V.A.L.I. Named 'Tops'

V.A.L.I., Inc., of Olton and Levelland, has been honored as one of the top Valley irrigation dealers in the U.S. by Valmont Industries, Inc.

V.A.L.I. is one of only 20 Valley dealers nationwide who has earned the title of Valley Irrigation Professional - VP dealer for short. Valmont is the world's oldest and largest manufacturer of center pivot and linear irrigation systems.

To achieve VIP status, V.A.L.I. was rated "excellent" by Valmont personnel in more than 40 sales and service categories. The Valley, Nebraska manufacturer also gave V.A.L.I. high marks for outstanding parts inventory and sales and service training programs.

V.A.L.I. has been a Valley dealer for two years, serving the counties of Lamb, Hockley, Hale and Lubbock.

Service, crucial for farmers who own irrigation systems, is a V.A.L.I. specialty. The dealership boasts five radio-equipped service trucks manned by four Valmont-trained service people.

Jackie Clark of V.A.L.I. said, "We try not to let anyone wait for more than 24 hours downtime because in the semi-arid southwest, more than 24 hours downtime in late summer can substantially reduce yields."

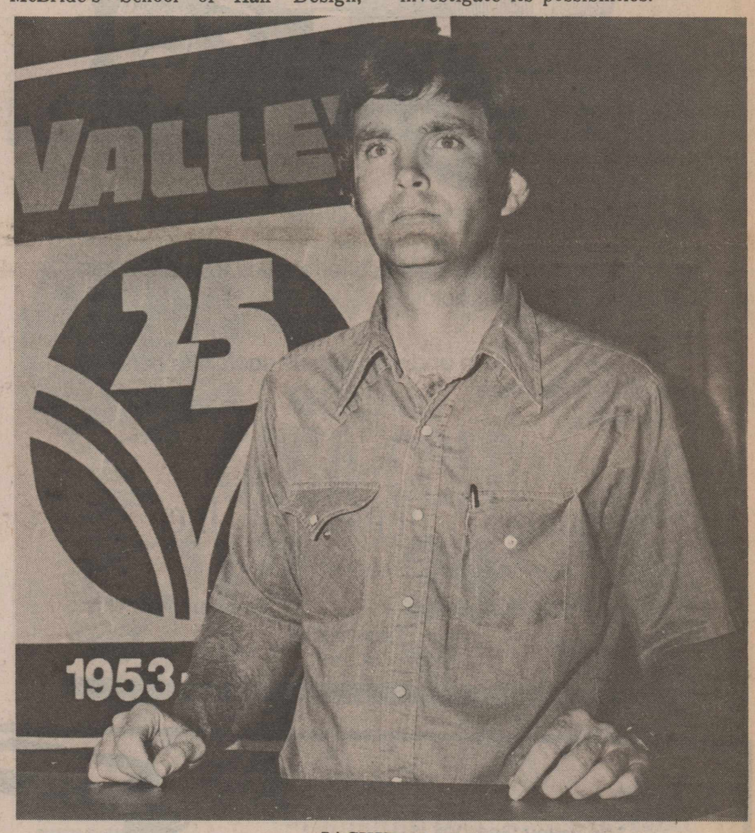

Clark said, "We base our dealership on service. Every salesman as well as our servicemen can work on sprinklers." Clark is on the Valmont national dealer council and the dealership won a national Valmont dealer award in its first year of business.

Clark said the VIP award "means that we are achieving our main goal of giving our customers the best system and the best service available in the industry so they can have the highest yeild possible and, therefore, a greater profit."

Clark said V.A.L.I. service people often go out of their way to help area farmers: "We try to service competitive-make systems when their dealer is no longer around. That helps keep a customer's crop from suffering while waiting for someone 50 miles away to come."

V.A.L.I. also helps customers with its annual fertilizer and seed seminars.

Other V.A.L.I. services include total irrigation package design for each and every customer, including a computerized energy cost analysis to help farmers design irrigation systems for maximum energy efficiency.

New Business To Open, Offering Beauty Aids, Gifts

"Reflections by Mary" will soon be open at the corner of Ninth Street and Ave E, offering milady beauty and glamour through hair and skin.

Tuesday, June 3, doors will swing open for Reflections by Mary, in the building formerly occupied by Marie's Hair Fashions. Completely remodeled, decorated in Earth-tone motif, one entire wall of decorator mirrors reflecting the eye-catching features of the opposite wall, the shop will open for business with plans for an Open House in the very near future.

Mary Chaney will offer a total skin-care program. She will give corrective facials in the salon with professional skin-care cosmetics. She will handle two lines of cosmetics and to complete the total-look, will offer facial waxing for a smoother, more beautiful "look".

Manicures and hand-care treatments will be offered each Tuesday and Wednesday.

A small gift line has been added also, with silk flower arrangements a specialty, along with articles for wall decor.

Mrs. Chaney has recently attended seminars in Dallas and Wichita Falls receiving intensive training in skin care and make-up. She has also received training in Jessie Lee's Institute of Hair Design, Lubbock, and McBride's School of Hair Design, Plainview. She has kept current in hair styling by attending classes offered in Lubbock, Amarillo and Dallas to learn new trends.

Mary has gained experience as an operator in "The Glamour Shop" in Earth, and in Colonial Beauty Shoppe and Debra's Hair Fashion in this city.

She invites interested persons to drop in to see her new salon and investigate its possibilities.

Residents of the area are invited to participate in this worthy civic endeavor, according to J.O. Bass III, chairman of arrangements.

The Blood unit offers two bits of advice:

(1) It is best that the donor eat a substantial meal before giving blood, preferably one low in fats.

(2) If taking vitamins, hormones, birth control pills, mild diet pills, thyroid medication or antibiotics for acne, donations will be allowed unless otherwise deferred.

Donor will need Social Security number for identification purposes.

Members of the local Lions group solicit area residents as donors in this very important drive.

Ambulance Assn. Plans More Training

Olton Volunteer Ambulance Association met Tuesday night at City Hall. The regular session was directed by Wendell Potts in the absence of President Gene Chaney.

Two new members, Scott Parker and Rusty Powers, were announced as ready to serve, having recently completed ECA Course taught in Earth. The pair will serve as 'floaters', assigned as needed in the absence of other attendants. Presently Parker has been placed with Ray Lopez and Elmer Houston Jr. Powers is now placed with Raymond Powers in the absence of Jolene Burgess, currently recuperating from surgery.

In other action, Gene and Janis Chaney were appointed as a committee to secure an Emergency Medical Technician course (EMT) to be taught in Olton, in order to re-certify present ECA members.

The Association also voted to purchase an "Annie", a mannequin used to practice CPR. This practice is very necessary, because it is vital that members stay current with timing in this action...a matter of being off a few seconds could mean the difference between life and death.

Following the business session Mrs. Bobbye Hutson, program director, presented an in-depth study relating to oxygen and oxygen equipment.

Cloud Seeding Draws Opponents

Residents of four South Plains counties are being urged to unite against the planned resumption of cloud seeding activities in portions of Lamb, Floyd, Hale and Castro counties.

Balloting to decide whether the controversial weather modification program may be resumed by Plains Weather Improvement Association of Plainview will be conducted in portions of the four counties on June 11.

PWIA was licensed by the state in January after being under a restraining order for approximately two years.

Cloud seeding in those areas was halted in 1978 after opponents successfully brought the issue to a vote and forced suspension of the program.

PWIA recently announced its intention to resume hail suppression program, contingent on the June 11 elections in the target area.

"If you feel as we do, that cloud seeding should not be done over your county, you can help," Nolon Henson of Happy, co-chairman of Citizens for Natural Weather, said.

"First, be sure to vote on June 11. You can vote if you live in any of the following precincts:

"Lamb County - Precincts 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 12, 13, 15, and 16.

"Floyd County - Precincts 3, 4, 7, 16, and 18.

"Hale County - Precincts 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 16, and 17.

"Castro County - Precincts 6, 7, 10, 11, and 16."

Henson urged that opponents of the cloud seeding "Call all of your friends in the voting precincts and urge them to get out and vote. Also, on election day, call everyone and remind them to go to the polls. Pick up persons in your area and take them to the polls," he added.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink!

By Mozelle Trotter

How soon we forget!

Remember the oft-read nursery rhymes - the old woman who lived in a shoe, Little Boy Blue, Ba-a-a, Ba-a-a, Black Sheep and Wynken, Blynken and Nod?

How many can you quote?

Remember what Miss Muffett sat on? That's an easy. Recall what My Son John wore? Not so hard either? Now, what did Wynken, Blynken and Nod said off in?

Gathering social news this week and attempting to describe a centerpiece that was used, we came upon the discovery that we don't remember our nursery rhymes. Further more, lots of folks aren't any better!

Just what did those three little characters take a ride in? Well, we asked some people.

"A tub" was the answer we received from several who had to be prompted to recall that it was "Rub-a-Dub, Dub, three men in a tub" and not "Wynken, Blynken and Nod in a tub".

Nor did they sail in a boat, a ship, a schooner or a yacht.

"A balloon," someone replied. Still wrong!

"I thought it was a saucer," said another.

Desperately searching for the answer and not sure whether to accept someone's recollection, "a wooden shoe," we turned to our most logical source of information - H.P. Webb Elementary School. A wooden shoe, it was!

"Oh, well, that's a Dutch rhyme," you're thinking.

It was lots of fun but it was also an eye-opener that we don't always remember those silly little things we once believed we'd never forget!

Test your memory - where did Wynken, Blynken and Nod said off to in that wooden shoe? Betcha don't know!

FACTS & FIGURES

Poor driving habits can waste gas. According to the experts, "jack-rabbit" starts can burn up 60 percent more gas than normal starts, and for every five miles per hour over 50 you drive, you can lose a mile a gallon.

Good motor oil can help you save gas. According to the experts, a fuel-efficient motor oil like Imperial 2 from Amalie Refining Company can increase fuel economy up to five percent. And unlike "synthetics" it costs about the same as ordinary 10W-40 motor oil.

* * *

Good car maintenance can help you save gas. According to the experts, underinflated tires can cost a mile a gallon, and four out of five tires are underinflated by as much as five percent.

OLTON FARM SUPPLY

The valley Gearbox is rugged machinery, precision engineered for years of hard use in irrigation. Nobody makes them tougher. That's why you'll find thousands of Valley gearboxes used as replacements on other makes of center pivots.

Why are they so tough? Because we build them ourselves to exacting standards, under rigid quality control. The result? A gearbox manufactured to absorb over 60,000 in-lbs. of torque. With bigger bearings, better seals and all these quality features—

Built-in expansion chamber
Allows oil to expand and contract while sealing out moisture. Not an add-on so it can't accidently get knocked off. Keeps bearings swimming in oil.

Low gear ratio
Unique gear tooth design allows a lower input torque to yield the same or greater output torque. The motor moves the tower with less strain, increasing the life of all power-train parts.

2¼" output shaft
Designed for a 90,000 psi yield.

Reduced friction
The worm gear is designed so the load is spread over several teeth, compared to just one in many irrigation gearboxes. The worm is one piece—longer lasting than two-piece worms.

Long-life bearings, seals
Bigger, tougher bearings help extend gearbox life. And the special double-lip seals do a better job of sealing in oil and keeping out contaminants.

Tough? Our own Valmont torture test proves it. We put the Valley gearbox up against all the rest on a test rack that simulates the worst field conditions. In test after test, the Valley gearbox outperforms the rest.

This gearbox and a $5,500 rebate - how can you go wrong between now and June 27?

MRS. JIMMIE JACKSON

Recipe Revue

By Mozelle Trotter

Cooking has always been a pleasure for Mrs. Jimmie Jackson. She has had plenty of experience, being 86 years young.

Before moving to Olton in 1965, Jimmie lived in Wolforth. Her talents in the kitchen received a real test there for she cooked at the school lunch room 10 years and was cook for that city's Lions Club a decade also.

"I ought to know how," she says with a smile.

Making her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Gerry and Lee Simmons, Jimmie still does lots of cooking. The recipes she shares with Enterprise cooks are ones that her family has given their seals of approval.

Jimmie was born in Hill County near Itasca, where she still recalls the "good ole black mud". She has always enjoyed gardening and growing flowers. The flower bed in the front yard of the Simmons home on Sixth Street is her domain. Thriving tomato plants and a few pepper plants are growing with promise of good eating later this summer. A row of gladioli along with petunias and other flowers offer the promise of beauty yet to come.

J.W. (William) Jackson grew up in neighboring Bosque County and met Jimmie when he came to work for his uncle in Hill County. Attending church together was an important part of their courtship. William died in January of 1958.

Jimmie has another daughter, Ruth Griffin of Missouri, and a son, James Rufus Jackson of New Orleans. She has seven grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Oldest of 10 children herself, Jimmie has four sisters and three brothers still living.

Jimmie used to sew a lot and still loves to do crewel embroidery. Cataract surgery has restored her sight so that she continues to stitch pretty crewel samplers. Often family gifts of crewel kits are lovingly embroidered and then given back to the giver. Her newest sampler is a large one featuring poppies and butterflies.

A Baptist, Jimmie very much enjoys her Sunday School Class at First Baptist Church.

Sluders Involved In 'Ash' Fallout

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sluder made a recent trip to Kimball, Neb., to attend graduation ceremonies in which their granddaughter, Kari Hull, participated. Also attending were Tom Sluder Jr., Mrs. Winnie Flynt of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Lathem of Ft. Pierre, S.D. and Lyman Hull of Hominy, Okla.

During the festivities the visitors experienced a very strange happening in the Nebraska city. Dark clouds building up in the north and west brought (not expected rain) a heavy settling of volcanic ash from Mt. St. Helens. The fine coating deposited would not dust off. Many warnings were given via airways as to the danger of damaging paint finish on cars.

The Sluders were eventually able to clean vehicles using an organic soap in spray form. Tuesday night's rain was followed by a second coating of volcanic ash.

Family members say that "Kari's graduation will be made memorable by volcanic action, as her aunt Essie Dianna's graduation was by an Olton tornado."

The Sluder granddaughters, Kari, Koye and Koni Hull, returned with them to Texas, stopping off in Dalhart to experience a week of cattle branding before coming on to Canyon for a visit in the home of the Leon Gheers, and thereafter a stay in Olton.

TO A GRADUATE

As you finish your course today, my friend,
And in triumph you graduate,
May you look to the future unafraid
As unseen adventures await;
Put your faith in God and His Sovereign Power
Ask Him to guide you day by day
Seek His will for your life in all you do
Make Him Partner on life's highway.
And in the strength of your Youth, serve Him alone
And be true whatever the cost,
His rewards are rich, more precious than gold
Then consider the world-well lost;
Tho' friends let you down -- forsake you at times
Perchance, even call you a fool,
You will learn and progress to greater heights
And you'll graduate from God's School!!!!

agri-facts

Arab real estate may go back to just being a lot of dry sand if our farmer's interest in farm production of fuel alcohol stays as high as it is now. In fact, if farmers can produce half as much energy as this issue has interest, then the fuel problem may be well on the way to being solved. Because of the unusual amount of attention being paid to the production of alcohol fuel from grain and other farm crops, we are setting aside the next couple of weeks to take a look at some of the facts and expert opinions surrounding what could be one of the most dynamic factors ever to influence American agriculture. There has been a lot of misinformation passed along through the media, and there are still more questions than answers, but we'll take a look at some of the known facts next week.

HERE'S WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE AGAINST
CLOUD SEEDING IN THIS COUNTY, JUNE 11:

After years of cloud seeding, the people of this county and surrounding area voted against cloud seeding and the practice was ended in 1977.

Now, Plains Weather Improvement Association of Plainview has secured necessary petitions to hold another election in this county on June 11, to try to reinstate cloud seeding operations over several precincts.

Cloud seeders claim to be able to suppress hail and increase rain by applying silver iodide to the clouds. But there are many meteorologists who say that cloud seeding does not suppress hail and that cloud seeding interrupts the rain-making cycle.

During the cloud seeding years which ended in 1977, weather watchers showed that rainfall in this area DECLINED 45 inches.

Evidence that cloud seeding DECREASES rainfall comes from five American experiments, according to the Tri-State Natural Weather Association. These five randomized experiments were conducted with unchallenged reliability over a number of consecutive years with considerable care and foresight. The results are a decrease in precipitation due to cloud seeding and the estimated decreases amounted to 53%.

While meteorologists bicker about cloud seeding, they generally agree on one thing: that cloud seeding disrupts natural weather patterns and affects the weather as far as 150 miles down wind. In effect, a few people who are willing to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars are "messing with the weather for their own selfish purposes" and affecting all the people in this area.

CLOUD SEEDING IS DANGEROUS

The hazy, unscientific approach to cloud seeding has developed without adequate controls, causing real dangers, both economic and physical. Our agriculture depends on being able to consistently predict natural weather trends from year to year, and cloud seeding upsets this ability.

Personal safety may be a factor overlooked in cloud seeding, since scientists agree that clouds, after they are seeded, change and develop even more violent reactions as they move downward.

The chemical, silver iodide, can affect the ecosystem adversely as it combines with other substances in the atmosphere, such as lead from auto exhausts, to form poisons that settle on grasses which are eaten by animals and possibly passed on to the dinner table.

Silver from the silver iodide can concentrate in various organisms and thence to man, causing a buildup in the human system to a toxic level and possible respiratory or gastric ailments and cancer.

A recent court case ruled in favor of the family of a boy with asthma, ordering that cloud seeders could not operate in the vicinity of the ailing child because the silver iodide sprayed from the planes into the clouds were harmful and aggravating to the child's illness.

FRIGHTENING STATISTICS

Statistics are our first warning of danger. Not too many years ago, saccharin was regarded as a good sweetener. Today, it is being controlled because statistics show it increases the chances of bladder cancer. Similarly, the spraying of poisonous chemicals into rain clouds may be proven later as dangerous and flagrant pollution.

In 1966, the year of heaviest cloud seeding in southern Pennsylvania, the death rate from lung diseases reached the highest number since vital statistics have been kept, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Public Health. This fact was reported by the Tri-State Natural Weather Association in a recent article in Acres, U.S.A.

The article also said that silver iodide crystals combine with auto emissions to create other serious poisons.

THE FUTURE?

And what of the future? Management of the clouds for weather purposes could later be organized into taxing districts, like we presently have for rivers, lakes, irrigation and drilling . . . levying taxes on all of us for this district management of our clouds!

WHAT YOU CAN DO!!

If you feel as we do, that cloud seeding should not be done over this county . . . you can help:

First, be sure to vote on June 11.

You can vote if you live in any of the following precincts:

Lamb County Precincts 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 12, 13, 15 and 16.

Floyd County Precincts 3, 4, 7, 16 and 18.

Hale County Precincts 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Castro County Precincts 6, 7, 10, 11 and 16.

Second, call all your friends in voting precincts listed above and urge them to vote.

Third, on election day call everyone and remind them to vote. Pick up people in your area and take them to the polls.

Fourth, between now and election day, talk about cloud seeding, learn about it and be sure everyone realizes there are risks which affect us all, and that we have the opportunity, by voting, to keep cloud seeding out of our county.

VOTE AGAINST CLOUD SEEDING JUNE 11

Paid political adv. by the Citizens for Natural Weather, Lloyd Kurtz, Treasurer, Box 119, Canyon, TX 79015.
