation is found in General Motors' purchase of 40 per cent of the stock of the Fokker airplane concern.

Ford was the first of the big automobile manufacturers to enter the aviation field, and the Stout monoplanes he builds are giving service all over the country.

Then Packard followed suit by experimenting with a Diesel engine for airplanes. This engine, it is said, is now about ready for the market.

Now General Motors steps in. Obviously, these automobile manufacturers see a tremendous future in that field. They are providing for their participating in it by getting in now, while the growth is only beginning.

Quotations Worth Noting

"A better memory, together with increased ability to hold ideas in mind simultaneously, and a greater capacity to compare their values for a given purpose, seem, then, to constitute man's superiority over the anthropoid apes."—Edgar James Swift, head of the department of psychology at Washington university, St. Louis. (Scribners).

"Philadelphia is proud, pious and pusillanimous. It has a thousand churches, and its saloons and speakeasies number 13,000. It is the cradle of American liberty and the home of the most corrupt political machine in the country."—Saul F. Carson, Philadelphia newspaper man. (Plain Talk).

"The annual bill for medical care in the United States is between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000—depending on the authority quoted. The lesser figure is usually considered a fair estimate."—Dr. Harold E. Hulbert, St. Paul surgeon. (Plain Talk).

"We promise brotherly support for the German Communists from the Communists of all the world. There shall be a glorious Red future for Germany."—Gregory Zinoviev, former director of the Russian Third International.

TOONERVILLE FOLKS By Fontaine Fox

The Day Book of a New Yorker
Broadway Chatter by Grant Dixon

NEW YORK, May 26.—The local police, psychologists and criminologists every now and then, when things are otherwise normal, give their attention to the causes of crime. At the moment there is a sharp and interesting difference of opinion between two men highly respected in their own fields.

Recently Mr. Roger Babson, well-known statistician, looked into the causes of crime and found from his studies that the movies were chiefly responsible.

Almost simultaneously Dr. Joseph R. Holmes, professor of psychology at Columbia university and recently consultant to the Baumes commission, came out with a report which denies the movies have any effect upon crime. Both men made their "experiments" among children and adults of New York City and because both are famous men their findings are attracting a great deal of attention—not to add controversy—among criminologists of the country.

Mr. Babson based his findings on percentages, this being a comparative study of the number of people who go to the movies and the percentage affected.

Mr. Holmes, on the other hand, subjected 500 New York children between the ages of 8 and 14 to an exaggerated form of what is commonly known as "crime picture." When they had seen it they were asked to put in writing what they remembered of the film and their impression. The answers were monotonously alike:

"He ended in jail." "They got the bad man" and "The hero won."

This and similar tests conducted by Dr. Holmes have convinced the scientist that motion pictures are not only not harmful to the young but "wholly beneficial, forming a vicarious outlet of tremendous value."

A natural question in my mind was "How unconscious is the effect of wholesomeness which Dr. Holmes says motion pictures have on the child mind?" I went to No. 469 Fifth avenue where Will H. Hays works steadily at the various common problems of the makers of pictures and talked with Mr. Hays, not the easiest person in the world to interview.

"We have spent more time and energy on this problem of the influence of the motion picture than on any other single phase of the organized work of the industry," Mr. Hays said. "We ourselves have consulted scores of scientists and students of community problems. We work in cooperation with more than 40 national religious, civic and educational groups, and we could have told Dr. Holmes before he started what he was likely to find out.

"Not theme but treatment determines the effect on the human mind of any work of art. In the motion picture the doer of evil pays for his wrong, swiftly and inevitably. If our pictures dealing with crime ever led anyone to commit one, then 'Ten Nights in a Bar Room' was propaganda for drink and 'The Ballad of Reading Gaol' is a direct inspiration to go out and get hanged."

Mr. Hays tells of a joke on himself. He was talking to a group of Hollywood people, studio executives, scenario writers, all sorts of movie people, on and off the lot. He was speaking very earnestly of partnership, in a great public enterprise.

"All right," yelled a messenger boy in a voice that everybody heard, "let's you and me split fifty-fifty."

P. S. He kept his job.

Now that the Waldorf's days are over, I can tell a story about one experience of John F. Devine, well known New York newspaper man. He had gone to the hotel to "cover" an important meeting, attended by some of the leading business men of the city.

He had the fear it would be a dull and tedious session, but when he opened the meeting room he found, to his surprise, all the dignified business men kneeling or sitting on the floor. He heard no discussion about modern commerce, nor votes on resolutions.

All he heard were such pleasantly familiar phrases as "seven, come eleven." "baby needs shoes," etc. Mr. Devine, incidentally and strangely enough, returned to his office without much of a story but with about 25 extra dollars in his pockets.

SLIGHTLY UNCONVINCING SALES TALKS

(No. 1—The Electric Ice Box Agent Who Formerly Sold Heating Plants and Automobiles)

"Man, there isn't another ice box like this on the market. It's got everything. Quick on the pick-up, easy to handle and full of pep. I know there are other electric refrigerators, lots of 'em, but do they stand up? Are they just a one-year job? Have they got years of engineering knowledge behind 'em? What you want is performance, ain't it? You want an ice box you can jump into and go places don't you?

PHILLIPS

"Lissen, this is the very finest machine you can buy and when you have this in your home you know you'll be satisfied. Anybody can operate it—your wife or your kiddies—and it's the kind of boiler they'll be proud to be seen in. Don't believe any of that stuff you hear about exorbitant costs. It costs more than coal, yes, but only a few dollars, but think of the inconveniences it eliminates! No more ashes to haul out, no more coal to shovel, no more wood to chop. You just set the thermostat at the number of miles you want to get per hour and what's the result? All the ice you want at any hour of the day or night, whether you use it for business or pleasure!

◆ ◆ ◆

"What? Certainly it's a lot cheaper than natural gas—beg pardon—ice. And it does away with the iceman who was always dirtying up the kitchen. And there was a lot of waste. Where did most of your ice go? Huh? Up the chimney, of course. None of the power transmitted directly to the rear wheels where it did the most good, understand? You had to watch it all the time or you would get up some cold morning out on a lonely stretch of road far from any garage and find the fire out.

◆ ◆ ◆

"Another thing about these new electric ice boxes is that they are absolutely odorless, due to the wonderful advances made in bodybuilding during the past year. America leads the world in this respect. They make your cellar look like your living room.

◆ ◆ ◆

"Think of the convenience of going to bed at night with the thermostat so set that the heat will come on in the morning when you need it and fill the refrigerator with enough nice clean ice to carry you through the day in any kind of traffic and comfortably, too.

◆ ◆ ◆

"It's comfort you want, isn't it? A good roomy refrigerator, well upholstered and with a fire box so big you can put your whole family into it any time you want!—"

LADY ASTOR TO HAVE BATTLE

American Born M. P. Faces Fight for Office

PLYMOUTH, Eng., May 24. (INS)—For the first time since she entered the House of Commons 10 years ago, Lady Astor, American born member of parliament, is being opposed in a general election by both labor and liberal candidates.

Many liberals who voted for her in past general elections are expected to vote for the liberal candidate on May 30, but all indications point, nevertheless, to her re-election.

Since she first won the Sutton seat at a bye election in 1919, caused by Lord Astor's succession to the peerage, Lady Astor's majority has increased in each succeeding general election.

Women voters in the Sutton division now outnumber the men by approximately 2,000. Lady Astor has every reason to count on the continued support of women voters, because of her work in parliament in behalf of the interests of women and children, for temperance reforms and for education.

Littlefield C-C Band To Attend Convention

Special to The Record News.

LITTLEFIELD, Texas, May 24.—Since the dates for the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce have been set Littlefield has decided to be represented with a band which will compete for prizes at El Paso in October.

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce band is composed of 45 pieces, according to J. W. Ratekin, secretary-manager. At a meeting of the civic organization Tuesday Monte Barron of Plainview, an experienced band director was employed for one year to sponsor the band on several good will tours in the surrounding trade territory.

Littlefield to Hold Bond Election for City Hall

Special to The Record News.

LITTLEFIELD, Texas, May 24.—Notices have been published calling an election for the purpose of voting bonds for the erection of a $50,000 city hall in Littlefield, and for $10,000 additional paving of the streets.

Resolution Asks for Farm Loan Inquiry

WASHINGTON, May 24. (UP)—Representative Stobbs, Republican, Massachusetts, introduced a resolution today authorizing a congressional committee of five to inquire into the administration of the federal farm loan bureau by the federal farm loan board. The resolution adds that specific attention be given to the Kansas City Joint Stock Land bank. An appropriation of $5,000 to conduct the inquiry was asked.

Bandit Quartet Gets $25,000 in Heart of City

EAST ORANGE, N. J., May 24. (INS)—Four bandits today held up the East Orange Trust company in the heart of the city's business section and escaped with $25,000 in cash and securities. The bandits, all armed with guns, lined employes of the bank against the walls and escaped in a sedan bearing New York license plates.

SUITS FILED AGAINST U. S.

Heirs of Soldiers Ask For $69,000 Here

As the final date for the filing of valid suits for government war insurance approaches, two $10,000 suits were entered Friday on the United States district court docket here and attorneys have announced that at least two more claims for the full amount will be filed on Saturday. Local attorneys have also entered suit this week in the Amarillo division of the United States court in behalf of an ex-service man of Memphis.

Wednesday Last Date

By an act of congress, next Wednesday, May 29, has been established as the last date upon which suits may be filed without being barred by the United States statute of limitations, W. E. George, attorney handling the suits here, explained. American legion leaders have issued bulletins warning ex-service men of the approach of the last day for an appeal to the courts on contested claims, Mr. George said.

The suits filed and to be filed here and in Amarillo claim the full amount of insurance, plus accrued interest, dating from the day of discharge, both in cases of death and of alleged total disability. The sums demanded aggregate $69,000. The suits are being handled by the firm of Brannon and George, and J. Earle Kuntz, attorneys. Only three others of their kind have been tried here, according to court records. Seven other claims, already brought before the courts by the same attorneys, are still pending. Mr. George explained, the actions already underway not being governed by the limitation date.

The suits filed with Miss Jessie Cowan, United States district clerk, Friday afternoon name Mrs. Sarah Cadie Leatherwood and Mrs. Ollie Scarborough Downs and four minor children as plaintiffs in one suit; and Mrs. Mary C. Middleton and Cal Middleton plaintiffs in the second.

Suits Filed

Mrs. Leatherwood is entering suit on the policy held by her son, who is claimed to have enlisted in the United States army at Camp Bowie on May 20, 1918, and to have served until his discharge on June 16, 1919. His service included action in the St. Etienne, Forrest farm, and Meuse Argonne engagements in France. The petition alleges. He was attached to Company H, 142nd Infantry. Injuries to his lungs and other physical hurts resulted in his total disability from the date of the discharge to the time of his death according to the claims of the petitioners, who are asking for a full payment of the $10,000 policy plus $3,800 accured interest.

Mrs. Middleton, the mother of Jessie C. Middleton, a former member of Company F, 316th Infantry, and of Company K, 143rd Infantry, brings a claim for the same amount asked in the companion suit. Jesse Middleton enlisted on July 9, 1919 and was honorably discharged on June 7, 1919, the papers filed here allege. The petitioners assert that the ex-soldier continued entirely disabled until the day of his death.

Clarence J. Billington, an ex-serviceman now living at Memphis, Texas, is the plaintiff in the suit filed Thursday at Amarillo. Mr. Billington claims to have been totally disabled from tuberculosis and an accumulation of other ills since his discharge from the army in March, 1919. His suit also asks for the full $10,000 and accrued interest.

The children of Willie E. Huff, who died in a government hospital in Sulphur, Okla., in 1924, are the plaintiffs in one of the suits to be filed Saturday, Mr. George declared Friday afternoon. The petition names Jesse Huff and Harold Dewey Huff, minors, and Mrs. E. M. Jackson as beneficiaries to the $13,800 claimed by the petition.

KGKO PROGRAM

A fiddle band from Bellevue, Texas, will close the Saturday evening program from station KGKO with a 30 minute program.

8:00 to 8:30—Lois Franklin.
8:30 to 9:00—T. A. Holland's fiddle band.
9:00 to 9:30—Musical program, and reader.
9:30 to 10:00—Fiddle band, Bellevue, Texas.
10:00 to 10:10—Amos and Andy.

LIGHT RAINS OVER SECTION

Precipitation Here Totals Half an Inch

Showers which fell over Northwest Texas and Southern Oklahoma Friday left the greatest amount of precipitation in the Wichita Falls area, which received slightly over a half inch of rain, dispatchers reports from the various railroads indicated.

While light showers fell as far west as Stamford, Spur and Abilene on the Wichita Valley route; and north to Frederick and Woodward in Oklahoma on the Katy lines, rainfall which fell here up until 5 p. m. totaled .56 of an inch, according to the report of the Texas Service company bureau.

The Fort Worth and Denver dispatcher reported showers all along the line from Electra to Fort Worth.

The only drawback in the rainfall is that it will delay planting. However, it was said, the added moisture will be a further protection against drouth.

asking that the prisoner be paroled as soon as legally possible, carried no legal weight. He said the suggestion could be turned over to the board of pardons, to be acted upon entirely at its discretion. He accepted the verdict and the recommendation for the state with that assertion.

Hostler, Nichols and Joe Ireland were arrested and indicted here after bandits held up the Spoonts Drug store at Ninth and Van Buren about 9 o'clock on Christmast night, 1923. Ireland is one of the principal witnesses for the five trials already conducted that he and Nichols entered the store and committed the robbery while Hostler waited outside with the automobile which took them to and from the scene of the holdup.

The case was handled for the state by Sam Spence, district attorney, and George W. Anderson, assistant district attorney.

26 TO ATTEND SHRINE MEET

Wichitans Leave Monday For Pacific Coast

A party of Wichitans numbering approximately 25 persons, composed principally of Maskat temple members and their wives, will leave this city over the F. W. & D. railway Monday, May 27, at 2:15 p. m., en route to Los Angeles for the meeting of the imperial council A. A. O. N. M. S., to be held there June 4, 5, 6.

The date of May 31 originally was set for the departure of the Wichita Falls delegation, but when stop-over privileges for sightseeing purposes were arranged, the starting date was moved up four days, according to Al Ellis, recorder of Maskat temple.

Leaving the Denver lines at Pueblo, Colo., the local Shriners' party will go to Salt Lake City over the Denver & Rio Grande, traveling through the Royal Gorge en route. One day will be spent in Salt Lake City, where the visitors will be entertained by the local temple. Their car will then be taken over the Western Pacific through the Feather river canyon to San Francisco and Oakland, Calif., where two days will be spent in sightseeing before proceeding to Los Angeles.

Polly Tunney Seriously Ill

in Brioni, a close friend of the Tunneys and she told me:

"Polly is suffering from a tumor at the base of the appendix. I do not believe Professor Mayer will return from Germany because he realizes that another operation would likely prove fatal. But we also realize that without surgical aid she cannot live."

She also declared that "Gene has grown so thin from worry that you would hardly recognize him."

Today I met a doctor friend who confirmed the report that Mrs. Tunney is being kept alive only by artificial means.

"Medical and surgical aid of the very highest order, such as only great wealth can provide, will have to be summoned if Mrs. Tunney's life is to be saved," this doctor told me.

FOGARTY AFFIDAVIT MUCH DISCUSSED

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 24. (UP)—Col. Lewis L. Field, attorney for Mrs. Katherine King Fogarty of New York in her $500,000 breach of promise suit against Gene Tunney, said today that it an affidavit bearing her signature exists, waiving any claim on the retired heavy weight champion "it would be interesting to learn under what circumstances it was signed."

George W. Whitestide, Tunney's lawyer, stated in New York that he had in his possession such a document, signed last July, two days before the Tunney-Heeney fight.

Field said he had no knowledge of Mrs. Fogarty having received any compensation for signing such an affidavit.

The New Haven lawyer said he was preparing for the trial in Fairfield county superior court, expected in Septmber or October. "I believe Mrs. Fogarty is entitled to have her claims heard by a judge and jury," Field said. "No edt of court settlement has been considered."

MANY PROTEST BOY'S PENALTY

Letters and Telegrams Express Opinions

year-old Kentucky boy, Carl Newton Mahan, for killing his playmate was voiced here today in judicial and social circles and by those dealing in child welfare problems.

Judge Mary Bartelme of the Cook county juvenile court said: "Any judge who would send a 6-year-old child to a criminal institution, no matter what he had done is himself a criminal.

"I can't imagine any judge giving such a sentence. I would think that every citizen of the state of Kentucky would rise up and demand that the state law which would permit a court to do this be changed at once."

OFFICIALS CLAIM BOY TOO YOUNG

NEW YORK, May 24. (INS)—Amazement was expressed here today by judges, sociologists and criminologists that anywhere in the United States a jury could be obtained which would convict a 6-year-old boy of manslaughter, as has just happened in Kentucky.

The boy, Carl Mahan, was found guilty of manslaughter at Paintsville, Ky., by a jury of 12 farmers and coal miners, and sent to the Kentucky state reform school until he is 21 years old. He killed Cecil Vanhoose, his 5-year-old playmate last Saturday.

Could this boy, of the kindergarten age, have realized the enormity of the offense? Does society demand of such a child the same penalty and criminal branding that would be given to a fully developed adult?

"No!" is the emphatic answer from New York, where officials generally expressed astonishment at the verdict.

Church to Hold Mother-Daughter Banquet Saturday

Mrs. J. C. A. Guest will be the principal speaker at the Mother-Daughter banquet to be held at the First Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock under the auspices of the Young People's Missionary society.

The dinner is to be served in the basement of the old church building at the corner of Tenth and Lamar, with several circles of the Missionary society co-operating.

All girls of 12 or more years have been invited to attend the banquet and to bring their mothers. Every mother has been urged to bring a daughter, either her own or someone's else.

The program for the occasion has been arranged by Mrs. E. T. Cantrell. Group singing of mother and daughter songs will be a feature. Miss Eiva Remington will be the toastmistress. Mrs. C. N. Cameron, Mrs. Lucile Brooks Huff and Miss Laurette Erwin also will assist in giving the program, it was announced.

Those in charge of the banquet emphasized the fact that it is given for all the mothers and daughters of the community.

SPUDS END HOME STAND TODAY AND TOMORROW WITH SPORTS

Uhle Bests Lyons As Tigers Defeat White Sox In 21 Innings By 6 To 5

PETE TURGEON TO PLAY SOON

Wiltse to Oppose Speeding Shreveport in Opener

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

Art Phelan's pennant-chasing Shreveport Sports invade Wichita Falls today for a two-day stand out at the lot. Skipper Jim Galloway has prepared a warm reception for the sportive Sports, and his men sand-papered their bats yesterday with the view of doing some lusty hitting at the expense of Shreveport chuckers.

The Shreveport series, which includes a double header tomorrow, will conclude the present home stand of the Spudders, which to date has been successful, except for the most recent series, that with Beaumont, the third and final of which was rained out yesterday.

Galloway's galllopers have won six and lost three to date on this extensive stay. They took the only two played with Waco, split a pair with San Antonio, swept a three-game test with Houston, and then dropped the brace of contests to the lowly Exporters.

Hurlers Should Be Fit

Harold Wiltse, who has had a week's rest since he lost that 12-inning heart-breaker to San Antonio, will pitch today's game. Several of the other flingers have had plenty of rest and the Spudders are out to halt the speeding Sports by taking this series.

A bit of good news for local fandom is that Pete Turgeon will be able to play soon, and there is the possibility that the starry second baseman will pastime in the series here with the Sports. Pete's sprained ankle isn't entirely strong yet but he is anxious to get back into the game as soon as possible.

The Sports, picked by a majority of critics on pre-season forecasts as dark horses, have more than justified such prognostications. The splendid play of several rookies and the rejuvenation of some veterans, particularly pitchers, has made the Sports into one of the foremost flag contenders.

New Men Help Sports

The recent additions to the personnel have greatly strengthened the Shreveport club. Oscar Estrada, the crack Cuban pitcher and Wilbur Cooper, the veteran left-hander, joined the club in recent days. Estrada was returned by the St. Louis Browns.

Elton Langford, who batted at a terrific clip two years ago in the Western league, has reinforced the outfield, weakened by injuries to McClanahan and Huston, rookies of lots of promise. Langford was with Cleveland last season and clouted splendidly the first few weeks of play. He was sent to the Pacific Coast league this spring and was returned a few weeks ago to the Tribe, who sent him to Shreveport.

'Bad Boy' Shires Rejoins Chisox

Art, Willing to "Forget Things," Reinstated

CHICAGO, May 24. (UP)—Art Shires, the Texas "Bad Boy," who used his fists on Manager Lena Blackburne, when the White Sox pilot disciplined the young first baseman recently, came back to the team and donned his uniform today.

Although the breach between Shires and Blackburne apparently has been settled definitely, the first baseman did not get into today's 21-inning game with the Detroit Tigers.

He appeared at the first base coach line in the 15th inning and was given a hand from the fans in the stand.

Shires came to Chicago yesterday and talked with both Blackburne and Secretary Harry Grabiner and said he was willing to "forget things.'

Bankers Laud South Plains

Growth of Plains Country Pleases Financiers

Special to The Record News.

LUBBOCK, Texas, May 24.—"The greatest record of any place in the United States has been made in West Texas in Federal Land Bank work," M. H. Gossett, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston declared here today as 50 representatives of the bank and the National Farm Loan association were gathered for a district conference to discuss their problems.

Representatives were here from Turkey, Lamesa, Amarillo, Plainview, Dimmitt, Floydada, El Paso, San Antonio, Hale Center, Dickens, Spur, Austin, Littlefield, Abernathy, Post, Muleshoe, Crosbyton and Silverton.

The representatives were guests of R. S. Rodgers, of Lubbock, Thursday night at a banquet.

"We are pleased with the steady substantial growth of this section," Gossett said in commenting on the plains of Texas. "The growth is not of the boom type but of the substantial type that will not result in a slump."

The meeting is the sixth of a series of 14 district meetings over Texas. Nine state officials of the company were here, in addition to the local representatives from the towns of the plains, surrounding Lubbock.

Mexican Deportation Not To Cause Labor Shortage

AUSTIN, May 24. (AP)—Deportation of Mexican laborers who have violated special contract permits allowing them to remain in Texas six months will not create a shortage of farm workers, State Commissioner of Labor Charles McKemy siad today. McKemy has just returned from Houston where he conferred with U. S. Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, whose trip to Texas was for the purpose of mapping a definite program for deporting Mexicans found without proper papers.

Tilden Will Retire After This Season

NEW YORK, May 24. (UP)—William T. Tilden, 2d, for nine years the ranking player of the United States and six times national singles champion, announces in the current issue of Liberty his retirement from international tennis at the end of the year.

"Big Bill," who has been the mainstay of American Davis cup teams since 1920, declares he will not represent this country in world tennis after 1929 but will continue to play in exhibitions and matches as an individual.

Altus Cotton Outlook Good

Farmers to Have Full Crop Despite Rain Loss

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., May 24—Prospects for a good cotton crop are still favorable in spite of the widespread damage caused by recent heavy rains in Jackson county.

The wheat crop in the western section of the county is practically a total loss while the crop in the vicinity of Blair is expected to make a profitable yield.

Indications for the fruit crop are likewise reported favorable.

The cotton crop is thought to be fair by J. B. McMahan, president of the Altus National bank, who is familiar with conditions throughout the county. With dry weather continuing for the next two weeks in order that planting can be completed, he considers the outlook for the crop good.

Practically all the cotton which had been planted prior to the last two heavy rains in most sections of the county was washed away and will have to be replanted. McMahan believes that two-thirds of the acreage is waiting to be planted. He estimates that 15 per cent of that planted prior to the rain lost. This condition existed particularly on farms in south and southeastern sections of the county and near Olustee.

Paul Walker, who is one of Jackson county's master farmers, resides two miles south of Blair, is also optimistic over the cotton prospects. He estimates that it will be necessary to replant one-fourth of the cotton in the county. In the vicinity of Blair not more than half the acreage has been planted yet.

WACO, May 24. (AP)—Felix Vigare took it up himself to subdue Dallas today and he did it, slamming out two homers and two singles, one of the homers coming with the bases full in an early inning, and the other in the ninth with the score tied, 8 all, two down and none on. It gave Waco a 9 to 8 victory and the rubber game of the series. Score:

Baer Facts

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

NEW YORK, May 24.—The crime statistics show that there are 288 golf clubs in the vicinity of New York city.

Multiply 288 golf clubs by a two-weeks' card and you can spend 11 invited years on the links free of charge.

The man who joins a golf club is foolish. All you need is a friend who likes company in a bunker.

He invites you out to play on his home grounds and you move in bag, baggage and divots.

After he discovers that your tee slap makes his slice almost look straight, there is nothing more for him to do but to get you a two weeks' diploma, paid-up and non-assessible with all the emoluments thereof.

After you have exhausted those 14 days of squatter sovereignty, you pack up your borrowed clubs and move on to your next friend and the adjoining links.

A golfer is a somber individual who takes the game seriously on the fairway. He is a gloomy anachronism who is tangled up in fresh air and ambushed by sunlight.

The fact that there are 288 links in the metropolitan hospital area indicates that the suburbs are being improved more by digging than by building.

While you are expected to play some golf on a guest card, the main idea is to get free shower baths, towels, soap, massages, your shoes shined and to accumulate a big bill of refreshments that have been chemically analyzed.

While you are guesting about the suburbs, your host pays all your bills. His clubhouse is your castle. When it comes to paying for anything, a guest card is better than an exemption blank in 1917.

It takes 11 years to play all the links around Manhattan and a mooching foursome has no worry about the immediate future.

When the mooching foursome is eating and the dinner checks arrive, it always stands at a respectful distance while the host is on the green.

When the 11 years have been chewed up, the mooching foursome is not without resources.

It can demand another 11 years of invitations under winter rules.

Smacking a divot into the great unknown is an economical form of landscape gardening if you know how to work the gadgets.

Think of the outdoor exhiliration of getting 22 years of exclusive niblicking at the expense of a chorus of saps who like company. It's cheaper to be a hermit.

At a recent dinner of the St. Andrews golfing syndicate, the venerable and bearded pard of that ancient mob were humbled and dismayed when the toastmaster pinned a medal on our lapel.

It was only then that the ancestors of the caddies realized that we were the oldest guest in the club.

A Philosophy

There is a life to live, a death to die;
So why should either one be marred by fear?
Or, shrinking from the darkness that stands by,
Into whose folds each one must disappear
To find perhaps a newer, better game,
As full of action as the soul can reap,
Or where the last dim candle sends its flame,
To come on nothing that is worse than sleep?

Who Couldn't Take It

Those who were astonished at the knockout administered to young Singer, a championship prospect, overlook the fact that any number of star prospects in boxing had everything but the ability to take it. No one is clever enough to keep from getting hit at some time or another, and if he can't take it he can't expect to reach the top.

The most notable example was Bombardier Wells. Wells was a brilliant boxer and a terrific puncher. He had heart and brains. But he wasn't built to take a hard punch on the chin or in the body. One wallop was usually enough to leave him flat or groggy. He met Carpentier when the Frenchman was a far better fighter than he was later against Dempsey. He knocked Carpentier down three or four times in the first two rounds and had him almost helpless. But Carpentier had just enough left for one last punch and this ended the fight.

Ability to absorb punishment isn't always a matter of courage. There are Joe Grims who can stand the blow of an ax and there are others just as game who can't stand up one wallop. They are not built that way. This quality made Bat Nelson and Jack Dempsey champions. They could take three to get in one. They had qualities of durability which the average mortal doesn't carry.

Minnesota Manhandlers

"I thought I would write you about spring practice at Minnesota, as you might be interested in its development since Dr. Spear's regime," writes George Rogers.

"The first year Doc had out about 35 men and his average daily attendance was around 17. This year he had 120 men report to him, which he reduced to 88 men and his average daily attendance was 50.

"These 88 men, from a physical point of view, were a sight for the eyes. I never saw such a fit squad in my life.

"He divided the 88 men into four elevens; each team under a separate coach and they played a series of games for the university championship with suitable prizes for the players on the first and second teams and a big dinner for every one.

"Last Friday the last game for the championship was played and, oh, my gosh, how hard they played! Such blocking, tackling, passing, punting and catching of punts I never saw in my life. One would think they were playing Michigan or Wisconsin the last game of the season for the conference championship. The game was played in a terrible rain and not a punt was missed. A most remarkable performance.

"I saw all of the games between the teams and the most remarkable part of it to me was that, under this arrangement, the boys seem to enjoy the spring practice, and the spirit to win that existed was beyond belief. In the past I was of the opinion that the spring practice was hard work and a bore to most of the boys.

"Don't sell short on Minnesota next fall, because if you do you will be a poor prophet. My opinion of their chances is so high that I am afraid of expressing them in words. Doc has 12 halfbacks that would make first team on any college in the country. One in particular that, if he ever learns to follow his interference a little closer, will be another Red Grange. He can throw four backs in a game that average 190 pounds and is faster than any other four backs you will see all year.

"Nagurski, if he plays him at full, will, in my opinion, become one of the immortals of football. What a pleasure it is to see him work. I hope nothing happens to him, and I want you to see him go when he is right.

"Michigan and Wisconsin are going to have great teams this fall and I predict that before the season is over the experts will be saying that Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota are three of the strongest teams in the United States. I think we will beat Michigan, but I am not so sure about Wisconsin because of the unexpected licking we gave them last year. Old man psychology can do a lot with that Wisconsin bunch about beating Minnesota.

"The Swedes in Minnesota use skis to cover ground over the snow in winter, but you can assure your Eastern friends that this fall Minnesota is going to use a few Poles and Finns with "ski" at the end of their names to gain yardage on the football field. We have some "beauts' among the sophomores.

"Pardon the long letter—I guess my enthusiasm is too much for me. Even now I want to tell you about these Poles and Finns."

H. L. writes in to say that he doesn't think it makes any difference whether Glenna Collett meets Joyce Wethered in England, Scotland or America. Miss Wethered's record is the finest ever made by a woman golfer. But it happens to make a lot of difference about home grounds. George Duncan has beaten Hagen three straight matches in England and Scotland. Does any one believe Duncan could beat Hagen three straight matches over here? This is taking no credit from Miss Wethered, who is regarded by many experts as one of the greatest shot makers of the game, male or female. But it is still a big boost for the great showing Glenna Collett made in meeting the world's best woman golfer on the latter's golf domain.

McCallum Ends Service Here After Six Successful Seasons

Fourteen Lettermen Return for Football Next Autumn Under New High School Coach, Barry Holton

By GORDON FULCHER

Graduation exercises Friday night which marked the departure of 214 students from Wichita Falls High school along with the close of the current school year also saw the close of a six-year career as coach here of A. Y. (Bud) McCallum.

During the years that McCallum has coached athletics at the local high school Wichita Falls teams have had many ups and downs, won and lost championships and turned out numbers of brilliant athletes.

McCallum opened his services here in 1923 as his first coaching job after leaving Texas university where he was one of the greatest football players ever developed in the Southwest. He resigned his position as head Coyote coach three months ago and has not announced his plans for the coming year.

Several Champions

Wichita Falls football teams under McCallum during his six years here have four times gone into the district finals on Thanksgiving day with an undefeated record. Two years McCallum's gridiron teams won the district championship and one year fought its way to the semi-finals of the state tournament where it was defeated by the championship team.

Three of McCallum's basket ball teams have been district champions, two were bi-district champions and two going to the state tournament.

In the four years that Bud was track mentor his teams won two district championships, one state championship and was runnerup the other year in the district meet.

The numbers of sucessful athletes that have been turned out by Wichita Falls High school during the last six years might be a credit to any coach.

Among the players who graduated from the school under the tutelage of McCullum are Leo Baldwin, famous Texas university basket ball, track and football star, and who in his high school days here captured a state track title almost single handed; Curtis Beaty, Texas university football star; Gerald (Uncle Joe) Smith of Simmons university and one of the most prominent athletes in the Texas conference in football and basket ball, having won all-conference berths in both sports; Odel Wainscott all Texas conference tackle from Saint Edwards university; Gerald Coffey, Rowdy Curtin, Coyal Francis, Ed Powell all of whom were among the outstanding high school athletes in the state, and more recently Kenneth Mills, who entered S. M. U. this spring after having been an all-state guard in basket ball, twice all-district fullback and a track man of no little ability.

Hodgkiss Becomes Star

Martin Hodgkiss, brilliant lineman, who will captain next year's Coyote eleven, also has been developed to a great extent by McCallum's prowess as a coach. He is considered one of the outstanding players in this district, if not one of the most able linemen in the state.

While last year's football team fell short in percentage of winning games, McCallum battled through an entire season with a squad of cripples, ineligibles and green material to leave 14 experienced lettermen and a wealth of spring trained youngsters for his successor, Barry Holton, coach at Trinity university.

Lettermen who have indicated that they will be on hand next year at the beginning of the season are Captain Hodgkiss, Tom Beaty, center; John Bell, guard; Goodwin Bray, tackle; Bob Carstarphen, end; Jack Carstarphen, half back; Rollin Dixon, guard; Jerry Elljott, quarterback; Bob Guy, fullback; Chick Holden, tackle; Earl Hutchison, center; Morris Lee, quarterback; and Springer Williams, guard.

54 Rookies Available

Fifty four youngsters, the greater part of whom have either been squadman in past years or who were out for spring training this year, have registered with officials at the school as candidates for next year's team.

Among the backfield candidates who have shown promise as either squadmen or in spring training are Johnny White, Paul Dickey, Glenn Patton, and Orion Smith.

Among the most promising of McCallum's recruits in spring training in line positions were Bill McKinley, Max Sepkovitch, Frank Stanfield, Leo Davis and Bob Clayton.

HORTON SMITH LEAVES JOPLIN

Young Golf Wizard to Accept Post in East

PARIS, May 24. (UP)—Horton Smith, who celebrated his twenty-first birthday by winning the French professional golf championship, told the United Press in an exclusive interview today that he intended to leave his Joplin, Mo., club for a bigger one somewhere in the East as soon as he returned from Europe.

"I have had several offers but nothing definite has been agreed on yet," he said.

Smith changed his plans about returning home immediately and left for Berlin with Joe Turnesa, Walter Hagen, Ed Dudley, Johnny Farrell and Jose Jurado of Argentina to play in the German open championship. Smith said he would return to London early next week for an exhibition match with Henry Cotton, British professional, and then sail on the Leviathan with the rest of the American golfers June 2.

Smith will play in the United States open at the Winged Foot Golf club, Mamaroneck, N. Y., beginning June 27, and give several exhibitions before returning to Joplin in July.

A birthday party which kept Smith up until the "wee hours" this morning left the young Missourian "rather sleepy" today.

"I don't feel any different because I won the French championship," Smith said. "The only secret of golf is hard work. Sometimes the game comes easy, sometimes hard.

"Yesterday it was harder than usual because I had those two sixty-sixes behind me. I have played lots better golf many times with less effort."

TED PITCHES ENTIRE GAME

George Hurls All but Last Round of Great Duel

CHICAGO, May 24. (AP)—It took George Uhle 21 innings to achieve his eight victory of the season today. The Tiger ace defeated Ted Lyons, 6 to 5, after three hours and 31 minutes of hard work.

The game was the longest of the season and was three innings short of the record, 24, in the American league.

Lyons was hit freely but a stout heart and spectacular support brought him through. The Tigers found him for 24 hits. The Sox came from behind twice to remain in the game. Uhle gave up 17 hits. He was credited with victory though he did not pitch the last inning. Score:

No Danger in Reducing

You may have seen some articles in various newspapers or magazines claiming that it is dangerous to reduce—that taking off weight is not only weakening but may bring on serious diseases, such as tuberculosis and kidney trouble. My opinion of this is that most of these "experts" do not understand even the rudiments of dieting.

I believe there is more danger in a fat person not reducing than in striving for more normal proportions. Although I have observed and directed thousands of cases of reducing, I do not know of any fat woman who has been injured by limiting the amount of food below that which she was accustomed to eating. The only possible danger that I know of would be for her to reduce too much below normal on a diet that is deficient in alkaline-forming elements or vitamins. It is quite possible that if she reduced on a diet of white bread and sugar exclusively, her system would become very toxic. This danger is entirely averted if the fresh fruits and non-starchy vegetables are predominant in the anti-fat menu.

I receive many inquiries about the use of certain extracts for reducing but I have never found them either advisable or necessary. Much of the talk about the dangers of reducing has probably originated in those cases where these were used.

Contrary to the prevailing idea of many people, fat is not an indication of health. The proper weight for the best mental and physical vigor is often far below the patient's ideal, and it can only be determined by careful observation, considering the temperament, muscles and bony frame work. One cannot determine the correct weight by height and age alone. I will be pleased to give my opinion as to your correct weight if you will send me your photograph, and your height, age and present weight.

It is a well known fact that after 30 a person has a much better chance of living to a ripe old age if he is thin. There is not much satisfaction in eating heartily just to fill an oversized casket. The quickest way of reducing is to employ a citrus fruit fast, using only these fruits or their juices and water. In this manner the weight can be reduced from a half pound to two pounds daily with marked improvement in all physical and mental functions.

When one is on a reducing diet one should also receive sufficient exercise to maintain the muscular tone. Long daily walks are undoubtedly valuable, especially because the body thereby absorbs a large amount of oxygen to assist in consuming the clogging waste matter in the muscles and tissues. Ordinary occupations may be followed through the fast. This may seem impossible, but it is not, as I have even known a large number of cooks and chefs who reduced while in continual contact with food. It would be necessary for them to refrain from even tasting food during the reducing period.

The diet following the fast should be carefully selected to provide the necessary amount of protein and green vegetables. The carbohydrates should only be introduced very gradually after the patient has overcome the tendency to obesity. The concentrated starches, fats and sugars may be entirely dispensed with by obese people.

Fat people will notice an increase of energy after reducing which is due to freeing the body from its burden of encumbrances.

Questions and Answers
(Reddish Gums)

Question: Mae K. Writes: "Please explain in your column the cause of dark reddish color of the gums just below the teeth. Also, can lupus be cured?"

Answer: The dark red gums may be caused from an acid mouth and made worse by the infection of the germs associated with pyorrhea or trench mouth. Lupus can be cured if treatment is started in time.

(Mucus Forming Foods)

Question: Norma asks: "Are the following foods mucus forming: Milk, in a cooked form, arrowroot biscuits, soda biscuits, sardines?"

Answer: Those who have a tendency to catarrh should avoid milk in any form, at least during the time they are undergoing a cure. All starches such as arrowroot, or any kind of biscuits, must be considered mucus forming. Sardines are a protein and if used in limited amounts have no effect upon producing catarrh.

(Test for Insanity)

Question: G. H. M. asks: "Will you kindly explain what it means when the knee is tapped or struck sharply and the leg jumps? I have heard it said that it is a test for insanity and as my leg does not move when the knee is struck, why naturally I am concerned, and it isn't because I don't know where to hit, for I do."

Answer: The test you write about in a study of the leg reflexes. It is not an accurate test for insanity, but indicates the degree of such a disorder as locomotor ataxia. It shows that the nerve currents coming from the brain through the spinal cord into your leg are interfered with in some manner, making these impulses weak. This occurs in several disorders, but the meaning could only be determined after an examination.

Duncan Banker On Land Bank Board

DUNCAN, Okla., May 24. (UP)—J. A. Carnes, Duncan, has been elected one of the seven directors of the Federal Land Bank board at Wichita, Kan., according to a telegram received here today from the farm loan board at Washington.

Carnes was elected director at large from Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico. He was selected from three of the nominees receiving the highest votes out of more than 500 under consideration.

Carnes has been president of the Oklahoma Federation of National Farm Loan association for two years.

Lockney Farmers Ready For Wheat Harvesting

Special to The Record News.

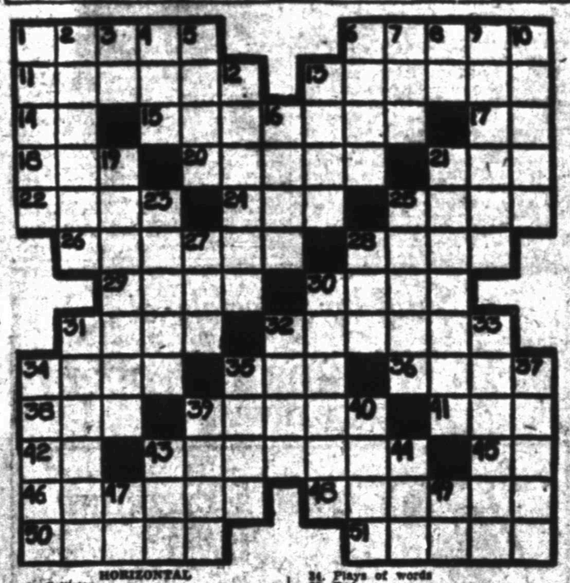

LOCKNEY, May 24.—Wheat harvesting preparations in this section are now in full sway as the farmers believe that the harvest will begin about 15 days earlier than usual. Ideal wheat growing conditions have prevailed since the advent of a generous supply of rainfall, however, it is generally believed that the drouth during the month of April damaged the yield about 50 per cent.

The seeding of the cotton and grain sorghum crops is well underway as a plentiful supply of moisture has made planting conditions ideal, but the temperatures remain too low for the proper germination of the seed. Ginners predict a 10 per cent increase in cotton acreage over the preceding year and grain dealers say the sorghum acreage will remain about normal.

Wife Identifies Corpse

OMAHA, May 24. (AP)—Mrs. George R. Christian of Plainview, N. J., today identified the body of a man who died here several days ago, as her husband, George R. Christain, whose New York brokerage firm, Day and Heaton, failed for nearly $3,000,000 five years ago.

LOCATIONS IN NINE COUNTIES

11 New Oil Tests Planned In Permian Basin

SAN ANGELO, Texas, May 24.—Nine counties in the Permian basin of West Texas divided 11 locations for new oil tests last week, five less than were listed in eight counties the week before. This increased the 1929 total to 335 and the total for the last 51 weeks to 951. Three locations were listed in Howard county and one each in Culberson, Garza, Glasscock, Irion, Jones, Mitchell, Pecos and Ward counties. They follow:

CULBERSON—Deep Rock Oil Co. and Grisham-Hunter Corporation No. 3 Kloh, Rumsey & Abrams, 330 feet from the north line and 1,388 feet from the west line of section 39, block 59, township 7, T. & P. Ry. Co. survey.

Garza-Gulf Production Co. No. 1 H. B. Street, lease D, in the center of section 7, block 8, H. & G. N. Ry. Co. survey.

GLASSCOCK—Texas State Oil Co. No. 1 Coffey, 330 feet from the south line and 990 feet from the east line of section 19, block 34, township 2 south, T. & P. Ry. Co. survey.

HOWARD—McGinley & Seigler No. 2 Harry Hyman, 330 feet from the north and west lines of section 92, block 29, W. & N. W. Ry. Co. survey.

Superior Oil Producing Co. No. 13-E Dora Roberts, 990 feet from the north and east lines of section 136, block 29, W. & N. W. Ry. Co. survey.

Superior No. 14-E Dora Roberts, 1,650 feet from the north line and 990 feet from the east line of section 136, block 29, W. & N. W. Ry. Co. survey.

IRION—Pecos Valley Oil Co. No. 2 Joe Stocks, 1,020 feet from the South and West lines of section 19, block 3, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey.

JONES—W. G. Clark No. 1 Newman, 330 feet from the North line and 1,090 feet from the East line of section 52, block 18, T. & P. Ry. Co. survey.

MITCHELL—California Co. No. 7 Foster, lease one, 733 feet from the South line and 1,580 feet from the West line of section 6, block 29, township 1 South, T. & P. Ry. Co. survey.

PECOS—Independent Oil & Gas Co. No. 1 H. Rayburn, 2,310 feet from the Northeast and Southeast lines of section 28, block 10, H. & G. N. Ry. Co. survey.

WARD—Penn Oil Co. and Atlantic Oil Producing Co. No. 1 Bennett, 2,310 feet from the Southwest and Southeast lines of section 16, block 34, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey.

No Profits For Gasoline Dealers

Special to The Record News

TULSA, Okla., May 24.—The wholesale refinery market in Oklahoma grows interesting as the spot gasoline prices advance, following the Standard of Indiana price increases, and yet the tank wagon and service station prices stay low. Something must happen soon for the small distributors cannot long endure a no-profit business.

Inquiry Thursday disclosed all Oklahoma refiners quoting 9 cents a gallon in tank car lots for U. S. motor grade, with one, the Champlin Refining company of Enid, quoting 9¼ cents a gallon. A friendly dispute exists as to which made the boost to 9 cents, both Empire Oil and Refining company and Transcontinental Oil company, claiming the honor.

On the basis of the half-cent spread, this would make the 60-62, 400 endpoint, material at 9½ cents, with 64-66, 390 endpoint at 9¾ and 64-66, 375 endpoint, at 10 cents. Some are inclined to think these spot prices a trifle high, considering the demand.

Natural gasolines are soft, with the A and AA grades at 7 to 7¼ cents; the B and BB grades at 6¾ to 6¾ cents and the C at 6½ cents.

Burning oils are slow, but an attempt is made to pep them up. The 41-43 kerosene is now quoted at 5¾ to 6 cents, being a fourth of a cent boost. Fuel oils are slow.

Oklahoma City Gasser Has Highest Pressure

Special to The Record News

TULSA, Okla., May 24.—Cromwell-Franklin Oil company No. 1 Trosper Park, in the center of the southeast of the northwest of 13-11-3w, in the Oklahoma City field, which came in late Wednesday evening for 40,000,000 cubic feet of gas at the total depth of 5,409 feet, has a rock pressure of 2,000 pounds, which is probably the highest pressure found in Oklahoma. The gas will be killed and the well drilled deeper.

The Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas company No. 1 Fortson, in the center of the southwest of the northeast of 24-11-3w, is running a core barrel to 6,226 feet in lime where a showing of oil was encountered. The casing will probably be set on top of the lime at 6,183 feet unless a break in the lime is encountered.

The discovery well, the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company and the Foster Petroleum company No. 1 Oklahoma City, in the center of the southeast of the southeast of 24-11-3w, produced 2,716 barrels of oil and 495 barrels of water.

Oil Price Advance Is Felt at Midland

Special to The Record News.

MIDLAND, Texas, May 24.—Increase in crude price has already been felt in Midland. Hotels are running more crowded than for several months, and many new men have come here, either on oil business directly, or in anticipation of the expected expansion of the city of Midland. Leasing activity has shown a definite increase in Midland, Andrews, Ward and Glasscock counties. A definite air of increasing prosperity pervades oil circles here.

SIX DROWN IN STORM

KARACHI, India, May 24. (AP)—Six persons were drowned today when a sudden squall overturned a fleet of boats on the Indus above Hyderabad. Five other persons were swept down stream and were believed to have been drowned also.

TAP GULF STREAM

United Producers company and Guy Brown No. 2 W. H. Taylor, located in the southeast corner of block 10, section 17, A. T. N. C. L. survey, Archer county, is drilling deeper after bailing salt water from the sand at 1491-96 feet. The well is southeast of the discovery well and will make an effort to pick up the Texhoma-Gose sand to the south which is about 1700 feet.

SHAW OIL COMPANY

The Shaw Oil company No. 1 Box Brothers, located in the northern portion of the I. Hughson survey about two and a half miles northwest of the town of Bryson in Jack county, is running casing to the sand topped at 3072 feet which is showing both oil and gas. The well is also located about 600 feet southeast of the Panhandle Refining company's No. A-1 J. M. Dougherty producer in the same survey.

WAGGONER LOCATION

V. Grisham and Bradstreet company will put down their joint test, No. 1 W. T. Waggoner, 2391 feet south and 1883 feet west of the northeast corner of section 37, block 4, H. & T. C. R. R. survey in Wilbarger county.

CONTINENTAL OIL

The Continental Oil company is swabbing the sand at 1145-51 feet in its No. B-2 J. T. Richardson test, located in block 10, Thomas McCoy survey in the Carey pool, south Archer county and it is showing for about 75 barrels.

VENMEX PRODUCER

The Venmex Oil company has just completed its No. 19 Waggoner Brothers well on section 2, G. C. & S. F. Survey, southwest Wichita county, making 75 barrels from the sand at 1470 to 1480 feet. The completion of this well at this depth is the means of adding another pay to the lease, the well having failed to pick up the 1375 foot horizon from which the other wells on the lease receive their production.

PANDEM-BURCH

The Pandem Oil company is making preparations to place a shot in the sand at 4235 feet in its No. 1 Burch wildcat located in section 447, T. E. L. survey, northwest of Graham in south Young county. The sand, which was topped several days ago, was drilled two feet and began flowing by heads and showing considerable oil. A few feet more of sand will be taken and then the nitro applied.

JOHN O'NEIL DUSTER

John O'Neil and associates No. 1 Parker-Colbert located in the south half of section 6, block 3, H. & T. C. R. R. survey, southwest of Rock Crossing six miles in Wilbarger county was finished as a dry hole at a total depth of 2601 feet.

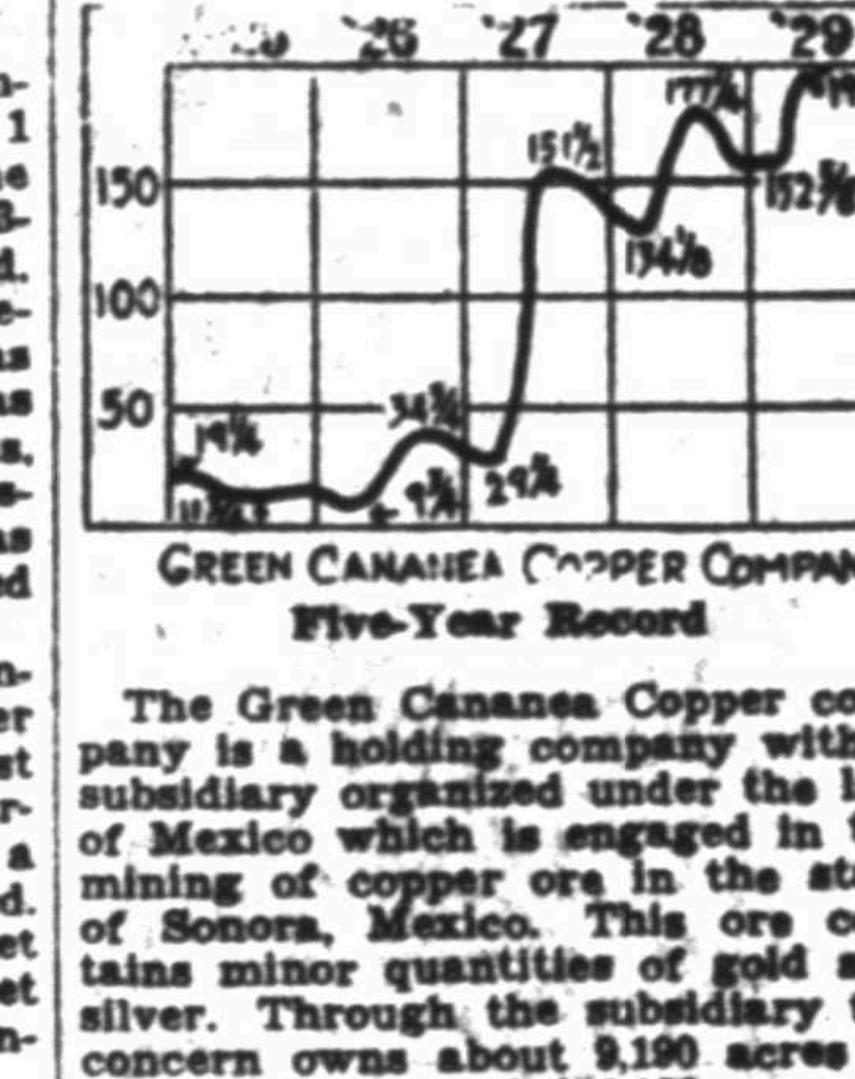

W. E. MAXSON JR. TEST

W. E. Maxson Jr. and others lost the casing seat while bailing a sand at 1087 feet in their No. 1 F. C. Green test, located 450 feet north and 2025 feet east of the southwest corner of J. Levins survey, abstract 259, south Archer county.

Former Orient Head Goes to Michigan

E. G. Guy, who has been superintendent of the Orient Petroleum company at Wichita for eight years, is building a 3,000 barrel refinery for a company located at Muskegon, Mich.

Mrs. Guy, with her two sons, Bob and Joe, will leave Saturday morning to drive through to Muskegon, where they will make their future home.

GREEN CANANEA COPPER COMPANY
Five-Year Record

The Green Cananea Copper company is a holding company with a subsidiary organized under the law of Mexico which is engaged in the mining of copper ore in the state of Sonora, Mexico. This ore contains minor quantities of gold and silver. Through the subsidiary the concern owns about 9,190 acres of mineral lands and 322,123 acres of non mineral lands. The most important mines of the company are the Elisa, Colorado, Capote, Oversight and Veta Grande. These contain large quantities of ore which can be sent direct to smelters and also a huge tonnage of contrating ore. The corporation operates a smelter of 4,000 tons daily capacity and a concentrating plant of 1,600 tons daily capacity and has an electric power plant capable of generating 7,400 kilowatts. In 1927, copper output was 28,738,618 pounds.

In 1925, 1926, 1927 earnings were fairly stable, running $580,953 in 1927, $584,458 in 1926 and $589,952 in 1925. The increase in the price of copper and the new ore bodies discovered together with increased production undoubtedly contributed to an increase of earnings in 1928. The Mexican revolt has been a disturbing element in 1929.

There is no funded debt. Capital stock outstanding consists of $50,000,000 in shares of $100 par value. No regular rate of dividends is reported but a payment of $1.50 a share was made Jan. 7, 1929. In 1928 $2 a share was paid.

As of Jan. 1, 1928, total current assets were $4,318,091. Current liabilities totaled $224,079 and net working capital was $4,094,012. Book value applicable to the capital stock amounted to $112.08 a share.

Waste in Nocona Field To Be Investigated

AUSTIN, May 24. (AP)—The railroad commission will conduct a hearing on the matter of alleged unnecessary and excessive waste of natural gas in the Nocona field in Montague county, at a meeting in Wichita Falls on June 13, Chairman Clarence E. Gilmore announced today.

Wickett Pipeline Nears Completion

Special to The Record News.

MIDLAND, Texas, May 24.—Ward county crude oil will be running by pipe line to Wickett within three weeks, according to Reuben Payne, manager of the line. A four inch pipe running from the Shipley pool in section 17, block 5, Ward county is now under construction to the Wickett Refining company, a distance of 17 miles.

L. C. Harrison, independent oil operator of Midland, bought 95 per cent of the stock in the J. H. L. Oil Co., owners of leases and two producing wells of the Shipley pool. The Shipley company also has its home office at Midland.

W. P. Hassett of Tulsa has the contract to connect this production with the Wickett refinery by the new pipe line, and J. A. Finlayson, Midland tank builder, is now erecting three 10,000 barrels storage tanks at the wells. The J. H. L. company now has 15,000 barrels in storage.

Gulf Coast's Total Yield Is 704 Millions

HOUSTON, May 24. (UP)—Since the discovery of oil in the gulf coast area, more than a quarter of a century ago, this section, which includes the fields of Southern Louisiana, to date has yielded an estimated 704,000,000 barrels of crude.

Spindletop from the date of its discovery has produced 104,200,000 barrels of the total of 704,000,000, approximately one-seventh of the entire output.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, May 24. (AP)—Early cotton declines on a favorable view of immediate weather conditions in the south were followed by rallies today, but after showing net advances of about 7 to 11 points, prices eased off under renewed releasing or liquidation. July contracts, which had sold up from 18.59 to 18.73, broke to 18.45 in late trading and closed at 19.56, compared with 18.65 at the close of the previous day. The general market closed steady at net declines of 6 to 21 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 2 to 10 points under liquidation which seemed to be combined with some local and southern selling on the reports of generally better weather in the south.

Due to the holiday there were no cables from Liverpool to influence sentiment here either way. The Liverpool market will reopen for business on Monday morning.

Exports today were 14,623 bales, making 7,610,025 so far this season. Port receipts 6,324. U. S. port stocks 1,140,017.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, May 24. (AP)—Elimination of covering support after the May option expired in New York caused cotton to decline in later trading here today after an early gain of about 50 cents a bale. There was renewed covering in late trading, however, and final prices showed only a moderate net loss. July after advancing to 18.71, reacted to 18.45 but rallied and closed at 18.57, or 6 points net lower. The general market closed steady 3 points up to 10 net down.

In the absence of Liverpool cables the market practically was without incentive at the start.

Belated covering on May contracts aided the rally but when this support was removed as a result of the expiration of the option in the Northern market, prices began to sag and the decline gained momentum as the session progressed due to liquidation by tired longs and some ring selling on the theory that the Texas rains would prove beneficial to the crop.

Under pressure of these offerings July sold down to 18.45 and active months generally to levels 26 to 29 points under the top but in final trading there was renewed covering and 12 points of this loss was recovered. October closed at 18.39 and December 18.49, or 7 to 10 points net down. The covering in May held that month comparatively steady. It closed at 18.85, for a net gain of 3 points.

CHICAGO COTTON

CHICAGO, May 24. (AP)—The cotton market opened a little slower on private report of favorable weather over the central and eastern part of the belt. Some strength developed in late morning trading and a net gain of around 10 points was once shown. However, prices eased in the afternoon and closed 7 to 14 points net lower.

Strength in Stocks Due to Reserve Rate Assurances Fails to Last

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, May 24 (US)—Stocks failed today to maintain the improvement in prices which commenced during Thursday's session when retention of the five per cent reserve rate was assured for at least another week. After a brief show of strength during the morning, with various issues attaining new highs for the recovery, the entire list was subjected to additional pressure as semi-official announcement was made that the Chicago reserve bank had once more applied to the federal reserve board for permission to advance its rate to 6 per cent.

Several times recently the Chicago bank has sought the higher rate, each request being refused by the board. However, quite aside from the Chicago development the list displayed signs of weakening after the rapid recovery of the previous day. Money was in great supply at 6 per cent, but this was recognized as an intermediate ease.

While the leaders were selling off, several specialties reflected strong buying and among these Universal Leaf Tobacco was a feature, rising three points for the day. The company is the largest in the world engaged in buying, rehandling, grading, redrying and preparation of leaf tobacco, not only for its own account but also for other companies. Its activities are world-wide and with recent adjustment or its organization the company is declared to be in much better position than at any time in its history to handle the increasing business it is enjoying.

There are only 105,528 shares of common stock outstanding, on which earnings in the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1928, equalled over $7 a share. Current income is said to be at a higher rate. This encourages expectation of an increase in the dividend, which the company is well prepared to do in view of its strong working capital position, with net current assets about six times current liabilities.

Chrysler was the outstanding performer most of the day, advancing almost five points before the reaction set in. The greatest activity the stock has seen in many weeks was attributed to resumption of activities by people close to its affairs, coupled with the report of improved conditions. The general list of motor shares, however, turned dull and lower, General Motors sinking to within a point of its year's low. Radio likewise reacted after a show of strength. Columbia Graphophone, which was handled by a leading exchange member who attempted to capitalize revived rumors of a deal with Radio, was hammered down almost seven points from its high when information was forthcoming such a deal has not been revived.

Shattuck was a comparatively firm feature, at one time advancing to within a few points of its record high. The support which comes into this stock whenever the general market turns downward is attributed to the powerful banking interests, including the First National bank, sponsoring the company. It is evident that very little of this stock is available in the market, most of it being locked up for long-term investment. The company is entering a new expansion era which is expected to result in market increase in profits.

Railroad stocks presented a strong appearance, with Atchison furnishing leadership by an advance of over five points to a new top for the year. Pere Marquette likewise enjoyed a sharp gain as the Van Sweringens consummated their control of the road.

While the railroad stocks as a group have failed to attract unusual speculative notice as yet, it is evident that there has been considerable switching from highly speculative industrials into some of the highest-grade rails.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Mass., May 24. (AP)—Increased quantities of the worsted wools are arriving and manufacturers have manifest some interest. Sales in moderate quantity have been made in original bag Mexican and California wools. The new Mexican wools have sold at about 90 to 93 cents, scoured basis, and California brought 91 to 93 cents.

Grain

TEXAS CASH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, May 24. (AP)—Fair to good demand was reported for all grains except oats on the cash market here today. Values slightly lower except on sorghums, which were one cent higher.

Wheat—1½c lower in sympathy with contract values. Mills quoted as follows: Basis delivered T. C. P., No. 1 ordinary hard milling at $1.08½@1.09½; 13 per cent protein $1.09½@1.10½; 14 per cent $1.14½@1.15½; 15 per cent $1.18½@1.19½; No. 1 soft red mixed delivered gulf about $1.09.

Corn—1½c lower; No. 2 mixed delivered T. C. P., 95@96c; No. 2 white $1.00@1.01; No. 2 yellow $1.03@1.04.

Oats—½c lower, demand slow. No. 3 white delivered group one, 54½@55c; group three one cent more; No. 2 red delivered T. C. P., 55@56c.

Sorghums—Demand good; one cent higher; No. 2 milo per hundred pounds delivered T. C. P., $1.41@1.42; No. 2 kafir $1.30@1.31.

Sorghum Heads—Unchanged.

Cane Seed—Nominal; bulk country run red top per 100 pounds delivered T. C. P., $2.10@2.25.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 24. (AP)—Suddenly letting go of purchases, early buyers caused a decided setback in wheat prices today during late dealings. Word that Argentina was sharply underselling this country abroad had an unsettling effect as did reports of corn planting being rushed and of enlarged receipts of corn in prospect.

Final quotations on wheat were heavy, 1⅜c to 1½c net lower, with corn 1⅛c to 1½@1⅝c down oats ⅛c to 1c off, and provisions varying from 17 cents decline to a rise of 65 cents.

Adding to the late downward momentum of wheat values today was news from Washington that the senate and house farm relief conference committee again had failed to reach an accord relative to the export debenture strumbling block.

Owing to better weather prevailing in the corn belt, corn values gave way under selling pressure from owners and from speculators as well. Oats followed suit.

Provisions mainly reflected upturns in the value of hogs.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW

NEW YORK, May 24. (AP)—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:

Further evidence of monetary tension, with its decisive effect upon speculative operations, has eclipsed all other events of the week. Action apparently foreshadowing increased rediscount rates, and expectations of a rise at New York, precipitated a severe decline on the stock market, with liquidation of margined accounts intesifying the unsettlement. A natural recovery succeeded the period of rapidly falling prices, but the preceding losses were only partially regained. As usually happens during a time of financial disturbance, strictly commercial movements were largely disregarded, yet in the present case various constructive phases are readily discernible. Conditions in certain of the major industries retain unusual strength, with the buoyancy of the steel trade altogether without parallel for this season, and the weather had remained the chief obstacle to a full growth of retail distribution. Even with that continuing handicap, the railroads are transporting goods in a volume not heretofore equalled in May.

Weekly bank clearings $11,542,573,000, a decrease of 2.6 per cent from last year.

Film Actress Charged With Income Tax Fraud

LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 24. (INS)—Charged with fraud by the government, in connection with the filing of her income tax, Eleanor Boardman, film actress, today asserted she had left the filing of her tax to an expert and was unaware of the fraud alleged by the government. Her husband, King Vidor, also faces a similar charge.

A beetle is said to be able to dispense with food for three years.

TRUCK CROPS SUPPLY TRADE

Home Grown Vegetables Plentiful Here

Home grown vegetables are now supplying practically the entire local demand, replacing the shipments from South Texas upon which this community depends principally during the early part of the year, according to local dealers.

Having abandoned for this year the plan for establishing a retail public market, local growers are selling their produce on a wholesale basis, delivering both to retail merchants and to the various wholesale houses here, it was said.

Beets, onions, carrots, turnips, radishes, lettuce, and spinach have comprised the major portion of the crop thus far. Peas and string beans will be ready for the market within a short time, and large numbers of cantaloupe and watermelons from this community also have been promised.

The first watermelons of the season are now being offered from South Texas shipments, selling to retailers at 6 and 6½ cents per pound.

Auxiliary Meets

The auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met at the church Monday afternoon with the president, Mrs. I. C. Johns, in charge. The meeting was opened with prayer, followed by a song. In the business sessions plans were made for the auxiliary to disband until the first Monday in September, but the Missionary society will continue to meet the first Monday in each month. Following the business session the members worked on the quilt. Those present were Mesdames I. C. Johns, L. D. Grafton, Allie Smith, S. Y. Thomas, J. V. Harrison, Elizabeth Allen, E. R. Keller, H. C. Barrer, John Wolf and H. A. Bissell.

Birthday Party

Mrs. R. L. Watson entertained at her home on North Electra street with a birthday party in honor of her two daughters, Lula Star, age 4, and Zana Francis, age 2. Games and contests were played with Adren Dean Perry and Harrold Dean Bentley winning prizes. Favors of red and Orange caps were distributed to the children. Many nice gifts were received by the honorees. Mrs. Watson was assisted in serving by Mesdames W. F. Brown and A. B. Myers. Those present were Mary Frances Bell, Adrin Dean Perry, Harrold Dean Bentley, Lamon Blain Jr., Arthur Brown Jr., James Adams, Wayne Myers and Marie Elizabeth Bell; Mesdames C. M. Perry S. B. Bell and F. N. Adams.

Farewell Party

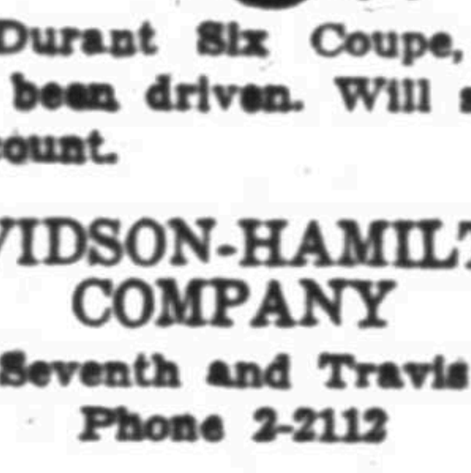

The Jubilee auxiliary of the Missionary society of the Methodist church was entertained Friday night at the home of W. H. Morris on North Waggoner street. The party was in honor of Thelma and Blanton Bagwell, members of the auxiliary, who are leaving Electra for Memphis early in June. Games and contests were enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served to the 25 guests.

In Europe there are more than 195,000,000 members of the Roman Catholic church.

The people of the United States spend approximately $50,000,000 a day for food.

Oklahoma Boys Win Dairy Prizes

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., May 24.—Jackson county boys have returned home after winning a group of prizes at the state dairy show at Duncan.

Orville Southward of Headrick and Errol Hunter of Warren have been named as members of the highest 10 individuals scoring in the dairy judging contest and were included in the state dairy team.

Southward scored seventh and Hunter ninth in the group. Buford Williams of Ozark Valley, the third member of the county team, scored twelfth out of 57 contestants.

The county team won second place in the team dairy judging contests with 19 teams entered.

Jackson county placed first in the teams judging of Holstein cattle, fifth for Guernsey cattle, and seventh for Jersey judging. Southward was ranked highest in the individual judging of Holsteins.

In the novice judging class Floyd Riley of Ozark Valley placed second.

Altus Cotton Ginners Begin Repairing Plants

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., May 24.—Repair work preparatory to the opening of the cotton ginning season Sept. 1 is now underway in practically all of the Altus gin companies.

These repairs range from general overhauling of all the machinery to installation of new equipment and minor painting work.

Each of the nine gins in Altus will be thoroughly overhauled and ready for the opening of the cotton season.

Turkey has a flour shortage. Europe fears a plague of wasps.

Warren to Friendship Road Being Graveled

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., May 24.—Work has been started on graveling the eight mile stretch of county highway from Warren to Friendship.

Completion of this work will take about 30 days. When this piece of highway is finished approximately 30 miles of graveled highways will be available for travel in Jackson county.

SUMMER TERM OPENS MONDAY

Many Students Expected To Attend Schools

Summer schools for elementary and high school pupils will be opened Monday morning, May 27, at the Alamo and Junior college buildings, respectively, according to information given Friday by those in charge.

Opportunity for making up grades or courses which the pupil failed to pass during the last semester, and for obtaining advance credits toward graduation, will be offered in both summer schools, it was announced. In the elementary grades, however, pupils will be allowed to do special work for advance credit only with the approval of the principals of their home schools, and will be promoted at the conclusion of the summer term only upon recommendation of those principals, according to J. E. Park, principal of the Alamo school, who will have charge of the elementary summer work.

Based upon an unusual manifestation of interest in the summer school, that at the Alamo building is expected to have more than 100 pupils registered, Mr. Park said. Registration will take place at 8 a. m. Monday, and the school will be held from 8 a. m. to 12 o'clock every day except Sunday for six weeks. Besides Mr. Park, the faculty at the Alamo school will be composed of Misses Florence Cullin, Lalah Norman, Lois Woodward, and Ina Cooksie. The tuition for the elementary summer course is $10.

A. K. Presson, registrar of Wichita Falls Junior college, will be in charge of the summer school for high school students. An attendance of approximately 400 is expected, he said. The enrollment last summer was 365. Registration will begin Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Classes will be held from 7:45 a. m. to 12:45 p. m. each week day for nine weeks, it was announced. The following teachers will make up the faculty: B. T. Adams, mathematics; Ted W. Brumbalow, history; Miss Eilene Collins, English; Miss Madge Davis, English; A. F. Edwards, history; Miss Orville Headrick, English; R. O. Jonas, education; Miss Jane McCullough, Spanish; Miss Lena McKee, biology; Joe B. McNeil, history; W. A. Mangum, education; W. J. Webb, mathematics; and Miss Lona Brown, Latin. The tuition for the high school summer term is as follows: one course, $10; two courses, $15; three courses, $17.50.

Rain Halts Work On Water Canal Here

Rain had temporarily stopped work on relining of about 1,100 feet of the irrigation canal between here and Iowa Park Friday. As soon as weather permits, however, the work will be resumed, G. A. Remington, manager of water improvement district Nos. 1 and 2, said. The canal is being relined with reinforced concrete to prevent seepage.

Bids Open on Henrietta Water Works Extension

HENRIETTA, May 24.—Sealed bids will be received by the city of Henrietta, until 1 o'clock Thursday, June 6, for the purchase of material and digging ditches for the construction of water works extension.

The following material will be purchased: 5,700 feet four-inch cast iron pipe, 15 four-inch cast iron tees, three cutting-in tees, eight four-inch gate valves, eight four-inch fire hydrants, 5,700 three foot ditch.

Bids will be received separately or together on the materials.

A certified check for 10 per cent of the bid must accompany the bid.

School Lawn Golf Brings Four to Court

Police Chief Frank Burns Friday morning was called on to impress four high school youths with the fact that W. W. Brown, secretary of the city school board, has the right to keep the high school lawn from becoming a golf course.

The youths were batting balls hither and yon over the long green, endangering a few score of windows, Mr. Brown reported. When he advised against the game, he said the boys defied his authority and started to tee up again.

Officers brought the boys to Chief Burns' private office. Chief Burns said he gave them a "fatherly lecture," explaining the rights and duties of school authorities.

ANNUAL POPPY SALE TODAY

Legion Auxiliary to Offer Flowers for Vets

Approximately 30 members of the Wichita Falls American Legion auxiliary will stage the annual poppy sale of that organization in the business district of the city beginning at 8 o'clock Saturday morning with the intention of completing the sale by 10 o'clock, according to Mrs. H. J. Weiler, president.

The local auxiliary has a fixed number of the flowers to sell, one-half of the proceeds reverting to the local relief fund, and the remainder going to the state organization. The funds used locally are applied to the relief of world war veterans and their dependents. Of the portion sent to the state organization, two-thirds is devoted to rehabilitation by the American Legion, and the remainder is used to pay expenses of that organization's field workers.

The poppies that are to be sold have been made by ex-soldiers in the various government hospitals. The flower was adopted as the medium of obtaining funds for needy veterans and their families in commemoration of the profusion of poppies which marked the military burying grounds in Europe, and which inspired the well-known poem, "In Flanders' Fields."

Water District No. 2 To Select Tax Board

The board of directors of water improvement district No. 2 is expected to meet Saturday to elect a tax board of equalization for that district, G. A. Remington, manager of both districts Nos. 1 and 2, said Friday.

The directors include C. H. Clark, president; W. R. Davis, vice president; J. D. Overby, secretary; D. E. Hooks and W. L. Hodges.

The tax board for district No. 1 has already been named, as follows: G. D. Anderson, M. J. Gardner, and M. B. Walker. The board of directors for this district includes J. A. Kemp, president; J. S. Bridwell, vice president; N. H. Martin, secretary; J. M. McFall, and J. M. Baber.

The tax board for district No. 1 probably will begin its session the first Monday in June, Mr. Remington said. Dates for the meeting of the board for district No. 2 will be set after the board is named.

The people of Iceland have unusually long lives, the average age being 61.

TOUGH JAIL

Boy of 14 Uses Bed Post To Bend Bars Of City Bastile

Police late Friday had found no trace of a youth, about 14, who had fled the city jail Thursday night with the aid of a bed post.

He had used the hollow instrument to bend the bars in the window, Chief of Police Frank Burns said.

The youth was being held in connection with the alleged burglary of a filling station on the Charlie road several nights ago. Jack Turner, 18, said to have been the youth's companion, was charged with burglary in a complaint filed Friday by Mike Anglin, assistant district attorney.
