Nasser Accuses Kassem Of Working With Reds

By WILTON WYNN

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—President Nasser accused Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem today of isolating Iraq from Arab nationalism and trying to bring all Arab peoples "under a Communist reign of terror."

This was the strongest attack Nasser has yet made on Kassem. Speaking to students demonstrating before the presidential palace, he used words much harsher than he did Wednesday when he criticized Kassem for hostility to the United Arab Republic.

Nasser alluded to the strength of the U.A.R. Air Force.

"We are determined never to attack another Arab state or kill another Arab brother," he said in explanation of why the U.A.R. had simply protested a reported Iraqi air attack Tuesday on a Syrian village.

The attack had attended Baghdad announcements of the collapse of the nationalist rebellion against Kassem's Communist-influenced regime.

"We are capable of returning the blow double, but we refrained from doing so because the villages we would have hit are purely Arab villages, with which we have close Arab ties," Nasser said.

Taking their cue from Nasser's bitter speech Wednesday, the Cairo press branded Kassem a Communist agent.

Schoolgirls in black and white uniforms hoisted big U.A.R. flags and marched to the presidential residence where Nasser is staying. A pupil with pink ribbons tied to her pigtails led classmates in chants denouncing Kassem and proclaiming Arab solidarity.

Older students converged on Nasser's headquarters as anti-Kassem fever mounted.

Cairo papers pinne the hero label on the leader of the brief, abortive army revolt in Iraq, Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaf, who, Baghdad reported, was slain.

"The world," said Al Ahram, "has witnessed the true face of Kassem, another face of (former Iraqi Premier) Nuri Said, a distorted continuation of Nuri and a paid agent just as Nuri was."

This was a pointed reminder of the days before Kassem's forces overthrew the pro-Western Nuri and killed him. In those days the West had its money on Nuri and the Soviet Union was backing Nasser for the leadership of the Arab world. Now the Communists were on Kassem's side and Nasser was blasting them.

There was a sharp split between the Communists in Iraq and Moscow, however. The Iraqi Reds accused Nasser of fomenting the revolt. Moscow was trying to blame the West, but the Soviet propaganda did not appear to be having much effect on the disputants.

The U.A.R. protested to Iraq about the reported attack by Iraqi fighters Tuesday on the Syrian border village of Hamoudiya. The planes had been reported strafing rebel villages in north Iraq. The Middle East News Agency reported a house was destroyed in Hamoudiya.

In Baghdad, crowds hanged Nasser in effigy and blamed him for the brief, unsuccessful army revolt against Kassem in northern Iraq.

The occasion was the funeral of a Communist leader, Kamel Kazangi, whose death was blamed on pro-Nasser Arab nationalists inn the center of the revolt.

Troops guarded the deserted U.A.R. Embassy in Baghdad Kassem expelled nine members of its staff Tuesday after his forces put down the revolt.

The U.A.R.'s Middle East News Agency circulated reports that the Iraqi Communists were leading a big purge of pro-Nasser Arab nationalists in Mosul. Demonstrators in Damascus denounced the "monstrous barbarian acts in Iraq" and shouted, "The Iraqi martyrs will go to paradise."

CHASE PLANE OBSERVES X15 FLIGHT TEST—An Air Force chase plane flies alongside for observation as the rocket ship X15, snuggled under the wing of a giant B52 bomber, went through its first captive flight test at Edwards Air Force Base, California. Test pilot Scott Crossfield was inside the sleek black dart on the hour and 10 minute flight. Macmillan In Bonn For Parley With Adenauer

By BRACK CURRY

BONN (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan flew into Bonn today to see West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and said the West must adopt an elastic position in trying to meet the Soviet challenge to Berlin.

"We all stand together, but in the methods of defense we must remain elastic," Macmillan told newsmen at the airport.

The British Prime Minister arrived half an hour after Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev took off from East Berlin for Moscow. During eight days in East Germany he had plugged as hard as ever for a German peace treaty and showed himself still determined to wrest West Berlin from the Western Allies.

Macmillan's visit to Adenauer was his second stop on a swing around the major allied capitals to discuss Western policy in the light of his talks with Khrushchev in Moscow. The Briton met with President Charles de Gaulle and Premier Michel Debre in Paris earlier this week and goes next week to Washington.

Macmillan remarked today that the West is "still a long way from our goal" of finding means of countering the Soviet threat to West Berlin. But he stressed that the West remains "resolute and firm on our principles."

The Soviet leader's tour wound up with a joint Soviet-East German communique Wednesday night calling for a peace treaty on terms already rejected by the West.

The Soviet Union and the East German satellite regime pledged to keep the road open between West Berlin and the West — but only on condition that the Allied occupation ends. State Department spokesman in Washington said the offer was nothing new and emphasized that it would mean the Western allies giving up their rights in Berlin.

Khrushchev and the East Germans also repeated the Soviet demand that the proposed foreign ministers conference be confined to preparation of a peace treaty with Germany and "discussion of the quickest liquidation of the occupation regime in West Berlin." They also called for a summit conference to take up other issues dividing East and West. The West wants to discuss the whole question nof German unification rather than be pinned down to facets of the German problem.

The prospects loomed larger for East-West negotiations—and possibly the summit talks sought so ardently by Khrushchev. New notes to the Soviet Union being prepared in the Western captials reportedly will suggest a foreign ministers conference in Geneva about May 11.

Khrushchev has repeatedly threatened to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany unless the Western allies join him in a pact with both German governments. But the Soviet-East German communique made no mention of the possibility of a separate pact.

Instead it said that "the question of a peace treaty with Germany has become particularly acute at the present time. It cannot be regarded as normal that the German people, nearly 14 years after the ending of the war, still is without a peace treaty."

West German Socialist leader Erich Ollenhauer, while admitting "grave differences of opinion between us," that his talk this week with Khrushchev convinced him the Soviets are serious about wanting to solve German problems.

"I think the Soviets are genuinely interested in negotiations," Ollenhauer said in a radio speech.

House Geared To Act On Hawaii Statehood

By HARRISON HUMPHRIES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House was geared today to take final congressional action to make Hawaii the 50th state.

The Senate voted 76-15 Wednesday night in favor of statehood for the mid-Pacific islands. The vote came after only one day of debate.

The sponsor of the House bill, Chairman Leo W. O'Brien (D-NY) of the House Territories subcommittee, said he was prepared to amend his measure to conform exactly to the Senate-passed bill which had 56 co-sponsors.

House approval of a conforming measure would send the bill directly to President Eisenhower. His signature would pave the way for state elections in time to seat two Hawaii senators and one representative in the House in this session of Congress.

Any variance between House and Senate versions of the bill would require Senate-House conferences and subsequent votes of concurrence.

Rep. John R. Saylor (R-Pa) pressed for an amendment to give Hawaii two House members. He said Hawaii, with about 600,000 population, is entitled to two representatives under the apportionment formula adopted by Congress in 141.

Gov. William F. Quinn arrived in Washington by air too late to witness the Senate vote.

At an impromptu celebration in the old Supreme Court chamber of the Capitol, Quinn thanked Senate leaders for their vote of confidence in Hawaii's people.

"Hawaii," he said, "has a destiny in the Pacific and a mission to accomplish. We are conscious of that mission and will do our utmost to carry it out."

News of the Senate vote reached the islands at mid-afternoon and was greeted with joy.

Acting Gov. Edward E. Johnson proclaimed a two-day holiday to start the moment the House passes the statehood bill.

In the Senate action, Southern Democrats accounted for 14 of the 15 dissenting votes. The lone Republican opponent was Sen. John M. Butler of Maryland.

Chairman Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash) of the Senate Territories subcommittee, Senate floor leader for the bill, said the Senate's action in approving the measure within two weeks after the completion of a committee hearing set a record for major legislation.

Hawaii, once an independent 20-island kingdom, was annexed to the United States voluntarily in 1898 and became an incorporated territory in 1900.

LESS FORMALITY

London Operators In New Approach

By RAYMOND E. PALMER

LONDON (AP) — Britain's telephone operators were told to be more human today. They are being encouraged to greet the customers and even address them by name if they know it.

The new approach, ordered by Postmaster General Ernest Marples to make the service more helpful, was only a couple of hours old when we rang our local operator to see how things were going.

They went like this:

"Fleet Street operator, can I help you?"

The voice was distinctly masculine.

"How's this good morning business going?" we asked.

"Oh, you mean the friendly telephone service?"

"That' it," we said. "How's it going?"

"Well, we're supposed to try to make your lives happier — and ours, of course."

"How?"

"By being less formal. We don't have to use standard phrases any more, like 'number please'."

"Anything else?"

"Yes, we can give our names now. We don't have to give our names, but we can if we want to."

"Is this going to make much difference?" we wanted to know.

"Well, it'll probably make more difference during the day than during the night."

We said we could understand that, since the operators during the night are all men and the operators during the day are girls.

"Will the girls be able to give their names under this new friendly telephone service?" we asked.

"If they want to."

"And what about addresses?"

"Are you kidding? The telephone service isn't that friendly."

We excused ourselves.

"That's all right," said the operator. "Hope you've learned something about the new service."

We assured him we had learned one thing.

If a man answers, hang up.

Summit Proposal Seen

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western powers are expected soon to offer the Soviet Union the definite possibility of a summit conference later this year.

The major Western condition for a top level meeting probably will be that an earlier conference of foreign ministers should make progress toward settling the Berlin crisis.

There is behind-the-scenes British dissent on this point, however. London leaders have informed other Allied governments they believe that direct and personal negotiations with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will have to be arranged sooner or later in any case.

The central strategy on which all the Western powers are agreed is that negotiations must be employed to the fullest limit possible in order to overcome the danger that the Berlin dispute could eventually explode into a nuclear war.

President Eisenhower told a news conference Wednesday that "we are certainly not going to fight a ground war in Europe."

He declined under questioning to say flatly that the West would resort to nuclear war if the Soviets started shooting in Germany. But he did hold open that possibility, apparently for the deliberate purpose of warning Khrushchev.

"I think we might as well . . . all of us understand this: I didn't say that nuclear war is a completely impossibility," Eisenhower said at one point.

While the news conference discussion concentrated on the dangers of an all-out conflict if the Berlin crisis were pushed to that point, administration officials said Eisenhower and all of his chief aides believe that Khrushchev will stop short of a military showdown if the West shows firmness and determination in defending its Berlin position.

On the diplomatic front, the next move is up to the West. It may come early next week, in the form of new notes to the U.S.S.R. from the United States, Britain and France.

Elements In Rare Form

The elements produced a hard freeze and an eye - catching astronomical scene in the Snyder area last night.

The mercury went down to 23 degrees, plenty cool for this time of year. While the mercury was taking its plunge, the moon's course took it almost between the earth and Venus, but not quite. For a period of several hours it appeared that Venus, often called the "evening star" at this time of year, was playing tag with the right tip of the crescent moon.

Dr. Frank Norman Edwards Jr., associate professor of astronomy at the University of Texas, called it a conjunction of the planet and the moon. it happens about every three or four years, but often goes unobserved because of clouds or other factors.

RALPH GEISENHONER

Geisenhoner To Join Bank In Colorado

Ralph Geisenhoner, who recently resigned the post of executive vice president of the Snyder National Bank, has been elected vice president and director of the United States Bank of Grand Junction in Grand Junction, Colo.

Geisenhoner will assume his duties there about March 16.

A resident of Snyder for the past nine years, Geisenhoner came here from Galveston in 1950 and served as an officer and director of the Snyder National Bank until his resignation a few weeks ago. In addition to his participation in the progress and growth of the bank here, he has been activ in civic affairs, holding official posts in the Chamber of Commerce, Scurry County United Fund, American Cancer Society, Knife and Fork Club, Industrial Foundation and other organizations. He is a past president of the Snyder Country Club and the Snyder Rotary Club, and is on the board of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Geisenhoner has been active in club work, serving several clubs as an officer. The Geisenhoners live at 3702 Dalton Dr.

Three Airmen Safe After Planes Collide

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP)—Two Air Force officers parachuted to safety and a third managed to land his disabled craft after two jet trainers collided near here today.

The planes, both T-33 trainers, collided at 10,200 feet just southwest of the Webb Air Force Base.

First Lt. Gary R. Coad of Lafayette, Calif., an instructor, and his student, 2nd Lt. Carl B. Larsen of Cassville, N.Y., parachuted from their disabled plane.

Second Lt. William J. Elander Jr., who was flying alone, landed his damaged plane at the base.

Late Winter Blow Brings Snow To Northeast Areas

By The Associated Press

With spring only nine days away, winter took a parting wallop at the Northeast today. Snow ranging up to 14 inches was dumped on the region eastward from Indiana to Virginia and Maine.

As morning came, the snow began changing to rain in the southernmost areas. In some areas there was sleet.

Air and highway travel was disrupted. Trains remained pretty much on schedule. Hundreds of schools were closed for the day in several states.

Up to midmorning, four fatalities were linked to the storm. Heart attacks felled three persons shoveling snow in Ohio. A car-truck collision killed another at Delaware, Ohio.

Western Maryland and northern West Virginia got the heaviest swfalls. They ranged up to 14 inches. Northwestern New Jersey had an estimated 10 inches of snow. New England was expected to get eight inches or more.

The second such storm of the week glazed roads and made some impassable across the southern two-thirds of Indiana. The southeastern section of the state had five to six inches of snow.

Some parts of Connecticut anticipated more than eight inches.

New York City recorded 5.3 inches before the precipitation changed to rain about 9 a.m. The heaviest snow of the season previously in the metropolis was three inches on Dec 8-9. The total for the winter had been only 6.5 inches—much less than usual.

Drifts and hazardous driving conditions snarled car travel in some large cities. Mammoth traffic jams were reported during the morning hours in Cleveland, Ohio, where a continuing snow already had deposited seven inches.

Cleveland's Hopkins Airport was closed at 5:25 a.m. Operations at New York and Boston airports were hampered but not halted. Numerous flights were canceled and some incoming planes diverted elsewhere.

Draft Extension Bill Sent To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation extending the draft law four years was sped to President Eisenhower today by the House.

By voice vote and without debate, the House approved a Senate amendment to a bill which passed the House last month. The amendment dealt with the pay of doctors and dentists in the armed services.

Three-Hour Moon Trip Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Space flight to the moon in less than three hours may some day be possible, a noted scientist says.

So might a 4½-year flight to Pluto, the most distant planet in the solar system, says Dr. Lee Dubridge, president of California Institute of Technology.

But, he indicated, space distances are so enormous that any visions of flight to even the nearest star beyond our sun appear out of the question.

Reason: The spacemen would have lived through a normal lifetime thousands of years before the trip was over!

If a spaceship could be developed having a speed of 90,000 miles an hour — or 25 miles a second—it could reach the moon in 2.9 hours, the sun in 4 days and Pluto in 4½ years, Dubridge said. But it would take the same ship 30,000 years to reach Alpha Centauri, the nearest star beyond the sun.

"It is true," he said Wednesday night at a symposium sponsored by Resources for the Future, Inc., "we can some day probably exceed the speed of 25 miles per second.

"But the 25,000 miles per second required to bring the nearest star within reach is not in sight."

Governor's Deficit-Erasing Plans Facing Further Delay

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Daniel faced the prospect today of further delay on a franchise tax plan, one of the big bills in his deficit-erasing program.

More tax bills and many additional measures of all sorts were expected as the session came to the even of its mid-point. After tomorrow, only special types of bills may be introduced without a four-fifths permissive vote.

The House State Affairs Committee voted 11-3 yesterday to recommend passage of the advertise Texas bill authorized by the constitutional amendment approved in November. This permitted the use of state funds for advertising purposes.

The Revenue and Taxation Committee voted 14-2 against heeding Daniel's plea for immediate action on his franchise tax proposal. The test came on Rep. J. E. Winfree's motion asking the subcommittee holding Daniel's 29 million dollar franchise tax revision bill to report on it by Monday. Only Winfree and Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria voted for it.

"We are not just sitting on the bill. W. are not only looking at its possible results on state revenue, but we are looking at its results on the state's economy," said Rep. Dick Salck of Pecos, chairman of the subcommittee.

Business interests oppose the franchise tax.

The Senate State Affairs Committee was not ready to act on a bill fixing maximum working hours for city policemen and firemen. It heard a renewal of the argument between the city workers and city officials who oppose the measure and referred it to subcommittee. A similar bill has been recommended for passage in the House.

Hearing was started but not finished by the House Revenue and Taxation Committee on a measure which would put a 10 per cent gross receipts levy on trading stamp operations. It will continue next Wednesday.

Reps. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio and Rep. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa introduced another big tax bill yesterday.

Junior Editors Quiz on ROOSTERS

QUESTION: How do roosters crow?

• • •

ANSWER: Humans talk and sing and make other sounds by using an organ in their throats called a larynx. This is not so in birds. Roosters crow, chickens cluck and canaries sing by means of an organ called the syrinx.

The syrinx is a set of reed-like membranes growing out of a bony bar in the bird's throat. The forced passage of air over the membranes causes them to vibrate, making sound. The same principle is used to create music in instruments like the clarinet.

Many ancient people thought the rooster was sacred to the sun god because roosters crow at dawn as if to greet the rising sun. Some people thought a rooster crowing at dawn drove away the evil spirits that roamed the world by night.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Here is a picture of a rooster crowing on a fence, arousing a boy much earlier in the morning than he wants to be awakened. Color the picture, choosing your own colors but making sure the rooster's comb is red.

14 VIC Members Going To Lubbock

Fourteen members of the Vocational Industrial Club of Snyder High School will go tomorrow afternoon to Lubbock, where they will participate in a district VIC meeting and district contests.

The 14 represent almost half the local VIC Club, which is made up of students in the high school industrial cooperative training program.

The meeting will be held at Tom S. Lubbock High School in Lubbock on Saturday. Tomorrow night the students will be setting up projects they vill take there to enter in district competition. The projects are those made which pertain to their training jobs.

In addition to the project competition, each of the students attending will enter skill speed, identification, and related technical information contests in line with their particular fields of work. Six will also enter job application contests, seven will enter parliamentary procedure competition, and the club's officer team will enter the opening and closing ceremony contest.

First place winners in district contests will enter state contests at the state VIC meeting in Galveston May 8-9.

The West Texas VIC district this year is much larger after two districts combined. The district now covers an area stretching from El Paso to Amarillo.

Members of the officer team, their offices, and the training posts they hold are Donna Neal, president, optician; John Callaway, vice president, architectural draftsman; Sandra Simpson, secretary, lab technician; Judy Milton, reporter, optician; Carroll Cox, sergeant-at-arms, auto mechanic; Neal Dennis, treasurer, electric motor repairman; and J. C. Jackson, club advisor and ICT coordinator.

Other students attending and their training jobs are James Newton, architectural draftsman; Mary McCraw, auto partsman; Ray Cox, plumber; Donna Scott, nurse aide; Karen Livingstone, nurse aide; Wayne Jarvis, electrician; and Pat Crooks, dental assistant.

Ingrid Gets Custody Of Her Children

ROME (AP)—A Rome court today provisionally awarded actress Ingrid Bergman chief custody of the three children born to her and film director Roberto Rossellini.

The ruling, described as provisory pending a final decision, said Rossellini should have certain visiting rights and holiday company of the children.

The children — Robertino and twin girls, Isotta and Isabella—are with their mother in France, where a Paris court previously granted her custody. The legal effect of the Rome court order thus is debatable. Rossellini filed the action.

Neither Rossellini nor Miss Bergman, now the wife of Swedish businessman Lars Schmidt, attended the hearing. Both were in Paris.

Still pending in a Rome court is a final decision on Rossellini's suit for annulment of his Mexican proxy marriage with Miss Bergman.

The suit, which was not contested by Miss Bergman, affirmed that at the time of the wedding she was still legally the wife of Dr. Peter Lindstrom of Los Angeles.

A Rome court granted Rossellini an appeal was filed by the state's prosecutor.

Miss Bergman married Schmidt in London last December.

Says Children Should Work

FORT WORTH (AP)—Dr. Paul Popenoe of Los Angeles, pioneer family counselor, took parents to task here today for not giving children more work to do in the house.

Popenoe was here for the opening of the Texas Assn. for Mental Health Convention.

In an interview, he emphasized the importance of "making the child a real partner in the home, giving him responsibility."

Popenoe advocates work for the child — unpaid work.

"The minute you put chores on a pay basis, you introduce exploitation," he said. "Too many children grow up who won't do anything unless they are paid."

By giving the child a sense of responsibility, the foundation is laid for that child becoming a useful member of society, he said.

Castro Cracks Down On Loan Sharks

HAVANA (AP) — A crackdown on loan sharks has been announced by Prime Minister Fidel Castro as one of the steps in his campaign to make Cuba over.

Calling the loan sharks "buzzards," Castro told Cubans: "I propose that you refuse to pay them."

The bearded leader said he had been assured by Cuban banks that they propose to develop a personal loan business at moderate interest rates.

The loan shark racket has flourished in Havana for years, with interest rates running 10 per cent a month and in some cases up to 20 per cent. Laws against usury have largely been overlooked in the past but strict enforcement is expected now.

Cigaretts Stolen From Auto Here

About 70 cartons of cigaretes were stolen from a car owned by J. M. (Dock) Davis, cigarete vending machine operator, here last night.

Police said Davis did not know the exact amount of cigaretes taken, but he estimated the loss at from 60 to 90 cartons.

The theft occurred while the car was parked in Davis' garage at 2906 Thirty-fourth Street. A window was broken out, and the car was unlocked from the inside, police said.

Ford First To Confirm Small Auto

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. has become the first of the Big Three auto makers to confirm it will build a smaller car.

The company said in a letter to stockholders Wednesday that barring changes in the small car market, Ford will introduce an economy model sometime this fall.

Neither General Motors nor Chrysler, the other two members of the Big Three, had any comment on the Ford announcement. Both have outlined company positions in previous statements.

The latest of these was Tuesday when L. L. (Tex) Colbert, Chrysler president, told a news conference in New York that Chrysler had a small car in the testing stage but had not yet decided whether to put in on the market.

The GM stand was incorporated in the company's 1958 annual report by Frederic G. Donner, board chairman, and John F. Gordon, president. The executives told shareholders the corporation was continuing studies to be prepared to produce smaller cars in the event demand warranted them.

The Ford announcement was made by Henry Ford II, president, and Ernest R. Breech, board chairman. Their letter said that the company had been studying the small car situation for several years.

"Barring changes in the market or other circumstances," the letter said, "the company plans to introduce such a car during the 1960 model year."

Ford and Breech said the car will be in competition with other economy cars, "including cars expected to be produced in this country by other American manufacturers."

The predictions generally are that newer models planned by the Big Three will be of from 108 to 110 inch wheelbase.

Snyderite Due To Receive Degree

Jimmy Boyd of Snyder is among 315 candidates who will seek degrees during the spring convocation March 24 at West Texas State College, Canyon.

Cat Is Blamed For Loss Of Pigeons

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Homing pigeon-breeder C. H. Lyne blames a marauding cat for loss of nearly a third of his fine racing birds.

Lyne said a big alley cat raided his fourth-story loft and killed 11 of his 36 pigeons. He valued them at $4,000.

Dickensons Buy Grocery Store Here

A new drive-in grocery business here formerly known as Smitty's has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dickenson.

Dickenson, who is managing the business, assumed operation of the store, located at Avenue L. and Twenty-fifth Street, last Friday. He has renamed it Bert's. The Dickensons purchased the store from Charlie Smith.

Dickenson, who is former superintendent of Cogdell Memorial Hospital, was once previously a grocer, having owned a grocery business at Chico, in Wise County, from 1937 to 1941.

A resident of Snyder two and one-half years, he was superintendent of Cogdell Hospital two years and was in hospital administration work eight years. He had also previously operated a drug Store in Abilene and had been employed in Abilene by West Texas Utilities prior to entering the hospital administrative field.

At Bert's, Dickenson handles a general line of groceries and picnic supplies and features barbecue daily.

The store is open seven days weekly from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m.

The Dickensons live at 3206 Avenue B. They have one son, Michael Lee, 26 months old.

Kiwanis Scout Troop Charter Presented

The charter for Boy Scout Troop No. 35, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, was presented at the service club's regular luncheon meeting Wednesday in Starr's Restaurant.

The Rev. Walter Lentz, chairman of the troop committee, was in charge of the program, and the charter was presented by Richard Kemper of the Toastmasters Club.

H. W. Cargile inducted three new members into the Kiwanis Club. The new members are Dave Houston, Roy Lashaway and Bob Williams.

Altrurian Club Hears Program Friday, By Arthur Blanchard

The Altrurian Club met Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the Martha Ann Clubhouse with Mrs. Hugh Taylor as hostess.

The program committee consisting of Mrs. Hugh Boren, Mrs. Fred A. Grayum, Mrs. H. P. Brown, Mrs. John R. Williams and Mrs. Alvie Dolen, arranged a most interesting afternoon.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Hon. Arthur Blanchard. Mr. Blanchard was born in Okla., attended several universities in other states; received his degree from Texas University; served time in the U. S. Army in Germany and drove an amusement wagon there. It was while on this tour he met his wife Louise, who was an actress. They were married in Philadelphia.

Mr. Blanchard spoke on Texas and with the permission of Boyce House, presented some of his Texas jokes, saying:

"There is one sure way to tell when a Texan is lying, if his mouth is open, he's lying." Tex as has shadeless mesquites, more kinds of thorney cactus, the sandiest sand, and the windiest wind,—to say nothing of armor-plated armadillos, giant rattlers and tarantulas.

"A Texan died and when he awoke in the next world and looked around, he exclaimed, 'Heaven isn't much different from Texas!' A voice said, 'Brother you're not in heaven'.

"Texas has miles and miles of nothing but miles and miles of nothing. 'Shucks pardner! Us Texans just like our chili, coffee and politics strong, our weather sudden, our broncos wild and our buildings, oil derricks and stories tall.

"You hadn't orter, be low-rating Texas in no such way because you are driving a car that is using Texas gasoline and Texas lubricating oil. You are living in a house that is heated by gas piped from Texas and the very suit you're wearing was made from wool clipped from a Texas sheep. You ought to be more grateful, and not like the colored woman I heard about.

"Mose was accused of beating up his woman and the judge asked him why he did it. His answer was, 'Judge I been courtin dat gal for nigh on to three yeahs and she promised to marry me if I'd buy her a set of false teeth. I bought her the finest set that fohty dollahs would buy, den she throwed me ovah and tuck up wid anuddah feller yist ddy. I seen 'em on the street together, and she grinned at me grinned at me wid my own teeth, and I knocked thunder out of her.'"

On the serious side Mr. Blanchard told of the great name Texas has made for itself. "Texas is the only state that has Texas Rangers. It is noted for its great universities, symphonies, theatres, opera, museums and art galleries. It is ranked among the top states for its educational systems, highways, streets and public services.

"Texas today is the second largest state in the union. On the economic side we are recognized for our agriculture, grasses, ranching, breaking up of big ranches, feeding of live stock, and our cotton products.

"Our oil industry and chemical plants are among the largest in the world. We also have a steel plant at Dangerfield, Tex. Other industries we are noted for are our paper mills, building, construction machinery, copper smelting mines and others. Many of these are near us, such as Midland, Odessa, Sweetwater, Lubbock and etc."

Roll call was answered by 20 members by "Texas Brags".

Elementary 4-H Club Meeting Held

The Elementary 4-H Club met March 10 at the County Extension office.

The meeting was called to order by Doris Rhodes. Miss Ruby Butts, county agert, gave a demonstration on arranging clothes closets, which is very helpful for young girls.

The group planned a Easter party for March 24th. Ruby Merritt, Doris Rhodes and Donna Shaw volunteered their mothers to help with the party.

County-Wide 4-H Club News

At the regular meeting of the County-wide 4-H committee held Saturday, March 7th, plans were made for the County team demonstration contest to be held on Saturday, April 11.

It was decided that there would be three divisions in the contest, juniors, intermediates and seniors. Seniors are determined according to the state rules, but juniors will be girls having no experience in team demonstrations, while intermediates will be girls who have entered the contests before or girls 12 or over.

Girls who are 11 and have not entered the contests before may decide whether they prefer to enter as juniors or intermediates. They need not decide whether they are juniors or intermediates until they arrive for the contests.

Miss Ruby Butts will help any girl who needs help at registration time, to decide which group she choses.

The junior records contest was discussed and it was decided that records would be classed according to the number of years in 4-H work.

The committee discussed the possibility of selling toothbrushes to raise funds for the 4-H Clubs, but decided against it.

HERMLEIGH 4-H

The Hermleigh group of the Hermleigh 4-H Club recently met in the home of Diane Holdride for a demonstration on making batter yeast bread. The demonstration was given by Nancy Campbell and Diane Holdride.

Other members present were, Geenita Robbins, Sandra Fritz, Alma Collier, Jeanette Grassman, Maria Herrera, Carolyn Chitsey, Joyce Buchanan and Linda Colvin.

NATIONAL WEEK

Governor Price Daniel proclaimed the week of Feb. 28-March 7 as 4-H Week in Texas.

This year there was a special salute to the 4-H Alumni who were honored during this period.

Many of our citizens are among the more than 1,000,000 Texas young people who have belonged to some 4-H Club during the past 51 years that 4-H has existed in Texas.

In Texas, 4-H Club work is directed by the Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M College system. Locally, 4-H programs and activities are directed by county Extension Agents, with hel; from parents, local leaders, and friends of 4-H members.

'Texas Panorama' Topic For Twentieth Century Program

The Twentieth Century Club met at the Martha Ann Woman's Club March 10th. with the president Mrs. J. N. Dunn, presiding.

Mrs. Ola Leath gave a Federation report from the Texas Clubwoman magazine entitled "What Is A Clubwoman".

Mrs. John Hamblen gave the thought for the day on "Success".

"A Texas Panorama", was the program topic with Mrs. Elton Wyatt as leader. An interesting quiz program was presented by Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. B. J. Bartel, Mrs. Dave Shaeffer and Mrs. Leath. The quiz program was filled with humor and 'Texas Brags' as well as many interesting facts about Texas.

Mrs. Wyatt said, "Many tales have been told about Texas and the Texas brags, and we think rightly so.

"G.T.T.' was an expression known all over the U. S. in the early days to describe the folks who had 'Gone to Texas'. Surely the first pioneers came to Texas for greater freedom. Many came seeking independence from a government that sought to restrict, confine or perhaps eliminate them by due process of law because to some more or less serious crime committed against society. In Texas they were free to do as they pleased as long as they had the fastest horse or could draw their gun quicker than the other fellow.

"A visitor commented thus about Texas: 'Texas has more cows and less milk, more trees and less forests, more wells and less water, and you can look farther and see less than any place in the world'."

Mrs. Wyatt discussed the world's biggest boom — Roaring Ranger by Boyce House.

"Every three days, a million dollars worth of liquid gold flowed from the gushers. The gold rush of California or any other rush has never equalled it.

"The boom lasted three and one-half years and then the town settled back into a small prosperous town with beautiful churches, a nice medical center and a junior college. Oil still plays an important party in Ra...

Mrs. Shaeffer told the story of Cynthia Parker who was captured by the Indians at age nine. "For five years no trace was found of her. She was finally found by a Col. Williams, who had offered ransom money for her release. He was allowed to see Cynthia Ann, but could not persuade her to speak.

"She later married a brave chief, Petra Nacoma. Her husband was killed later in an attack and Cynthia Ann was captured with her baby, Prairie Flower. She was sent to her uncle, but she was unhappy there and lived only a few years. One of her sons Quanah Parker, became a chief of the Comanches."

Mrs. Bartel reviewed "Cowtown Columnist" by Boyce House. She said:

"This is the story of Judge Roy Bean who was known as the law west of the Pecos. It is said that Judge Bean used a six shooter for a gavel while serving as Justice of Peace. He had no jail and was interested only in the money he could get from his cases. He once tried a corpse and fined him $40.00 for carrying a weapon. He then removed the $40.00 he had found in the pocket of the corpse.

"Judge Bean was born in Kentucky, was a gold hunter in California, and was a ladies man. He performed marriage ceremonies and ended by saying: 'May God have mercy on your soul'. He said he was rectifying an error when he granted a divorce because he married the couple to begin with."

Mrs. Leath colsed the discussion with some Texas humor.

A salad plate was served by Mrs. I. T. Huckabee to 14 members and three guests, Mrs. Howard Hogue, Mrs. Monty Yantis and Mrs. Harry Vanderpool.

LWV Annual Meeting Tonight

The League of Women Voters will hold their annual meeting tonight at the Village.

The program preceding the business session will feature Mr. Wm. Nesbitt, director of the Staff Utilization program in Senior and Junior High Schools who will explain the school's program in detail. Mr. Nesbitt will present both sides of arguments for and against the present program. A question and answer session will follow his presentation.

The annual elections will follow this program. The League will be electing a first vice president, a treasurer, and three board members.

Other business will include the adoption of the proposed budget; decision as how to handle the local League's share of Shared Field Service expense for state.

At the 1958-59 annual meeting, the League adopted a two-year current agenda which is KYC. Some discussion concerning this local item will be held.

Nominations from the floor will be in order for each of the offices to be filled. Persons thus nominated must have first been contacted and have given their consent to such nomination.

OUR VIEW

Promoting Efficiency

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE

By adopting a "little Hoover commission" for Texas, to make recommendations for economy in state government, the Legislature will not be condemning any of the agencies. Instead, it will be setting up an organization designed to bring greater efficiency and co-ordination to state government.

The bill to create the commission, by Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, is near final passage in the House. The objective of the bill—economy in state government operations—was brought up by Gov. Price Daniel in his first message to this session of the Legislature.

There is not, of course, that waste in our state government that there is in Washington. There isn't the scope for it. But various legislative investigative committees and citizen study groups have shown how better use of man power and better co-ordination among departments can achieve greater economy and efficiency in the operation of the state government.

In all parts of the country citizens are, with justification, getting into a rebellious mood about taxes. Texans are becoming more vocal every day in their opposition to increased spending and taxation. If government officials, do not heed the public sentiment, the revolt of citizens may go further than intended and force abandonment of some of the existing services. The officials will get the blame, as they should.

Americans rebelled with arms against taxation to win this country's independence. It appears they now must rebel with ballots in order to preserve that independence.

President Shows More Vigor Now

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, who in recent weeks has had to depend more on himself than at any time since entering the White House in 1953, sounds more emphatic, blunter.

This showed at his news conference Wednesday. At his meetings with congressional leaders last weekend he reportedly was very much in charge.

The two men he leaned on most are now out of the picture.

Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's chief of staff in the White House until he resigned last summer, was a great cushion against the burdens of the presidency.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, now ill with cancer, had an extraordinary relationship with the President. He was Eisenhower's eyes and ears in foreign policy and much of the time his spokesman.

Now far more of the presidential load has landed on Eisenhower's shoulders, along with its many irritations. And Eisenhower is responding with a show of vigor.

In times past, if you attended one of his news conferences and didn't have to concentrate on taking notes, your mind was apt to wander as Eisenhower rambled through generalities that lacked a sharp edge.

Not Wednesday. He still got wound up in long, involved sentences which often scrambled subject and predicate, but he made points that did have an edge.

Perhaps it was out of exasperation with congressional Democrats, who have been calling on him to pump more men and money into the armed forces, that he finally said in effect:

There's not going to be a land war in Europe; and if the Allied troops there can't cope with whatever is done by the far more numerous Soviet troops, then the whole situation has passed beyond the point of limited war.

He didn't volunteer any statement that if war could not be limited to land engagements then nuclear weapons might have to be used. But under questioning he indicated he was not ruling out the possibility of nuclear war.

This might have been intended to make the Soviets think soberly before they tried any adventures around West Berlin. But, since it might also make American Allies in Europe edgy, he must have thought of that, too, before he spoke.

It was tough talk. But Eisenhower's attitude on the crisis Premier Nikita Khrushchev cooked up on Berlin has been increasingly, although not blatantly, tough.

Perhaps the best sign of his bluntness came when he was asked what he thought of Khrushchev's proposal that maybe the Berlin problem could be solved by letting Soviet troops join Allied troops in West Berlin.

At first, almost as if from force of habit, Eisenhower launched out on an explanation with a generalized moral tone.

He said this country would consult in the most democratic way with its allies in framing an answer to the Soviet demands about getting out of West Berlin and leaving it a free city.

Mary Boland Rests Well After Surgery

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mary Boland, veteran stage and screen comedienne, was reported resting well today after undergoing surgery in Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

The 74-year-old actress was operated on Wednesday to halt an abdominal hemorrhage. Her doctor described her condition as "very satisfactory."

Horse Kissing Is No Longer An Art

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In the old Westerns the he-man hero usually wound up being bussed by his faithful pony.

Because of a growing feminine interest in these hoofbeat sagas, however, horse kissing has died out as a major American art.

To please the ladies in the audience, the story now ends with the hero in a tender clinch with the faithful dance hall hostess — and the faithful horse can go eat grass, for all anyoody cares.

Kissing pretty actresses seems an ideal job to the average man. But there are days when Gene Barry would just as soon turn this chore over to a stand-in.

For a temperamental actress, he implied, can be worse than a temperamental mustang.

"Some of them try to give you that old feminine flimflam," Gene said.

"Then it's pretty hard to make love to them. But a fellow can always manage. I always ask myself, 'If their own mother loved them, why can't I?'"

Barry, like that real-life Western character, Billy the Kid, was born in New York City. In his first stage role he played Bluebeard in the sixth grade in Public School 121 in Brooklyn.

He began his professional career at 16. He sold jewelry, shoes and ladies' wear before making the big time on Broadway.

Since then he has been in a dozen films, traveled the night club circuit, and appeared on more than 100 television shows before he hit the real pay dirt as Bat Masterson.

His derby hat, tight suit and gold-headed cane—it often takes the place of a pistol — are now symbols of elegance to the teenagers (and middle-aged ladies) who idolize him.

He hopes to go on to directing and producing. But if the present mania for Westerns should fade and leave him stranded—unlikely, since he is a man of many talents—he's ready to take up a new career.

"I'd go in for contracting and building," he said. "I recently built my own house, and I like the field."

Barry recently said his goal was to have "a greater concern for the more simple and basic things" in life.

Then he added with a grin: "But first you gotta get rich. Then you don't have to worry about dough and can afford to squander your money on the simple, basic things."

Man Who Failed In 20 Restaurants Dies

HONOLULU (AP)—P. Y. Chong who opened — and failed in — 20 Chinese restaurants in Honolulu and found "life velly funny, up and down," died Wednesday.

Chong, who was 62, was an immigrant who had thousands of friends throughout the world.

His showiest restaurant, Lau Yee Chai on famed Waikiki Beach still is a show place—but operated by other owners. It is world famed among tourists and service men.

He invariably introduced himself as "Me, P. Y. Chong, allee samee No. 1 cook."

Ike's Words May Hold Back NATO

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twelve words from President Eisenhower may add difficulty to the Atlantic Pact's long-sough. goal of establishing 30 NATO divisions in Europe.

The President told his news conference Wednesday: "We are certainly not going to fight a ground war in Europe."

Gen. Lauris Norstad, the persuasive and personable Air Force man who is Eisenhower's latest successor as NATO supreme commander, has been pursing the elusive 30-division goal for years. He is almost in sight of it.

But Eisenhower's comment seemed certain to raise in Europe the same question being asked around Washington: if he foresees no ground war in Europe, what is the use of having 30 NATO ground divisions?

Norstad's answer lies in the "shield and sword" concept underlying NATO philosophy since technological development outran the original NATO idea.

His argument is that the NATO ground forces—now totaling 21 1-3 divisions — are a shield. The retaliatory nuclear powers of the United States, particularly its long range bombers and its developing missile capability, are the sword.

The one blunts the enemy's first attack; the other thrusts back.

Norstad's chief problem long has been a psychological one. The general attitude of America's NATO allies is that (A) they are sick of war after two frightful experiences with it this century, and (B) if there is to be a third world war, they feel it would be fought primarily between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Under such circumstances the other NATO allies would rather spend more of their money rebuilding housing demolished in the last war, for example, than building up their individual arms to prevent another.

Basically, they seem to feel it is fruitless to try to beef up their defenses when any new war probably would be fought over their heads in a duel of long range missiles.

Norstad does not claim he has the power, or even will have it with 30 divisions, to defeat any determined Soviet military aggression. The U.S.S.R. has 20 divisions in East Germany and 155 more in the general area. NATO estimates the Soviet Union could mobilize 400 divisions within 30 days.

The mission of the NATO ground forces in Europe, as set forth by Norstad, is three-fold.

First, they are expect to break the continuity of any military drive by the Soviets, thus slowing the advance and sounding the alarm.

Second, by offering opposition they would force the Soviets to a deliberate decisio to start World War III.

Finally, they would demonstrate to the Soviets that any brush-fire border skirmish almost inevitably would invite total war.

Count-Down On Red Edict Begins

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — THE COUNT-DOWN HAS STARTED. Exactly two and a half months from now will come the greatest test for this Country and world peace which has occurred since World War II. It probably is a test as great as Korea — greater than that which occurred in Lebanon or that which involved Matsu and Quemoy.

MAY 27 IS THE DEADLINE set by Khrushchev of the Soviet Union to give the East Germans control of the three air corridors, one railroad and one highway from West Germany through Soviet controlled territory to the City of Berlin, a distance of about 100 miles. After May 27, Khrushchev says that the East Germans, who are not recognized as a government by the Western powers, will assume control. He further indicates that the East Germans will close or restrict ingress and egress from the Allied sectors of West Berlin. He threatens that when and if the East Germans restrict travel and supplies through the transportation corridors from West Germany to West Berlin, and should force be used to keep open these avenues of supply, World War III may result.

PRES. EISENHOWER SAYS we will not "budge an inch" in protecting our rights to West Berlin.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT WE maintain our position in Berlin? It is important because if it were not Berlin, it would be some other place. It may be Korea again Matsu or Quemoy; it may again be Lebanon or some other place in the Middle East; it may be Africa, Southeast Asia and even Latin America. There is no end to the trouble making by the Communists. Revolution is rip in many places which are fertile ground for the seeds of foment sown by the Russians. They are masters at sowing. They are excellent judges of fertility.

IF WE ARE NOT UNDERESTIMATING the Soviets in the ballistic missile field, w are underestimating them in world trade, subversion and effectiveness of propaganda.

AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE EFFECTIVENESS of Khrushchev's propaganda, what could be more reasonable than his statement that, "it is the task of the German people to re-unite Berlin." It sounds reasonable that the German people themselves should decide how and when they shall unite and let others not "interfere." The catch is that the East German government was imposed by the Soviets, is dominated by them, and any settlement would be dictated by the Kremlin. He seemingly means that a settlement by the two German States would be between a West Germany, speaking for West Germans, and an East German government speaking for the Soviet Union.

THE MAY 27 DEADLINE SET BY Khrushchev is a real test for the Western powers. The United States, England and France either default, not only to the West Germans, but to all free governments, or they stand up to the Russians in the face of the most serious challenge presented since World War II. As the President has said, it is no time for panic in the face of these threats. It is, however, time for the Western nations to let it be crystal clear to the Kremlin that we have no intention of knuckling under to their demands. Aside from the Allies' commitment to the West Germans, it would only be a short time until another challenge of a similar nature would be presented in another place, and if possible, one even more sensitive. The world is now too small to find a place to hide. There really is little or no choice but to face the Soviets with all the determination at our command, backed up with whatever force is necessary.

THERE IS GOOD REASON TO BELIEVE that if no doubt is left in the mind of the Dictator of the Kremlin that we will resist this threat, no shooting will occur and no war result. Should, however, they miscalculate our determination anything could happen.

IT IS AN UNDERSTATEMENT that we sit in an anxious seat and must occupy the chair for the next two and a half months.

Blaze Claims Second Victim

DALLAS (AP) — A three-year-old Sulphur Springs girl died of burns in a Dallas hospital today, the second victim of a fire at Sulphur Springs last week.

The child, Brenda Kizer, was brought to Dallas in critical condition with burns all over her body after her home was ignited by kerosene last Friday.

A baby brother, Alvin, four months, died in the flames.

Now listed in good condition at Memorial Hospital at Sulphur Springs are the mother, Mrs. William Kizer, 28; and two other children, Alvis Ray, 5, and Kenneth, 8. Another son, William Harold, 10, was also burned but was treated and released from the hospital.

Kizer was away from the home at the time of the fire and did not return from a coon hunt until early Saturday.

Officials said a can of kerosene exploded behind a wood stove in the Kizers' three-room frame home.

C-C Membership Panel Has Session

The Chamber of Commerce membership and finance committee held its monthly breakfast meeting this morning, with members of the committee reporting on membership work during the past month and receiving assignments for the coming month.

Reports showed that the committee has enlisted 10 new chamber members during the past month.

Six members of the committee attended.

The word "nicotine" comes from the name of French scientist Jean Nicot, who contended that tobacco was a relief from many ailments.

22-House Project Is Underway Here

A 22-house development is now underway in the second section of the Parkway Addition in northeast Snyder.

The houses are being built by Stardust Construction Co. of Big Spring, which purchased the lots from the subdividers, D. R. Scott, J. L. Browning, W. W. Milburn, and Mark P. Thomas. Those four men were the developers of the first section of the Parkway Addition.

Already underway is street work for a paved street, work on installation of utilities, and foundations of two of the houses. The area is already in the city limits, and the second section of Parkway has about 50 other lots which will probably be developed, Scott said.

The Stardust firm will build the 22 houses under FHA supervision. They will be three-bedroom houses with one bath and no garage, in the moderate price range.

The street on which the houses will be located is Scott Street, which is parallel and just east of the Waymar Apartments, which are located on Coleman Street. The lots on which these houses will be built stretch through more than two city blocks of Scott Street.

Advertisements For Graham Are Removed

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Advertisements for a revival meeting Billy Graham will hold at Melbourne University Friday were removed during the night.

Organizers of the American evangelist's local crusade said some of the students are opposed to the meeting.

Graham winds up his crusade in Melbourne Sunday and will take a two-week holiday on the Queensland coast.

Taken To Hospital

Mrs. Sam Beaver was taken early this morning from her home at Fluvanna to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Bolger ambulance.

18 Tigers To Run In Canyon Reef Relays

The Midland Bulldogs, the pre-meet favorite, will bring the largest squad to Snyder Saturday for the 7th running of the Canyon Reef Relays at Tiger Stadium.

Midland coach Edwin Nixon will enter 28 boys in Saturday's affair. Sweetwater, with 23 entries, will have the second largest squad among the Canyon Reef entries.

Three other squads will have 22 entries, Amarillo, Odessa and San Angelo. Following these are Amarillo Tascosa with 21, Big Spring and Levelland with 20 each, Artesia, N. M. and Colorado City with 19 each, host Snyder with 18, Clovis, N. M., Littlefield and Pampa with 17 each, Plainview, 16; Borger, 15; Lamesa and Lubbock Tom S., 13 each; Lubbock Monterey, 12; Odessa Ector 11; and Lake View 8.

Tiger coach Jim Stehley will enter his boys as follows in Saturday's show:

120-yard high hurdles — Stanley Woolever, Wayne Berry.

100-yard dash — Jimmy Maroney, Richard Mahan.

880-yard relay — Maroney, Jesse Crawford, John Weaver, Woolever.

440-yard dash — Larry Patterson, Alex Cross.

180-yard low hurdles — Woolever, Crawford, Berry.

440-yard relay — Maroney, Mahan, Crawford, Weaver.

880-yard run — Jimmy McFarland.

220-yard dash — Weaver.

Mile run — Elvis Pinkerton.

Mile relay — Patterson, Billy Harless, Cross, Bill Dubose or Bo Brown.

Pole vault — Perry Culwell.

Broad jump — Crawford, Maroney, Patterson.

High jump — Dubose, Woolever, Berry.

Discuss — Ronnie Giles, Gene Roe.

Shot put — Mickey McGrew, Tommy Minton.

Coach Stehley pointed out that he will have to juggle his lineup if Weaver isn't fully recovered from a muscle spasm in his leg suffered last week at Laredo.

Weaver has been working out this week but he is still favoring the injury.

The host Tigers are the defending champions and if Weaver is able to go the Bengals may make another strong bid for the title. Midland, however, is considered the favorite. Midland won the Commanche Relays at Fort Stockton two weeks ago and finished second to Abilene in the Borger Olympics at Laredo last week.

Borger, winner of the Possum Kingdom Relays in Graham last week, and Amarillo Tascosa, a close runnerup in the Graham meet, are other strong contenders. Borger won the Graham meet with 25 points to 24 for Tascosa.

Two defending individual champions are returning Saturday. Tommy Craver of Midland, who won the pole vault last year with a 11-0 vault, and Emory Martindale, the shot put winner with a 51-4½ toss, are the 1958 champions returning.

Both Craver and Martindale have already bettered their Canyon Reef showings last year in competition this year. Craver vaulted 11-3½ at the Border Olympics while Martindale set a new Border shot record with a heave of 57-3¾.

Three-fourths of Borger's mile relay team that won the event here last year return. They are Don Box, Jim Dawson and Flow West. Borger captured the event here last year in 3:30.5 for a new Canyon Reef record.

Preliminaries will begin at 9 a. m. Saturday with the finals slated for 2 p.m.

Following are the Canyon Reef records:

120-yard high hurdles: 14.8, set by Rex Wilson of Snyder, 1958.

100-yard dash: 9.8, set by Alton Thygerson, Pampa, 1958.

880-yard relay: 1:32.3, set by Pampa (Warren, Locke, Epps, Breshears), 1958.

440-yard dash: 50.9, set by Don Harber, Lubbock, 1955.

180-yard low hurdles: 18.8, set by Bud Morgan, Snyder, 1958.

440-yard relay: 44.0, set by Lubbock Monterey (McCaulley, Hunt, Cherry, Alexander), 1950.

220-yard dash: 21.3, set by Alton Thygerson, Pampa, 1958.

Mile run: 4:40.7, set by R. D. Ross, Lamesa, 1956.

Mile relay: 3:30.5, set by Borger (Box Dawson, Rouse, West), 1958.

Pole vault: 12-6½, set by Larry Palmer, Midland, 1955.

Broad jump: 21-9¼, set by W. A. Kennedy, Levelland, 1956.

High Jump: 6-4, set by Glen Thornton, Aspermont, 1956.

Discus: 162-10½, set by Walter Meyers, Odessa, 1958.

Shot put: 52-1¼, set by Jim Windham, Colorado City, 1956.

SPORTS

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

KEN BARR, THE FELLOW who gave District 3-AAA cagemen fits during the past season while performing for the Lamesa Tornadoes, may do likewise on the diamond.

Barr opened on the mound for Lamesa against Odessa Tuesday and gave up only one hit in six innings of work. He turned over the mound chores to Ronnie Reeves in the seventh inning with the Tornadoes trailing the Odessans, 4-1.

Odessa then opened up on Reeves in the final frame for six runs and a 10-1 victory.

Lamesa collected only two hits off Odessa pitching while the Broncs wound up with five.

Colorado City, the third 3-AAA team to field baseball teams this season, hasn't opened its schedule yet.

The Tigers, of course, have already played two games with the third coming up tomorrow afternoon against Big Spring here. The Bengals have been plagued with tough luck to date in dropping a pair of 7-6 decisions to Big Spring and San Angelo.

Wild Scrap Seen

One of the wildest scraps for team honors in the Canyon Reef history is almost sure to develop when the 7th annual show is unreeled here Saturday.

Any one of five or six teams could walk off with the title. Among them are Midland, Borger, Amarillo, San Angelo, Amarillo Tascosa and the host Tigers.

Midland is considered the top favorite at the moment but any one of the above teams could well walk off with the crown.

The Tiger hopes of repeating as champs depend mostly on the performances of the 440 and 880-yard relay teams. And coach Jim Stehley has been spending some sleepless nights this week over the condition of his squad.

John Weaver, the anchor man on both the relay teams, is nursing a lame leg and if the Tigers are to make any kind of a showing in the two relays Weaver will have to be ready.

Weaver came up with some muscle spasms in his leg while running in the Border Olympics last week and he hasn't fully recovered from them yet. The Tiger sprint relay team has posted the fastest time this season among Canyon Reef entries, 43.5, but that was with Weaver in the fold.

It probably will not be known until Saturday whether or not Weaver will be able to run.

Talents Divided

Weaver, incidentally, is going to concentrate fully on track this season. John started the season dividing time between track and baseball but this worked too much of a burden so he had to drop one. He chose to remain on the track squad.

Weaver, a sophomore, has a bright future in track. He's strong and, of course, has plenty of speed.

It's a shame that baseball and track seasons are at the same time. There are athletes other than Weaver on the track team who could help the baseball team and then there's some on the baseball squad who could help the tracksters.

We think the Tigers do right well in both sports, especially considering the fact that the available talents for the two sports must be split.

TCU Leaves For NCAA Tournament

FORT WORTH (AP)—TCU, the Southwest Conference basketball champion, will go to Lawrence, Kan., Friday to play in the NCAA regional tournament. Opposition in the first game will be Cincinnati.

OWNS TOP TIME—Pictured is the Tiger 440-yard relay team which holds the best time this season among entries in the Canyon Reef Relays to be held here Saturday. The quartet turned in a 43.5 in the Border Olympics last week. From front to back, members of the team are Jimmy Maroney, Richard Mahan, Jesse Crawford and John Weaver. (Lee Watson photograph)

SEEKING FIRST WIN

Tiger 9 Hosts Steers Tomorrow

The Tiger baseballers, smarting from a pair of one-run defeats in their first two games, will meet the Big Spring Steers tomorrow afternoon at Towle Park.

Game time will be 4 p.m.

Coach Speedy Moffett's diamonders have dropped both of their games to date by identical 7-6 margins. One of the losses came at the hands of tomorrow's opponent who defeated the Bengals last Saturday at Big Spring in the season opener.

Big Spring is still undefeated with a 2-0 record. In addition to the win over the Tigers, Big Spring clobbered Pecos, 16-2. The Steers were scheduled to play Lubbock Monterey Tuesday but the game was postponed when the Steer bus broke down enroute to Lubbock.

Tiger coach Moffett probably will call on Norman Gladson for starting duties in tomorrow's game. Gladson has absorbed both Tiger defeats thus far, one as a starter and the other in a relief role. On both occasions, however, shoddy fielding led to his downfall.

Gladson went the route against Big Spring last Saturday and was touched for only six hits. Five Tiger errors, though, enabled the Steers to triumph. The Tigers led Big Spring 6-0 at one time but the Steers rallied for the victory.

The Tigers also jumped into a commanding lead in their next start, against San Angelo here Tuesday. The Bengals led 6-2 after four innings but the Bobcats erupted for three runs in the fifth and two in the sixth for the victory, all runs being unearned.

Tomorrow's game will wind up the week's activity for the Tigers. The Bengals open play next week against Abilene at Abilene Tuesday, return home Friday to meet Lubbock Monterey and then go to Lubbock Saturday for a doubleheader against Tom S.

Tiger Netters Open Season Here Today

The Tiger tennis team was slated to open its 159 season today against Colorado City here.

The Tiger netters are now under the tutelage of Ned Underwood who has taken over for J. P. Ward. Ward is now the Tiger golf coach.

The Tiger golfers will go to Big Spring tomorrow for a four-way meet.

The Snyder High School Tigerettes will return to action in volleyball tomorrow night against Denver City at Tiger Gym.

GG Champions Are Crowned

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago's Golden Glovers, the best amateur scrappers in the West, will take boxing skill rather than punching power against New York in the March 25 intercity bouts here.

This was demonstrated clearly Wednesday night before 1,243 in Chicago Stadium and a national television audience in Chicago's tourney of champions finals.

Four of the amateur stars, including one of the two defending champions, won their titles before the TV camera.

Wilbur Mc Clure, Toledo, Ohio, retained his 160-pound championship with a decision over Cincinnati's Herbert Wills.

The others who won titles "on camara" included heavyweight Jimmy Jones, 18, an unemployed Chicago representative; welterweight Don Sargent, a truck driver from Minneapolis; and Cassius Clay, 17, a high school light heavy from Louisville, Ky.

The only other returning champion, little Gil Yanez of Toledo, retained his flyweight crown with a decision over Oscar German, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Four teams — Chicago, Nashville, Cincinnati and Toledo — shared the team crown with 14 points each, a point for each bout won in the entire tourney.

TCU Opens NCAA Bid Against Cincy Friday

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Butler plays Fordham ad Villanova challenges St. John's (NY) in a first round oubleheader as the National Invitation Tournament steps into the spotlight tonight.

The doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden tips off the 22nd annual edition of the NIT. The NCAA small college tourney reaches the semifinal stage at Evansville, Ind. The NAIA scrambling goes into the quarter-finals at Kansas City, and the National Collegiate (NCAA) tournament takes its last breather before plunging into four big regional tournaments.

Fordham (16-7), one of four teams from the New York area in the 12-team tournament that winds up March 21, is a four-point favorite over Butler. The Indiana team shows an 18-8 record but has nailed 18 victories in its last 21 starts after dropping its first five.

Included in Butler's list of victims is Navy, the precision bunch that shocked the NCAA tournament with an easy victory over North Carolina in New York Tuesday night.

St. John's (16-6), apparently out of the slump that struck after the Redmen had won 12 of their first 13, is an eight-point choice over Villanova (18-6).

The doubleheader is the first of six on the NIT program. The first round will be completed with another doubleheader Saturday afternoon, quarter-finals Saturday night and Tuesday night, semi-finals Thursday night, March 19, and finals Saturday afternoon, March 21.

Bradley, runnerup to Cincinnati in the rugged Missouri Valley Conference, is top seeded and draws a first round bye along with MVC for St. Louis, St. Bonaventure and Oklahoma City. Also in the field are Providence, Manhattan, Denver and New York U., who play their first round games Saturday afternoon.

The NCAA tournament moves back into prominence Friday night with regional doubleheaders at Charlotte, N.C., Evanston, Ill., Lawrence, Kan., and San Francisco.

The field of 16 was completed Wednesday night when Idaho State's Rocky Mountain perennials nipped Border Conference champion New Mexico State 62-61. Idaho State, playing in the NCAA for the seventh straight year, will meet St. Mary's (Calif) in the Far Western regional at San Francisco Friday night.

The Friday lineup reads like this:

Far Western at San Francisco: Idaho State (20-6) vs St.Mary's (18-5); California (21-4) vs Utah (21-5).

Mid-West at Lawrence: Texas Christian (19-5) vs Cincinnati (23-3); DePaul (13-9) vs Kansas State (24-1).

Mid-East at Evanston: Louisville (17-10) vs Kentucky (23-8); Marquette (23-4) vs Michigan State (18-3).

East at Charlotte: West Virginia (26-4) vs St. oseph's (Pa) (22-3); Boston U. (19-6) vs Navy (17-5).

Lenoir Rhyne College of North Carolina furnished the eye-opener in the small school battling Wednesday, snapping Grambling (La.) 28-game unbeaten streak 88-78 in a second round NAIA game. Lenoir Rhyne was joined in the quarter-finals by Pacific Lutheran, West Virginia Wesleyan, defending champion Tennessee A&I, Ft. Hays (Kan) State, Southwest Texas State, Illinois Normal and Georgia Teachers.

Host Evansville toppled its tournament conqueror of a year ago, St. Michaels (Vt) 82-63 and moved into the NCAA smal college semifinals with North Carolina A&T in tonight's semis. Finals are Friday night while the NAIA winds up its week-long run Saturday night.

Girls State Cage Tourney Opens Tonite

AUSTIN (AP)—The state girls basketball championship tournament opens tonight with two Class A games.

Sudan (31-4) meets Clyde (25-9) in the opening game of the two-day tourney. Sugar Land (30-2) meets Central of Pollok in the second game.

Tomorrow will see play in Classes B and AA.

"It's a terrific ball club, one with great shooters and fine speed," says TCU Asst. Coach Johnny Swaim, who scouted Cincinnati.

Tenn. A&I Wins Again

KANSAS CITY (AP) If there's a question concerning the 21st National Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament it is:

How deep is the Tennessee A&I bench

Coach Johnny McLendon's Tigers, tournament champions the last two years, used only six players in eliminating a strong Youngstown (Ohio) University team 88-80 in the second round Wednesday night. And only five Tigers scored in their first-round victory over Nebraska Wesleyan.

Tennessee A&I appear a solid favorite, however, over Illinois Normal University, its quarter-final foe tonight.

Illinois Normal eliminated Fairleigh-Dickinson of New Jersey 68-64 Wednesday night.

West irginia Wesleyan defeated Duluth Branch of Minnesota University 0-75. Wesleyan plays Fort Hays (Kan.) State today.

In the other quarter - final games, third seeded Pacific Lutheran will meet Georgia Teachers, and Southwest Texas State will play Lenoir-Rhyne of North Carolina.

Pacific Lutheran defeated Central Oklahoma State 68-57 in the second round. Georgia Teachers eliminated Indiana State 73 - 70. Fort Hays defeated Arkansas State Teachers 59 - 48. Lenoir-Rhyne handed Grambling (La.) College its first defeat after 28 victories 88-78, and Southwest Texas State beat Westminster (Pa.) 61-58.

Baylor, Aggie 9s Record Victories

By The Associated Press

Bill Price of New Mexico State and Doyle Edmiston of Hardin-Simmons won individual championships in Border Conference basketball, final statistics revealed Thursday.

Price, a sophomore, topped in scoring with a 20.3 points average per game in conference play and 19.0 in season play. Price also led in field goal accuracy with 56.9.

Edmiston was the leading rebounder. He snared 175 in 10 conference games.

Texas Western led in defense, giving up 59.9 points per game against all teams.

Laredoans Go All Out In Promoting Border Olympics

By Harold V. Ratliff
Texas Associated Press
Sports Editor

A visitor to the Border Olympics, the giant track and field carnival in Laredo each March, remarked: "This is the only sports event in the world with more officials than competitors."

This isn't absolutely true, of course, but it does seem that way because everybody in Laredo wants to work on the city's greatest project for national renown.

In the first place the name Border Olympics is about the most colorful and attractive to be found in sports. No one knows who gave it this tag — "It came from a meeting of a lot of people just sitting around talking," says J. J. Richter Jr., current president.

There is a notion that the late Shirley Da Camara, football coach at Laredo High School at the time, gave it the name. But anyway, the Border Olympics were designed quite differently from the way they came out.

In 1932 C. E. Wade, principal of the high school; Da Camara and business men Manuel Cavazos and Felipe Garcia Moreno started the Olympics, then, however, as a part of Laredo's annual George Washington celebration in February.

The original idea was to have an international meet, with Indian runners from Monterrey, Mexico, coming down the Pan-American highway to Laredo, there to light the flame of the Olympics.

This didn't work out, however. Also the Border Olympics were put down for the first week in March each year because there was too much danger of bad weather in February.

W. B. Johnson was the first president and that year he saw four colleges show up for the competition. Three of them were Texas, Texas A&M and Southwest Texas State, which still come to the Border Olympics to this day. Coach Clyde Littlefield of Texas recalled bringing most of the equipment to get the meet started.

Today the meet attracts more than 90 universities, colleges, Junior colleges and high schools with over 1,100 athletes.

If ever there was a community effort, the Border Olympics are just that. Each year $7,000 is raised through underwriting, the Stockman's Ball of the Washington Birthday Celebration, advertising in the program and gate receipts, which ordinarily are just average.

Most times the boys wind up losing a little money — one year it ran to $1,500. But they just get out and raise the deficit and plow right ahead. They're not about to abandon the sports attraction that has brought more publicity to their town than anything else.

There are few folks connected with operations of the Border Olympics who get paid anything. Most everything is donated, including a lot of time and leg work by those who would have the Olympics continue to attract the top teams and athletes.

Richter also observes that "most of the fellows just like to see these fine young men compete."

The officials have many entertainment features for the visiting coaches and newsmen. And there are many of the latter who report the big meet to millions of readers.

Border Olympics officials have found that these coaches will keep coming back because it not only is a top competition but it's a pleasant visit to an enterprising city.

Earl Scott, the meet director, needed a little more money this year so he raised the entry fee for the high school boys from 50 cents to 75. One of the visiting coaches came up to Scott and told him: "Hah, you thought you'd scare us away with that raise didn't you."

Van Cliburn's Piano Silent For First Time In 21 Years

By EDWARD L. SMITH

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time since he was 3 years old, Van Cliburn's piano is silent.

The blond, bushy-haired 24-year-old Texan is under doctors' orders to stay away from a keyboard for two months, while the middle finger of his right hand heals from an operation. Then he will be allowed to practice only lightly for another month.

A complete rest is distasteful to Cliburn. He has practiced daily for 21 years, four hours a day before concerts. Now, after the operation on an abscessed fingertip, he is restless to resume his heavy schedule.

"The fact that I can't play is more injurious to my morale than the pain I sustained," the pianist, clad in pale blue pajamas and a blue plaid robe, remarked at the Hospital for Special Surgery.

Despite his weakness, he has kept busy in his private eighth-floor room, from which he can look northward at barges moving slowly along the East River.

Now he has a chance to watch television — "Something I never had much time for before."

"I've done a little reading, too," he reported. "Poetry, for the moment—poetry more than prose." A favorite is Lord Byron.

On his bed lay an orchestration of Samuel Barber's "Capricorn Concerto," and he had just finished playing a Metropolitan Opera recording of Barber's opera "Vanessa." Among the books piled on his table was "Olin Downes on Music."

An abscessed finger is more serious than it may sound, and Cliburn's physician has ordered him to rest in the sun when he is released from the hospital.

"Every concert is only postponed," he replied, smiling, to a question about cancellations. "I don't believe in cancellations. Never close the door, you know.

"I have received several invitations to play with my good hand —some pieces like Ravel's "Left Hand Concerto"—but the doctor thinks I should rest."

One major regret was postponing a concert trip scheduled in the Soviet Union next month—the country where he became famous by winning the Tchaikowsky piano contest last April.

Cliburn thinks his finger became infected while he was clipping his nails—a necessary chore for pianists — and he apparently cut the one nail at an odd angle.

"I've had lots of sore fingers before, and played in spite of them," he remarked. "In fact, one finger was split down the side the night I won the competition in Moscow. But this one was so bad I could hardly play."

The five physicians who worked on his half-hour operation Feb. 27 had one unusual difficulty, due to his constant piano-playing cutting through a callus one-eighth inch thick on his finger.

"I'm going to have a terribly tender hand," Cluburn predicted. "Not just from inactivity, but because I have to soak it every day."

Now Cliburn's major concern is waiting to see if the nail will grow back. He has the fingers of his other hand crossed on that.

Mahon Urges Release Of Cotton Data

LEVELLAND, Tex. (AP)—Rep. George Mahon has urged the Department of Agriculture to take immediate and favorable action on a request that local information be released on how many farmers have signed up for the government A and B cotton allotment program.

Seventeen Levelland businessmen protested to Mahon and Secretary of Agriculture Benson Tuesday that such information was not being released.

The businessmen acted after J. W. Evans, manager of the Hockley County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee office, revealed he had instructions preventing him from releasing the figures locally although he filed weekly reports to the state ASC committee.

Mahon had reported earlier that a state-wide release is expected about March 13. The release will cover the sign-up period as of March 6 and counties will be authorized to make releases.

Forrest Weimhold, publisher of the Levelland Daily Sun News, said "this type of restriction on information, without logic or justification, is typical of the thinking which has characterized official Washington" in recent years.

He said this interference "with the people's right to know" has to be broken on every level of government if the people are not to be deprived of the right of self-government.

Trio Found Guilty Of Conspiracy

DENVER (AP)—Three men and three women, protesting their innocence, were convicted last night of conspiring to advocate the violent over throw of the U. S. government.

They were not sentenced immediately, and lawyers for the six said the verdict will be appealed.

U.S. Dist. Judge Lee Knous granted their motion for five days in which to file for a new trial. Bonds ranged from $5,000 to $20,000—the largest amount for Arthur Bary, 47, of San Jose, Calif.

A jury of eight women and four men returned the verdict after five hours of delibera ion, ending a trial that lasted six weeks.

The six were convicted in 1955 on similar charges of violating the Smith Act, in addition to Communist conspiracy. That verdict was overthrown by the 10th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which ordered the case retried without the charge mentioning Communism.

The charge against a seventh defendant convicted in the first trial, Lewis M. Johnson, 38, of Boston, was dismissed at the request of government lawyers.

In addition to Bary, the defendants were his former wife, Anna, 34, of Denver; Joseph Scherrer, 39, and his wife, Maia, both of New York City; Harold Zepelin, 33, of Denver and Mrs. Patricia J. Blau, 47, of El Paso, Tex.

The maximum possible sentence is five years' imprisonment and $5,000 fine for each.

Telephone Booth Becomes A Kitchen

CAROLINA BEACH, N.C. (AP) —Police in this resort town figured the elderly vacationer was overdoing it in making himself at home. They found him cooking his meals in a telephone booth.

Inside the booth on Fisherman's Pier were a small oil stove, a frying pan, cheese, some eggs and cooking oil. An old broom was propped outside.

"We found out," said City Manager William Gary, "that he couldn't cook inside the room he had taken in a rooming house. So he went to the beach but the wind blew into his food out there and he moved into the booth."

Officers found him a room with cooking privileges.

Employes Vote For No Union At All

KELLOGG, Idaho (AP) — The 299 employes of the Star Zinc Mine at nearby Burke held an election Wednesday to pick a union.

They were given a choice between the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers and the United Steelworkers of America in the balloting, set up by the National Labor Relations Board.

Eighteen voted for the Steelworkers; 47 for the Mine-Mill Union. The remaining 234 voted for no union at all.

"MOST HONORABLE"

CHINESE FESTIVAL! FOODS

INTERNATIONAL FOODS WEEK AT FURR'S...

To help ring in the Chinese New Year, Furr's is featuring special values on Chun King. Through unique cooking and packing methods, Chun King has captured all the crisp texture and delicate flavoring for which fine Cantonese food is famous.
This is your chance to get to know many of these exotically different canned and frozen foods . . . foods that give you a complete change of pace in your menu and that are surprisingly economical.

SOMETHING NEW IN BARBECUES

There is Orintal magic in the air when you barbecue egg rolls and Chinese hamburgers on an outdoor grill. Make an aluminum foil boat for Chun King's egg rolls. Fashion hamburgers, and add sliced pineapple and halved bananas to the grill. Green onions, mustard and Chinese Burger Sauce give zest to the minature luau. To make enough Chinese Burger Sauce for four generous hamburgers mix:

½ cup Chun King Soya Sauce
1 clove of garlic, crushed
2 tablespoons brown sugar,
½ teaspoon powdered ginger
(or a little slice of fresh ginger finely minced)
¼ cup sherry wine (optional)

Use sauce to baste hamburgers and to brush pineapple slices and bananas.
