Team Has Amateur Status

Dukes to Open League Play at Memphis Sun.

The Dukes of Wellington open their season as an amateur team Sunday afternoon, May 13, against the Memphis Owls at 3:00 p.m., fielding a team that includes several of the veteran Duke players, other semi-pro league players, a group of high school boys, and several who have played sandlot baseball at Quail and Dodson. These two teams, along with Quannah and Childress, have gone into amateur baseball this season, playing in the Red River Valley Amateur League.

The playing schedule has not been announced.

Managing and coaching the Dukes this year is Sonny Duvall, Quail high school coach with a background of outstanding baseball experience. He played semi-pro with the Hobart, Oklahoma, team last year in the Red River Valley League and before that with the Mangum team. Duke players know him as a good player with managerial talent, J. M. Strong, who has helped with the organization of this year's team and league, said. Duvall will play in catcher's position.

Other players now lined up include Bobby McCutchen, who will join the Dukes when he returns from Cameron College, Lawton, Oklahoma, where he is a student. McCutchen played on the Skyrocket regional championship high school baseball team and is now playing college baseball. McCutchen will probably be one of the Duke pitchers.

Kenneth Rippetoe, another Skyrocket baseball player will come up from Dodson and is also slated as a pitcher. Rippetoe played with the Childress team last year.

Sammy Tabor, another Dodson man, has played quite a lot around Dodson, and will be at third base and also pitcher.

Street Widening; Phone Rate Raise Before Council

Two major pieces of business concerning the general welfare of the town were placed before the City Council in two recent meetings, one a called meeting and the other a regular meeting. In the regular meeting Monday night, the council received a request from the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company for an increase in rates for local telephone service.

In the called meeting, held earlier, a proposed plan for widening the streets around the square was worked out, to be presented to the Commissioners Court for county approval, since the two governing units will bear the cost jointly.

In these meetings, the Council also completed arrangements for Judge Raymond Horton, justice of the peace, to serve as city judge; renamed John Lee to manage the swimming pool at Marian Airpark; and officially selected the legal holidays which Wellington will observe during the year.

The telephone company proposal was presented by R. L. Brewer, district manager, Memphis. Similar requests have been presented the governing bodies of other cities in the area. In meeting with the Wellington aldermen, Mr. Brewer pointed out that the company was not asking for immediate action on the part of the council, but was submitting the request for their study.

He told the councilmen that the cost of furnishing telephone service at Wellington continues to

Pfc. Frank Dominey, just back from Korea, where he was for a time a prisoner of the communists, was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon about 7:30 p. m. when he fell from the fender of a car on which he was riding, with the vehicle passing over his body.

Grady Brown, driver of the car, passed over the railroad crossing on North Floydada Street, and the jolt of the car crossing the track threw him from the car, according to a brother of the injured man, Bill Dominey.

Mr. Dominey was immediately taken to St. Joseph's Hospital where he remains in a critical condition. Attending physicians say there is a possibility of internal injuries.

Other passengers in the car in addition to Brown were Alfred Black, Truman Compton, Floyd Stevens, and Pat Dominey, another brother of the injured man.

The young soldier had been in the Korean fighting since August His mother, Mrs. Vera Dominey of Hollis, died shortly before he reached home. He is a nephew of Mrs. Ted Richards.

Brother of Pink Sullivan Dies as Train Hits Car

Luster Sullivan, prominent 65 year old Iowa Park farmer, was killed recently when the car which he was driving was struck by a Fort Worth and Denver train at Iowa Park. Mr. Sullivan was a brother of Pink Sullivan, and although he had never lived here, he had visited in Wellington numbers of times.

A friend, riding with Mr. Sullivan, escaped without injury. He told investigators that the car stalled as it got onto the track, and Mr. Sullivan was unable to get out before the vehicle was struck by the oncoming train.

Mr. Sullivan was born and reared in Wise County, and had lived at Iowa Park for about 26 years.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church at Iowa Park, and burial was at Chico, the family's former home.

Surviving are his wife and four sons, Alfred of New Mexico; Glenn of Arlington; Harold of Chanute Field, Ill.; and Kenneth of New York. Eight brothers and one sister also survive.

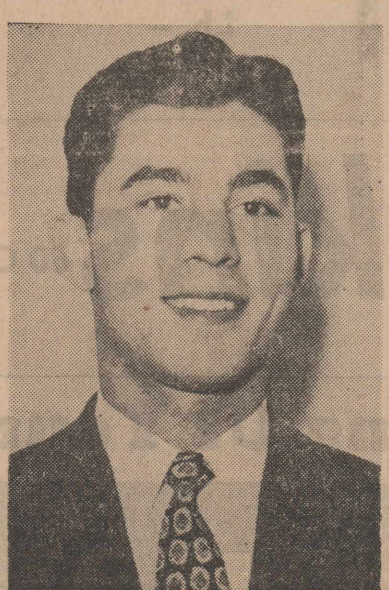

Attending the funeral from here were two nephews, James Sullivan and Henry Sullivan.

Friends in DP Camp Reunited

Polish Family Arrives to Work for Dr. J. M. Orr

The county's third Polish displaced persons family arrived Sunday, May 6, to work for Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Orr in Wellington. They are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Folendar and their four and one-half year old daughter, Alicia.

The couple are close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Josef Rozenbjiger, who work at the Mill Iron Ranch, their having been in the same DP camp at Bremen-Brohn, Germany.

It was through the latter that Dr. and Mrs. Orr secured the names of the Folendars, and arrangements were made through the Rev. Charles Knapp of Our Lady of Mercy Church for their entry into the United States under the Catholic War Relief Service. Approximately a year was required to complete arrangements.

"We know very little of their personal lives," Dr. and Mrs. Orr said, "except that Mrs. Folendar was taken by the Germans at the age of 13 and put to work in a factory. Later she went to a concentration camp. Frank — he told us that was the English version of Franciszek — was put in the German Army. Their families were farmers, and Frank has been a locksmith and a carpenter. His parents and her mother are still in Europe."

Part of the preparation of every DP before coming to the United States is a study of the English language, and the Folendars can speak the language, although not fluently.

They went to the drive-in theatre for the first time. "They're most excited, and Kitty is doing real well. She's so eager to do things she takes them away from me," Mrs. Orr said. "They're very happy here, we can tell."

Although Dr. and Mrs. Orr had been preparing for the couple for a year, their actual arrival was a surprise, for the telegram telling the date of their arrival didn't reach the Orrs until Monday!

"You should have seen their reunion with Josef and Francisca Rozenbjiger. It was such a happy one. They were the closest of friends and had been separated a year," Mrs. Orr said.

Folendar will do yard work and janitor work for Dr. Orr, while his wife will do house work for Mrs. Orr.

Concert Assn. Membership Campaign Set for May 14 to 19

The membership campaign of the Wellington Mutual Concert Association opens Monday, May 14, and will continue through Saturday, May 19, Dr. Chas. B. Jones, president, announced this week, as plans for the drive got under way.

Clifford Menz, Mutual Concert representative of Council Bluffs, Iowa, is here to help set up the campaign and will remain until its conclusion.

Division chairmen and team captains have been named, and team workers are now being selected. More than 100 of these workers will attend the dinner Monday night, May 14, which launches the campaign. This will be held at the First Christian Church at 7:00 p.m.

"We are optimistic over the prospects for this year's drive, and all of us associated with the concert association feel that the membership will be increased substantially," Dr. Jones said.

The association and the drive will be conducted along the same lines as in the past.

Admission to the artists numbers next season will be by membership only, and memberships will be sold only during the one-week campaign, Dr. Jones pointed out.

Memberships are of three types, family memberships, which sell at $10, but will admit all members of the family; adult memberships at $4.80 each; and student memberships at $2.40 each.

"We are delighted to give Wellington credit for creating the idea of family memberships. No other place had put this into effect when this town established the idea," Mr. Menz said.

"Attending concerts such as you will be having next winter are one of the few things a family can do together. Much of the time, each member of the family, in the evening, will go his separate way and members of one family may be doing four or five things in as many different places. "Our concerts are not long-haired. They are music and entertainment. There is variety, too, and include instrumental and vocal music, dancing and dramatic entertainments," Mr. Menz continued.

Wellington will probably have three or four artists next winter, depending entirely on the number of memberships sold to finance their appearance. The concert numbers will be selected after the campaign closes.

Among the young artists who will be available are two dramatic attractions, Hal and Ruby Holbrook, who appeared at Clarendon this year. Wellington members who saw them were enthusiastic. The other number of this type is the Demi-Tasse Players, composed of four outstanding young New York actors.

William Masselos, pianist, a brilliant young American pianist, engaged to play with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra next season, but who will be available to fill his concert appointments

CAP Sponsors Flight Barbecue July 4

Program plans for a flight barbecue to be held at Marian Airpark July 4 were adopted at the regular meeting of the Wellington CAP Squadron Friday night, April 27.

Co-sponsorship of the flight barbecue by any and all civic clubs is invited and urged by the squadron members. The flight barbecue will continue the tradition Wellington has set up during the past years of offering visiting airmen an eventful day.

Program chairman Beryl Faulkner announced that a three-fold purpose will be served by the 1951 program, to entertain visiting airmen, to interest the laymen, and amuse the youngsters. Included in the program will be:

day, May 20, with the Rev. Austin Moore, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene preaching the baccalaureate sermon. Rev. Moore is the father of one of the graduates, Jackie Moore.

The commencement will be Friday night, May 25, and this year there will be no guest speaker. The graduates themselves will provide the entire program, Howard Oliphint, high school principal, said.

The eighth grade graduation is set for Thursday night, May 24. There are 50 members of this year's graduating class: Jimmy Agee, Barbara Bagwell, Earl Bartlett, Maxine Bishop Welch, LuDean Bowen, Lavana Boykin, Jimmy Brock, Spencer Coleman, Vada Cook, Zada Cook, Beryl Cooper, Orville Copeland, Leland Fenley, Lonnie Fuson, Jimmy Graves, Wayne Hagerman, Patsy Harper, Tommy Harris,

Fable of a Little Town

Once upon a time there existed an ideal little town. It had everything: nation-wide publicity, wonderful soil, oceans of water, bountiful crops and above all, some of the finest people on the face of the earth.

The folks in this little town knew an important secret, too, and many of them thought this was why it was such a nice town and why it kept growing. There were, of course, a few who just went along for the ride. All in all though, the community leaders summed things up with the following sentence:

"A town either gets larger or smaller—it never stands still."

One day, several years back, a group of these folks got together and planned an expansion program, based upon the secret formula. You would be surprised to have seen the results. The little town grew and grew and grew. A lot of folks went around complaining it had "growing pains" and when those who were going along for the ride got a little bit crowded you should have heard them scream. Everyone, even all boosters, beganto wonder where it was all going to end. Why, you wouldn't even have known the little town. It had street lights, parking meters, a swimming pool, miles and miles of new paving; it had a new hotel and hundreds of new homes—even a few new business buildings. People all over the region talked and bragged about how the little town had prospered and grown.

Maybe a lot of the new people didn't know about the secret, and a lot of the old ones forgot. Anyway, the town began to catch up with itself. Rentals began to slow down. Business volumes were under last year. Crops weren't even so good and a few people began to worry about the little town.

Thus, my friends, the status of this particular little town came to be a question mark. Some folks said the end of the story could not be written now, that only time could record the future. Some of the people remembered the old adage, though, and wanted to start a drive to locate a small factory or two in the little town. Others objected and said, "No. No one gave me anything when I came here." Still others contended that they liked the little town just as it stood that day.

If you think the above is a story of Hereford, you are wrong. It is the story of scores of their towns as well. Some of them are doing things about the condition; others are coasting on their reputation. One small town adopted a Board of City Development in conjunction with its Chamber of Commerce; the move has resulted in the past twelve months in locating three moderate size factories. Still another started supporting its Chamber of Commerce in an equitable manner, financially and morally, to secure the same result. More of them, however, remained little towns: many were over-built and under-populated.

What Hereford does will, of course, depend upon its citizens and the planning board they select. Regardless of the course, however, will always the fact:

"A town either gets larger or smaller—it never standstill."—Jimmie Gillentine in The Hereford Brand.

Do You Miss the Church Bells?

Speaking of missing sounds that were once familiar to our ears and perhaps that we did not appreciate at the time that we heard them yesteryears, the one I think we people miss more than any, is the ringing of church bells that once filled the air on Prayer meeting night, Sunday school and church time on Sundays. Sure wish that one of our Sallisaw churches would install a good bell, it might help increase the attendance because I have heard more than one say that their church bell always gave them the impression that it was "ringing out welcome."—Sequoyah County (Sallisaw, Okla.) Times.

Remove Service Clubs From Towns and Note Difference

Probably a dozen times each year you hear some skeptical person—usually a person who has made no contribution to the community in which he leads a somewhat selfish existence—ask "What good is a service club?"

Such a question does not deserve an answer—but we'll answer it just the same. Harrington has some six or seven service clubs, although many of them are not designated as service clubs. Some are men's clubs and some are women's—but the greatest service club in physical contribution in any town is the fine company, and there is a cultural side to almost every one of these organizations.

When any drive for a worthwhile cause is to be made, the sponsors do not appeal to individuals. They appeal to the service clubs of the town. With the efforts of the combined clubs with them, any movement will culminate in success; without the efforts of these clubs, no drive can be successful. Remove the personnel of all these organizations from any town, and there will not be any town—at least any town worthy of the name—Harrington (Del.) Journal.

Bible Comment FOR MAY 13

Deciple Sought World Conquest

One of the most massive figures in the Bible wanted to conquer the world. He was neither a Communist dictator nor a barbarian tyrant.

Paul was an imperialistic Christian. To him the gospel was not a limited affair designed for the salvation of a chosen few, a sort of spiritual aristocracy. His aspirations to conquer the whole world for Christ were rooted in his conviction that any man could be saved by the gospel.

In the book of Esphesians he wrote of his desire "to make all men see what the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ."

If Paul had any vestige of earthly pride, it was in his Roman citizenship. Yet his vision was such that he forsook the possibility of spreading Christianity to all the far corners of the earth and was not content with his missionary success at home.

The best and greatest Christians have shared the missionary purpose of Paul. They have not excused feeble efforts on the ground of the "need at home," for they have realized, as Paul did, that the spread of the gospel is the measure of its power.

It is one of the great tragedies of our times that here have not been enough Pauls to effectively combat the spread of communism abroad.

Until the Christian way of life wins over the whole world, it is likely that there will always be wars of world conquest waged.

Half Million Farm Workers Covered by SS

About one-half million regularly employed farm workers including farm household employees, are eligible to be covered by the Federal Social Security program.

An employee must work continuously for a full calendar quarter for the same employer, before he is eligible to be covered by the Federal Insurance Contribution Act. This is called the "qualifying quarter", and no FICA tax is to be collected from wages earned during that quarter.

After a "qualifying quarter" has been obtained, the wages of a farm worker is subject to the FICA tax, if in the "qualifying quarter" following the "qualifying quarter", he earns $50.00 or more in cash wages and works on 60 or more days on a full-time basis in agricultural labor. His wages remain subject to these taxes in each succeeding quarter so long as he earns $50.00 or more in cash wages and works for the same employer on 60 or more days on a full-time basis in agricultural labor in the quarter. If an employee changes jobs, that is starts work for a new employer, then he must again work the full "qualifying quarter" before his wages are subject to the FICA tax. Regular farm workers who do not already have social security account number card should apply for one at the social security office in Amarillo, Texas.

Farmers who employ regular wage hands on a full-time basis are required to submit the FICA tax to the Collector of Internal Revenue at the end of each quarter.

Every employer who is subject to these taxes that has not applied for an identification number should get an application Form SS-4, and file with the Collector, or the nearest office of the Social Security Administration. This identifying number is necessary to facilitate the keeping of government records.

The county PMA office has a supply of the application form SS-4, and Agricultural Employer's Social Security Tax Guide, for any farmer who is in need of such forms...

MORE and BETTER COTTON

ANTHRACNOSE boll rot can reduce the grade of your cotton

If you've had some points taken off by the grader for spotty cotton, you know what anthracnose, or pink boll rot, can cost you as a cotton grower. It is expensive and persistent; but it can be controlled now by measures that cost you little.

Anthracnose is a fungus disease, and is at its worst in times of heavy rainfall and where cotton grows rank. The fungus lives over the winter on diseased bolls and stalks left in the fields, and in or on the seeds from infected plants. Clean fall plowing and rotation of your crops helps to control it.

You will also find that treatment of your seed with an organic mercury dust before planting helps a lot to kill off the anthracnose fungi. This treatment cuts off the disease at its source. Used with other control measures, it can practically wipe out the disease from an entire area in a few years. Mercury dust treatment will also control seed decay and damping-off (sore shin) organisms and reduce angular leaf spot.

The cost of the chemical amounts to less than 10¢ per acre. Treatment can be done on your farm or by many ginners and delinters. Ask your County Agent or Farm Extension Service about the value of seed treatment and about where the treaters are in this area.

DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The City Council has set five holidays that will be observed in Wellington. These are Memorial Day, Independence Day, Nov. 11, Thanksgiving and Christmas. It was decided to announce them in advance in order that merchants and their employees might know before time. This year Armistice Day comes on Sunday and there will be no Monday holiday; but it will be observed when it falls on a week-day. It is a commendable plan.

The City is also planning to widen 8th street at the Wellington State Bank corner and West Avenue from the square on down south of the post office. Another project is that of cutting down the courthouse lawn and taking out the extra space in front of the business buildings. This will facilitate traffic around the square and along with the improvement of 8th street, the paving of the two miles north of town and the proposed half mile that would link this paving with 15th Street will result in much better traffic into and out of Wellington.

Velman Warrick came back from a meeting of the Texas Grain and Feed Dealers Association in San Antonio quite impressed with one speech. It was that of Ray Bowden, executive vice-president of the national association. Mr. Bowden said evidence gathered by American intelligence agents points to the spring of 1952 as the time when Russia will consider herself ready for war. Bowden also said he found it difficult to understand how so many people in this country still think Stalin is going to cower in a corner and make peaceful agreements when Marx and Lenin declared the intentions of the Communists long ago. The present Russian leaders have told us the same thing and we read it but we refuse to believe it.

Several people have asked me to try to get them copies of Wes Lizzard's speech over KGNC last Monday. He was talking about issues raised by MacArthur and the attitude of our State Department regarding Communism. I hope to have some copies by the end of this week. It is worth reading in detail.

The example above is only one that shows that the radio is not a real competitor of newspapers. For instance people who listen to a full radio broadcast of a football game, turn right around the next day and buy all of their favorite papers to read the account of the same game. They do the same thing when they have seen the game. Why? Is it because they want to see whether the radio announcer or the sports reporter was wrong. I don't think that is the answer. The answer is that one medium of expression increases interest in another method of informing the people.

Business has not been so hot in Wellington during the last few months. Some merchants have decided to draw into their shells and wait for better times in the fall. This is silly to a person who is a student of merchandising, promotion and advertising. Slow times are the times to make an all out effort to sell. This does not mean holding a sale necessarily. It means telling them and telling them again of the desirable items you have to offer. When your car has to climb a hill, you put on more gas. That is simple and elemental and sound. But when slow times come, some of our merchants take their foot off the gas, keep a ready foot on the brakes, hoping that their car will climb the hill by its own momentum and with no effort from them. This is the time to press down on the accelerator, friends. In case you don't understand the figurative expression, this is the time to hustle and try to sell.

Most of our merchants continue to be aggressive. But the attitude of some reminds me of the tale of the banker who had to retire on account of ill health. He bought a filling station in order to be in the open air more often. The first morning a customer came by and said: "Give me ten gallons of gas." "Where are you going?" asked the former banker. "Oh, I am just going to Dodson and back," replied the customer. "Well can't you get by on five gallons," asked the former banker.

The fat years and the years of scarcity have made bankers out of some good merchants. Smart bankers and smart merchants realize that they are in two entirely different types of business.

While I am giving a lecture to the merchants, here is a hint to the customers. Don't buy anything that you don't need; but DO buy those things you think you will need in the next year. None of them are going to get any cheaper and they are going to get scarcer.

Last Wednesday I spent an enjoyable day as the guest of Lafayette M. Hughes touring the Mill Iron. Important public officials of Arkansas and Louisiana on the legislative and administrative level were on the trip as well as agricultural experts and vocational ag teachers from those states. They were amazed at the Mill Iron operations. The Sears Roebuck Foundation is contracting for a number of the Mill Iron bulls next fall to be turned over to vocational ag students in those states. W. C. Greenway and C. T. Johnson of that organization were on the trip.

I was assigned to a car driven by Kleber Powell. The other occupants were A. B. Bonds, Commissioner of Education of the State of Arkansas, and Bill Durham of the Fort Worth Star Telegram. I have known Kleber for years and Bill and I felt pretty well acquainted by mutual reading; but I was just a little bit on the hesitant side about getting acquainted with Mr. Bonds, the Commissioner of Education. I had been thinking about the usual pleasantries with Kleber who knows so much about the Mill Iron — its grasses, cattle and terrain. But I could not keep from thinking, "What if this educator starts talking about the inductive and the deductive and the rote method of teaching?" I was prepared to be bored to death to hear about education in the South when I had come out to listen to Kleber talk about grass, weeds and cattle.

Mr. Bonds must have sensed my attitude. He put me at ease by telling me that he was once the owner and sole proprietor of the oldest weekly in Arkansas. He told me of his early trials and tribulations. After that we got along swell in talking about grass and cattle. He is brilliant, sincere and forceful. He thinks the Mill Iron has something most important to contribute to the economy of his

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO PICK BEAUTY FOR WHEAT FESTIVAL

WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS. May 9. The Wellington Chamber of Commerce has been asked to pick the loveliest girl in town to be a princess at the National Wheat Harvest Festival May 17 through 19. As visiting royalty during the "One Wonderful Week", the princess will compete with other area girls for the coveted title of National Wheat Harvest Queen.

Princesses from cities in North Texas and Southern Oklahoma will stay in Midwestern University dormitories during their three-day reign at the festival. Each princess will receive gifts from local merchants, as well as a courtesy card that will enable her to get free soft drinks, meals, and free movies while in Wichita Falls. Garden parties, teas, and luncheons are on the agenda to honor the visiting girls. Each princess also will be honored May 19 in the gigantic three-mile long Wheat Harvest Festival and Armed Forces Day Parade.

The Harvest Queen, to be selected by visiting dignitaries and movie stars, will be feted with her own Coronation show, a complete section in the big parade and will be presented with lavish gifts from Wichita Falls businesses. Among these prizes are furniture, record albums, clothes, electric appliances, and cosmetics.

The annual Wheat Festival in Wichita Falls celebrates the first wheat harvested in the nation. Other activities of the gala celebration include a downtown carnival day and night during the festival.

state by providing such uniform bulls to the various groups of vocational ag students.

Perhaps Virginia Robey will get a story with all the names about the tour in this or the next issue of the paper. By the way, there is good news about her Mother that all her friends have been asking about. Mrs. Robey is doing fine in every respect as far as the doctors know. What better present could anybody have as Mother's Day approaches?

Alexander FFA Officer Nominee

Billy Ray Alexander, the 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander and president of the Samnorwood F. F. A. Chapter has been selected as the representative from the Greenbelt District for Area Officer. The Greenbelt District is composed of 15 F. F. A. Chapters. These Chapters represent the schools with Vocational Agriculture Departments in Childress, Donley, Hall, Hardeman, Cottle and Collingsworth Counties. The nominees are selected on the basis of their F. F. A. project programs and leadership activities, leadership outside of F. F. A., and their knowledge of parliamentary procedure and F. F. A. work. The nominees are required to hold the degree of Lone Star Farmer or have their application at the time of nomination. Billy Ray has his application in and it has passed the district committee favorably. Only 2 per cent of the F. F. A. membership of Texas is eligible for this degree.

The outstanding project program that has been developed by Billy Ray was started from an excellent time. Hereford heifer given him several years ago. He has kept the heifer calves and sold the steer calves. One calf bred and fed by him placed 4th in competition at the Collingsworth County Youth Project Show at Wellington on April 7th. At the present time he has 9 cows, 5 heifers and 2 beef calves. The home grown feed for these beef animals has been furnished by his father in return for Billy Ray working the 160 acres of farm land in the summer while Mr. Alexander is running his combines in wheat harvest. The younger Mr. Alexander also manages the pasture land and other 46 head of beef animals on the section stock farm located east of Lutie.

the Samnorwood F. F. A. Chapter and its present president, but he is also an outstanding member of the Junior Class and can be counted on to make a good showing with the excellent team of basketball of the Samnorwood Eagles, who won their district this year.

On May 12 Billy Ray will compete against representatives from the other 5 districts for his area office of Area XI, which is made up of the Texas Panhandle and south to a line that extends west from the lower side of Cottle County. Area XI has 65 F. F. A. Chapters. The area officers voted upon by 2 delegates from each F. F. A. Chapter.

He was chosen for the Marquette job from a field of more than 40 applicants, and his choice was a unanimous one by the athletic board of the college.

In a sense, he is going home, since he was assigned to the Marquette Navy V-5 unit during the winter of 1943-44 and was awarded his "M" sweater in athletics. "The athletic board was charmed by Mr. Winter's personality and greatly impressed by his record," said Father Clarence J. Ryan, S. J., chairman of the board. "He made a hit with us at last Saturday's meeting and we decided he was the man we wanted."

Winter moved to California with his family when he was 14 and graduated from Huntington Park High School, attended Compton Junior College and Oregon State College, where he starred in basketball and track.

During the war, he was commissioned a bomber pilot and following the war, he enrolled in the University of Southern California, where he graduated in 1947. He starred with the Trojan basketball team and was Pacific coast and national junior AAU champion in the pole vault, clearing 14 feet 2 1/4 inches.

Winter is married and has one son, Russell Frederick, three months old.

Ronald Calvin Hurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin A. Hurst, was a tonsillectomy patient in St. Joseph Hospital this week.

W. A. Gollighugh of Amarillo spent part of last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gollighugh, of Quail.

Miss Nettie Alexander is a medical patient in St. Joseph Hospital this week.

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

"There seems to be considerable question in the minds of parents regarding the C. A. P. Many it seems are afraid that it will commit their sons and daughters to the military or that it will hasten their entry into the Armed Forces. Or that it will teach their children to fly or involve them in airplane rides when they (the parents) do not want their children to learn to fly and do not want them riding around in airplanes. What are the facts, Bill, regarding these questions?"

First, last and most positively the C. A. P. is strictly a volunteer civilian organization that holds a charter by Congressional action which is similar to the American Red Cross and The Boy Scouts of America.

The membership oath on the part of both senior members and cadets alike is to the C. A. P. and not to any military organization. It does not in any way commit them to the Military.

By joining the C. A. P. senior members or cadets can not hasten their entry into the Armed Forces nor on the other hand will it keep them out of the draft or have any effect upon their availability for call by the Armed Forces. C. A. P. members are civilian citizens free to withdraw at any time and cannot be ordered to do what they are not willing or want to volunteer to do.

The Civil Air Patrol does not teach either cadets or senior members or anyone else how to fly. They teach only the fundamentals of aviation and that teaching is done on the ground from the best possible text books.

The general objectives of the C. A. P. cadet courses of instruction are to provide the youth of the Nation with a basic knowledge of aviation; to create in them an airmindedness; and further to lay the foundation for intelligent citizenship.

No cadet may fly in an airplane under C. A. P. jurisdiction unless he has specific signed consent of his parents prior to each and every such supervised flight.

The C. A. P. uniform does not signify the profession of arms, rather it is the badge of a civilian organization that has banded together and organized to volunteer, their time, their skill, their private resources to augment and assist the professional guardians of our homes, the armed forces and the government, when called upon in time of need.

The use of a semi-military plan of organization has been adopted only by reason of the fact that it teaches an understanding of how the organization of our Armed Forces works and in time of need for action makes it possible for C. A. P. to take its place and do the job that it is called upon to do with the least confusion in the quickest, most intelligent and cooperative manner.

Since C. A. P. acts only when called upon and only after disaster strikes, its job is primarily organizing, training and education.

The Civil Air Patrol Cadet program affords a means of practical training in organization, leadership, and discipline which will be of value in an industrial or professional career, and will qualify trainees for positions of responsibility in time of local or national emergency.

C. A. P. simply offers boys and girls from 15 to 18 years of age the opportunity to add another experience of life to the pyramid of their own education and at the same time prepare themselves to better serve their nation both in time of peace and in time of disaster as good citizens. These are the facts regarding those questions concerning C. A. P.

Producer Unaffected Under Ruling

OPS MEAT RULING AFFECTS PRICE OF BEEF FROM STEER TO STEAK

LUBBOCK — Office of Price Stabilization officials of the Far West Texas district, which includes Collingsworth, prepared this week to put into effect the new beef regulations.

"The new orders covering beef, which makes up nearly half the nation's meat diet," District Price Executive C. J. Taylor said, "were the highlights this week of the rapidly expanding and developing government price program."

"The new regulations will regulate the price of beef from cattle on the hoof to the steak and hamburger at the corner grocery," he said. "The only unregulated prices will be those between producers. The program begins with the pricing at the stockyards."

"The regulations are designed to check advancing prices of live cattle and bring them in line with wholesale and retail prices," Taylor said, "thus restoring an operating margin for those slaughterers and retailers who have experienced a price squeeze in the last few weeks because of uncontrolled cattle prices."

In a further move the OPS regulations provide for lower retail prices in the fall, the first reduction coming on August 1 when retail prices will be reduced by about 4 cents a pound, followed by a similar rollback October 1.

The wholesale ceiling prices became effective May 9, and the retail prices will go into effect May 14. However, retail stores have until June 2 to post their ceiling prices in their stores for beef.

Highlighting other pertinent pricing regulations, Taylor emphasized that the general ceiling price regulation, or "freeze" still covered practically every merchant who sells either goods or services — unless he has been "tailored" regulations.

Although the deadline for filing pricing chart by retailers of consumer goods (wearing apparel, furniture, notions, department store goods, etc., under CPR 7 and amendments) has been postponed until May 30, OPS officials are urging they be sent to the district office, Broadway Building, 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas, as soon as possible so that they may be acknowledged, processed, and filed.

There's a deadline for grocery stores, too, Taylor points out. Grocery stores are scheduled to begin their operation under tailored regulations CPR 15 and CPR 16 by Monday, May 14. They are required by the federal pricing program to be in complete compliance by that time.

They were supposed to have filed their category report (form 5) in the district office by April 28. Taylor said a large percentage of them have done so; but he urged those who had not, to do so immediately.

And there was a filing deadline for restaurants, soda fountains and other eating and drinking establishments, too. It was April 30 under CPR 11 when they were scheduled to have filed their food cost per dollar of sales with the district office. Although the deadline is passed, however, the amendments) has been postponed

Welcome to Wellington

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clay and sons Davey 9, C. B. 7, and Timmy 6 months, moved here recently from Stillwater, Oklahoma, where Mr. Clay was employed for three years with the Farmer's Co-op Creamery there. He also spent two years as the superintendent of the College creamery at Oklahoma A. & M. College.

They both attended college in Okla. Mr. Clay attended Oklahoma A. & M. at Stillwater for two years. Mrs. Clay attended Oklahoma College for Women in Chickasha, Oklahoma for one year.

Mr. Clay is a veteran with two years in the Navy as a cook. The Clays are active members of the Church of Christ here. Directly after moving here all three of the sons took the chicken pox and were confined to their home for some time.

Sam White and Herman Claude Terry attended a regional meeting for CAP Communication officers held in Oklahoma City Saturday. Bill Hughes, the CAP commander, flew them up there Saturday morning.

OPS officials are urging that they be filed. Another development of the past week was the extension of Ceiling Price Regulation 1 which means passenger automobiles will stay under present price ceilings indefinitely.

Officials reminded again that most businesses were covered by the General Ceiling Price Regulation, or "freeze" and that until they comply with the tailored regulations removing them from the freeze, they remain under it and are required to comply with it.

OPS Officer Here May 16

The Office of Price Stabilization is sending Alton Taylor, price specialist from the Lubbock district OPS office, to Wellington Wednesday morning, May 16, to assist business men of this area in complying with the federal pricing program, it was announced by the local chamber of commerce. He may be contacted at County Court Room on that day.

Mr. Taylor is a price specialist in the Foods and Restaurant branch of the Office of Price Stabilization. However, he will be able to give information to representatives of all types of businesses concerning the ceiling price regulations. He emphasized that practically all business men, excepting those specifically removed by the "tailored" regulations, are covered by the general ceiling price regulation.

The chamber of commerce says plans have been worked out for the OPS office to have a price specialist in Wellington every Wednesday morning to work with business men in the area.

Specialists from different branches will rotate in order to cover completely the regulations within the shortest time possible.

All business men are urged to consult with the OPS representatives in order to bring their firms into complete voluntary compliance as soon as possible.

Income available for return is listed as $2,597.39, or a rate of return on the rate base of 1.52 per cent.

Total operating revenues of the company here are listed as $65,987.43, and total operating expenses are listed as $63,390.04.

Under the requested rates, total operating revenues would amount to $79,478.71 and expenses to $69,987.02.

The proposed plan for widening the streets around the square was worked out by a committee composed of Monk Leggett, J. T. Slay, City Manager Bura Handley and John Coleman, the committee being appointed by Mayor L. B. Bratten.

The commissioners in a meeting Monday morning did not take up the project, but were due to Wednesday, and County Judge R. L. Templeton said that the unofficial reaction of the commissioners to the project was favorable.

Pat O'Hair, commissioner of Precinct 3, raised the question of widening the streets around the court house square in an article in The Wellington Leader last year.

The proposed widening, as drawn up by city manager Bura Handley, calls for taking 13 feet off the court house lawn on East and West Avenues and 23 feet off 8th and 9th streets. The size of the lawn would be cut from 200 x 250 feet to 174 by 204 feet.

"It will mean that 8th and 9th streets can carry four rows of angle parking, and East and West avenues three rows of angle parking and one row of parallel parking.

Cost of the plan is estimated at $4,634. Brick secured from the highway department on the 8th street business loop would provide ample material, and the cost submitted includes removing and replacing sidewalks and curbing.

The proposal is also under consideration for widening the streets leading off the square for a distance of at least one block, extending them from the present 48 feet width to 74 feet. This will leave 8-foot sidewalks, the standard widths in most places.

Legal holidays which Wellington will observe in the future, as selected by the city include Memorial Day, May 30; July 4; Armistice Day, November 11; Thanksgiving Day; and Christmas Day.

Government Safeguards Farm Machinery

Relief for farmers concerned by the growing shortage of tractors and other mechanized equipment is promised by the appointment of A. King McCord, president of The Oliver Corporation, as director of the newly established farm machinery and equipment division of the National Production Authority, which was announced on Thursday, April 12, in Washington, D. Mr. McCord will work with the NPA and the United States Department of Agriculture to secure scarce materials in sufficient quantities for farm equipment manufacturers to produce the amount of farm machinery considered necessary by the USDA to reach expanded farm production goals.

News of Men in Service

Wonsan, Korea, April 18, 1951

Dearest Mom, Dad, and Kids:

Well, family, here I am at the same old stand in Wonsan. We're still doing routine patrol duty, escort stuff, mail and cargo delivery, and harbor control ship. We seldom get into the minor harbor at all. Last night we made the patrol from Wonsan north to Saunju, delivered mail and passengers to the P. F. 5, which is the frigate who takes care of those duties in Saunju and comes back again to Wonsan this morning.

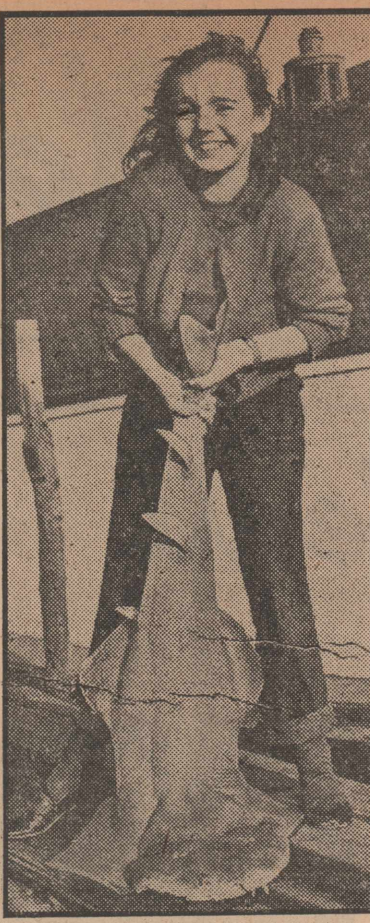

Today was a nice calm day and we went out in the motor whale boat to put a radar receiving gear on a couple of buoys so that we can maneuver easier at night. We sometimes patrol up and down the channel here for possible fishing boats.

There are three or four Australian "Tin Cows" in the harbor now, and we hope they will relieve us so that we can go back to Japan for a spell.

Mom, did I tell you that I put in a transfer chit to a Class "A" Electronic Technician school and that my division officer and the executive officer and captain approved it and the yeoman drafted a letter to the Commander of our Fleet Unit requesting the school? If the bureau approves it, I'd be transferred back. I'm afraid to hope so, but maybe I'll make it.

You can kinda put in a good word for me in your prayers. I'd sure like to get it. It is a 42 week school and is in San Francisco at Treasure Island. It'll take two months to find out about it.

The picture of the house, Sam and Sis, was certainly cute. It's a little far away though. No, I've never had a chance to get the films developed. We've been at sea off and on ever since I had them and I couldn't put them in with time to get them out. I've been taking lots of pictures so I'll have about 10 to 25 rolls to develop when we get back to Japan.

Well, we have been moving around quite a bit lately, and I've had plenty of chances to learn my steering. I'm doing pretty good these days.

I always get letters from Donne in Washington every time I get them from you. You know, I've always wanted to see Washington, too.

John Stubbs, a buddy of mine, who is from Indiana, is sitting here reading the Texas Bragg's Book you sent me. He is kinda dubious about its truth, but of course, he thinks it is a real interesting book. Ha!

The candy you sent was good, but part of it had partially turned to sugar. The one that had nuts in it was still in pretty fair shape. It all takes quite a beating in the mails.

I'm surely glad to hear that you all go to church all time. That's really good. I don't have all the advantages for church that you do, but I keep my Bible in my pocket and I say a prayer quite often. I'm trying my best to be a good Christian.

Well, it's time to go on my watch from 2000 to 2400, at home that would be from 8 to 12. Bye now.

Lots of love to you all, Lonnie F. Hollingsworth, S. R. 425-81-14, U. S. S. Burlington, PF-51, c-o F. P. O., San Francisco, California.

Cpl. Jay W. Beattie of the 300th Fighter Test Squadron Air Force Base, Florida, has returned to the base after spending a twenty-one day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Beattie, and brothers, Robert of Wellington, and Ray of Hedley.

Cpl. Billy Wayne Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thomas of Loco, spent a fourteen day leave with his parents and has returned to Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, where he is stationed. He was transferred from Fort Belvoir, West Virginia, back to Fort Leonard Wood after completing a two month special training course. He will be an instructor at the post now.

Varsity is a derivation of the word "university."

Rockets Try For WT Scholarships

A group of Skyrocket athletes tried out with the West Texas State College Buffalo football team at Canyon late last week. Three of the group, Jimmie Brock, Doyle Wayne Ingram, and Orville Copeland were offered athletic scholarships, Mrs. N. A. Brock reported.

Two other players, Beryl Cooper and Jimmie Graves, tried out with the McMurry Indians at Abilene but no decision has been reached on the awarding of athletic scholarships. Cooper also went to Canyon to try out with the Buffaloes, but due to a split lip received in the Abilene try-out, he was unable to play.

Brock is confined to his home this week as a result of a slight brain concussion received while practicing Friday, his mother said, and it is not yet certain if he will be able to take part in the senior play.

Americans Turning to Secularism, Linn Tells 1,200 at REA Meeting

J. B. Linn, Amarillo's own Uncle Jay of K. G. N. C., was feature speaker at the annual meeting of the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative, Inc., held Friday, April 27, in the community building in Wellington. Approximately 1,200 people from Wheeler, Collingsworth, Hall, Armstrong, Childress, Hemphill, Gray, and Roberts gathered to elect new officers and to hear the timely remarks of Uncle Jay.

"I am going to give you some actual facts about the agricultural standing of Texas as compared to the United States, and how the world stands on the food situation. I also want to point out the American's stand with God and the church. The great state of Texas ranked third in agriculture as compared with the other states in the union. California led the parade, with Iowa second.

"You, the farmers in Texas, earned a total of two billion dollars during the year of 1950, with most of it spent in your own state. One of your dollars spent in your state draws an additional seven dollars to the purchasing market.

"To support God and the Church, the total of 150 million people in the United States, of which only 46 million profess Christianity, one billion dollars was taken up in the collection plates on Sunday morning,—merely one half of what was made in the state of Texas alone.

"The American people are turning to secularism, that is, we are putting ourselves before God. We never think about the advancement of the Church but only of a new car for our own use, or a new house to live in. We don't speak of God in public as we did in 1930; we may think about Him, but as far as His entering into our daily conversations, He is just not permitted to do so.

"The farmers of the world have the great task of feeding two billion people, of which six hundred thousand are starving to death now. In the countries of Europe, men are fighting and stealing in order to secure just a little food for their starving children. If conditions were to come to that in the U. S., there would not be a father in the sound of my voice who would not do the same thing.

"The American people have a bad case of the 'Gimmes'. Labor, Farmers, and Management each lay the blame on the other for these terribly high prices that we have today. One will not co-operate with the other and say 'I will be the first to take less in my pay envelope so that the world may get off the inflation wagon.' We remember in our history books about the Phoenicians, who 3 thousand years ago had almost as advanced disposal units in their cities as we have today; about the Romans who were the greatest lawyers the world has known; about the Greeks who were the greatest architects of the world. We all know now that these great nations are no more, they lay in ruins because of the lack of cooperation among their government officials and the people, themselves.

"After each of these great nations disappeared, the history of the world passed through a period of fifteen hundred years in which there was no progress, no building, no recording of any great step in history—all was destruction. About 1500 A. D. the work was begun to build up the present as we know it today.

"Stop and think. Don't read in history books two hundred years from now about the rise and fall of the American Empire. Begin a co-operation movement. Work with your neighbor, your employer. Don't see America go to her knees simply because we cannot go a little out of our set way to see a general cooperative trend in the U. S.," concluded Johnny Linn.

Orval Couch, general manager of the Greenbelt office here, was in charge of the business session. In ballots cast by the members, the present board of directors were re-elected. These include J. A. Coleman of Dozier, R. J. Holland of Dodson, A. P. Bumpers of Shamrock, A. J. Garland and F. E. Sawyer of Clarendon, and Frank Bagwell of Claude.

Mr. Coleman, president of the board, addressed the group. He stressed the continued practice of conservation, fertilizing of the soil, and a general all-over increase of production by the farmer in the year to come.

Mr. Couch gave the financial standing of the Greenbelt organization, stating that the Greenbelt has 1,765 miles of lines and 2,896 consumers from a beginning in 1938 of 150 miles in three counties, Collingsworth, Donley and Harmon.

From Little Items Grow —

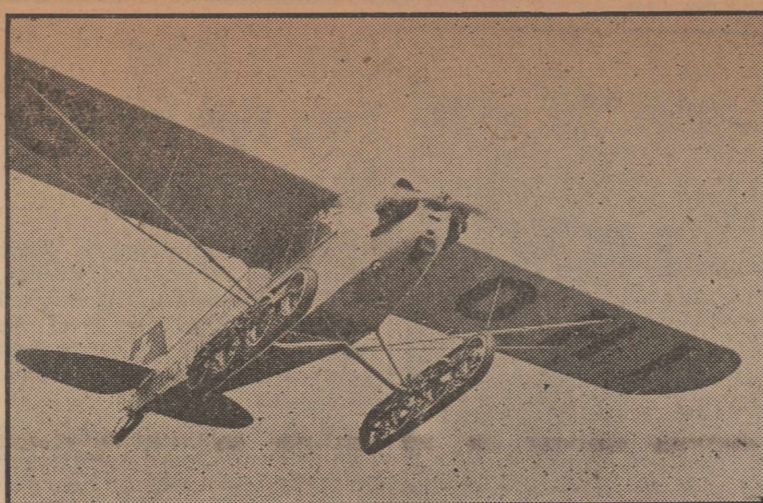

Figures in the Federal budget have become so awesome in size that many a John Q. Citizen taxpayer who wants to protest waste, extravagance and non-essential government spending finds himself almost speechless. The average fellow is scarcely able to cope with multi-billion dollar lump-sum items. As a matter of fact, I recently heard a government official tick off the multi-billion dollar lump-sum figures in the budget and, with an almost defiant challenge, say: "All right, tell us where YOU would cut it!" This tactic of using the overwhelmingly big figures as a psychological block to would-be critics has frequently been successful.

But in all government budgets, no matter how awesome, the big figures are made up of a lot of smaller ones. The following tidbits of information show, to some degree, what goes to make up the big figures in the present Federal spending budget. Any taxpayer can cope with any one of these tidbits — and each item answers the challenge of "tell us where YOU would cut it." (Some of these tidbits were dug out by the Tax Foundation, others came from the staff of the Congressional Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures, headed by Sen. Harry Byrd; and from the Hoover Commission.)

MISMANAGEMENT

The new $6,000,000 Veterans Administration hospital at Clarksburg, W. Va., opened three and a half months ago. One month later it had 133 employees and total expenses of about $500,000 a year — but not a single doctor or a single patient! Another brand new $6,000,000 VA hospital, at Beckley, 120 miles from Clarksburg, which also was dedicated about three months ago, had two doctors but no patients 30 days later — yet its 160 employees were costing taxpayers $40,000 a month!

MAKING TRACKS—The first plane equipped with caterpillar tracks is pictured over airfield, near Rome, Italy, on test flight. Inventor Count Giovanni Bonmartini, who adapted the tracks to an airplane, claims the new landing gear allows the aircraft to land on any type of field, with or without landing facilities.

Civilian government in the Executive branch of the Federal government during the 28 days of February increased 62,610, bringing the total civilian employment to 2,807,904. The increase in February averaged more than 2,200 employees each day! The salaries for this army of civilian Federal government employees make a rather awesome figure — $700,000,000 a month, or $8,400,000,000 a year.

MONEY WASTED

Federal budget expenditures for the Department of Agriculture increased 120 per cent from 1941 to 1949, reaching the awesome lump-sum of $2,750,000,000. A tidbit from the Agriculture Department's "petty cash" account: For the first five months of fiscal 1951, losses on government dispositions of surplus food — including turkeys — plus carrying charges, amounted to about $22,400,000 a month — or more than enough each month to purchase 100 new light tanks at $200,000 each!

Federal government expenditures for the five years 1923-1933 combined were $4,956,000,000 less than government spending for the single year 1949. A tidbit: The Dayton (Ohio) Daily News reported March 11 that the Federal government was "educating" 120 persons at Wright-Patterson air base who could not type or take shorthand. The government hired them, then sent the 120 to local business colleges, paying their tuition while at the same time paying each of the 120 a minimum of $43 a week as a gift of Uncle Sam.

NON-ESSENTIAL BRASS
The Overstaffing Subcommittee,

reporting on wasteful expenditures for top-heavy government staffs, found that at Coast Guard headquarters there were assigned the following: Eight Admirals, 32 Captains, 59 Commanders, 49 Lieut.-Commanders, 55 Lieutenants, and two Ensigns . . . total: 205 officers. During February, 17,251 additional civilian employees were put on the payroll by the Navy; 18,136 by the Army, and 17,416 by the Air Force. Senator Byrd's committee reports there already are 1,250,000 civilian employees on the military payroll, almost 400,000 more than a year ago.

It takes more than $10 worth of paper work (Red Tape) to complete a governmental purchase order — yet half of the 3,000,000 items purchased yearly by the civilian agencies are for less than $10.

If the waste and extravagance were stopped and the non-essential items trimmed off the Federal budget, the lump-sum items would not be quite so awesome and our tax bill, in time, might even be cut in half.

By MRS. Z. O. MCKINNEY

Well, here is is the 6th of May and we are having one cold sandstorm. Looks like we can never have any spring weather. We have had quite a bit of rain and have a fair season. Everyone has been very busy in gardens, yards and the farmers in the fields. Maybe this is our final norther.

Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Stewart of Monahans, Texas, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. L. White and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hunt were called to Lubbock Sunday morning by the illness of Mrs. Robert Kellison, who is in the hospital there.

Miss Voncile Bonneau of Lubbock spent the week end with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mid Scott of Amarillo visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wynn and family.

Janis Burk of Temple is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Wynn, at this time.

Min. Van Bonneau is in California at this time for a month meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abbott of Mangum and Mrs. Cordie Spurlin of Vinson spent last Tuesday with Mrs. Mattie Jameson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crow and sons are moving to Mangum where Mr. Crow will be with a gin company there.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watson Jr. and sons and Mr. and Mrs. LeLon Meeks of Pampa visited here Sunday with Mrs. Tom Watson Sr. and Jim.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rollings and Mr. and Mrs. Z. O. McKinney were in Vernon Wednesday to attend the Santa Rosa Roundup, others attending the rodeo from here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander, Mrs. Ellis Earle, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Farris, Sherry and Zenith Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Birchfield and Mr. and Mrs. Bynum Hightower.

This seems to be the fishing season as many of our citizens have been visiting Lugert and Childress lakes.

Jack Stewart and Lester Phillips are spending this week prospecting near the Arkansas line.

The homecoming for the Nazarene church was quite a success in spite of the cold sandstorm last Sunday.

The Jr. and Senior banquet was held last Friday night at the school lunch room with the school board and Juniors and Seniors attending.

Mrs. Howard Hunt and boys and Mrs. M. A. Branum and Mrs. Georgia McKinney were in Mangum Friday.

John Spain of Amarillo was visiting in Dodson Saturday.

The program put on at the school last week by the "Wagon Masters" of Wichita was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Ross Swift and Jeanette were in Childress last Friday on business.

Miss Dorothy Milner and Miss Wilma Hightower of Bethany, Oklahoma, were home for the homecoming at the Nazarene church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Branum of Hobbs, New Mexico, spent the night here last week on their way to Dill, Oklahoma, to visit Mrs. Branum's father, Weldon Davenport, there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Austin and daughter, Cliffla Mae, of Dimmitt visited his mother, Mrs. Ida Austin, over the week end.

SPRING FEVER—Baccha, the Indian tiger at the London Zoo, recently had a severe attack of that same disease that strikes most of us this time of year—Spring Fever. The kittenish antics of the big fellow, who seemed to be longing for a back-scratcher, delighted the zoo visitors.

News of Men in Service

Has your man in service been promoted, won a medal, or done something else his friends would like to know about? The Wellington Leader would like to have these items for "Men in Service" column. Phone them in, come by the office, or write them down and mail them to us. Friends of the Collingsworth County men in the armed forces like to know where they are and what they are doing.

Sgt. George Sturgill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturgill of near Quail, is one of the Wellington men who for some months has been in active combat with the forces in Korea. He is with a field artillery battalion.

In a letter to his parents on April 28, he gave the latest developments concerning his immediate group.

"We moved again yesterday," he wrote. We are in the outskirts of Seoul again. I think we are with the Third Division but don't know for sure.

"Well, them Chinks are on the prowl again.

"These big generals claim we were ready for these Chinks but they are still coming so I don't know if we were or not.

"I don't know when I will get to come home now. It don't look like it will be any time soon, though.

"Well, it has been raining since about three o'clock yesterday, and it is still at it. They claim it rains for about two months steady this time of the year. So I guess it has started. Boy, I sure do hate to see it rain that long. But I guess there is nothing anyone can do but hope to get out of it as soon as possible."

Sergeant Sturgill is a World War II veteran.

Forrest E. Vaughan, gunner's mate, third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Vaughan of Rt. 3, Wellington, Texas, is serving aboard the Navy's attack cargo ship USS Virgo, attached to Service Squadron 3, which is supplying United Nations warships in the Far East.

Attack cargo ships were converted from merchant vessels at the beginning of World War II and were equipped to carry combat cargo at high speeds.

Booms were added which made possible the carrying of landing craft for amphibious assaults. To round out their complete battle effectiveness, special fire mains and firefighting equipment were designed for the ships and radios and radar equipment was put aboard.

Sgt. 1st C. Jimmy Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Norton of Wellington, has been fighting with a voluntary commando group in Korea called the "Raiders" since the outbreak of the Korean conflict.

He entered the Army in 1947 at Ardmore, Oklahoma, and was shipped to G. H. Q. in Tokyo in 1948. Mr. and Mrs. Norton moved to Wellington in 1949.

Sgt. Norton called his mother Tuesday morning from Tokyo saying he was well but didn't think he would be coming home soon. This was the first time Mrs. Norton has talked to her son since he went overseas in 1948.

In a recent business meeting of the Junior High School P. T. A., Mrs. E. K. Jones was named president and Mrs. Harold Watkins vice-president for the coming year. They were elected to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs. Rufus Sweat. The latter pointed out that next year their children will be in grades taught in the high school building, rather than at junior high, as at first believed.

Other Junior High PTA officers are Mrs. Cecil Leggett, secretary, Mrs. Gene Martin, treasurer, and Mrs. Tom Campbell.

We are very proud of the 4-H orders May 8. Dwayne has been one of our community who took a number of prizes at the 4-H Dress Revue held in Childress Saturday. Betty Durfey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Durfey, was the youngest girl in the entire county to enter a project in the revue. It was a flowered skirt. She scored the highest of the entire county, including winning over her older sister, Georgia Ann, who is a second year home-making student. Her score was 96, while Georgia Ann scored 93. Betty won a lovely sewing kit complete with sewing accessories. Georgia Ann, winner of the girls division, was awarded a trip to A. & M. College. She will go the latter part of June.

Barbara Ann Mayhugh entered a blouse on which she won first. She also won a sewing kit. Seven other girls entered projects. Allah Faye and Rita Ann King entered dresses, Carolyn Lockhart entered a cup towel, Diane Lockhart entered a dress, Doris Wolf entered a skirt, and Charolette Mayhugh entered a skirt. The girls modeled their projects at the Loco school Friday afternoon.

The Mannahan brothers purchased a new tractor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Scott received word from their son, Pfc. Dwayne Scott of Fort Benning, Georgia, that he would receive his overseas

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson Grass farm on Buck Creek discusses farming this week, which he has to do mostly from the theoretical side, if you ask us.

Dear editor:

I read in a copy of the Wellington Leader which my neighbor had wrapped up some fresh vegetables in and brought to me, a good neighbor with a good garden is hard to beat, I'd raise one myself but there ought to be somebody left for neighbors to take fresh vegetables to or too many greens would go to waste, where the experts in Washington have been studyin the census figures and have discovered only 16 percent of the nation's population is now farmin.

Accordin to them, this is a fine tribute to the ability of farmers to produce more per man, but is a serious thing in that not enough young men are being drawn back to the farm. "It takes farm life to build a nation's moral fiber," the experts said, which ain't necessarily borne out by the facts, as I understand most office-holders come from farms or at least claim they do.

But I am frank to say I ain't disturbed and I will appreciate you gettin word to them experts not to worry about the number of farmers while they still got Korea on their hands. You give a expert a situation like that—the sudden knowledge the number of farmers is decreasin—and he'll come up with a solution that will wreck the country. First thing he'd want to do after gettin his bureau established is artificially increase the number, whereas the number of farmers is determined by economics. what city jobs are payin, how hot the sun is, etc. You take this farm of mine out here, the last thing it needs is somebody to support. It ain't half supportin me like it is.

The number of farmers in this country ought to be left up to nature, the same as the number of barbers is. Some times a given town will have too many barbers, some times not enough, but either situation don't last long, something which no expert could figure out because it's too simple takes place, and before long the thing has leveled off, either some barber takes up farmin or some farmer takes up barberin, whichever way the situation is leanin in. The same thing is true of blacksmiths and five-and-ten-cent stores and beauty parlors and fillin stations and meat markets and school teachers and candidates for county office.

I don't care if 16 percent or 2 percent of the population is still farmers, we can still raise more stuff than most town birds can pay for.

Yours faithfully, Be a soil conservation enthusiast.

Jays Drive-In

The difference goes more than Skin-Deep

Nobody wonders what you're driving when you roll by in this one.

In the 1951 line-up, its brand-new front-end styling stands out with a beauty all its own.

You're the proud owner of a Buick—and the whole world knows it.

But you—at the wheel—enjoy a long list of differences that go far deeper than looks.

The ride is different—level and true. You sit the road with special assurance—because Buick's torque-tube drive keeps rear wheels firmly aligned—soft coil springs on all four wheels soak up the bumps and bobbles—honest weight keeps you on a steady keel.

The power is different—eager and sure. Buick's high-compression Fireball engine does wonders with fuel—and no matter what you demand in emergency, there's horsepower to spare.

Handling is different—this car seems to steer itself on straightaway or curve—and swings lightly into parking spots inches shorter than you'd think you need.

Capping it all, there's the silken versatility of Dynaflo Drive,* that takes all the tenseness out of driving—responds to your slightest wish with a surging swoop of power.

No doubt about it, what you get in a Buick is far more than just a new car—it's a whole new experience in getting pleasurable from here to there.

So why not explore this difference? Come, take a Buick over and find out how very much satisfaction smart money can buy.

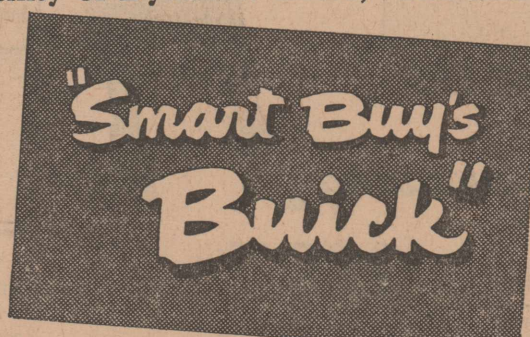

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Skyrocket Band Gets High Rating in Canyon Contest

Wellington's music department brought home high honors in some of the stiffest competition they will meet all year, the regional interscholastic league band contest at Canyon, Friday, April 27.

Rufus Johnson, band director, said that the band won second division ratings in concert playing, sight reading and marching. This is considerably higher than last year's winnings, and judging was stiffer this time, he said. In the overall rating, only Levelland, Phillips and Littlefield rated above Wellington.

The band as a whole was only two and one half points below the 95 per cent required for first division rating.

In solo and ensemble winnings, the Rocket musicians brought home four first division ratings in solos and two in ensembles; six second division ratings in solos and two ensembles; and three third division ratings in solo numbers.

First division solo winners were Bing Crosby, French Horn; Phil Handley, trombone; Fred Saied, saxophone; and Bobby Cotton, base. Ensembles: French Horn quartet, composed of Tommy Bryant, Stingel, Tanya Smith and Bennie Bob Graves; and the twirling ensemble: Jennie Scott, Tanya Smith, Jannine Crawford, Betty Wood and Shirley Agee.

Second division solo winners: John Hayden Smith, clarinet; James Fredrick LeDerer, cornet; Bennie Graves, French horn; Tommy Bryant, French horn; and Fred Alexander, oboe. Ensembles: Cornet trio, Roberta Posey, Spencer Coleman and Jeanette Penley; and clarinet trio, Cecilia Elbert, John Hayden Smith and Sharon Swift.

Third division ratings: Sharon Swift and Cecilia Elbert, both clarinets.

In student directing, Fred Alexander won a second division rating and Jim Thompson a third division rating.

They also had an opportunity to study the methods of feeding livestock on the college farm.

The boys on the dairy cattle judging team were Franklin Knoll, Marland Sheffield and Earl Wayne Bryan. The livestock judging team representing the school was Troy Clark, Joe Schaub and Eugene Eagle. Competing on the crops team was Ray Newkirk, Jimmy Boyd and Bob Baxter. Malcom Phipps, Joe Frank and John Drew Knol were the members of the dairy products team. The teams coached by O. L. ## It's the only new-type engine in any "new car"!

Chrysler FirePower

Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER

The new Chrysler Hemispherical Combustion Chamber, heart of the finest car engine built today. In this dome-topped area, you see the only ideal combustion chamber . . . the only way to develop full combustion, full compression, full work and value from every drop of fuel!

With so many engines claiming newness . . . how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car. The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year . . . but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924!

To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine . . . the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power. Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now . . . a Hemispherical combustion chamber . . . the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car. What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180 horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade gas.

Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others . . . and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydraguide power steering* which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!
