TRUCKS MOVE EQUIPMENT OF NYA PROJECT

Last Government Agency Closed by Spelce Tuesday as Machines Taken to San Antonio

Major war casualty for Snyder was marked up Tuesday when the town's National Youth Administration war work center, located on 26th Street just south of the city waterworks, was closed by representatives of the Texas NYA administration.

City and county officials, who were local co-sponsors of the project, worked diligently to keep the war work center open as long as possible, in view of its classification recently as one of the 14 master projects in Texas.

John E. Spelce, foreman of the shop, wishes to express his thanks to the "people of Snyder and Scurry County who cooperated so splendidly with NYA work. We have many friends in Snyder, and hope to be back with them some day." Mr. and Mrs. Spelce and their daughter, Elizabeth, moved Wednesday to Handley.

Trio of large National Youth Administration trucks completed transfer Tuesday of all Snyder NYA shop equipment to the NYA warehouse in San Antonio. Equipment moved included: Planer, rip saw, cutoff saw, band saw, jig saw, two joiners, mortising machine, boring machine, tenon machine, sander and all shop tools. Two loads of lumber, which remained in the NYA center Tuesday afternoon, probably will be moved this week-end, officials state.

City and county officials have not yet decided what utilization can be made of the sheet metal NYA building, completed several months ago by the National Youth Administration.

M. L. Penn of Coleman, area NYA counselor, states he will be here from time to time to interview youths interested in NYA work, and will make announcement through "your home county paper" as to visitation dates.

Retailers Urged by Ration Board to File Price Ceiling Lists

Scurry County's war price and ration board issued an appeal Wednesday for Snyder and Scurry County retailers to get their price ceiling lists filed with the board at the earliest possible moment.

Snyder and Scurry County retailers were due to have filed price ceiling lists several days ago, but in event where they have not yet complied with this OPA provision are urged to do so at once.

Those who desire may get books of instructions on price ceiling regulations from the county war price and ration board.

Giles Bowers, chairman of the ration board, states those who should file the requested data immediately include cafes, service stations, dress shops, tailor shops, grocery stores, dry goods stores, hardware stores, drug stores, lumber yards, ice houses, feed stores and furniture stores (new and used).

CARL HARGROVE, SNYDER BOY REPORTED MISSING IN ACTION, WRITES PARENTS HERE

Letter Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hargrove of North Snyder received Monday from their son, Technical Sergeant Carl S. Hargrove, did much to provide a ray of sunshine through the cloud darkened skies of the Pacific battlefront area.

Monday's message was the first Mr. and Mrs. Hargrove had received from Carl in recent months, and spiked the rumor, previously reported, that the former Snyder boy was "missing in action."

Carl's letter, dated May 3, follows:

"Dear Mother and Dad:

"Well, folks, they got T. J. Kite yesterday. By the time you get this letter you probably will already know about it. A large bomb made a direct hit on his position, so he never knew what hit him.

"I was with T. J. for about five hours Friday night and he was intending to come to see me last night. I'd like to say something to his folks, but I don't suppose there is anything to say now. You might tell them that it was over instantly and he did not suffer any.

SERGEANT HARGROVE

"Prentice Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Riley, was at a place we haven't had information from, so I don't know what happened to him.

"I'm still okey, but this kind of life is getting rather old. I'll certainly be glad to get back when this war is over.

"If the States would send us just a little help, we could whip these Japs to a standstill. I never did like to quit a horse before he stopped bucking though—so I'll stay with them.

"The rainy season is coming on now, so we will have plenty of water around here before long. Maybe you'd better send me a pair of rubber boots.

"I'll still make it home for Christmas dinner, so set me an extra plate.

"Love to all,

"Carl."

Hargrove, former captain of the Snyder High School Tiger football squad, is a graduate of Snyder Schools. He recently was promoted to the rank of technical sergeant, and is with the U. S. Army forces in the Far East.

H. L. Miller Made New Leader For Fluvanna School

Members of the Fluvanna School Board announced Monday evening election of H. L. Miller, Goodrich, as Fluvanna School superintendent for the 1942-1943 school year.

Miller succeeds E. O. Wedgeworth, who recently resigned as chief of the school, after serving 14 years. The new school man has been superintendent of schools at Goodrich, and is recommended as an outstanding educator.

The new superintendent is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, Denton. Mrs. Miller was elected to teach in the primary department, board members state. The couple will move to Fluvanna next week.

Fluvanna School Board members report Monday, August 24, has been set as the opening date for the school, and pre-school indications point to a good enrollment.

Board members state two vacancies still exist in the school faculty—a vacancy for high school English teacher and home economics instructor. Interested persons should file application with W. H. Jones, president of the Fluvanna School Board.

Mrs. Crosby Made FSA Chief of Three Counties in Region

Regional officials of the Farm Security Administration, Amarillo, announced Tuesday appointment of Mrs. Ida J. Crosby, Scurry County FSA home management supervisor, home management chief for Kent and Garza Counties. This appointment will make it necessary for Mrs. Crosby to divide her time in the three counties.

Promotion in home management supervisory work for two additional counties came as a surprise to Mrs. Crosby, who states Scurry County rural families still will receive as much attention as previously.

As outlined by FSA officials, Mrs. Crosby will divide her time between the Snyder office, will handle Kent County work out of Clairemont and Garza County work out of Post.

Spotted Rain Comes To County Tuesday

Spotted rainfall which fell late Tuesday afternoon ranged from approximately one inch at Pyron to around one-and one-half inches from Big Sulphur west to the Colorado River. The fall in the badly parched sectors missed Snyder, but gave these portions of the county renewed hope for a cotton and feed crop.

Tuesday afternoon's moisture installment came as far north as the J. A. Merritt place, four miles south of Snyder.

Considerable cloud made up in the western skies Sunday evening, and looked promising for several hours, but failed to bring Scurry County folks relief from the August heat wave.

Marvin Leech Goes To Chaplain Reserve

Chaplain Marvin Burton Leech, former Baptist pastor at Wastella, who has preached numerous times in Southern Scurry County churches, left Wednesday for Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he will attend the chaplain's reserve pool.

Chaplain Leech is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Leech of Roscoe, and is well known to Scurry County people. He was graduated in 1924 from Roscoe High School, and entered the ministry in 1931. He was for some time a missionary in Mexico. His wife and children will live in Abilene for the present.

She Dood It!

It's difficult to tell whether or not Scurry County hens have bad dreams about enemy bombers winging across the sky, but evidently one of the hens belonging to Walker Huddleston of Knapp had some type of spell when she laid a quarter-moon shaped egg one day this week.

Huddleston brought the egg, complete with yellow and a firm shell, to The Times office, where it has been displayed. One observer declares the egg is a "victory" creation, with the half moon shape intended for a capital V. The chicken just clucks, and will not express her opinion as to what kind of egg she did lay.

O'Daniel Speaks Wednesday from East Side Square

Speaking here Wednesday afternoon in behalf of his candidacy for reelection as United States senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, former governor of Texas, decried "the professional politicians who are frying to wrest government control from the common people."

The former governor declared that James V. Allred, opposing candidate, was "making death-bed repentances, but is not fooling any of the voters." O'Daniel cited the fact he carried 235 Texas counties during the July 25 primary, and predicted the voters of the state would return him to Washington by a "landslide majority."

O'Daniel declared he was against "all labor racketeers," had voted for all war measures requested by President Roosevelt, and if, renamed would introduce a bill in Congress to stop labor strikes in war work plants.

Stallions Available For County Service

In response to inquiries received the past few days from Scurry County livestock owners, Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent, says it will now be possible, if enough people are interested, to lease several jacks, saddle, Belgian and Percheron stallions for breeding purposes from the State Jack & Stallion Division.

The animals, Hyman discloses, will be leased for an annual rental fee of $30. The maximum charge for breeding will be $10.

Those who desire jack and stallion service with the animals are urged to obtain application blanks from the county agent's office at the earliest possible date.

Three More Named To Snyder Schools Faculty by Board

Members of the Snyder Board of Education announced Tuesday evening election of three new teachers for the school faculty.

Mrs. Eura Wren of Dallas was named to teach commercial work, and Mrs. Marvin Hanback, former teacher in Hermleigh Schools, has been elected to teach high school English.

O. D. McGlaun has been named secretary of the school board, members report.

Only two vacancies remained in the Snyder teaching staff Wednesday, and board members expect these two gaps to be filled within the next few days.

Most Bus Routes Are Set Up For County Schools

Setting up bus routes for all Scurry County school districts, except Snyder, was reported Saturday afternoon by the Scurry County School Board, at the conclusion of a meeting with Pat Bullock, acting county superintendent.

All transfer applications for county school districts were acted on by the board in meetings last Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon.

Members of the county board expect the bus routes for Snyder School District to be approved in the near future—as soon as further information is received from school district officials.

Bullock and members of the county board reported Saaturday afternoon that all schools of the county will have sufficient scholastics to operate where they desire to maintain school for the 1942-1943 term.

Members of the board stated Tuesday that Woodard, Argh and Whatley school districts have not yet signed contracts with Snyder Schools and the board has not yet been advised whether this trio of districts will maintain school for the new year. A decision is expected to be reached momentarily.

Lela Bell Bowen, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bowen of Ventura, California, former Snyder residents, drowned Sunday afternoon near Ventura, in what became a major week-end tragedy for the Bowen family.

J. O. Bowen, a son of Mrs. Eula Bowen of Snyder, had moved to California several weeks ago with his family, and had become engaged in defense work.

Body of the Bowen child is expected to arrive here this (Thursday) afternoon, 6:00 o'clock, and funeral arrangements will be handled by Odom Funeral Home. Funeral will be held here some time Friday, word received Wednesday night revealed.

County Gathers 70 Tons Scrap Rubber

In a message to The Times, George B. Butler, executive secretary of the Texas Salvage Campaign, reported Tuesday that scrap rubber collections in Texas totaled 35,904 tons.

Of the total reported for the state, Scurry County contributed 140,000 pounds, or 70 tons. O. P. Tate, operator of the Tate Service Station in West Snyder, collected more than 18,000 pounds of scrap rubber in the county-wide campaign.

Butler expressed the belief that the total would put Texas second for total collections, with California leading the other states of the Union.

The gathering, staged at the city hall, was presided over by N. W. Autry, fire chief, who states auxiliary members are showing considerable interest in fire fighting work.

"We will find first aid work of increasing importance as more doctors are called to military service," Red Cross officials declare, "and want everyone in Scurry County to have advantage of standard first aid training work."

Red Cross and Civilian Defense Council officials are cooperating to bring the instruction course to Snyder and Scurry County people, and urge people from the smaller county communities, especially, to take advantage of the training.

The course will be the standard type taught in other sections of Texas, and will require 20 hours to complete.

Those who complete the 20-hour course will receive certificates for their work, Red Cross officials say. Both standard and advanced first aid training work will be offered by the Colorado City instructors.

Considerable interest is being shown in the test, spotted in the west one-half of Section 258, Block 97, H&TC Survey, since it is scheduled to go 8,000 feet unless production is found at a higher level.

Pitner Says Guard Near Watermelons Need in Caroline

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Pitner received a letter Tuesday from their son, First Sergeant Kenneth O. Pitner, who is with Company B, 36th Division, on field maneuvers in North Carolina, that will prove interesting to Times readers.

Sergeant Pitner's Company B formerly headquartered at Coleman. The Snyder boy writes:

"We are pushed here on a hill waiting until dark to start an 18-mile march to go into battle position.

"We are doing about three-fourths of our maneuvering at night. Our new type steel helmets are really nice, and we will use them from now on while in battle position.

"All our Scurry County boys are approximately 1,450 miles from Snyder, so it doesn't look like I will get to come home on a week-end pass.

"The boys are giving the Caroline farmers' watermelon patches fits. I had to put a guard detachment over one patch near us, for the colonel told my commander that every melon taken out of the patch would cost $1.

"Southern hospitality shown here is really fine and true to form. They treat the soldiers nicely. Up here we manage to take a bath and change clothes once a week. Well, I'd better close, so be good," the message concludes.

County Rodeoers Take Big Share of Breck's Winnings

Adding to their record of consistent placings at West Texas rodeos this year, Scurry County contestants in the second annual Stephens County Rodeo, held Friday, Friday evening, Saturday and Saturday evening at Breckenridge copped a major share of roundup honors.

At Friday afternoon's performance Johnny Stovall of Fluvanna, veteran rodeo performer, and Slim Meteer of Midland fought it out for second place honors in the bronc riding event. Joe Bloodworth of Colorado City, who came out on "Goodbye Now," placed first.

Scurry County entries in the popular cowgirls' sponsor contest included Billy Lou Thompson, official Snyder sponsor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Thompson, prominent Bison ranch couple, and Julia Mac McDonnell, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McDonnell.

In Friday's performance of wild cow milkers, Lanham Riley of Snyder rang up the remarkable time of 15 seconds, but was penalized 10 seconds for breaking the barrier. Whit Thompson Jr. and Doyle Riley, two other Snyder boys, marked up "no time" in this event.

In the hotly contested cowgirl sponsor events, Caroline Cox of Midland, who has appeared at the annual Scurry County rodeo, copped first place when rodeo officials figured average time for the four sessions.

Although additional seats were made available Friday evening and Saturday, the crowds assembled for the final rodeo sessions overflowed the grandstand and hundreds of people could find no seating facilities. Numerous Snyder and Scurry County people were in Breckenridge for the annual boots and saddle roundup.

Patterson Works On Balanced Beef Production Plan

Instance where H. B. Patterson, 11 miles west of Snyder, is contributing to the nation's war-time program by producing beef for home use was cited Tuesday by Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, who says Patterson recently slaughtered a beef calf for home use.

County farmers and ranchers who would like to follow Patterson's policy in producing all needed beef for home use can well follow these suggestions from the county agent:

"Even the nondescript, pot-bellied, small rough-haired Jersey type calf can be made into satisfactory beef for family use, Hyman says. It needs to be fed a fattening ration for four to six months before being killed. Feeding not only makes more beef, but improves the quality to an almost unbelievable degree.

"If a milk-pen calf is available, it should be started on feed at once. Use the feeds grown on the farm. It may take 1,200 pounds of maize, 1,200 pounds of hay and two sacks of cottonseed meal for the average feeder to develop a calf into good edible beef, but the feed will be used to a good advantage.

"Feeding the calf until it weighs at least 500 pounds when it is 10 months old is a good mark to shoot at, Hyman suggests. Feed it all it will eat so that it will put on fat as it grows. A good practice is to feed grain as soon as the calf will eat it. Oats is best to get a young calf on feed, but if not available feed milo or some other grain. After a few weeks begin decreasing oats and add milo," Hyman advises.

"When the calf receives less milk later in the feeding period, add cottonseed meal or cake to the grain at the rate of one pound of meal to five pounds of grain. If it is not on pasture, give it plenty of good bright hay. Fresh water and salt also should be kept before it. Let the calf have all the roughage it wants, but add all the ground grain and cottonseed meal mixture it will clean up in 20 or 30 minutes twice or three times daily," the county agent concludes.

Good Interest Being Shown in Church of Christ Revival Meet

Excellent attendance marked the North Snyder Church of Christ revival meeting, which opened Wednesday at the church, seven blocks nort of the square and one block east of the Lubbock-Snyder highway. The new superintendent is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, Denton. Mrs. Miller was elected to teach in the primary department, board members state. The couple will move to Fluvanna next week.

Fluvanna School Board members report Monday, August 24, has been set as the opening date for the school, and pre-school indications point to a good enrollment.

Board members state two vacancies still exist in the school faculty—a vacancy for high school English teacher and home economics instructor. Interested persons should file application with W. H. Jones, president of the Fluvanna School Board.

Regional officials of the Farm Security Administration, Amarillo, announced Tuesday appointment of Mrs. Ida J. Crosby, Scurry County FSA home management supervisor, home management chief for Kent and Garza Counties. This appointment will make it necessary for Mrs. Crosby to divide her time in the three counties.

Promotion in home management supervisory work for two additional counties came as a surprise to Mrs. Crosby, who states Scurry County rural families still will receive as much attention as previously.

As outlined by FSA officials, Mrs. Crosby will divide her time between the Snyder office, will handle Kent County work out of Clairemont and Garza County work out of Post.

Spotted Rain Comes To County Tuesday

Spotted rainfall which fell late Tuesday afternoon ranged from approximately one inch at Pyron to around one and one-half inches from Big Sulphur west to the Colorado River. The fall in the badly parched sectors missed Snyder, but gave these portions of the county renewed hope for a cotton and feed crop.

Tuesday afternoon's moisture installment came as far north as the J. A. Merritt place, four miles south of Snyder.

Considerable cloud made up in the western skies Sunday evening, and looked promising for several hours, but failed to bring Scurry County folks relief from the August heat wave.

She Dood It!

It's difficult to tell whether or not Scurry County hens have bad dreams about enemy bombers winging across the sky, but evidently one of the hens belonging to Walker Huddleston of Knapp had some type of spell when she laid a quarter-moon shaped egg one day this week.

Huddleston brought the egg, complete with yellow and a firm shell, to The Times office, where it has been displayed. One observer declares the egg is a "victory" creation, with the half moon shape intended for a capital V. The chicken just clucks, and will not express her opinion as to what kind of egg she did lay.

O'Daniel Speaks Wednesday from East Side Square

Speaking here Wednesday afternoon in behalf of his candidacy for reelection as United States senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, former governor of Texas, decried "the professional politicians who are trying to wrest government control from the common people."

The former governor declared that James V. Allred, opposing candidate, was "making death-bed repentances, but is not fooling any of the voters." O'Daniel cited the fact he carried 235 Texas counties during the July 25 primary, and predicted the voters of the state would return him to Washington by a "landslide majority."

O'Daniel declared he was against "all labor racketeers," had voted for all war measures requested by President Roosevelt, and if renamed would introduce a bill in Congress to stop labor strikes in war work plants.

Members of the county board expect the bus routes for Snyder School District to be approved in the near future—as soon as further information is received from school district officials.

Bullock and members of the county board reported Saaturday afternoon that all schools of the county will have sufficient scholastics to operate where they desire to maintain school for the 1942-1943 term.

Members of the board stated Tuesday that Woodard, Arah and Whatley school districts have not yet signed contracts with Snyder Schools and the board has not yet been advised whether this trio of districts will maintain school for the new year. A decision is expected to be reached momentarily.

County Gathers 70 Tons Scrap Rubber

In a message to The Times, George B. Butler, executive secretary of the Texas Salvage Campaign, reported Tuesday that scrap rubber collections in Texas totaled 35,904 tons.

Of the total reported for the state, Scurry County contributed 140,000 pounds, or 70 tons. O. P. Tate, operator of the Tate Service Station in West Snyder, collected more than 18,000 pounds of scrap rubber in the county-wide campaign.

"We will find first aid work of increasing importance as more doctors are called to military service," Red Cross officials declare, "and want everyone in Scurry County to have advantage of standard first aid training work."

Red Cross and Civilian Defense Council officials are cooperating to bring the instruction course to Snyder and Scurry County people, and urge people from the smaller county communities, especially, to take advantage of the training.

The course will be the standard type taught in other sections of Texas, and will require 20 hours to complete.

Those who complete the 20-hour course will receive certificates for their work, Red Cross officials say. Both standard and advanced first aid training work will be offered by the Colorado City instructors.

Sergeant Pitner's Company B formerly headquartered at Coleman. The Snyder boy writes:

"We are pushed here on a hill waiting until dark to start an 18-mile march to go into battle position.

"We are doing about three-fourths of our maneuvering at night. Our new type steel helmets are really nice, and we will use them from now on while in battle position.

"All our Scurry County boys are approximately 1,450 miles from Snyder, so it doesn't look like I will get to come home on a week-end pass.

"The boys are giving the Caroline farmers' watermelon patches fits. I had to put a guard detachment over one patch near us, for the colonel told my commander that every melon taken out of the patch would cost $1.

"Southern hospitality shown here is really fine and true to form. They treat the soldiers nicely. Up here we manage to take a bath and change clothes once a week. Well, I'd better close, so be good," the message concludes.

County Rodeoers Take Big Share of Breck's Winnings

Adding to their record of consistent placings at West Texas rodeos this year, Scurry County contestants in the second annual Stephens County Rodeo, held Friday, Friday evening, Saturday and Saturday evening at Breckenridge copped a major share of roundup honors.

At Friday afternoon's performance Johnny Stovall of Fluvanna, veteran rodeo performer, and Slim Meteer of Midland fought it out for second place honors in the bronc riding event. Joe Bloodworth of Colorado City, who came out on "Goodbye Now," placed first.

Scurry County entries in the popular cowgirls' sponsor contest, included Billy Lou Thompson, official Snyder sponsor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Thompson, prominent Bison ranch people, and Julia Mae McDonnell, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McDonnell.

In Friday's performance of wild cow milkers, Lanham Riley of Snyder rang up the remarkable time of 15 seconds, but was penalized 10 seconds for breaking the barrier. Whit Thompson Jr. and Doyle Riley, two other Snyder boys, marked up "no time" in this event.

In the hotly contested cowgirl sponsor events, Caroline Cox of Midland, who has appeared at the annual Scurry County rodeo, copped first place when rodeo officials figured average time for the four sessions.

Although additional seats were made available Friday evening and Saturday, the crowds assembled for the final rodeo sessions overflowed the grandstand and hundreds of people could find no seating facilities. Numerous Snyder and Scurry County people were in Breckenridge for the annual boots and saddle roundup.

Patterson Works On Balanced Beef Production Plan

Instance where H. B. Patterson, 11 miles west of Snyder, is contributing to the nation's war-time program by producing beef for home use was cited Tuesday by Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, who says Patterson recently slaughtered a beef calf for home use.

County farmers and ranchers who would like to follow Patterson's policy in producing all needed beef for home use can well follow these suggestions from the county agent:

"Even the nondescript, pot-bellied, small rough-haired Jersey type calf can be made into satisfactory beef for family use, Hyman says. It needs to be fed a fattening ration for four to six months before being killed. Feeding not only makes more beef, but improves the quality to an almost unbelievable degree.

"If a milk-pen calf is available, it should be started on feed at once. Use the feeds grown on the farm. It may take 1,200 pounds of maize, 1,200 pounds of hay and two sacks of cottonseed meal for the average feeder to develop a calf into good edible beef, but the feed will be used to a good advantage.

"Feeding the calf until it weighs at least 500 pounds when it is 10 months old is a good mark to shoot at, Hyman suggests. Feed it all it will eat so that it will put on fat as it grows. A good practice is to feed grain as soon as the calf will eat it. Oats is best to get a young calf on feed, but if not available feed milo or some other grain. After a few weeks begin decreasing oats and add milo," Hyman advises.

"When the calf receives less milk later in the feeding period, add cottonseed meal or cake to the grain at the rate of one pound of meal to five pounds of grain. If it is not on pasture, give it plenty of good bright hay. Fresh water and salt also should be kept before it. Let the calf have all the roughage it wants, but add all the ground grain and cottonseed meal mixture it will clean up in 20 or 30 minutes twice or three times daily," the county agent concludes.

Scouts in Drive for Buttons for Red Cross

Attention of Snyder residents is directed to the city-wide canvass that will be made Monday by Snyder's three Boy Scout troops to collect buttons for Red Cross work.

Mrs. J. G. Hicks, chairman of the county's Red Cross war production program, announces representative delegations from Boy Scout Troops No. 35, 36 and 38 will participate in the button collection campaign.

Homemakers of the town are urged by Mrs. Hicks and other Red Cross officials to cooperate whole-heartedly with the drive, since buttons are urgently needed by the Snyder Red Cross production center.

Officials point out buttons of any kind will be appreciated, but special emphasis will be put on buttons for children's pajamas, men's shirts and women's blouses—three types of clothing most in demand.

Ida V. Ellis, clerk of the Scurry County Selective Service Draft Board, returned Monday from a vacation trip that took her to Coleman and Brownwood. Miss Ellis was accompanied on her trip by her father, Frank Ellis, who has returned here.

Scarcity of Materials Causes Delay In Opening Surgical Dressing School

Mmes. J. P. Nelson and Gerald G. Gordon, in charge of the Scurry County Red Cross surgical dressing program, stated Wednesday that lack of materials will cause postponement of the course in surgical dressing—scheduled to begin here Monday.

Word that materials are "short" momentarily was received by Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Nelson from the director of volunteer special services. The training course, the supervisors state, will be held later, with full announcement to be carried in The Times.

Supervisors who will be trained in surgical dressing work when the course is held, and who will, in turn, direct volunteer workers were named as follows: Mrs. Lora Miller, Mrs. Wayne Williams, Mrs. David Strayhorn, Margaret Miller, Mrs. Clarence Wenninger, Mrs. John Blum, Mrs. R. J. Randals, Mrs. Fla Joyce, Mrs. Alfred McGlaun, Mrs. W. H. Clark, Mrs. Aubrey Stokes, Mrs. J. O. Dodson, Mrs. Pat Bownds, Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Mrs. R. D. English, Mrs. Edna B. Tinker, Patti Hicks and Mrs. Wade Winston.

"We regret very much," word received by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Gordon states, "that the practice material for your training course will not be available for several weeks—due to inability of factories to turn out goods as needed."

Equipment is being gathered by Red Cross officials and they are in need of additional chairs, 12-inch rulers and yard sticks. Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Nelson will call for any equipment loaned or donated.

Additional announcement as to the new starting date for the surgical dressing training course will be released at an early date.

My automobile tires are almost three years old, and I am sure you will understand why I cannot make every house in the county. Trusting you will carefully investigate my record, which I believe will merit your vote August 22, I am,

Hugh Boren Jr. Goes To Officers' School

Officials of Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, reported Monday that Corporal Hugh Boren Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boren of Snyder, has been transferred to Miami Beach, Florida, where he is attending the officers' candidate school.

Corporal Boren enlisted in the army at Goodfellow Field, and has served in the U. S. Army air force band. He attended Texas Christian University from 1928 to 1931, and had one year at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

Upon completion of his officers' candidate school course, Boren will be commissioned a second lieutenant and be assigned to an administrative position in the air force. Before joining the army, "Brud" was associated here with his father in the insurance business.

First Aid Courses

Residents of Scurry County's small communities, and in sectors of the county where no branch office of the Civilian Defense Council exists, were extended an invitation this week to attend the Red Cross first aid instruction course, which starts Monday at the Red Cross sewing center.

J. D. Pigman, chairman of the Civilian Defense Council, urges every person who possibly can to attend the Red Cross instruction course, details of which will be found elsewhere in this week's paper. First aid training will assume increasing importance as the armed forces take more of our doctors, Pigman declares.

Wings Earned By Bobby Reynolds at Lubbock Air School

Robert Reynolds, aviation minded son of Jim Reynolds, long-time Snyder resident, added another honor last Tuesday to his list of laurels when he received his "wings" at the Lubbock Army Flying School.

"Bobbie," as he is known here, visited his father and other relatives here over the week-end. A graduate of Snyder Schools, Bobbie enlisted in Canada and took his student pilot training with the Royal Canadian Air Force, Manitoba, Canada. The Reynolds youth will be assigned within the next few days to the air ferry command, and is the youngest boy to volunteer for carrying bombers across the ocean to Great Britain.

Young Reynolds, it was learned this week, was one of 20 boys who volunteered their services for the air ferry command. He is 19, and will be remembered by Snyder friends for his enthusiasm in aviation. He formerly showed great interest in model airplanes, and is a former member of the Snyder Model Plane Club.

Robert's sister, Rosanna Reynolds, has been a Duncan Field, San Antonio, secretary a number of months. Also a graduate of Snyder Schools, Rosanna worked in Austin for several years.

Then there's the fellow who went on a four weeks' bender and didn't show up for work. At the end of the time, he wired his boss: "I'm still with you, am I?"

Sergeant Wilson, a 1940 graduate of Snyder Schools, has been with the U. S. Air Corps since February, 1941. He was first assigned to Kelly Field, San Antonio, and transferred to the California air depot. He is in charge of transportation with the 79th Service Squadron.

Dunn Schools Open Monday, August 31

Dunn Schools will open Monday, August 31, for the 1942-1943 school year, Superintendent O. K. Davis reported Tuesday.

Chief of the southern county school states two new courses will be added for the new term. They are junior business training and world history. Davis reports that the school will drop ancient history and modern history.

Members of the Dunn School Board state two vacancies remain in the faculty, and believe the gap will be filled within the next few days.

No wonder mankind stays in a mess. All important questions lead to controversy and in time of controversy, nobody will listen to reason.

Everybody responds to kindness—by asking for something.

YOU and YOU and YOU!

In the days of Caesar it cost approximately 75c to kill a man. During the Civil War it cost approximately $5,000 to kill a man. During World War No. 1 it cost approximately $50,000 to kill a man. In this current Mechanized War it costs approximately $125,000 for every casualty.

A 35,000 ton battle ship costs $70,000,000 . . . takes 3,362,000 man-hours, or approximately 4 1-2 years to build . . . requires 62,000,000 pounds of steel . . . 2,000,000 pounds of copper . . . 1,000,000 pounds of zinc . . . and 750,000 pounds of nickel.

This war is costing a tremendous sum, isn't it? . . . But at any monetary cost it is a cheap price to pay for victory, isn't it? A cheap price indeed, to guarantee the perpetuation of our Democratic way of life . . . A cheap price to guarantee that our priviledge of doing whatever we please whenever we please will not be lost. Freedom, our freedom, cannot be measured in dollars and cents. It has more, much more, than monetary value. But it takes money, huge sums of money, to make our nation secure against our attackers.

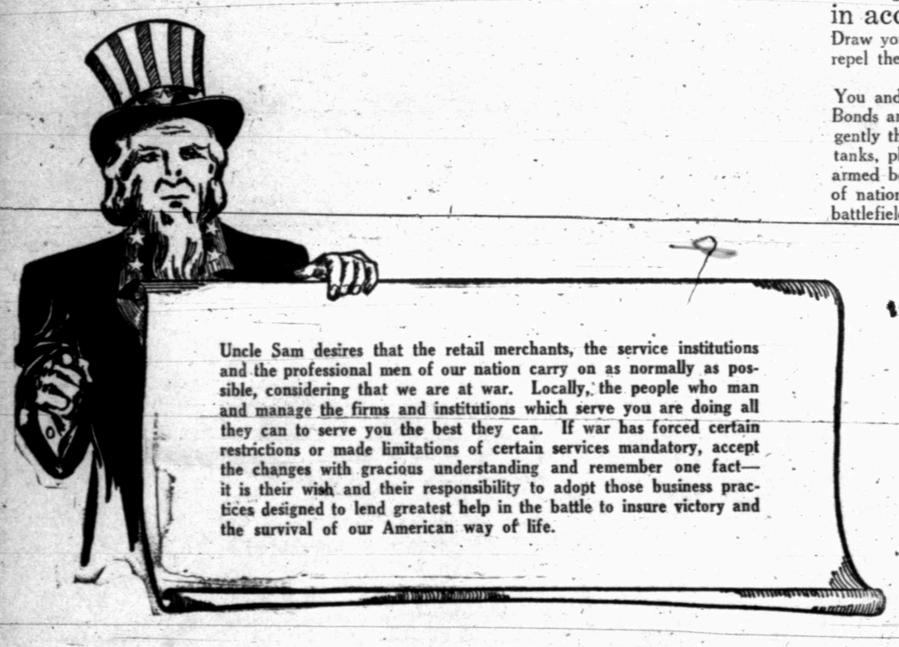

Last year total income in the United States exceeded $90,000,000,000. How much of this sum do you think the individuals earning it would be permitted to keep, and to enjoy, if we lost the war and we were ruled by the Axis powers? In the countries defeated by the Axis powers, and now occupied by them, the subjects have been stripped of everything. Even food sufficient to sustain healthful living has been denied these unfortunate people. The wealth that they had spent their lives in accumulating has gone to the victors.

Draw your own conclusions of the fate of this nation should our armed forces fail to repel the enemy.

You and you and you . . . every loyal American is needed now to buy Defense Bonds and Stamps with you all the resources at his command . . . to work more diligently than ever before to produce all the things required—food, clothing, guns, ships, tanks, planes, ammunition—to keep our fighting forces fed better, clothed better and armed better than the enemy—for the key to victory is held by the nation or group of nations with the ability to equip, supply and sustain its fighting forces best on the battlefield. Your clear-cut duty is to help accomplish that end!

Uncle Sam desires that the retail merchants, the service institutions and the professional men of our nation carry on as normally as possible, considering that we are at war. Locally, the people who man and manage the firms and institutions which serve you are doing all they can to serve you the best they can. If war has forced certain restrictions or made limitations of certain services mandatory, accept the changes with gracious understanding and remember one fact—it is their wish and their responsibility to adopt those business practices designed to lend greatest help in the battle to insure victory and the survival of our American way of life.

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL UNIT HEARS POLICY OF FSA AGENCY

Officials of Snyder's Government Administration Explain Varied Program of Farm-Aide

Unusually good attendance featured the regular gathering of Scurry County Agricultural Workers' Association, held Tuesday evening at the Farm Security Administration building auditorium, northeast corner of the square.

Gerald G. Gordon, president of the association, presided at the gathering, and explained various types of loans being made by the Scurry County Farm Security Administration. A short business session was held, at which time application of Leslie Browning, Hermleigh vocational agriculture instructor, was accepted for membership in SCAWA.

Attaches of the county FSA were in charge of the program, and pointed out the FSA—while lending money—is neither a lending or relief agency, but a rehabilitation agency. FSA is set up strictly to serve the tenant farmer, farm laborer, share cropper and small land owner who has no other source of credit.

Mrs. Ida J. Crosby, newly appointed FSA home management supervisor for Scurry, Garza and Kent Counties, discussed cooperation in farm and home planning. She pointed out FSA loans being made in Scurry County include rural rehabilitation, food-for-freedom, community cooperatives, tenant purchase and water facilities.

Ice cold watermelon was served by FSA personnel. Announcement was made that the next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, September 8, at 8:30 o'clock.

James Casey Raised At Chanute Field

Promotion of Private James A. Casey, Chanute Field, Illinois, former Dunn community resident, to rank of sergeant was announced Tuesday by officials of the Illinois air corps station.

Sergeant Casey is the son of Mrs. Ruth Casey, Aspermont, who formerly resided at Dunn and is known to southern county people. Mrs. Casey is visiting this week in Wichita Falls with a daughter, Mrs. Gaines Gustovus, and family.

East Scurry County Boys Enlist in Army

John O. Stuard, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stuard, and William L. Sumruld, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sumruld, compose a duet of Scurry County youths on the Camp Springs Route, Snyder, who have volunteered their services for the U. S. Army at the army recruiting station, Sweetwater.

Both John and William have been forwarded from Sweetwater to Lubbock for examination and thence to the U. S. Army reception center, Fort Sill, Oklahoma. The boys volunteered in order to be assigned to the branch of service of their choice.

Teachers for Bethel, Crowder Completed

Pat Bullock, acting county superintendent, reported Tuesday that teaching staffs for Bethel and Crowder Schools were completed early this week.

Mrs. Bob Martin and Mrs. Joe T. Johnston will compose the Bethel teaching force, and Mrs. Nelson Dunn and Mrs. Billie Mitchell will teach at Crowder. Mrs. Mitchell has taught previously at the southwest county school.

Invitations to Boys In Nearby Camps Coming In Nicely

Scurry County's Chamber of Commerce reported Wednesday that excellent response is being shown by Snyder and Scurry County people in inviting boys from Avenger Field, Sweetwater, and soldier boys from Camp Barkeley, Abilene, as week-end guests in their homes.

Chamber of Commerce officials report most of the boys at both Avenger Field and Camp Barkeley would prefer to spend week-ends on Scurry County ranches, if at all possible, which would be a novelty to the English boys and American boys from the North.

Snyder and Scurry County people who would like to have boys from the two posts as guests are asked to register immediately at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Members of the Sweetwater Board of City Development, in a message late Wednesday to the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce, extended Snyder and Scurry County merchants having trouble with price regulations an invitation to be in Sweetwater Monday, when an OPA official will explain the price regulation provisions.

E. O. Wedgeworth, Chamber of Commerce manager, asks Snyder and county merchants who plan to go to Sweetwater for the gathering to notify him immediately, so a place can be reserved.

H. J. R. No. 1
A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49a, requiring all bills passed by the Legislature on and after January 1, 1945, appropriating money for any purpose, to be sent to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for his approval, and fixing the duties of the Comptroller with reference thereto; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by the General Revenue Fund on September 1, 1943; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after Section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows:

"Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each Regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, being November 3, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election. 9-4c

U. S. on the Offensive

The battle for the Solomon Islands, which swung into full fury Tuesday, marks the first offensive action taken by the United States in the Southwest Pacific since the Japs captured the strategic outpost, and may well mark an important turning point in Pacific warfare. Cost in men and equipment for taking the islands may be high for the United States, but the islands must be in American hands if our supply lines to Australia and other vital points remain intact.

Even though we lose considerable equipment and hundreds of Americans in the fight, Americans are not worried about the outcome of the struggle. The U. S. Navy never gets into a scrap without adequate preparations, and support from the U. S. Marines and U. S. Air Force insures the fact that the United States is really going to take back, if at all possible, the islands which can insure our getting supplies to General Douglas MacArthur and his men. Too, the Solomon Islands could well be a spearhead for an attack on Australia, and in regaining this—our direly needed naval base—we shall prove to the world the boys on Corregidor and Bataan did not die in vain.

Into the Home Stretch

Texas politics goes into the home stretch next week, with considerable interest being shown in both county and state-wide ctions. Saturday, August 22, has been circled as one of the most important election dates in 1942.

Outside of county and district races, Texas has had some colorful political races "on the fire" at almost every election one can think of during the past 20 years. We mean elections that cause national magazines to sit up and take notice, although results sometimes are as surprising to people inside Texas as in other states.

Due to the fact the August 22 runoff has drawn fire from all opposing candidates for state offices, it will be necessary for the state democratic committee to carefully give a verdict on results, for in Texas—as one knows—almost anything can happen. Time was when Oklahoma pulled the limelight away from Texas with state elections, but our August 22 affair, from a state viewpoint, bids fair to put anything Oklahoma ever staged "in the shade."

Editorial of the Week

TEACHING IN WARTIME

We in the United States believe in education. We think it is important. But much that we think important we are giving up or cutting down on in the interest of victory. Some goods, on the other hand, have achieved increased significance: more not less effort is being poured into their production. What should we do about teaching?

What, to put in another way, should we do about our children? We know, of course, that they can not be fully spared. All must be affected by the rigors of war. But we mean to protect their lives, to see to it that they have proper food, and clothing, and shelter. What, however, of their minds, of their powers of understanding? What of their emotional needs and of their basic convictions?

This is a war of depth: armed men must bear the brunt of instant battle; industry must produce prodigally the instruments of conflict; but the ultimate resource is personal devotion, purpose, understanding, and competence. That resource will be as fundamental when war is ended as it is today. Then, we know, the real battle will only have begun. For the winning of that battle, the battle to create a world of freedom and justice, we shall have to look chiefly to those now young.—The Texas Outlook.

Take it as one will, luxury items will come in for drastic pruning during the fall months, and will be in the "has been" class by Christmas for many folks. . . . We're still in a war that we must win at all costs, and sacrificing along the luxury line will really not hurt many people. . . . Rationing of numerous articles and some clothing will be a reality before Thanksgiving, Roosevelt advisors predict, but just what articles will not be mentioned before rationing begins, because . . . In conjunction with new rationing regulations, it consumers will "raid" their favorite shopping centers. might be mentioned that railroad passes may become a war casualty within the next 90 days. . . . Western railroads are already requiring pass holders to show why they must utilize the "courtesy tickets."

Those interested in rebuilding and remodeling farm homes and other structures are advised that the present lumber freeze will be relaxed by degrees. . . . Since enormous amounts of lumber are still needed by the U. S. Army and U. S. Navy—as well as war industries—it will be many weeks before the "hatch" is raised completely on the lumber supply picture.

According to word released Wednesday by the agricultural marketing administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, military orders for cotton cloth will keep mill spindles humming for several weeks—even before civilian orders can be considered. Disturbing note in the cotton goods situation was evidenced this week when the department indicated ducking for cotton sacks may be difficult to obtain this fall. Substitute cloths, impregnated with chemicals, are now being tested, and may replace ducking for cotton sack making. Just how important cotton is to the nation's war effort is becoming more apparent as the weeks roll by.

Current Comment

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

One of the truly bright spots in the current U. S. outlook on the war was contained this week in an unpublicized announcement that repair work on the war ships damaged at Pearl Harbor is far ahead of schedule. . . . Some ships, in fact, that were so severely damaged last December have already joined the fleet—although it first seemed they would be laid up many months. . . . Balance of naval power in the Pacific, even prior to the battle for the Solomon Islands, was evened between the U. S. and aggressor nations by the ahead-of-schedule repair work in Pearl Harbor shipyards. . . . Too, the splendid delivery of vital materials to Pearl Harbor the past few weeks has greatly altered the picture insofar as U. S. defense workers were concerned. . . . Repairmen, as one well knows, cannot rebuild ships and docks without something with which to work.

☆

Bits of information picked up here and there reveal that literally thousands of Nazi army deserters, including soldiers and officers, have slipped into Switzerland this year because they had no more stomach for the bitter war-to-the-death now raging on Russian soil. . . . Most of the deserters were able to slip from the Paris area into unoccupied territory and thence to Switzerland because they obtained forged papers with the German party seal. . . . The Swiss press is not saying one word about the matter, for the Nazis are interning all army deserters caught in any part of Europe. . . . Slave labor for the Nazi war machine is being recruited so rapidly from the occupied countries of Europe most observers agree that a second front must be opened in the near future if the threatened "underground" uprising in Europe is to be very effective.

☆

Famine and death will ride the winter winds that will hover over blood-stained Europe after frost falls, despite the untiring efforts of the International Red Cross and other agencies to alleviate, as far as possible, suffering and starvation. . . . The Germans have cleaned occupied Europe of food and livestock so thoroughly that it would be physically impossible—even if we had the ships and other facilities—to get foodstuff to all the starving millions. . . . People in Greece, for instance, are dying so fast mass burials are being held to keep the dead from decaying in city streets. . . . We in the United States should be exeeptionally thankful that we have adequate food supplies, and that we can face the months ahead with security on the food front.

☆

Word from the nation's capital this week indicates that draft deferments for young, unmarried war plant workers will now expire with increasing frequency from now on. . . . Local pressure from parents of boys in the services is being felt and the Manpower Commission is inclined to let things rock along as they are at present. . . . It's an accepted fact the Selective Service System will be drastically revised before the year's end, but just where the biggest chips will fall remains a military secret. . . . It's definitely known, however, that married men with one or more dependents will be in uniform, in many instances, before winter snows settle over the United States.

☆

Scare over the prospective dairy products shortage is dying out, since the dairy industry has increased production to the point plenty of milk products will be available until well into 1943. . . . Shipments of dried dairy products, under terms of the lease-lend act, are up to expectations, and probably will remain above requirements until the United Nations get more shipping space to take dried milk products across the ocean. . . . Possible shortage of feed in many sections of the country is likely to be the deciding factor in limiting milk product shipments. . . . It takes considerable quantities of feed to keep dairy animals producing, and even now representatives of government agencies are beginning to check up on probable 1942 feed production.

☆

Some talk is going the rounds about the probable rationing of radio time, but for the moment, at least, such talk is without foundation. . . . Shortage of tubes needed for radio transmitters would be the chief reason, but so far radio stations are hopeful that something will turn up before it's necessary to put draw strings on time over the air. . . . Due to the fact war-time economy is resulting in many shortages of materials, the radio industry isn't the only one feeling the pinch of equipment stocks getting mighty low. . . . Some radio programs, it is felt, could be deleted from the air for the war's duraation, without inconveniencing radio fans, but programs pertaining to news broadcasts, army and navy programs and programs slated to pep up war bond and stamp sales will be safe for many months ahead.

Farmers of Scurry and adjoining counties who have been wondering about farm price ceilings probably will be happy to learn that chances are better than even that the administration policy will be to slap on a lid of around 110 per cent of parity and utilize subsidies to increase production where urgently necessary. . . . Since prices for farm products are at the best levels in recent years, most congressmen feel that farmers will not complain if price ceilings are not put on agricultural commodities. . . . The farm bloc, it must be admitted, is exerting powerful pressure on administration leaders, and will doubtless wrangle out concessions that will prove of great benefit to the farming class of people.

Fire Call and Meteor Flash at Same Time

Tinge of excitement hit Snyder Friday evening, 9:30 o'clock, when Snyder's volunteer fire department answered a call in Southeast Snyder and a slow-moving meteor crossed the northern sky.

A number of Snyder people witnessed the meteor, which was seen by persons over wide areas of Northwest Texas and Oklahoma.

Fire call turned out to be a trash fire. There was virtually no damage.

Confirmation that the object in the sky was a meteor was given by Oscar Monning of Fort Worth, amateur astronomer. Note of tenseness was added when some persons in Scurry and nearby counties believed the meteor to be an airplane in distress.

Bi-Monthly Singing At Church Sunday

Attention of Snyder and Scurry County singers is directed to the regular bi-monthly singing at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, which will be staged Sunday afternoon, Rev. Earl Creswell, pastor, states.

Walter Holmes will direct the afternoon gospel song program, which will begin at 2:30 o'clock. Several quartets will appear on program and supplies of new convention song books will be on hand.

Vernon Bullard Goes To VA Teaching Job

Vernon Bullard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bullard of Ennis Creek, who has been senior clerk at the Scurry County AAA office the past three months, leaves today (Thursday) with his wife for Skellytown, where he will teach vocational agriculture work in Skellytown Schools.

Vernon says he has enjoyed his work here the past 12 weeks with Scurry County farmers, and will be back, when possible, for brief visits. He worked in the county Triple A office before taking other employment here.
