BITTERNESS AT PARLEY ARISES

Six Hundred Attend Lions Club Race Meet on the 4th

FAST CARD IS

UNREELED AND EVENTS VARIED

Several Races Close
And Good Time Is Hung up

An estimated total of 600 went through the gates of Cowboy park Tuesday afternoon, to make for the greatest attendance at a race meeting here since Labor day, 1931. The program was varied and colorful, and ranged from three purse races; goat roping; kid, Jelly Bean, donkey and cowpony races; donkey races between Lions and Rotarians, to all sorts of features given as interludes—Including band concert, clown races, bronc busting and mule skinning.

Race horses from several West Texas towns were entered, and donkeys imported from throughout the surrounding area.

Briefly, the results from events follow: First race—quarter mile free for all: Clara Bow, bay mare owned by Mrs. M. Cook, C. Cook up, first; Moonshine, bay mare owned by G. W. Netherlin, D. Fulcher up, second; Boots, bay mare owned by Leonard Huff, of Odessa, D. Mayfield up, third. The fourth horse was Rocky, a three-year-old blue mare owned by Pat Barber, U. Barber up. Time announced by clockers was 23 seconds flat.

The second race, a kid pony affair over the quarter mile, was won by Billy B. brown gelding of Curtis Cook, Curtis Cook up, easily won the third race, a half mile free for all, schoolgirl, by Billy of Ben Netherlin, D. Fulcher up, running second, and Pasajero, T. Paul Barron's bay gelding, D. Mayfield up, third. Time was 24.5.

Getting off fast, Barron outdistanced the field of Jelly Beans in the fourth race, over the 300-yard stretch, and Curtis Cook, C. Cook up, won the fifth race, a half mile free for all, indefinite years, Port Worth, Sam Warren on Dunny was second and Cotter Hiett on Paint third. Somewhere in the dust came Dr. D. K. Raliff on Harry Tolbert's black gelding.

Stepping from behind after a mediocre start and a troubled moment at the turn after he had challenged, Dutch Veda, Paul Harvey's red gelding, C. Cook up, swept under the wire to win his maiden race, in the fifth race, three-eighths free for all. Boots was second and Moonshine was third. Baby Sister, chestnut filly of L. O. Lomas, D. Mayfield up, also ran. Time was 38 flat.

D. Fulcher booted in Cot Currie's paint horse to win a thrilling finish in the last race, a 300-yard dash for cowponies. He won by a half length from T. Paul Barron, who rode Port Worth through the field from a slow start to a challenge in the last few rods. The race was closely contested in the last few yards that Fulcher pulled for the rail to shut off the dun threat at the wire. The rest of the field of five was strung out in the race. C. Cook up, D. Mayfield, Calvin Wilson and Bill Mayfield.

Mrs. Cook's Clara Bow probably made the fastest time ever hung up in a quarter-mile race here, driving back all the way. Two other red mares were the choice of most to win, Moonshine and Boots, both of them beautiful stock. Curtis Cook, as in his other races, showed class as a rider, however, and lost his opposition.

Schoolgirl was off on top in the third race, the half mile free for all, but Mayfield, after pulling, faded almost at the wire, evidently thinking a new start would be made hand-ride his bay gelding to the filly's side on the first turn, only to lose out to Cook race animal. Schoolgirl moved up and Pasajero tired, Billy B. continued to run well within himself and won under restraint, Schoolgirl passing the tiring Pasajero on the home stretch, the bay evidently having been called on too much in the first furlong.

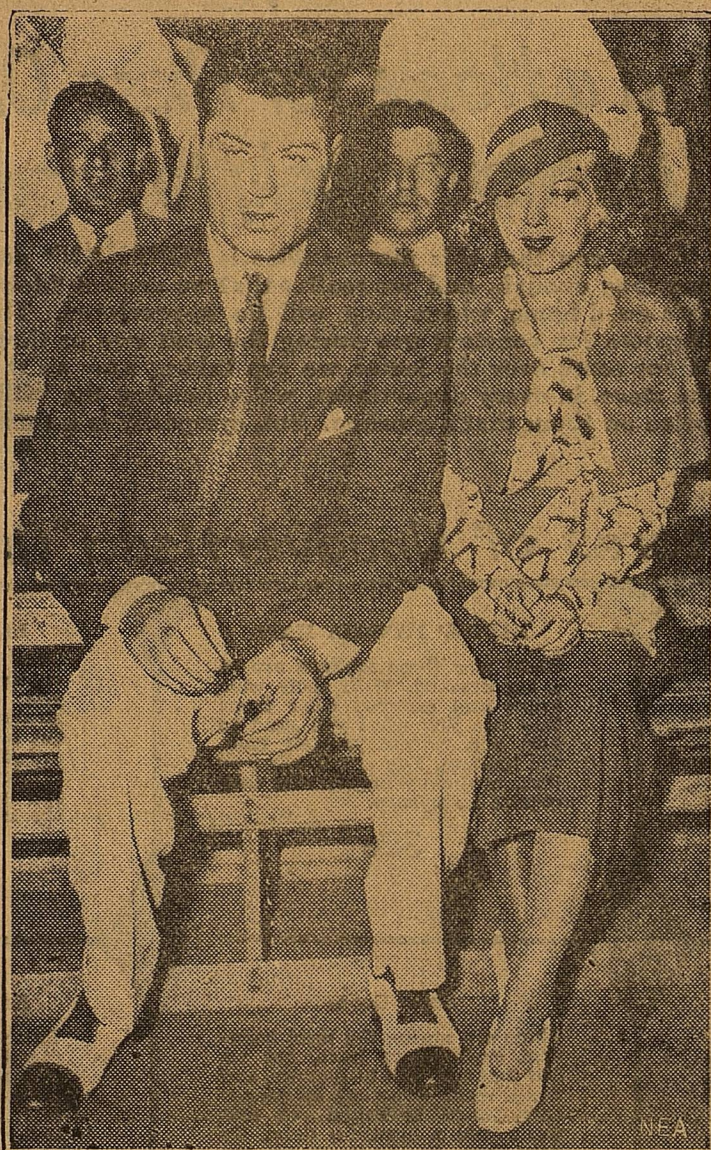

The fifth and sixth races were thrillers, the Paul Harvey colt getting off late, working himself up well, losing his advantage when he ran wide at the turn, but finding power and sureness down the home stretch to win. He was one of the fastest maidens ever to run on the Cowboy park track.

In the special burro race, Offie Walker easily won over Frank Stubbeman, whose burro, Modestine, frequently found himself carrying two riders, only to kick up and lose both. Interspersed with the purse races were added attractions, the Rotarian burro poloists winning from the Lions in a 19 out of 20 falls affair. The race was marked by both sides getting tired of the burros and finishing the game on foot. One goal was made, Offie Walker hanging on to his donkey long enough to get a clean shot with his croquet mallet.

In goat roping, only four out of 12 ropers caught their goats. R. J. Webb won first money with 20 3-5, Clay Floyd was second with 20 3-5, and Shag Ethridge third with 25 3-5. Red Craddock's time was 32.2.

Broadcasting of race information and sales at the crowd were done through the courtesy of Smith and Carter of the Radio Sales & Service Co., having built a portable loud speaker unit for the occasion. They say they will keep this assembled so it may be used for other similar events.

The band, conducted by Thomas Imman, was highly effective, and kept the stands patting its feet or laughing at the musicians' arrangement of a musical "bronx cheer." Cot Currie showed the stands that one doesn't need a saddle or spurs to ride a wild mule. After the mule demonstrated everything in mule aerobics, encouraged by the tight sticking Currie, he indulged himself in running the longest race of the day, taking out across the track and running to the far fence, turning down the fence and being brought to a halt only by the united agency of several horsemen and the fence corner. Those who have seen Currie ride in the past say he can ride a mule backward and take more than yesterday's mount gave him.

The day's events were conducted with the refreshing novelty of a three-ring circus, something going on all the time, either on the track or on the polo field.

Plans for a Labor day race at the park are being tentatively laid, it was announced.

HAYNES' BROTHER IS GRAVELLY ILL

No hope for the recovery of L. G. Haynes, Lubbock brother of Lee Haynes, police chief of Midland, who held this morning according to a telephone message from Mrs. O. A. Haynes, who with the Midland chief went to Lubbock Saturday night.

Haynes, a Lubbock grocer, was gassed during the World war and last week contracted pneumonia. He was unconscious this morning and doctors' reports despaired of his recovery.

HOLYOKE, Mass. (UP)—When Dr. James Mullen's drive at the 12th hole on Mt. Tom golf course lodged in the junction of a tree trunk and limb, fellow players insisted that he climb the tree to play his next shot.

He did—and his recovery with a non reached the green.

Bulletin

As the aftermath of a controversy that resulted in his being shot once in the right side this morning, John Bowser, 60, Stanton, may die in a Big Spring hospital, and an examining trial was being held early this afternoon at Stanton for a well known Stanton man.

$70 PROFIT IS MADE BY LIONS CLUB AT RACES

Total net profit to the Lions club, which sponsored the July 4 race meeting here, was $70.31, according to a noon report of John P. Butler, treasurer.

Butler said the gross gate was $198.90. Advertising cost $7.75, miscellaneous items $9.70, leaving $181.45; out of this went 25 per cent to the owners of the park, leaving $136.10. Race purses of $75 were deducted, leaving $61.10 cleared on the gate by the club.

Concessions grossed $131.85, and after cost and expenses of $22.64 were deducted, concessions brought a profit of $9.21, which added to the date profit made for a net profit to the club of $70.31. Proceeds go to a fund the Lions have set apart to pay for eye glasses for poor children.

Shubbenman, Lions club president, and Marions F. Peters, general chairman of the racing program, asked The Reporter-Telegram to express appreciation to the public and to all who assisted in making the affair a success.

MINISTER TALKS TO LIONS CLUB

Outlining the events which led up to the Declaration of Independence, the Rev. E. B. Chancellor gave an inspiring address to the Lions club today, bringing out the meaning of Independence day and the ideals which are commemorated on July fourth. The talk was patriotic and was filled with the principles of Americanism.

W. Clint Myrick was elected secretary of the club following the resignation of W. S. Crook who is moving from the city. Reports were given by President Frank Stubbeman, General Chairman Marlon F. Peters and Finance Chairman John P. Butler, showing that the Lions club race meet and celebration July fourth was an outstanding success. Much praise was given to those outside the club who aided in staging the event, also to various committeemen and club members who were active. Frank Smith and T. Paul Barron were guests of the club.

Much good humor was created in references of speakers to condition of Lions who rode donkeys in the polo game at Cowboy park yesterday.

RETURN FROM SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hudman and daughter, Lucille, and Misses Myrtle and Sybil Mabrey returned yesterday from a vacation trip to San Antonio, Houston, Goose Creek and Galveston.

Late News

PONCA CITY, July 5. (UP)—The Continental Oil company today announced a hike in price of midcontinent crude to a top of 85 cents, effective tomorrow in Oklahoma, Kansas and North Texas. The hike provides a price of 61 cents for 21 gravity oil and below, and increasing two cents to 85 for 40 gravity and above.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, July 5. (UP)—Italian planes en route to Chicago were reported today to have passed the Faroe islands safely on the 930 mile hop here from London-derry. The 24 planes took the air at 7:40 today, eastern daylight time.

170 DIE JULY FOURTH, SURVEY NOW INDICATES

CHICAGO, July 5. (UP)—Celebration of Independence day cost 170 lives, a survey by the United Press today showed; mostly due to traffic, drownings, plane crashes and fireworks explosions.

In Michigan alone there were 23 automobile deaths, sixteen in California and seven in Kansas. New York reported 1,000 burned by fireworks.

By United Press
Holiday deaths in Texas were relatively few. There were upwards of a dozen from highway accidents, shootings, plane crashes, and drownings. Only one child was killed by explosion of fireworks.

AUSTIN, July 5. (UP)—D. F. Bog-bit, 41, professor of law in the University of Texas, died today of injuries received a week ago when he fell off the porch at his home. He had been a member of the university faculty since 1915.

RANGE FIRES ARE WARNED AGAINST

Grass fires are liable to break out along highways and cross roads, unless tourists and all others beware of throwing lighted cigarettes from their cars.

This warning is not from an interested ranch owner, but from an oil man who makes the country from Pecos to Abilene. He daily observes the likelihood of some gross land owner having his badly needed grass destroyed.

On the suggestion of Allen J. Waits, the Midland chamber of commerce Wednesday took up with the West Texas chamber of commerce the matter of issuing warnings throughout the dry area of West Texas against the liability of grass fires. It is Waits' idea to have the cattle country, are extremely thoughtful of the interests of cattlemen in this respect, ranchers say.

COTTON CONTROL PLANS CHECKED

County Agent O. P. Griffin was in Midland Wednesday conferring with county cotton control committee and chamber of commerce officials arranging details for the inspection of cotton fields, where the owners or renters are reducing their acreage.

The county agent will forward all completed copies to Washington for final action.

Women Thank City Merchants

Appreciation for several Midland merchants was expressed this morning by the women's home demonstration clubs for aid in giving a 35-cent luncheon Tuesday in the Liano hotel building.

Those named were Perry Bros., My Bakery, Southern Ice and Utilities, M. System (both stores), Bokus-Pokus and Smith and Stevens grocer.

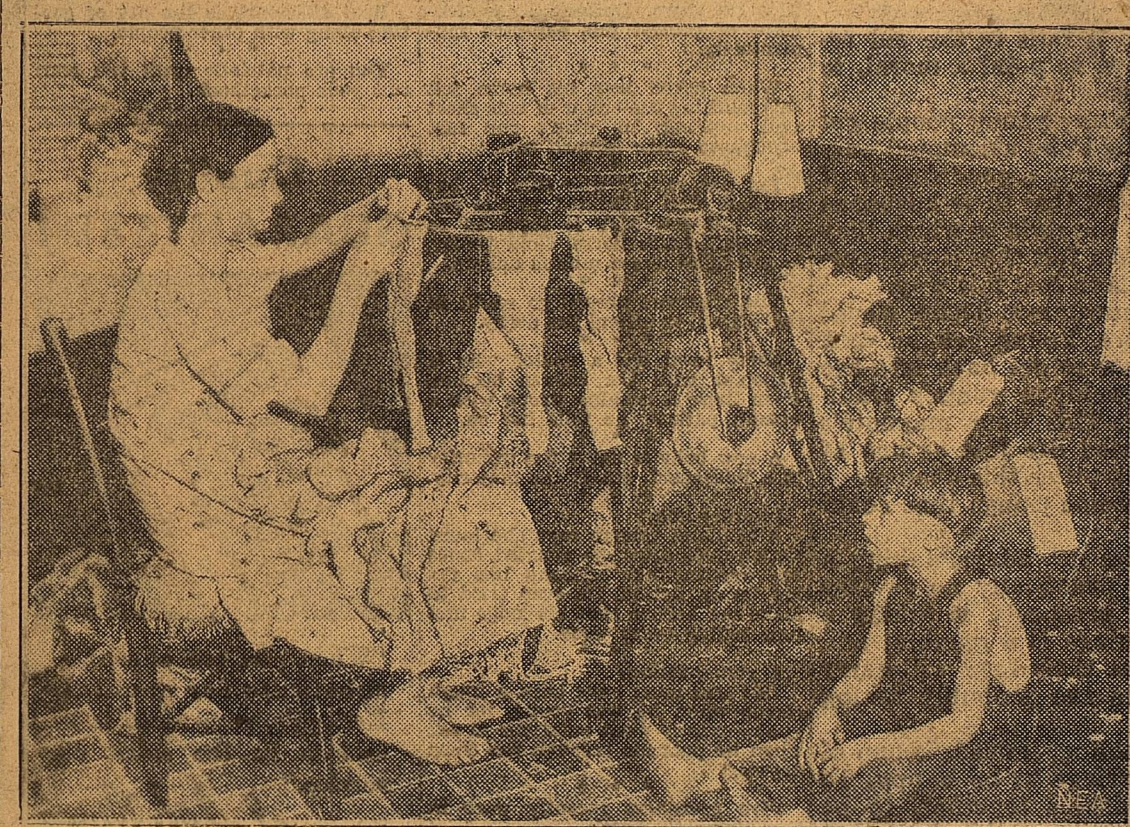

Each store listed made donations to the luncheon.

DEPRESSION OVER SAYS REPORT OF NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE TODAY

NEW YORK, July 5. (UP)—The board of trade after a nation wide survey today declared the depression definitely over and the country well on the way to "one of the greatest periods of stabilized prosperity."

The report said employment has increased, wages were up, industrial orders were increasing, carloadings

Expectant Mother Labors at Machine in Home

less cost of electric current and 33 1-3 per cent discount for mending imperfect hose. One of the woman's three children, all under 10, looks on as she labors in her combination work-room and living room-bedroom. The woman supports her family with her earnings, her husband having been unemployed three years. The mother-in-law of the woman works in the hosiery mill. She said her earnings never exceeded 30 cents daily.

FIRST TEST OF PROHIBITION TO BE ON JULY 13

WASHINGTON, July 5. (UP)—Political observers today believed the prohibition repeal vote July 13 in Alabama and Arkansas will provide the first real test in the South and will determine whether it will be a fight or a runaway for repealists. Sixteen states already have voted for repeal, with 36 necessary. A survey indicated five of the 22 yet to vote will be dry, twelve doubtful and fifteen wet.

SALE OF CENTURY GETS UNDER WAY

Midland's big city-wide "Sale of a Century" is getting well under way this week, with many merchants signifying their intention of putting forth their best efforts for a unified sale July 13, 14, 15.

One feature of the sale will be the method of distributing prize coupons. More than a hundred balloons will be dropped from one of the centrally located buildings, and prize coupons will be tied to as many balloons as there are prizes to be given away. Those who catch the lucky balloons will go to the stores and get their rewards.

A big free street dance is being planned for the night of July 15, together with other forms of amusement.

The Reporter-Telegram of Tuesday, July 11 will be distributed all over Midland's trade territory, announcing the big sale and carrying advertisements of the participating merchants.

The advertising department of the newspaper has an excellent supply of appropriate material for the sale, including sales headings for advertisements, pennants and price cards, all of which carry the name of the sale.

Merchants are preparing to give unprecedented bargains, even in the face of advancing commodity prices.

Churches Competed With Restaurants

THE DALLES, Ore. (UP)—Alleged competition with local restaurants by the Dalles churches drew the fire of hotel men and restaurant proprietors recently.

It was charged the churches sold lunches and dinners to visiting delegates at conventions at lower prices than those advertised by the eating houses.

ROOSEVELT PLAN NOT APPROVED IN ECONOMIC PARLEY

Hopeless Deadlock a Certainty, Some Believe

LONDON, July 5. (UP)—President Roosevelt's suggestions as to how the conference might continue its work were regarded as unsatisfactory by the steering committee today.

Individual members of the American delegation said they felt it useless to continue. Other delegations were bitter against the Roosevelt policies. A hopeless deadlock was indicated and adjournment loomed.

WASHINGTON, July 5. (UP)—President Roosevelt today stood pat on his contention that temporary stabilization of currency has the place in the London economic conference. He talked by long distance to Secretary Hull emphasizing "his position."

LONDON, July 5. (UP)—America, Canada, Australia, and Argentina were reported today to be agreed in principle on the policy to raise the price of wheat by temporary adjustment of production and trade to world demand.

Necessity of European cooperation was recognized. Agreement was reported to effect a reduction of fifteen per cent in acreage for two years or reduction of exports fifteen per cent in two years. Fixed percentages probably will await the July world crop survey.

LAST RITES FOR PLANE VICTIMS

SAN ANGELO, July 5.—Funeral services were held here this afternoon for C. H. Stubblefield, 27, Texan pilot, who with Abe Lee, 20, of Odessa was killed Monday in an airplane crash at Brownsville.

Stubblefield had been taking passengers up from the celebration at Odessa all day when late in the afternoon he crashed into a hillside while banking at low altitude.

Preacher Arrested On Looting Charge

SCOOBA, Miss. (UP)—A negro preacher, Johnnie Jones, was arrested today on a charge of looting the house of a white farmer. The charge stated that Jones entered the Griggs home while the family was away, took the pillow slips from the pillows and filled them with wearing apparel.

At the time of his arrest, the officers charged, the minister was wearing one of Griggs' suits. The negro was taken from the church in the presence of his flock and placed in jail to await trial.

ESCAPED IN NIGHTSHIRTS

SALEM, Ore. (UP)—Clad only in nightshirts, Lloyd and Arli Matlock, 17 and 13, escaped from the second floor room of a local hospital in broad daylight. They had been locked there and their clothes removed while awaiting juvenile officers.

They descended by a rope made of sheets and vanished into brush along a nearby creek.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

ST. LOUIS, (UP)—A bandit-proof bank door, invented to prevent robbers from entering financial institutions either before or after business hours, is on exhibition here.

The mechanism is a chamber of bullet-proof metal, just large enough to accommodate one person. It has two sliding doors. When one is opened, the other closes automatically. Thus, an employee enters the metal chamber from the foyer, closes and locks the door behind him, then opens the door into the banking rooms, by means of a secret combination dial.

If anyone unfamiliar with the combination attempts to operate the dial, both doors lock and he is trapped in the small room.

BULLETIN

Light showers fell at Midland and in outlying areas early this afternoon, with cloudy weather continuing at press time.

Telephone calls reported a light shower at Big Spring, a good shower at Crane with more indicated, no rain at Odessa, or Wink, a shower at Seminole with heavier precipitation toward Lamesa. A good shower was reported at the airport. Also a good shower was falling at Rankin.

MONEY DOESN'T MAKE A HAPPY MARRIAGE

The story of the rich girl who marries the poor boy is always popular; especially so, no doubt, in these days, when rich girls are comparatively few and poor boys are extremely numerous. And the recent news that the daughter of a rich Minneapolis flour magnate is marrying a young assistant librarian at Yale and is going to live with him on his $45 a week salary, is one of the most appealing little incidents of the spring.

It is appealing not only because it falls in the old romantic tradition. It seems, somehow, to point a moral, to underline a lesson, for a whole era.

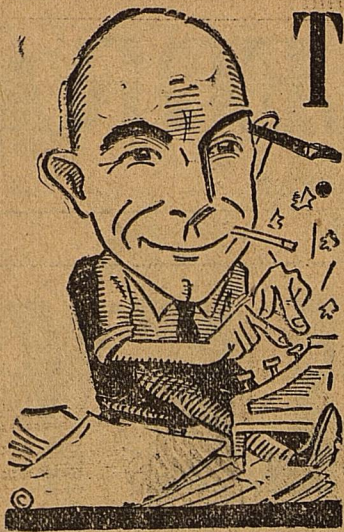

During the boom years a great many young people got the notion that marriage was a thing to be attempted only if the young husband-to-be had laid away a good supply of ready cash. A lot of young women felt that their husbands ought to be able to support them in the style to which they were accustomed; a lot of young men felt that it was perfectly natural and right for the girls to feel this way.

That attitude isn't so common nowadays. There would be precious few marriages if it were. Young people, with the crash of prosperity, learned how to get back into the old attitude of youth; they re-developed youth's traditional readiness to take a chance. This flour magnate's daughter, going off to begin married life just as one of her father's stenographers would, typifies this change.

And it is one of the most wholesome things that could happen to us as a nation.

To be sure, the girl who marries nowadays, taking a lad who has only a small salary, practically no savings and nothing extra in the way of prospects, is taking a chance. But what of it? Any marriage is a gamble; and the young couple who gamble that their love will carry them through financial difficulties are probably taking the least chance of any.

The very fact that they are gambling, indeed, is one of the things that can help their marriage to be happy. To struggle together, to endure hardships together, to be brave together in the face of a hostile world—isn't that of the very essence of young love?

Investigation was being made today into Offie Walker's past record as a polo player. He clearly showed his superiority yesterday in the donkey polo game of the Rotarians against the Lions and it was his goal that won for the Roters. The score was 1 to 0. Now some of the Lions claim to have information to the effect that Offie carries a 1-goal handicap in the U. S. Donkey Polo association which would have made it a tie score. Definite announcement of protest was expected momentarily.

ORPHAN ANNIE SALE

So that You Can Buy Clearance Merchandise When You Need it

We Want to Find a Home for These Orphans!!
-it Will Pay You Handsomely to Adopt a Dozen-

It pays us handsomely to tell you that this merchandise is "ORPHAN" goods. We've been giving these items a home long enough, and we realize that we are not "doing right by them." They belong in somebody's good home, where they will be appreciated. They are all good, healthy, seasonable youngsters for constant use during the next two or three months. We're forgetting our costs, and our tears over the losses we are taking now so that you can make savings now. All over the store, in every department, we're hauling the "ORPHAN ANNIES" out. We're slapping a price on them that's a crime. But, sympathy is a thing of the past, and so are prices like these.

Watch For the Scores of Unadvertised "Orphan Annie's"

MEN'S WHITE BROAD-CLOTH SHIRTS

They have been with us only a short time, but we would like to find a home in your laundry.

33c

LADIES' PANAMA HATS

Right now these orphans are in a big demand. With their wide brims and assorted color trims they are just what you need to help you protect yourself from the hot sun. You can use two or three of these youngsters for they require no upkeep.

39c

LADIES' SILK DRESSES

This bunch is just getting old enough to be unruly, so we want you to take them now and straighten them out before they get beyond control. There really are some lovely white, pastel and printed nationalities here which you can use right now and for the next two months.

$2.57

Child's Rayon Sun Suits

Another shipment just arrived. We find we haven't beds enough and so we are asking you to look over the cute little lots made of non-run cloth, with mesh tops and strap backs. They're just little tots, sizes 2 to 6 and have a lovely pink complexion.

25c

Sheer Goods

These are among the most beautiful orphans we have, but we feel that they will be happier, and would make some one happier if they would be taken out and made into a beautiful dress. To help them find a home, we are making this low price.

ROTARIANS BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE, AND BEAT LIONS 17 TO 10

GAME A FARCE FROM BEGINNING TO END, WITH BATTING LINEUPS BEING SHIFTED IN DEFIANCE TO ALL RULE

By C. C. DAY
"Official" Scorer

In spite of Lion scorekeepers, the Midland Rotary club was victorious in the annual softball classic between the two service clubs on the Scharbauer diamond last night. The score was 17-10, as well as could be figured from the much-exchanged and rewritten score sheet. Manager Joe Pyron of the Rotary club insisted on using his own judgment as to who should bat, completely disregarding the score book. As well as can be ascertained, Pyron batted five times as a pinch hitter, since no one remembers seeing him in the field.

Rotarians Offer Pratt to Connie Mack Aggregation

It's Pratt's feat in bowing himself into an animated question mark and lobbing the ball in to a compound full of guessing Lions, with the effective results of winning for the Rotary club last night on the playground ball league's diamond, has resulted in the "impractical pranksters lobby" drafting the following telegram:

So well did the pitcher handle affairs on the mound that the seat of control for the entire club was practically vested in him before the evening ended.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Many, many July Fourths have I spent in Midland, but never have I enjoyed a day more than yesterday. The band music was all I could ask for; the entertainment at Cowboy park was excellent; well-balanced and the crowd in general was of a high type and very appreciative.

My hat is off to Col. T. Paul Barron and the Lions club! They showed the indomitable spirit to put over a glorious program in the face of very unfavorable conditions. I believe every person in Midland should voice his appreciation for their efforts. Those Midland folks with whom I have talked, as well as numerous visitors, expressed their enjoyment of the day. I only regret that Passajero didn't win his race and that the Lions lost their ball game last night.

While I am heaping encomiums, may I pass a bouquet to our daily newspaper? I happen to know something of your battles through the past two or three years; of the sacrifices you have individually made; of the fine spirit of cooperation you have shown to give us a good daily newspaper—a vital factor in the life of a small town. You have succeeded in giving us a daily paper second to none this far—I enjoy it immensely every day and I sincerely hope and trust that the sailing will become smoother, that your patrons continue to give you loyal support, and that business recovers to the extent that prosperity will ultimately be yours.

Kamel Paul Barron, Midland Lions club, the Midland Reporter-Telegram, band, L. E. Cook (who supplied horses, jockeys, goats, donkeys and worked like a Trojan himself), and to all others who contributed to our day's pleasure July Fourth, I salute you.

A MIDLAND BUSINESS MAN.

Baer-Schmeling Fight to Yucca

Actual motion pictures of the Max Baer-Max Schmeling heavyweight prize fight, taken at the ringside in their recent fight at Yankee stadium in New York, will be shown at the Yucca theatre preview Saturday night, Sunday and Monday.

Both regular and slow motion pictures are shown of the sixth round, in which Baer scored his knockout over the "unbeatable" German, in Jack Dempsey's first venture into the promotional business the East.

"ORPHAN ANNIE" SALE HELD HERE

One of the most interesting releases on the subject of rising commodity prices comes to this paper from Mr. Bernhard Krupp, president of the United Dry Goods stores. Mr. Krupp, in an effort to compile the most recent analysis of the subject, has received an enlightening synopsis of facts from the most reliable sources in New York City. Excerpts of this analysis are printed here.

With another advance of $1 a dozen this week, overall prices have moved up more than 60 per cent since the low point of a few months ago. The sharp advance in denim is partly responsible for the rise.

Some types of fall wash fabrics have been advanced 7 1/2 to 10 per cent since the start of the week.

Effective today the Dupont Rayon company is advancing the prices of its viscose process 5 cents a pound.

"Prices on notion items now in demand have advanced from 3 to 5 per cent."

"Popular price wearing apparel has been affected mostly by the advances, and in many cases factories cannot make deliveries for a long time."

"This representative comparison," Mr. Krupp says, "only touches upon the face of the price question." He adds that the full extent of advances cannot be calculated now until the code of ethics in the various industries are formed and approved, for there is no way to estimate labor changes. For instance, Mr. Krupp illustrates that silk has been rising steadily. Still fall prices on silk cannot yet be determined, because of pending labor conditions.

Mr. Krupp commented on the work situation as most interesting. "Heavy shoes of the work type have gone up 20 to 25 per cent, while better grades are up from 10 to 15 per cent. These advances are based on higher leather costs. When labor costs rise, there will be further advances."

Along with this information comes the announcement of a pre-inflation sale at the United under a new guise—"Orphan Annie Sale." The United's purpose in this sale is to give customers advantage of lower prices before higher prices set in. The nature of the sale is divulged in the name "Orphan Annie Sale," of a clearance of merchandise in odd lots and quantities. Mr. Krupp briefly stated that, "We're trying to find a home for merchandise in an effort to pass on low prices when people actually need wearables."

MONEY CUT INTO PUZZLE

GALESVILLE, Wis. (UP).—Anton Aaleks, a caddy at the Galesville golf course, became a jigsaw puzzle enthusiast against his will. His pocketbook fell between the knives of a power lawnmower and before he could stop the motor, $96 in currency was cut to shreds. He spent hours assembling the fragments of the bills and pasting them on paper.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Banglade of Lovington left this morning for El Paso. They have been the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crump.

W. J. Powell of Dallas was a visitor in Midland last night.

Clarence Scharbauer, John Dublin, and Clarence Scharbauer, Jr. went to Penasco ranch near Artesia.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Klingaman returned yesterday from Ruidosa where they have been visiting for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Flanigan accompanied Miss Emily Flanigan to Penasco yesterday. She will go from there to Sul Ross where she is attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ashley, Miss Gusta Snyder, and David Blevins spent the fourth at the Radliff ranch where they attended a house party.

Theron Nettleton returned from Fort Worth yesterday. He has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Nettleton.

Misses Lady and Eleanor Connell returned Monday from Manhattan Beach, California. Eleanor Connell visited her brother in Las Vegas, Nevada, before she went to California. Lady Connell will visit a month in Midland, then she will return to Manhattan Beach where she teaches school.

Among those attending the Pecos rodeo Tuesday were Buck Underwood, Frank Roberts, Roy Holloway, Bob Preston and Henry Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bibb and daughter, Betty Sue, spent the fourth of July holidays on a fishing trip north of Pecos.

Congress Cuts Its Eloquence

WASHINGTON, (UP).—"While Congress is in session more good speaking and more bad speaking may be heard there than in any other place in the country," according to Prof. W. Haynes Yeager, teacher of public speaking, George Washington university.

Commenting on the session just ended, Prof. Yeager said the "frenzied orator emitting frenzied eloquence," is passing from the congressional stage, being replaced by the more conversational type of speaker. Tenseness and directness is the new code, said Prof. Yeager. During the year ended April, 1933, he said there were 188 speeches delivered in the senate requiring an hour or more of time. During the past session there were only 16 senate talks of that length.

Although the length and bombastic nature of congressional speeches are diminishing, 36,000,000 words were spoken during the session. Last end to end in 7 point type, these words would reach from Washington to New York and seven miles beyond, Yeager estimated.

Mrs. Paul Ryan Entertains for Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Christian church met Monday at the home of Mrs. Paul Ryan, 1260 South Lorraine. Mrs. L. C. Rea as co-hostess.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Lee Bradshaw.

The general and devotional themes "Moments with the Master," and "Loves thou me—feed my sheep," were presented by Mrs. Ben F. Whitefield.

Mrs. L. A. Denton, presentation leader, introduced the topic, "The Romance of Beginnings." Mrs. Clark, Erickson, and Brennen spoke on the following topics: "Hands Across the Sea," "Frontiers at Home," and "Our Pioneer Leader, Mrs. Caroline Neville Pearce."

After a special offering was taken, the meeting was closed by the missionary benediction.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. W. B. Elkin, F. F. Elkin, Rawling Clark, Guy Brennen, Carl Reeves, L. A. Denton, Lee Bradshaw, and the co-hostesses.

Missionary Society Aides Delegates To Summer Assembly

Both circles of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church met Tuesday at the church for a business meeting.

As a devotional, Mrs. L. B. Hankins read the first Psalm. Mrs. K. C. Minter led a prayer.

In the absence of Mrs. J. W. Day, Mrs. A. J. Norwood read the bulletin, "Christian Social Relations."

Reports for the past quarter were read by auxiliary officers, and a donation was given to the senior league to help defray expenses for delegates attending the summer assembly at Kerrville.

Members who were present are Mrs. John Edwards, W. A. Black, K. C. Minter, C. C. Watson, Frank Haag, A. J. Norwood, Hankins, Luther Tidwell, Frank Adams, M. J. Allen, J. S. Prothro, Terry Elkin, Mary S. Ray, A. P. Baker, M. V. Conlan, Hafer, and the Rev. K. J. Minter.
