SCHOOLBOY HOLDS ST. LOUIS TO 7 HITS IN 12 INNINGS

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NAVIN FIELD, Detroit, Oct. 4—Goose Goslin's single to center in the twelfth inning today gave Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, a brilliant 3 to 2 conquest of the St. Louis Cardinals and pulled the Detroit Tigers back to even terms in the World series with one victory for each club. The winning run was scored by Charley Gehringer.

A cool breeze swept the field but the sun was out more warmly than the day before and another big crowd, numbering close to 42,000 spectators, was on hand for the second game of baseball's championship battle.

COME TO THE PARTY

Avalanche - Journal publications, using a public address system, will give play-by-play reports of each World series baseball game.

Announcing begins at 12:30 p. m. on each day the game is played in Detroit and 1:30 p. m. when the teams are in St. Louis. Fans will gather in front of the offices of publication, 1211-13 Texas avenue.

A special Associated Press wire connects Avalanche-Journal offices with the press boxes in both parks and announcements are as rapid as the play itself.

A play-o-graph board is also being used, enabling the fan to see each movement of the ball.

First Inning

CARDS—Martin lined to White on the first pitch. Rothrock grounded out Gehringer to Greenberg. Frisch hit sharply down the third base line for a scratch single. Medwick fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left on base.

TIGERS—White grounded out to Collins. Cochrane followed with a similiar hit to the Cardinal first baseman. Gehringer grounded to the same player but was safe at first when Hallahan fumbled the throw. Greenberg grounded to Martin and was out at first on a close play. No runs, no hits, one error, one left.

Second Inning

CARDS—Collins drove a long fly to White in deep center. Delancey grounded sharply to Gehringer and was safe at first when the ball glanced off the Tiger second baseman's glove. Orsatti tripled down the third base line scoring Delancey. Durocher popped to Greenberg. Hallahan lined out to Fox in short right. One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

TIGERS—Goslin bounced a hit over second base, Frisch stopping the ball but not having time to make the throw. Rogell fouled to Delancey. Owen fanned on a called third strike. Fox lifted a high foul to Delancey. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Third Inning

CARDS—Martin lashed a single through the infield, Gehringer making a futile attempt to spear the ball. Rothrock bunted to Rowe and was thrown out at first, Martin advancing. Frisch lifted a high fly to White and Martin was stopped from making a break for third base. Medwick smashed a single past Rogell, scoring Martin and galloped to second on the throw-in. Collins poked a single over Rogell's head and Medwick was thrown out trying to score, Goslin to Cochrane. One run, three hits, no errors, one left.

TIGERS—Rowe fanned, swinging. White grounded out, Frisch to Collins. Cochrane walked. Gehringer drove a long single over Frisch's head, sending Cochrane to third.

NATION TALKS SALES TAX

CONTROVERSY WILL BE HEARD IN CAPITOLS THIS WINTER

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4—Sales tax talk—pro and con—is sweeping the country.

A survey showed today that the sales tax wave has rolled over the nation until 20 states now have such levies in one form or another.

Under the domes of many a state capitol this winter the controversial subject of inaugurating or extending such taxes will arise again. For states, like their Uncle Sam, are wrestling with deficits.

Property Owners Ask Relief

The movement toward sales and other newer forms of taxation has gained momentum as real estate taxes in many cases have reached a point of diminishing returns. Real property owners have been crying for relief.

Gasoline taxes, seized upon since the war as a lucrative source of revenue, also have been boosted in some states to the point where it is difficult to raise them higher. Income levies, whose use by states has been growing, have risen in many instances until, combined with the federal tax they have become a sizeable burden.

22 States Have Sales Tax

States that have sales taxes include Arizona, California, Delaware Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi.

BANKING FIRM ALSO RAPPED IN COURT

HALSEY STUART FEELS STING OF ATTACK AS CASE BEGINS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 — Samuel Insull's stock sales in his ill-fated Corporation Securities company were termed a "simple conspiracy to swindle, cheat and defraud the public" by the government as it outlined the mail fraud case against the utilities executive today.

United States District Attorney Dwight H. Green, in a statement detailing what government investigators uncovered in Insull's financing, charged that the company was set up simply as a "dumping ground" for large quantities of stock acquired in market deals to boost the price of Insull stock.

"Put In Few Dollars"

Insull and the others put into the new company the common stock of another Insull company, Insull Utility Investments, and "a few dollars in cash." It owed $3,500,000 for the stock. Then on this property, Green charged:

"The defendants falsely represented to the public that the new corporation would commence business with assets of over $80,000,000."

Green declared that four of the 16 defendants on trial with Insull floated a huge issue of "allotment certificates under the pretense that they were letting their friends and customers in on an opportunity to make plenty of money."

It was through Halsey Stuart & Co., nationally known LaSalle street investment banking house, that the 17 defendants sold their 700,000 allotment certificates, which were "packages" of one share of common stock and one share of preferred stock, offered at $75 a pair, Green continued.

Employes of the investment house were told to contact customers, Green declared, and recommend an investment in this paper as "the jewels of the Insull empire," with the tip that only a fortunate few would be allowed to "get in on the ground floor."

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Trapped in a pen with an angry bull, Gus Kruckemeyer, 53, was saved from almost certain death today when his daughter, Meta, and several other persons came to the rescue with fence posts and broomhendles.

A furious battle resulted in which the bull was finally beaten off. Kruckemeyer was taken to the hospital suffering from broken ribs and possibly more serious injuries.

TECH ADDS TO ENROLLMENT FIGURES

REGISTRATIONS CLIMB TODAY WITH 2,400 TOTAL EXPECTED

Texas Tech's enrollment continued to climb today and at noon indications were that total registration for the fall session would exceed 2400 students.

The enrollment at noon was 2,241 students of which 2,059 had paid their fees. Scores of other students were still in the process of registration and officials said numbers were expected to enroll next Monday.

Knapp Optimistic

President Bradford Knapp was very optimistic over the enrollment which is expected to surpass the figures for any entire academic year in the ten-year history of the school.

Last year on the fourth day of registration, only 1,578 students had enrolled while the total for the fall term increased to 1,943 before registration closes.

Classes Under Way

Fierce Yaqui Tribesmen, Angry At Image's Loss, Threaten Sonora Peace

MAGDALENA ARMY POST STRENGTHENED AS INDIANS ARRIVE

(By The Associated Press)

MAGDALENA, Sonora, Mexico, Oct. 4—Yaqui Indians and Mexican peons poured down from the far Sonora hills today for the annual Fiesta de San Francisco Xavier.

But they came not in their usual festival spirit. Angry resentment smoldered in their breasts for the plaster statue of their patron saint has been destroyed.

The ancient cathedral in which they had worshipped his image as long as the old men could remember, was closed to them—turned into a political meeting place—the priests in exile. The Yaquis were forbidden their pagan "Pascola" dance about a rag-doll Christ and straw Judas.

The image of the saint was cremated in Hermosillo, the state's capital, when the state took over the church and exiled the priests for teaching alleged superstitious doctrines to the peons and Indians.

Distant throbbing of tom-toms has been heard in the hills, council fires have flamed in well-hidden valleys and rumors have floated in that the fierce Yaqui warriors might try to avenge their patron saint.

Although Governor Rodolfo Elias Calles denied there has been any signs of discontent among the Indians, the federal garrison here has been strengthened.

Officers Protected After Striker Dies

BRIDGEPORT, Pa., Oct. 4. (AP)—Five sheriff's deputies, arrested after a bystander was shot to death during a textile strike outbreak, were taken to the Norristown jail today for protection from several thousand aroused citizens.

Ellwood Quick, 23, was shot in the disturbance at the James Lees and Sons textile mill yesterday as officers escorted workers from the plant through a crowd of strikers, and died later in a hospital.

The five deputies—Howard White, Joseph Smith, Wilbur Parker, Robert Pinkerton and Harry Hildebeitel—took refuge in the mill, where police arrested them on charges of homicide.

The Lees mill strike began September 4, the workers refusing to return because of purported discrimination in rehiring some strikers.

Ranks Legislation

Legislation likely to be considered at the session was ranked in importance by McGregor as:

Remission of penalties and interest on delinquent taxes.

Remission of certain ad valorem

NEW EVIDENCE DAMAGING TO HAUPTMANN

GERMAN IS CONNECTED MORE CLOSELY WITH KIDNAP-MURDER

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4—District Attorney Samuel J. Foley announced today that investigators had found in Bruno Hauptmann's trunk road maps of the Sourland Mountain section of New Jersey where the estate of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh is located.

Foley also stated that Hauptmann "is able to reproduce certain sections of the Hopewell (N. J.) territory from memory, even down to the smallest intersecting forks of road."

Dictionary Is Found

"We also found in the trunk," Foley said, "an English-German dictionary of the 1,000 most commonly used words. The more difficult words appearing in the ransom note were in the dictionary and this, to some extent, conforms the theory that Hauptman misspelled a number of the smaller words, while the more difficult words were written correctly, an indication that he looked up the spelling of the harder words in the dictionary."

Foley said that Hauptmann "was able to draw maps of the Jersey section with remarkable accuracy."

Fished In Those Sections

"We now know," the Bronx prosecutor said, "that he fished in those sections. He also had road maps covering the entire territory around Gay Head, Buzzard's Bay, Elizabeth Island and Martha's Vineyard. We are also able to show that Hauptmann fished there also."

The Bronx district attorney has consistently refused to discuss a possible New Jersey kidnaping or murder case. However, he did say today that "we have never contended that the baby was ever in New England, in fact we are now going to prove that it was not."

Foley said Hauptmann's road maps covered whole sections of interest in the kidnaping and ransom investigation.

Preparing For Trial

The prosecutor said he knows of no witnesses to be brought to his office today for questioning. "We are concentrating all our energies on preparation for trial," he said.

Foley also said he had received no official notice of the calling of a Hunterdon county, N. J., grand jury to meet a week from today to consider charges against Hauptmann. The extortion trial in the Bronx is scheduled to start the same day.

District Attorney Foley also made public today Hauptmann's criminal record in Germany, his native land, as cabled to the New York police department by Detective Arthur Johnson, of the department.

Escaped Jail Once

The record showed that Hauptmann had been sentenced on several charges in his Fatherland and had escaped from jail once.

The record, as cabled by Johnson, read:

March 22, 1919, Kamenz, burglary, theft, receiving stolen goods, guilty on five charges; two years, six months, one week.

June 3, 1919—March 26, 1919, Kamenz, holdup, gun, two years, six months.

June 17, 1919, sentenced Bautzen jail, Judge Berndt; paroled.

March 30, 1923, three years. (No charge given.)

June 12, 1923, three burglary charges at Kamenz, where escaped June 20, 1923.

'Dizzy-The-Great' Blushingly Admits He 'Can Win Four In Row Off Tigers'

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Oct. 4 — Dizzy Dean doesn't think the Tigers are so hot, and he's willing to tell the world about it.

He did just that last night in a short wave broadcast to the Byrd Antarctic expedition.

"Hello, Dick Byrd," Dean started his broadcast. "I had a hard-pitched ball game here today, but I didn't have a thing on my fast ball or my curve ball. I can pitch a lot better ball than that."

Then he was asked by the sports writer who interviewed him what he thought of the Tigers.

"I think the Tigers are not as good a ball team as I figured them out to be," Dizzy replied. "I could bring four National league ball teams here and win a World series from these boys at Detroit."

"I would be tickled to death to pitch tomorrow's game," he continued. "If they pitched me the whole four games, I would win them all."

Good Health Is Basis Of Beauty

Madge Evans is one of the screen's most radiant examples of the value of good health to beauty.

* * *

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Service Staff Writer

At a party the other evening, I happened to hear two young men discussing a girl who always is surrounded by people, both men and women. "I tell you she is not beautiful, not even pretty," one of them was saying. "I know it," the other agreed, "but she's so vivacious and agreeable that her looks don't seem to matter very much."

The second speaker, had, it seemed to me, hit directly upon the fundamental thing that makes for popularity. With one sentence he had explained why some girls, regardless of the shape of their faces or color of their eyes, are loved by their friends and sought after by newly met acquaintances.

After all, there's not much to be said in favor of the beautiful woman who never has energy to do anything except sit in a corner and show off her beauty. But much can be said about an energetic, pleasant girl who actually contributes something of her charm and graciousness to every gathering.

How, then, are some women able to be interesting at all times? Perhaps heaven endowed them with amiable dispositions. Maybe they have trained themselves to be amusing. But, whatever else they have done, the chances are ten to one that they've kept themselves in excellent physical condition.

You can't be charming if you are tired and nervous. And you can not be interesting if you are run down and physically exhausted. Remember that you can't burn the candle at both ends. If you are up late one night, you must sleep a few extra hours the next to be in condition the third night. You can't go for days without proper nourishment and expect your eyes to be shiny, skin clear. In other words, if you expect to have a radiant, charming personality which is more important in the long run that surface beauty, keep healthy.

Women Prefer This Laxative

Needing laxatives more often, women prefer delicious Feen-a-mint, the chewing gum laxative. It distributes its laxative ingredient by chewing, more uniformly into the system, thus giving a more natural and complete action that is not harsh on delicate organs. Delicious Feen-a-mint contains a laxative ingredient regularly prescribed by physicians. It combines an elaxative to upset stomach or diet. Delay is dangerous. Today get back on schedule and stay there. Chew non-habit forming Feen-a-mint for constipation.

TEXAS UNIVERSITY'S BIG SKY MIRROR TO BE POLISHED FOR YEAR BY EXPERT

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 4—The three-ton mirror, destined to explore the skies for scientists at the McDonald observatory of the University of Texas arrived in Cleveland today for a year of intensive polishing.

First the large mirror will be ground with carborundum, starting with grains one-sixteenth inch in diameter. After that the face of the mirror will be "roughed" or polished with pure oxide of iron.

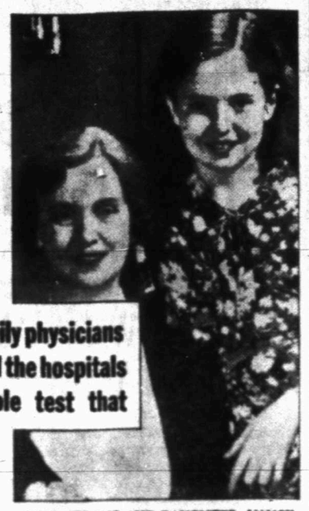

Designers Do Polishing

At frequent intervals tests will be made with rays of polarized light to make sure the proper curvature is being ground into the surface. The polishing and grinding will be supervised by C. A. Robert Lundin, expert head of the optical department of Warner & Swasey company, designers of the observatory.

The observatory will be operated jointly by the University of Texas and the University of Chicago under the direction of Dr. Ott Struve of Yerkes observatory.

One dairy cow in three is a losing proposition even among the better herds, the department of agriculture estimates.

LUCKY GIRL

MRS. STRONG AND DAUGHTER, NANCY

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin brought relief at once," says Mrs. A. G. Strong of 34-47 89th St., Jackson Heights, N.Y.

Her mother felt that family physicians and child specialists, and the hospitals must be right. A simple test that proves they are.

If anyone in your family is occasionally sluggish or constipated; especially any child, you should know this medical truth:

You cannot get safe relief with any medicine if you cannot regulate the dose. And to regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. With a liquid laxative, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition.

Why Doctors Use Liquid Laxatives

A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of natural laxative elements like senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves, not make matters worse.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drug-store. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better than you have in a long time.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the natural, comfortable action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

OCEANIC MAIL QUESTION UP

SUBSIDIES PROBED AS FARLEY HEARINGS ARE OPENED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. (AP)—The Postoffice department opened exhaustive hearings today which it hopes will point the way to an annual saving of at least $10,000,000 in carrying Uncle Sam's mail abroad.

Ordered by Postmaster-General Farley, upon the direction of President Roosevelt himself, to appear and show cause why their contracts "should not be modified or cancelled," 32 ocean mail and 4 foreign airmail carriers will be questioned on the use they have made of the $32,000,000 a year the government has been paying them for their services.

Move To Change Subsidy

Most of this outlay—$312,684,394 for the steamship companies alone under their 10-year contracts—is admittedly subsidies for developing the American merchant marine and foreign air service. While it is considered virtually certain some sort of subsidy for those purposes will still be provided, there is a strong move to divorce it from the mail carrying expense.

Thus the Postoffice department estimates that whereas it cost more than $26,000,000 last year to have its mail dispatched on ships, the cost would have been only around $3,000,000 on a straight-out weight basis.

Westerners Off For Border As Tech Prepares For Bears

LUBBOCK HIGH LADS ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

AUSTIN HIGH TILT TO BE PLAYED UNDER FLOODLIGHTS

Coaches Weldon Chapman and Berl Huffman with 25 Lubbock High school huskies left at 1 o'clock today for El Paso and their Saturday night under the floodlights with the Austin High Panthers.

The Westerners are in fairly good physical condition and the starting line-up Saturday will be practically the same as last week. If the Panthers prove weak the Lubbock reserves will probably get their clothes dirty, Coach Chapman indicated.

Several of the squadmen have slight injuries. Morris White, hula-hula-hipped halfback has a blister on his foot which becomes apparent when he pivots to the left. White has been shifted to a halfback. Robert Allen will probably start off Saturday with the field general's assignment.

Vergil Griner and Irwin Gear may go in at the other wingback, ordinarily occupied by Charles Calhoun. Calhoun has a bad shoulder.

Forward Wall Same

The Westerner line will be the same, reading from left end to right end, Ocie Griggs, Dixie White, Country Phillips, Blackie Young, Woodrow Aycock, Robert Dowell and Starkey Whitehorn. Jeton Meador, diminutive but a fierce blocker and tackler, has recovered from a leg injury, and will be available this week.

Dispatches from El Paso indicate that the Panthers are rounding into shape after a dismal start, and believe that they have developed sufficient punch to stop the charging Westerners.

The Austin boys will not be giving any weight to the invaders and at least two backs who can become exceedingly dangerous in a well-broken field.

Coach Thad Steele took the reins at Austin this fall with seven lettermen to build from. These were Vic Blanco, 195-pound tackle; J. B. Wilson, 170-pound guard; Charles Edens, 169-pound tackle; Leo Montez, 150-pound halfback; Ernst Sanchez, 160-pound center; Jim Gruber, 172-pound fullback; and Ishmael Nyffenger, 158-pound end. All of these men are rather heavy, but a large number of light players cuts down the average for the team.

The Panthers looked promising last week when they were defeated, 7 to 0, by Big Spring. Austin tabulated 10 first downs to the Steer's 4, in a game which saw excellent defensive play by Fullback Gruber, and Halfback Frank Barbier.

Coach Chapman's charges will arrive in El Paso about noon tomorrow. A light drill will be held that afternoon on the site of the game.

The following men of the Westerner squad made the trip: Howell Young, Woodrow Aycock, Weldon Phillips, Dixie White, Robert Dowell, Starkey Whitehorn, Ocie Griggs, Morris White, Charles Calhoun, Vergil Griner, Woodrow Barnes, Jeton Meador, Robert Allen, Hill, Harry Halsell, Neil Wright, Billy Linn, Othie Upton, Eugene Alderson, James Hendrix, Robert Martin, W. M. Robinson, Joe Jackson, Gwenn Jones, Joe Coursey and Erwin Gear.

CLINGMAN WINNER OVER VAN BEBBER

Otis Clingman defeated Jack Van Bebber in straight falls in the main event of the mat show at the Auditorium last night. Clingman used a grapevine in the first fall to win in 20 minutes, and a pile-driver in the second toss to triumph in 12 minutes.

In the semi-final, Sailor Tex Watkins gained a booed victory over Lew Muellen in 17 minutes with a reverse reverse shoulder.

Eddie O'Shea, clowning Irishman, was victimized by Henry Hill after 16 minutes of grappling in the preliminary.

Women's Golf Play Dominated By West

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4. (AP)—With the West dominating five of the eight quarter-final brackets in the Women's National golf championship it appeared today that Glenna Collet Vare alone could restore to the East the golf prestige it once enjoyed.

Lined up against her were Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, the champion, Mrs. Leona Cheney of San Gabriel, Calif., Mrs. Opal Hill of Kansas City, and, nationally speaking, two unknown quantities—Dorothy Traung, 20-year-old San Francisco lass, and Mrs. Burt Weil of Cincinnati, whose chief claim to fame is the Ohio State title.

In support of the East's cause Glenna has with her Mrs. Carl H. Donner of Short Hills, N. J., who developed into a championship threat by her over-time triumph over Maureen Orcutt, and Frances Williams of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania state titlist and former winner of the eastern championship.

THE WESTERNERS, 25 strong, are enroute by bus for El Paso, where they meet the Austin High gridders of that city Saturday night. The printed schedule which you have hanging in your office or under the family Bible indicates the teams play Friday night, but this is a mistake.

It's the Texas Tech team which plays Friday night, and the Matadors have got a lot of playing to do. The Westerners should take their game by as large a score as they desire. The Matadors will be lucky if they win at all. Which means that this department will be lucky in its early prediction that Tech would not lose another game.

We've sticking to that prediction, but we kinda feel shaky about it. The Bears, declared by Line Coach Dutchy Smith, who saw them defeat St. Edwards last week, to be 40 per cent stronger than they were when Tech licked them 13 to 0 last year, are going to prove quite painful before they embark for Waco. They'll come charging in here this afternoon or tomorrow morning and they won't leave until they have caused an epidemic of astigmatism by waving the Green and Gold so close to your eyes.

But please give us another 24 hours in which to figure out the final scores of tomorrow night's game here and Saturday night's game at El Paso. We really should retire while we're batting close to 1000.

The following extract from the Austin American, issue of Sept. 26, has been left on our desk. It was written by Hop Hopkins sports editor of the American, and its reads as follows:

"Months before the Longhorn-Matador game at Lubbock, the general public was led to believe that Pete Cawthon and his Matadors were a bloodthirsty aggregation of roughnecks, whose sole objective was to cripple, maim and incapacitate the Longhorns by fair means or foul (mostly foul). In fact, we had been told that many of the Steers would probably return home with raw beef draped over their eyes, while still others would be delivered, encased in plastor of paris, in ambulances.

"All of which turned out to be so much piffle of the most unfair and unjust vintage, according to no other authority than Jack Chevigny, big chief of the Longhorns, himself.

" 'We were treated courteously, graciously and kindly during our stay in Lubbock by the Texas Tech coaches, faculty members and the townspeople,' Coach Chevigny said. 'They met us at the station with cars, solicitiously inquired into our every need and spared no effort to make our stay there a most welcome and pleasant one.

" 'The game itself,' continued Chevigny meditatively, 'was hard but cleanly played; free from dirty and unfair tactics. Of course, the Matadors, like our team, had their hearts set on victory and gave forth their best efforts to gain their objective, but please let the world know that the Red Raiders played a good, clean, fair and hard game.' "

All of which reads decidely different from the comments and propoganda spread by coaches and supporters of Texas A. & M., Simmons, West Texas Teachers and other clubs after their games with Texas Tech.

WE SEE by the papers and publicity services where one Choice Rucker, a former resident and athlete of Slaton, is making the grade in a big way with the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, uncrowned champions of the Southwest conference last year. Rucker, we hear, is one of the stand out ends, not only of the Arkansas squad, but of the entire conference.

Rucker is the second Slaton product in the last few years to make a name for himself in Southwest conference football. Bones Armes, a great high school center, was a provider for Texas Christian university. J. Willard Ridings, chief of the T. C. U. publicity staff, jumps the gun and picks his 1934 all-Southwest conference team. On it he names Rucker of Arkansas, Fuqua of S. M. U., Gray of Texas and Sylvester of Rice as the ends, with Rucker getting first choice. This speaks well of the work of Paul Wright, the Slaton High mentor.

Columbus Has Lead In AA Series Play

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 4 (AP)—The Columbus Red Birds, champions of the American association, made room in their lockers today for a flood of gifts, an appreciation shower from Red Bird fans who welcomed them home for the resumption of the "Little World" series.

The Birds, leading three to one over the Toronto Leafs, International league titleholders, will try to make the fourth game count when the teams tangle here Friday night. Five victories take the minor league crown, won by the Birds last year.

TOUGH BAYLOR MACHINE IS PROBLEM

SCORING PLAYS, PLUS DEFENSE STRESSED IN PRACTICE

Offensive drill was stressed by Texas Tech mentors as the Matadors worked yesterday on scoring plays to send against the giant forward wall of the Baylor Bears, whom they meet tomorrow night under the lights at Matador Field.

The Golden Bear frontiersmen are said to be the toughest forwards in the Southwestern conference this fall, more formidable than they have been in the last four seasons.

Line Still Doubtful

Just who will line up for the first canto tomorrow night still remains more or less a mystery. If D. M. McElroy is physically fit, he will start with the first string players, Coach Cawthon having announced earlier this week he would throw his most potent combination into the fray.

McKeever, Clark, Dowell and Baze stand nominated unless McElroy get in. The speedy back from Dallas has been ailing since the Texas game.

Doubt still prevails to the benefit to be gained by sending Captain Moon Martin, regular left end, and big Bert Williams, tackle, into the Baylor fray. Neither have been taking much exercise since the battle with the Longhorns, and may be kept on the sidelines this week.

Baylor Is Favorite

Pre-game indications point to a Baylor victory. With a veteran line and a sophomore backfield, Baylor's forces are considered stronger all around than they were last year, or the year before. And Baylor, it is remembered, finished second in the Southwest conference race last year after getting off to a bad start.

A running attack that rivals that of Texas, a passing machine that undoubtedly will complete enough forward heaves to pick up valuable yardage, and a defense that looks powerfully set against opposition scoring—these are the reports that come out of Central Texas.

Coach Morley Jennings, a follower of the Kipke system of football, has modified the style some this year. He runs his team off the short punt formation after a huddle and shift. He uses what is technically known as a 6-2-2-1 defense against the Notre Dame system, which means a six-man line backed up by five men in the secondary. Two of the secondary men, however, play close enough to the line of scrimmage to make it look like an eight-man line.

Against this defense, Tech hopes to put over a few forward and lateral passes, but will spare the line plungers and around-end sprinters.

Line Coach Bochey Koch, former all-America guard from Baylor, is commanding a big, fast-charging line this season, which blocks and tackles harder than has been the case in recent years. Well-drilled and naturally smart, the Bruin forwards are expected to give the Tech line more than its share of trouble.

The Baylor offense features lightning-like backs, safety men who catch punts and kick-offs on the dead run and start to town with the leather, fleet ball carriers who are off to a flying start and hard to check. Against St. Edwards, Coach Jennings had his prize sophomore, Lloyd Russell, on parade. Russell made three of Baylor's five touchdowns, running 35, 33 and 36 yards respectively for his counters, and otherwise performing most admirably.

Joe Jack Pearce is still heaving passes for Baylor. He does not have a Jim Tom Petty or a Frank James to shag them, but there are a trio of sophomores in the backfield who can get out and under passes. Hal Finley, who ran 70 yards against St. Edwards for the second touchdown of the game, did so after receiving a pass. All of Russell's touchdowns were made after he caught Pearce's passes. Dick Henslee another sophomore, intercepted a pass to scram 35 yards for the final touchdown. So it looks rather like a tough evening for the Matadors.

Dumbfounded Tigers Pin Hope On Schoolboy Rowe In Second Clash

BATTERED BENGALS OF DETROIT NOW KNOW J. DIZZY DEAN

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT, Oct. 4. (AP)—A beam of six foot, four inch Arkansas sunshine—Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe—shone through the gloom of the Detroit jungle today and to the dumbfounded, bewildered, and ashamed Tigers he looked as bright as a full blown noon-day sun in the desert.

It was Rowe, the 23-year-old rookie, the big grinning kid from the wild boar lands, to whom frantic Mickey Cochrane and the harassed Tigers turned for the pitching strength to beat back crafty, left-handed "Wild Bill" Hallahan and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Rowe For Double Duty

As a beam of light and hope, the Schoolboy, winner of 16 straight games for the American league champions during one stretch of the past season, was both an omen and a standard-bearer with a double duty, for there were rain clouds hovering over Navin field, threatening to wash out today's second game and force postponement for an extra day of the second phase of the series scheduled for St. Louis Friday.

It is the fervent prayer and hope of Michigan and the mid-west as well that the Schoolboy get his chance today to revenge the one-sided 8 to 3 walloping J. Dizzy Dean and the hard-bitten Cardinals pinned on the home boys yesterday.

Citizens Bewildered

All of the citizens, many of them bruised themselves from private wrestling matches with each other and with strangely marked turnstiles that caused a 20-minute delay starting yesterday's game, headed back to see if their eyes really were deceiving them—if the situation as represented could actually be true.

As a matter of hard boiled fact, not only the athletes but also the faithful who've been waiting here 25 long years for a World series, were down out of the rosy clouds that have tinged everything hereabouts since the Tigers clinched the American league flag—down with the thud of a stratosphere ball that has parted from its gas bag miles in the air.

Dean A Reality Now

Dean no longer is a circus character in these parts, though always a source of entertainment, and the Cardinals aren't just a bunch of National league farm boys from Missouri doing the best they can. They've seen J. Herman in his serious moments, flinging that fireball down their heroes' throats, allowing eight hits and three runs and grumbling afterward that he was "terrible," that he had pitched his worst game of the year.

They say Joe "Concrete" Medwick, 22, take a toe-hold and hammer their starting pitcher, "General" Alvin Crowder and his burly but ineffective relief, Firpo Marberry, for four straight hits, one of them a home run, equalling a World series record.

They weren't from Missouri and they could see all too well for themselves. In fact the sound of base-hits, 13 in all off Crowder, Marberry, and finally the Indian southpaw, Elon Hogsett, still was ringing in their ears.

Rowe's Head Is Up

Into this situation strode the Schoolboy, the ace Mickey Cochrane wouldn't play against J. Dean in the opening game of the series. He came into it yesterday, to be truthful, when the Tigers were stripping themselves, dazed and disconsolate, in their dressing quarters. He went from man to man, personally taking charge of the situation, encouraging, consoling, the figurative beam of light in the darkness. The Tigers can't help but play better ball for him if the weather lets them go today.

Certainly they couldn't play worse than they did when the haloed "iron man infield" of Big Hank Greenberg, Masterful Charlie Gehringer, Bill Rogell and Marvin Owen, cracked wide open in the first three innings under the tension and the pressure. In that brief period this "deeath battalion" quartet piled up five errors, and sunk Crowder so deep that he had no chance, possibly no hope, of escaping anywhere but to the showers.

Hallahan Is "Hot"

The Cardinals say Hallahan, who won two games in the series with the Athletics in 1931, is hot, and should be stingier with hits even than Dean was. Paul (Li'l Brother) Dean will start the first of three games in St. Louis. J. Herman will be back to plague the Tigers Sunday, if nothing goes radically wrong.

"I've got to give you some rest," Frisch told the dizzy one today, "but I've got to have you ready for the clutch."

"Just call on me," said Dizzy expansively, "and that goes for my brother Paul, too."

CASEY STENGEL GRINS—TIGER INFIELD LOOKED 'AWFUL'

MEDWICK LIABLE TO HIT SOME MORE; FUMBLING RECORDS CITED

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

DETROIT, Oct. 4. (AP)—As an old World series hero himself and the man now best known for his part in proving to the Giants that Brooklyn is still in the National league, Casey Stengel has a few kind words to say today for the Cardinals in general and Joe (Ducky-Wucky) Medwick in particular.

"I'm not insisting that the Cardinals 'cut me in' on their World series money," smiled the Brooklyn manager, "but my club helped them prove they are the best team in the National league and get the chance to win the World series. As for Medwick, he is liable to blow more of the Tigers down than the Deans. He's one of the greatest natural hitters I have seen in years."

Medwick Looks Ripe

Hitting star of the opening game against the Tigers, with four booming base-hits, including a homer, that tied a World series record, Medwick looks ripe for a slugging spree that will set an all-time mark. Only two others among the dozen who have collected four hits in a single series game—Frank Frisch with the Giants of 1921 and Mel Ott of the 1933 New York club—turned the trick in the first game.

TIGERS LOOK AWFUL

Whether or not it was just a case of temporary "buck fever," brought on by an accumulation of events, the fact is no club has looked quite so bad as the current Tigers at the outset of a big-money battle since the Pittsburgh Pirates of 1927 staggered into the National league championhhip and then outfumbled the New York Yankees in four consecutive World series games.

Mickey Cochrane's jittery athletes may shake off the St. Louis blues today. They are a far better ball club than they looked against Dean, Medwick & company, in the opener. They proved they had courage and resource in the "clutches" by the way they battered their way to the top of the American league but for the time being their case is ominously parallel to the plight of the Pirates seven years ago.

DISTINCTION IS DUBIOUS

The collapse of Detroit's infield to such an extent that Greenberg, Gehringer, Rogell and Owen joined in making five errors in only two and one-third innings gives them the dubious distinction of trying to outdo the 1909 Tigers, who rolled up an all-time series record of 19 miscues in seven games. They were only one short of the single game record of six, jointly charged to the White Sox of 1906 and 1917 and the Pirates of 1909, which seems to have been the great fumbling year.

The explanations, none of them helpful to the present Tigers, are (1) too much tension, brought on by home-town enthusiasm; (2) additional strain caused by the 20-minute delay in starting the first game; and (3) the burden of being christened the "battalion of death." They're sorry now that anybody brought that one up.

Reynolds Smith, Texas amateur champion and semi-finalist in this year's national amateur, defeated E. M. Thompson of Waxahachie, 6 and 5, and Gibson Payne of Dallas, 1 up.

Gus Moreland of Dallas, United States Walker cup star, easily beat Benny Lee Boynton of Dallas in the first round, 4 and 2, but had trouble beating Don Schumacher of Dallas, Texas Junior champion, one up in the second round. Yale-Columbia Grid Clash In Spotlight

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—The customary calm of the regular season football program in the East where tradition demands a few tune-up games for the big teams before the start of the serious business of the season, is broken this week when Yale and Columbia open the season against each other.

Columbia again figures to be one of the major football powers of the East despite the loss of a good many of the players who carried her to triumph in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day. Yale, with a brand new coaching setup, remains an unknown quantity but the Elis in a good season or bad usually manage to provide a real game for anybody's football team.

Texas Aggies Work Out On Butler Grid

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 4 (AP)—The Texas A. & M. football squad of 34 players, enroute to Philadelphia to engage Temple university Friday night, held a light drill at the Butler university bowl here last night.

The Aggies limbering-up exercises consisted of passing and kicking drills and practice of offensive formations. They left late last night for the Quaker City.

By the way, what's happened to Alfalfa Bill Murray? The same thing must have happened to him that happened to the New York Giants.

* * *

HERE'S a case that something should be done about. Read the next few lines and see if you don't agree.

Last spring Annie Bell Pool, 17-year-old daughter of S. A. Pool who lives in Lubbock county on Petersburg, Route 2, was valedictorian of the graduating class at Becton.

For having the best grades of all her mates, Annie Bell won a $50 scholarship at Texas Tech—a scholarship which will pay her tuition during the first year of her search for higher knowledge.

Annie Bell was all set to come to Texas Tech and then:

It forgot to rain on the farm where her father and mother have lived for the last 26 years.

* * *

Like nearly every farmer under the sun, Mr. Pool has had tough sledding the past few years.

This year, due to the drouth, he has no crop at all and he can't send Annie Bell to Tech, even with her tuition taken care of.

She has to have a job for board and room.

Hasn't somebody a job for her?

* * *

ANNIE Bell is so anxious to get an education that she's ready to do any kind of honorable work but she feels that she's better fitted for general housework.

Surely there is some one in Lubbock willing to give her a chance to work in exchange for room and board—and to go to school.

* * *

Annie Bell isn't a football player and she doesn't come all the way from the Piney Woods.

She's just a home girl whose parents have been in Lubbock county for 33 years and she's a student who is more interested in learning than in getting a sweater and, maybe, a gold football.

Every good college ought to have a few like that and anyone with a job for Annie Bell is asked to call the office of Dr. O. C. Boone, at Telephone Number 1605. Doctor Boone is a friend of Annie Bell's folks and will relay to her the information.

ANSWERING The Plainsman's burning desire, expressed yesterday, for information concerning how it feels to be run over by an automobile, Miss Rose Heatly, a senior in Texas Tech, steps blushingly up with a few salient facts.

Miss Heatly, who is called 'Trotsky' by her more intimate friends, pitted her 85 pounds against a Buick brougham some four years ago in Austin and came out second best.

* * *

Struck from behind as she strolled down the middle of the street, much as our Tech student friends do, she felt the car hit her in the back. She knew, she says, exactly what was happening and was as calm as a cucumber until, a half hour later, she arrived at the hospital considerably the worse for wear.

Although her right leg was broken in 12 pieces and her right hand was mashed, she said she didn't feel any hurt until she saw blood on the mashed hand.

"That", she remarks, "was what hurt AFTER I saw the blood!"

* * *

MISS HEATLY says her mind was perfectly clear throughout the entire accident, that she knew when she was falling and when the heavy car trundled over her, much as it might roll over a fire hose.

"I knew everything that was going on and although I thought I was a 'goner' I wasn't a bit afraid or excited.

"All that excitement came 30 minutes later when my nerves went on vacation and I had the 'jitters' in the hospital".

Her reports answer some of The Plainsman's wonders but he's still not entirely satisfied.

Won't someone who saw the car coming at him, or her, before it struck, speak out in meetin'?

Here's some useless information for you: A single pound of the finest spider web would if strung out, reach around the world.

THIS young man Dizzy Dean, who flings a mean agate for the St. Louis Cards, must be a good deal like Danny McShain, the rassler who has shown his wares here so many times.

Dean is not mean, like McShain, but he apparently is a psychopathic case, like McShain, just the same.

* * *

The most cocksure bird, when it comes to what he can do in his chosen racket, who has ever come to Lubbock, is Wild Danny McShain.

But he apparently hasn't got a thing on Jerome Dean.

Both of them, though, can give most ordinary boasters cards and spades and coast through on the big and little casino and the game.

For both of them tell you in advance—in no uncertain words—what they're going to do—and then do it!

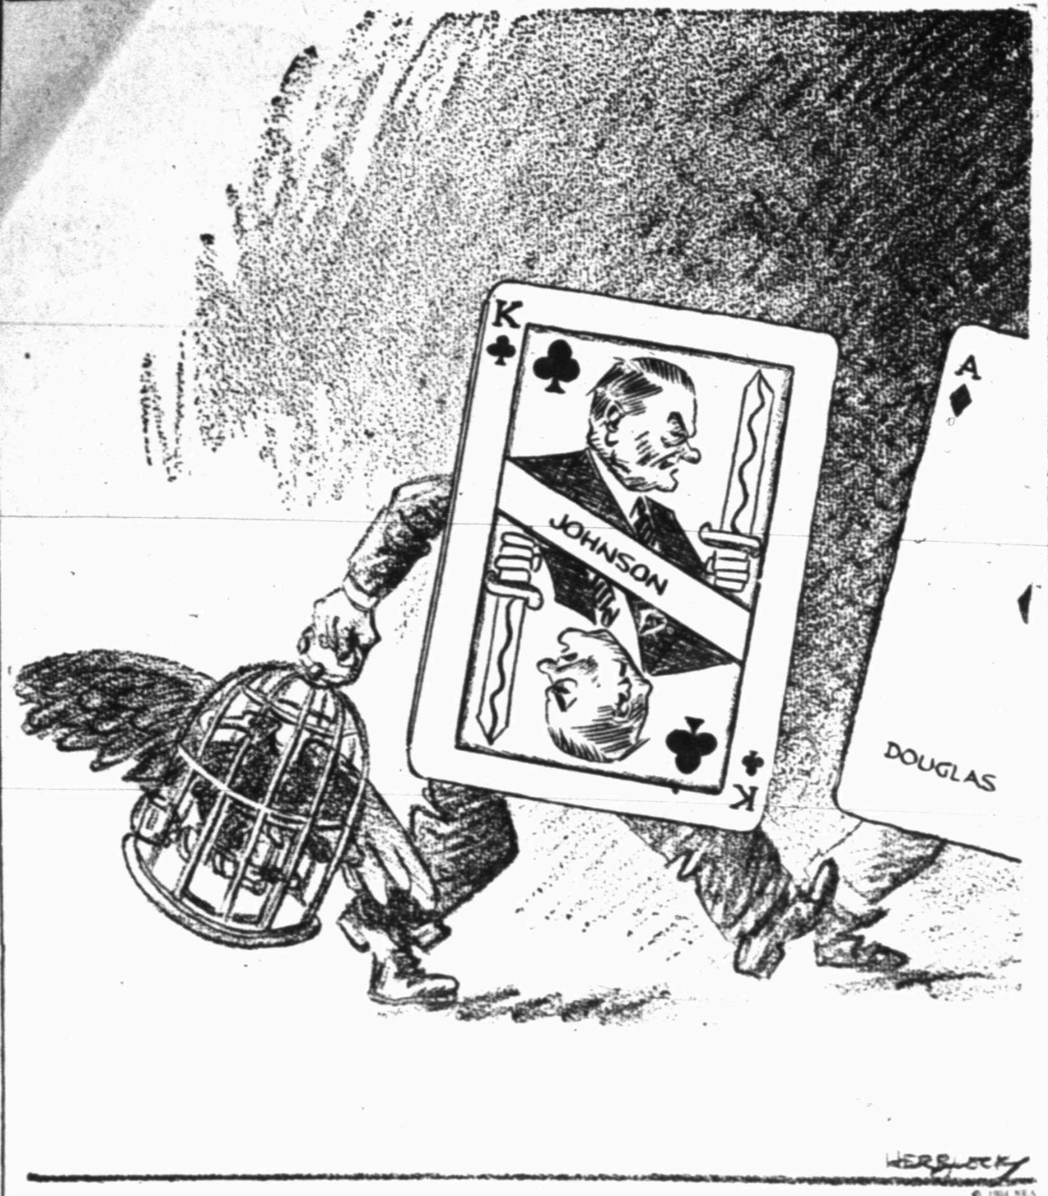

That's hardly boasting.

That's just advance information!

Best Of Foreign Trip Is The Funny Incident To Stars Of Filmland; Actors Like To Return With Good 'Yarns'

BY DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 4—If there's anything screen celebrities like better than wangling a two months vacation to Europe from their hard-boiled studio executives, it's coming back with one or two prize stories about their experiences across the Atlantic.

They're the kind of adventures that strike the movie favorites rather personally, although the victims seem to relish the telling of incidents about themselves as much as their listeners enjoy hearing them.

Ramon Novarro, for instance tells one about himself, when he took his last trip to Europe incognito. That is, he went under his more unfamiliar family name of Samienego—and managed to go everywhere without attracting attention until he attended a theater in Madrid.

As he left the theater, two detectives stopped him and for a moment Novarro thought he was in for serious trouble.

"Are you not Ramon Novarro?" they inquired. The actor admitted he was and asked how the guessed.

"It's our business to know such things," was the reply. "We won't tell anyone and spoil your visit but we have to keep track of you at headquarters."

While attending a party given by a writer in Paris, Ernst Lubitsch was conversing with his host in German. A few minutes later an American guest, not nowing that the director also spoke English, asked the host who the funny little Dutchman was.

"So, for the rest of the evening I had to speak German so as not to disclose the fact that I understood him and thus embarrass him." says Lubitsch.

On his trip to Europe last year, Jean Hersholt wired ahead to engage hotel rooms in England. When he arrived at the hotel he was informed that the place was full except for rooms engaged by Jean Hersholt.

"I am he," declared Jean.

"Oh, I say!" remonstrated the clerk. "You cawn't have me on like that. I've seen Hersholt in the pictures many times. He's an old fat bloke."

It required all Jean's identifications to get the rooms.

Song Writer, Forever

B. G. (Buddy) De Sylva, Fox studio executive, is wondering just how many things he'll have to accomplish before he can gain a reputation as something besides a song writer. As a member of the team of DeSylva, Brown and Henderson, DeSylva enjoyed the utmost success as a song writer for a number of years. And that success still is hanging with him.

Despite the fact that he has been a film producer and writer for three years, he still is known as Buddy DeSylva the song writer.

Childhood Dreams

Just to see her on the screen should be enough, but in case anyone wants an additional reason for Jean Muir's success, here it is. From the time she was a small child Jean has had a burning desire to be an actress.

She discovered this the other day while poring over some diaries, books filled with thoughts rather than events of her girlhood.

That probably explains why she has taken her whole career most seriously and thus has forged steadily ahead.

Her biggest break of all, however, will come in a couple of months, when she will take the role of Leslie Howard's leading lady in "Betsy."

FARM RELIEF A WIDESPREAD PROBLEM

The problem of farm relief has long had the nation's agricultural, economic and political leaders scratching their heads.

From our own South Plains, across the wide sweep of the nation's middle-west farming front, one of a startling era's most important questions has been "what to do and how to do it" in regard to languishing agriculture.

"If misery loves company", as the old adage declares, we may well take stock of the fact that our own country is not the only one facing a peculiar farming problem.

Witness the following comment from the Kansas City Times, morning brother to the great afternoon Kansas City Star. Says the Times:

"A member of the Star's staff traveling in Europe felt perfectly at home in the agricultural countries because all he heard discussed was surpluses, low prices, debts and farm relief. Now comes a little book by Anwar Iqbal Qureshi of India, who is studying agricultural problems at the University of Missouri, giving results of his investigation of farm relief in India, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

"His remarks have a strangely familiar sound. Thus, regarding India, he says that high tariffs to encourage Indian industry have hurt the farmers; that they are burdened by high railroad freight rates in distributing their products; that there is pressing need of debt adjustment to relieve them of a crushing load.

"Farmers throughout the world, not merely in the United States, are suffering from common evils—among them are intense nationalism that throttled world trade through high tariffs and other devices."

The Times, it seems, like many another paper and individual, has put the finger on the source of the trouble but offers, in connection, no methods of overcoming it.

Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4—"Retain the good—throw out the bad!"

That was the administration promise and proposal when most of the present emergency legislation was taken on for trial a year or two ago. Now, as the winter session of Congress looms, there are frantic efforts on all sides to comb through the alphabetical agencies and see what can be thrown to the critical lions as bad, and what may be defended as undoubtedly good.

NRA, which is floundering badly, like a ship without either rudder or engines, is making such an examination of itself. The real NRA organization isn't the one that was made the other day (into legislative, executive, and judicial branches).

It's the one that's coming, the one to which advisers such as Moley, Swope, Johnson, Richberg and possibly Baruch, have been quietly bending their energies.

It's the one that will come this winter and you may be pretty sure that whatever is done before then is temporary.

Ickes Indicates Path

This ahead-view is pretty well revealed by Secretary Harold Ickes, who spent nearly a whole day testifying before the special House subcommittee which is investigating the oil industry.

Ickes made a plea for the petroleum code and its accomplishments and concluded with a hope that "interest in oil conservation will not end with expiration of the code," but that it would be continued on a permanent basis, regardless of the ultimate fate of the code itself.

This House subcommittee whose hearings in the capital are finished, and whose members are now en route to Oklahoma City, Dallas, and Los Angeles to finish them up in the field, will report to the full Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee some time after it reorganizes in mid-January.

And the volume of testimony by technical experts, field workers and executives of the caliber of Ickes and Walter Teagle and W. S. Farish of Standard of New Jersey will be a comprehensive basis for a really permanent control policy for this industry.

All of which is about the best hint that can be thrown out for the future of other great industries so far as permanent, long-time policies may be expected.

Thick Mist Over NRA

So far as the immediate future of NRA is concerned, the confusion and uncertainty which has reigned there for the last few weeks was simply augmented by the sudden, if not unexpected, resignation of the fiery Gen. Hugh Johnson.

When President Roosevelt himself says the future of NRA is to be an evolution, passengers on the ship may be pardoned a certain indefiniteness about the course.

Calm After Storm

With adjournment of the spectacular munitions hearing the capital can scarcely reconcile itself to the quiet, staid, and academic atmosphere of the Federal Aviation Commission's effort to find out what makes aviation tick. Few spectators, and a quiet, almost sleepy atmosphere. . . . The Justice Department celebrates its triumphant part in unraveling the Lindbergh affair by beginning the long job of moving into its splendid new building on Pennsylvania avenue. Its been in rented (and very unpretentious) quarters for years. . . . The National Recreation Association evidently believes in its own title. When it assembles here in early October it's going to create a new world record by not having any banquet. Old Washington banqueteers say nothing seems sacred in the precedent-breaking that's going on today.

Rates Service Stripes

Garland S. Ferguson, just starting a second seven-year term as Federal Trade Commissioner, should be one of the veterans of the federal service by the time he completes it. . . . Those cotton garment manufacturers who flatly refused to comply with a presidential code order reducing hours and raising wages are beginning to crack. Not all parts of the industry were pleased with the decision to defy the order. Shirtmakers were first to declare themselves for obeying it. . . . Seed catalogs are losing their poetic qualities, Department of Agriculture experts note, in favor of facts. Some have gone so far as to list certain kinds of seeds as "of only fair or poor quality." . . . Organized stonemasons protested when CCC men started building a stone wall along the Mt. Vernon Memorial Highway here arguing that organized masons were the only people who ought to build stone walls. Park authorities deprecated their own work by saying they really weren't awfully good walls, just loose stones placed on top of one another and not really masonry at all.

FLASHES OF LIFE FROM EVERYWHERE

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS GROUND FROM THE GRIST OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Honest Thief

NEW ORLEANS—An honest man has been found among those who steal bottles of milk from doorsteps.

Someone stole a quart of milk from Mrs. Charles H. Pescay's doorstep last week. Days later she found this note with a dime enclosed besides the missing bottle:

"Here 10c for the bottle of milk I drank a while back. Sorry I did it but I was hungry. May God keep you all in health as I'm a follower of Him. Amen."

"Why bless his soul," said Mrs. Pescay, "he didn't need to leave me that ten cents."

Youthful Justice

ORILLIA, Ont. — Because a little boy slapped a girl's face and made her cry, the nine-year-old brother of the girl appeared in court here today, charged with setting fire to the barn of the first boy's father. The lad was placed on two year's suspended sentence.

Unexpected Guest

OIL CITY, Pa. — Quinton Crawford, of Oil City, arrived home after an automobile trip with half an unexpected guest, and his face all cut up.

He reported he was driving in Henry's Bend road near Oil City, as a ruffled grouse crashed against the windshield, shattering it. Half the bird fell inside at Crawford's feet, and the other half fell outside. Crawford was lacerated by flying glass.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady, 2-4 lower under liquidation, foreign selling, lower Liverpool cables, and nervousness over foreign financial conditions.

Oct. 12.01; Dec. 12.19; Jan. 12.20; Mch. 12.30; May 12.35; Jly 12.37.

The market was fairly active all morning. At the end of the first hour prices improved on shorts covering and Dec. advanced to 12.26 and March to 12.38, or 6 to 8 points up from the early lows and 4 to 6 points above yesterdays close.

Later considerable hedge selling developed and there was also long liquidation in advance of the bureau report due October 8. Dec. eased off to 12.10 and March to 12.22, or 16 points down from the early highs and 10 to 12 points under yesterday's close.

At mid-session the market was steadier but at the lows.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4 (AP)—Cotton today opened steady and fairly active. Liverpool cables were about as due and October opened 2 points up at 12.10 while later months opened unchanged from yesterday's close.

Some buying orders then appeared and prices rallied 4 points above the early lows to 12.24 for Dec and 12.34 for March, or 2 points net higher than the previous close.

Trading was quite active at the start with considerable liquidation as well as foreign selling, but the trade was a good buyer while there appeared to be considerable covering and prices rallied after the initial offerings had been absorbed. December sold up from 12.17 to 12.24 and May from 12.34 to 12.40, making net advances of about 2 to 3 points, but liquidation and foreign selling continued and prices worked back to about yesterday's closing quotations by the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said that the continued weakness of Egyptian cotton was unsettling sentiment in that market but that general selling in- had been absorbed by trade calling cluding some pre-bureau liquidation and covering at the decline.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—The stock market suffered a mild nervous attack today and prices generally pointed lower.

Weakness in some issues of California corporations unsettled the list. Other than fears of radical candidates winning in the November elections, there was no especial news to account for the declining tendencies in most groups.

Grains rallied at the start, but they later turned reactionary despite improvement in both Liverpool and Winnipeg. Cotton was a bit unsteady. U. S. government securities again exhibited strength in the bond market and other loans were fairly firm. Foreign exchanges were quiet with sterling a trifle lower.

The oils were in supply, with Standard of New Jersey, Texas Gulf, Socony, Seaboard and Mid-Continental Petroleum sagging fractionally to a point.

TROUBLE SEEN BY UNIONISTS

BUILDING TRADES ROW EXPECTED TO REACH CONVENTION FLOOR

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4—The storm brewing in the building trades department came to a head today, casting a shadow over the American Federation of Labor convention.

The executive council of the A. F. of L. decided to take up the controversy late today in a last minute effort to keep it from the floor of the convention. Leaders of both factions said they saw little likelihood of a compromise.

Dispute Over Delegates

The dispute involved the refusal of the building trades department—reversing the recommendations of its own executive council—to seat delegates from the carpenters, electrical workers and bricklayers international unions.

While the delegates watched anxiously the developments in this internal dispute, the words of President William Green were still fresh in their minds that workers of the world must unite in the interests of international peace.

Asserting it is the "purpose and spirit of the workers of the world to see that war never occurs again," Green said labor must move solidly "to prevent what seems to be an approaching war."

LINDBERGH MAPS FOUND IN TRUNK OF SUSPECT; HAUPTMANN STORY CRACKS

be resumed tomorrow.

A witness to the examination in a windowless room of the Bronx county courthouse said Hauptmann maintained his sullen silence and inscrutable expression, answering questions in a monotone and rarely looking at the physicians.

Trial Set Next Week

Hauptmann went before the psychiatrists yesterday, soon after he had gone before Judge James M. Barrett and heard his trial set for one week from today.

A special panel of 150 talesmen was ordered drawn today, from which a jury will be chosen for the trial of the German former soldier and stole in Bronx county on charges of extorting $50,000 in ransom from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

District Attorney Samuel J. Foley, however, qualified his request, which Judge Barrett granted over the protests of defense counsel, that the trial be set for October 11. He asked that trial begin on that day "unless some special rights of the people of the state of New Jersey interfere."

Rights Are Explained

Those rights—to try Hauptmann on a charge of murder of the kidnaped Charles A. Lindbergh, jr.—apparently were insisted upon by New Jersey. The Hunterdon county grand jury was ordered to reconvene next Thursday to consider an indictment against Hauptmann.

With the case crystalizing rapidly toward a trial, either for extortion or murder, investigators filled in the gaps in their evidence.

The Bronx prosecutor was informed that the complete details of Hauptmann's prison record in Germany would be available to him today as a result of the work in Kamenz, Hauptmann's birthplace, of Detective Arthur Johnson.

Two more witnesses were lined up against Hauptmann—one of whom District Attorney Foley said made "a good, sensible, logical identification that no one will ever shake."

Cashier Remembers Him

This witness, Miss Cecil M. Barr, cashier of a Greenwich Village motion picture theater, said Hauptmann passed her a $5 gold note from the Lindbergh ransom money as far back as last November 26. This contradicted the story of Hauptmann that the ransom cache found in his garage was given to him by a freind, Isadore Fisch who died recently in Germany, and that he learned only a month ago that the package contained money.

Miss Barr watched Hauptmann as he stood, fresh and seemingly unworried, in the Bronx county court.

"That's the man," she said emphatically, asserting that she recognized him especially by his deepset eyes. Her attention had been called to him and his countenance had been etched indelibly in her mind, she said, by the gruff way in which he tossed the bill at her and pocketed the change.

An East Side storekeeper, whose identity was not divulged, also identified Hauptmann as having passed a $10 note from the ransom money in exchange for a purchase March 1, 1933, a year to the day after the kidnaping.

Austria Shocked By Arrest Of Official

VIENNA, Oct. 4 (AP)—Dr. Franz Sonnleithner, chief of the secret code bureau of the Austrian government, has been arrested on charges of informing German Nazis in advance of all security measures planned by the Austrian government.

The government's disclosure that Sonnleithner had been jailed for espionage created a sensation throughout Austria because he is a direct descendant of the famous poet, Franz Grillparzer, and was highly trusted by the government.

Two Are Injured Slightly In Crash

Two persons, one a child, suffered minor injuries last night in an automobile collision in state highway 9 about 16 miles south of Lubbock.

A Hupmobile driven by H. C. Story, county clerk of Lynn county, and a Chevrolet coach piloted by C. R. Baldwin were in a side-swipe crash.

Story's young daughter had bruises and Baldwin a cut on the arm. Jack Reaves and John C. Keller, highway patrolman, investigated the accident, after a call was made to the sheriff's office here.

France has an organized army of almost 7,000,000 men as compared with an aggregate of about 430,000 in the United States regular army, national guard and organized reserve.

Missouri, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia.

In some cases such taxes are applied to all retail sales, in others to selected products and services. In still others the tax is collected only from manufacturers.

The costs of collection range from comparatively low to high figures. In West Virginia the average cost over six years was 1.31 per cent, whereas recent figures from Mississippi show a cost of 16.7 per cent. The variations are described as due, to some extent, to differences in the laws.

Jury Studies Facts In Suit Of Joiners

DALLAS, Oct. 4. (AP)—A jury today studied evidence in the case of Mrs. Lydia A. Joiner, who seeks half of the reputed $3,000,000 estate of C. M. (Dad) Joiner, her divorced husband.

Twelve questions, dealing largely with the contentions in Mrs. Joiner's pleadings that she was deceived as to subject matter of a contract she and Joiner signed Aug. 31, 1933, dividing the property, were given the jury.

Mrs. Joiner declared she was of the belief she had signed a joint will; Joiner claimed she knew it was a contract calling for division of property.

FARMERS VOTE FAVORS AAA

EARLY RETURNS BRING LEAD TO PROGRAM IN TWO STATES

(By The Associated Press)

DES MOINES, Oct. 4—An "election" in agricultural circles was rolling up a heavy majority in the midwest today for the leading candidate—the AAA—early returns from two states, indicated.

The "election" is an informal referendum sponsored by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and the AAA to give a million corn belt farmers a chance to air their views on continuance of an Agricultural adjustment program.

Election Just Beginning

"Election day" is from now to October 13 when the results will be compiled and sent to the AAA. The voters exercise not the franchise of citizenship, but merely the franchise of "being a farmer."

1. Do you favor an adjustment program dealing with corn and hogs in 1935?

2. Do you favor a one contract per farm program dealing with grains and livestock in 1936?

TAPIA CLUES ARE FOUND ERRONEOUS

Verification of an alibi was completed in questioning of two men here and evidence in an investigation of the violent death of Mrs. Josefita Tapia at Santa Fe, N. M., collapsed, C. R. McIntosh, assistant district attorney, of Santa Fe said here late yesterday as he prepared to return to Santa Fe.

A Greek cafe employe on whose automobile were found blood stains, definitely had established an alibi. The man was arrested at Midland, questioned, and released. Two nephews and his wife in this section corroborated his statements of his whereabouts as did "substantial" Santa Fe residents.

Mr. McIntosh telephoned authorities at Santa Fe to check up on the alibi. He received word late yesterday that the statements dovetailed.

Statements Dovetail

Despite apparent failure of clues here to lead anywhere, the stains found on the automobile will be analyzed to determine definitely whether they were made by human blood.

Mrs. Tapia, 50, was found dead

Mrs. Tapia, 50, was found slain on a highway near Santa Fe early on the morning of Sept. 5. She apparently had been killed late Sept. 4.

After passage of the relief and development bills, "we can approach a consideration of the centennial with a courage and a determination worthy of that great purpose and make for it appropriations which will insure its success," McGregor observed.

"Without either of the first three bills enacted into law we will demonstrate a lack of faith in and fairness to ourselves which will perhaps not only hamper but hinder a successful centennial."

FINDS OIL

BAKERSFIELD, Cal. (AP)—Ten years ago R. E. Brantley, a former railroad man, visualized profits through conversion of a swampy farm into a duck raising enterprise. He headed a company of 18 acquaintances to finance the venture, but the state passed a "mosquito abatement" act outlawing duck ponds. Recently a 3,000-barrel a day oil well was brought in on the abandoned duck farm.

Mosaic disease at one time almost wiped out the American sugar cane industry until resistant types of cane were developed.

TRAGEDY CASE NEARS CLOSE

STATE TO REST TODAY AFTER LETTERS ARE OFFERED TO JURY

(By The Associated Press)

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 4—The fight to save Robert Allen Edwards from the electric chair for the "American Tragedy" slaying of Freda McKechnie begins today in Luzerne county court.

After the commonwealth presents for evidence more than 170 letters, written by the young hard coal surveyor to Margaret Crain, the "other girl" in the coal town triangle, the state will rest its case.

Edwards will take the stand to tell of his romance with the East Aurora, N. Y., music teacher he wooed while at college, but to deny at the same time that he blackjacked his neighborhood sweetheart, Miss McKechnie, as they swam in Harvey's lake the stormy night of July 30.

Teacher "Quits Him"

Just before he was removed to the county jail last night, after a night session of the trial, Edwards was informed that Miss Crain had said at her home:

"No matter what happens, I am through with Bob Edwards."

Edwards said, "it's all over now, it doesn't matter what happens."

The youth was downcast upon learning that the state has possession of the letters he wrote to Miss Crain. They were offered in evidence last night, and the district attorney said Judge W. A. Valente will rule today whether they should be admitted.

SLAYINGS PUZZLE TEXAS OFFICIALS

ALICE, Oct. 4. (AP)—Puzzled officers today groped for clues in the robbery and slayings of Virgil Dobbs, 16, and Homer Dobbs, 32, his brother, whose bodies were found near their vegetable truck near here.

State Highway patrolmen and county officers joined in a search for the slayers, but admittedly were without clues. Joe Foster, a fence rider, found the bodies on the George Reynolds ranch about 75 feet from their truck, parked on a highway.

Bullet wounds in the bodies indicated they had been shot in the back. About $200 they were carrying —and more non-skid mileage too!

WHAT'S back of all this recent hubbub in the tire business about "floor level prices," special discounts and such?

Simply this: We have the biggest tire success in years—the "G-3" All-Weather. We have 43% longer non-skid mileage built right in our tire.

And that doesn't leave the rest of the folk much to talk about except price.

So don't be talked out of the "G-3." This great tire gives you more miles of safety at no extra price! Come in and see for yourself.

Triple Wedding In Chicago Very Much Of Family Affair!

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Six sisters and their father will co-star in a triple wedding here Saturday.

Viola, Irene and Vera Doermann are to be married—in that order—to John Asp[illegible]nd of Chicago; Carl Sagebiel of Seguin, Tex., and Manville Schuldt of Blue Island, Ill.

Doris, Anita and Erna Doermann will be bridesmaids to the other trio of sisters.

The father, Rev. M. P. F. Doermann, will tie the triple knots. He is president of the Illinois district of the American Lutheran church, and will be assisted in the ceremony by the Rev. E. A. Sagebiel, president of the Texas district, and father of one of the bridegrooms.

Prince May Testify In Vanderbilt Suit

LANGENBURG, Germany, Oct. 4. (AP)—Prince Gottfried Zu Hohenlohe said today if necessary he and his wife, Princess Margarete, would go to New York to refuse testimony in Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt's suit to recover custody of her daughter.

The names of Prince Zu Hohenlohe and Mrs. Vanderbilt were linked in testimony by her former servants.

"We will decide this afternoon whether to go," said Prince Gottfried, speaking by telephone from his castle. He said he was engaged to Mrs. Vanderbilt in 1927 and 1928 and "my wife and I are still in close contact with her.

"We are utterly disgusted over the horrible slanders hurled at her in the trial. I often warned Mrs. Vanderbilt of her mother and the nurse. The maid hardly knows me, for I only saw her once or twice."

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, dumbness, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . a doctor's prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes, for they may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS . . . the old reliable relief that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

Thousands of Women Benefited By Cardui

The benefits many women obtain from Cardui give them great confidence in it. . . . "I have four children," writes Mrs. J. L. Norred, of Lagrange, Ga. "Before the birth of my children, I was weak, nervous and tired. I had a lot of trouble with my back. I took Cardui each time and found it so helpful. Cardui did more to allay the nausea at these times than anything I have ever used. I am in very good health and believe Cardui did a lot of it." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.
