Program Entertaining Visitors To Be Held Tonight At Tech Gym; Problems Of Group To Be Discussed

HOST for a second time within 10 years, Lubbock today will be the gathering point for Texas Chamber of Commerce managers during the thirtieth annual convention which opens at 9 o'clock this morning at Hilton hotel ballroom.

The initial registration period was to have been held yesterday afternoon and night for early arrivers, but chamber of commerce officials here announced the program had been changed and registrations would not begin until 8 o'clock this morning.

Expecting Hundred To Attend

An informal gathering, pre-convention entertainment arranged by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, was attended by a handful of chamber managers and their wives. The registrations today are expected to swell the attendance to more than 100.

George S. Buchanan of Marlin, president, and William J. Lawson of Huntsville, secretary-treasurer, arrived early last night. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Miller of Dallas, J. C. Watson of Graham and Ben Smith of Pecos were other arrivals.

Buchanan will open the morning business session when Rev. W. R. Vivrett, pastor of the First Christian church, will deliver the invocation, and a welcome address will be tendered by J. D. Hassell, jr., president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Following a luncheon at the Lubbock hotel, where Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Tech-

Two Expert Psychiatrists Testify Wednesday That They Believe Orange Minister Sane At Time Of Killing

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, June 10.—The state, using the expert witnesses soon after the last of four defense psychiatrists testified, opened its rebuttal attack today on the Rev. Edgar Eskridge's plea—he was temporarily insane when he killed Ed O'Reilly, Orange police chief.

Two psychiatrists who said they examined the Baptist preacher shortly after O'Reilly was shot to death May 29, 1935, testified for the state they believed the two-gun preacher was sane.

Defense Rests Case

The defense rested shortly before noon after Dr. A. Hauser had testified he agreed with three other expert witnesses of the defense that Eskridge suffered from manic depressive insanity and was not responsible for his acts.

District Attorney Hollis Kinard of Orange announced the state would call four other medical experts and approximately 50 other witnesses before closing its case. The announcement strengthened the belief the trial would last at least all week.

Both Believe Him Sane

The two expert witnesses for the state—Dr. Frank Harrison of Dallas and Dr. William Thomas, superintendent of the state hospital at Rusk, said they believed the minister was sane at the time of the killing. They said they based their opinions on examinations of Eskridge.

Eskridge displayed intense interest while Dr. Harrison was on the stand. He mumbled, and at times gestured with his hands.

Hurried Sixty-Hour Swing Of State To Be Made By President; To Visit Shrines

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, June 10. — President Roosevelt comes to flag-draped Texas tomorrow for a hurried sixty-hour swing over half the vast state that is traditionally one of the nation's strongest Democratic lairs.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt will hurry by train through the world's most prolific oil fields, to Houston's waterfront and San Jacinto battlegrounds, Texas' shrine of liberty at San Antonio Dallas' $25,000,000 Texas Centennial exposition and, finally, to the fringe of the cattle domain at Fort Worth.

Business houses will remain closed for four hours tomorrow morning when the presidential party arrives

New Deal Is Pledged For Needs Of U.S.

President Roosevelt Says His Administration To "March Forward" Under "Broad Purposes" Of Constitution

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 10.—President Roosevelt pledged his administration tonight to a "march forward" under the "broad purposes" of the constitution in meeting the economic and social needs of the day.

After his address before a crowd estimated at upward of 30,000 at the stadium bowl here celebrating the Arkansas statehood Centennial, Mr. Roosevelt headed for Texas for the next of his three speeches on his present western tour.

Intended To Meet Needs

The chief executive told the throng that an overwhelming majority of the American people believed the constitution was intended to "meet and fit the amazing physical, economic and social requirements that confront us in this generation."

He said that Jefferson "had the courage" to drive a bargain for the Louisiana purchase, despite legal doubts, and that the case was never carried to the Supreme court.

No Group Has Right

Speaking an hour before the scheduled address of former President Hoover to the Republican national convention, over a nation-wide radio hookup, he also declared the country needed "ardent protectors of the rights of the common man" and added no group, by reason of wealth, learning, inheritance or economic power, could "arrogate to itself" political control of American public life for long.

Gov. J. M. Putrell introduced the

South China Leaders Continue Preparations To Oppose Invasion Of Japs In Area To North; Progress Made

(By The Associated Press)

HONGKONG, June 10. — South China teemed with military movements behind a thick screen of censorship tonight.

Rigid news restrictions were clamped on both provinces of the Canton government — Kwangtung and Kwangsi.

But word reached here from Canton through surreptitious channels concerning military conscription of coolies, including women, of the Kwangsi army's arrival at Hengchow, important road junction in Hunan province to the north; of government threats to execute speculators in falling Kwangsi banknotes.

Warning Is Issued

The soldiers were sent north with South China's warning it would not stand for increasing Japanese military control.

(Reports reaching Shanghai stated two factions of the Kwangtung army had started fighting each other on the borders of southern Fukien province, one group opposing any move against the national Nanking government. Canton authorities, the reports stated, rushed reinforcements to the Fukien border to put down rebellious elements.)

Cantonese militarists confirmed reports the Kwangsi army had reached Hengchow, and said the Kwangtung forces were expected to join it there by mid-month.

(The Shanghai advices said Kwangsi commanders had seized all available transport in preparation for sending more troops into Hunan province).

The continued troop movements

Negro Must Die In Chair For Slaying Of Lynn County's Sheriff In Jail Break; Calkins Gets New Trial

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN, June 10—Death sentence of Elmo Banks, negro who was convicted within a week of the time he had slain Deputy Sheriff F. E. Redwine in a break from the county jail at Tahoka and after an exciting manhunt joined in by several hundred heavily-armed officers and non-commissioned civilians of the South Plains, today was upheld by the court of criminal appeals.

Richard A. Palmer won a new trial for the "hitch-hike" slaying of Percy A. Calkins, Houston traveling salesman, in Hidalgo county.

Denied Special Venire

The court, holding that Palmer had been denied his right to a special venire, reversed the conviction. The Hidalgo county jury had imposed a 99-year sentence. Lloyd Davidson, state's attorney, agreed with Palmer's counsel that the case should be reversed.

James D. McAllister, a co-defendant in the slaying was executed last week.

Hoover Calls For "Holy Crusade For Liberty;" New Deal Is Compared To March Of Dictatorships In Europe

Former President Delivers Sharp Attack Before Republican Convention Audience

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, June 10.—In a sharp excoriation of the New Deal before the Republican national convention, Herbert Hoover tonight compared it with the "march of socialist and fascist dictatorships" in Europe and called for the American people to enter upon a "holy crusade for liberty."

Addressing "Republicans and fellow Americans," former president and titular leader of his party concluded his address:

"Stop the retreat ... lead the attack to retake, recapture and reman the citadels of liberty.

"Thus America Can Be Preserved

"Thus can America be preserved. Thus can the peace, plenty and security be reestablished and expanded. Thus can the opportunity, the inheritance, and the spiritual future of your children be guaranteed. And thus you will win the gratitude of posterity and the blessing of Almighty God."

Recalling that the European dictatorships and "their destruction of liberty did not set out with guns and armies," Hoover described what he termed their activities and added:

An Oversight?

"If there are any items in this stage in the march of European collectivism that the New Deal has not imitated it must have been an oversight."

"But at this point," he continued, "this parallel with Europe halts—at least for the present. The American people should thank Almighty God for the constitution and the Supreme court. They should be grateful to a courageous press."

Has "Delayed Recovery"

Asserting that the New Deal has "delayed recovery," he contended that if continued its policies will result in "the tears of anguish of universal bankruptcy and distress."

He paid his respects to what he called "Mother Hubbard economics," "the economic muddle" and declared that the "gospel of class hatred has been preached from the white house."

"The little prophets of the New Deal," he said, "have produced proposals which have "enabled the New Deal to take a few hundred thousand earnest party workers to the promised land."

Rest In Wilderness

"It takes the rest of us for a ride into the wilderness of unemployment," he added.

"The day the Republican party can assure right principles we can turn this nation from the demoralization of relief to the contentment of constructive jobs," he said.

"Herein—and herein alone—is a guarantee of jobs for the 11,000,000 idle, based upon realities and not on political clap-trap.

"In the meantime the party

Sour Notes!

'Three Long Years' Is Campaign Song Of Republicans

By The Associated Press

CONVENTION HALL, CLEVELAND, June 10.—The Republican delegates found in their convention seats tonight a new campaign song, "Three Long Years"—to the tune of "Three Blind Mice."

Senator Steiwer of Oregon used the words "three long years" time and again in his assault on the administration record last night.

Delegates picked it up, and these anonymous stanzas were distributed by the Republican national committee:

Three long years,
Three long years,
Full of grief and tears,
Full of grief and tears.
Roosevelt gave us to understand
If we would lend a helping hand
He'd lead us all to the promised land
For three long years.

Three long years,
Three long years,
Full of grief and tears,
Full of grief and tears,
For when we got to the promised land
We found it nothing but shifting sand
And he left us stripped like Sally Rand
For three long years.

(Repeat "three long years," etc. then—)
He took our shoes and he took our coat,
He got our shirt and he got our goat,
He took us to sea and sank the boat
For three long years.

(Repeat "three long years," etc. then—)
He fooled the farmer to get his vote
He wrote and spoke and spoke and wrote,
But all we got was a phony note
For three long years.

(Repeat "three long years," etc. then—)
With arrogant rule he has held full sway,
And has stolen all of our freedom away,
Taking everything we could pay
For three long years.

(Repeat "three long years," etc. then—)
But the end has come to the evil day
For the Grand Old Party points the way
To a really prosperous U. S. A.
Through all the years.

Rig Builders Go On Strike

One Hundred Members Of Lea County Oil Field Union To "Take Vacation" Until Pay Is Raised $2 Per Man

By The Associated Press

HOBBS, N. M., June 10. — One hundred members of the United Rig Builders union in the Lea county oil fields announced Wednesday they were taking a vacation until we receive a two-dollar a day raise per man."

M. B. King, executive secretary of the union, said that "no trouble was anticipated."

Announced After Barbecue

The workers announcement followed festivities at a barbecue they held today.

Rig builders now are receiving $12 per day, and the crew foreman $14. They are asking $14 and $16.

Meanwhile, building contractors announced they were preparing to proceed with operations. Three additional members of the state police force arrived here Wednesday.

President Asks 'All Banks' To Cash Soldiers Bonus Checks

WASHINGTON, June 10. (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight addressed to "all banks" a request for cooperation by cashing "promptly and in full" all government checks issued in connection with the soldiers bonus.

The letter was distributed through the Federal Reserve system to the twelve reserve banks, which in turn transmitted the chief executive's message to all banks in the various reserve districts.

Confederate Veterans Send Their Thanks To President

SHREVEPORT, La., June 10. (AP)—Confederate veterans in their 46th annual reunion today sent a message of thanks to President Roosevelt for his co-operation in making their reunion a success.

The first official act of the veterans in their initial business session was to transmit their thanks to the chief executive for approving acts of congress authorizing the sending of the Marine corps band here and authorizing the use of army supply tents and equipment for the reunion.

Small Remote Lake On Isolated Section Of Ranch Is Scene Of Search For Bodies Of 4 Missing Tourists

(By The Associated Press)

ROSWELL, N. M., June 10.—In a small, remote lake on an isolated section of a ranch near here, state police renewed today a year-long search for the bodies of four Illinois tourists who mysteriously dropped out of sight near Vaughn, N. M., in May, 1935.

The search, authorities revealed, was percipitated by a tip from a man held in the state penitentiary, Santa Fe, resulting in the arrest of two persons whose identity police preferred to keep a secret.

Given Official Recognition

One of a continuous stream of tips and arrests in connection with the case since Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer of Duquoin, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. George Lorius, of East St. Louis, Ill., disappeared, the story was given official recognition by Gov. Clyde Tingley at Santa Fe, who said:

"The solution appears to be near. we got a tip early this year, of what to look for. We were told what happened to the jewelry, valuable diamond rings, of the missing tourists.

Checked Story Carefully

"Then we were told what happened to the four. We've checked out everything told us, and now we

Consideration Of Republican Platform Is Suspended Last Night Until Kansan May Go Over Several Points

BY RICHARD L. TURNER
Associated Press Staff Writer

CLEVELAND, June 10. — Further consideration of the 1936 Republican platform was suspended tonight to permit Governor Landon of Kansas to examine some of the planks drafted by the resolutions subcommittee.

In authoritative circles it was said that the platform was being read to the Kansas governor, leading candidate for the presidential nomination, plank by plank, over the telephone.

To Receive Criticism

After receipt of criticism and comment from him the plan was to reassemble the subcommittee for the consideration of the governor's suggestions.

On good authority it was said that objection was made in the sub-committee by William Allen White of Kansas that some planks might meet the opposition of the Kansas governor. White undertook the task of reading the platform to him.

Plan Farm Aid

Proposed revision of rural credits took precedence over production control and export outlet as the sub-committee tackled the complex problem of writing a farm plank to corral country votes in November.

Herman G. Langworthy, committee chairman, said the drafting of an agricultural program was considered of such prime importance to Republican victory that the entire membership of the sub-com-

Hoover May Pay Visit To Texas

CLEVELAND, June 10 (AP)—Herbert Hoover was reported today to be "seriously considering" visiting Texas either August 10 or August 11.

Four members of the Texas delegation to the Republican convention said after a conference with the former president he assured them he would make every effort to go either to Dallas for a "birthday party" at the Texas Centennial August 10, his birthday, or make the principal address at the Republican convention in San Antonio the next day.

R. B. Creager, Texas national committeeman, said Hoover indicated he would decide definitely some time after the convention closed.

Creager and John Philp, secretary of the Texas delegation here, said they told the former president he would have an audience of about 200,000 in Dallas if he chose to accept.

Convention May Be In Session Until Saturday; Voting On Nomination Is Expected To Be Delayed Until Friday

BY JOHN F. CHESTER
Associated Press Staff Writer

CLEVELAND, June 10—A call by Herbert Hoover for a "holy crusade for liberty" tonight brought to its feet a Republican national convention that already had advanced as far as a final subcommittee agreement on a platform and had witnessed a rush of two pivotal eastern states toward the Landon standard.

The former president precipitated a quarter-hour demonstration by his appearance on the platform. He stayed for only the start of a more than half hour period of shouting—noisy and good natured—that followed his speech. Returning directly to his hotel, he left shortly thereafter for New York.

Claim Early Nomination

Even as he lambasted the presidential administration that succeeded his own, the convention heard that the major portions of both New York's and Pennsylvania's big delegations had decided to vote for Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas. His managers promptly claimed a first ballot nomination.

In a hotel room, less than a mile away from the Hoover-cheering auditorium, jammed with more than 15,000 persons, a platform subcommittee finally finished a welding of planks and provided the full committee with the task of approving or modifying them.

"Can't Stop Us Now"

"I can't conceive of anything that would stop us on the first ballot now," said John M. Hamilton, the Landon manager, indicating that he

Vandenberg Is Being Talked

"Draft Vandenberg" Talk Is Heard Along With Mention Of Steiwer; Others Given Consideration

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 10. — Amid recurring "draft Vandenberg" talk and frequent mention of Steiwer of Oregon, the bulk of Republican convention delegates looked toward the Landon camp tonight for a hint of the likely vice-presidential choice.

But there was a host of names, each with their own particular backers. In the group were former Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, Governor H. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, Theodore Roosevelt, jr., Representative James Wadsworth of New York, Governor Harry Nice of Maryland and others.

The two apparently out in front for the Republican ticket's second place appeared the least active. Senator Vandenberg of Michigan reiterated today he would not accept the nomination.

This was at a time that reports were current among the delegates that Landonites might still attempt a draft movement.

Senator Steiwer, the keynoter, adhered to his original pronouncement that he was not seeking the vice-presidency.

FOUR thousand penguin eggs are being served in London's West End restaurants—supposed to be quite a delicacy, they came from South Africa—where they boil them 20 minutes, then mash them in butter, with salt, pepper and wine vinegar. Humph, you can (and do) that to a mere United States hen's egg (what ho, the good old picnic egg!)

COOL AND CRISP

WHY is a cucumber cool? Perhaps because it is green, and green gives an impression of coolness. But more than that. Remember how you arrived at that midsummer tea last year, fairly sweltering in your organdy dress? And how all the girls groaned enviously: "O, you look so cool!"

Crispness, that's what does it! And if it weren't for its quality of crispness, the cucumber wouldn't be good to use as a comparison.

ON VACATIONS

VACATION planning this year, if your plans aren't already made, might, for a change, include a couple of weeks at one of the famous American spas or health farms. We're not trying to sell any particular health spot, but we have seen people who spent ten days or two weeks at such a place who returned with restored vitality feeling that their money and time had been gorgeously spent.

We're a great believer in vacations. Some of them hardly live up to the name, however. Freed from his or her desk, the individual often eats heavily, stays up late at night with no time devoted to exercise, relaxation, sun or rest. It appears to us that when you can indulge daily in mineral baths and massages, steam showers, electric light cabinets; when you can take long walks and drink of health giving waters, you are getting just about everything the world has to offer.

WE RECEIVE VISITORS

MRS. W. P. AVRIETT of Lamesa, president of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Womens' clubs, paid us a visit Wednesday afternoon and, despite the terrific heat, presented a cool picture in lavender knit dress and scarf and linen hat. She has the most energy of any woman of our acquaintance.

Right now Mrs. Avriett is centering her interest on the part of the district club women in entertaining at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas. Our district will serve as host to visiting club women from July 6 to July 20. Mrs. Avriett is anxious that several Lubbock women go down to Dallas during those two weeks. There'll be more about it in Sunday's paper.

ANOTHER visitor was Everetta Love, attractive in navy polka dot dress with white coat, and white hat piped in navy. She remained long enough to recount some of her experiences, making our daily work seem exceedingly commonplace.

Spacious Lawns Of Mullican Home Scene For Annual Party

Lubbock Garden Club Is Host With Traditional Affair Which Is Well Attended In Spite Of Rain Flurry

One hundred persons called from 8 until 10 o'clock Tuesday night at the home of Judge and Mrs. Clark M. Mullican, 1510 Avenue X, where Lubbock Garden club members entertained with its annual lawn party. Because of threatening weather many town guests and all out-of-town guests, which had been invited, did not attend.

Mrs. Mullican, president of the society, and Judge Mullican stood at the head of a receiving line. Upon arriving guests were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Overton, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Campbell and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Jackson. They registered in books presided over by Mr. and Mrs. George Smallwood and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dupree.

In Receiving Line

Others in the line were Messrs. and Mesdames W. P. Clement, W. L. Bradshaw, A. H. Leidigh, George N. Atkinson, W. A. Myrick, C. D. McGehee, Misses Evelyn Babb and Margaret Turner and K. N. Clapp. The matrons were past presidents of the host club, Mr. McGehee is superintendent of city parks and Mr. Clapp is president of the city park board.

Mrs. Frank Winn, vice-president, Mr. Winn and Miss Della Wilkinson directed guests to a lighted terrace where punch and cookies were served by Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, assisted by Mesdames R. E. Garlin, Roy Riddel, D. A. Forbess, Chester A. Hubbard, L. S. Mast, Charles Whitacre, Marvin McLarty, W. S. Posey and S. S. McKay.

Guests were shown through the gardens by Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Gordon, Mrs. J. B. Edwards, Mrs. J. S. Johnson and Messrs. and Mesdames S. C. Wilson, G. P. Kuykendall and Rufus Rush.

Other members of the club comprised the remainder of the house party, one half serving the first hour and the other half the last hour.

Five Women Sing

Musical entertainment throughout the evening consisted of numbers by a chorus from the Lubbock Woman's Forum and music by a Mexican string orchestra. Members of the chorus were Mesdames Robert Hester, Joe McIlhaney, Paul Barrier, C. J. Bell and Raymond Marshall. They sang "Goin' Home" (Anton Dvorak) and "Mighty Lak A Rose" (Nevin); "'Tis Spring" (Wilson) and "Lullaby" (Brahms), and "The Song and the Breeze" (Humoresque) by Dvorak. Violin accompaniment was played by Miss Charlotte Ratliff.

Benches were arranged over the spacious lawns, which were carpet-like in their appearance. A slight shower had freshened the flower gardens. Japanese lanterns were strung overhead, the Texas Utilities having furnished wiring and lights, a customary courtesy.

Local Artists Are Asked To Answer Questionnaires

Mrs. Chester A. Hubbard, on the board of the Texas Fine Arts association, has received a number of blanks from Stella Shurtleff, of the University of Texas, who is writing a book on the art history of Texas. The questionnaires are to be filled out by artists of the state. Local artists who have not filled out forms may secure them from Mrs. Hubbard.

Young People's Work Is To Be Discussed Today At Church Of Nazarene Session; College Head Is To Speak

Young people's work will be discussed at today's sessions of the Christian Workers convention being conducted at the Church of the Nazarene, 1319 Avenue Q. Rev. Buford Battin of Lubbock, district president of young people's work, will preside. The session will begin at 9:30 o'clock.

Approximately 100 persons attended Wednesday's sessions of the convention. The five-day convention began Monday.

Dr. A. K. Braker, president of Bethany-Peniel college, will speak this morning. A sermon by Dr. A. S. London of Kansas City is scheduled for 11 a. m. The afternoon program also will be devoted to young people's work.

The convention is attracting workers from churches throughout West Texas.

Mrs. John Roberts of Pilot Point, district president of the Women's Missionary society, presided at Wednesday afternoon's session. Miss Lulu A. Williams presented a paper on junior work; Miss Edith Thomas gave a reading; Mrs. R. A. Naler spoke on "The Value of the Young Woman's Society"; a Bethany-Peniel college quartet sang; Mrs. Roberts spoke on "Why We Should Have the W. M. S."; and Miss Hilda Jean Carson sang.

Pension Group Is To Join Share-Our-Wealth, Lemke's Farm Group In Fall Election

BALTIMORE, June 10. (AP) — Dr. Francis E. Townsend said today his old age pension organization would cooperate with the Share-Our-Wealth organization and the Lemke Farm Union party in the November congressional races.

"Wherever possible, we will endorse and vote for the same men to the end that congress may be taken out of the control of the Farley-Roosevelt dictatorship," Dr. Townsend said in a statement.

The statement said the coalition was agreed upon after a conference with Rep. William Lemke of North Dakota. Dr. Townsend conferred today with the Rev. Gerald K. Smith, leader of the wealth-sharing organization built up by the late Senator Huey P. Long.

Miss English Will Wed Soon

Engagement Of Former Tech Student To R. M. Morehead Of Fort Worth Announced At Plainview Party

The engagement of Miss Judith English, graduate of Texas Technological college, and Richard M. Morehead was announced at a breakfast given at the Hilton hotel in Plainview Wednesday morning by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. R. R. English of that city.

The marriage will take place June 19 in Dallas at Highland Park Presbyterian church, the announcements read. The message was printed in miniature newspapers, mast of which read "United Press News Flash".

Mr. Morehead, whose parents live in Plainview, is employed in Fort Worth with the United Press. He was graduated last year from the University of Texas, Austin.

Miss English, a Tech beauty two years ago, was a member of Las Chaparritas club. She taught at Wayland college, Plainview, last summer and at Lockney High school last year.

The announcement party was attended by 35 guests, including Miss Charlotte Ratliff of Lubbock.

Farley Makes Talk Comment

National Democratic Chairman Declares Steiwer Did Not Mention Own Record And Hoover Administration

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Chairman Farley of the Democratic national committee said today that the Republican keynote speech by Senator Steiwer of Oregon failed to square with his own record and that of the Hoover administration.

"There was one great vacuum in the keynote address," Farley said in a formal statement. "Not once in more than an hour did the speaker refer in any way to what happened during the last four years of Republican rule in the United States."

Voted For Nine Measures

He asserted that Steiwer had voted for nine of the first 13 major pieces of New Deal legislation, including NRA and AAA.

"If he believes what he told the Republican convention, why did he not work and vote in the same way?" he demanded.

"The keynote orator made one pledge which he will no doubt regret. He said: 'What we have done, we will do.'

"The American people are not so foolish as to permit this. They managed to live through the Hoover-Republican regime which went out of office in 1933, and under the policies of the Roosevelt administration they have achieved economic restoration. They will not sacrifice this in order to permit the Republicans to visit upon them again the terrible scourge inflicted by Herbert Hoover and the party of which he was the leader."

C. Of C. Session

nological cvollege will speak, the convention will again be in business session at the Hilton ballroom at 2:30 o'clock with Grady Shipp of Sweetwater vice-president, presiding.

Today's sessions are the first two of five which will be conducted before the convention completes its program Saturday noon.

Beginning at 7:30 o'clock tonight on the east side of the Tech gymnasium, a chicken barbecue will be staged by the local chamber for the visitors and their wives. Following the barbecue, a "fun night" program will be held in the gymnasium, and Lubbock retail merchants and their wives have been invited to attend.

The gymnasium program includes the following entertainment: Cowboy Kyle, KFYO staff artist, at the piano; Billy Lewis, Tech student of Sweetwater, rope act; five-minute wrestling match between L. D. Venable and Paul Chance; a Tech girls' athletic stunt arranged by Miss Zella E. Riegel, of the physical education faculty; a ten-minute boxing match between Marlin Owens and Dixie "Bear" White; another girls' stunt directed by Miss Riegel; five-minute wrestling match between Lonnie McCurry and Clendon "Estacado Kid" Kerr; novelty tunes and dance by "Tablespoon Tommy" Newkir, negro entertainer; and a ten-minute boxing match between Snow Flake and Babe Richie.

Each person to register at the convention will receive courtesy tickets to Lubbock theaters, the two golf courses, City swimming pool and convention luncheons and a banquet Friday night, it was announced.

The complete program includes:

Banks' Appeal

ing of his appeal, in the slaying of Mrs. Ruth Smith. Counsel for Carrasco, who is under death penalty, was given another week to file a supplemental brief. The court four weeks ago affirmel Carrasco's conviction.

Banks' Trial One Of Fastest In History

Capture of Banks March 8 signalized beginning of one of the fastest trials ever conducted in this section of West Texas.

The negro, who had worked for Redwine and to whom had been taken groceries when the officer believed the negro hungry, was spirited under heavy guard to Nolan county jail, from which he was escorted to Lubbock county jail two days later.

On March 13, a jury at Tahoka convicted him after brief deliberation.

The negro will be returned to the Lynn county seat for hearing the date of his execution, after the court of criminal appeals returns a mandate to 10th district court.

How To Practice Safety On Highways And Streets Is Outlined By Officer

How to practice safety on highways and city streets, was outlined briefly and clearly before the Lubbock Rotary club yesterday noon by Captain W. W. Legg, in charge of the state highway patrol in this district. George M. Garrett, program chairman for the month, presided.

Dean James M. Gordon announced the summer session artist course program for Texas Tech and urged Rotarians to buy season tickets at the student rate. First number will be Monday afternoon.

To Go To Littlefield

President R. F. Bayless announced next Thursday, June 18, the club would be in charge of the program at the Littlefield club. R. C. (Dick) Smith and James Williams are in charge.

Captain Legg pointed out the highway death toll last year was 36,500 lives and urged Rotarians to join the gigantic safety drive now being staged to reduce fatalities. "In some cities they are now making possible backyard playgrounds, in unused backyards and they are finding that it is a big help," he said. "In Flint, Mich., they began with an initial cost of over $400; now they have 1,600 such playgrounds. The death rate for children, through these playgrounds, was reduced 50 per cent in a year."

First Rule Given

"The first rule in safety," the speaker went on," is to rid the driver of the idea that everybody must learn what he already knows about driving. At 70 miles an hour, it takes a car 305 feet to stop; the driver travels 166 feet before his thought to stop gets action on the brakes. Nobody has ever seen a fatal accident 600 feet ahead."

The speaker urged drivers not to drive on the left side of the road; to avoid passing cars at street intersections and to avoid passing signals. He also condemned reckless driving of all kinds.

Moderate drinking for drivers was condemned, Captain Legg pointing out that tests showed it took drivers who had had only one drink, twice as long to think as without, in attempting to stop.

Drivers were warned to be careful in backing out of a parking place or a yard; to inspect carefully all worn parts, to keep close watch on tires, brakes and steering gear and to be sure and observe stop signs.

Ross Watson and Truman Green, who received degrees from Texas Technological college Monday, have gone to Los Angeles, Calif. Green was president of the graduating class.

A 72nd district court jury, to whom the cause of C. D. Shamburger Lumber Co., Inc., against J. E. Delevan and others, had defined what portion of the Delevan property was homestead and allowed claim of Panhandle Construction company, one of defendants, that a paving lien it held on non-homestead property had priority over a mechanics lien held by plaintiff and a deed of trust by Temple Trust company. Judge Homer L. Pharr instructed foreclosure on part of the property not found to be homestead at the time of the assessment.

Judgment in the action of C. A. Pierce against A. E. Myles and others including the Texas company, dismissing the suit as to the oil company and allowing that defendant to recover court costs of plaintiff, Wednesday was filed by Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court. Plaintiff had asked title and possession of a tract of land in Cochran county, foreclosure of a lien, order of sale, and that plaintiff's title be decreed superior to that of the oil company. The cause as to other parties to the suit was ordered continued for the term.

Inadvertent mention before the jury that defendant carried insurance Wednesday caused District Judge Homer L. Pharr of 72nd district court to declare action of A. D. Bowdoin against W. O. Bowdoin a mistrial and to continue the cause for the term. Plaintiff asks damages of $7,625 for alleged injuries received by his wife, Mrs. Edna Bowdoin, Nov. 14, asserting she fell out of a machine driven by defendant when it struck a bundle of feed that had fallen off a truck immediately ahead. The woman was set out as being 54 years old and as having been rendered helpless by the asserted injuries.

Judgment in the case of D. F. Bourn against Lubbock Oil Refining company was filed Wednesday by Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court. Plea in abatement and general demurrer of the late E. A. Patterson, receiver for defendant, was overruled. The State of Texas, intervenor, was decreed entitled to recover $4,581 sued for and to foreclose a lien to secure the state in payment of delinquent motor fuel taxes and interest. It was decreed expressly, however, no order was made upon the classification of that lien with reference to priority over other liens asserted by various claimants. All costs incident to the case were ordered to be taxed against the receiver, it was set out. Judgment has been effective since May 21.

Highlights Of FDR's Speech

(By The Associated Press)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 10.—Highlights of President Roosevelt's Arkansas Centennial celebration speech:

"Self-government we must and shall maintain."

* * *

"Organization to meet human suffering can never be predicted on the relaxation of human effort."

"I am also interested (in the Louisiana purchase) because President Jefferson . . . had the courage to act for the benefit of the United States without the full and unanimous approval of every member of the Legal profession."

"Nobody carried the case to the supreme court and, as a result, . . . (thirteen states) fly the stars and stripes today."

"Under its (the constitution's) broad purposes we can and intend to march forward, believing . . . that it is intended to meet and fit the amazing physical, economic and social requirements that confront us in this generation."

"The frontier spirit caused a rebirth of the earlier ideal of free government."

"Our American political life has flowed with the vigor of a living stream because the sturdy hand of Andrew Jackson deflected its course from the stagnant marshes of a seaboard oligarchy into the channels of pure American Democracy."

* * *

"It will never be possible for any length of time for any group of the American people . . . to retain any mandate, any permanent authority to arrogate to itself the political control of American public life."

"Today . . . we are each and all of us parts of a social civilization which ever tends to greater complexity."

* * *

"Prices, wages, hours of labor, conditions of employment . . . these questions . . . we are commencing to solve."

"We insist that equality of opportunity still must be sought."

Injunction Given El Paso Electric

EL PASO, June 10. (AP) — The national labor relations act was ruled wholly unconstitutional and the El Paso Electric company was granted a permanent injunction against the National Labor Relations board here today by Federal Judge Charles A. Boynton.

The electric company sought to restrain the NLRB from holding a hearing on charges of unfair labor practices brought by local 585, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, whose members went on strike against the company for the second time last February.

Judge Boynton dismissed the electric company's $10,000 damage suit against W. L. Ingram, vice-president of the IBEW and asserted organizer of El Paso strikers, and held also that no injunction should be issued against Ingram. A similar damage suit against Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, regional director of NLRB, was dismissed some time ago.

Tech May Revolutionize Preductions Of Weather; New Method Accredited

Where others apparently failed, Dr. E. F. George, head of the physics department at Texas Technological college, and an assistant seemingly are about to establish a correlation in magnetic field and weather disturbances that may be of revolutionary value in prediction of weather.

Readings have been taken three times or more daily since Oct. 1 of last year on a magnetometer and a barometer. Indications of the magnetometer have proved correct 95 per cent of the time and the barometer only 57 per cent.

1 To 36 Hours In Advance

"Bad" weather may be predicted locally from 1 to 36 hours in advance by measuring the intensity of the earth's magnetic field with a magnetometer, by the method employed at the college.

According to announcement by the Science Service in Washington, "government scientists here were in general non-committal regarding the high accuracy of forecasting bad weather by studies of the earth's magnetic field as advanced by Prof. E. F. George of Texas Technological college, Lubbock, Texas.

"Dr. Willis R. Gregg, chief of the U. S. bureau, said that some years ago the bureau established a magnetic station on top of Mt. Weather, Va., in an attempt to study the same problem. No correlation between the intensity of the earth's magnetic field and the weather was then obtained and the station was discontinued."

To Give Explanation

An explanation of the new method and pictures of the laboratory, which is in a small structure partially underground at the college, will be published in the first June semi-monthly issue of the magazine Physical Review, Doctor George and his assistant, Florence Robertson, wrote the article.

Miss Robertson has taken the readings since Oct. 1. Readings were not taken regularly for that length of time before at the college, although they were taken in preparation for a paper by Preston Conner, delivered at a science meeting several years ago; and in preparation for a thesis by Kimsey Miller on "Diurnal, Monthly and Irregular Variations in the Earth's Magnetic Field at Lubbock, Texas."

Report Is Given

Prof. George and Miss Robertson have reported to the American Physical society:

"In about 95 per cent of the cases observed a high magnetometer is followed by bad weather (rain, snow, sleet, hail, thunder, lightning, sandstorms, dust storms, violent winds, cold waves, etc.) In the majority of cases the rise in the magnetometer came about a day in advance of the adverse weather change."

"In about 57 per cent of the cases observed a low barometer, when it occurred, preceded the bad weather by a much shorter interval of time than the high magnetometer."

"It would thus appear, that insofar as West Texas is concerned, the magnetometer is a very much better indicator of bad weather than the barometer."

The new method would benefit farmers and ranchers in that it would give them additional time for protection of their stock, said Miss Robertson.

which organized efficient relief of the unemployed three years before the New Deal was born will not turn from those in need. That support to distress comes from the conscience and sympathy of a people, not from the New Deal."

"The Republican party must achieve true social betterment," he said.

"But we must produce measures that will not work confusion and disappointment. We must propose a real approach to social ills, not the prescription for them, by quacks, of poison in place of remedy.

Monopoly Is Problem

"We must achieve freedom in the economic field. We have grave problems in relation of government to agriculture and business. Monopoly is only one of them.

"The Republican party is against the greed for power of the wanton boys who waste the people's savings. But it must be equally adamant against the greed for power and exploitation in the seekers of special privilege."

Source Is Freedom

Discussing his appeal for "liberty" of Americans, he urged the convention to declare "without shrinking" that "the source of economic prosperity is freedom."

"Man must be free to use his own powers in his own ways," he said. "Free to think, to speak, to worship. Free to plan his own life. Free to use his own initiative. Free to dare in his own adventure."

"It is the essence of true liberalism, that these freedoms and limited by the rights of others. Freedom both requires and makes increased responsibilities. There is no freedom from exploitation of the weak or from the dead hand of bureaucracy."

"Free Spirit" Campaign Issue

The "free spirit of man" was described as a campaign issue "vastly bigger than payrolls, than economics, than materialism."

"Fundamental American liberties are at stake," he went on. "Is the Republican party ready for the issue? Are you willing to cast your all upon the issue, or would you falter and look back?"

At the outset of his address, Hoover asserted that "in this room rests the greatest responsibility that has come to a body of American in three generations."

What Would Have Happened

After asserting that the American people should "thank Almighty God for the constitution and the Supreme court," Hoover said:

"You might contemplate what would have happened if Mr. Roosevelt could have appointed enough Supreme court justices in the first year of his administration.

"Suppose these New Deal acts had remained upon the statute books. We would have been a regimented people. Have you any assurance that he will not have the appointments if he is reelected?"

Asking whether the "New Dealers have dropped their ideas of centralization of government," Hoover supplied this answer:

"When we examine the speeches of Tugwell, Wallace, Ickes and others we see little indications of repentance."

"Sty Were" Pronunciation Of Name Is Given

CLEVELAND, June 10. (AP)—Keynoting Senator Steiwer of Oregon pronounces his name like "stywere" with the accent on the first syllable and the "sty" rhyming with "eye."

Around the convention halls he is often called "stee-were," and occasionally "sty-were." But these pronunciations are wrong.

G.O.P. Convention

expected other smaller delegations, which have been waiting up to now for a definite bandwagon rush, would fall in line speedily behind the overshadowing eastern blocs.

The rival camps refused to give up, but they evidenced no relish as they read the results of the day's delegation caucuses. Senator Borah did cancel plans, however, to attend tonight's session and hear Mr. Hoover speak.

To Have Majority

"Governor Landon will have a substantial majority out of every state and every delegation except one three or four bound to a favorite son," Hamilton said.

Foreseeing considerable debate over the platform, the Landon manager said balloting would begin Friday morning. As for the vice-presidency, he added:

"I will discuss the vice-presidency after the nomination."

Hoover meanwhile dominated the enthusiasm-stirred scene. But behind it a series of significant developments were shaped. They included:

Partially Woo Borah

An at least partially successful wooing of the lion of Idaho, Senator Borah, by the Landonites, accomplished by a measurable capitulation to his platform demands;

The launching of other peace efforts by the dominant Landon leaders, including compromises to others besides Borah on the platform issue, with the whole plainly intended to bring the party out of the convention and into the campaign without too many lasting scars;

May Last Until Saturday

A certainty that, after failure of the platform committee to bring its report to the convention floor tonight, this Republican conclave will work overtime and may still be in session on Saturday.

Mr. Hoover tonight waved before the convention delegates a speech, which even before he spoke had been called the most "devastating indictment of the New Deal ever written."

Snell Made Attack Too

His words came as the second wave of a planned attack upon the Roosevelt administration. Representative Snell of New York, the convention's permanent chairman, this morning described the president as an "unconstitutional dictator," who had "seduced the legislative branch and thrown "sneer and jibe" at the Supreme court. Snell, as had others before him, invited Democrats to join in favor of a "square deal."

It was Mr. Hoover who blanketed the night scene just as had Snell the morning. The retiring titular party leader stepped from his train into the arms of a rousing welcome that carried to the convention hall.

He was greeted by an applauding crowd of several thousand, shook hands with hundreds more, promptly he proclaimed both in person and through his friends that he had no other immediate interest than to make a speech.

Aside from his address, and that of Snell, the dominant factor in the convention scene was the struggle over a platform.

FDR's Address

president. Mrs. Roosevelt sat with him on the platform, with Senators Robinson and Caraway.

Speech Substance Surprising

The substance of the speech came as a surprise to many members of the president's party who had been led to believe he would confine his remarks to historical reference in tune with the occasion. They were wondering tonight whether he would depart from this preannounced intention at Dallas, Texas, Friday and at Vincennes, Ind., Sunday, where two other set speeches on his 4,000-mile tour are scheduled.

He refrained from detailing how he intended to deal with current problems in view of the Supreme court's invalidation of many New Deal acts.

Not Definitely Discernible

"The new approach to these problems may not be immediately discernible," he said, "but organization to meet human suffering can never be predicated on the relaxation of human effort."

Some observers and members of his official party saw in the address likely material for the new Democratic platform. They refused to talk for quotation, but speculated, for instance, on his constitutional, Supreme court and "common man" references and this statement near the end of his speech:

"The liberal tendencies of those, who for nearly a century we have called our western statesman, have been sometimes too little understood in the older, more conservative east."

Dr. Boris Sokoloff, Russian scientist, once said that any girl can marry any man in the world by repeating often to him the four words, "You are so wonderful!"

Impression Of Soberness, Bordering On The Somber, Permeates Cleveland Convention; Party Leaders Serious

By BYRON PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

CLEVELAND, June 10. — In spite of the gleaming Kansas sunflowers and the roar of the lion of Idaho, there is no escaping a general impression of soreness, bordering on the somber, around the Republican convention.

Absent are the great, overpowering splashes of color which commonly dominate the convention scene. A few flags ar out, and here and there a picture of an elephant; but between South Cleveland and the lake there is hardly sufficient tinsel and bunting, all told, to decorate a medium-sized circus parade. Yesterday's opening session of the convention itself was predominately quiet, sometimes almost listless.

Grind Their Teeth

It is true that bitter rivalries are afoot, but the bitterness is of that quality which makes men grind their teeth and mutter oaths beneath their breath. There is little of the sort which breaks out in shrill debate and leads to noisy tantrums.

Any one of several things may be responsible for all of this. National conventions are not easy to psychoanalyze. Always there are so many individual currents of reaction, going in so many different directions.

Urge "Defeatist" Complex

It is impossible, for one thing, to overlook the fact that a number of prominent Republicans have been urging their colleagues in speeches not to enter the campaign with a "defeatist" complex. How widely such a complex may have taken hold of Republican thought it is, of course, impossible to say; but if any of the leaders here present thinks the party has no chance to win in November, he is keeping quiet about it.

Among the Landon supporters, in fact, there is a pronounced tendency to talk as much about November as about June. Unless these original Landon men are running a bold bluff, they are working for their candidate not merely because they want him to have the distinction of a presidential nomination, but because they hope to see him in the White House.

However much of this optimism may be justified, there are other reasons why many of the party stalwarts might look on this Republican family reunion as a serious occasion. A very large section of the leadership and rank and file is in a chastened and reflective mood, after the lean years which have passed since last they foregathered at Chicago.

To understand this fully, it is necessary only to count the number of once-emminent Republicans of whom almost nothing has been heard for nearly four years, but who now are back in the glare of the spotlights at this convention.

These gentlemen cannot be expected to take the occasion lightly. For them and for many thousands of other Republicans the business of waging a campaign against the present order is a very serious business indeed.

So it is impossible to say with assurance why the convention atmosphere is so generally drab and solemn. The effect would be the same whether the reason was discouragement or earnestness in a deep-rooted cause.

Sabotage Blamed By GOP Officials

CLEVELAND, June 10. (AP)—Congressman Chester C. Bolton of Cleveland told Mayor Harold H. Burton today that interruptions in the public address and broadcasting system at the national Republican convention was deliberate sabotage.

The mayor ordered a squad of twenty detectives and as many additional uniformed officers assigned to public hall, where the convention is in session.

Bolton claimed that despite periodic checks of wiring, unknown persons slipped in and cut wires leading to loudspeakers, damaged a Columbia Broadcasting company cable and tampered with main cable lines.

Thomas S. Sabin, director of the Republican national committee's radio division, said there was no doubt the wire cutting was carefully planned.

Senator Steiwer's keynote speech last night was interrupted by failure of the public address system which was newly installed for the convention.

The governor, who has worked closely with authorities on the case since the abandoned car of the victims was found in Dallas, Tex., last summer, told an amazing story related to police of how the tourists stopped near Vaughn, north of here, to fix a tire and how two men, one of them intoxicated, insulted one of the women and struck her husband fatally over the head when he remonstrated.

The others were slain, said the informant, because they refused to promise not to reveal the slaying. All four bodies, said this man, were bound with fence wire and dumped into the lake.

Chief of State Police E. J. House, jr., telephoned a request today to a professional diver at Houston, Tex., to come here and search the lake bottom for the bodies.

Crop Of 482,000,000 Bushels Is Indicated, Department Of Agriculture Reports; Other Yields Estimated

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 10. — The department of agriculture announced today a winter wheat crop of 482,000,000 bushels this year was indicated from conditions June 1.

A crop of 463,708,000 bushels was indicated a month ago, and 443,447,000 bushels were produced last year. The 1928-32 average production was 618,186,000 bushels.

Rye Guessed Lower

Rye production is indicated as 33,936,000 last year, and 38,655,000 bushels, the 1928-32 average.

A peach crop of 40,600,000 bushels is indicated, compared with 21,300,000 last year and 56,500,000, the 1928-32 average.

Pear production is indicated as 22,500,000 bushels, compared with 21,300,000 last year and 23,100,000, the 1928-32 average.

Condition Is Worse

The condition of winter wheat on June 1 was 66.7 per cent of a normal, compared with 67.0 a month ago, 74.2 a year ago, and 73.9, the 1923-32 average.

Condition of other crops on June 1 was:

All spring wheat 66.9 per cent of a normal, compared with 85.2 a year ago; durum wheat 60.8 and 84.4; other spring wheat, 67.9 and 85.3; oats 74.5 and 84.4; barley 75.3 and 84.3; hay 75.2 and 77.6; pasture 74.5 and 77.7; apples 46.7 and 71.3; peaches 51.3 and 62.5; pears 57.8 and 60.1.

The condition of winter wheat in Texas was 36 per cent of a normal and the indicated production 13,598,000 bushels.

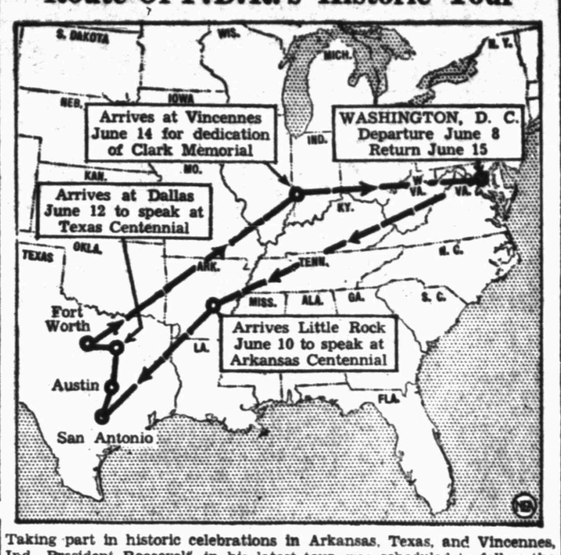

Cotton Carry-Over Is Said Decreased

WASHINGTON, June 10. (AP) — With cotton consumption establishing a new high record, the agricultural economics bureau today estimated the world carry-over August 1 would be about 12,500,000 bales compared with 13,624,000 a year ago. The 1923-32 average was about 10,155,000 bales.

American cotton carry-over was estimated at 7,300,000 bales compared with 9,000,000 a year ago and a ten-year average of 6,000,000.

Most of the world consumption increase this season, the bureau said, has been in manufacture of American cotton.

Route Of F.D.R.'s 'Historic' Tour

Taking part in historic celebrations in Arkansas, Texas, and Vincennes, Ind., President Roosevelt, in his latest tour, was scheduled to follow the itinerary outlined above. After launching Arkansas' centenary Wednesday, June 10, he was to entrain for San Antonio, Tex., to visit the famed Alamo. After a stop in Austin, he was to speak, on Friday, June 12, at Dallas, focal point of the Texas Centennial, then leave for Fort Worth. The chief executive's next stop was to be Vincennes, Ind., on Sunday, June 14, to participate in dedication of the George Rogers Clark memorial. Then, after a Kentucky stop, he was slated to return to Washington June 15.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

Sanitation Is Said Important Factor In Disease Control

COLLEGE STATION, June 10. (Special)—"Sanitation is the all-important control practice for coccidiosis, one of the most serious of poultry diseases," says G. P. McCarthy, assistant Extension poultry husbandman.

"Control measures must be practiced to keep the disease to a minimum, as there is no possibility of eradication.

Caused By Parasites

"The disease is caused by microscopic parasites which multiply in the walls of the intestinal tracts and then pass out to complete their life cycle outside of the chicken's body. Immediately after leaving the body by way of droppings, the parasites are not infectious. Twenty-four to 48 hours may be required for development outside the chicken's body under warm, moist conditions, or weeks and even months under unfavorable conditions.

"Chicks should be started off in clean houses. All buildings and equipment should be scrubbed with hot water and lye at the rate of about one-fourth pound of lye to a pail of water. All movable houses should be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before being moved to new ground.

Unfavorable Conditions

"Early brooding and cool, dry houses are unfavorable to coccidiosis.

"The most dangerous source of moisture in the brooder house is around the water fountains. During the first few days when chicks are small, water fountains must be placed on the floor level. After the first week, however, fountains should be placed on half-inch square mesh wire platforms about four inches high. From that time, on, the floor around the platforms can be kept dry. When feeding and watering are done outside, the wire platforms should go along to prevent chicks from picking up moist dirt or litter around the fountains.

"Deep, dry litter stirred thoroughly each day is preferable in many ways to shallow litter cleaned more frequently. Fermentation set up by the droppings destroys the coccidia buried in the litter. Constant dryness and daily stirrings are essential parts of this management practice."

Mitchell Makes 'Comeback' To Smear Old Man Par And Bays Bryant In First Round; Field Goes To Meadowbrook

Storming the Country Club course with four birdies and five pars on the front nine and adding another here on the back side for a five-under-par medal, Don Mitchell, local cotton magnate defeated fellow club member and favored other favorites through the first round of match play in the current City Open golf tournament yesterday.

Mitchell, staging a comeback after a few years of non-serious activity, became the "dark horse" of the tournament when he eliminated Bays Bryant, until last year one of Country Club's most potent players, by the one-sided score of 4 and 6. Mitchell, one of Country Club's top notchers a few years ago, also qualified at Meadowbrook with a 72, two over par, played his home course like a champion yesterday, adding birdies up at the turn after firing the four birdies at Bryant for a medal of 32 for nine holes, shot another "one of them things" at the tenth going six up. He won the next two holes with par figures and the match ended at the 12th.

Holton Advances

Bryant's behalf let it be assigned that he has played but little golf in two years the City Open being his first tournament of that length of time. He was shooting par nearly all the way, except on the front nine got a six on No. 10, but the next two efforts went to bogey, and he was out. Mitchell's victory was no surprise to local golfers, who have watched his improvement this season over last year's haphazard play, but his medal score was something of a surprise. It was the best turned in for match play in the current tournament.

With Mitchell into the quarter-final round went Edgar Doherty, Manson Allen, Jo Dick Slaughter and Alfred Holton, who won first round matches yesterday. J. K. "Kay" Bradshaw, defending champion, John Edmisson, runner up last year, and Ralph Trolinger, medalist, won first round matches Tuesday.

Doherty, who plays Bradshaw today or tomorrow in the second round, was given plenty of trouble by the slow-playing but consistent J. R. Farmer, formerly of Amarillo but a "traveling salesman" from Lubbock now. Farmer was on Doherty's heels all day, driving almost as far as the long-driving Doherty, and putting well. Doherty won, 3 and 2, as Farmer faded on the last nine.

Allen Beats Rufus

Manson Allen concluded his first round match yesterday after playing fifteen holes of it Tuesday. He defeated Rufus Bradshaw, paperweight Country club caddy and brother of the defending champion 3 and 1. He was 2 up when Tuesday's match was "called" on account of darkness.

Allen, one of the favorites, meets Jo Dick Slaughter veteran Country Club, but now of Meadowbrook, campaigner today in a quarter-final match. It is one of the features of the day, although all of the second round matches are features.

Slaughter, who played 14 holes of his first match with Joe Bihl Tuesday, wound up yesterday with a 3 and 2 victory. He was one under par for the round.

Alfred Holton, young Meadowbrook star, is Mitchell's opponent in the second round. Holton cracked par two strokes yesterday to defeat Ted Tipps, Country club player, 7 and 6, second largest margin of victory in the championship flight.

First round matches were completed in all flights yesterday, some of them finishing so late that floodlights would have been helpful.

Results in all flights, and pairings for second round matches, follow:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

Kay Bradshaw defeated Lt. Glen Hall, 3 and 2; Edgar Doherty won from Farmer, 3 and 2; Manson Allen defeated Rufus Bradshaw, 3 and 1; Jo Dick Slaughter eliminated Joe Bihl, 3 and 2; Alfred Holton won over Ted Tipps, 7 and 6; Don Mitchell beat Bays Bryant, 8 and 6; John Edmisson defeated Weldon Counts, 3 and 2; Ralph Trolinger downed Bob Hale, 4 and 3.

Mungo Leaves Dodgers Flat

Star Brooklyn Pitcher Quits Team At Pittsburgh, Leaves For Home; Said To Be Sore At Club For Insupport

PITTSBURGH, June 10.—(AP)—Van Lingle Mungo, star speed-ball pitcher of the Brooklyn Dodgers, quit the team today and left for New York.

Mungo gave no reason for his action, but it has been an open secret that the big right-hander has been dissatisfied with the support of his teammates and disappointed at the failure of recent negotiations to trade him.

John Gorman, business manager of the club, said no action would be taken against the pitcher at least until the club gets to Cincinnati tomorrow. It seemed inevitable, however, that he will be fined or suspended or both.

Considered by many the fastest pitcher in the game today, Mungo has been sought by practically every club in the league for the past few seasons.

A snowball thrown through a basement window cost Philip R. Huff of Seattle the sight of one eye.

Watkins Takes Haddock, Who Bids Farewell

Rough Sailor Gets Best Of Detroiter In Dale's Last Show Here Before Leaving For Western Coast

THE WINNARS

MAIN EVENT: Sailor Tex Watkins, 165 pounds, of Post, Tex., over Gentleman Dale Haddock, 163 pounds, of Detroit, by taking the last two falls of a three-fall event. Referee, Ernie Arthur, Toronto, Can.

SEMI-WINDUP: Dick Trout, 165 pounds, of San Pedro, Cal., over Jack Gorman, 160 pounds, of San Angelo, Tex., 22 minutes of a scheduled 30 minute bout. Referee, Ray Clements, Lubbock.

CURTAIN RAISER: Ernie Arthur, 165 pounds, of Toronto, Can., over Ace Abbott, 163 pounds, of Abilene, Tex., 12 minutes of a scheduled 20 minute bout. Referee, Ray Clements, Lubbock. Timekeeper for entire card: M. E. Lawrence, Lubbock.

By CHAS A. GUY
Of The Avalanche Staff

Side-stepping a couple of close calls and with the aid of a couple of "breaks" which after all count in anybody's league, tough Tex Watkins, the Post sailor boy, emerged victorious last night in a rousing main event on Sied Allen's regular weekly mat card at the local Temple of Torture.

Walloped and choked into submission—the latter via the application of a wire noose dug out of his opponent's trunks at an opportune moment—the truculent Tex lost the first fall but came back handily to grab the other two and the victor's laurels, if any. By winning he pinned a stinging "so long" on the shoulders of Dale Haddock, Detroit dynamiter, who moves on to other pastures after being a top-notcher in the West Texas cauliflower circuit for the past five months.

Fans Get Action

Impresario Allen's Auditorium was packed to the rafters by the usual frenzied mob who howled for action—and got it. From start to finish, the Watkins-Haddock melee was rough and tough with the always present eye-gouging, choking and biting far out-distancing the scientific method of wrestling.

Busiest man in the ring was grizzled old Ernie Arthur who earned his money as arbiter. At best the Canadian could keep but a semblance of order and spent most of the time trying to break the opponents, taking many a kick cuff and flip in the bargain.

After coming out of a groggy spell brought on by Watkins' punching and gouging, Haddock did some gouging of his own, tossed Referee Arthur out of the way several times, slipped a nooze of electric light wire which he had concealed in his trunks over Watkins' head and then fought off the referee long enough to choke Watkins into semi-consciousness. The wire removed, Haddock put three flying tackles on the weaving Texan, threw in a little choking and won with a body smother in 14 minutes. The wire "hangman's hold" was illegal, of course, but what's legality between wrestlers, most of whom subscribe to the theme song of "Anything Goes."

Tex Comes Back

The second fall went 16 minutes before slugging, kicking and gnawing turned into an effort by Haddock to subdue Watkins by the flying tackle route. The wily Tex took a couple, dodged the vicious third one neatly and Haddock catapulted himself out of the area, his back striking the edge of the ring as he tumbled into the laps of ringsiders. As Haddock started crawling back through the ropes Watkins side-stepped Referee Arthur, pulled the Detroiter in, beat him about the head, kicked him in the groin and won with a Japanese crab, applied with every bit of strength he possessed. Arthur had to haul Watkins off the prostrate Haddock several times and, for good measure, Tex stomped his fallen foe in typical sailorman style.

Haddock came back in the third frame in which he held a decided edge until he gave Watkins a chance to do his best stunt again—haul his opponent back through the ropes and go to work before his rival knew what was happening. Spilling Arthur out of the way, Watkins beat and slammed Haddock dizzy and then called on his trump card which has won so many fracases for him here. He ran the Haddock dome into the corner ropes twice, with vim and vigor, to get the call in 9 minutes time. Arthur again had to pull Watkins off his beaten foe before he could raise his hand in symbol of triumph.

No Draw Matches

Last night's card was unusual in that all there matches went to decisions. Dick Trout, handsome blonde whose darting left punches indicate that he should have been a boxer, took aging Jack Gorman into camp in 22 minutes of the semi-final go, scheduled for a half hour.

The younger, bigger and stronger Trout probably could have won earlier had he set himself to it, but Gorman, who speaks with a heavy German accent and who must have been named Schultz, or something, before becoming a torso-twister eons ago, gave his usual aggressive performance. Trout won with wallops to Gorman's head, two drop kicks and a smother, matching fairly clean wrestling against the San Angeloan's gas house tactics.

Young Ace Abbott, who hasn't been ham-and-egging long, was no match of Ernie Arthur, who took the first contest in 12 minutes of the 20-minutes of allowed time. Abbott may make a wrestler some day but Arthur, who in his prime was a humdinger and the cream of the Canadian crop, can beat him with head work alone any day in the week. The match was one-sided from the start.

Most important thing of last night's performance was the improved officiating of Ray "Big Train" Clements, local lad, who has been calling 'em in the hempen arena here for several months now. Clements' work last night, far above his average, marked him as being well 'nigh ready to go places as a referee—if he wants to.

Didrikson Off Game, Beaten

La Babe Is Removed By Anna Sue Kennedy In 2nd Round Of Women's Western Open: Medalist Advances

TOPEKA, June 10.—(AP)—Miss Mildred Babe Didrikson, the tournament's only professional, went out of the eighth annual Women's Western Open golf tourney today as the defending titlist led the parade to the quarter finals.

Miss Didrikson, far off her usual game, was eliminated by Miss Anna Sue Kennedy of Columbia, Mo., 6 and 5.

Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, medalist and defending champion, moved into the quarter finals with a 4 and 2 victory over a dangerous rival, Mrs. Charles Newbold of Wichita, Kas.

Mrs. Hill's opponent tomorrow will be Mrs. Lillian Zech, of Norwood Park, Ill., who defeated today Mrs. A. L. Bailey, Emporia, Kas., 4 and 3.

Edna Saenger Wins

Miss Edna Saenger, Shreveport, La., won a 1-up victory over Miss Kathryn Hemphill, Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Charles Dennehy, Lake Forest, Ill., defeated Miss Jane Cothran, Columbia, S. C., one up, when Miss Cothran missed a 12-inch putt on the 18th green.

Mrs. A. H. Means, Fort Leavenworth, Kas., won by the same margin over Mrs. Ethel Snyder, Columbia, Mo.

Miss Dorothy Traung scored a one-up 19-hole victory over Miss Ellamae Williams, Bensonville, Ill.

Miss Hilda Livengood, Flossmoor, Ill., advanced to the quarter finals with a one-up victory over Mrs. Leon Solomon, Memphis, Tenn.

Amherst Ball Club To Play Lockney Team Next Sunday

AMHERST, June 10. (Special)—The Amherst baseball club continues to win ball games, remaining undefeated through a double header last Sunday and determined to take the rest of the scheduled games in order.

The Lockney club plays here Sunday, June 14, and Amherst plays host on the following Sunday, June 21, to the Wilson team. Amherst plans to conduct an invitation tournament early in August, to which all clubs of the South Plains will be invited.

Manager Tapley's team defeated a combination Morton - Enochs club last Sunday in the first game of a double bill, 4 to 3, and won from Bula in the second scrap, 15 to 7.

Joe Louis Not Booking Engagements Until Schmeling Fight; Hurry Call For Sparring Partners Is Sent Out

LAKEWOOD, N. J., June 10. (AP)—With only one week remaining before Joe Louis steps into the Yankee stadium ring to do battle for Max Schmeling, the bomber's board of strategy has elected to ignore any further discussion concerning the proposed world's heavyweight championship with Jim Braddock.

"Our announcement yesterday that we would decline to sign the contracts offered us by Promoter Mike Jacobs and would not talk terms for any future engagement for Louis until after June 18 was final," declared John Roxborough, one of Louis' two managers.

Louis, taking no part in the discussions that kept his managers busy answering questions, enjoyed a day of complete rest. Mushky Jackson, commanding the shock brigade, made a hurried trip to New York, however, to replenish the waning forces of sparring partners.

U. S. Polo Team Pulls Tough One From Britishers

LONDON, June 10. (AP)—Fighting with unexpected fierceness and effect against the smashing power of the American attack, Great Britain's gallant four horsemen today came thrillingly close to springing the biggest polo upset since the war before yielding finally, 10 goals to 9, in the opening match of the International Cup series at the Hurlingham club.

With California's sharpshooting Eric Pedley riding in centaur fashion and scoring nine goals, thereby equalling his own record for cup competition, America's latest "big four" squeezed out their one-point margin of thiumph only after nipping a furious British rally in the seventh and last period.

A fashionable crowd of 10,000 witnessed the triumph engineered by the dazzling Pedley, in combination with Michael Phipps, Stewart Iglehart and Winston Guest over a patched-up British four. It was the ninth straight victory for the Americans in cup competition since 1921 and the closest since 1914. One more will clinch the current series, the first held since 1930, but today's outcome forecast a real last-ditch fight by the home side this Saturday, in the second match.

Coppers Play Softball, But Not Enough To Beat Autoists

The coppers, their lineup bolstered by two state patrolmen, a non-police City employe and three pick-ups, did right well with bats instead of night sticks when they elected to play softball Wednesday afternoon, but could not arrest scoring of Southern Auto Store.

Up to the fourth there had been no scoring. The Autoists filled the bases in that frame and Murdock, hurler for law and order, began toiling disorderly. The bases were filled, Murdock walked in two runs. Then Reigle, Autoist shortstop, hit a home run. Another score trickled in, to account for seven of the club's 12 tallies.

The cops scored four of their runs in their frame of that inning. J. C. Ferguson, state bombarder and third baseman, punching out a home run with two mates aboard. Four more were made in an unavailing seventh-inning rally.

The copper lineup was: Kittrell, cf; Lawson, 2b; Mabray, lf; Bundrant, c; Ferguson, 3b; Reeder, sf; Fort, ss; Bumpass, 1b; Odell, rf, and Murdock, p.

British Women Hold Net Edge

America's Hopes Of Keeping Wightman Cup Not Bright; Play Begins Friday With Jacobs Playing Stammers

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

LONDON, June 10.—Battle lines for the 14th Wightman Cup international tennis series between American and British women stars were drawn today and immediately experts decided Britian's chances of ending America's five-year supremacy were unusually bright.

The best four-matches-out-of-seven series will start Friday with Helen Jacobs, four-times American champion, opposing Kay Stammers, left-handed British star; Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of Brookline, Mass., meeting Dorothy Round, former Wimbledon titlist, and Mrs. John Van Ryn of Philadelphia and Carolyn Babcock of Los Angeles teaming up in the doubles against Nancy Lyle and Evelyn Dearman.

Saturday's concluding schedule: Mrs. Fabyan vs. Miss Stammers; Miss Jacobs vs. Miss Round; Miss Babcock vs. Ruth Mary Hardwick, and Miss Jacobs and Mrs. Fabyan vs. Miss Stammers and Freda James.

Softball Leaders Scheduled Today

Activity resumes today in the Lubbock Softball association with two games scheduled, one of them a feature contest.

Lubbock Poultry & Egg company's representatives, probably the strongest club of the circuit, meets Terry & Childress Hardware company, another one of the leaders. Neither team has been defeated so far this year.

In the other game, City Bus company's team opposes the club sponsored by Southern Auto Stores, Inc.

Both games are to start at approximately 6:30 o'clock. A large crowd is expected to watch the feature game, which will be played at the 23rd Street and Ave. K field.

University Of Texas Stars Advance In State Net Meet

WACO, June 10. (AP)—Four University of Texas netters today reached the semi-finals in the Texas state tennis tournament. One, Bobby Kamrath of Austin, is a freshman, but the other three members of the Southwest conference championship squad.

Bobby Kamrath, Carl Smalley of Palestine, another Texas player, met in a ding-dong battle which was called in the third set with the score tied, nine games all. The boys decided to flip for the match and Kamrath won. Smalley won the first set, 6-1. Kamrath the second, 6-4.

Kamrath meets Gordon Pease, San Antonio, conqueror of the favorite, Doc Barr of Dallas, in one of the semi-final matches. Lindsay Franklin, Texas captain, and Edgar Weller play in the other.

Austin Golfer Shoots 70 For Texas Medal

Reynolds Smith And Cameron Only Others Able To Crack Par In Qualifying Round; Matches Start Today

BY DAWSON DUNCAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAN ANTONIO, June 10. — Stocky W. R. Long, jr., consistent shot maker from Austin, today garnered medalist honors at the Texas Golf association tournament with a two sub par 70.

Long's 33-37—70 set the pace for nearly 90 other competitors for the title held by Harry Todd of Dallas, who toured the course in 36-37—73 for a practice round. As title defender, he was not required to qualify.

Long's medal card was:

Out par	435 443 544	—36
Long	434 433 543	—33
In par	344 534 445	—36
Long	255 544 534	—37

Favorites found the going difficult and old man par a sturdy self-defender as only two others, Reynolds Smith of Dallas and Jack Cameron of Houston, cracked the regulation. Each turned in 71.

O'Hara Watts, whose former Southwest conference title and recent eight under par 64 ranked him as a potential winner, and Don Schumacher, graduating into state competition from the junior title he won last year, negotiated the rolling, open course in par. Both are from Dallas.

Others of the 32 qualifiers for the championship flight won their way there with scores from 73 up to 77. Eight 77-stroke players entered a swatfest to qualify six.

West Texas Champ In

Such favorites as the flying lieutenant, Ken Rogers of San Antonio, who cracked par two dozen times before the tournament, Hack Williford, San Antonio's offer as a municipal contender, and Morris Norton of Wichita Falls, West Texas' bid for the title, were those unable to break par.

Rogers qualified with 39-37—76; Williford 33-42—75 and Norton 38-36—74.

Williford, state municipal runner-up last year, was hot in the front nine with a 33, three under par, and only one stroke over the day's low nine.

Bill Welch of Austin, the University of Texas' Southwest conference champion, qualified with 74, coupling a brace of 37's.

David (Spec) Goldman of Dallas, finalist in the 1934 national amateur, experienced real difficulty over the course with a 77, failed to qualify in the swatfest. He extracted a birdie three on the first extra hole with a spectacular recovery from the rough, but on the third he missed a three-foot putt and Derald Lehman of Fort Worth sank a 45-footer.

Smith "Recovers"

To Reynolds Smith, Dallas' contribution to the United States Walker Cup team, and Jack Cameron, a young outsider from Houston, went other honors for shattering par.

Ill after winning the recent Corsicana invitation, Smith abandoned a sick room and started on his qualifying round. Showing the weakening effects of fever, he used three over par for a 39 on the out nine. Strengthening on the return, he scored the day low for the second nine with a 32, four under par.

His card included five birdies, three pars and a bogey. A three-putt 12th hole cost him his only extra stroke coming in, which featured nice approaches followed with strong putting.

Howard Plans Bonds Service

Lubbock County Veterans Are Requested To Be At Home On Morning Of June 17 To Receive Bonus Bonds

World war veterans of Lubbock and Lubbock county who are to receive adjusted service bonds from Uncle Sam, are requested to be at home the morning of June 17 to receive a registered letter containing the papers, Postmaster Amos Howard said yesterday afternoon in announcing details of the local setup for the handling of bonds.

"These registered letters are to be delivered only to the one for whom they are intended," he pointed out. "No matter if the letter is addressed in care of some one, only the ex-service man can sign for them.

Must Be Identified

"Also, if he does not know personally his mail carrier, he must have some one to identify him to the carrier. This applies to rural as well as city carriers.

"Letters for Lubbock county veterans will be mailed from Dallas Monday, June 15; they will arrive here June 16 and will be written up in the postoffice that day, ready for delivery June 17.

Must Be Certified

"After delivery to the addressee, the bonds are to be certified. We will have some postoffice men in rooms 216-217 of the federal building. These men will certify the bonds and they will be mailed back to Dallas that night. A check, in return, should come back to Lubbock by June 19. Checks will come direct to the addressee."

Mr. Howard said that the government was going to considerable trouble to insure veterans entitled to bonds, to receive them. This is being done in order that the papers reach the proper person.

Same Care On Routes

The same care is being used for veterans on rural routes as on city routes. Letters for those who receive their mail at postoffice boxes, will be given a notice so that the person for whom the letter is intended may receive it and sign for it.

"We will do everything we can to expedite the work of delivering these letters," Mr. Howard said. "We are asking the Veterans to be patient. We urge them to be at home that day, if at all possible, to sign up for the letter the first day, so they can get their check as promptly as possible."

Come In Groups

Veterans are asked to sign the bonds the same as the name on the papers. The bonds are to come in groups according to the amount the veteran is to receive. They will come in groups of six, ten, 20 and 30.

Postmaster Howard has assigned the following department employes to the task of registering bonds, in the federal building: Claude Peek, E. J. Thaxton, J. A. Dowdle, Lloyd Johnson, E. V. Hicks and Charles R. McLaurin. All but the first two are former service men, he added.

Louisiana Legislators Are To Visit Dallas On Friday

DALLAS, June 10. (AP) — Fred P. Florence, president of the Texas Centennial exposition, announced today that Gov. James V. Allred and leaders of the Centennial would greet members of the Louisiana legislature here at 7:30 a. m. Friday.

The visiting legislators will hold a joint session in the cotton bowl.

The Louisiana State university band will come with the lawmakers. The delegation will be headed by Louisiana's governor, Richard Leche.

Cardenas Not To Go To Border For New Highway Dedication

MEXICO CITY, June 10. (AP) — A meeting between President Roosevelt and President Cardenas in southern Texas, subject of considerable speculation here, apparently was ruled out tonight as the Mexican executive decided not to participate personally in dedication of the new Mexico-Laredo highway.

Rusted Barrel Of Old Rifle Found Near Old Emma May Possess History

(By Staff Correspondent)

POST, June 10—The rusted barrel of an old rifle, on display here, has an interesting history, if a checkup made by O. D. Cardwell, local business man and historian, is correct.

Last Christmas A. J. Moore, a youth, while plowing with his father about seven or eight miles southwest of Old Emma, in Crosby county, near the League Four school, saw the plow turn up a rusted gun barrel.

He turned the ancient gun over to Mr. Cardwell and the latter tried to get it back into as good shape as possible.

While in Spur recently, he happened to talk to William (Uncle Bill) Hiatt, an old timer, and mentioned the gun. The latter asked just where it was found and when informed of the approximate location, said:

History Recounted

"I bet I know to whom that gun belonged. It was a gun of J. H. Hensley who was manager of the old 22-ranch in Garza county, up near the Crosby county line.

"There was a big prairie fire up here in 1883. I had come here in 1882. We all went out to fight the fire.

"We cowboys took our rifles along with us and shot cows. After killing them we would drag the carcasses through the fire to put it out. Finally, we stopped the blaze. But we never could find Mr. Hensley's 44-calibre Winchester. It never showed up. That fire was seven or eight miles southwest of Old Emma."

The old gun barrel has been on display here, along with a number of other old guns, etc., collected by Mr. Cardwell and others. The exhibit probably will be shown at Dallas during the Centennial.

Every Ache, Pain Now Gone Entirely

Mr. Salario's Stomach And Kidneys Regulated First Time In Nine Years; Gly-Cas Tones Entire System; Now Eats And Sleeps Fine.

"I cannot praise Gly-Cas enough for the complete change it has made in my entire system," said Mr. Joe Salario, 1823 Louisiana avenue, Baton Rouge, La. "Indigestion, gas and terrible pains were sure to follow every meal I ate for my stomach was badly disordered. My kidneys were badly affected and I was up all hours of the night. What little sleep I did get was disturbed by the awful pains across my back which were almost unbearable at times. Constipation had always been a constant source of distress too, always took the strongest of medicines without any results. Then Gly-Cas was recommended to me—it was the first medicine I have ever taken that really fit my case."

"To my pleasant surprise Gly-Cas showed me real improvement from the very first," he continued. "My bowels are regulated, the poisons removed and I eat and enjoy foods I had been unable to have for years. My kidneys are regulated too, sleep good, and my strength and energy has returned. After a short trial of this new Gly-Cas it is easy to understand why so many people are praising it."

Look At Steiwer's Record

POLITICS not only make strange bedfellows—they bring about other marvels to behold, including keynote speakers who read stirring addresses written by other gents in smoke filled hotel rooms.

Senator Frederick Steiwer, of Oregon, the GOP keynoter at Cleveland, pounced on New Deal spending in his address to the lads and lassies at the Republican convention now in session. That was expected. It is the one leg the Republicans have to stand on.

Steiwer, a giant of a man with a fine voice and good platform presence, brought down the house time and time again with such resounding statements as:

"No government can borrow itself rich or spend itself prosperous".

"New Deal extravagance is bending the backs of the people with an unfair burden and has condemned all the babies of the entire nation to be rocked in cradles decorated by debt".

"The money system must not be any man's toy!"

All well and good, but, as Al Smith used to say, "Let's take a look at the record". Let's see what Senator Steiwer, the New Deal critic, has been doing in the United States Senate since the Roosevelt administration began.

The great defender of the party of special privilege voted for NRA.

He voted for AAA.

He led the fight against the Economy act in 1933.

He voted twice to over-ride the Roosevelt veto of the soldiers bonus bill.

Yet he squawks about "public spending"!

Senator Steiwer's official record stamps him not as a Republican but as a luke-warm progressive. Further, he went into New Mexico two years ago and stumped our neighboring state for the late Senator Bronson Cutting, an independent and a New Deal supporter who was running for re-election.

But when the bosses beckoned at Cleveland, Senator Steiwer, serene in the knowledge that "the public always forgets", climbed onto the platform and excoriated the Roosevelt administration and criticized it at least partly for acts which he helped put across!

Of course, one can hardly blame Senator Steiwer.

He is a politician, and politicians are known to do strange things, particularly when they are likely to be politically aided, further down the line, by those strange things.

Other keynoters have become presidential nominees in years following their keynoting.

Maybe that's what the gentleman from Oregon had in mind when he shelved and forgot his own record in his zeal to play politics!

SMART MR. ROOSEVELT

Franklin Delano Roosevelt is a master politician, and for that reason you will find him on the front pages of daily newspapers most of the time.

It is not happenstance that the President is visiting Arkansas, Texas, and other Southern states at the same time Republicans are in Cleveland to nominate a presidential candidate.

While the GOP blasts at the New Deal in Ohio, the Roosevelt smile will be turned upon thousands on his first trip to Texas since his election. When people all over the nation scan their front page they will have an opportunity to read what he says to Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, and Fort Worth audiences as well as to read Republican diatribes.

This happy faculty of sharing the national spotlight aided Roosevelt in his march to the White House four years ago and it will help him return there this November.

WITH OUR CONTEMPORARIES

"Just a little warning," says J. W. Smith, sr., in the Lamesa Reporter. "At the intersection of Fourth and Bryant streets there is a most dangerous point. The filling station on the corner and the mound of dirt makes a blind that needs to be watched out for. Slow down. Take it easy so you do not kill yourself or someone else."

"Women say men are worse, and the men say not," Frank Fletcher points out in the Southland Sun. "It ill behooves the pot to call the kettle black."

Today's One-Minute Sermon

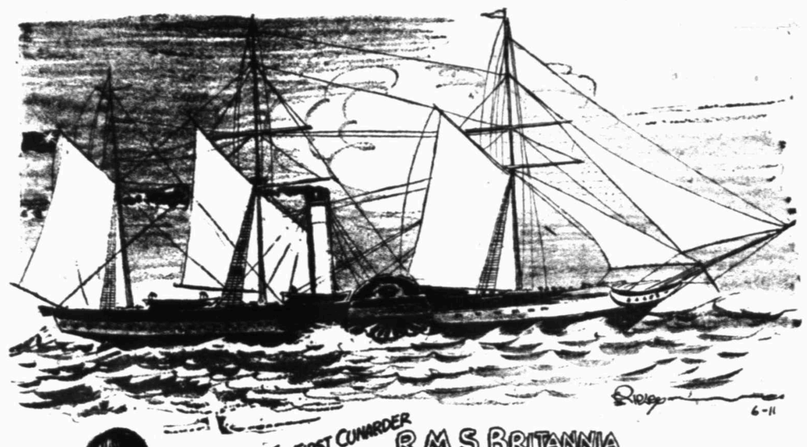

And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

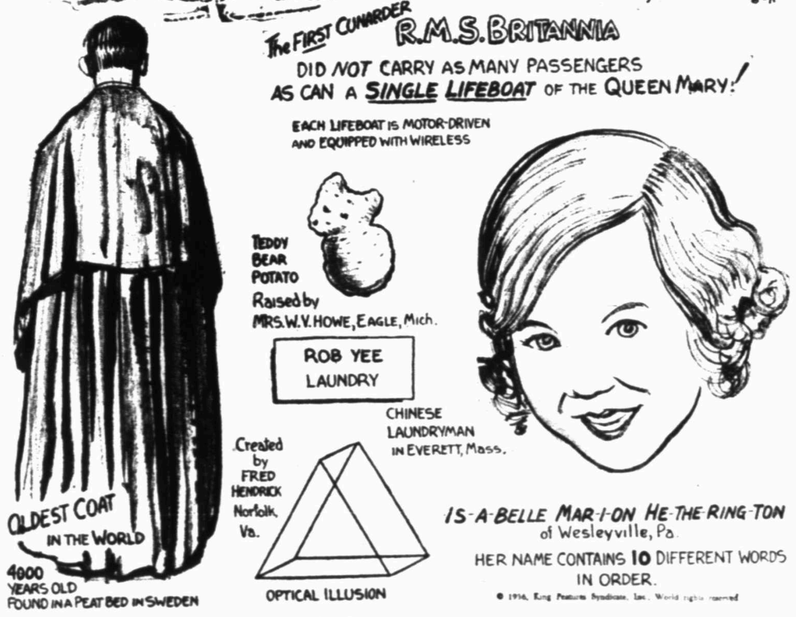

But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him—St. Luke: XII: 4-6.

A COAT OF 40 CENTURIES

A coat dating from the bronze age was found in a pit five foot deep by Swedish farmers near Skara, Sweden, while engaged in digging for peat a few years ago. The garment was well preserved by the highly conservative property of peat gases, and has a truly modern appearance. Its age was calculated by Dr. Von Post, Swedish State Geologist. The man who had owned this cloak must have been a contemporary of Abraham and the biblical patriarchs.

QUEEN MARY'S LIFEBOATS

The greatest lifeboat fleet ever attached to an ocean liner are carried by the Queen Mary, the newest giant plying the waves across the North Atlantic. The fleet comprises 24 all-steel boats, some 36 feet long and 12 feet wide, others 30 feet long and nine feet wide. Each lifeboat can accommodate 145 people—a greater number than the entire complement of 115 passengers carried by the first Cunard steamship "R. M.S. Britannia" in 1840. All of the boats are Diesel powered and are capable of a speed of six knots. The equipment consists of: radio; 21 pounds of biscuits, a quart of water and a tin of condensed milk per passenger; distress flares; oil lamps; matches; fish oil for calming rough waters; a sea anchor; axes; compasses; oars, mooring ropes; and bilge pumps.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

LINDA BOURNE, 20, pretty, is left almost penniless by the sudden death of her father.

PETER GARDINER, newspaper reporter, helps her get a job writing society news. Linda is in love with DIX CARTER, but he goes abroad to study singing. When Peter asks Linda to marry him she agrees, but postpones the wedding.

HONEY HARMON, film star, comes to Newtown, making a "personal appearance" tour, and buys a scenario written by Linda. Later Linda goes to Hollywood and, by expressing ideas that are really Peter's, acquires a reputation for being able to discover new stars. Soon she is a celebrity.

Dix Carter comes to Hollywood to get into films as an actor. Linda tries to help him. To please Dix, she invites BASIL THORNE, director, to her home though she dislikes and distrusts Thorne.

Peter Gardiner writes a successful play and comes to Hollywood.

Thorne drives Linda to a mountain resort where the company is to begin work next day. The others fail to arrive. There is trouble with the car and Linda and Thorne are obliged to stay through the night. The story gets about and Linda asks Thorne to stop it. He says he will—if she will marry him.

Linda confides in Dix, is amazed that he treats the situation lightly. She telephones Peter Gardiner and is told he has left Hollywood.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIV

"Setting my world in order is getting to be a habit with me," Linda said to herself with grim humor the next morning when there was no sunshine to warm her heart for all that it poured through the sheer curtains of her bedroom windows.

She sighed and closed her eyes again. There were many unpleasant things to do that day. She must see her lawyer as Dix had advised. Strange that she could say his name without its hurting her. She must try to reason that but not now. There were other things to do. There was one short week before she would know whether her contract with Commonwealth was to be renewed. Before that moment came, she must settle her debts. For if they did not renew, she could not afford to stay in Hollywood; she would have to go home. Home to Newtown.

Newtown where Pete had been. Back to scenes that would break her heart as Dix had never been able to break it because on this morning she was grown up, knowing herself to have been a fool, to have thrown away the one precious and beautiful thing she might have had. Had she thrown it away? Could a man like Pete have loved her and then stopped loving her?

"Fool!" she addressed herself again as she swung her legs out of her bed. "You're not going back to Newtown to live with memories. You're going to stay right here in Hollywood and if you don't get your contract renewed, you'll jolly well take any job you can get. You've had your lesson in pride. And now to get to work!"

She dialed the number of George MacMillen, a well-known lawyer who had advised her in matters of contracts, and made an appointment to see him that morning. She dreaded having to tell him the story.

M'Millen made it easy for her. Sympathetically he listened and when she had finished, he set her last fear at rest. He remembered the last case in which Thorne had become involved and was certain that a firm reminder would end the entire episode and convince Thorne that such a night had not been.

He told Linda that he would protect her utterly; he wouldn't write to Thorne, he would ask him to come to his office and telephoned the man while Linda was in his office. His invitation was a command, Thorne agreed to meet the lawyer at noon.

And so simply, the episode did end.

There were other things that Linda had to do that day toward setting her world in order. And putting the one important thing behind her, she busied herself writing checks to pay her bills. Then she telephoned Sybil Carlson, a young writer who had come to Hollywood a fortnight before.

"This is Linda Bourne, Miss Carlson," she said. "I heard you were looking for an apartment and I wondered if you would be interested in seeing mine. I'm going to take a vacation and I'd like to rent it."

Sybil came and fell in love with it. Could she have it quickly?

Feeling utterly mad, Linda told her she might have it as soon as she liked and didn't pause to question herself or her insane desire to be out of the place where she had been both happy and miserable. She wanted to be away from every association that would remind her of herself. She would like to take a hall-bedroom somewhere and lose her identity.

Not that she had the faintest idea of doing anything of the kind. As usual, she intended to pursue the routine of her life in a new home environment. She went to her office that afternoon and found urgent summons to the office of Paul Leonhardt.

Something inside her did an elevator dive from throat to the pit of her stomach. She didn't really care what happened that day but summons to the producer's office brought a swift unpleasant thrill. Was this the way a writer was let out of the company? Why should she be afraid? Her bills were paid and she had nothing to fear.

She smiled at someone on her way to Leonhardt's office; she didn't know whom. She opened the door softly with a cold little hand. And then she was inside and Leonhardt was talking to her "... three hundred more a week ... hope it will be satisfactory ... appreciate your services ... policy of retrenchment makes it impossible to give you more ..." There was more but it was enough for her to realize that Commonwealth was renewing her contract for two years.

It wasn't happiness that she felt, it was relief. Happiness was something that she never hoped to experience again. But at least she still had her chance to go on working and working, forgetting.

There was one last task she had to do that day. She had a note to write. Deliberately she avoided her apartment or her office. She didn't want to write it where she could let go. She chose no less bright, popular spot than the Brown Derby at cocktail time where she pushed aside the silver teapot and drawing a pen and pad from her purse she wrote:

Dear Dix, I do not feel the need of any explanation here and I am sure you do not require it. We do not love each other any more. More than that, there is nothing to say. Let's forget yesterday with our plans for tomorrow to be spent together. I am happy for both of us that we have learned now. Do not feel that you have failed me or that I have failed you. Let's only remember that once we were happy and that I sincerely hope that the tomorrows I will not—and cannot—share with you will be filled with all the things that will make you happy. This is my farewell.

—Sincerely, Linda.

She read and folded it, slipped it in an envelope and sealed it. Then she gave it to the waiter to post and asked for hot tea.

She waved gaily to some people she knew, joined two of them for a few moments and then left in the twilight wondering if all her life she was to walk into twilights as lonely as this one. She hated beauty because it hurt. And she hated being hurt because she knew that she alone had hurt herself.

She walked aimlessly along Vine Street and turned into Hollywood Boulevard. Her unseeing eyes strayed from shop window to shop window. There was no place that she wanted to go, no place that she could find peace, no place ...

"Missy, this is the last bunch." An old woman thrust a wilted bunch of violets almost into her face. Their fresh, sweet scent rose to her nostrils. She took them in both her hands for a minute and gave the old woman a dollar.

She stood there for a moment looking at the violets and thinking of Pete. Pete had loved her! She had to know if he still did!

She had less than an hour. But if she hurried she could catch The Chief, the eastbound train. And she would find Pete Gardiner in New York. She had to do it!

She pinned the violets to the

The News Behind The News

By Ray Tucker

CLEVELAND, June 10.—It's been "women and children first" at the Cleveland convention. Politically speaking, those two groups of newcomers have been running the 1936 Republican show.

Political adults—the Old Guard—who have manipulated marionette strings since McKinley-Hanna days still huddle high-hattedly beneath the palms in hotel lobbies and closet themselves in upstairs rooms. But nobody—not even untutored reporters—bothers them. They hang around the botanical and political fringes simply from force of habit. Actually they have been relegated to the unlovely and unimportant role of chaperons whom the boys and girls revere but do not recognize.

The End Of An Era

That is the most striking, the most significant feature of the G. O. P.'s assemblage. It marks the end of a social, economic and political era. The old order's change means that the Old Guard is washed up.

Youth—male and female—has plumped into the front seats—and driver's chair—as it never has before at a major party's convention. Certainly, for the first time in many, many years in Republican affairs, the dominant figures in the Grand Old Party are looking forward rather than backward.

ALF Landon is still in his forties. So are most of the men mentioned for the vice-presidential nomination. Campaign Manager John Hamilton's boyish smile, flamboyant red hair and gay freckles portray him as a man fresh from political cornfields rather than "smoke-filled" rooms where the politicos have been wont to choose their presidential pet in midnight blackness. That's why the moss-backs don't warm up to him.

Mr. Landon's local rooters, springing up in every state at each tick of the clock, were born in the economically distracted nineties, whereas the older bosses' birthdays fell in the politically exciting sixties and seventies. When the oldsters talk about the war, they mean the "Civil war". When they eulogize "our great President", they're not referring to "T. R." or "F. D. R." They're dreaming of Abraham Lincoln.

New Issues Paramount

There's more than a difference of calendars in this contrast. The newcomers headline such issues as reemployment, purchasing power, agricultural and industrial price levels. The Old Guard still harangues about the old-fashioned tariff, the League of Nations and the 1896 model of the "full dinner pail".

In short, the two factions don't think the same thoughts or talk the same language. But the conflicting babel of voices hints that the ancient and honorable G. O. P. is graduating from the political kindergarten where a smattering of partisan "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic" propelled a politician to the head of the class. The G. O. P. is coming of age, socially and economically—so fast as to make FDR beware.

This new open-minded attitude and approach is not accidental or premeditated. The younger clique have been tempered by the times in which they lived and came to political manhood and womanhood. They have been scarred and chastened and awakened by such impacts as their World War experiences, their vicissitudes during the depression, their political exile from high place for four years.

They see and feel problems differently from Old Guardsmen. The elders whom they are dethroning lived remote from such scorching campfires and battlefronts. The Hilleses and Rorabacks and Browns, all near the age of biblical maturity, took these events in their stride; the Landons and Hamiltons and Tafts took them on the chin. And their women—who influence decisions here beyond their most starry-eyed dreams—suffered along with them.

NOW, these ideals and yearnings may not be definitely reflected in the platform or the presidential candidate. Political parties— and administrations—move forward in zigzag fashion. Practical considerations may temper the youngsters as they have marred their elders for so many years. But the Grand Old Party is yeasting; it will never offer the same half-baked bread again to the hungry and forlorn. If President Roosevelt should move further to the left in the campaign or in a prospective second term, the Republican party as now reorienting will homestead, in a nice, legal way, the political acreage which he cultivated and then deserted.

There's another thing about this new generation of post-depression Republicans that accords with their novel political and economical outlook. They have nick-names. Mr. Landon is called "Alf" by friends and strangers, and Mr. Hamilton answers to "Jack". Their New York leaders are "Bob" Bacon and "Clarence" Hancock. Floor Manager Martin of Massachusetts, like the late Speaker Byrns, says "Call me 'Joe'" and means it. The party's gubernatorial candidate in Illinois is "Curly" Brooks, and the Ohio nominee is "Jack" Bricker. In New York it may be "Jimmie" Wadsworth if G. O. P. topnotchers can persuade him.

Shades Of Cal And Herb!

Such informal monikers would have been heresy in the solemn days of Herbert Hoover and Calvin Coolidge.

You can toss aside personalities and platforms at Cleveland. But when the staid, dignified, historic G. O. P. revels in nicknames and songs like 'O, Susanna", it's got something more appealing than a "banjo 'cross its knee."

It's got a party orchestra which is learning how to play popular political ragtime.

NEW YORK

By James McMullin

THE Treasury's efforts to freeze out the "free riders" on its latest billion dollar offering flivvered badly. "Free riders" are small speculators who subscribe to government issues by putting up a small deposit for securities which they do not intend to pay for. Instead they resell their allotment at a quick and easy profit before they receive it. This is a sure thing gamble as long as new Treasury issues are consistently quoted at a premium over the offering price.

These gentry have long been a nuisance to the Treasury. Subscriptions are padded out of all proportion by their synthetic demand—preventing accurate appraisal of over-subscriptions—and their resale activities disturb the government bond market. This time Secretary Morgenthau tried to get rid of them by raising the deposit ante from 5 per cent to 10 per cent and urging bankers and dealers to check up on their customers and hold their own bids down to the amount they actually desired to purchase.

The 10 per cent requirement had no effect at all. The banks and legitimate dealers did as the Treasury requested—with the result that they got smaller allotments than they wanted, while the "riders"—padding their subscriptions as usual—got a larger proportionate allotment than ever before. New York bankers are disgusted and swear they will never cooperate with the Treasury in that way again.

PLUM: New York investment trust circles are all worked up about an obscure and mysterious section in the latest Senate version of the corporate tax bill.

This section provides that "common trusts"—defined in effect as trusts maintained by banks—shall enjoy a tax differential of 15 per cent as against 23 per cent for ordinary investing corporations.

Perhaps the Senate committee didn't realize that some banks have quietly developed sizable investment trusts under their management as distinct from small trusts administered for individuals. These trusts will have an enormous edge on competitors unless the bill is changed. New York observers cannot figure why Congress—having razzed the banks all over the landscape for three years—should now toss such a juicy plum in their laps.

Oil May Rescue Post Scout Camp

(By Staff Corresoondent)

POST, June 10.—Oil may save the South Plains area Boy Scout camp here and enable the backers of the project to complete long cherished plans for a swimming pool and possible other improvements.

In a leasing campaign, started recently, the council was offered $5 an acre for 200 acres, so far unleased. J. Edd McLaughlin, chairman of the council committee looking after the project, turned down the offer, believing it to be worth more than that.

Previously, half of the acreage was leased at $1.50 per acre for 200 acres. It was then decided not to lease the entire tract.

"We need a swimming pool mighty bad," said Marshall Mason, one of the Post men who has worked hard on the camp for many years. "If we can lease the camp for enough, we may be able to build the pool, and do some other improvements. We hope we can get enough for it."

The camp is being used for three weeks this summer. Scouts from all over the area are to spend a week there.

Considerable improvements have been added recently to the camp in the way of making the place better adapted to camping.

An all-time record for motor vehicle registration in California was being written as the year drew to a colse, with 2,195,600 vehicles listed in the first 10 months, compared with 2,107,275 in 1931, the previous record.

Victim Of Brutal Attack At Hempstead Dies Wednesday

HOUSTON, June 10. (AP)—J. E. Gresham, 65, victim of an attack in a lonely railroad pumping station near Hempstead Sunday, died in a hospital here today.

Officers said Gresham was beaten over the head with a pick hantile and then mutilated by his assailant.

Shortly after Gresham was found, J. A. Jenkins, members of his family said, appeared at his home, declared he had attacked Gresham and that he was going to kill himself. He was found shot to death a short time later.

An inquest verdict held Jenkins became deranged, attacked Gresham and then killed himself.

Gresham, a railway workman, and Jenkins, a retired railway employe, had been friends and fishing companions for years.

THE TARZAN TWINS, No. 64 — By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The pace of the pursuing elephant slackened. Though he was swift at short distances, his muscles could not long carry his ponderous body at top speed. Now the tireless Tarzan was gaining, though he knew that his increasing lameness would soon cancel his advantage.

With a final, desperate spurt he attained the tree and leaped upward into the slender branches. The surprised beast stopped short, swayed uncertainly, and surveyed the scene of his failure. Then he raised his trunk in a spasm of furious trumpeting that shook the earth.

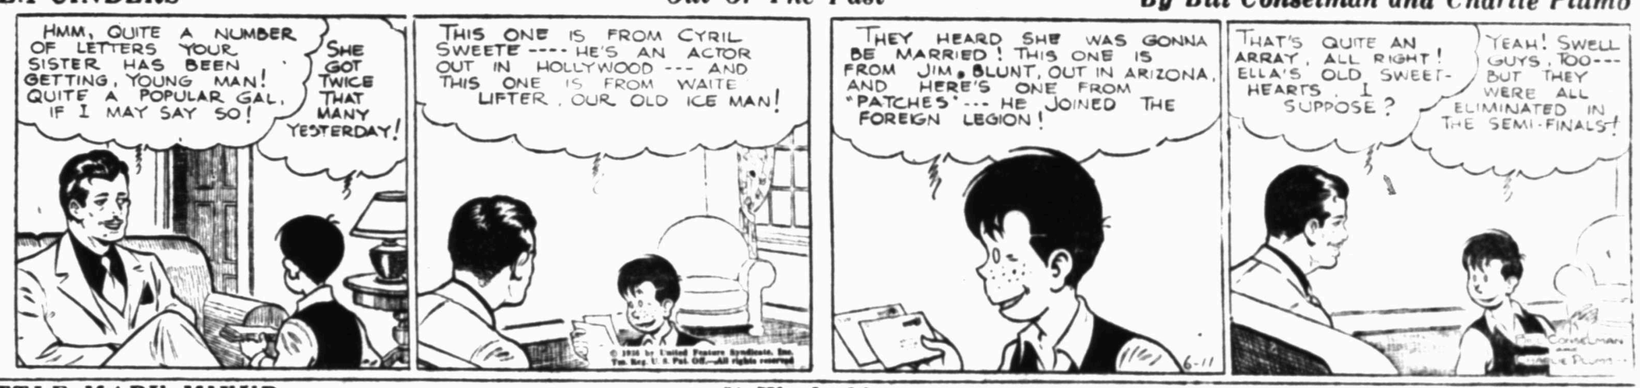

Again Tarzan tried to calm the demon's fury, but he soon saw that this was no temporary madness. The ape-man judged that, either in battle with another elephant or from a falling tree, this beast had received a brain blow which had rendered him permanently mad.

Tarzan believed now he could rest his wounded foot. But Gudah gave no respite to those he had marked for destruction. Slowly he advanced to the tree and wound his trunk around the pole. Then with a mighty heave and tug, the incredible Gudah ripped up the tree!

LEGAL NOTICE

39—Legal Notice

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals, addressed to the Board of Trustees of the Crosbyton Independent School District, Crosbyton, Crosby county, Texas, for the provision and installation of equipment in accordance with the plans, specifications and instructions to bidders, prepared by, and which may be obtained from O. B. Walker, Architect, will be received at the office of the school superintendent until 2 p. m., June 26, 1936 and then publicly opened and read aloud. The Owner has available for this contract approximately $2,500.

The successful bidder will be required to enter into a contract with the Crosbyton Independent School District, which will contain provisions conforming to the requirements of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, as set out in PWA Form No. 166 or 179, or 186 or 200, and revisions thereof, and the special requirements of the State Director, PWA.

A Cashier's or certified check, payable without recourse to the order of Crosbyton Independent School District, or an acceptable Proposal Bond, in an amount not less than five per cent (5%) of the largest possible total bid, including consideration of alternates, must accompany each bid as a guarantee that, if awarded the contract, the bidder will promptly enter into a contract and execute bond in the form provided, as outlined in the specifications and instructions to bidders.

A Performance Bond, in an amount not less than one hundred per cent (100%) of the contract price will be required.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the prevailing rates of wage as established by the Crosbyton Independent School District and as set forth in the specifications must be paid on this project.

The award of the contract shall be conditioned upon funds being made available, and the Crosbyton Independent School District shall have the right to hold the bids for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of the bid opening. No bids may be withdrawn within thirty (30) days from the date of the bid opening. No contract will be awarded until after the State Director, PWA, has authorized an award to be made.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any and-or all bids and-or waive any and-or all formalities.

Plans and specifications may be procured from O. B. Walker, (Architect) upon a deposit of $7.50 as a guarantee of the safe return of the plans and specifications, the full amount of which will be returned to each actual bidder on the return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after receipt of bids. Additional sets of plans and specifications may be procured from the above upon a deposit of $7.50 each, as a guarantee of their safe return within thirty (30) days from date of opening bids, in which event $4.00 (amount of deposit less actual cost of reproduction) of the deposit will be returned.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—Profit-taking jumbled stock market prices today despite buying in scattered rail, utility, merchandise and specialty issues.

A dip in yesterday's strong American Telephone, hesitancy of the steels and a heavy tone displayed by the alcohol group helped to tether the list.

The influence of the Republican convention at Cleveland, marketwise, was a matter of argument between those of different political leanings.

The relatively heavy turnover in low-priced utility stocks brought the day's volume to 1,036,665 shares, the largest since May 27, last. The Associated Press average of 60 issues ended with a net gain of .1 of a point at 62.2.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 10. (AP)—Cotton gave way a few points today in one of the most active sessions in some time as a bearish weekly weather report touched off considerable selling.

When prices had dropped a few points below the previous closing levels, however, a good amount of buying cropped out and held the declines to narrow proportions.

Both selling and buying apparently was done for trade interests.

Price fixing absorbed most of the contracts. There was little evidence of speculative activity, although some long liquidation appeared after the government's weekly weather report.

The federal statement on the crop was more favorable than expected. Texas was said to be in good condition, aside from a part of the coastal area.

July held steady today, closing at 11.60, but final prices of 10.89 for Oct. 10.86 for Dec. and 10.87 for Jan. were from 2 to 4 points lower.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—A considerable volume of realizing was absorbed on declines of 8 or 10 points in cotton today and partial recoveries followed on trade buying. The general market closed steady, net unchanged to 4 points lower.

The weekly report of the weather bureau seemed to be without much effect on the market. There may have been some selling early on report of additional showers in the eastern belt.

Exports today 8,520, making a total of 5,855,109 for the season. Port receipts 4,914. U. S. port stocks 1,584,999.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, June 10. (AP)—The average price of middling cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 11.73 cents a pound.

MIDWESTERN REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, June 10. (AP) (USDA)—Midwestern markets received approximately the same number of cattle as a week ago. In Chicago, strictly prime 1,230-lb. Nebraska fed steers realized 9.75, yearlings averaging 1,035 lbs. turned at 9.00 and choice 915-lb. heifers cashed at 8.50. Around 15 loads of common to medium grass steers were offered in Kansas City with sales ranging from 5.40@6.50.

Both Chicago and St. Louis scored 10.25 the day's top on hogs.

In Chicago, the extreme top for native lambs was noted at 12.25 and Corn Belt yearlings turned at 9.00@9.50, a few choice kinds up to 9.75. Fed shorn California lambs in Omaha sold from 10.25@10.40.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, June 10. (AP) (USDA)—Hogs 1,100; top 9.90 paid by shippers and small killers; packer top 9.40; bulk good to choice 180-280-lb. averages 9.30@9.50; feeder pigs 7.50 down; packing sows 7.25@7.50.

Cattle 2,500; 2 loads choice yearling heifers and truck lot yearlings steers 8.50; most grass steers eligible to 5.25@5.75; cows largely 4.00@5.25; medium bulls around 4.75 down, good fed kinds 5.00; plain and medium calves 4.00@6.00; good to choice 6.25@7.50; good stock steer calves 6.50@7.50.

Sheep 2,500; spring lambs mostly 850@9.00; fat yearlings 6.75@7.25; 2-year-old wethers 5.50 down, feeder lambs 6.50@7.00; feeder yearlings 5.7@6.00.

Grains

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—Wheat prices rallied late today, responsive to strength of Minneapolis and Winnipeg markets and to reports of further need of rain in spring crop areas.

Something of a dip in values earlier followed an authoritative unofficial forecast that Kansas, the banner winter wheat state, would produce around 145,000,000 bushels of wheat this season, indicating a remarkable recent recovery.

The report estimated 1936 probable domestic winter wheat production as totaling 483,000,000 bushels, against June private estimates averaging 501,000,000 bushels.

Wheat closed firm at the same as yesterday's finish to ¼ cent higher, July 84⅛@84⅜, Sept. 85⅛@85½, Dec. 87¼@87⅜, corn ⅜ off to ⅜ up, July 61⅜@61½, Sept. 58¼@58⅜, Dec. 52¾, oats ⅛ to ¼ advanced, July 24⅝, and rye showing ⅛ to ⅜ bulge, July 54½@54⅝. In provisions, the outcome was unchanged to a rise of 12 cents.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, June 10. (AP)—Demand for grain here today was slightly better. Wheat No. 1 hard old 1.03¼@1.04¼, new 95¼@97¼. Barley No. 2 nom. 44@46. No. 3 nom. 43@45. Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. nom. 1.02@1.04. No. 3 milo nom. 1.00@1.02. No. 2 white kafir nom. 1.04@1.06; No. 3 kafir nom. 1.02@1.04. Corn, shelled, No. 2 white 82@83. No. 2 yellow 76@79. Oats No. 2 red 33¼@34½. No. 3 red 32½@33½.

Annual Railroad Week Is To Be Observed On July 13-18

Second annual railroad week, sponsored by the western railroads, will be observed the week of July 13-18, E. Kancher, division freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe, said yesterday.

James M. Willson, Floydada lumberman there and outgoing district governor of the 41st district of International Rotary, will speak before the Lubbock Rotary club July 15, in observance of the week.

Local railroad men, both of the Santa Fe and Fort Worth & Denver, probably will arrange for speakers before the various civic clubs of this section during the week, the same as last year. Definite announcement has not been made of this program.

Black-Draught Relief Is Prompt And Refreshing

It's a good idea that so many people have—to keep Black-Draught handy so they can take a dose for prompt relief at the first sign of constipation.

"I have used Black-Draught a long time, about as long as I can remember, and have a package on my shelf now," writes Mr. Sherman Sneed, of Evensville, Tenn. "I take Black-Draught for constipation which causes headache, a bad, tired feeling and for billousness, bad taste in the mouth and sluggish feeling. Black-Draught taken about two nights, clears up this trouble and I get all right."

Black-Draught is made of medicinal herbs, dried and finely ground, but no other change in their natural condition. It is a laxative that men and women like so well because of the refreshing relief it brings in constipation troubles.—Adv.

Revision Of WPA Employment Rolls In Area Begun; Interviews Are Held

Revision of Works Progress administration employment rolls by personal contact with 2,500 persons was begun by officials with interviews in Lubbock, Plainview and Crosbyton Wednesday. Persons certified but not at present working on projects will be interviewed.

Cooperation of all public officials with the Lubbock district office in getting work relief persons to attend the interviews on the dates set at the various places throughout the 15 counties was asked by A. J. Delahunty, supervisor of the division of employment.

"It is important that persons listed by the WPA receive notification," Delahunty said, adding that failure of individuals to be present at the appointed time would indicate their unwillingness to remain on WPA employment rolls.

Officials in charge of interviews are Miss Adeline Ziegenhals, Miss Pauline Turlington, Mrs. Albert G. Walker, Miss Evelyn Richter, R. T. Brandenburg, E. E. Kerr and E. B. Sanders.

The following places will serve as centers for the recertification program: Lubbock June 11 and 12 at the relief office in 1300-block on Avenue G; Slaton, June 13, WPA sewing room; Hockley county, June 18 at Levelland, WPA sewing room; Cochran county, June 16 at Morton, courthouse.

Crosby county; Dickens county, June 11 at Spur, WPA sewing room; Motley county, June 12 at Matador, relief office; Hall county, June 13 at Memphis, courthouse, and at Turkey, WPA sewing room; Briscoe county, June 15 at Quitaque, WPA sewing room, and at Silverton, courthouse; Floyd county, June 16 at Lockney, WPA sewing room, and at Floydada, courthouse.

Hale county, June 11 at Plainview, WPA office; Swisher county, June 12 at Tulia, courthouse; Castro county June 13 at Dimmitt, courthouse; Parmer county, June 15 at Farwell, courthouse, and at Friona, WPA office at the gin; Bailey county, June 16 at Muleshoe, WPA office at the courthouse; and Lamb county, June 17 at Olton, courthouse, and at Littlefield, relief office.

Gaines Test Is Down 4,689 Feet

Drilling in hard, gray lime at below 4,689 feet, much increased interest is being manifested in the Landredth Production Corp. No. 1 W. H. Kirk in southern Gaines county as a 14-foot recovery of cores from 4,674 to 4,688 feet was reported.

The core hole is being reamed and it is the intention of operators to go deeper with cores. Latest cores were said to have been hard gray lime with a slight sulphur odor but no saturation.

The Kirk test, a rank wildcat, is believed nearing the horizon in which oil or gas pay or water may be expected. Last showing of saturation was in a two-foot core recovery from 4,540 to 4,552 feet. Cores from 4,625-30 were uniformly hard gray lime, showing no porosity.

The test is in the southwest corner of section 22, block A-21, public school lands. Nearest production is the Means ranch pool in North Central Andrews county. The test is about midway between the ranch and the No. 1 Averitt, three miles northwest of Seminole.

Bowen's Drug Is Modernized

Complete Modernization Is Made Of Fountain, Food Service And Store; New Equipment Is Added

An appliance which employs infra red rays to fry steaks is only one of many almost ultra modern electrical devices which has been installed at Bowen's Drug store, 1021 Broadway.

Complete modernization of the fountain and food services of the drug store were included in a modernization program recently finished and featured by the installation of air-conditioning equipment, the drug store managers said.

Other Equipment Added

In addition to the unique steak frying equipment, the new food and fountain dispensaries have been augmented with an automatic bread toaster, an electrically controlled steam hamper for soaping, washing and rinse-sterilizing dishes; a conditioner which has seven walls of chemicals to remove minerals and solids from all water used; and a new, chromium-lined carbonator.

Of brisque-rose and verde antique color scheme, a 33-foot marble fountain has been installed with service appointments chromium and streamlined. Each compartment is electrically refrigerated. Sixteen persons can be seated at the new fountain.

Temperature Remains Cool

Temperatures of 18 degrees or more cooler than outside air are maintained inside through use of washed air and wind tunnels. A complete change of air each minute and a half is provided by the approximately 12,000 cubic feet of air handled per minute by the equipment.

The new equipment has been added to improve services which supplement complete stocks of drugs and a variety of merchandise and prescriptions. The Bowen's Drug store is one of two in Lubbock, and was established in March, 1923. R. J. Brock, for many years general manager and W. E. Doigg, who came here from Dallas three months ago as assistant manager, are in charge.

Production Credit Managers Hold Meet In Sweetwater

Production credit association managers and directors from a number of sections of West Texas are to meet in Sweetwater July 15-16 for a regional conference, one of a series, Wade W. Cooper, manager of the Lubbock Production Credit association announces.

Midland, Sweetwater, Coleman and Stamford associations are to meet in Sweetwater for a two day gathering. Officials of the Houston Farm Credit administration will meet with them. The program has not been completed said Mr. Cooper.

The Sweetwater meeting is to be one of a series to be held over the state. Amarillo will probably have one of the North Panhandle area.

CORNS REMOVED WITH CASTOR OIL

Say goodbye to clumsy corn-pads and risky razors. A new liquid called NOXACORN ends pain in 60 seconds. Dries up peskiest corns or callus. Contains pure castor oil, camphor and corn-aspirin. Absolutely safe. Winner of Good Housekeeping Seal. Easy directions on label. 35c bottle saves untold misery. Druggist returns money if NOXACORN fails to remove any corn or callus.

Why Gulf has a new Gas for June

THIS IS GRADUATION MONTH—and the month to graduate to Gulf! For Gulf is out with a new summer gas—the chemical formula of which is actually changed to fit June weather in this locality. Without such a change, your fuel won't burn completely—part of it goes out your exhaust unburned, wasted. But because That Good Gulf is "Kept in Step with the Calendar"—all of it goes to work, none of it goes to waste. Get Gulf for top June mileage—at the Sign of the Orange Disc.

Enrollment At Tech Is 1,380

Large Number Of Students Expected To Register Later This Week; Class Work Is Begun Wednesday

Number of persons to register for the first summer session at Texas Technological college totaled 1,380 Wednesday afternoon. Many students had completed the procedure in time to attend classes Wednesday.

A large number of students are expected to register yet. Persons wishing to register are to go first to the registrar's office on the first floor of the administration building.

City Commission Is To Hold Regular Meet This Afternoon

Only a few matters of routine business, including third and final reading on an Avenue L paving ordinance and last reading on an ordinance establishing the city board of tax equilization, were listed Wednesday for discussion this afternoon at the City commission meeting. Two proposed traffic ordinances, now in the hands of City Attorney Durwood H. Bradley, will not be presented for a second passage pending further detailed study.
