CITIZEN HERE 54 YEARS

Mrs. E.A. Barcroft Town Pioneer Dies

Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, 96-year-old pioneer citizen of Colorado City, died after a long illness Sunday morning in Root Memorial Hospital here.

She had lived in Colorado City for 54 years, first moving to town with her husband, the late E. A. Barcroft, in 1909 from Comanche. For three years Mr. and Mrs. Barcroft operated the old St. James Hotel here at Walnut and 2nd Sts., on the downtown site now occupied by the Barber Building.

After the St. James burned down in a spectacular night fire, with Mrs. Barcroft rescued from an upper story by firemen's ladder, the Barcrofts erected the Barcroft Hotel (now the Berman Hotel) which they owned and operated for many years. Mr. Barcroft died in 1928.

Mrs. Barcroft was born in Pierce City, Mo., April 11, 1867, and was married in Ireland in 1887.

She had been a member of First Methodist Church here for the past 52 years and was an honorary member of the Board of Stewards.

For a 14 year-period after its organization she served as president of the Mitchell County Pioneer Association and her interest in keeping alive the early-day colorful history of Colorado City is credited with the growth of the annual Pioneer Reunion celebration for this town and county.

Partially inactive during her later years, Mrs. Barcroft's last public appearance was Oct.

10 as an honor guest at the 1961 Old-Timer Reunion in Colorado City.

Funeral for Mrs. Barcroft was at 10 o'clock Monday morning in First Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. Daris Egger, officiating. Burial followed in Colorado City under direction of Kiker & son Funeral Home.

Honorary pallbearers were the Methodist Board of Stewards and Joe Earnest, W. L. Doss, Otto Jones, Ford Merritt, W. W. Whipple, Dale Warren, Leon Yeager, Jesse Pidgeon, and Jim Green of Big Spring.

Active pallbearers were J. Ralph Lee, W. C. Hooks, Brady Warren, Elmer Martin and Bruce Byrne.

Mrs. Barcroft is survived by one niece, Mrs. Oscar H. Majors of Colorado City and a nephew, Roscoe Low of Houston.

C. F. Spikes Last Rites Wednesday

Claude Fields Spikes, 70, died at his home in Loraine Monday about 6 p. m., apparently of a heart attack.

Friends found Spikes' body in a sitting position on his front porch shortly after he finished mowing his lawn.

Born in Willis Point August 1, 1893, he was married there to the former Miss Iva Jane Castleberry May 26, 1912. The couple moved to Loraine in 1928. Mr. Spikes operated a feed and seed store and a trucking company until his retirement. After his wife died Sept. 15, 1961.

Final rites for Mr. Spikes were said Wednesday at 10:30 in First Methodist Church of Loraine with the pastor, Rev. Frank Story in charge. Burial was in the Loraine cemetery.

Voters To Decide Poll Tax Saturday

Only 6 absentee ballots were cast by Mitchell Countians for the election coming up Saturday, County Clerk Gilbert Leach said today.

Saturday is decision date for 4 proposals which seek constitutional amendments ranging from repeal pool tax payment provision in Texas to money for the Veterans Land Fund.

Boxes will be in 9 locations for Mitchell County voters.

After Jan. 1, one additional box will be added in Colorado City for voters transferred by the recent redistricting of county precincts.

Saturday, voting boxes will be at the Courthouse and Legion Hut here in Colorado City; at Spade, voters will cast their ballots in community building; Buford-Methodist cabin; Loraine-Lions building; Westbrook-school; Cuthbert-store; Landers-Willis Cornutt's residence; Carr-school building.

Election Judges are R. B. Baker, Oren Trulock, Gus Cheney and Jess Carddock Sr. for the courthouse box; Luther Anders and Frank Crownover for Loraine box; Hulet Williams, Legonhutt, Robert Bollen, Buford, T. T. Smith, Westbrook, A. L. Young, Cuthbert, Mrs. J. C. Womack; Landers, Cornutt; Carr, Keith Williamson.

Ray Noble was election for absentee ballots.

Polls will be open throughout Mitchell County from 8 a. m. Saturday until 7 p. m. while citizens approve — or reject the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Proposition number 1, for amending the Constitution so as to repeal the poll tax provision, has drawn the most public discussion, both here and over the entire state.

Voters of Texas, whether for or against that number 1 proposal on the ballot, must have 1963 poll tax receipts (or exemptions) in order to have a voice in the outcome.

A total of 1,882 citizens in Mitchell County paid poll tax or received exemptions as first-time voters at the age of 21. Another several hundred citizens are expected to vote on exemptions for all Texas voters 60 or over.

Proposition 2, if passed, will authorize the State Legislature to make appropriations out of state funds (not to exceed $60,000,000, sixty million dollars per year) to provide assistance to the needy age, needy individuals who are

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

Weekend Whacks Land Men in Jail

Weekend in Colorado City landed two men in jail on separate charges of aggravated assault.

Jimmy Harold Smith was handed 45 days in jail and $150 fine plus court costs after he plead guilty in County Court, before Judge Elmer Martin, to a charge of aggravated assault.

Smith admitted hitting his wife over the head with a nine-foot board during a family fight Saturday night. His wife went to the Hospital for treatment of head gashes, and Smith went to jail for repentance. He was arrested Saturday night.

Two Youths To Appear At Hearing

Hearing in Mitchell County Juvenile Court has been set by Judge Elmer Martin for Saturday morning in the case of two youths, both under 17, arrested here Halloween night.

The two were stopped near the scene of tire-slashing mischief late Thursday night. Cars of Mrs. Jean Roberts, 1473 Oak St. and of Mrs. Harold Long of 104 East 12th St. were vandalized by tire-slashers and "paint jobs" some time Thursday night.

Chief of Police Leon Yeager and officers from the sheriff's office questioned the pair of youths about the vandalism incident.

Last Home Game For Wolves Friday

Tomorrow night at 7:30 in Wolf stadium Colorado Wolves play their last home game for this season.

Wolves face the team from Lakeview High School, San Angelo, in a conference tilt.

Friday night of next week Colorado City plays Snyder, there. Last game of the season will be against Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes Friday Nov. 22 at 7:30 p. m. in Lamesa.

CHRISTMAS CAMPAIGN

TB Seals Are Ready For Mailing Nov. 15.

November 15 is the date all Mitchell County citizens will be mailed their TB Christmas seals for this 1963 season.

Mrs. C. P. Gary, executive secretary, and a group of volunteer workers have been busy for a number of days bringing mailing lists up to date, addressing envelopes and making preparations for the Christmas seal campaign.

Mrs. Porter Richardson and Miss Charla Warren have served the Mitchell County Tuberculosis Association office as volunteer typists.

Mrs. Irene Robertson, Mrs. Luke Long, Mrs. Bruce Johnson of Loraine and Mrs. A. J. Hooks, president of the county association, have also contributed time as volunteer helpers with advance chores necessary to the campaign.

Courthouse Christmas tree will again be a feature of the drive. For each individual gift of $5 to the TB seals sale campaign one Christmas light is placed on the county tree.

A program and lighting ceremony will be held the night those shining lights are first turned on for viewing by the citizens, according to Mrs. Gary. Plans for the program of Christmas music and other features will be announced at a later date.

Money from the TB yearly Christmas seal drive goes to help stamp out tuberculosis and all other types of respiratory diseases with early diagnosis, research, modern medical treatment, rehabilitation, health education and case finding by patch test.

Christmas seal sales here in 1962 totaled $1542.75. Goal for last year was $1,500.

This year's goal has been set up at $1,700.

Farm Labor bulletin from the Texas Employment Commission Cotton Control office in Austin this week lists Mitchell County's cotton crop condition as "fair."

As of Nov. 1, the detailed report showed, Mitchell County cotton was 85 percent open, 48 percent harvested.

Figure of chief interest was the number of bales predicted as "estimated production" giving 28,000 bales as a prospective total.

Car-Truck Collision East Highway 80 Today Also Injures Two Men

Mrs. Beryl Abbott White of 3213 West Kansas St., Midland, met instant death just before noon today in a car-truck crash on Highway 80, east of Loraine.

Mrs. White, 63, driving her car, was traveling alone when the tragedy happened.

Two occupants on the truck which was in collision with Mrs. White's auto were injured. Both are under treatment at Johnson Hospital in Loraine, where attending physician Dr. Bruce Johnson was making x-ray studies to determine extent of their injuries. Dr. Johnson told the Record, however, that he did not from preliminary examinations believe either man to be critically hurt.

Driver of the truck, owned by the Curtis-Mathis Television Company of Athens, was Ronald Owen of route 2, Athens. Riding in the 24-hour truck with him as relief driver, was Thomas Allen Bishop of Athens. Texas Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger, investigated the crash.

A Kiker & Son ambulance, rushed to the scene, took Owen and Bishop to the hospital in Loraine. The body of Mrs. White was brought to Kiker Funeral Home here pending notification of her family and relatives.

Patrolman Hertenberger told the Colorado City Record at 3 p. m. today that Mrs. White was driving a 1962 Pontiac, headed west, apparently enroute to Midland via Highway 80.

Her automobile left the highway, running off the road to her right, struck a highway post. Mrs. White lost control of the vehicle as it crossed the median line. The White car was in the process of turning over when it struck the 1963 Chevrolet truck and semi-trailer, Hertenberger said.

The Highway Patrolman also reported that injuries of the truck passenger, Bishop, who is 19, were of a minor nature including bruises and abrasions.

Driver of the truck, Owen, who is 29, received a broken shoulder in the crash. Hertenberger said x-rays at Johnson Hospital revealed shortly after noon today.

Attempts of Midland Police to locate the dead woman's husband were still being made at mid-afternoon. Hertenberger said that Mr. White is reported to be on a business trip in Mexico.

Volunteer Workers Ready TB Seals

Now is the hour for behind-scenes work of volunteers who are readying the annual Christmas seal campaign of the Mitchell County Tuberculosis Association. Pictured, standing at left, is Mrs. A. J. Hooks, president of the county association, who has put in many hours of volunteer service to the sales campaign. Seated at the typewriter in the TB association office here is Miss Charla Warren. She is one of the volunteer typists who addressed envelopes to be mailed Nov. 15 seals for citizens throughout the county.

Organ Concert Sunday Eve

Late afternoon organ concert by Phelan Dorn of McAllen will be presented in First Methodist Church sanctuary at 5:30 p. m. Sunday.

Dorn, well-known to music lovers of Mitchell County, has been organist of First Baptist Church in McAllen for the past 17 years. In addition to his church music, he is engaged in the wholesale flower business in Mission and has interests in the citrus fruits business there.

Hosts of the Sabbath Day concert, First Methodist Church congregation, invite all town and citizens to attend the program of organ music to be played by Mr. Dorn.

His program includes several improvisations by Dorn himself — "A Pastoral Theme," two hymns in "Free Organ" and an air inspired by Mozart.

Other numbers will be music by Weinberger, Purvis, Tomblie, Bach, Handel, Nevin, and the traditional Londenberry air.

Local Teachers to Attend Regional Meet in Snyder

Beta Epsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma of Colorado City will be represented at the regional convention to be held in Snyder on Saturday.

Attending from the local chapter will be president Mrs. Lynn Holbert and Mrs. M. J. Dawson, Austin McCloud, R. M. Reed, Jack Johnston, Newby Pratt, Orin Foster, L. D. Riddick, Gerald Gordon, and Miss Jane Merrill, all of Colorado City. Members from Lorraine planning to attend are Mrs. "Floyd" Coffee, Drew Giese, and Jim Johnson.

Among four women to be initiated into the society at the regional meeting are two from Colorado City. Mrs. Robert Aycock and Mrs. Bill Crag will become society members in ceremonies scheduled for 9:00 Saturday morning.

Following initiation and a morning coffee, meeting will be directed by Mrs. H. B. Lafferty, counselor at Bassett Junior High School in El Paso.

Mrs. Lafferty has been a society member since 1937, and has held offices on both local and state levels. At present she is chairman of the state professional affairs committee. Theme for the program is "Delta Kappa Gamma on the Move." Discussions will be presented on program, solved problems, scholarship opportunities, and personal growth and local chapter will take part in service. Mrs. Gordon of the discussion on solved problems.

Music for activities, singing, initiation and luncheon will be provided by a group from Abilene chapter.

Principal speaker for the convention will be Mrs. C. B. Lowrance of El Paso. She is currently serving as assistant professor in the department of education of Texas Western College.

A past-president of Kappa Chapter, El Paso, she has also been chairman of coordinating council of greater El Paso area of Delta Kappa Gamma. On state level, she is now serving as co-director of regional and co-chairman of the committee on program.

She is also a past president of the El Paso Branch of the Association for Childhood Education, past president of the Pilot Club and now serves as vice president of the El Paso Education Association.

Final session will be held following a noon luncheon.

1921 PROGRAM

Lives of Emerson, James, Club Topic

Modern American philosophy was the program for the recent meeting of the 1921 Study Club in the home of Mrs. Lee Lavender.

Mrs. Pete Almsworth was leader for the day. Roll call was answered with the name of a philosopher.

Mrs. M. J. Dawson told of the life of Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Mrs. Ed Jones reviewed the life of William James.

In speaking of Emerson, Mrs. Dawson called him an eminent American essayist.

lecturer and poet. The son of a Unitarian minister, he was educated at Harvard, receiving his degree in 1821. After several years as a first teacher and then a preacher, Emerson began his life as a philosopher, the speaker related.

He married twice. Following the death of his first wife who left him some property which paid him a yearly income, he was able to spend his time in reading, meditating, traveling, lecturing and writing. Mrs. Dawson told her audience.

The writer was a keen observer of public affairs, although he did not participate and did much to stimulate reforms. He believed that school children were the best ones to begin with in changing opinions and bringing about desired reforms, she said.

A gifted poet, Emerson's other writings show very little. If any, planning, members were told. Thoughts of even his best essays are strung together without much regard to the order in which they occur. She said in conclusion, "Emerson's sentences have done more to stimulate the thoughts of writers, clergymen and teachers than any other literary man of his century."

Mrs. Jones told of the philosophy of William James, which was, "If a person stands upon his feet to meet his troubles, he can overcome them with God's help; but if he cowers or runs from them, they will overcome him."

James believed that all people have reserve energy which many never use, she said. "His advice was to 'take advantage of this reserve energy to discover the capability for solving the most difficult problems. Stand upon your own feet and face whatever danger may confront you,'" Mrs. Jones said.

William James reached his philosophy of life through many years of ill health, trials and troubles which Mrs. Jones related to her audience. James was an invalid for the greater part of his life, and twice came to the brink of self-destruction, she said. His reading of Charles Renouvier's essays on free will proved to be his salvation, Mrs. Jones remarked.

Next meeting of the club will be Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Hostess will be Mrs. P. K. Mackey. Mrs. Sonnie Umerson will give the program on "Living With Art."

Mrs. W. C. Wood spent the weekend as guest in the Valley View home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dunn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen of China Grove were Snyder visitors recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Allen.

Mrs. Marcell Fester and Mrs. Willie Gogger of Dallas were Monday night guests.

Presbyterians Adopt Budget For Year

Budget for the coming year of the first Presbyterian Church was adopted by members of the Church at a family night gathering last week.

Families of the church met in Fellowship Hall for the business meeting and dinner.

Jimmy Maddox read the proposed budget. Deacons explained some changes which had been made in the budget, and answered questions of church members. The budget was approved as read.

Dinner was served cafeteria style. Tables were decorated with bowls of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Rev. Fred H. Brown, pastor spoke the opening and closing prayers.

Freddy Harrison Promoted to Sp-5

NEW CHEVELLE!

BY CHEVROLET

The kind of handling ease you'd expect in a smaller car. Come on down and drive it.

The kind of comfort you'd expect in a large interior. Come on down and sit in it.

Only a car that looks as good as this could come between Chevrolet and Chevy II. Come on down and stare at it.

Note Chevrolet Malibu Sport Coupe

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four lusty engines—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses!

And if that makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a roomy car here. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too.

Sound good? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price!

Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.

MRS. BILL HOLBERT

Van Cliburn Legend Told to 1949 Club

"The Van Cliburn Legend" was topic of the program for a recent meeting of the 1949 Study Club given by Mrs. Bill Holbert.

Mrs. Holbert told of Van Cliburn's rise from a relative unknown to world fame following his winning of the First Piano Prize of the Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow, Apr. 13, 1958. Although he was a polished and experienced performer long before his Russian trip, not one American in ten thousand had ever heard of him, she related.

Born Harvey Lavvan Cliburn, Jr. in Kilgore, he competed in the Levertitt Foundation, oldest and hardest international competition this side of the Atlantic, at the age of twenty. Mrs. Holbert stated. She told how Cliburn easily won the coveted prize, immediately engagements as solo pianist with orchestras in Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Denver, and New York, and played a program in Carnegie Hall, which was broadcast to TV audiences, coast to coast.

Mrs. Holbert told of the intensive training which preceded his trip to Moscow, six to ten hours of practice a day. On the night of the finals in Moscow, Ailene Morris was leader for the meeting in the home of Mrs. Art Dibble. Resignation of Mrs. Jimmy Kelley was accepted during business session.

Refreshments were served to Mes. Robert Barman, Bill Carter, Dick Gregory, Sharon Henderson, Holbert, Jack Jordan, Jr., Jerry Konecny, Morris, Tom Neff, Ben Sparks Joe Weaver, A. Paul Gilbert.

Van Cliburn was greeted with roars of applause as he stepped on stage, and was given a standing ovation by the audience and orchestra members after playing Tchaikovsky 1. The eight and one-half minute yelling, screaming ovation was the first of its kind in the 52 year history of the Moscow Conservatory, she said.

"Fifty years from now when the name Van Cliburn is spoken, will it signify the name of a great musician, or the name of a man, incidentally a musician, who was significant to the environment in which he moved? or in twenty-five years, will he have followed Albert Schweitzer's path to dedicate himself entirely for the service to mankind?" Mrs. Holbert said, in speaking of the future of this young man who already reached the pinnacle of professional success.

She concluded her talk by saying, "In ten years the Russians may not remember the name Van Cliburn, but they'll certainly remember it was an American who won the first Tchaikovsky Competition. We'll remember too, but only time will prove whether we'll remember it as a spectacular footnote to history or as a turning point in our cultural evolution."

"I was glad when they said unto me, LET US GO INTO THE HOUSE OF THE LORD"

"... in thy presence is fulness of joy ..."

Open up your heart, sing praises joyfully unto the Lord. The feeling of being and sharing with others in worship is at its highest in the Lord's house. Hear a message from God's dedicated servant. Know the satisfaction of praying to the Lord with others. Attend church regularly and ... "Praise the Lord: for the Lord is good: sing praises unto His name; for it is pleasant."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Does BLADDER IRRITATION MAKE YOU NERVOUS?

Bladder irritation affects twice as many women as men and may make you nervous and irritable. It is often caused by bacteria, but may also be due to a variety of other causes. Backache and frequent urination are common symptoms. In such cases, a doctor's advice is usually best. But, if you are sure you have bladder irritation, you may find relief by using CINTEX. CINTEX is a powerful, fast-acting, non-toxic, and safe. It is available in all drug stores.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance—Eso-Drysol—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Swim in our new temperature-controlled twin cascade pools... enjoy our patio and sun deck... dine on gourmet food... dance and be entertained... golf on our two 18-hole Championship courses. All sports and recreations in Hot Springs including plenty of exciting night life with big name entertainers in the nearby Supper Clubs.

Bathe away all your aches and pains due to tension and fatigue in the superb bathhouse right in the Arlington... relieve rheumatism, arthritis and high blood pressure. Try a new WHIRLPOOL BATH - adjusted action that better conditions the body to receive the maximum benefits of hand massage. It's optional - ask for it when you purchase your bath tickets.

Special Notices A-2

POSTED: W. L. Foster Estate Ranch located in Mitchell and Howard Counties. Trespassers will be prosecuted.

Special Notices A-2

We regret to announce that the excessive number of requests to hunt on the Ranch, Brook Ranch of late years have made it necessary to institute charges for the privilege. It should be noted that this is not an invitation to the public Mr. O. F. Jones, Foreman, will be at liberty to limit the number of permits to be issued for personal reasons or for reasons of safety or conservation. We shall expect all hunters to treat the property and premises with respect and conduct themselves in a sober and cautious manner. The fees for hunting permits shall be $15 per gun, or man, per day for deer and no guarantee of success. Bird shooting fees shall be $7.50 per gun, of man, per day and no guarantee. We repeat our regrets that there will be no hunting without charge even for our closest friends on account of the difficulty of drawing the line. The purpose of these charges is very honestly to reduce the hunting pressure which seems to us preferable to prohibiting hunting. Persons may seek permits at the Ranch Headquarters.

Any person found on the premises without a paid up permit shall be subject to prosecution under the trespass laws of the State of Texas.

Frank H. Chappell, Jr.
Managing Partner.

Card of Thanks A-3

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we say "thank you" to each of our friends and neighbors. We shall always remember every kind deed shown during the illness and loss of our beloved husband and brother. ## Fourth Win For Wildcats Score 93-39

Wallace Wildcats won again. Wallace of Colorado City slaughtered an outmatched Ballinger team to the tune of 93-39.

The game was played in the Wallace Gym Saturday night. Amazing Frank Biggers scored 45 points to lead the Wildcats in their top heavy win over the visitors. Biggers made shots from corner to corner and even 'donked' one to the joy of a good partisan crowd. The feat of the century mark was evident in the crowd until Coach Smith emptied his bench. Oscar Amos, another 6-2 boy from Wallace scored 18 points.

Wildcats made 24, 18, 21, and 30 points in the four quarters while Ballinger made 9, 9, 12, and 9. Ballinger had two boys to hit in double figures. They were E. Dotson with 14 points and F. Brown with 13 points. Wallace girls lost their second game of the season 13-16 to Ballinger. Trailing 1-5 in the first quarter, the Wallace girls went ahead and had a 9-7 halftime lead. The Wallace offense folded in the second half making one field goal each quarter. As a result they lost their lead and game to the Ballinger team. Principal (Coach) Fowler practiced his girls offensively and defensively in preparation for the out-of-town contests between Floydada and Sweetwater, Friday and Saturday.

Wallace schedule for the next two weeks follows:
Floydada Nov. 8 There
Sweetwater Nov. 9 There
Ballinger Nov. 15 There
Sweetwater Nov. 16 Here

FHA Officers Installed At High School

Officers of the Colorado City High School chapter of Future Homemakers of America were installed recently in ceremonies at the high school Home Making Department.

Installed were: Lynn Gray, president; Mary Glenda, vice president; Mary Jane Nobles, second vice president; Sandra Coffman, secretary; Mary Ann Lipp, treasurer; Pam Pratt, historian; Lee Ann Moore, parliamentarian; Myrna Foster, reporter; Lynda Bodine, student council representative; all wore dresses of white.

Martha Shepard was installing officer. FHA Crest was recited by Sandra Sweet and Kathy Anderson.

Installation table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of red roses, FHA flowers. Table also held nine silver keys, which were presented to the officers as they were installed. Refreshments were served from a table centered with an arrangement of fall flowers.

Sponsor of the local high school chapter is Mrs. Jay Craddock.

Ruth Coffey's

CONVERSATION
CORNER

NOT LONG ago authorities in some foreign city — think maybe it was Manchester, England — ordered a product's label changed.

It was the label on a product called "Boston Cream Pie." Explanation of the court order for change said "It is not made in Boston, is not a pie and is not made of cream so is therefore improperly labeled."

THAT set up a natural chain reaction about the wonderful world of words.

Come to think of it there are no marbles in a marble cake . . . no ham in hamburger . . . and certainly no chill in chilli.

There is really not a dog in hot dog . . . nor a little baby dog in hush puppy . . . and positively no dog's tail in salty dog, either.

EXCEPT on certain summer picnics there is hardly ever any sand in sandwich. No sheep in shepherd's pie. No house in cottage pudding.

That one fine time we went elegant and ordered for dessert crepe suzettes we found them delightful. But not made of crepe de chine.

This could go on indefinitely, so join the fun and try your own list.

WORDS change as generations come and go.

In Big D where we spent a wonderful weekend, out Mother was commenting on the change in the meaning of that word square.

"Time was," she opined, "when to say a man was square was to pay him the highest of compliments."

Remember? A person who was square was dependable, honorable, trust-worthy, absolutely as good as his word.

SQUARE, nobody needs to remind you now in this generation, is the synonym for dull, dumb, ignorant or bore.

The word has changed from a character reference to an intended insult.

Call a man square, now, and it is the same as calling him what your grandparents meant when they said block-head. And what you yourself used to mean by nincompoop. Or fuddydaddy.

ONE could follow that track all day, too.

Send no longer means to deliver or delegate one of the youngans for errand running. When this generation says "He sends me!" they mean what you used to mean with "Gosh, he thrills me."

Dig, of course, used to mean excavate. Now it's last year's word for understand.

Fight is not a boxing match. Not even fisticuffs, any more. A fight is any disagreement large or small—usually between man and wife or a going-steady couple.

Sick once meant ill. Today it means somebody who disagrees with your own pet ideas and must, therefore, be "sick, sick, sick."

OF ALL the changes in vocabulary verities, think we deplore the downgrading of the little word "Darling" the most.

Time was when Darling was the tenderest of all love words—used exclusively for the beloved. Or for sweet little children.

And now? Darling is flung around high, wide and handsome as a salute to strangers. Said with bitterness it can be as insulting as square.

Darling, these days, is usually one celebrity meeting another celebrity whose name she can't bear to say out loud.

RECKON anybody who'd been in solitary confinement for, say, twenty years could come out now and have the foggiest notion of what's happened to the American language?

How do you suppose he'd ever decipher the code if some young thing told him, at first meeting, "Darling, I don't dig you. You don't even send me. You're either square or just sick, sick, sick."

TRIP to Big D was what the kids of the generation we belonged to used to call "the berries."

With only one frost, so far, the trees are still wrapped in green—except for some few scattered trim of gold and brown. But the sunac is scarlet along the highway now and the low-slung full moon played tag with the bus all the way from Ft. Worth to Dallas.

All the people we happen to know in Dallas, by the way, are still smarting with indignation about the recent crude treatment of Adlai Stevenson by the radicals—the few—who do not represent the many.

MET, by the way, a smart and charming young woman of Russian parentage who was, before her marriage, a United Nations employee. She's a citizen of this country—and a Texan now by choice.

Wanted, too, with a young soldier, enroute to Shreveport, who was enchanted with the Army because they put him back in his trade—printing. His military assignment has him helping print textbooks for the Army's foreign language school, near Fort Ord.

Bought gloves from a Big D woman who eyed our check and said "You know the Berman in Colorado City?" She had fine things to say of our Harold Berman, Dallas attorney, and son of our mayor.

BACK HOME—and broke—saw Neil Scott (Mrs. Bennett) who has as her houseguest an older sister named Ora—(Mrs. S. L. Lane of Brawley, Calif.)

Office visitors have been Johnnie Moore, C-City lawyer transplanted in Sweetwater, over on business . . . Don Benson . . . Emmabeth Thompson (Mrs. Charles C.) and Myra Robinson (Mrs. Bob.)

Coffee breaking, on a recent day, were Charlie Godwin and Lewis Elliott . . . Plus Newby Pratt, once a C-City Wolf coach and now a Federal Land Bank man here in the local association office . . . and Bob Fee Sr. . . Lonnie Doyle of the Soil Conservation Service.

Frank Biggers and Jesse Burton led the Wallace Wildcats to their third straight win Tuesday in the Wallace Gym against Munday. Frank Biggers made 24 points and Jesse Burton made 23 points. The Wildcats should be commended for their great defensive effort Tuesday night as they held Munday to a mere seven points in the first half. Wallace had racked up 30 points for the 30.7 Wallace halftime lead.

Munday made 18 points in the final frame, but Wallace had built up a very comfortable margin as Wallace whipped the visitors 70-32. Other scorers for Wallace were Eddy Campbell (12), Curtis Taylor (4), Willie Hill (3), and Donald Irvin and Howard Belvin two each.

Wallace girls beat the Munday girls 35-11 as Mary Stirling hit 11 points and Alma Levey hit 10. Other scorers for the Wallace sextet were Rena Griffin 6, Lonnie Williams 4, and Joyce Lewey and Betty Mayes two each. Outstanding guards were Florence Green, Elouise James, and Betty Mayes (who also played forward). Other Wallace players to see action were Evelyn Biggers, Betty Williams, Opal McPeters, Elli Mayes, Doris Bender, Bertha Walthall, Sandra Bracy, Bettie Rose, and Rosetta Phillips.

Sportsmen are getting their guns ready for the soon-to-be deer hunting season within our own good county.

Game wardens, ranchers and others who keep an eye on our wildlife say deer are more plentiful than over this year and hunting should be good.

If I had my wish, every hunter—young and old—would have good, safe hunting. And, more . . . I'd wish that those who are hunting would be just as caring and responsible for the land and properties where they hunt, as they would if those were their own.

Vote Saturday To Abolish Poll Tax

Voters will be marking a ballot for progress Saturday if they will vote in favor of abolishing the poll tax in Texas.

This proposition for erasing the poll tax as a voting requirement is one of four proposed Texas Constitutional Amendments on the Saturday ballot.

It is one of three that deal with statewide government. The fourth is a local application type which would provide Jefferson County with the opportunity to vote for a pension and compensation plan for public officials, and their employees.

The proposed amendments for increasing assistance payments for the old and disabled within Texas and for increasing the Veterans Land Fund of Texas by $150,000,000 are important proposals.

But the poll tax amendment has received the main spotlight of publicity during recent weeks and is, therefore, the best known of the four proposed amendments.

The reasons Texas voters will be voting for progress if they favor abolishing the poll tax are plain, but bonafide.

Texas has come to the point where it realizes a blanket tax on voting is not the really fair way to provide orderly voting. The tax should be replaced by a reasonable registration act and, the first step, is revising the state constitution to do away with the poll tax.

In addition, if Texas does not repeal the poll tax, the state's voting-procedure will be thrown into confusion because the tax is soon to be abolished for all ballots electing federal officials. Retention of the poll tax by Texas in the face of this fact would set up a double qualification for our state's voters, muddle the voting, create confusion for political candidates and political parties.

Therefore, the Record joins with Governor John Connally and other responsible leaders of the state in urging Mitchell County voters to join all Texans Saturday in abolishing the poll tax.

"Selling" Becomes Cotton Farmer's Job

Cotton farmers—at least one segment of them—launched a determined counterattack last week to hold and expand markets for their fiber by approving research and promotion projects calling for expenditures of $2.6 million during 1964.

Projects totaling $1.8 million for promotion and $800,000 for research were announced at a meeting in Phoenix, Ariz., of trustees for the Cotton Producers Institute, a voluntary organization financed by growers.

The institute's trustees said promotion projects will seek to better inform U. S. housewives and other on what cotton products have to offer in appearance, performance, comfort and economy. Campaigns are scheduled for the late winter and spring season and next fall.

Mass women's magazines, a national newspaper supplement, network television, trade magazines, and newspaper advertising by local department stores that cooperate in a special retail promotion in major markets will be used.

Aims of research projects are to cut costs of producing cotton, to improve quality of the raw fiber, and to produce new or improved cotton products.

The trustee executive committee reported recent inspections by its members revealed the institute's current research projects generally are making good progress. Ten such projects were renewed for another year.

The projects deal with systemic insecticides, nitrogen in fruiting and growth, verticillium wilt disease, men's cotton suits, tests of fiber strength, warm cotton fabrics, biochemistry of the cotton plant, chemical treatment of fabrics, and comparison of cotton's qualities with other fibers.

Funds were budgeted for 11 new projects. They include research on methods of improving:

(1) Luster of cotton fibers, (2) chemical weed control in irrigated cotton, (3) herbicide use on Johnson grass and nut-sedge, (4) controlling perennial weeds, (5) cleaning cotton and removing short fibers, (6) biological-chemical insect control, (7) controlling verticillium wilt by systemic fungicides, (8) adaptation of cotton plant to minimum temperatures, (9) soil factors affecting systemic insecticides, (10) fabric development, and (11) forming and shaping cotton garments at will.

Market surveys, conducted in conjunction with the institute's nationwide advertising, show consumers now are more aware of the qualities offered by cotton products. Effectiveness of promotion also has been recognized through a national award.

"This business plan is making solid progress. However, it is equally obvious that the competitive pressure facing cotton growers is increasing. We therefore must expand participation in the institute as rapidly as possible," the trustees stated.

Here, at the Colorado City Record we don't know enough about this particular institute, although its trustees include well-known cotton men of the Texas South Plains.

This much, however, is certain. The general aims and ideas of the institute are on a solid foundation. Cotton—the use of cotton—must be promoted if it is to compete with synthetic fibers and other products.

The cotton producer—as well as the cotton community—must realize he is in the cotton business, and, therefore, must sell cotton as well as grow it.

Demos Preparing Crowd To Welcome President

By VERN SANFORD

Texas Press Association

Some 60,000 Texans soon will be getting invitations to dine with the President—for $100 a plate—at Austin's Municipal Auditorium.

Presidential aides now are in Austin making arrangements with top Texas Democrats for a Nov. 22 "Texas Welcome Dinner" for Pres. John F. Kennedy and Vice Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Speakers list so far has been limited to the president, the vice president and Gov. John Connally.

To assure a capacity crowd, local party officials are being called on to help. Quotas are being assigned to districts over the state. Funds raised are to be divided between the National and State Democratic organizations.

Most of Texas' 21 congressmen are expected to attend the dinner and all members of the legislature will be invited. Early announcements indicate Sen. Ralph Yarbor ough will be with the Presidential party.

President Kennedy is due to arrive in Houston on Nov. 21, where he will attend an appreciation dinner for Congressmen Albert Thomas. Cities all over the State are bidding for the rest of his time.

GOLDWATER CAMPAIGN

Meanwhile, Republicans are not standing still on the eve of an election year.

State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell of Dallas came to Austin to announce the heads of the Texas drive to draft U. S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona as a presidential candidate . . . and to map plans for other races.

State Rep. Dick Morgan of Dallas and Mrs. J. C. Man Jr., a Wichita Falls housewife, were designated co-chairmen of the campaign.

O'Donnell said 2,462 elective offices in Texas "will be up for grabs" next year and Republicans intend to reap a fair share.

He said the Republican timetable calls for a Draft Goldwater chairman in each congressional district by December 1. County chairmen will be appointed by January 1 and precinct chairmen by January 15.

Many of the local draft movements will tie in with GOP county executive committees and with election campaigns for precinct, city, county and state as well as national elections for public office.

REDISTRICTING — Preliminary hearings will be held Friday on a suit to declare current state legislative districting laws unconstitutional.

State Sens. Don Kennard of Fort Worth and Franklin Spears of San Antonio; Reps. Bob Eckhardt of Houston and Jake Johnson of San Antonio; and Harris County Democratic chairman Bill Kilgartin filed the suit. They are objecting to the law which limits a county to no more than one senator and restricts a county with more than 700,000 persons to one additional state representative per 100,000 population.

Several state-elected officials who represent small-population districts are intervening in the suit.

INSURANCE PROBLEMS — Texas employers are paying more for workmen's compensation insurance and injured workers are enjoying less benefits, Texas Manufacturers Association charged.

State AFL-CIO, an unusual TMA ally, suggested a statewide conference on the issue.

State Board of Insurance Chairman Hunter McLean challenged one section of TMA's report. Roy A. Langston, president of the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies, said rates may have gone up 40 per cent in the last 10 years but still are 22 per cent lower than they were in 1939.

INSURANCE COST — A $3,000,000 reduction in Workmen's Compensation insurance costs to employers, beginning Dec. 1, has been announced by the State Board of Insurance.

Average cut will be 2.2 per cent. Industry-wise it is as follows: Manufacturing 3.7 per cent; contracting 0.5 per cent; oil 2.4 per cent; and all other industries 2.4 per cent.

Board said this is the first over-all reduction in Workmen's Compensation insurance premiums in the past five years.

CREDIT INSURANCE — State Board of Insurance set new rates, rules and regulations for credit insurance to become effective November 21.

A rate of 70 cents per $100 a year was assigned group life coverage of the type used in 75 per cent of insured indebtedness. Board called it one of the lowest yet adopted. Maximum individual life policy rates were set at 80 cents per $100 on loans exceeding $700 and 90 cents on those up to $700. Health and accident coverage rates compare closely with those under the model bill in other States, the Board maintained.

PENALTIES — An Austin jury fined four East Texas oil operators with $304,800 in penalties in the first slant-hole oil suit tried before State Court jurors.

A Look At West Texas Through Editorial Page Excerpts From Its Leading Weekly & Semi-Weekly Newspapers.

Reading, writing, arithmetic and Rickover. Or, to put it a little differently, The Admiral's at it again.

Admiral Rickover, bless his salty old self, seems to have a popoff valve that is working overtime. The trouble, though, is that he doesn't confine his spoutings to naval affairs, but persists in putting in his two-cents on matters dealing with education.

In fact, you might say he's a self-appointed authority on education, which is about the worst kind of authority there is, I guess.

His latest kick is a popular one nowadays—the advocating of turning out nothing but mechanical, mathematical and scientific prodigies by the hordes, and to the devil with teaching little people how to be big people in this oft-times troubled world.

Anyway, he can't be accused of mining words on the subject, and continues to beat the drum loudly. Which sets me to wondering.

Wouldn't it be appropriate if a well-known and accomplished educator publicly tore into Rickover's navy, itemizing all the ways in which this branch of the service could be improved? After all, the navy isn't perfect, and if you don't believe it just ask the army, air force or marines.

I think it would be a good twist. Sort of like that ear dealer up in Amarillo a few years back who advertised that he was going to conduct a drawing and give away a supermarket to some lucky person.

Rickover, it appears, just doesn't know when to let well enough alone. Remember when he tangled with the P-T-A? If my memory serves me correct he came home second in a field of two on that particular deal.

Looks to me like maybe the admiral had too much brine time and should be drydoctored permanently.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Not Enough Zeros For Moon Project

Editor's note: The Shinnery Philosopher on his Johnson Creek farm on Bone Hollow Creek discusses a burning issue of the day.

Dear Editor: A man in town stopped me the other day and said, "Say, you're always expressing an opinion, tell me, should the United States proceed with its plans to put a man on the moon?"

I'll give you my opinion very frankly.

First, as I understand it, and I don't mind saying the way I understand some situations has no bearing on what the true situations are, here Russia and us were all set for a race to the moon and Russia ups and calls the game off.

And, as I further understand it, the scientists in charge of the moon project argue that whether Russia tries for the moon or not has no bearing on what we do, that getting to the moon is worth what it'll cost, regardless.

Now while I've always felt a man shouldn't rush headlong into plowing, mowing or moon-shooting, that it's wiser and easier and more comfortable to take your time on either task, still I don't know enough about the fruits of outer space to say we shouldn't spend 40 billion dollars to explore it.

But I was just thinking. Say we spend 40 billion and get to the moon but don't find quite what we were looking for, that the lun, as they say about mountain climbing, was getting there, not staying there.

All right. Here we've got all this money invested, we might as well try some other planet. The next planet, like next year's crop, may always look better than the current one.

Now naturally the first trip, like the first model of a new airplane, costs a lot more than those that follow, so we'll assume that we can land a man on Venus for half as much, one on Jupiter for half of that, and so forth, until we get the cost down to say a measly billion dollars a planet.

Well, since man can't imagine an end or a lack of an end to space, scientists have estimated there are countless billions of planets in the universe, and maybe some more universes outside of this one. But just for the sake of simple arithmetic, say there are a billion explorable planets out there waiting for us to put a man on.

At one billion dollars a planet, that's a billion-billion dollars. I would write the figure out in numerals, but I don't know how to do it and anyway I doubt if you have enough zeros in the Record printing plant to swing it.

As you can see, my answer to the question, Should we put a man on the moon, is a clear-cut, emphatic I don't know.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

STOMACHE ACHE CAN BE SERIOUS PROBLEM

When a patient says to me, "I don't know what's wrong with me, but my stomach aches," I know that a major diagnostic, or detective, job may be in order.

The ache may seem to be in his stomach, near his back or located vaguely in the abdomen, which contains most of the body's organs. This is a very complex area and, as a pain is not always located directly at the cause of the trouble, a doctor will frequently recommend an examination by a specialist.

Regional enteritis, for example, is an inflammatory disease, usually affecting the small intestine. When it is suspected, I often make my initial study of the colon, or large intestine, because the colon may exhibit certain recognizable changes as a diseased small intestine. With these changes in the colon indicating the small intestine as the real trouble-maker, the small intestine may then be specifically examined and treated.

Thus, detective work provides clues which lead directly to specific diagnosis, and avoidance of inappropriate treatment. The patient's "stomach ache" is on its way to being relieved, without further loss of time and expense.

Regional enteritis is also called terminal ileitis, or Crohn's disease. It occurs about equally in both sexes and in about half the cases known, begins between the ages of 20 and 30.

In the usual chronic form of the disease, it is characterized by mid-abdominal cramps, diarrhea, mild fever, loss of appetite. Weight loss is common.

Symptoms of the chronic form often resemble many other intestinal disorders, and early, acute cases are frequently mistaken for acute appendicitis.

Charles Lutes, Reid Allgood, and J. W. Baton, all of Gregg County, were directed to pay the penalties to the State.

A total of 77 civil penalty suits seeking $522,000,000, filed by the Attorney General following slant-drilling scandals, remains on the docket.

Jury found the four Gregg County oilmen operated a well which bottomed under a neighboring lease for 10 years.

OIL PROBE—Reps. George Cook of Odessa and Maurice Dole of Wichita Falls have announced hearings by the House Interim Study Committee on oil and gas matters.

They scheduled a committee meeting with the Railroad Commission for Friday to get directions and guidelines for the crude price probe.

Hearings to be held soon in Wichita Falls and Abilene will concern North and West Texas cuts.

Representatives of companies which instigated cuts will be invited to testify, Cook said. If they refuse, the committee will use its subpoena powers.

"I want the people of Texas to know that the members of the Texas legislature are not standing idly by while certain isolated companies are allowed to make a shambles of its most important industry," Cook said. Hearings will result in "recommendations for immediate action."

Dole said cuts, which have ranged from 10 to 48 cents per barrel, would cost the state half a million dollars in tax money and damage the state's economy to the unhappy tune of $9,000,000 a year. "Cuts came," charged Dole, "while major importing companies are running up record profits and independent producers of Texas are being bankrupted."

FARM ROAD—State Highway Commission approved one of the most extensive farm-to-market construction and improvement programs in many years.

It okayed an $18,144,500 program to protect state investment in 3,056 miles of F. M. roads.

Here is the new Super Torque FORD for 1964. Bred in open competition, built for total performance, it is the strongest, smoothest, steadiest car in its field. With more steel in the suspensions, more strength in the frame, more heft in the body, it is hundreds of pounds more car than anything else at the price. Drive one—and see the difference this makes!

CLEAN FLAMELESS ELECTRIC DRYING

Baby's tender skin and mother's gentle disposition both get favored treatment with an automatic electric clothes dryer on the job. Diapers, blankets and all of baby's things come out soft and fluffy. Other delicate washables share the tender care of automatic electric drying. So does mother ... she no longer trudges to and from the clothes line, lugging loads of heavy wet clothes. And, any day (or night) can be washday, regardless of the weather, since items can be laundered as needed. See your appliance dealer soon about clean, flameless electric drying—one of the nicest features of living better ... electrically.
