From the Desk of Sheriff Powell

Last Friday, the Sherman County Sheriff's Office, along with Texas County Oklahoma Sheriff's Office, Texas DPS, and Agents with an Oklahoma Task Force executed a search warrant on a residence in Texhoma, Texas. Four arrests were made, an infant child was taken into CPS custody and a teen was taken to The Bridge in Amarillo. Agents, Officers, and Deputies recovered illegal drugs, drug paraphernalia and numerous firearms from the residence. All subjects were transported to the Sherman County Jail where they were booked in on various warrants and charges.

Last Sunday, in the early morning hours, emergency service personnel responded to a one vehicle, roll-over accident on 287. The operator of the vehicle, who resides in Stratford, was not injured, but arrested on alcohol-related charges.

My three oldest children, who live in Anchorage, Alaska will be coming in this week. I am very excited to see them and since they will only be in town for a week or so, I just may spend a little time with them. Dakota, Alexis, & Shelbe Powell. Welcome to Stratford - (From and excited Dad)

Have a great week, Sherman County and as always, my family and I truly appreciate your support!!

The Good Shepherd: Jesus is my Friend

What a Friend We Have in Jesus--Joseph M. Scriven, 1855 What a friend we have in Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear! What a privilege to carry--Everything to God in prayer! Oh, what peace we often forfeit, Oh, what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry--Everything to God in prayer! .

The comforting words of this song express how Jesus serves as our absolute most dependable friend. They tell the tale of the deep desire of the human soul to have a relationship with a companion who is completely trustworthy and how Jesus provides this reliable source of strength in our times of need. The Good Book gives unwavering support to Scriven's proclamation that Jesus is a friend to me : "I am your Creator. You were in my care even before you were born '(Isaiah 44:2 CEV). I originated from God's imagination; he designed my every physical detail: "For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb." (Psalm 139:13 NIV). I am his creation. He planned my birth and all my days on Earth: "Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be."(Psalm 139:16 NIV). God decided when and where I would be born: "...he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands." (Acts 17:26)

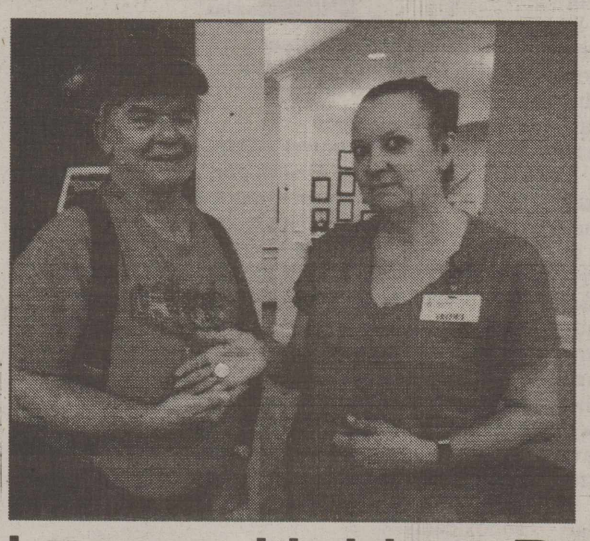

After my birth into the family of Christ, he placed the spirit if Christ inside of me to establish omnipresence. There is irrefutable evidence that he is always present. Even during difficult times when I might think he is absent, he's there. He keeps track of me, if I stray too far from his will for me his spirit guides me back on course. He is never too busy to pay attention to my needs (Luke 15). Throughout my life Jesus watches over me: "Surely it is you who love the people; all the holy ones are in your hand." (Deuteronomy 33:3 NIV). His Angels care for me: "For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. (Psalm 91:11-12 NIV). The angels are "ministering spirits sent to serve who will inherit salvation." (Hebrews 1:14 NIV). God's angels may give me advice or instruction (Acts 8:26). They can deliver food, (I Kings 19:5-6) encouragement, (Acts 27:33) protection, (Daniel 6) rescue, (Daniel 3) and at my death they will escort my spirit through satan's demons to meet God in heaven. (Luke 16:22). Jesus plans eternity with me: "I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand." (John 10:28 NIV)

To show his unending love for me (and all his human creations) Jesus died to offer himself as the atonement for my sins. In his own words he declared it a willing gesture of self-sacrifice: "No one takes it (his life) from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again..." (John 10:18 NIV). He said he did it because we were friends: "You are my friends if you do what I command."(John 15:14 NIV). As my friend, Jesus (God in a human body) came to Earth and suffered the ultimate indignity of rejection, abuse, and death at the hands of his human creations to accomplish his purpose: "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." (John 15:13). Friendship with Jesus provides the only true peace on Earth and is the only foolproof path to eternal salvation. Paul emphasized his steadfast belief in Christ: "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38-39 NIV)

Legacy Holds a Poker Run

By Paula Nusz

Legacy Assisted Living participated in a poker run on Friday, June 5, 2015. Four residents boarded the bus for the run. To begin the run, a clue was given; and the group had to solve the clue to know where to go for the cards (example clue: Lighting Up The Texas Sky – answer – Dalhart Chamber of Commerce). Then at each location, a representative would come to the bus and allow each resident to pull an unseen card from the deck. Then a new clue would be given and the process started over again.

After the 5 cards had been gathered, the group returned to Legacy for the judging of the hands. Vickie Gergen was the official judge. The winning hand was 3 Aces drawn by Wade Estes. His cash prize was five gold dollar coins! Everyone enjoyed the anticipation of what the next card would be. The clues were for local businesses, so the residents had a chance to use their knowledge of Dalhart to solve the quest. Resident participants were Grace Lyles, Wade Estes, Kenneth Stanley, and Charlie McClain.

A big Thank you to these following businesses and their representatives: Dalhart Chamber with Kristine; Dalhart Texan with Jeff, Amanda, Nixie; Happy State Bank with Maribel; Sears with Glenda; and United Supermarket with Sara. The Dalhart Texan gave each player their own edition of that week's paper as a special prize; which came in handy to solve the next clue for Happy Bank! All participants decided that this was an activity they would like to do again. This wouldn't have been possible without the support of the local business community and the small-town cooperative attitude of Dalhart.

Legacy Hosts Summer Bible Study

By Paula Nusz

Legacy Assisted Living is hosting a summer Bible study of the book of James. The participants are residents of Legacy and the Women's Missionary Guild of the First Christian Church. The first sesson was held on Tuesday, June 10, 2015, with seven participants. To begin the study, a quick lesson the on life of James (the brother of Jesus) was discussed. James was a martyr, killed near the temple in Jerusalem and buried there. He died between 58-63 A.D.

The book of James is described as being the Proverbs of the New Testament because of its many examples of proper Christian behavior. The 5 session study is divided into daily study topics. The first chapter of James teaches Christians how to deal with trials and temptation. One should consider not only choices made when dealing with temptations, but also one's attitudes and mindset toward sin. Temptations and trials are either self-imposed or brought about by others.

A discussion about the 5 different crowns mentioned in the Bible was held. The crowns are: Everlasting (Victory) Crown, Crown of the Soul Winner, Crown of Righteousness, Crown of Life and Crown of Glory. These crowns will be awarded to qualifying believers at the Judgment.

Several daily sessions of the study are about controlling ones tongue and speech – a reoccurring topic for the Bible. Everyone is encouraged to" listen much, be slow to speak and to not anger easily". If people would follow these suggestions, the outcome would be peace and understanding in our relationship with one another. The next session will be held on Wednesday, June 24th.

Home

(NU) - When it comes to remodeling, homeowners looking to reside their homes are increasingly choosing vinyl siding.

"Homeowners choose vinyl siding more often than any other exterior cladding—and for good reasons," says Jery Y. Huntley, president and CEO of the Vinyl Siding Institute Inc. "Vinyl siding's lifetime value, installation advantages, ease of maintenance, accessories and warranties are why it is the number-one cladding choice in the U.S. and Canada."

Early Morning Risers: 4 Ways to Power Up Your Day

NewsUSA

(NU) - When it comes to starting the day early, finding energy fast is vital.

Whether you're up early for work, hitting the gym, getting your kids ready for school or just dealing with a pesky internal clock, it's important to make the most of your mornings. Try these tips for finding your inner early bird:

• Don't snooze. "When you hit the snooze button repeatedly, you're fragmenting what little extra sleep you're getting, so it is of poor quality," says Robert S. Rosenberg, medical director of the Sleep Disorders Centers of Prescott Valley and Flagstaff, Arizona. Instead, try moving your alarm farther from your bed, so you have to stand up to turn it off.

• Have a quick and hearty breakfast ready to go. Studies consistently show the benefits of breakfast for promoting productivity during the day. However, according to a January 2014 study conducted by global polling firm, Penn Schoen Berland, although nearly 85 percent of Americans believe breakfast is important, 53 percent skip it because they don't have enough time, want to get extra sleep or don't like preparing it. These time-starved individuals need a quick and easy option, such as a Hormel Compleats breakfast (www.hormel.com). Ready in just 60 seconds, the shelf-stable line offers the great taste of familiar, hearty breakfast staples, like Apple Cinnamon Oatmeal and Bacon Breakfast Scramble. Select varieties contain 17-20 grams of protein per serving.

Being an early riser doesn't mean you have to be tired all day.

• Consider the power of protein. According to Health.com, eggs—and even bacon—can be effective breakfast options to provide your body with the energy it needs to power through the day. This is why two of the Compleats varieties feature eggs, which are packed with protein.

"Eggs are a great source of nutrients," said Mitch Kanter, Ph.D., executive director of the Egg Nutrition Center. "Just one egg contains 13 essential vitamins and minerals, high-quality protein and antioxidants."

• Shift your bedtime. If by nature you are a night owl who routinely sleeps later but wants to start your day sooner, start gradually moving your bedtime earlier. The most productive early birds aren't sleep deprived. As Benjamin Franklin aptly noted, "Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

Education News And Notes

Teacher Workshops

(NAPS)—Teachers today need to keep up with changing expectations and environments in education—and they need to do so quickly. Fortunately, there are one-day programs that let educators learn something today and use it tomorrow.

An education association has a faculty that will come to the school to share research-based practices it can use right away to boost student achievement. Books and materials are included.

Teachers can get useful insights in one-day workshops.

Among the workshops:

•Grading Smarter, Not Harder—assessment strategies that motivate students so grades show what students know.

•Productive Group Work—so students end up learning more than they would alone.

•Checking for Understanding—in any subject and grade.

•A Close Look at Close Reading—how this provides a foundation for students to develop thinking, speaking and writing skills required by the Common Core State Standards.
