Area Youth Show They Are Responsible

Spooks of all ages were in Earth Friday night for all the chilling excitment and gaiety that comes with Halloween night.

As a general trend Halloween brings a wave of damage to property across the nation. This was not the picture here, as no destructive damage has been reported in the Earth area. Parents, businessmen, and community residents are proud of the attitude shown by their youth.

Most of the youngsters enjoyed Halloween in the form of the football game, Halloween Carnival or trick-or-treating with their parents or friends.

The community is proud of it's youth who showed they can have fun at Halloween without destructive "tricks."

Starkes Attends Band Clinic

An area Band Clinic and Workshop for more than forty area band directors was held Saturday in Amarillo. The event was sponsored by the May Duncan Music Company.

Dr. Middleton, a representative of the University of Tulsa, Oklahoma, was guest speaker for the clinic. Dr. Middleton spent the day giving an extensive lecture and personal comments on "The Better Impulse Techniques. Middleton gave helpful hints on proper diaphram breathing which will produce a warm pleasing tone in musical selections.

The area directors also voted to form a "Greater Southwest Music Festival" similar to those held in Enid, Oklahoma, Six Flags, and Corpus Christi. The first festival is planned for 1971.

Representing the Earth area was Jerry Starkes band director at Springlake-Earth School.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Long of San Jose, California visited in the home of Mrs. Henry Lewis last week. Long is a nephew to Mrs. Lewis.

BAND SWEETHEART.. Gloria Stephens was announced as Band Sweetheart Friday night in activities at the Springlake-Sudan game. Gloria was presented a lovely bouquet by band member, Kirby Kelley.

Please Take Action, We Need The Address Of Servicemen

Several area people responded to a plea last week by the News-Sun to bring in the names and addresses of our men in Service. However, as usual there are still several people perhaps putting it off until tomorrow.

These boys are always anxious to receive mail and gifts from home. This is your chance to see that hundreds of people in the area have the opportunity to remember our Servicemen during the Forthcoming Holidays.

It takes only a short time to turn in any name and address of our boys in Service. So please do so without delay. The News-Sun will publish all names of our Service men in the very near future. This is done to enable those wishing to share the Holidays with our men in Service to do so.

This foolish confusion of some "for" and this "against" the USA effort in Vietnam should encourage us to double our efforts to assure our men we are behind them, we appreciate and love them. That their many sacrifices are not overlooked by the majority of Americans.

BRING YOUR ADDRESS IN TODAY!

NOSIN... WITH POLLY

Sunrise... Sunset... Sunrise.. Sunset days have passed by and grouped into years slipped quietly by into decades. Then finally a half century is passed, but the once young man who served in France during World War I still remembers clearly that Armistice day so long ago.

During this span of years, Mr. Koontz has seen many, many changes. His children have grown up and married, a hush seems to linger over his home that once echoed with the laughter of children.

Of all his storehouse of memories, that one so long ago when his group was told that Armistice was signed and the war was over stands out so clear in his mind.

There was unbelief at first by some of the men who had endured so much. When the final realization that the war was over, he said, there were wounded men who had been unable to walk for months were so happy they sprang from their beds and jumped four feet high, so thrilled were they to know that "the war was over."

Coach Dean Wright who predicted that the school acceditation team would not visit any of the rooms, was needless to say, surprised, Thursday when he looked up to see a member of the team entering his classroom.

As usual, Wright's room was the first class they visited. They continued to stay for a full 40 minutes.

Wrights comments were, "they stayed so long, I nearly ran out of soap."

The moral of this story is, if you say they "won't" they "do".

"NOSIN"

I'm not really a real full fledged grandmother but I am running a pretty close race, I'm a Godmother. My lovely little friend, the former Sherry Hutto, who will be remembered by several in the area as the smiling little ad sales gal for the News-Sun called Thursday night to say she was a mother. She and Hubby, Woodie Smith are glowing with Happiness over their beautiful little daughter.

VETERAN'S DAY...

May We Long Remember ...

This day, Veterans Day, November 11, 1969, was first observed as Armistice Day. Silence had fallen across Europe at 11:00 A. M. November 11, 1918, ending World War I. This is still a day of hope, fifty-one years having passed since that eventful day.

Over 4½ million men represented the United States during this great conflict, World War I. Over 126,000 men would not be coming home, having paid the supreme sacrifice for their country. They were remembered in services beginning on November 11, 1921. In 1926, Armistice Day was the official name given this day of observation. In 1938 Congress proclaimed the date a legal public holiday.

The hopes and dreams of mankind were shattered just one year later, in 1939, when World War II began. America again responded to the challenge. Over 16 million men were called to forsake peaceful pursuits and bear arms for the protection of our allies.

Twice since that date, Americans have come to the aid of oppressed people, once in Korea, and now in Vietnam. When communist forces invaded Korea and South Vietnam, we came to the aid of those suffering people who had visions of living in a land that was free.

We Americans still maintain hope for peace in the world today, even though battles continue to rage in the jungles of Vietnam. We will not accept a peace of slavery, but a peace of honor and dignity.

As we observe Veterans Day 1969, we pause to remember the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, a symbol of all American fighting men who paid with their lives, that the living might enjoy enduring freedom. More than one million men have given their lives in this endeavor.

Veterans of all wars of the United States now number more than 39 million. Of this number, there are some 414,000 woman veterans. There are more than 27 million of these veterans alive today. We have a tremendous responsibility and owe a great debt to these veterans who have given us our dearly cherished freedom.

To this very special group of Americans, we owe a pledge of assurance that we are worthy of the many sacrifices they have made and are making at this moment, in order that we may remain a free nation.

We face the future with confidence and hope that world peace will come because of the actions and deeds of our veterans of past wars and our men who fight today on the battlefields of Vietnam.

Veterans Day, 1969, we salute those heroes of past wars and our fighting men of today, who are preserving our democracy. We honor those who died for freedom's sake, and we pledge to those who live that we will remember with reverence their contributions to our freedom.

Springlake-Earth School Passes Accreditation Board With Flying Colors

Springlake-Earth School was given the official stamp of approval by a five member accreditation Board who spent the entire day Thursday going over every phase of school business they so desired.

Bill Whitt, head of the five man Board from the Accreditation Division of Texas Educational Agency in Austin said this was the first time since 1967 that his team had approved a school on their very first visit. He explained that in '67 his team approved Tulia schools on their first visit. In most cases there are a few things that must be improved before the school is subject for approval, he explained.

The team first toured the school buildings before separating to study the various phases of the schools operation. They visited various classes to acquaint themselves with the teaching procedure at Springlake-Earth.

The teaching equipment, faculty qualifications, certificates and credentials were all found to be in good order. Each teacher was found to have a sufficient number of hours to qualify for each position on the local staff.

Of major interest to the accreditation board was the academic program provided by Springlake-Earth. The local school was found to be okey in this category. The tax structure was also studied by the group.

The group complimented the local school on their fine group of young teachers. They gave special praise to the local math, science and language arts departments.

Superintendent Bill Mann, said they had worked to get ready for the Board but their work was concentrated on the small improvements around the school. He explained they did not attempt, nor could they have changed the bigger things around the school.

The over-all appearance of the campus has changed from a poorly kept school to that of a beautiful well kept campus, one can be reasonably certain that the entire school system has changed for the better in the past few years.

HALLOWEEN TRANSFORMATION. almost everyday this young lad can be seen riding his bicycle up and down the side walk or assisting his dad, Dave Cavitt with a family project--until, Halloween night, the official night, of witches, goblins and ghosts and like all the youth of our town they are transformed. This fellow took on the appearance of a semi pirate-ghost.

Truck Overturns North Of Earth

A 1968 GM Truck and trailer driven by Billy Mac Templeton of Sudan overturned 3½ miles north of Earth on farm-to-market road 1055.

The truck driven by Templeton and owned by Forbes Tatum Trucking of Littlefield was loaded with beet pulp headed for Sudan Feedlots near Sudan. The truck was traveling south on FM 1055 when the driver ran off the right side of the highway and lost control. The trailer overturned on it's left side and skidded 50 feet before the truck came to a stop blocking the highway.

There were no injuries sustained from the accident.

Weldon Parsons of the Littlefield Highway Patrol, investigating officer, gave a conservative damage estimate of $7,500.

Patrolmen were able to clear the highway of the cab shortly after the mishap, but hampered by rain and snow the trailer portion of the truck was left on the side of the highway until it could be removed from the scene of the accident Sunday morning.

The first seed of a State bank was planted in 1160. The Venetian Government borrowed 150,000 silver marks from important merchants to finance it.

The first issue of government bonds took place in Venice. The year was 1171. A forced loan of one per-cent on net incomes was instituted. The bonds paid four per-cent.

By 1300 the city was already using bills of exchange. This was their method of sending money to representatives abroad.

Loans were made by Venetian bankers to ship owners. This was called "bottomry." The risk was great, so the interest was correspondingly high. The average interest was around twenty per-cent.

Various bankripteies among private bankers in 1502, led to government action. A Supervisor of Banks was appointed.

B. Watson, senior vice-president and general counsel for the Gas Company. The gate rate will apply to cities on Pioneers West Texas System only, and will have no immediate effect on the current gas rate to consumers.

MRS. EDDIE MOUDY
(formerly Miss Beth Dent)

Wedding Vows Unite Beth Dent - Eddie Moudy

Miss Beth Dent and Eddie Moudy exchanged nuptial vows Friday evening, October 31 at 6:00 p. m. in the Earth Church of Christ.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dent of Earth and Mr. and Mrs. Foy Moudy of Happy.

Bill Looney, minister of the Church of Christ in Happy officiated the double ring ceremony.

The impressive ceremony was performed before an archway garlanded with tropical foliage, enhanced with large cranberry and pink satin bows, and flanked on each side by spiraled candlabras holding long lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her father L. H. Dent, the bride was adorned in a wedding gown of delustered satin trimmed in Alencon lace enriched by pearl and sequin tracery. The empire bodice was accented with lace petals. Her detachable chapel train featured a border of pearls and sequin with Alencon lace. The bride was veiled in a flowing Mantilla attached to a queens crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet fashioned in French carnations and stephanotis, centered with a white gardenia atop a white sented by a choral group from Hereford. Soloist was Judy Hollingsworth of Lubbock Christian College. Selections were "Whither Thou Goest," "Twelfth of Never," and "Father Hear the Prayer We Offer."

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Jerry Don Sanders of Lubbock. Mrs. Sanders formal dress of cranberry crepe was styled along an empire line with matching bows which held a semi circle veil. She carried cranberry colored roses enhanced by a pink lace fan.

Donnie Laughlin of Hereford served as bestman.

Ushers were Mark Moudy, brother of the groom Tom Moudy, cousin of the groom and Dale Dent, brother of the bride.

HD Clubs Study Detergents, Cost and Measurements For Laundry

Today's consumers have to be mathematicians to be good managers. Home demonstartion club woman are learning this by finding out what kind of detergent and how much they need, to get good results in their laundering.

Mrs. Lady Clare Phillips, Co. Home Demonstration Agent says, buy the cheapest detergent, carefully measure it when washing and soften the water for best results.

The water in this area is very hard, making it necessary to use more detergent than less hard water.

The homemaker who wants to know how much water softener to use may try this test. Put 1 gallon of hot water in a container with teaspoon of softener. Stir until completely dissolved.

Prepare 3 clean quart jars. Put 2 cups of the hot water solution in each. Then add 1/8 teaspoon detergent to the first jar, ¼ teaspoon detergent to the second, and ½ teaspoon of detergent to the third jar. Shake each jar vigorously for ten seconds to create a mass of suds. Let them stand for 5 minutes. If the suds stand up for five minutes the water is softened. If the one-half teaspoon of softener does not soften the water, repeat the test by using one teaspoon softener per gallon.

Misuse of bleaching can cause damage to clothing. Correct proportions of detergent in soft or softened water, adequate water temperature, correct wash cycle, and thorough rinsing combine to clean clothes satisfactorily.

Price per ounce is not the entire story to a good buy since detergent is used by the cup, and some brands weigh more a cup than others. High sudsing detergents weigh anywhere from 2-½ to 3-½ ounces per cup and low sudsing ones weigh 4-½ to 5-½ ounces per cup.

It takes more of some detergents than others to do an effective job of cleaning. If one brand costs 4 cents a cup and it requires a cup and a half, it will cost you just as much as another brand that sells for eight cents a cup but only requiring three-fourths of a cup.

Pre-treatment of oily soils on polyester and permanent press items is absolutely necessary.

Carefully measuring of all cleaning products means better cleaning and better management.

Look at instructions on cleaners and figure out how you might plan more wisely with each. This is the program home demonstration club women are studying this month.

Joe Gibson of Canyon spent the week end visiting in the home of the J. T. Gibsons.

Hornets Sting Wolverines 17-13

The Sudan Hornets nudged the Springlake-Earth Wolverines out of the race for the top spot in district play Friday night in a close hard fought contest, 17-13.

Sudan got possession of the football on the opening kickoff and marched down field to the Wolverine 16 yard line, where Jerry Bellar kicked a field goal, giving the Hornets a 3-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Wolverines scored in the last minute of play in the second quarter, with Terry Bridge going over from one yard out. Bridge kicked the extra point, and the score at half-time was Wolverines 7-Hornets 3.

The second half saw a lot of ball control and numerous fumbles by both teams.

The third quarter seemed to be a lucky quarter for the Hornets who scored following a fumble by the Wolverines on the Hornets 42 yard line. After two first downs, Larry Hanna traveled the final 11 yards for the Hornets first touchdown, Bellar kicked the point after, puting the Hornets in the lead 10-7.

The Hornets scored again in the third quarter, after an interception. Following two first downs, Hanna went over the goal line again, giving the Sudan fans a thrill and a moment to breathe more easily. Bellar convented. With the quarter ending, the score was then Hornets 17-Wolverines 7.

In the fourth quarter the Wolverines managed to get on the scoreboard once more, with a 44 yard pass play from Mike Cleavinger to Steve Sanderson, who went over for the touchdown. The two point conversion try was no good.

The game ended with the Hornets in possession of the ball, and the score Sudan Hornets 17-Springlake-Earth Wolverines 13.

The Hornets had 202 yards rushing, with Wolverines rushing for 185 yards, and passing for 51 yards for a total of 236 yards.

TONY BARTON-No. 32, is in 7th place in district scoring this week. In the game against Sudan he had 97 yards rushing. Hoyt Glasscock, No. 10, is in 10th place in the scoring column.

Jehovah's Witnessess To Receive Counsel On Family Living

A program designed to increase appreciation for the Bible and its modern-day application will be featured at the 3-day convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Plainview this weekend. Members of the local congregation here will attend all of the sessions in the Plainview High School Auditorium with meetings locally having been cancelled.

Whole families from here will be in attendance, according to Loyd Lowery, presiding minister of the local congregation.

"In a world in which many families are plagued with disunity, problems and even tragedies, Jehovah's Witnesses considerately set aside a portion of the assembly program to present timely information to parents on family living, Lowery said. "The program in Plainview will feature Bible talks, dramatizations and symposiums centered on the theme 'Right Kind of Ministers' with much counsel directed to parents and children alike on how each one can serve their Creator in these troublesome times", he added.

The convention in Plainview will include a baptism of new ministers which Jehovah's Witnesses believe signifies the ordination of those baptized.

The assembly highlight will feature a talk by the main speaker Mr. L.M. Dugan from New York, who will speak on the subject, "True Worship Versus the False."
